

Physician Wife 1261

Chapter 1261: Severely Injured

Meanwhile, in the midst of that force stood a woman. Bai Liyue discovered that the woman had been secretly spying on her. When Bai Liyue tried chasing after the woman in the shadows, the woman had disappeared without a trace. From then on, Bai Liyue was nearly assassinated once.

However, Feng Shengxuan just found out that Nuannuan had a fiancé at that time and Bai Liyue did not have the heart to inform him, considering how horrendous his mood was.

This time, encountering Wute Organization here convinced her further that Wute Organization's Fujiwara I was not only related to Feng Shengxuan but he must be related to that woman too.

Bai Liyue was not someone to be trifled with either. There was no reason for Bai Liyue to allow that woman to attempt assassinating her time and again without reciprocating with a gift herself.

However, just as she was about to call Nuannuan to ask her, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi to help her destroy Wute Organization, Bai Liyue realized that she was already fenced in.

Internet signals in the village with a radius of about a dozen miles, that she was currently in, had been cut off.

She had been too caught up with observing people from Wute Organization that she failed to realize that there was something wrong with the villagers.

However, as a top-notch mercenary, no matter how many enemies she had to face, they were at most Rank-3A killers. They were not on the same level as her.

Therefore, snatching their weapons from these people and fighting her way out was not difficult for her.

However, she did not take into account how crazy they were.

When she realized that something was wrong with the villagers around her, she took the initiative to grab a pistol from one of them and shot the man in the heart.

However, the villager did not even pause to stagger or get stunned. He continued to fight her as if he had not been shot.

During these battles, Bai Liyue realized that the villagers were like zombies. They felt no pain at all. As long as their heads remained intact or their blood had yet to run dry, they would not die.

This was the first time Bai Liyue encountered such a peculiar person, and she wasted a lot of time on him.

After dealing with all of them, as she stood there with a machine gun, what welcomed her next were shells from the enemy mortars!

If it were not for the fact that she was naturally more nimble than most people and leaped over to a tree opposite the house, she would have been dead by now.

After escaping from the mortar attack, she thought that her enemies must have thought that she had died in the house and would not fire anymore.

Little did she know that to make sure that she was dead, the people from Wute Organization fired another dozen mortar shells around the house.

This time, no matter how lithe her body was or how fast she ran, she could not escape easily.

When the fourth mortar shell followed up with the third, the explosion finally caught up to her and injured her.

She was severely burned in her back, arms, and legs.

When she was blown away, Bai Liyue was convinced that she would die here.

Thankfully, these people had nothing else other than an abundance of firearms and they were in cahoots with the local police. Therefore, to make sure that she was blown to smithereens, they made the house their center point for firing and leveled the area within a radius of a kilometer.

She did not know how long she had been unconscious. It was not until her ears started to hear again that she regained consciousness.

When she woke up, the explosion had already subsided. The people from Wute Organization had already searched through the decimated house and were heading her way.

The people were walking toward her. After another turn, they would be able to see her.

Bai Liyue could only endure the intense pain and forced herself to get up quickly. She squeezed into a very small gap that nobody would expect a person to fit inside.

Luckily, that crazy woman did not know Bai Liyue very well. She was not aware that Bai Liyue had the flexibility and contortion skills that even Nuannuan was amazed by.

Chapter 1262: Accomplished

Hence, Bai Liyue quickly put both skills into use and hid in the crack.

After squeezing into the gap, she was now lodged at the people's side. Moreover, they were in a relatively empty area, so it was easy to take in everything at once. Therefore, after the people realized that there was no one there, they continued their search elsewhere.

It was not until the second and third waves of people had passed that this place lapsed into a dead silence. When she was sure that no one else would come over, Bai Liyue finally mustered up the courage to come out.

However, the road leading out of the village had been completely sealed off by Wute Organization. Even though the place had been reduced to ruins, these people did not believe that she was dead. They continued to stand guard.

This village was like a bottleneck with only one exit.

Wute Organization was the largest gangster organization in Yamato with countless members joining their ranks.

Not only did they have the numbers, but they also possessed heavy weapons. Charging out was not an option for Bai Liyue.

Previously, Bai Liyue investigated the terrain and knew that there was a mountain behind the village. Behind the mountain was the sea, but the mountain scaled off in the form of a cliff toward the sea. The cliff was 120 meters above sea level.

If she jumped down the cliff in her current state, she would die.

However, death could not be more certain if she stayed in the village.

Bai Liyue had no choice but to run up the mountain.

Wute's headquarters was located on the mountain. As the saying goes, the most dangerous place was the safest place to be.

If she wanted to live, she had to infiltrate Wute Organization, find a computer, and use her phone number to contact Nuannuan. Only then could she be saved.

Hence, Bai Liyue endured the pain from the injuries on her body. She snuffed out a killer, took off his clothes, and used the decomposing powder that Nuannuan gave her to destroy the corpse. Then, she sneaked into Wute Organization.

To capture her, most of Wute's members had already been sent out, enabling her to find the computer in a secluded area.

However, these people spared no effort in intercepting her phone reception. They were not using the internet themselves. None of the computers worked, except the radio that they had been using.

Fortunately, while she was still in KE, top mercenaries had to learn everything—including hacking—under King's intense pressure.

Therefore, she attempted to disassemble the walkie-talkie and connect the walkie-talkie to the computer. Through the display on the computer, she tried to break through the shield system that blocked her phone reception.

Mission accomplished. The signal on her phone was sent out successfully, but even if Nuannuan received the signal, it would only be able to track Bai Liyue through her phone's last known location after it had been turned off. There was no way to contact Nuannuan.

Bai Liyue could only pray that Nuannuan would realize something was up and then, ask Dan Qi to look for Bai Liyue. Therefore, they would find out that she was in danger.

Other than that, Bai Liyue had no other choice.

The signal could only stay connected by keying in a series of codes, so she had to stay in front of the computer. She could only pray that the connection lasted long enough.

However, when one was unlucky, they would even choke while drinking plain water.

Individual rooms stretched out in this area. There were so many empty rooms around, but she chose the one that was occupied.

The man looked like he had just taken a toilet break. He was still fiddling with his belt when Bai Liyue slit his throat with a knife.

Initially, Bai Liyue planned to connect to the computer again after killing him, but little did she expect the man to have invited several others to his office.

Chapter 1263: King

If she was still in her peak condition, it would not be difficult to end these people instantly. However, the entirety of her back and legs were badly hurt. She was limping and had a high fever. Her head was started to feel heavy and thus, reducing her speed.

Therefore, after Bai Liyue killed three people in a flash, the remaining two managed to scream before they died.

Thankfully, as the signals were blocked here, they could only shout.

Even though many people discovered her one after another and attacked her, or summoned backup from the outside through the walkie-talkie, Bai Liyue managed to utilize this opportunity fully to carve out a bloody path for herself before running up the mountain.

There was no escape route on the other side of the mountain. There was only a cliff. Therefore, Bai Liyue pretended to run up the mountain. However, she used her extremely light body to hide along the way, even though it was inconvenient. She hid in all possible hiding places first before hunting for another hiding spot.

She had never thought of breaking through the village entrance, nor had she thought of jumping off the cliff. If death was inevitable, she would rather everyone perish together.

At that moment, Bai Liyue only wanted to stall for as long as possible, hoping that Nuannuan or Dan Qi would notice something was wrong with her.

However, she also knew that such a chance was slim. After all, she had called and informed Nuannuan that she wanted to chill on her own, and told her not to look for her.

As for Feng Shengxuan...

A bitter smile appeared on Bai Liyue's face. This man must be getting impatient for her to leave, right? After all, when she was by his side, he was so irritable. Why would he keep looking for her?

Even though she had been burning up with a 40-degree fever for two consecutive days, and there was no way out, she still had to stay alert. However, her strong desire to live made Bai Liyue retain any last bit of hope.

The heavens did not disappoint those who were determined. Three hours after the signal was sent, two helicopters finally appeared in the sky.

One landed at the village entrance while the other landed on the mountaintop.

On this side of the mountain were Nuannuan, Chi Yang, and Selina. On the other side of the village were Feng Shengxuan, Aiden, and Dan Qi.

Dan Qi had already shown everyone the terrain here through the screenshots taken from the satellite. Nuannuan was afraid that Bai Liyue would be forced to jump off the cliff, so she had Chi Yang park the helicopter at the edge of the cliff before they fought their way down.

Feng Shengxuan landed the helicopter at the village entrance.

His slender body and black coat made him look like he was the embodiment of darkness.

His bewitching eyes and devilish handsome features clearly belonged to the Best Actor who could topple a country in showbiz. However, at this moment, his eyes were like those of a hawk. With every step he took, countless black lotuses that represented death seemed to bloom on the ground.

A lotus bloomed with each of his lithe steps.

The saying sounded like a line from the Buddhist scriptures, but he managed to walk a path that was the opposite.

At that moment, Feng Shengxuan seemed to be the ruler of everything black in this world. He could devour all black holes—wherever he stepped, everything would wither at a visible rate.

The person who had been guarding the main gate was Shogo Shinichi, the most trusted aide of Wute's leader, Fujiwara I. Since he had been working under his boss all year round, Shogo Shinichi had once seen this big boss, Phoenix, from afar before.

Meanwhile, from his boss's occasional phone calls or casual conversations, he could guess that Best Actor Phoenix, who had driven his fans around the world crazy and had recently been rumored to be gay for another man, seemed to be the reincarnation of Hades himself—King, the man who struck fear into the hearts of all political figures.

Chapter 1264: This Is Why

This time, they received their assignment straight from KE's headquarters. That was why the Boss asked them to dedicate all their effort into this.

Seeing that King himself arrived with two other hostile lackeys following behind him, Shogo Shinichi immediately went up to welcome him. He opened his mouth to speak but Feng Shengxuan did not even allow him that chance. He looked around and noticed that there was no one there. He took out a small cannon from his black trench coat.

He pulled the trigger, and a shell no longer than 10cm shot out from the barrel.

Feng Shengxuan's was extremely fast. His hands were not even touching his gun a second ago, but in the next second, a hole opened up on Shogo Shinichi's chest after the explosive shell landed on him.

Simultaneously exploding into smithereens were everyone within a twelve-meter radius.

When Feng Shengxuan opened fire, Aiden and Dan Qi also moved at the same time. Before they could make heads or tails of how these people were attacking them, the entrance to the village exploded as if it had been doused in oil and ignited by a cannonball.

The houses at the entrance of the village instantly burst into flames. Like a ferocious python, it tore open a hideous and terrifying hole in the village that had been heavily guarded like a fortified metal bucket.

The people who were guarding the back entrance widened their eyes. Bai Liyue's reinforcements had arrived, but they had not completed the mission KE assigned to them. Afraid that the bigshots in KE would blame them, the people at the bank started firing rapidly at the village entrance without getting permission.

Bang! Bang! Bang! Bang!

As the blasts resounded, everyone watched as the cannonballs that had just been fired from the barrel was accurately intercepted by another cannonball.

The two kinds of cannonballs collided in the air, producing an effect of one plus one greater than two.

Meanwhile, the handheld cannon barrels in the hands of those in hiding, along with the assassins around the mortars, were blown to ashes by the explosions before they realized what was happening.

Aiden and Dan Qi could not help but glance at Feng Shengxuan, who held a portable cannon in one hand and a machine gun in the other. His entire body seemed to be exuding bottomless dark energy.

They had never seen Big Bro so angry before.

In the past, when Nuannuan was being disobedient and left after quarreling with Big Bro, Big Bro never threw such a huge tantrum.

Feng Shengxuan was currently extremely enraged. Even when he found out that Nuannuan had a fiancé, he was not as furious as he was now.

Looking at the group of idiots who kept attacking them, Feng Shengxuan thought that the stupid woman, Bai Liyue, might have gotten injured. Now, it felt like all of his anger could not be dispelled from his heart even if he massacred everyone on earth.

Later on, there was almost no need for Aiden and Dan Qi to join in anymore. Wherever they went, the furious Feng Shengxuan annihilated all the insignificant ones.

The people from Wute Organization started to panic too even though they did not have to get close to Feng Shengxuan. They could still use their cannons. Originally, Feng Shengxuan did not know where their cannons were hidden. However, the moment they fired their cannons, this man was like a god who foresaw where they were going to fire their cannons, and then, he would open fire at the cannonballs too.

It was easy to imagine the power of an explosion as the two artillery met.

Therefore, they might not die tragically if they did not open fire. The second they opened fire, not a single cannonball could successfully find their target. All of them exploded the moment they left the barrel.

Also, there were also those bullets...

The killers of Wute Organization wanted to come forward and interview them—why would their bullets keep missing the three of them?

Chapter 1265: King's Fury

Although most of the lackeys died before their bullets could hit their target, at least one or two bullets would hit their enemies, right?!

Why did none of them hit?

Aiden and Dan Qi wondered about the answer to this question too.

However, the duo knew better than those gangsters who were still in a daze even after death. They realized that none of the bullets had actually been aiming at them. The ones who truly aimed at them were murdered by Big Bro before they could even fire.

It was the same every time.

After a few more times, the gaze in Dan Qi's became much profound.

Recalling the match between him and Big Bro before dinner—even though they had not gone through any training for some time and Big Bro could not have known many of Dan Qi's new moves—he was able to react to Dan Qi's attack first and find all the openings to counter Dan Qi. It felt like...

It was as if Big Bro knew which moves would hurt him first.

To prevent Bai Liyue from escaping, nearly half of the members of Wute Organization were guarding the village entrance, while the other half were sweeping the mountain.

Fujiwara I was not around. He knew Bai Liyue after all. Since this woman was able to stay by Phoenix's side for so long and was a good friend of Queen, her skills were naturally top-notch.

To prevent himself from being captured or even killed, Fujiwara I retained all of his people and went into hiding himself.

What he did was completely correct.

Not only did Wute Organization commit the unforgivable crime of killing Bai Liyue, they had also attempted to kill Chi Yang in Mustapha.

Initially, Nuannuan wanted to wait until she had finished her High School General Knowledge Competition before destroying Wute Organization for what they did. However, this was the best time for her to collect their debts at one go.

With Nuannuan and Chi Yang taking the lead, Selina did not even have a chance to fire a single bullet. Dealing with these minions was too easy for them.

With Nuannuan's X-Ray vision, not even the gangsters who had been forced into hiding could escape Nuannuan's clutches.

Hiding in the gap between two rocks, Bai Liye shrank herself even further in.

Hearing the noise of flying helicopters and explosions everywhere, she knew that Nuannuan had come. A smile appeared on her lips, and she fainted.

She had been injured for three whole days, and the injury on her back had worsened. In the subzero temperature, she had maintained a high fever of 40°C for more than two days. Even though her body was usually made of steel, now that she knew that she had someone to rely on, she could not even muster the energy to squeeze through this gap.

She believed that Nuannuan would definitely discover her and rescue her.

More than 85% among the thousands of members in Wute Organization were trained, and 10% of them were international mercenaries.

Currently, the ones who wanted to surround and kill Bai Liye should be the 10% in Wute Organization.

After killing these people, Wute Organization would only exist in name.

Truly, Nuannuan did not even let any mice off easy.

When the gunshots disappeared and only the occasional gunshot could be heard, Nuannuan's group met up with Feng Shengxuan's group.

"Have you found the woman?"

From afar, Feng Shengxuan asked loudly, unable to hide the nervousness in his voice.

"No."

Seeing how nervous he was, Nuannuan wanted to ridicule him that the person he really liked was Big Sis Yue.

Yet, he insisted that he was in love with Nuannuan.

No matter what, Feng Shengxuan believed that he had an unyielding love.

Chapter 1266: Stupid Woman

To put it bluntly, Feng Shengxuan had a father-daughter relationship, brother-sister relationship, and soulmate-best friend relationship with Nuannuan. Adding them up together, he became very possessive. Whenever a man appeared by Nuannuan's side, Feng Shengxuan would have the urge to destroy the man. Hence, he assumed that this was love.

Just look at Big Brother Chi Yang. Every time Big Brother Chi Yang saw Nuannuan, especially when the two of them were alone, his lower body would always feel bloated. When he did not get to have her, his eyes would seep with a resentfulness like a huge yearning puppy. After getting satisfied, he would look like a demon who finally had his share of the essence absorbed from the sun and moon. This reaction was normal in a man.

However, after being together with Feng Shengxuan for so many years, Feng Shengxuan had never wanted to have Nuannuan that way. He merely indulged her unconditionally, protected her, and then killed all the men around her who harbored bad intentions and wanted to get close to her. What Feng Shengxuan had was possessiveness, and it had nothing to do with love.

At this moment, Nuannuan really wanted to use Feng Shengxuan's anxious expression to lecture this man who was terrible in understanding his own emotions—someone who was worse than her.

However, seeing the anxiety in his eyes, Nuannuan swallowed her words and said, "Why don't we split up and search?"

"There's no need. Let's go together. No matter what, that woman has been with me for so long. For her to not show up even until now, she must be injured. If that's the case, it's pointless for us to split up. That body of hers? Even if we're looking for a corner as small as a rat tunnel, do you think you can spot her?"

Selina pouted at the back.

Feng Shengxuan was obviously praising Big Sis Yue's ability to hide, but the words that came out of his mouth sounded like he was praising himself. It was as though he was saying that Big Sis Yue was only so powerful because she stayed by his side for so long.

She could not understand how a wonderful person like Big Sis Yue could fall in love with such an annoying personality.

The six of them searched everywhere. Finally, after walking for almost an hour, they saw the unconscious Bai Liyue in a crevice on the other side of the mountain.

However, Bai Liyue was deeply unconscious. Even though she utilized Bone Contraction and Body Contortion to enter the gap, the techniques were useless after she fainted. If they dragged her out just a little bit, her shrinking body would be completely unfolded until her body filled up the gaps between the rocks.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Chi Yang, "..."

Her friends, "..."

"Stupid woman!"

Seeing Bai Liyue like this, Feng Shengxuan was extremely angry. He could not wait to shoot this stupid woman.

Death by him was better than death by others!

Feng Shengxuan held Bai Liyue's hand. As though the temperature of her hand was electrifying, the sudden jolt went straight to his heart, sending him into all sorts of frustration.

So hot!

At this moment, even Nangong Nuannuan did not want to mess with the current Feng Shengxuan. She stood far away from him.

“What are you waiting for? Scram!”

Seeing Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi still standing in front of Bai Liyue, Feng Shengxuan was furious.

This demon king might have always carried himself in the demeanor of a gentleman with a devilish smile. However, he could kill you if you did not listen to him at the peak of his anger. Even if he did not kill you, he could make you suffer for ten to twenty days. In the past, Aiden and Selina were often bedridden because of him.

Therefore, after being yelled at, the three of them quickly leaped away. Feng Shengxuan picked up the cannon in his hand and bombarded the rock around the area.

Chapter 1267: Severely Injured

Nuannuan was dumbstruck. She did not expect Feng Shengxuan to use such rough methods. She could only watch helplessly as countless rocks fell from above.

Just as the rocks were about to hit one of Bai Liyue’s outstretched arms, Feng Shengxuan rushed over and let those small rocks that were not fatal hit him. As for those larger ones, he disintegrated them with his punches.

Chi Yang wanted to help, but Nuannuan stopped him.

Feng Shengxuan was a very possessive person. Even though he had not realized that he had feelings for Bai Liyue right now—in fact, he thought he hated her—Bai Liyue was still his; someone that he had put a label on. If Chi Yang went to help, not only would Feng Shengxuan not be grateful, he would even get angry at that.

Countless rocks fell from the sky. Some of them could have injured him, but Nuannuan knew that these rocks could not hurt Feng Shengxuan at all.

Finally, the rocks above had been shattered by the cannon fire. As for the rest of the smaller pieces, Feng Shengxuan used his bare hands to break the rocks stuck on Bai Liyue’s body.

Breaking rocks with his bare hands!

Even Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi who stood at the side felt their hands ache.

Chi Yang and Nuannuan’s eyes dimmed involuntarily.

With a bigger gap appearing, Feng Shengxuan finally lifted Bai Liyue out from the crack.

However, when his hand touched the burnt clothes on Bai Liyue’s back, the wet and sticky feeling made him mash his eyebrows together.

Seeing that there were no bullet wounds on the front, Feng Shengxuan squatted down, leaned Bai Liyue against his chest, and pushed her over to the side a little.

“Ah!”

Selina exclaimed.

Bai Liyue’s back and legs had already been injured beyond recognition, and they had gone untreated for a long time. Coupled with the low temperature, some of the wounds had started to ooze with pus, while others had been frozen to the point that the flesh was almost blackish-purple. There were even some tiny icicles mixed in.

Even Feng Shengxuan, who was still cursing at Bai Liyue when she was unconscious, subconsciously pursed his lips tightly after seeing her hideous wounds.

Nangong Nuannuan checked Bai Liyue’s forehead and scanned her internal organs with her eyes. She frowned.

At that moment, Bai Liyue suddenly twitched a little in Feng Shengxuan’s arms. It scared Feng Shengxuan so much that he felt as if someone hammered at his heart. He quickly positioned Bai Liyue properly on his lap, squatted on the ground, and took off his windbreaker to cover Bai Liyue. He asked Nangong Nuannuan in a daze, “How’s she doing? Will she die?”

“Quick, send her to the hospital. She has been running a high fever for too long, and her cerebral membrane is inflamed. Her back is severely injured, and there’s no way to treat it because it’s already infected. Her organs are starting to fail from the infection too.”

“Do you have a solution?” Feng Shengxuan looked at Nuannuan helplessly. To him, if even Nuannuan could not do this, the hospital would not be able to do it either. He did not trust the hospital.

“Don’t worry, I won’t let Big Sis Yue die. Stop wasting time and go to the hospital. Firstly, we need to disinfect her wounds, give her a tetanus shot, and put her on the drip to reduce inflammation and seal up open wounds.”

With Nuannuan’s reassurance, Feng Shengxuan came back to his senses and quickly stood up with Bai Liyue in his arms.

On the way here, Feng Shengxuan did not want to take the same plane as Chi Yang, lest he died from anger.

Chapter 1268: Driving A Tractor

However, when they left, Feng Shengxuan could not bother having too many requests. Without a word, he carried Bai Liyue and boarded Chi Yang’s helicopter.

On the helicopter, Feng Shengxuan carefully put Bai Liyue on the seat. Then, he peeled her clothes away slightly and carefully observed her wound.

Bai Liyue’s back, which had originally been so fair that it was almost glowing, was so badly burnt that even the ghastly white on her shoulder blades was visible. That hideous wound made Feng Shengxuan’s heart twitch.

As his heartache escalated, he lost his temper.

“Idiot! How dare you do this to yourself, and you still have the cheek to be one of the top three mercenaries in the world. Why couldn’t they just blow you up? It’ll save us the trouble! Nuannuan, why don’t you just give her a stab and end her? At least this woman dies in your hands and not from her own stupidity.”

Nuannuan, “...” -_-||

Nuannuan did not want to talk to him at all.

Instead, she got up and went to Big Brother Chi Yang.

As Chi Yang flew the helicopter, he glanced at Nuannuan and reached out in spite of himself to stroke her hair.

Her Big Brother Chi Yang was still the best!

In the past, she had thought that Big Sis Yue and Feng Shengxuan were a good match, but now she felt that Feng Shengxuan was not worthy at all. Feng Shengxuan did not deserve Bai Liyue.

Seeing that Nuannuan ignored him, Feng Shengxuan was furious, but he did not dare to shout at her.

Looking at Bai Liyue’s back, his heart felt uncomfortable. In the end, he could only help Bai Liyue readjust her clothes so that her wounds would be out of his sight and consequently, out of mind. Then, he took off his suit jacket and layered it on top of the windbreaker on Bai Liyue’s body to keep her warm.

When he was done, he turned around and scolded Chi Yang, “Are you operating a helicopter or a tractor? Can you be any slower?”

The two of them looked at each other and did not speak. At this time, Feng Shengxuan was like a furious and naggy old woman. There was no way to reason with him.

The Benevolent Angel Hospital in Yamato was a chain of hospitals under Imperial Phoenix Group. After receiving the call from the chairman, the director and a group of hospital administrators rushed back to the hospital from their homes and waited on the rooftop with a group of medical experts.

Soon enough, a helicopter flew over from afar and landed based on the landmark.

Almost as soon as the plane touched the ground, Feng Shengxuan carried Bai Liyue and jumped off the plane.

The senior executives of the hospital quickly delivered the portable hospital bed that they had prepared beforehand. After Bai Liyue was carefully placed on the portable hospital bed, a doctor immediately attached pressurized oxygen to her, and another group of doctors quickly inserted a drip.

“What are you giving her?” Although Feng Shengxuan did not know anything, he could not help but ask.

“Chairman, this is a powerful fever medicine. It also contains glucose amino acids. It will reduce the fever quickly and maintain the moisture in the body at the same time,” the director quickly explained.

“Hurry to the operating room, don’t waste time,” Nuannuan intercepted.

Feng Shengxuan did not know anything, to begin with, and even if he asked, he would not understand. What was this if not wasting time?

The director was stunned. He glanced at the chairman and wondered who this beautiful woman was. How dare she interrupt the chairman like that?

“She’s the real chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group. Listen to her and go in quickly!”

The director was stunned. He quickly greeted the director and pushed Bai Liyue into the operating theater.

Internally, he had not overcome his shock. The chairman of the top ten corporations in the world was actually a girl younger than 20 years old.

She was so pretty too.

Chapter 1269: Chi Yang’s Concerns

After Bai Liyue got pushed into the operating theater, the specialists got busy inside.

“Nuannuan, aren’t you going in?” Feng Shengxuan asked pleadingly when he saw Nangong Nuannuan still standing outside.

“I still need to get disinfected. I can’t go in directly.”

With that said, she was ready to go through another door.

“I’ll go too.” Feng Shengxuan quickly followed.

Nuannuan peered at him. “Are you planning to go in and scare everyone to death, thus making sure that no doctors would dare to treat Big Sis Yue?”

Feng Shengxuan, “...”

Then, with Nuannuan’s full-blown disdain, Feng Shengxuan could only stay outside with Chi Yang.

Seeing that Chi Yang was looking at him without saying anything, as if accusing Feng Shengxuan as a coward, Feng Shengxuan immediately flared up. Like a father, he shouted at Chi Yang, “Ever since this girl got together with you, her temper has been getting much worse than before! You two aren’t meant for each other at all.”

However, Chi Yang only replied indifferently.

“I spoil her.”

F*ck!

After four hours of suturing, Bai Liyue was finally pushed out of the operating theater at three in the morning.

After four hours of waiting, Feng Shengxuan had already gone berserk countless times.

Seeing Bai Liye come out, everyone quickly surrounded her.

"How's Big Sis Yue?" Selina asked.

Nuannuan took off her facemask and said, "She's out of danger now. The wounds on her back have been stitched up. I'll create some medicine to give her back some beauty treatment. There shouldn't be any scars left."

Feng Shengxuan finally felt at ease after hearing her words.

His heart was no longer in a panic frenzy, and he calmed down.

After everything was settled, Nuannuan said to Feng Shengxuan, "Big Bro, take good care of Big Sis Yue. We'll take our leave first."

Feng Shengxuan thought that he had heard wrongly and asked matter-of-factly, "If all of you leave, who will take care of her?"

"You, of course!" Everyone said in unison.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

The student representatives from the Camino team would arrive at Yamato at eleven in the morning. After settling Bai Liye down, Nuannuan still had a few hours of rest left.

Coincidentally, there was a five-star hotel chain established by Imperial Phoenix in Yamato near the hospital. Nuannuan, Chi Yang, Aiden, and Selina went to that hotel to rest.

Feng Shengxuan thought that they did not truly mean it. Little did he expect that everyone would leave after saying that, leaving him there.

Damn...

Why him?

Why must it be him?

He was Bai Liye's boss, so why should he take care of her?

Seeing that vixen Chi Yang holding onto Nuannuan's hand, Feng Shengxuan's eyes were about to burn.

This shameless old fox!

Initially, he had wanted to walk off, but when he saw the pallid woman lying on the bed, his heart softened.

Forget it. Since it was almost daybreak, he would give in and take care of her for the night.

After all, she took care of him for so many years!

After entering the hotel room, Chi Yang lifted Nuannuan up like a princess and placed her on the bed. Then, he leaned in and pinned her soft body under his gently.

Nuannuan blinked at Chi Yang. Noticing the unhappiness and grievance on his face, she asked, "Big Brother Chi Yang, what's wrong?"

Looking at his wife with her huge watery eyes, Chi Yang bent down and gave her a long and hard kiss. His calloused hands gently caressed Nuannuan's neck and face. It tickled her so much she tried to shy away.

After a deep kiss, Chi Yang asked, "Nuannuan, he loves you so persistently. Will you be moved by his persistence one day?"

Chapter 1270: So Domineering

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang and realized how much he had suffered these few days.

For the past few days, Nuannuan had been secretly observing the interaction between Big Brother Chi Yang and Feng Shengxuan. She was afraid that he would be the same as how he was in her previous life after getting triggered by Feng Shengxuan. He would have a bad temper and be unable to sleep. That would consequently weaken his autonomic nervous system.

All of these symptoms that had once made Chi Yang miserable did not make their appearance in this life.

Nuannuan expected that Chi Yang would be able to handle Feng Shengxuan with ease. Furthermore, she had not given Feng Shengxuan any opportunities to exploit, therefore ensuring that Chi Yang had no chance to be anxious. However, she had still neglected Big Brother Chi Yang's feelings.

Nuannuan hooked Chi Yang's leg and sent him toppling onto the bed. She rolled around and pinned him down instead. Nuannuan imitated Big Brother Chi Yang and pressed her lips against his sexy, thin lips.

Nuannuan showed him her greatest passion, and Chi Yang felt his vision go dark before a fragrance that made his heart flutter came from his lips and teeth. Immediately after, this fragrance swept through his entire mouth like a tornado. Chi Yang could not withstand such a fiery kiss. Soon enough, he could feel a terrifying fellow awakening again. Nuannuan made haste to soothe it.

With a satisfied grunt, Chi Yang lay on the bed while panting heavily. Nuannuan immediately leaned over and pressed her face against Big Brother Chi Yang's face. "Big Brother Chi Yang, I'm yours. I'll always be yours. I won't be anyone else's! As for my Big Bro, don't you think he and Big Sis Yue are meant for each other? However, he has yet to realize it himself. He'll probably find out later."

As Chi Yang listened, he cursed silently in his heart. Feng Shengxuan was such a self-important, conceited, willful, stubborn, and ungentlemanly man who thought he was unparalleled in this world. How long would it take for him to believe that he liked Bai Liyue instead of Nuannuan? Probably never.

Furthermore, when he decided that he loved Nuannuan, even if Nuannuan already had Chi Yang; even if he realized that he had fallen in love with Bai Liyue, he would adamantly refuse to admit this. Then, he would insist on fighting Chi Yang for Nuannuan.

Chi Yang asked a little worriedly, "Then, no matter how he pursues you, even if he threatens you with his life one day, you won't leave me and go into his arms, right?"

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang and said seriously, "If he really threatens me with his life one day and asks me to leave you, I'll help him end his own life first."

Chi Yang, ‘...I have such a domineering wife.’

“If a person doesn’t even love himself, how can he love someone else? If he really wants to die, I’ll do what I said I’ll do.”

“Then... no matter what he does, you won’t give up on me?”

“Big Brother Chi Yang, stop asking me this. Unless I die, no matter what happens, nothing will make me leave you.”

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan with happiness seeping out of his eyes. He did not feel sorry for Nuannuan for making such a terrifying oath. Instead, he said happily, “Yes, even if we die, we’ll die together.”

“Okay.” Nuannuan agreed without hesitation.

Only then did Chi Yang wind down. He happily lifted his wife and brought her to the shower.

After all, his wife had already given him so much help. He should volunteer to do everything else after that.

Nuannuan still had to meet up with the group from her training camp the next day, so Chi Yang did not want her to be too tired.

After showering, Chi Yang hugged his wife to sleep.

As long as he got to hug his wife to sleep, he would never need to rely on acupuncture or medication to sleep up to five hours.
