

Physician Wife 1231

Chapter 1231: Stirring Up Trouble

Shi Maocheng smiled and said, "Lieutenant General Chi and your fiancée are a match made in heaven. I'm sure that your wedding will be a grand event that will take both countries by storm."

Although the president knew that the Nangong family had reunited with their granddaughter, he had no idea that Nangong Nuannuan was Chi Yang's fiancée. Neither was he aware of her other identity.

After all, the president understood that as long as this fiancée was not someone with a questionably horrifying background, even if she was a girl from an ordinary family, Old Master Chi would give them his blessings as long as Chi Yang liked her. However, he did not expect the Shi family to say that Chi Yang's fiancée was a perfect match with Chi Yang in every aspect.

This piqued the president's interest.

"Oh? Which family is she from? You're close to Ning Wenhao. Don't tell me she's from the Ning family?"

Shi Maocheng interjected, "She's not from our country. I heard that Lieutenant General Chi's fiancée is the daughter of the Duke of Luntan. The royal family of Luntan will be joining hands with the captain of our Eagle Special Forces in matrimony—this will probably become a modern fairy tale across the two countries! President, don't you know that Duke Eton of Luntan visited Camino last time just to see Lieutenant General Chi? Duke Eton even gave Lieutenant General Chi a bow as his future father-in-law. He asked Lieutenant General Chi to take good care of his daughter in the future! Therefore, Lieutenant General Chi's marriage will be a grand event that resonates across the two countries."

Originally, the marriage between the daughter of the Duke of Luntan and a military officer of Camino was a wonderful story in itself. However, who would have guessed Chi Yang's special identity?

How many military talents had the Chi family brought up over the past three generations before their military strength could spread all over Camino? Now, anyone powerful among these people was already the commanding officers in their military bases. Meanwhile, even if they were mediocre talents, they were formed the backbone of various military bases. In addition, Chi Yang himself was also the commander of the most mysterious special forces in Camino. Therefore, it was not an exaggeration to say that he held a lot of power. Such a person would be marrying a foreign lady, and she was a member of the royalty overseas?

Although it sounded like Shi Maocheng had nothing but praises for Chi Yang and his words were seeping with envy, the "Luntanese royal family" and "Camino's most mysterious special forces" that he emphasized would still pierce into the president's heart like thorns.

Sure enough, after saying this, the expression on the president's face froze.

Nangong Shu broke into a small grin. "Director Shi, you really know how to pick a fight. Since you've seen the videos online and know that Chi Yang's fiancée is the princess under the Duke of Luntan's care, why didn't you also inform the president that said lady is the long-lost princess of the Nangong family?"

The president's frozen expression immediately relaxed when he heard Nangong Shu's words. He even gave Shi Maocheng a meaningful look.

Shi Maocheng depended on the president to get to where he was today. Everything he had, along with everything the Shi family had, was because the president favored the Shi family.

If the president thought that he was stirring up trouble, that would be bad.

Therefore, after a brief pause, Shi Maocheng pretended to be surprised and looked at Nangong Mo. "Commander-in-chief Nangong, that can't be true, right?"

Nangong Shu was nothing short of a wily old fox. There was not a hint of anger on his face at all as he smiled and answered, "Whether it's true or otherwise, I'm sure Director Shi couldn't have been more sure about that."

Naturally, Shi Maocheng was infuriated after getting jabbed by this subtle nail. However, at this moment, he cleverly continued to play dumb. "I'm innocent, I really don't know! However, if Lieutenant General Chi's fiancée is the long-lost daughter of the Nangong family, then what a strong alliance you'll be forming there!"

Chapter 1232: Extermination

When Shi Maocheng saw that things were moving far away from him, he immediately redirected the conflict.

In his opinion, the reason behind the president's utmost trust in the Chi family was that he had granted the most important Eagle Special Forces into Grandpa Chi Yang, Chi Yang's father, and Chi Yang's hands. Even if Chi Yang's father died in a battle, the commander-in-chief of the special forces was still Leng Jinpeng, who was appointed by Old Master Chi. The president allowed all of these because he pitied the Chi family for having so few members.

However, now that he mentioned a "strong alliance", it would definitely plant a seed of doubt in the president's heart. After all, there were too many young, outstanding men in the Nangong family.

Nangong Shu was also extremely triggered by Shi Maocheng's words, but there was nothing he could do for now. Anything he said now would sound wrong.

Only Chi Yang gave Shi Maocheng a cold look. "Whether it's a strong alliance or otherwise, it doesn't concern Director Shi. What you should worry about is how to solve the matter with those test subjects."

Shi Maocheng did not expect Chi Yang to be so arrogant that he dared to rebuke him in front of the president. His expression was instantly twisted.

After all, Chi Yang was the first candidate for the Shi family's son-in-law.

Chi Yang had a fiancée right from the start, and his fiancée was the granddaughter of the Nangong family. The situation was very tricky for the Shi family.

After all, it seemed like the Shi family was about to surpass the Nangong family in several aspects. If the Chi family and Nangong family joined forces, then their Shi family could only remain in a passive position in the future.

They could not be forever trampled on by the Nangong family, could they?

The president took in all three of their expressions and finally said, "Chi Yang is right. Right now, the most important thing for you to do is to study the two remaining test subjects and figure out what's going on with the bugs on their heads."

Shi Maocheng replied fearfully, "Yes, Mr. President. Don't worry. We'll definitely report the situation to the higher-ups as soon as possible."

Chi Yang brought the president to the observation room and created a virtual scenario for the two mercenaries who still had bugs in their brains to escape.

The two mercenaries thought that they had successfully escaped, but they were discovered and started to resist.

Even if they had bugs on their heads, their strength was only at the level of Rank-3A mercenaries. Against the top soldiers in Eagle Special Forces, their strength was still not enough to overpower the soldiers.

They did not have any guns on them, so these special forces soldiers fought with them barehanded.

However, no matter where the soldiers attacked, the two mercenaries did not seem to feel any pain. They were like unkillable cockroaches who could always counter the soldiers' attacks immediately.

The president's expression increased in severity, but Shi Maocheng's eyes beamed brighter and brighter.

Chi Yang explained, "Mr. President, have you noticed? These people have exceeded the norm in terms of speed, resistance, and power. Furthermore, they don't feel any pain."

"These are all KE's test subjects?"

"Yes."

"KE must be eliminated, and so must these test subjects."

"Yes, sir. I'll do my best to destroy KE."

However, at that moment, Shi Maocheng said, "Mr. President, I think we can look at this differently. KE has to be eliminated, but when Lieutenant General Chi makes his move, I hope you can change the order to kill on sight to an arrest. Especially that Viper who's conducting these experiments on others. You must keep her alive; don't kill her."

When Chi Yang heard this, the color on his face turned several shades darker.

Chapter 1233: Distorted World Views

"Director Shi, you're overstepping your boundaries! Viper is a high-ranking member in KE and is an extremely dangerous person. She is a Rank-3S mercenary herself. If we don't kill such a person on the spot, it's nigh impossible to capture her alive. Even if we capture her alive, there will be endless trouble in the future to keep her alive. For the members of KE, our goal has always been to capture them if we can. If we can't capture them, we'll kill them on the spot. We'll deal the greatest blows to ensure that we tie up all loose ends."

“Even so, haven’t they arisen again?” Shi Maocheng said to the president, “Mr. President, think about it. These test subjects might be terrifying and have so much risk of bringing more trouble, but if we can capture Viper and make her work for us, we’ll be able to create a batch of super warriors, won’t we?”

“Eagle is the creme de la creme among the special forces that the country spent a lot of money to develop, but how much manpower, resources, energy, and money do we need to build such a team? If those bugs are harmless to the human body—even if they are harmful, medical research might turn them into harmless ones—we can turn ordinary soldiers into super warriors like those in Eagle Special Forces. Then, there will be unimaginable benefits that this research will bring to our country.”

“Shi Maocheng!” Nangong Shu could not take it anymore. “You actually want our soldiers to undergo human experiments?”

Shi Maocheng ignored Nangong Shu and continued his persuasion. “Since ancient times, whether it’s the advancement of technology or medicine, someone has to make sacrifices. However, if this sacrifice is made in exchange for the advancement of medicine and human civilization, then everything will be worth it. Furthermore, if our country obtains this technology, will there still be a need for us to fear other countries in the future? As long as we utilize this technology correctly, I think it will benefit Camino for generations to come.

“Human experiments being conducted on our own soldiers! How dare you think this is a blessing for generations to come? Has it occurred to you that even if our country possesses the technology first and uses it on our soldiers, other countries will discover it soon enough? Once they’ve discovered this, they’ll try to capture our soldiers alive to conduct such experiments on themselves to give themselves the necessary competitive edge. Do you think we can keep this technology a secret for long?”

“Furthermore, once this technology is in the hands of another country or organization, do you know what kind of effects it will have on the whole world? When that happens, it will form strong polarization between the strong and the ordinary, followed by crime and chaos everywhere. Can you bear the responsibility of destroying humanity?”

Shi Maocheng’s anger nearly reached its peak after listening to Nangong Shu. However, it was undeniable that Nangong Shu’s words went straight into the president’s heart.

Therefore, the president told Chi Yang, “KE is a chronic disease, and we must eradicate it as soon as possible. Viper is an extremely dangerous person. If we encounter her, kill her without mercy. Even though we can’t guarantee that she hasn’t leaked this information, at least nobody will get any information from our side. Otherwise, I’m afraid that once someone finds out about Viper’s usefulness, they’ll spare no effort to protect her.”

“Yes, sir.” Chi Yang saluted the president, and his eyes were filled with admiration and respect.

After all, many could not resist such temptation.

Chapter 1234: Easier Said Than Done

Not only had the president resisted this temptation, but he also foresaw the endless disasters that could be brought about by this temptation and made the right judgment in time. This was not an easy feat and any leader could achieve.

Although Shi Maocheng disagreed with this statement, flattering the president was his priority. He quickly added, "The president is indeed farsighted. I was too short-sighted. I only saw the immediate benefits but not the long-term benefits. Commander Nangong is right. Something like this can never stay hidden forever. One day, other countries will find out about it. Once everyone gets a hold of this technology on a large scale, it will be a disaster for mankind."

The president glanced at Shi Maocheng. "It's good that you're able to realize the importance of this problem. A hospital is a place for medical research. Our goal is to allow more people to escape the torture that illnesses bring upon us and improve the quality of our citizens' lives. As for such malicious acts, it's improper for a sacred place like the Medic Association Hospital to even consider it."

Shi Maocheng said fearfully, "Yes, Mr. President. I'll keep that in mind."

"However, these test subjects have already surfaced. Even if we don't do the experiments on them, we still have to research the antidote that can counter the bugs, or rather, drugs and weapons that can restrain the bugged people. Before we can ensure full control over the source, we must stop their production flow as much as possible to prevent any of them from harming the people in our country."

"Yes, sir." Shi Maocheng agreed amiably. "Don't worry, Mr. President. The hospital will do our best to develop the antidote to the bugged people."

The president nodded. "Okay, I have high expectations of the medical experts in the Medic Association Hospital."

"So, you should take these two and keep them in the Medic Association Hospital."

Shi Maocheng was stunned. "Only two? Why didn't you capture more? I heard that you destroyed an entire village this time!"

"That's because capturing them is difficult. It's not bad that we managed to capture two."

"But two? That's too little. The president wants us to start our research as fast as we can. How about you capture another group of test subjects?"

Chi Yang did not get angry at Shi Maocheng's irritating words. He maintained his serious expression. "Director Shi, you saw how vicious these bugged people are just now. If we don't blast them in the head, or even if we shot their hearts, they can still attack people as if they're not injured before their blood runs out. They're not only aggressive and unafraid of being injured, but they also have the numbers. When we captured them, they greatly outnumbered us. Under those harsh conditions, we could only capture them while focusing on self-defense. Therefore, capturing two of them is already our hard limit. Also, these people are KE's killers. KE is every country's nightmare because they're not easy to capture. I hope you understand."

Even though it was just a factual explanation, everyone realized that Shi Maocheng was being unreasonable after hearing the explanation.

"So, that's how it is! Then, I've blamed Lieutenant General Chi wrongly. So... if you capture similar criminals next time, please send them to the hospital immediately."

Nangong Shu, who had been standing at the side, finally butted in. "Eagle is the top special forces in Camino. Chi Yang is your equal. If you need people, Eagle can tell you where to get them and you can find your own escort. Why did you ask Eagle to send them to you?"

Chapter 1235: Facesmack

Nangong Shu's words were rather disrespectful to Shi Maocheng. Of course, arguing in front of the president was also disrespectful.

However, the Nangong family had suffered a lot from the Shi family for a while now. Therefore, Nangong Shu wanted to use the rare opportunity of having the president around to warn the Shi family. Otherwise, the Shi family would think that the Nangong family was easy to bully.

Therefore, he continued, "Even though the president does place a lot of importance on the Medic Association Hospital, there should be at least some basic etiquette especially among those of the same rank, right? Since the president is here, let's sort this out now. We'll see if Eagle should send someone over to you specifically or if you should escort the criminals yourself. We'll also ask the president if we should send soldiers above the rank of second lieutenant from Emperor District's military base to serve you when the directors of your hospital need drivers or personal guards."

Shi Maocheng's face had already transformed into the color of pig liver, but this was the truth. To him, there was no way to explain it better either. The provocation he felt towards the Nangong family instantly turned into hatred.

The Shi family merely wanted to surpass the Nangong family in many aspects. Even if they were to look for guards and drivers, they would simply transfer those soldiers from the military base's regiment cadre. To have the chance to serve the Shi family while receiving a sumptuous reward, many did not have enough time to cherish it before Nangong Shu reported this to the president.

As he ruled over everything, there were many things that he could sense, but he did not know for sure about the conflict between his subordinates and disagreements within their unit.

From the looks of it, the Medic Association Hospital had conflicts with the various units and the military base.

"Director Shi, what do you have to say about the complaint that Commander Nangong made against you?"

Shi Maocheng was extremely embarrassed. He could only answer earnestly, "Yes, as the director, I have to admit that I'm not being a very good director. I thought that the military base had more people, so..."

"The military base does have a lot of manpower, but those soldiers and officers are all here to serve the country. They're not here to be your family's drivers and bodyguards," Nangong Shu reprimanded mercilessly.

"Commander Nangong, I've selected a few soldiers for the head of the pharmaceutical department. Since when have they started working for my family? Do you think the Shi family lacks drivers?"

"Then, are you brave enough to admit that the head of the pharmaceutical department isn't a member of the Shi family? Those officers that you forcefully transferred over aren't his personal soldiers, huh? When you guys go home after work, don't these officers follow you back to the Shi residence?"

Shi Maocheng, "..."

Seeing that Shi Maocheng was speechless, the president said, "I hope this is the first and last time."

"Yes, sir."

"Write me a self-review once we get back."

"Yes, sir."

The president stood up and said to Chi Yang, "You did well this time. I'm sure we'll get the chance to kill Viper again even if we couldn't this time. I believe in Eagle Special Forces."

This evaluation and trust were insurmountable for Eagle.

Chi Yang gave the president a military salute calmly. "Thank you for trusting us, Mr. President."

After the president left, Shi Maocheng knew that he would only be criticized here, so he left as well.

Since a group of special forces soldiers from Emperor District's military base were still training there, Nangong Shu intended to take a look at the results of their training.

Originally, everyone was supposed to be at the Nangong residence located in Peninsula Villa to bid farewell to Nuannuan. After knowing that Nuannuan was at Eagle's, Nangong Ze left work early. Then, he drove over to Eagle to see Nuannuan, hoping to get closer to her as siblings and return home together.

Chapter 1236: Adulterer

In the end, even though he was the young master of the Nangong family, Eagle's security was tight. Without someone to lead the way, no one could enter. Hence, Nangong Ze could only call Chi Yang.

Although the Nangong brothers harbored ill intentions toward him, Chi Yang understood that they were still his brothers and uncles. Chi Yang did not dare to neglect them, so he called Nuannuan and asked her to personally fetch Nangong Ze in.

Currently, Nuannuan had nothing else to do for now. After receiving the call, she went out immediately. She drove herself out because there was quite a distance to cover from the combat headquarters to the main entrance.

After departing in her car, she found Nangong Ze already waiting for her outside. Seeing her in the car, he asked happily, "Nuannuan, are you leaving already?"

"I'll wait for Big Brother Chi Yang and Eldest Uncle. It seems like they'll only be done in around an hour."

"I see." Nangong Ze's eyes twinkled as the gears in his head started moving. "Nuannuan, do you know that there's a roadside stall that sells delicious skewers? Everyone in the special forces here loves them."

"Really?" Nuannuan's eyes lit up. For a foodie, this was definitely the right thing to say.

“Haven’t Chi Yang brought you there yet?”

Nuannuan shook her head.

“He’s too irresponsible. How can he not bring you to such a delicious place?” Nangong Ze took the opportunity to smear Chi Yang’s name.

“He’s busy.” How could Nuannuan not know what these elder brothers, uncles, and her grandfather were thinking? They were unhappy because they failed to find a chance to show off.

Nangong Ze was a smart boy too. Seeing that Nuannuan had started defending Chi Yang, he ended the topic immediately.

“This is the military base’s car, right? Why don’t you park this car here, and I’ll take you to that place that sells skewers? We’ll come back after we eat, and by then, they’ll probably be done with their work.”

“Sure.”

This was compulsory for an elder brother.

If an elder brother had never patted his younger sister’s head, then he did not deserve to be an elder brother.

Today, Nangong Ze had finally fulfilled his wish. However, he was afraid that Nuannuan would be angry, so he only patted her head twice. Not just that, he even pretended to pat her head accidentally.

However, the sensation of patting her head felt amazing.

How he wanted to pat her head again...

Even though Nangong Ze was convinced that he ‘accidentally’ patted Nuannuan’s head, Nuannuan detected the stiffness in his movements as he was unfamiliar with this. It was completely different from how Big Brother Chi Yang patted her head as though he wanted to push his hand into her hair.

“Okay.”

Nangong Ze received the order and brought his younger sister to eat roasted meat immediately.

What they did not know was that there was a woman watching them from afar.

Or rather, they were aware that the woman was looking at them. Yet, since they did not know her, they did not think much of it.

However, in the woman’s eyes, Nuannuan and Nangong Ze were flirting behind Chi Yang’s back.

After all, how could just any man and woman be so intimate with each other?

Watching the car as it rolled away, the woman's eyes were practically glowing.

What Nuannuan did not know was that not long after the car left, a woman dressed in a camouflage suit with two lines and two stars on her insignia appeared at the door.

This woman was none other than Hong Feixu, the same woman who had long coveted Nuannuan's Big Brother Chi Yang.

Chapter 1237: Two-timing

What Nuannuan did not know was that Hong Feixu was still persistent even after she and Big Brother Chi Yang embarrassed her the last time they met. Not only did Hong Feixu ask her family to investigate Nuannuan's identity, but she was even ready to badmouth Nuannuan in front of Grandpa Chi.

However, even if Nuannuan knew, she would not care about such a side character with a death wish. Some women just would not turn back until they hit a wall. Therefore, even if she found out, she would sit back and watch as this woman attempted to court death.

"Mom, what are you looking at? Did you bring the thing over?"

"Yes! I asked Lil He to move the things." A scheming glint flashed across Mrs. Hong's eyes as she said to Hong Feixu, "Xu'er, guess who I saw just now?"

"Who?"

"Zhong Nuannuan."

Hong Feixu was stunned for a moment before anger tinged her face red. "She's here at Eagle again?"

"Yeah."

"What is going on with Big Brother Chi Yang? He's the one who prohibits unaffiliated people from entering Eagle. This is his rule, but now he's breathing this rule on his own? How is he supposed to gain everyone's trust like this?"

Mrs. Hong curled her lips into a sneer. "That's right! I saw that woman's face too. She looks so bewitching, just like Daji in the new movie, League of Gods. I think she looks even better than Daji. No wonder she's managed to charm Chi Yang before turning 18 years old. If she was born in ancient times, she would be a temptress who would bring disaster to the country and its people. Also, you'd think that for someone so outstanding like Chi Yang to treat her so well, so she should act more proper, right? But that woman... I guess she's just a prostitute!"

Hong Feixu frowned. "What happened?"

"I saw her get into a man's luxury car earlier. The man was driving a limited edition Lamborghini. Not only did she get into the man's car, he even touched her!"

"What?" When Hong Feixu heard her mother's words, she thought that she heard them wrong.

After all, Chi Yang could be said to be the most outstanding man in Camino. At present, she was convinced that there was no other man who was more outstanding than Chi Yang!

He was handsome, had a good body, and came from a powerful family. He was also climbing up his career ladder smoothly too. At 27 years old, he managed to become a lieutenant general to whom the president had taken a liking. Soon, so long as he survived, he would be at the top of the list of the nation's influential people by the time he was 40 years old.

Was there something wrong with Zhong Nuannuan's brain? How dare she two-timed him?!

"Mom, are you sure? How's that possible?" Hong Feixu had doubts if her mother mistook someone else for Zhong Nuannuan.

"How can I be mistaken? She is your rival in love. I've done nothing more than staring at her picture for the past few days. Furthermore, think about her vixen-like appearance and how flamboyant she looks. How could anyone else resemble her?"

Hong Feixu thought about it and agreed.

However, she still found it hard to believe that Zhong Nuannuan would cheat on Chi Yang. She muttered to herself, "Even if Zhong Nuannuan's brain is filled with grass, she wouldn't be so stupid as to let go of the outstanding Big Brother Chi to get together with someone else!"

After saying that, Hong Feixu's eyes lit up. "Mom, do you think it's possible that the man is her real boyfriend and Big Brother Chi is the man she's cheating on with? After all, Big Brother Chi is so outstanding. Even if she wanted to cheat, she wouldn't be cheating on Big Brother Chi, right?"

"Perhaps Chi Yang never told her anything about his background? Then, she found another rich man. It makes sense that she'd be two-timing then. You didn't see the person she's cheating on Chi Yang with. He has quite the looks and bearing of a respectable man. He doesn't seem to be that far off from Chi Yang."

Chapter 1238: Climbing The Wall

"Anyway, one look and I can tell that he's from the upper echelons of society. Moreover, he looks younger than Chi Yang, and he drives a limited edition Lamborghini sports car. Say, she's a country bumpkin from Jiang District who grew up in the countryside. What does she know? She might even think that Chi Yang is just a poor soldier. Perhaps that handsome guy is the rich husband she's really targeting!"

The mother and daughter took Nangong Nuannuan as a complete country bumpkin. Other than that, she was a two-timing country bumpkin. Now, they both lay in wait for Chi Yang to come out and mock her in front of him.

"Why isn't Chi Yang out yet?"

"I heard that a very important leader is coming today. Based on Big Brother Chi's personality, the leader that would require Big Brother Chi's presence personally should be the president. Even if that's not the president, it should be one of the top 20 officers from the executive hall. You have no idea how much those officers value Big Brother Chi. The president has just left half an hour ago, so Big Brother Chi will probably only come out after a while.”

When Hong Feixu spoke about Chi Yang, she had a proud look on her face—as though it was her man who the officers respected.

Mrs. Hong was very proud at the mention of Chi Yang. “Of course! Even when the president sees Chi Yang’s grandfather, he will still address him as Uncle Chi. Didn’t you hear that with your own ears? That just proves how close Chi Yang’s family and the president are. Owh, if only you could score a man like Chi Yang earlier, then we wouldn’t have to worry all the time now. How many years has it been? Your relationship with him is still stagnant. Your mother’s hair is turning white from anxiety.”

“What kind of personality does Big Brother Chi have? What kind of background does he have? Even if our family is a third-tier wealthy family, do you think I’ll have a chance just based on our family background? Don’t forget, other than Zhong Nuannuan, there are many other sluts out there who like Big Brother Chi! Especially that Shi Yalin from the Shi family. Big Brother Chi doesn’t like her, and she keeps sticking to the Chi family like a piece of gum. Your daughter, I, am just trying to get by, and I’ve always been trying to save the country. Zhong Nuannuan’s appearance might not be a bad thing right now. Firstly, she’ll make Big Brother Chi realize that she’s two-timing him, and it’ll tire him of all the women who like him, including Shi Yalin. Secondly, only when he gets hurt by these seductive sluts will he understand how wonderful it will be to have a comrade slash lover, right?”

Mrs. Hong sighed. “Oh, well. It’s the only way. Otherwise, if he doesn’t like you, there’s really nothing you can do about it. Anyway, I’ve already said that if you still can’t get him by the age of thirty, you’ll have to go on a blind date.”

Hong Feixu’s expression darkened at the mention of blind dates.

After all, she was already 27 years old. Compared to the 19-year-old Shi Yalin, whether it was her looks or background, she was too far behind.

Other than the daughter of the Shi family, there were also the daughters of the Xiao family and the Ning family. It seemed like many of them liked Chi Yang.

It seemed like she had to think of a way to let these ladies know of Zhong Nuannuan’s existence...

After Chi Yang accompanied Nangong Shu to check on the new special forces soldiers’ training, there was nothing else for him to do.

When Chi Yang and Nangong Shu returned to the headquarters, they did not see Nuannuan nor Nangong Ze. After giving Nuannuan a call, they found out that Nangong Ze had taken Nuannuan to an alley not far from Eagle for some skewers. They even claimed that they were not aware that Chi Yang and Nangong Shu would be done so quickly and would be heading back soon.

Chapter 1239: Mother-in-law Visiting Her Son-in-law

Nangong Shu reached out, retrieved Chi Yang’s phone, and whispered to Nuannuan, telling her not to rush and to enjoy her food before coming back. Then, he asked Nuannuan to pass the phone to Nangong Ze.

The moment Nangong Ze received the phone, Nangong Shu roared at him and asked if he had bought the condiments that his second uncle mentioned.

Only then did Nangong Ze remember that the reason he got off work early was that he had a mission to complete. The task that his second uncle assigned him had completely slipped his mind.

He had no choice but to quickly send Nuannuan back. Then, he drove off to buy the condiments that Second Uncle listed out for him.

When Nuannuan was about to reach the gates to Eagle, she called Chi Yang and asked him to come out.

Therefore, when Nuannuan reached the entrance, Nuannuan waited there.

Sensing two gazes from afar, she glanced over and saw Hong Feixu and her mother.

Hong Feixu was someone who long coveted Big Brother Chi Yang. Coupled with her photographic memory, Nuannuan recognized the woman immediately.

Looking at their resemblance, it was easy to guess the identity of the woman standing next to Hong Feixu—Mrs. Hong.

Realizing that it was Mrs. Hong who was sizing her and Nangong Ze up just now, along with the mocking smile Mrs. Hong was giving her, Nuannuan could roughly guess what Mrs. Hong was thinking.

Therefore, she returned Mrs. Hong's smile in a very conspicuous manner.

Mrs. Hong nearly rushed forward and gave her a tight slap.

She was nothing but a country bumpkin. What was there to be arrogant about? How dare this bumpkin provoke her and smile at her like that?!

"She probably thinks I'm just a poor soldier, and you're just family to a poor soldier."

Hong Feixu could not be blamed for thinking of Nangong Nuannuan this way. After all, most soldiers did not differ much in terms of their financial status.

Nangong Nuannuan stood there the whole time. She expected Hong Feixu and her mother to approach her and mess with her, but the two of them remained far away as they scrutinized her.

It was not until Chi Yang's car rolled out of Eagle, and all the guards bowed to Chi Yang's car, that the mother and daughter rushed over.

Since Nangong Shu drove here himself, Nuannuan's eldest uncle was not in Chi Yang's car. Chi Yang was the only one in the car.

After seeing Nuannuan, Chi Yang stopped the car and got out of the car. Even though they had been hanging out with each other every day, Chi Yang would still feel like he had not seen his wife in a long time no matter how briefly they were parted.

Furthermore, every time he closed in on the distance between them, he would be swarmed by the epiphany that his wife had become prettier, setting new standards for beauty each time.

"Chi Yang."

Chi Yang, who was about to walk up to Nuannuan, found his path blocked by a middle-aged lady.

Looking at the smiling woman, as well as Hong Feixu, who pretended to be cool even though she was fidgeting shyly, Chi Yang could not help but frown.

"What's up?"

Due to what happened last time, Chi Yang surmised that Hong Feixu was one of those female soldiers who went overboard. Therefore, even when he saw Hong Feixu's mother this time, he did not bother looking friendly.

Facing such an intimidating young officer, Mrs. Hong was so nervous that she could barely speak. She opened her mouth twice, but nothing came out.

Seeing this, Chi Yang swerved around and was prepared to leave.

"Mom."

Chapter 1240: Chi Yang's Illness Acted Up

Unbearable, Hong Feixu called out at Mrs. Hong. Only then did Mrs. Hong return to her senses. She hurriedly smiled and said, "It's like this. I'm sure you know that we bought a few mountains in the south, and we've been cultivating some greens and fruits there. When we returned last time, we picked a little bit more and brought them over to your grandfather. The old master is getting old, and the air in the north is rather polluted. Eating some clean food that grew without pollution will be good for the old master's health. They're nothing too valuable, just non-fragile agricultural products such as sweet potatoes and potatoes. I've already put them in the guardhouse for you. I didn't anticipate bumping into you. Come, let Auntie help you bring them to the car."

Knowing Chi Yang's background like the back of her hand, she knew that this young master was financially sound and had everything he needed. If their family wanted to give him anything valuable, not only would their family not be able to afford it, Chi Yang would never accept the gift either. On the contrary, it would be difficult for Chi Yang to reject these small things that were not as valuable but were brimming with their sincerity. Instead of turning the simple presents down, he had no choice but to accept them. After all, he did accept this offering the last time.

Under Hong Feixu and Mrs. Hong's expectant gazes, Chi Yang said, "No need."

Hearing Chi Yang's refusal without hesitation, Hong Feixu's heart sank.

Mrs. Hong could not help but feel embarrassed. She forced a smile and asked, "Why's that? Last time, Auntie also brought you something. You've accepted it then, haven't you?"

"Last time, I rescued Hong Feixu at a critical moment. Out of gratefulness, you acted like you were going to let your daughter marry me if I didn't accept the gift. I had no choice but to accept your local specialties." Chi Yang had all the intentions to extend his happy life. After all, Hong Feixu had made his wife unhappy last time, so this time, he insisted on telling them everything that he needed to say.

Hearing this, Nuannuan, who hovered somewhere nearby all this while, lost her composure.

Looking at Mrs. Hong and Hong Feixu’s flushed faces, Nuannuan could not help but burst out laughing.

She felt that Big Brother Chi Yang’s words were too relatable.

Mrs. Hong turned around and glared at Nangong Nuannuan. The anger in her heart started to rise. She continued speaking to Chi Yang, but she intended for Nuannuan to hear too.

“That’s because I noticed that you and our Xu’er seem to get along very well! At the time, not only did you protect our Xu’er with your life, but after she got injured, you visited her often too.”

What?

After hearing Mrs. Hong’s words, Nuannuan looked questioningly at her Big Brother Chi Yang.

Why did she not know anything about this?

He protected Hong Feixu with his own life?

Chi Yang was scared out of his wits. He, who had always been able to keep a straight face even in the face of gargantuan pressure, felt a cold sweat break out on his back. A burning sensation followed closely after his cold sweat that caused his entire body to itch.

He knew that he had been overwhelmed by a wave of urticaria.

Despite how strong this broken body looked, he suffered from many minor diseases. Insomnia, skin diseases, and his once uncontrollable emotions affected him in many different ways.

After his mood improved after receiving Nuannuan’s care, these problems gradually disappeared. However, Chi Yang was still scared out of his wits when he was taken aback by Mrs. Hong’s sudden spout of nonsense.

The hives instantly engulfed his entire body, and even his face was abnormally flushed.

In Mrs. Hong and Hong Feixu’s eyes, Chi Yang merely looked like this because they managed to guess his real feelings and now, he was blushing.

Otherwise, why else would he blush?

Mrs. Hong and Hong Feixu were so excited that they nearly squealed.
