

Physician Wife 1121

Chapter 1121: Departure

The butler laughed awkwardly. "But... but Chairman really took his medicine. He..."

Bang!

A loud gunshot was followed by the butler's yelp.

The butler collapsed and stared at the blood flowing out of his thigh in horror.

"Why did you lie to me? What did I tell you when you took the job as the butler?"

"Miss Luna, please spare me... please spare me! I... I had no choice! It was the chairman! The chairman didn't let me tell you! He... he even threatened me that if... if I dared to tell you that he didn't take his medicine, he... he would send me off to the mercenary camp and cook there!"

"So, that gives you all the right to ignore my words and help him lie to me?"

"Miss Luna, you know how the chairman is. If I betray him, I'll suffer!"

Bai Liyue laughed coldly. "How horrible can being a chef be? Let me show you what it means to suffer!"

With that, Bai Liyue fired eight shots at the butler's limbs.

With all of the butler's joints broken, he fainted from the pain.

None of the mercenaries who looked after the manor dared to stop her.

After all, Miss Luna was one of the best mercenaries around.

After all, Miss Luna was the only one who dared to challenge the chairman. Even if the chairman was hopping mad at her, he would not truly take any actions against her no matter how angry he sounded like.

Bai Liyue crippled the butler, making him spend the rest of his life fully comprehending the meaning of suffering. Then, Bai Liyue turned around and left, leaving all the memories she had for this place.

Roar!

Suddenly, Bai Liyue stopped.

In the distance, a white male lion slowly walked over and stopped one meter away from Bai Liyue.

Roar!

The lion roared again.

Bai Liyue looked at the lion and muttered gloomily, "I'll take my leave first. He'll bring you to Nuannuan."

As though it could understand Bai Liyue's words, the lion happily flicked its whip-like tail twice and left without any hesitance.

Bai Liyue could feel her heart weeping with blood when she saw Da Bai turn around without a single glance backward.

Although Nuannuan was the one who picked Da Bai up from the woods, Nuannuan was too playful. So, Bai Liyue was the one who fed Da Bai most of the time.

However, after feeding Da Bai for so long, it picked up after that man. It would not be an exaggeration to say that the man and this beast probably came from the same mold.

No matter how well Bai Liyue treated them, they would never give her a second glance.

Just to find an excuse to meet Nuannuan and stay in Camino without getting sent back, that man would rather risk his life by giving himself stomach cancer.

As for Da Bai, the only form of reluctance it held for Bai Liyue originated from the fear that it could not see Nuannuan anymore after Bai Liyue left.

Their hearts only had a place for Nuannuan.

It could be said that Nuannuan had taken over their lives, so no matter how much others had sacrificed for them, nobody would melt the cold, cold hearts of the two ferocious beasts.

Bai Liyue stared blankly at Da Bai as it left. With sorrow in her heart, she turned around to leave.

Just as she turned to leave, the leaving Da Bai sensed something different from the gaze that trailed after it. It stopped in its tracks and turned around.

Da Bai looked at Bai Liyue's lonely figure for a while before wagging his tail and running after her.

Chapter 1122: Heartbreaker

Da Bai was very happy to know that it would see Nuannuan soon, so it did something it normally would not.

Sensing something coming at her from behind, Bai Liyue turned around only to see a large white beast pouncing on her, sending her staggering violently.

Just a moment ago, she was still dismayed by how similar Da Bai was to a certain someone in terms of being an ingrate. In the second that she turned around, Da Bai had already pounced on her.

Awooo—

Da Bai let out the sound that would usually only appear when Nuannuan was around. It placed both of its paws on Bai Liyue's shoulders and turned her around to look at its face.

At this moment, Bai Liyue's face was covered in tears, and Da Bai faltered slightly.

Awooo—

Women were such troublesome beings. Da Bai had not started blaming this heartless human for leaving it here to go see its master first, and she still had the cheek to cry.

Bai Liyue looked at Da Bai as if she was looking at that heartless Feng Shengxuan. Even though it had already turned around and returned to her side, the grievances it had brought her could not be washed away.

“You’re so annoying! So annoying! You heartless man!” Bai Liyue suddenly burst into tears, and she started hammering Da Bai with her hands while she cried.

Da Bai that suddenly got whacked, “... o ((☹ ∇ ☹) o”

“Heartbreaker! Stupid heartless man!”

To appease this troublesome woman, Da Bai placed its front paws on Bai Liyue’s body. It would never touch anyone other than Nuannuan. Now that it went out of its way to stop console this woman from crying, why was she still telling it off?

Since when was it being heartless?

It was already treating her so well!

Roar!

Da Bai let loose an impatient roar as it opened its cavernous mouth. Bai Liyue could even smell the fillet mignon it just ate.

She smelled a waft of crusty iron.

“How dare you roar at me? Who’s the one who usually feeds you? You’re so picky. If you were with Nuannuan, you’d be a stick-thin African lion! I only cried a little, and you have the nerve to be impatient. Leave me then! Leave!”

Bai Liyue vented all her anger reserved for Feng Shengxuan on Da Bai.

Da Bai simply let out a frustrated cry before being yelled at again. Bai Liyue even lectured it.

In an instant, it could only let out an extremely soft awoo like a failed hero before he started to lick the tears off Bai Liyue’s face.

So salty!

That did not taste good at all!

Da Bai stuck out its tongue in disgust. When it saw Bai Liyue looking at it in dismay, it hurriedly resume licking her tears like a people-pleasing puppy.

“Go away! You stink!”

After Bai Liyue’s nudge, Da Bai finally realized that their woman just gave it a cold shoulder.

Da Bai had already licked her disgusting tears, so why must she still despise it?

In an instant, Da Bai became arrogant as well. It sprawled on the ground. Even though it did not dare to leave, it did not want to have anything to do with this crazy woman anymore.

Bai Liyue gloomily took out a wet tissue to wipe her face before squatting down to rub Da Bai's head. "He might bring you along soon. Before that, I won't feed you anymore. If he can't remember how to feed you, go to him yourself. However, since you're Nuannuan's pet, he'll treat you well and won't let you starve."

Watching this woman acting like she was giving it away, Da Bai did not know what was going on but it did not like this feeling. It ignored Baili's words and opened its mouth before chomping down on the corner of her pants.

"What's the point of biting me? In any case, both of you only like Nuannuan. When both of you get to her side, everything will be fine, and you'll be happy every day. There's no such thing as a banquet without an end in this world. Take care of yourselves in the future!"

Chapter 1123: No Car

After saying that, Bai Liyue struggled free from Da Bai's halting bite at her pants.

Roar!

Da Bai called out with a displeased expression on its face.

Women were annoying, for sure. Why could Da Bai not like its master and like Bai Liyue at the same time?

Bai Liyue glanced at Da Bai before turning to leave.

Roar!

Seeing that the woman taking her leave, Da Bai called out in frustration, but the woman did not turn around.

This led Da Bai, who was in a foul mood, to return to the mountain at the back of the manor and cause a commotion.

After being on the receiving end of Bai Liyue's angry outbursts, Feng Shengxuan was annoyed that the vile woman even went as far as slamming his head using his medical report..

Young Master Feng was very unhappy.

It was then that convinced him that women should not be spoiled by anyone.

He had always feared that Bai Liyue would secretly report his little shenanigans to Nuannuan, so he gave in to Bai Liyue no matter what she did during this period of time. All he got in return was insults and anger from her.

How dare she embarrass him like that?

She was practically pushing her luck.

Feng Shengxuan's stomach was in so much pain that he barely made it downstairs, only to realize...

Bai Liyue was the one who drove him here. Now that the horrible woman left, he had no car!

Looking at the empty space below, Feng Shengxuan stood there for a long time, letting emptiness overwhelm him.

Suppressing the urge to call this horrible woman and ask her to pick him up, he called the butler instead.

"Hello."

"Come and pick me up."

The person on the other end asked fearfully, "Is... Is that you, Mr. Chairman?"

Feng Shengxuan frowned. "Who are you? Get the butler to pick me up."

"Chair-... Chairman, just now, Miss L-Luna came back. She... she said that the butler lied to her and didn't make sure that you take your medicine, so... so she shot the butler's joints eight times and crippled him. How about... how about you tell me where you are, sir? I... I'll go get the assistant butler."

Before the person on the other side of the line could finish, Feng Shengxuan already hung up.

What kind of a woman was that?!

Not only did she beat and scold him, she even opened fire at his butler until his butler lost his limbs. This was simply...

Mutiny!

Seeing Feng Shengxuan standing downstairs with a pale face and bent body, the director knew that he was in pain. So he quickly went downstairs and asked tentatively, "Mr. Chairman, why are you alone? Where's Miss Luna?"

"Don't mention that horrible woman in front of me." How dare she left him, a patient, here alone? This was too much!

"Yes, sir! Yes, sir!"

Although Imperial Phoenix Group was one of the top ten groups in the world, the higher-ups were increasingly unreliable.

Many people thought that the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group was Phoenix, but only a few top executives knew that the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group was truly an unreliable character. The real chairman was Phoenix's sister, Miss Sunny. However, Miss Sunny was only responsible for venturing into one profitable business after another, but once those companies were established, she would hand them over to her elder brother. Later on, Miss Sunny simply took off and handed the massive group under Phoenix's care.

After Phoenix took over the company that Miss Sunny handed over to him, he did his best to manage it for her. He turned a company that had nothing but money into a financial group. Eventually, it became a listed company, followed by its subsidiary companies, and then, eventually, earning a global ranking among major groups... With the help of Vice President Miss Luna, the entire Imperial Phoenix Group became one of the top superpowers in Sab in just a few years.

Chapter 1124: Loneliness Is A Party For One

However, the Chairman's health deteriorated rapidly, especially in the past six months. He no longer had the heart to manage the business at all, leaving the entire Imperial Phoenix Group under Miss Luna's management.

Rumors had it that the bosses of the company were all good friends.

Rumors had it that the bosses of the company all came from extraordinary backgrounds.

Yet, why did the chairman scold the vice president?

The hospital director did not know how Bai Liyue could have offended Feng Shengxuan, but he was well aware of his bosses' temper that would trigger them to use bullets at the slightest disagreement. The director could only nod and bow as he asked, "Then... can I have the honors of sending you back, Mr. Chairman?"

Feng Shengxuan's stomach was already hurting badly. He was anxious to go back and rest. Although he did not want to take someone else's car, he could not afford to make that decision now.

He could only manage to say impatiently, "Hurry up."

"Yes, yes, yes. Chairman, you look very uncomfortable. I've already handed your medicine to Miss Luna. Now that she's not here, why don't I prescribe you some painkillers?"

"Cut the crap! Hurry up and drive!"

He would have Nuannuan soon. Why should he take any medicine?

Even if it was late-stage stomach cancer, his Nuannuan could cure him.

If Nuannuan were here right now, she would not hesitate to give him a harsh slap in the face. She would probably say, "I don't even have the confidence in myself. Might I ask where did your honeyed confidence come from?"

Even though the director was aware that Feng Shengxuan's illness had worsened horribly, the director did not dare say anything, much less go back to prescribing medicine for him. He could only nod and bow while replying, "Yes, yes, sir. I'll drive now!"

The car arrived. Feng Shengxuan got into the car and sat in the back seat. He scanned the director's car that was not as clean nor as big as Bai Liyue's car in disdain. He nitpicked at everything he could see.

The director regretted approaching this special snowflake and offering his help.

The director wondered how did a man of this temper manage to build up their business empire!

When he returned to the manor, Feng Shengxuan recalled that the butler that finally started getting used to the place had already been crippled and sent to the hospital by Bai Liyue, that vile woman. Feng Shengxuan was a picky person, too. After ordering a few of his people around, he thought that the way they did things rather displeased him. Therefore, he decided to not make anyone serve him anymore.

He took a hot shower and lay down to sleep for a while. He thought he would feel better, but the immense pain woke him up.

Looking at the time, he saw that it was almost seven o'clock at night. Usually, at around six, Bai Liyue would start urging him to take his medicine or eat dinner. If she was not around, she would give him calls that would never end. If he did not take his medicine, she would threaten to tell on him to Nuannuan. She was as annoying as anyone could be.

Today, this woman was finally gone. Feng Shengxuan felt very relaxed.

However, after watching the television for a while, the pain in his stomach did not lessen—it worsened instead.

He made a call to the kitchen so that they could cook for him.

He liked seafood—all kinds of seafood. Yet, his favorite was those popping with sweet, sour, and spicy flavors. Since Bai Liyue was usually around, he could not eat any of those for the sake of his stomach.

At long last, the woman was no longer here. Therefore, Feng Shengxuan asked the chef to prepare a Thai-style seafood meal for him.

The chef did not dare to say anything against his orders and thus, obeyed his wilful master.

When the fragrant pot of seafood soup was brought into the secondary living room outside the bedroom, Feng Shengxuan felt his world light up when he smelled the fragrance.

The food that he liked cooked in the way that he liked, he ate and drank freely without anyone nagging at him.

Chapter 1125: Vomiting Blood

Feng Shengxuan happily watched television as he ate. Whenever he thought about how he would be able to go to Camino tomorrow to give Nuannuan a surprise and disgust that man while he was at it, Feng Shengxuan felt as if all the pores on his body had opened up in joy. He did not feel any anxiety or sorrow from having cancer at all.

However, his extreme joy turned to sorrow soon enough. After eating for less than fifteen minutes, his stomach started to ache horribly. It was so painful that Feng Shengxuan could feel his blood pressure rise rapidly that he suspected he nearly got meningitis.

Initially, he wanted to wait until the next day when he arrived at Nuannuan's place to receive medical treatment, but the pain overtook him from the stomach and finally made him question everything.

After being sick for so long, he only needed to eat one medicine pill that Nuannuan made to stop the pain. The medicine that Nuannuan made for him had pain-suppressing effects, after all.

However...

To ensure that his stomach worsened more, he flushed the medicine away into the toilet one day.

Meanwhile, Bai Liyue took the medicine administered by the hospital with her too.

The pain from Feng Shengxuan's stomach was agonizing. He wanted to call Bai Liyue, but he held himself back.

Since he decided that he should not pamper women, he refused to give in to Bai Liyue.

Hence, Young Master Feng held all his pain in with sheer willpower.

Two hours later, he could not take it anymore. He started to get woozy from the pain, and he felt nauseous.

Feng Shengxuan could not help but run to the bathroom to vomit.

Yet, the moment he vomited, he painted the entire tub with blood.

Feng Shengxuan stared blankly at the bright red blood in the toilet bowl and the blood that was still dripping from the corner of his lips. He reached out and touched the corner of his lips in a daze. His hand was covered in thick, sticky blood.

Only then did he realize...

Was his illness this serious?

Even if he managed to woo Nuannuan, would he remain alive long enough to bring her happiness?

For the first time ever, Feng Shengxuan was concerned about his health.

He thought that he would feel much better after vomiting, but he realized that the vomiting was just the beginning.

The pain in his body was so intense that Feng Shengxuan could not help but roll around on the bed.

Splurt—

When his pain reached a certain threshold, and before he could even go to the bathroom, a large mouthful of blood spurted out from his mouth.

Then, the first spurt of blood was followed by continuous waves of blood before he was engulfed in a wave of blackout dizziness.

Before he completely lost consciousness, Feng Shengxuan subconsciously tapped on Bai Liyue's number on his phone.

This horrible woman. He was already so sick, but she still had the heart to beat him up and scold him. Moreover, she stayed out so late without any care for his life.

Feng Shengxuan thought that his call went through, but what he did not know was that after he passed out, there was only the beep of someone ending the call from the other end of the line.

When Feng Shengxuan woke up, it was already late at night.

His extreme gastric pain had passed.

He crawled out of bed in a daze and looked at the time. It was five o'clock in the morning.

The lights were still on in the room, and the mattress was covered with the blood that he vomited before fainting.

He remembered that it was nine o'clock when his eyesight descended into darkness from the pain.

So...

He had been unconscious for eight hours?

Looking at the phone in his hand, he realized that he called Bai Liyue before he fainted.

However, eight hours had passed, and she had not even bothered to talk to him. She had not returned and without any regard for him, she let him sleep alone on the bloody bed for eight whole hours?

However, Feng Shengxuan, who often wished that Bai Liyue would just die from the times he complained about her, broke his routine—for once, he was not complaining about how evil and malicious this woman was for not caring about him.

Chapter 1126: King!

Feng Shengxuan quickly made another call to Bai Liyue, but her phone was switched off.

"How petty! I just stopped eating my medicine, right? Why must you switch off your phone until now?"

His thoughts trailed off to the numerous enemies they had, and how pretty Bai Liyue was. She had always been so pretty and loved to wear high heels all the time. This woman...

Was she in danger?

Feng Shengxuan's devilish, perfect, and languid face instantly turned serious.

After sitting for a while, he immediately called his men.

"Luna is missing. Investigate immediately."

When the person received Feng Shengxuan's call, he immediately replied, "Understood, sir.. Do we bring Miss Luna back when we find her?"

"No need. Tell her that my medicine is still with her. Just let her contact me."

"Yes, sir."

However, after waiting for an hour, Feng Shengxuan did not receive any news from his men.

Feng Shengxuan called again and scolded the person who picked up immediately, "What in the world are you guys doing? You can't even find someone after such a long investigation! You might as well go home and farm! I'll give you another 15 minutes. If you can't find her, kill yourselves!"

After Feng Shengxuan was done throwing a tantrum, the man replied respectfully, "King, you know Miss Luna's temper. If she doesn't want us to find her, we won't be able to."

Feng Shengxuan's expression turned extremely grave.

"Where's Seville? Is he dead?"

Feng Shengxuan was just being sarcastic, but he did not expect the man to pause briefly before saying, "King, something bad happened."

Feng Shengxuan was stunned. An ominous feeling started to gnaw at his heart.

"What is that Viper woman up to again?"

The person at the other end of the line reported everything about how Scorpion cooperated with Ye Hai in an attempt to take over Leng Group, but Nangong Nuannuan intervened. Not only did Ye Hai fail, but Scorpion was captured. They even found out about Seville through Scorpion's network system. How could Dan Qi allow someone like Seville to exist? Needless to say, that was the reason behind Seville's disappearance too.

Then, Nangong Nuannuan tracked down Viper unknowingly, and Viper almost lost her life. Now, she was recuperating at their old residence.

Feng Shengxuan was so angry that he smashed the phone.

Five minutes later, Feng Shengxuan stepped onto a helicopter wearing a black windbreaker and a silver mask.

The helicopter took off and quickly left the manor, heading toward another city in Sab.

This was a manor located on the outskirts of J District in Sab.

This manor was the epitome of the creepy castle in all fairy tales.

It was gloomy, damp, and surrounded by many merceries who were guarding it. Many servants worked in the place, but none of them bothered to tidy up the gardens.

This was the place where he grew up, and it was also the source of his dark personality.

How could any child grow up to be a normal adult if they spent their childhood in this place?

He thought that he would continue being his creepy and quiet self, but when he turned thirteen, he saw the three-year-old Nuannuan.

Her eyes were like black grapes. Even though they were filled with fear, they were like stars in the dark. Like a lighthouse on the sea, they gave off a heartwarming glow.

Liking Nuannuan... It must have started from the moment he realized he was fond of her bright eyes, right?

Feng Shengxuan alighted from the plane and strode into the castle-like manor with the majesty of an emperor.

This was a huge castle that had eighteen stories. He had always wondered why the man and his father, the previous tenants of this castle, build such a big castle when there were only the two of them.

Chapter 1127: Strangle You To Death

Until now, Feng Shengxuan still did not figure out much about it.

He was already convinced that he was crazy himself, but the people living here were crazier.

Thinking about how Viper had the nerve to disobey him and provoke Nuannuan behind his back, viciousness surged in his heart. What would he give to chop this woman into pieces!

The hall on the first floor of the castle basically had no other use than to be made into a banquet hall.

Such a big castle with more than ten floors never had elevators installed either.

Feng Shengxuan went straight to the 18th floor. He finally saw a few servants and he knew that Viper was inside. He walked to the door and kicked it open.

Inside, Viper lay on the bed, and the whole room reeked of blood.

In the bedroom, a man who looked to be in his sixties was reading today's newspaper. There was a pot of tea on the table.

Seeing Feng Shengxuan kick the door open and entered, the man was not angry at all. Instead, his face was filled with joy.

"Xuan'er, you're here!"

Feng Shengxuan did not even look at the man and walked to the bed without another word.

When Viper saw Feng Shengxuan, the admiration in her eyes was unconcealable.

This was the man she loved the most in her life!

Moreover, she swore to make this man hers!

"Big Brother Xuan, why are you here?"

However, just as she ended her sentence, Feng Shengxuan wrapped a hand around Viper's neck.

They did not expect Feng Shengxuan to attack so suddenly. Both the man and Viper were aghast.

Viper was already severely injured and was currently recovering. Now that Feng Shengxuan was trying to strangle her, she felt even worse.

Feeling the air leaving her bit by bit, feeling the loss of life, Viper's eyes were filled with disbelief and fear.

"Xuan'er, what are you doing? Why are you doing this to Wan'er? Hasn't she done enough for you? Let go! You're getting out of hand!"

However, not only did Feng Shengxuan refuse to loosen up, he even tightened his grip. Gritting his teeth, he said, "Wen Nuan, didn't I tell you that you're not allowed to provoke Nuannuan? The last time you went behind my back and tried to assassinate Chi Yang and Chi Yuancheng, Nuannuan was there in that hotel with Chi Yang. If Nuannuan weren't so powerful, you would've killed her. At that time, I wanted to kill you. You knelt on the ground and begged me not to kill you because you said you didn't know that Nuannuan was there. Although I let you off later, I also said that that was your last chance. If you dare provoke her again, I'll really kill you! Do you think I was joking?"

Viper's face was turning blue, black, and purple from the choke. Although she tried her best to struggle, she was too severely injured to make any difference.

At that moment, Wen Wan did not doubt that Feng Shengxuan would strangle her to death then and there. To choke her, he even activated his supernatural ability, making it impossible for her to resist.

However, even though he utilized his supernatural ability, it did not seem like he had fully activated it.

That meant that he still could not bear to see her die.

"Big Brother... Big Brother Xuan!"

A pleading look appeared in Wen Wan's eyes. She was sure that Feng Shengxuan would let her off. After all, she had grown up with Feng Shengxuan. She was the one who was the closest to him.

She did not believe that Feng Shengxuan would really kill her.

As expected, Feng Shengxuan's strength faded gradually. Wen Wan could now use her own strength to resist Feng Shengxuan, and blood slowly returned to her face.

However, in reality, it was not that Feng Shengxuan had let her off. It was just that... his stomach was hurting again!

Chapter 1128: Amused

It was so painful that Feng Shengxuan's head was throbbing. He barely had the energy to kill her.

The man finally stood up and said, "Xuan'er, stop."

At this moment, Feng Shengxuan was a little exhausted, but he did not want to appear weak in front of the man.

The men of the Feng family were all heartless. Although this old man was already 60 years old and sick, Feng Shengxuan was still not as strong as the old man.

Right now, he only had the ability to sit in King's position, but once this man felt that Feng Shengxuan was no longer a suitable candidate, Feng Shengxuan would have no choice but go through another battle.

For the first time in his life, Feng Shengxuan was very dissatisfied with his body.

Seeing that Feng Shengxuan no longer wanted to take Wen Wan's life, the man stopped interrupting.

He merely added in the tone of a loving elderly, "If you have anything to say or if you're unhappy with Wan'er, just tell her nicely. Why must you go for the kill? Compared to that traitorous Queen, Wan'er is the one who deserves your trust the most; someone you can rely on."

Feng Shengxuan retorted, "No, she's just a dog. A dog by my side. Uncle, do you think I, the King of KE Organization, can rely on a dog to survive?"

Hearing 'Uncle' from Feng Shengxuan, the man froze.

Meanwhile, Wen Wan's expression darkened significantly.

Even though she was filled with resentment, she put on a pitiful expression and started to cry.

"Big Brother Xuan, when I suggested experimenting on people, you agreed. However, you also know how expensive those bugs are. You know very well how much money is required to rear those bugs to produce more bugged people. Even so; even though you know that we need a large amount of jade and diamonds, you've transferred all of Imperial Phoenix Group's assets and placed them under Queen's name half a month ago. You didn't discuss that with us either. You're well aware that she isn't on our side, and she already has Chi Yang. The only thing left for you are the assets that she entrusted to you before she left, but you returned them to her."

Feng Shengxuan was amused by Wen Wan's words.

"So, you think that after Nuannuan left the Imperial Phoenix Group under my management, the company is now mine? Based on your logic, is KE yours because you've done so much for KE for so many years?"

Wen Yuan was infuriated by Feng Shengxuan's question.

Was KE not hers?

However, on the surface, Wen Wan still chose to avoid conflict with him. She tried to persuade him. "Big Brother Xuan, you've misunderstood me. I've never thought that the Imperial Phoenix Group that Queen gave you belonged to you. I definitely don't think KE belongs to me either. I'm just someone who works hard for KE. I just hope that I can help you and take revenge for you.

"I'm not blaming you for returning the Imperial Phoenix Group to Queen. I just wanted to say that without the financial support from Imperial Phoenix Group, our funds will be reduced greatly or even cut off. That's why I planned ahead and sent Scorpion to gain control over the finances of several business groups among those second-tier families first.

"But I didn't expect Queen to love Chi Yang so much that she would participate in Leng Jinpeng's family affairs. That's why I was implicated.

"All these years, I've always listened to you. Even when you told me half a year ago that you were going to help Queen destroy KE headquarters, did I say anything against you? I swear I didn't provoke Queen this time! It was her who came at me and gave me such severe injuries. Believe me, please!"

Chapter 1129: I Pamper Her!

Wen Nuan cried as she tried to explain herself. While she was at it, she tried to make Nuannuan sound bad too.

She knew that Feng Shengxuan was obsessed with Nangong Nuannuan, so she wanted to provoke him by reminding him that Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang were a loving couple. No matter how much he loved Nangong Nuannuan and be considerate toward her, he would forever remain the third party, just like Wen Nuan herself.

Therefore, Wen Wan subconsciously believed that Feng Shengxuan should join hands with her instead.

Her thoughts never went to Bai Liyue.

After all, a dead person would never be her opponent.

Wen Wan's words managed to stab the innermost recesses of Feng Shengxuan's heart, but so what? He considered Nangong Nuannuan his woman, so of course, he was willing to shower her with love. Even if she betrayed him, he would allow it.

His girl could not be wrong. The only one who was wrong was that male fox—Chi Yang!

Thinking of how Chi Yang seduced Nuannuan, a wave of pain came from Feng Shengxuan's stomach again.

He could not vent his anger toward Chi Yang, so he could only direct his frustration at Wen Wan.

"It's your honor to be injured by Nuannuan!"

Wen Nuan had already hated Nangong Nuannuan to the core. Now that she heard Feng Shengxuan's words, she was so infuriated that the corners of her mouth twitched madly. Failing to hide her malice now, everything was as raw as they could be on her face.

However, Feng Shengxuan was not done yet.

"Do you think you can sow discord between Nuannuan and me just by saying all these? Let me tell you this—No. You. Can't! I like Nuannuan. Even if she wants to marry another man, I still like her and I still won't look at you. Don't think that I don't know your dirty thoughts. Let me tell you, compared to Nuannuan, you can't even compare to a toe of hers! So you'd better put away your disgusting thoughts. Even if I die, I won't fall for you!"

Feng Shengxuan felt a little better when he saw that Wen Wan's face transformed from green to white. He continued, "Also, no matter what Nuannuan does, I'll always pamper her. It's only right that a girl that I pamper is fearless."

Wen Wan was on the verge of snapping from the overwhelming anger. She said without thinking, "Yes, she's so fearless that she abandoned you here to marry another man without any consideration for you? You let her marry another man who is coincidentally your enemy. Can you continue to pamper her?"

"Wen Wan, you've overstepped your boundaries!" Feng Shengxuan's uncle who had been silently indulging Feng Shengxuan's temper all this while, spoke up. However, the target of his reminder was Wen Wan.

Feng Shengxuan laughed coldly. "That's right. Even if she marries my enemy, I will still dote on her. At most, I'll just kill that person. But for Nuannuan, I can assure you that I'm willing to pamper her and love her. So long as she wants it, I can give her my life, what more KE and the Imperial Phoenix Group. What else can you say about that?"

"Feng. Sheng. Xuan—!" Wen Wan roared angrily.

"That's enough. What's going on between you two? Why are you arguing the moment you see each other? Everyone, stop talking."

Uncle washed a cup and poured tea for Feng Shengxuan. "Xuan'er, calm down. Come and have some tea."

Looking at the steamy tea, Feng Shengxuan, who was suppressing his gastric pain, walked over and gulped down the cup of tea.

"Xuan'er, this matter is indeed not Wan'er's fault. Wan'er was in the outskirts of Emperor District. It was Nangong Nuannuan who led a group of people to raze our laboratories in Emperor District to the ground. If it wasn't for Wan'er's luck, if I didn't have a Teleportation Talisman to teleport her back to Sab, she would've died in Nangong Nuannuan's hands."

Chapter 1130: Just A Dog

Feng Shengxuan's uncle continued, "I know how you feel about Nangong Nuannuan, so I've given in to her whims all this while. Not only to her, but also to Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi, who are close to her. For what? It's all because of you! Otherwise, do you think I'd tolerate someone as arrogant as her before she even matures and let her grow up safely?"

"However, I feel that there must be a limit to your pampering. Look at what's happening to her after getting pampered by you. KE treated her so well and spared no effort to nurture her, but when her wings were fully grown, the first thing she destroyed was KE. But what about you? As KE's King, an all-powerful figure standing at the top of the world, you continue to pamper her even when she told you her plans to destroy KE. You gave in to her, went crazy with her, destroyed KE's headquarters, and sent my subordinates to death for nothing.

"Now, you've also transferred the entire Imperial Phoenix Group from Sab to Camino without saying a word, cutting off KE's financial support instantly. If it weren't for Wen Wan's loyal subordinates, do you think that you, King, could still remain seated so firmly on KE's throne? Therefore, it's not that I'm biased toward Wen Wan here, but your actions as the leader are truly disappointing.

"Xuan'er, I won't stop you from liking Nangong Nuannuan, but I hope you understand one thing—Chi Yang is Eagle's commander. He has an invincible team under him. Only by strengthening ourselves can we go against him, along with the Chi and Nangong families. Only then can we avenge your father!

"I've already allowed you to accompany Nangong Nuannuan in destroying KE's territories and wealth. You no longer have the right to continue your willful ways. Otherwise, I'll take back your power as King."

"Do you dare admit that you indulged her in the past for her X-ray vision? You extracted her blood continuously as you researched her, using her supernatural ability to earn money. The current Imperial Phoenix Group is worth only half of what she allowed you to earn back then. Do you dare say that you didn't benefit from her? So, don't make it sound like you're doing everything for my sake. You and I are both selfish people. You don't have to slap the kindness label on yourself and think you can remain on your moral high horse.

"Also, you must be clear about one thing. KE used to be my dad's, but now it's mine. It's never yours. Even if you have a few bugged people under you now, don't try to use these bugged people to turn the tables on me. Otherwise, I'll prove it to you whether you're actually capable enough to pull me down from that position."

After he was done speaking, Feng Shengxuan took another sip of hot tea, stood up, and walked in front of Wen Wan. He said without mercy, "Don't forget, you're just a dog my family raised. Since you're a dog, then do your duty well. If I'm happy, you can bark a few times, go crazy, and bite a few people to death in your madness. I can tolerate and shield you. However, if I'm unhappy, or if you push any of my buttons, I'll make you into dog meat stew one day!"

With that, he left without looking back.

The pain from his stomach was starting to be unbearable, but he still had to descend eighteen floors. Feng Shengxuan was too lazy to go down, so he went up to the top floor and made a call, asking his subordinate to fly a helicopter over to pick him up.

Feng Tan and Wen Nuan were so infuriated by Feng Shengxuan's words that they nearly vomited blood. Their anger had yet to subside before getting overwhelmed by the loud creaks and groans from the windows. The helicopter that Feng Shengxuan summoned sent the airflow in the manor into disarray. It was only when Feng Shengxuan's helicopter flew away that the tremors and violent wind finally stopped.
