Chapter 9691

Ye Chen's heart moved slightly. If Long Zu recovered and joined his reincarnation camp, it would be a great thing for his reincarnation camp to have another strong person.

"Then I'll wait for your grandpa to come back."

Ye Chen said with a smile, the two of them followed the caravan and had almost entered the protection range of Shacheng.

Shacheng was full of people, and the bustling scene unfolded in front of their eyes.

However, when he was about to enter the sand city, Ye Chen suddenly caught a huge danger.

The sky above his head suddenly became dark, and a crescent moon appeared like a wolf's fangs, and then a beam of moonlight, sharper than a sword, fell from the sky and slashed at him fiercely.

The murderous aura of this Moonlight Blade has reached the peak of the Divine Dao Realm, very ferocious.

Ye Chen's face darkened, and he hurriedly pushed Long Xueyan beside him into the sand city, and took two steps back.

However, the cold moonlight, like a sword, chased and killed Ye Chen like a demon.

laugh!

In the end, the moonlight slashed fiercely at Ye Chen.

However, Ye Chen was wearing the transformed robe of the Heavenly Demon Castle, and his defensive power was astounding. When the moonlight energy struck his Heavenly Demon robe, it was blocked by a layer of aura, and did not really hurt him.

"Lord of Reincarnation!"

Long Xueyan let out a loud cry, she was horrified by the sudden killing.

The members of the caravan also felt the boundless murderous roar coming, fear in their hearts, hurriedly retreated into the protective circle of the Sand City area, and someone shouted at Ye Chen:

"Lord of Reincarnation, come in!"

As long as you enter the guard zone of Shacheng, you don't have to worry about any danger. Even if you are really killed, you can be resurrected infinitely in the spring water in the city.

Ye Chen's face darkened. With his current strength, it would be very difficult to fight against the masters at the peak of the Divine Dao Realm. If he wanted to defeat the anti-kill, he would need to use a lot of trump cards, and the price would be huge.

He strode forward, wanting to enter the protective zone of Shacheng.

However, an invisible air wall blocked Ye Chen's front, preventing him from taking half a step forward.

It is the law of cause and effect!

"Hehe, Lord of Reincarnation, I was lucky to catch you before you entered Sand City."

In the dark sky, in the crescent moon, the devilish energy was gushing out, the light was billowing, and a majestic and majestic figure of the devil god descended slowly.

The demon god, with dark skin and a silvery-white moonlight totem, has reached the peak of the divine way.

"Moon Emperor Demon God? Did Ye Han send you here?"

Ye Chen's eyes turned cold, and after just one glance, he was sure that the demon god was the Moon Emperor demon god awakened by Ye Han.

"Hehe, it's me, your reincarnation bloodline has a very strong aura."

"However, I don't know if you have heard of the Taoist alchemy technique. The more powerful a person is, the easier it is to be attacked and killed by the Taoist alchemy technique, and the easier it is to be forged into a elixir."

"You, the Lord of Reincarnation, if you cast a pill, it must be earth-shattering."

The Moon Emperor Demon God licked his lips, his eyes were full of ferocious murderous intent, he suddenly waved his hand out, a touch of faint blue gossip daoyun divine light, like a tsunami wave, overturned the sky towards Ye Chen, wanting to completely wipe him out submerged.

This is the general atmosphere of Taoist alchemy!

The Taoist alchemy technique originated from the Moon God Emperor.

The Moon Emperor Demon God is a citizen of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor, and he also inherited many supernatural powers from the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor. As soon as he made a move, he performed the Taoist alchemy technique, and wanted to cast Ye Chen into a elixir on the spot.

Ye Chen felt the energy and blood all over his body boil, and his bones creaked. Under the pressure of the Moon Emperor Demon God, his whole body seemed to collapse, and then he was cast into a pill.

As if feeling that Ye Chen was in danger, Ye Chen's Omen robe, with the pattern of Omen Castle on it, buzzed and flickered, bursting out thousands of demonic energy, a totem of a magnificent castle rose from Ye Chen's head, Countless heavenly demons were singing, forcibly blocking the coercion of the Moon Emperor Demon God.

"Is the Taoist alchemy technique? I can do it too!"

Ye Chen grinned fiercely, the Moon Emperor Demon God's alchemy technique is very powerful, with very ancient laws and fluctuations, which are laws that have long been lost.

With the blessing of this lost law, the Moon Emperor Demon God's pill-casting technique is much more powerful than Ye Chen's murderous spirit, and can easily cast people into pills.

However, Ye Chen blocked a wave of offensive by relying on the Demon Castle, and now it's his turn to fight back.

hum!

Blue light bloomed in Ye Chen's palm, the light of the sky, the light of the Eight Diagrams Dao, all gathered in the palm, and then roared out like the sky, exerting the power of the Taoist alchemy technique to the extreme, directly counterattacking the Moon Emperor Demon God.

"What!"

Seeing that Ye Chen also mastered the Taoist alchemy technique, and his cultivation was so high, the Moon Emperor Demon God was shocked on the spot.

He wanted to withdraw to avoid it, but he felt that the surrounding space was blocked by confinement, and he couldn't escape.

It turned out that when Ye Chen performed the Taoist alchemy technique, he activated the power of Taiyu's bloodline to block the activity space of the Moon Emperor Demon God.

This Taiyu bloodline, alongside the Zhouguang bloodline, is also one of the most powerful bloodlines in Wuwu Time and Space. Behind it lies the mystery of the power of space, which Ye Chen has already controlled.

"Damn it!"

The Moon Emperor Demon God was furious, bursting out with the power of the peak of the Divine Dao Realm, a burst of devilish energy broke through Ye Chen's space blockade abruptly.

However, he was delayed for a while. Ye Chen's Taoist alchemy technique still had a lot of murderous aura, eroding his body.

"ah!"

The Moon Emperor Demon God let out a scream, the flesh and blood on his chest was corroded, dripping with blood, and even his internal organs could be vaguely seen, the picture was grim.

"Lord of reincarnation, I have underestimated you, Moonlight, you have been annihilated!"

The Moon Emperor Demon God's facial features twisted, and he looked up to the sky and began to chant again. In the dark sky, wisps of cold and ancient moonlight poured down like a waterfall, rolling towards Ye Chen.

Sensing the danger, Ye Chen activated the defense of the Heavenly Demon Robe to the extreme, resisting the attack of the Moon Emperor Demon God, and then swung his sword to counterattack.

The Moon Emperor Demon God sacrificed a knife and fought with Ye Chen. The two quickly fought together, and it was hard to tell the winner for a while.

Seeing the fierce battle between the two, Long Xueyan and the people of the Qingyun caravan were all stunned.

In the sand city, many people who came in and out saw the outbreak of the battle, and they also became commotion, casting countless gazes over.

If it was an ordinary battle, it wouldn't attract people's attention, because life and death killings were staged around Shacheng every day, and I don't know how many bones were buried.

But the focus of this battle is Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's fighting spirit broke out, and many people recognized his identity.

"Is that the Lord of Reincarnation? It's outrageous to fight against the demon gods in the late stage of the Divine Dao Realm and even the peak of the Divine Dao Realm with the Sixth Heaven of the Infinite Realm!"

"But judging by his appearance, it seems that he is struggling, and he probably can't hold it anymore?"

Chapter 9692

"Hehe, how could it be possible to defeat an existence at the peak of the Divine Dao Realm?"

Numerous commotions sounded.

Many guards of Daozong also watched the battle with great interest, but no one went out to help.

Because the battle between the Moon Emperor Demon God and Ye Chen was on the outskirts of the sand city, and the two hadn't formally stepped into the protective zone of the sand city. Even if they fought in the dark, it wouldn't be considered breaking the rules of the sand city. Daozong naturally wouldn't intervene.

Ye Chen fought with the Moon Emperor Demon God. The battle only lasted for a moment, and he felt that his spiritual energy could no longer support him.

The gap in cultivation was too great, and he was expending a lot of energy in the face of the Moon Emperor Demon God's continuous onslaught.

"At the peak of the Divine Dao Realm, it's really hard to deal with."

Ye Chen grinned, but he was lucky enough to see a way to break the situation.

"Throne of Thorns, explode!"

With a wave of Ye Chen's hand, he mobilized the energy of the Throne of Thorns, and on the desolate desert land, a forest of thorns was born. Countless thorns are like crazy dragons, snakes and beasts, spreading and growing, strangling towards the Moon Emperor Demon God. .

"Hey, the Throne of Thorns, the artifact of the Death God Cult, this magic weapon is not bad, but it's a pity that you can't exert much power in the sixth level of the Boundless Boundary."

The Moon Emperor Demon God laughed disdainfully, and the knife in his hand exploded with moonlight energy, cutting off the thorny thorns one by one.

However, suddenly, he felt a sharp pain in his heart, and his whole heart resonated with the thorns growing all around.

Then, the Moon Emperor Demon God felt that thorns grew out of his heart.

The wildly growing thorns pierced his heart, pierced his throat, pierced through his mouth, and then his whole body was pierced with thorns. The picture is extremely terrifying.

"cough....."

The Moon Emperor Demon God coughed up blood, and felt severe pain all over his body. He hastily mobilized the law power of the Divine Dao Realm, and crushed all the wildly growing thorns in his body.

Those thorns turned into ashes, mixed with his blood, which he coughed and vomited out.

His internal organs were already riddled with holes and severely injured.

"This...what the hell is going on?"

"Moon Emperor Demon Pellet, have you tampered with it!?"

The Moon Emperor Demon God was frightened and stared at Ye Chen in shock. He caught the secret in an instant and knew that when Ye Chen was refining the Moon Emperor Demon Pill, he secretly manipulated it and planted a trace of the power of the Throne of Thorns.

The power of the Throne of Thorns exploded at this moment, almost killing the Moon Emperor Demon God.

Ye Chen saw that the Moon Emperor Demon God was severely injured, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and said: "It seems that my luck is not bad."

Taking advantage of the injury of the Moon Emperor Demon God, Ye Chen stepped on the sand and shot out

"Emperor Arm, open!"

With a buzzing sound, Ye Chen's left arm exploded with towering flames, all kinds of flame runes intertwined, Yan Tiandi's Tiandi arm opened, and he punched the Moon Emperor Demon God's body with a shocking force.

Originally, the Moon Emperor Demon God was an existence at the peak of the Divine Dao Realm. If Ye Chen wanted to defeat him, it would definitely be very difficult and the price would be huge.

But, fortunately, before that, he saved his hand and left his own mark in the Moon Emperor Demon Pill, which exploded at this moment, directly severely wounding the Moon Emperor Demon God.

If he wanted to kill the Moon Emperor Demon God again, it would be much easier.

Under the severe injury of the Moon Emperor Demon God, seeing Ye Chen punching him, it was difficult to resist, and the devout gaze of a believer burst out in his eyes, and he looked up to the sky and shouted:

"Emperor Moon God, please have mercy on your people!"

His cry fell, and the nine heavens were empty, and in the depths of the distant years, it seemed that some terrifying power had been touched.

The originally dark sky became even darker, and the hooked crescent moon turned into a full moon like a jade plate, the moonlight was cold, bright, and mighty.

In that full moon, one could vaguely see a ethereal, peerless and independent figure, surrounded by moonlight, like a supreme fairy. If you look carefully, you can feel the domineering aura of the supreme emperor of heaven, which makes people worship you.

A big hand covering the sky, but with a very elegant demeanor, descended from the full moon in the sky, and grabbed Ye Chen's body.

This is the palm of the Moon God Emperor!

At this moment, the Moon Emperor Demon God actually summoned the will power of the Moon God Emperor to kill Ye Chen.

If that palm really grabbed Ye Chen, it would definitely crush Ye Chen to death.

"not good!"

As soon as Ye Chen's face darkened, he felt that his life was in danger, and wanted to activate the Devil's Eye of Death and the God of Heaven Against God, and fight desperately.

Rumble!

But at this time, there is also a shocking big hand covered with old wrinkles, surrounded by the aura of the emperor of heaven, the aura of the Taoist sect is boiling, auspicious, and full of radiance. Hit away.

boom!

In the end, these two shocking hands collided in the void.

The palm of the Moon God Heavenly Emperor was just a ray of will after all, its power was not comparable to the real Heavenly Emperor's hand, it was smashed to pieces on the spot, and dissipated into a little bit of moonlight.

The full moon in the sky also completely shattered, turning into streamers like fireflies, fluttering and falling in the desert.

And that old hand was as stable as a mountain, without any wavering.

Ye Chen was stunned for a moment, not knowing who was making the shot, but he knew that the opportunity should not be missed, so he immediately waved his palm and burst out the Taoist alchemy technique, killing the Moon Emperor Demon God.

The Moon Emperor Demon God had just summoned the will of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor, and had already exhausted all his strength. Facing Ye Chen's crush, he was completely unable to resist, and was hit by a palm on the spot.

Click!

The body of the Moon Emperor Demon God was quickly crushed, shrunk, gathered, smelted, and finally cast into a pill with black background and white stripes under the crushing technique of Ye Chen Daozong's alchemy. Those white stripes, there are traces of ancient moonlight.

"Blood dragon, eat it."

Ye Chen was immediately handed over to the blood dragon to swallow. The Moon Emperor Demon God is a citizen of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor, and has traces of cause and effect of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor on his body, which has a huge effect.

After swallowing the elixir, the blood dragon seemed to have refined something. He was pleasantly surprised and said, "Master, I have swallowed the Moon Emperor Demon God, and I have vaguely captured the cause and effect of many Moon God and Heavenly Emperors. It is estimated that in ten days, I will be able to do it." You can repair and decipher her treasure map!"

Originally, it might take several months for Blood Dragon to repair and decipher the treasure map of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor.

But now, after devouring the Moon Emperor Demon God, the time has been shortened to ten days.

Hearing this, Ye Chen was also overjoyed, and said, "That's good."

The treasures of the Moon God Heavenly Emperor are very rich in resources. If they can be obtained, Ye Chen can help the Xuanchen Heavenly Emperor to recast his body.

Moreover, according to Ren Feihua, there is a treasure called the Shenxuan Chain in the treasure of the Moon God Emperor.

Relying on the Shenxuan chain, Ye Chen may have a chance to connect ten reincarnation monuments in series, thereby awakening the invincible reincarnation source body.

Rumble!

And at this moment, in the sky, that old hand retracted, revealing an old man with white hair and youthful face.

The old man was dressed in the Taoist elder's costume, with his hands behind his back, and looked at Ye Chen with some interest, a smile appeared on the corner of his mouth, and then his body disappeared between the clouds.

Ye Chen was taken aback when he saw the old man.

He knew that it was this old man who helped him just now.

The old man's aura was deep, and he couldn't see the depth, but there was no doubt that he was definitely very powerful, able to fight against the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor.

And what is certain is that the old man is in Shacheng.

In the sand city, among the many people watching the battle, it seems that many people know the old man.

When seeing the old man appear and then disappear, many people exclaimed and commented:

"Isn't that Patriarch Mojin? He actually made a move!"

"Oh my god, Patriarch Mojin actually made a move in person to help reincarnation. He is so tainted with karma, isn't he afraid of being punished by the master?"

"The battle between the lord of reincarnation and the demon god did not take place in Shacheng. According to the rules, people from the Taoist sect should not be able to intervene, right?"

Ye Chen heard everyone's discussion, and saw many Daoist guards looking at each other in dismay, and couldn't help frowning.

It turns out that the person who made the move just now was the Patriarch Mojin of the Eighth Patriarch of Daozong!

Long ago, Ye Chen promised Master Yixian that he would make friends with Patriarch Mojin.

Once there is any dispute within Daozong, he will try his best to stand on the side of Patriarch Mojin, which is also what Ren Feifei meant.

However, Ye Chen didn't expect that Patriarch Mojin was originally in Shacheng, and he even offered to help him.

However, Patriarch Mojin showed up and then disappeared, Ye Chen didn't know what his plan was, or was it because of Taoist rules that it was inconvenient to contact him in public?

Uncertain, Ye Chen shook his head, not knowing what it meant to touch Patriarch Jin.

"Lord of Reincarnation, are you alright?"

At this time, Long Xueyan rushed out and asked Ye Chen worriedly.

"It's okay, let's go to the city."

Ye Chen patted her head, fortunately, Patriarch Mojin made a move just now, he didn't suffer any harm, instead let the blood dragon swallow the Moon Emperor Demon God, speeding up the speed of deciphering the treasure map.

At that moment, Ye Chen, Long Xueyan, and the members of the caravan entered Shacheng together.

In Shacheng, Jubao Chamber of Commerce, Misty Chamber of Commerce, Qingyun Chamber of Commerce, etc., all have branches.

Ye Chen first went to the branch of the Misty Chamber of Commerce, handed in the entrusted task, and received a reward of 300,000 gold source jade. He was satisfied, and then returned to the Qingyun Chamber of Commerce's residence to rest.

Shacheng was not peaceful on this day.

Ye Chen fought with the Moon Emperor Demon God, and in the end, Mojin Patriarch was attracted to attack. Many people guessed that Mojin Patriarch had the intention of wooing Ye Chen.

If the patriarch of Taoist sect actually formed an alliance with the reincarnation camp, the power of the reincarnation camp would definitely skyrocket.

In just one day, many strong men in Shacheng came to Qingyun Chamber of Commerce's residence one after another, wanting to join Ye Chen, but Ye Chen declined them all.

In the end, Ye Chen had no choice but to give an order, saying that he would no longer see guests, so he became a little quieter.

Ye Chen rested in the chamber of the chamber of commerce, and when his spirit recovered, night had already fallen.

In the dark night, the evil spirit of the black-patterned stone egg seemed to be stronger.

Ye Chen sacrificed the black-patterned stone egg, felt the mysterious aura emanating from the stone egg, and swallowed subconsciously.

"The taboo in this stone egg exists. If it is born, I don't know what the consequences will be."

"However, since Tian Yao and Xuan Yao both want to hatch, then I will hatch it anyway."

Ye Chen fixed his eyes, took a deep breath, took out various resource materials, gold source jade, etc., and piled them around the black-patterned stone eggs.

These resources and materials were all collected by him today when he exterminated the Sand Bandit Treasure Group. Now he has given out 70% of them to hatch black stone eggs. The price is not insignificant.

"Survival tricks, offering sacrifices to heaven and earth, accumulating evil spirits, and rushing like a law!"

Chapter 9694

Ye Chen recited silently in his heart, and with a pinch of his hands, he directly melted all the offerings of gold and jade, natural materials and earthly treasures, turning them into strands of golden solution, and pouring them on the black-patterned stone eggs.

Under the aura of a large amount of resources, the black-patterned stone egg, which had been silent for a long time, actually burst into bright magic light at this moment, with streaks of magic light gushing out, the evil spirit was turbulent, and the whole stone egg trembled.

The stone egg underwent an astonishing change. The originally thick and deep stone eggshell gradually became thinner and became transparent. All the evil spirits gathered and concentrated inside. Soon the shaking of the stone egg stopped and it became completely quiet.

Ye Chen was surprised to see the transformation of the black-patterned stone egg. The whole black-patterned stone egg changed from a stubborn stone to an exquisite work of art. Those patterns seemed to be carved and hollowed out, and the eggshell was translucent. Yes, in the crystal clear eggshell, there is a little golden figure faintly visible.

That little golden person, like the Nascent Soul in Taoist legends, is quietly suspended inside the eggshell, surrounded by golden liquid full of aura, like mother's amniotic fluid.

The little golden person who looked like a nascent baby seemed to be aware of Ye Chen's gaze, and he opened his eyes, like a curious baby, struggling to move his hands and feet.

But his hands and feet were entangled by some energy bonds, making it difficult to move.

He looked like a toddling baby, his eyeballs were rolling, and he looked straight at Ye Chen, his eyes were full of curiosity, and he looked a little cute.

Ye Chen was stunned, the existence inside the eggshell, the forbidden demon, was as cute as a newborn baby, which was beyond his expectation.

The little golden man struggled to stick his little hand to the wall of the eggshell, his eyes were full of expectation and curiosity, and he was still staring at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen seemed to have a tacit understanding, and put his hand on the eggshell, sticking to the little golden person through the eggshell.

The moment the palms touched, the little golden man showed a very cute and innocent smile, like a child who finally came into contact with his father.

There was a huge shock in Ye Chen's heart, a feeling he had never felt before, spontaneously born from the bottom of his heart.

It was a feeling of being a father about to see his own child about to be born, which was very wonderful.

"Is the existence in this black-patterned stone egg really some ancient monster?"

Ye Chen was a little puzzled, looked at the little golden man, and the little golden man was also looking at him, his eyes were full of trust, he patted the eggshell with his palm, and he babbled, looking a little anxious.

He seemed to really want to break out of his shell and reunite with Ye Chen, but he couldn't do it himself.

His babbling appearance is clearly a newborn baby, full of innocence and cuteness, where is there any sign of evil?

Holding the eggshell, Ye Chen could clearly feel that the little golden creature inside the eggshell was full of energy and aura. If it was born, its strength would be at least at the beginning of the Tianyuan Realm.

For such a powerful creature to be born, it needs more resources to water it.

The resources provided by Ye Chen just now are obviously not enough.

"This guy is really a gold swallowing beast."

Ye Chen grinned, calculated a little with his fingers, and found that the auspicious omen was right, he was full of auspiciousness.

If the little golden creature in the eggshell could be hatched, that little golden creature would definitely become his powerful support.

"This little guy may be the reincarnation of the forbidden demon?"

"Looking at his appearance, he should have no previous memory, just like a blank sheet of paper."

"If trained properly, it can indeed be my help."

Ye Chen muttered in his heart.

The little guy in the eggshell just moved around a bit, and seemed to have exhausted his physical strength. He babbled a little tiredly, and patted the eggshell wall again, as if urging Ye Chen to hatch quickly so that he could go out .

Then, the little guy closed his eyes and fell into a deep sleep.

Holding the egg, Ye Chen felt that the once extremely hard stone egg had now become as fragile as glazed glass, and could shatter with just a slight drop.

Once the egg is broken, the little guy inside the eggshell will definitely die young.

Ye Chen took it seriously, carefully put the egg away, thinking:

"It seems that I need more resources, more natural treasures, more gold source jade."

It will take at least ten days for the blood dragon to decipher the treasure map of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor, Ye Chen is a little itchy.

He was also worried that he didn't know if there were enough resources in the treasure of the Moon God Emperor.

After all, in addition to hatching black-patterned stone eggs, he also had to help Emperor Xuanchen recast his real body.

"It's really poor, when will I get rich?"

Ye Chen muttered to himself, feeling a little headache.

"The Lord of Reincarnation."

At this time, outside the room, someone knocked on the door and called, it was Long Xueyan's voice.

"Miss Long, what's wrong?"

Ye Chen asked.

Long Xueyan said from outside the room: "Lord of Reincarnation, someone wants to see you."

Ye Chen frowned and said, "No, it's already night, I want to rest, didn't I say I don't see any guests?"

There were too many people who came to seek refuge and visit today, Ye Chen had already said that he would not see any visitors, but there were still people who came to bother him.

Afraid of offending Ye Chen, Long Xueyan timidly said, "He's from the Taoist sect."

"oh?"

Ye Chen felt suspicious, but he didn't expect Daozong to come.

Daoist people are different from ordinary people, so he naturally wants to see them.

At that moment, Ye Chen opened the door and walked out.

Long Xueyan said cautiously: "They are waiting for you in the living room."

Ye Chen nodded, and when he went out to the living room, he saw two Taoist guards waiting.

Seeing Ye Chen come out, the two Taoist guards bowed respectfully, and one of them said:

"I have seen the Lord of Reincarnation, and the villain is ordered by the ancestor Mojin to invite you to the tomb palace."

Ye Chen focused his eyes, and said, "Did Mojin Patriarch send you here? Also, the tomb palace?"

The tomb palace is a force founded by Emperor Yuantian. Could it be that the ancestor Mojin has a relationship with the tomb palace?

The guard said: "Yes, there is a branch of the tomb palace in Shacheng, and the ancestor is waiting for you in the tomb palace."

Ye Chen's eyes turned, not knowing what Patriarch Mojin intended, but what is certain is that the other party has no malicious intentions and has long wanted to make friends with the reincarnation camp.

There are many friends and many paths, and Ye Chen also wants to meet this Patriarch Mojin, after all, he is one of the eight patriarchs of Taoism, and his status is extremely noble.

"Okay, you lead the way."

Ye Chen said.

"yes!"

The two guards respectfully took Ye Chen away from the Qingyun Chamber of Commerce's residence, boarded a carriage, drove all the way, and soon came to the place where the ancestor Mojin was.

When Ye Chen got off the horse, he saw the place in front of him, which was very far away from the city of Shacheng. It was considered an extremely remote place in Shacheng.

A huge pointed obelisk stood in front of Ye Chen, with the word "Tomb Palace" engraved on it.

Chapter 9695

The stronghold of this tomb palace looks like a mausoleum, with a ghostly atmosphere and a little ghost fire dancing around.

No, it's not like, this is a huge tomb.

"Lord of Reincarnation, please."

The two guards made an invitation gesture and led Ye Chen into the tomb.

In this tomb, there are almost no living people. They are all living corpse puppets, responsible for the operation of the tomb. They are busy walking back and forth, which looks a bit scary.

Ye Chen walked along the tomb passage all the way, and kept going deeper, and saw green lights lit on both sides, and there were many pottery figurines, and there were many paper-made villains, houses, carriages, etc. The atmosphere was very strange, like a ghostly underworld, which made people feel Hairy, the hairs on Ye Chen's back stood up.

Finally, the two guards brought Ye Chen to the depths of the tomb, inside a huge tomb.

In this tomb, there are skulls scattered on the ground. The empty eye sockets of those skulls are filled with green will-o'-the-wisps, which is very strange. There are also stone jars filled with human heads, which seem to be some kind of sacrificial offerings. There are many mysterious ritual runes engraved on the floor, and endless gray mist fills the air, which is suffocating.

A pair of black coffins stood upright and suspended in the center of the tomb, surrounded by endless ghostly aura.

The coffin had already been opened, and an old man was lying inside, looking at Ye Chen with a smile.

From Ye Chen's point of view, the old man seemed to be standing.

The old man had white hair and a childlike face, and his appearance was quite clear, but against the backdrop of the weird surroundings, he looked particularly eerie and terrifying, as if he was about to distort and transform into a ghost at any time.

It was the Patriarch Mojin that Ye Chen had seen during the day.

Ye Chen felt trembling in his heart. He didn't expect Patriarch Mojin to live in such a gloomy tomb. He bowed and saluted, and said, "I've seen Patriarch Mojin before."

Patriarch Mojin chuckled and said, "You don't need to be too polite, Lord of Reincarnation. Speaking of which, we have met before."

Ye Chen was taken aback, and said, "When?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "You probably don't remember. It's too long ago. You have been reincarnated for nine lives. In one life, you were in charge of the tomb palace. The authority to rule the tomb palace was entrusted to you by Emperor Yuantian. "

The master of reincarnation in that life of the tomb palace was very famous and ambitious. He wanted to create a reincarnation purana, which shocked the heavens and the ages.

Ye Chen said: "Is the senior also a person in the tomb?"

Looking at Patriarch Jin's appearance, it is obviously related to the tomb palace, which Ye Chen did not expect.

Patriarch Mojin nodded and said with a smile: "I used to be the servant of Emperor Yuantian, and he taught me all my cultivation. Later, he entrusted me to establish a force to help him collect resources. He wants to hit the other side of the starry sky."

"Hey, I like tomb robbers the most, and I deal with ghosts and evil spirits all day long, so the forces I built are called tomb palaces. In the beginning, all the existences in the tomb palaces were ghosts, monsters, and demon gods."

"Later Yuan Tiandi told me to restrain myself. He said that he wanted to establish a new order, a perfect order, the ultimate world. I said that I don't understand these things. I can only rob tombs and help him excavate ancient tombs and collect resources and treasures."

"In the end, he seemed a little disappointed in me. After he failed to reach the other side of the starry sky and woke up again, he took charge of the tomb by himself, but he still couldn't establish a truly perfect order. In the end, he handed over the authority of the tomb to the reincarnation of that life. Lord."

"Unexpectedly, the lord of reincarnation in that life was really a complete lunatic. He said that he wanted to create a reincarnation purana and have the ability to change the past. In this way, if something goes wrong in the past, it can be revised again. Until it is modified to perfection, the perfect order, the ultimate world can be born."

"Also, relying on the Reincarnation Purana, he can easily obliterate all enemies. It's really wishful thinking. How can such outrageous things be created?"

When Patriarch Mojin talked about the past, his expression became a little complicated.

The master of reincarnation in the tomb palace, the idea of the reincarnation purana obviously left a deep impression on him.

Ye Chen nodded, and asked again: "Senior, how did you join the Taoist sect later?"

The old ancestor Mojin said: "The great master invited me, and Lord Yuantian also agreed, so I joined the Taoist sect, but, hehe...the water in this Taoist sect is very deep, and there are too many twists and turns. Too much, I don't understand these things, and after so many years, I haven't had a very happy life."

"I saw you being attacked by a demon god today. I was afraid that something would happen to you, so I helped you. After all, we were friends back then, and now, someone wants to kill me. I need your help."

Ye Chen's heart trembled, and he said, "Who is it? Senior, who wants to kill you? The master?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "What nonsense are you talking about? What kind of person is the Great Ruler? I don't even have the right to be killed by him."

"It's a member of the elders group. I suspect it's one of the eight ancestors of Daozong, but I don't know who it is."

"I only deduced that the person who wanted to kill me was a follower of Emperor Huntian, who appeared to be a follower of the Taoist sect, but actually converted to Emperor Hundi behind his back, and plotted against him."

"The master is invincible in supernatural powers. He must know the inside of Daozong, and there is an inner ghost, but he didn't say it. He probably has more far-reaching plans."

"But, this is hard for me."

"Because this inner ghost already has the idea of killing me, and my life is threatened at any time."

Chapter 9696

"Among the Eight Patriarchs of the Dao Sect, I am the weakest in cultivation and the best to be bullied. Hehe, after all, I have been robbing tombs all year round, but my own cultivation has fallen. The ghost wants to pick me, a soft persimmon, and crush it to death, so that I can use it to worship the Soul Emperor."

Ye Chen was terrified, he didn't expect someone from Emperor Huntian to sneak into Daozong.

After he listened to the words of Patriarch Mojin, he even had a huge crisis.

The inner ghost who has converted to the Emperor Huntian is likely to attack him after the competition begins.

What's even more frightening is that Ye Chen vaguely saw that among the tens of millions of timelines in the future, one of them was that he won the championship in the competition, but he was attacked by the ghost and his eyes were gouged out.

The Demon Eye of Death that he had already refined was dug out by the inner ghost and re-enshrined to Emperor Huntian.

That inner ghost not only wanted to kill Patriarch Jin, but also posed a huge threat to Ye Chen's life.

"Senior, what can I help you with?"

Ye Chen hurriedly asked, helping Patriarch Jin is helping himself.

If Patriarch Touching Gold can eradicate that inner ghost, it can also indirectly solve Ye Chen's hidden dangers.

Patriarch Mojin was a little surprised to see Ye Chen being so forthright, then nodded in satisfaction and said:

"It would be great if you are willing to help me."

"I need you to go somewhere and help me get back a sword."

"I lent that sword to the Great Master so that he could compete with Martial God Tianzhao."

"Oh, by the way, Martial God Tianzhao is Martial Ancestor. He is the chosen one and the Supreme Martial Dao of Tianzhao. Before he was born, there were legends about him in the world. Everyone knows that in the future, There will be a Tianzhao Valkyrie born."

"Its name is Wu Tianya, the Martial Ancestor of the real world."

When talking about Martial Ancestor, Mojin Patriarch's tone was also full of leisurely fascination.

Martial ancestor is a legendary man, Tianzhao's martial god.

Ye Chen was a little surprised, and said: "My Martial Patriarch Master, has he ever competed with the Great Master?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "Yes, the Great Master back then also wanted to invite Martial Ancestor to join the Dao Sect, but Martial Ancestor did not agree."

"The two later decided that when they compete in martial arts, they will only compete in martial arts weapons, regardless of supernatural powers."

"Because if it is really a competition of supernatural powers, no one in the world will be the opponent of the Great Master. He is a symbol of mystery and greatness. His strength can at least be compared with that of Yuan Tiandi and Hun Tiandi at their peaks, and may even be superior. "

"However, if it's just to learn martial arts, he can't beat the Martial Ancestor, and the sword I lent him was also knocked down by the Martial Ancestor."

"The two agreed at the beginning that if the Great Master wins, Martial Ancestor will join the Dao Sect."

"But it's a pity that the Great Master lost. Martial Ancestor did not join the Dao Sect, but continued to wander on his own. In the end, he was ambushed and captured by the ancient star gate. He has been imprisoned since then. I don't know if he regrets it."

Talking about these things, Patriarch Mojin sighed, feeling sorry for Patriarch Wu.

If Martial Ancestor had joined Dao Sect back then, he would definitely not have been captured by the Ancient Star Sect.

Ye Chen's heart moved, and he said, "Senior, do you want me to help you get that sword back?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "Yes, the sword I lent to the Grand Master back then is called the Yuanchu Ancient Iron Sword, which was given to me by Lord Yuantian."

"That sword is very special. It is cast with the concentrate of the original world. It contains the power of law that the main world does not have. It is very powerful."

"The inner ghost in Daozong wants to kill me. I am in a very dangerous situation now. As soon as I deduce that there is a slight omen, I will be scared and run to hide in the sand city. Alas, I am ashamed."

"However, if I can get back the original ancient iron sword, I have a weapon for self-defense, and I won't be afraid that the inner ghost will kill me."

"Even, with the help of the primordial law, I can break through the fog of mysteries and find out who the ghost is."

The original ancient iron sword was the weapon used by the ancestor Mojin back then, and its importance is self-evident.

He became the weakest existence of the eight patriarchs of Taoism, mainly because he lost the original ancient iron sword. If he can find this sword, he will be able to control the supreme edge, at least self-defense is no problem, and he even has a chance to cut through the fog, to get a glimpse of the identity of the inner ghost.

Ye Chen frowned, and said: "Senior, the great ruler back then borrowed your sword and was knocked down by my Martial Patriarch. Didn't he compensate you?"

Patriarch Mojin sneered, "Compensation? What are you thinking!"

"What kind of person is the master, don't use your ordinary mind to figure out his mind."

"Don't talk about a sword, even if he wants my life, I will obediently send my head up. How dare I ask him for compensation?"

After a pause, Patriarch Mojin said again: "The place where the Great Ruler fought with the Martial Ancestor, the law of heaven and earth collapsed and became a broken emptiness."

"That emptiness was said to have been invaded by strange demons from the other side of the starry sky, and was listed as a forbidden area by the great master. It became one of the three places that people of the Taoist sect were never allowed to step into."

"Later, the sand city was established, and the emptiness, affected by the desert ley lines, has turned into a sea of sand, but it is still forbidden to enter."

"Of course, those who are banned are from the Taoist sect, and outsiders can enter."

"However, those who step into the sea of sand are basically close to death, and only very few people can come out alive."

"And what's even more frightening is that the higher the cultivation level, the faster the person will die after entering the sand sea. There seems to be some kind of curse inside."

Ye Chen vaguely felt that the sea of sand was indeed extremely strange and terrifying. He frowned and said, "Senior, do you want me to go to the sea of sand and get back your sword?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "Exactly, hehe, of course, I won't let you go for nothing, I will give you one million gold source jade, is this enough reward?"

The ancestor of Mojin robbed tombs all the year round, and the treasure resources he accumulated were really rich and powerful.

Now that he asked Ye Chen to help, he would naturally not treat Ye Chen badly, so he took out a storage bag and threw it to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen opened the storage bag and saw that it was heavy, containing 500,000 source jade.

Patriarch Mojin stroked his beard and said, "The remaining 500,000 yuan will be given to you when things are done."

Ye Chen's eyes lit up, and he thought that if he had a million source jades, he would be able to further hatch the black-grained stone eggs, and maybe he might be able to completely hatch the small things inside the stone eggs.

Patriarch Mojin said again: "Lord of Reincarnation, only you can help me now."

"Actually, over the past thousand years, I have sent many people to the sand sea to retrieve my sword. Among them were even god kings who reached the sky, but they all died in the sand sea."

"The stronger the person, the faster he dies."

"However, hey, you have the great luck of reincarnation. You have accumulated nine lives before. This life is absolutely invincible. As long as you make a move, you will definitely bring back my sword."

Chapter 9697

"This is the coordinates of Shahai, not too far from Shacheng."

At the end, the Patriarch Mojin flicked his fingers, and a flash of spiritual light shot into Ye Chen's mind.

Ye Chen sensed the coordinates of the sand sea. The large desert area outside was an extremely dangerous place of death. Businessmen who came and went deliberately avoided the sand sea, as if they were afraid they would be swallowed up.

"Okay then, senior, I'll go to Shahai to see if I can find your sword."

After Ye Chen thought about it seriously, he decided to agree and go to Shahai to try his luck.

If he can find the sword of Patriarch Mojin, he will not only get a large reward, but also restore Patriarch Mojin's strength, fight against the inner ghost of the Taoist sect, and even break through the fog to find out the identity of the inner ghost.

"Hahaha, very good, the lord of reincarnation, you are really refreshing."

"Then, I'll be here, waiting for your good news."

"When you come back, let's celebrate again."

Patriarch Mojin laughed heartily, thinking that if Ye Chen was willing to make a move, it would definitely be a success.

After a pause, he said again: "Yes, the five kits in the tomb palace are still in your hands, right?"

When Ye Chen was in the real world, he came into contact with the tomb palace, and finally got five kits. When he was in danger, he had the opportunity to get enlightenment from Tianzhao.

Ye Chen said: "Three have been used, and now there are two left."

Patriarch Mojin said: "That's good. After you go to the sand sea, if you encounter any danger that is difficult to solve, open the kit, and maybe you can get enlightenment."

Ye Chen said: "Yes."

After the discussion, Ye Chen bid farewell to Mojin Patriarch and left the tomb stronghold.

Afterwards, Ye Chen returned to Qingyun Chamber of Commerce's residence, rested for a night, arrived at

Chapter 9698

"No, the aura is consumed too quickly."

Ye Chen's face darkened. From here to Shaxin Island, it was hundreds of miles away. He kept using Xuanchen Piaomiao Body, but his body couldn't support it.

He wanted to open the wings of freedom, but found that he was restricted by the law and could not fly.

The law of heaven and earth in this sea of sand is very special, with many restrictions, flying is restricted, and the means of traveling through the broken void is even more impossible. Even Ye Chen's Great Desolation Stealing Heaven Art cannot work.

"What a weird place."

Ye Chen gritted his teeth, put Qinglian's avatar away, and thought about it carefully, and with a move in his heart, he sacrificed the Titan Godship.

boom!

Ye Chen pushed the Titan Godship and fell into the sea of sand.

I don't know how many tons of Titan godships, but they stayed firmly on the sandy sea, and they didn't fall, let alone be swallowed.

"It's finally done!"

Ye Chen was overjoyed, the Titan Godship was really mysterious, it was able to stay in this weird sand sea.

Immediately, Ye Chen boarded the Titan God Ship, poured spiritual energy into it, and drove the ship to Shaxin Island.

In the sand sea, the Titan Godship was moving very slowly, but it finally started moving.

Ye Chen estimated that in three days, he would arrive at Shaxin Island.

Rumble!

Sailing in the desert.

The Titan Godship sailed through the sea of sand, making a huge sound, stirring up tens of thousands of yellow sands, and the scene was quite spectacular.

And under the Titan Godship, there were screams and wailing sounds that reached Ye Chen's ears.

It turns out that there are many monsters lurking in the sand sea.

The Titan Godship passed by, and these monsters were crushed and exploded on the spot, screaming again and again.

Ye Chen sat on the Titan Godship, and he didn't have to worry about the attacks of monsters, it was very comfortable.

However, such comfortable days did not last long.

After one day, Ye Chen gradually drove into the depths of the sandy sea. The monsters here are more powerful, and they are not afraid of the crushing of the Titan God Ship. Many monsters directly rushed to the ship, and rushed towards Ye Chen like crazy .

After killing a few waves of monsters, Ye Chen felt that his aura was exhausted. Fortunately, he was on the Titan God Ship, so he could also replenish and rest.

"There are still two days to go. The next monster will be even more terrifying."

Ye Chen thought so in his heart, for the sake of safety, he pushed the power of the demon castle to the extreme, built a magnificent castle directly on the ship, and lived in the castle at night.

It has to be said that the defense of the Heavenly Demon Castle is indeed formidable.

At night, there were still monsters boarding the ship to attack, but they couldn't shake the Omen Castle, let alone hurt Ye Chen inside.

Ye Chen had a good night's sleep.

Chapter 9699

"I'm here to find something, are you hungry? Go in and eat something."

Ye Chen smiled and invited Xin Xingya into the castle.

"Um!"

Xin Xingya readily agreed, and took Ye Chen's arm and entered the castle.

Ye Chen made her something to eat, it was definitely not as good as outside, but in this sand sea area, at least it was better than eating dry food.

After the two of them finished eating, night fell, and the sandy sea under the night looked even more eerie and terrifying. There were bursts of monster whining sounds from afar, which was creepy.

boom!

Suddenly, a huge collision sounded from outside the castle, as if something huge had hit the ship, followed by a fierce monster roar.

Apparently, there are trolls attacking the ship.

Xin Xingya showed a panicked look, Ye Chen waved his hand to signal her not to panic, and said:

"Don't be afraid, my men will handle it."

On the ship, a rune ghost puppet began to execute Ye Chen's will, and began to surround and kill the monsters attacking the ship. He didn't make a sound during the whole process, because they were all puppets, pure killing machines. He will coldly carry out Ye Chen's will without making any noise.

Soon, the sound of fierce fighting was transmitted to the castle, but Ye Chen still maintained a confident and calm appearance, and did not panic at all.

Seeing Ye Chen's calm appearance, Xin Xingya felt a lot more at ease, and said, "Ye Chen, you are really powerful. The monsters in this place even scare me, but you don't panic at all."

Ye Chen sensed Xin Xingya's breath, but was surprised to find that her breath was weaker than before, and said strangely:

"Miss Xingya, your cultivation...hasn't broken through to the Tianyuan realm yet?"

"Could it be that you haven't taken that Heavenly Soul Blood Bone Pill yet?"

In the previous auction, Xin Xingya had already won the Heavenly Soul Blood Bone Pill. Logically speaking, after she took that heaven-level pill, it was enough to make her cultivation breakthrough instantly.

But the strange thing is, compared with the past, her cultivation has not only failed to break through, but has become weaker.

Ye Chen thought she hadn't taken the elixir yet, but after carefully capturing it, he clearly caught the medicinal energy of the Heavenly Soul Blood Bone Pill from her body, and she had already taken that elixir.

When Xin Xingya heard Ye Chen's words, she showed a sad and haggard look, and said, "I have taken it, but, my mother...she passed away two days ago, and before she died, I spent a lot of spiritual energy. To save her."

"My cultivation base, relying on the Heavenly Soul Blood Bone Pill, has been promoted to the middle god, but in order to save my mother, I spent too much money, and fell back again, even weaker than before."

"Also, I couldn't save her..."

Ye Chen's heart was shocked, and he said, "I'm sorry..."

He asked again, "What the hell is going on?"

In the dark, Ye Chen felt that the death of Xin Xingya's mother seemed not that simple, and there seemed to be a major cause and effect involved behind it, and it might even be related to his future.

Xin Xingya said sadly: "My mother...may have died because of the ugly god."

Ye Chen asked in surprise: "Ugly God?"

Xin Xingya said: "Remember what I told you? I want to investigate the cause and effect of the God of Beauty, but I can't find any specific clues to the secrets of heaven. It seems that all traces have been artificially erased, and only the God of Ugly was found in the end."

"After I got home, I told my mother about the ugly god and asked her to help us investigate."

"The result... the result

Chapter 9700

"As long as we can find this disciple of the Ugly God, we may be able to unlock the secret behind the Ugly God, as well as the secret of the Beauty God."

She held Ye Chen's hand tightly, and the palm was very cold: "I...my mother is dead. I want to resurrect her. If I want to resurrect her, I must unlock all the secrets of the ugly god and the beautiful god."

Ye Chen frowned and said, "A believer in the ugly god?"

It seems that this land of sand seas is not as simple as it seems on the surface, and there may be believers of ugly gods. Who could they be?

Ye Chen recalled the words of Mojin Patriarch, Mojin Patriarch said that when the Great Ruler fought with Martial Ancestor, after the battle, the law was broken, and this place was reduced to emptiness, and strange monsters took the opportunity to invade.

Could it be that the believer of the ugly god is that strange demon?

Ye Chen wanted to figure it out, but felt disgusted in his chest, as if he had touched some hidden taboo, he couldn't go any further in the calculation.

Xin Xingya said: "I have collected some clues. From some ancient secret books, I found a letter. Take a look."

With that said, Xin Xingya took out a letter, handed it to Ye Chen, and continued:

"I don't know whether this letter was written by the God of Beauty or the God of Ugly, but it must be related to them."

Ye Chen frowned, took the envelope, and pulled out the letterhead.

I saw a line on the letterhead:

"Carve words on stone."

On the letter paper, there is only this line of words. The handwriting is neat and meticulous, and the neatness is a bit too rigid. It is impossible to tell whether it is written by a man or a woman.

"Carve words in stone? What does that mean?"

Ye Chen was full of doubts.

Xin Xingya said: "I don't know. After I saw this letter, I felt blessed. I rushed to the warehouse of my Treasure Gathering Chamber of Commerce. In the corner of the warehouse, I found a dusty stone slab. This is it."

She took out another slate and handed it to Ye Chen.

There are many characters engraved on one side of this stone slab, but those characters have all been worn away and become pitted.

On the other side, a picture is engraved.

Half of the picture was also worn away, making it impossible to see what was painted, while the other half depicted a human face.

What kind of face is that?

Twisted, crooked, ferocious, ugly, it is clearly carved on a stone slab, but it seems to be alive, you can see the pores on the skin, covered with foul-smelling maggots, the mouth is open, the long tongue sticks out, the eyes it grows in the mouth, and the eyeballs reflect the hellish scene of mountains of corpses and seas of blood, which is extremely terrifying.

Ye Chen had never seen such an ugly and terrifying face.

"Wow....."

The moment he saw this face, Ye Chen's stomach churned violently, and he vomited from the side of his head.

This face was so ugly, with Ye Chen's Dao heart, he couldn't bear it, so he vomited out on the spot.

Compared with this human face, the dead face of Emperor Yu Huanggu looked handsome and unrestrained.

Even a tailed beast can't compare with this ugly and terrifying human face.

After all, the breath of the tailed beast is mainly terrifying, violent, and depressing.

But this face is more ugly and weird, like a poisonous insect, it wants to penetrate into the heart of a person, no matter how strong the heart is, it cannot withstand the impact of this ugly face.

"Ugh... is this... an ugly god?"

Ye Chen vomited for a full quarter of an hour before he came back to his senses a little bit, regained his energy, activated the Martial Ancestor Dao Heart, and calmed himself down.

There is no doubt that the human face carved on this stone slab is an ugly god.

Xin Xingya watched Ye Chen vomit until his face turned pale, but felt a little sympathetic to Ye Chen, patted his back lightly, and said, "Well, this should be an ugly god, I just saw this The carvings on the stone slabs were also greatly impacted, how could there be such an ugly existence in this world."

"However, the strange thing is that I recovered quickly without any discomfort. It seems that I have known this ugly god before. I have been used to his ugly face for a long time, so I am used to it."

Ye Chen forced a smile, and said, "I've said it all, you are the God of Beauty, of course you have seen the God of Ugly."

Xin Xingya was stunned, subconsciously touched her face, and said in a daze, "I... am I really a beauty god?"

Ye Chen looked at her dignified and beautiful face, and gently raised his hand to stroke it, saying: "Yes, you are the God of Beauty."

The two looked at each other, and at this moment, they were both a little emotional.

"Roar!"

However, just as Ye Chen and Xin Xingya got closer and could even gradually feel each other's breath, there was a loud roar that could tear apart the starry sky.

The roar was so violent that it almost shocked Ye Chen and Xin Xingya to the point of vomiting blood.

The two looked at each other in astonishment, and knew that something had happened outside.

"Go out and have a look."

Ye Chen took Xin Xingya's hand and hurried out of the castle.

Outside the castle, on the Titan ship, the ghost puppet summoned by Ye Chen is fighting bravely.

Their enemy is a huge monster, a skeleton giant, a hundred feet high, with a body as towering as a mountain, pressing on the railing of the ship with one hand, and holding a rusty giant knife in the other, slashing across, The momentum is extremely fierce.

On the body of the skeleton giant, there were many battle scars, all left by the puppet rune ghosts.

These scars obviously enraged it completely, it let out a terrifying roar, blazing flames were burning in its pupils, and a starry sky appeared faintly above its head.
