Chapter 1161: Old Master's Concern

"Grandpa, Second Uncle, why aren't you asleep yet? Didn't I tell you to sleep first and not stay up to wait?"

Seeing the worry in Nuannuan's eyes, Old Master and Second Uncle smiled. "It doesn't make much of a difference staying up for a short while. After all, he's your big brother. How is he? Is he okay?"

"Yes, I'll just give him some treatment here. He hates going to the hospital. Grandpa, he's asleep anyway, so he won't be able to see you two. You and Second Uncle should go and rest first."

As they spoke, the guards had already carried Feng Shengxuan out of the car.

The moment Old Master Chi saw the sleeping Feng Shengxuan, his eyes narrowed.

They had long arranged Feng Shengxuan's room for him. He would be staying in one of the guest rooms.

The master bedroom that Nuannuan and Chi Yang were staying in was located on the southeast corner of the third floor, while Feng Shengxuan's bedroom was on the northwest corner of the second floor.

Chi Yang was the one who made this arrangement. To put it nicely, he claimed that the room on the second floor's northwest corner had the same layout as their master bedroom on the third floor. Since it was the largest room, the guest deserved the best treatment when he was here.

Thus, Feng Shengxuan was sent to the furthest room on the second floor.

Knowing Feng Shengxuan's habits, Nuannuan got the servants to change Feng Shengxuan's clothes and wipe down his body. After everything was done, she started prepping herself to treat Feng Shengxuan with acupuncture.

However, when she was about to enter Feng Shengxuan's bedroom, she saw her grandfather walking over.

"Grandpa, why aren't you asleep yet?"

Grandpa smiled gently and said, "I can't really sleep after staying up past a certain point in time. I thought that you might be busy here, so I'm here to see if you need my help."

Nuannuan smiled and said, "There's nothing much. I'm just going to perform acupuncture on him, and then I'll be off to bed too."

Nuannuan was prepared to enter the room as they spoke. Old Master Chi saw that she was holding a large plate with many small fire cans on it, so he quickly opened the door for her.

Behind the door, Feng Shengxuan lay on the bed with his eyes closed and a pallid face—he looked terminally ill.

After setting down her things, Nuannuan looked at Old Master Chi. She blinked and asked, "Grandpa, do you want to see me perform acupuncture?"

Old Master Chi asked tentatively, "Can I?"

“Of course you can, but it might take an hour or so. You should go and rest whenever you feel tired.”

“Sure, sure, sure. I’m not tired, not tired at all. I’m just interested in your acupuncture.”

“Oh, okay! Okay! Where’s Chi Yang?”

“Big Brother Chi Yang is busy working in the study.”

“Oh, well. He does have too many things to do. Even if he ends his mission two days early, he doesn’t have any free time at home. Thank you for putting up with the trouble, Nuannuan.”

“Grandpa, what are you talking about? I don’t feel troubled at all. As long as I can be with Big Brother Chi Yang, I’m happy. Life is always sweet whenever Big Brother Chi Yang is around.”

Old Master Chi had originally wanted to lament his dead son, but he ended up bursting out in laughter because of Nuannuan.

After unintentionally calming her grandfather down, Nuannuan started to treat Feng Shengxuan’s illness.

She started with his stomach.

Thankfully, she had improved her supernatural ability and she could now see the large cells in the blood. Thus, she could see the cancer cells that were characterized with furry black exteriors in Feng Shengxuan’s stomach slowly eating away at the normal cells.

However, it seemed like his normal cells were still trying to resist.

Chapter 1162: Needle

While cancer cells engulfed normal cells, normal cells continued to be reproduced as part of the body’s immune mechanisms, eliminating cancer cells in the same way.

Nuannuan opened up a packet of needles that housed various types of silver needles, custom-made from Country M. The thinnest silver needle was precise to 0.09 millimeters. It was the thinnest needle available in the market.

This type of needle could only be produced by masters of the art, therefore, there were not many of them. In the first batch of needles, Nuannuan only ordered 500 to be made.

Nuannuan could not bear the idea of wasting them. Thus, she could not make herself throw the needles away after using them. She would disinfect the needles using distilled water before reusing the needles.

Nuannuan observed the cancer cells in Feng Shengxuan’s body. This was the first time she used acupuncture to stimulate cancer cells. She did not know what would happen.

However, according to her eyes, even though the tip of the needle was already as small as 0.09 millimeters, it was still too big compared to cancer cells.

As expected, after Nuannuan pierced the needle through, the tip of the needle was still too many times larger than the cancer cells. It did not matter that she could zoom in on the cancer cells countless times to see them with her naked eyes.

Based on the ratio of needles and cancer cells inside, the largest cancer cells were less than one micron, which meant that they were less than 0.001 millimeters.

In other words, the smallest needle created by the experts she hired was ninety times larger than the largest cancer cell.

Therefore, when the needle went in, not only did it destroy the cancer cells, but it also damaged the surrounding normal cells that were fighting against the cancer cells.

It was just like how Nuannuan imagined it to be.

Looking at the densely packed cancerous cells in Feng Shengxuan's stomach that were nearly as much as the normal cells there, she felt a headache coming on.

"What's wrong? Can't you do it?"

Old Master Chi experienced Nuannuan's acupuncture before. She was fast, accurate, and effective. Most importantly, whether it was Nuannuan treating the elderly leg problems, Nangong Renyi's heart problems, or even treating Second Elder's internal injuries, she had done it without hesitation.

This was the first time he had seen Nuannuan hesitate so much.

Nuannuan inserted the needle, spun it twice, and pulled it out. Then, she looked at Feng Shengxuan's body and frowned.

Nuannuan raised her head and looked at the old master. She had no intention of lying to him. She waved the silver needle in her hand and said, "This is the thinnest silver needle I can find, but it is still too thick."

The old master took the silver needle from Nuannuan's hands. Due to his presbyopia, he could not see where the silver needle was. Using his hands to feel for the needle, he could only see the outline of the needle through the light that reflected off it.

"How thin is this needle? How thin do you need it to be? I can ask the Medic Association Hospital if they can make this needle."

Although Nuannuan had X-ray vision, was proficient in medicine and acupuncture, she was not that omnipotent to know how to forge needles.

Therefore, when she heard her grandpa's offer, she perked up hopefully.

"This needle is 0.09 millimeters, and what I need is a needle that is many times thinner than this."

"How many times?"

"Preferably 90 times."

Old Master Chi, "..."

"I also know that's impossible, so I'll take anything thinner."

The old master nodded. "Okay, I'll call the Medic Association Hospital tomorrow to ask if there's anyone who can forge this type of silver needles."

"Okay, thank you, Grandpa."

Chapter 1163: Is He Curable?

"What nonsense are you spouting?! We're family, so why are you thanking me? By the way, if we can't produce such a thin needle, is he still... curable?"

"Currently, I can only delay the outbreak of his illness. I can't effectively put his condition under control, limit the growth of cancer cells, or eliminate cancer cells."

"Then..."

"But I'll come up with something. He only has mid-stage cancer, and he'll have at least three months to half a year before it reaches late-stage cancer. Through acupuncture, it can be delayed until a year later. The rest will depend on whether I can make a breakthrough in my medical proficiency after a year. If not, he can only go for surgery and chemotherapy after a year, but it still won't be effective."

"That's good, that's good! Nuannuan, you're so superb in medicine that the director of Emperor District Military Medical University is amazed by your medical skills. Grandpa believes that with time, you'll definitely achieve a breakthrough."

Nuannuan paused, then nodded. "Yes, I think so too. I'm sure I can save my Big Bro."

"That's good, that's good! Then... are you still going to perform acupuncture on him?"

Nuannuan nodded. "Yes, I was just trying to test out a theory. If it doesn't, I have other ways to delay his illness from worsening. On one hand, I can give him acupuncture, and on the other, I can make my own medicine. The two combined will allow him to recover a lot in a short time. With time, I'll be able to let him recover enough to stay in the early stage or middle stage."

"Oh, I see. I see."

Old Master Chi nodded. Seeing that Nuannuan kept chatting with him and Feng Shengxuan's shirt had been open for a while now without receiving any treatment, Old Master Chi realized that he had spoken too much tonight.

"You're always answering my questions. I'm making you unable to focus on treating your big brother. I think I should leave."

Nuannuan smiled and said, "It's alright, Grandpa. You can watch as much as you want."

"Heh, forget it, forget it. After talking to you about such an academically in-depth problem for a while, I'm starting to feel sleepy. I should go back to sleep."

"Okay, take care, Grandpa."

“Sure, sure, sure.” Seeing that Nuannuan was about to stand up to send him off, the old master quickly added, “Don’t get up, I’ll go back to my room myself.”

Nuannuan smiled. “Okay.”

Nuannuan responded and started to perform acupuncture on Feng Shengxuan.

Although the silver needle was indeed much thicker than a single cell, every time the silver needle pricked into the cancer cells, it would kill many normal cells in the process too. However, Nuannuan’s every prick targeted the area where a lot of cancer cells gathered—especially where more cancer cells and fewer normal cells aggregated.

Therefore, a lot of cancer cells died after each prick.

This was similar to radiation therapy and chemotherapy in western medicine.

Radiation therapy would kill every cell in a part of the patient’s body, including cancer cells and normal cells, as well as immune cells.

Therefore, most patients who underwent radiation therapy or chemotherapy would be very weak since the treatments not only destroyed the cancer cells in their bodies but also destroyed normal and immune cells too.

Without immune cells in the human body, viruses could easily invade the human body. This was why cancer patients who received radiation and chemotherapy had to stay in sterile wards—their bodies had lost their resistance to viruses.

However, acupuncture was a much gentler treatment than radiation and chemotherapy.

Even so, since her needle was too thick and her supernatural ability was quite limited in this sense, Nuannuan could only kill the most harmful and largest cancer cells.

Chapter 1164: Treatment

Additionally, with every prick, Nuannuan would ensure that the needle landed somewhere where the cancer cells far exceeded the number of normal cells. Therefore, after 500 pierces, the remaining number of normal cells would be more than cancer cells.

Then, Nuannuan removed her needles and disinfected them with boiling distilled water. Then, she used them again and continued to pierce the cancer cells.

More than an hour later, most of the larger cancer cells that were visible to Nuannuan had been removed.

The remaining cancer cells continued to grow in places with a lot of normal cells, so Nuannuan left those places alone.

This was because not only were there normal cells everywhere, there were also many immune cells. These immune cells were warriors filled with positivity that would phagocytize cancer cells, so they should be preserved. Nuannuan still wanted to help Feng Shengxuan preserve these immune cells.

Otherwise, it would be too cruel to Feng Shengxuan if such a powerful mercenary like him would fall severely ill just by being in the wind.

Nuannuan removed her needles and buttoned up his pajamas. After tucking him into a thin blanket, she left the room.

Just as Nuannuan was about to leave the room, she accidentally caught a glimpse of the heater. She was stunned when she read the temperature reading.

Grandpa must have adjusted the temperature, right?

As for Feng Shengxuan's ideal temperature, Nuannuan understood him too well after spending 14 years with him.

He liked to be cold, not hot.

Therefore, she had instructed the servants to increase the temperature of the room to 20 degrees Celsius.

Afterward, when she was performing acupuncture on Feng Shengxuan, she noticed that he started to sweat. She thought that it was because he was not feeling well. However, later on, even she started to feel hot. She simply dismissed it, thinking that perhaps she was being too serious. Now, looking at the temperature reading that said 28 degrees Celsius, Nuannuan was at a loss as to whether she should laugh or cry.

The next day, Feng Shengxuan woke up to find himself lying on a huge, soft bed.

The colors in the room had a black and white theme; it was the color scheme that he liked.

Feng Shengxuan's lips curled up into an extremely malicious smile.

He knew that Nuannuan cared about him. Even the colors of the room were done according to his preferences.

The bedding was white with dark silver embroidery. It was beautifully minimalistic.

Reaching out, he switched on the table lamp. Beside the table lamp was several pieces of paper that had been printed and sealed in a bag. Written on it were the Chi family's schedule and routine down to the details of what the Chi family would do at every section of the day.

Then, it also told Feng Shengxuan that if he missed breakfast at 7 in the morning, he could call the house chef from his room and order his favorite food to be brought upstairs, or he could go downstairs to eat.

The same applied to lunch and dinner.

After that, the paper also listed out the equipment in his room and each of their location. Everything was written clearly without anything amiss.

Although the room that Feng Shengxuan was staying in was a guest room, there were several separate rooms within it. There was a bedroom, a balcony, a bathroom, and a study room. Although it could not compare to his grand manor, it was still complete in every aspect.

At least he would have his personal space while he was in his enemy's house.

Looking at how everything was written down in the tiny booklet, Feng Shengxuan reserved all the kudos to Nuannuan for being so thorough.

His little girl had really grown up. She knew how to take care of people now.

Since there was a manual, Feng Shengxuan found the remote control in the room easily. He turned on all the lights in the room before opening up the curtains.

The morning light shone through the window, and the pain in his stomach stopped coming in spasms.

Chapter 1165: Evil

Feng Shengxuan was in a good mood. All of a sudden, it did not feel too bad to be living here after all.

Although the Chi residence was the kind of house where the buildings surrounded a courtyard on all four sides—the kind that emanated strong folk culture—everything in the room was automated.

It seemed like this boring Chi Yang was quite good at keeping a low profile. As the only useful male member of the Chi family, not only did he manage the military base well, he even took good care of his family. Most importantly, he actually found time to snatch Feng Shengxuan's little girl.

Feng Shengxuan shuddered at the thought of what happened at the airport last night.

Yesterday, he fell asleep because he was too sick. He even forgot to contact his men to delete everything related to the airport incident from the internet.

He knew that there was nothing he could do now, so he fished out his phone to check the news.

[Shocking!!! Discovering Best Actor Feng's BOYFRIEND at the airport!!!]

[Blocking reporters in a fit of rage, Best Actor Feng's boyfriend is awesome!]

[Ultimate bottom in history! He's the reason Best Actor Feng never got into scandals with female celebrities!]

[Imperial Phoenix's business empire has been relocated. Will there be good news for Best Actor Feng?]

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

As expected, everyone would misunderstand the situation gravely.

However, what the hell was the 'ultimate bottom in history'?

Then, he scrolled through his fans' comments.

[Praise be with Lil Bottom Feng! Please be happy! +127801]

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Lil Bottom Feng? They gave him a new name?

He scrolled down and realized that the entire comment thread was filled with reposts of the same line. His fans layered the same comments one after another as though they had nothing better to do.

Therefore, after heading to the next hundred comment pages, only then did he see the weird and unsightly comments.

[I'm so envious of the babies who managed to see the handsome and strong top at the airport.]

[I'm envious too. I really want to see how handsome a man is to gain our Lil Bottom Feng's heart.]

[Let me tell you guys, the handsome top is really manly and super macho. Lil Bottom Feng has always been the epitome of manliness but when he started acting so coquettishly in front of his strong top... Oh, ho ho ho! They're so sweet I'm getting a toothache.]

[Hahaha, please explain in detail! I want to know how coquettishly my Lil Bottom Feng can be.]

[Details +1]

[Details +2]

[Details +197]

Feng Shengxuan glanced at the comment thread and saw that the comment thread reached 197 reposts within seconds. It had not even been one minute since the original post.

[Our fan club's president nearly fell. Lil Bottom Feng pulled the president into her arms like a strong, reliable man. At that time, everyone thought that Lil Bottom Feng was exuding so so so... so much best boyfriend energy. However, the second the man appeared, Lil Bottom Feng said to the man, "If you don't save me now, I'll be squashed like butter." That resentful look in his eyes led us into thinking that he was addressing the girl standing next to the top. Everyone watched the video, right? He might have been talking to the girl, but his eyes were on the handsome top. Unfortunately, all the media thought that the girl was Lil Bottom Feng's girlfriend and went to take pictures of her instead. Eventually, Lil Bottom Feng plunged collapsed forward because he wasn't feeling well. It was then that everyone realized that there was never a female lead in Lil Bottom Feng's life story because it has always been a male lead!]

[Ahahahaha... Squashed like butter! I really want to ask my Xuan, where did you get the butter from? Is your Lil Top trying to squeeze it out of your nnn?]

[Upstairs, that's evil!]

[That's too evil! How dare you speak like that about my Xuan! But I really want to see my Xuan get his nnn squeezed too! Ahahahaha...]

[I want to see it too!]

Feng Shengxuan was so angry that he could feel blood gushing into his brain. To prevent himself from dying from cerebral hemorrhage before his stomach cancer could end him, he disconnected himself from the internet. Then, he called his men and told them how to contact him in the future. Then, he told them to deal with the news on the internet. No similar gossip must be leaked out like this in the future.

He felt like he had dug himself a huge pit.

However, this was all Chi Yang's fault.

Feng Shengxuan tidied himself up and looked at the clock. The Chi family was still eating breakfast, so he walked downstairs.

Downstairs, Nuannuan and Chi Yang were having breakfast with Old Master and Second Uncle.

Although there were very few people in the Chi family, the scene of the four people seated at the table appeared to be extremely warm and lively to Feng Shengxuan. How envious.

"Big Bro!"

When Nuannuan saw Feng Shengxuan, she immediately stood up and walked toward him.

Looking at Nuannuan's smile that was even brighter than the morning sun, Feng Shengxuan's usually grim face broke into a smile that only appeared when Nuannuan was around. Then, he quickly went down the stairs to close the distance between him and Nuannuan, who was welcoming him.

Walking up to Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan reached out to stroke her head and asked, "I feel much better today. Did you perform acupuncture on me yesterday?"

Chi Yang sat in his seat and his pupils constricted slightly.

Following Chi Yang's lead, Old Master Chi narrowed his eyes at Feng Shengxuan too.

Meanwhile, the calm Chi Zeyao narrowed his eyes slightly. A glint from the morning light reflected off his glasses.

While they were sizing up Feng Shengxuan, Feng Shengxuan was also sizing everyone up.

However, Nuannuan slapped Feng Shengxuan's hand down mercilessly with a loud pak.

"Don't touch me."

Feng Shengxuan stopped surveying the Chi family and immediately shifted all his attention to Nuannuan. With a face full of dissatisfaction, he said fiercely to Nuannuan, "What do you mean 'touch' you? I just rubbed your head. How is that 'touching' you? Can't I rub my younger sister's head as her big brother?"

Whether it was Selina, Aiden, or Dan Qi, they would not dare to speak whenever Feng Shengxuan started to get angry at them. After all, before they had grown up, Feng Shengxuan was already considered one of KE's higher-ups.

Nuannuan was the only exception. Whenever Feng Shengxuan started to get menacing, she would be even more menacing than Feng Shengxuan. Meanwhile, Feng Shengxuan might often throw a tantrum, but he never punished her. With time, Feng Shengxuan became a paper tiger in their eyes.

Thus, Nuannuan did not give in to Feng Shengxuan's menace at all. She glared at him and hissed, "Even if you're my big brother, you can't touch my head in front of Big Brother Chi Yang. Even if I'm your younger sister, I'm already a woman who has a man. No matter how close we are, we're not biologically related siblings. Furthermore, even my blood-related elder brothers have never touched my head like this! So, you're not allowed to touch me again without my permission."

Nuannuan's words calmed Chi Yang down immediately despite nearly bursting into a fit of rage.

Chapter 1167: Angry

Old Master Chi's awkward expression was replaced with warmth.

Second Uncle Chi smiled too.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

As the saying goes, a married daughter was like water poured. Once a woman married a man, she would be extremely biased toward the outsider.

However, his Nuannuan was not even married yet. Not only was she biased, but she was totally on Chi Yang's side now!

Angry!

Instantly, Feng Shengxuan was so angry that he lost all desire to talk to Nuannuan. He walked around her and walked toward the dining table.

Seeing this, Chi Yang stood up and politely said, "Big Bro, have a seat."

“Big Bro, let me introduce you to everyone. This is Big Brother Chi Yang’s grandfather. You can call him Grandpa Chi, or you can call him Grandpa as I do. Grandpa is very concerned about you. He watched over you as I performed acupuncture on you last night.”

Old Master Chi chuckled and looked at Feng Shengxuan with a face full of kindness.

Feng Shengxuan really wanted to shoot this old man in the face for killing his father. However, when he thought about how Nuannuan asked him to follow her lead and call him Grandpa, he immediately forgot about his father’s death and called out without hesitation—

“Hello, Grandpa!”

“Good, good! Hello! Hello, Lil Xuan!” The old master nodded excitedly. Chi Yang and Chi Zeyao looked at the old master in surprise but did not say anything.

Chi Yang, in particular, was still cursing in his heart. He did not understand why was his grandfather treating his love rival so well.

“This is Big Brother Chi Yang’s second uncle. You can follow me and call him Second Uncle too.”

“Hello, Second Uncle.”

Chi Zeyao smiled faintly. Behind his glasses was a pair of gentle yet sharp eyes.

However, the pair of eyes were well hidden behind his glasses, giving off the illusion that he was gentle and easy to get along with.

The light in Feng Shengxuan’s eyes darkened slightly. He immediately placed this second uncle in the wheelchair on the list of dangerous people.

He had always known that the Chi family adopted a son off the streets. When the scout returned from gathering information, he said that the man was not in good health and was a useless person. All he knew was to stay in the Chi family’s courtyard and guide the gardeners in tending to the plants.

Now, it seemed like the intelligence gathered was a little too far-fetched from the truth!

Chi Zeyao smiled. “Nice to meet you. It’s an honor to meet the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group.”

Feng Shengxuan smiled. “Second Uncle, please don’t ridicule me. The title of Imperial Phoenix Group’s chairman was given to me by Nuannuan. To be honest, all of these businesses belong to Nuannuan. I’m just helping her manage them. However, now that my body has become like this, I’ve moved the Imperial Phoenix Group back to the country. In the future, if Nuannuan has the time, she’ll have to take care of it herself.”

Old Master Chi and Second Uncle looked at Nuannuan in shock.

Meanwhile, Nuannuan looked at Feng Shengxuan in shock and dismay.

“You really transferred Imperial Phoenix Group here?”

“Why? Didn’t Aiden and the others tell you?” Feng Shengxuan raised his brows. “I’ve sent someone to deliver all the documents to Aiden and the rest in Jiang District.”

"Aiden and the others are currently in Emperor District, and they've been with me for the past few days."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

"Maybe they'll receive the documents soon. I've gotten someone professional to handle this. From now on, I'll leave Imperial Phoenix Group in your hands."

"Then, what will you do?"

Feng Shengxuan took a sip of the millet congee that a servant served him and beamed a sleazy smile at Nuannuan. "I'm recuperating here, at Grandpa's place!"

"Are you sure you're recuperating and not turning into a pig here?"

Chapter 1168: Furious

"Feng Shengxuan, haven't you realized that you've gained weight recently? Haven't you realized that you're not as handsome as before?"

Feng Shengxuan instantly exploded in anger. "How could I have gained weight? I've been terribly sick. That evil woman, Bai Liyue, doesn't care about me at all. I feel like I've become as thin as a bolt of lightning, okay? Nuannuan, you mustn't learn from that evil Bai Liyue. You must be nice to me!"

Feng Shengxuan sat on Nuannuan's right, while Chi Yang sat on Nuannuan's left. Therefore, when Feng Shengxuan said this, he threw Chi Yang a deliberate glance that meant to provoke him.

In the face of provocation, Chi Yang picked up some food with his chopsticks and placed it by Nuannuan's mouth. Nuannuan opened her mouth involuntarily to receive the food.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Chi Yang spoke, "Nuannuan, where did your Big Sis Yue go? Why don't you help Big Bro find her? After all, he's sick now and can use a woman to take care of him."

"Okay."

After all, Feng Shengxuan picked a fight with her Big Brother Chi Yang first. Of course, Nuannuan would help Big Brother Chi Yang without hesitation.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

He did not want to say anything else anymore.

His stomach ached.

His head ached.

His heart ached.

Even his nerves were in pain!

"Imperial Phoenix Group is one of the top ten corporations in the world. This year, it might leap to the front and become one of the top three corporations in the world. I didn't expect Nuannuan to be the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group. That's amazing. Our Chi Yang is really lucky." Chi Zeyao immediately changed the topic.

When Feng Shengxuan, who had already lapsed into angry silence, heard that, he put himself forward like a lone soldier and offered, "My little girl has always been excellent. It's a pity that some people don't know anything other than training soldiers. They only know how to freeload his woman at home."

When Nuannuan heard this, her fury peaked too.

How dare she say that her Big Brother Chi Yang was a freeloader?

Putting aside the fact that Chi Yang and Second Uncle Chi started Shengyang Group, even the businesses that Chi Yang and his friends worked together to establish were enough to compare to the value of assets of those of first-tier wealthy families. However, she could not reveal all of these.

"Feng Shengxuan, even Second Uncle's homemade meat buns can't shut you up, right? Do you want my help to shut you up?"

Nuannuan slammed her chopsticks on the table with a loud pak, while unleashing her furious aura. She roared, "Do you believe that I'll throw you out right now and ignore you?"

Nothing scared Feng Shengxuan. However, after spending so much time with him, Nuannuan knew that no matter how cruel Feng Shengxuan was, he would be scared whenever she said that she would ignore him.

This time was no exception. When Feng Shengxuan heard that Nuannuan wanted to chase him out and ignore him, he quickly shut up and ate obediently.

Chi Yang swallowed a mouthful of porridge and said slowly, "What's the point of owning so many businesses? Our family isn't lacking in money anyway. Nuannuan is already so rich, so I'll just be responsible for spoiling her. As for freeloading off her... don't you think that's a very blissful thing?"

Feng Shengxuan, "...!!!"

Feng Shengxuan's eyes turned red with envy when he thought about how Chi Yang could freeload off his precious Nuannuan.

He wanted to freeload off Nuannuan too...

To prevent Nuannuan from ignoring him, Feng Shengxuan swallowed the anger Chi Yang incited in him and endured it even though smoke nearly came out of his ears.

Through this breakfast, Old Master Chi and Second Uncle could tell that Nuannuan's Big Brother was not easy to get along with.

With an apologetic expression, Nuannuan said to Old Master Chi and Second Uncle, "Grandpa, Second Uncle, I'm sorry to have made a fool of myself in front of you. My Big Bro has always been like this. I've only agreed to Big Brother Chi Yang's request to bring my Big Bro over because it'll be convenient for me. However, it seems like he's not the best person for social interactions. I'll just buy him a house nearby and let him settle down there."

Chapter 1169: Three Thousand Enemies Dead, Eight Hundred In Collateral

"I just got here and you want to chase me away? I'm still someone sick..." Feng Shengxuan was extremely worried.

He was afraid that Nuannuan would ignore him after buying him a house, except the time when she gave him acupuncture treatment. This heartless girl would definitely do such a thing.

However, Nuannuan's suggestion triggered opposition from the three men from the Chi family.

"Nuannuan, Big Bro is just being straightforward and blunt, but I'm sure he's simply joking with us, right, Big Bro?"

"..." Even though he was dissatisfied, Feng Shengxuan still nodded and stood on Chi Yang's side just so he would not get chucked out of the house. "Yes."

Chi Zeyao instantly understood Chi Yang's intentions. He immediately decided to be the guardian of Chi Yang's love life and help him supervise this love rival.

Second Uncle Chi smiled and said, "I also find this child very pleasing to the eye, and I feel that I have a special affinity with him at first glance. So Nuannuan, don't chase Lil Xuan away. His temperament is something that we could use in this house."

Old Master Chi nodded quickly. "That's right, Nuannuan. Grandpa likes Lil Xuan very much too. Just let him stay."

Nuannuan looked at the family suspiciously. After confirming that the anticipation in their eyes was not a lie, she looked at Feng Shengxuan to check if a flower had grown on his face. What made everyone like him so much?

Feng Shengxuan was happy to hear that everyone wanted him to stay. He looked at Nuannuan and gave her a charmingly stunning smile.

Feng Shengxuan's features were distinct from Chi Yang's features, but they were both equally handsome.

Chi Yang was righteous, upright, and his facial features looked like they were carved out by a knife. Every stroke that chiseled the lines on his face was done by God who sought perfection.

Feng Shengxuan looked sinfully handsome and lax. His facial features were like those of a painting, each stroke trembling from the depths of the painter's soul.

Meanwhile, Nuannuan, who was the target of two men's intense staring, calmly ate her breakfast. Then, under the two men's seemingly undisguised seduction, she finished the buns made by Second Uncle. She only left the buns made by the servants for Chi Yang and Feng Shengxuan.

After Nuannuan finished eating, she wiped her mouth and went to call the pitiful Aiden.

Chi Yang and Feng Shengxuan realized that Nuannuan had suddenly disappeared from the spot between them. The tender light in their eyes that they had originally directed toward Nuannuan was now reflected in each other's eyes.

Both of them read the discussion on ‘squeezing nnn’ this morning. After all, it went viral on the internet.

At that moment, both of them recalled this topic.

Chi Yang recalled the fan who said that they wanted to see Feng Shengxuan getting his nnn squeezed and hear the sounds he would make. Meanwhile, Chi Yang was the one who they thought would squeeze Feng Shengxuan’s nnn.

“Ugh—”

Chi Yang, who could eat even on a bloody battlefield, could not help but retch when he thought of that scene.

Simultaneously, Feng Shengxuan also started to retch.

His stomach was problematic, to begin with. The thought of Chi Yang, this disgusting enemy, stripping him naked and pinning him down in bed...

In short, Chi Yang and Feng Shengxuan ran to the bathroom at the same time.

The two of them could not help but vomit everything they had eaten last night.

After vomiting, the two went back to their rooms.

Thinking about the first time they spoke on the phone, both of them had been tortured by their anger.

The second time they met was the same. It felt like even if three thousand of their enemies died, they still suffered eight hundred in collateral.

Now, both of them were seriously considering how they should deal with each other and end their problems once and for all.

In Leng Group, Leng Qirui was sitting in a wheelchair with heavy plaster casts on his hands and feet while Selina pushed his wheelchair behind him. His face was now calm without a trace of his previous sleaziness.

Chapter 1170: Fiancée

Although Leng Qirui was only eighteen years old, he carried himself with the bearing of a bigshot in business—his aura was in no way inferior to the old chairman of the Leng Group.

From the moment Leng Qirui entered the company, everything around him fell silent. A strange atmosphere engulfed the entire building.

This was the second time the new chairman appeared. The first time he appeared, he proved his dominance over the shares. Even Ye Hai, who had acquired all the shareholders’ shares, could only return resentfully.

No one knew what kind of bloodbath he would cause with his return to the company today.

Things were vastly different from the first day he came. In the meeting that day, no one else was in the meeting room other than Leng Qirui.

However, today, when Leng Qirui's secretary pushed open the door to the chairman's meeting room, the entire room was filled with people.

"Lil Rui, will you look at the time? ...argh! Why are you here?"

Leng Jinchun and Leng Jinjie sat closest to the chairman's seat. Seeing Leng Qirui walk in, Leng Jinchun turned on boomer mode and was ready to launch into a debate.

Leng Qirui had notified the board of directors two days in advance, so Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchun called all the senior executives of the corporation here. Their purpose was to put the emperor under their control and order the dukes about in his name.

They wanted Leng Qirui to see that even though they no longer had shares of the company, they could still command the entire upper management of the company since they retained the power as important figures in the company.

Yet, even if Leng Qirui possessed the most shares, he would be a chairman without subordinates if these middle and high-level executives left Leng Group because they did not respect him.

After that, the two women convinced the senior members of these companies to resign. Once Leng Qirui found himself at a loss on what to do, the two Leng women would get him to give up his shares.

Only then could they regain their shares.

When Leng Qirui came in, Leng Jinchun was about to launch her tactical gambit on him when she recognized the person pushing Leng Qirui in shock.

The woman who led an international mercenary group and killed Ye Hai along with his group of killers!

Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchun had both experienced the woman's viciousness and were deeply afraid of her. Therefore, when they saw Selina, they forgot the lecture they intended to direct at Leng Qirui and only stared at the woman in fear. The woman reciprocated with a malicious smile.

This woman was very beautiful, but her smile was inversely proportional to her beauty.

She gave Ye Hai the same smile before.

Following that, Ye Hai lost his life.

Not only did he lose his life, but the way he died was also unbearable to look at.

He was completely skinned alive.

Selina smiled when she saw how scared Leng Jinchun was.

"It's me. Didn't I tell you the other day that I'm Leng Qirui's fiancée?"

Leng Qirui, who sat in his wheelchair, almost fell over.

Fine!

Fiancée!

Although he had never admitted to anything before, this woman upgraded her status step by step. She had gone from being Tyrannosaurus Rex's friend to his girlfriend and then to his fiancée.

From beginning to end, he was the last person to know all that.

Although Leng Jinchun was afraid of Selina, she thought of the shares she had been forced to transfer to Ye Hai. Now that Ye Hai was dead, it must be in Selina's hands, so she hissed viciously, "Where are my shares? Give me back my shares!"
