Chapter 1021: Second Uncle Collapsed

However, seeing how protective the Nangong family was toward Nuannuan and how exciting it was to see Nuannuan face-smack the evil Zhong family, Old Master Chi felt very satisfied.

The Nangong family protected Nuannuan well. All the media outlets covered Nuannuan's face with mosaic on the camera. Anyone who had previously published Nuannuan's news on the gossip or entertainment columns deleted their posts or had their posts re-posted.

"Grandpa."

Suddenly, Nuannuan's voice traversed from outside the door, startling Old Master Chi. He thought he had heard wrongly.

However, he peered outside anyway.

They installed a pupil scan as the door lock for the Chi family. Previously, they had already recorded the reading from Nuannuan's pupils, so she could enter and leave freely through the main door.

In addition, the guards outside recognized Nuannuan, so it was only after she entered the house that Old Master Chi realized that it was truly Nuannuan.

He quickly stood up and asked excitedly, "Little Girl, why are you back here? Aren't you supposed to be at your maternal grandfather's house?"

"What maternal grandfather? Old Man Chi, haven't you followed today's news? I've announced in front of all the media that Nuannuan has changed her surname to Nangong. Since her surname is Nangong, why is she still calling me her maternal grandfather?"

Old Master Nangong also walked in from outside.

He held the two cutie pies in each of his hands.

After entering the house, Lil Sun and Lil Ling'er gave Old Master Chi a huge 90-degree bow and chimed in unison, "Hello, Great-grandpa!"

Old Master Chi loved children the most, but it was a pity that the Chi family did not have a lot of descendants.

Seeing the children that looked like they just crawled out from a painting, Old Master Chi was so happy that his eyes squinted into two happy lines. He quickly got the servants to find snacks for Lil Ling'er and Lil Sun.

"Grandpa, there's no need to trouble yourself. I've bought some things that they like on the way. However, they'll be sleeping over tonight, so I'll have to trouble the butler to arrange a room for them."

When Old Master Chi heard that there would be guests sleeping over at home tonight, he was so happy that his entire body lit up like the Sun.

Nangong Nuannuan felt a dull pain in her heart as she watched Grandpa Chi busy himself with Lil Sun and Lil Ling'er.

If only she were older, she could have given birth to two great-grandchildren to accompany him.

The worst thing in life was losing one's father when one was young, losing one's spouse when one was middle-aged, and losing one's child when one was old.

Grandpa had experienced all three of them at the right age.

Therefore, she wanted her grandfather to live a happier life.

"Where's Second Uncle? Why isn't he home today?"

Usually, if Second Uncle was around, the house would definitely be tidied up. Even if there were guests, nothing would be in disarray.

Old Master Chi sighed.

"Grandpa, what happened to Second Uncle?"

"Your second uncle hasn't been feeling well today, and he's lying down in bed since noon. I told him to go to the hospital, but he refused adamantly."

Nuannuan mentioned before that Chi Zeyao should not be in pain for a short while. However, seeing Zeyao in pain today made the old master very unhappy.

Nuannuan reached out to hold Old Master Chi's hand and comforted him, "Grandpa, don't be anxious. I'll go up and see Second Uncle."

"Okay, okay. Go up and see him."

When Old Master Chi thought of Nuannuan's miraculous acupuncture technique, the worry in his eyes lessened.

Seeing Nuannuan go upstairs, Old Master Chi wanted to follow her, but thinking that it was only courteous for him to accompany Old Master Nangong, he suppressed his urge to follow her and stayed back.

"Hurry up and take a look with her. You can listen to what's going on at the same time too. Nuannuan's heading back to Jiang District tomorrow. By then, you should at least know what's going on, right?"

Chapter 1022: Internal Organ Failure

"Alright, alright. Make yourself comfortable and watch over the kids. I'll go up and take a look."

"Sure."

Nangong Nuannuan went upstairs and knocked on Chi Zeyao's door. "Second Uncle, Nuannuan here."

"Nuannuan, come in."

Nuannuan opened the door and saw that Chi Zeyao was about to get up. She hurried over to support him in lying back down again.

"Second Uncle, don't get up. I heard that you're not feeling well, so I'm here to check on you."

"Alright."

Chi Zeyao was feeling an excessive amount of discomfort today. Even his words became sparse.

Nuannuan carefully examined his body, but when she saw the condition he was in, she could not help but frown.

It was a very serious case of nephritis, and his kidneys were rapidly deteriorating.

She had only returned to Jiang District for ten days. How could his body, which was not as severe before this, collapse so quickly?

"Second Uncle, did you catch a cold recently?"

Old Master Chi came in and heard Nuannuan's question. He immediately complained, "Exactly!"

"Dad!" Chi Zeyao was already feeling unwell. When he heard the old master whining about him, he could not help but call out despite his splitting headache, afraid that he would make Nuannuan unhappy.

"I'll tell Nuannuan even if you call me." Old Master Chi complained angrily. "Before you left, you told both of us not to go out because it's cold outside. I listened to you and didn't go anywhere, but he didn't listen to you at all. Thinking that his conditions improved a lot, he went to the company on the third day.

"When he came back that night, he caught a cold. At the time, we didn't think much of it, so he took some medicine that's supposed to alleviate cold symptoms. After taking the medicine for several days, he didn't get any better, and he lost all of his appetites. Today, he'll have to lie down straight away. I told him to go to the hospital, but he refused. I asked the family doctor to treat him, but he refused. He's so stubborn!"

Facing the unconcealable worry in the old master's eyes, Nuannuan smiled and said, "Grandpa, don't worry. You have me here. You know how good my skills are, don't you? Don't worry, after I perform acupuncture on Second Uncle, he'll be much better in no time."

"Really?" The old master's eyes lit up.

Actually, his greatest fear was for Zeyao to suddenly fall ill to some severe sickness. After all, when he went to the hospital previously, he had once asked the doctor in secret. The doctor told him that Chi Zeyao's body was about to reach the point of no return. After all, his previous injuries were too severe, and his internal organs were basically destroyed. In the future, he could only rely on internal organ transplants to live on. Even if he changed all his internal organs, he would only be able to live for three to five years at most.

Therefore, what he was most afraid of was Chi Zeyao's organs failing one day.

If that was the case, he did not know if he should take him to the hospital to change all his organs.

After all, he could not go through all the transplant surgeries at one go. There were so many internal organs that had to be replaced time and time again, and he would have to endure the pain brought by the hemolysis. Moreover, he would not be able to live for long after going through all that too...

At the thought of this, the old master felt sad. Fortunately, there was Nuannuan. If she said that it was not a big problem, that only meant that he escaped danger.

"Yes. Second Uncle only caught a cold and it triggered the inflammation. In addition, his body isn't well, to begin with, so it's very difficult for him to recover."

This time, the old master was relieved. He said fiercely to Chi Zeyao, "Did you hear what Nuannuan said? Why do you always want to make others worry for you? Nuannuan told you not to go out and run around, but you still went anyway. Is our family too poor to afford gas that you, the chairman, must do everything yourself?"

Chapter 1023: I Made You Worry

Chi Zeyao, who was lying on his sickbed, felt very guilty. After all, he did not expect his body to be so weak. He had gone to check on an important construction site. Coincidentally, he had bad luck and the temperature outside dropped rapidly that day, and he ended up like this.

"Dad, I'm sorry to have made you worry." Chi Zeyao's attitude was as amiable as ever. The old master wanted to reprimand him, but he could not find the heart to.

However, since he was fine, the old master was relieved.

"Since it's nothing serious, Nuannuan, I'll leave you to watch over your Second Uncle. I'll go down to accompany your Grandpa."

"Okay." Nangong Nuannuan nodded.

After Grandpa Chi left, Chi Zeyao turned to Nangong Nuannuan. "Little Girl, am I going to die?"

"I won't, Second Uncle." Seeing Chi Zeyao like this, Nuannuan felt terrible.

"You don't have to console me. I know my own body. Since yesterday afternoon, I've been peeing blood and my back hurts. The doctor said that once my organs start to fail, I'll have to receive transplants. This morning, I've already gotten someone to draft a will to transfer Shengyang Group to Chi Yang. If I'm not around, can you... promise me that you'll take good care of my father?"

"Second Uncle, taking care of Grandpa is my responsibility. However, don't worry. I've told you before that you'll be fine, so you'll definitely be fine. You're peeing blood right now because your kidney is starting to fail, but I'll apply acupuncture on you to extend your kidney's lifespan. However, you must undergo surgery. On the other hand, I'll also intensify my studies in the field of surgery. Second Uncle, if you believe me, I hope that when the time comes, you'll agree to let me perform the surgery for you. I hope to replace all your damaged organs in one single surgery. After that, I'll help you recuperate. As long as you listen to me, you can live for another thirty to fifty years, not just three to five."

Chi Zeyao was stunned.

He was already 54 years old. If he lived on for another thirty to fifty years, would he not be 80 to 100 years old?

This... was no different from dying of old age!

"Rea... really?"

"Of course!" Nuannuan grinned and said, "What's the point of lying to Second Uncle? None. So, don't worry and listen to me. Be an obedient patient for the next year, okay? In the future, you have to report to me when you go out. You should only go out after obtaining my approval, okay?"

Chi Zeyao smiled weakly. "Alright, I'll listen to you. I'm really sorry this time."

"It's nothing. Just don't be so careless anymore."

"Mm."

He really wanted to thank Nuannuan, but since she said that they were family and that there was no need to thank her, Chi Zeyao swallowed his gratitude.

"Second Uncle, I need to insert a needle into your back. I'll support you, so turn over."

"Okay."

"You'll feel like peeing when the time comes, so don't hold it in. You must tell me. You can still move when the needle is in you."

"...okay." Although he was a little embarrassed, he had no choice. It was a matter of life and death, so he agreed.

This time, the acupuncture took a long time. Old Master Chi returned to check on them two or three times already. He was initially very worried, but when he saw blood gradually returning to Chi Zeyao's initially pale face, he was soon relieved.

This time, inserting needles and thread embedding took two hours.

At first, Chi Zeyao wanted to go to the toilet, but he was too embarrassed to say so. He tried his best to hold it in.

Chapter 1024: Beat Up The Pig Trotter

However, almost every time Chi Zeyao had such thoughts, Nuannuan would ask him whether he needed the bathroom first. Therefore, he would go to the bathroom in embarrassment every time.

Initially, there would be a lot of blood in his pee. After two hours of treatment, the symptoms had completely disappeared, and the constant urge to use the bathroom diminished.

The swelling all over his body was greatly relieved after the acupuncture too.

Previously, he could not pee even if he felt like his bladder was about to burst. The only thing that came out was blood. Now that everything was cleared, he felt much more relaxed.

Old Master Chi had not eaten dinner because he lost his appetite as he worried over Chi Zeyao.

However, when Chi Zeyao went downstairs with Nuannuan, the old master could feel his energy returning to him.

“Zeyao, how do you feel? Are you feeling better?”

Chi Zeyao smiled. “Dad, I’m much better. Nuannuan is even better than those who called themselves divine physicists. After her treatment, I can feel my body in a much more relaxed state.”

“That’s good, that’s good. Then I’m relieved! Nuannuan is really our lucky star.”

At the peak of his good mood, Old Master Chi was suddenly overwhelmed by hunger.

“You haven’t eaten lunch nor dinner. Since the Nangong family made us some food, shall we eat together?”

Chi Zeyao smiled. “Okay.”

Now that his health had improved, he felt hungry as well.

Previously, the old master was afraid that something major happened to Chi Zeyao’s body. However, when he noticed the improvement in Chi Zeyao’s complexion and he had eaten a lot more than usual, his mood instantly improved.

Hence, the two of them ate a whole lot of food even though it was already eight in the evening.

Nuannuan was afraid that they would suffer from indigestion, so she gave them another fifteen minutes of acupuncture.

Seeing this, Old Master Nangong also made some noise, asking Nuannuan to treat him with acupuncture too.

After dinner, the three of them lay down and enjoyed Nuannuan’s acupuncture.

After recovering so much, Chi Zeyao became the embodiment of a good househusband by playing with Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er until they squealed happily.

Originally, the two children had come to play with their Auntie. Now that they had their Second Granduncle Chi Zeyao, they opened up to play with everyone even more.

Old Master Nangong could not be bothered to return to the Nangong residence alone, so he shamelessly stayed over too.

The Chi family’s originally cold and cheerless night became extremely lively because of Nuannuan’s arrival.

That night, Nuannuan received a call from Dan Qi. He said that Zhong Qianqian left Emperor District and returned to Jiang District alone. Then, she contacted RS Bank and arranged to meet someone from the bank at 2 pm the next day.

The next morning, the Nangong family gathered at the courtyard at nine in the morning. Looking at Old Master Chi’s pleading expression, Nuannuan asked, “Grandpa, do you want to go?”

The old master’s eyes lit up. He obviously wanted to go, but...

“You and the Nangong family are heading over to deal with Zhong Qianqian. Would it be inappropriate for me to go too?”

Old Master Nangong overheard the conversation between Nuannuan and Old Master Chi. He quickly turned around and gestured with his eyes to Old Master Chi, hinting that ‘Yes, it’s inappropriate for you to go.’

This was because the entire Nangong family were moving out not only to help Nuannuan deal with Zhong Qianqian, but also to go to Jiang District to see Chi Yang, the pig trotter who had stolen their precious pearl.

If Chi Yuancheng followed along, how could they threaten Chi Yang properly?

However, Nuannuan missed the disagreement that plastered all over her Grandpa Nangong’s face. She said to Old Master Chi, “Why would you? Grandpa, you and my Grandpa are good friends, to begin with. You two can keep each other company!”

Chapter 1025: Knot

Nuannuan was in front of Old Master Nangong and both of them were looking at Old Master Chi at the same time.

Therefore, Old Master Chi looked at Nuannuan’s expectant gaze, as well as the warning and unwillingness on Old Master Nangong’s face. He chuckled and exclaimed, “Alright, since all of you welcome me, I’ll go with you!”

The men from the Nangong family, “...”

Did anyone mention that they welcome him?!

“That’s great.”

After saying that, Nuannuan turned to Chi Zeyao and asked, “Second Uncle, you just fell sick yesterday. Grandpa won’t be home, so I’m worried about you. Why don’t you come with us? I can perform acupuncture on you in Jiang District.”

Chi Zeyao could already tell that the Nangong family men were bursting with vigor and all of them looked like they could not wait to skin Chi Yang alive. Hence, after Nuannuan finished speaking, Chi Zeyao smiled warmly. “Sure.”

The men from the Nangong family, “...”

So, how were they supposed to scare that pig trotter in Jiang District now?

“Then, go pack your things. We still have time anyway. Since we’re going by a private plane, it doesn’t matter if we take off a bit later.”

“Okay,” Chi Yuancheng and Chi Zeyao said in unison. Then, they happily turned around and went home to pack their clothes.

The men from the Nangong family, “...”

Nuannuan turned around only to see the resentful men from the Nangong family, led by Old Master Nangong.

"Eh? Grandpa, why is everyone looking at me like that? Don't you want Grandpa Chi and Second Uncle Chi to go to Jiang District?"

Looking at Nuannuan's innocent and adorable expression that screamed 'moe moe', the men of the Nangong family shook their heads.

"How could that be? Grandpa and Chi Yang's grandpa have been friends for decades. Why would I be unhappy about them tagging along?"

Although he hated Old Man Chi to the core, he still had to act like the kindest grandfather in front of his granddaughter.

Then, Nuannuan looked at her uncles and brothers.

Nangong Shu said, "Actually, we heard that Zeyao fell seriously ill yesterday. Nuannuan, isn't it bad to tire Chi Yang's second uncle with the journey? Shouldn't patients get more rest?"

"Uncle, you don't know how seriously ill Second Uncle is this time. To be frank, I wanted to tell Grandpa yesterday that I plan to bring Second Uncle along this time, but I thought that if Second Uncle left with me, Grandpa Chi would be alone at home. That's why I invited Grandpa Chi along."

"Hehe, I see. Then let's bring them along and we'll go there together. After all, our two families have a good relationship."

Nuannuan nodded happily and said, "Okay. Grandpa, Uncles, wait a moment. I'll go in and check on Grandpa Chi and Second Uncle Chi."

"Okay, okay." The Nangong family men nodded collectively.

It was only after Nuannuan entered that they collectively stopped smiling.

Seriously... The brighter the smiles on their faces, the tighter the knot was in their hearts!

However, Nuannuan was the little princess that they had taken great pains to acknowledge. They must not make Nuannuan think that the people in the family were petty and consequently, obstructing her from doing whatever she wanted.

However, Old Master Nangong jotted this down in the list of favors Old Master Chi owed him. Nangong Shu did the same on Chi Zeyao.

When Nuannuan returned to the Chi residence, Old Master Chi and Second Uncle Chi were asking the servants to help them pack up. Seeing Nuannuan enter, Chi Zeyao could not hide the smile that danced at the corners of his eyes.

"Nuannuan, you're long aware that your family doesn't want us to go to Jiang District, right?"

Chapter 1026: Obtaining Her Inheritance

Only then did Nuannuan retract her innocent look that reminded everyone of a little bunny and replaced it with a sly smile.

“Who wouldn’t know that the reason they’re heading to Jiang District is to cause Big Brother Chi Yang trouble? If Grandpa and Second Uncle come with us, it will save Big Brother Chi Yang some trouble. When you guys head over there, you must protect Big Brother Chi Yang!”

Old Master Chi and Chi Zeyao burst into laughter at the sight of Nuannuan who suddenly lost all sense of shame.

This girl was unbelievably adorable!

Thus, the Nangong family traveled with resentment hidden underneath their faces. As they chatted enthusiastically with Old Master Chi and Chi Zeyao, the group of people finally arrived at Jiang District.

Zhong Qianqian and the executor of Nangong Yu’s will from RS Bank arranged to meet in Room 4588 on the 45th floor of Lijing Mansion.

“Miss Zhong, you haven’t reached your 19th birthday yet. Are you encountering any problem for you to have summoned us here for the money, if I may ask?”

Zhong Qianqian’s face was pale. After the Gu family swept her out of the house like a broom yesterday, Zhong Qianqian thought things through. Now that her father, uncle, and mother had been arrested, the Jiang family and the Zhong family could be said to be completely finished. As for Cloud Group, there were barely a hundred million bucks invested into it. Even though she received another hundred million bucks through this will when she was 18 years old, the hundred million bucks had been allocated into Cloud Group.

Now that Cloud Group was under the military base’s supervision, she should never dream of getting her hands on it again.

Furthermore, she did not know how to manage a company. Even if she took over, she would only lose everything.

She might as well take the money and leave. This way, she would be able to lead a good life overseas after receiving the money from the will every year.

At this thought, Zhong Qianqian beamed at the final strand of hope for her future.

Suppressing the discomfort in her body, she told the RS Bank staff, “You’ve been supervising the finances of Cloud Group. I’m sure you know what happened to my father and uncle, right?”

The person-in-charge nodded. “Yes, Miss Zhong. We know that something happened to Cloud Group. They’re currently being supervised by the military.”

“My father is arrested, and I don’t want to stay in this sorrowful Camino anymore. I plan to develop my career elsewhere. My mother’s will states that if I run into any trouble, I have three chances to withdraw a hundred million at one go. Then, I’ll receive a hundred million on my birthday every year. However, the allocation will only end three years earlier due to my sudden withdrawal.”

The person-in-charge nodded. “Yes, Miss Zhong. The will did say so.”

Zhong Qianqian suppressed the excitement in her heart and asked, "I'm in trouble now. My father and stepmother's family have been arrested, and Cloud Group is also under someone else's supervision. I'm not cut out for business, so I think I've encountered a huge problem. Can I withdraw a hundred million in advance?"

The bank staff nodded without any hesitation. "Yes, Miss Zhong. This money was originally given to you by Ms. Pu Yu. As long as you show us the will, we'll run a DNA test according to the rules. As long as there's a match in your DNA, we can immediately get the bank to transfer you a hundred million immediately. However, after the transfer, the last time you receive money will be moved earlier to when you're 36 years old. Do you understand and agree?"

Zhong Qianqian nodded. "I understand and agree."

"Alright. Please show me the will."

Zhong Qianqian handed the will that she long prepared to the bank's person-in-charge. After the staff put a stamp on the will, he continued, "Now, we're going to collect your blood for a DNA test."

Chapter 1027: A Good Life

"The appraisal will take three hours. After the results are out, as long as Miss Zhong's DNA is 99.99% similar to Miss Pu Yu's, we'll immediately inform the bank to transfer a hundred million bucks to you. As the amount is huge and transnational, Miss Zhong will only see the money in your account exactly five days later. Are you aware of this, Miss Zhong?"

"Yes, I know. Let's draw blood."

Anyway, her DNA was the same as that b*tch Zhong Nuannuan, so she was not afraid to draw as much blood as they wanted.

After the staff extracted Zhong Qianqian's blood, he inserted the sample into the machine for the comparison immediately.

Since they had to do annual DNA tests, the banking system included a machine that could verify DNA. Although it would not be as accurate as those in the hospital, it was still very accurate.

At this moment, Zhong Qianqian's uneasiness had completely dissipated.

As long as RS Bank was willing to transfer the money to her this one time, she could leave immediately after receiving the money. Once she was overseas and out of Zhong Nuannuan's sight, no one would know about Pu Yu's inheritance.

This way, she would be able to claim a hundred million bucks annually.

Even if she was overseas, she would never have to worry about paying for food and drinks for the rest of her life.

Three hours passed in the blink of an eye, and the results were out.

“Miss Zhong, the DNA result is out. The result shows that your DNA is 99.99% similar to that of Madam Pu Yu’s, proving your relationship as mother and daughter. We already know about the difficulties that Cloud Group is encountering, and we believe that you’re currently dealing with a lot of difficulties. We’ll send the blood test results back to the headquarters now. After receiving the results, someone in the headquarters will transfer the money to you within five minutes.”

Zhong Qianqian suppressed the excitement in her heart and pretended to be calm, suppressing her sadness as she nodded. “Thank you very much. However, I have another question. After receiving this sum of money, I’ll go overseas. During my birthday next year, will you be able to go to the city where I live for the DNA test?”

The bank official responded to her question with respect. “Of course. You’re our esteemed guest. Therefore, we’ll definitely fulfill your request. As long as you call us 15 days before your birthday every year and tell us your location, we’ll be able to hand over your inheritance according to your request.”

“Really? That’s great. Please transfer the money to me now. The account has to be changed as well. Since my father and uncle are arrested, the money can’t be transferred to the previous account. This is a new account.”

“Okay, we’ll do it immediately.”

It was only then that Zhong Qianqian felt warmth returning to her limbs. In the past two days, when she was supposed to reach the climax of her life, she was suddenly plunged into hell by that b*tch, Zhong Nuannuan. She was so scared that she started to doubt the meaning of living.

Although she had not become the little princess of the Nangong family nor the young miss of the Gu family, she was grateful that she still had Pu Yu’s inheritance and could enjoy the two billion that Pu Yu left behind.

Of the two billion bucks, one hundred million had been invested into Cloud Group as capital, and another one hundred million had been taken out when she was 18 years old. It was also liquidated into Cloud Group’s capital, but at least she still had 1.7 billion bucks left. The 1.7 billion bucks were enough for her to afford a comfortable lifestyle for the rest of her lifetime.

‘Hmph, Zhong Nuannuan, that b*tch. So what if she’s found out about her origins? Does Zhong Nuannuan really think that I’ll lead a miserable life in the future?’

‘Sorry, but I, Zhong Qianqian, still have a bright future ahead of me!’

Chapter 1028: The Nangong Family Arrives

‘Even if I’m not as glamorous as you, slut, I already have so much money. I won’t do any worse than you! Most importantly, your mother left me this money! Hahahaha...’

Internally, Zhong Qianqian laughed maniacally at Nangong Nuannuan’s stupidity when she heard a knock on the hotel door.

Coincidentally, one of the bank employees left earlier. The person who was dealing with Zhong Qianqian thought that the employee had returned, so he asked someone to open the door.

Who knew that when the door opened, what entered his sight was Nangong Nuannuan and the Nangong family standing at the entrance, blocking the entire door.

“You’re...”

“Sorry, I’m afraid you’ll have to stop the transfer.”

Even though there was a curve that blocked the door from the living area, it did not affect the sound from traveling into Zhong Qianqian’s ears.

When the demonic voice reached her, Zhong Qianqian felt her body stiffen, and all the blood in her body started flowing in reverse.

Zhong Nuannuan!

It was that b*tch, Zhong Nuannuan!

How did she find out about this secret that had long been buried?

“Chase her out! Didn’t you say there was absolute privacy here? You...”

As Zhong Qianqian spoke, she rushed out the door, attempting to chase the people outside away.

She must not let Zhong Nuannuan destroy her last shred of hope!

However, when Zhong Qianqian rushed to the door and saw Zhong Nuannuan standing next to Old Master Nangong who was leading the Nangong family members, Zhong Qianqian’s legs felt like they were filled with lead. It felt like an invisible force wrapped its fingers around her throat, and her weight plunged into a deep abyss. Even her teeth started to chatter.

Bluntly speaking, Zhong Qianqian was just a simple-minded coward. She relied on Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Kuijun to support her, then, the Jiang family, and eventually, the Gu family.

However, in reality, she was just a little white flower that was utterly clueless—a little white flower dipping with poison.

In terms of her individual ability, she could not fight to save her life.

When she saw Zhong Qianqian, Nangong Nuannuan smiled. “Keep talking, won’t you? Does seeing my family terrorize you so much?”

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan reached out and patted Zhong Qianqian’s pale face, causing her to stagger backward a few times.

At that moment, Zhong Qianqian felt like she was an ant under Zhong Nuannuan’s feet, unable to retaliate.

“Are you employees of RS Bank under the Asset Management Department?” Nangong Nuannuan asked in fluent Luntanese.

“That’s right.” Bending under Nangong Nuannuan’s pressure, the staff member responded involuntarily.

At that moment, the person-in-charge walked out to check on the situation.

“What’s going on? Why did you...”

Before he could finish, he saw Nangong Qin, Nangong Yun, and Nangong Zheng behind Nangong Nuannuan.

These three were familiar faces from World Financial Times!

As an executive of RS Bank, he would definitely recognize the powerful people from all countries.

The person-in-charge was shocked. “Chairman Nangong? Why are you here? Is there a problem?”

The Nangong family was the top wealthy family in Camino after all. They were based in Emperor District. Scanning the entire room of similar-looking men, he could tell that the Nangong family had mobilized their entire force.

Why would these people show up for no reason? Upon hearing the words that came out from the girl who was in lead, he realized that this Miss Zhong must have provoked the Nangong family.

Nangong Qin cut to the chase. “Are you the person in charge of the Asset Management Department of RS Bank?”

Chapter 1029: You Promised Me Confidentiality

“Yes, Chairman Nangong. My name is Fleck.”

“Since you’re in charge, I’ll cut straight to the point. Did you receive Madam Pu Yu’s will, stating that before her daughter’s 18th birthday, a hundred million bucks should be allocated into starting Cloud Group? Starting from the age of 18, her daughter would receive a hundred million bucks from you every year until the two billion bucks she saved here was completely exhausted?”

The staff hesitated for a while before nodding.

“Yes, Chairman Nangong.”

“The standard prerequisite for the payment is that the ratio of their DNA compatibility must be the same every time you conduct a blood test, am I right?”

“Yes, Chairman Nangong.”

“Then, do you know that fourteen years ago, the person you’ve recognized has been changed?”

“What?” The person in charge was shocked.

“How’s that possible? No, no, no, no! That is impossible! We go through a detailed DNA test every time. Every time, we’ll draw some blood from Miss Zhong Qianqian’s arm and compare it with Madam Pu Yu’s blood. How can there be a mistake?”

“So, you’re telling me that you’ve never noticed that the girl you extracted blood from 14 years ago looks completely different from this Zhong Qianqian?”

“This... We once said that people’s faces will change, so Madam Pu Yu told us that no matter how they look, we have to compare their DNA with hers.”

“Then, are you aware that once they change their bone marrow, the DNA of this person’s blood and immune cells will change as well?”

“I...” The person in charge was shocked. None of them were aware of this possibility and it had never occurred to them.

“Zhong Qianqian once had leukemia when she was three years old, but she received Nuannuan’s bone marrow through transplant. From then on, Zhong Qianqian possesses the same DNA as Nuannuan. Nuannuan’s stepmother, Jiang Shuwan, swapped Zhong Qianqian and Nuannuan’s identities and sold Nuannuan to human traffickers. In the end, the person who received two hundred million bucks from you has always been Zhong Qianqian, this counterfeit!”

Zhong Qianqian felt as if all her strength had been sapped from her body. Her legs went limp and she fell to the ground.

“No, I’m not a counterfeit! She’s the counterfeit! Uncle, I’m the granddaughter of the Nangong family! Zhong Nuannuan is a vicious woman with an evil heart. She developed multiple skills overseas. She must’ve done something underhanded. Grandpa, Uncle, don’t listen to this woman’s slanderous words. She’s up to no good. She’s here to kill us and take revenge for herself!”

Zhong Qianqian cried as she tried to grab Nangong Qin’s pants. However, she was stopped by the bodyguards in black.

“To kill you? Unfortunately, she only wants to kill all of you. If she were to ask us to do it, we would’ve ordered a more painful death for you and strewn your ashes everywhere.”

Nangong Qin spoke very softly. Although he was not a big shot backed by the military and political bodies, he was a veteran of many battles in the business world. The murderous aura that emanated from his body scared Zhong Qianqian so much that she slumped on the ground like a pile of sludge.

That was it!

Everything was over!

Without money, how could she continue living?

No, she must not sit there and wait for death. She must fight for her life!

Now that she only had herself, she had to fight for it.

“I’m Pu Yu’s daughter. The DNA in my body is the same as Pu Yu’s. Aren’t you known as the most professional bank? Didn’t you promise confidentiality for your clients?”

Chapter 1030: What The Hell

“Then, why did you leak my information? I’m ordering you to chase them out now!”

Chase them out?

The bank staff looked at Zhong Qianqian like she was an idiot.

She probably did not understand who these people truly were, did she?

Not to mention the old master and the three military, political, and business big shots, even the six young masters standing next to them could cause chaos in Camino at will, could they not?

However, the bank staff did not dare to offend his client either.

“Miss Zhong, since Chairman Nangong has already raised his doubts, and you’ve accepted this lady’s...”

“Nangong Nuannuan. This is my granddaughter,” Old Master Nangong asserted.

The staff’s eyelids twitched.

If what the Nangong family said was true, they were the ones who made a mistake in their carelessness. Who knew what kind of accusations RS Bank would have to face?

The person in charge suppressed his fear and said, “Since you’ve accepted Miss Nangong Nuannuan’s bone marrow transplant, we need to re-examine your DNA.”

“Re-evaluate? How? You can’t expect me to show you a blood sample from when I was three years old, right? Let me tell you, there isn’t! Also, the one who underwent the bone marrow transplant wasn’t me, but her! Zhong Nuannuan! She’s not the daughter of the Nangong family, not one bit!”

Zhong Qianqian did not know what else to do. She could only struggle like a trapped beast.

Hearing Zhong Qianqian’s words, Nangong Nuannuan’s face cracked into a smile.

“What are you smiling at, Zhong Nuannuan? Do you feel smug that you have my bone marrow in your body? Do you think that means you can take over my family and do whatever you want?”

Nuannuan snorted and said sarcastically, “I’m laughing at you because you’re truly a flunkie.”

Zhong Qianqian, “...”

What did this have to do with her being bad in her studies?

The bank staff kindly explained, “Miss Zhong, it’s like this. A bone marrow transplant can indeed change a person’s blood cell DNA and immune cell DNA, but it can’t change a person’s somatic cell DNA. Previously, we didn’t know that you and Miss Nangong Nuannuan underwent a bone marrow transplant. We’re short on time here, and there’s no need for us to look for evidence from 14 years ago. Therefore, as long as we extract your somatic cells and test your DNA, we’ll know who is truly Madam Pu Yu’s daughter, between you and Miss Nangong.”

“Nangong Yu,” Old Master Nangong reminded the man. He did not like to think that his precious daughter used another surname, so he corrected the man. “Pu Yu isn’t her real name. Her real name is Nangong Yu, and she’s my biological daughter!”

At the mention of Nangong Yu, Old Master Nangong’s aura darkened. Even though he found his biological granddaughter, the death of his precious daughter was something that he would never be able to let go of.

The bank staff was taken aback again. He was also shocked by Pu Yu’s identity and the tragic encounter that she and her daughter might have experienced.

“Yes, Madam Nangong Yu.”

Zhong Qianqian was completely stunned.

“Somatic... Somatic cells DNA?” What was that?

“Then, I’ll have to trouble Miss Zhong and Miss Nangong to do a DNA test with us now, please.”

“What somatic cells? What nonsense are you talking about? You realize that they’re from the Nangong family, so you made up an excuse to not pay up, right? I’ll sue you!”

“Go ahead, then!” The bank staff could not put on a straight face any longer.

The Nangong family definitely did not need these two billion bucks. Yet, for them to come all the way to trouble Zhong Qianqian for this amount of money, they must have harbored some form of grudge toward her.
