Chapter 1321: Hubby Hubby Hubby...

"Nuannuan, aren't you leaving?"

The car had already stopped at the entrance of the hotel, but Nangong Nuannuan did not leave. Everyone was very reluctant to part with this young lady who turned their bad fortune around.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Guo Zhennan and her companions before shaking her head. "To tell you the truth, I came here earlier because one of my best friends was injured and hospitalized. Even if I want to go back, I have to accompany her boyfriend to bring her back."

"I see." Guo Zhennan nodded. "Then, I won't persuade you anymore. Be careful when you go back. Kitano Satoshi will definitely find a way to take revenge on you. You have to be careful."

"Don't worry, he won't be able to kill me even if he dies."

The words that came out of Nuannuan's mouth sent her companions lapsing into silence. It was at that moment that they realized how brutal her words were.

She cleared her throat and quickly explained, "I mean, I'll be careful."

Smiles started to appear on everyone's faces.

Although no one knew Nangong Nuannuan's identity, after going through the events of the past two days, everyone could tell that Kitano Satoshi was not on the same level as Nangong Nuannuan in terms of combat strength or intelligence, even though he was cruel.

Eventually, everyone added each other on Weibo and QQ as friends and separated.

Nangong Nuannuan returned to Room 8888 only to find out that Chi Yang had already packed her things.

"Big Brother Chi Yang! Happy New Year!"

The moment Chi Yang opened the door, Nuannuan rushed into his embrace excitedly.

He caressed the little girl's hair speechlessly. "It's only Chinese New Year's Eve tomorrow. New Year is the day after tomorrow."

"I don't care. I want to celebrate New Year starting from today!"

"Okay, okay, okay! You can do whatever you want. Happy New Year!"

Nuannuan giggled happily and leaped onto Chi Yang's body. She wrapped her legs around his waist and gave him a fragrant kiss.

Chi Yang really liked his wife when she was the initiator. He quickly wrapped his hands around her hips with a doting expression.

"You did well today."

"You watched the livestream?"

"Of course. How can I not watch my wife's competition?"

It was rare for Big Brother Chi Yang to call her his wife out loud. This pleased Nuannuan very much. She giggled and cooed mushily, "That's all thanks to you helping me, Hubby!"

Nuannuan had never called Chi Yang 'Hubby' before. This was the first time she uttered it.

Chi Yang was stunned for a moment before his gaze started burning with fervor.

"What did you call me?"

"..." Nuannuan remained silent.

"Call me Hubby again."

"..." Nuannuan kept her mouth shut.

Chi Yang kicked the door shut and carried the little girl into the house. He tickled her as he walked.

Nuannuan had been wondering if she should give him this sweet treatment so easily, but she suddenly felt an itch on her waist and could not help bursting into laughter.

"Quick, call me!"

"Hubby, Hubby, Hubby, Hubby, Hubby..."

Under Chi Yang's threat, Nuannuan instantly cowered and let out a string of 'Hubby's.

"Yes, good girl."

Having fulfilled his wish, Chi Yang retracted his hand and placed Nuannuan on the sofa.

He rubbed her head and said, "Wait for me. I'll be done with the packing up soon."

"Okay."

Nuannuan responded and collapsed onto the sofa to watch TV. Chi Yang, on the other hand, was packing up his things like a docile househusband.

There was a magazine on the table. The cover was a photo taken of Feng Shengxuan and Big Brother Chi Yang at the entrance to Peninsula. Nuannuan could not help but pick it up to read.

Something that looked like a black button rolled off the magazine.

Chapter 1322: Monitoring

Nuannuan picked up the item and checked it out. "Big Brother Chi Yang, there's a camera here."

Chi Yang took a look and noticed that it was the button camera. Then, he put it into his bag.

"Did you use this camera to capture them yesterday?"

"Mmhmm."

Yesterday, after she found Li Youran and Xiang Liwen, she used their phones to trace the location of the man who had taken incident videos of them. He was in Room 9999 back then.

Therefore, when Li Youran and Xiang Liwen returned to their room, she immediately called Chi Yang to explain the situation. Since Chi Yang had telekinesis, he sent the camera to Room 9999 through the pool area.

In the end, not only did they see the man in the video, they also saw Kitano Satoshi and... Zhou Jimin.

After hearing their secret plan, she found out Kitano Satoshi's plan to get someone to buy some drinks and send them to Li Youran's room. Therefore, she got someone to send a box of drinks to Li Youran's room beforehand.

Therefore, Zhou Jimin had no idea that the drinks that Li Youran and the others had given out in the car were normal drinks.

Using the hidden camera to monitor Kitano Satoshi, not only did Nuannuan catch the man and Zhou Jimin, but she also found out that Kitano Satoshi got himself involved with the person in charge of the television station. Therefore, she had someone monitor the person in charge in advance along with Zhou Jimin.

That was why there were so many videos that she could use to slap people's faces.

***

When Bai Liyue woke up, it was already the morning of the third day.

Due to the injury from the explosion and her wounds that were not treated in time, the inflammation in her body worsened. Furthermore, she had not rested for many days due to her high fever, so she slept for a long time.

In her sleep, she had a dream. She dreamed that she and Feng Shengxuan had a happy family. Their parents loved them, and they had been in an arranged betrothal before they were even born.

In her dream, Feng Shengxuan loved her very much and treated her very well.

He was an elegant and handsome man, and they lived like an immortal couple. When the time came, they would get married.

However, she had three older brothers. These three brothers were like the six older brothers in Nuannuan's family. They were full of sister complexes. Every time Feng Shengxuan came to see her, they would be closely monitored by these three elder brothers.

However, Feng Shengxuan's personality was very pleasant in her dreams. Not only was he amicable, he was also smart. To ensure that he would be able to go on a date with her alone, he would bring a few things that her elder brothers liked every time he came around to the house. He would send her three elder brothers away without being too conspicuous and then bring her out to play.

In her dream, there were also Nuannuan and Chi Yang.

However, in the dream, Nuannuan was only Feng Shengxuan's younger sister.

Feng Shengxuan also treated Nuannuan very, very well. However, he only looked at Nuannuan like how an elder brother would look at a younger sister. He doted on her very much, but his affections for her were not tainted with anything other than pure kinship.

On the contrary, the Chi Yang in her dreams was the one who was often hopping mad. Since Nuannuan was too popular, there were often dandies or male friends who sent her love letters. Not only did Nuannuan have to be wary of those bees and butterflies, but what was most important was that Nuannuan had a type—her type were men who looked like Feng Shengxuan. After knowing that Feng Shengxuan already had Bai Liyue as his fiancée, Nuannuan announced that she would be Feng Shengxuan's younger sister for the rest of her life. She would not marry unless Chi Yang could transform into looking like Feng Shengxuan.

Chi Yang's status was incomparably noble, but he was always hopping mad over such things. As for Bai Liyue and Feng Shengxuan, they especially liked to watch as the arrogant Chi Yang hopped around in anger caused by Nuannuan, yet unable to do anything about it.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1323: Extremely Heart-wrenching

However, anyone could tell that although the little girl had a tough mouth, her attachment to Chi Yang was akin to something that she brought along with her from her mother's womb. She could not leave Chi Yang at all. Although she would always say that she liked boys like Big Brother Xuan, she would stand by her Big Brother Chi Yang's side without any hesitation whenever something serious happened.

In her dream, the four of them were clearly two very happy couples. Even though Chi Yang and Feng Shengxuan often had conflicts, they were still best brothers and best friends. The time they spent together was more than the time Bai Liyue spent with Nuannuan...

Thus, when Nuannuan grew up, Bai Liyue would often play with her. When the other two were done, Bai Liyue would bring Nuannuan to see them instead.

Bai Liyue's eyes snapped open. The incident of being besieged by the Wute Organization flooded into her mind like an uncontrollable flashflood. Her beautiful dream in its utmost clarity was instantly shattered.

She stared blankly at the ceiling. She was lost in the pungent smell of disinfectant that surrounded her.

Although from the moment she decided to leave Feng Shengxuan, she forced herself to make up her mind; that she would no longer fall for his charm. This time, she would definitely sever all ties with him.

However, the dream earlier was so real that she could truly feel indescribable happiness and bliss.

If possible, she would love to live in that dream forever and never wake up again.

Someone pushed open the door and the specialist from Benevolent Angel Hospital—parked under Imperial Phoenix Group—walked in with a thermometer in his hand.

Feng Shengxuan, who was sleeping soundly on the next bed, opened his eagle-like eyes and sat up.

He had been waiting there for two whole days, but Bai Liyue still did not wake up.

His heart, which had already calmed down, started to become agitated again yesterday afternoon. As time passed, Feng Shengxuan's temper was on the verge of exploding.

When the doctor entered and saw Feng Shengxuan sitting up, he knew the timebomb was off.

This devil truly had a really bad temper.

Up until an hour ago, the hospital had not been in peace since yesterday afternoon.

From the director to the senior nurses, none of them escaped Feng Shengxuan's telling off and insults.

He kept staring at Bai Liyue and refused to sleep. As a result of that, the hospital director and doctors did not dare sleep either. They were tortured to death.

Fortunately, the chairman called and asked them to drug him with the drug that he was the most sensitive to. Then, she told them to tell Feng Shengxuan that it was medicine for his stomach. After finally ordering him to drink his medicine, the devil finally fell asleep.

Now that he had just entered the ward, this difficult man had woken up after being drugged for less than an hour.

"Is Bai Liyue, that woman, going to die? Why isn't she awake yet? I've been at this stupid place for two days. How long must I wait before I can leave?"

At the receiving end of Feng Shengxuan's outburst, the doctor was speechless.

They had clearly told him to leave so that they could take care of her the usual way, but Feng Shengxuan refused to leave. He had been worried for two whole days that he only slept for an hour after so long. Even so, the words that came out of his mouth were extremely heart-wrenching.

Bai Liyue could hear her heart shattering into a thousand pieces.

Even the actualised dream world that had already dissipated in the first place was completely ruined by his words.

"Miss Bai, you're awake?"

The doctor had originally planned to check Bai Liyue's injuries before reporting the situation to Feng Shengxuan. However, when he walked to Bai Liyue's side, he saw her beautiful eyes were open and staring at the ceiling without blinking.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1324: Taste

When Feng Shengxuan heard that Bai Liyue had already woken up, his heart surged with excitement. He rushed to Bai Liyue's side as fast as he could, and all he saw was a statue of a woman who stared at nothing but the ceiling. There was no anticipation at seeing him—she did not even look at him.

Startled by her expression, Feng Shengxuan frowned and said, "Bai Liyue, if you're already awake, why didn't you wake me up?"

However, Bai Liyue still ignored Feng Shengxuan.

Feng Shengxuan frowned and looked at the doctor nervously. "What's going on with her? She didn't hurt her head, did she?"

The doctor was stunned. "I've done a checkup on Miss Bai before. Even though her body has been greatly injured from the explosion, she has protected her head well. The only part of her body that isn't injured is her head."

"Then, why isn't she responding?"

The doctor also found it strange and said, "Why don't... we give Miss Bai another detailed examination?"

Feng Shengxuan nodded and was about to speak to Bai Liyue, but Bai Liyue intercepted him coldly.

"No need. My head is fine."

Doctor, "..."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

"Bai Liyue, what's wrong with you? Are you trying to scare me so that I'll be worried? You heartless woman, you left me alone. Now, you're lying here with injuries all over your body. Do you know that you almost died this time? You..."

"Thanks."

Feng Shengxuan still wanted to say something, but Bai Liyue had already responded with such a quiet voice.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

After a moment of silence, Feng Shengxuan looked at the doctor. "You should bring her in for another full body checkup."

Bai Liyue seemed weird today.

The woman who usually loved to look him in the eye and talk nonstop to him had become a woman of few words.

On the other hand, he, who was usually a man of few words, spoke so much to her.

Bai Liyue did not reject Feng Shengxuan's order. Since the doctor had to obey Feng Shengxuan, he pushed Bai Liyue out for another checkup.

Miss Bai was also the vice-president of the Imperial Phoenix Group, so the hospital prioritized her injuries. After pushing her in for another checkup, two hours had passed.

Feng Shengxuan had been waiting outside anxiously for Bai Liyue to come out. He had completely forgotten about Nangong Nuannuan's one-hour live broadcast.

Finally, Bai Liyue was finally carted out of the examination room. Feng Shengxuan quickly asked, "How is she? Is her head injured?"

"Sir, there isn't anything life-threatening in Miss Bai's injuries anymore. As long as she recuperates and changes the dressing on time, she'll be fine. As for her head, we've done some careful examinations and found that she hasn't suffered any injuries in the head."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

The doctors carefully pushed Bai Liyue back into the room and said, "Miss Bai, you've been unconscious for two days. Do you want to eat something? If you have the appetite, I suggest that you eat something."

Without waiting for Bai Liyue to speak, Feng Shengxuan immediately instructed, "She likes seafood. Prepare some fresh seafood for her and make them into porridge."

"Yes." The doctor quickly accepted the order.

"I don't like seafood. Please cook some vegetable porridge for me. Thank you." Bai Liyue, who had been silent, suddenly spoke.

The doctor noticed that there was something wrong with the atmosphere between the two of them. To avoid getting implicated, he immediately went away to order someone to prepare some vegetable porridge.

Feng Shengxuan could already tell that something was up with Bai Liyue's treatment of him...

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1325: All Thanks To Nuannuan

Instantly, his booming aura started to simmer into coldness. After staring at Bai Liyue for a long time, the aura of the Great Demon King finally seeped out.

"What do you mean? Are you throwing a tantrum at me on purpose? You clearly like to eat seafood porridge, but you insist on saying that you like to eat vegetable porridge in front of the doctor. You've never touched vegetable porridge before, have you?"

Bai Liyue looked at Feng Shengxuan as if she wanted to seal away the reflection of this person into the depths of her heart. Only when Feng Shengxuan started feeling uncomfortable at her stare did she say, "Actually, I've never liked seafood. It was because I saw that you liked to eat seafood that I said I liked to eat it too. What I really like is vegetable porridge."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Seeing Bai Liyue explain in such a serious tone, Feng Shengxuan wanted to ask her why she did she choose to reveal this now.

However, he swallowed the words that came to his lips.

Damn it.

He was the one who rescued Bai Liyue, but why did it feel like he was the reason Bai Liyue suffered such serious injuries? Why did he feel like a scumbag now?

Recalling his actions, every time Bai Liyue looked at him in that particular way, he would reject Bai Liyue directly just like how Nuannuan had rejected him. He made sure that he would not let her have any fantasies about him.

How was he trash?

"Bai Liyue, do you wish to ignore me?" Feng Shengxuan asked.

"No," Bai Liyue said softly.

"Are you still angry because I gave myself stomach cancer?"

Bai Liyue then looked at Feng Shengxuan austere and answered in a faint voice, "No, don't worry. I'm not angry anymore. I was wrong to treat you like that previously. As your subordinate, I shouldn't have treated you like that. This is my fault, I'm sorry."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

It felt like his fist had landed on a ball of cotton, and the conversation had no way to continue.

This was also the first time he had been rebuked by Bai Liyue. Feng Shengxuan was fuming inside, but looking at her pale face and the hideous wound on her back, the usually hot-tempered Feng Shengxuan managed to swallow his anger. In this mood, he would usually be mean to everyone except Nuannuan.

"It's good that you know you're in the wrong. Rest well now. Nuannuan will rush over after her livestream ends."

Bai Liyue's eyes lit up when she heard Nuannuan's name. "Nuannuan's here too?"

"Of course. After Nuannuan found out that you were in danger, she immediately followed me to Yamato to save you. Apart from Nuannuan, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi came along too."

'Then, why are you the person staying watch here?'

Bai Liyue wanted to ask him that, but she did not. After all, this man was willing to give up his own life for Nuannuan. What was the point of asking?

Seeing that she did not speak, Feng Shengxuan told her everything about how they rescued Bai Liyue from the very beginning. He omitted the part on how he had been frantically searching for her the whole time, along with the part where he went berserk as the Wute Organization surrounded him. He lifted Nuannuan so high up that Nuannuan might as well be a god.

"If not for Nuannuan, you would've frozen to death in that crevice."

Bai Liyue quietly listened to Feng Shengxuan as he spoke about Nuannuan.

It was only when he mentioned Nuannuan that he would talk so much to her.

Normally, Bai Liyue would have joined in the conversation, and they would continue talking about other matters after branching out from talking about Nuannuan. Therefore, Bai Liyue was the only person in the manor who could chat with Feng Shengxuan sincerely.

Chapter 1326: Do Not Be Unreasonable

However, Bai Liyue was very quiet today.

Seeing Bai Liyue staring at him without blinking, Feng Shengxuan felt a little uneasy because she had never looked at him so quietly before.

This woman usually liked to nag at him, and he resented her for that. Today, she suddenly stopped nagging about caring for his body, and she did not wear the professional outfit that he disliked the most like she usually would. She just lay quietly on the bed, and she looked just like Nuannuan—just a gentle girl that looked rather cute.

Although she was still not as adorable as Nuannuan with her cute and moe temperament, Bai Liyue was not annoying today.

"Thank you for coming to save me," Bai Liyue suddenly said after a moment of silence. However, that was all she said, and it ended their conversation again.

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Silence.

Not long after, the vegetable porridge was served. The doctor helped her roll up the bed a little and then, set up the table before putting the bowl of porridge on it.

Feng Shengxuan attempted to help several times, but he had no idea where to start and could only give up.

After the doctor left, Bai Liyue started to eat her porridge.

After sipping it a little, Bai Liyue stopped expecting Feng Shengxuan to be of any help. She rang the bell herself, and the doctor and nurses quickly came in to help her clean up.

Seeing the doctor cleaning up the place, Feng Shengxuan frowned. "That's all you ate?"

"I can't eat anymore."

"An injured person needs to make up for the nutrition they need from eating. If you don't eat, how can you recover?"

After saying that, seeing that Bai Liyue still had no intention of eating the remaining porridge, Feng Shengxuan picked up the porridge without any explanation, then scooped a big spoonful. He then put the spoon next to Bai Liyue's mouth and ordered, "Eat."

Bai Liyue did not expect Feng Shengxuan to feed her. In her dream, when she was sick, Feng Shengxuan came to visit her and fed her delicious food. The image of her smiling till the corners of her eyes turned into crescent moons surfaced in her mind. Unsure if it was a dream or reality, Bai Liyue opened her mouth without thinking.

The spoon was very big. Feng Shengxuan scooped up a lot in that spoonful, but Bai Liyue still swallowed everything.

Just like that, in no time at all, one of them was responsible for feeding, while the other was responsible for eating. The porridge was quickly finished.

Feng Shengxuan was like a cat whose tail had been stepped on when he was done feeding. He was an utter mess.

What... did he just do?

He just fed Bai Liyue personally!

Nuannuan was the only one who could receive such love and treatment, no?

However, he let Bai Liyue enjoy this privilege first!

Why did he feed her?

This d*mn evil woman! After finding out that he had cancer, she went out of her way to offend her superior. Not only did he not find trouble with her, he even came to rescue her. Now, he was feeding her!

Feng Shengxuan felt that his brain must have gone cuckoo.

At that moment, Bai Liyue, who was stuffed from the food, also felt a little awkward. She had no idea what went wrong with this man either. After all, when it came to spoonfeeding, Feng Shengxuan had once boasted in front of her that he would feed Nuannuan and Nuannuan only for the rest of his life.

The atmosphere was instantly awkward.

"Bai Liyue, I'm ordering you as your boss. Don't be unreasonable and get well soon. Now that the Imperial Phoenix Group has been transferred to Camino, Aiden won't be able to handle it alone. As long as he can't handle it, Nuannuan's side will definitely suffer. Don't be lazy and keep staying in bed. I hope you can take over the matters on Imperial Phoenix in a few days and help Aiden take over everything seamlessly."

Bai Liyue, "..."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1327: Wish Him Well

Bai Liyue understood that this man would never treat her so well. There would always be another reason when he gave her such wonderful treatment.

"I understand. Don't worry, I'll get better soon and help Aiden. I won't let Aiden disturb Nuannuan. I'm tired now; I want to rest. There's nothing important here with me anymore, so you don't have to keep watch. You must've been tired in the past two days. Go find a place to rest or go find Nuannuan. There's nothing for you to worry about me here."

Hearing Bai Liyue's words, Feng Shengxuan knew something was wrong and blurted out, "How can I do that? I'm the only one here. What if something happens to you?"

"You know I'm not that weak. If anything happens, I'll ring the bell, and they'll come in immediately. Go find Nuannuan."

With that, Bai Liyue closed her eyes and fell asleep.

Looking at the woman, and confirming that she was not pretending to be asleep, Feng Shengxuan felt his breath caught in his throat. If he held it in any longer, it might give him a heart attack.

When Nuannuan and Chi Yang summoned Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi, who hung around a whole day in Yamato, they saw Feng Shengxuan still watching over Bai Liyue by her bedside dutifully. The clothes he was wearing were the same as two nights before.

This completely overturned everyone's understanding of Feng Shengxuan's obsession with cleanliness.

When Nangong Nuannuan and the others walked in, Bai Liyue heard footsteps. Although she was sound asleep, she still retained the alertness that mercenaries should have.

Seeing Nuannuan, a bright smile blossomed on Bai Liyue's face.

"Nuannuan, long time no see."

"Mmhmm." Nangong Nuannuan smiled and walked to Bai Liyue's side.

According to Feng Shengxuan, she had grown up under his care. However, to Nuannuan, the one who had taken care of her when she was young was actually Bai Liyue.

Therefore, when seeing Bai Liyue, Nuannuan's affection for Bai Liyue was in no way inferior to that for Feng Shengxuan.

"Big Sis Yue, are you feeling better?"

"I'm already much better. Thankfully you guys arrived in time, or else I might've died here."

"All the kudos belong to Big Bro, not me." Nuannuan could not help feeling guilty when she spoke about this.

"After you called me, I stopped paying attention to your news. It was Big Bro who had been searching for you ever since you left. I told him that there was no need to look for you, but he was still worried. He called Dan Qi and told him to keep an eye on any news related to you. Once he found a way to track you, Dan Qi would immediately report to him. Therefore, when you sent the signal by turning on your phone that day, Dan Qi immediately tracked your location.

Bai Liyue was slightly stunned.

This... Feng Shengxuan did not tell her about this just now.

However, Nuannuan's words still caused another ripple in her heart. The peace in the lake of her heart that she had tried so hard to calm down was once again disrupted by Feng Shengxuan.

Bai Liyue allowed herself a bitter smile internally.

Every time she took 99 steps toward him, she only hoped that he would take one step toward her, but he would never take that step toward her.

Just as she was determined to give up on him, he took that single step.

Even if it was just one step, and he simply did something that a companion should do, her heart could not calm down again.

So what if she could not calm her heart down?

After knowing that Feng Shengxuan was willing to sacrifice his health by giving himself gastric cancer just so he could be with Nuannuan, Bai Liyue had no idea what else she could do other than wish him well and be happy.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1328: Am I Not A Person?

Feng Shengxuan stood on the other side of the room. When he heard Nuannuan mention the person who deserved all the kudos in this mission, he was like a proud peacock that sat in a languid manner on the sofa with his legs crossed. His gaze was devilish, charming, and languid.

He was ready to see Bai Liyue to be moved to tears.

Unexpectedly, after Nuannuan said that, Bai Liyue looked at him. There was no longer the usual affection in her eyes. She only smiled and said, "Big Bro, thank you. Also, Nuannuan, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi, thank you."

Aiden said, "Big Sis Luna, we're a team."

Selina said, "We're the closest people to each other in the world."

Dan Qi added, "Big Sis Luna, you saying that makes you sound like an outsider. I don't like hearing that."

Nuannuan intercepted, "Big Sis Yue, this is my fiancé, Chi Yang."

Having this thanking competition was troublesome and awkward. Nuannuan would rather choose to say nothing and introduce Big Brother Chi Yang to Bai Liyue instantly.

Chi Yang nodded at Bai Liyue and greeted her politely, "Hello."

Bai Liyue smiled and said, "Hello. Nuannuan has always been acting like a little child. Ever since she got together with you, she has become more feminine. You've changed her a lot."

Hearing that Nuannuan changed because of him, Chi Yang's gaze softened.

He was aware that Bai Liyue had always been fond of Nuannuan and treated her as her younger sister. Thus, he treated Bai Liyue like his elder sister and said, "Nuannuan is a good girl. I'll treat her well for the rest of my life."

Feng Shengxuan felt that Bai Liyue was trying to undermine him. He said with a malicious and displeased expression, "Which eye of yours could tell that Nuannuan used to be a little girl, but now she has become a woman? If you don't know how to talk, don't talk nonsense."

Bai Liyue, "..."

Nuannuan, "..."

Everyone else, "..."

Feng Shengxuan successfully ended the conversation.

Baili Yue ignored Feng Shengxuan and asked with a smile, "I heard that you participated in the high school student competition. You must've won, right?"

"Of course. When Boss makes a move, all kinds of monsters will have to make a detour. If they don't, they'll die," Selina replied smugly.

Dan Qi also had an excited look on his face. "Sis Nuannuan is really too awesome to describe. She slapped those people's faces so hard that she turned Kitano Satoshi into dregs immediately. It was too satisfying, even more satisfying than watching a television drama."

As Bai Liyue listened to her companions, she could not help but smile.

At that moment, the director and the doctor walked in. Seeing that the chairman and the other bigshots were here, the director greeted them respectfully, "Miss Nuannuan, Ms. and Mr. Vice-presidents."

Nangong Nuannuan nodded and said, "I'm here to inquire about Big Sis Yue's injuries. Can she go on a plane?"

Feng Shengxuan was stunned. "You're taking Bai Liyue away?"

Nuannuan nodded. "Tomorrow is Chinese New Year's Eve. We can't leave Big Sis Yue here alone to celebrate Chinese New Year, right?"

Feng Shengxuan frowned. "What do you mean alone? Am I not a person?"

"So, you're saying that you want to stay here and take care of Big Sis Yue without leaving her bedside?"

Feng Shengxuan wanted to say that there was nothing wrong with that, but he swallowed his words.

He was Bai Liyue's boss, how could he stay here as her caretaker? Furthermore, he could not do it in front of Nuannuan either.

Seeing the light in Bai Liyue's eyes turn dark, Nuannuan continued, "You're a patient yourself. I wouldn't feel at ease letting the two of you stay here for an entire day, let alone for such a long time."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1329: Being Followed

"Do you want me and Bai Liyue to go to the Chi residence too?"

"Of course. Both of you are ill, and Second Uncle is also my patient. If the three of you stay together, I can treat your injuries all at once."

"Then, let me thank you and Chi Yang for taking me in first."

Before Feng Shengxuan agreed, Bai Liyue had already voiced out her agreement.

Feng Shengxuan frowned.

He had not even agreed yet...

After the hospital director and the other bigshots reached a consensus, they informed Nuannuan of some things to take note of.

Aiden contacted the car and dealt with the matters at the airport before departing.

"You guys go first, I'll be there soon."

They were about to get into the car, but Feng Shengxuan suddenly decided not to.

"What are you doing?" Nuannuan asked concernedly.

"There is something that I have to deal with at the manor. I'll be back at the Chi residence by the day after tomorrow."

Nuannuan frowned. "But tomorrow is Chinese New Year's Eve..."

"When did you start being interested in Chinese New Year's Eve?" Feng Shengxuan peered at Chi Yang unhappily.

In the past, Nuannuan used to celebrate Christmas with him and never celebrated Chinese New Year's Eve. Ever since she got together with this man, she had even changed the holidays she celebrated. What was that if not worshipping foreign cultures?

"This year!" Nuannuan blurted out, "I'm a citizen of Camino now, so of course I have to celebrate Camino's traditional festivals. Chinese New Year's Eve is the most important festival in Camino, and it's also the most lively festival. Don't you want all of us to sit together on snowy days, light up some charcoal, build snowmen, eat roasted meat, and talk about life?"

After hearing her words, Feng Shengxuan, who just ridiculed Nuannuan for worshipping foreign culture a while ago, replied without thinking, "Then, I'll try to rush back before tomorrow night."

"Okay." Nuannuan nodded happily.

The thing she looked forward to the most was spending New Year's Eve with her friends and family.

Although Feng Shengxuan was very powerful, he was still sick. Therefore, Nuannuan made it a point to remind him, "Keep your phone switched on at all times in case Big Sis Yue's incident happens again."

Seeing that Nuannuan was worried about him, Feng Shengxuan looked at Chi Yang provocatively, but he was disappointed that he did not see any unhappiness in Chi Yang's eyes.

At that moment, Nuannuan turned to Bai Liyue, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi, "From now on, everyone's phones should be turned on 24 hours a day. At the same time, keep the sensor Aiden created on you at all times. With that, we can prevent not being able to intercept on time if something like what happened to Big Sis Yue reoccurs."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

Fine, everyone would be enjoying the same privileges.

After parting ways, Nuannuan and the rest drove toward the airport.

There were no airports at the eastern border, so they had to drive to the central region. It was a two-hour drive.

Although the helicopter was much faster, they switched their transportation into a spacious RV where the injured Bai Liyue could lie down.

When the car reached the highway, Aiden said, "Boss, there's a car following us."

"He's following me," Nuannuan answered calmly.

When she and Chi Yang left the hotel, someone had already started following them. However, since they had left in a helicopter, whoever they were, did not have any chance to attack Nuannuan.

Therefore, when Nuannuan left, she made sure to tell everyone on the ground where she was going.

She had already spared Kitano Satoshi's life. If he still intended to meet his death, she really did not mind giving him a ride there.

Without waiting for Nuannuan's order, Aiden drove the RV toward a remote area.

After driving to a remote location, five cars soon surrounded them. Aiden stopped the car, and so did the five cars.

Chapter 1330: Did You Say You Want To Kill Me?

It just so happened that they stopped at a place that was uninhabited.

Bai Liyue was injured, so she stayed in the car. The others stayed in the car as well. Only Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang got out.

Of the five cars, the people had already alighted from the four of them. Then, a small group of people ran to the car in the middle and stopped before opening the door respectfully.

A slender leg stepped out of the car. Kitano Satoshi walked out of the car with a malicious and bloodthirsty look on his face.

"Zhong Nuannuan, we meet again."

Kitano Satoshi glanced at Chi Yang, who stood beside Nangong Nuannuan, and frowned.

At a glance, Kitano Satoshi knew that this man was not someone to be trifled with.

So what?

The people that he had brought were all mercenaries from the Wute Organization who had come to protect him and his mother. All of them were above Rank-3A.

There were even two Rank-S mercenaries next to him.

Therefore, even though Nangong Nuannuan had Chi Yang by her side, she could not trigger Kitano Satoshi's wariness to protect himself.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and said, "That's right, Young Master Kitano. What a coincidence, we meet again. It seems that your country's laws aren't that reliable after all. I've just sent you to prison, and now you're here to stop me."

"Hahahaha!" Kitano Satoshi guffawed. The gang members standing around him also laughed along, out of respect for their young master.

"Zhong Nuannuan, even I know this ancient saying in your country, 'Laws don't apply to senior officials, commoners don't deserve courteousness'. Do you really think that I, the young master of the Kitano family and a member of the royal family, would go to jail just because I secretly took some indecent photos of someone else? Hehe, those police officers only arrested me because I asked them to."

Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan nodded her head in realization and still showed no fear toward him, Kitano Satoshi was displeased. He said, "Zhong Nuannuan, do you know that I would've definitely won the high school competition between the two countries? Not only would I have won the competition, but I earned myself honor, and I would've been able to use this honor to obtain the right to the Kitano family's inheritance. My mother has worked hard for so many years just to propel me to this position. However, because of you, all the efforts that the Fujiwara family has invested in me all these years are wasted."

"Did anyone ask you to have such a foul mouth and insult my companions? Did anyone ask you to be so competitive that you were willing to destroy my team members' innocence just so you could win? Did anyone ask you to pretend to be capable and overexert yourself in participating in the knowledge competition when you clearly don't have that kind of intelligence? Seeing you like this, I'll give you one phrase—you deserve it!"

"Do. You. Want. To. Die?!" Kitano Satoshi narrowed his eyes and hissed through gritted teeth.

However, Nangong Nuannuan did not seem to mind.

"I thought it's pretty obvious when I asked the Imperial Phoenix Group to display the video."

Kitano Satoshi, "..."

"Huh." Kitano Satoshi huffed out some angry laughs.

"Yes, I was unlucky to have bumped into you this time. Not only did I fail to win the competition, but I also lost the right to the family inheritance. However, my failure is temporary. Everything in the Kitano family will end up being mine sooner or later, but you... won't be able to see the sun tomorrow. You've provoked me, Kitano Satoshi, and made me suffer such a huge loss. You... no longer deserve to live in this world!"

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the 20 people around her and asked, "Are you planning to let these people kill me?"
