Chapter 1091: Captured

The speed of the three people ahead of the soldiers became more and more frightening as they ran. The distance between those three and the ones running after them was getting bigger and bigger.

The soldiers tried their best to catch up to those three at their highest speed while clutching onto their weapons, but not even Ning Wenhao could close in on half the distance.

The soldiers from the special forces were rendered speechless.

Seeing that Scorpion's speed was about the same as Big Brother Chi Yang, Nuannuan said to Chi Yang, "Big Brother Chi Yang, take your time. I'll intercept him first."

Scorpion noticed that he was about to leave the school grounds. Once they left the school, they would be on the road. With the chances of his survival greatly increasing after crossing the school gate, he was secretly glad that he agreed to be experimented on and gain such an inhuman speed. Even Queen and Chi Yang could only manage to maintain the same speed at best.

If this continued, his enemies' stamina would be depleted, but he could rely on his newly obtained body constitution to maintain his current speed for at least an hour without depleting his stamina.

It was only a matter of time before he got rid of them.

Just as Scorpion rejoiced, he felt a burst of pressure closing in on him. He snapped his head to the back for a quick peek, nearly gotten himself petrified on the spot.

Queen suddenly sped up like the speed of a suddenly accelerating sports car with the highest specification possible. In the blink of an eye, she appeared in front of Scorpion and sent him flying backward with a kick.

Scorpion knew he was finished.

He raised the gun in his hand, ready to make his last stand, but a card came slicing at his wrist at a much higher speed.

Even though the tendons and ligaments on his body were different from ordinary people now, the impact from this card was just too great—it cut off a small part of his wrist.

Nangong Nuannuan was surprised.

Under normal circumstances, the amount of force she exerted on the throw could have easily cut off two heads. However, even though she mustered up her greatest force in throwing this card, it merely cut off a small part of her target's hand.

At the same time, a knife flew toward Scorpion, following up on Nuannuan's card and cutting off Scorpion's whole hand.

Although it did not hurt, Scorpion's heart turned cold when he saw the empty space below his arm, where his wrist was supposed to be.

Viper wanted to kill both Chi Yang and Queen. Was this... really possible?

To think that he, a top Rank-3S killer, was powerless against the duo. Against them, Scorpion was no different from an ant. It felt like there was nothing he could do but getting horribly beaten.

In any case, death was the only outcome even if they captured him. Therefore, Scorpion performed a feint as fast as he could while popping a poisonous pill into his mouth.

Yet, he suddenly realized that death had become a luxury when dealing with these two monsters.

The moment he threw the pill into his mouth, both Nuannuan and Chi Yang worked together tacitly. Chi Yang did not move, but his hand pinched at the air while everyone's attention was elsewhere. Scorpion, who was about to bite down on the poison, realized that his lower jaw was no longer under his control. It could not bite down on his lower jaw and the poison rolled out of his mouth.

Scorpion, "..."

The next moment, he was horrified to see Queen popping up in front of him. She stabbed a needle into the middle of his forehead.

Scorpion thought that he was about to die, but it was an indescribable pain that took over his senses, originating from his waist and wrist.

Why did this hurt?

The bug was Master Viper's most precious treasure. After giving it to him, the bug had completely fused with Scorpion's body. From then on, he could no longer feel pain. His strength and body's flexibility increased manyfold.

Chapter 1092: Killing In Style

Yet, what was the meaning of this painful sensation coming from his entire body?

Scorpion thought about the needle that Queen had inserted into his head.

Scorpion's eyes widened in shock.

No way...!!!

The intense pain nearly crushed Scorpion. Before Nuannuan and Chi Yang could do anything else, Scorpion had already curled up and collapsed to the ground, moaning in pain.

Ever since he went through the experiment, he no longer felt pain. Now that pain from every inch of his body overwhelmed him so suddenly, how was he supposed to endure it?

Thinking that Queen was not paying attention to him, Scorpion raised his left hand and removed the needle from his forehead.

He thought that after removing the needle, the bug in his brain could resume its function.

Unfortunately...

"I've frozen the bug in place," Nuannuan bent down and whispered into Scorpion's ear.

Scorpion widened his eyes in disbelief.

How did Queen know about the experiment? Did King tell Queen about this?

How could this be?

An armored vehicle arrived at the most impeccable timing. Chi Yang ordered, "Capture him."

"Yes!"

The capture was very sudden and it took place on such a large campus.

It was a military operation—the most confidential and authoritative military operation in Camino—with many witnesses. Yet, many fearless ones recorded videos of the incident. All thanks to drones and their surveillance, they managed to find the students or teachers and got them to delete all videos and photos.

The chancellor of Emperor District University also gathered these people together and taught them how to think. If anyone caught wind of any bad comments about this, thus causing the criminals to be slip through the nets of justice, the Chancellor would have all of them expelled or fired. It was not a joke.

Therefore, even though this matter had caused quite a stir in every corner of Emperor District University, it quickly died down.

While Nuannuan and Chi Yang worked together to capture Scorpion, Aiden and Dan Qi also inched closer to where KE's top hacker was.

There were more than 20 computers installed in Aiden's car with no less than 30 windows on each computer. Each screen had a red dot on it, and Dan Qi had been sitting at the computer, controlling it.

Dan Qi's fingers flew across the keyboard at a speed that could be seen with the naked eye. A blue dot appeared beside one of the windows' red dots, like a gluttonous snake. The two dots blinked a few times before the red dot disappeared. He closed the window.

After that, the blue dot quickly reappeared in the second window, consumed the red dot, and closed.

After three red dots disappeared, an extra red dot appeared on another interface.

However, no matter how fast the red dot increased, the blue dot would still destroy the red dot at a speed that was more than twice as fast.

When Aiden arrived at a central street area in the northern area of the city with Dan Qi's instruction, many of the computers had already been shut down, leaving only the main computer with more than 20 windows left.

These twenty or so windows displayed images of different places in this area.

20 images became 10, 5, 3...

Finally...

As soon as Dan Qi finished speaking, Aiden and Dan Qi, who were prepared, got out of the car gracefully.

One of them looked suave in a custom-made British suit. Meanwhile, the other looked clean and neat in his school sports uniform and a backpack.

The two of them were both extremely good-looking foreigners, attracting a lot of attention when they suddenly walked into the old alley.

Chapter 1093: Chi Yang's Eagle

Both Aiden and Dan Qi looked like tourists who came visiting from overseas, strolling into the old alley and harmoniously blending into the scenery.

Even though this alley was not easy to find, there were many good places and small bars inside. As the saying goes, the smell of good alcohol travels across the darkest alleys. Many tourists still managed to find their way here.

Behind the alley were a few small courtyard houses. Even though they were not big, the houses were shockingly expensive.

Aiden and Dan Qi walked over to one of the courtyards and looked at the electronic door lock. Dan Qi scanned it with his computer and the image of an electronic door lock appeared on his tablet. After that, his fingers fluttered over the tablet before reading a few numbers out loud. Aiden keyed in the numbers and the door opened.

In the courtyard, a foreigner sat leisurely and was basking in a gongfu tea ceremony. His gaze was locked onto his target—Chi Yang.

At this instant, Chi Yang was in training alongside those soldiers in the special forces in the fields in Jiang District. Everything was going well with Scorpion's side too. Since there was not much for him to do, he fell in love with the Camino's gongfu tea ceremony.

However, just as Seville relaxed, the door suddenly opened.

Seville was stunned.

When he saw that Dan Qi was among the people who went through the door, he instantly felt uneasy.

After that, a massacre took place in the courtyard.

Dan Qi had always known about Seville. Rumors had it that Seville was second only to Dan Qi in KE.

Although he never admitted it.

However, since this person was granted such a title, nobody could blame Dan Qi for being ruthless. After all, the existence of such a person would bring many inconveniences to their lives in the future.

Big Boss had already announced that if they wanted to destroy KE, they must ensure that KE was annihilated.

They would never let King live under their watch.

Aiden and Dan Qi, a gentleman and an innocent youth, murdered their enemies in a civilized manner.

Coupled with Dan Qi's many mechanical inventions, it did not take long for all 5 people in the house to be dead. There was no sound of gunfire from the courtyard.

Most of them were shot in the head or the heart and died immediately.

Although Seville was second only to Dan Qi in terms of hacking, he was not even one-tenth as strong as Dan Qi in terms of combat strength. He was just a Rank-3A killer. To Dan Qi, Seville was just a noobie.

After the duo killed everyone, Aiden dragged the men into a room that was rarely used. Then, he diligently cleaned up the place.

Meanwhile, after everyone died, Dan Qi sat on the chair that Seville sat on earlier. He cleaned the teapot and teacups, boiled some water, and made tea. Then, he took out a tablet and continued to watch the drama that he had been binging.

From now on, the two of them might have to live here for a while until Viper contacted Seville.

Chi Yang brought Scorpion back to Eagle's headquarters. This was also the first time Chi Yang returned to his base in the past six months.

Eagle Special Forces Unit was the most unique unit among the special forces in Camino.

He had the least number of people among the units in the military base. However, with all the elites of the military base combined and multiplied by 10, they were still not as powerful as this special forces unit.

Anyone lucky enough to become a soldier in the special forces had the ultimate dream of joining Eagle Special Forces.

That was because the members of this team were all carefully selected soldiers from among the special forces.

They were the best of the best.

It would not be an exaggeration to claim that they were the most vital unit in protecting Camino. Neither would it be an overstatement to say members of Eagle would always be present at any major military missions in which countering, crackdowns, and the rest were involved.

Chapter 1094: Recognition

There were less than ten thousand members in this unit, but they formed the unit that the president had the highest hope for. In the past, the commander of this special forces team was Chi Yuancheng. Later on, it became Chi Zehao, who later passed it on to Chi Yang.

The three generations of the Chi family were all commanders of Eagle, which showed how much trust the president had in the Chi family.

Here, no one was allowed to enter the headquarters without the president's signature.

Eagle Special Forces set up base in a mountain range on the outskirts of Emperor District. Hundreds of miles within this mountain range were all under Eagle's control.

In spite of their small numbers, they had soldiers who specialized in various fields.

The army consisted of infantry, artillery, armored soldiers, engineering soldiers, chemical defense soldiers, and communications soldiers. The air force had soldiers who specialized in aviation, missile, and anti-aircraft artillery. Meanwhile, they also had soldiers who specialized in naval aviation and marines. Eagle was all-encompassing.

To most special forces units, it would be sufficient for their soldiers to be specialized in one particular field. However, Eagle members were the best among various military bases—each of them was one in a million. Almost all the First Sergeant in Camino were born from here. Therefore, all soldiers here were required to master all basic operations at sea, on land, and in air, and everyone had to be proficient in at least three types of combat methods.

Every year, the members of Eagle Special Forces would undergo an extremely strict test. If they failed the test, they would have to return to the military base from whence they came and retrain themselves before they could sit for Eagle's entry test again.

As for the subjects they would be tested on, their commander, Chi Yang, made the decision.

When it came to this insanely powerful commander, all the members of Eagle Special Forces only had one word for their Boss, in bold letters—recognition.

Under Chi Yang's leadership, Eagle Special Forces' overall strength grew at a terrifying speed. In merely a few years, they became the center of focus by various countries.

The car drove deeper into the mountain range. Even Chi Yang had to go through checkpoints after checkpoints before he could drive into the headquarters.

As a lieutenant general, Chi Yang's rank was the same as Leng Jinpeng's. However, to the military base that they reported to, Chi Yang's Eagle Special Forces Unit answered directly to the president. They were the most important team in the entire Camino. It would not be wrong to say that Chi Yang's rank as a lieutenant general had greater value than Leng Jinpeng's rank as a lieutenant general.

However, the Commander-in-chief's department did not exist here. Since it was a special forces unit, the highest command center was the combat headquarters.

The prison was located next to the combat headquarters.

Eagle's detainment was reserved for the most dangerous criminals—the kind where it was reasonable to worry if they would blow up the prison and escape. Furthermore, most of the criminals here were wanted extremely dangerous people on international Red Notices.

Nuannuan looked at the changing scenery in front of her, recalled something, and suddenly frowned.

Although Chi Yang was looking straight ahead, his senses were constantly on his wife.

After all, this was his wife's first time coming to the place he spent most of his life at. Therefore, he hoped that she would like this place too.

Sensing that his wife was frowning, Chi Yang quickly asked, "Nuannuan, what's wrong?"

Nuannuan paused. "Big Brother Chi Yang, I remembered something."

"What?"

"You said that from the beginning until now, Eagle has had three commanders and one acting commander. Other than Uncle Leng who took over the position of acting commander temporarily after your father passed away, the remaining three commanders were your grandfather, your father, and you?"

Chi Yang nodded. "What's the problem?"

Chapter 1095: K-E5

"I never understood what KE meant, but I do now. 'Kill Eagle.'"

Chi Yang's eyes narrowed.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, it's obvious that KE has a grudge against the Chi family. Do you know what kind of grudge it is?"

Chi Yang shook his head. "I don't know, but I've always known what KE meant because KE has been going against our Chi family since 20 years ago. However, at first, we thought that they simply wanted to destroy our country's top special forces. However, later on, I vaguely felt that they have a grudge against our Chi family."

Nuannuan was silent.

It seemed like even Big Brother Chi Yang did not know what kind of hatred it was that could last for more than 20 years. Perhaps only Grandpa would know about this.

However, for Grandpa to have never told Big Brother Chi Yang about it, it could only mean that it was top secret.

Chi Yang patted Nuannuan's head. "Not only do they have a grudge against the Chi family, they also have a grudge against the Nangong family."

Nuannuan nodded. "In the past, I also thought that they captured my mother, me, and Ling'er just to obtain the Nangong family's supernatural abilities. However, after that time on KYC Island, I found out that they also had a grudge against the Nangong family. Otherwise, they wouldn't have wanted the Nangong family's young masters to leave their lives behind in Velmina."

Nuannuan was stunned. "What kind of expression is that?"

The moment she asked, she recalled something.

She never told him about what had happened after she was kidnapped, but she mentioned Matchmaker. Now, she linked her own mother and Lil Ling'er's matter together. Was this not the same as... exposing herself?

Oh, well. Forget it. She had no plans of hiding this from Big Brother Chi Yang anymore anyway. Moreover, she believed that even if Big Brother Chi Yang found out about it, he would keep it a secret for her.

As for the others, so what if they knew?

The fact that Nangong Nuannuan dared to stand so brazenly under the sun meant that she was confident that her enemies did not have any evidence to prove her real identity.

Without evidence, she could easily deny any allegations.

She did not know if there would be any evidence in the future, but if anyone dared to bring up any form of proof, she would make sure that they would not see the sun anymore.

With a cheat like Dan Qi around, even if evidence existed, he could get rid of this evidence easily.

Chi Yang was 100% tolerant of his wife's clumsiness in his presence. Afraid that she would overthink this, he shook his head and said, "Nothing. I think you're right. So, after the giant explosion and everything that happened on KYC Island, I went through the military files from 20 years ago. 20 years ago, my dad's Eagle Special Forces joined hands with your Eldest Uncle's three field armies to launch a fatal attack on King, the leader of KE, when they entered the country.

"King was killed in the explosion while all of KE's higher-ups were killed. The impact from that battle could be said to have sent the entire international scene trembling, greatly elevating our country's military position at the international level."

"Then, the current King..."

"Rumors had it that it's his son. His son inherited his father's career, but no one's seen what King looks like now. He's more cunning and cruel than his father."

"Then, do you know how old was King when your dad killed him?"

"According to your Eldest Uncle, King was about the same age as my dad. When King died, he was probably only in his thirties."

Nangong Nuannuan, "...!!!"

King died in his thirties and left behind a son. If his son had just been born then, his son would only be 20 years old now. If the old King had his son at the age of 20, then the current King would only be 30 years old at most.

Chapter 1096: Give Us His Blessings

When Nuannuan joined KE 14 years ago, King was already in his early 30s. When she left the organization and eliminated KE, he was already in his 40s.

At this moment, Nuannuan felt like she had been fooled.

She felt it was preposterous that after being KE's 'Queen' for so long, she still could not figure out who was the real 'King'?

Huh, he was a cunning rabbit with three burrows alright.

She was only three years old then.

He lied to a three-year-old girl and never dared to show his real face to others. Nuannuan truly despised him!

Nuannuan felt much more assured with regards to this despicable idiot.

This kind of person would forever be like a rat in the gutter, only daring to hide in the dark corners and never showing his face to others. This meant that there was a kind of cowardice in his courage—the kind of cowardice to face those who stood strong in the light.

Therefore, this kind of person was the easiest to defeat.

That was by...

Exposing him to the light!

Thinking of that battle, Nuannuan could not help but ask, "20 years ago... Then, your dad..."

Chi Yang, on the other hand, did not think much of it. He did not mince his words, but there was a hint of anger in his eyes as he said, "My dad died in that battle too."

Seeing that Chi Yang was a little down when he mentioned his father, Nuannuan reached out involuntarily to hold his hand. "Big Brother Chi Yang, Grandpa, Second Uncle, and I are here with you. We'll have babies in the future, and we'll all be with you. In the future, you'll only have more and more family."

Chi Yang smiled and gripped Nuannuan's hand in reciprocation. "Yes, my dad's probably watching how much love we have each other from the heavens. He'd definitely be happy to give us his blessings."

Nuannuan nodded.

The car did not drive into the headquarters. Instead, it arrived at the Eagle's prison.

The prison was divided into two sides. One side was the prison, and the other was the interrogation room.

The people who were interrogated here would not be interrogated according to the constitutional prison laws because the criminals who ended up here were the embodiment of the world's greatest evils—they did not deserve human rights.

To put it bluntly, the entire Eagle Special Forces was completely off the grid. No one on the outside could know what happened inside.

Scorpion was brought directly to the interrogation room. His limbs were locked up with electric metal. The restraints on him were so tight he could not even move his neck.

Before setting his jaw back, Chi Yang did the same thing that Nuannuan did to Matchmaker.

He removed all of Scorpion's teeth.

Back then, Nuannuan punched and kicked Matchmaker until all her teeth fell out.

Chi Yang was even more vicious. Under Scorpion's horrified gaze, Chi Yang used his supernatural ability to pull out Scorpion's teeth.

Scorpion did not see Chi Yang move. All he knew was that there was a sharp burst of pain from his mouth. Then, as if possessed, his teeth struggled out of his gums one by one before flying out of his mouth and landing on the ground.

Along with the roots of his teeth!!!

This kind of pain was much worse than teeth falling off after impact. It felt as painful as having a pair of pliers pulling out his teeth.

Scorpion cried out in pain, but his lower jaw had fallen off. Since he could not close his mouth, he could only endure the pain and watch as his teeth continued to fly.

The dismay and outrage in his heart were indescribable.

Until all his teeth were gone and his mouth shrank, Nuannuan finally made her move. She was about to snap Scorpion's jaw back in place.

However, Chi Yang stopped her.

"Don't touch him. It's dirty."

He did not want his wife's hand to touch another man.

He could tolerate her rescuing people, but that was his limit. Nothing else.

Chapter 1097: How Do You Know

After snapping Scorpion's jaw back, a mocking smile painstakingly appeared on Scorpion's face. "Do you think that if you pull out my teeth and don't let me move, I won't be able to kill myself? Since you know that there is a bug in my brain, you should know that if I want to die, I can die anytime."

However, Nuannuan returned him an even more mocking smile. "Go ahead and try. We'll see if you can die!"

Scorpion frowned. "What do you mean?"

"It means that your life is in our hands. Without our agreement, you'll find it difficult to die."

"Okay, let's give it a try." Scorpion still did not believe her. After all, he was one of the people in charge of the bugged people.

Therefore, Scorpion said, "I can tell you Viper's whereabouts. She's currently in Yamato and she..."

However, even after saying so much, nothing went wrong with his body.

The bug did not explode. He... could not kill himself.

Scorpion widened his eyes and looked at Nangong Nuannuan in disbelief.

“What... what did you do to me?”

“Didn’t I tell you earlier? I’ve already killed the bug inside your body with my silver needle. As for Viper, I already know that she’s in Yamato before you told us. Yang Min told me all about your research facility before she died. So, what I need to know now is King’s and Viper’s identity. Also, where is KE’s old base?”

After hearing Queen’s questions, a dark glint flashed across Scorpion’s eyes.

Based on her question, she did not just know that once the bugged people betrayed their organization, not only would the bugs inside their bodies explode, but even their life-bound bugs would explode.

Once the life-bound bug exploded, the organization would know that someone betrayed them and set a trap for them.

Therefore, Scorpion pretended to be angry and said, “Yang Min, that traitor. She sure died quickly! However, everyone has their own faith, and so do I. Therefore, you’d better kill me because I won’t say anything.”

“Faith? You probably worship Viper, right? Tell me, what kind of faith do you have for her? Love? Do you think Viper would fall in love with a subordinate like you?”

Since she had seen Viper before, she knew that Viper actually loved King.

However, every time Scorpion talked about Viper, the gentleness in his eyes was hard to hide. Even though Nuannuan was very insensitive in this aspect, she could basically guess that there was a love triangle between King, Viper, and Scorpion.

Scorpion was shocked and his voice became sharper. “How do you know that Viper is a woman? Have you seen her before?”

Nuannuan sneered, “Am I interrogating you or are you interrogating me? Don’t you think you have too many questions?”

“Answer me!” Thinking that the woman he loved might really be in danger, Scorpion became extremely anxious. He threatened Nuannuan without thinking, “Nangong Nuannuan, you better tell me what you know. Otherwise, I’ll let Chi Yang know what kind of scary woman he is about to marry!”

Nangong Nuannuan, “...”

How dare he threatened her!

Just as she was wondering if she could ask Big Brother Chi Yang to go out and confess everything to him before resuming the interrogation, Chi Yang spoke.

“I know best what kind of woman I’m going to marry. My Nuannuan is the best and kindest woman who loved me the most in the world. She’s supposed to be the high and mighty daughter of the Nangong family, but because all of you hate the Nangong family and the Chi family...”

Chapter 1098: Cannot Hear

“Not only did you harm Nuannuan’s mother, you even brought Nuannuan to your organization. You enforced a cruel system on her and made her a mercenary to do your organization’s dirty work.”

Scorpion thought, ‘...What the heck? How have Chi Yang and Queen gotten so close? So close that she’s willing to expose her ungrateful identity?’

Nuannuan, on the other hand, looked at Chi Yang with gratitude written all over her face. She listened as Chi Yang continued, “However, what you didn’t expect was that the killer that you spent so much effort to nurture would end up turning your world upside down! She destroyed KE’s headquarters and turned all of you into scuttling street rats. Not only will you forever live in the dark, but you won’t even have a place to call your base. You must hate my Nuannuan very much now, right?”

“However, the more you hate her, the more I love her. She is the smartest and most powerful girl in the world. She used your resources to strengthen herself and then destroyed you. I, Chi Yang, have an amazing girl for a wife. I love her very much.”

“Get outta here!”

He must be crazy! How dare he showed off his love in front of Scorpion? Scorpion hated public display of affection the most!

Nuannuan laughed when she saw that Scorpion was angered. “Why? You can’t get what you want, so you can’t bear to see me and my Big Brother Chi Yang happy together?”

Then, in front of Scorpion’s twisted face, Nuannuan stood on her tiptoes and gave Chi Yang a wonderful kiss.

Just as she was about to retreat, she felt Chi Yang tugging at her and she fell into Chi Yang’s arms.

Before Scorpion’s face, the two were entangled in each other’s arms and locked in a stalemate.

Chi Yang turned around to shield Nuannuan behind him. Even if Scorpion was someone who was about to die, Chi Yang did not want him to see Nuannuan’s beauty.

Not only did Scorpion have to endure physical pain, but he also had to accept psychological blows.

It was extremely bitter for him to endure.

“I asked you how did you find out that Viper is a woman, but you haven’t answered me!”

“Chi Yang, do you think Nangong Nuannuan is just a typical KE killer? Wrong! Let me tell you, Nangong Nuannuan is actually the most wanted person on your wanted list—she’s Queen! The woman who’s at the same level as King!”

Since Queen did not answer him, and since he could not leave this place alive, Scorpion was no longer afraid of Nangong Nuannuan’s identity. He exposed her identity immediately.

Hearing Scorpion’s words, Nuannuan’s body stiffened slightly. However, Chi Yang smashed his lips harder onto Nuannuan’s, conveying his love to her—

No matter who you are; no matter what you've been through, I only care for you and I will never despise you.

I love you.

Sensing Chi Yang's emotions, Nuannuan's worries were quickly washed away. She threw herself wholeheartedly into the heartwarming love that Big Brother Chi Yang built for her.

No matter what her past was, at this moment, with this man's dedicated love, her life was perfect.

Scorpion looked at the two people who drowned in each other's kisses, "..."

Did Chi Yang not hear what Scorpion said?

If Scorpion could hold Viper in his arms, and if Viper treated him as gently as Queen did, Scorpion thought that he might not be able to hear what he just said too.

Therefore, Scorpion repeated what he just said.

However, Chi Yang continued to ignore him.

Scorpion, "..."

It was not until Nuannuan's hands started to wander naughtily around his body and he felt his emotions slipping out of his control that Chi Yang finally ended their kiss.

Using his back to block Scorpion's view, he tidied up Nuannuan's clothes and hair. After ensuring that not a single patch of her fair skin was exposed, Chi Yang finally turned to look at Scorpion.

Chapter 1099: I Mean Them

"Where is KE's headquarters now? Who exactly is King? Where is he now? Who is Viper and where is she now? Also, what is the bug in your brain? Why can it control people's consciousness and strengthen their tendons and muscles? Who invented this thing? Where is your experimental base?"

Chi Yang's question sent Scorpion bursting into laughter. He looked at Chi Yang proudly. "What makes you think I'll tell you?"

"I hope you'll answer whatever I ask you. That way, you won't suffer, and it will be easier for everyone."

"Hmph!" Scorpion sneered. "In your dreams!"

After that, Chi Yang led Nuannuan out while Scorpion was handed over to Chi Yang's subordinates for questioning.

As they walked out, they heard Scorpion's scream.

Chi Yang held Nuannuan's hand as they strolled along a small road outside the prison. Occasionally, soldiers would drive or walk past them.. When they saw Chi Yang and Nuannuan holding hands, everyone was stunned before their eyes glimmered with the spark of gossip.

"Greetings, Commander!"

Everyone greeted the commander, but their eyes were fixed on Nangong Nuannuan. They really, really wanted to know who this person was.

How could Chi Yang not know what these wolf cubs were thinking? By bringing Nuannuan here, he had all the intentions to introduce her to everyone.

“This is your commander’s future wife.”

When the soldiers from the special forces heard that the girl was not their commander’s girlfriend but their commander’s future wife, they instantly grew excited.

All of them sounded like they were on steroids, and their voices were so loud that the sky was probably trembling.

“Hello, Mrs. Commander!”

Nuannuan felt her ears ringing.

Chi Yang frowned unhappily. He reached out to rub his wife’s ears and suggested, “Don’t shout so loudly at my wife. Stay away from her when you shout.”

“Yes!”

Following their orders strictly, the members of Eagle took five steps back and shouted at Nuannuan again.

“Greetings, Mrs. Commander!”

“...Hello!” Nuannuan wanted to laugh, but she was overwhelmed with joy and embarrassment.

Even though they had been given the cold shoulder by the commander, the commander’s wife greeted them. The members of Eagle were all beaming with joy.

Who would have thought the day where their Hades-like commander found love would come?

Soon enough, the news that the commander brought his wife to the special forces spread like wildfire. In less than an hour, almost all the soldiers in Eagle knew about this.

“The soldiers under your command are all very cute.”

Chi Yang lowered his head and looked at Nuannuan lovingly.

“As long as my Mrs. Commander likes it.”

“As long as you don’t despise me.”

After all, she grew up in a place full of darkness.

After all, her name was once red on the list of his most wanted fugitives.

After all... they were once ultimate enemies.

Nuannuan’s words made Chi Yang stop in his tracks. He put his hands on her shoulders, turned her around, and bent down so that his gaze was level with hers. He then said solemnly, “Nuannuan, I don’t like hearing you say this to me. What I said to Scorpion just now is also meant for you. I mean them. To me, you're the best girl in the world. No one can be better than you.

"What you went through in the past will only make my heart ache for you and love you even more in the future. It won't stop us from being together, or neither will it become the obstacle that comes between us."

Chapter 1100: Marrying The World

After saying that, Chi Yang was afraid that Nuannuan might continue overthinking things, so he simply put his hands around her and wrapped her up in his embrace, immersing her into a world that was completely him. Then, he reached out and held her hand, placing her hand on his heart so that she could feel his heartbeat.

"You're all there is over here. Without you, this place will stop beating."

Nuannuan was scared to hear him say things like that, Nuannuan leaped up and hugged Chi Yang's neck.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, don't say things like that. I don't like hearing that."

Chi Yang pretended to be angry and asked, "Then, will you repeat what you just said?"

Nuannuan quickly shook her head. "I'm not going to say anything like that anymore. To be honest, I didn't really mean it. I know that no other woman can compare to me. They're not as pretty as me; their body figures aren't as nice as mine; they can't compare to my family background, and they aren't as rich as me. I have everything, and everything mine belongs to you. What reason do you have to dislike me?"

Chi Yang could not help but chuckle.

His pleasant voice vibrated in his chest.

Nuannuan, "..."

She could not bear hearing his voice in this manner. If she heard him this way, her ears would have an orgasm!

"Yes. My Nuannuan is the best. Marrying my Nuannuan feels like I'm marrying the world!"

"Pfft—"

Nuannuan could not help but laugh.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you're such a tease!"

"Greetings, Mrs. Commander!"

Suddenly, an ear-splitting roar came from not too far away, startling Nuannuan. She quickly crawled out of Chi Yang's embrace.

Feeling the empty embrace, Chi Yang frowned. He decided to punish these rascals to run an extra twenty kilometers tomorrow.

Those adorable ones were clearly here to find out about Nuannuan, yet they had to act as if they bumped into her by chance. The soldiers would greet them from time to time, responding to them.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, isn’t there only a thousand people in Eagle? I heard that even the most ordinary soldier is a second lieutenant.”

“Eagle only has a thousand staff members. The remaining nine thousand are trainees. These trainees are special forces soldiers sent over from various field military bases, navy, and air force. They will serve here for five years, normally. As long as they manage to stay here for five years, by the time they return to their respective bases, they’ll become the best there.”

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you’re the best! Grandpa, your father, and you are the ones who bring out the best in the best soldiers in our country.”

“My Nuannuan is the best.” Chi Yang took the opportunity to flatter her.

In this lifetime, only Nuannuan could make Chi Yang willingly suck up to her.

“By the way, how long have you known my identity?” Nuannuan had always been curious about this because she long guessed that Big Brother Chi Yang knew her identity. However, every time she wanted to ask, Big Brother Chi Yang acted like he was still in the dark, so she could not open her mouth.

“I found out when you came to Mustapha to save me.”

Nuannuan, “...!!!!”

She stared blankly at Chi Yang for a long while before muttering, “How did you know it was me?”

He found out about Nuannuan so early!

Why did it feel like something was off?

Seeing her depressed look, Chi Yang could not help but laugh and scratch her nose.

“But I was on the plane, and I didn’t come down!”

“That’s still my wife!” Then, Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan affectionately and continued, “Ever since I slept with you for the first time, your figure and appearance have been deeply etched in both my heart and mind. Therefore, I can’t be wrong in recognizing your body figure.”
