

Physician 9791

Chapter 9791

In an instant, the sky above Ye Chen became gloomy, endless thunder and lightning brewed, and finally turned into thousands of thunder sword qi, gathered into a torrent, and swept towards the flying mirror of Yuren fiercely.

Yuren Feijing said that he could restrain the Dao of Reincarnation, but Ye Chen wanted to see how the other party could restrain it.

Chapter 9792

Of course, this law of karma was not laid down by Yuren Feijing, but by his master, Emperor Jingtian!

Under the restriction of the law of cause and effect, no matter how violent Ye Chen's reincarnation method is, it can't break the illusion.

On the contrary, just now he slashed at the mirror in front of him with the Great Tomb Sword, and the two mirrors behind him reflected billowing sword energy at the same time, as if they were about to bury the heavens, they attacked him from left to right come.

"Tianmo Castle, Yu!"

Ye Chen had no choice but to mobilize the defense of the Heavenly Demon Castle, thanks to his strong defense methods, otherwise, he would really be killed by the Great Tomb Sword that he unleashed.

"Hehe, Lord of Reincarnation, why are you in such a mess?"

Yuren Feijing laughed, three tricks had been passed, Ye Chen couldn't even hurt a hair on him, he still looked calm and composed.

On the other hand, Ye Chen was very embarrassed because of the mirror image rebound.

"The three tricks are over, now it's my turn."

"Flying flower rain mirror technique, open!"

Then, those water vapors were constructed into water mirrors, suspended and stacked, layers intertwined, forming a mirror world in an instant, trapping Ye Chen inside.

This Flying Flower and Rain Mirror Art is one of the Thirty Three Heavenly Art. Ye Chen has also seen it before. At first it was the supernatural power of Luo Qingli, the god of water, but it was deprived of it by the ancient Xingmen. Emperor Jingtian must have practiced it and passed it on. Gave Yuren the flying mirror.

Of course, Emperor Jingtian was tyrannical, and the illusion mirror secret technique he mastered was not as simple as a flying flower and rain mirror technique.

However, the Flying Flower and Rain Mirror Art is one of the Thirty-Three Heavenly Art, so it naturally has its unique features.

Ye Chen was in the mirror world, looking around, there were pieces of water mirrors, all of which were his own reflections, which looked very strange.

And the audience in the stands, seeing Ye Chen surrounded by the mirror world and not knowing the situation in the mirror world, immediately whispered and became commotion.

Although they couldn't see Ye Chen, judging from Ye Chen's distressed appearance just now, it's probably more ominous than good.

In the presence, like Tiannv, Chu Qingsong, Chu Feng, etc., beings with relatively strong cultivation bases released their own consciousness, peeped into the mirror world, and silently noticed everything.

In the mirror world, Ye Chen looked in the surrounding mirrors, besides his own image, there was also an afterimage, passing through the mirror suddenly, like a ghost.

There is no doubt that this afterimage is Yuren Feijing, who is constantly wandering around, trying to intimidate Ye Chen.

"Pretending to be a ghost, get out of here!"

Ye Chen snorted, and suddenly swung a punch, but this punch was like the sky falling apart, the stars turned upside down, and the mighty power of an ancient Titan erupted, it was the Titan Star Fist.

Click!

The violent and ferocious Titan Star Dou Fist hit the mirror wall composed of many mirrors, causing the mirror wall to crack, and a figure emerged from the mirror, it was Yuren Flying Mirror.

The figure of Yuren Feijing was forced out by Ye Chen, but he didn't panic at all, because he was not injured.

"Lord of Reincarnation, as I said, you can't hurt me if you rely on brute force alone."

Yuren Feijing smiled indifferently, his body was once again hidden in the mirror, and the afterimage shuttled back and forth like a ghost.

He was not in a hurry to make a move. If he was a dormant beast, it would be fine if he didn't make a move. He wanted to kill him with one move.

Ye Chen raised his brows. In fact, if this Yuren Feijing was punched by him, he would blow him to death.

It's just that Yuren Feijing's supernatural powers are very strange, and most of the power on Ye Chen's fists is transferred to the world of phantom mirrors by him, and the damage he suffers is very small.

"Really? I just rely on brute force, I don't believe I can't hurt you."

"The power of reincarnation, Titan Star Dou!"

Ye Chen's expression was fierce, and he punched out again. It was still the Titan Star Dou Fist, but this time he burned his blood and borrowed the power of the blood of reincarnation. It was extraordinarily brutal and ferocious. Tens of thousands of stars exploded from his fist. In every bit of starlight, The blood of reincarnation bloomed again.

The mirror vibrated and cracked, and an inexplicable law of cause and effect was activated at this moment.

Ye Chen was in all directions, and all the mirrors reflected the brilliance of the Titan Star Dou Fist, and the phantom shadows of fists attacked and killed Ye Chen himself.

Suddenly, Ye Chen knew that as long as he used the power of reincarnation, he would definitely be bounced back by the mirror.

This is the law of karma! It is the law of cause and effect specially researched by Emperor Jingtian in order to restrain Ye Chen!

Seeing the phantoms of fists approaching, Ye Chen hurriedly swiped the Samsara Heavenly Sword, and the sword light danced to break away those phantoms of fists, but his spiritual energy was being consumed violently at this moment.

"Chance!"

"Mirror rain sky kill!"

Yuren Feijing's eyes turned cold, and when he saw an opportunity, he immediately attacked and killed.

Crash!

His figure burst out from the mirror, every mirror burst out with monstrous raindrops, and every drop of rain turned into sharp water vapor flying swords, attacking and killing Ye Chen overwhelmingly.

Behind those water vapor flying swords, there is an extremely sharp murderous aura. This is not the murderous aura that the flying flower and rain mirror technique can have. There is no doubt that it is the killing supernatural power of Tianchao Palace.

Under this sharp, cold murderous aura, Ye Chen felt his whole body was biting cold, and his bones were trembling.

However, he is not afraid, because he has already seen the way to break the situation.

"Reincarnation source body, open!"

Chapter 9793

"Reincarnation source body, open!"

A shocking roar burst out from Ye Chen's throat, and the samsara energy rolled around him, and the ten samsara monuments bloomed with phantoms, and golden light billowed.

All the mysterious steles of reincarnation are connected in series by an ancient dark chain, and their energies are completely fused together.

The energy of the ten reincarnation monuments were all poured into Ye Chen's body.

At this moment, Ye Chen's body erupted with extraordinary power, as if surpassing all extraordinary power in the world, domineering, violent, ferocious, invincible, crushing everything.

Rumble!

Rolling thunder, a shocking storm, exploded in an instant.

Ye Chen activated the source body of reincarnation, and his whole body exploded with energy. A blue totem of wind appeared on his forehead. The strength of his skin, muscles, and bones increased countless times at this moment.

Clank!

The water vapor flying sword that came from the flying mirror of the feather man slashed at Ye Chen's body, but it seemed to have hit a copper wall and iron wall, making a sound of gold and iron, and Ye Chen's skin was not even scratched.

Ye Chen, who has activated the source body of reincarnation, has an invincible physique. He is invulnerable to all laws, invulnerable to all evil, invulnerable to fire and water, and extremely tyrannical.

"What!"

Yuren Feijing was horrified, he never expected Ye Chen's power to soar so much in an instant.

boom!

Ye Chen punched out, earth-shattering, the hurricane rolled, and with a terrifying storm, he smashed the Yuren Flying Mirror head-on.

Yuren Feijing was terrified, he didn't expect Ye Chen to have such a trick at all, he hurriedly backed away and hid in the mirror behind him.

Click!

However, when Ye Chen opened the source body of reincarnation, the power of his fist was too terrifying, much more terrifying than opening the arm of the Emperor of Heaven.

The berserk reincarnation fist power, the shocking storm, poured out fiercely.

The mirror that Yuren Feijing hid was blown up on the spot.

All the mirrors in the audience, piece by piece, could no longer be maintained under Ye Chen's violent fist, and were all blown up, turning into mirrors flying all over the sky.

The so-called magic mirror method, which can restrain reincarnation, is just false.

The real power of reincarnation cannot be restrained.

That is an incomparably powerful force that surpasses the heavens.

At this moment, Ye Chen burst out the power of the source body of reincarnation, and Yuren Feijing could no longer suppress it.

"Puchi!"

Yuren Feijing fell out of the mirror, his face was pale, and he vomited blood. There were some pieces of internal organs in the blood, and he looked extremely embarrassed.

The spectators under the arena were shocked when they saw this scene.

At this moment, Ye Chen, the power of the source body of reincarnation is shocking, the sky and the earth are stormy, and the sound of thunder is rolling, like the end of the world.

This kind of weather is indeed too terrifying, enough to crush the Divine Dao Realm, even if Yuren Feijing is a monk of the ninth level of the Divine Dao Realm, he can't resist Ye Chen's coercion.

"What kind of physique is this? The source body of reincarnation?"

"The legendary source body of reincarnation actually exists?"

"My God, how could such a heaven-defying extraordinary physique exist in the world?"

Everyone was amazed and shocked beyond measure.

They have also heard of the source body of reincarnation, but that is just a legend. It is said that there is a power with a nine-day totem behind it.

It was a physique that surpassed the extraordinary, and it was an inconceivably great existence. No one thought that such a powerful physique actually existed.

According to the legend, the source of reincarnation has the nine-day totem. Although Ye Chen only awakened a wind totem, the power that erupted is enough to make people admire and admire.

"You lost, Yuren Feijing."

"I said, if you have enough strength, your gaudy mirror can definitely be broken."

Ye Chen laughed and looked down at Yuren Feijing.

He has the qualifications to be arrogant, and he who has opened the source body of reincarnation is simply invincible in the divine realm, too powerful.

But it can only be opened once, if you want to open it now, it is basically impossible.

Above the stands, Tiannv's eyes were also shocked and moved, thinking that after Ye Chen opened the source body of reincarnation, she was so powerful that even if she used up all her cards, she might not be able to fight against it.

Facing Ye Chen, her only chance to win is to drag Ye Chen's reincarnation source body, and the effect disappears.

Because, to open the source body of reincarnation, Ye Chen also needs to bear extremely huge pressure.

Such a source body cannot be opened forever, it can only last for a moment at most, and Ye Chen will be unable to continue, and may even be in danger of falling into weakness.

The chance for Tiannv to win is to delay, and then take advantage of Ye Chen's weakness to fight back.

But the problem is, as long as Ye Chen activates the source body of reincarnation, he will be invincible in the divine way, and everyone will be blown up with one punch, how can she delay it?

This physique is, after all, too terrifying.

This is just a totem. If the Nine Heavens Totems were all awakened, it would be unimaginably terrifying.

On the ring, Yuren Feijing's face was distorted, he was not willing to admit defeat.

The upper echelons of Tianzhu Palace were all looking at him with very gloomy faces.

If he loses, he will suffer a cruel punishment after returning home, and it may even be worse than death.

"No, I haven't lost yet! Lord of Reincarnation, you can never defeat me! Even if I use other means, I can still kill you!"

"Mie Hun Tianyan, open!"

Chapter 9794

This is the unique magical power of Tianzhu Palace, called Miehun Sky Eye. After opening, it can ignore the enemy's physical defense, directly penetrate the human soul, and completely kill the human soul.

Ye Chen saw the light of the Miehun Sky Eye and shot him, and caught a trace of the sharp law of cause and effect.

This law of causality is to ignore the defense of the body and directly kill the soul, which is extremely insidious.

However, Ye Chen didn't care at all, with an indifferent smile on the corner of his mouth, he stood still, forcibly being slaughtered by Yuren Feijing.

Seeing this, Yuren Feijing was overjoyed.

But the next moment, his expression froze.

Because, he discovered that Ye Chen's soul was stronger than his physical body.

His soul-destroying demonic light attacked, but instead of hurting Ye Chen in the slightest, it was bounced back and attacked himself fiercely.

"Ahhh!"

Yuren Feijing screamed, his soul was severely impacted, he fell to the ground and twitched, foaming at the mouth, his facial features were completely distorted.

Seeing this, the senior officials of Tianzhu Palace were horrified and ashamed. An elder flew onto the ring and said in a deep voice:

"We admit defeat." Then he took Yuren Feijing to step off the stage.

Yuren Feijing's eyes looked at Ye Chen, full of fear and shock, his body twitched and couldn't speak.

He didn't expect that Ye Chen's soul was stronger than his body.

Even the Miehun Sky Eye, which he desperately opened regardless of the cost, could not have any impact on Ye Chen.

Ye Chen smiled, he had a tenacious heart, and he cut all the shackles, so naturally he couldn't be shaken by a mere feathered flying mirror.

If it is purely about the cultivation of Dao Xin, Ye Chen won't lose to anyone.

Martial Ancestor Dao Heart is one of the most powerful Dao Hearts in the world.

When everyone in the Chu family saw Tianchao Palace conceding defeat, they all cheered excitedly and ecstatically.

Chu Qingsong said to an elder of the Heavenly Moat Palace: "Since you have surrendered, you should also let the members of my Chu family back."

"From now on, my Chu family has nothing to do with your Heavenly Moat Palace."

"If the Nine Heavens Fulong Sect invades again, our Chu family will fight alone!"

Chu Qingsong knew that without the protection of the Heavenly Moat Palace, it would be extremely difficult for the Chu family to face the Nine Heavens Fulong Sect alone in the future.

However, even if it is difficult, he still wants to wash away the humiliation of the Chu family and end this history of humiliation.

Everyone in Tianzhu Palace looked at each other, helpless, they had no choice but to nod, and left with Yuren Feijing.

The dispute between them and the Chu family was watched by Jianzi Xianchen, so they naturally did not dare to deny it.

Rumble!

After the people in Tianchao Palace surrendered and left, the earth trembled, and a terrifying energy spread out from the ground, turning into wisps of black smoke, which rose straight into the sky like wolf smoke, as if the sky would be cracked open. Very spectacular.

That is the murderous aura of Wan Dao Jianyuan!

Wandao Sword Abyss is the forbidden area of the Chu family. It is the place where Yantian Emperor and Sword Demon fought in the past. The energy aura is extremely terrifying.

For countless epochs, that Ten Thousand Dao Sword Abyss has already merged with the laws of heaven and earth, becoming more and more powerful.

And the Chu family also hunted down many demon gods, and threw a large number of their corpses into the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss to strengthen the evil spirit of the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss.

Such evil energy is enough to crush all existence. For countless epochs, the Chu family has always wanted to control the energy of Wan Dao Jianyuan to fight against the Nine Heavens Fulong Sect.

With Wan Dao Jianyuan as the core, they built a dungeon and created tens of thousands of spirit-guiding formations. Now the dungeon has been completed, and the Heavenly Moat Palace has been driven away.

From then on, the Chu family can use their own strength to fight against the Nine Heavens Fulong Sect.

Now that the decisive battle between the Chu family and the Heavenly Moat Palace has come to an end, the restriction that Jianzi Xianchen placed on Wandao Jianyuan has also dissipated.

The violent energy of Wan Dao Jianyuan soared into the sky, shocking Ye Chen.

Under the impact of such energy, the dense mist surrounding the Shenyun Mountain Range was also dispelled a little.

The fog of secrets has also dissipated a lot.

In the dark, Ye Chen caught the existence of a giant beast.

Inside the body of that giant beast is hidden the ownerless Dao Token!

If Ye Chen calculated carefully, he would definitely be able to calculate the location of the giant beast.

However, now is not the time.

Because compared to fighting for the Dao Token, the most urgent task is to go to Wandao Jianyuan and find Han Yan.

Ye Chen felt that Han Yan's breath was getting weaker and weaker, he must be in danger, and he had to rescue him.

Moreover, in the abyss of ten thousand swords, there is also a right leg of Emperor Yantian, and Ye Chen must not give it up to the goddess.

"Wandao Sword Abyss is open, the divine body of Emperor Yantian must belong to my Death Sect!"

Seeing the opening of Wan Dao Jianyuan, the goddess didn't hesitate at the moment, her body shook, tearing the void, and disappeared from the spot.

Chu Qingsong was taken aback, and hurriedly said to Ye Chen:

"The Lord of Reincarnation, the divine body of Emperor Yantian, you must not be taken away by Ren Tiannu."

Ye Chen nodded and said: "I know, that is my chance, no one can take it away!"

After all, Ye Chen didn't talk nonsense, broke through the void, and came directly to the dungeon, next to the entrance of Wandao Jianyuan.

Beside the entrance of Wandao Jianyuan, several guards were full of panic. When they saw Ye Chen coming, they hurriedly reported:

"The lord of reincarnation, the celestial girl just entered, with the means and strength of the celestial girl, I'm afraid..."

I saw that after the restriction dissipated, the evil spirit erupted from Wandao Jianyuan was much stronger than before. The smoke billowed into the sky, and countless monsters howled and circled.

"I know, I went in too, you are waiting here."

With that said, Ye Chen also jumped into the abyss of ten thousand swords.

Numerous guards looked at each other in blank dismay. If ordinary people enter the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss, they will definitely not be able to get out. There is only one dead end.

Since ancient times, no one who has entered the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss has ever come out alive.

But they knew that Ye Chen and Tiannv were lucky people, they might be able to survive in the harsh environment of Wandao Jianyuan, and even come out with some chance.

At this moment, Ye Chen entered the Thousand Dao Sword Abyss, and immediately felt that he had fallen into hell.

This is an endless abyss of void, the sky cannot be seen above the head, and the ground cannot be stepped on under the feet, it is just a void, a void of endless darkness.

The void is filled with all kinds of darkness and ominousness, gusts of darkness, indescribable monsters, and many demon gods, roaring and howling, patrolling and killing.

The former Chu family hunted and killed many demon gods, and threw their corpses into the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss.

Chapter 9795

Over the years, some of those demon god bones have turned into unjust souls, some have been resurrected, and some have even been distorted and transformed into even more terrifying demon gods.

When Ye Chen came to Wandao Jianyuan, the fresh flesh and blood breath on his body immediately attracted all the demon gods from all directions.

Countless demon gods, roaring like mad dogs, rushed towards Ye Chen.

Ye Chen suddenly felt suffocated. There are so many demon gods and monsters, even he can't fight against them all.

"Wings of Liberty, open!"

Ye Chen spread out his wings of freedom, with wings sprouting from his back, and the storm rolled all over his body. He immediately flapped his wings and broke through the obstacles of many demon gods, and flew forward quickly.

Wings of Liberty is the Taoism of Fengshen.

After Ye Chen awakened the totem of wind, the source of reincarnation, the cultivation of Wings of Liberty also greatly improved.

This time, he opened the wings of freedom, like a Kunpeng spreading its wings, bursting out with divine light, breaking through the siege of many demon gods and monsters at once.

And Ye Chen looked forward, and saw a woman in white, riding an ice phoenix, flying quickly to the depths of the Wandao Sword Abyss.

The woman in white is none other than Ren Tiannv.

On Ren Tiannv's body, there was a layer of faint black mist surrounding her, making her skin even more white and icy.

That layer of black mist was actually a trace of energy from the Heavenly Demon Star Sea. It was very light, not enough for fighting, but it was a good camouflage.

Under the cover of the energy of the magic star sea that day, many demon gods around did not attack the celestial girl, and seemed to regard her as a dark kind.

The goddess was not hindered by any obstacles, turned her head and smiled at Ye Chen, and then quickly flew to the depths of the Wandao Sword Abyss.

She has already locked the breath of Emperor Yantian's right leg, and wants to snatch that right leg one step ahead of Ye Chen.

Ye Chen's face darkened. Although he opened the Wings of Freedom, he would still be delayed by many demons and monsters around him, not as easily as a goddess.

In the blink of an eye, there was no trace of the celestial girl.

"The divine body of Emperor Yantian must be mine!"

Ye Chen's eyes narrowed slightly, and he wasn't too flustered.

He also caught the aura of Emperor Yantian's right leg, in the depths of the Thousand Dao Sword Abyss, and felt the terrifying danger.

It is definitely not easy to seize Emperor Yantian's right leg.

Even if Tiannv was one step ahead of him, she would not be able to grab it so smoothly.

Ye Chen believes in his luck, and he will be able to seize the opportunity smoothly in the end.

The most urgent task is to get rid of the siege and culling of many demon gods and monsters around.

"The star of the night, the black domain is shrouded!"

Ye Chen took a deep breath, and quietly used the energy of the star of the night, releasing a deep dark breath, forming a black area around his body.

Ye Chen's body was shrouded in this black area, as if isolated from the world.

Many demon gods and monsters around saw Ye Chen's aura and suddenly disappeared. All the monsters were stunned and let out a deep roar, not knowing why.

Ye Chen secretly laughed in his heart, and under the cover of the black domain, he moved forward silently, and quickly swept into the depths of the Wandao Sword Abyss.

However, Ye Chen went in the opposite direction from Tiannv, and did not immediately fight for Emperor Yantian's right leg.

Because he caught that Han Yan's breath was getting weaker and weaker.

He must rescue Han Yan first!

The deeper one goes into the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss, the more dangerous it is.

What Ye Chen encountered was no longer demon gods and monsters, but also the sword energy criss-crossing the void, cutting and strangling constantly!

These sword qi originated from ancient times, and were left over from the battle between Emperor Yantian and the Sword Demon.

What a level and how terrifying the first battle was!

These auras are so terrifying, even after years of vicissitudes, there is still power remaining. In the void in the Myriad Dao Sword Abyss, they are constantly slashing and killing, and they will die when touched.

If Ye Chen was hit, he was in danger of falling.

Fortunately, Ye Chen has a sharp mind and can always dodge before the sword qi hits his body.

But to do so requires his spirit, to maintain a high level of vigilance at all times, which is very tiring.

Wuwu time and space is full of darkness and chaos. It is necessary to maintain a regular diet to establish a basic order in the body and fight against darkness.

With such a high level of vigilance, Ye Chen couldn't rest anymore, and the order of work and rest in his body would inevitably be disrupted. Fortunately, after he awakened the source body of reincarnation, his physique became much stronger, and the short-term chaos was still bearable.

After going so hard for two days, Ye Chen was getting closer and closer to the place where Han Yan's breath came out.

However, during the past two days, Ye Chen was surprised to find that the cemetery of reincarnation always had abnormal movements from time to time. Among the abnormal movements, there was the faint sound of a piano, which was very strange, as if a new power was about to be awakened.

"Xin Da Neng wants to awaken?"

"Could it be that the power that is about to awaken has something to do with this Myriad Dao Sword Abyss?"

Ye Chen was very curious, and found that the reincarnation tombstone was shining with brilliance, but it soon disappeared, and it seemed that the opportunity had not yet come.

The little Forbidden Demon in the cemetery also seemed to have sensed some special fluctuations, and woke up from time to time rubbing his eyes, looking around suspiciously, but seeing that there was no movement around, he fell asleep again and continued to heal his wounds.

To be precise, it was a phantom of a ten thousand zhang tall dharma form, covered with devilish energy, surrounded by sword energy, and its eyes were full of killing intent and hostility.

The phantom of the Dao Dharma looks exactly like Han Yan, and its momentum is quite explosive.

Chapter 9796

"This guy, is he possessed again?"

Ye Chen was taken aback.

He saw that Han Yan's majestic and huge Dharma figure was fighting with a group of equally huge demon gods and monsters.

Those demon gods and monsters can be said to be the most powerful and terrifying existence in Wan Dao Jianyuan. Any one of them can eat Ye Chen alive.

Han Yan turned on the Heaven and Earth Dharma, with sword qi crisscrossing and roaring loudly, fighting fiercely with many demon gods around him.

This is a terrifying battle, earth-shattering, obliterating the avenue, and shattering time and space.

Han Yan has been fighting for an unknown amount of time, and his aura is getting weaker and weaker, which is maintained entirely by his blood and fighting spirit.

Those demon gods are very powerful. Although a single one cannot fight against Han Yan, the combination of more than a dozen or dozens of them still puts great pressure on Han Yan.

Seeing that scene from a distance, Ye Chen knew that it would not be long before Han Yan would definitely lose and be killed and eaten by many demon gods and monsters around him.

It would definitely be unrealistic for Ye Chen to directly intervene in such a huge fight, but he has his own way.

"Scorching sun star, get up!"

Ye Chen yelled loudly, and the scorching sun star burst out directly. A round of brilliant and bright sun slowly rose in this dark abyss.

Ye Chen pushed the energy of the scorching sun and life star to the extreme, and the extremely huge sun was suspended above the void.

Against the backdrop of that round of sun, the silhouettes of Han Yan and many demon gods and monsters below became extremely small.

"Roar....."

Many demon gods and monsters roared in pain.

The brilliance of Ye Chen's scorching sun and star has a huge restraint effect on them.

The bodies of many monsters sizzled and boiled with blisters.

Even Han Yan, who was in the enchanted state, was affected a little bit, and his face twitched, quite uncomfortable.

But his state must be much better than those demon gods and monsters.

Whoosh!

A demon god roared and soared into the sky, and its huge claws shot out, trying to penetrate Ye Chen's scorching sun and life star.

This demon god is powerful, and it does have the qualifications to shoot down Ye Chen Lie Sun Ming Xing!

However, before the demon god touched Ye Chen's sun, there was a sword aura that slashed up against the sky, cutting it in half in the air.

Han Yan made a move. Although he was possessed by demons, his will to fight was extremely sober. Seeing the demon gods around him became weak under the influence of the scorching sun and fate star, he immediately burned his own blood and crazily killed regardless of the cost.

Under normal circumstances, his crazy posture would only bring about his own destruction.

But now, many demon gods are greatly affected by the blazing sun and fate star. Facing the crazy Han Yan, they can't resist, so they have to turn around and run away in panic.

In the end, they left behind several corpses and fled in embarrassment.

Ye Chen hurriedly put away the scorching sun and life star, and took a sharp breath.

It didn't take long to mobilize the scorching sun and life star just now, but it consumed Ye Chen's huge aura.

Han Yan won the battle, but his eyes were still extremely fierce. Heng Jian stared at Ye Chen, and shouted hoarsely:

"Who? Such a powerful ability, leave your things, get out of here, I won't kill you!"

He obviously took a fancy to Ye Chen's scorching sun and fate, and wanted to ask Ye Chen to keep his things.

But, this scorching sun star is the thing of Ye Chen's natal blood, how can it be stripped off?

Once stripped, he will die too.

"Brother Han, it's me! You've gone crazy again, wake me up!"

Ye Chen gritted his teeth, and knew that Han Yan was already in a state of deep obsession at this moment, and he didn't recognize him anymore.

With a wave of his palm, the Buddha's light burst out, directly displaying the Buddha Dharma that illuminates the void, and a brilliant and solemn Bodhisattva dharma appeared in the void.

"Hehe, yes, I'm crazy, everyone in the world says I'm crazy."

"But, it doesn't matter, brother Yantiandi is dead, and there is nothing in the world that I can commemorate."

"I am a madman, killing the world, what can you do to me?"

"You want to use Buddhism to suppress me? What a joke!"

"If I become a demon, what can Buddha do to me?"

Han Yan saw the Buddhist teachings offered by Ye Chen, and the Buddha's light shone on him, but he laughed out loud, and slashed out with a sword like a sky-shattering sword.

Scoff!

With a howl of sword energy, Ye Chen saw the Buddha Dharma in the void and manifested the great Bodhisattva Dharma, which was cut off by Han Yan on the spot.

The power of this sword is even stronger than last time.

Ye Chen was shocked, his face turned pale.

The depth of Han Yan's obsession completely shocked him.

In the past, even if Han Yan was infatuated, Ye Chen could still use Buddhism to wake him up, but now, he is so deeply infatuated that he can't even wake him up with the supreme Dharma of the Buddha's Sutra.

If this continues, Han Yan will undoubtedly be a ticking time bomb!

However, Ye Chen always believed that he would not die at the hands of Han Yan.

"Give you a chance, run away."

"I'll let you escape thousands of miles first, and then I'll kill you, ha ha."

"If you can escape, it's your skill."

Han Yan looked at Ye Chen with a sinister smile, with a cat playing with a mouse.

He has killed countless people, and he has long been tired of ordinary killing methods. He likes to play cat and mouse, watching others beg for mercy at his feet, and he will kill them with one sword.

Ye Chen felt sad in his heart, he didn't expect Han Yan to fall like this, his mind was really occupied by the crazy and violent memories of his previous life, and he couldn't extricate himself.

"Ah, this person is the reincarnation of the Sword Demon? I never imagined that I would still see the Sword Demon in this life."

At this moment, a surprised old voice sounded from the cemetery of reincarnation.

Chapter 9797

Ye Chen was taken aback, and saw a tombstone shining brightly in the cemetery of reincarnation, and then an old figure emerged.

It was an old man with a clear appearance, wearing a white robe, surrounded by the aura of the Emperor of Heaven. What is miraculous is that the wisps of the aura of the Emperor of Heaven condensed into musical notes, intertwined with each other. .

"Xin Da Neng has awakened?"

Ye Chen was pleasantly surprised when he saw this old man.

"Master of the tomb, I have a piece of music that can make this sword demon regain his sobriety in this life. You can talk about it after you leave here."

The old man said solemnly, he was also very afraid of the sword demon.

"yes!"

Ye Chen also knew the danger, if he stayed here again, he might really be killed by Han Yan.

He immediately turned and ran away.

Seeing this, Han Yan laughed loudly, locked onto Ye Chen's aura, with a murderous look in his eyes, and said, "Run away, run away."

"Unfortunately, no one can escape from me."

He lightly held the hilt of the sword, intending to wait for Ye Chen to escape thousands of miles before he shot to kill him.

Ye Chen flew thousands of miles away, and heard the old man in the cemetery of reincarnation say:

"It's fine here. I'll teach you a piece called "New Rain in the Empty Mountains". If you play this piece, it will restore the sword demon to sobriety."

Ye Chen said: ""New Rain on the Empty Mountain"? Senior is the way to practice music?"

The old man said: "Exactly, the owner of the tomb. My emperor's name is Emperor Qin, and his name is Longlou Xiange. I wonder if you have heard my legend."

This newly awakened power calls himself Qin Emperor, and his name is Longlou Xiange.

After hearing this, Ye Chen exclaimed "Ah" and said, "Emperor Qin? Senior, did you leave behind a magic weapon called Jiuqu Dongxiao?"

He vaguely remembered that Huang Lao had played the Jiuqu Dongxiao before, and was promoted by the master, and was promoted to one of the eight ancestors of the Taoist sect. From then on, he became the Huang ancestor.

The Jiuqu Dongxiao is one of the top ten ancient artifacts, and it seems to be something left by a powerful man named Emperor Qin in ancient times.

Emperor Qin was overjoyed, and said: "That's right! That Jiuqu Dongxiao was a gift I gave to the Daoist Master a long time ago."

"Although I am called Emperor Qin, I am not only proficient in qin exercises. I am proficient in all musical instruments in the world, such as drums, zithers, lutes, pipas, and zithers. emperor."

Ye Chen admired him deeply, Qin Emperor's cultivation at his peak must have been very powerful, so he cupped his hands and said:

"Senior, you are really powerful. I heard...you have many musical instruments and artifacts, but most of them were destroyed in the Dharma-ending Era, leaving only a Jiuqu Dongxiao? That's a pity."

Emperor Qin waved his hand and said: "Let's not talk about this first, the sword demon will kill him immediately, I will pass on your song "Empty Mountain New Rain" first, and if you play it in front of him, it will wash away the hostility in his Dao heart, and let him He regained consciousness."

After a pause, he shouted: "Qin come!"

A Guqin emerged in his hand.

This is the ability of fantasy creation, the basic law of no time and space, any god can master it, and can create things with one thought.

When Ye Chen saw this, he didn't think it was different, and listened and watched with all his attention.

"I'll play it first, you listen carefully."

Emperor Qin sat down cross-legged, and placed the Guqin horizontally in front of him. The Heavenly Emperor Qi floated all over his body, and the musical notes shone brightly.

Ye Chen's heart moved slightly, and he said: "Senior, why don't you play it yourself, wake up the sword demon first, and I will learn it later."

Emperor Qin shook his head and said, "No, I can't expose my aura easily, otherwise Hua Zu's old ghost will know that before I die completely, things will be troublesome, and you may also be implicated."

Ye Chen was shocked and said, "Huazu? One of the eight patriarchs of Taoism?"

Emperor Qin said: "Exactly, this old ghost is very insidious and cunning, you must be careful, if he finds out that you have something to do with me, he will definitely do you harm."

Ye Chen was suddenly astonished. Could it be that there was any grievance between Emperor Qin and Huazu?

This Flower Ancestor is not an ordinary person, he is even involved with the Ugly God.

Back then, Huazu was entrusted by the Ugly God to attack and kill the Moon God Emperor.

The Moon God Emperor refined the Yin-Yang Killing Pill, and was going to attack the Super Heavenly Emperor, but was attacked and killed by Hua Zu, seriously injured, and finally died helplessly.

The strength of Hua Zu who can attack and kill the Moon God Emperor can be imagined.

Could it be that Emperor Qin also fell because of Hua Zu?

"Let's not talk about that old ghost, I'll play the song "New Rain in the Empty Mountain" for you, listen to it."

Emperor Qin narrowed his eyes slightly, staring at the Guqin in front of him, stroked the strings with his fingers lightly, and let out a distant sigh. In the vicissitudes of his eyes, there was a very bright look, as if

Chapter 9798

"Yeah, it sounds so good!"

The little forbidden demon woke up from his sleep, and when he heard the sound of the zither, he praised and cheered, his face full of excitement.

Emperor Qin smiled slightly, looked at Ye Chen and said:

"Tomb owner, how much have you comprehended?"

Ye Chen was thoughtful, when Emperor Qin played just now, there were still notes emerging, so he could not only hear clearly, but also see clearly the song "New Rain in the Empty Mountain".

"About fifty percent."

Ye Chen is extremely gifted. After listening to it once, he has memorized the music score of "New Rain in the Empty Mountains", and he can't miss a single note. Think carefully.

Even with Ye Chen's talent, it is impossible to understand it in an instant, and he has to chew it.

"Hehe, 50% is enough, the sword demon has been killed, you can use my song to soothe his hostility."

Emperor Qin said with a smile, he was also very satisfied and praised Ye Chen's talent.

Ye Chen opened his eyes, and withdrew his mind from the cemetery of reincarnation, and saw a figure flying towards him in the distance. It was Han Yan.

Han Yan came running with his sword in hand, with an indifferent and playful smile on his face, he looked at Ye Chen and said:

"Why, didn't you run away?"

Ye Chen also smiled slightly, and said, "I think I might not be able to escape."

Han Yan laughed loudly, pointed at Ye Chen with his sword, and said, "Very well, if you have self-knowledge, tell me, how do you want to die?"

Ye Chen smiled and said, "I want to play a piece of music before I die, I wonder if it's possible?"

Han Yan was stunned for a moment, then put away his long sword and said, "Okay, whatever trick you want to do, go ahead and kill me, then I really wish for it."

"Unfortunately, in this world, no one is my opponent."

At the end of his speech, he felt deeply regretful.

Ye Chen knew that in his previous life, when the sword demon slaughter was at its peak, no one in the world dared to raise his head, no one dared to ascend to the top and call himself emperor or honor.

Ye Chen just smiled, did not speak, and used a magic technique of imaginary creation to transform a guqin in his hand, put it horizontally in front of his body, and lightly pressed his fingers on the strings, recalling the tune of "New Rain in the Empty Mountain", Then slowly began to play.

In an instant, the fresh, pleasant, ethereal piano sound flowed from Ye Chen's fingertips, like rain falling from an empty mountain, washing away the green pine.

In the void, the atmosphere of landscape painting appeared. There were really several mountain peaks, some running water, and drizzle, and the elegant atmosphere emerged.

These illusory weathers will even gradually change from fantasy concepts to real existence.

Ye Chen's music is so wonderful, it actually disturbs the laws of heaven and earth, manifests all kinds of ethereal and wonderful scenes, and even really wants to create a world of mountains and rivers after the new rain in the empty mountains.

Han Yan was stunned. Hearing this song, he felt the hostility in his heart, years of grief, killing, and all kinds of resentment, seemed to be washed by clean water and quickly faded away.

"No....."

"What song is this?"

"Damn it, you want to mess with my Dao heart?"

Han Yan gritted his teeth, and wanted to raise his sword to want Ye Chen to assassinate him, but under the tune of "New Rain in the Empty Mountain", all his murderous aura and hostile thoughts were calmed down, and he couldn't exert any strength in his body, and even his palms became weak, the sword in his hand fell to the ground.

Seeing that the melody was effective, Ye Chen was overjoyed. He thought Emperor Qin was really powerful, and the melody he created could even save Han Yan, who was deeply infatuated.

Such pain is a sign of sobriety!

Finally, Ye Chen's song ended, Han Yan's eyes became clear, his breath was weak, and he stared blankly at everything around him.

"Brother..."

Han Yan looked at Ye Chen with a face full of astonishment, and the previous scenes came to his mind, and he was suddenly panicked and ashamed.

"Brother Han, you're awake."

Ye Chen was overjoyed, put away the guqin, and said with a smile.

"Brother, I'm sorry... I, I almost hurt you again."

Han Yan was ashamed and apologized, full of pain.

"It's okay, I'm not hurt."

Ye Chen smiled.

Han Yan's facial features were distorted, and he was still in pain. He said weakly, "It can't be done, brother, my head hurts so much, I...I want to sleep for a while..."

After all, Han Yan fell asleep directly.

After all, his body is only a body in the Divine Dao Realm. After awakening the memory of the previous life, the power of the previous life also exploded, but it is not his body that can endure it for a long time.

Ye Chen smiled, and stood by Han Yan's side to prevent him from being attacked by some demons and monsters.

But at this time, Ye Chen felt that there seemed to be a wave of breath flying from afar.

But it's not the breath of a monster, but the breath of a person!

"Hey, is someone here?"

Ye Chen was taken aback, there were a lot of people here, they were not heavenly girls, nor were they from the Chu family, and the aura was not completely unfamiliar, as if they had a causal connection with Emperor Qin.

But Emperor Qin has existed for such a long time, is it the so-called descendant?

"Ah, is it my believer? Unexpectedly, there are my believers in this Myriad Sword Abyss."

"I thought that after Hua Zu killed me, he had slaughtered all my descendants and believers. Are there any survivors?"

Emperor Qin was also very surprised when he felt the aura of the visitor.

He is keenly aware that the people who are about to come are his believers!

"Senior, are there any followers of yours here?"

Ye Chen was very surprised and asked.

Chapter 9799

Emperor Qin said in a deep voice: "Master of the tomb, don't reveal my identity, don't reveal my whereabouts, or Huazu will notice, and there will be a catastrophe!"

"Now that old ghost Huazu is already one of the eight patriarchs of the Taoist sect, and I only have a remnant soul left, and I absolutely cannot fight against it."

When mentioning Huazu, Emperor Qin's tone was full of fear.

He couldn't help being afraid of this, because Hua Zu was already the ancestor of Dao Zong, but he was a wisp of dead soul. The difference in status and authority between the two parties was too great. Once a fight broke out, it would be difficult for him to contend.

If you want to fight against Hua Zu, you must make a careful layout and make no mistakes.

Ye Chen looked solemn, and saw a dozen figures appearing in the void in the distance.

The first person was a thin old man with a strong aura of cultivation, and Ye Chen couldn't tell the depth of it.

The old man flew over with a dozen monks, and he was very surprised to see Ye Chen.

"Is your Excellency the Lord of Reincarnation?"

The old man felt Ye Chen's aura and was in awe.

"Yes, I don't know if Senior is..."

Ye Chen bowed his hands politely. Since Emperor Qin said that these people are his followers, he naturally maintained goodwill.

The old man hurriedly said: "The old man Cai Yi is a believer of Qin Emperor Tianzun. Just now, the old man heard the music of Kongshan Xinyu, which is the famous song of Qin Emperor Tianzun. It has long been lost. I can play it completely, but I don't know what is the relationship between the Lord of Reincarnation and Qin Emperor Tianzun?"

The song "New Rain in the Empty Mountains" has long been lost, but Ye Chen was able to play it completely, which surprised Cai Yi.

Ye Chen pondered for a while, and said: "I do have some relationship with Emperor Qin Tianzun, but the secret must not be revealed, and it is inconvenient for me to reveal too much about the specific cause and effect. Please forgive me, senior."

Cai Yi sighed: "Really? That's right. If the secret of heaven is leaked and Huazu's old bastard finds out that Qin Emperor Tianzun still has descendants of believers, we will be killed!"

Ye Chen was very curious and asked, "What kind of grievances do Huazu and Qindi Tianzun have?"

Cai Yi and the monks behind him looked at each other, the memories of the past were brought back, and their expressions were sad and angry.

"Hey, it's a long story. It's a very long time ago. Originally, Huazu and Qindi Tianzun were bosom friends, high mountains and flowing waters, known all over the world."

"The friendship between the two is also passed down as a good story in the infinite time and space."

When Cai Yi talked about the past, a cloud of smoke emerged from his hands, and gradually condensed into a picture, which was the secret picture of the past.

In the picture, there are two people, both are very young and handsome men, they are Huazu and Emperor Qin when they were young.

At that time, Hua Zu was not called Hua Zu. His name was Moyuan Mantuo.

Later, the original world was destroyed, and Huazu escaped from it, and came to the main world of Wuwu Time and Space. He was not familiar with the laws of the main world, and it was difficult for him to survive. Emperor Qin saved him.

The destruction of his homeland made Hua Zu full of demons, and it was also Emperor Qin who played the piano, purging all the demons in his heart with the melody of the qin.

Huazu has planted many medicinal herbs and spiritual plants, but unfortunately, because he is not familiar with the laws of the main world, those medicinal herbs and spiritual materials are always in a listless appearance and difficult to grow.

Emperor Qin took great pains to create many mysterious tunes. When the sound of the tunes was played, the flowers and plants that were on the verge of withering revived and grew vigorously.

The two achieved each other, and the Qin emperor continued to improve his qin music attainments because of helping Huazu, and finally ascended to the throne and became emperor.

And Hua Zu, with the help of Emperor Qin Yinqu, planted many medicinal herbs and spiritual materials that are not available in the main world, and thus accumulated rich contacts and wealth, and even Daozong asked him to supply medicinal materials.

When Ye Chen saw the picture in the mist, he saw Emperor Qin and Hua Zu, their friendship was like brothers.

Huazu is Qindi's bosom friend, and Qindi is Huazu's bosom friend. All these beautiful things have changed after the advent of the Chaotic Era.

Ye Chen saw the picture in the smoke cloud, some darkness appeared, and the picture showed violent storms, thunder and disaster intertwined.

Cai Yi sighed: "Later, when the era of chaos came, that is, the era of the end of the Dharma, the Dao collapsed, and the heavens faced the disaster of destruction. Qin Emperor Tianzun and Huazu both joined the ancestral court of the Emperor of Heaven, vowing to hold the sky and spend the end of the Dharma Era ."

Ye Chen's heart trembled slightly, and he saw in the picture that the avenue had collapsed and the natural disaster had come. Emperor Qin and Hua Zu still had a deep friendship and united against the natural disaster.

The Dharma-ending Era is a very long and terrifying era. I don't know how many strong people perish in the chaotic world and natural disasters.

Emperor Qin and Huazu, after experiencing natural disasters, gradually aged. At the end of the Dharma-ending Era, both of them had suffered from vicissitudes and their Taoism was exhausted.

The disagreement appeared at this time. The long end of the world has almost exhausted the resources of the two.

The medicinal herbs and spiritual materials planted by Huazu are only enough for his own use and cannot be distributed to Emperor Qin.

Emperor Qin can also understand that he doesn't have enough energy to play the piano and raise flowers for Huazu.

He was exhausted just keeping himself alive.

But Hua Zu couldn't understand Emperor Qin, and forced Emperor Qin to use music to help his flowers and plants grow at any cost, and promised that when the flowers and herbs grew, he would have enough resources to share a part of Emperor Qin. .

Emperor Qin gritted his teeth and did as he did, and worked hard for it. However, after the herbs matured, Hua Zu didn't give him even one plant, evading that he didn't have enough.

This is too much.

Emperor Qin was furious, and the two had a big quarrel, which resulted in a breakup.

When the picture of the secret came here, it dissipated.

Cai Yi sighed: "Lord of Reincarnation, you have also seen that the natural disasters of the Dharma-ending Era have exhausted the resources of the two of them, but Emperor Qin still thinks about Hua Zu in every way."

"It's a pity that Hua Zu is a wolf-hearted man, extremely selfish, and doesn't know how to be considerate at all. After the two broke up, Hua Zu took advantage of Qin Emperor's weakness and killed him. Using his bones as fertilizer, he planted many Heavenly Emperor-level plants. Herbs."

"As a result, Huazu possessed abundant resources and passed through the Dharma-ending Era smoothly, while Qin Emperor Tianzun fell because of this."

"Hehe, after the end of the Dharma-ending Era, Daozong even felt that Hua Zu had made a contribution to holding the sky, so he recruited him as his ancestor, and the merits of Emperor Qin Tianzun were no longer remembered. It's really ironic."

Ye Chen was shocked in his heart. He didn't expect Huazu to be so vicious. He didn't care about Nianqin Emperor's efforts. He even killed Qindi and used his bones as fertilizer to cultivate medicinal materials.

Emperor Qin was the main god of a generation of heavenly emperors, but in the end, he became fertilizer buried under the soil, which can be called bleak.

This shocked Ye Chen a little, Wuwu Time and Space was more cruel than he imagined.

"Senior Emperor Qin, are these things true?"

Chapter 9800

Ye Chen couldn't believe it, he communicated with the cemetery of reincarnation spiritually, and asked Emperor Qin.

If Huazu was really so selfish and ruthless, why did Daozong recruit him as his ancestor?

Emperor Qin's face was gloomy, and there was terrible anger in the depths of his eyes. Although he didn't burst out, it was enough to make the hearts of those who saw it tremble. He said in a deep voice:

"It's true, and Hua Zu's old miscellaneous hair, his behavior is even more hateful than this!"

"It's fine if he kills me, and even uses my bones as fertilizer to grow medicinal materials. I don't blame him, because the pressure of the degenerated age is too great. His Taoist heart is twisted, which is understandable."

"But that old bastard, I actually burned all the guqin instruments and music scores that I have treasured for many years! That was my life's painstaking effort! He actually destroyed them all, just to erase all traces of my existence and prevent my resurrection !"

At the end, the anger in Emperor Qin's eyes finally burst out, his expression was so angry that he wanted to kill someone.

He is very self-cultivated, even if Huazu kills him and uses his Heavenly Emperor's bones as fertilizer, he can tolerate it.

However, Hua Zu actually destroyed all his musical instruments and all the music scores, which made him unbearable, and he just wanted to kill Hua Zu for revenge.

When Ye Chen saw Emperor Qin like this, he knew that he was addicted to the piano and was a "music idiot". He didn't even care about his own life, but only cared about those precious musical instruments and music scores.

Cai Yi didn't know that Emperor Qin's remnant soul was in Ye Chen's body.

He went on to say: "In the end, Huazu's old miscellaneous hair issued the law of karma again. As long as there are people in the world who believe in Emperor Qin, all descendants and believers of Emperor Qin will suffer disaster and die."

"At that time, he was already the ancestor of Daozong, with a high position and authority, and his back was against Daozong. This law of karma was very overbearing. Once it was issued, all the followers of Emperor Qin in the heavens died one after another."

"I had nowhere to go. I took a group of people and jumped into the Heavenly Demon Star Sea. I wanted to hide in the sea until the effect of the Law of Karma ended."

"But unexpectedly, our ethnic group was all polluted by the Heavenly Demon Star Sea, turned into a demon god, and later hunted and killed by the people of the Chu family, and all the bones were thrown into the Ten Thousand Dao Sword Abyss."

Ye Chen's heart was greatly shaken, and he sighed: "It's so rough."

He never expected that the fate of Cai Yi and his clan would be so ups and downs.

After Huazu killed Emperor Qin, he was still not satisfied, and issued the law of cause and effect to kill all the followers of Emperor Qin.

Cai Yi, a member of the Qin Emperor clan, was forced to jump into the Heavenly Demon Star Sea, degenerated into a demon god, and was hunted and killed by the Chu family, and his bones were thrown here.

Such a rough fate is enough to make the listeners sigh.

Cai Yi smiled, and said: "God, I'm sorry, maybe I should die. The bones of our family were nourished by the aura of Emperor Yantian's divine body, and they were successfully resurrected."

"Moreover, the divine body of Emperor Yantian, the right leg, illuminated by the light of the sky fire, also dispelled the demonic energy for us, allowing us to regain our sanity and no longer look like a demon god."

Ye Chen said: "Senior, it turns out that you can be resurrected because you have the divine body of Emperor Yantian?"

Cai Yi narrowed his eyes, and said: "Yes, we have opened up a territory in the Abyss of Ten Thousand Dao Swords, and we survived with difficulty relying on the divine body of Emperor Yantian."

"Lord of Reincarnation, are you interested in visiting our territory? I can give you some things, all left by Emperor Qin Tianzun."

"The life and death of our family has been integrated with the earth veins of Wan Dao Jianyuan. It is impossible to go out again. The relic of Emperor Qin Tianzun is best given to you."

"If you really have any relationship with Emperor Qin Tianzun, I only hope that you can avenge his old man!"

Ye Chen frowned when he heard the word "revenge".

Qin Emperor Tianzun's enemy is Daozong Huazu, who is extremely powerful. If he wants to take revenge, how easy is it?

In the cemetery of reincarnation, Emperor Qin waved his hands when he heard the words of revenge, and said: "Master of the tomb, you must not rush into the matter of revenge. Huazu is powerful, so you have to think long-term."

Ye Chen nodded, naturally he would not act rashly.

At that moment, Ye Chen carried the unconscious Han Yan on his back, and followed Cai Yi and his party to their territory.

"Is this person the reincarnation of the Sword Demon?"

When Cai Yi saw Han Yan, he frowned immediately. He had insight into Han Yan's identity, obviously.

Before Han Yan broke into Wandao Jianyuan and fought with many top demon gods, he also felt the majestic energy fluctuations.

It's just that he didn't expect that Han Yan and Ye Chen were friends.

Ye Chen said: "Yes, it's a pity that he is too deeply possessed by demons, and it is difficult for him to regain clarity by ordinary means."

Cai Yi asked in surprise, "Isn't it even good for "New Rain in the Empty Mountains"?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said: "No, the song "New Rain in the Empty Mountains" is infinitely mysterious and can indeed wash away all evil spirits, but it can only help my friend regain his sobriety temporarily, and he may re-enter the evil spirit in the future."

"In fact, it's not a big deal to become a demon. It's a good thing that he can awaken the power of his previous life. The bad thing is that his heart is dusty. He doesn't distinguish between the enemy and himself, and kills indiscriminately, but it is a huge hidden danger."

If Han Yan can still stay awake in the state of being enchanted, then he is really invincible.

Unfortunately, at present, this cannot be done.

Cai Yi pondered for a while, as if he had thought of something, his eyebrows stretched, and he said, "I know there is a kind of spiritual material that can suppress the devilish energy and stabilize the Dao heart."

Ye Chen's heart moved slightly, and he said, "What spiritual material?"
