Chapter 9262

Huang Binghu and many other strong men from Zihuang Immortal Palace and Heavenly Emperor's Ancestral Court were still in shock and hadn't recovered yet. When they realized Ye Chen was running away, they exclaimed loudly, but it was too late to stop them.

Daode Tianzun just made a shocking blow, and his vitality was greatly consumed, let alone stopped.

"This kid, can he still run?"

Daode Tianzun was furious, never expecting that Ye Chen still had the energy to escape.

Ye Chen changed his mind quickly, sacrificed the precious Qinglian avatar, saved his injuries, regained his vitality, and then escaped, which was really beyond Daode Tianzun's expectation.

He didn't expect that Ye Chen could react so quickly at this critical moment.

"Huang Binghu, chase after me!"

Daode Tianzun ordered, he must not let Ye Chen go.

Now, Ye Chen was bombed by his Zihuang Tianhuo and was seriously injured. Even if he was cured by Qinglian's avatar, the injury would not be so easy to recover.

With Ye Chen injured, it was a good time to kill him.

"My lord, but..."

Huang Binghu hesitated immediately, Ye Chen had already escaped, and the next step would definitely be to go back to the Star-Moon Realm.

The Star-Moon Realm is Ye Chen's base camp, and there are countless masters sitting in it. If Ye Chen returns to the Star-Moon Realm, even if he takes the entire Zihuang Immortal Palace to attack, it is impossible to break through.

"Don't worry, I will block his way, you can just chase and kill him."

Daode Tianzun has gloomy eyes, communicates without time and space, and communicates with the ancestor Hongjun.

He wanted to borrow the power of Hongjun's ancestor to block Ye Chen's way.

"yes!"

Huang Binghu respectfully accepted the order, and immediately led his subordinates from the ancestral court of the Emperor of Heaven to chase and kill Ye Chen.

Ye Chen was injured by Zihuang Tianhuo, and he had the breath of Zihuanghuo on his body. This is a very obvious coordinate, and he can lock Ye Chen's position.

...

At this time, Ye Chen made a ding.

Huang Binghu's sword qi slashed at the golden seal, and the sharp sword qi of the weakened Xiaosha failed to cut off the golden seal, but it also shocked Ye Chen's blood.

"How many swords can you block me?"

Huang Binghu took his time and made another strike, which was still the sword of decline.

This sword of decay is one of the five decaying swords of the Heavenly Emperor. Huang Binghu only touched a little bit of fur, but the sword spirit and divine power that erupted were extremely terrifying.

With Ye Chen's current state, even if he has many magic weapons to protect him, he might not be able to stop him with a few strikes.

"Walk!"

Ye Chen reacted quickly, and immediately took the second demon girl and flew away to the distance again.

The Star-Moon Realm couldn't go back, being blocked by the air wall, Ye Chen flew directly to Tianwaitian, preparing to take refuge in the Rune Holy Land.

Luo Qingli, the god of water, is retreating in the rune holy land. If he can go to the rune holy land, Ye Chen can also get shelter.

Moreover, the God of Grass, Tianzun, is also in Tianwaitian, and can help Ye Chen.

"You can't run away."

Huang Binghu's voice was indifferent, and he led his men to chase after him.

Ye Chen and the second enchantress flew in front, but under the pursuit of Huang Binghu, the two could not escape, and they were about to be caught up.

At this time, between the heaven and the earth, suddenly there was a strong wind, the magic mist billowed, and a dark cloud descended from the crack in time and space.

Chapter 9263

This dark cloud is very strange. Although it looks like a cloud on the outside, there are eyeballs inside that keep flickering past, and there are all kinds of indescribable strange auras, and rotten and dark things are breeding.

That is the real world, something absolutely impossible to exist, a mysterious existence without time and space.

"One tail!?"

When Huang Binghu saw this dark cloud, his face immediately changed.

This dark cloud is actually alive, and there are low-pitched animal roars coming from it from time to time, it is just the tail after being cut, and the energy is extremely terrifying.

Behind Huang Binghu, the dozen or so strong men from the ancestral court of the Heavenly Emperor, after witnessing the mysterious appearance of the dark cloud, everyone screamed. Pulling his facial features, tearing out bloodstains, as if going crazy.

The energy of Yiwei is extremely terrifying. Even if it is cut into pieces, the strange aura it emits is not something ordinary people can bear.

"Ancestor Hongjun, lend me your strength!"

Huang Binghu didn't dare to be negligent, he raised his sword to the sky, a golden light exploded on the edge of the sword, and he swung his sword towards the dark cloud.

He knew that with his own strength, he might not be Yiwei's opponent.

So at this moment, he directly borrowed the power of ancestor Hongjun.

However, the dark cloud was also quite vigilant. Seeing the golden light on Huang Sick Tiger's sword, he immediately became vigilant and didn't care about fighting. As soon as he spun around, he flew down to Ye Chen's feet, carrying Ye Chen and the second enchantress , fled away.

After the dark cloud flew thousands of miles away, it split open from between the clouds, revealing a golden light.

This golden light flickered, and transformed into the figure of Daoist Chongyang.

"Chongyang real person."

Ye Chen was quite surprised when he saw Chongyang real person appear.

Daoist Chongyang stood in front of Ye Chen and the second Yaoji with a smile on his face, and said, "Lord of reincarnation, Miss Yaoji, are you alright?"

Ye Chen said: "Reverend Chongyang, can you help me?"

Chongyang real person laughed and said: "Since we have decided to cooperate against Daode Tianzun, if something happens to you, of course I will rescue you."

"You have been injured a lot, go to my territory and heal first."

When Ye Chen heard the invitation from Master Chongyang, he resisted in his heart.

Because, his cooperation with Chongyang real person is more of an interest relationship.

If possible, Ye Chen didn't want to be favored by him.

If you receive favors, you must repay them, and you must owe favors.

"Why, Lord of Reincarnation, don't you want to go to my realm?"

Seeing Ye Chen's strange expression, Master Chongyang asked.

Ye Chen frowned slightly, he really didn't want to owe favors to Master Chongyang, but at this juncture, he was hunted down by Zihuang Immortal Palace, if he could go to Tianyang Realm, he could also get the best protection.

As he was thinking about it, Ye Chen felt the stele of the gods enshrined in his body vibrate slightly, and the words "Ren Feifan" engraved on it were also glowing.

"Ye Chen, can you hear my voice?"

Then, Ye Chen heard a familiar voice, it was quite faint at first, but then it became clearer and clearer, it was Ren Feifan's voice!

"Senior Ren, it's you!"

When Ye Chen heard Ren Feihua's voice, he was very pleasantly surprised, and communicated with him.

This Tianjun Fengshen monument is an important coordinate and lighthouse, which can ensure that Ren Feifei can lock Ye Chen's position in the infinite time and space.

Ye Chen had actually been looking forward to it for a long time, but it was only today that he heard Ren Feifei's voice again.

"It's me, I'm with Sakyamuni Buddha, thank you very much."

Ren Feifei's voice sounded rather weak.

Ye Chen was a little worried, but thought that with the protection of Sakyamuni Buddha, Ren Feifei would be fine.

After all, in Wuwu time and space, Sakyamuni Buddha is a very powerful existence. He was also one of the founders of the ancestral court of the emperor of heaven. He once held the sky and ended the era of doom.

Looking at the entire Wuwu time and space, except for Emperor Yuantian, no one dared to say that with absolute certainty, he could suppress Sakyamuni Buddha.

"Senior Ren, it's good that you're fine."

Ye Chen said.

"Well, I don't have time to say too much. You are going to a place called the Dark Wasteland, which is in the outer sky."

Ren Fei said.

"Dark Wasteland?"

Ye Chen froze for a moment.

Ren Feifei said: "Yes, as the causal connection between the real world and the infinite time and space becomes closer and closer, the restrictions of the rules gradually become weaker, and my power can be projected down."

"You don't want to be favored by Daoist Chongyang, otherwise you owe karma and you have to repay it later, it will be troublesome."

"Now that you are injured and hunted down again, I am your protector, and I can lower my strength to help you."

"With me here, no one can hurt you!"

Ye Chen was overjoyed when he heard Ren Feifei's words.

Ren Feifei's idea was also his idea.

He also doesn't want to be favored by outsiders, and owe karma for no reason.

Now that Ren Feifei can act as a shield, it is naturally better.

However, Ye Chen also thought that Ren Feifei might be in a bad situation in the infinite time and space, so he said:

"Senior Ren, in your current state, is it convenient to make a move?"

Ren Feifei said: "Don't worry, I have fought with Hongjun once before, it doesn't matter if I fight again, the Buddha is by my side, and he will also help."

"You go to the dark wasteland, my power will come down to help you."

When Ye Chen heard this, his heart immediately settled down, and he said, "Okay, Senior Ren, I'll go to the Dark Wasteland."

He knew that Sakyamuni Buddha was by Ren Feifei's side, and with the help of Buddha in charge, it would naturally be all-encompassing.

Chapter 9264

After a pause, Ye Chen said to Chongyang Master, "Chongyang Master, I won't go to your territory, you help me take care of the demon girl." He entrusted the second demon girl to Chongyang Master.

He was going to go to the dark wasteland, and he expected that when the extraordinary power came, he might have a fight with Patriarch Hongjun.

If you take the second enchantress with you, it may affect her.

The second enchantress asked in shock: "Ye Chen, where are you going?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "I have another place to go, don't worry."

Realist Chongyang saw this, stroked his beard, chuckled, and said, "Lord of Reincarnation, it seems that you don't want to be favored by me after all."

Ye Chen didn't comment, just cupped his hands and said: "Realist Chongyang, I'm begging you, the enchantress, I'll take a step first."

The second enchantress wanted to keep her, but Ye Chen had made up his mind to go, so he hugged her and left.

The rules and limitations of time and space and the real world are becoming weaker, and the first thing to appear when the rules become weaker must be the outer world.

Because the world outside the sky is the closest existence to Wuwu time and space.

Ren Feifei chose the dark wasteland as the place where power descends, so there must be his deep meaning.

Ye Chen didn't hesitate, and immediately locked the coordinates of the dark wasteland, tearing apart the void and leaving.

...

After Ye Chen went to the dark wasteland, Huang Binghu also caught the secret and knew Ye Chen's whereabouts.

"What's going on, this kid didn't go to Chongyang Daoist's territory."

Huang Binghu frowned, thinking that Ye Chen was under the protection of Chongyang Daoist, so he would have no chance.

But now, he clearly felt that Ye Chen had actually gone to the world of Tianwaitian.

Naturally, he didn't know that when Ye Chen communicated with Ren Feihua, he thought Ye Chen was crazy.

"He is alone, going to the outer world, there may be fraud, I have to be careful."

Huang Biaohu secretly paid attention, but he didn't dare to underestimate the enemy's carelessness. He immediately sent his will to Zihuang Immortal Palace, and asked Daode Tianzun for additional manpower, and even asked Ancestor Hongjun for support.

After a while, Zihuang Immortal Palace sent hundreds of masters, followed by Huang Binghu, to Tianwaitian to chase and kill Ye Chen.

There are also layers of golden light surrounding Huang Sick Tiger's body, making him, who is sickly sick, suddenly become fierce and domineering.

Those layers of golden light are exactly the blessing power of ancestor Hongjun, majestic and powerful.

Huang Binghu dared to chase and kill Ye Chen after making all the preparations.

There are too many people in Ye Chen's hands, and he doesn't want to be the next one.

...

Ye Chen first came to the dark wasteland, which was already deserted and engulfed by darkness.

If it wasn't for Ren Feifei to provide clues, Ye Chen would not be able to capture the location of this world.

"Is this the Dark Wasteland?"

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes slightly, looked around, and felt a dark and desolate atmosphere, which kept coming, which made people feel a little anxious.

This dark wasteland is terribly quiet, except for the sound of the wind blowing, there is no sound, not even the sound of insects and birds, as if it is an absolute dead land.

Ye Chen faintly glimpsed the secret, knowing that this was an ancient battlefield where a fierce battle broke out.

In the end, the war ended, and the world collapsed, drowned in darkness, and all living beings died.

However, the war of ancient times was too long ago, and Ye Chen only captured a vague picture, and didn't see it very clearly.

Ye Chen shook his head, calmed down, and tried to communicate with Ren Feifei relying on the Tianjun Conferring God Monument.

The real world and the infinite time and space are separated by a dimensional wall, so it takes time for him to communicate.

Ye Chen waited quietly, the wind of the dark wasteland blowing by his side.

There is a long-lasting breath in the wind, and there are some weird seeds, like dandelion seeds, coming with the wind.

Ye Chen's heart moved slightly, and he grabbed a seed casually, feeling a little trembling in his heart for no reason.

He felt that this seed seemed to contain ancient secrets, and the secrets that had happened in this dark wasteland were all contained in this seed.

This is obviously a secret seed!

However, the past years are too ancient and mysterious.

Ye Chen held this secret seed, but it was difficult to trace back the secrets of the past.

While thinking about it, Ye Chen felt the stele of Tianjun conferring the gods shaking, and Ren Feifei's voice finally came out.

"Ye Chen, have you finally come to the Dark Wasteland?"

Ren Fei said.

Ye Chen's heart trembled, and he responded, "Yes, Senior Ren."

After a pause, Ye Chen asked curiously, "Why did you choose this place?"

Ren Feifei pondered for a while, and said: "This dark wasteland may contain a very mysterious and ancient cause and effect. If it can be deciphered, it will be of great benefit to our reincarnation camp."

"It's just that the time in this dark wasteland is too old. The Buddha and I have been calculating, but we can't figure out the truth, so I ask you to come and see, have you ever caught any clues?"

Ye Chen picked up the seed in his hand and said, "I only got this seed."

When Ren Feifei saw this seed, he was slightly startled and said, "This is..."

Another deep voice sounded, saying: "It is the seed of Fengshen dandelion, Fengshen dandelion is a symbol of freedom and the totem of Fengshen."

It is the voice of Buddha.

Ren Feifei wondered, "Buddha, was this dark wasteland ever related to Fengshen Tianzun?"

The Buddha said: "I don't know, my memory is worn out too much, and I can't remember many things. The wind brings the seeds of the past, and time can make them germinate."

"Lord of Reincarnation, try to cultivate this seed and let it germinate, maybe you can get a glimpse of ancient secrets and decipher the cause and effect behind this dark wasteland."

Ye Chen listened to the Buddha's words, and murmured: "The wind brings the seeds of the past, and time can make them germinate..."

Thoughtful in his heart, he mobilized the power of Zhou Guang's blood, and all kinds of threads of time laws rushed out, entwining the dandelion seed.

Ye Chen wanted to use the power of time to germinate this secret seed.

However, it will take time.

The Buddha said: "Wait patiently. When this seed sprouts, the secrets of the past will be unraveled."

The Buddha's voice is very calm, not impatient.

Ren Feifei nodded, his voice calmed down, and said: "Indeed, haste makes waste, Ye Chen, if the secret of the past is solved, please tell me."

Behind the dark wasteland, there are shocking secrets, but the years are too old, and the causal context is too complicated, and even the memories related to the Buddha have been worn out and lost.

To unlock the secret behind it, now I can only rely on Ye Chen to use the law of time to germinate the seeds of the past and crack the secret of the secret.

Ye Chen said: "Yes." Then he put away the dandelion seed, put it into the dantian first, and continued to cultivate it with the power of time.

Ren Feifei said: "Ye Chen, your injury is not serious, I will lower my strength now to help you heal your injury and also help you defend against foreign enemies."

Chapter 9265

The Buddha also said: "Lord of reincarnation, your talent is extraordinary and peerless. You have already practiced the seventh level of my Buddha scriptures. I plan to pass on the eighth level of Dharma to you."

"However, this eighth level of Buddhism is very profound and difficult. You must at least step into the immeasurable realm before you can formally practice it. I am teaching it to you now because I want you to observe its mysteries first, so you can do it yourself."

The Buddha's scriptures are divided into nine layers, and Ye Chen has already practiced the seventh layer of Miaofa Lianhua, and the cultivation base of Buddhism is quite profound.

Sakyamuni Buddha also appreciated it very much, and planned to teach Ye Chen the eighth-level Buddhist scriptures.

The Buddhist scriptures on the eighth floor are called "Seeing the Void".

The Buddha said: Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva, who walks the deep Prajna Paramita for a long time, sees that all five aggregates are empty, and endures all hardships.

This way of seeing the void, once practiced, can manifest the majestic atmosphere of Avalokitesvara Bodhisattva, cleanse the dust of the mind, illuminate the heavens and time and space, and destroy all evil spirits and sins.

Ye Chen's current cultivation is only at the peak of the sixth level of the Profound Sky Realm, and he is not suitable for practicing such profound Buddhism, otherwise, he would not be able to bear the murderous backlash of the Buddhism.

He must at least have a cultivation base of Boundless Realm to be eligible to master it.

With the body of the infinite state, controlling and seeing the Buddha Dharma in the void is already a shocking move.

Generally speaking, only first-class masters are qualified to master this kind of Buddhism in Wuwu time and space.

Ye Chen has the blood of reincarnation, he has a profound background, and the Buddha is willing to teach such a profound and vast Dharma.

"Thank you Senior Ren, thank you Buddha."

Ye Chen bowed and thanked him.

hum!

In the next moment, the sky of the dark wasteland vibrated violently. There were countless magnificent laws and countless auspicious clouds descending like a rainbow.

Wisps of spiritual energy intertwined, like a dream, turned into a huge sacred tree by Ye Chen's side.

On the sacred tree, there is a phantom of a giant whale floating, and the sound of the whale's cry cracks the sky, making the scene spectacular.

This is Ren Feifan's power!

Countless auspicious clouds and auspicious clouds revolve around the giant whale, and the brilliance of divine rainbows shines, all of which are manifestations of lawless power.

Ye Chen was quite excited in his heart, knowing that Ren Feifei's strength had improved by leaps and bounds after he ascended into the infinite time and space.

On the giant whale tree, leaf by leaf, floating Buddhist scriptures.

The leaves of the tree are full of Buddhist scriptures, and the golden light is shining, which is very spectacular.

The wind blows the leaves, and the sound is like the Buddha's singing, which cleans people's hearts.

Ye Chen knew that the scriptures on those leaves were the eighth layer of the Buddha's scriptures, the secret method of seeing the void.

"Ye Chen, heal your wounds well, and then realize the Dharma taught by the Buddha. My giant whale tree will give you protection."

Ren Fei said.

The Dharma of seeing the void is mysterious and profound. Ye Chen is only qualified to practice if he has stepped into the immeasurable realm.

However, now Ye Chen can also comprehend in advance and improve his Buddhist background.

"Yes, Senior Ren."

Ye Chen sat down in front of the Giant Whale God Tree and healed silently.

This giant whale tree is quite full of aura, which can bring huge benefits to Ye Chen.

Under the nourishment of the giant whale tree, Ye Chen recovered quickly from his injuries.

It's a pity that the Qinglian avatar he sacrificed will never come back. If he wants to recast the avatar, I'm afraid it will take a lot of effort.

...

While Ye Chen was healing his wounds, there were hundreds of strong men who tore through the void and descended silently outside the dark wasteland.

Among the hundreds of strong men, the leader was Huang Binghu, who was surrounded by golden light and held a long sword.

At this moment, Huang Binghu is full of domineering and fierce aura, without any morbid appearance at all.

The blessing power of ancestor Hongjun manifested perfectly on his body. His arm muscles were swelling, and his veins were bulging, showing his violent power.

Even those strong men who have just stepped into the Immortal Emperor, in front of him, I am afraid that they will only end up being killed in seconds.

"Hey, what kind of breath is that?"

Huang Biaohu led hundreds of strong men to chase Ye Chen to the dark wasteland, but saw a giant whale in the dark wasteland, and the golden light of Buddhist scriptures rising into the sky, which is very spectacular .

"It's the power of the Blood Moon Emperor and Sakyamuni Buddha!"

Huang Binghu calculated with his fingers, and immediately caught the clue, his face changed suddenly.

He had guessed that Ren Feifan's power might come to protect Ye Chen, but he never expected that the Buddha would also make a move.

"Old Ancestor, Ren Feifei and Buddha, together provide protection for the Lord of Reincarnation, what should we do?"

Huang Binghu didn't dare to be careless, and hurriedly communicated with Wuwu Time and Space, and contacted the ancestor Hongjun to ask for advice.

boom!

The will of the ancestor Hongjun came down quickly and gathered into one word:

"kill!"

The word "kill" has the sound of rolling thunder, earth-shattering, and bursting sound.

Ye Chen was recovering from his wounds, and he was silently comprehending the mystery of the Buddha Dharma of the Void. Hearing the word "kill", his heart was shaken, and he almost spit out a mouthful of blood, and his ears were buzzing.

This is the will of Hongjun's ancestor, and it is Hongjun's power!

Rumble!

The void exploded, a huge star crushed the void and descended from the void.

This star, with blue rainbows running across it, is steaming with clouds and rain, and has a myriad of phenomena, and it also reveals a breath of the avenue of destiny. It is the magic weapon of the ancestor Hongjun, called the Qinghong God Star.

"Qinghong Divine Star, one of the Seven Stars of Destiny?"

When Ye Chen saw this star, his heart was shocked, and he caught the secret.

Chapter 9266

It turned out that this Qinghong Divine Star was one of the Seven Destiny Stars, and it was in the hands of Patriarch Hongjun, and it was his magic weapon.

Ren Feifei and Buddha lowered their power, but it was all illusory will, not real, but now, Patriarch Hongjun actually lowered his magic weapon.

Such means will inevitably bring a huge burden to oneself.

This burden is unbearable even for the Heavenly Emperor and Lord God.

"Hongjun, you are crazy!"

The Buddha felt Hongjun's killing intent, and was shocked when he saw the Qinghong God Star falling.

He was already ready to fight with Patriarch Hongjun, but he only planned to limit himself to the level of supernatural powers and spells, and did not intend to fight against magic weapons.

If the magic weapon is released, if there is something real, the power of the rules involved will be too huge, even the Buddha cannot bear it.

How could he have imagined that Patriarch Hongjun was so crazy that he would drop the magic weapon all at once.

"Hongjun really spared no expense to kill me."

Ye Chen inexplicably felt a trace of sadness in his heart, he never thought that he and Hongjun Patriarch would come to this point.

There used to be two people, and there was still a stage where they were both teachers and friends.

But on the road of martial arts, different ways do not seek each other.

The stronger it is, the greater the differences will be.

Back then in Huaxia, the Ye family, and those families in Jiangnan Province, wasn't it like this?

"Buddha, all living beings suffer from samsara and are forever trapped in life and death, and cannot escape."

"The Lord of Reincarnation is the biggest sinner in the heavens."

"The so-called reincarnation heaven is also a wrong world."

"You actually want to take action to protect reincarnation. It is a waste of hundreds of millions of years of practicing Buddhism. Today, I will destroy reincarnation. If you are sensible, don't stop me."

The voice of Patriarch Hongjun, every word was like thunder, exploded in the void, with a very strong killing intent.

"Old Ancestor..."

Huang Binghu trembled slightly when he heard Hongjun's voice.

He always thought that ancestor Hongjun planned to kill reincarnation because of personal enmity, because Ye Chen was against Zihuang Immortal Palace.

But now it seems that there is no reason.

Patriarch Hongjun wanted to kill Ye Chen, and it seemed that he had a deeper plan, which was a great truth that Huang Binghu couldn't understand.

The Buddha snorted and said: "Hongjun, you are already crazy. Anyway, today, no matter what, I will protect the Lord of Reincarnation. If you have the guts, kill him!"

Ancestor Hongjun was silent, and then he sighed leisurely, that fiery killing intent turned into a sea of deep thoughts, and said: "Huang Binghu, do it."

Huang Binghu's heart trembled, and he said, "Yes, Patriarch."

He immediately flew out and flew towards the center of the dark wasteland with hundreds of strong men under him.

Buzz buzz!

Ancestor Hongjun's magic weapon, the Qinghong Divine Star, hovered above Huang Binghu's head, giving him a powerful buff of strength.

Hundreds of strong men behind him heard what Patriarch Hongjun said just now, like hearing the sound of thunder, and their hearts were shaken.

They didn't understand the fight between Hongjun and Ye Chen.

They only know that with the help of ancestor Hongjun, killing reincarnation, this seemingly impossible thing has become possible now!

Ye Chen looked up, and saw the figures of Huang Binghu and others, covering the sky and covering the sky, making him feel suffocated.

"Qinghong Divine Star, illuminate the world!"

With a wave of Huang Binghu's hand, he activated the blue rainbow god star, bursting out thousands of rainbows, and the god's light burst, reflecting the sky, making the dark wasteland as bright as day.

The majestic divine light, covering Ye Chen's giant whale tree, wanted to suppress the atmosphere of the giant whale tree.

hum!

The Giant Whale God Tree shook, the giant whale phantom hovered, and the spiritual energy gushed out. Ren Feifan's power was boiling, but it seemed that he couldn't stop the Qinghong God Star's suppression.

After all, the power that Ren Feifei lowered was more of the manifestation of will, and this giant whale tree is illusory, not real.

However, Patriarch Hongjun sent down a real magic weapon.

The might of the Qinghong God Star is very domineering, but it is not something that the illusory Giant Whale God Tree can bear.

In a hurry, even if Ren Feifei wanted to increase his bargaining chip, it was too late.

Neither he nor the Buddha thought that Patriarch Hongjun would drop the real magic weapon, and the price to be paid behind this was very huge.

Ren Feifei naturally refused to admit defeat easily, and said: "Ye Chen, you sacrifice the Throne of Thorns to fight against Hongjun."

Ye Chen was taken aback, and said, "Throne of Thorns, but..."

With his current strength, he might not be able to control the Throne of Thorns.

Ren Feifei said: "Don't worry, I will protect you, you can temporarily control the Throne of Thorns."

The Throne of Thorns is the ultimate symbol of the Death God Order's authority, and its power is very powerful.

If the Throne of Thorns comes, it will be enough to fight against the Qinghong God Star of Patriarch Hongjun.

"yes!"

Knowing the urgency of the situation, Ye Chen didn't hesitate, and immediately sacrificed the Throne of Thorns that was sealed in the Scorching Sun Star.

boom!

As soon as the Throne of Thorns came out, a berserk energy scene swept the audience, bringing darkness and death, and an aura of supreme majesty.

The thorns, crackling, grew wildly between the sky and the earth, quickly covered the earth, and penetrated the starry sky.

Ye Chen's body, with divine help, sat on the Throne of Thorns.

A phantom of a giant whale hovered beside him.

His skin was pierced by the thorns on the throne, and blood flowed out.

But strangely, Ye Chen didn't feel any pain.

Ren Feifei endured the pain for him!

Ye Chen was able to sit firmly on the Throne of Thorns at this moment because of the help of Ren Feifei behind him!

hum!

Pieces of golden Buddhist scripture runes shone on the Throne of Thorns, flickering on and off.

The Buddha also gave power to help Ye Chen.

"The thorns kill, break!"

Ye Chen slapped his palm across the air, and blasted towards the Qinghong God Star above Huang Sick Tiger's head.

The power of the Throne of Thorns gathered in Ye Chen's palm and exploded at once.

The breath of darkness and death fell on the Qinghong God Star in an instant, making this planet immediately covered with thorns, and countless thorns grew wildly like poisonous snakes, smashing the rainbow scene all over the sky.

"Damn it!"

Huang Binghu was furious, his whole body was stabbed with pain, Qinghong Shenxing was hit hard, and he also suffered backlash, all kinds of strange phenomena appeared on his body, thorns broke out from his internal organs, broke through the skin and grew out, and it was stained with sticky A dark, rotting liquid.

"Stop him!"

Huang Binghu yelled violently, and ordered his men to attack Ye Chen, mobilizing his spiritual energy to suppress the backlash from the thorns in his body.

Hundreds of strong men from Zihuang Immortal Palace, like shooting stars, killed Ye Chen who was sitting on the throne.

"Dharma, see the void, break it for me!"

Ye Chen didn't rush, and blasted out with his left palm, Buddhist scriptures and runes bloomed all over the sky, and behind the Throne of Thorns, a phantom of a huge Bodhisattva appeared.

This bodhisattva is as resplendent as the scorching sun, and the Buddha's light illuminates the heavens.

On the eighth floor of the Buddha's Sutra, Ye Chen directly displayed the supernatural power of seeing the void at this moment.

Chapter 9267

He has just realized Buddhism, and relying on his extraordinary talent, he has already comprehended the mystery of seeing the void, but his cultivation is limited, and he cannot formally practice it, nor can he display it.

But now, with the help of Sakyamuni Buddha, Ye Chen used this shocking Dharma with ease.

The phantom of the bodhisattva appears, the light of the Buddha illuminates the sky, and all the evil spirits in the heavens will be shattered and dispersed.

Those hundreds of strong men who came to slaughter couldn't get close to Ye Chen's body at all.

Under Ye Chen's palm strike, the Buddha's light exploded, and the violent Buddha's energy was like a wave, shaking all the hundreds of people seriously injured and vomiting blood, many of them fell to death on the spot.

"What a terrifying power!"

Huang Binghu was shocked when he saw this, he didn't expect Ye Chen to be so powerful.

"cough....."

At this time, Ye Chen suddenly coughed, couldn't breathe, his internal organs were cramping, and his face was pale.

"No, it's still too reluctant for me to borrow the power of Senior Ren and Buddha at the same time."

As soon as Ye Chen's heart sank, he knew that Ren Feifan's power and the Buddha's power were too ferocious, and his body couldn't bear it.

Ren Feifei had already replaced Ye Chen and endured the sting of the Throne of Thorns, but the power of him and the Buddha itself was too much of a burden for Ye Chen.

"Hehe, Lord of Reincarnation, it seems that you are not invincible."

When Huang Binghu saw this scene, he knew it immediately.

Ye Chen's ferocious state actually cost a lot, and it won't last long.

"Sword of Decay, break!"

Taking advantage of this opportunity, Huang Binghu immediately slashed out with a sword, and the decaying sword energy, as cold as late autumn, rolled out immediately.

On the land of the dark wasteland, miscantheses turn yellow, dead leaves fall to the ground, and the autumn wind howls.

Ye Chen's Throne of Thorns seemed to have also been eroded by the decaying sword energy, from dark green to a little withered yellow.

"not good!"

Ye Chen's complexion changed, and he immediately activated the Dharma. A large number of Buddhist scriptures and runes flew out like butterflies, weaving into a barrier to block Huang Sick Tiger's sword attack.

"That's it!"

Huang Binghu knew that Ye Chen's body couldn't bear it, so he didn't give Ye Chen a chance to breathe, so he immediately swung his sword again, and the torrent of decaying sword energy came again like a rolling wave.

With the help of Hongjun Patriarch, Huang Binghu's sword is extremely domineering, it is like a god blocking and killing a god, and a Buddha blocking and killing a Buddha.

Ye Chen urged the Tianjun Conferring God Monument, which acted as a shield to resist Huang Binghu's sword.

However, Huang Binghu's sword force still passed through the Tianjun Conferring God Stele, and hit Ye Chen's body, which immediately made his internal organs turbulent, and he almost vomited blood.

In this state, Ye Chen couldn't even sit on the throne of thorns, so he could only put away the throne, spread the wings of freedom behind his back, and his figure flickered in the void, avoiding the beheading of the yellow sick tiger's sword energy.

Many of the hundreds of warriors from Zihuang Immortal Palace recovered and held their swords, trying to kill Ye Chen from the side.

Fortunately, Ye Chen was assisted by Ren Feifei, and the phantom of the giant whale protected him from the sneak attack.

But he can resist the attack and killing of ordinary people, but it is difficult to stop the killing of Huang Binghu.

After all, Huang Binghu has the help of Hongjun Patriarch, and his power is too terrifying.

With the help of Ren Feifei and Buddha, Ye Chen will not lose, but the problem is that his cultivation base is limited after all, and he cannot withstand the infusion of the power of the two heavenly emperors, so he immediately fell into a disadvantage when facing Huang Binghu.

"Lord of reincarnation, accept your fate!"

Huang Binghu's eyes were sharp, and his decaying sword intent was like Xiao Sha Qiuliang, sweeping the world and everything, and the withered and yellow sword energy pierced through the void, cutting towards Ye Chen's head.

Ye Chen felt that the power of Ren Feifei and Buddha in his body was rapidly receding.

It wasn't that Ren Feifei and Buddha didn't want to help him, but that his body could no longer bear their strength.

Facing the beheading of Huang Binghu's sword energy, Ye Chen suddenly fell into an extremely dangerous situation.

"Ye Chen, summon Half Tail!"

Ren Feifei shouted.

"Half tail?"

Ye Chen was taken aback. After one tail was cut, he got a half tail, but the half tail has not been tamed yet. If summoned, he is likely to suffer backlash and be contaminated with an ominous and mysterious aura.

"With me and the Buddha here, Banwei can't hurt you, so summon it!"

Ren Feifei shouted.

"yes!"

The situation was urgent, Huang Binghujian was aggressive at every step, Ye Chen didn't hesitate at the moment, immediately opened the Heavenly Emperor's coffin, and summoned the half-tail that was sealed inside.

call!

A red cloud suddenly floated out of the Heavenly Emperor's coffin.

This red cloud exuded an ominous and dark aura, with eyeballs flickering among the clouds, and all kinds of twisted, weird, rotten and foul-smelling things were brewing.

This red cloud is actually alive.

It's half tail!

Half-tail is just a convenient name. In fact, this red cloud is a mass of pure energy body. The real tailed beast is also an energy body and has no fixed shape.

This first half of the end, it can be said that the dark and weird atmosphere of Wu Wu time and space is displayed to the extreme, and the various scenes in the clouds are enough to make people mentally collapse.

"Ahhhh!"

As soon as Banwei came out, the hundreds of warriors in Zihuang Immortal Palace first screamed, many of them looked at Banwei, and were immediately tormented by the terrifying and indescribable weather, like a person who never believed in ghosts and gods. Suddenly saw a ghost under the bed at home.

Now the appearance of Banwei is much more terrifying than ghosts. Eyeballs flicker, burst, and recombine, and a viscous liquid flows out from inside.

Chapter 9268

Of the hundreds of fighters in the audience, at least half of them had their hearts broken and went mad.

The remaining people also lost all fighting spirit, yelling frantically and running for their lives, fleeing into the distance.

This is the horror of the Tailed Beast.

Just showing the figure, without using any killing power, the terrifying appearance makes people's spirits collapse.

This is only a half-tail, if it is a real ten-tail, even the Lord God would not dare to look directly at it.

"This is... a tailed beast?"

When Huang Binghu saw the red cloud, he immediately felt chest tightness and felt unspeakably uncomfortable.

"Old Ancestor, give me strength!"

"Sword cuts demons!"

Huang Binghu's eyes were sharp and he didn't flinch.

Because he knew that once he flinched, he would be shrouded in fear by the tailed beast, and there was only one way to die.

Borrowing Hongjun's strength, the golden light of the sword rose sharply, and he slashed towards Half Tail with one sword.

"Roar!"

From within the red cloud, a ferocious beast roar burst out.

Ye Chen was also shocked in his heart. After Banwei summoned him, he felt extremely terrifying and ferocious will power.

It seems that Banwei is sealed in the Heavenly Emperor's coffin, and his hostility is getting worse and worse, and his temper is getting more and more violent.

Fortunately, with Ren Feifei and Buddha's joint suppression, Banwei couldn't struggle and could only obey Ye Chen's orders temporarily.

Ye Chen didn't feel any discomfort, and he didn't feel any ominous feeling. Obviously, it was Ren Feifei and Buddha who bore half of the hostility for him.

"Half tail, go!"

With a wave of his hand, Ye Chen immediately mobilized Banwei and rushed towards Huang Sick Tiger.

boom!

The half-tailed red cloud suddenly exploded, turning into a thousand-foot-tall giant beast, indescribable and indescribable in appearance. The thousand-foot-high body was covered with dark green eyeballs, and twisted limbs pulled out from inside.

This 1,000-foot-tall terrifying behemoth, with violent hostility, terrifying roar, and raging murderous intent, ruthlessly threw itself at Huang Sick Tiger.

With the help of Hongjun's strength, Huang Biaohu swung his sword, and the light of the sword struck Banwei's body, cutting Banwei in half, and dark green and dark red blood splattered everywhere.

However, the half-tail that had been cut in half was still powerful, bouncing and killing Huang Sick Tiger with a very strange posture.

"not good!"

Huang Binghu was terrified, his body was entangled by wisps of strange and inexplicable red cloud aura, he suffocated immediately, he felt thousands of boa constrictors entwined around his body, the bones cracked and burst one by one.

"Old Ancestor, save me..."

Huang Binghu struggled to utter a sound, but the golden light on his body had already dimmed.

Banwei's energy was extremely terrifying, and it actually cut off his connection with Patriarch Hongjun.

The terrifying tailed beast energy, carrying a dark, weird, ominous, and foul-smelling aura, crazily eroded into Huang Sick Tiger's body.

Huang Binghu's body showed an extremely terrifying distorted posture, with eyeballs cracked on the skin, and these eyeballs cracked again, turning into bloody mouths full of fangs, quickly devouring his body's flesh and blood.

This is a nightmarish scene, which makes people feel their Dao heart collapse just by looking at it.

This is also the real world, an unimaginable horror picture.

In the blink of an eye, Ye Chen saw that Huang Sick Tiger was completely swallowed up by the half-tail, leaving no ashes, and completely disappeared.

After devouring and killing the sick yellow tiger, Bantail turned into a red cloud again, suspended in the air.

"What a terrifying power!"

Ye Chen looked at the half-tailed red cloud, only feeling terrified.

As expected of a tailed beast, the ferocious power it erupted was beyond words to describe.

Huang Binghu was so strong that he was easily swallowed by Banwei.

Ye Chen couldn't imagine how he would tame such a violent and ferocious tailed beast.

"Ye Chen, put away this beast!"

Ren Feifan yelled, his voice was dignified, obviously even he was extremely afraid of the tailed beast, after all, it was a power comparable to the Samsara Purana.

Ye Chen came back to his senses, and immediately re-sealed the half-tailed red cloud into the Heavenly Emperor's coffin.

The battle is over.

All the weird weather is retreating.

In the void, there was only a faint phantom of a giant whale, and butterfly-like runes flickered.

In this battle, relying on Banwei, Ye Chen finally won by luck.

"Senior Ren, Buddha, we won."

Ye Chen breathed a sigh of relief and said.

"Well, this tailed beast is a big killer. It's a pity that Master Wentian is dead, and the Nine Heavens Fulong Seal has also returned to the ruins. If you want to tame the tailed beast again, it will be difficult."

Ren Feifei nodded and sighed again.

It was also the first time he had seen the horror and power of the tailed beast today.

He has insight into the cause and effect of the past, and knows that the Nine Heavens Fulong Seal is the key magic weapon to tame the tailed beast.

It's a pity that with the death of Master Wentian, this magic weapon also returned to the ruins, turned into the most primitive source energy of heaven and earth, and returned to heaven and earth.

"Senior Ren, is it possible for the Nine Heavens Fulong Seal to be born again?"

Ye Chen's heart moved slightly, and he asked.

Ren Feifei pondered for a while, and said: "This magic weapon has returned to the ruins, and it may be born again in the future, but it will take a very long time. I will pay attention for you. If the Nine Heavens Fulong Seal is born, we must snatch it. This is the key to taming the tailed beast. The essential!"

Ye Chen said: "Yes, Senior Ren, then I will trouble you."

Ye Chen didn't dare to tame the tailed beast before he got the Nine Heavens Fulong Seal, otherwise he would suffer backlash and the consequences would be disastrous.

After a pause, Ren Feifei asked again: "Ye Chen, are you interested in coming to No Time and Space?"

Ye Chen was taken aback, and said: "What, Senior Ren, my cultivation level is not enough to step into Wuwu time and space."

Chapter 9269

Ren Feifei said: "Of course you can't get in through ordinary channels, but you can sneak in."

"I have a hunch that the rules of Wu Wu Wu Wu and the real world are getting weaker and weaker, and the dark breath of Wu Wu Wu Wu is likely to pour down and flood the entire real world."

"At that time, the real world will be completely destroyed, and you may also be implicated. It's better to smuggle up in advance to ensure safety."

Between Wuwu time and space and the real world, there was originally a barrier of the dimensional wall, but in the recent period, too many Wuwu powerhouses have used various means to break through the dimensional wall and come down.

The dimensional wall has loosened, and the restrictions of the rules have gradually become weaker.

It won't be long before the dark breath of time and space will leak out, drowning the entire real world.

"Is the real world about to be destroyed?"

Ye Chen's heart trembled, and he asked.

Ren Feifei said: "Yes, the dark cataclysm has come, and this world will definitely be submerged."

Ye Chen said: "Isn't there a kindling?"

Ren Feifei said: "There is fire, but fire can't block such a strong darkness. If you get fire, you can keep the fire alive. From the ruins, create a new universe and open up a new era."

"But this world, this era, will be turned into ruins and ashes. This is a normal cycle of the universe. The real world has actually experienced many times of destruction and rebirth."

Heaven and earth have their birth and death, and the era has its end.

Now, Ye Chen's era is almost over, because of the loosening of the dimension wall and rules, the dark cataclysm will soon come and drown everything.

The end of the era has actually happened many times in the past years, but because the fire is not extinguished, a new universe can always be born again from the ruins of the previous universe.

In the cosmic starry sky under Ye Chen's feet, there are actually countless corpses behind it. They are the remnants of the collapse of the universe in the past. These remnants are constantly accumulating, so the starry sky in this world presents a dark background at night.

In the original starry sky, the night was not actually dark, but showed a glassy color, which was very clean and transparent.

The heaven, earth and universe are constantly reincarnated in birth and death, until today.

Although Ye Chen knew that this was the reincarnation of heaven and earth, but when he thought that the entire real world, including Huaxia Earth, etc., would be submerged in darkness, he felt inexplicably desolate in his heart, and then his blood surged, he shook his head and said:

"No, Senior Ren, I'm not smuggling, I want to stay and protect reality."

Ren Feifei was stunned, and said: "Do you really want to stay? When the dark catastrophe comes, you can't stop it. Heaven and earth sometimes arise and perish. This is a definite number, and it is also reincarnation. You don't have to forcefully reverse it."

Ye Chen said: "As the master of reincarnation, it is up to me to decide whether the world will be born or die in reincarnation. I want the sky to be immortal!"

Ren Feifei and Buddha felt the fighting spirit in Ye Chen's words, they were both silent and admirable.

The Buddha sighed and said, "Forget it, Lord of Reincarnation, since that's the case, brother Ren and I will not force you."

"When the dark cataclysm comes, if you can't hold on anymore, you can call me and Brother Ren's names, and we will take you to No Time and Space."

"But many friends around you may not be able to take them away. Life and death are fate. If you forcefully reverse the situation, I can only say that I admire your courage."

Ye Chen said: "Buddha, thank you for your protection. No matter what, I will stay in reality and wait for the dark catastrophe to come. I want to see if the so-called dark cataclysm can swallow me up."

Ren Feifei pondered for a while, and said: "It is not easy to fight against the dark catastrophe. It is not the power of a certain person or a certain force, but the dark law leaked from the entire infinite time and space. It is the original power of heaven and earth, which is very terrifying. ."

"I know that there is a magic weapon, which is also created by heaven and earth, and it may help you fight against darkness."

Ye Chen's heart moved slightly, and he asked, "What magic weapon?"

Ren Feifei said: "The Apocalypse of the Nine Gods is said to be a magic weapon for the creation of heaven and earth. It was born from the origin of heaven and earth. Before the birth of the Nine Gods, the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods was born."

"This Apocalypse predicts the birth of the Nine Gods. It contains very powerful power. There is great power behind it. If you can get the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods, you may be able to fight against the dark catastrophe that will come in the future and protect the reality."

Ye Chen murmured, "Apocalypse of the Nine Gods?"

When he heard Ren Feifei mentioning the words "Apocalypse of the Nine Gods", he also felt a faint feeling of turmoil in his heart, as if he had captured some vast and magnificent secret.

"Senior Ren, where is the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods?"

Ye Chen asked.

Since the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods can fight against the dark catastrophe, he naturally wants to get it as soon as possible.

Ren Feifei shook his head and said, "I don't know either. When the Nine Gods Apocalypse was born, the Nine Gods hadn't even been born yet. This book is so old that it has already been drowned in dust."

Ye Chen asked again: "Buddha, do you know the whereabouts of Apocalypse of the Nine Gods?"

Sakyamuni Buddha also shook his head and said: "I don't know, I used to know, but unfortunately, my memory wears too much, and this part of the memory is lost."

"Brother Ren and I have calculated the secrets. The cause and effect behind the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods is likely to be related to this dark wasteland."

Ye Chen was taken aback, and said: "Senior Ren, did you call me to the Dark Wasteland just to find the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods?"

Ren Feifei said: "Exactly, I suspect that this dark wasteland is related to the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods."

"However, the Buddha and I have scanned this land with our thoughts, but we didn't find anything unusual. It's really weird."

Sakyamuni Buddha said: "There are still some strange things, that is, the dandelion seeds floating in the wind. Dandelion is a symbol of freedom and the totem of the wind god. These seeds contain the secrets of the past. If they can be deciphered, they may be able to unravel. The secret of the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods."

Ye Chen's heart moved, there was a dandelion seed in his dantian, which was being cultivated by the law of time, but it hadn't germinated yet.

"Senior Ren, Buddha, I understand, I will let the dandelion seeds germinate as soon as possible, and unlock the secrets of the past."

Ye Chen said.

Ren Feifei said: "Well, if you find out the truth, remember to let me know."

"You can also go back and ask, ask the gods of water, gods of fire, gods of thunder, gods of grass, and see if they know the whereabouts of Apocalypse of the Nine Gods."

"This is the key to your fight against the dark catastrophe, you must not miss it!"

In the future, the rules and restrictions between Wuwu Spacetime and the real world will become completely weak, and the dark energy of Wuwu Spacetime will pour down, flooding the entire world, and returning everything to darkness.

Chapter 9270

The pouring out of that dark energy can't be stopped even by the Emperor God. Only by using the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods can it be possible to counter the defense.

"Yes, Senior Ren, I understand."

Ye Chen also knew the key to the Apocalypse of the Nine Gods, so he nodded.

Ren Feifei said: "Okay, the Buddha and I will go back first. Today, fighting Hongjun, he and I have exhausted a lot."

"Hehe, but Hongjun's consumption may be even greater."

Ye Chen said: "Yes, Senior Ren, Buddha, you go slowly."

The atmosphere of the giant whale dissipated, and the Buddha Light Rune disappeared.

The will of Ren Feifei and Sakyamuni Buddha retreated to the time and space of nothingness.

There is no time and space, in the blood moon world.

The two returned their wills, opened their eyes, and looked at each other with solemn expressions.

In the fierce battle just now, the consumption of the two was quite huge.

"Brother Ren, let's lower our strength to help Ye Chen. It may disturb the people in the dark. It is not suitable to stay here for a long time. We must leave immediately."

Sakyamuni Buddha said in a deep voice.

Ren Feifei nodded, knowing that the coordinates of this time and space may have been exposed and become unsafe, so he said, "Okay, Buddha, then let's go."

Sakyamuni Buddha said: "I will take you to the Channa Garden, which is my territory and absolutely safe."

Ren Feifei was taken aback, and said, "Buddha, you want to take me to the Zen Garden?"

The Channa Garden is the most sacred Buddhist blessed land without time and space, and it is also the boundary of Sakyamuni Buddha, where there are countless worshipers of Buddha.

Sakyamuni Buddha was entrusted by Ye Chen to help Ren Feifei, and there is a limit.

This time, the Buddha wanted to take Ren Feifei to the Zen Garden, which was beyond the limit of ordinary help. It was almost like bringing a stranger home. It was a blood alliance relationship between life and death, which naturally surprised Ren Feifei.

"Let's go."

The Buddha didn't worry about anything, he was very free and easy, and obviously regarded Ren Feifei as a real blood alliance, even if the cause and effect were entangled, he would not hesitate.

Ren Feifei was grateful and prepared to leave with the Buddha.

"Sakyamuni Buddha, Ren Feifei, you don't need to leave in such a hurry."

Just when the two were about to leave, an indifferent and old voice suddenly sounded.

The void split open, and an old man descended slowly with a tyrannical aura of coercion.

This old man, wearing the elder costume of Tuodi Tianzong, has a very strong cultivation and aura, the laws around his body are distorted, and there are totems of evil spirits flickering, on and off.

"A member of Tuodi Tianzong?"

Ren Feifei looked at the old man and frowned.

The Emperor Tuo Tianzong is very powerful and hides many masters, the most famous of which is the legendary ten guardian Yashas.

But Ren Feifei knows that there are many high-level elders in Tuodi Tianzong, who are much more powerful than Dharma Protector Yasha, but they usually don't show their faces, don't show their faces, and never show their faces, so the outside world knows little about them.

This old man is obviously a high-level elder of Tuodi Tianzong, and he is stronger than the Dharma protector Yasha.

Ren Feifei and Sakyamuni Buddha had just helped Ye Chen and fought with the ancestor Hongjun, and their spiritual energy was consumed very violently. Now facing the old man, they felt bursts of pressure.

It has to be said that the timing of the old man's arrival was very good, it happened to be when Ren Feifan and Buddha were weak.

"Buddha, long time no see."

When the old man saw the Buddha, he greeted him with a smile.

"Hun Xianzhi, I didn't expect you to take refuge in the ancient god Tuo Di. I thought you would be a bit proud as the descendant of Hun Tiandi."

The Buddha stared at the old man and said coldly.

The two obviously knew each other.

The old man's name was Hun Xianzhi. Hearing what the Buddha said, he shook his head and smiled and said, "Master Hun Tiandi is invincible in supernatural powers. I am not qualified to be his heir. I am just his servant."

The Buddha chuckled and said, "If he is really invincible, how could he die in the hands of Emperor Yuantian?"

"In front of Emperor Yuantian, who dares to say he is invincible, who dares to call himself invincible?"

Hun Xianzhi's face changed slightly, but then he returned to calmness, and said with a smile: "This game of chess is not over yet, it's not certain who will win."

Ren Feifei listened to the conversation between the two, and had an insight into the sky, and probably had a glimpse of the cause and effect.

It turned out that this Hun Xianzhi was the former servant of Hun Tiandi.

Emperor Huntian is the old enemy of Emperor Yuantian, the "dead" side of the origin of the Dao.

If we say that Emperor Yuantian is the first ray of wisdom born between heaven and earth.

Then the Soul Emperor is the first ray of evil.

Before Wuwu Time and Space was born, Emperor Yuantian had already killed Emperor Huntian.

However, under Emperor Huntian's command, there are still some remnants who survived, escaped the calamity of countless epochs, and even survived the end of the Dharma Era, and have survived until now.

This Hunxianzhi once followed the Huntian Emperor, and now he has joined the Tuodi Tianzong and become a high-level elder.

After a pause, Hun Xianzhi said again: "Buddha, I came here today just to suppress Ren Feifan and seize the reincarnation puranas. This matter has nothing to do with you. Get out of the way."

After all, Hun Xianzhi's eyes fell on Ren Feifei, and a trace of sharpness and greed flashed in his eyes.

Ren Feifan's strength was extremely strong, if it was an ordinary time, Hun Xianzhi would not dare to offend him.

But now, Ren Feifei is weak, and this is his opportunity to take advantage of it, but he doesn't want to miss it.

The Buddha said: "Hunxianzhi, do you want to take the reincarnation purana and revive the soul emperor?"

Hun Xianzhi smiled and said: "Yes, according to the legend, the Reincarnation Purana has the power to change the past. If I grab it, I can modify the past and revive Lord Hun Tiandi."
