Chapter 9861

"Miss, please wait a moment, after I capture Sun Yi, I will come out and take you back to the Temple of the Fool."

Mu Tianzhou cupped his hands towards Du Gujialuo, and then flew towards the Twin Snake Demon Mountain.

He wasn't worried about Poison Gu Jia Luo's safety. Although the innate blockade of the dragon escape post locked Jia Luo, it also provided her with shelter, and ordinary people could not harm her.

Seeing that Du Gu Jia Luo was trapped, Ye Chen's expression sank, he stopped in front of Mu Tianzhou, and said, "Let him go!"

Mu Tianzhou smiled, and said: "The lord of reincarnation, Miss Jia Luo is the saint of our fool's wilderness, I will take good care of her, so I won't bother you."

"For the sake of the eldest lady, I will not be your enemy today, but your friend named Sun Yi may not survive."

At this time, a scream of "Ah" came from the Snake Demon Mountain, full of fear and fear.

Ye Chen recognized it, it was exactly Sun Yi's cry.

Mu Tianzhou moved his ears, and said with a smile: "I have to hurry up, otherwise the sacrifice will be eaten by monsters, it will be very bad."

After finishing speaking, he directly bypassed Ye Chen, followed the hole, and flew into the Double Snake Demon Mountain.

Ye Chen swung his sword and slashed out several sword qi, trying to stop Mu Tianzhou, but the latter used the puppet secret technique, using a thin thread of spiritual energy to pull a few monsters as meat shields, blocking Ye Chen's interception, and finally entered the magic mountain smoothly .

"Damn it!"

"Brother Han, take care of Miss Jialuo!"

Ye Chen gritted his teeth, turned his head to give instructions to Han Yan, and then quickly chased Mu Tianzhou in.

"oh."

Han Yan responded, confused and wanted to help Ye Chen, but he was afraid that it would be a waste of help, so he had to stay beside Du Gu Jia Luo, while Chu Bingyu also timidly stood aside.

Lin Zhenyue glanced at it, and after confirming that Poison Gu Jialuo was completely trapped, his eyes turned cold, and he also flew up, following the hole he just blasted, and flew into the magic mountain.

He also wanted to catch Sun Yi and use it as Chu Bingyu's scapegoat.

hum!

There was another huge meteorological fluctuation in the Twin Snake Demon Mountain, and the totem of the Twin Serpent constellation in the void appeared more clearly and spectacularly.

This means that even if the magical cheats of the Gemini constellation are born!

"This is troublesome. Such a big weather will definitely attract people from the Death God Sect."

Poison Gu Jialuo frowned, deeply worried, and said to Han Yan:

"Can you untie me?"

Han Yan carefully looked at the Xiantian Dunlong Pile, and said helplessly: "No, this magic weapon is too powerful, and I can't untie it."

Poison Gu Jialuo's neck and feet were tightly bound by golden rings. If Han Yan cracked it with brute force, he might hurt her before he untied it.

"Sister, let me hold the umbrella for you."

Chu Bingyu at the side looked at the black umbrella on the ground, and seemed to sense something, so he picked up the umbrella and held it for Du Gujialuo.

Poison Gu Jialuo let out a sigh of relief, and relaxed a little.

However, at this time, there were streaks of divine light in the distance, breaking through the dark sea water and flying towards them, which made her nerves tense up instantly.

There were four or five people who flew over, the first one was dressed in white, and even in the dark and dirty sea of demon stars, she still kept clean and beautiful, she was none other than Ren Tiannv.

The weather of the Two Snake Demon Mountain finally attracted Ren Tiannv here!

"My lord, that bastard Sun Yi seems to be in this mountain! The Lord of Reincarnation is also there!"

A follower behind the celestial girl pointed to the Demonic Mountain of Two Snakes and said.

On the Double Snake Devil Mountain, there are still layers of monsters piled up. Countless monsters went crazy and got into the hole along the gap.

The celestial girl's eyes narrowed slightly, she looked at the Demon Mountain of Two Snakes, then at Dugu Jialuo and the others.

She thought for a while, and then said: "God help me, today I will kill the Lord of Reincarnation and that bitch Sun Yi!"

"Follow me in!"

With a wave of her hand, she took the people under her command and flew to the Devil Mountain of Two Snakes, regardless of Han Yan and others, it was important to arrest Ye Chen and Sun Yi.

"Master Tiannv, do you want to call the adults who protect the Dharma seat?"

A entourage said, I'm afraid Tiannv can't cope with the situation in front of her alone.

If you summon "Lighthouse" Feng Yuanlan, "Black Sun" Meng Tiancan, Twilight Giant and other guardians to descend, you can be sure that nothing will go wrong.

Although the Heavenly Sword Oath has restrictions, these top powerhouses cannot easily make a move.

But now, it was Ye Chen who first stepped into the territory of the Reaper's Cult, and the powerhouses at the top could make their moves without being affected.

Once those top powerhouses make a move, they want to kill Ye Chen, but they will only raise their hands.

But the celestial girl said: "I don't need it for now, don't let outsiders take the credit."

This is the territory of the Reaper's Order, and she occupies a favorable location, even if she faces Ye Chen, she is sure of victory.

If you really can't beat it, it's not too late to call for help.

At that moment, the celestial girl and her followers entered the Demonic Mountain of Two Snakes together.

Han Yan was extremely anxious and wanted to help Ye Chen, but he was afraid that if he left, the surrounding monsters would surge up and eat Chu Bingyu and Du Gu Jialuo, so he had no choice but to stay where he was.

In the Demon Mountain of Two Snakes, after Ye Chen, Lin Zhenyue, Mu Tianzhou, Tiannv and others entered, they discovered an extremely strange scene.

The inside of the mountain actually forms a void, a chaotic space, surrounded by a layer of crystal walls hanging down, dotted with stars, which is very strange.

On that layer of crystal wall, there is a totem of an ancient snake printed on it.

That ancient snake, filled with traces of the power of the ancient space law, opened up this void.

Chapter 9862

In this void, the sky is the dark color of chaos, and the ground is network-like, divided into grids by criss-crossing straight lines, which looks like a dream.

And in the void, there are countless monsters roaring and running. They are rampaging wildly, as if they are looking for something, obviously wanting to find the whereabouts of the secret book of the Gemini Constellation.

The secret book of the Double Snake Constellation was transformed by the spirit of the two snakes in time and space in the past. This secret book is very special, and it already has a majestic aura.

Therefore, the monsters near the Two Snake Demon Mountain were all crazily attracted by this aura.

They rampaged in the void, smashed through the crystal wall system, and stepped into another space.

There are many layers of space inside the Snake Demon Mountain. Ye Chen can probably capture Sun Yi's breath, but the space is intertwined and chaotic, so he cannot be sure.

Ye Chen passed through the crystal wall system, walked out of the space, but entered another space.

This layer of space seems to be in a loop, walking, Ye Chen returned to the original place.

Mu Tianzhou, Lin Zhenyue, Tiannv and others are also in the same situation.

They walked and walked, and soon met each other.

"Ye Chen, I didn't expect you to come."

Tiannv looked at Ye Chen with her eyes, and her lips pursed into a cold arc.

"Are you alone? Don't you call the high-level guardians of your death cult?"

Ye Chen said indifferently, he knew that if he stepped into the territory of the Reaper's Cult, he would not be protected by the Heavenly Sword Oath, and the high-level powerhouses of the Reaper's Cult could kill him at any time.

However, he didn't panic, because he had a talisman of the Emperor's Fall Universe, which could summon the power of the Emperor's Fallen Universe once. Even if some strong man came, it was impossible to kill him.

What's more, Sun Yi is here, even if it is a mountain of swords and a sea of fire, he will have to break through.

"No, I can deal with you."

The goddess smiled lightly, then looked at Mu Tianzhou and Lin Zhenyue who were watching the show not far away, and said:

"You two, kill the Lord of Reincarnation with me, and I can forgive you for trespassing on the Death God Sect."

In fact, when Lin Zhenyue and Mu Tianzhou arrived, the goddess had already learned the news through the spies of the Death God Sect.

She also knew that Lin Zhenyue and Mu Tianzhou also came to look for Sun Yi.

She didn't startle the snake, thinking that Lin Zhenyue and Mu Tianzhou would search together, maybe they could really find Sun Yi's existence.

It's just that there is nowhere to find it when you break through the iron shoes, and it takes no effort to get it.

She never expected that Sun Yi was here, and there was also a huge opportunity of the Gemini Constellation hidden here.

Lin Zhenyue said coldly: "Have I committed any crime? Why don't I know?"

"This Heavenly Demon Star Sea, you Death God Sect, haven't really controlled it yet, have you? Why did I violate your commandments when I entered this place?"

"However, I'm a little interested in killing the Lord of Reincarnation. This kid is so stubborn, he deserves to die!"

As he said that, he pinched the formula with his hand, and spiritual talismans emerged all over his body, ready to go.

Mu Tianzhou didn't talk nonsense, walked to the side, raised his arms like an arthropod, retracted his palms into his arms, and popped them out with a clang, but his two palms had already turned into two sharp knives.

His body is not a body of flesh and blood, but a puppet body cast from wood and iron, which can transform into various weapons and organs, which is very wonderful.

The three formed a triangle and surrounded Ye Chen.

The atmosphere became chilling, and many monsters and beasts rampaging around seemed to feel the cold murderous aura, and fled this space one after another.

Soon, only Ye Chen, Tiannv and others were left in this space.

"It seems that you are already on the united front, do you want more people to bully me and fewer people?"

"Unfortunately, I'm not that stupid, I won't waste time with you."

Ye Chen smiled, without the slightest hesitation, immediately activated the energy of the source body of reincarnation to the extreme.

boom!

The violent hurricane burst out immediately.

Tiannv, Mu Tianzhou, Lin Zhenyue and others were all forced to retreat by the hurricane, and they couldn't even open their eyes under the blowing of the storm.

call out!

Ye Chen took this opportunity and immediately opened the wings of freedom, soaring against the wind, he wanted to fly away from this space.

"Want to run?"

"Thousand Burials Explode!"

Lin Zhenyue took the lead, and thousands of heavenly explosion symbols were densely packed, blasting towards Ye Chen.

Each sky explosion talisman has tempered a special power of causality, as long as it explodes, it can accurately hit the enemy, making it impossible for people to avoid it.

Ye Chen vibrated his wings of freedom, and had already flown away, but Lin Zhenyue's Sky Explosion Talisman exploded, and under the blessing of the law of cause and effect, he broke through the space limit, and the blast blasted in front of Ye Chen.

The power of this explosion was so violent, even if Ye Chen used the supernatural power of the Blood Wing Constellation, it would be difficult to completely defend against it.

"Tianmo Castle, Yu!"

At a critical moment, Ye Chen mobilized the Heavenly Demon Castle, turned into a robe, covered his body, and forcibly received a blow from Lin Zhenyue.

Under the protection of the Demon Castle, although Ye Chen was hit by a huge explosion, he did not suffer much damage.

At the same time, Tiannv and Mu Tianzhou also attacked brazenly.

The two of them stabbed Ye Chen with a sword.

Ye Chen had just resisted the impact of Lin Zhenyue's explosion, and it seemed difficult to resist, but at this moment, there was a sound of piano in his body.

The sound of the zither, like the evening floating in the night, carries an intoxicating fragrance, cleansing and cleansing the soul.

Chapter 9863

When Mu Tianzhou and Tiannv heard the sound of the zither, their heads became a little dizzy, as if they were hypnotized, the trajectory of the sword in their hands suddenly shifted, instead of stabbing Ye Chen, it passed from the side of Ye Chen.

""Dark Fragrance Floating Night"! The song of Qin Emperor Tianzun, how could you know it!"

Lin Zhenyue was taken aback. The sound of the zither coming from Ye Chen's body was one of the top ten famous songs left by Qin Emperor Tianzun in the legend, "Dark Fragrance Floating Night"!

This "Dark Fragrance Floating Night" has a strong hypnotic effect. He and Tiannv have a strong heart, so naturally they will not be easily hypnotized by a few notes, but the strong effect of the lullaby still made their offensive deviate. Ye Chen was not hurt.

Ye Chen laughed loudly, and said, "I want to leave, but you still can't keep me."

After saying that, Ye Chen flew away, pierced through the crystal wall system, and left this space with an extremely chic appearance.

In this space, it seems that the piano sound of "Dark Fragrance Floating Night" still remains, making Tiannv, Mu Tianzhou, Lin Zhenyue and others feel their hearts shake, their hearts fluctuate, and their heads are dizzy.

Ye Chen left smoothly, and in the cemetery of reincarnation, Emperor Qin praised:

"Master of the tomb, you are really amazing, you can reach the state where the heart makes the sound of the piano so quickly, and it is so natural."

The sound of the piano that came out of Ye Chen's body just now was actually his heart's voice.

He is very gifted and comprehensible, and he has already mastered "Dark Fragrance Floating Night" thoroughly, and his attainments can be said to be perfect, even if he doesn't use the piano, he can make the sound of the piano just by relying on the imagination in his heart.

The way of piano music is like the way of swordsmanship.

If you don't have a qin in your hand, but you have a qin in your heart, you can still play songs and sounds.

Of course, with Ye Chen's current cultivation level, he still plays with the piano, and the power of the piano music will be even greater.

It's just that the situation was critical just now, and it was impossible for him to play the piano leisurely.

After getting rid of Tiannv and others, Ye Chen felt a lot easier.

However, he sensed carefully, but still couldn't accurately pinpoint Sun Yi's location.

After passing through several layers of space in succession, Ye Chen still found nothing, only densely packed monsters running around.

"Sun Yi, where is your girl hiding?"

Ye Chen muttered secretly, trying to express his will to communicate with Sun Yi.

But after he issued his will, he did not receive any response.

"Why don't you use the Grass God's Crown to try it."

Emperor Qin Tianzun suggested.

Hearing this, Ye Chen's heart moved, and he immediately took out the wreath given to her by the little grass god Qingyan. This is the crown of the grass god. Although it is simple, it carries the painstaking efforts of two generations of grass gods.

Ye Chen held the garland, took a deep breath, and once again expressed his will, calling out:

"Sun Yi, answer me quickly!"

This time, after the will was issued, Ye Chen felt fluctuations in the surrounding space, and then he heard a pleasant female voice:

"Ye Chen, it's you, why did you appear here, I... I... I'm here, come here quickly!"

It was Sun Yi's voice.

When Ye Chen heard Sun Yi's voice, he was overjoyed immediately, and said, "Sun Yi, I have contacted you!"

In an instant, Ye Chen accurately captured Sun Yi's location, and the two initially established contact.

Sun Yi said anxiously, "Ye Chen, come and take me out, I underestimated the power of the Snake constellation, once this thing is born, it will form an infinite loop of time and space, and it will completely seal people off! "

"Quick, the magic scroll is already unfolding, I can't get out soon!"

"No, no, you still don't want to come over!"

"It's too late, the space-time cycle is about to form, I'm going to be sealed, you go!"

The more she talked, the more panicked Sun Yi's voice became, and she told Ye Chen not to come over.

"Time-space cycle?"

Ye Chen's heart trembled when he heard this.

Emperor Qin Tianzun frowned, thought for a while, and said: "Time and space cycle... I seem to have heard that the magic of the double snake constellation is sealed in a scroll. When the scroll is fully unfolded, it represents the double snake. Snake Constellation magic, completely born."

"When a divine technique is born, an infinite loop of time and space will be formed around it. This time and space, compared to the outside world, is completely static."

"But inside space-time, space is cyclical, and time is also cyclical, and you can never go out."

"Only with some powerful force can we break the cycle of time and space and get out of trouble."

"And those who can break through the cycle of time and space can get the approval of the space-time double snakes and take charge of the double snake constellation."

"But as far as I know, from the birth of the Gemini constellation to the present, and for billions of epochs, there are very few people who can truly break through the cycle of time and space and get out of trouble."

"Most people are trapped in that time and space, reduced to dry bones."

After listening to Qin Emperor Tianzun's description, Ye Chen also felt his scalp numb and his back feel cold.

From this point of view, the twin snake constellation is indeed extremely terrifying. Although the supernatural power is infinitely mysterious, it is also extremely difficult to control.

Today's Sun Yi was not besieged by monsters, but was trapped in the time and space where the twin snake constellation unfolded.

There is still a possibility of escaping from that piece of time and space, but if it is later, time and space will form a cycle, and they will not be able to escape forever.

"Tomb owner, act quickly, otherwise time and space will form a cycle, infinite reincarnation, then even I will not be able to break out of the predicament."

Emperor Qin Tianzun said solemnly.

He knew that it was absolutely impossible for Ye Chen to give up saving Sun Yi.

He just wanted Ye Chen to act quickly to rescue Sun Yi before the space-time cycle unfolded.

Chapter 9864

Of course, don't expect to receive the opportunity of the Gemini constellation.

For countless epochs, there are only a handful of people who can get out of the cycle of time and space and get the approval of the two snakes of time and space.

"Um!"

Ye Chen also felt that the situation was serious, so he immediately locked Sun Yi's position, spread his wings of freedom, and quickly left through the air.

Layers of space were shattered by Ye Chen and left behind.

The space where Sun Yi is located is very tricky, if it is not for the exact coordinates, Ye Chen would not have found it.

Soon, Ye Chen passed through layers of space, and finally came to a special space.

This space is completely different from those outside. It is like a real cosmic starry sky, with stars floating in it.

"There is the mystery of the law of time here, and time flows, so the real universe is created."

"Tomb owner, look, the totem of the space-time twin snakes!"

Emperor Qin Tianzun admired, and looked up again.

On the top of Ye Chen's head, there are two huge ancient snake totems, one exudes the mystery of time, and the other exudes the breath of space. Shenxi is dotted, brilliance shines, swallowing each other from head to tail, forming a slowly rotating ring, perfect Reincarnation is exactly the space-time twin snakes.

In the outer space, there are no stars, because there is only a totem of an ancient space snake, and there is no profound meaning of the law of time.

With only space, without time, it is impossible to create a real universe.

In the real universe, the sun, the moon and the stars can be created and a stable order can be established only when time passes.

Only the combination of time and space can create the world, which is the mystery of the space-time twin snakes.

Looking at the totem of the twin snakes in space, Ye Chen was also amazed, and felt a burst of ancient great power.

Under the totem of the two snakes in time and space, a scroll is suspended.

This scroll is like a meteorite cast, heavy gray and black, with a very mysterious ancient atmosphere, it is slowly unfolding, and the mysterious source of endless time and space flows out, constantly expanding this universe, creating infinite The sun, moon and stars.

This scroll is so huge that even the sun, the biggest star in the universe, is like a speck of dust compared to it.

This is the most spectacular picture scroll in the universe. On the scroll, a little bit of stars are connected to form a huge constellation picture scroll. It is exactly the pattern of the double snake constellation. It is also two ancient snakes, swallowing each other head to tail, in a perfect cycle. appearance.

The double snake totem above the universe is the projection of the double snake constellation in this scroll!

"Sun Yi!"

Before Ye Chen saw the scroll of the Gemini constellation, there was a woman in a daze, as if she was shocked by the scene in front of her.

The woman's figure was insignificant compared to the huge scroll of the double snake constellation.

But Ye Chen could tell at a glance that it was Sun Yi!

brush.

Ye Chen spread out his wings of freedom, flew out of the air in an instant, came to Sun Yi's side, and put his arms around her shoulders.

Sun Yi trembled all over, came back to her senses, and looked sideways at Ye Chen.

Ye Chen finally saw Sun Yi, this was the face he thought about day and night, as beautiful as ever.

Seeing her face, Ye Chen couldn't help but bowed his head and kissed her.

"Ye Chen, why are you really here!"

Sun Yi was stunned, she didn't expect Ye Chen to come here.

"I'm here to rescue you!"

Ye Chen put his arms around Sun Yi's slender waist, and immediately flew out.

He could feel that the scroll of the twin snake constellation was exuding an incomparably terrifying aura. It was the aura of time and space, magnificent, majestic, vast, unstoppable, and irresistible.

Under that power of time and space, even gods are as insignificant as ants.

What's more frightening is that Ye Chen clearly saw that the scroll of the twin snake constellation, the profound energy of time and space, had almost exploded to the extreme, and the scroll was almost fully unfolded.

Once the scroll is fully unfolded, it means that the scroll of the Twin Snake Constellation is really born, the cycle of time and space will be completely formed, and he and Sun Yi will be sealed here.

Even the Qin Emperor Tianzun in his heyday did not dare to say that he could break through the cycle of time and space.

"Sun Yi, let's go!"

Ye Chen made a decisive decision, immediately put his arms around Sun Yi's slender waist, pushed Wings of Freedom to the extreme speed, and ran away crazily.

Rumble!

The scroll was about to be fully unfolded, and a terrifying and majestic energy scene burst out. The outsiders, Mu Tianzhou, Lin Zhenyue and others flew over quickly. They didn't know the legend of the space-time cycle, and they only thought that they could pass no test. You will be able to get the approval of the space-time twin snakes, and you will be in charge of the constellations without feeling any danger at all.

And many monsters and beasts also felt the majestic breath of the constellation scroll, and rushed over like a tide.

Ye Chen flew quickly, and saw the figures of Tiannv and others outside the space-time crystal wall system, as well as the figures of many monsters.

Tiannv and others and many monsters, through the crystal wall system, saw the great shadow of the huge scroll from a distance. Their hearts were surging and their blood was racing. The always calm Tiannv couldn't help but yelled:

"It's the constellation of Snakes! Such a powerful breath!"

"If I can master this method, I will really change my life against the sky and become invincible in the world!"

With frenzy in her eyes, she wanted to break through the crystal wall system and go in to snatch the constellation scroll.

Mu Tianzhou, Lin Zhenyue, and many other monsters rushed towards him with the most fanatical attitude.

Ye Chen, on the other hand, fled desperately, as if he wanted to avoid some catastrophe.

One side wants to escape, and the other side wants to rush in, the picture forms a huge contrast.

boom! boom! boom!

However, the crystal wall system of this cosmic space-time has become extremely firm, and countless monsters collide, just like hitting the hardest wall in the world, completely unable to break through.

Tiannv, Mu Tianzhou, Lin Zhenyue and others rushed straight over, but were also blocked by the crystal wall system.

The celestial girl swung her sword and slashed out, with a clang, not even a white mark appeared on the crystal wall system, and the law of space was unbelievably strong.

Lin Zhenyue exploded a series of talisman bombardment, but it was also useless.

Mu Tianzhou used the method of puppets to control many monsters to fight to the death, but he would only end up being smashed into meat paste, completely unable to shake the crystal wall of time and space.

As for Ye Chen, with Sun Yi in his arms, he rushed to the crystal wall system, and the distance from Tiannv and others was only a few feet away.

boom!

Ye Chen opened the arm of the Emperor of Heaven, punched with all his strength, and the Titan Star Dou Fist burst out, but it was completely unshakable. Instead, his own fist was cracked and blood flowed.

Seeing this scene, Ye Chen, Tiannv and the others were completely stunned.

The firmness of this space-time crystal wall exceeded their expectations.

"Oops, a space-time cycle is formed!"

Emperor Qin Tianzun shouted.

Hearing a "pop", the constellation scroll unfolded to the extreme, suspended steadily in the void of the universe, and the majestic power of time and space radiated out, filling every corner of the universe.

Chapter 9865

On the space-time crystal wall at the edge of the universe, ancient distorted runes emerged one after another, eventually covering the entire crystal wall.

Those runes also exude a deep and mysterious atmosphere of time and space, making it impossible to fathom.

Under the shroud of those runes, Ye Chen could no longer see Tiannv and others, and he could not hear the outside voices at all, and there were only lonely and indifferent cosmic stars around him.

But Tiannv and the others saw an incomparably spectacular scene. They saw a space-time giant egg slowly rising from their eyes.

This time-space giant egg is covered with ancient runes, Ye Chen, Sun Yi, and the scroll of the twin snakes are all sealed inside.

"Not good, the chance of the twin snakes will belong to the Lord of Reincarnation!"

Lin Zhenyue was taken aback, and sacrificed the Sky Explosion Talisman, trying to detonate the space-time dome, but it was still in vain.

The giant egg is extremely strong, with intertwined runes, and the energy of the great law of time and space bursts out, as if the emperor of heaven is about to come in person, and it cannot be broken.

"No! What a dangerous secret! Ye Chen and Sun Yi are going to die!"

The heavenly girl's eyes turned cold, she caught an extremely terrifying aura of heavenly secrets from the space-time dome, full of ominous omens.

This vicious heavenly secret foreshadows that whoever is sealed in the giant egg will die, and there is no possibility of survival.

Hearing what Tiannv said, Mu Tianzhou and Lin Zhenyue also sensed the dangerous aura, and couldn't help feeling a little tingly, and subconsciously stepped back a few steps, not daring to get too close to the giant egg.

The goddess also took two steps back, and saw the runes on the giant egg, flowing layer by layer, gradually forming the totem of the time-space twin snakes, magnificent and gorgeous, with a huge danger behind it.

But within the giant egg, there is a vast and endless starry universe.

Ye Chen and Sun Yi, suspended alone in this universe, were stunned.

They didn't know the outside situation, but they also captured the extremely dangerous karmic atmosphere.

They could all die here!

"Has the space-time cycle started?"

Ye Chen murmured.

"Yes, starting today, your time every day will be reset."

"Wherever you go, wait until

Chapter 9866

Ye Chen smiled and said: "Very well, we can't really be stuck here forever, you have inherited the God of Grass, maybe you can break the blockade of time and space, and get out of trouble."

When Sun Yi heard that there was a chance to get out of trouble, her heart moved, and she immediately put on the wreath.

Ye Chen waited quietly. However, after waiting for a long time, there was no special aura emanating from Sun Yi.

"What's going on here? You failed to inherit the Grass God's lineage?"

Ye Chen frowned suddenly.

Sun Yi touched the wreath on her head, and said in embarrassment: "Ye Chen, my aptitude is too weak. It is only because of your reincarnation blood karma that I am favored by the Little Grass God."

"I can inherit this grass god lineage, but it will take time. Ascension to the gods is not that easy."

This garland crown contains the great power of two generations of grass gods, and it contains the law of cause and effect. Only Sun Yi, the successor, can inherit the power in the crown. Even if others grab the crown, it will have no effect.

However, the power of the two generations of grass gods is too grand after all. If Sun Yi wants to take charge, it will take time to digest.

"Then put it on first, take your time, don't rush."

Ye Chen was a little helpless, but she didn't blame Sun Yi. After all, the power of the two generations of grass gods, and even many concepts of the Forest Book, were not something she could easily digest.

He let Sun Yi continue to wear the garland, and took her to have fun in the reincarnation heaven, eating, drinking and having fun all day long, and slept together again at night.

Both of them felt a little inexplicable throbbing in their hearts. If the space-time cycle really happened, where would they appear when they woke up tomorrow morning?

Chapter 9867

No matter how powerful the space-time cycle power of the twin snake constellation is, how can it be possible to revive the life of the lord of reincarnation?

"Father, have we fallen into a trap?"

"Do you want me to try and break this trap?"

The little forbidden demon also noticed that something was wrong. He ate a lot of source jade these two days, but the source jade he ate was

Chapter 9868

With Ye Chen and Sun Yi's cultivation, the wear and tear of a thousand years is nothing, they can easily bear it.

As for the little Forbidden Demon, he was born not long ago. After thousands of years of wear and tear, without any nourishing and nourishing spiritual energy of heaven and earth, he couldn't bear it anymore. In the end, he could only painfully announce to Ye Chen that he would also be like Qin Emperor Tianzun. , sleep for a period of time, waiting for the turnaround rescue.

The little forbidden demon and Qin Emperor Tianzun were both asleep.

The days of Ye Chen and Sun Yi are much more boring.

More boring days are yet to come, time passes day by day, resets day by day, one thousand years, ten thousand years, one hundred thousand years, one million years...

Millions of years have passed, and Ye Chen and Sun Yi are still not out of trouble.

As for the infinite time and space outside, the real elapsed time may only be a few breaths.

In this infinitely looping universe of two snakes, the laws of time and space are completely different from those of the outside world. Millions of years have passed here, while outside it has only passed a few breaths, maybe even just a snap of your fingers!

Time continues to pass, tens of millions of years, tens of millions of years, billions of years...

When the scale of the passage of time reached the terrifying level of hundreds of millions of years, Ye Chen and Sun Yi finally felt the wear and tear of the years.

With the continuous accumulation of years of wear and tear, the hearts of the two began to shake and fluctuate, and it was difficult to maintain a calm mind.

When the time stretches to hundreds of billions of years, the starry sky that was originally immutable, due to the continuous accumulation of years of wear and tear, stars fall and die one by one.

In the end, after an unknown number of billions of years passed, all the stars in the universe died, and the entire universe fell into absolute silence.

In the boundless coldness and loneliness, Ye Chen and Sun Yi did not know how many years they had passed. In the cold and lonely universe in front of them, under the power of the laws of time and space, new stars gradually appeared.

When the universe is full of stars, and the dead stars light up again, and an unknown number of billions of years have passed, and the time of an era has officially passed.

Ye Chen and Sun Yi, whose cultivation bases have not reached the gods at present, can't bear the long wear and tear of the era, but they feel agitated, and their skin is no longer as smooth as before.

Ye Chen's Dao of Birth and Extinction in the Beginning is invalid here, unable to alleviate the wear and tear caused by the years.

This is the importance of the realm of cultivation.

If it is a cultivator in the Divine Dao Realm, it is enough to withstand the wear and tear of the era.

But Ye Chen, even if his combat power can make him invincible in the Divine Dao Realm, he has not reached the Divine Dao Realm after all. Facing hundreds of millions of years of epochs, it is difficult for him to bear the wear and tear behind him.

Rumble!

The cemetery of reincarnation shook, Qin Emperor Tianzun seemed to sense that Ye Chen was in danger, and woke up.

"Senior Emperor Qin, you are awake."

Ye Chen smiled wryly, seeing Emperor Qin wake up, he looked forward to it again.

Perhaps, things have turned around.

Emperor Qin looked around the starry sky, counted with his fingers, and exclaimed: "The stars in the sky have all been extinguished and reborn, has an era passed?"

"No one came to rescue us yet?"

Ye Chen shook his head and said, "No."

Emperor Qin said: "By the way, although an era has passed here, the time outside may have passed less than a quarter of an hour. It is impossible for the high-level powerhouses of your reincarnation camp to come so soon."

Ye Chen said: "Senior Ren is still sleeping, he won't come, and in this place, the news can't get out."

Emperor Qin's heart sank, and he said, "Yes, and what's even more terrifying is that if this cycle of time and space is broken from the outside, it will immediately cause the collapse of time and space, and we will all die."

"Like an egg, life can only be conceived if it is broken from the inside."

"If it breaks from the outside, it will be a disaster."

Ye Chen said: "Senior, if we want to go out, we have to think of other ways."

Son, relying on others to rescue is not enough. "

Emperor Qin pondered for a while, and said: "I have a way, you can try it."

When Ye Chen and Sun Yi heard the words, their hearts were greatly moved, and they asked in unison, "What can I do?"

They've been stuck here for an epoch and just want to get out as soon as possible.

Ye Chen thought again, one era is so tough, I really don't know how Ren Feifan managed to survive the millennium in the dark forest.

Emperor Qin hesitated and said, "I can try to play "Dameng Chunxiao", which is the most powerful piece I have created, and it was not created by me alone, it was composed by me and a master of illusion called Huang Jiatian. Qin melody, even if I am myself, it is very difficult to play this piece in its entirety."

Ye Chen said, ""Dream of Spring Dawn"?"

He knew that "Dream of Spring Dawn" was the number one existence among the top ten famous songs. It was so powerful that even Emperor Qin Tianzun didn't dare to teach it to him, fearing that he would fall into the dream of Chunxiao and be unable to escape.

Emperor Qin said: "Yes, even Huang Jiatian and I need to use the Jiuxiaohuan Pipin to play "Dameng Chunxiao". If we don't have this piano, we will play carelessly, and we will suffer backlash and die."

Jiuxiaohuan Peiqin is the number one piano in the world, and it has already been destroyed by Hua Zu.

Ye Chen has the Dasheng Yiyinqin in his hand, which is known as the second-ranked piano, but in terms of quality, it is too different from the Jiuxiaohuan Peiqin, and he is not qualified to play "Dameng Chunxiao".

"If I can successfully play "Dream of Spring Dawn", I can transform this infinite loop of time and space of twin snakes into a dream illusion."

Chapter 9869

"As long as you can wake up from the dream, you can get out."

Emperor Qin said, this is his plan, to play "Da Meng Chun Dawn" and turn this world into a dream.

As long as Ye Chen and Sun Yi can wake up from their dreams, they can break the infinite cycle of time and space and get out of trouble.

Ye Chen was taken aback, and said, "There is such a way?"

Emperor Qin nodded, but frowned and said: "Although my idea is good, it is difficult to realize. Even if I sacrifice this soul, regardless of my life, without the help of Jiuxiaohuan Peiqin, it will be difficult to play "Dream of Spring Dawn". The quality of the Shengyiyinqin is not enough."

"Also, Tomb Master, with your and Sun Yi's cultivation, to be honest, it's almost impossible to wake up from my Spring Dawn dream."

"You may survive for hundreds of epochs in this infinite loop of time and space, waiting for a turnaround, but in my dream, within a few days, you will be killed by the spring dawn and night rain in the dream."

In fact, at the very beginning, Emperor Qin thought about this method, but because it was difficult to realize, and he didn't want to kill Ye Chen, so he didn't say it.

Now that an era has passed, and things haven't turned around, he has just spoken out his thoughts.

Ye Chen and Sun Yi glanced at each other. Naturally, they were not afraid of dream killings. They had been trapped for an era. If there was a chance to escape, they would dare to try no matter what the danger.

"Senior, we are not afraid of any danger, as long as you can play that piece of music."

"Without the Nine Heavens Piano, can it really be played?"

Ye Chen asked.

Emperor Qin thought for a while, and said, "Generally speaking, yes."

"But I have figured out a way to break the situation. As long as you sacrifice the Heavenly Emperor's Lingcasket, and use the sacrifice power of the Heavenly Emperor's Lingxuan to increase the power of the Great Sage's Musical Instrument, it may be able to help me play "Dream of Spring Dawn", and I probably won't die either."

"However, the Celestial Emperor's coffin is related to the reincarnation Purana, and it is extremely precious. I'm afraid you won't be able to bear it."

The Celestial Emperor's Spirit Box is a special box used to hold the Puranas of Reincarnation. If there is no such thing, even if the Puranas of Reincarnation are born in the future, there will be nothing in the world that can hold them.

This Celestial Emperor's Spirit Box was extremely important to the former reincarnation camp.

But Ye Chen thought to himself, what kind of reincarnation purana is too illusory, he never thought of creating it.

Even if the Heavenly Emperor's coffin is precious to him, it is not unsacrificable.

"Senior, I don't care, it's okay to offer sacrifices, but it seems that the Heavenly Emperor's coffin cannot be offered as a sacrifice."

Ye Chen said.

In fact, before that, he also tried to offer sacrifices to the Heavenly Emperor's coffin, but it didn't work.

This thing is related to the Reincarnation Purana, and it seems to be a very special existence that cannot be sacrificed.

Emperor Qin said: "Yes, as long as you smear the blood essence of reincarnation on it, you can make a sacrifice."

Ye Chen was moved in his heart, and said, "Really?"

He immediately sacrificed the Heavenly Emperor's casket, feeling a little excited, and said:

"Then, Senior Qin Emperor, I will immediately sacrifice the coffin of the Heavenly Emperor to help you play "Dream of Spring Dawn"!"

Emperor Qin hurriedly said: "Don't be too impatient, this matter is no small matter, you have to prepare well, Huang Jiatian and I created this song, the dream world transformed by this song is extremely dangerous, if the emperor and the gods fall into it, they will be destroyed danger."

"You must maintain a clear and stable Dao heart before you can wake up from the dream of music."

Ye Chen's heart trembled, and he said, "Yes!"

Emperor Qin said: "Your Dao Xin has been worn down by the ages, I will dissolve it for you first, sit down."

He took out the Great Sage's Oblivion Qin, put his palm on it lightly, and began to play "New Rain in the Empty Mountains".

Ye Chen and Sun Yi sat cross-legged and listened to "New Rain in the Empty Mountains" played by Emperor Qin, they suddenly felt peaceful, as if there was a clear rain passing by, they felt refreshed and refreshed.

It has to be said that Emperor Qin's attainments in piano music are much better than Ye Chen's.

With the wear and tear of this era, Ye Chen himself

I couldn't resolve it by playing the zither, but I felt much more comfortable when I heard the sound of Emperor Qin's zither.

"Tomb owner, I will pass you the score of "Dream of Spring Dawn" again, but this score is mysterious and profound, and your cultivation level is not enough. If you touch it rashly, you may be in danger of falling into a deep dream."

"I messed up all the notes and tunes of Masao Kazuo Miyazhang in the song, and passed them on to you one by one. Finally, I will tell you the correct arrangement of the notes, and slowly teach you this song."

"Miss Sun Yi, you should study hard too."

"Only if you are familiar with the song, you will fall into the world of Chunxiao's dream in the future, and you will be able to regain your sobriety."

Emperor Qin followed his advice and said.

Ye Chen and Sun Yi responded in unison: "Yes!"

In the following time, they will practice "Dream of Spring Dawn" with Emperor Qin Tianzun.

This piece of music is the number one in the world. It is profound, profound, and profound. Even Qin Emperor Tianzun himself could not create it independently. He had to cooperate with a master of illusion called Huang Jiatian to finally compose this piece of music. .

As for Huang Jiatian, he kept a low profile and retired after his achievements, so that everyone in the world believed that this "Dream of Spring Dawn" was created by Emperor Qin alone, and did not know the existence of Huang Jiatian behind it.

Emperor Qin passed the score of "Dream of Spring Dawn" to Ye Chen and Sun Yi, note by note.

Sun Yi didn't have the foundation in music, and her talent was not as good as Ye Chen's. It was quite difficult to learn from scratch.

The two practiced the notes one by one, and when all the notes were learned, Emperor Qin taught them the correct ordering method, carefully teaching them section by section.

After the music scores were taught, Emperor Qin explained the music, which section would bring about changes, and how dangerous the murder was in the evolved dream.

Ye Chen and Sun Yi listened carefully to the memory, and learned the whole process quite hard.

Finally, after spending thousands of years, Ye Chen initially grasped the essence of "Da Meng Chun Dawn".

Ye Chen is confident that as long as he is given an instrument of sufficient quality, he can play this song!

Sun Yi, on the other hand, only had a preliminary understanding of the structure of the song, the many murderous dangers behind the notes, and so on.

As for playing, don't even think about it, her talent is far from Ye Chen's, and she won't be able to learn it after thousands of years, even tens of thousands of years.

Even if she memorizes all the notes, but cannot understand the essence of the artistic conception behind the tune, even if she plays it, it is just an empty tune without any power.

"Okay, it's almost done, tomb owner, you sacrifice the coffin of the emperor of heaven, and I will play "Dream of Spring" for you."

"As soon as this song is played, the world will be transformed into a dream, and you will enter the dream. I wish you a smooth awakening."

After the teaching was finished and everything was ready, Emperor Qin placed the Great Sage's Obscure Music Qin across his knees, restrained his breath, and stared at the scroll of the twin snake constellation floating in the void of the universe, ready to play.

Chapter 9870

After all, thousands of years have passed, and he has completely taught what should be taught.

"yes."

Ye Chen sacrificed the Heavenly Emperor's coffin, forced out a few drops of reincarnation essence blood on his fingertips, smeared it on, and was about to try to sacrifice.

"Yes, tomb owner, if you can get out of trouble, after you get out, you'd better help me find out the whereabouts of Huang Jiatian."

"In fact, Huang Jiatian is just my ordinary friend. He said that he wanted to create a supreme dream illusion and wanted to cooperate with me, so I agreed."

"We wrote "Dream of Spring Dawn" together, which shocked the world, but he was very low-key, did not expose his reputation, and gave me all the credit for his fame."

"After I was killed by Hua Zu, he was also implicated and hunted down by Hua Zu. His situation must be very miserable."

"But I deduce that he is not dead yet."

"If you can, help me find out where he is, bring him to the reincarnation camp, and let him live in peace for the rest of his life."

Emperor Qin sighed, looked into the deep void of the universe, and remembered the past.

Although Huang Jiatian is just his ordinary friend, after all, he wrote "Dameng Chunxiao" together, and he is very grateful.

Today's Huang Jiatian, under the pursuit and suppression of Hua Zu in the past, must be miserable.

He wanted to entrust Ye Chen to take care of him.

"Huang Jiatian...Okay, senior, I will remember."

Ye Chen nodded, and in the dark, he caught another hidden secret of magic.

His heart was shocked, and he said: "Senior, according to the legend, the ranking of the thirty-three days of magic
