

Physician 9711

Chapter 9711

Ye Chen defeated the strange demon, descended, came to Xin Xingya's side, helped her sit up, touched her cheek lightly, and said, "Are you okay?"

Xin Xingya was excited and moved, and hugged Ye Chen's neck tightly, hugged him tightly, and said, "Ye Chen, thank you very much."

If Ye Chen hadn't made a move, she would probably have died.

Ye Chen felt the strong impact brought by Xin Xingya's flaming figure, and his mind couldn't help but tremble slightly.

In fact, with his Dao heart, there is no woman in this world who can attract him.

However, Xin Xingya seemed to be an exception.

Because, she is the goddess of beauty.

Hugging Xin Xingya at this moment, he did feel a little moved, and it was a very pure heart, without the slightest desire.

Seeing the two hugging each other, Qing Fuchen was both angry and jealous, his eyes almost burst into flames.

"The Lord of Reincarnation..."

At this time, on the altar, the strange demon who had just been severely injured slowly climbed up, staring at Ye Chen with unwillingness and hatred in his eyes, and then at Xin Xingya:

"And you, God of Beauty..."

"Forget it, sacrifice my life today, and I want you to die too."

"Lord God, please lower your power to let chaos and distortion, evil and darkness, wash this world."

"Praise the ugly!"

The strange demon sang loudly, shaking the heavens and the universe.

With a bang, his body burned violently, and countless dark and dirty pus and blood continuously flowed out and poured into the cracked altar.

hum!

The altar shook, and a wave of devilish energy rose into the sky.

Rumble!

Above the nine heavens, black clouds surged, as if some terrifying existence had been summoned down.

A huge, erratic, hazy figure, like a ghost demon god, appeared in the sky.

This figure exudes the majestic aura of the mighty Emperor of Heaven. I don't know what kind of god it is. Foul-smelling things dripped down, turning into weird, stinking black rain.

When the black rain fell, all the plants and many medicinal materials on Shaxin Island withered in an instant, and the soil on the earth was reduced to a fetid cesspit-like existence.

The sandy sea outside Shaxin Island, watered by these black rains, soon turned into a real "sea". Every drop of seawater revealed the dirtiest and foulest breath in the world, and there were many twisted and grotesque things. The monster was brewed and born.

Ye Chen stared blankly at the figure that appeared in the sky, it was the legendary ugly god.

He really saw the appearance of the ugly god, not the murals on the wall, not the totem on the slate, but the real ugly god, with such a distorted body, such a foul smell, a ferocious face, crooked facial features, and asymmetry, the long tongue hangs down, the eyes are not on the face, but in the mouth.

"vomit....."

Ye Chen vomited on the spot, and his Dao heart was extremely shocked.

He couldn't imagine that such an ugly existence existed in the world.

This is the ugly god.

It brings together all the ugly, ferocious, filthy, and stench in this world.

Xin Xingya's face was pale. When she saw the ugly god descending, her head was buzzing, as if some memory had been awakened.

She felt that she seemed to have really met the ugly god before, and had known him for a long time.

Therefore, even if the ugly god is ferocious, she will not be surprised, and can withstand the impact of the ugly god.

As for Qing Fuchen, the moment he saw the Ugly God descending, he had a mental breakdown, screaming, grabbing his face with both hands, drawing bloodstains one after another.

As for his disciples and the two deacons of the Xin family, when they saw the ugly god, their spirits exploded. Their heads could not bear the impact of the ugly god's pressure. on the spot.

"Alaya, Asroye..."

In the sky, the ugly god looked down and saw Ye Chen and the beautiful god, and uttered ancient, deep, inexplicable syllables.

Those words did not belong to this world, and seemed very deep and desolate.

Then, the palm of the ugly god stretched out. It was an extremely ferocious, extremely distorted palm, stained with countless demonic energy and ugly and foul breath.

He lightly squeezed a formula, and a cloud of dark devilish energy rolled down along with the black rain, filling the entire underground palace.

Ye Chen, Xin Xingya, and Qing Fuchen were all wrapped up in a thick demonic energy.

"Ahhh!"

Qing Fuchen screamed miserably, and under the erosion of demonic energy, timelines exploded one by one.

Ye Chen hugged Xin Xingya, and felt suffocated at the moment when the devilish energy struck.

His scorching sun star, after the arrival of the ugly god, had already dimmed.

And even if it is the scorching sun and life star, it can't resist the attack of the ugly god and demonic energy.

The power of the Ugly God is too terrifying, that terrifying devilish energy is enough to crush the Heavenly Emperor Lord God.

Ye Chen only has the cultivation base of the Infinite Realm, and Xin Xingya is only a low-ranking god, and the two of them can't resist the attack of the ugly god's devilish energy.

Xin Xingya panicked, and sacrificed an amulet and seven or eight protective magic weapons to form a protective shield against the impact of the devil energy.

All her hole cards were taken out.

"Tianbei, protector!"

Ye Chen's face darkened, and he also hurriedly summoned the Tianbei, propped up a shield, and resisted the impact of the ugly god's devilish energy.

The ugly god perched high in the sky, with cold eyes, silently watching Ye Chen and Xin Xingya, as if looking at two dying lambs.

Knowing how powerful the Ugly God is, Ye Chen wanted to summon Ren Feifei and the Buddha to help him, but found that his will could not be communicated.

Under the suppression of the ugly god, the sound of his broken heart bell could not be heard.

Chi Chi Chi!

The boundless evil energy of the ugly god kept impacting on the protective shields of Ye Chen and Xin Xingya.

The power of the protective cover is constantly becoming weaker.

Ye Chen's eyes were terrified, and he knew that once the protective cover disappeared, he and Xin Xingya would be corroded into a pile of dead bones by the terrifying evil spirit.

Ye Chen gritted his teeth, pushed the power of the Tianbei to the extreme, and desperately resisted.

However, with his current strength, it is obviously a bit of a dream to compete against the ugly god.

Even relying on the Tianbei, I'm afraid it won't last long.

"Ye Chen, are we going to die?"

Xin Xingya's eyes changed from panic to despair, and then from despair to a little calm. With a wry smile on her lips, she looked at Ye Chen and gently held his hand.

Ye Chen's face was gloomy, he didn't speak, naturally he didn't want to die here, and said: "No, we won't die."

In desperation, Ye Chen remembered the words of Mojin Patriarch.

Before departure, Mo Jin Patriarch said.

If you encounter any danger that is difficult to solve, you can open the tomb palace kit.

Chapter 9712

Ye Chen still has two of the tomb kits left.

Now is the most dangerous moment. Qing Fuchen not far away has already fallen under the impact of the ugly god's devilish energy.

I'm afraid it won't be long before Ye Chen and Xin Xingya will also fall down, and even be corroded into dry bones by the devil energy.

In a crisis, Ye Chen took out a kit and opened it.

Inside the kit, there was a note with four words written on it: Summon the God of Beauty.

"Summon the Goddess of Beauty?"

Ye Chen was stunned for a moment, his whole body trembled, as if he had heard some instructions from the heavens, and he was blessed for a moment, so he opened his arms and sang loudly:

"God of beauty, please show your mercy!"

Rumble!

As Ye Chen's singing fell, above the void of the nine heavens, auspicious light gushed out, magnificent aura, billowing divine light bloomed, flowers fell from the sky, golden lotuses surged from the ground, and many ugly demonic auras dissipated one after another, and were filled with the gentle, quiet and graceful fragrance.

A beautiful god descended from the void, her face was so beautiful, her body proportions were so just right, like a sculpture, her white skin was full of divine brilliance, and she exuded an aura of mercy like a virgin, The look in the eyes is also so kind and gentle, with a sense of pity that God loves the world, people just look at it and feel peaceful, wanting to kneel down and take refuge.

This beautiful god is exactly the God of Beauty!

Beauty God's appearance is exactly the same as Xin Xingya's, but the aura is much stronger.

Xin Xingya stared blankly at the God of Beauty, as if seeing another self.

"God of beauty, are you... the other me?"

Xin Xingya was in a daze, she felt the blood of God of Beauty, which was actually connected with her.

She and Meishen are not just similar, they seem to be one body, but they are divided into two parts.

She is the god of beauty, and the god of beauty is her.

The God of Beauty looked kindly, and did not speak, but just stared at the God of Ugly.

The Ugly God was completely moved when he saw the God of Beauty coming, and said in a shocking voice, "God of Beauty, you...you came back from the Pure Land?"

The god of beauty was silent, without saying a word, the palm of his hand glowed softly, and he slapped the ugly god with his palm, the wind in his palm was violent, and the light of the gods was overwhelming.

Ugly God's expression darkened, and he also struck out with a single palm.

Two palms collided, like the two most extreme forces in the world, colliding with each other.

Layers of divine radiance and radiance, waves of devilish qi roiled, collided and exploded, and violent vortexes exploded in the void.

boom!

The sky is collapsing, and the earth is collapsing.

Ye Chen and Xin Xingya's shields were shattered in an instant, and a huge force hit them, causing them to vomit blood on the spot.

Fortunately, when the fierce collision between the God of Beauty and the God of Ugly came to them, the power had already weakened a lot.

With the help of the defenses of Tianmo Castle and Tianbei, Ye Chen barely blocked it. Although the injury was serious, at least he could bear it.

rumbling...

The demonic energy in the sky gradually dissipated.

The ugly god who was still extremely ferocious and domineering just now, his body twisted and collapsed very quickly.

Obviously, the power of the ugly god is still not comparable to that of the beautiful god, and he was smashed to pieces with a single palm.

Soon, all the devilish energy dissipated completely.

In the sky, there is only the figure of God of Beauty, who is so great, brilliant, dignified, beautiful, elegant, and compassionate.

"Beauty God..."

Ye Chen and Xin Xingya looked at the figure of the God of Beauty and called out softly at the same time.

The Goddess of Beauty was speechless, she still didn't speak, she just glanced at the two of them silently, and then, her body gradually disappeared in the clouds, as if she had never appeared before.

The warm sunshine poured down from the sky, and the breeze was very refreshing.

The entire Shaxin Island has been reduced to ruins. Just now, the God of Beauty and the God of Ugly fought, and the entire world collapsed.

Ye Chen saw that, on the ruined land, there were pieces of spar leaking out.

These crystal stones are black, with a faint green glow inside, exuding an aura of primordial primordial origin, as if they were not created by this world, but came from the original world.

Ye Chen and Xin Xingya glanced at each other, and both of them vaguely guessed something.

Xin Xingya said: "Actually, when I found that strange demon, I deduced that the ugly god is not a god of this world, he came from the original world."

"Now that I see God of Beauty again, I can be sure that none of them are the gods of the main world, they come from the destroyed original world!"

"The original world..."

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly. The original world was a very mysterious world, and it was the hometown of the first God of Grass.

It is said that at the beginning of the original world, it was a gray chaos, and there was only one green lotus.

Later, that green lotus opened up the chaos, opened up the sky, and created a world, which is the original world.

That green lotus is the legendary creation green lotus, and it is the source of inspiration for Ye Chen Qinglian to cast the holy law.

"I guess, if you want to resurrect my mother, you may need to use the laws of the original world."

Xin Xingya said.

Ye Chen frowned and said, "Is it the law of the original world? I'm afraid it's not simple."

Xin Xingya sighed: "Yes, this direction won't work. In a short time, if I want to revive my mother, I may still have to rely on the special pill of Tiandan Pagoda, called Nine Turns Returning Life Pill, which is a very powerful medicine. The forbidden pill can unconditionally revive people below the Heavenly Emperor and Lord God."

"The Golden Pill family said that as long as I am willing to marry Qing Fuchen, they are willing to give me the Nine-Turn Life Return Pill."

Chapter 9713

Ye Chen smiled and said, "Then do you want to marry?"

Xin Xingya rolled his eyes at him, and said, "What are you talking about, how is it possible."

She pointed to not far away, where there was a pile of bones, which were dead Qingfuchen.

Just now, the ugly god's devilish energy surged, directly corroding Qing Fuchen into a pile of bones.

The power of the Ugly God is indeed terrifying. Qing Fuchen is a strong man at the peak of the Divine Dao Realm, and he has all kinds of trump cards to protect himself, but he still turned into a dry bone.

"Qing Fuchen is already dead, I think, it is impossible for their family to give me that nine-turn life-returning pill, and they will definitely use it to revive him."

Ye Chen said: "Then what are your plans?"

The laws of the original world are difficult to grasp, and Xin Xingya can't get the special medicine in Qing Fuchen's family. Ye Chen is very curious about what she plans to do next.

Xin Xingya said: "I want to go to the Tiandan Pagoda and obtain the alchemist certification."

"As long as I pass the certification of the Tiandan Pagoda, I can enter the library pavilion of the Tiandan Pagoda, where there is the pill formula of the Nine-Turn Returning Life Pill."

"As long as I know the refining method of Nine-Turn Returning Life Pill, I can refine the pill by myself, without relying on Qing Fuchen and his family."

Ye Chen was taken aback, and said, "Isn't the Heavenly Pill Pagoda the site of the Qingfu family?"

Xin Xingya shook her head and said: "No, the Tiandan Pagoda is similar to an alliance, composed of many alchemist forces, and the Jindan family that Qing Fuchen belongs to is currently the most powerful, and his father is the pagoda master, with a high position and authority."

"However, their Golden Core family can't cover the sky with one hand."

"In the Tiandan Pagoda, there are still many powerful forces, and it's not the Qingfu family who have the final say."

"As long as they are alchemists with sufficient talent and strength, after passing the assessment, they can join the Tiandan Pagoda and get various benefits."

"Instead of relying on the Qingfu family, I might as well join the Tiandan Pagoda by myself, get the pill formula of the Nine-Turn Life-Returning Pill, and make alchemy to revive my mother by myself."

Ye Chen smiled and said, "So you can make alchemy?"

Xin Xingya frowned slightly, and said in a strange voice, "Actually, I didn't know how to do it before, but it's strange. After the God of Beauty came, I seem to have a lot of memories."

"These memories seem to belong to me, but they don't seem to belong to me. It's very strange anyway."

"I suspect that this is the memory of the God of Beauty, but it is projected on me."

"Among these memories, there are many brilliant alchemy techniques."

"So, now I can also make alchemy. Although I am not as good as you, it shouldn't be too difficult to pass the assessment of Tiandan Pagoda."

Ye Chen was stunned, what kind of cause and effect existed between Xin Xingya and Beauty God?

The memory of the god of beauty can be projected onto Xin Xingya, allowing her to obtain many supernatural powers out of thin air.

Xin Xingya held Ye Chen's hand, stared into his eyes, and said softly, "Ye Chen, can you accompany me to Tiandan Pagoda?"

"That is the Qingfu family's territory after all. If I go alone, I'm still a little scared."

She didn't hide her worry in her heart, she was still a little afraid to go to Tiandan Pagoda alone.

Ye Chen said: "Do you want me to accompany you?"

Xin Xingya gave a soft "um" and held onto Ye Chen's hand even more tightly.

"Let's go back to Shacheng first."

Ye Chen smiled, but didn't say yes immediately, he still had to calculate good or bad luck.

Qing Fuchen died here today, if he went to the Tiandan Pagoda, I am afraid that the Tiandan Pagoda would not let it go.

Even if he really wanted to accompany Xin Xingya there, he still needed to be prepared in advance to be safe.

"All right."

Xin Xingya had no choice but to wait for Ye Chen to make a decision.

Ye Chen took back the original ancient iron sword of Mojin Patriarch, and took away all the original crystals in the entire Shaxin Island, and also took away some herbs that were not dead.

Those original crystals are quite special minerals. If they are melted, the aura inside will be released, which can be used to water the black stone eggs and further incubate the forbidden demon.

The mineral resources, medicinal herb resources, and energy sources on Shaxin Island are all original ancient iron swords.

This sword is very full of aura, and it has a powerful original law.

These primordial laws diffused, covered Shaxin Island, and blended with the aura of heaven and earth to form special minerals and herbs, which are rare resources in the main world.

It can be said that touching the sword of the ancestor of Jin has the great power to create the world.

With the sword and many resources, Ye Chen left the sand sea with Xin Xingya and returned to the sand city.

There is a branch of Jubao Chamber of Commerce in Shacheng, Xin Xingya went back to the branch first, and agreed to meet Ye Chen tomorrow.

Ye Chen took the original ancient iron sword and went straight to the tomb palace stronghold.

At that time, it was gradually slanting to the west, and the afterglow of the setting sun shone on the tomb, making the whole tomb look even more eerie.

Ye Chen took the sword and came to the depths of the tomb, in the main tomb.

In the tomb, there are two people sitting, one is Mojin Patriarch, and the other is Buddha's younger brother, Duanmei Patriarch.

The two were drinking, and both were slightly drunk.

"Senior, I'm back."

Ye Chen first bowed his hands to Patriarch Mojin, then frowned at Patriarch Broken Eyebrow, and said, "Patriarch Broken Eyebrow, are you here too?"

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch smiled, picked up the wine gourd, poured a bowl of wine for Ye Chen, and said, "Drink a bowl? The wine brewed with Dao Ling is very refreshing, hahaha..."

The last time Ye Chen got the Dragon Ancestor's Tears from him, the price was to exchange for Dao Token.

Chapter 9714

This Broken Eyebrow Patriarch really used Dao Ling to make wine.

The old ancestor Mojin smiled wickedly, took a sip from his bowl, looked at Ye Chen, saw that Ye Chen was holding a sword in his hand, it was his weapon back then, he was pleasantly surprised, his heart was full of joy, and he said excitedly:

"Ye Chen, did you really get my sword back?"

Ye Chen said: "Fortunately, I didn't disgrace my life." He cupped his hands and handed the sword back to Patriarch Mojin.

Patriarch Mojin accepted it happily, overjoyed, and said: "Very good, very good, with this sword, I won't be afraid of that inner ghost assassinating me."

His sword was given to him by Emperor Yuantian back then. It is extremely powerful, has the power to transform the world and cut across the starry sky, and has a special original law, which is extremely mysterious.

With this sword protecting his body, even if the inner ghost of Daozong wanted to assassinate him, he would have the confidence to defend against it.

After a pause, Patriarch Mojin said again: "Don't worry, Ye Chen, your Dao Token was taken by the Broken Eyebrow Monk to make wine. I can give you a clue, which is related to the Wuzhu Dao Token."

"As long as you decipher this clue, you can get a piece of unowned Dao Token, and you can also participate in the competition."

"Hey, I have already seen the future. You will definitely win the championship in this competition."

"Ren Tiannv, Zhou Wuhuang, Qing Fuchen, those people who want to compete with you for the championship, without exception, they will all be killed by you!"

Ye Chen's heart trembled, the heavenly girl will also participate in the future competition.

It would be great if Tiannv could be eliminated in the competition.

"Senior, what is this clue?"

Ye Chen asked, he is in need of a Dao Ling right now.

"This jade pendant, you hold it first. When you see this jade pendant, it turns from green to black, crush it, and you will know the clue of the Unowned Dao Token."

Patriarch Mojin took out a green jade pendant and threw it to Ye Chen.

Ye Chen accepted it, frowned and said, "Is it so mysterious?"

Patriarch Mojin smiled and said: "After all, I am an elder of the Dao Sect. According to the rules, I cannot provide you with some clues. Even if you want to make an exception, you must keep a low profile."

"Ahem, anyway, you understand."

Ye Chen smiled wryly, and probably understood, and said, "Yes, I understand."

Patriarch Mojin nodded, but his gaze turned serious, and he said, "Actually, Monk Broken Eyebrow and I have just calculated together about the inner ghost in the Taoist sect, and we probably have found something."

Ye Chen's heart trembled, and he said, "Who is the inner ghost?"

Patriarch Mojin and Patriarch Duanmei looked at each other, and they nodded.

"The inner ghost is probably the blood knife evil ancestor in the elders group, one of the eight ancestors."

"However, the truth is, I'm not sure."

Patriarch Mojin hesitated.

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch took a sip of wine, with a sinister expression on his face, and said: "There is nothing to doubt, that inner ghost is the Blood Knife Evil Patriarch, my calculations are not wrong!"

"Hey, this Blood Saber Evil Ancestor is the Patriarch of the Heavenly Sword Clan and the younger brother of Heavenly Sword Emperor Han Shenji."

"Back then, the two brothers, one practicing Yuan Dao Profound Truth and the other cultivating Evil Saber Profound Truth, competed for the title of Emperor Dao Tian. In the end, Han Shenji won and became Emperor Dao Tian."

"I don't know what the Great Master is thinking. This blood knife evil ancestor, at first glance, has a wicked heart. The Great Master actually invited him to be an elder of the Dao Sect, and even become one of the eight supreme ancestors."

"Could it be that the Great Ruler has long known that he is a follower of the Soul Emperor, and wants to rely on him to lure the Soul Emperor out?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "I don't dare to fathom the mind of the Great Master, but the Blood Saber Evil Ancestor has vicious sword skills and is extremely domineering. If he is really an inner ghost and wants to kill me, I will be in great trouble. "

While talking, Patriarch Mojin gently stroked the original ancient iron sword, and thanked Ye Chen again: "Ye Chen, thank you so much this time, with this sword, I at least have the strength to protect myself. "

"However, I'm not completely sure whether that inner ghost is the Blood Saber Evil Ancestor."

"Ye Chen, if possible, I hope you can go to Zhanling Time and Space, which is the territory of the Blood Saber Evil Ancestor."

"As long as you can step into that territory and get in touch with the aura of heaven and earth in that place, I can get more clues and deduce the ultimate truth."

Ye Chen frowned and said, "You want me to go to the territory of the Blood Saber Evil Ancestor?"

Patriarch Mojin said: "Yes, after the matter is completed, I can take you to meet the descendants of the God of Light, Tianzun."

"The masterpiece of the God of Light, the Heart of Light, is on you, right? I can feel the breath of the Heart of Light."

"However, the Heart of Light is only a semi-finished product with limited effects."

"I see your future, the future you, will be swallowed by the darkness of no time and space, only the heart of light can save you."

"I know that there is a descendant of the God of Light. They have the blueprint for making the Heart of Light. After you get the blueprint, you will have the opportunity to complete the Heart of Light and fight against darkness."

Patriarch Mojin was under Yuantian Emperor back then, and Guangshen Tianzun was also Yuantian Emperor's servant, so the two knew each other and had a good relationship.

The descendants of the God of Light, the Patriarch Mojin will also take care of them to preserve the morality and luck of the God of Light.

Ye Chen's heart moved. When he was in the sand sea, Martial Ancestor told him that he would perish in the future and be swallowed by the darkness of no time and space.

Emperor Yuhuang couldn't kill him, and neither could the goddess, because he was powerful in combat, had great fortune, and was guarded by many powerful men.

However, the deepest and most primitive darkness of Wuwu Time and Space is an incomparably terrifying power that surpasses human power and gods. It is the original energy of time and space, enough to swallow everything.

Ye Chen's future is not to be killed by people, but to be swallowed by darkness.

This is what Wuzu said, and now Mojin Laozu also said the same.

Ye Chen's future is doomed to perish.

But, this future. It has not yet come, and there is a possibility of reversal.

The heart of light is the key to smashing the darkness and reversing fate!

Ye Chen's mind became active, and it would be great if he could complete the heart of light.

"Can't others enter the territory of the Blood Knife Evil Ancestor?"

Ye Chen asked seriously.

Patriarch Mojin shook his head and said: "Xue Dao Xie Zu has a very weird temper. Except for his own believers, no one is allowed to enter his territory."

"Anyone who dares to step into his territory will be executed by him."

"If you want to go in, you have to spend a little bit."

"However, don't worry, I have made arrangements. You go to Tiandan Pagoda first, and someone will take you to Zhanling Time and Space."

Ye Chen asked strangely: "Tiandan Pagoda? Who wants to take me there?"

Patriarch Mojin pondered: "I can't say too much. Although we are conspiring here because of the protection of Shacheng, the secrets will not be leaked out, but if I say too much, there is still a possibility of exposure."

Chapter 9715

"In short, after you go to Tiandan Pagoda, someone will contact you."

"After you enter the spirit-slaying time and space, take out my treasure drop and absorb the aura of heaven and earth over there, and I will sense it."

"As long as there are enough traces, I can deduce the truth behind it."

"My falling treasure money, is it in your hands?"

Ye Chen said: "Yes."

Then take out the treasure money.

The old ancestor Mojin looked at the Luobao money, he laughed, and said: "This Luobao money, I actually gave it to the Sand Pirates, and asked them to help me save some money, hehe, it's just that they are too much." You actually went to steal something from the Misty Chamber of Commerce."

"It's a good thing that you killed them. From now on, you can keep the treasure money. It's a good thing. It can be a magic weapon."

"I don't need it anymore, it's best for you."

Patriarch Mojin is already the Lord God of the Heavenly Emperor, so the money from Luobao is of no use to him.

Because the person he has to face is also a strong man at the level of a heavenly emperor.

For a powerhouse of this level, weapons and magic weapons are just foreign objects, what is really powerful is his own original Heavenly Emperor Qi.

Therefore, the magic weapon of falling treasure money can be ignored in the battle of the emperor level.

But Ye Chen is only boundless, this magic weapon is still of great use to him.

"Yes, thank you senior for the gift."

Ye Chen put away the Luobao money, hesitated and said:

"However, going to the territory of the Blood Knife Evil Ancestor is a very important matter. I have to think about it and give you an answer tomorrow."

Ye Chen is not a reckless person. Although he has never seen the Blood Knife Evil Ancestor, after hearing the other party's name, he felt an extremely majestic aura and a vast mystery.

Xue Dao Xie Zu is one of the Eight Patriarchs of Dao Sect, the younger brother of Emperor Dao Tian, and his strength is extraordinary.

He and Patriarch Mojin are conspiring here. If the blood knife evil ancestor finds out, his life will be in danger.

Patriarch Mojin was a little anxious, and said: "What else is there to consider, don't you want the blueprint of the heart of light?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said: "No, anyway, senior, let me think about it for a night, I will take my leave first."

After finishing speaking, Ye Chen stood up and said goodbye.

Patriarch Mojin obviously didn't expect Ye Chen to be so cautious, but he can't force this kind of thing, he can only wait for Ye Chen to make a decision.

"Oh, then I'll wait for you."

"There are 500,000 Origin Jade here as a reward for you."

Patriarch Mojin sighed, and threw out a storage bag full of Yuanyu.

Ye Chen helped him get back the saber, he was naturally very grateful, and the promised reward was quite a bit.

"Thank you."

Ye Chen smiled, accepted Yuanyu, then turned and left.

At night, return to the Qingyun Chamber of Commerce branch and rest in the room.

After a busy day, Ye Chen finally relaxed, feeling a little tired.

Earlier on Shaxin Island, the God of Beauty fought against the God of Ugly, he was hit and suffered some internal injuries.

At that moment, Ye Chen took out some healing elixir, took it, and adjusted his breath a little.

During this trip to Shaxin Island, not only was he injured, but Blood Dragon also suffered a lot.

"Blood Dragon, are you alright?"

Ye Chen asked.

"Fortunately, master, I'm fine. It's just the impact of the ugly god's devilish energy. It's really not a trivial matter. I need to rest for a few days."

"It may take a little longer to crack the treasure map of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor."

The blood dragon said guiltily, in its current state, I am afraid that it will not be able to decipher the treasure map in the next few days.

"It's okay, you're fine."

Ye Chen said.

"Master, if you can, go to Tiandan Pagoda."

"I can feel that at the Heavenly Pill Pagoda, there is a pill left by the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor. It is a Heavenly Emperor level pill, which is very powerful."

"You don't need to get that heavenly emperor-level pill, as long as you get close to it and get infected with the pill energy, it can quickly restore my state, and the cause and effect will be connected, and the fusion of heaven and earth will allow me to crack the treasure map faster."

Blood Dragon Road.

"An emperor-level pill?"

Ye Chen was taken aback. He had never seen such a pill before, so he didn't know how powerful it would be.

That moon god, the Heavenly Emperor, was really powerful, and he could even refine Heavenly Emperor-level pills.

"Well... that day Danta, I will go for a walk tomorrow."

Ye Chen was concentrating on meditation, Xin Xingya wanted him to accompany him to the Tiandan Pagoda, Mojin Patriarch also told him to go to the Tiandan Pagoda first, and now Xuelong also said that the Tiandan Pagoda has the cause and effect left by the Moon God and the Emperor.

It seemed like he had to go to this place.

"Master, then...the territory of the Blood Knife Evil Ancestor, Zhanling Time and Space, do you want to go too?"

The blood dragon asked again.

Ye Chen calculated with his fingers, deduced the good and bad of the future, and felt that there were various opportunities and dangers in Zhanling Time and Space.

He grinned and said: "Forget it, I promise Patriarch Mojin, let's go."

"Anyway, both Patriarch Mojin and Master Wuzu said that I will be swallowed by darkness in the end, that is to say, I will probably not die before being swallowed by darkness, so what are you afraid of?"

"I still want the blueprint for making the Heart of Light."

The blood dragon said: "Yes! Master, I will accompany you."

Ye Chen nodded, now that he has made a decision, he will stop thinking about it.

Carefully, he took out the black-patterned stone egg, placed it in the air, gently squeezed the formula with his fingers, and cast the life-invoking trick, first laying a layer of formation in the void.

The black-grained stone eggs in the formation, the eggshell is almost transparent, and the patterns on it are hollow, very delicate.

Inside the stone egg is a golden little person, that is the legendary forbidden demon.

Chapter 9716

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes slightly, piled many original spars and a large amount of golden source jade on the formation, and used the trick of summoning life to melt all the resources, turning them into pure golden spiritual liquid, pouring onto the eggshell.

"Little guy, come out."

Ye Chen called softly, the voice seemed to be magical, and it was also the effect of the trick of evoking life.

Under his call, the little forbidden demon in the eggshell whimpered, opened his eyes, and woke up.

As soon as the little forbidden demon woke up, he felt that there were countless energy spirits gathering into his body, and he couldn't help moving his hands and feet excitedly, but within the eggshell, his range of movement was very limited.

Click!

Under the infusion of countless spiritual energy, the eggshell also cracked a crack, and a golden light flowed out from it.

Seeing the cracking of the eggshell, Ye Chen was pleasantly surprised, and took out many golden source jades as offerings.

Click!

After Ye Chen consumed hundreds of thousands of source jade, another gap in the egg shell cracked, and the little forbidden monster inside seemed to be about to break out of its shell at any time.

Knowing that she was about to be born, the little forbidden demon patted the eggshell with her palm, babbling and whimpering, innocent and cute like a child.

However, after the eggshell cracked two slits, it stopped cracking, and there was no sign of hatching again.

Ye Chen has already consumed hundreds of thousands of Yuanyu, but it seems that it is not enough.

"There are so many source jades, and the spars of the original world, so many resources, isn't it enough?"

"This forbidden demon stone egg is really a bottomless pit!"

Ye Chen was speechless secretly, it seemed that hatching forbidden demon stone eggs was much more difficult than he imagined.

The little forbidden demon patted the eggshell a few times, and seeing that the eggshell didn't break open again, she seemed a little anxious, babbling loudly, with pitiful and expectant eyes, looking at Ye Chen eagerly, as if she wanted to ask Ye Chen to continue offering Sacrifice Yuanyu, so that he can break out of his shell quickly.

Ye Chen took a closer look, and saw golden veins appearing on the skin of the little forbidden monster. These textures seemed to be traces of the law of immeasurable realm.

These textures did not exist before. It was Ye Chen who had just consumed hundreds of thousands of source jade, and the little forbidden demon was born with these traces of lawful textures.

Obviously, most of the energy of the source jade donated by Ye Chen was absorbed by this little forbidden demon.

As long as this little forbidden monster grows strong enough, it can break out of its shell.

But now it seems that even if Ye Chen's natural treasures are drained, he may not be able to hatch him into the world.

"Little guy, you'd better go to sleep, don't try to squeeze me dry."

Ye Chen grinned, and put away the stone egg under the resentful eyes of the little forbidden monster.

If you want to hatch stone eggs, Ye Chen estimates that you must at least find the treasure of the Moon God and Heavenly Emperor before you can get enough resources.

The next morning, when Ye Chen woke up, Long Xueyan came to report: "Master of Reincarnation, there are several people looking for you outside."

Ye Chen said "Oh", walked outside the chamber of commerce and saw three people.

Two of them are Xin Xingya and Duanmei Patriarch.

There was another person, unexpectedly to Ye Chen, who was the ape king of the Tongtian ape clan.

The three of them seemed to have come early in the morning. After waiting for Ye Chen for a long time, they saw him come out and hurried up.

Xin Xingya said: "Ye Chen, can you accompany me to Tiandan Pagoda?"

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch said: "Boy, how do you think about Mojin Patriarch?"

Tongtian Ape King said: "Lord of Reincarnation, please take a step to speak."

The three of them spoke at the same time, and their words were intertwined. After speaking, they looked at each other.

Ye Chen smiled wryly, and said to Xin Xingya and Duanmei Patriarch, "Wait a minute."

Said to Tongtian Ape King: "Senior, please."

Then he brought Tongtian Ape King into the chamber of commerce's mansion and spoke in a secluded place.

Ye Chen knew that the arrival of Tongtian Ape King must be something important.

The Tongtian Ape King first bowed to Ye Chen and said, "Master of Reincarnation, did you successfully hatch that forbidden demon egg?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "Not yet, the Forbidden Demon Stone Egg needs a lot of resources to hatch, and I don't have enough resources."

The Tongtian Ape King said solemnly: "Then you have to hurry up, I have tried to contact Lord Xuanyao and told him about the forbidden demon eggs."

"Master Xuan Yao said that he is still in the desolate world and it is not convenient to come back. He also told you not to take the initiative to contact him, otherwise the secret of heaven will be leaked, and you may be peeped by the ancient star gate."

"Besides, the ancient star gate should soon find out about the forbidden monster's evil eggs. You must hatch the forbidden monster before they make a move."

"Master Xuanyao said that this forbidden demon is the key to fighting against the ancient star gate in the future, and there is no room for loss."

"The real name of this forbidden demon is Wang Chuan, you should remember it well."

"The word Wangchuan is not only his real name, but also his curse."

"Back then, Xuanyao, Tianyao and other adults laid down many laws of karma on the evil eggs of the forbidden demon. One of the laws of karma was to recite the real name of the forbidden demon, and he would suffer extremely intense pain."

"With this curse, I won't be afraid of the forbidden demon's rebellion."

Back then, Xuan Yao, Tian Yao and others wanted to drive away tigers and devour wolves, and used the forbidden demon to attack the ancient star gate.

But they also know how terrifying the forbidden demon's strength is at its peak.

Therefore, they had already prepared in advance to lay down the curse of karma.

Ye Chen nodded and said, "Wang Chuan, I remember."

Tongtian Ape King said: "Okay, then I will go first, Lord of Reincarnation, I wish you can hatch the forbidden demon as soon as possible."

At that moment, Tongtian Ape King bid farewell and left.

Ye Chen regained his composure and came back to the entrance of the chamber of commerce. Xin Xingya and Patriarch Duanmei were waiting.

"Xingya, I can accompany you to Tiandan Pagoda."

Ye Chen said with a smile to Xin Xingya, and then glanced at Patriarch Broken Eyebrow.

The implication is that he agreed to the request of Patriarch Mojin and was willing to go to the time and space of the spirit to collect clues.

This spirit-slashing time and space has been closed all year round, and the blood knife evil ancestor does not allow outsiders to enter.

Ye Chen didn't know how to get in, everything was waiting for Mo Jin's arrangement.

Xin Xingya was overjoyed when she heard Ye Chen's agreement, and said, "That's great."

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch took a sip of his wine and said with a smile: "You two want to go to Tiandan Pagoda, come with me, I will take you to the teleportation formation, it will save you a lot of trouble."

Xin Xingya nodded lightly, only thinking that the ancestor with broken eyebrows was Ye Chen's friend, and didn't think too much about it.

Ye Chen took Xin Xingya and followed Patriarch Broken Eyebrow.

The Broken Eyebrow Patriarch took the two of them all the way to the busiest place in the city.

On the way, Ye Chen said with a smile: "Patriarch Broken Eyebrow, I thought you were such a useless person, you only know how to drink all day long and don't do business."

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch smiled and said, "Guess I drink all day, where does the money come from? Hehe, I don't want to work either, but if I don't work, how can I get money?"

As he spoke, he picked up the wine gourd again and took a sip of the wine.

It turned out that he worked for Mojin Patriarch to make money for drinking.

Chapter 9717

Ye Chen smiled, and asked without a trace: "Hey, Patriarch Broken Eyebrow, have you heard of the God of Beauty?"

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch was taken aback, and said, "What beauty god, I've never heard of it, is there such a god? The name doesn't sound too domineering."

Ye Chen shrugged and said, "It's fine if you haven't heard of it."

The Patriarch Broken Eyebrow and the Master of the Buddha came from the same school. Ren Feifei once said that the God of Beauty may be the master of the Buddha.

In other words, the god of beauty is also the master of the ancestor of the broken eyebrow.

But now, when Ye Chen mentioned the God of Beauty, Patriarch Duanmei remained indifferent, saying that he had never heard of it.

Ye Chen still wanted to dig out more clues to the god of beauty from the ancestor of Broken Eyebrow, but it seemed impossible.

"You kid, why do you look a little weird?"

The Broken Eyebrow Patriarch muttered, looked at Ye Chen suspiciously, then took a sip of wine with his throat raised, and sighed comfortably:

"Forget it, I don't care about you, anyway, I will never leave Shacheng in my life, and no one can hurt me. No matter what schemes you have, it has nothing to do with me."

Xin Xingya saw that the old ancestor with broken eyebrows looked decadent and reeked of alcohol, she frowned slightly, and said, "Yan Feiqing, you should drink less."

Hearing this, the Broken Eyebrow Patriarch was stunned and looked at Xin Xingya with a face full of astonishment. The wine gourd fell to the ground with a slap, grabbed her arm in horror, and said sternly, :

"What did you call me just now? Yan Feiqing?"

"How do you know my real name!"

"My real name, in this world, no one knows except my buddha senior brother and master, how could you know!"

Xin Xingya's arm was caught by the Broken Eyebrow Patriarch, as if caught in a tight hoop, excruciating pain, she cried out "Ouch", and wanted to shake his hand away, but no matter what, she couldn't.

Seeing this, Ye Chen hurriedly pulled the Broken Eyebrow Patriarch away, and said, "She is the eldest lady of the Jubao Chamber of Commerce, so what's so special about knowing your name?"

Duanmei Patriarch froze for a moment, feeling a little lost, and said: "That's right, your Treasure Judging Chamber of Commerce has great magical powers, so it's not surprising that you know my name."

"However, the tone of your words just now really resembles my master..."

"I don't remember who my master is, but I probably still remember that every time I drink alcohol secretly, she will scold me like this."

Xin Xingya was dazed, and a little creepy.

She was very sure that she didn't know Broken Eyebrow Patriarch before, nor did she know his real name, but just now she called his name, as if it came from nature, it was really weird.

"I'm the God of Beauty, could it be that I'm his and the Buddha's master?"

Xin Xingya just felt incredible, what kind of person is the Buddha, what virtue and ability does she have, how can she be worthy to be the master of the Buddha?

The three of them fell silent, each thinking.

After a while, the three came to the center of the city, in front of a huge mansion.

This mansion is magnificent and luxurious. On the open space in front of the mansion, there are guards in strong and sharp armor, who are performing formations, and the momentum is soaring, which is quite spectacular.

"arrive."

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch came to his senses and paused.

"here it is....."

Ye Chen looked at the mansion with some curiosity, only feeling the murderous aura of military strategists, as if a battlefield beacon was burning, and his spirit was faintly touched, as if he heard the sound of war drums and horns, which was shocking.

"Bingzu Tianzun's mansion in Shacheng, let's go in."

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch replied, swaggeringly took Ye Chen and Xin Xingya in.

The guards guarding the gate respectfully saluted the Broken Eyebrow Patriarch.

Obviously, Patriarch Broken Eyebrow was the guest of honor in the mansion of Bingzu. After all, he was Buddha's younger brother. With his status, even if he was drunk all day long, others would show respect to Buddha.

Ye Chen followed the Broken Eyebrow Patriarch and stepped into the mansion of Bingzu Tianzun, and saw a teleportation array built on the square opposite the hall.

An old man with immortal demeanor, long hair hanging down his chest, holding a roll of bamboo slips, is standing on the edge of the teleportation formation with a smile, as if he has been waiting here for a long time.

"Bingzu Tianzun, I have been waiting for a long time."

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch greeted with a smile.

This old man with immortal demeanor is exactly the legendary ancestor of soldiers and one of the eight ancestors of Taoism.

Bingzu Tianzun smiled lightly, looked at Ye Chen, cupped his hands, and said politely: "The Lord of Reincarnation, I have heard of you for a long time, I have heard that you have come to Shacheng, but I am busy with chores, and it is inconvenient to visit. I finally saw you today. It is a dragon and a phoenix among people."

Ye Chen also hurriedly bowed his hands to return the gift, saying: "Senior, I praised you."

He had known for a long time that Bingzu Tianzun and Mojin Patriarch were best friends.

This time, Patriarch Touching Gold wants to send Ye Chen to Zhanling Time and Space to investigate the details of the Blood Saber Evil Ancestor. Bingzu Tianzun must know about it and will provide help.

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch said impatiently: "Okay, stop talking nonsense, Bingzu, quickly activate the teleportation array."

Bingzu Tianzun smiled, sacrificed a scroll, handed it to Ye Chen, and said: "Lord of Reincarnation, I have nothing good to give you when we meet for the first time. This is a meeting gift, not a respect."

"This is....."

Ye Chen took the scroll, and saw that the scroll was white all over, with dragon-shaped carvings printed on it, and a faint military aura leaked out from the scroll.

Bingzu Tianzun said: "This is actually a summoning scroll. As long as you open this scroll, you can summon three thousand snow dragons to ride out from my territory."

"Hehe, if you encounter any danger, summon the three thousand snow dragon riders, no one can hurt you."

Chapter 9718

"However, this scroll can only be used once, please don't dislike it."

Among the eight patriarchs of Taoism, the ancestor of soldiers is best at military killing and formation.

He trained many types of arms, such as cavalry, heavy armored infantry, archers, dragon soldiers, berserkers, etc. The soldiers assembled and attacked by formations. They were very murderous and very powerful.

Among them, the Snow Dragon Cavalry is one of the many arms under Bingzu's command, and it is the elite.

As soon as he met, he gave Ye Chen the summoning scroll of the Snow Dragon Rider, which shows how much he attaches importance to Ye Chen.

"Thank you for the gift, senior."

Ye Chen was secretly delighted, and also knew that the Daxue Dragon Rider was powerful, so he thanked Bingzu immediately.

Bing Zu stroked his beard with a smile and said: "Okay, let's go."

After his words fell, the teleportation buzzed, and a blue light lit up.

Broken Eyebrow Patriarch said: "Boy, if you go by yourself, I won't accompany you. After you go to Tiandan Pagoda, someone will contact you."

Ye Chen said: "Yes."

At the moment, he didn't talk nonsense, and directly took Xin Xingya into the teleportation array.

Xin Xingya glanced at Ye Chen curiously, seeing Ye Chen's appearance, this time going to Tiandan Pagoda was obviously not as simple as accompanying her, but had other plans.

However, she didn't ask too much, she just wanted Ye Chen to be with her, so many people are so embarrassing.

Space airflow rotates.

In the blink of an eye, Ye Chen and Xin Xingya were teleported to a strange place.

This is a very vast and vast land, with continuous mountains and rivers, numerous cities, exotic flowers and auspicious grasses everywhere, Fenggelonglou towering skyscrapers, the air is filled with the smell of pills, and there are wisps of white smoke everywhere on the land, rising to the sky, That is the smoke emitted by many alchemists during alchemy.

A towering minaret stands in the center of the earth, it is unknown how many thousand feet high, and it directly penetrates the sky, which is very spectacular.

"Is this the Tiandan Pagoda?"

Ye Chen narrowed his eyes slightly, looking around at the strange scene of this world.

He and Xin Xingya were teleported to the edge of the land. In front of them, there was a layer of crystal wall system. Only by breaking through this layer of crystal wall system could they enter the world of Tiandan Pagoda.

"Lord of reincarnation, welcome to Qingfutian."

At this time, a soft voice sounded.

I saw a young girl, riding on the fragrant wind, slowly flying from the distant sky.

The girl was wearing a moon-white red gown and a light blue pleated skirt. She was dressed in an elegant and graceful outfit, with blue silk hanging down to her waist like a waterfall, and her hair on her head was tied with a jade hairpin. She looks like a green girl, but her temperament is a bit cold and unearthly.

"Who are you....."

Ye Chen looked at this girl, and unexpectedly caught a wave of Heavenly Emperor Qi from her body, and bursts of the fragrance of pills.

"My name is Qing Fuxue, and it was Patriarch Mojin who asked me to meet you."

The girl said calmly.

"Are you from the Qingfu family?"

Ye Chen became vigilant.

This girl named Qingfuxue shook her head slightly, and said: "No, my name is just a code name, I have nothing to do with the Qingfu family, I am the saint of Tiandan Pagoda."

"The land where the Heavenly Pill Pagoda is located is called Qingfutian. The Qingfu family is the most powerful, but besides the Qingfu family, there are also many alchemy forces that together form the Tiandan Pagoda."

Ye Chen said: "So that's the case."

He felt a little strange in his heart, not knowing what the origin of this green floating snow was.

"Master, this woman seems to be a pill."

Suddenly, the blood dragon came out through voice transmission, and said to Ye Chen in shock.

"A pill?"

Ye Chen froze for a moment.

Xuelong said: "Yes, I have caught a trace of the cause and effect of the former Moon God and Heavenly Emperor in this woman."

"Did you smell a very strong Danxiang from her?"

"Back then, the Moon God Heavenly Emperor left a Heavenly Emperor-level pill in the Heavenly Pill Pagoda. If I'm not mistaken, that Heavenly Emperor-level medicine is her!"

Ye Chen was stunned, and said, "This Qingfuxue is a pill?"

The blood dragon said: "It should be, the elixir of the emperor level is very powerful, and it is not uncommon to be able to cultivate a human form."

Ye Chen was secretly surprised, he couldn't help looking at Qing Fuxue, he didn't expect that she was actually the elixir refined by the Moon God Emperor back then.

The blood dragon said: "Master, come closer to her, the alchemy on her body can help me recover, and it can speed up the cracking of the treasure map."

Ye Chen nodded secretly, and moved forward without any trace of footsteps, getting closer to Qing Fuxue.

At a close distance, Ye Chen could smell more clearly the scent of dandelion on her body, which was so refreshing that it made people want to bite her as soon as they took a breath, as if to taste it.

The elixir emanating from Qing Fuxue's body alone has the effect of living dead, flesh and bones, and the elixir of the emperor level is of course no small matter.

"Let's go, Lord of Reincarnation, I'll take you to Tiandan Pagoda."

Qing Fuxue said calmly, from the beginning to the end, her eyes only fell on Ye Chen, and she ignored Xin Xingya.

"How to enter the time and space of killing spirits?"

Ye Chen asked, the most important purpose of his trip was to enter the Zhanling Time and Space, collect clues, and determine whether the Blood Knife Evil Ancestor is an inner ghost.

"The time and space of Zhanling is closed all year round. Non-believers of the blood knife evil ancestor cannot step in, otherwise they will be killed without mercy."

"However, recently, the Blood Knife Evil Ancestor was seriously injured. He needs my help from the Heavenly Pill Pagoda to send alchemists to treat him with alchemy."

"I am Tiandan Pagoda, and I am preparing to form a team of alchemists to enter the time and space of killing spirits."

Chapter 9719

"I'll take you to the Heavenly Alchemy Pagoda first. After passing the alchemy assessment, you can follow the team and go to the Spiritual Dimension and Space together."

"Moreover, most of the forces in Wuwu Time and Space will recognize the assessment and certification of my Tiandan Pagoda. After you pass the certification, it will be much more convenient to act in Wuwu Time and Space in the future."

Qing Fuxue said, when talking about Tiandan Pagoda, her tone was quite arrogant.

In Wuwu time and space, Tiandan Pagoda is a very special force, an alliance of alchemists.

Generally speaking, strong men without time and space fight all year round, and there are always times when they ask for pills and medicines.

There is also a breakthrough in the realm of cultivation, which also requires the help of pills.

Therefore, the importance of alchemy is reflected.

Alchemists also have a considerable status in Wu Wu time and space.

Tiandan Pagoda is an alliance of alchemists, with a very wide network of people behind it, and I don't know how many powerful people it has made.

Generally, people without time and space are unwilling to offend Tiandan Pagoda.

Ye Chen had an enmity with the Qingfu family, but this was a personal grievance, not to offend the entire Tiandan Pagoda.

If the Qingfu family wants to avenge their personal revenge, the high-level elders will not allow it, because everyone knows that the reincarnation camp is powerful and terrifying.

Ye Chen understood that it turned out that he was required to pass the assessment of the Tiandan Pagoda and become a certified alchemist before joining the team of alchemists to go to Zhanling Time and Space to heal the blood knife evil ancestor.

"It's simple. With my alchemy skills, it's easy to pass the assessment." Ye Chen said.

"This... Miss Saint, I also want to participate in the assessment and certification of Tiandan Pagoda."

Xin Xingya said softly.

Qing Fuxue stared at her with beautiful eyes, as if she had seen all the cause and effect, she nodded slightly and said:

"Yes, you can take part in the assessment together."

"However, even if you see the formula of the Nine-Turn Returning Life Pill, it's useless. You can't refine that forbidden pill, and the materials needed are too harsh."

Xin Xingya said: "It's okay, I'll see Dan Fang first."

Qing Fuxue said: "Okay, then I wish you success in the exam."

At the moment, Qing Fuxue first burned a talisman to report to the Tiandan Pagoda, and then took Ye Chen and Xin Xingya to set off.

The three of them flew against the wind and soon came to the central boundary of Qingfutian.

The huge, steep, towering Tiandan Pagoda appeared in front of Ye Chen.

Ye Chen saw that in front of the gate of Tiandan Pagoda, a group of people were whispering, and when he saw him, Qing Fuxue, and Xin Xingya coming, everyone was solemn and quiet, and all looked at him in unison. come over.

"Lord of reincarnation, long time no see."

A man in a red robe came forward with a smile and greeted Ye Chen.

Ye Chen took a closer look and found that this man was actually the suzerain of the Tiandan Sect, Emperor Dan.

His Taoist alchemy technique was taught by Emperor Dan.

"Senior Dandi, why are you here?"

Ye Chen was pleasantly surprised when he saw Emperor Dan.

Emperor Dan smiled and said: "I am the Heavenly Alchemy Sect, and I am actually a part of the Heavenly Alchemy Pagoda. I used to be the master of the Heavenly Alchemy Pagoda."

"But later, the ancestor Dantian Emperor fell, and our Tiandan Sect didn't dare to hold power anymore, so we gave up the position of master of Tiandan Pagoda to the Qingfu family."

"This abdication is also a good story through the ages."

Hearing this, Ye Chen frowned.

He didn't expect that the former ruler of Tiandan Pagoda was the Tiandan Sect where Emperor Dan belonged, and later gave up to the Qingfu family.

Ye Chen smelled a trace of blood in this so-called abdication.

Thinking about it back then, when the Tiandan Sect gave up the Great Zen, it was definitely not as simple as it seemed on the surface, and there was something treacherous behind it.

Emperor Dan didn't mention the events of the past, and said with a smile: "I just received a message from the Holy Lady, she said that you and Miss Xin Xingya both want to be certified by the Tiandan Pagoda?"

Ye Chen said: "Exactly."

Emperor Dan nodded with a smile, and said: "Very good, my Tiandan Pagoda divides alchemists into nine ranks, the first rank is the lowest, the ninth rank is the highest, and I am the seventh rank. If you want to be certified, you must first pass the assessment."

"The assessment of this alchemist is up to me to judge."

"Miss Xingya, what level of alchemist do you want to be?"

Xin Xingya thought to herself that she had never made alchemy before, and the alchemy techniques she mastered were all derived from the memory of the God of Beauty. She was not sure about the effect, so she immediately said:

"One product is enough."

Even a first-rank alchemist is eligible to watch many alchemy recipes in Tiandan Pagoda, including the nine-turn life-returning pill that revives her mother.

Emperor Dan said: "If you want to become a first-rank alchemist, you need to compete with alchemy, and survive a stick of incense under the hands of a second-rank alchemist."

"As long as you can survive, you will be considered as passing the examination."

It turns out that the certification assessment for this alchemist is to compete against alchemy.

All alchemists have mastered alchemy supernatural powers, and these supernatural powers can manifest alchemy.

From the thickness, strength, color, and weather of the alchemy, one can judge an alchemist and his alchemy attainments.

"Lord of reincarnation, what about you? How many ranks of alchemist do you want to become?"

"I see that your alchemy practice may be stronger than mine. I am at the seventh rank, so you are at least the eighth rank!"

Emperor Dan's eyes were full of admiration. He knew that Ye Chen's talent in alchemy was great, and the Taoist sect's cultivation of alchemy might have surpassed him.

Hearing Emperor Dan's words, many alchemists present were all commotion.

They naturally knew how powerful Emperor Dan was. Emperor Dan admired Ye Chen so much. Could it be said that Ye Chen's cultivation of alchemy can really reach the eighth rank?

"Emperor Dan, you are too exaggerated!"

"Eighth-rank alchemists, do you know what the concept is? Even if you look at the entire Heavenly Alchemy Pagoda, there are less than thirty eighth-rank alchemists."

"No matter how powerful the Lord of Reincarnation is, he wouldn't be so outrageous, right?"

Many alchemists couldn't believe it, they knew the concept of an eighth-rank alchemist better than anyone else.

Emperor Dan waved his hand and said: "You don't know how powerful the Lord of Reincarnation is, hehe, I am very optimistic about him."

"Lord of reincarnation, the higher the level of the alchemist, the more generous the treatment. If you can become an eighth-rank alchemist, you don't have to worry about the resources for your future cultivation. My Heavenly Alchemy Pagoda can provide you with the best resources!"

Ye Chen's heart moved, but he didn't want to make too much publicity when he saw that everyone's eyes were on him.

"Senior Dandi, the eighth rank is too exaggerated, I think, I will try the fifth rank at most."

Ye Chen said, these words are actually very modest, but to the ears of many alchemists, it is still too much.

Because, in the Heavenly Pill Pagoda, fifth-rank alchemists are also high-ranking and powerful existences, surpassing many ordinary alchemists.

"Very good, everyone, who is willing to come out to assess the Lord of Reincarnation?"

Emperor Dan looked at the many alchemists present and asked with a smile.

Ye Chen wanted to become a fifth-rank alchemist, so he must be assessed at least a sixth-rank alchemist.

Chapter 9720

As long as Ye Chen survives the time of a stick of incense under the hands of a sixth-rank alchemist, he will pass the examination.

Among the alchemists present, there were only a few of the sixth rank, and they were all wrinkled and weather-beaten old men.

They looked at each other, frowning tightly, but no one wanted to stand up.

Although they didn't think that Ye Chen was qualified to become a fifth-rank alchemist, there were always accidents in everything, and they didn't want to lose face.

"no one there?"

Dan Di looked around the audience.

"I come!"

At this moment, a shout sounded from the Heavenly Pill Pagoda.

I saw a young man striding out of the Tiandan Pagoda, his eyes were full of anger, staring at Ye Chen, as if he wanted to eat Ye Chen alive.

This young man, surrounded by alchemy, has magnificent aura, and his cultivation has reached the peak of the Divine Dao Realm. He turned out to be the young master of the Qingfu family, Qingfuchen!

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly. On Shaxin Island before, Qing Fuchen was attacked by the evil spirit of the ugly god and had been reduced to a pile of dead bones.

But now, he has been revived, and he is standing here well, his aura is as strong as before, as if he has not lost anything.

Ye Chen knew that it was because the Qingfu family used the Forbidden Pill Nine-Return Life-Returning Pill to directly revive Qingfuchen.

This nine-turn life-returning pill is indeed extremely powerful. At least, Ye Chen can't see any traces of Taoism from Qing Fuchen's body.

"Little Lord."

"Young Master, come out."

"Could it be that the young master personally examines the Lord of Reincarnation?"

Many alchemists saluted Qing Fuchen one after another, and they were surprised again.

In the Tiandan Pagoda, Qing Fuchen is a first-rate genius, he is already a sixth-rank alchemist, and his attainments in alchemy are very powerful, he can be called the leader of the younger generation.

When Emperor Dan saw Qing Fuchen coming out, he was also taken aback, and said:

"Young master, you have just been resurrected and need to rest, you should go back and rest quickly."

Qing Fuchen's expression was gloomy, but he waved his hand and said, "No need."

His eyes were rather resentful, and he turned around Ye Chen and Xin Xingya.

The arrival of the two of them surprised him very much.

"The Lord of Reincarnation wants to become a fifth-rank alchemist, but I am a sixth-rank alchemist, so I will assess him."

"As long as he can survive a stick of incense under my hands, he will be counted as passing."

Qing Fuchen grinned and said with a smile.

Emperor Dan frowned, looking at Qing Fuchen's appearance, it was obvious that he had a major feud with Ye Chen.

Qing Fuchen has a special status, he is the young master of Tiandan Pagoda. The other party insists on insisting, and he is inconvenient to stop him, so he said to Ye Chen:

"Lord of reincarnation, are you willing to accept the young master's assessment?"

Xin Xingya secretly tugged on Ye Chen's sleeve, signaling him not to agree.

With Qing Fuchen's personality, once the assessment starts, he will definitely punish Ye Chen to death.

If it's a martial arts battle, Ye Chen is not afraid, but this alchemy assessment is a competition of alchemy, God knows what Qing Fuchen will do.

Ye Chen waved his hand, signaling Xin Xingya not to panic, and said to Emperor Dan: "No problem, it doesn't matter whoever comes to the assessment."

Seeing that Ye Chen agreed, Emperor Dan was secretly worried about him, but the matter had come to this point, and he could no longer stop it, so he briefly explained the rules of the assessment, saying:

"The assessment of alchemy is only about fighting alchemy. You cannot use other supernatural powers, let alone weapons and magic weapons."

"Lord of reincarnation, young master, if you are ready, let's start." Said and stepped back.

Many alchemists in the square also retreated, giving way to a large open space.

Emperor Dan, Xin Xingya, Qing Fuxue, everyone's eyes were on Ye Chen and Qing Fuchen.

Ye Chen and Qing Fuchen faced each other from a distance.

In Qing Fuchen's eyes, there was a vicious murderous aura floating around, as if what was about to be held was not some alchemy assessment, but a decisive battle of life and death.

"Lord of Reincarnation, let me see how powerful your alchemy is."

"Sky-reaching Profound Dragon Qi, suppress it for me!"

Qing Fuchen yelled violently, and took the lead in attacking. Many alchemy supernatural powers gathered into the most original energy, turned into a vast wave of spiritual energy, and roared out.

The wave of aura was like a golden dragon, with golden scales all over its body, clearly visible, attacking Ye Chen with its teeth and claws, very ferocious and spectacular.

This is the Heaven-reaching Profound Dragon Qi, and the Dan Qi of Qing Fuchen.

The peak level of the Heaven-reaching Profound Dragon Qi is enough to refine the Heaven-reaching elixir, which is very powerful.

With Qing Fuchen's attainments, he was not enough to do this, but the burst of the sky-reaching profound dragon energy was still very fierce, faintly trying to suppress Ye Chen.

Ye Chen smelled a burst of strong Danxiang, and keenly caught a sharp murderous aura.

Qing Fuchen's move is not only to test Ye Chen, but also to suppress and kill him!

"Samsara Star Dou Qi, get up!"

Ye Chen didn't rush, and immediately used Taoist alchemy, eight trigrams, and so on. Many supernatural powers related to alchemy, combined with his own blood of reincarnation, the seven stars of reincarnation, turned into a bright shining, like piercing the sky Pillar-like alchemy.

Ye Chen named this danqi:

Reincarnation star douqi!

rumbling...

The samsara star battle qi erupted, and the dan qi like a beam of light surrounded the brilliance of thousands of stars, and the totem of the seven stars of samsara emerged faintly.

boom!

The two streams of alchemy collided fiercely in the air, causing a shocking wave, causing many alchemists who were watching to back up again and again.

"What a tyrannical alchemy, it seems that this little guy does have the qualifications to become a fifth-rank alchemist."
