Chapter 1271: Fighter Team From Z Country

Originally, Nuannuan did not feel sleepy at all. However, when she quietly leaned against Big Brother Chi Yang's chest and listened to his firm heartbeat, she suddenly felt sleepy. In less than a minute, she fell asleep.

She slept peacefully through the night.

When she woke up fully recharged in the morning, she abandoned the tight-fitting sports attire from the night before and took out a student outfit from her suitcase. She also put on a white coat with a hood and a pair of snow boots.

Nuannuan tied her hair into a bun, and some of her soft and fine hair was scattered around her hairlines. Playfully yet perfectly positioned beside her palm-sized face, the light blue fluff inside her hood complemented the furry snow boots on her feet.

The fluffy Nuannuan looked adorable.

The plane that was supposed to land at the airport in Yamato at eleven o'clock had taken off forty-five minutes earlier because of the smog in Camino.

Chi Yang and Nuannuan departed for the airport half an hour earlier, as they discussed earlier. However, fifteen minutes into their journey, everyone had already arrived.

Seeing the caller ID, Nuannuan picked up the phone and explained that she was already on her way here. She even asked Big Brother Chi Yang to fly the helicopter faster.

After rescuing Bai Liyue yesterday, they went to the city closest to the East Coast. Therefore, even though they set off early this morning, it would still take some time for them to travel from the east to the center.

Fifteen minutes later, the helicopter landed on the private helipad in Yamato's capital airport. After bidding farewell to Chi Yang, Nuannuan hurried to the airport exit.

Guo Zhennan was the person in charge who discovered the treasure, Nuannuan, and then made the decision to let her leave the training camp. When he saw Nuannuan walk over quickly, he smiled.

"You're here!"

Nuannuan nodded and greeted him politely, "Teacher Guo."

"Mmm, okay!" Guo Zhennan was very happy that Nuannuan could arrive on time. After all, when he heard that she could not even catch a flight with the rest of them yesterday, he panicked.

Now that this troublesome one had come as promised, his heart was completely at ease.

“You do know how to put on airs, don’t you? You didn’t attend the training camp, and you wouldn’t even take the same plane with us. You insisted on coming alone. Zhong Nuannuan, do you know that we’re representing the entire Camino to compete against Yamato? We’re a team. Due to your stubbornness, do you know how much risk we’re taking as the staff responsible for this competition?”

“Teacher Guo, I can’t see how outstanding Zhong Nuannuan is, but I understand that everyone should have some basic sense of team spirit. Furthermore, our team represents the entire Camino. If anything happens, how are we going to answer to the Education Bureau?”

Since Nuannuan came by recommendation from Jia Yong from Jiang District and she forgot to amend her household registration, her current household register remained in the Jiang family’s household registration, and her name was still Zhong Nuannuan. Therefore, for a student from a small city to act so snobbishly, the usually mean Teacher Zhou who had yet to witness Nangong Nuannuan’s prowess blew up at Nuannuan.

Chapter 1272: Weirdo Teacher

Nuannuan was the kind who would reciprocate tenfold if a person gave her respect. However, if you truly decided to go against Nuannuan, all those unlucky people from Jiang District were the best examples.

At that moment, Nuannuan looked safe and harmless. Obviously, she did not take this mean Teacher Zhou seriously. She explained, “Teacher Zhou, I didn’t join the camp because I received Teacher Guo’s approval, and Teacher Guo called me twenty days in advance to check everything that I’ve memorized. Also, there was an emergency at home today, so I came to Yamato earlier. I wasn’t late or absent. Furthermore, I also applied for leave with Teacher Guo and obtained his approval.”

Nuannuan tried to explain herself, but Teacher Zhou refused to accept her explanation. He sneered, “Are you talking back at me?”

“You can think of it that way,” Nuannuan retorted.

“What kind of student are you? What kind of quality do you think you have? Do you really think that just because you have a good memory, this team position belongs to you?”

“The competition is about to begin, and the students’ emotions are very important. Teacher Zhou, are you sure you want to provoke the students’ emotions again and again? Nuannuan is the dark horse among our batch of students. You and Teacher Cheng are only responsible for the students’ accommodation. You just need to do your job well. The rest is my jurisdiction.”

Teacher Zhou was put on the spot by Guo Zhennan’s words. He glared at Nangong Nuannuan fiercely and said in spite of himself, “I do hope she’s a dark horse as you think she is. Otherwise, we’ll see how you’ll answer to the Education Bureau.”

Nuannuan decided not to argue with him.

After all, she was only here to participate in a competition as a high school student. After that, she would have nothing to do with these people.

Seeing Teacher Zhou had insulted Nuannuan, Xia Anchen stood up and defended her. "Teacher Zhou, Nuannuan truly has a photographic memory. You weren't there back then, so you didn't witness her showcase. You wouldn't be able to understand and experience the shock."

He then said to Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, don't take it to heart. Teacher Zhou has a sharp tongue but a soft heart. He's not a bad person."

Looking at Xia Anchen, Nangong Nuannuan thought to herself, '...Who are you? Are we that close for you to call me that?'

However, as the saying goes, one would not slap a smiling person. Therefore, Nuannuan did not argue with him.

Even though she did not argue with him or reciprocate with snarky remarks, she was generally indifferent to him.

Seeing that his goddess was ignoring him, an awkward expression flashed across Xia Anchen's face.

Initially, he had wanted to use this opportunity to build good repo with the goddess, but judging from how things were turning out, his goddess was still quite arrogant.

However, even though she was arrogant, she had all the right to be. After all, not only was she beautiful, she even called the mysterious Chairman of Shengyang Group Second Uncle.

Although Shengyang Group had yet to enter the list of first-tier wealthy families, it was not an exaggeration to say that the Eagle Eye Group and the Wu family of Sea District would have to stare at its back with its massive capital background. The Four Dominant Families were the exception, of course. Other second-tier wealthy families in Emperor District, even the top ones, were far inferior to Shengyang Group.

It was a pity that Xia Anchen had not been able to spend time with his goddess for the past month, but now... it was not too late.

He had already told his grandfather about Zhong Nuannuan. His grandfather had sent people to inquire about how the granddaughter of the Wu family, Wu Yuewen, had offended the rich daughter from Shengyang Group on the day everyone was gathered for the training camp.

Chapter 1273: Full-blown Complaints

In the end, after knowing about the incident where the young lady from Shengyang Group facesmacked two girls until they started to beg for mercy within five minutes, Xia Anchen's family approved of his decision to pursue the young lady from Shengyang Group.

The Xia family was a second-tier wealthy family in Emperor District in the first place. He and Zhong Nuannuan were a perfect match in terms of their social status. Therefore, he was ninety percent confident that he could win the heart of the Shengyang Group's daughter.

After a month of training, the students were already very familiar with each other, especially the last nine students. They were all elites among the students of social and natural sciences from all over the world, and they were all proud people.

Not only was Xia Anchen handsome and had excellent grades, but he was also the son of a second-tier wealthy family in Emperor District. A boy with such qualifications naturally stole the hearts of many girls in the training camp.

Li Youran was one of them.

While seeing that Nangong Nuannuan did not even give Xia Anchen any face, Li Youran was also resentful that Xia Anchen did not like her. On the other hand, she converted all her disappointment into envy and jealousy towards Nangong Nuannuan.

Everyone was present when the young miss of the Wu family, Wu Yuewen, knelt in front of Nangong Nuannuan to beg for her forgiveness. Of course, Li Youran witnessed the event too. She did not dare to say anything about Nangong Nuannuan to her face, so she could only secretly insult Nuannuan in front of Xiang Liwen, a girl who was close to her.

“Some people are really shameless. She doesn’t even know how to apologize when she’s late. The moment she’s here, she starts quarreling with the teacher instead. She doesn’t even care when Young Master An talks to her. How high and mighty she thinks she is just because she has some money? Young Master An is the son of a second-tier wealthy family!”

Xiang Liwen pursed her lips. “I know, right! However, she didn’t attend the training, so she probably doesn’t know Young Master An’s identity? If she did, why would she ignore Young Master An? Are you brave enough to bet? I’m betting that the moment she finds out about Young Master An’s identity, she’ll definitely come to lick Young Master An’s boots!”

“You want to bet on that? If I join you, wouldn’t I lose everything that not even my underwear remains?”

The two of them chatted quietly at the side. This was the airport, and it was very noisy. Guo Zhennan asked Teacher Zhou to bring the students’ luggage on the bus, while the students stood together in twos and threes as they got ready to leave the airport.

Little did they expect Nuannuan to have such an amazing hearing. She still overheard their conversation despite how low their voices were.

Therefore, she smiled and approached both of them. Under their suspicious and evasive gazes, Nuannuan exclaimed blatantly, “I didn’t apologize even though I was late? As far as I’m concerned, it hasn’t reached the initial time that the plane is supposed to and, has it? Your plane took off early, so why are you blaming me?”

“Also, which ear of yours heard me quarreling with the teacher earlier? I was just explaining to that Teacher Zhou the reason I haven’t been participating in the training camp and why I’ve come here first. How is it that when it comes to your mouth, I’m quarreling with the teacher instead?”

“ ... ”

“Moreover, did you say that I’m ignoring Young Master An? Did you say that I’ll definitely lick his boots when I find out that he is a young master from a second-tier wealthy family? Why am I unaware that you girls know me so well?”

Li Youran did not expect Nangong Nuannuan to shoot her down like this. Her face started to turn red.

However, Li Youran had always been introverted. She only dared to complain to her good friends in private, and she definitely did not have the guts to do the same to Nangong Nuannuan. Therefore, after being scolded by Nangong Nuannuan in front of so many people, and in front of Teacher Guo, she was overwhelmed with nothing but embarrassment.

After Nuannuan contradicted Li Youran and Xiang Liwen, the two girls kept their heads low. After all, they were birds of a feather that flocked together.

Chapter 1274: Imperial Phoenix Hotel

The two girls were the kind of people who liked backstabbing people. In a small group, they would fully take on the role of the host willingly and derive some inner pleasure when they managed to demean others to the extreme. However, in reality, especially in front of said person, these people would never dare to confront them.

They might look shy, kind, and harmless, but when they turned around, they could demean you to death.

Even though Nangong Nuannuan disliked people like these, it would be degrading for her to argue with them.

Seeing that they were too ashamed to show their faces and that the other students were giving them weird looks, Nuannuan decided to let them off.

However, when Xia Anchen heard the two of them talking about the goddess he planned to pursue, he could not help but say, “Li Youran, Xiang Liwen, aren’t you going too far by talking about your classmate like that?”

In their hearts, Li Youran and Xiang Liwen had already regarded Xia Anchen as their heartthrob. The only reason why they bonded as good friends was that they mainly exchanged conversations on who they had to go through to speak to Xia Anchen today, as well as Xia Anchen’s responses. From his responses, they could guess what kind of feelings Xia Anchen had for them. Their friendship was built on this slowly accumulating foundation.

In the end, all the conjectures and fairy tales that they had come up with over the past month disintegrated.

This kind of embarrassment was not worse than failing the National College Entrance Examination.

Their originally blushing faces instantly turned pale before exploding with redness that bordered on purple.

Seeing that the two of them were about to cry, Xia Anchen stopped telling them off. He immediately turned his attention to Nuannuan and said with a bright smile, "Nuannuan, sorry to trouble you."

Nuannuan glanced at Xia Anchen and smiled. "It's nothing. However, you'd better call me Zhong Nuannuan or Ms. Zhong. Otherwise, if you address me so intimately, everyone might actually think that I'm here to lick your boots. I won't be able to handle this kind of misunderstanding. After all, I already have a boyfriend."

Hearing that Nangong Nuannuan already had a boyfriend, the other two girls heaved a sigh of relief. However, Xia Anchen's eyes darkened.

Boyfriend?

How could his goddess have a boyfriend?

"That's enough. Let's head to the hotel first."

Guo Zhennan interrupted the rising awkwardness and summoned the ten students to leave together.

On the bus, Xia Anchen sent a text message to his father's assistant, asking him to find out about Zhong Nuannuan's boyfriend.

When they arrived at the hotel, the students took their luggage and waited for the teacher to check into the hotel.

Since they were representing their country, the students received the best treatment and stayed in a five-star hotel.

Of the ten students participating in the competition, six of them had gone overseas for the first time, and some of them had never stayed in a five-star hotel.

Everyone erupted into an agitated discussion on how beautiful this hotel was.

On the other hand, Nangong Nuannuan stared at the two gigantic words on the hotel's signboard—Imperial Phoenix. This was one of those moments when she finally felt how far her businesses had expanded. She did not expect that they branched out here.

Xia Anchen walked into the hotel lobby and muttered, "We're actually staying in Imperial Phoenix Hotel!"

One of the students immediately asked, "Young Master An, is this five-star hotel great? Is it very famous?"

Chapter 1275: Provocation

When that classmate found out that the Imperial Phoenix hotel was a good one, he happily said, "Then, I must take more pictures to show my old pops and the others."

The classmate took a picture of the lobby. When he took a picture of the decorative artwork on the wall at the corner of the elevator, a group of tall youths from Yamato walked out.

The young man leading the group was about 185 centimeters tall, and the six young men following behind him were not too far off either. Their average height was above 175 centimeters, and only one of them was below 175 centimeters tall. Behind these young men were three girls. One was dressed in kawaii, the other was dressed like a mature woman, and the other was dressed like an older sister. Standing next to these tall and handsome young men, they stood out in the lobby.

They were all wearing the same clothes with Yamato's flag printed on it. It was obvious that they were the members of the Yamato team that were about to compete against the Camino delegation.

The person peered at the student who was holding his phone up as he took pictures of the wall. The person in the lead paused for a moment and said something in Yamato language. The group of people behind him burst out laughing. The kawaii girl even turned her head around to look at the student in disdain. Then, she said something to the student in front of her. The student beside her nodded in agreement.

They were conversing in the Yamato language. Even though everyone else could not understand what they were saying, they could tell from their contemptuous gazes that they were not saying anything good.

Although they were angry, nobody said anything to these people.

They could only watch as the group arrogantly looked down on Camino's students and turned around to leave. At the same time, they could not go up to them and confront them. This made everyone feel very sullen.

Xia Anchen looked coldly at the group of people walking towards them and stood up on the spot.

From the looks of these people, he sensed like they were commenting on how short Camino's students were.

Xia Anchen was not short, and his height was exactly 185 centimeters. Furthermore, he believed that he was more handsome than these people, so he would not lose even if he had to compete in terms of his height and appearance.

Just as Xia Anchen stood up, Nangong Nuannuan also stood up. However, she had no plans to compete with these people in height—she stopped them instead.

The leader of the Yamato team frowned with obvious displeasure. When he noticed Nangong Nuannuan's dazzling beauty that could strike everyone in the heart, his eyes lit up.

Just as he was about to speak, he heard Nangong Nuannuan speak sternly in fluent and proper Luntanese[1], "Apologize!"

The man was obviously stunned. However, he did not take what had just happened seriously. He replied in fluent Luntanese, "Apologize? Apologize for? Dear competitor, you have chosen quite a unique way of hitting on me. If you really want to hit on me, I don't mind giving you my contact number. But in exchange, you have to give me your contact number too!"

When the guys from Yamato heard that, they all laughed.

Seeing that his Goddess Nuannuan was being bullied, Xia Anchen's face turned grave.

"Who are you to demand her contact number?"

Xia Anchen also had the national flag of Camino on his clothes, telling everyone that he was also one of the contestants participating in this competition. However, his appearance and temperament were different from the other contestant from Camino earlier. Judging from that, everyone could tell that Xia Anchen came from a well-off family.

Chapter 1276: Hit On You?

Even so, what use was that?

Kitano Satoshi was a member of the royal family of Yamato. Although he was not a direct descendant of the royal family, he was related to the royal family while enabling his family to have businesses on their own. Thus, he was a famous young master in Yamato.

Why would someone like him be afraid of a student from Camino?

Xia Anchen's words triggered him.

Kitano Satoshi narrowed his eyes and unleashed the entirety of his aura. His words dripped with menacing threats as he said, "Apologize!"

Feeling the pressure coming from Kitano Satoshi, Xia Anchen was temporarily overwhelmed by shock. However, for Camino's sake and to avoid getting despised by his goddess, Young Master An also straightened himself and matched up to Kitano Satoshi's aura, "You should be the ones apologizing!"

Seeing that Xia Anchen had no intention of backing down even after Kitano Satoshi's full-blown oppression, Kitano Satoshi turned to look at Guo Zhennan, the teacher in charge of the Camino team. He raised his voice and said, "Is this how the students of Camino behave? Clearly, it was a female student from your country who first took a fancy to me and tried to hit on me, but he told me off instead. Is this the etiquette you have in your country?"

Guo Zhennan was just there just now, and he had seen everything. It was obvious that this student from Yamato said something mean and provoking, which was why Nangong Nuannuan had stepped forward to stop him, trying to make him apologize. However, when the story was retold from his mouth, it was Nangong Nuannuan who wanted to hit on him.

As the person in charge of the team from Camino this time, Guo Zhennan was naturally not someone to be trifled with. At this moment, he said with a grave expression on his face, "Etiquettes are mutually exclusive. As the saying goes, what goes around comes back around. It's impossible that you'd bow to the person who just slapped you, right? That's the definition of etiquette, isn't it?"

At the side, a mocking smile also appeared on Nangong Nuannuan's beautiful face. "You should be the team from Yamato that is going to compete against Camino tomorrow, right? I thought that the Yamato team would only consist of elites too. I've never expected that you'd be the kind of person who spouts nonsense when you don't even know what 'etiquette' means.

“Even if you don’t understand etiquette, you should understand the basic human language, right? Did I stop you to hit on you? With your looks, do you honestly think a girl would want to hit on you? Don’t you have any self-awareness? I stopped you just now because I wanted you to apologize to my teammate! If you don’t apologize today, don’t even think about walking past me!”

Kitano Satoshi and the group of students behind him were all amused by Nangong Nuannuan’s words. Even if Kitano Satoshi was interested in Nangong Nuannuan just now, his anger toward her had long taken over his palpitating heart after being publicly trampled on by her.

The three girls behind Kitano Satoshi also looked at Nangong Nuannuan angrily.

This woman who did not know the gravity of the situation dared to insult their heartthrob!

Their heartthrob had already taken a fancy to her, yet she still dared to insult their heartthrob for having no self-awareness? When this woman found out about Kitano Satoshi’s identity, she would be so frustrated that she would kill herself!

“Apologize? Why do you want me to apologize? You blocked our path, so you should be the one apologizing to us, right?” Kitano Satoshi peered down at Nangong Nuannuan from above her head. His gaze was filled with malice as he tried to suppress her with his aura.

She was just a female student. In school, no female student could withstand him when he was angry.

However, Kitano Satoshi realized that his anger and suppression were completely useless against this female student. Her eyes had not swerved away from his for a single second.

Chapter 1277: Unbridled

Not only that, the mockery in the girl’s eyes grew more intense.

“Looks like not only do you not understand basic etiquette, but you also have a terrible memory. I really can’t tell if you are a senior political figure or a relative of the emperor. How else can we explain the thick skin you have to represent Yamato?”

Kitano Satoshi did not believe that she already found out about his identity. It was precisely because of this that he was extremely angry at Nangong Nuannuan’s words.

However, that was not the end of it. Before Kitano Satoshi could get angry, Nangong Nuannuan continued, “Since you’ve forgotten what you just said, let me remind you. Just now, when you people turned the corner from the elevator and saw the student representing Camino, you criticized our student from the delegation as a dwarf when he didn’t provoke you. You said that the people from our team are retarded. Also, the girl behind you who looks like an innocent loli but has such a poisonous tongue said that the people from Camino had eaten too much meat injected with hormones. At such a young age, he has already turned into a middle-aged man. She even claims that she has no clue how the women from Camino endure these disgusting men. Also, this person behind you said, ‘Aren’t the women from Camino just like their men? They won’t despise each other if they’re all pigs.’ You’re the Yamato team; you represent all of Yamato’s students and their quality. Is this how you want to represent them?”

Kitano Satoshi narrowed his eyes. Never in his wildest dreams that he expected this beautiful woman to be proficient in the Yamato language too. They were just joking earlier, but she actually heard everything.

The Camino team was furious when they heard Nangong Nuannuan's translation. That student did not come from a good family, but his results were excellent. He had never left the country before. The boy, who had finally left the country, merely wanted to take a few photos to show his parents. Hearing all that, he turned red with anger.

A male student beside Kitano Satoshi suddenly hissed angrily, "You're simply framing us! When did we say such things? The laws in Yamato are very thorough. If you frame us recklessly, you'll be punished by the law!"

Nangong Nuannuan replied with an "Oh" and asked, "What you call framing in your country is called slandering in mine. That makes you eligible to be sued too. However, I don't know, your country is the host of the Senior High School General Knowledge Competition. We traveled thousands of miles to your country to participate in the competition, but not only did you not receive us properly, you even insulted us as dwarfs and pigs that eat hormones. Do you think you'll be sentenced after saying so many things that don't contribute to our unity?"

That loli was so angry that she was on the verge of death. Just as she was about to rush forward to argue with Nangong Nuannuan, Kitano Satoshi stopped her. He smiled at Nangong Nuannuan and said, "Words aren't evidence. You said that we insulted you, where's your evidence?"

Nangong Nuannuan found it hilarious as well. Pointing at the camera that was hidden under decorations, she said, "Don't tell me it didn't occur to you that there are surveillance cameras in such a huge five-star hotel?"

However, Kitano Satoshi was not worried at all. After all, he was a member of the royal family in Yamato. Although this hotel was owned by Sab, it was located in Yamato. Did she just say she wanted to check the surveillance footage?

How was that possible?

Kitano Satoshi was used to having his way.

After all, the princes and princesses of the royal family had their pocket money allocated to them at a fixed time.

Chapter 1278: Me? Troublesome?

To protect the royal family's purity, they were not allowed to have their own businesses. However, Kitano Satoshi was different. Since his family was not direct descendants of the royal family, they started their own business since his grandfather's generation. After three generations, his family was already considered one of the first-tier wealthy families in Yamato. Even the princes and princesses had to come to curry favor with him.

It could be said that in Yamato, Kitano Satoshi could do whatever he wanted.

Therefore, after Nangong Nuannuan told him about the surveillance cameras, Kitano Satoshi burst out laughing as an indirect warning to this woman.

“Since you think we’ve insulted the people of Camino, let the hotel show us the surveillance footage. But what if there’s nothing inside the footage?”

“If the cameras caught nothing, then I’d be the one who slandered you. You can sue me for that,” Nangong Nuannuan said calmly.

After all, she was sure that the surveillance camera recorded them down when they walked out to talk.

“Okay.” Kitano Satoshi nodded cooperatively and then spoke to the group of people behind him in the Yamato language. He told them to wait for the hotel to retrieve the surveillance footage from the hotel.

Meanwhile, the group of people behind Kitano Satoshi looked at Nangong Nuannuan with schadenfreude. Their eyes were obviously saying that Nangong Nuannuan was stupid and she had overestimated herself.

They sat not far away from the Camino team and even took out their phones to call some reporters over, informing them that there would be exciting news to report at the Imperial Phoenix Hotel.

Guo Zhennan asked another assistant, Cheng Yu, to communicate with the hotel about the surveillance cameras. Zhou Jimin, the teacher who gave Nangong Nuannuan a hard time at the airport, could not hold herself back anymore and started scolding Nangong Nuannuan.

“What’s wrong with you? Why do you insist on causing trouble? You should know that we’re in Yamato now. If anything happens, who will be responsible? Previously, you insisted on being special and refused to participate in the training. You didn’t even attend our last important meeting.

“We’ve already made it clear that no one is allowed to cause trouble. You, on the other hand, caused so much trouble the moment you arrived. Great, now they’re calling the reporters. If this matter gets reported, the subtle version would be that this is just an argument between students. However, bluntly speaking, you’re representing Camino. If you embarrass yourself, you’ll be embarrassing Camino too! Zhong Nuannuan, can you afford to take this responsibility?”

Previously, Nangong Nuannuan was pretty sure that there was something wrong with Zhou Jimin’s brain. However, taking the fact that she was a teacher into consideration, Nuannuan refused to hold it against her. However, now...

Nangong Nuannuan sneered, “Teacher Zhou, what do you mean by causing trouble as soon as I arrived? Are you saying that we, as the people of Camino, should swallow our grievance of having people of Yamato call us dwarves and fat pigs that consume growth hormones? Me? Troublesome? As a teacher, you can’t even differentiate right from wrong. Could it be that you’re in cahoots with them?”

The students standing next to Nuannuan’s side were also convinced that Teacher Zhou had gone too far this time, and they all looked at her in disappointment.

Guo Zhennan said unhappily, “I believe that Zhong Nuannuan won’t lie about something like this. From their tone at the beginning, it’s obvious that they must be badmouthing Wang Geng. As one of the people in charge of the team this time, we not only have the responsibility to dissuade students from taking certain actions, we also have the responsibility to seek justice for them. If the people of Yamato aren't giving us basic respect, then what's the point of us participating in this competition?"

Zhou Jimin's face alternated between red and white after hearing Guo Zhennan's words. She hissed angrily, "Old Guo, do you think I'm that kind of person?"

Chapter 1279: Bad Situation

"I'm clearly angry at Zhong Nuannuan for being too hotheaded. The students from Yamato are despicable for sure, but do you know whose territory this is? The hotel does have surveillance cameras, but will they take them out? If they don't, these Yamato students will quibble and claim that they've never insulted our students. Are we really going to let them sue Zhong Nuannuan for defamation? If they really do, what should we do? Are we responsible for finding a solution to get Zhong Nuannuan out of the police station? Or are we responsible for the students' competition? Even if we have enough people to be in charge of everything, who will replace the missing member for the competition?"

Zhou Jimin's words were reasonable. Other than the majority of the students who still thought about how unreliable Teacher Zhou's words were, Li Youran and Xiang Liwen, who previously had a conflict with Nangong Nuannuan, were now standing on Teacher Zhou's side as they shot angry glares at Nangong Nuannuan.

Nangong Nuannuan only said one sentence, "So, you'd rather we lose our dignity just because you're afraid of trouble?"

Zhou Jimin, "..."

The other person in charge, Cheng Yu, walked over with an ashen face.

"Old Guo, things aren't looking great for us. We've spoken to the front desk just now, and they told us that it should be possible to retrieve the surveillance footage. So, I waited there for them to pass me the video, but waiting for so long, they merely said that the surveillance camera is broken."

Guo Zhennan's expression turned grave instantly.

Zhou Jimin looked at Nangong Nuannuan. "Are you satisfied now? You heard them call the media just now, didn't you? Are you planning to embarrass yourself in front of the media, apologize to them, and then go to jail? Do you even care about our team?"

Nangong Nuannuan was speechless at this Teacher Zhou.

Just as she was about to speak, Wang Geng stepped forward.

"Teacher Zhou, do you mean that I deserve to be humiliated just now? Am I not supposed to seek justice for myself even after they've insulted me? You're a teacher. Forget about you not standing up for me earlier, but what right do you have to criticize Zhong Nuannuan when she's the one who stepped forward for me?"

Xia Anchen also stood up and to give his goddess his support. "Teacher Zhou, if there's a problem, we should solve it together and not dump the matter directly onto Zhong Nuannuan. Since they said the camera is broken and that they've called the media over, we can also deny ever slandering them! The camera is broken anyway, so there's no evidence either way!"

“That’s right. If they can deny ever insulting us, we can also deny what we’ve promised them!”

The students all agreed with each other, sending Zhou Jimin’s face into alternating shades of red and white.

Although she really wanted to scold Nangong Nuannuan, Zhou Jimin could not say anything in the face of the students’ criticism. She could only glare at Nangong Nuannuan.

Guo Zhennan knew that the hotel definitely had surveillance cameras. How could the surveillance camera in that area break at such impeccable timing? Therefore, he went to communicate with the hotel and even threatened them.

However, the hotel continued to apologize to Guo Zhennan kindly. In short, all he received was a polite response, but there was no video.

Zhou Jimin could no longer scold Nangong Nuannuan in front of her, so she could only walk to the side sulkily, muttering “So angry... This is too irritating...”

On this side, Xia Anchen took the opportunity to come over to Goddess Nuannuan’s side to make his presence known.

“Ms. Nuannuan, don’t worry, nothing will happen.”

Chapter 1280: Common Enemy

“As long as all of us here insist that they were the ones who insulted us first and that we didn’t do anything, it’d be fine if we insist that they were the ones who attacked us first.”

The other students also said to Nuannuan, “That’s right. We’d use the video if there is a video. Without a video, I’m pretty sure we can win the argument with the sheer number of mouths we have, don’t you agree?”

“If there’s truly no way of winning, we’d just quit this competition altogether. We’ll see how Yamato can deal with that then!” Xia Anchen added.

His suggestion made the students’ eyes light up, and they all agreed with him.

Looking at the boys and girls surrounding her, the corners of Nuannuan’s lips curled up slightly.

Although she knew why Xia Anchen was here to make his presence known, she suddenly realized that this person might not be as annoying as she thought.

After all, everyone had the desire to seek benefits and avoid harm—they would find ways to obtain things that were beneficial to them. However, under those circumstances just now, it would not be great to get into trouble. However, Xia Anchen still stood on her side without hesitation. At the very least, it had proven that this person shared a somewhat similar worldview.

The students all nodded.

On the other side, Zhou Jimin was even angrier when she noticed that all the students claimed that they would not be joining the competition.

Li Youran and Xiang Liwen walked over to Zhou Jimin and whispered, "Teacher Zhou, don't be angry. That's just how Zhong Nuannuan is. Wu Yuewen only said a few words to her and Zhong Nuannuan made her kneel on the ground for an apology."

"That's right." Xiang Liwen pouted. "She was so arrogant back then. One phone call was enough to make Wu Yuewen kneel and kowtow to her. What's stopping her from making another call to solve this problem?"

Li Youran and Xiang Liwen were already very far away from Nuannuan, and they were sure that Nangong Nuannuan would not be able to hear them in the noisy hall.

In the end...

Ever since Nuannuan leveled up her supernatural ability until she could see the largest cells with her naked eyes, Nuannuan realized that her other senses had also improved. Even her hearing had improved.

Coincidentally, Nuannuan heard everything the two of them said to Zhou Jimin.

"Leave this to me. There is definitely a video."

Nuannuan stood up and darted across the room toward Li Youran and Xiang Liwen.

"I've already warned you not to talk behind other people's backs. This is definitely the Yamato team's fault. As a citizen of Camino, shouldn't you protect your own people even if you're not from the same team? What more when Wang Geng is your teammate! People like you have horrible moral values, yet you still have the cheek to badmouth others behind their back. Don't you think you're being immoral? Or do you think that you had no part when they insulted us as dwarfs who turned into pigs from eating meat injected with growth hormones?"

Li Youran and Xiang Liwen were not all right.

Li Youran and Xiang Liwen were close to tears when they saw their teammates looking at them with disgust and hatred.

Zhong Nuannuan had gone overboard. Not only did she call them dwarfs and pigs who ate food with growth hormones, but she also isolated them from the rest of the teammates.

At that moment, Li Youran and Xiang Liwen wished they could find a hole to hide in.

The two of them were always caught badmouthing Nangong Nuannuan behind her back. After that, Nangong Nuannuan would flame them mercilessly in front of everyone, forcing them to back down immediately.

Zhou Jimin could not stand watching this any longer and said, "Zhong Nuannuan, you're quite capable of stirring up trouble, aren't you?"
