Chapter 1151: Squashed Like Butter

A significant number of media reporters fell at the same time. As though losing gravity suddenly, some of them fell weightlessly without any ability to shield the cameras in their hands as they collapsed onto the ground with a loud thud.

“Argh—”

Horried screams filled the air.

Some unscrupulous reporters knew that they were about to crash. To prevent their handheld cameras from getting destroyed, they started grabbing at Phoenix’s fans who stood next to them to stabilize themselves.

One of them who fell victim to the sudden grasping was the same fan who asked Feng Shengxuan if he had gastric pain before offering him her hot drink.

Since she did not expect anyone to pull her from the back, there was no way she could have mentally prepared herself. After being pulled like this, she lost her balance and fell backward. Furthermore, based on the direction of the pull, her head would end up hitting the camera.

Initially, this would not pose any threat. However, the female reporter from New Net Entertainment in front of her started to fall too. She would end up sitting on top of the female fan’s upper body.

Once the reporter fell on the female fan, it would force the female fan’s neck and upper body into different directions, and at a glance, it would probably break her cervical vertebrae.

Feng Shengxuan frowned impatiently. Eventually, when the female reporter nearly sat on the female fan, he grabbed the female fan’s waist and pulled her out of danger.

The female fan did not even have time to scream before she felt her world suddenly spinning. When it all ended, she found herself in a warm embrace.

When she came back to her senses, she realized that she was already in her idol’s arms.

The female fan’s face instantly flushed red as her heart raced. She quickly got out of her idol’s embrace, overwhelmed by his favor.

“Thank... Thank you!”

Kacha, kacha, kacha, kacha...

As soon as he said that, countless cameras and cameras were trained on Feng Shengxuan and the female fan. Everyone was nearly blinded from the camera flashes.

The group of reporters’ collapse emptied some space for Chi Yang and Nuannuan. The two of them walked in slowly.

When Feng Shengxuan, who had nothing but coldness on his face, saw his little girl, the cold wolf-like king—who had instantly ended a few reporters’ careers to prove just how difficult he was to get close to—changed instantly. He was suddenly a huge puppy who looked harmless and pitiful as it waited for its master to stand up for him. He said in extreme grievance.

“If you don’t save me now, I’ll be squashed like butter.”

Whaaaaa—

The reporters and fans went nuts.

Ever since Best Actor Feng debuted, he stood at the pinnacle of the film and television industry in a cool and arrogant manner. Even when he was just a newbie, he was still very arrogant. Even the top actor in Hollywood would walk behind Feng Shengxuan subconsciously when they met, like a little brother.

What was modesty? This word never existed in Best Actor Feng’s dictionary.

What was being reserved? This word never existed in Best Actor Feng’s mind.

Arrogant, domineering, high-profile, and cool, he could destroy any media whenever they offended him. Unhappy with another company? He could end another A-list celebrity’s career even if they belonged to another company.

Feng Shengxuan was Hollywood’s ultimate boss.

He would always be the one who provoked others and ban them first. When had he ever given in and used such a soft and cute tone to speak to others?

Thus, as soon as Best Actor Feng finished speaking, all the cameras and recording cameras were trained on Nuannuan.

However, Nuannuan wore a large baseball cap and sunglasses, along with a facemask underneath. Under such an oversized shirt, it was impossible to tell how she looked like.

Even so, from her delicate face and tall nose bridge, one could tell that she was a very beautiful woman.

Chapter 1152: A Godly Turn of Events

Kacha, kacha, kacha, kacha...

Nuannuan felt her eyes blur for a moment before endless flashes were directed at her.

Even though Chi Yang did not like being photographed, he was still willing to cooperate with these reporters if his little girl was in the photos with him too.

Feng Shengxuan looked at Chi Yang with the corners of his lips curling into a devilish smile that meant to provoke Chi Yang. That same beaming smile dazzled the eyes of the fans and reporters present.

“Didn’t you say you want to know why I came back? Since they came to pick me up, I’ll tell you. I came back for none other than this person.”

Woahhh—

The crowd was in an uproar, and more spotlights were trained on Nuannuan.

Who in the world was this woman? She managed to get Best Actor Feng's attention! After all, Best Actor Feng was from a top wealthy family at the international level!

In the past, countless female celebrities and daughters from wealthy families tried all they could to create scandals just to get close to Best Actor Feng. However, as time went by, every woman who got close to Best Actor Feng met a tragic end. They either went crazy or died. Otherwise, their entire family would be destroyed. Everyone who wanted to get involved with Best Actor Feng and gain popularity using scandals with Best Actor Feng would not end well.

In less than half a year, no one dared to lay their hands on this award-winning actor.

However, today, the Best Actor gave everyone a scandal to talk about! Such explosive gossip would definitely make the headlines for a year!

It was rather obvious that Mr. Best Actor was deeply obsessed with this girl. Not only did he volunteer such a scandalous piece of news, he even caused a bigger scandal—

“I won't be leaving this time. I've moved all my businesses from Sab to Camino.”

Damnit!!!!

All of his businesses???

The Imperial Phoenix Group was one of the top ten corporations in the world. If they announced the rankings this year, it might just squeeze its way to the top three.

Had such a powerful organization been transferred to Camino? Would Sab ever allow this?

All for a woman?

At this moment, the media personnel sitting on the ground wanted nothing more than to rush to Nuannuan's side, pull off her mask and sunglasses, and take as many photos as possible!

They all wanted to see what kind of woman would be able to subdue this arrogant man.

Nuannuan felt that she was getting trolled to death by this man. Her Big Brother Chi Yang was right here! How could he say that?

Imperial Phoenix Group belonged to her in the first place, okay?!

Nuannuan stomped over angrily, ready to clear her name. She did not want to be involved in such a scandal, especially since she did not want Big Brother Chi Yang to misunderstand her.

However, when Feng Shengxuan saw Nuannuan walk over, he immediately pretended to be weak and sickly.

Plus, his stomach was truly in pain right now, so his entire body went limp and he fell forward into his little girl's arms.

However—

It was not the soft and warm embrace that he expected to receive him—Feng Shengxuan realized that the one who caught him and gave him a warm hug was...

Chi Yang!!!

“You knew how weak your body is, and you’re still running around? I told you not to run around, didn’t I?”

Feng Shengxuan, “...”

Nangong Nuannuan, “...”

Fans, “...”

Reporters, “...”

“What are you waiting for? You really don’t listen, do you?! We’re going home now!”

Without waiting for Feng Shengxuan to react, Chi Yang put his arms around (grabbed) Feng Shengxuan and walked through the crowd into the distance.

Fuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuuu!

They thought that Best Actor Feng was talking about that girl!

Everyone thought Best Actor Feng returned to Camino for that girl!

In the end...

Chapter 1153: Evil Fans

Phoenix did everything for that man!!!

What was everyone’s discovery today???

They discovered that Best Actor Feng was actually gay!!!

Most importantly...

The cool and arrogant Best Actor Feng was a freaking bottom!

Ahhhhh!!!!

However...

Best Actor Feng’s man was so handsome, so handsome, so handsome, so handsome... This chant would continue to loop without end!

Watching the passionate couple leave with their hands over each other, everyone, whether it was the fans or the reporters, felt like they discovered a new horizon.

“Who’s that man?”

“I’ve never seen him before! He doesn’t look like someone in showbiz!”

“Of course! What kind of nonsense is that?! If he lives with a man like Best Actor Feng, why would he need to earn a living from showbiz?”

“Are you kidding me? That man is the top! Best Actor Feng is the bottom!”

“That’s just when they’re in bed. It’s not related to their finances.”

“I also want to be the person who can sleep with Best Actor Feng.”

“Come on, look at yourself in the mirror. Forget about sleeping with Best Actor Feng, even if you wanted to sleep with me, I wouldn’t do it! I wouldn’t do it even if you gave me money!”

The reporters were so shocked by this level 12 hurricane-like gossip that they forgot their fight to publish their articles first. Everyone started lamenting.

If even the reporters were this excited, what more the fans who had always liked Feng Shengxuan.

To his female fans, this was probably the only best kind of ending that they wanted to see.

In their minds, Phoenix was a legendary Best Actor worthy of being sung of in epic poetry.

He was so handsome, so rich, so influential, so good at acting, and so skilled in martial arts. He was so perfect that there was not a single flaw to be found. Which woman in the world could match him?

N-O-N-E!!!

Those women who tried to gain popularity and fame through coupling with Phoenix would be criticized to death by Phoenix’s fans all over the world before Phoenix even made his move.

They were convinced that any woman who dated a heartthrob like Best Actor Feng would be desecrating him.

Today, everyone finally saw where Best Actor Feng’s heart resided.

He came over for him; he retreated for him; he moved his entire business empire to Camino for him.

Meanwhile, his heart ached for him; he ached for his body; he spoiled him with the ultimate love.

“Ahhhh, Best Actor Feng and his boyfriend are so handsome!”

“It’s true! I’ve never seen such handsome men before. They’re so perfect that they could destroy the galaxy!”

“No wonder Best Actor Feng has never been involved in any scandals. Whenever someone stirs up some scandal, he’d eliminate them immediately. So, now we know it’s all for his dearest top!”

“If I were Best Actor Feng, I’d also ban those flirtatious sluts for the sake of that handsome man! Those women are nothing but an insult when compared to this handsome top!”

“Oh, oh, oh! The top is such a macho man! Don’t you think they’re very in love with each other? Previously, when the president nearly got knocked down, Phoenix pulled her into his arms. At that time, I was overwhelmed by the realization of how great a boyfriend Phoenix would be. Yet, once his top stepped out, Phoenix immediately became a weak and sickly tsundere bottom.”

“I realized earlier that Phoenix smiled at his man. I told you that but you wouldn’t believe me.”

“It’s over, I won’t be able to sleep tonight! My Xuan and his man are both so hot and handsome. It’s sending this old man’s heart exploding in everything lovey-dovey!”

“I really want to see how my Xuan is like when he’s getting conquered by the top. The view must be even more beautiful than what we see in BL comics!”

“I want to see it too... very very much...”

“Me too +1”

“Me too +2”

“Me too +10086!”

While the media and fans were in an uproar, Feng Shengxuan, the main character in this whole incident...

Chapter 1154: A Couple Full Of Gaiety

Chi Yang dragged the displeased Feng Shengxuan roughly out of the airport.

It was only when they arrived at a place where there were few people that Feng Shengxuan finally recovered from the skin-tingling disgust that Chi Yang had caused him earlier.

It had been two years since Chi Yang took over Eagle Special Forces, and KE’s Luntanese translation was actually “Kill Eagle”. In other words, they had been enemies for two whole years.

Feng Shengxuan had always thought that Chi Yang was a serious and old-fashioned man.

Yet, what did he just do in front of his fans just now?

Chi Yang took over the position Feng Shengxuan reserved for Nuannuan and said such unforgivable, disgusting, and vomit-inducing things to him.

All to make the media and his fans think that Feng Shengxuan was gay.

Moreover, he was now recognized as the one whose anus was designated to rip!!!

How did Chi Yang do something so shameless without a twitch in his expression?

Feng Shengxuan felt as if there were at least a hundred million f*ck-you horses trampling on every single nerve in his body.

He—the great King of KE, the Boss behind the world’s largest mercenary organization! He originally thought that he would be able to stir up a storm of blood and smoke once he appeared. He thought that he would be able to create an irreparable rift between Nuannuan and Chi Yang. He thought that he would be able to make Chi Yang, her so-called ‘fiance’, stand aside as all of his fans around the world cheer for him and Nuannuan’s love.

He had already planned everything so well that all it took was for him to complete his show at the airport earlier and for him to lean on Nuannuan. He knew that considering how close he was with Nuannuan, she would not push him to the ground and ignore him once she found out how sick he was.

Once Nuannuan caught him, their photos and videos together would be spread across the entire world. Everyone would know that Nangong Nuannuan was his girlfriend.

This way, once his fans discovered that Chi Yang and Nuannuan were having an unofficial relationship, Feng Shengxuan was confident that his fans would criticize Chi Yang as a useless scum on a global scale. It did not matter then, even if Chi Yang had already submitted a marriage report with Nuannuan.

Then, Feng Shengxuan only needed to create a few more scandals to expose the fact that he already had stomach cancer. Then, he would let slip that Chi Yang ignored Nuannuan's protests and unilaterally filed a marriage report to the military base, to confirm Feng Shengxuan's tragedy of Chi Yang interception. Therefore, Chi Yang would definitely become the public's scum. Those fans who felt sorry for his health would definitely think that Chi Yang had wedged himself in between him and Nuannuan while he was sick. The wrath of his global fans would definitely make them run over irrationally to the military base with raised banners, cursing Chi Yang for being the third party in this relationship.

When that happened, the military base would never accept such a girl as a military wife.

Therefore, even if Nuannuan was unwilling to accept him, Chi Yang and Nuannuan's marriage would have to be put on hold.

This way, Feng Shengxuan would finally have an opportunity to slowly insert himself into their relationship.

Who knew...

His plans were ideal, but the reality was shrill.

The person who caught him was Chi Yang.

Now, Chi Yang, this d*mn man, threw everything into this hug and successfully transformed himself and Feng Shengxuan into a full-blown gay couple.

Having been in showbiz for so many years, Feng Shengxuan was well aware of how terrifying the fujoshi [1]of today's society were.

Judging by Chi Yang's better-than-average looks, this group of women would never allow another woman to appear by Feng Shengxuan's side after seeing Chi Yang.

If Feng Shengxuan showed signs of being in love with another person, especially a woman, that particular group of fans would probably be devastated.

Chapter 1155: Absolute Bottom

Of course, as the boss of the Imperial Phoenix Group in name, Feng Shengxuan would never care about the opinions of those fans.

However, whether it was his 'change of heart' or Chi Yang's 'change of heart', the conflict would eventually land on his little girl.

After all, even he had to admit that once today's incident was over, he and Chi Yang would definitely be the most eye-catching couple in the world—the couple that received the most blessings.

If the couple that everyone looked forward to were to break up because of a woman, Nuannuan would definitely become the target of public criticism.

Feng Shengxuan raised Nuannuan by spoiling her.

No matter how harsh and cruel the training had been, he could never bear to let Nuannuan suffer too much.

As for those who caused Nuannuan to suffer and injured her before getting defeated themselves, he had long condemned them to a tragic ending.

A girl that he doted on so much should receive the best care under his wing.

How could he allow Nuannuan to be criticized by the world?

However, if he did not allow Nuannuan to be criticized by the public, he would have to continue his superficial gay relationship with Chi Yang until the day they broke up.

Moreover, before that unknown day arrived, Feng Shengxuan had to pretend to be a bottom!!!

Just thinking about it sent excruciating spasms in Feng Shengxuan's stomach.

He angrily pulled his arm out of Chi Yang's embrace and gritted his teeth at Chi Yang with anger and contempt.

In the past, he had thought that even if Chi Yang was an enemy, he was still an enemy worthy of his respect.

Now...

Bah!

Feng Shengxuan now realized that there was no enemy in the world who was more despicable, shameless, and despicable than Chi Yang!

Since Nuannuan told Chi Yang that Feng Shengxuan had a lot of fans and was rather influential in showbiz, Chi Yang brought Shengyang Group's security over too.

At that moment, the security guards had already blocked the media and reporters from the inside, so none of them could get out. Therefore, after Feng Shengxuan pulled his hand out, Chi Yang was so disgusted that he did not touch Feng Shengxuan again either.

The man looked so vile and effeminate, yet he still had the cheek to compete with him for Nuannuan?

All Chi Yang wanted to do was to ask if Feng Shengxuan had some cards up his sleeves that gave him so much confidence!

Feng Shengxuan realized that his angry glare had merely been reciprocated with Chi Yang's dismissal. After doing such a shameless thing to him, Chi Yang did not even apologize or look at Feng Shengxuan. Chi Yang's eyes remained locked on the skies—seeing this gave Feng Shengxuan angry stomach cramps.

However, when Feng Shengxuan directed his gaze at Nuannuan, his fury instantly transformed into a bucketful of grievances. He looked as if he had been tainted and wanted to be washed clean and loved.

When she met Feng Shengxuan's gaze, her mouth twitched involuntarily.

To be honest, Nuannuan did not even know how she had managed to walk out without stumbling.

When she walked toward Feng Shengxuan and Feng Shengxuan wanted to lean on her in front of everyone, she knew trouble was afoot.

It was her Big Brother Chi Yang who rescued her.

Not just that, he rescued her by sacrificing his innocence.

She had never thought that Big Brother Chi Yang would have such a scheming side to him. He led everyone into shipping this couple so easily.

When Big Brother Chi Yang helped Feng Shengxuan up just now, he exuded so much energy as the top that even she felt like she became a degenerate too.

Such strong top energy!

Moreover, even though Feng Shengxuan advocated violence, sometimes... he was quite silly.

Especially when Feng Shengxuan was very angry, he often failed to make good decisions. Plus, he was not in good health. Therefore, he had perfected the performance of being a weak tsundere by accident just now.

Chapter 1156: None Of My Business

"Why are you looking at me like that? It's not me who made you look like the bottom."

Feng Shengxuan looked at Nuannuan with a hurt expression. Just as he was about to speak, an even greater blow came.

"Big Bro, in my honest opinion, I think you have great potential to be the bottom in a relationship. Why don't you... consider dating a man?"

Feng Shengxuan glared at her and was about to flare up when Nuannuan added, "But don't covet my Big Brother Chi Yang. He's already my fiancé!"

Although Nuannuan intended to hide the truth from Feng Shengxuan until she got married, there was no point in hiding her relationship with Chi Yang now that Feng Shengxuan was here.

She made it very clear to Feng Shengxuan from the start that she did not like him romantically and only treated him as an elder brother. So now that she had a fiancé, it should not be something unacceptable either.

"Husband!" Chi Yang intercepted happily.

"Even though Nuannuan and I haven't gone to sign our marriage certificate from the Civil Affairs Department, Nuannuan is mine from her outside to her inside. She is my lawfully wedded wife who has gained recognition from my organization. Also, I'm just another ordinary man, and I won't accept any other man's advances."

At this point, it felt like this man shamelessly spread the news that he was coupling with you without your consent. Once the whole world knew that the two of you were gay and deeply in love, he told you that he would never accept any other man's advances?

Was Feng Shengxuan the culprit who wanted to turn this shameless man gay in the first place?

Feng Shengxuan looked at the girl that he raised since she was a child. Unexpectedly, Nuannuan stood with her arms crossed and looked at Feng Shengxuan as if she was looking at a love rival. She even nodded her head frantically in a cute manner.

Feng Shengxuan felt as if a mouthful of blood was stuck in his throat. These two would be the death of him anytime soon!

There was nothing but strings of profanities in his heart. He no longer wanted to smile.

So angry!

Without another word, Feng Shengxuan rushed into the car and sat in the last row. He was so angry that he did not even want to bother with the heartless girl.

To prevent Feng Shengxuan and Nuannuan from squeezing together, Chi Yang specially arranged for a minivan.

Seeing that he was sitting at the back and huddled in a corner, Chi Yang rubbed Nuannuan's head affectionately and said, "Time to go."

"Mhmm."

Just as Nuannuan was about to get into the car, Chi Yang broke out of his routine and beat her to it.

However, after he got into the car, he sat in the second row and blocked the middle aisle with his long legs. Therefore, after Nuannuan got into the car, she automatically sat in the second row next to Chi Yang.

Feng Shengxuan, who was sitting alone in the corner of the last row, "..."

Was this the proper way to treat a guest?

The car drove steadily on the road, and Chi Yang did not neglect Feng Shengxuan for even a moment.

At least in front of Nuannuan, Chi Yang still pretended to be amicable toward him.

"Big Bro, I heard from Nuannuan that you have stomach cancer. Don't worry, with Nuannuan around, she'll try her best to cure you."

Although Feng Shengxuan only wanted to curse at Chi Yang for calling him 'Big Bro', he suddenly found the motivation to smile.

"Of course. I know everything about my Nuannuan's proficiency in the field of medicine. That's the reason why I've never been worried about my stomach cancer. After all, I'm one of the closest people to Nuannuan. She'll never abandon me when I'm this sick."

He even glanced at Nuannuan smugly.

Although Feng Shengxuan's words caused Chi Yang a lot of dismay, Chi Yang had no choice but to swallow the fact that this stupid man protected Nuannuan as she grew up.

Chapter 1157: Promise

Nuannuan truly saw Feng Shengxuan as someone who was closest and most important to her. Chi Yang was even aware that Nuannuan had more feelings for Feng Shengxuan than for Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi.

Therefore, Chi Yang could not show his hatred for Feng Shengxuan and make things difficult for his little girl.

Chi Yang's gaze softened a little as he spoke to Feng Shengxuan like the perfect younger brother-in-law. "Big Bro, you're right. After knowing that you have stomach cancer, Nuannuan has been constantly worrying about you. She's also concerned that she mightn't be able to cure you. So, after discussing with me, she decided to let you stay at my place."

"What?!" Feng Shengxuan's hair stood on end, thinking that he had misheard Chi Yang.

He, Feng Shengxuan, was the hidden boss behind KE. No matter what, he was still the vice president of Imperial Phoenix Group. He deserved to live in the best place wherever he went. How could he be reduced to living in the enemy's nest?

"It's like this. My second uncle's health has been deteriorating recently. Other than treating your illness, Nuannuan has to treat my second uncle's illness as well. Our family lives within the First Ring in Emperor District, and Nuannuan lives there as well. I'm sure you know how bad traffic can be in Emperor District. Furthermore, she's about to go to Yamato to participate in a competition, so it'll be tiring for her to travel back and forth. There are very few people in our family, so we have plenty of empty rooms. Big Bro, since you're one of us now, it's only apt for you to stay in our house."

Apt my ass!

Feng Shengxuan's dismay threatened to choke him.

He did not want to stay in Chi Yang's house at all. After all, besides getting his illness treated, he had many other things to do. For example, killing Chi Yang, killing Chi Yuancheng, and destroying the Nangong family.

However, if he moved into the Chi residence, there was no way Chi Yang and Chi Yuansheng could die. He would also not be able to attack the Nangong family.

Otherwise, Nuannuan would definitely suspect him.

Even so, Chi Yang had already explained everything in full. As Nuannuan's elder brother, he could not drag her down when she was about to participate in the competition.

Therefore, what he needed to do could only be postponed.

"I see. Okay, then I'll have no choice to disturb you and your family."

"You're Nuannuan's Big Bro, so you're my Big Bro too. We're family, so there's no need to be so formal."

Chi Yang had not expected Feng Shengxuan to agree so easily. Now that his mission was completed, he did not want to talk to Feng Shengxuan anymore.

Other than matters related to Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan was very stubborn, persistent, willful, and self-centered.

More importantly, he did not like the feeling of being under someone else's roof. It would feel like two tigers fighting over their dominance over a mountain.

Therefore, Nuannuan was rather sure that Feng Shengxuan would object instinctively, but he agreed immediately after hearing that it would be inconvenient for her to travel around. This surprised her and moved her slightly.

"Nuannuan, what competition are you going to participate in? Why didn't I know about such an important matter?"

"You're so busy. This is just a small matter."

Like a resentful wife, Feng Shengxuan looked at Nuannuan with resentment written all over his face and emptiness in his heart.

After all, he was the one who watched Nuannuan grow up. On her sixth's birthday, he lit a candle for her and asked her what she wished for.

He remembered her shining obsidian eyes back then as her gaze burned into his. She asked, "Big Bro, will any wish I make come true?"

He told Nuannuan that as long as it was not something like plucking the Sun from the skies, he could ask astronauts to gather fresh meteorites from outer space if she wanted stars instead.

However, Nuannuan never made those unrealistic wishes...

Chapter 1158: Very Sick

Nuannuan closed her eyes and put her hands together. "I hope that when I grow up, I can personally destroy KE, kill King and return to my parents' side."

At that time, he just stared blankly at Nuannuan and replied, "It won't work when you say it out loud for others to hear."

However, Nuannuan was not worried at all. She beamed at him with a wide smile and said, "You're not other people. You're my Big Bro, so my wish will still come true. It definitely will."

Then, she blew the candle out with a smile.

After that, to help her fulfill her wish, he spared no effort in training her and went into hiding himself.

One day, Feng Shengxuan joined forces with Nuannuan and ambushed his own business empire. He even personally destroyed his most loyal subordinate.

Feng Shengxuan still remembered the accidental glance his subordinate gave Feng Shengxuan before he died. Nuannuan did not notice the meaning behind the glance, but Feng Shengxuan could tell that there was nothing but absolute perplexity in his eyes from the start until the end. Even so, he remained loyal to Feng Shengxuan.

It was not an understatement that for Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan willingly destroyed the base of KE that he built through his blood, sweat, and tears for 20 years. Now, he only had a small part of what KE once was—his Eldest Uncle and Viper. Even so, he was aware that both his uncle and Viper's loyalty were divided.

Meanwhile, the girl that he loved with his heart told Chi Yang everything, but she did not bother telling Feng Shengxuan a small matter such as participating in a competition in Yamato.

Feng Shengxuan came this far. Even though he had always been clear about his goal—to avenge his dead father—he knew he was getting further and further away from his goal since the day Nuannuan entered his life. In fact, if one day, he bumped into an obstacle beyond his control in his pursuit of revenge because of Nuannuan, he was rather convinced that he would aside his revenge and take care of Nuannuan.

However, when Feng Shengxuan saw Nuannuan and Chi Yang sitting together and staring at each other in silence with that damnable gentleness that no other presence could disturb, the pain in Feng Shengxuan's stomach reached its peak while his heart ached too.

Feng Shengxuan closed his eyes, refusing to look at these two eyesores anymore.

Previously on the plane, he had been so excited to see Nuannuan that he had not been able to sleep. All of a sudden, drowsiness overtook him and Feng Shengxuan's consciousness quickly became muddled.

In his dazed state, he sensed Nuannuan walking to his side and feeding him a pill. She even gave him a cup of warm water to drink.

Feng Shengxuan obeyed and fell asleep.

He was about to go to Chi Yang's house, the house of his father's murderer.

However, just like how Nuannuan trusted him, Feng Shengxuan let down his guard completely because Nuannuan was there.

In the past few days, his health deteriorated rapidly since he delayed his treatment. Coupled with Bai Liyue's sudden disappearance, he was too anxious to sleep. Hence, after finally meeting up with Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan slept soundly in the car. Even when Nuannuan tried to wake him up to feed him his medicine, he was still groggy.

Seeing Nuannuan holding Feng Shengxuan's hand sorrowfully, Chi Yang's eyes narrowed. He suppressed his extreme jealousy and asked, "How's he doing?"

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang with redness welling up around her eyes.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, he's very sick."

Chi Yang frowned. "Isn't there something you can do?"

“His cancer cells have already spread to his liver and kidneys. The best I can do now is delay his death. It will be very difficult to cure him completely.”

Chapter 1159: Feng Shengxuan's Position

Most importantly, Nuannuan still needed to improve her supernatural ability because she could only see a portion of the larger cancer cells, not the tiny ones.

However, this person...

This was her Big Bro who grew up with her, took care of her, and protected her.

Without Big Bro, she would probably be experimented on already...

Therefore, although she could not reciprocate his feelings for her romantically, Feng Shengxuan was more important than her parents and even her family.

The thought that he might soon face death made her feel especially sad and... lost.

She had originally thought that Feng Shengxuan would spare no effort to stop her and Chi Yang after finding out about their relationship. She also told herself internally that if Feng Shengxuan ever attacked Big Brother Chi Yang, she would never forgive him.

However, the moment she saw him; the moment Feng Shengxuan agreed to move into Chi Yang's house for her sake, her heart melted into a puddle of mess.

What was she supposed to do with a man like that?

Seeing Nuannuan in such a sad state, Chi Yang set aside his jealousy. He reached out to hold her hand and said, “I believe you can save him. If you're too worried to leave him in someone else's care, then work hard to improve yourself. Firstly, you should delay the outbreak of his illness by and then, come up with a way to operate on him.”

Nuannuan nodded.

Looking at the concerned Chi Yang, Nuannuan apologized, “I'm sorry, Big Brother Chi Yang. I've never mentioned my big brother before. At the time, I was afraid that you'd be unhappy after knowing about him, so I wanted to tell you about him after we got married. I didn't expect this to happen.

“Big Bro has always been in love with me, but Big Brother Chi Yang, please believe me. No matter what he says or does for me, I've never accepted his feelings. Every time he expresses his feelings like this, I'll nip it in the bud. I've been assertive enough in this sense, but he never gave up.

“I initially wanted to give him the cold treatment. So, when I returned to Camino, Selina and the others said that they wanted to come over, so I let them. Big Bro is the only exception.

“But looking at him now, I feel really sad. Big Brother Chi Yang, I...”

The next moment, Chi Yang's lips sealed Nuannuan's lips.

Chi Yang's refreshing scent enveloped her and lingered around her, gradually waking up her muddled mind. She suddenly regained control over her emotions that threatened to burst through this kiss.

"Silly girl!" Chi Yang lovingly rubbed Nuannuan's nose and said, "Why are you explaining this to me? Aren't we the same being now?"

"I know he likes you, so at the airport earlier, I'd rather the fans have a misunderstanding about me and him than let them think that there's anything between you and him. However, I also know that you grew up under his protection and he took care of you. The relationship between you and him is definitely more extensive than the romantic relationship between a man and a woman."

Upon hearing this, Nuannuan quickly shook her head and explained, "My relationship with him can't compare to my relationship with you! It's true! If he dares to interfere in our relationship and hurt me, I'm willing to place righteousness before family and ignore him forever."

Chi Yang chuckled. "So, you're saying that it's only a romantic relationship between you and me?"

Nuannuan, "...???"

"We aren't just in a romantic relationship with each other..."

Chapter 1160: Not Angry

"We're each other's closest family. So, compared to Feng Shengxuan, the sense of kinship between us is already comparable to that between you and him, but what I have more is your love for me. Hence, that makes our relationship more deeply intertwined with each other than the relationship between you and him.

"Even though after I found out that he has a crush on you, and he's the kind that will do everything to cling to you to express his love, his impression on me has been slightly ruined. However, he's still the big brother that you're closest to, and he's sick. Do you think I'll be mean to a sick person?"

Seeing Nuannuan's big moe eyes, Chi Yang felt his heart burning for her when he noticed her animated obsidian eyes spoke only of guilt and fear, worrying that he might be displeased.

Cupping his hands around Nuannuan's face, Chi Yang said, "Silly girl, stop worrying. I know how sincere you are to me, so I won't be angry or sad at you because of what he has done. Furthermore, I promise you that if he wants to use kinship to launch an attack on me, I won't allow him to reap any benefits from me. Didn't you see how he suffered in silence just now? Before I got into the car, I already made arrangements for technicians to get rid of all the pictures with my face on them.

"Therefore, in the future, his fans will only know that he is a bottom and that he has a boyfriend who's a top, but they won't know that that person is me."

Hearing Chi Yang's words, Nuannuan could not help but burst out laughing.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you're so evil. I'm telling you, I've never seen his expression so grave before. He must have been extremely angry. Hahahaha..."

Nuannuan smiled so happily when she spoke about how angry Feng Shengxuan must have been. The jealousy that Chi Yang had felt earlier was instantly replaced with sweetness.

"But how did you find out that he's been pestering me? Don't tell me that you guys... met before?"

Thinking of this, Nuannuan's heart skipped a beat.

This was totally something that Feng Shengxuan would do.

"No, but he called you yesterday, and you were taking a shower upstairs. I picked up the call for you, so I chatted with him. Don't worry, our call ended because he crushed the phone."

Nuannuan glanced at Chi Yang. "So, my phone has been replaced with a new one, not because you accidentally dropped it on the floor, but because you were angry at my Big Bro?"

Chi Yang leaned down to kiss Nuannuan again. It was only after he had gotten enough love from her that he said smugly, "I was a little angry at first, but after he crushed the phone, I stopped being angry."

Nuannuan, "..."

Feng Shengxuan had no idea that the two of them spoke ill about him like this after he surrendered himself to his fatigue. Otherwise, he would have chosen to stay awake no matter how tired he was.

When they arrived at the Chi family mansion, Nuannuan called out at Feng Shengxuan. However, since he was too tired and the pill that Nuannuan gave him was able to induce sleep, he could not wake up at all. Therefore, Chi Yang got the guards to find a stretcher and carried Feng Shengxuan to the stretcher before sending him into the house.

Although Feng Shengxuan was someone of the younger generation, he was Nuannuan's big brother who watched over Nuannuan since she was young. Therefore, Old Master Chi and Second Uncle stayed up and waited for Feng Shengxuan to arrive.

When they saw Chi Yang ordering someone to fetch the stretcher, Old Master Chi and Second Uncle came outside in spite of themselves.

"Chi Yang, what's going on? Why is Nuannuan's big brother unconscious? Should we send him to the hospital?"

"There's no need for that. He just fell asleep after taking some medicine."

After Chi Yang explained, the two of them finally breathed a sigh of relief.
