

Physician Wife 1221

Chapter 1221: The Smartest Cutie

Under Da Bai's expectant gaze, Feng Shengxuan walked over to Da Bai and stroked his head.

A hint of displeasure appeared in Da Bai's eyes, but it had no choice but to lower its head. After all, it was a beast under the human roof.

Even though it was displeased, it still allowed Feng Shengxuan to touch his head.

"Second Uncle, I'm sorry to have troubled you. This lion's name is Da Bai, and it's Nuannuan's pet. It has been spoiled rotten by everyone in the manor, so it doesn't know any manners. I apologize on Nuannuan's behalf."

Da Bai was a rather intelligent beast that had gained sentience and could understand some simple human words. However, Feng Shengxuan's words were clearly beyond his comprehension. It could only understand words like "Nuannuan" and "I'm sorry" to know that he might have gotten himself into trouble just now. Even the great Demon King himself could not go all out in front of this ultimate Demon King. Since Da Bai cherished its life, it did not just sit down, it even lay down on the ground. It put its lion head in between his two clawed paws and raised his eyes to look up at Chi Zeyao pitifully. Its whip-like tail swept across the ground with an expression that said, 'Please let me go.'

Chi Zeyao looked up at Feng Shengxuan with his gentle eyes and smiled. "Nuannuan is Chi Yang's fiancée and the daughter-in-law of our Chi family. Since we're family, she doesn't need to apologize to us."

After saying that, Chi Zeyao reached out to stroke Da Bai's lion head. "Also, it's quite obedient. Somewhat intelligent, too."

The glint in Feng Shengxuan's eyes darkened when he saw Da Bai allow Chi Zeyao to touch it as he pleased while Da Bai did not dare to show any displeasure.

Was this cripple implying that Nuannuan was a member of the Chi family while Feng Shengxuan was not, thus, there was no need for Feng Shengxuan to apologize on her behalf?

Da Bai was also dismayed. Not only had this cripple touched its head without permission, but he called it 'somewhat intelligent'? Just somewhat intelligent? Even Little Princess Nuannuan said that Da Bai was the smartest cutie that she had seen in this world!

Feng Shengxuan smiled and said, "It's great as long as you don't despise Da Bai. Since Bai Liyue and I aren't at the manor anymore, it'd be very pitiful to leave Da Bai over there, so I brought him over. I thought that since the Chi family existed on a higher plane than the Four Dominant Families, the house is definitely big enough for Da Bai to mess around. That's why I didn't inform Nuannuan about Da Bai. I didn't expect... We should let Nuannuan deal with this matter when she comes back."

Chi Zeyao smiled. "It's fine. Da Bai isn't too big anyway. The Chi residence is big enough for it to live in."

"Zeyao, it's cold outside. You're not in good health. Come in and talk inside."

Then, he glanced at Da Bai and said, "Follow me."

Da Bai hurriedly crawled up from the ground. He glanced at the great Demon King, only to see that the great Demon King did not give it as much as a glance. It could only drag its reluctant head along and follow Chi Zeyao into the villa.

After passing through the gates into the villa, there was a huge garden that extended outside in all four directions. However, the old master and Chi Zeyao were not in good health that made them suffer in the cold, Chi Zeyao asked someone to convert the garden into one that would seal itself up automatically. In summer, the garden was open, but in winter, the garden would seal itself up from the elements outside, leaving only a few openings for air vents.

Therefore, when Da Bai walked in, he was enshrouded in a surge of comfortable warmth, and the ice that shielded his eyes and nose melted.

For a lion that adored messing among flowers and pouncing after butterflies, this place was like heaven.

Chapter 1222: Cook For You Personally

Although this place was comparatively small, it was much more comfortable than the back mountain of the manor that was devoid of the presence of humans.

Since Chi Zeyao was there, Da Bai did not dare act rashly. Chi Zeyao sat in his wheelchair and wheeled himself over to the old master as he said to Da Bai, "This is Nuannuan's grandpa."

Although Da Bai did not know what a grandpa was, it could understand "Nuannuan". Thus, it understood immediately that this old man was related to his Little Princess Nuannuan. Da Bai then obediently sat down on the ground to express its friendliness.

The old master looked at Da Bai, who was now sitting obediently in front of him, even though it looked like it was ready to tear everyone into pieces just seconds ago. It triggered his affection that was reserved only for small animals. The old master chuckled.

"Da Bai is so obedient. Nuannuan has taught you well!"

Da Bai wagged its whip-like tail before turning to Chi Zeyao. Its eyes said, 'I did well, didn't I? Can you let me off now!'"

After all, the pressure that Chi Zeyao exerted on him had not been removed. As long as this feeling remained, Da Bai would not be able to truly feel happy. After all, the idea that someone else had your life in his hands was not pleasant at all!

"Dad, Da Bai is new here and doesn't understand our family rules. I'll educate it. You should take a nap too!"

"Sure."

Chi Zeyao then looked at Feng Shengxuan. "Lil Xuan, your stomach is unwell. You must eat on time. I suggest you set an alarm in the future and get up for lunch."

Did he just call Feng Shengxuan Lil Xuan again?

Who in the world agreed to let these two call him that?

However, other than agreeing, Feng Shengxuan felt that there was nothing else he could say.

Previously, Feng Shengxuan thought that there was no one left in the Chi family. He thought that everything would be over once he killed Chi Yang.

However, after arriving at the Chi residence, he found out that other than Chi Yang, there was also Chi Zeyao.

These two were guarding the Chi family—one was a fierce tiger, while the other was a poisonous snake. Each of them was harder to deal with than the next.

“Yes, sir.”

When a table of light but fragrant dishes was served, Feng Shengxuan’s appetite was instantly whetted. However, he felt a surge of annoyance in his heart.

Feng Shengxuan did not like the idea of feeling warm and happy when he smelled the food.

However, the idea soon disappeared from his mind.

It was just a meal. The old man’s family owed him a whole lifetime. Therefore, he convinced himself that he was here to charge them some interest by eating this meal.

The old master went upstairs while Feng Shengxuan ate. Chi Zeyao remained seated in the wheelchair with a smile on his face and kept asking Feng Shengxuan if the food was to his liking—whether any of them were salty enough or otherwise.

As Feng Shengxuan ate, Chi Zeyao kept asking if his stomach was burning and if he felt uncomfortable.

Feng Shengxuan, “...”

Feng Shengxuan felt uncomfortable with Chi Zeyao’s excessive concern, but seeing that this was Nuannuan’s second uncle—ugh, bah—Chi Yang’s second uncle, he had no choice but to feign civility with Chi Zeyao.

However... the food was undeniably delicious, and it matched his taste perfectly for some reason Feng Shengxuan could not comprehend.

“Second Uncle, where is your house chef from?” Feng Shengxuan decided that he would hire a bunch of similar chefs with him when it was time for him to leave.

Feng Shengxuan, “...!!!”

Feng Shengxuan’s first instinct was, ‘Is there poison in here?’

On second thought, with Nuannuan here, even if he was poisoned, his little girl would definitely find out immediately and proceed to expose the ugliness and hypocrisy in these people.

Chapter 1223: Second Uncle Chi's Authority

"Second Uncle, your cooking is amazing."

Chi Zeyao smiled elegantly. "As long as it suits your taste. By the way, what does Da Bai like to eat?"

Chi Zeyao shifted his gaze at Da Bai and extended a hand. Da Bai could feel a powerful pressure being exerted on it. Even though this ultimate Demon King extended his hand to its mouth and rudely flipped its mouth open, Da Bai did not dare to scream. Not only did it not dare to scream, but it even clamped its tail between its legs tightly, afraid that the Demon King would break its teeth.

Feng Shengxuan's pupils constricted again when he saw this.

He was aware of Da Bai's speed. A typical mercenary was not even a match for this ferocious beast. However, Chi Zeyao, who sat in a wheelchair with nearly all his joints deformed, was able to dodge Da Bai's pounce. Not only that, but he also made Da Bai extremely fearful of him.

Other than Nuannuan and Bai Liyue who fed Da Bai, Feng Shengxuan had never seen anyone who could get close to Da Bai and touch it like this, much less pull open its big mouth and look at its teeth. Even if Feng Shengxuan touched Da Bai himself, Da Bai would not let Feng Shengxuan do so willingly. However, Da Bai was currently as docile as a golden retriever in front of Chi Zeyao.

Feng Shengxuan decided that before he launched his attacks on the Chi family, he must find out everything about Chi Zeyao's identity.

It did not seem likely that a person like him was a good-for-nothing who stayed at home for a leisurely life surrounded by plants and flowers.

After taking a look at Da Bai's teeth, Chi Zeyao said disdainfully, "You're a wild beast, not a domestic pet. As a wild beast, I'll disregard the fact that you don't even need to hunt for food since you're constantly fed. However, if you can't even maintain a balanced diet, your teeth will fall off early, and one day, even a cat's body will be more nimble than yours. When that happens, what's the point of living in the future?"

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Da Bai, who was worse than a cat, "..."

Ignoring the dismay in Da Bai's eyes, Chi Zeyao continued, "Since you're Nuannuan's pet and Nuannuan is our granddaughter-in-law, I'll be responsible for your meals from now on. You can stay with me from now on."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Da Bai, who would have to be under the ultimate Demon King's care in the future, "..."

Unknowingly, Feng Shengxuan had finished his meal. He wanted to add more rice, but his request was rejected.

“Your stomach isn’t in a great condition, so you should ignore eating too much fish or meat, or skipping meals. It’s best to eat regularly and on time. I’ll find a way to increase your appetite and make more food that suits your taste. However, since Nuannuan has her hands full, you should listen to everything she says as a patient. Avoid disappointing Nuannuan while she eagerly treats you. As you’ve moved in, you can leave your health to me. I believe Nuannuan agrees with me.”

After accompanying Feng Shengxuan for his meal, Second Uncle Chi switched back to his Manager Mode. Without giving Feng Shengxuan a chance to react, he turned to Da Bai and said, “Let’s go. I’ll put some medicine on your claws and teach you some rules.”

With that, the wheelchair rolled forward slowly.

Da Bai, who got criticized to be more inferior than a cat even though it had an injured leg, “...”

“That was the dining room earlier, and this is the living room. This door leads to the kitchen, and the bedroom is upstairs. Without our permission, you can’t enter.”

Da Bai, “...”

“The garden is outside. You can stay there and enjoy sitting in the sun, but you can’t pounce onto the flowers. If you dare play with the flowers, I’ll cut off all your nails...”

Chapter 1224: His Woman

Second Uncle Chi’s voice trailed into the distance and out of Feng Shengxuan’s hearing range. Feng Shengxuan could only stare blankly at Da Bai with its tail between its legs. It did not even look back as it left with Chi Zeyao.

Feng Shengxuan still did not understand how Chi Zeyao could make Da Bai so obedient the first time they met.

Based on Feng Shengxuan’s understanding of Da Bai’s temper in the past, it would have torn Chi Zeyao apart long ago...

When Nuannuan and Chi Yang reached home, they saw Da Bai, who was given the responsibility of guarding the door.

Chi Yang was a little surprised to see such a big lion pop out of nowhere. However, when he heard Nuannuan yell “Da Bai!”, an epiphany hit him.

Chi Yang heard from Nuannuan before that she had a pet called Da Bai.

It had been more than half a year since Da Bai last saw Nuannuan. The moment Nuannuan passed through the door, Da Bai was momentarily stunned before he started shaking in excitement.

Da Bai called out at Nuannuan and slobbered all over Nuannuan as it placed its paws on Nuannuan's body. Chi Yang was afraid that his petite and delicate Nuannuan would fall because of those heavy paws.

"Da Bai, when did you get here? I missed you so much! Did you miss me?"

Da Bai was so happy that it forgot who it was anymore. It kept whining and whining like a big dog that was acting coquettish with its owner. It kept talking to Nuannuan about its longing for the past six months.

"Da Bai is so intimate with you," said Chi Yang with saltiness seeping out between his words.

"Of course! When Da Bai was born, hunters hunted down its mother. Those people wanted to snatch Da Bai and sell him off in the wealthy A Country. However, I found out about that and rescued it. From then on, Da Bai has been in my care."

As Nuannuan spoke, Da Bai anchored itself on its two rear legs on the ground while placing its other two paws on Nuannuan's shoulders. Its huge lion head was rubbing against Nuannuan's face affectionately. Nuannuan did not mind at all. She continued to smile and pet Da Bai.

Feng Shengxuan heard Nuannuan's voice and hurriedly ran out. When he saw what was happening, his eyes, which were originally filled with malice, emitted an incomparably gentle glow.

However, Feng Shengxuan's gaze changed when he felt another sharp gaze landing on him.

Feng Shengxuan raised Da Bai, and Da Bai only listened to him. Nuannuan was also one of the people who raised Da Bai too. They were a real family, and Chi Yang... was an outsider after all.

Receiving Feng Shengxuan's provocative gaze, Chi Yang extended his hand and grabbed Da Bai's pig trotters off of Nuannuan's shoulder, forcing Da Bai to face him.

Da Bai was initially ecstatic, but his joy was instantly replaced by a bloodthirsty killing intent. Just as it was about to open its mouth and scare the man with its roar, it recalled how Chi Zeyao tortured its body for the entire afternoon, and it immediately clamped down.

Da Bai hated being patted on the head the most. It tried its best to struggle free of Chi Yang's iron grip but to no avail.

What was with all these monsters that occupied this entire household?

"Dabai, this is my fiancé. From today onward, he's your master. You must treat him and everyone in this house nicely!"

Chapter 1225: Complaint

Da Bai could generally understand most of Nuannuan's words, so it could only stow its violent tendencies away after hearing its little princess's words.

When Da Bai realized that it would have to spend the rest of its life in a place filled with rules, Da Bai's initial good mood disappeared without a trace. Such a depressing thought.

"Da Bai!"

Seeing how big Da Bai was, how warm, and how nice it felt to touch it, Nuannuan leaped onto Da Bai's body again. She hugged Da Bai's soft and thick fur and took in the layers of flesh underneath all that fluff. This exquisite feeling made her want to bring Da Bai to bed tonight.

With both its paws under restraint, Da Bai suddenly felt its little princess leaping into its embrace. Da Bai, "..."

All of a sudden, living in this environment did not feel tough after all.

No matter how tough it was, as long as its little princess was around, Da Bai was willing to endure anything!

Da Bai was so excited that it felt an urge to pee. Its face was suddenly filled with an anxious urgency.

When Chi Yang saw this, he let go of Da Bai. Da Bai then approached the butler and did what Chi Zeyao taught it to do. Da Bai raised one leg in front of the butler, and the butler immediately ordered one of the Chi family servants to remove the lid of the "toilet" in the garden. Then, Da Bai finally peed into it.

Nuannuan beamed at Feng Shengxuan and could not help but praise, "Big Bro, you're really something! I've only been gone for a short while and you've already made Da Bai so obedient and sensible!"

When Nuannuan was still at the manor, Da Bai was very lawless. If it was unhappy, it could pee in anyone's bed.

Nuannuan, "...!!!"

Just then, Chi Zeyao came out in a wheelchair. When he saw Nuannuan, he smiled tenderly. "You're back? Go wash your hands and rest. We can eat soon."

"Second Uncle, you're really amazing. You actually tamed Da Bai to listen to you. I've always thought my precious Da Bai was wild and difficult to train."

Chi Zeyao replied, "Since this is a small place, I gave Da Bai some restrictions. Thankfully, Da Bai is a smart lion and it learns quickly. It's great as long as you don't mind my meddling in this matter."

"Why would I? I couldn't be happier!"

Da Bai, "..."

It felt like it had been betrayed by its little princess.

"Come, let's talk inside. Go ahead and wash your hands and face."

“Okay.”

Then, the group of people entered the house. Da Bai, who had been abandoned outside, let out a howl. It did not have enough kisses yet!

When it was time for them to eat, Feng Shengxuan plopped down on his chair blatantly. “I was pretty sure I’m going to starve to death if you guys came back any later!”

Feng Shengxuan spared no effort in complaining, “I ate, but they didn’t let me eat my fill.”

Chi Zeyao smiled. “Your stomach condition doesn’t allow you to eat too much. However, you had a bowl of turtle congee and three other dishes that I made for you. An hour ago, I made you two servings of baked egg cakes. You didn’t go anywhere today, so you’ll get indigestion if you eat more.”

“It’s only two baked egg cakes. They’re so little that they can’t even get stuck between my teeth!” Feng Shengxuan protested.

He had never eaten baked egg cakes in his entire life. However, the first time Chi Ziyao made him a baked egg cake today, they were so fragrant, he...

He had wanted to eat at least 20 more, but goddamned Chi Zeyao stopped him.

It was very strange. In the past, when he was still in the manor, nothing tasted good, and he did not want to eat anything at all. After coming to the Chi family, he suddenly became a foodie

Chapter 1226: Help

Feng Shengxuan could not help feeling that everything Chi Zeyao made was delicious, not to mention they suited his taste so well.

Therefore, Feng Shengxuan had decided that since he came here, he had to make sure that he enjoyed his benefits to the maximum.

However, Nuannuan was completely on Second Uncle’s side.

“Second Uncle is doing that for your own good. Have you any idea how bad your stomach is right now? So, what makes you think you can demand to eat more? Second Uncle is very knowledgeable when it comes to taking care of your body. In the future, whatever you eat and how much you eat will be decided by Second Uncle.”

After saying that, Nuannuan looked at Second Uncle and said, “Second Uncle, I’ll finally feel at ease with you watching over him.”

Chi Zeyao smiled warmly. “That’s good.”

After saying that, he looked at Feng Shengxuan meaningfully.

Feng Shengxuan glanced at Da Bai, who was sitting by the door and staring at him with wide eyes. He felt like his fate was similar to Da Bai’s!

“Grandpa, I’ll be heading to Yamato to participate in the Senior High School General Knowledge Competition the day after tomorrow. Just now, Grandpa called me and asked us to have dinner tomorrow at the Nangong residence. He also invited you and Second Uncle to come along. We can think of that as an early reunion dinner.”

“Sure, sure, sure. Zeyao and I will go over earlier tomorrow. Maybe Zeyao can help out in cooking.”

“Okay,” replied Chi Zeyao affably.

“Of course you’re coming with us.”

“Sure.”

Although the Nangong family was also his enemy, Feng Shengxuan had decided to enjoy his life with his Nuannuan to the fullest since he was already here. As for revenge and all that...

He could think about that afterward.

The next day, Nuannuan followed Chi Yang to Eagle, as usual. She had conducted experiments on the bugged people these few days. Even though the experiments did not give her great results, they made progress, at least— they found out that bugs could change the shape of human brain cells. Even though the changes varied from big ones and small ones, there were alterations for sure.

She believed that if she was given one or two more years, or if her supernatural ability was upgraded again, she would be able to see the activity of even smaller cells. By then, she would definitely be able to figure out how the bugs controlled people and create something to counter the effects of those bugs.

After killing the bug on the third bugged person’s head, Nuannuan could only temporarily call it a day. After all, other than Scorpion, there were only two other bugged people left.

She called Aiden, who was as busy as a top.

“Big Boss, you have to save me! Isn’t it enough for me to manage the entire Unrestrained Heaven by myself? Now, Big Bro and Big Sis Yue have transferred the entire Imperial Phoenix Group to me, aren’t you guys going a little overboard? Bla bla...”

Nuannuan knew that Aiden had been in a terrible state recently, so she did not dare to call him. She had been delaying this until she really had to contact Aiden now.

After hearing his complaints, Nuannuan quickly consoled him. “I’m sorry that you’ll have to work so hard for the past few days. Big Bro has gastric cancer and it’s in mid-stage too. He has to stay here to recuperate over here.”

“What?” Aiden jumped eighty feet into the air upon hearing this. “Big Bro has cancer? Didn’t we say before we left that he would recover after taking medicine within a year? How did he get cancer? Big Bro wouldn’t let himself get cancer just to meet you, would he? He must’ve known about your relationship with Bro-in-law long ago, so he decided to use this method to get close to you. Damn! Big Bro is really a person full of schemes! Is he not being too cruel to himself?!”

Chapter 1227: Here Is A Research Facility As A Gift

Undeniably, Aiden spoke the truth.

Honestly, Nuannuan understood what kind of underhanded methods Feng Shengxuan was using against Chi Yang.

Initially, she expected Feng Shengxuan to use all sorts of violent methods to confront Big Brother Chi Yang after knowing about her relationship with Chi Yang.

Nuannuan gave herself ample mental preparation too. If Feng Shengxuan insisted on making things difficult for Big Brother Chi Yang and went overboard, she would rather draw a line between herself and Feng Shengxuan just to prevent making Big Brother Chi Yang sad.

After all, in her previous life, Feng Shengxuan attempted to take Big Brother Chi Yang’s life many times in order to be with her. As long as the two of them were together, their fights would be endless and they would both end up badly hurt each time.

Little did Nuannuan know that Feng Shengxuan would use a different approach in this lifetime. He employed such a gentle and humble method to insert himself between her and Big Brother Chi Yang.

This ruined her plans completely.

Nuannuan could make things difficult for the overbearing Feng Shengxuan, draw a clear line with the unreasonable Feng Shengxuan, and become enemies with Feng Shengxuan who insisted on going against Big Brother Chi Yang...

The only thing she could not do was watch as Feng Shengxuan continued to be tortured by his illness and ignored his conditions. She could not ignore him when she saw the resentment in his eyes. She could not watch him suffer grievances and not help him soothe his pain.

Therefore, Feng Shengxuan was indeed full of schemes.

However, this was exactly the kind of man that she could not handle.

“So, please forgive them.”

“Big Boss, don’t worry. Although there is a lot of work, you’re well aware that they’re not difficult for me. You just need to take care of Big Bro. Will... Big Bro be all right?”

“I’ll try my best to cure him.”

After hearing Nuannuan’s words, Aiden was silent for a long time.

He knew what that meant.

If Big Boss could cure Feng Shengxuan, she would definitely give him a guarantee that there would not be a problem.

However, for Big Boss to say that she would try her best, it meant that Feng Shengxuan's conditions were rather bad.

Nuannuan knew that Aiden was worried about Feng Shengxuan. After all, the six of them had gone through life and death together. Hence, she consoled Aiden, "It's not as serious as you think. Even if I can't cure him, I can still extend his lifespan by three to five years after his surgery. Perhaps, after three to five years, I might be able to cure him. On your side, Big Sis Yue seems to have been driven away by him recently. When she comes back and sees how busy you are, she'll definitely do something."

"Okay, I understand. Big Boss, don't worry. I'll definitely handle the matters at the company. After all, this concerns our future financial lifeline."

Nuannuan knew that Aiden was the most reliable out of all her companions. She thought about how Aiden was the busiest out of all of them, so she fulfilled one of his wishes. "You've always wanted to set up a weapon research facility, so why don't you go and choose a site for your own research?"

After all, as a mechanic, researching weapons and gaming was Aiden's favorite.

Even though he was born a natural in business, the things that others took a month to sort out, he took just a day to produce accurate data and make good judgment...

He had always simply treated it as a side gig.

Imperial Phoenix Group owned companies that were involved in the military industry. It could even be said that Nangong Nuannuan was currently the largest arms dealer in Sab. However, that was only limited to selling weapons to various countries. It was completely different from the weapons Aiden had developed himself.

Previously, she had been convinced that there was no need to use to build a weapon research facility, but now, after the bugged people appeared, she started to think that it might be necessary after all.

Chapter 1228: First-tier Family

"Big Boss, are you serious? Are you trying to console me? I'll take it seriously!"

"Of course it's true. I fully support your decision to build a weapon research base, and your target will be those that have been experimented on. Perhaps, you'll be able to research and create a weapon that can kill those people efficiently."

"Don't worry, Big Boss. I can do it."

"Yes, I believe you can." After she said that, she continued, "As for Imperial Phoenix Group..."

"Big Boss, don't worry. After all, the Imperial Phoenix Group is one of the top ten super corporations in the world. Even if we can't transfer their military industry over here, we can still transfer things like the film industry, jewelry, property, hotels, and so on. I've already negotiated with Camino's side over the past two days. They're very welcoming of us transferring our tax income over. They also promised to give Imperial Phoenix Group a different treatment. There's also a special CEO in charge of everything that's happening at Sab. I'll also check in on the situation over there from time to time. Oh, and after Imperial Phoenix Group enters Camino, it's considered the number one financial group in Camino. So, Big Boss, your net worth is already on the same level as your maternal grandfather's family. Soon, the news will announce that there are six first-tier wealthy families in Camino."

"Six? Which six?"

"The rankings—in sequence—are Nangong family, Shi family, Ning family, Xiao family, Imperial Phoenix Group, and Shengyang Group. Since we're not from Camino, we have no military or political background. Our military operations are still based in Sab, so we can only become a first-tier wealthy family under the name of the group. Therefore, even though we're richer than the Shi family, we are still ranked fifth. Also, Big Boss, we shouldn't underestimate Shengyang Group at sixth place either. The chairman of their group has always been very mysterious. I've ordered some people around to investigate him for the past two days, but I haven't been able to find him. I plan to get Dan Qi to investigate. I must dig him out."

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Tell Dan Qi that there's no need to look for him. I know who he is. He's one of us."

"Mm? Who?" Aiden was curious.

"I'll tell you about this in the future. Anyways, if Imperial Phoenix Group faces any difficulties in the future, you can ask Shengyang Group for help. Shengyang Group will give us help unconditionally."

"..." Aiden was silent for a moment. "Shengyang Group doesn't belong to Bro-in-law, does it? After all, there's the word Yang in it."

"No, you should stop guessing. In any case, you should know that he's one of us."

"Okay."

"Big Boss, is there anything else? If there's nothing else, I'm going to attend a meeting with them. The company is in the process of choosing a location for the past two days, and I plan to pick the prime location in Emperor District's business district. We'll decide that in the meeting soon."

"How long will your meeting take?"

"I don't know. Why?"

"I'm going to Yamato tomorrow. We're having a small gathering at the Nangong residence tonight. I'm just checking in to see if any of you are free."

"Yes! Of course! Of course!" Aiden jumped eighty feet into the air at the mention of food.

"I'll be done in two hours at most. Then, I'll go to the Nangong residence to see you."

"Alright, call Selina and Dan Qi. It's been a long time since all of you've seen Big Bro."

"Okay. Ahahaha... I've never been to the Nangong residence yet. That day, Selina said that she wanted to buy a house in Peninsula so I approached someone in charge of Peninsula. Big Boss, if nothing goes wrong, we can be neighbors again!"

Eagle Eye Group?

That was a company that her Big Brother Chi Yang and a few of his friends set up in private. In her previous life, Nuannuan had only found out about it much later. However, by the time she found out, Eagle Eye had already become a company that possessed wealth equal to those of the Four Dominant Families.

Chapter 1229: Medic Association Hospital

Nuannuan truly did not expect that the real estate company behind Peninsula belonged to Eagle Eye Group.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Oh, is that so? But I usually live in the Chi residence. If you have the connections, buy a house in the Chi family's compound, only then can you be considered my neighbor. Peninsula is still a hat's throw away from the Chi residence's compound."

Aiden lapsed into silence after hearing this. After a long while, he muttered, "That's where Camino's Vice-president and military bigshots live. I can't buy it even if they have a price. Even if I sell the entirety of Imperial Phoenix Group, I won't be able to buy a house there!"

Aiden's resentful words triggered Nuannuan's sense of humor. After a peal of laughter, she said, "Grandpa Chi and Second Uncle are very nice people. If any of you miss me, you can come anytime. Just let me know in advance. That's because there aren't a lot of people in the Chi family. If you don't let me know in advance, the food they make might not be enough for gluttons like you guys."

Aiden's eyes lit up. "Sure."

"Oh, right, I need a dedicated medical research center. All the equipment should be comparable to the equipment we have in the international waters. Can you do that?"

Aiden frowned. "I can get the medical equipment you want, but Big Boss, this is Camino after all. Many operations here are different from those in Sab. We might run into trouble if we enter."

"Don't worry, they're all for my personal use. Tell me when you pass through the borders, and I'll let your brother-in-law know."

"Okay. I'll deliver them to you within half a month."

For the past few days, she had been researching the people who had been experimented on at Chi Yang's place, but she had not been able to come up with anything.

After the bugs in the test subject's heads were killed, the hosts turned into normal people. After the insane power was removed from their bodies, they became normal fighters again.

From the looks of it, these thugs were probably not even comparable to those gangsters from Emperor District.

Without the bugs, those people were afraid of pain, so they said everything they could and could not say.

However, these people basically knew nothing. Even if they knew, it was all fake information. Moreover, none of them knew more than Nuannuan.

Nuannuan handed these useless people, together with the two remaining test subjects, over to Chi Yang. Other than Scorpion, Chi Yang locked these people up and handed them over to the president.

The people who went through the experiments were very important. Since Eagle had already discovered these people, there was no need for Chi Yang to hide it anymore. He informed the president immediately.

The president was shocked when he heard the news. Even though the reports were handed in last night, the president had brought Nangong Shu and the people from the Medic Association Hospital over early this morning.

The original name of the Medic Association Hospital was Camino Military Medical University Research Institute. However, after the Shi family took over, the medical research institute slowly broke away from the control of the Military Medical University and became an independent unit. It was renamed the Medical Association's Research Institute, or in short, Medic Association Hospital.

Initially, the Medic Association Hospital was not at the same level as the Military Medical University. It was considered a secondary unit of the Military Medical University. However, after successfully developing many drugs with excellent effects and achieving great success in clinical medicine, the Medic Association Hospital became a unit on par with the Military Medical University.

To build the Medic Association Hospital into a medical research center that was second to none in Camino, the director of the Medic Association Hospital, Shi Maocheng, started to hire elites in the medical world after assuming his position.

Chapter 1230: Wedding Witness

In the beginning, the state did not have enough funding to attract so many elites from the medical world to the Medic Association Hospital. However, to further expand the Medic Association Hospital, Shi Maocheng took out the Shi family's money and threw it at people.

After that, the number of elites in the hospital increased. With nearly all of the national elites in the medicine world headed to the hospital, the country had no choice but to respect them.

Later on, after the Medic Association Hospital conducted a lot of successful research, many well-known foreign enterprises approached them to try to purchase the medicine developed by the Medic Association Hospital. This allowed the Medic Association Hospital and the country to reap a huge profit.

The Medic Association Hospital became more and more famous. Eventually, it became a secret unit that specialized in developing top-grade medicine. The hospital director, Shi Maocheng, now reported directly to the president. Thus, their existence became a special unit with special privileges just like Eagle.

Therefore, the Shi family, which had always been ranked at the final place among the Four Dominant Families, became an existence second only to the Nangong family.

Mutations formed in the human body of those test subjects because they were controlled by the bugs in their brains. Therefore, when the president came to the Eagle Combat Headquarters today, he had also brought along people from the Medic Association Hospital.

When he saw the president, Chi Yang gave him a standard military salute. The president reciprocated Chi Yang with a military salute too. Then, an appreciative smile appeared on his face. "You've done a good job in Jiang District this time. Once again, you've removed a few malignant tumors in our country."

Chi Yang remained calm and said solemnly, "Thank you for your compliment, Mr. President. Protecting the integrity of the military base and ensuring all of our soldiers' safety is my job."

The president looked at Chi Yang, and the more he looked at him, the more satisfied he became. He smiled and said, "It's a pity that I have a son. Otherwise, I would've wanted to keep such an outstanding talent like you in my family!"

"Doesn't the president know that Lieutenant General Chi already has a fiancée?" Shi Maocheng asked with a chuckle.

The president was taken aback. "Oh? You have a fiancée? Why haven't I heard Uncle Chi bring up something so serious? When you didn't have a girlfriend, Uncle Chi always complained about how unlucky his family was to me. Now that you have a fiancée, he's being shiftier about it. Does that mean he doesn't plan to invite me to the wedding?"

"You must be joking, Mr. President. My fiancée is still young. When we're finally ready to get married, we'll definitely inform you and the First Lady, Mr. President."

"Okay, okay. When the time comes, I'll be your wedding witness then." The president happily called dibs on this responsibility.

The reason why the Chi family held such a prestigious status in Camino was not only because Old Master Chi was now the only grand marshal left, but also because Old Master Chi had once rescued the president and his parents. Hence, the president had always maintained a special relationship with Old Master Chi and he would always refer to Old Master Chi as Uncle Chi. No matter how brave the Shi family was, they would at most dare to provoke the Nangong family and constantly test the weight they held in the president's heart. However, when it came to the Chi family, the Shi family had always intended to rope the Chi family in. In fact, the Shi family had always wanted a daughter from the Shi family to marry into the Chi family.

Therefore, when they found out that Chi Yang had a fiancée, and that the fiancée was the daughter of the Duke of Luntan slash the granddaughter of the Nangong family—a perfect match for Chi Yang—the Shi family realized that they could not lay their hands on the Duke's daughter. Thus, they could only target their way through the president. Moreover, there would not be a better opportunity than now.
