Chapter 1351: Comparison

When Shi Yalin heard Shi Gen's words, she was filled with anger.

The initial reason that stopped her from chasing after Chi Yang explicitly was that she thought that he was allergic to other women. However, when Chi Yang rescued her after she fell into the water, she knew that he was not allergic to her.

Initially, she had wanted to express her love for him then. Yet, when she thought about how she was only 15 years old, she held herself back.

To get close to Chi Yang and be with him, she would come to the Chi family to visit Grandpa Chi every holiday or school holiday. Therefore, she had always regarded herself as Chi Yang's fiancée.

However, just as she was about to turn 18—at the age where it was appropriate to get the Shi family to help her propose marriage—someone threw a wrench in the works. The key takeaway here was that it was a woman from the Nangong family.

"Did you hear what Grandpa said?" Shi Gen looked at Shi Yalin unhappily.

"I heard you. Don't worry, Grandpa. I know what's important."

"That's good. Don't worry, you're my only granddaughter. I'll definitely be concerned about your marriage and do my best to help you win Chi Yang over. Don't forget, even if we can't get through via Old Master Chi, you can still get your mother to seek out your aunt-in-law. Chi Yang will have to listen to your aunt-in-law, no?"

Even though Shi Yalin had always looked down on that 'aunt-in-law' of hers, her expression softened slightly at the thought that at least she could put her aunt to good use.

"Anyway, when you go in later, you have to carry yourself in utmost magnanimity even if the Nangong family is present, understand?"

Shi Yalin nodded.

After a while, the old butler finally came over. "Old Master Shi, Miss Shi, sorry to have kept you waiting. Please come in."

Shi Yalin nodded at the old butler and followed her grandfather inside.

The moment they stepped into the hall, they saw the woman sitting next to Chi Yang.

Since she had just returned home from the competition, Nangong Nuannuan was still in her student uniform, and her hair was casually tied up into a bun.

The simple outfit was a stark contrast to Shi Yalin's expensive custom-made dress. From their outfits alone, one looked like a typical female student while the other was a noble swan.

However, once they compared everything else other than clothes, Shi Yalin paled greatly in comparison.

She had always wished to leave behind an impression that she was mature even at such a young age—she wanted Grandpa Chi to realize that in spite of how young she was, she was capable to support the whole Chi family. Therefore, Shi Yalin always showed up in a single-piece every time she went to the Chi family. Even though her outfit was couture tailored by an internationally renowned designer, Shi Yalin was only 17 years old after all. Her slightly immature exterior coupled with her one-piece dress conveniently layered a tinge of reliable maturity on her.

If not compared to a girl like Nangong Nuannuan, this outfit would still look good.

However, she compared herself to Nangong Nuannuan.

Unlike the mature and steady Shi Yalin, who had her curled long hair cascading down her shoulders, Nuannuan's hairstyle could not have been any more casual. There was a red bunny hair clip on her head. Complemented by her fair skin and exquisite facial features, her slight smile had the charm of a woman, but it also had the innocence of a young girl. It was enough to attract everyone's attention. Even Shi Yalin, who was looking at Nangong Nuannuan with disdain, was taken aback by her striking beauty.

Chapter 1352: Bring Me Over

Shi Gen, the head of the Shi family, was once an extremely famous politician in Camino. He was so close to sitting in the position that everyone looked up to.

Afterward, at the most crucial moment, the Shi family stood on the wrong side, causing their downfall from their family's peak.

After two generations of keeping a low profile, they finally saw the light once more.

To everyone who was present, Shi Gen was someone who could stand shoulder to shoulder with Old Master Nangong.

Therefore, when they saw Shi Gen, all the elders stood up to welcome him.

When Nangong Nuannuan saw Shi Yalin sizing her up, she understood that Big Brother Chi Yang had attracted another rotten peach blossom for her to deal with.

However, for someone who surfed through the largest and tallest waves in life like Nuannuan, she could smash a man-eating flower, let alone peach blossoms.

Seeing that everyone had stood up, Nuannuan followed suit.

"Elder Chi, I'm here to wish you a happy new year!"

As soon as Shi Gen finished speaking, Shi Yalin, who stood next to him, also spoke in a gentle and intellectual manner, "Grandpa Chi, I wish you a happy new year. I wish you a healthy and long life!"

"Hehehe, good, good. Thank you for your blessings." Old Master Chi smiled at Shi Yalin kindly.

Receiving Grandpa Chi's friendliness, Shi Yalin immediately targeted Nangong Nuannuan. She turned around and smiled at Chi Yang, saying, "Big Brother Chi Yang, Happy New Year. Hope you're always in good health."

Without waiting for Chi Yang's reply, she immediately added, "You promised me that you would bring me to Eagle to take a look around when I've reached the ninth-degree black belt in Taekwondo. You must keep your word! Since it's New Year's eve and you're at home tomorrow, how about we go tomorrow?"

Nangong Nuannuan was clearly standing right next to Chi Yang, but Shi Yalin acted as if she did not see her. The moment she arrived, she tried to snatch Chi Yang for herself. At the same time, she also gave Nangong Nuannuan an opening gambit.

However, Nangong Nuannuan's smile did not falter. From the moment she stood up until now, she had been smiling graciously and appropriately. Compared to her, Shi Yalin seemed to be at a disadvantage even though she was clad in her high-grade tailored dress.

Old Master Nangong's expression darkened instantly.

How could he let any Tom, Dick, or Harry facesmack the little princess of the Nangong family?

Just as he was about to speak, Chi Yang opened his mouth.

With his straight back and suaveness in his military uniform that complemented his abstinent aura, Chi Yang exuded the aura that meant to push Shi Yalin away. It was a stark contrast to his indulgence when he hung around Nuannuan.

"I'm not free tomorrow. I have to accompany my fiancée."

Shi Yalin, "..."

Shi Yalin, who had just gotten facesmacked, was dissatisfied. She asked again, "What about the day after tomorrow?"

"I'm not free. I want to accompany my fiancée."

"Then... then what about the day after that?" Shi Yalin refused to give up. She did not believe that Chi Yang would not give her a single chance.

"I'm not free." Then, he pulled the cute little girl standing next to him into his arms and said, "I want to accompany my fiancée every day."

Shi Yalin's pupils constricted as she glared intently at the hand that Chi Yang hooked around Nangong Nuannuan's shoulder.

This was the first time she saw Chi Yang take the initiative to hug a woman instead of a woman trying to cling onto him.

This was even more infuriating than seeing Nangong Nuannuan hugging Chi Yang and declaring her ownership before Shi Yalin.

To Shi Yalin, it felt like her man had cheated on her right in front of her. It made her so angry that she wanted to explode.

Shi Yalin was the only girl among the Shi family's grandchildren. She had been pampered by the family since she was young. When had she ever suffered such humiliation?

1. Peach blossoms symbolize romantic luck with another person.

Chapter 1353: Not A Tourist Spot

Whichever man would not treasure her normally? Was there any man who would not willingly offer themselves up as her slave so long as she curled her pinky?

After getting facesmacked by Chi Yang in front of everyone, Shi Yalin instantly felt embarrassed. Her face flushed red, but she could not do anything to the person beside him.

After all, this woman had the same status as she did.

Shi Gen also thought that Chi Yang went too far. However, there were so many people here, and he did not want to make things difficult for Old Master Chi. After all, if the Shi family wanted to ascend further, it would be necessary for this person to put in a few good words in front of the president.

Old Master Chi noticed the sheen of awkwardness that landed in the room and immediately stepped forward to help.

"Hehehe, Nuannuan, this is the head of the Shi family. You can call him Grandfather Shi."

Nangong Nuannuan was not affected by Shi Yalin at all. She greeted him generously, "Hello, Grandfather Shi."

"Hehe, hello, hello. You must be Nangong's granddaughter from his daughter's side, Nangong Nuannuan?"

Although he was referring to Nangong, he had emphasized the phrase 'from his daughter's side'.

Old Master Chi smiled and said, "That's right, that's right. This is Old Man Nangong's paternal granddaughter, Nangong Nuannuan. At the same time, she's also our Chi family's future granddaughter-in-law. When you're free, Old Shi, remember to come and attend the wedding banquet of the Chi and Nangong families!"

Seeing how unyielding Chi Yuancheng's attitude was, Shi Gen knew that saying anything more on the matter would only humiliate himself, so he did not pursue this topic.

"Hehe, definitely."

Shi Gen's reply nearly sent Shi Yalin's face out of control. However, Shi Gen also shared in on the anger of having his own family's possessions being stolen by the Nangong family. He then laughed and said to Chi Yang, "Chi Yang, last time you mentioned in front of Grandfather Shi that you were going to bring our Yalin to check out Eagle. How can you forsake Yalin, your little sister, now that you have a girlfriend? How about... you bring your girlfriend with you, and the three of you can go to Eagle together?"

In any case, they were not married yet. Even if they were married, they could still get a divorce. Thus, Shi Gen did not mind his granddaughter becoming the third person between Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan.

"I'm sorry, but my fiancée has been accompanying me on my busiest days in Eagle for the past few days. It isn't easy for her to finally come home for Chinese New Year, so I hope to have some alone time with my girlfriend. As for Little Sister Shi Yalin, she's still young. Eagle isn't a place for her. Furthermore, Eagle is a special forces team, not a tourist spot, so please forgive me, Grandfather Shi."

Shi Gen's face was slapped so hard that even he had difficulties maintaining his composure.

After all, he was the patriarch of a first-tier wealthy family. This brat was so arrogant that he did not even bother to give Shi Gen face.

At that moment, Second Uncle Chi slid out of the kitchen in a wheelchair.

"Nuannuan, do you want the lobster baked with cheese or spicy-fried over a huge fire?"

Everyone, "..."

Behind Second Uncle Chi, Second Uncle Nangong Qin also popped his head out. "Your Second Uncle said you like to eat grilled cheese lobster, but I clearly saw that you liked it spicy last time."

Before Nuannuan could speak, Chi Yang had already spoken up for his wife. "My Nuannuan is a good girl who isn't picky about food. She likes everything."

Chi Zeyao smiled. "I see. Let's make both flavors then."

His second uncle nodded and said, "Then, you'll make them in white sauce first and I'll stir-fry them later."

"Okay."

She did not know if Second Uncle Chi and Second Uncle Nangong did it on purpose. There was clearly another head of the Shi family in the living room, but it was as though both of them did not notice his presence and went back to work.

It was no exaggeration that Shi Gen had been utterly humiliated.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1354: Maternal Granddaughter

With the current situation, how could he not know that the Chi family had automatically sided with the Nangong family because of Nangong Nuannuan?

The person who had all of the Nangong family's main support was now the Shi family's greatest political enemy. If the Chi family were to stand on the Nangong family's side because of this, that would mean that the Shi family would...

The Shi family had been silent for more than 30 years, and Shi Gen would not be able to see the glory of the Shi family in the next 30 years. Therefore, no matter what, the Nangong family must never get their hands on the juiciest chunk of meat called the Chi family.

Taking advantage of Second Uncle Chi and Second Uncle Nangong's interruption, Shi Gen shifted his attention to the few old scholars. After introducing Shi Yalin to all the bigshots present, he said, "This Grandfather Zeng is the principal of Emperor District Medical University. Since you're also entering Emperor District Medical University in the future, Grandfather Zeng will become your mentor."

Shi Yalin suppressed her anger and was determined to compete with Nangong Nuannuan in terms of experience as a young lady from a wealthy family. She greeted Grandfather Zeng politely.

Zeng Wenyi was Nangong Renyi's friend. When he saw that the daughter of the Shi Family wanted to come to their medical school to snatch their resources, his expression instantly became twisted.

Emperor District Medical University had produced countless talents. However, 90% of the top talents from Emperor District Medical University had gone to the Medic Association Hospital.

As a result, the Medic Association Hospital was the one with the most say in the medical field in the entire Camino. Meanwhile, Emperor District Medical University and Emperor District Military Medical University became secondary.

If someone like Shi Yalin, the direct descendant of the Shi family, were to join the Emperor District Medical University, who knew how many elites would be taken away once more.

Zeng Wenyi chuckled. "I wouldn't dare, I wouldn't dare. Right now, the entire Medic Association Hospital belongs to the Shi Family. How can a small temple like ours house the dignified Miss Shi?"

"Elder Zeng, you're being too formal with your words. Even though our girl is doing a tad too well in her grades, she still doesn't know much about hospitals. There is much for her to learn about. The Emperor District Medical University is our country's most prestigious school in the field of medicine. Even though our Yalin already has several successful cases of clinical medicine, she still has a lot to learn if she wants to become an outstanding medical expert."

"Then, she's perfect for the Medic Association Hospital! I'm sure Miss Shi will be going to the Medic Association Hospital after she graduates, right? Then why come to my medical university for a more elaborate and unnecessary path?"

Was Shi Gen trying to shift his attention to Emperor District Medical University after snatching all the talent resources from the Military Medical University?

Shi Gen was displeased. He did not expect Zeng Wenyi to deprive him of whatever little face he had left. Although he was smiling, his gaze was no longer friendly. "Principal Zeng, are you looking down on my Shi Family?"

Zeng Wenyi immediately panicked. "I wouldn't dare, I wouldn't dare! The Shi family is full of talents, and the president has taken a liking to them. How could an old man like me, a mere man who got recruited again after retirement, look down at the Shi family?"

Shi Gen chuckled. "That's good then. When the time comes, my granddaughter will definitely be able to enter your medical school with flying colors. I'll have to trouble Elder Zeng to take care of her then."

Zeng Wenyi, "..."

He had seen many shameless people in this world, but none had been as shameless as him.

Once the young miss of the Shi family enrolled in Emperor District Medical University, she would poach all the top students in at least four academic years!

However, if she got admitted into the university officially without any bad records, there was no way he could turn her application down!

Angry!

After saying that, Shi Gen peered at Nangong Nuannuan once more and smiled at Old Master Nangong. "Brother Nangong is really lucky to have such a beautiful maternal granddaughter."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1355: One Hit K.O.

Nangong Renyi chuckled. "Our Nuannuan isn't our maternal granddaughter. I've already stated at the press conference that Nuannuan is a direct descendant, my paternal granddaughter, and her surname is Nangong."

"I see. As you should! As you should! After all, I heard that Nangong Nuannuan's father isn't a respectable person. I think her father is one of the moles from the Jiang District military base, right? If such a person were to be known as Miss Nangong's father, Miss Nangong would be criticized."

Shi Gen's words were said to serve as humiliation. Old Master Nangong did not have the magnanimity to continue tolerating him after hearing all the criticisms of his precious granddaughter.

"Brother Shi, you've overthought this. To expose KE's conspiracy, the person who assisted the Jiang District military base in identifying the moles was Nuannuan."

Shi Gen and Shi Yalin were both stunned.

The members of the Shi family were mainly in politics and business. Even though some of them were involved with the military base, they were not core members. Only by having full control over the Medic Association Hospital that they could have a resource to challenge the bigshots in the military world.

However, the hospital was only good at medical research. He still could not find the qualification to interfere with matters related to the military base.

This was also why he wanted Shi Yalin to marry into the Chi family.

Therefore, he was truly unaware that Nangong Nuannuan was the one who exposed Zhong Kuijun.

When he came to his senses, he immediately exclaimed, "What? Miss Nangong actually exposed her father?"

After he said that, he looked at Nangong Nuannuan and praised her, "Miss Nangong is indeed a descendant of the military. You can even forsake kinship when you have to be cold-blooded. A just person like you is exactly what the country needs. I'm impressed!"

Shi Gen's words managed to twist everyone's facial expression into ugly ones in the room, with the exception of Shi Yalin.

Old Master Nangong snorted. "Shi Gen, there's no need for you to insult us in a roundabout way. That Zhong Kuijun raped my daughter after knowing my daughter lost her memory while she was running for her life, impregnating her with Nuannuan. Thankfully, my daughter had the foresight to approach the inheritance executor at RS Bank and transfer all of her inheritance to Nuannuan. Furthermore, the receiver of the money had to be verified through a DNA test every time. If it wasn't because of that, my Nuannuan wouldn't have been able to survive until she was born. However, even so, he still poisoned my daughter's food and caused her death. When Nuannuan was three years old, he approved the transplant of Nuannuan's bone marrow into his lover's daughter. Poor Nuannuan was only three years old at that time. After going through her bone marrow transplant surgery, she was sold to a human trafficker. You want to talk to me about kinship with such a person? There is only relentless vengeance and hate between the Nangong family and this scumbag! So, don't you dare try to ruin our Nangong Nuannuan's reputation here."

The bigshots who were present today had no idea what truly happened back then. When they heard Shi Gen's words, they were surprised that although Nangong Nuannuan was right to put righteousness before family, betraying her own father was still not something anyone would do.

However, after hearing Nangong Renyi's explanation, everyone's eyes widened.

Nobody expected such a cute girl to have experienced such a tragedy.

After that, Old Master Nangong gave everyone a rough account of what happened after Nuannuan got sold, and they all commended her for her good fortune. In such a harsh environment, she was still able to become the royal family of Luntan, become such an outstanding girl, and live her own wonderful life.

By picking up the bits and pieces from everyone's conversation that Shi Gen and Shi Yalin realized that Nangong Nuannuan had participated in the ZR High School General Knowledge Competition and was the main force that earned them the title of champion.

Just like that, Shi Yalin was outmatched.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1356: Top Talent

Shi Yalin and Nangong Nuannuan were of the same age. Shi Gen had just mentioned the fact that Shi Yalin was a top student with good grades, but now it was revealed that Nangong Nuannuan had just competed in the High School General Knowledge Competition.

What was this if not a loud and crisp slap to the face?

Old Master Nangong was still angry. He said, "Miss Shi is a top student, right? Is there an important matter that held you back from participating in the competition?"

Shi Gen, "..."

Old Master Chi immediately added, "What nonsense are you talking about? Only the top talents in the country can participate in this general knowledge competition. A typical top student won't be able to participate."

Shi Yalin, "..."

It was one thing for the Shi family's grandfather and granddaughter to be ridiculed by Old Master Nangong, but now, even Old Master Chi had joined in the fray. This made the two from the Shi family feel extremely embarrassed.

"Learning is just one of the necessities in life. I often warn the Shi family not to focus on studying. Being a top student is important, of course, but it's more important to apply what you've learned to your daily life. If what you've learned can't be applied in reality, you're nothing but a nerd. In this aspect, I'm very satisfied with our Yalin. Although she's only 17 years old, she's already running a department store and a hotel chain."

"Those are all the Shi family's businesses, right?"

Chi Yang, who had been silent, suddenly spoke.

Shi Yalin immediately answered, "They're indeed part of the Shi family's business. However, ever since I took over, the sales from the department store and hotels have been steadily increasing."

With that, Shi Yalin shot Nangong Nuannuan a provocative look.

To protect Nangong Nuannuan's privacy, the Nangong family tampered with the videos online through special means. Therefore, when the Shi family attempted to investigate, the videos were either gone or trimmed. In addition, the Shi family did not think highly of Nangong Nuannuan because she was a wild rich daughter who came out of nowhere. Therefore, they were even more clueless about what Duke Eton said about Tianheng Holdings during the auction.

Chi Yang glanced at his wife and announced proudly, "Then, you're not only a top student, but you've also applied everything you've learned in the business world. Does that make you a genius?"

"Oh? Miss Nangong is also in charge of the Nangong family's business? What are the companies you're running?" Shi Yalin emphasized 'what are'. If Nuannuan answered fewer than two companies, Shi Yalin would be the one crushing Nangong Nuannuan in this round.

Nangong Nuannuan had enough and answered, "I've just returned to the Nangong family, so I have no intention of taking over."

"However, from what Big Bro Chi Yang said earlier, it seems like you're doing a little better than me. Could it be... that you started a small company on your own?"

"Mhmm."

Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan only nodded without continuing the conversation, Shi Yalin went straight to the point. "What company is that? Can you tell us?"

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Sure, it's a legitimate business anyway. There's nothing to hide. I own Tianheng Holdings."

How the eyes of everyone present widened.

Holy momma!

"Tianheng Holdings?"

"That's a powerful foreign company! They have several dozens of branches just in Camino, right?"

Hearing that some of the grandfathers started to ask, Nuannuan smiled. "55, to be exact."

"Amazing!!!"

"As expected of someone from the Nangong family. They've always been top-notch in every single aspect!"

"Brother Nangong, I'm afraid your granddaughter is going against the heavens!"

Everyone started praising Nangong Nuannuan. Standing at the side, Shi Yalin nearly fumed to her death, but she still had to act like a proper lady from a prestigious family.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1357: How Is That Possible

Shi Gen was also incomparably shocked in his heart, but after thinking for a moment, a smile appeared on his face. "It seems that your stepfather, Duke Eton, must've been worried sick about you, this adopted daughter of his! He must've invested in Tianheng Holdings for you, right?"

"Elder Shi, you have no idea how wrong what you said is. Even if Duke Eton invested in it, all the kudos go to Nuannuan to be able to develop it into 55 superstores in Camino," Zeng Wenyi was displeased with Shi Gen and retorted him immediately.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and said, "I threw my own money into Tianheng Holdings. My father didn't pay for it."

Shi Gen laughed. "I don't believe you."

"There's nothing I can do even if Grandfather Shi doesn't believe me. Indeed, for normal people, being able to inherit the family business and bring it to greater heights is already very impressive."

After saying that, Nuannuan stopped talking.

After all, how would a frog in a well know how big the world was?

Would a swallow know the ambition of a swan?

It was useless to say certain things.

After Bai Liyue settled into her rest, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi came down from upstairs.

Due to the fact that they had not seen Aiden and the others earlier, everyone in the living room noticed their entry the moment they walked down the stairs.

"Grandpa Nangong, Grandpa Chi!"

Nuannuan's three companions had always been sweet-tongued. They would greet anyone the moment they saw them.

The people who came to the Chi residence today were all top-notch figures in Camino. Although most of them were not from the business world but from the political and military worlds, those who were at the top of the hierarchy were usually more involved in social matters.

Hence, everyone was surprised to see Aiden.

"You... you're Mr. Aiden? The vice-president of Tianheng Holdings?"

Aiden grinned. After Grandpa Nangong introduced him to everyone, he politely greeted the guests.

Taking advantage of the fact that Aiden had just come down, Shi Yalin asked, "Mr. Aiden, the chairman of Tianheng Holdings has always been an enigma. Since we've met you today, can you tell us who the chairman of Tianheng Holdings is?"

"Huh?"

Aiden was dumbfounded. "Didn't Duke Eton mention this during the auction? I thought it was no longer a secret."

"I see. So, the chairman is Duke Eton!" Shi Yalin said proudly, as though she won a race. She looked at Nangong Nuannuan provocatively, waiting for her reply.

It was Aiden who responded, "The chairman of the Tianheng Holdings is our Big Boss, Nuannuan! Duke Eton has some shares in the company, but he only has 5%. Not to mention that 5% is a gift from Nuannuan to him out of filial piety."

Shi Gen, "..."

Everyone, "..."

Shi Yalin said, "How's that possible? Tianheng Holdings ventured into Camino five years ago. Miss Nangong was still in primary school five years ago, right?"

Nuannuan's companions could tell that the woman was not on good terms with their boss. Selina said coldly, "Why are you comparing our Nuannuan to someone as ordinary as you? Our Nuannuan started buying mines and mining bedrocks all over the world when she was nine years old. She established her own company after successfully accumulating her initial capital before reaching the age of ten. Then, she started expanding her capital at the age of twelve. Otherwise, why do you think the Luntanese royal family included us in the royal genealogy book? We're orphans. Without absolute economic power, we're just our father's daughters."

Selina had made her point very clear. Although everyone found such a valiant life unbelievable, it was easy to find out if the royal family had truly included their names in the genealogy book. There was no reason for Selina to lie to them.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1358: I Am Afraid That...

Duke Eton adopted both Nuannuan and Selina. It was already difficult enough for them to be recognized by the royal family, what more having their names included in the genealogy book. Something like that was nearly impossible to achieve.

Therefore, Selina's explanation became the only logical explanation.

Initially, Shi Yalin had come over to the Chi family to humiliate Nangong Nuannuan knowing that she was there. Yet, who would have known that Shi Yalin would lose to her in terms of grades? In terms of assets, she was even more inferior.

This was a huge, burning slap in the face.

If they continued to sit here, they would only be embarrassing themselves. Shi Gen stood up and said to Old Master Chi, "Elder Chi, it seems like we're not welcomed here. We'll take our leave first."

"Are you sure we're the ones not welcoming you? Obviously, you two are the ones who started slandering our Nuannuan the moment you passed through the door, aren't you? A thief is now accusing someone else a thief. Old Man Shi, your reputation still hasn't changed one bit in the past decade!"

The Nangong family and the Shi family were not on good terms in the first place. When they came face to face in politics, they would fight each other to death. This was the Chi residence, and there were no outsiders here. Since there was not any good relationship to maintain between the two families already, escalating the matter into a fallout did not matter as much anymore.

How dare the Shi family bully their Nuannuan like this. Did they really think that the Nangong family was dead?

Shi Gen was so triggered by Nangong Renyi's words that his chest was stuffed with anger. However, this was Old Man Nangong's home ground, and Shi Gen could not win in either argument or a fight. Therefore, he could only suppress his anger and say to Old Master Chi, "Elder Chi, we'll come and visit you another day."

Shi Yalin immediately replied obediently, "Grandpa Chi, I'll visit you another day."

Old Master Chi chuckled. "You can come and visit me, but our Chi Yang already has a fiancée. Nuannuan is the future granddaughter-in-law of our Chi family. If you come again, I hope that the two of you will have basic manners and conduct for our Chi family. Otherwise, I'm afraid that even this old man here won't welcome you anymore. Hehehe..."

From beginning to end, Old Master Chi had been smiling. He was completely different from Old Master Nangong, who gave the Shi family nothing but glares.

However, the words that came out of his mouth sounded so protective and so humiliating.

Shi Yalin looked at Chi Yang pitifully, but she was met with Chi Yang's bone-chilling gaze as he stared at her grandfather. Shi Yalin could not help but shiver.

He then glanced at Nangong Nuannuan, who was standing beside Chi Yang.

This woman was the instigator. She barely said anything, but everyone in the room was praising her.

So what if she had Tianheng Holdings?

That was not enough for the Shi family to take her seriously!

Shi Yalin stood up and left with Shi Gen. Before they left, the Chi family still politely asked the old butler to send them out personally.

Just as they reached the door, Shi Yalin heard the laughter of children coming from outside the door. Shi Yalin was about to walk out the door when she saw her grandfather quickly retreat and stagger backward. Shi Yalin reached out to support the old master and was about to ask him how he was doing when a white lion that stretched as tall as her chest suddenly appeared before them. Shi Yalin was most afraid of these things, and she could not help but scream. Her hands subconsciously tugged at her grandfather and she fell backward.

After getting tugged backward so violently, Old Master Shi fell to her back too.

The grandfather and granddaughter collapsed backward together.

Thankfully, Old Master Shi fell directly onto Shi Yalin's body. Otherwise, he might have suffered a fracture.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1359: Shameless

The people who passed through the entrance were the six brothers from the Nangong family, Nuannuan's sisters-in-law and aunts, as well as Lil Ling'er and Lil Sun, the two little buns.

The white lion was, of course, Da Bai.

Da Bai was initially accompanying Bai Liyue in her room, but after hearing Lil Ling'er's voice, it leaped down from the third floor.

Even though there was quite some distance between the third floor and the first floor, a fall was nothing to the thick-skinned Da Bai. Compared to the joy of seeing Lil Ling'er, a fall was nothing.

Of course, Lil Ling'er was ecstatic to see Da Bai.

The happiest thing for her now was to come to Grandpa Chi's house.

That was because she could see Da Bai at Grandpa Chi's house.

Unexpectedly, when the group of people from the Nangong family passed through the door, it happened to bump into the grandfather and granddaughter from the Shi family who were walking out from inside. It scared both of them so much that they fell to the ground.

Nangong Ze had a lot of unsettled business with the Shi family.

Back then, as an elite in the medical world, Nangong Ze joined the Medical Administrative Department. Due to his good performance, the Medical Administrative Department wanted to promote him and he was sent to complete some practical tasks.

Whether it was in the business world, politics, or the military world, if one wanted to improve, one must either achieve results or make contributions.

At the time, the Medic Association Hospital was researching a drug that was effective against hyperlipidemia. They were halfway done with the research, so the Medical Administrative Department sent Nangong Ze to the Medic Association Hospital to work on this project.

With Nangong Ze's medical proficiency, he was able to develop this drug in less than two years.

However, the person in charge of this project at the Medic Association Hospital was Shi Zhonglei, the son of the current director of the hospital, Shi Maocheng. To ensure that his contribution was known as soon as possible, Shi Zhonglei increased the dosage of the medication despite Nangong Ze's objection. After Nangong Ze reported this matter to Shi Maocheng, Shi Maocheng dismissed it. He claimed that it would be fine as long as the medication could cure the illness. The whole reason he invented this medicine in the first place was to quickly reduce lipid levels so that patients who had too much lipid coverage could see the effects immediately after taking the medicine.

Nangong Ze's influence in the hospital was very weak. No one was willing to listen to him at all. Everyone was busy kissing Shi Zhonglei's ass.

Nangong Ze had no choice but to study it himself day and night. In less than half a year, he had successfully developed the medicine despite all the obstacles he faced.

Since the drug had to be tested after it was developed, the team members would definitely know.

When the testing for the drug was completed, Shi Maocheng credited Nangong Ze's research to Shi Zhonglei. Shi Maocheng also took Shi Zhonglei's research results to the Health Department and claimed that Nangong Ze had increased the dosage of the drug and treated human lives like grass.

This time, Nangong Ze could not explain himself even if he wanted to.

At the time, the Shi family and the Nangong family had been on good terms, minding their own business. They were both first-tier wealthy families, so they had to give each other some face when they met. Therefore, Nangong Ze did not expect the Shi family to suddenly throw him under the bus. Not only did they steal his credit, they even pinned the blame on him.

In the end, the Nangong family had no way to prove Nangong Ze's innocence, so they could only suffer this loss. Although Nangong Ze was not fired, he could not be promoted within a short period of time.

However, things were not over yet. Nangong Ze could not be promoted, but someone else was promoted. This person was Shi Zhonglei's younger brother, Shi Zhongran, who transferred from another department.

They stole the results from Nangong Ze's medical research, framed him, and made him bear the brunt of the blame. They had even stolen the position that should have belonged to Nangong Ze.

It could be said that the Shi family was being atrocious right under the Nangong family's noses.

Chapter 1360: Red Packet

Nangong Ze was in a good mood after seeing that old fart from the Shi family stumble.

"Oh, I was wondering who it was! Turns out it's you, Grandfather Shi! You've given me such a huge kowtow the moment this young master entered the house. Is it because you felt sorry for me back then, so you rushed here to kowtow to me during the Lunar New Year? There's no need to kowtow because I won't forgive you for all the insults you've given me even if you kowtow to me a hundred times."

Da Bai looked at Nangong Ze before turning to look at the dumb humans who had fallen to the ground in fright. After ascertaining which camp it was on, Da Bai raised a leg and peed on the two people who had yet to get up.

"Argh—" Shi Yalin screamed. Old Master Shi, who was about to stand up, was dragged to the ground again.

Since they were too slow, they were so dumbstruck that they only started to climb to their feet after Da Bai finished peeing.

Today was the twenty-ninth day of the twelfth lunar month. The temperature outside had dropped rapidly, and it was snowing heavily.

After soaking in the steamy urine, their bodies were soon covered in ice.

Shi Gen looked at the group of people from the Nangong family. He knew that these people were here to cause trouble, so there was no need for him to say anything more to them. He left angrily as quickly as he could, got into his car, and left.

Nangong Nuannuan, Chi Yang, and the others happened to walk out from inside. When they saw their elder brothers laughing happily, they asked what was going on before shrugging. They also felt that this grandfather and granddaughter deserved it.

Nuannuan only knew that the Nangong family and the Shi family had been at odds recently, but she did not know the exact details. Hence, she asked the Nangong brothers.

Since Nangong Ze suffered the most, he immediately told Nuannuan about how he had been bullied. Nuannuan's eyes flickered slightly, and a hint of killing intent appeared in the depths of her eyes before she quickly concealed it.

The two little buns walked up to Nuannuan and exclaimed at the same time, "Congratulations on your victory, Aunt!"

The originally unhappy atmosphere instantly dissipated after hearing the two little buns' congratulations. Lil Ling'er took out the only two bags of strawberry-flavored cotton candy at home. Although she looked reluctant, she told herself that the cotton candy was for her aunt, so the girl generously gave away all her precious belongings.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the two bags of cotton candy and accepted them with a smile. "Lil Ling'er, thank you for giving me such an expensive gift. I really like it!"

Lil Ling'er's big, watery eyes curved into two crescent moons as she smiled. They looked exactly the same as Nangong Nuannuan's beautiful smiling eyes.

"Aunt, this is for you. I don't know what you like, so I'm giving you this straight away. You can use it to buy whatever you like."

After Lil Ling'er handed her gift over, it was Lil Sun's turn. Nangong Nuannuan saw that Lil Sun was holding a thick red packet.

Three black lines rolled down her forehead. Did she look like someone who lacked money?

"Aunt, even though I know you don't lack money, I earned this money myself."

Nuannuan raised an eyebrow. "Oh? How did you earn it?"

Lil Sun coughed awkwardly. "I can't tell you that. Anyway, it's not given to me by our family. Auntie, just accept it. This is my way of showing my respect to you as your nephew."

Nuannuan accepted the red packet and could not help but open it to take a look inside.

Wow, they were all ten bucks that accumulated to around 200 pieces. How generous!

"You two are so cute. Come, let Auntie give you a kiss!" Then, without waiting for the two little buns to react, she forced a few huge kisses on Lil Ling'er and Lil Sun's faces.
