Chapter 8791

"Stop fighting!"

However, at this time, a dark shadow flew between Ye Chen and Mo Zu Wutian to prevent their decisive battle.

It is the night mother whispering warbler.

"Yuying girl, get out of the way. You haven't recovered yet. Just leave it to me."

Ye Chen thought that the wind whispering Ying came to help him, detour.

Previously, in order to suppress the dusk giant, the wind whispering warbler consumed a lot of energy. Now she has a few gray hairs in her green hair, which is obviously eroded by the law.

Up to now, the vitality of Fengyu Ying hasn't recovered, and ye Chen doesn't want to bother her anymore.

He relies on his own strength to fight to the death with demon Zu Wutian!

"No, I told you not to fight."

The wind whispering Ying looked back at Ye Chen, and immediately turned to the demon ancestor Wudao:

"Demon Zu Wutian, even if you integrate the Buddha and the devil, and the Taoist heart is perfect, you can't kill reincarnation in the star moon world. It's better to stop here and fight again later."

"As long as you are willing to leave, I can return your heart to you."

With that, the wind whispering warbler offered a heart, surrounded by layers of dark breath, which was the heart of the demon ancestor.

Seeing this heart, Mo Zu Wutian shivered all over and thought, "if I can get my heart back, my body will be restored to perfection, and I can even easily devour the remaining ghost of Guichen."

But he thought again, "it's too cheap for Yemu to return my heart in order to stop me. Is there any conspiracy?"

However, the heart is in front of him, and he can't stop it.

Previously, in order to redeem his heart, he didn't know how much it cost, and even contaminated the cause and effect of the tomb palace, but he got nothing.

Now the wind whispering Ying is willing to return her heart. No matter what plot she has, the demon ancestor thought to himself that he could deal with it.

"OK, give me your heart. I'll leave right away."

Demon Zu Wutian immediately restrained his aura and said calmly.

"Take it!"

As soon as the whispering warbler pinched his palm, the dark heart suspended in the air turned into a black light and flew to the hands of demon Zu Wutian.

The demon ancestor wudian took back the heart, and his divine consciousness and aura were constantly swept away, making sure that there was no prohibition or branding on the heart, so he couldn't help laughing and said:

"Night mother, I don't know what your plot is, but you give your heart back to me so easily, and you will regret it in the future!"

After saying that, Mo Zu Wutian glanced at Ye Chen again, then turned around and tore the void away.

Ye Chen wanted to catch up, but was stopped by the wind whispering Ying.

"Why?"

Ye Chen's face twitched and looked at the wind whispering Ying.

He did not expect that the wind whispering Ying would return his heart to the demon ancestor Wutian.

Once the demon ancestor Wutian's body recovers to perfection, coupled with his now perfect Taoist heart, his cultivation strength is afraid to advance by leaps and bounds, and there is even the possibility of seizing the power of the God of death, directly proving Tao Wuwu.

"You have just ascended to the mysterious realm of heaven, and your breath is not strong enough. You need time to be solid. You can't fight to such an extreme."

Whispering Ying shook her head. She knew that if ye Chen broke out with all her strength, she might not lose, but the price was too high.

"Ren Feifan has soared. He ascended to the sky step by step in no time and space, and his cultivation strength even exceeded that of me at the peak. He is already the real emperor of heaven."

"However, he modifies the past and touches countless causal fates. The price he has to bear is too great. He can't protect you all the time."

"If he is not here, I will guard your safety."

"Don't forget, I'm your star, and your third star is me!"

Ye Chen listened to the words of the wind whispering warbler, and his heart was greatly shocked and silent.

"But even if you want to stop demon Zu Wutian, there is no need to give back his heart. The price is too high!"

After a long silence, ye Chen said without hesitation.

At the beginning, in order to redeem his heart, the demon ancestor Wutian didn't know how much he paid, and even contaminated the cause and effect of the tomb palace, but he didn't get anything.

Now, he regained his heart without any effort.

The whispering warbler returned it so easily. In Ye Chen's eyes, it was too cheap for Mo Zu wudian.

This deal is not cost-effective!

"I have my plan, you don't have to worry."

"Hehe, wait for the demon ancestor to take back the heart, and the body will recover completely."

"At that time, he will certainly seize the power of death at all costs."

"If he wanted to seize the power of the God of death, it would touch the foundation of the God of Death Cult. Neither the supreme god of the Apocalypse nor the witch would let him go."

The whispering warbler said.

"Do you want to kill with a knife?"

Ye Chen understood a little.

"It doesn't count. Mozu Wutian is not so easy to kill. Hehe, I want to see him and the Death Cult dog eat dog, black eat black."

"In this way, the devil ancestor Wutian and the Death Cult can't get away, so they won't disturb your next practice."

The whispering warbler said.

Ye Chen frowned lightly and said, "the price is still too high for you to do this."

Whispering Ying returned her heart to demon Zu Wutian. Ye Chen always didn't approve of such a move.

The whispering warbler shook her head and said, "well, in short, you can practice at ease."

Ye Chen's mind moved and said, "my Qinglian separation has been destroyed, but there is still a little concept left. I want to recast Qinglian separation. Miss Yuying, can you provide some natural resources and local treasures?"

This game of chess is getting more and more complicated. Ye Chen needs Qinglian's hand, so he has two lives, and it will be much easier to fight.

The whispering warbler laughed and said, "you directly stretched out your hand and asked me to take resources?"

Chapter 8792

Ye Chen also laughed, "aren't you my star?"

The whispering warbler giggled, and immediately looked a little condensed and said, "the resources needed to recast the green lotus are too terrible. There are few such opportunities in the world. Or, you can open the brocade bag and have a look. Don't you still have four brocade bags?"

The brocade bag held by Ye Chen contains the Enlightenment of the ultimate Avenue behind it. When he encounters a difficult bottleneck, he may be guided by opening the brocade bag.

Ye Chen moved in his heart and immediately took out a brocade bag.

All brocade bags are empty at ordinary times. Only at special times will there be a prompt in the brocade bag, which is the guide of the road.

Ye Chen touched it and felt that there was an imperial edict in the brocade bag out of thin air.

"Sure enough, there are instructions!"

Ye Chen took out the imperial edict and saw four words printed on it:

Immortal kingdom!

"Immortal Kingdom, what is this place?"

Ye Chen frowned and pinched his fingers to try to calculate, but found that he could not calculate any eyebrows.

He can only be sure that there is no immortal kingdom in the supreme world.

This immortal kingdom is not in the world.

Ye Chen was a little surprised that when he deduced the clues of the immortal Kingdom, the rock god blood in his body was actually slightly touched.

This seems to predict that the immortal kingdom is related to the God of rock!

"Eh, immortal kingdom?"

The wind whispering warbler was also quite surprised to see the instructions on the imperial edict.

"Do you know where this is?"

Ye Chen asked.

"You know, it is said that this immortal kingdom is a special place in the age of the nine gods, and it is also the place where the rock god Tianzun came from."

The whispering warbler said.

Ye Chen: "the God of rock... The place where God rises?"

The whispering warbler said, "yes, in those days, the rock god Tianzun rose from the immortal kingdom. Most of the treasures he got from fighting in all directions were also sent back to the immortal kingdom."

"The immortal Kingdom contains countless treasures, which are very rich."

"Unfortunately, after the end of the age of the nine gods, the immortal Kingdom eventually disappeared in history. The world does not know where the immortal kingdom is buried, even I do not know."

Ye Chen said, "don't you even know?"

The wind whispering warbler said, "yes, the immortal kingdom is too mysterious. After the fall of the rock god Tianzun, the world was also separated from no time and space, wandering in the world of the heavens. In this world, only two people know the coordinates of the immortal kingdom."

Ye Chen said, "which two people?"

The whispering warbler said, "the moral God and the father of the heavenly heart."

"In the age of the nine gods, the moral deity has become famous. When the rock deity did not fall, he was a guest of the immortal kingdom."

The origin of the moral deity is very mysterious and no one knows.

But what is certain is that in the age of the nine gods, the moral deity already existed.

The years of his existence are older and more distant than ancient times.

Su nishang, the God of fire in those days, walked out of time and space and was killed by the moral God.

.....

"As for Tianxin Laozu, because the rock god Tianzun once won the Tianbei and sealed it in the immortal Kingdom, so the immortal Kingdom, with the cause and effect of the Tianbei, Tianxin Laozu can easily lock the coordinates."

"However, in those days, the rock god Tianzun was not able to refine the Tianbei. The energy of the Tianbei was too majestic, and the emperor and God of heaven could not refine it. Unless you make use of the power of reincarnation blood, you can integrate it with the Tianbei."

Ye Chen said, "only the moral God and the father of the heavenly heart know the coordinates of the immortal kingdom of God, so I can't go?"

The whispering warbler said, "it doesn't matter. Now that you have the tips of the brocade bag, I can deduce the coordinates for you, but it will take a few days. In these days, you will practice hard and consolidate the foundation of the breakthrough of Tianxuan realm."

She took the brocade bag from ye Chen's hand, looked at Wu Yao again, and said:

"By the way, you'd better take Wu Yao with you when you come to the immortal kingdom. That place is too dangerous. With Wu Yao by your side, you can at least take care of more people."

Wu Yao's cheeks are red. She has been practicing with Ye Chen, combining compassion and reincarnation. She is Ye Chen's person.

"OK, I will accompany brother Ye Chen."

To accompany Ye Chen, she is naturally extremely willing.

Ye Chen also nodded. Faintly, he felt his fate was peeped at.

The peeper behind seems to be the moral God!

"The moral God has deduced my future. He knows that I may go to the immortal Kingdom, and I don't know what the plot will be."

Ye Chen secretly warned that since the moral God was plotting against him, he must take Wu Yao with him to ensure safety.

After the negotiation, ye Chen returned to the reincarnation blood palace to practice.

In the reincarnation blood palace, many people in the reincarnation camp are still studying the mystery of Tiandou datu sword.

But this sword technique is really too complicated. Everyone thought hard and didn't get a clue.

Ye Chen has been promoted to Tianxuan realm, but when he goes to watch the Ferris Dou datu sword again, he is also confused and completely unable to understand.

"Fighting datu sword this day is indeed mysterious and profound. Maybe I can't successfully understand it until I step into the boundless realm."

Ye Chen thought, and immediately shook his head, restrained his inner thoughts, and sat down in a quiet practice room in the reincarnation blood palace, silently regulating his breath, and consolidating his foundation.

This battle of Tianxuan breakthrough was a great victory for ye Chen, but the price paid was also very huge.

Chapter 8793

Ren Feifan flies up, leaves the real world and steps into no time and space, which is the biggest price.

Although Ren Feifan will continue to guard Ye Chen in wuwuwuspacetime, after all, he is not around Ye Chen and may not be able to maintain everything.

The future road, more often, needs to rely on Ye Chen himself.

Feng Yu Ying, ye Yishen, Xuan Hanyu, Shen Tu Wan'er, the second demon girl, Ji Siqing and others were either injured or their vitality was too seriously consumed. Now the battle is over, everyone adjusts their breath and recovers, and the perfect Saint also leaves.

The supreme world is in a temporary calm.

The ancient emperor Yu Huang was severely injured by Ren Feifan's sword. This time, he was even more injured than last time. He had to close the whole realm of the Emperor Yu Huang and heal at ease.

But everyone knows that the emperor did not hurt the foundation.

His sin scabbard still exists!

When he recovers from his injury and sacrifices the scabbard of the sin sword, that is when the sin ancient sword comes!

There is no force in the world that can resist the edge of the ancient sword of sin.

Ye Chen also knows that there is a turbulent undercurrent in the calm of the outside world. He must continue to cultivate and break through, so that he can become stronger and stronger.

However, his martial arts background is too powerful, and it is much harder than ordinary people to make a breakthrough.

Therefore, he just wants to recast Qinglian as soon as possible.

In this way, there is room for dealing with any danger in the future.

In the cultivation room, ye Chen silently adjusted his breath, operated his reincarnation blood, and consolidated his martial arts foundation.

After three days like this, the foundation of martial arts in ye chentian xuanjing has been completely stabilized.

Wu Dao had a solid foundation. Ye Chen opened his eyes, and his eyes emitted two golden lights.

As a blessing to the soul, ye Chen offered a piece of jade slips, which were printed with the words "wilderness Wujing".

"With my current cultivation, I can understand the last layer of the great wilderness Wujing, the great wilderness steals heaven!"

Dahuang Wujing is a secret method passed by Huang Lao to Ye Chen. It is divided into nine layers.

The highest level is the great wilderness stealthy art.

After practicing this great wilderness stealing heaven skill, you can steal all things in the sky and even plunder the law energy. It is very terrifying.

If ye Chen's cultivation is enough, he can even steal magic weapons such as sin ancient sword, demon star sea and so on.

Of course, the cost is absolutely huge.

Stealing the way of heaven is tantamount to acting against heaven.

Ye Chen's spirit penetrated into the jade slips of the great wilderness without Sutra. After a little understanding, it was almost effortless to understand the mystery of the great wilderness's stealing heaven.

"The wilderness steals heaven, steals heaven's law, steals everything, and plunders the origin..."

Ye Chen always couldn't figure out how to understand this great wilderness stealing magic before.

But now, after he was promoted to Tianxuan realm, his reincarnation blood became stronger, and his own understanding was also greatly improved. He had a thorough understanding of this secret method between breathing.

"Hehe, boy, it's good. Unexpectedly, it has really become my great wilderness stealing skill."

Reincarnation cemetery vibrated, and an old figure appeared from the cemetery.

It is the old and the free.

The name of Huang Lao is exactly called stealing heaven.

His attainments of stealing heaven and earth in the wilderness are extremely terrifying, but now there is no body, only a spirit. If he wants to use the secret method of stealing heaven and earth again, the cost is too great, and he is inconvenient to use it again.

Seeing ye Chen's understanding of success, Huang Lao was extremely gratified.

The great wilderness steals the sky, has the inheritance, this is equivalent to, his orthodoxy, has been inherited.

Ye Chen's body has his traces. Even if his spirit is wiped out, as long as ye Chen does not die, his traces will always exist, and there is the possibility of resurrection.

"Huang Lao, can I steal the law of cause and effect without time and space?"

When ye Chen saw Huang Lao coming out, his eyes moved and asked.

Ye Chen has seen the mystery of the law of cause and effect with his own eyes, which is simply incredible.

For example, Ji Siqing, who controls a little bit of the secret of the law of cause and effect, can directly kill Ye Linyuan, which shows the strength of the law of cause and effect.

Now ye Chen has practiced the art of stealing heaven from the wilderness. He just wants to steal the law energy of no time and space, and also establish his own law of cause and effect.

Huang Lao touched his beard and said, "just try it. If you can control the law of cause and effect, you will have the ability to stand out from heaven and earth."

Ye Chen gave a "hum", nodded heavily, and even if he performed the great wilderness stealing, he tried to steal the invisible energy.

Boom!

When the great wilderness steals the sky, ye Chen's body explodes with a terrible desolation.

These barren, breath free, black-and-white shapes, such as tentacles, poisonous snakes, and vines, constantly shake and turbulence, and look very strange.

Hiss hiss!

Then, the barren breath penetrated into the surrounding void, but it instantly penetrated layers of time and space and into the distant world of nothingness.

Hum!

Ye Chen's head shook violently, as if he had suddenly been hit hard with a hammer, and he was almost about to vomit blood.

His breath, suddenly touching wuwuwuspacetime, also received a terrible shock.

Fortunately, ye Chen was already on guard and immediately urged the reincarnation blood to resist the impact of Wuwu.

This shock will soon fade.

Ye Chen's spirit, calm down, take a deep breath, use the great wilderness to steal heaven, and began to constantly steal the law energy of no time and space.

WOW!

Waves of law energy, such as water pouring into the sky, continue to pour down towards Ye Chen.

Those law energy, from no time and space, poured into the real world, solidified again, and turned into pieces of glittering and translucent law fragments.

These law fragments contain the power of the law of cause and effect in the legend.

Huang Lao looked around and saw pieces of law, which surrounded Ye Chen like stars, but could not integrate with Ye Chen.

To be exact, ye Chen has no ability to control these law fragments.

Although he was promoted to Tianxuan realm, the law of cause and effect without time and space was not in this realm and could be easily controlled.

Ye Chen also saw this scene, and his heart coagulated slightly.

Huang Lao laughed and said, "you've done a good job in stealing heaven. When you first cast it, you stole so many pieces of lawlessness, but how do you integrate?"

Ye Chen said with a smile, "I can't integrate, but I can first carry it with the tablet of the emperor of heaven."

Ye Chen offered the tablet of God worship to the emperor of heaven, and directly inlaid the fragments of the law on the tablet of God worship to the emperor of heaven.

After solving the problem of containing law fragments, ye Chen wants to continue to cast spells and steal.

But at this time, he felt an endless smell of darkness and filth, devouring him.

Aware of the devouring of the dark and filthy, ye Chen immediately withdrew his skill and stopped stealing.

Seeing this, Huang Lao smiled and said, "be careful, there is dark energy everywhere in no time and space. You must steal the law quickly, and get out before the black tide returns."

"A wise thief should always know when to leave, and don't be too greedy."

Chapter 8794

There is no time and space, which is the convergence of countless future concepts and fantasy concepts. The collision and integration of these concepts will breed a lot of darkness.

In fact, there is no time and space, which is very "empty". Fantasy worlds float like islands.

Outside the island, there is boundless dark energy.

Darkness and chaos will always be the biggest background of no space and time.

For thousands of years, I don't know how many people want to establish a real order in the chaotic time and space, but no one has ever succeeded.

Ye Chen nodded approvingly after hearing Huang Lao's words.

For the next three days, ye Chen was in the cultivation room, refining his accomplishments, and from time to time, he used the great wilderness to steal the energy of the law of space and time.

After three days of stealing, dozens of law fragments have been inlaid on the tablet of Ye Chen Tianjun's gods.

These law fragments contain the energy fluctuations of the law of cause and effect.

Ye Chen estimated that if he broke out completely, he could exert the power of causality twice.

Of course, the law of cause and effect to be defined cannot be too outrageous.

If it's too outrageous, it can't be achieved.

"I wish that when I wake up tomorrow, I can step into the second floor of Tianxuan!"

Ye Chen urged the heavenly king to seal the God monument, burned half of the law fragments above, and mixed the power of the wish sky star totem to make a wish.

This desire has a strong fluctuation of causality.

Once the law of cause and effect comes out, as long as the energy behind it is enough, it will be realized.

Ye Chen's cultivation was originally the peak of the first layer of heaven in Tianxuan realm. He made a wish to step into the second layer of heaven. This Law of cause and effect, this wish, is not excessive.

Sure enough, ye Chen slept all night. When he woke up the next morning, he felt energetic and his cultivation breath was much stronger.

His cultivation realm was indeed a direct breakthrough from the first level of heaven to the second level of heaven.

"Hahaha, good, good!"

"Is this the power of the law of cause and effect?"

It's really wonderful. "

Ye Chen was surprised, and probably felt the wonderful changes in the law of cause and effect.

He didn't have any practice last night. As soon as he woke up today, he broke through immediately.

This is the mystery of the law of cause and effect.

"Yes, boy, it seems that you can preliminarily master the law of cause and effect, but be careful, the cause and effect you define must not be too excessive, otherwise, not only can it not be achieved, but also backfire on yourself."

Old ways.

"I see."

Ye Chen nodded to show understanding and walked out of the practice room.

He spent seven days in the training room.

In these seven days, the night mother wind whispering warbler finally investigated the coordinates of the immortal kingdom.

"The coordinates are found."

On the top of the mountain of xingyueshen cult, ye Chen met with the wind whispering Ying. With a flick of her slender hand, the golden bag amulet flew into Ye Chen's hand.

The four characters of immortal kingdom are still printed on the imperial edict, but under those four characters, there is an extra coordinate.

This is the result of the investigation of the whispering warbler.

Ye Chen also accurately captured the location of the coordinates, surprised in his heart, and said, "thank you, Yuying girl."

The whispering yingxiao said with a smile, "you are welcome. We are allies and good friends. Take Wu Yao and set out for the immortal kingdom together, but be careful of the scorching sun demon clan."

Ye Chen was stunned: "the scorching sun demon clan?"

The whispering warbler looked slightly frozen and said, "yes, I deduced the secret of heaven and peeped into the immortal kingdom. It seems that there is a demon clan."

"They are called the scorching sun demon clan. It is said that they were born from the shadow of reincarnation, the scorching sun and the stars."

"They are afraid of reincarnation and that they will be burned to ashes by the scorching sun."

"So, they hate you, the Lord of reincarnation."

"The scorching sun demon clan used to belong to the demon God of no time and space. It was the Lich King... Well, it was Shen Tu Wan'er's men."

"Later, Shentu Waner wanted to form an alliance with reincarnation. The scorching sun demon clan resolutely opposed it and finally betrayed it."

"I found that the scorching sun demon clan seems to want to seize the treasures in the immortal kingdom. After you go to the immortal Kingdom, be careful of them."

Ye Chen felt a chill in his heart and said, "OK, I know, the scorching sun demon clan..."

Vaguely, ye Chen also spied the cause and effect of the divine mechanism behind it.

The scorching sun demon clan refused to take refuge in reincarnation, broke with Shentu Waner, and defected from the demon palace.

They want to seize the treasure of the immortal kingdom. Obviously, they want to strengthen themselves and kill the demon palace.

The whispering warbler said again, "also, you should be careful of Tianxin ancestor and Duobao Tianjun. I suspect that they have also gone to the immortal Kingdom, and have even allied with the scorching sun demon clan to seize and divide the treasure left by the rock god Tianzun."

"Even more, they should predict that you will also go, so they may ambush in advance. If you want to kill you, you must be careful and take Wu Yao with you."

Ye Chen was on alert and said, "OK, I'll be careful."

The whispering warbler said, "well, go ahead. I wish you can successfully win the treasure and recast the green lotus."

Ye Chen said, "sure!"

After the negotiation, ye Chen took Wu Yao and set out for the immortal kingdom.

The two people hold hands, very cordial, because they already have skin relatives, so there is no estrangement between them, just like a pair of Taoists made in heaven.

According to the coordinates, the two tore the void and came to the immortal kingdom. They saw that the immortal kingdom was suspended in a chaotic void, surrounded by the sun, showing a desolate gray.

The territory of the immortal kingdom is a vast river and mountain, which is painted on this chaotic void, and does not exist in the state of a planet.

Chapter 8795

Around the immortal Kingdom, there are layers of runes of rock.

These runes of the rock seem to be left by the former God of the rock. The power is very terrible. It protects the entire immortal Kingdom, isolates cause and effect, cuts off the secrets of the heaven, prevents outsiders from prying, and prohibits outsiders from entering.

"These runes are so powerful."

Wu Yao's eyes were slightly coagulated, and with a wave of her slender hand, an aura came out, trying to break through the rune ban.

After her cultivation with Ye Chen, she can fully control the power of the Immortal Emperor. She is the real Immortal Emperor.

Her divine light is enough to burst the void of the universe.

However, her immortal spirit burst out, but failed to break through the Rune of the rock.

The Rune of the rock is incredibly strong, and even the power of the Immortal Emperor can't shake a penny.

"Is this the hometown of the God of rock..."

Ye Chen looked at the immortal kingdom in the distance and felt the thick breath of this country. The rock god blood in his body also faintly sent a touch, a touch like returning to his hometown.

"Brother Ye Chen, how can we get in?"

Wu Yao asked.

"Go straight in and follow me."

Ye Chen has the blood of the rock god. He can feel that those runes of the rock do not resist him.

He took Wu Yao's hand and walked directly to the immortal kingdom.

Sure enough, when the two people approached the immortal Kingdom, the Runes of the rock slowly moved away to both sides, slightly flashing brilliance, and did not have the slightest resistance to Ye Chen, but seemed to welcome his arrival.

Ye Chen and Wu Yao entered the immortal Kingdom very smoothly and fell over the kingdom of God.

When they just entered, they felt a terrible gravity coming from the ground.

Under the limitation of this gravity, ye Chen and Wu Yao were even difficult to levitate in the air and were directly pulled to the ground.

"Ouch, the laws of heaven and earth here are so solid."

Wu Yao was surprised. After landing on the ground, she had a feeling that her life had been sublimated, but she had a feeling of breaking away from the past and could not turn back.

The laws of this immortal Kingdom, time, space, gravity and so on, are completely different from the outside world.

Here, the space solidifies tens of millions of times and cannot be torn at all. It is so heavy that it is suffocating.

The law of time is like a galloping roar, which accelerates the passage of life in human body by ten thousand times.

As for the earth gravity of this country, it is billions of times heavier than the outside world.

Under the limitation of this gravity, even flying has become an extravagant hope.

Ye Chen took a deep breath and felt the air drilling into his lungs, like thousands of tons of mercury, pouring into his internal organs, which was very heavy and uncomfortable.

"Is this the immortal kingdom?"

Time, space, gravity, law, everything is really heavy and immortal. "

Ye Chen Ran the law power of the celestial realm, mixed with reincarnation blood, and spread a layer of shield to protect himself from the suppression of immortal laws around him.

However, this protection just keeps him from being crushed.

If you want to tear the void, or fly against the wind, it is almost an extravagant existence in the immortal kingdom of God.

Looking from a distance, the mountains of the immortal kingdom are much broader than the outside world. The towering trees, one by one, actually reveal the texture of rocks, which is very thick.

Above the high sky, there is a stone sun.

Ye Chen can be sure that this round of stone sun is actually the eyes of the God of rock.

When this eye is opened, it is dawn, and when it is closed, it is dark.

The source of all kinds of earth vein breath and the law energy of heaven and earth of the immortal kingdom is in this rock god's eye.

The sun transformed by the eye of the rock god also protects the immortal kingdom.

Ye Chen's divine consciousness was released, and he wanted to spy on the details of the immortal Kingdom, but the surrounding laws were firm and tight, such as layers of barriers, and his divine consciousness could not be released at all.

"Rock god blood, breakthrough!"

Ye Chen tried to stimulate the blood of the rock god and release the divine consciousness. This time, it was easy to release it. He peeped into the land of the immortal kingdom. Unexpectedly, there were corpses everywhere, bleeding thousands of miles, and I don't know how many people died.

"Many dead people! Are these people... Descendants of the God of rock?"

Ye Chen was thrilled. From those bodies, he vaguely caught cause and effect.

These dead, unexpectedly, are descendants of the rock god Tianzun and aborigines of the immortal kingdom.

Since the fall of the God of rock, they have been living in the immortal kingdom of God, praying for the God of rock, hoping that one day, the God of rock can recover, lead them to fight in the heavens again, and achieve hegemony.

However, they did not wait for the recovery of the God of rock, but only for the arrival of the enemy.

Ye Chen hasn't peeped into the identity of these enemies, but he only feels the power of each other, which is very terrible and powerful.

"Is it the scorching sun demon clan?"

"They killed the descendants of the rock god Tianzun in order to seize the treasure?"

Ye Chen's eyes flashed a trace of coldness, and his heart was filled with hatred.

He inherited the orthodoxy of Yan Shen Xue and Yan Shen Tian Zun, and was also the successor of Yan Shen Tian Zun.

Now, seeing the death of the descendants of the rock god, his heart is also quite sad and angry.

He wanted to spy on the identity and location of the enemy, but he could not accurately capture that there were many places in the immortal kingdom that could not be illuminated by the sun, and his divine consciousness could not extend past, only probably feeling a few dark waves.

These places where the sun cannot shine are not only covered by shadows, but even seem to breed mysterious darkness, which is infected by indescribable energy.

"This way!"

Ye Chen vaguely looked at a dark place and immediately took Wu Yao's hand and flew away.

The law of the immortal kingdom is thick. Even ye Chen and Wu Yao can only break through the air and teleport for more than ten miles under normal conditions, and can't do a good job of easy shuttle.

Fortunately, ye Chen has rock god blood. With the blessing of rock god blood, the two people fly faster, such as two birds, passing over the vast land, shuttling through the air, and even bringing up a sharp sonic boom.

After flying for a few hours, the eyes of the God of rock in the sky closed and changed from the sun to the moon.

With the eyes of the rock god closed, the whole immortal Kingdom also fell into darkness.

Night fell, and under the night, dark waves are easier to breed.

Ye Chen and Wu Yao gradually approached the dark place, and they heard voices faintly from the open space in front of the mountain in front of them.

The two looked at each other, walked forward, hid behind a towering tree, and could be seen through the cracks in the branches.

In the open space ahead, an altar is built.

Around the altar, there were people in armor, shaped like Shura, holding torches and looking dignified.

On their forehead, there is a sun mark.

Their skin also showed a bronze color of the sun, but their eyes were full of dark magic gas, their body shape was distorted from time to time, maggots were drilled out of their flesh, or poisonous snakes were drilled out of their eyes, their mouths suddenly rotted, and even their heads suddenly fell down, and so on.

Chapter 8796

All kinds of strange weather show that these people are not people, but monsters from time and space.

"Are these weird people the scorching sun demon clan?"

Ye Chen's heart beat violently, and he faintly felt that the bright sun and the star that had not yet lit up had an unusual fluctuation.

The scorching sun star is the second of the seven stars of samsara.

It is said that before the reincarnation inheritor was born, the scorching sun and stars hung on the top of time and space, shining on the world.

In places where the sun and stars cannot shine, in those shadow corners, darkness breeds and demons are born.

These born demons are the scorching sun demons.

In the vein of the demon God, the power of the scorching sun demon clan was very strong, and once wanted to impact the position of the demon God.

However, their weakness is also very fatal.

That is, fear reincarnation, fear the brilliance and greatness of the scorching sun.

It is precisely because of this weakness that they have defects in their Taoist heart and have always been unable to win the throne of the demon God.

Ye Chen's insight into the secret of heaven has revealed that a large number of powerful people of the scorching sun demon clan invaded the immortal Kingdom and made terrible killings, almost killing all the descendants of the rock god God.

However, descendants of the rock god can't be slaughtered so easily with the protection of the rock god.

There must be something hidden behind the scorching sun demon clan.

"Who is it, who cooperates with the scorching sun demon clan to massacre the descendants of the rock god? Is it the ancestor of Tianxin?"

Ye Chen gritted his teeth, and in a flash, countless thoughts flashed through his heart.

At this time, in the darkness of the woods, several strong men of the scorching sun demon clan came out, and they escorted a human youth to the altar.

The Terran boy, his face full of fear, kept shouting: "let go of me, let go of me!"

A burst of "hey hey" "hey hey" cold laughter rang out, and from the woods, another old man came out, full of evil spirit, unexpectedly, he was the leader of the evil sect of Zihuang fairy palace, Duobao Tianjun.

Those strong men of the scorching sun demon clan looked respectfully at the Duobao emperor.

When ye Chen saw this scene, he was shocked and thought, "the emperor of Duobao really came, too. Did he come by the order of the moral God?"

Looking at this scene, the scorching sun demon clan must have cooperated with Duobao Tianjun. The descendants of rock god were slaughtered, and Duobao Tianjun contributed a lot.

"This Terran youth is the listener of the rock god God. Killing him to worship the heaven can ensure that the rock god's will is broken."

Duobao Tianjun said with a grim smile.

The strong men of the scorching sun demon clan around shouted loudly and tied the Terran boy to the altar.

"Let go of me! You dark aliens, sooner or later you will bear the wrath of the God of rock!"

The Terran boy was tied to the altar and kept struggling and scolding, but he was tied all over and couldn't get rid of it.

Duobao Tianjun hehe smiled, pointed to the eye of the rock god in the sky, and said, "your rock god Tianzun, your will has been isolated by the witch, and can no longer give you enough shelter. Why do you struggle?"

"Hand over the treasure, and I can spare you rock gods from dying."

The eye of the rock god hangs high in the sky and has sheltered the immortal people of the kingdom of God for generations, but this sheltering has not been effective today.

I don't know how many descendants of rock god have been brutally slaughtered, but the God of rock has never appeared.

Ye Chen listened to the words of Duobao Tianjun and thought, "has the will of the God of rock been isolated by the witch?"

Is there cooperation with the witch behind the purple fairy palace? "

At the thought of this, ye Chen couldn't help creeping.

"Bah! The treasure left by the God of rock, you dark aliens, are not qualified to touch!"

The Terran boy cursed loudly and spit out a mouthful of thick phlegm.

Duobao Tianjun stepped back, smiled and said, "you don't want to hand over the treasure, anyway, Tianxin ancestor will break in sooner or later, you listener, die today!"

The so-called listener is the bridge between God and mortals.

This Terran teenager is the listener of the rock god family. He has the opportunity to communicate with the rock god God God, even though the will of the rock god has been isolated by the witch.

This is a huge hidden danger, and Duobao Tianjun has to eliminate it.

See Duobao Tianjun waved, next to a dozen strong people of the scorching sun demon clan, is holding a spear halberd, striding out, the spear point is aimed at the altar, is about to stab the Terran boy to death.

"Stop!"

Wu Yao, who was hiding behind the big tree, couldn't bear this scene any longer, strode out, and was full of Immortal Emperor's spirit, shouting.

Ye Chen was surprised. He was still thinking about whether to save people, but Wu Yao did it directly.

Wu Yao is the Lord of mercy. He is kind-hearted. Seeing that the Terran youth is going to be killed to worship the heaven, how can he be indifferent?

Her scolding fell, and the dozen strong demons who were ready to fight suddenly trembled violently, and their eyes slightly showed a dull meaning.

In an instant, the killing intention in their eyes was all dissipated, replaced by the gentle and compassionate light, and they lost their spears and halberds in their hands.

Wu Yao's compassion has a great influence on people's spirit.

Her words can shake people's heart of Tao, make the ferocious become kind, and make the murderous demons become merciful gods and Buddhas.

"Wu Yao, it's you!"

Seeing Wu Yao's appearance, Duobao Tianjun was shocked: "where's the boy Ye Chen?"

"Here!"

A voice suddenly sounded from the back of Duobao Tianjun's head.

Chapter 8797

Duobao Tianjun looked back and saw Ye Chen holding the reincarnation Heavenly Sword, ferociously stabbing his head.

It turned out that ye Chen did not hesitate to do it immediately after seeing Wu Yao's action.

He knew that the king was the first to catch the thief, so as soon as he made a move, he aimed at Duobao Tianjun.

The cultivation of Duobao Tianjun is infinitely close to the Immortal Emperor. If it had been before, ye Chen could not have killed him.

But now, ye Chen's cultivation has reached the second level of the Tianxuan realm. Facing the Duobao Tianjun, he is not afraid at all, and may even be killed!

Seeing ye Chen's sword, Duobao Tianjun was shocked and hurried to dodge, narrowly avoiding Ye Chen's sword.

After avoiding Ye Chen's sword, he was already sweating and said, "you... Didn't you just break through?

Why have you stepped into the second floor of Tianxuan? "

Duobao Tianjun only felt incredible. He knew that ye Chen was the Lord of reincarnation. With each level of cultivation, the strength growth was huge.

If there is a real duel between life and death, ye Chen, on the second floor of Tianxuan realm, if he makes a mistake, it is enough to kill him.

Ye Chen snorted, and was too lazy to talk nonsense. Holding the reincarnation sword tightly, he stabbed at Duobao Tianjun again.

Hiss!

The golden light of reincarnation Heavenly Sword broke out, bursting out at least 80% of the sword power, and the sharp tip of the sword pointed directly at the heart of Duobao Tianjun.

Today's reincarnation sky sword, if it is all the sword power, all burst out, and its edge is enough to keep pace with the emperor's holy sword.

However, the outbreak of such a limit will bring a lot of pressure to the reincarnation blood, and ye Chen will not use it easily.

It's only 80% of the sword power. He is also confident to defeat Duobao Tianjun.

Duobao Tianjun was shocked and pulled out his long sword to resist, but he was suddenly surprised to find that his Reiki energy was losing rapidly, as if it had been stolen.

"Boy, what kind of magic is this?"

Duobao Tianjun was afraid and dared not wave his sword to resist. He could only dodge in embarrassment.

This time, he dodged a little slowly, and was cut on his shoulder by Ye Chen's sword. Blood splashed, and sharp pain pierced his heart. His facial features were distorted.

Ye Chen holds the sword in his right hand, but holds the mysterious Yin formula in his left hand.

That's the magic formula of the great wilderness stealing heaven!

It turned out that at the time of the battle, ye Chen had used the great wilderness sky stealing technique to steal the aura of Duobao Tianjun.

Ye Chen stole the Reiki of Duobao Tianjun, and his Reiki instantly soared, and his momentum soared.

Duobao Tianjun's aura was stolen, and his aura was weakened.

With each passing day, he is not ye Chen's enemy.

"Protect Lord Duobao!"

The strong men of the scorching sun demon clan nearby, seeing that Duobao Tianjun was in danger, immediately formed an array and rushed out.

These powerful demons, with neat steps and magnificent momentum, blasted the sun like brilliance with all kinds of weapons in their hands and fiercely chopped Ye Chen.

The breath of their tricks is actually connected with the stars of the scorching sun. There is not much dark breath, but full of the brilliance and majesty of the scorching sun.

Ye Chen saw the secret of heaven at a glance.

The legendary scorching sun demon clan was born under the shadow of the scorching sun destiny star. They are afraid of the brilliance of the reincarnation scorching sun and are full of covetous intent.

They even want to seize the sun and the stars and achieve hegemony.

Therefore, these strong people of the scorching sun demon clan, each move is blooming with the brilliance of the scorching sun, which is very different from the ordinary dark demon clan.

Countless ancestors of the scorching sun demon clan, at the cost of their lives, watched the reincarnation of the scorching sun and created the great magic power of this door.

When ye Chen saw the moves of those powerful demons, he immediately felt very familiar.

It was his first time to meet him, but he felt very familiar with the magic powers of those powerful demons, which were interlinked with the sun and stars.

Ye Chen saw through all the mysteries, flaws and weaknesses in these magical powers at a glance.

"The law of the emperor of heaven, reincarnation, six swords, broken!"

Ye Chen shouted violently, and the reincarnation sword in his hand was killed like electricity. The sword body exploded the unique law energy of the superior of the emperor of heaven, and combined with the six reincarnation methods, instantly cut out thousands of reincarnation sword Qi, and killed those powerful demons.

Puff, puff, puff!

Ye Chen had already seen through the flaws of the moves of those powerful demons. This hand reincarnation sword cut out, and killed each powerful demons like the wind sweeping away the leaves.

The rear Duobao Tianjun, looking at Ye Chen's brave appearance of killing the four sides, was even more frightened, and thought, "this boy stepped into the mysterious realm of heaven, and his cultivation strength was indeed against the sky. Fortunately, I arranged in advance and prepared a large array."

He quietly offered an array, chanted a mantra in his mouth, and his palm was sealed, and he was ready to open it.

Just now he fought with Ye Chen and couldn't get away. At this time, he had the opportunity to release the array.

At this time, Wu Yao also rushed to the altar to save the Terran boy.

There were many powerful demons guarding near the altar, but they saw Wu Yao's face and her merciful and clear eyes, and everyone was stunned, but no one stopped.

Wu Yao rescued the Terran boy from the altar, and he was not stopped at all, let alone hurt him.

"Thank you... Thank you."

The Terran boy looked at Wu Yao's merciful eyes, his heart was grateful, and his eyes were filled with a trace of piety and awe, like mortals looking up to merciful Bodhisattvas.

"Wu Yao, stop!"

Seeing that Wu Yao wanted to save people and leave, Duobao Tianjun immediately shouted angrily and showed his array in his hand:

"You and ye Chen, this boy, stay here today!"

Chapter 8798

The sound like thunder rolled and exploded.

All the powerful demons in the audience woke up like a dream.

They looked at Wu Yao with incredible expressions.

They were born in the demon clan, and they didn't know how much blood they had on their hands, or how many creatures they had killed.

However, in the face of Wu Yao's eyes, they were touched, as if they had become merciful.

Until hearing the cry of Duobao Tianjun, a group of powerful demons woke up.

"This little girl is weird. Help Lord Duobao and catch her first!"

The demons were afraid, for fear of being illuminated by Wu Yao's compassion, and drove the magic Qi in their bodies one after another, but they didn't attack Wu Yao, but gathered all the magic Qi on Duobao Tianjun.

They know that Wu Yao is a strong man at the Xiandi level. Ordinary people want to defeat her, which is wishful thinking. Only by relying on the action of Duobao Tianjun, can they defeat the enemy.

Many demonic Qi gathered, and the aura on Duobao Tianjun suddenly surged and roared, and the array in his hand also released unprecedented brilliance.

As the array unfolded, a terrible Immortal Emperor array fell down.

This Immortal Emperor array, unexpectedly, takes thousands of mountains as the array and thousands of rivers as the prohibition. As soon as it lands, the mountains and rivers around it will rumble and rotate.

Thousand mountains turned into an array, and ten thousand rivers evolved into prohibitions. Between breathing, a big cage of heaven and earth mountains and rivers was formed, trapping Ye Chen, Wu Yao, and the Terran teenager.

"Hey, boy, this is the Xiandi mountain and river array of my purple fairy palace. I see how you can resist it."

The emperor of Duobao released the array, and his face also showed a look of cruelty.

The Immortal Emperor mountain and river array is powerful. It can mobilize the power of heaven, earth, mountains and rivers, and even the Immortal Emperor may be trapped.

In the immortal Kingdom, the Immortal Emperor mountain and river array can play the most powerful power.

Because the mountains and rivers of the immortal kingdom are very solid, with the will of the ancient rock god, which is far more stable and thick than the outside world.

The emperor of Duobao released the mountain and river array and trapped Ye Chen and Wu Yao.

Suddenly, ye Chen and Wu Yao felt a great pressure.

That's the power of heaven and earth, the immortal majesty, and the gravity of the earth vein.

Under the blockade of this large array, even the strong in the later stage of the general boundless realm are dead ends.

"Zhaowu Lingyu, protect!"

Ye Chen sacrificed Zhaowu Lingyu to protect himself.

This Zhaowu plume is the ancestor of the rock god. It is a magic weapon inherited by the former rock god God. It is very powerful.

In the immortal Kingdom, Zhaowu Lingyu can play the most powerful effect.

Zhaowu Lingyu burst into a thick glow, which formed a golden bell like shield to protect Ye Chen and Wu Yao's body, as well as the body of the Terran youth.

Under such protection, the pressure of Ye Chen and Wu Yao was greatly reduced, and they were no longer threatened by the mountain and river array.

"Hey, hey, do you think you can stop it?"

With a grim smile, Duobao Tianjun bit his fingertips, forced out blood, mixed with the breath of many powerful demons around, turned into a shocking dark wave, and rushed into the formation.

This dark wave, fiercely towards Ye Chen and Wu Yao impact.

Under the blockade of the formation, the two people had no room to toss and turn. Suddenly, they were impacted by the dark wave, and they felt the pressure as huge as heaven, as if they were entangled by countless dark mysteries.

Ye Chen even felt that there was a demon girl's will in this dark wave!

"It seems that there is cooperation between Zihuang fairy palace and the witch!"

Ye Chen's heart sank. Behind Duobao Tianjun, there is the support of the demon girl's will. He must break through this formation as soon as possible, otherwise he will be blocked, and there will be only a dead end.

Under the impact of such a dark wave, the Terran youth around Ye Chen and Wu Yao was even more depressed and uncomfortable. There was a strange black gas coming out of his head, and he would soon be eroded and killed by the darkness.

"Rock god blood, suppress it!"

Ye Chen flexed his fingers, and a ray of light containing the power of rock god's blood fell on the Terran boy.

The dark smell of the Terran boy was immediately suppressed, and his painful expression was slightly relaxed.

"Thank you for saving me, Lord of reincarnation."

The boy opened his eyes and looked at Ye Chen. His eyes were also full of gratitude.

"Let's go out first."

Ye Chen poured a large amount of his aura into Zhaowu Lingyu, and flew forward with the protection of Zhaowu Lingyu.

His array skills are very good. Glancing at it, he saw the weakness of the Immortal Emperor mountain river array.

It is the tallest mountain and the most magnificent. It is where the air engines of the whole array converge, and it is also the weakest place.

As long as you smash this mountain, you can break through.

"Want to break?"

"Demon girl, come to your will!"

Duobao Tianjun wanted to break the formation when he saw Ye Chen, and his eyes also flashed a shadow.

If ye Chen breaks through and leaves, it will be troublesome.

He must leave Ye Chen here. Even if he can't kill him, he must seal and suppress him!

Boom!

Duobao Tianjun kneads and sings to summon the demon girl's will to come.

Between heaven and earth, suddenly black gas surged.

A pale and slender palm, as big as the sky, dragged a magic knife horizontally, cut down from the sky cloud, and cut straight towards Ye Chen.

This magic knife is the manifestation of the witch's will to kill!

Summoning the demon girl's will to come, Duobao Tianjun was immediately evacuated, and his face was pale.

Chapter 8799

"Brother Ye Chen, be careful!"

Wu Yao saw the magic knife cut down, and immediately sacrificed the Tianya divine sword. The Immortal Emperor's aura was extremely explosive, and he wielded his sword and slashed with the magic knife.

Tianya divine sword is a double sword. Wu Yao holds this double sword, and his body looks more petite and exquisite, but the war spirit and spiritual pressure that he exudes is penetrating, showing the power of the Immortal Emperor.

Bang!

The battle between the magic knife and Tianya magic sword blew up a startling wave.

Wu Yao gave a "puff" sound, spewed blood on the spot, received a huge shock, and was seriously injured.

But anyway, she blocked this knife!

"Sister Wu Yao..."

Ye Chen was very concerned about Wu Yao's injury.

"Brother Ye Chen, don't worry about me, break the formation quickly!"

Wu Yao's silver teeth clenched, holding the Tianya sword, and regardless of his own injury, his small body stood upright, staring at Duobao Tianjun and many powerful demons.

"This girl, with the double cultivation of reincarnation, her strength has become so strong."

Duobao Tianjun's heart was filled with resentment and a trace of fear.

He originally thought that summoning the demon girl's will to come could suppress Ye Chen and Wu Yao.

But I didn't expect that Wu Yao's power was so fierce that she blocked the killing of the witch.

Between the lightning and flint, ye Chen's decision was also extremely fast. He punched hard and blasted to the mountains in front.

"God elephant smashes into the sky!"

The fierce momentum rushed out of Ye Chen's fist and turned into a divine image. If you want to collapse, just one punch will completely shatter the towering mountains in front of you.

Boom

The mountains burst into pieces and turned into countless rocks flying around, shocking the world.

In fact, in the immortal Kingdom, every mountain is extremely solid. Under normal circumstances, ye Chen can't break it with one punch.

However, with the blessing of Zhaowu Lingyu, ye Chen, if blessed by the God of rock, has a towering power in every move.

As the tallest mountain was shattered by Ye Chen, a gap appeared in the whole Xiandi mountain and river array, and all the pressure collapsed like a flood discharge.

"Go!"

Ye Chen, with Wu Yao and the Terran youth, flew out of the gap.

The formation was broken, and Duobao Tianjun was seriously backfired and vomited blood on the spot.

However, ye Chen was afraid of the will of the witch behind, but he didn't turn around and fight back, just wanted to leave here as soon as possible.

"Damn it!"

Seeing ye Chen and others leaving, Duobao Tianjun's eyes also showed his unwillingness.

Click click!

At this time, the void on one side suddenly burst, bursting out with the brilliance of countless scorching sun.

A dignified figure, like the manifestation of the power of the sun god, tore the void and walked out of the crack.

Behind this figure, there are several powerful servants, all of whom are from the scorching sun demon clan.

"Hehe, Duobao Tianjun, it seems that you can't do it. I thought you alone could suppress the Lord of reincarnation. Unexpectedly, you still failed."

"The reincarnation Lord can be said to be the descendant of the rock god Tianzun. We want to seize the treasure, but we can't let him disturb the situation."

The brilliant figure like the sun looked at Duobao Tianjun with some sarcasm.

"See Lord Jiuyang Xiandi!"

The disciples of the surrounding fiery Sun Demon clan saluted him one after another.

It turned out that this man was one of the leaders of the scorching sun demon clan, named Jiuyang Immortal Emperor. It was he who led these disciples of the scorching sun demon clan to the immortal Kingdom, trying to seize the treasure of the rock god.

"Jiuyang Immortal Emperor, if you have the ability, you will kill the Lord of reincarnation yourself."

Duobao Tianjun snorted, greatly resentful.

He knows that ye Chen is strong in luck and is definitely not so easy to kill.

This time he even borrowed the will power of the witch, but it didn't help. Finally, ye Chen left.

"Hehe, the Emperor himself did it. If I didn't need you to break the battle, I wouldn't be willing to cooperate with you."

"I have come from no time and space. Who is my enemy in this world?"

In the eyes of Jiuyang Immortal Emperor, there was a proud expression.

He led the scorching sun demon clan, coming from no time and space, ready to wash the immortal kingdom of God and seize the treasure.

However, it is a pity that there are large arrays of guardians everywhere in the immortal kingdom.

Those who guard the formation are inextricably linked with the earth vein of the real world.

Jiuyang Immortal Emperor was born without time and space, but he felt very thorny in the face of these guard arrays.

Finally, he had no choice but to cooperate with the father of Tianxin and the emperor of Duobao to agree to destroy the descendants of the rock god, seize the treasure and share it together.

Relying on the power of Tianxin Laozu and Duobao Tianjun, Jiuyang Immortal Emperor easily broke the guard formation.

Without the protection of the formation, tens of millions of descendants of rock god in the immortal kingdom were almost slaughtered by the strong of the scorching sun demon clan under the command of the Nine Yang Immortal Emperor, and only a few hundred people escaped.

The task of Duobao Tianjun is to kill the listeners of the rock god Tianzun in case of accidents.

However, this task failed unexpectedly.

Now ye Chen has saved the listener of the rock god Tianzun.

Duobao Tianjun knew that he had no light on his face, so he stopped talking.

"Wait, this emperor will take back the head of the Lord of reincarnation."

"Hehe, you all say that the Lord of reincarnation has great luck. I think it is Ren Feifan who is protecting him."

"Ren Feifan is no longer around him, so I don't believe that he can turn the sky in a mysterious realm?"

Jiuyang Immortal Emperor sneered repeatedly, and immediately waved his hand, took several servants, and many strong people of the scorching sun demon clan, and went out to hunt Ye Chen.

He has absolute confidence in his strength.

Even in the place with strict laws like the immortal Kingdom, he can tear through the void and shuttle. He is confident enough to kill Ye Chen, as long as Ren Feifan doesn't do it.

.....

Ye Chen took Wu Yao and the Terran boy, spread the wings of freedom, and flew all the way to a quiet and safe place, pausing slightly.

"Sister Wu Yao, are you all right?"

Seeing that Wu Yao was injured, Ye Chen held her hand and conveyed a wisp of aura of Bagua Tiandan, mixed with the essence of reincarnation blood.

Wu Yao's pale face suddenly recovered a little ruddy, and her state was much better. She breathed out and said, "I'm fine, brother Ye Chen."

The Terran youth got up, bowed to Ye Chen and Wu Yao and said, "Lord of reincarnation, Lord of mercy, thank you for saving me. I often heard the God of rock mention two."

Ye Chen fretted and said, "can you communicate with the God of rock?"

The Terran youth said, "yes, my name is Zhong Chen. I am the listener of the God of rock and the bridge between the God of rock and the immortal people of the kingdom of God."

"Unfortunately, recently, the will of the rock god Tianzun has been covered by the witch, and I can't contact him anymore."

"Lord of reincarnation, you have inherited the orthodoxy of the rock god, and you can be regarded as his successor. It's better for you to replace me and be the listener of the rock god."

Chapter 8800

"Now my immortal kingdom is about to be destroyed, and the God of rock must show his spirit in person to solve the crisis!"

Ye Chen thought, "it's said that the rock god Tianzun is the most powerful person in the age of the nine gods. It's also a good thing to see him. After all, I need the support of his treasure to recast the Qinglian separation."

Then he nodded and said, "if I want to be a listener, what ceremony do I need to prepare?"

Zhong Chen saw that ye Chen was willing to promise. He was immediately overjoyed and said, "Lord of reincarnation, come with me first."

Just lead the way ahead.

Ye Chen nodded, then followed Zhong Chen with Wu Yao and flew forward.

Immortal kingdom of God gravity terror, strict rules, but Zhong Chen is the descendant of rock god, running like the wind, unaffected.

Ye Chen needs to use the wings of freedom to barely keep up with Zhong Chen.

The three men flew across endless mountains and rivers at a very fast speed, but they saw thousands of miles of rivers and mountains, with lives ruined and bones everywhere. The dead were all descendants of the rock god.

Ye Chen and Wu Yao were gloomy when they saw the scene of bodies everywhere.

Zhong Chen saw the corpses of a clansman, and his eyes were full of anger and sadness.

"It's a pity that the will of the God of rock is deceived by others. Otherwise, with his protection, my immortal Terran will definitely not be reduced to this!"

Zhong Chen looked at the eyes of the God of rock in the sky, lowered his head again, and his voice sobbed blood.

Ye Chen and Wu Yao looked at each other and thought, "everything depends on human protection, which is not a long-term plan. Only their own strength is immortal."

Ye Chen was even more touched in his heart. He knew that together with reincarnation, there were many guardians, but if he wanted to really become strong, he could only rely on his own strength.

"Lord of reincarnation, please, you must be a listener and communicate with the God of rock."

"Only when the God of rock shows his spirit, the dead people of our immortal human race can have the possibility of resurrection!"

Zhong Chen lamented.

"Can they... Be revived?"

Ye Chen is a little surprised.

"Yes, although they are dead, there are still traces and concepts of their existence in the world, and even beliefs."

"As long as the God of rock shows his spirit, he can revive them."

Zhong chendao.

Resurrection of the dead in wuwuwuspacetime is not a profound magic power, but the most basic doorway.

A person who dies is not really dead. As long as there are traces of his existence in the world, he has the possibility of resurrection.

It is also very difficult to kill a person in time and space. You need to erase all traces of his existence before you can really kill him.

If a person is completely wiped out and all traces dissipate, it is impossible to revive.

This is the iron rule.

According to legend, only the Lord of reincarnation, who is in charge of the top of reincarnation, can break this iron law, control people's life and death at will, and revive the dead.

"I see. It would be great if I could communicate with the God of rock."

"I just don't know what I have to do to be a listener?"

Ye Chen asked.

Zhong Chen was about to speak, when suddenly there were a dozen figures in the void in the distance, flying like golden meteors, filling the world with majestic momentum, which was very terrifying.

The first person was as majestic and arrogant as a king, and he was covered with the spiritual pressure of the Immortal Emperor, but he was much more powerful than the ordinary Immortal Emperor, and even filled with the energy fluctuations without time and space.

This is not an ordinary Immortal Emperor, but a strong Immortal Emperor from no time and space!

In time and space, the Immortal Emperor is the starting point of the cultivation system, and only one step further can he be called a God.

The starting point of no time and space, in the real world, is the highest existence.

"It's Jiuyang Immortal Emperor! These leaders of the scorching sun demon clan!"

Zhong Chen saw the figure of the Immortal Emperor like a king and exclaimed.

That's the leader of the scorching sun demon clan, Jiuyang Immortal Emperor!

The Nine Yang Immortal Emperor was filled with the brilliance of the sun, which was very bright and dazzling, and people dared not look up.

"Is this the Immortal Emperor from no time and space?"

Sure enough, it's so dignified and energetic. "

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly, looking at the figure shot by the Immortal Emperor of Jiuyang, and his heart was secretly on guard.

Wu Yao is injured and is still recovering.

If you want to fight the Immortal Emperor of Jiuyang, you can only rely on Ye Chen himself.

With his current strength, if he is extremely explosive, it is OK to fight against the ordinary Immortal Emperor, but it is much more difficult to fight against the Immortal Emperor from no time and space.

Ye Chen wanted to avoid the sharp edge and leave, but all the surrounding space was blocked by the Nine Yang Immortal Emperor.

The whole person of Jiuyang Immortal Emperor is like a big sun, hanging high in the sky, and the blazing sun shines down, making people feel a suffocating pressure.

"Lord of reincarnation, where can you run under my nose?"

The Immortal Emperor of Jiuyang, with his servants and disciples, shot quickly, and the fierce and fiery spirit of the Immortal Emperor swept the whole audience, with an amazing momentum.

Wu Yao and Zhong Chen looked shocked, but they felt irresistible.

Ye Chen's eyes slightly coagulated, but he felt the scorching sun and stars in his body, vaguely touching.

His fiery sun and destiny star seemed very eager for the Nine Yang Immortal Emperor and wanted to devour it directly.

Ye Chen naturally understood that the Nine Yang Immortal Emperor was one of the leaders of the scorching sun demon clan, which was born from the dark shadow of the scorching sun destiny star.

Since ancient times, countless strong people of the scorching sun demon clan have tried to seize the energy of the scorching sun star.

Most of the magic tricks in the scorching sun demon clan are also related to the scorching sun star.
