Chapter 1341: KE

Feng Tan did not try to retain Feng Shengxuan either.

This was the way the uncle and nephew got along.

After Feng Shengxuan left, he took a plane to J District and flew out of L City's port. There was an island seventy-nine nautical miles east of the port.

The island was huge and barren. The side facing the sun was covered in green vegetation while the side shielded from the sun was filled with reefs. Because it was very far from the coastline, the island was deserted.

However, when Feng Shengxuan's plane landed on the island, more than 20 armed people came forward to welcome him.

All of them were muscular, and most of them had scary tattoos on their arms. The heavy guns looked like toys in their hands.

Upon seeing Feng Shengxuan, these people bowed their heads respectfully. "King!"

Feng Shengxuan did not pay attention to these people. Instead, he walked straight in.

Soon, a thin man who looked to be in his forties walked out.

"King!"

Feng Shengxuan nodded and strode ahead.

Walking to a rocky area in front, a three-square-meter rock suddenly opened up into an S-shaped entryway like the separation of the black and white in the eight trigrams. The door opened up to a marble floor. Feng Shengxuan and the man beside him stepped on it, and the marble slowly sank.

As there were no fences or obstructions around them, the underground structure of the deserted island appeared before them as the marble staircase descended.

This was a huge underground military factory that housed the world's most advanced fighter aircraft, military vehicles, missiles, artillery...

Even though each item was separated by a heavy lead door, one could roughly see the completed section from this angle.

There were 30 Trident intercontinental missiles and 10 R-36 intercontinental ballistic missiles.

This was something that was strictly controlled by various countries and should not be something owned in private, but there were easily dozens of them here.

The range of these missiles varied from 11,000 kilometers to 16,000 kilometers. The concept was that firing one of them was equivalent to a missile being launched from the capital of Sab to the capital of Camino. The explosion range could destroy anything within a 1,000-kilometer radius.

This island, packed with enough power to descend the world into panic, was where the real KE was. In fact... even Feng Tan did not know about it.

Everyone on this island was loyal to King.

Feng Shengxuan went to the control room. Inside, nine people were already waiting for him.

Upon seeing Feng Shengxuan, everyone stood up and bowed their heads slightly towards him, calling out respectfully, "King!"

Feng Shengxuan nodded and walked to his seat. Only then did everyone take their seats.

After sitting down, the two people in the middle reported the general situation on the training of the mercenaries and the expansion of the mercenaries in the various headquarters.

After all, this was an organization that could challenge any country, so the expansion of personnel was the most important.

After that was the weapons manufacturing situation that was to be reported by the chief mechanic.

Then, it was time for the top hackers to update everyone on what was going on the internet.

After that, the person in charge of the secret agent team relayed the messages from the secret agents planted in various countries.

After that, it was time for the doctor from the Research department to report on their test subjects.

Finally, the silent Feng Shengxuan spoke.

"How many test subjects truly report to us?"

"100."

Chapter 1342: Wrong

"What rank are they?"

"They're all above Rank-2S. There are also some Rank-2S mercenaries on our island who have undergone the procedure to get stronger. These people have all become Rank-3S mercenaries without exception."

Feng Shengxuan nodded. "Keep our men. Stephen, bring your men and destroy the rest of the laboratories."

Sitting in the middle, Stephen was the leader of KE's mercenaries.

Everyone was stunned when they heard Feng Shengxuan's words. Stephen asked, "King, why? These people can still be useful to us."

"No, they're not for us to use, but for Viper. I've already killed Viper, so if these people aren't dead, we can't keep them."

"What? Viper's dead?" Everyone looked at Feng Shengxuan in shock.

Feng Shengxuan lounged in his seat with his head tilted. When he heard everyone's surprised cries, he raised his curved eyes and scanned everyone's faces. He was finally satisfied when he noticed Stephen sitting there without any shift in expression. Then, he said faintly, "She kept stirring up trouble behind my back. Do you think such a person is worth keeping?"

Everyone fell silent.

Soon—

"We can't have people like that among us."

"KE is an organization founded by the Old King. We're all the Old King's people. Even if Old King was raised by Feng Tan, King is the true ruler of our organization."

"That's right. How dare he, the Eldest Uncle, wants a cut of the share? That's impossible."

Stephen said, "Those who can't be of use to you will just be a ticking time bomb if you keep them. I'll kill all of them in the shortest time possible. This way, I can also test your old master's attitude. However, if you kill Viper, I'm afraid he'll retaliate."

"No, he watched me kill Viper, but he did not say anything for Viper, nor did he blame me."

The conference room lapsed into a dead silence.

"Winnie, keep an eye on him for now. If anything peculiar happens, let me know immediately."

"Yes."

Meanwhile, Feng Tan, who was now under their surveillance, acted as if nothing had happened. He watched the international news for a while, wrote for a while, drank some tea, and then went to bed at ten o'clock sharp.

In the castle, the wall clock would ring every hour.

Dong—dong—dong—

It was as if a ferocious beast from ancient times had slowly entered this world through this dark house.

The person who had fallen asleep on the bed suddenly opened his eyes.

He slowly sat up from the bed and looked into the dark void. A hoarse and dark voice slowly rasped.

"Do you know why he wanted to kill you?"

A certain spot in the darkness was originally empty. However, after Feng Tan asked the question, he fished out a yellow piece of paper from under his pillow. Feng Tan bit his finger and drew a ghost talisman on the yellow piece of paper. He flicked the piece of paper lightly, and the yellow paper flew into the distance before landing on the spot he was staring at.

All of a sudden, a faint green light suddenly erupted from the yellow sheet of paper with ghost symbols drawn on it. Immediately afterward, the deceased Wen Wan appeared before Feng Tan.

If anyone were here, they would be shocked to discover that even though she still looked the same as before she died, her body was transparent.

She knelt on the ground and kowtowed continuously to Feng Tan.

"Godfather, I was wrong, I was wrong! I really know I was wrong! Please spare me this time!"

"You haven't answered my question."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1343: Puppet

Wen Wan lowered her head and lay on the ground, hiding the hatred in her eyes. Her soul shook like a leaf in the air.

"Because... because I acted on my own and sent people to kill Bai Liyue."

"How did you kill her? Who did you send?" Feng Tan asked calmly.

"I... I sent Fujiwara I from Wute Organization."

"Why would they listen to you? Fujiwara I is Feng Shengxuan's subordinate. He only listens to Feng Shengxuan."

"Because I... unintentionally discovered the way Feng Shengxuan issues his orders, so... so I took the opportunity when he left and issued Fujiwara I the order."

"Fool!" Feng Tan let loose a low huff, and with a wave of his hand, a burst of azure flames erupted on Wen Wan's body.

In an instant, Wen Wan's transparent green skin ignited with a sizzling sound as if it was on fire, causing her to roll around on the ground in pain. With a face full of grief, she begged loudly, "Godfather, spare me! Spare me! I know I was wrong! I really won't dare to do it again! Please, on account of me housing your venomous bugs and nurturing your forces, please spare me this time!"

The azure flames on Wen Wan's body burned brighter and brighter, and her cries became more shrill and terrifying. Finally, just as Wen Wan was at her limit and was about to be reduced to ashes, Feng Tan retracted the flames.

"Wen Wan, haven't I told you that you must listen to me after coming here?"

She knelt on the ground and sobbed.

"Yes, Godfather. I... I really won't do it again! Please... please trust me one more time."

"Don't think that I don't know what you're planning. Although Feng Shengxuan now thinks he likes Nangong Nuannuan under my hypnosis, you know that the person he really likes is Bai Liyue. You've taken a fancy to Feng Shengxuan, and that's why you must eliminate Baili Yue."

"So, even though I repeatedly told you to dedicate yourself to him and not disobey his orders, you still tried to come up with ways to kill Nangong Nuannuan and Bai Liyue, right?"

"Godfather, I was wrong! I won't do it again! I won't do it again! Please save me! Save me!"

Wen Wan was also extremely dismayed.

She was the first one to taken a liking to Feng Shengxuan first. She had come into an agreement with this old freak that after Feng Shengxuan killed Chi Yang, she would stay by Feng Shengxuan's side after that.

However, when Nangong Nuannuan and Bai Liyue appeared, he went back on their contract without hesitation and made her his servant. Just like that.

How could she accept this?

Nangong Nuannuan was her enemy, and Bai Liyue was her love rival. These two women clearly deserved to die, so why must she be the one to give in?

Now, not only did she have to give in and kowtow, but she had even lost her life.

Wen Wan cowered in fear as she kowtowed continuously to Feng Tan. However, her heart was filled with hatred, and it was as if she wanted to burn down the entire castle.

"I can indeed save you and let you live again."

Wen Wan raised her head and looked at Feng Tan expectantly.

"But it will take a lot of effort."

"Godfather, please believe me. I'll never do such a stupid thing again. Please trust me on this!"

"Sure, but..."

"But what?" Wen Wan looked at Feng Tan warily.

"You also know that when we're here, our powers are utterly suppressed by some unknown power, and we're practically useless. Therefore, I need to place an imprint on your soul so that I can minimize the cost it takes to revive you.

Wen Wan was taken aback. That would mean that she would have to become Feng Tan's puppet, would that not?

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1344: Belong

"Godfather, I'm afraid my father won't ever agree to you doing this."

"Hahaha..." Feng Tan chuckled.

"I'm not even afraid of Chi Yang and Feng Shengxuan's father. Do you think I'd be afraid of your father?"

Wen Wan stuttered, "But..."

"If you're not willing, then forget it. After forty-nine days, your soul will disintegrate on its own. At that time, even your father won't have the ability to help you piece your shattered soul back. After all, the person who killed you was Feng Shengxuan."

Taken aback, a sinister expression appeared on Wen Wan's face.

Even though she was unwilling, she had no choice but to compromise.

"Then... Then I'll have to trouble you, Godfather. I'll definitely be obedient in the future."

"Also, as you can see, your body has already been burned to ashes by Feng Shengxuan. Therefore, even if I revive you, you can't use your previous body anymore."

Wen Wan's expression changed drastically.

Whatever she looked like before was her original appearance. Even though her looks could not be compared to that b*tch, Nangong Nuannuan, she was definitely more beautiful than Bai Liyue.

If Feng Tan gave her another body, other than Nangong Nuannuan, where else could he find a body more beautiful than hers?

However, if she did not want another body, she could only wait for her soul to dissipate...

While Wen Wan was still taking in the hard truth, Feng Tan continued, "Your new body won't be your original body, so you should understand that your supernatural ability will also disappear."

Wen Wan, "...!!!"

"Furthermore, our power has been suppressed to a great extent, especially mine. To resist this suppression, I've suffered internal injuries all over my body, so this is your first and last chance to be reborn. If you ruin your new body one more time, then there's nothing I can do."

Finally, Wen Wan ingested this grievous news. She was extremely unwilling and dissatisfied, but there was nothing she could do.

Thankfully, with a new body, a new identity, and a new life, nobody would know her—not just Chi Yang, Nangong Nuannuan, Bai Liyue, even Feng Shengxuan would never know.

In the end, Feng Tan told her that because she had just died, her soul was not strong yet, so she had to nourish her soul in Feng Tan's soul instrument for forty-nine days.

She could only snatch the soul after her soul had completely stabilized.

In the Chi residence, the Nangong family's second uncle came early in the morning to help Second Uncle Chi

Since the news of Bai Liyue being caught in an accident during Nuannuan's ceremony, the little girl and her friends left without eating or drinking well.

Therefore, this welcoming banquet had to be perfect.

Recalling that their little girl was a foodie, Second Uncle Nangong and Second Uncle Chi tried their best to cook the delicacies that the little girl liked.

The two elders could not stay idle either.

One of them had finally found his granddaughter, and the other finally had his grandson marrying someone. Even though the two often argued over who Nangong Nuannuan belonged to, when it came to uniting against the outside world, the two old masters did a good job.

Previously, the Nangong family had done a good job of keeping Nangong Nuannuan a secret because the daughters of the wealthy families should not appear in the media easily.

However, within the upper-class society, this was completely unnecessary.

The two elders were afraid that others would not know that Nangong Nuannuan had something to do with them, so they took advantage of the fact that the little girl had gone overseas to bring glory to Camino and called all their friends in their circle.

These two old masters' friends were either politicians, military, academic, or business bigshots.

In short, all the wealthy families in Emperor District that the two elders had taken a liking to were summoned over today.

Chapter 1345: Bear Children

Then, the following scene unfolded.

A certain political figure said, "Congratulations, Big Brother Nangong. I didn't expect your granddaughter to be so impressive. If you hadn't told us, we wouldn't have known that she was your granddaughter from your daughter's side."

"What granddaughter from my daughter's side? Do you realize what you're saying? Nuannuan is my granddaughter from the paternal side too. She changed her surname to Nangong!" (Although they forgot to change that on her household registration, it was a task that could be easily achieved.)

"Haha, yes, yes, yes. I'm sorry, I'm sorry. Congratulations to Big Brother Nangong for having such an impressive granddaughter. I'm so envious." Although it was a compliment, he was really envious.

"Exactly! Our Nuannuan has a good memory. Studying isn't a problem for her at all!"

"Oh, dear. I'm so envious. Your grandchildren are all so outstanding, unlike those from my family. Oh, well... If only they're half as good as Grandniece Nuannuan, I'd wake up laughing even in my sleep."

"Don't sigh. After all, there's only one Nuannuan in the whole world. Your children are good enough as they are, so don't compare them to our Nuannuan. If you keep comparing yourself to others, you'll be driven mad."

A certain political figure thought to himself, '...Fine, fine, fine. You're the embodiment of mountains and constellations; whatever you say.'

A certain bigshot from the military base said, "This is truly unexpected. Who would've thought that your Chi Yang would either choose no one or choose someone so outstanding as a fiancée? Furthermore, she's the granddaughter of the Nangong family. In the future, Chi Yang will be the one in the combat world, your granddaughter-in-law will be in the literary world. Your Chi family's great-grandchildren will simply be the result of such an excellent combination of genes!"

"Hahahaha, that's for sure. But who told you that our Nuannuan will only involve herself in the literary world? Our Nuannuan participated in the high school student general knowledge competition because she had nothing better to do and thus, she read a few more books. Speaking of which, Nuannuan's most outstanding talent is her combat skills and her amazing acupuncture skills. Have you noticed my legs and that old man Nangong's legs? Our Nuannuan's the one who fixed them."

"What? Your granddaughter-in-law knows acupuncture?"

"Of course! Why would I lie to you?"

"Oh, it just so happens that I've been suffering because of my old legs for many years. Can you get your little girl to treat me?"

"Heh, you old boy, you really know how to seize an opportunity to make a request, huh?! My granddaughter-in-law isn't a professional doctor. Have you no sense of shame, to be troubling her like that?"

Seeing that the other party was stunned, Grandpa Chi quickly took advantage of the fact that some of them were talking to Nangong Renyi and whispered, "I can actually let my granddaughter-in-law treat you. In half a year, my granddaughter-in-law will be preparing to take the entrance exam to the Military Medical University. Coincidentally, your son is in charge of the Military Medical University. I won't ask you to take care of my granddaughter-in-law or anything like that. After all, with my granddaughter-in-law's capabilities, it's more than enough for her to get admitted to the Military Medical University. However, you have to get the Military Medical University to approve her studying without staying in the university. You also have to approve her skipping grades, graduating early, or taking a break from school midway or something."

The corner of the bigshot from the military base's mouth twitched. This girl had not even graduated from her Year 3 senior year. Why was he talking about graduating early?

However...

"The Nangong family has always protected their little princess like a porcelain vase. Why would they allow their granddaughter to study at our Military Medical University?"

"This is Nuannuan's wish. Just tell me whether you'll agree to it!"

"Of course, she's such an outstanding girl. However, why must she skip grades and quit school? How busy is she? Unless she's heading to the Medic Association Hospital?" The old man's face suddenly looked twisted.

"What Medic Association Hospital? Our little girl is going to come back halfway to bear children for our Chi family."

The bigshot from the military base, "..."

When Nuannuan brought her friends back to the Chi residence, Second Uncle Chi was already waiting outside for their arrival.

Chapter 1346: Family

Chi Zeyao sat in his wheelchair with a blanket over him. Da Bai, who was beside him, now sat politely on the cold ground like a big cat. Remembering how stubborn and ruthless Da Bai once was, everyone was stunned.

How was this the same Da Bai?

They would rather believe that it was a cat that suffered from albinism and gigantism,

Da Bai only knew that its little princess was coming back. Unexpectedly, when it saw Bai Liyue alighting from the carriage with its little princess, Da Bai was so excited that it peed itself.

Even though the ultimate demon king had given it many rules that it dared not violate, Da Bai still could not help but charge toward Bai Liyue the second it saw her.

"Da Bai, no! Big Sis Yue is injured, you mustn't get too close to her."

Nuannuan, who was about to greet Chi Zeyao, saw Da Bai charging over and stopped it immediately.

Despite hitting the brakes immediately, Da Bai slammed into Nuannuan.

However, Nuannuan had already taken precautions against Da Bai. Thus, when Da Bai failed to stop and charged forward with the strength of a lion, she managed to cleverly maneuver most of Da Bai's strength with as minimal effort as possible.

So when Da Bai and Nuannuan crashed into each other, Nuannuan remained unmoved.

"What a great technique," Chi Zeyao praised as he smiled at Nuannuan.

"Second Uncle, stop teasing me."

That day at the Nangong family, when Feng Shengxuan challenged Big Brother Chi Yang, Nuannuan could already tell that although Second Uncle had a scholarly bearing and seemed weak, he was definitely comparable to a Rank-2S mercenary. That was, of course, if his internal injuries were not as serious.

Nuannuan walked over to Chi Zeyao and pushed the wheelchair for him.

"Second Uncle, didn't I tell you that your body is too weak to withstand the cold wind and that you should avoid coming outside?"

Chi Zeyao smiled. "I only came out to wait for you after receiving the information from the guard outside. It's only been a minute. It's no big deal."

"That won't do. Even if it's just for a minute, it's easy to catch a cold."

"Okay, okay, okay. I'm the one who let Nuannuan the Little Doctor down. I'll change."

Chi Zeyao was being very agreeable, so there was nothing for Nuannuan to complain about.

"The two elders have summoned many people over today. Miss Bai is injured so she shouldn't attend the event. I'll bring all of you into the secondary quarters."

"Thank you, Second Uncle."

Although Bai Liyue was severely injured, she was not frail because she was a mercenary. She walked in herself.

Knowing that she was the reason Chi Zeyao waited outside, Bai Liyue felt very grateful and quickly thanked him.

Chi Zeyao's eyes were full of kindness as he looked at Bai Liyue, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi. "You're all friends who have gone through thick and thin together with Nuannuan. Therefore, the Chi residence is also your home."

Nuannuan's companions no longer knew how to describe this warm-hearted Second Uncle.

Second Uncle was the best elder they had ever met.

Chi Zeyao led Bai Liyue through the side door and into the room through the back door.

The room that Chi Zeyao arranged for Bai Liyue was on the third floor, which was very close to the room where Nuannuan and Chi Yang were.

The room was already fully equipped with items under Second Uncle's careful planning.

"I heard that Miss Bai injured her back. I was afraid that she wouldn't be able to sleep on the soft bed, so I had someone transport an aerated bed for her in the morning. She shouldn't have to lie on her stomach the whole time."

"Second Uncle, you're so considerate." Even Aiden could not help but lament when he saw the bed.

Chi Zeyao continued to smile. "We're family, so don't stand on ceremony. If you need anything, just let me know or instruct the servants."

Chapter 1347: Talent

Bai Liyue laid on the comfortable bed and was very grateful. "Alright, Second Uncle. I won't stand on ceremony then."

Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi stayed in the room to accompany Bai Liyue. Nuannuan and Chi Yang needed to go down and greet the guests.

The moment they descended the stairs, they heard the awkward conversation of Grandpa Nangong and Grandpa Chi bragging about her.

"Grandpa, Grandpa Chi, I'm back."

Since Nuannuan usually stayed at the Chi residence to accompany Chi Yang's grandfather, she had never returned to the Nangong family. Therefore, her grandfather's tolerance for Grandpa Chi had already reached its limit. Eventually, to please everyone better, Nuannuan discussed with Grandpa Chi—when Grandpa Nangong was not around, she would call Old Master Chi Grandpa. When her Grandpa Nangong was around, she would call Old Master Chi Grandpa Chi instead.

"Little Girl, you're back!"

"Little Girl, come over here. Come, come, come. Let Grandpa introduce you. This is the father of the Education Office's director. You can call him Grandfather Zhang."

"Hello, Grandfather Zhang." Nangong Nuannuan looked at the kind-looking Grandfather Zhang and smiled sweetly like the sweet girl who lived next door.

"Hello, hello! You did well this time. Not only did you dampen your opponents' spirits, but you also made them lose so much face. In the past few years, as our country's overall strength developed rapidly, Yamato had always wanted to compete with us in everything to prove their excellence. Clearly, after realizing that they can never compare to us in terms of our weapon, they want to start competing with us in terms of the overall quality of our youngsters. They thought they can win against us by comparing the next generation. This time, in spite of all the calculations they pit against us, you were still able to expose their true colors. This matter caused a sensation in Yamato. Nuannuan, you're practically the role model for our country's high school students!"

"Thank you for praising me, Grandfather Zhang. I was just lucky to discover their plot," Nangong Nuannuan replied humbly.

"Heh, alright, alright. That's enough. Let me talk to Nuannuan." Another grandfather pushed Grandfather Zhang aside and inched closer to Nuannuan. Without even needing Grandpa Nangong and Grandpa Chi to introduce themselves, he introduced himself. "Nuannuan, I'm the principal of Emperor District University. You can call me Grandfather Liu."

"Hello, Grandfather Liu."

"You're so outstanding! Have you ever thought of studying at Emperor District University? In the future, whether you want to study politics or business, there are all sorts of academic faculties in Emperor District University that are suitable for you. Furthermore..."

"Old Liu, what are you talking about? Didn't you hear what Old Chi said about Nuannuan's mystical acupuncture skills?"

Before the principal could finish speaking, another old master interrupted him.

"Nuannuan, I'm your grandfather's good friend. My surname is Zeng. I'm the principal of Emperor District Medical University."

"Greetings, Grandfather Zeng." Even though the situation was a little chaotic, Nuannuan maintained a smile and handled the situation with ease.

"I know you have prodigal talent in the field of medicine. What do you think? Are you interested in coming to our school? We have a full scholarship!"

"Okay, you two! Nuannuan is a student that the Emperor District Military Medical University has already reserved!"

Just as Grandfather Liu and Grandfather Zeng started to fight for a student and about to make enemies of each other, an old master, who was clad in the military uniform and remained silent the whole time, spoke up.

"Nuannuan, my surname is Xu. Xu Ming, the current principal of Emperor District Military Medical University, is my son."

"Hello, Grandfather Xu."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1348: Medic Association Hospital

"Hello, hello!" Grandfather Xu looked at Nuannuan and felt extremely satisfied. If it was not because Nuannuan was already the Chi family's future granddaughter-in-law, he really wanted to poach such an outstanding girl to their house.

"I heard from your Grandpa Chi that you like the military base and are willing to contribute to the military base. In the future, you wish to follow Chi Yang everywhere."

Nuannuan nodded. "I know some acupuncture techniques. I wish to learn how to do surgery in the Emperor District Military Medical University. Then, I hope to become an accompanying military doctor."

"Good, good, good! Welcome, welcome! Our military base welcomes excellent students like you the most. Now, many people have the misconception that everyone becomes soldiers only because they're poor. People always think that they become soldiers because their families aren't well-off; that those who are well-off won't want to do something as tiring. When it comes down to accompanying the soldiers, they're even more unwilling. The most infuriating ones are those whom the Emperor District Military Medical University waived their tuition fees because they were not well-off and went all the way to nurture them. However, after graduation, those who were somewhat capable would immediately jump ship over to the Medic Association Hospital the second they got invited.

"Even then, what pisses me off is that the medical talent that we nurtured is meant to serve soldiers. After all, a soldier is an occupation where it's easiest to get injured. However, the Medic Association Hospital only managed to form a separate unit from the Emperor District Military Medical University after obtaining some minor achievements. How dare they poach so many outstanding talents from the Military Medical University."

The more Grandfather Xu spoke, the angrier he got. In the end, he even forgot that he was here to poach Nuannuan and to get closer to her. He straight away went into complaining-about-Medic-Association-Hospital mode.

Nangong Nuannuan listened attentively.

She had heard about the famous Medic Association Hospital in Camino before too.

Forget about the medical elites in the country, even those overseas were attracted to the Medic Association Hospital like a moth to fire.

After all, the income of the medical researchers here was very high. After getting chased out from Nuannuan's Sentient Research Center, some ex-employees would run toward the Medic Association Hospital in Camino too.

Grandfather Liu and Grandfather Zeng had also joined in the crusade. It was clear as day that although the Medic Association Hospital might have had a glorious reputation, the same could not be said to these old scholars and old leaders of revolutions.

"Enough, enough. What are you guys talking about? Today is our Nuannuan's welcoming banquet," Grandpa Nangong reminded them.

"That's right, that's right!" Grandfather Xu laughed as he recollected his scattered thoughts. "Nuannuan, Grandfather Xu welcomes you on behalf of the Emperor District Military Medical Department! You're going to join the military base in the future, so you mustn't be poached by the Medic Association Hospital like those people!"

"Old Man Xu, that's enough! What nonsense are you spouting?"

"Exactly. Do you think so lowly of our Nuannuan?"

"That's right! The Shi family has already turned the Medic Association Hospital into their family business. Our Nuannuan is still the little princess of the Nangong family. Do you think she would covet their things?"

When Old Man Xu heard this, he suddenly laughed out loud. "I nearly forgot that the Shi family and the Nangong family aren't on good terms now. I've been worried for nothing!"

To be able to speak of the grievances between two first-tier wealthy families so loudly and gloatingly, that made everyone speechless.

The hall fell into a brief silence, and the smile on Old Master Xu's face turned into an awkward smile.

"Grandfather Xu, don't worry. The reason I'll be joining the Emperor District Military Medical University is so that I can join Eagle Special Forces. I want to be able to do something for the Eagle Special Forces in the future, that's all. I have no interest in the Medic Association Hospital at all." After all, she already owned a Sentient Medical Research Institute under Imperial Phoenix Group.

Chapter 1349: Envy In Caps

"Good, good, good. That's great. Nuannuan, considering how well you and I hit it off, why don't I acknowledge you as my god-granddaughter?"

"Old Man Xu, have you any shame? Not only did you steal our student, but you even tried to steal our chances at being her relatives?" Grandfather Liu from Emperor District University howled.

"I also want Nuannuan to be my god-granddaughter!"

"Me too!"

At this moment, everyone turned to look at Old Master Nangong and Old Master Chi, hoping to become Nuannuan's god-grandfathers.

Nuannuan, "..."

"You guys crossed a line there! We finally found Nuannuan after going through so much. We haven't even had enough time to love our little princess yet. How can we let you acknowledge her as your god-granddaughter so quickly?" Grandpa Nangong stood up and declared his sovereignty over Nuannuan overbearingly.

"I've summoned all of you, my old friends, here today just to let everyone see our future grand daughter-in-law. I don't have any other intentions," Grandpa Chi also turned them down 'implicitly'.

All of the old masters pursed their lips.

As though it was not hard enough to miss the fact that the two old men were here to show off.

Yet, what else could they do?

They were really envious to see such a sweet and cute girl who had good grades, was so polite, and had the right sense of morality!

Chi Yang was in a good mood when he saw that his little girl was so well-liked by these elders. Although he was silent, he remained by Nuannuan's side throughout.

Seeing how protective Chi Yang was toward his wife, the elders could not help but tease him.

"Chi Yang, you've really surprised us. Considering how inactive you've been before this, even your grandfather thought that it'd be very difficult for you to get a wife in this lifetime. Little did we expect that the second you made a move, you'd have chosen the best candidate!"

"That's right! I always said that my grandson is already 24 years old and doesn't have a girlfriend. He always uses Chi Yang as a shield. He said that Chi Yang is already 28, but he's still single, isn't he? He even told me that I should either wait for Chi Yang to fall in love before rushing him again or wait for him to turn 30. Hmph, this time, let's see what other excuses that boy has!"

"Hehe, did those brats come to an agreement? My son at home is also Chi Yang as an excuse. When I go back this time, I'll definitely make them go on blind dates!"

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Big Brother Chi Yang—who was still upright and serious in his seat—and felt a wide smile blossoming on her face in spite of herself.

Looking at his wife's bright smile, Chi Yang's serious face instantly softened. He could not help but scratch Nuannuan's nose.

Nuannuan, whose nose tingled slightly from being scratched, rubbed her nose involuntarily against Chi Yang's clothes like a fluffy pet.

It was merely a minor interaction between the two of them, but the old men next to them felt like they were being showered with dog food.

Everyone wondered how a soft and cute girl like Nuannuan could get along with Chi Yang, the tough general who shocked everyone in the military circles of Camino at such a young age.

However, when they saw the girl's adoring gaze and the man's gentle and doting gaze, the group of grandfathers felt like their peaceful life had come full circle even though it was just an ordinary interaction between the two.

There was only envy in caps!

"Old Marshal, the head of the Shi family, Shi Gen, has arrived."

The lively living room lapsed into a tense silence.

Old Master Nangong, Old Master Xu, and a few other old masters from the military and political families all turned grave.

Obviously, these people did not have a good relationship with the Shi family.

"Shi Gen? Why is he here?" As Old Master Nangong's old friend, Old Master Chi naturally knew that the conflict between the Nangong and Shi families had been steadily intensifying.

Chapter 1350: Mine

The Nangong family and the Chi family could be said to be extremely close now. In addition, the Shi family's eldest daughter-in-law's surname was Pei. This was also taboo to Old Master Chi, so he was definitely on the Nangong family's side now.

The old butler said, "Shi Gen is accompanied by his granddaughter, Shi Yalin. They seem to be here to give you a New Year's gift."

Today, the Chi family and Nangong family merely invited the two elders' good friends. It was impossible for these magnates to wantonly announce tonight's banquet, so it was normal for the Shi family to be unaware of this ongoing banquet.

Although no one wanted to let them in, one should not slap someone with a smiling face. The Shi family was a first-tier wealthy family, after all, and they were in control of many military and political forces. Therefore, Old Master Chi had no choice but to invite them in.

Shi Yalin glanced at the many cars parked outside the courtyard. They were all military vehicles. She could not help but say, "Grandpa, it seems like the Chi family has quite a lot of visitors today."

Shi Gen glanced at the car plate numbers and immediately recognized who they were.

However, when he saw the array of these military car plates along with ordinary cars in the mix, Shi Gen felt uncomfortable.

He had invited so many guests, but he did not invite the Shi family.

Among the four major families, the Shi family and the Nangong family were the closest to the Chi family after all.

Nangong Renyi and Old Master Chi were the only link between the Nangong and Chi families. The Shi family, on the other hand, had connections to the Chi family starting from him to his son and now to his granddaughter.

Shi Yalin was a little jealous.

"Grandpa, the Chi family invited so many people over but not us from the Shi family. Could it be that they really want to draw the line between us just because they're engaged to the Nangong family?"

Big Bro Chi Yang was the man she had admired since she was young. When she heard that the woman from the Nangong family was engaged to the Chi family, she had no way to vent her anger.

"Yalin, calm down. I know that Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan got engaged because when he was carrying out a mission in Jiang District, he had to pretend to be friendly with people suspected to be from the enemy side to find out who the mole was. Therefore, their engagement probably doesn't count. Based on your understanding of Chi Yang, do you think he's the kind of person that would let any woman get close to him?"

"Who doesn't know how much the men of the Nangong family care about their girl? For them to have finally found their long-lost younger sister, but they haven't even organized an engagement banquet. Chi Yang is either in Jiang District or Eagle Special Forces. When has he been home for long?"

Hearing her grandfather's words, the intense jealousy and dismay in Shi Yalin's eyes dissipated a little.

Shi Gen continued, "That's why whatever it is about being engaged, it's just for show. I think that Chi Yang is quite friendly to you, so even if he's already engaged, it's not impossible for you. However, it's all up to fate. If we can't get through to Chi Yang, there's still Ning Wenhao and Xiao Shenbin. The two of them..."

"Grandpa." Shi Yalin interrupted Shi Gen and said firmly, "Big Bro Chi Yang is mine. No matter what, I want Big Bro Chi Yang."

Shi Gen glanced at Shi Yalin and frowned. "Yalin, I don't care what you do normally, but this concerns the Nangong family. It's not something you can do as you please. Our goal is to become the number one family in Camino and elevate your Third Uncle to the position of President. So, don't do anything stupid, or even I won't forgive you."
