

Physician Wife 1301

Chapter 1301: Danger

The other party was able to kick Xia Anchen and caused nearly no damage to Xia Anchen. However, once Xia Anchen kicked him, the kick would be sent directly to the liver, kidney, or heart area, rendering him unable to catch his breath for a long time.

The more times he suffered Xia Anchen's attacks, the more serious his injuries became, lowering his speed and strength.

Xia Anchen pressed on. Although he had spent three times longer than the match before, he still won in the end.

When the man reached Xia Anchen's back and tried to aim for the back of his heart, Xia Anchen flipped 180 degrees into the air and kicked the man in the neck. After knocking the man to the ground, he leaped forward and gathered all his strength into his elbow. He slammed his elbow into the man's ribs, and the man screamed in pain before surrendering.

"I surrender, I surrender!!!"

If not for the fact that these people were going to compete tomorrow, Xia Anchen would have broken the man's ribs with his elbow attack.

However, even so, the man was in so much pain that he could not even stand up. He could only move with the support of two other boys.

Xia Anchen looked at Kitano Satoshi and smiled. "Young Master Kitano, I told you to step forward just now. This way, you can avoid your classmates getting beaten up, but you insisted on being the star of the show. Now, you should give your two classmates a good massage after returning to the dormitory tonight. Otherwise, their blood might not flow smoothly tomorrow."

Kitano Satoshi broke out into low laughter. His laughter sounded like it originated from the swamp of death. It made one's hair stand on end.

"Initially, I thought that I'd just let you guys off if you lose, but you insisted on defeating the two of them and seeking more pain. Since that's the case, I won't hold back anymore."

After saying that, Kitano Satoshi stood up, took off his shoes, and walked to the stage barefooted.

Kitano Satoshi moved his wrists and cracked the bones in his toes. Xia Anchen frowned when he heard the cracking sounds.

That was the sound of cracking bones found only in people who were trained in martial arts. Only those with strong bones would make this sound when they flex their joints.

"Since you're so powerful, come and accept my attack."

As soon as he finished speaking, Kitano Satoshi's body swung and his long legs were already right in front of Xia Anchen's face.

Xia Anchen was shocked. He was taken aback because Kitano Satoshi still aimed for his face the moment their fight started, even though everyone agreed not to attack the face. Thus, he hurriedly used his hand to block.

Xia Anchen did not dare to let his guard down at all when fighting Xia Anchen. He used all his strength to block that attack.

However, when that kick arrived, Xia Anchen was even more shocked.

That was because even after using all of his strength, it was still incomparable to Kitano Satoshi's power.

The kick was only the beginning. The moment Xia Anchen retreated, Kitano Satoshi, who leaped up, made use of the momentum from the landing to swipe at the retreating Xia Anchen, sending him flying.

Xia Anchen felt his body getting swept horizontally, and he left the ground at least 50 centimeters. Meanwhile, Kitano Satoshi made use of this opening to jump up again, and he aimed another instant kick at Xia Anchen's chest.

Chapter 1302: Save The Day

With this kind of strength, it would break Xia Anchen's thoracic vertebrae. Even if it would not kill him, his lower body would be paralyzed and he would be limited to the bed if the nerves in his thoracic vertebrae were damaged.

The students of the Camino team were so frightened that they cried out in alarm, while those from the Yamato team revealed a bloodthirsty smile.

They thought this Young Master An deserved it for causing so much trouble for Kitano-kun today. Therefore, everyone felt that he deserved it.

These people had no idea who Kitano-kun was and what background he had before provoking him.

After all, among the younger generation in Yamato, almost no one dared to challenge Kitano Satoshi's authority.

Although he was only the son of a concubine of the Kitano family and was born from the mistress of the Kitano family head, Kitano Satoshi's mother was the younger sister of the Wute Organization's head, Fujiwara I. Her name was Fujiwara Shizuka. Therefore, even the Kitano family head had a lot of fear for Kitano Satoshi's mother. Between Kitano Satoshi and Kitano Yo, one of them was born of the concubine, and the other the main family, Kitano Satoshi's name was included in the family. Therefore, even though Beiye Ze was the son of the lover, his name had ended up in the family genealogy book.

This meant that Kitano Satoshi had a high chance of inheriting the entire Kitano family.

Anyone like that could do whatever he wanted in Yamato. If anyone offended him badly, it was common for the people to disappear in a few days.

However, this young master from Camino kept provoking Kitano Satoshi time and time again. Therefore, the members of the Yamato team felt that it was already the greatest mercy that Kitano Satoshi did not kill Xia Anchen directly.

Just as the kick was about to land, Xia Anchen was about to be destroyed.

Xia Anchen's eyes widened. He wanted to dodge by jumping to the side, but at this moment, on his right was the wall, and on his left was Kitano Satoshi's other leg. There was no way he could avoid it.

He wanted to say that he admitted defeat, but it was too late. He could only watch as the other party's foot mercilessly stomped down on his sternum.

Xia Anchen could only close his eyes and wait for the pain to come.

However, after a while, the foot that should have landed on his chest did not come down.

Xia Anchen thought that the other party was kind enough to him off at such a crucial moment.

However, reopening his eyes slowly, he saw a slender figure kneeling before him on one knee. Her beautiful, aggressive face clearly had a sharpness and coldness that did not belong to her age.

She held a leg in her hand.

This leg belonged to Kitano Satoshi.

Xia Anchen's pupils constricted and his heart almost jumped out of his chest. He could not help but call out, "Nuannuan!"

On the other hand, Kitano Satoshi was extremely furious and shocked at this moment.

Just as he was about to crush Xia Anchen, Nangong Nuannuan, this despicable woman, intercepted him at the critical moment.

More importantly, he had used 60% of his strength in this kick. 60% of his strength was enough to crush Xia Anchen completely. As a trained martial artist, Xia Anchen would die if he used another 10% of his strength.

However, with such strength exerted, how did Nangong Nuannuan, a weak girl, manage to hold his leg with one hand?

Chapter 1303: One Finger

Kitano Satoshi was stunned on the spot. It took him a long time to regain his senses. Then, he raised his other leg and kicked Nangong Nuannuan in the face.

This detestable woman had embarrassed him in the morning, and just now, she had even blacklisted him from Imperial Phoenix Group. She even confiscated the reservation charges for the room earlier. This embarrassed him so much.

If a woman like that failed to be pinned under him, she must be destroyed.

He wanted her to know the consequences of offending Kitano Satoshi.

“Be careful!”

Seeing that Kitano Satoshi was about to kick her, Xia Anchen could not help but yell.

However...

Forget the fact that he was Fujiwara I's nephew, even if Fujiwara I himself was present today, he would only kowtow to Nangong Nuannuan.

Seeing that Kitano Satoshi's foot was about to land on Nuannuan's face, the students from the Camino team screamed in fear. However, Nuannuan did not dodge. When the pig trotter approached her, the fingers on her left hand curled up and jabbed Kitano Satoshi's foot.

Only then did Nangong Nuannuan let go of Kitano Satoshi's other pig trotter and stand up.

Turning around to look at the students from the Camino team, she held back the disgust in her heart and asked, “Who has wet tissue?”

“I do,” Li Youran quickly said.

“Give me one, please. Thank you.”

Li Youran quickly fished out a wet tissue from her bag and handed it to her.

Nangong Nuannuan quickly took the wet tissue and said, “I want two.”

Amidst everyone's shock, Nangong Nuannuan carefully wiped her face with a wet tissue before throwing it away. She was about to take the second wet tissue from Li Youran.

“Ah—”

Li Youran suddenly screamed. Before she could tell Nangong Nuannuan to be careful, Kitano Satoshi, who had just been attacked by Nangong Nuannuan, had already converted the pain in his body into anger. While Nangong Nuannuan was grabbing a tissue, he kicked her neck.

This kick was aimed at killing her.

This kick exhausted all of Kitano Satoshi's strength.

He was powerful and fast.

Even the students below could only scream.

Just as everyone screamed and Kitano Satoshi was about to kick her in the face, it was as though Nuannuan's grew eyes on her back.

No one saw exactly when she turned around. All they saw was Nangong Nuannuan raising a hand before Kitano Satoshi felt himself getting sent backward like a mouse whose tail had been chopped off.

The intense pain was accompanied by a powerful impact that sent Kitano Satoshi flying into the wall behind him. He bounced back and fell to the ground.

Not only did his teammates not understand what was going on, but even Kitano Satoshi himself did not know how a mere jab from Nuannuan's finger in the foot could send his body into such intense pain. However, this move had caused his entire body to be in intense pain, even his head.

No, more accurately, the pain he felt this time was even worse than before.

Previously, the pain was unbearable, but he still endured it and attacked Nangong Nuannuan.

Chapter 1304: Police Intervention

However, after this time, not to mention launching an attack, Kitano Satoshi struggled for a moment and realized that he could not even get to his feet.

Nangong Nuannuan walked over to Xia Anchen and squatted beside him. "How are you? Can you stand up?"

After all, the kick Kitano Satoshi gave Xia Anchen earlier was not dismissable. At this moment, Xia Anchen's calf bone was slightly fractured.

To tell the truth, Xia Anchen knew that his injuries were rather severe. However, seeing how Kitano Satoshi was unable to get up after getting countered from Nangong Nuannuan twice, he felt relieved.

"I'm fine."

Xia Anchen felt that his admiration for Nangong Nuannuan could no longer be described by the word, 'goddess'.

She was his idol!

She had such amazing memory; so good at the computers; she knew how to hack; she was decisive when it came to problems, and she was great at combat.

"Kitano-kun, how are you?"

The intelligent girl was the first to rush onto the stage. She looked with a face full of worry and fear at Kitano Satoshi as he lay on the ground. She tried to help him up, but Kitano Satoshi was in so much pain that his veins were popping. He collapsed again after being helped up, and he could not help but scream in pain.

"You broke the rules!"

"Yes, you broke the rules!"

"How could you do that? I told you not to injure anyone too severely, but you've injured our Kitano-kun!"

“Quick, call the police and have all of them arrested.”

When the students of the Camino team heard this, they started to get anxious and stood up immediately to argue with them. Both sides were suddenly caught in a heated argument.

Soon, the police stepped in.

When the police arrived, the three people who were in charge of the Camino team also arrived.

Looking at the mess in the conference room, the three people in charge, led by Mr. Guo, were dismayed.

Could these brats stop and give them some peace?

“What happened?” Guo Zhennan asked.

Wang Geng was one of the top students in the tournament, second only to Nangong Nuannuan. He immediately explained how members of the Yamato team provoked them and invited them to participate in the martial arts match.

“So, Nuannuan only went up to Kitano Satoshi after seeing Xia Anchen injured?”

“Yes.”

Guo Zhennan nodded.

In that case, there was nothing to worry about. After all, Kitano Satoshi was the one who started this. Two male students held up Xia Anchen, and he looked like he suffered from quite a severe injury.

At this moment, the person-in-charge from R Country had also arrived. Guo Zhennan immediately negotiated with the other party and requested for this matter to be settled privately. After all, this was started by the students of Yamato.

The person in charge of the Yamato team also agreed that a private settlement was more apt. After all, everyone knew what kind of person Kitano Satoshi was. They were the ones who suggested the cultural exchange, but after Z’s arrival, there were frequent disputes between the two parties. This time, it was obviously Kitano Satoshi’s fault.

Therefore, the person in charge of the R side had promised Guo Zhennan to settle this privately. The R side would pay compensation for Xia Anchen’s medical fees, while the Z side would pay compensation for Kitano Satoshi’s medical fees.

However, most of the students who participated in the competition this time received Kitano Satoshi’s bribes and insisted that they refused to let this matter be resolved privately. The loli girl even waved her phone and said with a smug and ruthless expression on her face that she would pursue the matter to the end. She said that she had already called the media over.

The police arrived, and soon, the media arrived as well. Most of them were from the same crowd that Kitano Satoshi had called over this morning.

This morning, even though they had just received the big red packet full of money from Kitano Satoshi’s mother, they were still more than glad to come and see more news unfold about this young master.

Chapter 1305: Leader

Therefore, when everyone found out that it was the same girl from Camino, Zhong Nuannuan, who gave the young master a hard time again, everyone trained their microphones toward Nuannuan.

“Miss Zhong, may I ask why you hit him so hard?”

“It was clearly just a friendly spar. Why did you injure him so badly?”

“Did you injure him because Kitano-kun had a conflict with you this morning?”? “Or did you injure Kitano-kun at this critical juncture because you don’t have the confidence to stand out in the knowledge competition tomorrow?”

The reporters bombarded Nuannuan with questions. Everyone on the Z side was so angry that their bodies were trembling from the build-up.

Kitano Satoshi raised his head. His forehead was covered in sweat. Originally, when he heard this, he wanted to laugh with his back to the media.

However...

Why did it hurt so much?

What important organs did this damnable woman injure?

“Zhong Nuannuan, if Kitano-kun really suffers from any form of organ injuries, our R party will definitely not let this matter rest,” the female intellectual said angrily.

The reporters were also excited when they saw the R team being so agitated.

If the Z party was wronged, they could still report truthfully or even take money to dismiss the disaster. Now that the Z party’s actions had already stirred up their righteousness, they were convinced that the Z side was provoking them when they were in Yamato.

“Miss Zhong, are you mentally prepared to go to jail for hurting someone?”

“For you to hurt someone in public like this, do you even care about the Yamato laws? Did the teachers in Z Country teach you how to provoke people like this?”

“You’re known as a country of manners. May I ask where your manners are?”

Nuannuan’s young teammates from the Camino team wanted to confront the media, but Nangong Nuannuan stopped them.

Nangong Nuannuan was like a dead pig that was not afraid of boiling water. She stood in front of the self-righteously indignant media and members of the Yamato team with her head held high, and she smiled. “Everyone, there’s no need to be so anxious. I’ve also summoned some media over. I’ll give you the clarification to your questions later. If I explain now, I’ll have to give the same explanation for a second time to the other group of media later. What a waste of saliva that would be!”

The media was angered by Nangong Nuan’s arrogant attitude. One of the media reporters said, “There’s no problem in waiting. However, what I want to tell Miss Zhong is that this is a live broadcast. Many viewers in Yamato have witnessed Miss Zhong's arrogant attitude just now. I'm looking forward to Miss Zhong's explanation soon."

Almost as soon as the reporter finished speaking, a few more reporters walked in.

When the media from gossip columns that were already there saw the new groups of reporters walking in, the atmosphere instantly lapsed into a strange silence.

If these were from the gossip column, then the ones who came in were the real media—the reporters on regular television.

In comparison, if everyone already present were paid by Kitano for the sake of publicity, then there would be nothing stopping the reporters who walked in from reporting the truth. Not even the combined efforts of Kitano's father and the forces from his mother's family could influence these media.

Thus, those reporters, who were extremely arrogant a moment ago and tried to use the media's might to oppress people, quieted down after seeing the famed people representing the proper media companies.

"Since all of my media friends have arrived, I'll now report everything that had happened tonight to everyone."

Nangong Nuannuan spoke as if she was the leader void of any sense of fright even though she was in a foreign country.

Chapter 1306: Regret

Nuannuan played the video of what happened this morning and how she was harassed by these unscrupulous media outlets. Then, she also played the video of how Kitano Satoshi and his gang approached the Camino team, provoked them, and insisted on having a martial arts competition.

From the angle taken in the video, it looked like she had secretly recorded them when they were asking to compete with Z?

From this perspective, it looked like the Yamato team were the ones at fault this morning. After they were humiliated, they came to provoke the Camino team during dinner time. That condescending look practically threw the face of Yamato, the country known for its etiquette, into the drain.

Unfortunately, this was a video and there was nothing they could say to convince others otherwise.

At this moment, Kitano Satoshi had already recovered a little. He was so weak that he wanted the media to leave him. He would much rather go for a private settlement right now.

However, if he failed to settle what happened this morning privately. How could he settle this incident privately when he could not even move?

After playing the video of the Yamato team's provocation, the gossip column reporters felt like they had been slapped in the face.

However, the livestream had already started, and the number of viewers had already reached several hundred thousand. If they turned off the livestream at this time, they would be criticized to death, so they had no choice but to continue the broadcast.

As for those who were not livestreaming, they were glad they did not. However, the idiot who was livestreaming seemed to have shown everyone the kinds of questions they had been directing at Zhong Nuannuan!

"This is the informal contract that Kitano Satoshi asked us to sign in the case of accidents. We're not allowed to deal life-threatening blows to anyone in this competition. We're not allowed to break their arms and legs. Due to tomorrow's competition, we're not allowed to hit anyone in the face. Both of us have signed an agreement. Just now, the gossip media kept claiming that we were in the wrong, and that we were the ones who injured Kitano Satoshi. We also want to say that we were only defending ourselves, and that Kitano Satoshi was the one who violated it first. Therefore, it doesn't matter who's right or wrong. What matters is what Z and R say. What matters is what the hospital says. Does everyone agree with me?"

All the reporters nodded.

Previously, the proper media groups had been reporting negative news about Kitano Satoshi's gun usage and how he often extorted the defenseless. Therefore, they were not optimistic about this person.

This time, he actually caused so much trouble using Yamato's name and Yamato's royal family name. This was intolerable.

The gossip media had no choice but to follow the official media and find the most authoritative hospital in the capital to have the doctors examine Kitano Satoshi and Xia Anchen respectively.

From the time the gossip media turned on the live broadcast to the time when everyone agreed to go for a checkup, this matter had already caused a huge commotion in the capital of Yamato.

Therefore, when the two parties arrived at the hospital, many citizens of Yamato had already gathered.

When students from Z saw the crowd, they expected someone to cause trouble. However, when the crowd saw the students, they politely made way for them and waited for the results.

Initially, Kitano Satoshi was afraid that his internal organs would have suffered severe injuries dealt by Nangong Nuannuan. However, seeing that they had gone past the point of return, Kitano Satoshi could only wish that his injuries got more serious than he thought.

At this moment, Kitano Satoshi's rationality returned to him. The regret that had appeared in the morning reappeared.

If he had known this would happen, he would have participated in the competition properly instead of secretly scheming against Camino. Then, all he needed to do was to win the competition. Why did he have to stir up so much trouble after triggering so many other events?

Chapter 1307: Iron Plate

However, Kitano Satoshi no longer had control over what was happening.

Even though he had support from his mother's powerful background, his mother was still his father's lover. No matter how capable he was, he could only maintain his name on the genealogy book after launching an all-out attack on morality and ethics. Even though the Wute Organization had already assassinated the real Mrs. Kitano, his father had never married his mother officially even though she was his lover.

Now, the Kitano family was about to choose their next successor. Although he had a powerful background, he was never legitimate. In addition, there was too much negative news in Yamato, so many people in the Kitano family did not approve of Satoshi inheriting the family business. In addition, his elder brother was also full of schemes, so they had always been on par with each other in this game.

That was why he had thought of using the high school student tournament to earn himself a positive piece of news. This would give him the reputation of being a top student, and he would also obtain the credits of bringing glory to the country.

Once he built this reputation for himself, everyone would know that Kitano Satoshi was a smart student even though he was ruthless. His succession to the Kitano family was almost certain.

That was why he wanted to win against Camino so badly. That was why he was so eager to crush his competitor.

Unexpectedly, he had kicked an iron plate.

Zhong Nuannuan, a mere high school girl, had ruined his plans time and time again.

When his mother finally removed the limelight from the incident that happened during the day and saved him, he failed to expect Nangong Nuannuan to come looking for trouble at night.

If his meticulously thought-up plan was ruined by this woman, he would make this woman and her family regret taking a trip to this world.

Fortunately, Kitano Satoshi was also seriously injured. He was prepared to apologize to Zhong Nuannuan and the rest with a sincere attitude after the checkup was over to gain their sympathy. Then, he would defeat Camino tomorrow. This way, he would be able to come out with more positive news. Even if there would not be any positive news, it would make up for his mistake.

Thinking how his meticulous plan would no longer be efficient, the killing intent in Kitano Satoshi's eyes was nearly as sharp as a blade—sharp enough to slice Nangong Nuannuan's neck.

Half an hour later, Kitano Satoshi was carted out of the MRI room. Countless spotlights shone on his face.

Xia Anchen was also in a wheelchair, and the doctor pushed him out with a splint on his leg.

"Doctor, may I ask how the two patients are doing?" a reporter asked.

The gossip column reporter was afraid of making a fool out of himself, so he immediately said, "It looked like Z side beat Kitano-kun so hard that he can't even get up. May I ask if he suffered any injuries to his internal organs? Is he seriously injured?"

The doctor listened to the reporters' questions and answered, "Just now, we did a detailed check on Kitano-kun and Anchen-kun. These are the X-ray scans for both Anchen-kun and Kitano-kun. The scan indicates that Kitano-kun is fine and not seriously injured. Meanwhile, Anchen-kun's calf bone was broken. Although it's not too serious and it'll be fine after the treatment just now, it's a fact that Anchen-kun's bone was broken. Anchen-kun will probably spend the next two months in a wheelchair."

Hearing the doctor's summary, the reporters were dumbfounded.

Kitano Satoshi was also completely stunned.

Everyone from the Yamato team refused to accept that, especially the three girls, who looked like they wanted to stick up for Kitano Satoshi.

Chapter 1308: Result

"How could your hospital be so irresponsible? Kitano-kun was beaten to a pulp by Zhong Nuannuan. It was obvious that he was seriously injured. How could you say such things?"

"That's right. Anyone with a discerning eye can tell that Kitano-kun was even more seriously injured. Back then, he was in so much pain that he couldn't even speak, but Xia Anchen seemed fine. Now, you're telling us that Kitano-kun is fine? This is definitely a conspiracy!"

"That's right! Which country are you guys from? How can you ignore the lives of your own countrymen and turn to outsiders?"

The three girls spoke one after another. The media cameras were actively recording the whole time and their entire conversation was included.

The doctor's face was red with anger, he retorted angrily, "I'm a doctor. I'm loyal to my profession. I speak with facts and I'm not on anyone's side. I don't care what kind of grudges you have for each other. I don't care about the nationalities of the two patients. I base my explanation on my professional ethics and the truth in telling you the result of our examination.

"Whether Anchen-kun or Kitano-kun, you've been with them during the X-ray and MRI. Their scans have also been presented under the media's scrutiny. As a doctor, I'm merely speaking based on the scans. If you think that I'm covering for someone, or that I've received kickbacks and benefits from someone, you can go somewhere else for another appraisal. But if you continue to slander me and insult my personality, I will sue you."

The three girls were instantly dismayed and no longer dared to speak

Nangong Nuannuan, on the other hand, was not anxious at all. She slowly asked, "So, do you still need to find another hospital to do an appraisal?"

"Yes!"

It was Kitano who replied Nangong Nuannuan.

He refused to believe that his internal organs were fine because he was still in so much pain.

He could no longer describe this woman's evilness. She could even summon the general manager working under Imperial Phoenix Group. She must be the mistress of some senior manager. Therefore, it would not come as a surprise if she had already bribed the doctors in this hospital.

He had once injured his internal organs, but it did not hurt as much. So, Kitano was 100% sure that his internal organs were definitely injured; he just needed to determine the severity of his injuries.

Thus, not only did he say that he wanted to do another examination, but he also threatened the doctor, "Just wait for my lawyer's letter. When the real results are out, I'd love to find out if you still dare to use the phrase, 'professional ethics' in front of me."

With that, the group followed Kitano to the hospital of his choice. To be fair and just, Kitano chose another hospital that was also a public hospital. This was to avoid giving onlookers a chance to gossip.

However, half an hour later, the results came out. Under the attention of more and more onlookers, the doctor announced the results—

Xia Anchen's calf bone was broken. Kitano did not suffer from any external or internal injuries.

The crowd burst into an uproar and began to criticize Kitano Satoshi's hypocrisy. He had completely humiliated the people of Yamato.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Kitano Satoshi mockingly and asked, "Young Master Kitano, would you like to have another checkup at another hospital? No matter where you go for a checkup, we'll accompany you."

Kitano Satoshi could not contain his anger as he fumed at Nangong Nuannuan and the others. He realized that he must have fallen for this woman's trap.

After all, he was also a martial arts practitioner. He had also heard the rumors of how accurate some people were in identifying acupoints.

Chapter 1309: Wrath Of The Masses

Sometimes, a single attack could hurt so much that the victim lost half their lifespan, but nobody could detect anything physically.

Therefore, Kitano Satoshi guessed that he had fallen into Nuannuan's schemes.

However, there was nothing he could say anymore.

He was the one who had brought this matter up—Yamato was the one who started the provocation. Therefore, even if he was severely injured and in pain, he could only suffer the consequences himself.

"Miss Zhong, you're really skilled. You beat me up so badly, but they can't find anything wrong. I'm impressed."

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "I'm flattered."

"Help me," Kitano Satoshi said to the girl beside him.

When the girl heard this, she stood up to give Kitano Satoshi the support he wanted but was interrupted by Nangong Nuannuan.

“What, is Young Master Kitano trying to slip away? Do you really think we’re easy targets? Since there are so many citizens of Yamato around, let’s talk about how Young Master Kitano has provoked the Camino team again and again.”

Then, she asked Wang Geng to replay the video that she had just edited. Wang Geng always had his laptop with him, so it was perfect for the occasion.

The video that Fujiwara’s family had tried so hard to suppress in the morning was now playing again. It included the scene of Kitano Satoshi and the others provoking Nangong Nuannuan, the scene of them refusing to admit to their crimes before proceeding to frame Nangong Nuannuan, and the scene of some reporters from the gossip column holding up cameras questioning Nangong Nuannuan in the morning.

The video was then followed by the comical scenes of how these gossip reporters came surging so aggressively before returning in disappointment.

After that, the video continued to play the scenes from the evening when the students from the Camino team were having a good meal. Kitano Satoshi approached them and provoked them again, along with the agreement that nobody should hit someone’s face or break their limbs.

Kitano Satoshi thought that she was going to play these.

After all, these images were enough to kill him.

However, that was not the case. In the blink of an eye, the scene changed to when the two groups of people started to fight each other in the arena, as well as strong provocation from Yamato.

How did Xia Anchen end the two opponents from Yamato? How did Kitano Satoshi walk onto the stage and attack Xia Anchen with the intentions to kill? After Nangong Nuannuan stopped him, how did he try to sneak in another attack to Nangong Nuannuan while she was wiping her hands? Everything ended with Nangong Nuannuan... poking the sole of his foot.

How dare he? He managed to gather so many people from Yamato just to follow him to perform two MRI scans just because he had been jabbed in the foot. Most importantly, he had even called for the police and the media. Furthermore, those reporters were the same group of people who had returned in failure in the morning.

Even the citizens of Yamato were all on Z’s side.

“This is so embarrassing. He even claims to be a relative of the royal family. How can such a person be related to the royal family?”

“He was a narrow-minded and vicious person, to begin with. I heard that he toyed with a student by stuffing golf balls down under, and gave her 2,000,000 USD for each golf ball. He toyed around with the girl until she nearly died. Eventually, it was his mother’s family that settled the matter, and they settled this matter privately.

“Recently, the Kitano family is choosing their next successor. If such a person becomes the next head of the Kitano family, I’m afraid the Kitano family will collapse!”

When Nangong Nuannuan saw that the crowd’s anger had reached its peak, she said, “As everyone can see, the one who insisted on competing is Young Master Kitano!”

Chapter 1310: Murder Without Blood

“Young Master Kitano was the one who did not follow the agreement and hurt others. I merely hit the sole of his foot once, and he summoned so many media outlets over just so he could get his injuries checked. He made such a big ruckus just to defame the Camino Team.”

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan looked at the person in charge of the Yamato team. At this moment, the other party was obviously too ashamed to show his face, but Nangong Nuannuan did not intend to let him off.

After all, if not for the other party’s indulgence and indifference, things would not have developed to this state.

Therefore, even if the other party did not do this on purpose, he must bear the responsibility.

“I’ve never understood why the Education Department in Yamato would contact my country’s Education Office to organize this High School Student General Knowledge Competition. However, I honestly think that since our country has agreed to your request and the competition is held in the host country, your country should be responsible for us. Even so, ever since we arrived at the hotel in the morning, we’ve been nothing but provoked and insulted by your students before getting interrogated by those unscrupulous media outlets who have accepted bribes. Meanwhile, all of you act like this has nothing to do with you. I have a question for all the teachers and members of the Yamato team—is the whole reason Yamato goes through so much trouble to invite us to humiliate us? If that’s the case, then we might have to refuse to participate in tomorrow’s competition.”

The person in charge of the Yamato team was also in a horrendous mood.

After all, the Education Department was the root of this problem. Although they were the people in charge in name, everyone knew that this general knowledge competition was a competition between RZ and China, but in reality, it was a show for Kitano Satoshi alone.

Therefore, there was nothing they could do if Kitano Satoshi tried to be cheeky!

However, now that they had been forced to such a level, the person in charge and all the teachers could only come out and give the Camino team a 90-degree bow as an apology. They tried to express Yamato’s sincerity in this, claiming that this was an initiative taken by their students that they were unaware of.

Everyone was aware of the friendly relationship between Yamato and Camino. Otherwise, the public would not have stood on the side of Z and refused to help their own people.

Therefore, they begged for the people on Z's side to forgive them for their arrogance and rudeness. At the same time, they implored the students on the Camino team to participate in tomorrow's general knowledge competition!

Nangong Nuannuan stopped talking. She glanced at Guo Zhennan, and Teacher Guo stepped forward as the person in charge. His face was grave, and it was obvious that he did not accept the apology fully. "We'll tolerate joining the competition tomorrow, but during the competition tomorrow, Mr. Kitano Satoshi has to livestream his apology to us. Otherwise, we won't be participating in this competition. I believe the leader of our National Education Department will be understanding toward everything that has happened here."

Not participating in the competition?

How could that do?

This was a competition that Yamato and Camino had agreed on. If the entire pot of soup was ruined just because of a piece of rat poop, the Education Department would probably fire all of them, right?

"This..."

Kitano Satoshi was angered to death as he indignantly said, "Although my internal organs aren't injured, the media has witnessed how much pain I'm in. You guys have already taken advantage of me by going up against me two against one. Everyone knows that fists and kicks have no eyes, so how dare you pretend to be innocent?"

Guo Zhennan was speechless.

"It seems like Young Master Kitano still hasn't realized his mistake. You initiated the challenge, and you set the rules."
