

Physician Wife 1191

Chapter 1191: Lowly

If someone as kind as Grandpa Leng and Grandma Leng adopted Selina back then, would she have been spared from getting snatched from the orphanage and sent to KE?

For Leng Jinchun to have met such wonderful adoptive parents, yet those ugly words still managed to find their ways out of her mouth. Leng Jinchun had truly taken her blessings for granted.

“Do you think that everyone in the world is as disgusting as you sisters and Ye Hai? Before we recall the fact that Grandpa Leng and Grandma Leng are your adoptive parents, even biological parents might not have treated you and your sister so well. They allocated so much of their shares to you, but you still covet Uncle Leng’s shares and want to take over the entire Leng Group. You’re like a snake trying to swallow an elephant!”

Leng Jinchun was on the verge of losing her temper. Hearing Selina’s insults, Leng Jinchun snapped back at Selina, disregarding the fact that Selina was a thousand times stronger than her.

“Shut up! Who do you think you are? You’re just a lowly killer. Do you think my parents will allow you to be together just because you can protect Lil Rui? Dream on! Even if I’m not the Leng family’s biological daughter, I’m still adopted by my parents legally through proper procedures. No matter what, I’m still the daughter of a second-tier wealthy family. As for you, you’re just someone who has only done a few things for the Leng family. I’m telling you, if the Leng family wants to find a bodyguard, we’ll find one ourselves! Shengyang Group’s security is much better than a killer like you. Do you think you can marry into the Leng family just like that? Just give up now!”

After that, Leng Jinchun turned to Old Master Leng and Madam Leng. “Dad, Mom, are you aware that this woman has her eyes on Lil Rui? Lil Rui is the heir of the Leng family, and this woman is merely a killer. Even so, she calls herself Lil Rui’s fiancée and even threw Big Sister out in such an important event.”

Subconsciously, Leng Jinchun did not want to believe that she was adopted, and she wanted to avoid the topic completely. Since she did not wish to bring up the topic again, she shifted the focus of the conflict to Selina.

However, that enraged Leng Qirui.

He just could not stand hearing anyone badmouth Selina.

“Lowly?” Leng Qirui laughed coldly. “Youngest Aunt, do you know why you’ve always been a loser in life? It’s because ever since you’re young until now, you’re still someone who doesn’t understand the situation even though you’re nearing your fifties.

“When you were young, your grandparents asked you to marry into a rich family, but you chose to marry a scumbag. You claimed that you were marrying for love. However, after the scumbag cheated on you, you started to shift your focus on money. Even if you couldn’t remarry into a wealthy family, you still wanted to become one yourself. However, because of your brainless selfishness, you ended up with nothing. Now, you’re targeting my fiancée. You keep repeating that she’s not qualified to be my fiancée. Do you think that the Duke of Luntan’s eldest daughter, a member of the royal Luntanese family, isn’t qualified to marry into our Leng family? If that doesn't give her the qualification still, how about her position as the vice president of Tianheng Holdings? If that's still not enough, what about her position as the vice president of Imperial Phoenix Group, one of the top ten companies in the world? Even so, even if Selina doesn't have any qualifications, there's something you must be clear of—I'm the chairman of Leng Group now, and I'm the only shareholder. Not even my grandparents or my dad has the right to control who I want to marry. So, who do you think you are? What gives you the right to accuse her in front of Grandpa and Grandma?"

Leng Qirui's words were harsh, but Leng Jinchen could not register anything he said after that.

What she heard was—

Selina was a member of the royal family of Luntan? The Duke's princess?

Chapter 1192: Shock

"How's that possible? How can she be a member of Luntanese royalty? How can a member of the royal family..."

Leng Jinchen's voice changed, but she gulped down the last part of her sentence, "...go around with a bunch of international mercenaries to kill people like the Mafia?"

Leng Qirui could not be bothered to waste his breath on Leng Jinchen. He told his secretary to position the notebook on her lap. Therefore, Leng Jinchen started reading the article on the floor with her face covered in tear marks.

Back then, the Nangong family had only removed Nangong Nuannuan's face digitally, but they did not do anything to Selina's face. Thus, when everyone searched for the word "Selina", a video of the facesmacking incident at Jiang District's auction would pop up on the search result.

There was a caption below the video.

A huge headline appeared before Leng Jinchen's eyes—

Shocking! What Cinderella? She's A Queen!

Although the article was about Nangong Nuannuan, Leng Jinchen recognized Selina to be the woman standing next to Nangong Nuannuan. It was also unmistakably stated in the news that Selina and Nangong Nuannuan were the daughters of the Duke of Luntan, Duke Eton. Their names were included in the Luntanese royal family's genealogy book.

Not only that, while everyone had the misconception that Selina and Nangong Nuannuan only had such a noble status because of Duke Eton, that was far from the truth.

The reason why the Luntanese royal family accepted Nangong Nuannuan and Selina, the Duke's adopted daughters, so magnanimously into their royal genealogy was mostly because the two sisters were originally from absolute wealthy families themselves.

Nangong Nuannuan was the mysterious chairman of Tianheng Holdings, while Selina was the vice president second only to Aiden.

Apart from that, Duke Eton also claimed that Nuannuan and Selina had more than one business alongside Tianheng Holdings. At the same time, all the businesses they dabbled in made a name internationally. It was just temporarily kept a secret.

However, Leng Qirui had already told everyone that Selina was also the vice president of Imperial Phoenix Group.

Imperial Phoenix Group was an ultimate consortium that would only appear on international news! This woman was actually the vice president of that consortium!

Duke Eton also mentioned the reason he was able to become the wealthiest member of the royal family—Nuannuan and Selina had borrowed some money from him when they had no money. Therefore, he had a very small share in their company. However, he had already become the wealthiest member of the royal family with whatever little shares he had. Judging from that, one could imagine how rich Nangong Nuannuan and Selina actually were.

Redness started to swell around Leng Jinchen's eyes.

She used to think that someone as skilled as Selina, who had a group of international mercenaries in tow, must be the kind of person who walked on the edge of a knife.

However, now that she thought about it, for them to own such a large business empire while becoming a noble member of the royal family, how else was she supposed to protect herself? If she did not possess some sort of skills, not only would her wealth be taken away, the royal family would probably gobble her up without leaving any bones, right?

No matter how much she detested Selina before, Leng Jinchen kept her hatred to herself after learning about her glorious identity.

She looked at Selina, who was currently leaning against Leng Qirui, and then at Leng Qirui, who was like a pile of mud. Jealousy nearly overflowed from Leng Jinchen's heart.

No matter how she looked at them, she could not understand what was so great about this useless second-generation heir.

Her parents wanted to transfer all their shares to Leng Qirui, subsequently giving the 18-year-old boy everything that she had worked so hard for her entire life.

Chapter 1193: That Is Quite Enough

Other than that, Leng Qirui had a fiancée who was so beautiful, had such a good figure, a profound background, and such a prominent status. She could even be his bodyguard when necessary.

Leng Jinchen recalled how Selina stood up for Leng Qirui after he was bullied...

Ye Hai was part of their family for so many years. Since they were afraid that Ye Hai's presence would split up their assets more, they kept doing things to him.

However, that brat was as slippery as a fish. No matter how hard they tried, they could not kill him nor catch him. Eventually, he followed Leng Jinpeng to the military base and escaped from their clutches.

They could only watch as Ye Hai's wings developed fuller and bigger.

What about Selina?

She killed Ye Hai the moment she made her move. Moreover, he died so tragically.

The more Leng Jinchun thought about it, the more jealous she became—the more she was convinced that Leng Qirui did not deserve such good luck.

Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng did not feel like talking to Leng Jinchun anymore, so they said to Mr. Ma, the lawyer, "Mr. Ma, can we start now?"

"Of course. Passing the position of chairman to Young Master Leng Qirui in front of the company's higher-ups is a very meaningful thing."

"Dad, Mom, what are you doing?"

Seeing Old Master Leng putting his pen down on the contract, Leng Jinchun ignored the pain on her body and crawled to Old Master Leng in a hurry.

As she crawled, she cried, "Are you really going to stop caring for me? Are you really going to transfer all your shares to Lil Rui? Dad, how can you be so biased?"

"You're hilarious. Didn't you hear Grandpa Leng say that you and Leng Jinjie aren't their daughters from now on? You two were adopted in the first place. When the old couple's lives were in danger, you didn't care about their lives but instead, wanted to take over like a cuckoo. Why should they leave their shares to you? What's the difference between the two of you and that vicious ingrate, Ye Hai?"

Leng Jinchun looked at Selina angrily, but she was immediately terrified when she recalled her impressive identity.

People who cared too much about power were like that. When facing someone who was not as powerful, they would still be aggressive even when their targets were humble and tolerant. However, when facing someone who they could not catch up to even after showering them with flattery, they would subconsciously avoid these powerful people even if they were malicious and mean. People like Leng Jinchun would never dare to have any thoughts of revenge for fear of losing everything they had.

"Old Chairman Leng, are you willing to transfer your shares that amounted to 60% to your grandson, Leng Qirui?"

"No! No! Objection! Dad, you're being forced to do this, aren't you? You're not doing this willingly, are you? Leng Qirui must have forced you to do this. If you didn't agree, he would've asked Selina to mess with the Leng family, right? That must be it, right? Tell the lawyer, and the lawyer will handle it fairly and justly. If you don't dare to do it, I can call the media for you! As long as the media and the public start to pay attention, Selina won't dare to do anything to the Leng family even if she's the princess of Luntan and the vice president of Imperial Phoenix Group!"

"Leng Jinchun, that's enough!" Grandma Leng could not take it anymore.

"Listen to me carefully. No one is forcing us to do this! Lil Rui is our only grandson and our only heir. We're giving our assets to our only heir, what right do you have to shout at us?"

“But I’m your daughter too! Other than Leng Qirui, you also have two grandsons, Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong!”

Chapter 1194: Go Our Own Ways

“How can you be so biased and not leave any for the three of us, a mother and her two children? How are we going to survive after this?”

Leng Jinchun was already used to speaking to the old couple like this. After knowing that she was adopted and was not related by blood with the Leng family at all, she continued to yell at Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng.

Old Master Leng gave Leng Jinchun a cold glare and asked emotionlessly, “Do you know why we adopted you?”

Leng Jinchun shook her head. “No, I’m not adopted! I don’t believe it! You already have a son, so why would you go around adopting two more daughters? Why would you add two more to your inheritance list and then, make them upset? Why would you be so nice to us? We’re definitely your biological daughters. You must be saying this so that Lil Rui can inherit all your assets, right?”

The old master said coldly, “When my wife was about to give birth to our second child, she was kidnapped. When I went to save her, the enemy ambushed me. To save me, my wife took a shot in the stomach. Our daughter died just like that, and my wife lost her ability to conceive.

“Later, even though my wife’s life was not in danger, she was still upset that she had caused her daughter’s death and failed to protect her. Seeing how sad she was every day, I suggested that she adopt one as our own daughter.

“This is why after we have an heir, we’ve added more people to our family. When we went to the orphanage, we saw Wang Jie, who was only two years old, and you, who were less than half a year old. After hearing about your family background, we pitied you two. Furthermore, you were still young and would not remember many things. When you grow up, you wouldn’t remember what happened at the orphanage either. Therefore, you’ll never abandon us just because you aren’t our biological children, so we adopted you.

“Thus, raising you two was completely out of consideration for my wife. If not for her, I wouldn’t have raised you two, much less treat you so well.

“All these years, my wife had always treated you as her own. Although I reminded her constantly that the two of you are similar to Ye Hai and are unreliable, my wife couldn’t shake off her guilt toward our daughter and shared 30% of Leng Group’s shares with you.

“So, when you were looking for a marriage partner, we repeatedly asked you to marry someone from a wealthy family because we wished that you could have a good life in the future. However, you insisted on marrying that scumbag that landed you in your current state. That was why we arranged for a job for you at the company, hoping that you would not overthink this.

“Leng Jinchun, we’ve been really good to you and your sister. As your foster father and foster mother, we’ve done all we can. Now, not only have you grown up, but you’re also in your forties. You can start taking responsibility for your own lives.”

“After what happened earlier, Madam and I have already seen through your nature. If we let you stay in the Leng family, you might take revenge on us like Ye Hai did and turn our house upside down. Since that’s the case, there’s no need for us to continue raising you.

“Before coming here, I had already recorded the video of us announcing the end of our relationship as your foster parents. Now, everything about the both of you is already on the news. From now on, we’ll each go our own ways.”

Leng Jinchun widened her eyes at Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng.

Chapter 1195: Apologize

Leng Jinchun could understand every word Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng said, but when put together, she could not register them in her head.

She was dumbstruck until Leng Qirui interrupted.

“Coincidentally, she just submitted her resignation letter to threaten me. From now on, you guys will really have nothing to do with Leng Group anymore. Grandpa, Grandma, you guys are really great. You’re better than my father, who’s always plagued by his indecisiveness.”

Grandpa Leng glared at his grandson. “Your father values family and relationships. Only such people are suitable to be the public servants who serve the people. Even if they have to sacrifice their lives, they have to serve everyone. You should learn this from your father.”

Leng Qirui gave in.

Fine, fine.

Grandpa’s thoughts were not bad either. Otherwise, he would not have sent his only son to study in a military academy.

Amidst Leng Jinchun’s confusion and regret, Grandpa Leng transferred his 60% shares in the company to Leng Qirui with the help of a lawyer and a witness.

Leng Qirui had Leng Jinchun’s 20% shares in the first place. Afterward, the two elders transferred their 20% shares to him. After that, Ye Hai extorted 30% of the company shares from the 24 shareholders, as well as 30% of the shares he extorted from Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchun, which were all taken by Selina and transferred to the old master. Now, the old master transferred the full 60% of the company shares in his possession to Leng Qirui. Leng Qirui now owned 100% of Leng Group’s shares, and his position was no longer shakable.

More importantly, Leng Qirui was not only the rightful chairman of Leng Group, but he was also Selina’s fiancé!

Who was Selina?

She was the Duke of Luntan’s eldest daughter, the vice president of Tianheng Holdings, and the vice president of Imperial Phoenix Group!

Among the two companies, one of them was ranked in the global top ten, while the other was ranked in the top hundreds globally. Being the vice president of two industrial conglomerates, her identity was far superior and overpowering than Leng Group itself!

Now that Leng Group had the support of Tianheng Holdings and Imperial Phoenix Group, even if Leng Qirui was a pile of mud that would not stick to the wall even when thrown at it, Selina could flatten the wall for him and let him lay there!

Furthermore, other than losing an arm and a leg and being much younger than the old chairman, he carried himself with dignity that was comparable to the old chairman. In fact, he was even more assertive than the old chairman when it came to making decisions. How could a person like that be Dou?

If he was, then he was probably a mutated Dou!

At this moment, all of the staff in upper and middle management—who held themselves back from resigning as their hearts palpitated anxiously for Leng Group’s future—would give anything to jump out of their seats and cheer.

They felt like their lives would only soar after this.

On the other hand, those senior executives who had submitted their resignation letters to the imposter Leng Jinchen and wanted to force the chairman to give them a raise were green with envy. Their intestines were already filled with regret, and they wished they could be given another chance to restart.

“Chairman, we didn’t know that Leng Jinchen was actually an imposter. She was the one who instigated us to do this today. She promised us that as long as we all quit and threatened you to make her the CEO, she’d give us a raise. We only did this because we were bewitched. We know that we didn’t do well, but can you give us another chance to redeem ourselves? We’ll take it even if we have to be demoted!”

Chapter 1196: Disappointed Everyone

“That’s right. That’s right, Chairman. Please be merciful and give us another chance!”

The 17 people who had just resigned all gathered around Leng Qirui, begging for forgiveness and punishment in the form of a demotion.

Leng Qirui gave his secretary a look and the latter immediately called the security.

When they heard that Leng Qirui was going to kick them out, they panicked.

“Chairman, I’ve been working at Leng Group for 26 years. Even if I haven’t done any significant contribution, I’ve dedicated my blood, sweat, and tears! My mother is in the hospital now, and my son is only 3 years old. If I lose this job, what should my family do?”

Leng Qirui was rendered speechless too. He sneered. “Do I really look like a fool? Don’t be fooled by Leng Jinchen. I’m not a useless pile of mud. I look like this only because my enemies broke my limbs. I’ll recover in two months.”

“Chairman, I’m telling the truth,” the man begged.

“So what if it’s true? Who asked you to give birth to a son at the age of fifty or sixty? Is it my fault that your son was born late? Why should I pay for your 80-year-old mother and son? Do you think Leng Group is a charity organization?”

After saying that, he looked at the people who looked down on him earlier and made the decision to resign collectively. At this moment, they changed their attitude and begged him to leave. “Get lost!”

The security guards were already outside the door, so they could come in at any time. After hearing what the chairman said, everyone came in and ‘invited’ the people who were no longer part of the company’s upper management out.

Leng Jinchen stood there in a daze as she watched her father transfer all his shares to Leng Qirui, but she and her children were not allocated any.

How did this come to this?

The parents who doted on her and took care of her transformed into her adoptive parents all of a sudden.

Then, why did Leng Jinpeng keep giving in to her and her sister?

At this moment, Leng Jinjie, who had already left, rushed in with her son, Pei Jiaxiang, along with Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong.

After all, Leng Jinjie did not experience the sudden change in her parents’ attitude. Therefore, she rushed in and snapped, “Dad, Mom, you’re really here! Explain to me why you suddenly appeared on the board of directors meeting when you were still in the ICU just a while ago! Also, Dad, what’s that video supposed to mean? Are you going to abandon your family for this pathetic weakling of a grandson?”

Pei Jiaxiang, who was following behind Leng Jinjie, kept his mouth shut, but Leng Qifeng lost his cool and started to shout with red brimming with redness, “Grandpa, Grandma, you’ve disappointed everyone. Even if you’re biased toward Leng Qirui, you still have three other grandchildren too. We have the right to your inheritance. Why did you transfer all your shares to him? Besides, in this 60% chunk of company shares, 15% belongs to my mother in the first place. Aren’t you being too unfair to transfer my mother’s shares to Leng Qirui?”

Leng Yutong also said angrily, “Throw this pile of mud called Leng Qirui to the wall and it still won’t stick. Grandpa, do you plan to destroy Leng Group by handing the company over to him? Even if you want to destroy the Leng Corporation, you should’ve given us what we deserve! Why did you suddenly run over to the reporters and ask them to publish news on you severing ties with my mother and Eldest Aunt?”

Pei Jiaxiang added, “Grandpa, everyone can play favorites...”

Chapter 1197: Facesmacked

“You like Lil Rui because he’s your direct grandson, so it’s understandable that you treat him well. But Lil Rui needs to be worthy of your kindness! Look at him and the woman beside him. Do you know that this woman is involved in the foreign mafia? She was the one who killed Ye Hai! Lil Rui has never been serious in his studies since he was young. Now, he’s gotten himself involved with people from the foreign mafia. For you to transfer all your shares to him, are you planning to serve Leng Group on a silver platter to a foreign mafia organization?”

After he said that, the atmosphere in the room lapsed into a weird silence. Everyone looked at him peculiarly instead of Selina.

Pei Jiaxiang was a very sensitive person. Seeing that everyone was looking at him like he was an idiot, and Selina was also looking at him with her charming eyes, he raised his eyebrows. “What, did I say something wrong?”

One of the company executives could not help but speak.

“Young Master Pei, your youngest aunt said the same thing you did, but the truth is... you can take a look at the notebook beside her now.”

Pei Jiaxiang frowned, but Leng Qifeng walked to his mother first and picked up the notebook on the ground.

“Huh, I’d love to see what other impressive identity she has besides the mafia.”

However, as soon as he took a look, Leng Qifeng’s eyes widened. His hand slipped, and the notebook fell to the ground with a loud snap.

Leng Qifeng stared at Selina in disbelief.

Seeing this, Pei Jiaxiang immediately picked up the notebook on the ground. When he saw the contents of Leng Jinchen’s search, he was completely taken aback. Then, he started to look at Selina differently.

Leng Jinjie also hurried over. Her eyes lit up when she saw Selina’s glamorous identity.

If Nangong Nuannuan were said to be out of the Pei family’s league, they were influential enough to hook up with Selina.

If Selina could take a fancy to a loser like Leng Qirui, her Jiaxiang must be the perfect match for Selina since he was a top student at the Emperor District Military Medical University and a member of two wealthy families. He was good-looking too.

Pei Jiaxiang did not disappoint his mother either.

When it was obvious that everyone rushed here to settle scores with the old master, Pei Jiaxiang’s attitude took a full turn after saying that Selina was from a mafia organization. He walked over to Selina and glanced at Leng Qirui, who sat in his wheelchair with bruises on his face and broken limbs. There was a glint of mockery in his eyes as he extended his hand to show goodwill to Selina in front of Leng Qirui.

“Miss Selina, I’m really sorry for misunderstanding you just now. It’s mainly because my cousin has always been a flunkie and likes to get involved with gangsters. I’m really sorry. I hope you don’t take it to heart. Let’s get to know each other. I’m Pei Jiaxiang, son of Leng Qirui’s Eldest Aunt, and also the Pei family’s Young Master.”

Even though Ye Hai's presence had always been an annoying one, and the two aunts and their children never liked him, Ye Hai's influence on them was undeniable, especially Pei Jiaxiang. He had always thought about Ye Hai was good at acting cool sometimes. Although he was adopted, there were many socialites in Emperor District who had a crush on Ye Hai. Pei Jiaxiang was a few years younger than Ye Hai, but he started mimicking him since they were young. As a result, he, too, loved to pretend he was something in his early twenties.

Chapter 1198: Ddu-Du Ddu-Du

Facing Pei Jiaxiang, who vainly thought himself of being handsome and refined—the ultimate bluff who thought that he was better than Leng Qirui—Selina became a bolt of lightning and struck Pei Jiaxiang mercilessly.

Before that, she smiled and uttered one word when both Pei Jiaxiang and Leng Jinjie smiled at her.

“Scram!”

Pei Jiaxiang, “...”

Leng Jinjie, “...”

Leng Qirui could no longer sit still in his wheelchair.

He was not dead yet, but this man was already coveting his fiancée.

Young Master Leng lost his temper too and raised a leg to kick Pei Jiaxiang.

“Didn't you hear her? She said scram!”

Although Leng Qirui's kick sent Pei Jiaxiang to the ground, Leng Qirui himself turned pale from the shock of pain.

When Selina saw that Leng Qirui was in pain, she quickly rolled up the right side of his pants to check on his wounds.

Even though there was no cast on his right leg, there were many cuts on his right leg. There was a cut on his calf where a sharp knife pierced through the fleshy part.

“Why do you use so much strength when your wound hasn't even fully healed yet? I told you if someone pisses you off, just tell me and I'll help you beat them up!”

Looking at Leng Qirui's furious gaze, Selina smiled like a seductive vixen. “Young Brother Leng, are you afraid that I'll be seduced by another man?”

Looking at Selina's attentive and seductive gaze, Leng Qirui blushed in spite of himself.

Seeing the redness that blossomed on Young Brother Leng's face and ears, Selina's smile became even more enticing.

When Grandpa Leng and Grandma Leng watched this scene unfold, their mouths formed an 'O' shape at the same time.

They were convinced that their grandson would be a domineering CEO in front of girls since he had always been so arrogant.

However, when they saw the way their grandson interacted with a girl, they turned away because they found it hard to watch.

She was already his fiancée, so why did he sound like an innocent woman being flirted at?

The indecent look in Selina's eyes dissipated all of Leng Qirui's anger before getting replaced by the bashfulness from getting teased by his girlfriend.

Selina loved to see Leng Qirui at the peak of his fury before looking terrified the next second because of her. Every time she saw him like this, she wanted to throw herself at him and pin him down under her.

However, Selina had no choice but to suppress the itching craving for the scrumptious piece of meat that was yet to be hers. She said protectively, "Are you unhappy with him? I'll beat him up for you!"

Before anyone could react, Selina had already put a leg over Pei Jiaxiang, mounted him, and punched him in the face.

Pei Jiaxiang was about to stand up when Selina slammed him down. He immediately felt a sharp pain on his face.

"Did I tell you to flirt with me! You think you're handsome, don't you?" Thud—

"Argh—"

"I'm telling you, the next time you see me, you better stay far, far away from me. If you try to flirt with me again or take another look at me, if you make my Young Brother Leng unhappy, I'll poke your eyes out!" Thud—

Three punches were all it took to shut Pei Jiaxiang up.

"Ah— Jiaxiang!"

When Leng Jinjie rushed over, Selina had already gotten to her feet. Leng Jinjie shook Pei Jiaxiang, but he had already fainted. His nose was bleeding, and his face was swollen.

"How can you be so vicious? How is our Jiaxiang any worse than Leng Qirui? He only came to greet you. If you didn't want to greet him, you could've just ignored him. Why did you hit him? Why must you beat him up like this?"

Chapter 1199: Our Selina

Leng Jinjie was a member of the Pei family, after all. The Pei family was not just any ordinary second-tier wealthy family. Although the Chi family had already drawn a line with the Pei family, the support behind the Pei family was not as simple as having the Chi family as their only backer. The daughter of the Pei family, who was also Pei Jiaxiang's paternal aunt, was now the daughter-in-law of the Shi family. The Shi family was a first-tier wealthy family who was powerful enough to go against the Chi family. Although the Shi family came last place among the Four Dominant Families, this ranking was outdated. The current Shi family was no longer the same as before. Even the Ning family and the Xiao family had been on the receiving end of the Shi family's shenanigans several times.

Therefore, even though Selina was the Duke of Luntan's daughter and the vice president of Imperial Phoenix Group, Leng Jinjie was not afraid to go against Selina.

However, it was just a casual remark. Leng Jinjie would never dare to hire someone to mess with Selina. Disregarding the fact that this woman was so powerful that no ordinary person could take her down, the Pei family would rather not fight her either out of consideration of her identity.

Therefore, Leng Jinjie simply nagged at Selina because Leng Jinjie pitied her son.

However, Selina would never let herself suffer any form of grievances. Hearing Leng Jinjie was about to say something else, Selina was ready to retort immediately. Yet, it was her Young Brother Leng who intercepted first.

"How can this be called vicious? Don't tell me you won't swat away a fly that keeps buzzing in front of you and trying to stick to you? It's the same for Pei Jiaxiang. Who does he think he is? What right does he have to greet our Selina? In the past, I've tolerated you when I thought you were my aunt and they were my cousins. However, now I know that you were adopted by my grandpa—you're not even part of the Leng family. Furthermore, my grandpa has already unilaterally cut off the relations between you and the Leng family. Naturally, I won't treat you as my relatives anymore. Remember what Selina said. In the future, get Pei Jiaxiang to stay away from our Selina. If he tries to get close to her again, he'll be beaten up every time he shows up. Consider this time a preview of what's to come."

Leng Jinjie could not do anything to Selina in the first place. Plus, this stubborn Leng Qirui had never paid Leng Jinjie and her group any attention, so Leng Jinjie wanted to stop arguing with them. Of course, that was also because she heard something else from Leng Qirui's words.

"Who did you say was adopted? Your grandpa said that because he's mad at us and wants you to inherit all the shares. How can you take it for real? You've reaped such great benefits and you still want to take things further!"

"Grandpa, she doesn't believe me. Hurry up and show her the documents."

Since his eldest grandson had spoken, how could the old master not obey?

Old Master Leng then gave his secretary a glance, and the latter immediately passed Leng Jinjie the documents on their adoption, along with the information on changing Leng Jinjie and Leng Jinchun's names.

The lawyer, Mr. Ma said, "Madam Pei, you and your sister, Wang Chen slash Leng Jinchun, were adopted by Old Master Leng 42 years ago. At that time, you were already 2 years old, and there were photos of you in the orphanage in Emperor District. These photos were taken when Old Master and Old Madam Leng adopted you and your sister. This was the contract they signed with the director of the orphanage in Emperor District."

To be honest, it had never occurred to Leng Jinjie, as well as Pei Jiaxiang, Leng Qifeng, and Leng Yutong that accompanied her over, that they were not part of the Leng family.

Even though the old master announced through the video that he had cut off ties with his two daughters, they still thought that he did it out of a spur-of-the-moment anger.

Chapter 1200: What Is The Point?

Right now, Leng Jinjie was in a horrendous mood as she flipped through the adoption documents.

As she flipped through the documents with her lowered head, she shook her head frantically. “No, no! Impossible! This is impossible! This doesn’t make sense! This can’t be legit!”

At this time, Pei Jiaxiang also started to stir. After all, Selina had not used her full strength. After getting up, he did not dare to look at Selina again. He only dared to look at his mother only to see Leng Jinjie shaking her head non-stop. Leng Qifeng and Leng Yutong also shook their heads in disbelief.

Pei Jiaxiang’s heart skipped a beat, and he quickly inched over to take a look. Then, he saw what he hated to see the most.

Mr. Ma had been paying attention to what they were looking at. When Leng Jinjie flipped to the end, Mr. Ma explained, “This is the photo of Mr. Leng Senior bringing you and Ms. Wang Chen to the Civil Affairs Department for your point-based household registration. The last part is the record of the two of you getting registered as part of the Leng family, as well as the signature of the person in charge.”

After that, Mr. Ma repeated what Old Master Leng said to Leng Jinchun to Leng Jinjie and their children. He also explained to them why he adopted two girls at the orphanage when he already had a son.

Leng Jinjie turned pale. She finally understood why Leng Jinchun had been so distracted ever since she came in.

Leng Jinchun had suffered enough. She also finally started to register the fact that they might not be the Leng family’s children.

However, she had already lost her shares. Not only that, she had even lost her position as the vice president of Leng Group all because she wanted to threaten Leng Qirui.

At that time, she thought that as a major shareholder of Leng Group and their vice president for so many years, Leng Qirui would not dare to abandon her.

However, now she was convinced that the Leng family was going to abandon her. After Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng’s accident, Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng must have lost all sympathy for their two daughters after witnessing how they acted.

It was only at this moment that Leng Jinchun felt a sense of urgency.

“Dad!”

Leng Jinchun pitifully called out to the old master. Just as she was about to say something emotional, Leng Qirui sneered. “My grandpa has already disowned you. Ms. Wang, you should just call him Mr. Leng. It sounds awkward to my ears if you call him Dad.”

Grandma Leng was unhappy that Leng Jinchun glared at Leng Qirui, and said protectively, “Yes, from now on, you should call us Old Master Leng and Old Madam Leng. Before coming here, we’ve unilaterally removed our relationship as parents and daughters. Also, we've helped you transfer your household registration out of the Leng family. From now on, you will resume your old names, Wang Jie and Wang Chen."

"Mom!!!" Leng Jinjie should be referred to as Wang Jie now. After all, she married into a rich family and had more power and influence than Wang Chen. She said unhappily, "What's the point of this? No matter what happened in the past, we've been father and daughter; mother and daughter for more than 40 years. Now that you're old, it's time for us sisters to be filial to you. So, why are you doing this? Why are you chasing so many of us out of the house for Lil Rui?"

"That's right, Grandpa and Grandma." Pei Jiaxiang quickly added, "You guys did a good deed 40 years ago by adopting my mother and her sister. Then, you've treated them so well for 40 years too."
