Chapter 8761

Ye Chen looked at the back of the moral God gone away, frowned slightly, and looked aside at the jade lotus female emperor, and said, "little lotus... No, jade lotus female emperor, did you practice this green lotus holy casting method?"

The jade lotus lady shook her head helplessly and said, "no, I've been practicing hard for millions of years, but I just touched a little fur."

"If you are interested, you can take away the green lotus casting holy method."

"If this thing stays, it is also a disaster. Alas, many forces in God's heaven have died in order to snatch this skill. It's best if you can take it away."

After saying this, she went to the mysterious Sarcophagus, bent down and gently picked the green lotus on the ground and handed it to Ye Chen.

The mystery of green lotus casting holy Dharma is all in it.

Ye Chen finally got the holy casting method of green lotus, and his heart couldn't help but be excited.

It doesn't matter whether he can practice and cast the holy body of green lotus.

What's important is that ye Chen's heart was much calmer without this skill being obtained by the ancestor of Tianxin.

As long as the ancestor of Tianxin has no physical body and is only a spiritual body, it is difficult for him to exert the real power of Tianbei.

After getting the holy casting method of Qinglian, ye Chen looked at the mysterious sarcophagus on the altar next to him.

The sarcophagus is full of ancient inscriptions, which shows the meaning of vicissitudes. When ye Chen stares at the sarcophagus, he can still feel that his reincarnation blood sends out waves of resonance.

"What is in the sarcophagus?"

Ye Chen's eyes slightly coagulated and asked the jade lotus lady emperor.

"It's a spiritual bone."

The jade lotus female emperor said.

Ye Chen: "spirit bone?"

The jade lotus lady said, "yes, it is the spirit bone of the Lord of reincarnation in the tomb palace."

"At that time, the reincarnation Lord had predicted that his plan would fail."

"The power of reincarnation book is so terrible that he hasn't even soared. How can he control it?"

"He estimated that he might die, so he left a spiritual bone in advance, which is an opportunity for future generations."

"Although this spiritual bone is not the bone of the emperor of heaven, it also contains the Tao of reincarnation, which has a great gain effect on future generations of reincarnation inheritors, such as you."

Ye Chen said, "so what is in this sarcophagus is a reincarnation spirit bone?"

The jade lotus female emperor said, "yes, in those days, the remnant incarnation of the God of light, carrying the sarcophagus into the divine heaven, and burying the sarcophagus here is to bury this opportunity for future generations. It seems that you are this fate."

The God of light has already fallen. The person who carried the coffin in those days was not his real body, but his afterthought incarnation.

Ye Chen walked forward slowly, gently stroked the sarcophagus and said, "it's a reincarnation spirit bone, can I take it away?"

The jade lotus lady said, "yes, I've heard the oracle of the God of light. He said you can take this spiritual bone at any time."

"However, you should note that if you take away this spirit bone, it is equivalent to carrying the cause and effect of the reincarnation book. In the future, the involvement of cause and effect fate between you and the reincarnation book is doomed to be cut off."

Ye Chen thought that from the moment he came into contact with the tomb palace, he and the reincarnation book were doomed to be involved in cause and effect. That was the fate that the future could not escape. It was unpredictable.

"Yes, then I'll take the spirit bone."

Ye Chen took a deep breath and promised that there would be unexpected blessings and disasters in the future. Now the opportunity in front of him, naturally, he couldn't help it.

At that moment, ye Chen opened the sarcophagus, and sure enough, he saw a spiritual bone buried in the sarcophagus, with gold runes floating faintly on it, and the breath of reincarnation surged.

If you fuse this spirit bone, ye Chen's reincarnation blood may grow a little.

.....

This is the end of the battle surrounding the holy method of green lotus casting.

Ye Chen was quite satisfied with the final harvest.

He not only got the holy casting method of green lotus, but also got a piece of reincarnation spirit bone, and even probably found out the strength of Tianxin Laozu, which was not invincible.

Even more, the ban on the tablet of God sealing by the emperor of heaven has been completely lifted!

After coming out of the abyss of destruction, ye Chen said goodbye to the jade lotus female emperor, took Ji Siqing, and returned to the star moon realm.

In the star moon circle, ye Yishen, Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue, Zha Tianmo emperor and others are still preparing a breakthrough ceremony for ye Chen.

Ye Chen attacked the celestial realm. At that time, in the absence of time and space, the giant is likely to come at dusk.

It's not an ordinary strong man, but one of the cores of the death cult. It's very strong.

In order to fight against possible threats, the reincarnation camp naturally needs to be fully prepared.

In the past, Yan luodaojun, the king of hell, the Buddha of truth, the king of all living beings, Shentu Waner, the master of the demon palace, Yunjin and shanrou sisters, and many friends of the reincarnation camp came from all directions, and they also worked together to prepare for ye Chen's breakthrough.

It is estimated that the ceremony will be completely prepared in three days.

At that time, ye Chen will officially attack the Tianxuan realm!

This time, there will be no accidents.

The time to attack the Tianxuan realm is coming. Ye Chen is also very nervous and looking forward to it.

"I don't know what kind of state the emperor of heaven is."

Ye Chen thought leisurely, although at present, with his strength, even the masters in the later stage of Wuliang can fight.

But no matter how, his real cultivation, after all, only the peak of the hundred flail realm, there are many laws and principles, because the cultivation realm is not enough, he can never fully understand.

If you can ascend to the mysterious realm of heaven, ye Chen estimates that his combat effectiveness will soar rapidly.

Chapter 8762

At that time, it is not impossible to break through some realm, cooperate with the bottom card and a certain amount of luck, meet the goddess and defeat her.

Shaking his head, ye Chen converged. Now the most important thing is to prepare for the impact realm.

"Three days later, it is the day of the official impact and breakthrough."

"While there is still a little time, first refine the tablet of the heavenly king and seal the gods."

Ye Chen found a secluded place in the star moon world, offered a sacrifice to the heavenly star of wish, and then flew to the planet to meditate and cultivate enlightenment.

Previously, although Ye Chen received the tablet of the emperor of heaven, he has never been able to fully refine and control it because of the existence of the dark prohibition.

Now, all the dark prohibitions have dissipated, and ye Chen has the possibility of complete control.

I hope that ye Chen's aura will work on the sky and release the tablet of heavenly monarch.

The ancient stone tablet, blooming with a gentle divine awn, no longer has a little dark flavor fluctuations, the whole stone tablet presents an atmosphere, vastness, and boundless aura.

That majestic heritage, and even gathered into a golden dragon, rose into the sky, the wind and cloud roared, quite spectacular.

Ye Chen narrowed her eyes slightly, bit her fingertips, and forced a drop of blood essence to drop on the tablet of the God of heaven.

When his blood essence drips down, that drop of blood is absorbed silently by the tablet of the emperor of heaven.

Hum!

After absorbing Ye Chen's blood essence, the tablet of the God of heaven immediately burst into an unprecedented bright light, shining like a scorching sun.

The refining process was smoother than ye Chen had imagined. Almost a drop of blood went on, and he established close contact with the God of heaven.

The tablet of the God of the heavenly king seemed to become a part of Ye Chen's body, and he could control and urge at will.

Boom!

Ye Chen tried to urge the heavenly monarch to seal the gods. The stone tablet flew out, and the violent aura exploded, breaking the void. It turned out to be a mysterious field in the void.

This field is called the realm of gods, and the blockade effect is very powerful.

In the field, all kinds of sky fires and thunder explode, violent storms and snow roar, and there are also time-space turbulence, and the killing is extremely terrifying.

This is the means of attacking and killing the tablet of the emperor of heaven.

The word "Feng Shen" means not only canonization, but also blockade and seal.

The tablet of the God of heaven is not only the effect of blessing. If it is used as an attack, the lethality is also very terrible.

"Very good, very good, with the tablet of the emperor of heaven, my combat effectiveness has been raised to a higher level!"

Ye Chen smiled at the corners of her mouth.

However, he cares more about the effect of the blessing of good fortune than the attack and killing power of the tablet of the God of heaven.

Glancing at the body of the stele, ye Chen saw that the names of himself and the goddess of heaven had been completely erased because of the great tomb divine sword that resisted the beacon fire spirit ancestor.

There are also several names he doesn't know, which should be left by the owner of the former God tablet of the emperor of heaven.

There are only two names that ye Chen can recognize in the whole tablet of the emperor of heaven.

One is Wutian, the other is Ren Feifan.

In fact, ye Chen wanted to erase the name of Mo Zu Wutian for a long time, but he couldn't do anything because he hadn't completely controlled the stone tablet before.

Now, ye Chen completely controlled the stone tablet, and naturally he was not polite, directly erasing the name of demon Zu Wutian.

In fact, he also knew that it was no longer effective to erase the name of demon Zu Wutian.

Because the demon ancestor has no heaven, he doesn't need the blessing of the Tianjun gods tablet. Behind him is the blessing of the Tianmo Xinghai. That magic weapon is much more powerful than the Tianjun gods tablet, and it is one of the four Supreme artifacts.

The fate of tiannv is similar.

Today's tiannv, who has secret cooperation with Hongjun's ancestor, is about to get the seal of the Yan Emperor, and does not need to rely on the protection of the Tianjun Fengshen tablet.

Ye Chen's eyes finally fell on Ren Feifan's name.

Ren extraordinary's name has been covered with ashes.

That's the ash robbing energy of the reincarnation book in legend!

Ye Chen recalled that before, using the power of the emperor Tianquan, he was almost eaten by the ashes of the reincarnation book, and he couldn't help but sweat secretly.

It was Ren Feifan's name that stopped the killing of reincarnation Book robbery ash for him.

Now Ren extraordinary's name is full of ashes and completely submerged by the looting ashes.

Those ashes, which are completely integrated with the tablet of the emperor of heaven, seem to be a black scar, which is left on the clean stone tablet and looks very dazzling.

Ye Chen tried to clean up the ashes, but he couldn't do it anyway.

But the existence of ashes did not make him feel any discomfort.

It seems that all the negative effects have been borne by Ren extraordinary.

"Master Ren guarded me again."

Ye Chen was very grateful, thinking that he would repay Ren Feifan anyway in the future.

After calming down, ye Chen offered another green lotus, and the aura poured into it. The green lotus decomposed and turned into mysterious magic characters, suspended in front of Ye Chen.

It is said that this holy casting method of green lotus is a divine skill handed down from the beginning of the universe.

Since the birth of the avenue of truth and the opening of time and space, the first creature born is not a human being, but a green lotus.

The birth of green lotus has opened up chaos, opened up space and time, and opened up the first world.

From this first world, out of a God, later known as the God of grass.

Grass God is a kind of power, which is inherited from generation to generation, like reincarnation.

It is said that the holy casting method of green lotus was created by the God of grass.

Chapter 8763

When the God of grass was just born, it was just a grass, very weak.

She is eager to grow and become as powerful as the green lotus of creation, strong enough to open the chaotic sky.

Therefore, she created the green lotus holy casting method, which is to cast a green lotus holy body for herself and get rid of the weak destiny.

But she failed.

Although she created the holy method of green lotus casting, even she herself could not practice successfully.

Because the green lotus casting holy Dharma reposes all her wishes, about growth, about strength, about guarding.

As long as it is a wish, it is often impossible to achieve.

Therefore, this holy method of green lotus casting has never been practiced by anyone in the world, not even the former founder and the early grass God.

Cao Shen was helpless and continued to look for ways to become stronger.

Later, she met yuantiandi.

Yuantian emperor traveled through many time and space, and saw the God of grass in the time and space where he was first born.

Cao Shen said that she wanted to be strong.

Yuan Tiandi said, go to fight. From the killing of blood and fire, you can become powerful.

The God of grass said, take me out.

Yuan Tiandi nodded and brought the grass God of the early generation out of the original world to the extremely chaotic space-time outside.

In return, the God of grass cast the holy method of green lotus and presented it to Yuan Tiandi.

Later, Yuantian Emperor gave this skill to his servant Huang Chongguang, who was later the God of light.

Unfortunately, the light God Tianzun could not practice this skill, and even suffered backfire.

This holy method of green lotus casting reposes the original wish of the world, which is the desire to become strong and support the space and time of heaven and earth alone.

Ye Chen realized the holy method of green lotus casting, and all kinds of causal past also flooded into his heart one by one.

He even glimpsed the appearance of Yuan Tiandi under the insight of heaven's secrets. As expected, he was like an aging himself.

"Yuan Tiandi is an old me, who am I?"

Ye Chen was in a trance like a dream. He was stunned for a long time before he came back to his senses and shook his head.

"Well, it's useless to think about these things, but they may disturb the heart of the Tao."

"If the Yuantian emperor is really related to me, when I reach the realm, I will naturally know."

Ye Chen calmed down and tried to understand the holy casting method of green lotus.

However, this holy casting method of green lotus is far more profound than he imagined.

The key to casting the holy body of green lotus is simply a fantasy wish. It is very difficult to realize it in the real world.

Ye Chen, with his natural understanding, could not understand the essence of the holy method of green lotus casting.

"This skill is really mysterious and profound."

Ye Chen didn't practice forcibly, because he couldn't figure it out.

If you practice forcibly, you may suffer from backfire. The God of light is a warning.

"The moral God said that he has a trick that can help me practice the holy method of green lotus casting. I don't know what the trick is."

Ye Chen thought of the words of the moral God, and his heart was very curious.

This holy casting method of green lotus is so profound that it can't even be practiced by the early grass God and the light God Tianzun. Does the moral Tianzun have a way?

"It seems that I still have to go to Zihuang fairy palace."

Ye Chen thought to himself, there are still three days before the official impact on Tianxuan realm. In these three days, if he can practice Qinglian casting holy method, his chance of breakthrough will be greater.

Thinking like this, ye Chen spread his will and told Zihuang fairy palace that he was going to visit. A little preparation was to tear the void and set out straight.

Soon, ye Chen came to the Mountain Gate of Zihuang fairy palace, but he saw immortal Chongyang, with several welcoming elders, waiting for him.

"Lord of reincarnation, welcome you."

Double Ninth immortal arched his hand at Ye Chen.

"I've seen double ninth immortal."

Ye Chen bows back.

"Please wait a moment, Lord of reincarnation. There is another guest coming today."

Chongyang immortal laughed.

"Oh?"

Ye Chen thought he didn't know what the guest was, so he waited aside.

After waiting for a while, I saw the sky in the distance, suddenly the wind and snow were flying, and the ice Phoenix weather appeared.

A peerless graceful posture, flying in the wind and snow, turned out to be Ren tiannv!

"Heavenly daughter!?"

Ye Chen was shocked when he saw the arrival of the goddess of heaven. He didn't expect that the guest waiting for the double ninth immortal was actually the goddess of heaven.

"Ye Chen, long time no see."

Tiannv seemed to know that ye Chen would come and smiled at him slightly.

Ye Chen had already made a decision in his heart, and he would never be soft hearted in the decisive battle in the future, but at this time, seeing the heavenly daughter smiling and smiling, he couldn't help recalling the scenes of the past, and his mind wavered slightly.

"Why are you here?"

Ye Chen asked.

"Let me get something."

Tiannv smiled and looked at the double ninth immortal again.

Immortal Chongyang took out a jade box and gave it to the goddess.

The heavenly daughter took the jade box and nodded with satisfaction.

Ye Chen felt that in the jade box, there were faint bursts of terror and fiery breath, and thought, "what's inside is the seal of the burning emperor!"

Emperor Yan's seal is one of the four highest artifacts and the magic weapon of Hongjun's ancestor. Now it is lent to the goddess by the hand of immortal Chongyang.

Tiannv got the seal of Yan Emperor, and her strength was definitely advancing by leaps and bounds. It was extremely difficult for ye Chen to defeat her in the future.

Thinking of all kinds of dangers in the future, ye Chen's heart suddenly became dignified.

The heavenly daughter took the seal of the burning emperor and smiled at the immortal Chongyang, "is the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire better?"

Immortal Chongyang said, "the elder of beacon fire was killed by the father of Tianxin, and was planted with the mark of a slave. The supreme leader of the sect is cracking it for him. Miss tiannv, if it's convenient for you, please help me."

The goddess nodded and said, "naturally, you purple fairy palace, give me such a big gift. It's difficult for the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire, and I can't sit idly by."

Immortal Chongyang said to Ye Chen again; "Lord of reincarnation, I wonder if you can also help?"

When it's done, the Supreme Master of palm teaching will keep his promise and teach you the tips of cultivating the holy method of green lotus casting. "

Ye Chen said, "yes."

Immortal Chongyang nodded and said, "please."

Then he invited tiannv and ye Chen into the mountain and went straight to the main hall of the mountain gate.

In the main hall, there was a bloody array, on which flames burned, and the energy breath of the burning seed source flowed.

The spirit ancestor of beacon fire was sitting on the eye of the array, and the energy of the surrounding array was instilled into his body, and his face showed a slightly painful color.

The moral God is sitting beside the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire, with his palm against him in the air, pouring his aura into the past.

White smoke came out of their heads, and there was a trace of anxiety in the air.

Obviously, the moral God is cracking the slave mark for the beacon spirit ancestor.

However, the slave mark was planted with a stele, which was as solid as a tarsal maggot. Even the moral God, it was difficult to crack in a short time.

"Heavenly daughter, Lord of reincarnation, please help."

Chongyang immortal road.

Ye Chen and tiannv looked at each other, and they didn't speak. They stepped into the array with a tacit understanding, and sat around the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire, respectively. Their palms ran the aura, and also poured the aura into the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire.

Chapter 8764

"Reincarnation blood, burning!"

Ye Chen felt the servant mark of the beacon fire lingzu, and was very stubborn. He didn't hesitate at the moment. He directly burned his reincarnation blood, and a fierce stream of Qi and blood energy rushed directly into the beacon fire lingzu meridians.

"Dream with one heart, my wish, the curse is broken!"

The fairy's beautiful eyes were concise, and she was full of aura riots. Unexpectedly, she directly performed the thirty-three divine arts, dreamed of flowing with one heart, and made a great vow to crush the slave mark in the body of the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire.

The moral God opened his eyes and saw that both of them were doing their best. He was grateful and nodded slightly.

He also mobilized the energy of the fire and continued to impact into the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire.

Under the impact of the three people's energy, the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire was about to crack all over his body. "Ah" shouted, his eyes were wide open, and he shouted angrily, "you want to destroy the gift given to me by the master, I will not let you go!"

In his heart, the slave mark planted by the ancestor of Tianxin was actually a gift for him.

He was unwilling to accept this gift and was destroyed. His aura surged and he wanted to resist.

The Immortal Emperor's terrifying aura turned into a startling sword aura and was about to be cut out.

However, on the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire, red chains suddenly appeared, with ancient fire runes, which firmly shackled him and blocked all the sword Qi he burst out.

That's the blockade of Emperor Yan's seal!

Before giving the Yan Emperor's seal to the goddess, Zihuang fairy palace had already used this magic weapon to block the aura of the beacon fire spirit ancestor, so that he could not resist.

The Immortal Emperor level aura can be blocked, which shows how powerful the Yan Emperor seal is.

"Ah ah!"

Under such blockade, the spirit ancestor of beacon fire failed to resist and screamed.

Ye Chen, tiannv, and Daode Tianzun each urged the aura to break the imprint control in the spirit ancestor of beacon fire.

Under the impact of the three people's energy, the slave mark also cracked and announced its shattering.

When the mark was shattered, the spirit ancestor of beacon fire trembled violently, and all the expressions of struggle and anger turned into dullness and bewilderment.

He seemed to be a million years old at once, his eyes became extremely muddy, and his body was constantly shaking.

"Junior brother, are you okay?"

The moral God withdrew his palm and said.

Ye Chen and tiannv also took back their aura and stared at the beacon spirit ancestor.

The spirit ancestor of the beacon fire was blankly dull. Looking around, his spirit gradually recovered. Recalling the scenes he had experienced before, he murmured, "I... I have become a slave to the ancestor of Tianxin..."

He was once a decent leader and a great master of the Immortal Emperor, but he was servile to the ancestor of Tianxin, just like a pig, a dog, and an ant.

Recalling the humiliations of that scene, the spirit ancestor of beacon fire was embarrassed, embarrassed, angry, and sad in his heart.

Because when he was controlled, he even killed his daughter Xiao Jing himself.

Although Xiao Jing has the protection of the God of water and won't really die at this point, the price must be huge if she wants to recover as before.

Tao de Tian Zun said, "younger martial brother, if you're OK, the past is over, and I'll find a way to avenge you."

The spirit ancestor of the beacon fire was so angry that he gnashed his teeth and said, "this God hearted ancestor, I must kill him!"

After a pause, the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire offered a piece of jade slips with the words "great tomb divine sword" printed on them.

"Ye Chen, this is the cultivation formula of the great tomb divine sword. I give it to you. Cultivate this sword and kill Tianxin Laozu for me!"

The spirit ancestor of the beacon fire handed the cultivation jade slip to Ye Chen. His eyes were still full of deep hatred and asked him.

He was once controlled by the father of the heavenly heart, and now although he has recovered, he is also greatly weakened.

Next time, he needs to retreat and recuperate.

I don't know how long it will take to wait for revenge by myself.

Therefore, he wants to entrust Ye Chen to help him take revenge.

This great tomb sword is not only a gift he gave Ye Chen, but also a sharp blade for killing!

"Elder, you want to give me the sword of the great tomb?"

Ye Chen was surprised. He must know that this great tomb divine sword ranks in the top ten among the thirty-three divine arts. Although its edge is not as sharp as the legendary Tiandou datu sword, its lethality is also very powerful and terrifying, enough to bury heaven and space.

If ye Chen can practice this sword and kill Tianxin, he will have a greater grasp.

"Absolutely not!"

Seeing that the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire wanted to give a sword, the moral God immediately sank his face and said to the spirit ancestor of the beacon fire:

"Younger martial brother, this tomb sword is extremely precious. How can you give it to an outsider?"

The spirit ancestor of the beacon fire waved his hand and said, "elder martial brother, ye Chen is not an outsider. Besides, this great tomb divine sword was originally taught to me by the former Emperor Yuantian. Now I give it to the Lord of reincarnation, which is also regarded as the return of things to their original owners."

At last, there was a hint of playfulness in the eyes of beacon fire lingzu.

He has seen the appearance of Yuan Tiandi, that is, the old Ye Chen.

He knew that there must be a startling relationship between Ye Chen and Yuan Tiandi. Therefore, he sent out the great tomb sword, not only to help Ye Chen kill Tianxin's ancestors, but also to repay the cause and effect of the past.

The moral God's face is very ugly, but hearing the beacon fire lingzu mention the source emperor, he is not good to say anything more.

The Yuantian emperor was mysterious and profound, and the divine dragon saw the head but not the tail. Even the Zihuang fairy palace had received great favor from the Yuantian emperor.

Seeing that the moral God no longer objected, ye Chen respectfully took over the cultivation jade slips of the great tomb divine sword and said to the ancestor of the beacon fire spirit, "thank you for your gift, elder generation. I will kill the ancestor of Tianxin and revenge for you!"

Chapter 8765

The spirit ancestor of the beacon fire stroked his beard with a smile and said, "I'm just returning the thing to its original owner. This great tomb divine sword has great lethality. It's not easy to practice it. You'd better wait until Jin ascends to heaven and xuanjing, and it's not too late to practice it."

Ye Chen said, "yes."

The fairy on the side chuckled and said, "Ye Chen, if you practice into a great tomb sword, I'm afraid you can bury me with a sword."

Ye Chen looked at the smiling and smiling posture of tiannv, and felt infinite emotion in his heart, but there would be no more nostalgia and hesitation, and said, "I will, tiannv, I will kill you myself."

The heavenly daughter giggled and said, "well, you have this decision. This decisive battle is interesting. Are you about to start to attack Tianxuan realm?"

I also protect the law for you, otherwise you will fail in the impact, which will be no fun. "

She also wants to wait for ye Chen to ascend to the mysterious realm of heaven, and then fight with Ye Chen.

Ye Chen will not sit idly by this breakthrough. She will come to the star moon world to protect Ye Chen.

"Thanks a lot."

Ye Chen didn't refuse. The goddess of heaven is so powerful that with her Dharma protector, even if the legendary Twilight giant comes, the reincarnation camp can also fight.

"Ye Chen, I wish you a smooth breakthrough and kill Tianxin Laozu in the future, please. I'll leave first."

The spirit ancestor of the beacon fire arched his hand at Ye Chen, stood up, and said to the moral God:

"Elder martial brother, I'm going back to the beacon field. This time of twists and turns, my strength is greatly damaged, and I need to retreat and recuperate. Be careful."

The moral God calmly said, "younger martial brother, just rest at ease."

Beacon fire lingzu nodded and said goodbye.

The heavenly daughter looked at Ye Chen and then at Tianxin Laozu. Knowing that they had something to say, she smiled and said, "Ye Chen, I'll wait for you outside."

Turn around and wait for ye Chen outside the hall.

Double Ninth immortal also bowed down and closed the door.

In the hall, only Ye Chen and Tao Te Tian Zun were left.

The moral God said, "Ye Chen, you have broken the curse mark for my younger martial brother. I will keep my promise and teach you the tips and tricks of cultivating the holy method of green lotus casting."

Ye Chen said, "moral God, do you really know the trick of Qinglian's holy method?"

He was curious and suspicious.

After all, the holy method of green lotus casting is extremely abstruse and profound. Even he is helpless, but he doesn't know what method de Tianzun has.

The moral God touched his beard and said calmly, "in those days, the Yuan emperor came to my purple fairy palace and taught my younger martial brother the great tomb sword."

"At that time, I secretly peeped into the cause and effect of his body, calculated the trace of his heavenly mystery, and peeped into the secret of Qinglian's holy casting method from him."

The holy casting method of green lotus is a divine skill created by the grass God of the early generation, which was later given to the source emperor.

Yuan Tiandi obviously holds the secret of Qinglian's holy casting method, prying into the cause and effect of him, and it is indeed possible to steal relevant tricks.

Ye Chen was shocked and said, "have you ever calculated the source emperor?"

He didn't expect that the moral God was so bold that even the Yuan emperor dared to calculate.

The moral God laughed and said, "the so-called morning news, death can be done at night. The legend of the source emperor is the first wisp of wisdom in the world. I want to see the ultimate secret from him."

"If I can see the ultimate, I will die without regret."

"But unfortunately, I still couldn't see the ultimate secret. I only saw a little practice tips of Qinglian's holy casting method."

"Yuan Tiandi found my snooping, but he was also very generous, and did not blame me."

"At that time, I should feel the taste of fear for the first time and for the last time in my life."

"No matter who you meet again in the future, you will no longer have any fear, because in this world, no one is more terrible than the source emperor."

After a pause, the moral God stared at Ye Chen's eyes, frowned and said, "speaking of it, the eyes of Yuan Tiandi are very similar to yours. When I first saw you, I thought you were the incarnation of Yuan Tiandi when he was young."

When Yuantian emperor came, the moral God did not see each other's appearance, only saw a pair of eyes, which were very similar to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's heart jumped violently, and shook her head again. "Elder, I'm joking. How can I be the incarnation of Yuan Tiandi?"

The moral God nodded and said, "indeed, your reincarnation blood is the supreme of the heavens and has the potential to surpass the ultimate."

"Even if it's the emperor of heaven, what origin does it have with you..."

"It should also be said that yuantiandi is your future incarnation, not his incarnation."

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "master, if you don't say this, please teach me the cultivation tips of Qinglian casting holy method."

The moral God nodded slightly and said, "well, this cultivation trick is not difficult to say. You can take down a piece of reincarnation spirit bone and create a reincarnation separation. Relying on the separation, you can practice the green lotus casting holy method."

"If you want to practice the holy method of green lotus, you can't have any thoughts and desires."

"People have desires, but there is no separation. Separation is like the existence of a puppet. Without spiritual wisdom, there is naturally no distractions and desires."

Hearing the words of the moral God, ye Chen thought that he had once had a separation. With the help of that separation, he had been out of his shell for many times. Unfortunately, with the strength of his strength, that separation was no longer useful. Now he immediately felt confused and suddenly enlightened, saying:

"By the way, this method is feasible!"

The moral God smiled and said, "if your reincarnation and separation have become the holy method of green lotus casting, when necessary, you can also use the separation to fight, and even encounter the situation of death, you can let the separation replace you to die, confuse the false with the true, and get rid of the golden cicada."

Hearing this method, ye Chen also felt very mysterious, and his heart was a burst of excitement, and some doubts, said: "senior, you and I may be doomed to meet in the future. If you help me so, you won't be afraid that I will deal with you in the future?"

The moral God waved his hand and said, "I said, if you are willing to help my younger martial brother, I will teach you the profound meaning of the holy method of green lotus casting."

"Who is my moral God? Naturally speaking, there will be no deception or concealment."

"Besides, in the future, if you and I meet in life and death, hehe, I know you have an extra part, so I will naturally be careful and not afraid of your calculation."

His words were as magnanimous as if he had a great master's transcendent courage, which was admirable.

Ye Chen said, "yes! No matter what the future holds, today I want to thank you for your advice."

The moral God nodded, pinched his fingers, and said, "to build that reincarnation, you need a piece of reincarnation spirit bone to enrich the flesh and blood essence, but now your breakthrough is imminent. If you deprive the spirit bone, it will inevitably have a great impact on the breakthrough."

"Fortunately, you have the spirit bone of the reincarnation Lord of the tomb palace in your hand, which can be used instead."

Chapter 8766

"Hehe, that Yuan Tiandi is really a terrible calculation."

"He may have arrived early. Today's situation is over."

In those days, the God of light, the God of heaven, carried the coffin and stepped into the realm of God.

The coffin was filled with the spirit bone of the reincarnation Lord.

The spirit bone is the opportunity left by the reincarnation Lord of that life, but behind it is the guidance of the active emperor of heaven.

Yuan Tiandi had expected that the reincarnation Lord of that life would eventually fail, so he asked him to leave spiritual bones in advance to pave the way for future generations.

Even, Yuantian emperor ordered the God of light to bury the reincarnation spirit bone.

These layouts, which are even older than ancient, have been fulfilled by Ye Chen today.

Ye Chen only felt creepy and her scalp numb.

The Yuantian emperor's layout plan is really far-reaching.

However, it is certain that Yuan Tiandi is on the side of reincarnation.

All his layouts are for ye Chen's growth.

Thinking like this, ye Chen is also a lot more at ease.

However, he is still a little unwell.

Because he doesn't want to be a pawn and be at the mercy of others.

He wants to truly control his own destiny and not be dominated by anyone.

All this requires strength, ultimate strength!

"I'll help you build the reincarnation separation together, and then, between you and me, the cause and effect will be settled."

"In the future, you don't owe me, and I don't owe you."

Said the moral God.

"Thank you!"

Ye Chen didn't talk nonsense, but directly sacrificed the reincarnation spirit bone and dropped fresh blood on it.

Hum!

When ye Chen's blood drips on the spiritual bone, the reincarnation spiritual bone is filled with bright golden light.

Blood and spirit bones mixed, and began to breed real flesh and blood, and gradually outlined a human shape, which was the outline of Ye Chen.

This reincarnation is gradually taking shape.

Of course, the breath of separation can't be compared with Ye Chen at all. Anyone can see that separation is separation, not noumenon.

"Green lotus casting holy method, green lotus fairy gas, gather my body, casting holy body, rising in the daytime!"

Ye Chen projected his divine consciousness onto the reincarnation, and began to work the green lotus to cast holy Dharma.

Hum!

On his separate body, suddenly filled with wisps of blue fairy gas.

Between the ups and downs of the blue fairy air, it is faintly in the void, blooming blue lotus after blue, and the weather is very spectacular.

Ye Chen's separation is also like turning into a green lotus, supporting the sky alone, breaking the chaotic space-time. The majestic airflow roars, stirring the void, rumbling, and countless original life runes are flowing, gorgeous and abnormal.

Ye Chen actually practiced the holy casting method of green lotus, which he had been unable to practice. Although he had just stepped into the threshold, the magnificent atmosphere of green lotus supporting the sky shocked even the moral God on the side.

The green lotus supports the sky, and all kinds of time and space are broken, and cracks appear in the void.

Deep in the crack of the void, a strange roar came out, and a dark demon rushed out of the crack, trying to attack Ye Chen and his separation.

This is the inevitable disaster for cultivating the holy method of green lotus casting.

"The purple flame was suppressed by me."

Sitting on the side of the moral God, he mobilized the breath of the kindling source, and the purple flames exploded, crushing all the demons that rushed out.

With his protection, ye Chen has no worries behind him. He concentrates on running the holy method of green lotus casting, and constantly expands his body.

After two days like this, his separated body was finally preliminarily cast into the holy body of green lotus. The whole body was overflowing with the fragrance of green lotus, as if it were gathering the richest vitality essence in the world. The majestic aura behind it seemed to be able to open the sky, protect everything, and be extremely strong.

"Practice it!"

Ye Chen's divine consciousness returned to his own body, opened his eyes and looked at the separation in front of him, a burst of surprise and joy.

I saw that the reincarnation part, the green lotus weather is rich, the body shape and appearance, and even the reincarnation breath, are the same as ye Chen, there is no difference.

The only difference is that the reincarnation part, with closed eyes, has no fluctuation of divine knowledge and wisdom, but is just a dead thing, with no soul.

Separation must have the divine projection of noumenon to be able to move, otherwise, it is a dead puppet.

Ye Chen sent out a wisp of divine consciousness and projected it on her body.

The separated body immediately opened its eyes and its breath became active.

Ye Chen's noumenon and separation, four eyes opposite, smiled.

Seeing this, the moral God was stunned and said, "this... This is really incredible."

In a trance, he couldn't distinguish Ye Chen's Noumenon from his separation, because it was too similar.

Generally speaking, the difference between the breath of separation and the noumenon is very huge, which can be identified at a glance.

However, because of Ye Chen's separation, he practiced the holy casting method of green lotus and cast the holy body of green lotus. The breath is particularly powerful. On the surface, it is not much different from the noumenon.

"Elder, thank you for your help. I've finally practiced my separation."

Ye Chen smiled, took the divine consciousness back to the noumenon, and immediately took the separated body back to the reincarnation cemetery to thank the moral God.

With this split, ye Chen has an extra card.

He can fight with the help of his own body, and even if he encounters the danger of life and death, he can sacrifice his own body, confuse the false with the true, resist the fatal blow for him, and let the body get rid of its shell and survive.

"It seems that the holy method of green lotus casting is much more mysterious than I imagined."

The moral God's face was slightly dignified, and he obviously didn't expect that the reincarnation separation created by using the green lotus casting holy method was so similar to the noumenon, and even so powerful.

Ye Chen has an extra part. He wants to deal with it in the future. Naturally, he has a lot of trouble.

Chapter 8767

"Master, I'm going to break through the mysterious realm. Do you want to come to the ceremony?"

Ye Chen asked.

"No, I still have a lot of things to deal with. The demon girl will go for me."

Morality is God's way.

"Yes, sir, I'll leave first."

Ye Chen stood up and bowed to the moral God to say goodbye.

Out of the hall, ye Chen saw the heavenly daughter, waiting for him all the time.

He just wanted to say hello, when suddenly the goddess stepped forward, put her arms around his neck, and kissed him.

"What are you doing?"

Ye Chen was stunned.

"I'm afraid I'll never kiss you after today, so I'll kiss you well."

Tiannv smiled and hugged Ye Chen for a kiss.

Ye Chen felt infinite emotion in her heart, and knew that this might be the last kiss goodbye, that is, she tightly hugged the waist of the heavenly daughter and responded to her kiss.

After making out for a long time, the two people reluctantly released, and immediately returned to the star moon world hand in hand.

Ye Chen knew that from then on, he and tiannv were destined to meet in life and death.

He had seen the future, and the heavenly maiden killed all the people in the reincarnation camp. The means were so cruel that he naturally did not dare to be any softer.

If he can kill tiannv in the future decisive battle, he will never show any mercy.

After returning to the star moon realm, ye Chen and tiannv released their hands and kept a distance.

Ye Yishen, Wu Yao, Xia Ruoxue and others were shocked when they saw that the heavenly daughter also came, and everyone was on alert.

"Tiannv is here to help me..."

Ye Chen explained briefly, and everyone was relieved.

Tiannv pig raising plan, at least until ye Chen Jin ascends to Tianxuan realm, will start slaughtering.

Compared with anyone, she hopes Ye Chen can be promoted successfully.

Therefore, ye Chen will do her best to protect this breakthrough.

And tomorrow is the time for ye Chen to make a formal breakthrough!

Ye Chen returned to his room, slightly recuperated, took out the sword of the tomb, and silently felt something.

But the result of perception shocked Ye Chen a little.

This great tomb divine sword has terrible lethality. With his current cultivation level, it is simply impossible to control it.

If you want to control it, you must at least reach Tianxuan realm.

Thinking like this, ye Chen shook his head, so he had to put away the Dagu magic sword formula first, and was ready to wait for tomorrow's breakthrough.

"I don't know if I can recognize my reincarnation."

Ye Chen thought of the reincarnation and separation, and moved in his heart, so he sacrificed the separation from the reincarnation cemetery, reflected his divine consciousness in the past, controlled the separation, and went to the small world of blood moon to see Ren extraordinary.

Coming to the blood moon world, ye Chen saw Ren Feifan playing chess with a girl in a small pavilion.

That girl is actually a night mother wind whispering warbler.

"Senior Ren, Yuying girl."

Ye Chen was quite surprised to see that the wind whispering Ying was also here.

"Ye Chen, here you are."

When Ren Feifan saw Ye Chen coming, he didn't recognize him for a moment. He thought he was the noumenon and said hello.

"Good luck, Lord of reincarnation."

When the wind whispering warbler saw Ye Chen, he also smiled gently.

Ren Feifan said, "you will attack the Tianxuan realm tomorrow. I'm worried about the disturbance of the death cult, so I specially invited the night mother to help."

Ye Chen said, "Yuying girl, do you also want to protect the Dharma for me?"

How much will you charge this time? "

The whispering warbler laughed and said, "you don't need to pay. You are willing to let me be your reincarnation star. This chip is too big. I will help you more in the future before I can repay."

Among the seven stars of reincarnation, the third star of life is nameless and can be customized.

Ye Chen has reached a deal with the wind whispering warbler, making her the third life star, named "night".

That is to say, even if ye Chen and Feng Yu Ying do not have double cultivation, she can become a part of the core of reincarnation in the future.

This is a great chance. It doesn't mean that she can pay off if she tells the secret of the tomb palace.

She will help Ye Chen more in the future, so that she can really repay the cause and effect.

"It's so good. If Miss Yuying helps me, I must be able to rest easy this time."

Ye Chen heard the wind, and Ying also wanted to protect him, and his heart was happy.

Whispering Yingjiao laughed, "but I said in advance that I wouldn't do it until the last minute."

She is a God, and this is the real world. Under the stars in this world, the gods will be restricted by many laws and cannot act recklessly.

Therefore, unless ye Chen meets the danger of life and death, she will not take action.

"This is natural."

Ye Chen nodded, and he was satisfied with the windy Yings as the final guarantee.

"Wait, you are not noumenon, you are a part!?"

Suddenly, Ren Feifan's eyes were cold, staring at Ye Chen, and finally found a clue.

"Yes, master Ren, you found it."

Ye Chen smiled and touched his nose.

Ren Feifan was stunned and said, "is this... A separation?"

He pinched his fingers and counted, and vaguely saw the mystery behind it, saying, "so you have practiced the holy method of green lotus casting..."

The whispering warbler said "ouch", which was also a big surprise, and said: "so you are actually a separate body?"

I can't recognize it. You are so powerful that even I deceived you. "

Ye Chen said, "Yuying girl laughed."

The whispering Yingmei's eyes turned, and she seemed to think of something. She said to Ren Feifan, "Since ye Chen has such a powerful part, it's better to ask him to go to the ash star, and maybe she can solve the mystery of the ash star."

When Ren Feifan heard this, he frowned and seemed to be considering it.

Ye Chen hurriedly asked, "master Ren, what ash star?"

Chapter 8768

The wind whispering warbler's tone was a little mysterious and said, "it's the ashes of the reincarnation book."

Ye Chen was stunned and said, "reincarnation Book robbing ash?"

The wind whispering warbler said, "yes, after the reincarnation book turns into robbery ashes, most of the energy flows to no time and space, but in the real world, there is still the last robbery ashes left."

"The last piece of looted ash turned into a planet full of ashes, which is the ash star."

"The coordinates of the ash sky star are not fixed, and they are constantly changing with the air flow of heaven and earth. Now I vaguely found the location of the ash sky star, but I must act as soon as possible to control the planet, even crack the secrets behind it, and truly control the reincarnation book robbery."

Ye Chen's heart was shocked. Unexpectedly, the whispering warbler was planning to seize the reincarnation book and rob the ashes.

That reincarnation Book robbery ash, even if it is only an ash, the lethality is extremely terrible. At the beginning, it even easily hit Di Lao, so that di Lao was captured by Mo Zu Wutian.

The whispering warbler wants to plan to seize, which is probably Ren extraordinary's request.

The two of them are sitting here today, discussing to seize the reincarnation book and rob the ash, the ash star!

Ren Feifan waved his hand and said, "the ash sky star contains the infinite disaster power of the reincarnation book behind it. It's no small matter. Even if you and I are close, there is also a danger of falling."

"The matter of capturing the ash sky star still needs to be discussed in the long run. There is no need to be in a hurry."

"Ye Chen, tomorrow is the time for breakthrough. You are ready. Don't think about other things."

Ye Chen said, "yes!"

The whispering warbler shrugged his shoulders and said, "well, the ash star is really too dangerous. I'd better wait until ye Chen breaks through."

"It's better to kill the ancestor of Tianxin and grab the Tianbei. Hehe, if Tianbei is protected, we'll capture the ash Tianxing again, which will be much easier."

"Once the ash star is in our hands, we can go back to the past and kill all the heavenly daughters, the demon ancestor Wutian and the feather emperor, and strangle them while they are still babies, and they will be dead."

The ash sky star is the robbery ash of the reincarnation book, and has the ability to change the past.

To change the past is not to open up parallel time and space, but to directly affect the timeline of reality.

In other words, if ye Chen can really go back to the past, kill the feather emperor, the demon ancestor and others when they were still babies.

Then, in reality, they will disappear out of thin air, and all traces will be destroyed, as if they had never existed.

This is really an extremely terrible thing. It wipes him out from the root, surpassing all supernatural powers.

This is the horror of the reincarnation book!

"It's just a piece of loot ash. Can you kill people of the level of Emperor Yu?"

Ye Chen frowned, doubting.

Whispering warbler just wanted to say something, but was interrupted by Ren extraordinary.

Ren Feifan shook his head and said, "Ye Chen, you don't need to think about this for the time being. Prepare for tomorrow's breakthrough."

Ye Chen's heart was cold and said, "yes!"

At that moment, ye Chen returned to his residence and made serious preparations.

In the early morning of the next day, the time for breakthrough finally arrived. Ye Chen strode out to the center of the star moon circle.

The people of the reincarnation camp, in the center of the world, prepared the most grand ceremony for him.

The whole star moon circle, all sects and families, the holy land of the dynasty, all the big people, all came, and everyone knelt on the ground, respectfully, and worshipped.

"Praise our Lord!"

"Reincarnation is powerful!"

When ye Chen's figure appeared in the central sky, all believers in the reincarnation camp burst out the most pious mountain cry to welcome Ye Chen's arrival.

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly, overlooking the lower part, he saw that this central place had already arranged a huge altar.

Around the altar, there is an Immortal Emperor level Guardian array.

Ren Feifan, ye Yishen, Wu Yao and xuanhanyu stood at the four corners of the formation, guarding the central altar and silently guarding it.

Tian NV, Shen Tu Wan'er and ye mu, standing not far from the rear of the formation, are also ready to deal with accidents at any time.

Xia Ruoxue, Ji Siqing, Wei Ying, ye Luoer, Zhetian demon emperor and others led a group of elite disciples of the reincarnation camp to guard the four directions of heaven and earth.

The king of hell, the Buddha of truth, Yunjin, shanrou and others, as well as many admirers of reincarnation, watched the ceremony in the audience to cheer Ye Chen.

The whole venue is decorated with lanterns, red satin floors, ceiling dancing, bells and drums ringing, and the weather is very spectacular.

Ye Chen was very grateful to everyone in the reincarnation camp for being so thoughtful for him.

"The messenger of the purple fairy palace is here!"

At this time, another welcoming elder read aloud.

I saw a woman in a black dress, with two servants, entering the star moon realm and coming to this site.

It was the second demon girl. The two servants behind her were Chi Feixue and fan Xingyan.

"Qinglai chamber of Commerce messenger arrived!"

After a while, several more guests came in, including Lu Shan, the president of Qinglai chamber of Commerce, his daughter Lu qinxuan, and Su Rong, the wife of the former patriarchal deity, the sister of the ghost king.

Ye Chen saw that his former friends had come, and his heart was both happy and dignified, afraid that he would break through and fail.

"The truth will be perfect!"

Then came another man, the messenger of the truth society, the perfect saint.

The perfect Saint also wanted to watch the ceremony. Ye Chen wanted to refuse, but Ren Feifan agreed, and he didn't say anything more.

Chapter 8769

The perfect Saint came in, took care of himself in the audience, found a vacant seat and sat down, but he didn't make any unusual moves.

When all the guests arrived, ye Chen took a deep breath and descended on the altar.

"Reincarnation is powerful!"

Many reincarnation believers in the audience broke out a burst of cries of tsunami.

"Today is the day to break through the mystery of heaven and achieve the emperor of heaven!"

Ye Chen's eyes were sharp and his heart was burning.

After practicing for so long, he finally saw the hope of breaking through the mystery of heaven.

That is the realm of the real superior in the legend!

What ye Chen desires is to become a real superior!

He knows that today, his breakthrough will definitely have many twists and turns.

But no matter what, he will not shrink back.

The success or failure of life and death is today!

Ye Chen sat cross legged on the altar and took a deep breath to calm his mind.

He looked into the sea and saw an ancient bronze gate suspended in the sea.

That is the legendary gate of the emperor!

Breaking through this door, you can really step into the realm of heaven and become the superior of the emperor.

Boom!

Ye Chen Ran the elixir aura, rushed directly to the sea, and fiercely rushed to the door of that day.

Boom!

When ye Chen officially launched the impact, there was also a huge shock between heaven and earth.

Nine days above, came rolling thunder, violent thunder, thunderbolt like lightning, gathered into a monstrous thunder robbery, brewing in the sky, spinning, even if it was smashing down.

If you want to enter the realm of the emperor of heaven, you must first go through the natural disaster and thunderstorm.

The Apocalypse of Ye Chen has come!

Ye Chen's natural disaster, thunder explosion, thunder and lightning, as thick as a bucket, appears purple, full of violent and terrifying energy. Compared with the natural disaster experienced by ordinary people, I don't know how terrible it is.

Seeing the disaster coming, the four immortal emperors guarding Ye Chen, Ren Feifan, ye Yishen, Wu Yao and Xuan Hanyu, all stood with dignified faces without any action.

They guard Ye Chen to prevent the invasion of foreign enemies.

As for the natural disaster, it can only be resisted by Ye Chen himself. They won't help.

If they help, ye Chen can resist the natural disaster for ye Chen. Ye Chen has not been refined by the natural disaster. Even if he is promoted to the upper level, his foundation is very weak.

Therefore, the disaster that belongs to Ye Chen can only be carried by himself.

If the robbery is successful, he will ascend to the sky step by step and become a superior.

If the robbery fails, the only way is to turn into ashes, and the body and soul will be destroyed.

Boom!

The thunder of Tianjie came down and hit Ye Chen hard.

"Iron Throne, Emperor!"

Ye Chen had been on guard and immediately urged the iron throne, and the majestic steel energy roared out.

His body also instantly became immortal as hard as steel. When it appeared, it was also a big surprise, and said, "how can it be that ye Chen's breakthrough actually triggered the other side of the starry sky? Then the disaster he is going to experience, is it not a killing with nothing?"

The Scripture of miracles praising the world is divided into nine chapters, which are:

TianWen (Questions to Heaven)

Free travel!

Feathering and soaring!

Mortal robbery!

Spring and autumn era!

Perfect World!

Wuji world!

Annihilate the sky!

The other side of the starry sky!

.....

This "the other side of the starry sky" is the last chapter of Tao!

It is said that this Taoist book records the ultimate mystery of the other side.

Whoever can control the star Tao book can reach the other side and touch the ultimate.

Mortals in the lower world often dream that the world too high is the paradise on the other side.

But the martial monks in the Taishang world are very clear that the Taishang world is not the other side, nor is it bliss.

The real blissful shore, the real ultimate mystery, is recorded in the Tao book "the other shore of the starry sky".

Since ancient times, no one has been able to control the starry sky daoshu.

Every time the XingKong daoshu appears, it represents the emergence of great changes in heaven and earth, and the turning point of fate is coming.

Ye Chen's impact on the celestial realm unexpectedly shocked the Xingtian daoshu, which seemed to mean that the fate of the heavenly world would usher in a huge change.

Whoa, whoa!

On the high sky, the Xingtian daoshu continued to bloom with brilliant brilliance, and wisps of starlight, with unparalleled authority, actually ran through the void.

The void burst, and the dark breath from the void space and time flowed out of the void crack.

Countless dark smells, mixed with the sky robbery thunder, made the rolling sky thunder turn into a dark color.

The dark sky thunder, all over the sky, blots out the sun, so that the whole star and moon world is also in darkness.

In that dark sky, the starlight of the XingKong daoshu is the only shining light, as if from ancient times and eternal.

The rolling sky thunder around was also infected by the star Tao book, and the stars burst out in the thunder.

The original terror of the heavenly king thunder robbery has evolved into a starry sky thunder robbery, even with a breath of killing.

Boom!

One by one, the stars were robbed by thunder. They chopped down and fiercely cleaved at Ye Chen.

Among those thunders, there were Ancient Runes, which were the runes from the other side of the starry sky, full of supreme majesty.

Ye Chen's pupils contracted, and he immediately felt boundless pressure.

The thunder coming at this moment is at least a hundred times stronger than the one just now!

Such a terrible thunderstorm shocked Ye Chen, and even hallucinated, as if he would be buried in the vast starry sky.

Crackle!

When Lei Jie cleaved down, ye Chen's steel body split on the spot and bled blood.

His Iron Throne protection has no effect under such terrible thunder robbery and killing.

Countless fierce star thunder robbers, with a dark killing breath, cleave into Ye Chen's body.

Ye Chen only felt a sharp pain and paralysis in his internal organs, and hurriedly ran the reincarnation of Qi and blood to protect himself.

"The tablet of the God of heaven is blocked by me!"

At the next moment, ye Chen offered the tablet of the emperor of heaven to seal the gods. The magnificent energy of the tablet suddenly bloomed, turning into golden Dragons of Qi and flying in the air.

The star sky thunder robbers, which were cut down one by one, were slightly resisted by the Tianjun Fengshen monument.

Ye Chen's pressure was greatly reduced, and he suddenly relaxed a lot.

This tablet of the heavenly king is worthy of being a super artifact that once ranked high. Its guardian force is very strong, and it can even resist the thunder from the starry sky.

"Hold on!"

"After surviving the thunder disaster, I can step into the realm of heaven and mystery!"

Ye Chen's eyes were sharp, and he urged the emperor of heaven to seal the monument to resist the thunder disaster in the starry sky.

The energy of the star sky thunder robbery is extremely terrifying. Most of it is blocked by the Tianjun Fengshen monument, but a small part of it impacts Ye Chen's body.

Chapter 8770

Fortunately, this shock is still within ye Chen's bearing range.

He was not injured, and even under the impact of the thunder, his lifeline was hardened and became stronger.

If it continues like this, it is only a matter of time before he gets through the thunderstorm and enters the mysterious realm of heaven.

The people in the reincarnation camp were shocked and ecstatic when they saw that ye Chen actually blocked the thunder robbery in the starry sky.

Yun Jin and shanrou looked at each other and held their small hands together. They all thought, "brother Ye Chen is really powerful. He can even stop the disaster of XingKong daoshu."

If you are an ordinary person, you may be killed in an instant in the face of a disaster mixed with the energy of the star Tao book.

But ye Chen, relying on the tablet of the emperor of heaven and reincarnation blood, blocked this wave of bombardment.

The king of hell, Yanluo Daojun, looked at the Buddha of truth, but their eyebrows were slightly frowned.

Tiannv and Shentu Wan'er glanced at each other, and their hearts were also full of hidden worries.

They know that the power of the starry sky daoshu is far more than that.

Ye Chen blocked the first wave. I don't know how many thunder robbers there are behind. If you want to make a real breakthrough, you must do it all. How easy is it to follow?

Woo woo

At this time, in the void, suddenly came out a frightening sob.

I saw the cracks in the void, rolling out without energy, breeding in the dark. In the dark, it turned into a twisted demon, like a group of bloodthirsty ants, culled from the sky and rushed straight to the altar where ye Chen was.

At the edge of the altar, Ren Feifan, Wu Yao, xuanhanyu, and ye Yishen all looked the same.

Ye evil pulled out the rainbow free sword and wanted to fight, but he was stopped by Ren extraordinary.

Ren Feifan said, "Wu Yao, these dark demons are for you to deal with."

Wu Yao said, "yes!"

Her eyes flashed a little sharp, her hands were sealed, tianwu Dao Yun blossomed, and the Immortal Emperor's aura floated.

The old weather of tianwu immortal gate loomed behind her.

She poured all her aura into the guard array under her feet.

This Guardian array, which was arranged by many strong men of the reincarnation camp for ye Chen, is an Immortal Emperor level array, which contains the will of the Immortal Emperor.

As soon as Wu Yao's aura was infused, the Immortal Emperor guarded the array, and immediately burst into dazzling colorful brilliance. Qibao futu, colorful lotus terraces, tricolor smallpox and other meteorology appeared in the void.

A gorgeous protective crystal wall system rises from the ground.

Hiss hiss!

Before they got close to the altar, the demons rushed into the protective crystal wall system, and their bodies evaporated into black smoke and died on the spot.

Wu Yao's face was slightly pale. It was difficult for her to support the formation alone.

Ren Feifan, ye Yishen, and Xuan Hanyu didn't mean to help.

Because they know that the more dangerous things are still behind, they must be vigilant.

Ye Chen felt Wu Yao's protection, and his heart was also very grateful.

Boom!

At this time, on the sky, the brilliance of the XingKong daoshu suddenly shone, and the power of XingKong thunder also exploded rapidly.

The rapid outbreak of star thunder filled with extreme pressure, like the judgment of the end, which made people feel extremely depressed.

Even ordinary masters in boundless realm are in danger of collapse in the face of this pressure.

And ye Chen, just a hundred flail territory, the pressure he bears, can be imagined.

"How can our Lord bear such a terrible thunderstorm?"

"If our Lord falls, what should we do in our reincarnation camp?"

Many disciples of the reincarnation camp around felt the terrible smell of disaster, which was shocking and terrifying, for fear that ye Chen couldn't stand it.

Under the pressure of the star sky thunder, the whole star moon world was shaking.

Not only the star moon realm, but also the entire celestial world, thousands of layers of boundaries, shook violently.

Everyone knows that at this moment, ye Chen is making a breakthrough and impacting Tianxuan realm!

Countless divine senses, projected from all directions, want to spy on the picture of the star and moon world.

Some weak divine senses were crushed on the spot under the pressure of the star thunder robbery.

The master behind the divine sense screamed, and he didn't know life or death.

There are also many powerful divine senses, which saw a spectacular scene in the star moon world.

The Tao book "the other side of the starry sky" appeared, and the majestic starry energy was mixed with the sky robbery thunder, turned into rolling thunder, and killed Xiang Ye Chen.

Boom!

Ball lightning, like a planet, suddenly fell down, like a spectacular meteor shower, erupted in boundless light, heat and current, burst into the sky, and the surrounding void was torn away, even time seemed to stagnate.

"Ancient star thunder!"

Ye Chen's eyes shrank, and under the insight of the secret of heaven, he immediately knew that the origin of these spherical lightning was an extremely powerful lightning disaster, called "ancient star thunder", which involved the vast energy of hundreds of millions of stars behind, enough to kill the masters of immeasurable territory.

It is said that a long time ago, when the ancient Stargate was just born, it also led to the arrival of the starsky daoshu and was baptized by thunder.

Gu xingmen Dujie was born. Since then, it has become a super first-class force without time and space, and even qualified to imprison Wu Zu.

What we are facing now is the ancient star thunder robbery faced by the ancient star gate at that time, which is too terrifying.

Boom!

When the ancient star thunder came down, the entire star moon boundary, with a radius of tens of thousands of miles, was split into powder by the leaked current.

Fortunately, the reincarnation camp has already moved people to this breakthrough site.
