

Physician Wife 1081

Chapter 1081: Action

“Sir, Leng Jinchen called.”

“Then, answer her call.” Then, the man currently on the phone with Ye Hai hung up.

As Ye Hai thought about how he would be able to turn the entire Emperor District upside down in the future, he could not help feeling the rising euphoria.

However, what he did not know was that his entire conversation had been bugged.

In a warehouse, Chi Yang, who was supposed to be in Jiang District, was currently with Ning Wenhao and a group of top-notch soldiers from Eagle, the best special forces from Emperor District. They were monitoring the weak radio waves through the satellite’s surveillance system.

Meanwhile, the person who was in charge of monitoring the radio waves was Dan Qi.

The conversation between Ye Hai and Scorpion resonated loudly in the warehouse.

Everyone held their breaths and focused. After Scorpion hung up, Nuannuan looked at Dan Qi and asked, “How’s that?”

Dan Qi’s fingers flew while his eyes focused on a completely black screen. Finally, when he tapped the Enter key, a red dot appeared on the computer screen.

“Found it.”

Dan Qi zoomed in on the screen. Soon, the map of Camino appeared, followed by the map of Emperor District, then the map of the northern district, and then...

The location on the map appeared to be within the campus grounds of Emperor District University.

Then, they zoomed in on the teachers’ apartment before finally, the exact number and floor.

“Go!”

After getting a good look at the place, Chi Yang, Nuannuan, Ning Wenhao, and the ten special forces soldiers from Eagle Special Forces leaped onto the Hummer outside as fast as they could. They silently drove toward a certain teachers’ apartment in Emperor District University.

Meanwhile, Aiden and Dan Qi got into another car and drove in the opposite direction.

When Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchen arrived at a villa area as requested, they were both stunned to see each other.

“Why are you here too?” they asked in unison.

“Did Ye Hai also captured Jiaxiang?”

Leng Jinjie asked, "Your Lil Feng is captured?"

Leng Jinchen hissed angrily, "He captured Lil Feng and Lil Tong, threatened me with their lives. He told me that I'll have to sell him all my shares. Otherwise, he'll kill my children! What about you?"

Leng Jinjie's eyes flickered. "You don't need to know what's going on with me. He threatened me too and wants me to transfer my shares to him."

"This ingrate is too much. Big Sister, do you think we should call the police or tell Big Brother about this? Big Brother will definitely help us."

Leng Jinjie looked at Leng Jinchen as if she was looking at an idiot. "Are you crazy?! Do you think that Ye Hai would still spare Lil Feng and Lil Tong's lives if Big Brother were to make a move? Are you out of your mind? Let me tell you this—if you want to call the police, wait for me to finish what I have to do first. Don't bring me down!"

With that, Leng Jinjie walked in with a dark expression on her face.

All the resentment in her heart piled up on Leng Jinpeng.

After all, if Leng Jinpeng never brought this ingrate back, the Leng family would never have been in this state.

Leng Jinchen was also afraid that the people from the military base would come. Ye Hai might get arrested if they did, but her son and daughter would be dead.

Therefore, after some thought, she could only walk in with an equally bleak face.

Ye Hai remained in the villa and he did not play any tricks on them. When he saw the two of them, he smiled and stood up politely.

"My two aunts, you're here! Please take a seat!"

"Ye Hai, what exactly do you want? No matter how badly we've treated you in the past, our Big Brother has always raised you like a son."

Chapter 1082: Thank You For The Praise

"If it weren't for him, would you be who you are today? Now that you have power, you actually turn around and attack the Leng family the first chance you get. Aren't you being too unkind?"

Ye Hai smiled and kept up an elegant pretense. "Aunts, I know your personalities very well and you know mine very well. Therefore, there's no need to reason with me with such righteous words. It's useless. The only useful thing here is your shares. Have you brought the necessary items?"

"How do I know whether you'd go back on your word after I sell my shares to you? Will you continue to hold those evidence against me?" Leng Jinjie asked the question she was most worried about.

Leng Jinchen finally realized that Ye Hai had something on Leng Jinjie.

"That's right, how would I know if you'd release our Lil Feng after I sell you the shares? Or how would I know if you'd keep capturing them to threaten me in the future?"

Ye Hai looked at the meanest Leng Jinchen and sneered, "After losing your shares, what else do you have that's worthwhile enough for me to fuss over?"

Seeing that Leng Jinchen choked on his words, Ye Hai shifted his gaze toward Leng Jinjie again. "That's the same reason I'll keep what I have on you with me. However, don't worry. Unless I really need you, I won't threaten you frequently with this matter."

"Ye Hai!" Leng Jinjie was furious.

"What kind of deal is this?"

Ye Hai smiled. "That's just how my deals are. You can choose to call the police or tell Leng Jinpeng but you should also know that I'm also someone who's working for someone else. If I'm caught, we will expose the truth on your matters and your children will die. Of course, if you choose not to cooperate with me, you'll end up that way too. So, do as you please!"

"Ye Hai, you're the Devil!" Leng Jinjie shouted angrily.

"Hehehehe, thank you for your praise, Eldest Aunt."

Leng Jinjie, "..."

"Okay, now transfer your shares to me."

"Then, I want to see my children being released first. What if you don't let them go after I leave?" Leng Jinchen was worried.

"Second Aunt, there's no need to come up with so many conditions. If you continue to bring them up, I'll get angry. Come, settle the paperwork quickly."

"Then, transfer the money to me first. According to the previous highest price, a single share in Leng Group costs 900 million. Transfer 13.5 billion to me first, and I'll transfer the shares to you."

Ye Hai and his men were busy dealing with the paperwork when they heard Leng Jinchen's words. Ye Hai turned to look at her in shock. "You think I'm buying your shares from you?"

Leng Jinjie was shocked. "Didn't you ask me to sell you all my shares?"

"When I said sell, I mean you're selling the shares to me while I give you your son and daughter. Of course, I can still give each of you ten million as a token."

Leng Jinchen and Leng Jinjie were both shocked, and Leng Jinchen started screaming.

"Ye Hai, don't cross the line! Let me tell you, if you piss me off, I'll call Big Brother right now!"

Leng Jinchen still wanted to say something, but Ye Hai had already called his men. When the call went through, the video of Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong crying and struggling in their bonds appeared on a different screen. They were both in extreme fear.

"Since Leng Jinchen is unwilling to sell her shares, chop off one hand each first."

"Yes."

Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong were so scared that they screamed. They kept repeating that Leng Jinchen would give up her shares for them.

Chapter 1083: Descended From The Heavens

Leng Jinchen screamed in fright, "Don't touch my children! I'll give you the shares! I'll give them up, okay?!"

However, Ye Hai did not say anything else. When the people on the other side of the line received the order, they placed one of Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong's hands on the table. A few of them held their bodies down while the other two chopped off their hands.

"Argh—"

Screams resounded in both the villa and in the video.

Leng Jinchen glared at Ye Hai with hatred in her eyes and roared, "I already told you that I'm selling! Why did you cut their hands off still?! You devil!"

However, Ye Hai replied coldly, "I told you. I don't like people setting more conditions. I'll give both of you one more minute. Sell your shares if you want to, otherwise, get lost."

This time, Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchen were really scared. They were afraid that Ye Hai would do what he said if he was unhappy. If that happened, they would be in trouble.

Although they were bleeding at their losses internally, Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchen had no choice but to 'give' Ye Hai their shares.

"I've given you the shares. You can let them go now, can't you?" The dam that held back the hatred in Leng Jinchen's eyes nearly burst.

"Sure."

Ye Hai then called his men and said, "Send Young Master Leng and Young Miss Leng back to Vice President Leng..."

Before he could finish, a deafening explosion came from the villa.

A huge hole appeared on the roof alongside the deafening boom.

After that, more than ten people dressed in the uniform belonging to the special forces rushed into the villa through the roof and the various entrances of the villa.

Ye Hai's eyes widened in disbelief.

"Arrest him! Arrest him! He forced us to sell our shares!"

Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchen shouted in unison.

However, Ye Hai and his men took out their guns and retaliated.

The Leng sisters were especially unlucky as they stood very close to Ye Hai. Not only did they not take the opportunity to escape in such an emergency, but they stood there, pointed at Ye Hai, and shouted. That gave Ye Hai an opportunity to take advantage of.

Once they ended their sentences, the two found themselves becoming Ye Hai's hostages.

"Put down your guns or I'll kill them!"

At this moment, Ye Hai was so scared that his legs nearly trembled. However, to ensure a successful escape, he could only persevere and roar at the special forces that incited such fear in him.

"Argh! Quick, put down your guns! Put down your guns!"

Leng Jinchen was scared out of her wits. She looked at the soldiers who surrounded Ye Hai with guns, afraid that they would anger a criminal who feared nothing like Ye Hai. If that happened, they would be in horrible trouble.

"I told you to put down your guns, did you hear me? I'll count to three. If you don't put down your guns, I'll kill one of them. If you don't, I'll kill another. One... Two..."

Leng Jinjie was furious that no one put down their guns.

"How dare you! Do you know who we are? We're the biological sisters to your Commander-in-chief Leng! If anything happens to us, all of you can forget about having a future in this lifetime. Put down your guns!"

"Three!"

Suddenly, an alluring female voice sounded, ending Ye Hai's count for him.

Following this voice, a graceful figure slowly sashayed in from the main entrance.

When he saw who the voice belonged to, Ye Hai tightened his grip on Leng Jinchen. He looked nervously at the woman who had once filled his dreams. Although memories of her still surrounded him, she was now the source of his nightmare.

Ye Hai plotted his entire life. However, one encounter with Selina was all it took for him and his grand schemes to fail in this woman's hand.

Chapter 1084: Argue And Fight

Ye Hai knew how capable this woman was in combat. The word 'terrifying' would be an understatement.

Selina was definitely a freak.

Later, after meeting Scorpion, Ye Hai realized that this woman was the one who destroyed KE's headquarters. She was ranked seventh among the top Rank-3S mercenaries and killers. When she was still in the organization, Master Scorpion ranked lower than her too.

Realizing that Ye Hai noticed her and gotten so scared that he forgot to count. Selina reminded him with a sneer, "I've counted to three for you. Go ahead and shoot!"

Ye Hai, "..."

"Who are you? Who are you to make him shoot us? Are you trying to kill us? Do you know who we are? We—"

Selina hated hearing Leng Jinchen's nonsense. Although she did not attend her Young Brother Leng's board meeting today, she watched the entire recording.

Young Brother Leng's two aunts were really annoying.

Since nobody from the Leng family was here, Selina picked up the lighter on the table and hit Leng Jinchen in the face.

Since Selina used too much force, not only was Leng Jinchen's face deflected to the other side, but even Ye Hai was too stunned to react. Seeing Leng Jinchen's head hitting the tip of his gun on her own, he subconsciously moved the gun back.

It was all it took.

Just as Ye Hai moved the gun back, Selina had already made her move—her bullet went through Ye Hai's right hand, where his gun was.

Another member of the special forces, who were standing by for battle, also sent a shower of bullets toward the other assassin holding Leng Jinjie, turning the assassin into a human sieve.

The gunfight started amidst the noisy arguments.

Selina's enchanting figure drew perfect arcs one after another in the small space. After more than 20 seconds, all the killers from KE died, leaving only Ye Hai.

Ye Hai had never witnessed something so grand before. He was so scared that he fell to the ground and held his head, not daring to get up at all. A puddle of liquid flowed out from under where he was kneeling. Selina was disgusted.

"Don't kill me! Don't kill me! Don't kill me!"

1

At that moment, Ye Hai was no longer as pretentious and moving elegantly as he used to be. His entire face was twisted in fear.

Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchen were also shocked. However, after realizing that Selina was on their side, they rushed to Ye Hai and landing punches and kicks on his body.

As far as the two women were concerned, Ye Hai was bold enough to threaten them. He should take a good look at who they were! To them, it had been proven that Ye Hai was a disgusting rat. No matter how powerful he got, he would never turn into a tiger.

Selina hated the two women, but Ye Hai was undeniably disgusting. She wanted to beat Ye Hai up, but she was afraid of stepping on his urine.

1

Therefore, Selina stood far away and did not stop the women from beating Ye Hai.

Unexpectedly, after hitting Ye Hai for a while, Leng Jinchun rushed toward Selina and raised her hand, preparing to slap Selina.

However, before Leng Jinchun could touch Selina, she was sent flying with a kick that landed on her stomach.

Leng Jinchun did not receive any injuries from Ye Hai, but she was injured twice within three minutes of meeting Selina.

Her face was swollen, and her internal organs gave her so much pain that it felt like they were displaced. Leng Jinchun struggled to sit up, but there was nothing she could do.

Looking at Selina, Leng Jinchun's eyes were spouting flames. She pointed at her and told Selina off, "Do... Do you know that I'm your boss's biological sister?"

Chapter 1085: Wicked Finds Wicked

"How dare you treat me like this? You... you're dead! I'll make sure you can't survive in the military!"

After that, Selina gave Leng Jinchun's shoulder another kick, dislocating her arm. Leng Jinchun lay on the ground in pain, unable to get up. Then, Selina finally responded, "Are you nuts? My superior? I'm the big boss of this group of people, and you're threatening me about surviving?! Idiot, you don't even know who I am and you dare cause such a ruckus. Why don't you continue to yell and find out if I'll really kill you? After all, I can always just blame Ye Hai if you die."

Leng Jinchun and Leng Jinjie were terrified.

After Selina finished telling Leng Jinchun off, the soldiers from the 'special forces' took off their helmets. Scanning their faces, Leng Jinchun and Leng Jinjie were aghast to find that none of them were from the military base. They were all Caucasians, and those murderous eyes reminded them of...

"My subordinates are all international mercenaries who kill without a word. If you have the guts, try shouting at me one more time!"

"Then... then... then why did you rescue us?" Leng Jinjie was still in disbelief.

After all, it was obvious that Selina and the gang were here to save them.

1

"That's because Leng Qirui is my boyfriend!"

When the two heard this, their eyes widened.

Hell!

So, this was Lil Rui's girlfriend!

For her to be so fierce to Leng Qirui's aunts before she even entered the Leng family, the two aunts decided that they would put the 'no' vote on her after going back!

However—

"Although I'm Leng Qirui's girlfriend, don't think of badmouthing me in front of the two elders of the Leng family or Uncle Leng. Otherwise, I'll let you know that Ye Hai chopping off Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong's hands just now was just a small matter to me. If the two elders of the Leng family or Uncle Leng don't like me, I'll first expose the terrible things that Pei Jicheng and Pei Jiaxiang did. Secondly, I'll chop off Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong's hands myself. So... a loose tongue causes trouble. Understand?"

"You... You wouldn't dare! You're just saying that to scare us! Murder is illegal!"

"Murder? Illegal? Then, I would've probably died more than a thousand times already. Just these bodies on the ground are enough to sentence me to jail for a long time."

Leng Jinjie, "..."

Leng Jinchun, "..."

They could not understand why Leng Qirui would find such a ferocious tigress as his girlfriend. Was he not afraid that he would not be able to control what happened next?

2

As the saying goes, the wicked would find someone equally wicked to torture them.

The two sisters who used to do whatever they liked in front of the grounded Leng Jinpeng—or rather, he gave in to them willingly—were suddenly akin to timid mice in front of the cat, Selina. Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchun no longer dared to speak.

Selina gave her subordinates a look. They grabbed Ye Hai and picked him up as if he was trash.

Then, they splashed three pails of cold water on his body.

Selina had no choice. Ye Hai peed all over himself and was too dirty by her standards.

After he was completely drenched, Selina finally kicked Ye Hai.

Ye Hai let out a blood-curdling scream as he crashed into the wall. He bounced back, but before he landed, he was sent flying by another kick.

Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchun were dumbfounded as they watched Selina, who was extremely strong, single-handedly tormented Ye Hai. Ye Hai, on the other hand, could not even focus his sight before flying away again.

Finally, after three kicks, Selina ended her warmup. After the two women from the Leng family thought that Selina was done beating Ye Hai up, a dagger danced 360 degrees as Selina toyed with it in her hand.. Under their horrified gazes, Selina stabbed her dagger into Ye Hai's right palm.

Chapter 1086: The End Of Ye Hai's Existence

"Argh!"

A tragic scream resonated.

This was not the end.

Accompanied by his scream, Selina pulled out her dagger and smiled seductively at Ye Hai like a demon from hell.

"The last time I sent you to prison was also my final warning to you. Yet, you still fail to know what is good for you and insist on following Scorpion to harm our Young Brother Leng. Do you know that even Scorpion doesn't dare provoke me?"

Really?

Ye Hai's face was covered in tears and snot. He did not know that! He only knew that Scorpion was afraid of confronting Selina and the rest.

"I'll let you off once, but you actually let someone beat our Young Brother Leng up into how he is right now. Not bad, huh?!"

After she finished speaking, Selina raised her hand and the dagger landed on its target once more. Following another round of screams, the two women from the Leng family watched as five or six holes opened up in Ye Hai's hands and legs. Not only that, Selina pulled out all the tendons on his elbows, wrists, ankles, and legs.

Although the two rich daughters were vicious, they never had to witness such a bloody scene before. They were so frightened that they fainted.

When they woke up, they were surrounded by a whole house of dead bodies. Other than the killers who died earlier, Ye Hai's death was the scariest.

There was not a single piece of skin intact on his body, as if someone had skinned him alive.

Not only that, many things that looked like branches appeared on Ye Hai's body. Under their scrutiny, only then they realized that they were the tendons from various parts of his body.

Leng Jinjie, "..."

Leng Jinchun, "..."

The two screamed and rushed out of the villa.

Simultaneously, as Selina made her move, the special forces had already surrounded the entire teachers' apartment.

This building had seven floors, and Scorpion was on the third floor.

To avoid alerting the enemy, Scorpion held the teachers and their family members from Emperor District University as hostages.

Therefore, Chi Yang and Ning Wenhao rushed in first, followed by Chi Yang's ten top soldiers from Eagle. Then, the normal special forces soldiers rushed in and blocked every door.

Meanwhile, Nangong Nuannuan stood outside, her eyes looking at the third floor. She had no intention of entering.

Scorpion reacted very quickly. The moment the special forces jumped out of the car, Scorpion had already made his move.

Unfortunately, although Nuannuan could see Scorpion, she could not attack him.

However, with Nuannuan's X-ray vision, Chi Yang was able to receive first-hand news on Scorpion immediately.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, go up to the fourth floor. He has already climbed up to the fourth floor through the ventilation duct."

Chi Yang, who was already on the second floor, heard Nuannuan's voice and quickly ran to the fourth floor.

Ning Wenhao followed Chi Yang without a word.

"There is a secret passage on the fourth floor that leads to another room. He's now in Room 3 on the fourth floor.

"There's a vent over there. I can see it. It leads to the fifth floor."

Chi Yang immediately ordered, "Scorpion is on the run. Break into Room 1 on the third floor and distract him."

As expected, when someone knocked open the door to the third floor, Scorpion sensed the noise and glanced in the direction where the third floor was, and a mocking smile appeared on his lips.

Since it was a teachers' building, some of the teachers rented out their houses for students to live in, so the place was crowded with people. Furthermore, they finally waited until the sun came out in the winter. Therefore, many of them put their things out to dry.

Since it was a school dormitory, people sometimes renovate and build while disregarding the supposed distance between each building. To allow more teachers to stay in the teachers' dormitory...

Chapter 1087: Escape

Originally, only seven buildings could be built in this area. After obtaining all the teachers' signed agreements, a total of ten buildings were built. Therefore, the distance between each building was not very spacious. It was, in fact, very narrow.

There was not enough space in the courtyards to dry blankets, so all the households had to stretch out their wide awnings to dry their things.

Coincidentally, Room 3 of this building was very close to Room 1 of the other building. Therefore, after Scorpion escaped to Room 3 on the fifth floor, he extended the tool that he prepared earlier and leaned it against the window of Room 1, which was one floor below him in the adjacent building. Then, he quickly slid over.

Since there were many shade roofs, covered racks, and clothes, no one noticed a living person flying through the air.

After Scorpion escaped over to the other side, he leaped into Room 1 of the adjacent building.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, come down quickly. He has already escaped to the building behind us. I'll go after him."

"Nuannuan, be careful!"

As Nangong Nuannuan ran at an inhuman speed, she smiled and said, "Don't worry, he's just a small fry. Since I've already set my eyes on him, there's no way he can escape."

Just like that, Scorpion moved from the fifth floor of the first building to the fourth floor of the second building, and then to the third floor of the third building. This time, Scorpion managed to slip out of the special forces' encirclement and beyond their sight. Only then did he jump down from the third floor effortlessly as if he simply closed in on a distance of two meters. After landing, he merely rolled on the ground briefly.

On the first floor, there was a small courtyard surrounded by a fence. Inside the courtyard were a briefcase, a stack of books, and a pair of thick glasses.

Scorpion put on the glasses and fished out a detachable beard from a box next to him. He stuck the beard on his face before holding the book in his left hand and the briefcase in his right.

Even if the worst happened with the special forces on his tail, as an experienced killer, Scorpion was not afraid at all.

He opened the door to the courtyard and closed it behind him. Then, he turned around and locked it with his key. After placing the key inside his briefcase, he slowly walked to a Santana 2000 parked in front of the door. After inserting the key into the car lock and opening the door, he pretended to be interested in what was going on around him. As he opened the door, he studied the soldier who had turned around to scrutinize this man in glasses. His eyes were filled with suspicion.

Since the main attacking force was led by Chi Yang, the general of Eagle Special Forces, this soldier from the special forces admired and believed him with his entire existence. He did not expect the Rank-3S terrorist that they wanted to capture would be standing in front of him.

Not only was the terrorist sizing him up, he even put on a casual face as he asked curiously, “What happened? Why are the riot police here?”

The soldier wanted to roll his eyes.

Which part of his professional uniform was similar to that of the riot police?

This person looked like a university professor, too. He had zero common sense.

“We’re working a case here. All unrelated personnel, please leave quickly to avoid any accidental injuries.”

When the man heard that they were dealing with a case and that they might accidentally get injured, he immediately turned around and placed the book and bag in the back seat. Then, he opened the door, got in, started the car, and prepared to leave.

They said educators were supposed to be role models. One glance at the man and you could tell that he was cowardly and afraid of death.

As the saying goes, a cunning rabbit has three burrows. Scorpion was glad that he had been extremely careful everywhere he went all these years. That was the only reason he managed to turn the danger he faced into safety.

If he had not planned his escape route first thing after coming here...

Chapter 1088: Crash

If Scorpion had not gotten someone to buy the houses that he wanted to escape from and made ample preparations in each of them, he might not have been able to come out alive today.

After all, even though the people who had come to capture him were only ordinary special soldiers, nobody could really know if there were more abnormal beings like Chi Yang among them.

He wondered who was so powerful to be able to break through Seville’s firewall.

After all, Seville was the second most powerful hacker in KE Organization after Dan Qi. He deciphered the codes to countless secret military operations in various countries.

Seville’s hacking skills were so good that even someone as intelligent as Queen would never be able to achieve. Scorpion truly had no idea how the military managed to break through Seville’s firewall.

Wait!

Scorpion suddenly shuddered in a chilling realization.

Since KE targeted Chi Yang frequently recently, Viper sent Seville over to Camino so that he could focus on monitoring Chi Yang. At the same time, Seville was supposed to set up a hacker-proof firewall network to protect Scorpion. As long as someone tracked him down, Seville would notice immediately.

However, someone broke through the firewall so easily, but Seville was not aware of it.

That could only mean that... Chi Yang managed to slip through his surveillance without him knowing?

Recalling what Viper told Scorpion before, he remembered hearing that Chi Yang's fiancée was the all-powerful Queen. Meanwhile, Dan Qi had always been so close to Queen. So, could it be...

Scorpion no longer dared to let his mind wander down that path.

If that was the case, would he not be in danger?

Initially thinking that he was safe, Scorpion's expression changed drastically. He slammed a foot on the gas pedal while pulling the door shut at the same time, attempting to escape as fast as he could.

Although, perhaps, it was possible that after his successful physical fitness conversion, his current strength was supposed to be comparable to a top-tier Rank-3S mercenary—he could probably join the ranks of the top ten.

However, he was still instinctively afraid of Queen, who had once been on par with King.

Suddenly—

Bang!

A bullet hit the door without mistake. If Scorpion had not retracted his hand at the highest speed, his hand would have been blasted into a hole.

In that split second, Scorpion quickly realized that the person who fired the gun had caught up to him. Shocked, he hurriedly stepped on the accelerator and left.

“Go away!”

As Nangong Nuannuan screamed, she chased after the car even faster than the car had just accelerated. Simultaneously, she fired at the gas tank of the car.

The soldier from the special forces was shocked when he realized what happened. He immediately shouted, “Spread out! Spread out!”

Scorpion took a look at the rearview mirror and realized that it was Nangong Nuannuan. He was so horrified that his legs turned to jelly.

At that moment, a bad premonition started rising in his heart.

Oh, no!

It was Queen!

That lunatic of a woman!

The person who broke through Seville's firewall must be Dan Qi.

Why must such miserable incidents happen to him?

He was already so well-hidden, yet he was still caught.

At this moment, Scorpion regretted saving Ye Hai.

He must have aroused Queen's suspicion by saving Ye Hai.

If he had known that this would happen, he would rather be short of money than targeting Leng Qirui. It was beyond his wildest dreams for Queen to love Chi Yang so much. Not only did she care about him, but she also extended her protection to the son of the man who Chi Yang befriended for ages.

Bang!

Seeing that Queen aimed her gun at him, Scorpion did not dare to hesitate and twisted the steering wheel immediately.

The bullet that was aimed at the gas tank damaged the gas tank cover before ricocheting to the side.

Nangong Nuannuan narrowed her eyes, raised her gun, and aimed at Scorpion's head.

Chapter 1089: Fear

When Scorpion saw Nangong Nuannuan raise her gun at him without another word, he was frightened out of his wits. He quickly swerved to the other side again.

However, it was only a feint by Nuannuan. The moment the car swerved to the side, the fuel tank was exposed to Nuannuan.

To tell the truth, the moment he swerved to the side, Scorpion knew that he was done for.

With Queen's ability, the moment the car swerved to the side, she would have shot his car window. However, despite swerving, the window remained intact.

Initially, Scorpion was prepared to drive the car into a crowd. Although Queen was a demoness who could kill without batting an eye, her engagement to someone who was burdened with protecting innocent bystanders like Chi Yang, she would at least be considerate toward those bystanders, right?

Furthermore, this was a school campus and one of the best educational institutions in Camino.

Therefore, if he drove the car into the crowd, Scorpion was sure that Queen would let him go first before attempting to recapture him later to avoid creating more collateral damage.

However, what he did not expect was that as the car had just started and his gas pedal barely touched the ground, Queen managed to land two hits on the gas tank.

The first time, she smashed the lid of the fuel tank. The second time, Scorpion jumped out of the car in fear of Queen when he heard the gunshot.

Reality proved that he made the right choice.

That was because the moment he jumped out of the car, the bullet had accurately hit the gas tank.

A spark started to catch in the oil tank.

Amidst screams from the bystanders, the car exploded with a boom.

The massive shockwave sent Scorpion flying.

The soldier from the special forces relaxed and thought that Scorpion would be severely injured even if he did not die in the explosion. However, the man who just got blown up into the air raised a machine gun and blasted a string of machinegun shots at the special forces soldier and Nuannuan.

If you were wondering why the soldier did not notice that Scorpion had a machine gun on him, that was because the gun was hidden inside the car since the beginning.

The special forces soldier's reaction was still a beat too slow. Since he failed to anticipate Scorpion possessing such a lethal weapon—what more expecting Scorpion to open fire at them while he was blown up—the soldier froze in shock.

“Be careful!”

When Nuannuan saw this, she quickly pounced on him and pushed him to the ground. Then, she immediately steadied herself and rolled in the opposite direction once more. Taking advantage of the brief moment when the special forces soldier was on top of her, she sent some force to her feet and kicked him into the bushes at the side.

At the same time that the soldier from the special forces was sent flying, Nuannuan's hands were equally occupied. She fired a shot at Scorpion's finger.

With the series of movements combined, Nuannuan saved the soldier's life by protecting his head from getting shot. Simultaneously, Nuannuan shot Scorpion's index finger that he used to pull the trigger.

Even if Scorpion could not feel pain, it would be inconvenient for him to shoot without his index finger.

Although Scorpion was vicious and cruel, he was terrified too!

Viper did not dare to publicize the fact that Queen was Chi Yang's fiancée. Other KE killers did not know, but as Viper's direct subordinate, Scorpion did.

Facing Queen in a one-on-one fight put him under the same pressure as facing King.

If not for the respect he had for Queen and leaped out of the car the moment Queen made her move, no matter how much strength he had in his body, he would have been blown into pieces then. There would be so little left of his body that it would be nigh impossible to piece anything back.

Chapter 1090: Scared

However, even though Scorpion managed to escape this calamity, hundreds and millions of curses stacked on top of each other in his heart.

Nuannuan merely fired three times in total. Between the three, one destroyed his fuel tank while another destroyed his finger.

He had reason to believe that if that was Nuannuan's wish, it would have been his head that exploded instead of his finger.

Scorpion plunged toward a cluster of grass. He quickly flipped to the other side and hid behind a rock. On one hand, he could use the rock as a cover. On the other hand, he could think of a way to hold someone hostage and escape.

Coincidentally, a teacher from Emperor District University was near him. Scorpion quickly reached out to pull her over.

The teacher was already scared out of her wits. Her knees shook uncontrollably after the explosion, and she could barely stand up. Seeing the man extending his hands at her, she could only scream.

Unexpectedly, the large rock that the scorpion leaned against moved suddenly. Just as he was about to grab the female teacher, the rock collapsed toward him.

Scorpion did not know that Chi Yang was the one who sent the rock at him. He only thought that this was truly his unlucky day—days when water would have gotten caught between his teeth if he drank. Frightened, he quickly jumped away.

However, a long, slender leg was already sweeping toward him.

Scorpion knew that he could not escape. When he saw that it was Chi Yang who attacked him, a light flashed across Scorpion's eyes instantly.

If he could kill Chi Yang here, it would be worth it even if he died.

As Viper's right-hand man, that was the thought that Scorpion had. He no longer worried for his own life, and chose to bring Chi Yang down with him too.

Therefore, when Chi Yang's foot swept toward him, Scorpion immediately blocked it with his arm. Meanwhile, his other hand held a grenade with the safety pin already pulled. He swatted the grenade at Chi Yang.

With that throw, Scorpion was convinced that there was at least a ninety percent chance of him succeeding.

Unexpectedly, as a successful result of their experiments, Scorpion's strength skyrocketed from being an ordinary Rank-S killer to a top Rank-3S killer. In terms of pure strength, Scorpion was definitely more powerful than normal top-notch killers.

He thought that his fortified strength and tendons were enough to fight Chi Yang.

Much to his dismay, Scorpion blocked Chi Yang's attack with his arm, thinking that he could shield himself from the attack while throwing the grenade over. Before he could even dream about reaching the top of Chi Yang's head, Chi Yang's kick sent Scorpion flying.

Meanwhile, the grenade was sent flying into the sky by Chi Yang without batting an eyelid. A deafening explosion boomed across the area.

As for Scorpion, he landed heavily on the stone block that he tried using as a cover just now. Just when the bystanders thought they would hear a painful thud of meat slapping onto a hard surface, they were stunned to discover that the stone block—one made from real stone—had been crushed.

Crushed!

However, the man who crushed the rock merely landed on the ground for less than a second before crawling to his feet, getting ready to run without another care for this world.

He rushed through the crowd and abandoned the thought of getting a hostage.

Everyone, "..."

They must be watching a scene from some fantasy show, right?

At that moment, all the members of the special forces had rushed over and immediately evacuated the teachers and students on campus.

Meanwhile, Nuannuan and Chi Yang dashed in the same direction Scorpion was headed.

Ning Wenhao and another ten creme-de-la-creme among the Eagle Special Forces followed behind Chi Yang. Logically speaking, they were all top-notch mercenaries. Even if they could not match up to their Big Boss' speed, there should not be such a huge difference!

Why did it feel like their Big Boss seemed to be getting faster and faster?

It felt like he was about to go beyond the limits of humanity...
