Chapter 1361: Giving Warmth

When Chi Yang saw this, his eyes darkened and he held back his words.

After the two little buns delivered their gifts, the Nangong family's young masters could not wait to deliver their gifts as well.

"It's not the Lunar New Year yet!" Nuannuan looked at the pile of presents in her arms and felt very happy. This was the first time in her life that she had received a New Year's gift from her family.

"This is not a New Year's gift. This is a gift to congratulate you on winning the competition," Nangong Jin, the eldest, explained with a smile. The five imposing-looking older brothers also chuckled happily.

Feeling the sincere blessings from her family and seeing how happy they were for her even though she was the one who won the competition, Nuannuan felt warm inside.

The next day was Lunar New Year's Eve.

The smell of New Year was especially strong in Emperor District. Every family had been busy since morning, all for the New Year's Eve dinner.

Other than the old butler, the Chi family's servants all had family members. So, early in the morning, after the old master gave the servants a red packet each for the New Year, everyone left happily after paying their respects to the Chi family.

The Nangong family and the Chi family were naturally celebrating the new year together, so Second Uncle Chi and Second Uncle Nangong started to get busy early in the morning.

Nuannuan rolled around in bed, waiting for the bathroom door to open as she scrolled through the news on her phone.

When she was nearly done and about to turn it off when she saw a piece of news that came in the form of a tiny link.

[This is the reason why a rich girl turned into a murderer!!!]

This was a typical news article used to clickbait old people to press on it out of curiosity, but Nuannuan still clicked on it out of habit to check if someone had died.

After clicking on it, Nuannuan was surprised to see someone she knew and was quite familiar with.

At that moment, Chi Yang walked out of the bathroom with only a towel wrapped around his lower body, leaving his upper body bare. With his perfect body, smooth lines, and handsome face, he looked like a demon that had absorbed the moonlight.

Looking at the soft girl curled up as obedient as a kitten on his bed, Chi Yang leaned over and kissed her lips.

"I'm going to the special forces. What about you? Do you want to come with me?"

Nuannuan paused. "Didn't you say that you can skip heading to the special forces today since it's the holiday?"

"I should go and take a look anyway. After all, there are still many soldiers left behind to stand guard."

Nuannuan smiled. "The commander is so nice."

Chi Yang smiled and pulled the girl's face that was still bouncing with collagen. He kissed her again.

"Then, Mrs. Commander, do you want to come with me?"

Nuannuan thought for a moment. "How long will it take for you to come back?"

"Around two or three in the afternoon."

"Then, I won't be going. I need to pick a present for people at home in the morning."

Chi Yang nodded. "Okay." Then, he kissed Nuannuan.

Nuannuan watched as Chi Yang took off the towel and put on his clothes slowly until he completed his military outfit. As he hooked on the last button on his shirt, Chi Yang transformed from a seductive beautiful man into a handsome, untouchable god. Nuannuan's eyes seemed to be filled with stars.

After Chi Yang left, Nuannuan left with Aiden and Selina. Dan Qi insisted on staying at the Chi residence to watch dramas, so she did not invite him.

Upon arriving at Northgate Prison, Aiden and Selina were both slightly stunned.

"Boss, why did you come to the prison during the holidays? To send warmth?"

"Uh-huh." Nuannuan said to Aiden and Selina, "Wait for me in the car. I'm going in to visit someone."

Chapter 1362: Prison Visit

"What are you here for?"

"Prison visit."

"There are no prison visits today. You can come back at the right time," the prison guard answered emotionlessly.

Nangong Nuannuan took out the pass given to her by the Nangong family. Although she did not know if it was useful, her grandfather had given it to her after all. He said that with this, it would be more convenient for her to move around in places related to the military.

The prison guard's austere expression froze when he saw the advanced clearance pass in Nuannuan's hand.

He gave Nuannuan an immediate bow and personally led her in.

After passing through the gates, the prison guard immediately contacted the warden to tell him that someone had come in with an advanced pass.

This clearance pass could only be obtained by a commander with special status in the military base, so the warden did not dare to be negligent and jogged out immediately.

"Madam, you are..."

"My name is Nangong Nuannuan. I'm here to visit a criminal named Jiang Shuwan."

There was only one family with a surname like Nangong in the entire Camino. It was a very recognizable surname. Upon hearing that the person was actually the Nangong family's young miss, the warden immediately cleared things up for her.

"Sure, sure. Please follow me to the conference room. I'll bring Jiang Shuwan here later."

Nuannuan nodded. "Thank you."

"You're too kind, Miss Nangong."

Nangong Nuannuan waited in the meeting room for five minutes before the door opened up once more.

Jiang Shuwan used to dress herself up in all sorts of glamorous ways daily. Since she went through multiple plastic surgeries, she looked like she was in her early thirties even though she was already in her forties. However, after not seeing her for a full month, none of her previous glam remained.

Her hair streaked with white, prisoner's uniform, dry lips, and mottled cheeks made her look like she was in her fifties.

"It's only been a month, and you've already turned yourself into this mess. Just think about how I got locked up in prison for a month for your daughter. You even got a prison officer to kill me. Even so, I looked much better than you are right now when I came out."

Jiang Shuwan knew that Nangong Nuannuan was here, and she knew that nothing good would ensue. She also understood that this woman was here to gloat at her.

Therefore, despite knowing that Nangong Nuannuan had regained her identity, Jiang Shuwan was not going to treat Nangong Nuannuan nicely.

Initially, she was sentenced to a death sentence with reprieve. Later, she remained out of trouble and that changed her sentence to life imprisonment. To put it bluntly, this woman wanted to torture Jiang Shuwan by letting her spend the rest of her life in prison until her death.

"Zhong Nuannuan, you shameless b*tch. You're just like your mother, a b*tch who steals other people's men. Don't even think about making me beg you. Let me tell you, the best choice I've ever made in my life was to kill your mother and take over her inheritance. If I had another chance, I'd do the same. At least, I relied on her money to survive those beautiful 17 years and let my daughter become the young lady of the Gu family. I'm happy even if I'll have to spend the rest of my life in prison. Hahaha..."

Looking at the remorseless Jiang Shuwan, the prison guard was about to beat her into submission, but Nangong Nuannuan stopped her.

Chapter 1363: Enmity

"You should wait outside the door. I'd like to speak to her alone."

The prison guard thought for a moment and immediately replied, "Yes, Miss. Please summon me instantly if there's anything."

"Okay." Nangong Nuannuan revealed a warm smile, which made the prison guard like her even more.

After waiting for the prison guard to be gone, Jiang Shuwan sneered. "Zhong Nuannuan, you've ruined me. Why do you have to come over personally to make fun of me now that you have such a precious status? Don't you think that's low, even for you?"

A small smile appeared on Nangong Nuannuan's face. "It's a little low-class, and that's why I've never visited you even after you've been arrested for so long. However... I saw a piece of news today, and I assume you might want to see it. No matter what, you've been wearing my mother's hat for so long. If I got hold of the news that I know you'd want to know, I should at least allow you the right to know."

Jiang Shuwan frowned a little. After digesting what Zhong Nuannuan said, an image of Zhong Qianqian flashed across her mind and her expression transformed into a sinister and loathful one.

"Zhong Nuannuan, you've already gotten the man you want and the identity you want. Qianqian doesn't know anything. I'm the mastermind behind all that, so I advise you not to touch her. She's your half-sister after all."

Hearing this, Nangong Nuannuan smiled wider.

"Jiang Shuwan, I've never been able to understand how your brain works. After what you've done to my mother and me, you're playing the family card with me now? Are you crazy?"

"I'm not playing the family card with you. I'm threatening you!" Jiang Shuwan said, "If you dare do anything to Qianqian, I won't let you off even if I become a ghost!"

Jiang Shuwan's eyes were wide open, and her eyes were bloodshot. Accompanied by her chapped lips and aged look, she did look rather terrifying.

However...

"Hehe, I wasn't afraid of you when you're human. So... What makes you think that I'd be scared of you after you become a ghost?"

Jiang Shuwan was struck dumb for a second. Was this woman not afraid of ghosts?

Nangong Nuannuan said with piqued interest, "Will you believe me if I say that the second you turn into a ghost, I'd immediately invite a ghost catcher over? I heard that ghost catchers can store malicious ghosts in a container, and then I'd make sure that you could see how happy I'd be from inside the container every day. How about that? Are you interested in giving it a try?"

Jiang Shuwan, "..."

Talking to this woman who never played her cards in a normal sequence but could kill you the moment she played her cards reminded Jiang Shuwan how much she did not want to speak to Zhong Nuannuan.

"Did you come here today to chitchat with me? Didn't you say you have news for me?"

Still smiling, Nangong Nuannuan replied, "No rush, no rush. Before I show you the news, don't you want to know how Zhong Qianqian's doing recently?"

Jiang Shuwan truly loved her daughter, Zhong Qianqian. Therefore, when she heard Zhong Nuannuan mention Zhong Qianqian, she clenched her fists. Her face was suddenly anxious while her voice trembled involuntarily.

"You evil woman, what did you do to my Qianqian?"

"Hey, don't just throw the blame on me like that! Just like you said, Zhong Qianqian is my half-sister after all. I don't have any reason to let Zhong Qianqian bear the consequences of your mistakes, right?"

Jiang Shuwan felt slightly better after hearing that.

"However..."

As she heard the twist in Nangong Nuannuan's words, Jiang Shuwan felt nervous again.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1364: Demon

"Although I didn't do anything to her, your wonderful son-in-law is cruel beyond what is acceptable to normal people. Did you know that when the Nangong family held the press conference to acknowledge me as their family, Zhong Qianqian was already pregnant with Gu Mingzhe's child?"

Jiang Shuwan, "...!!!"

"Then? How is Qianqian now? What did Gu Mingzhe do to Qianqian?"

"At the time, Zhong Qianqian ran back to Jiang District and tried to claim the hundred million bucks that my mother left behind before running away. Unfortunately, I discovered her plans and stopped her..."

"Jiang Shuwan, can you switch up your vocabulary? You stole my mother's inheritance and called me a b*tch? Well, what I did was stop the RS Bank employee from transferring money just as she was about to get the money, but I didn't do anything to hurt her! I even did her a favor and reminded her that she was pregnant. You have no idea how happy she was at that time.

"I didn't even tell her that the baby in her stomach was unstable before she ran away. After she ran back to the Gu family, she wanted the Gu family to bring her in because of the child. Tsk tsk, do you know how far the Gu family went? In the minus-ten degree celsius winter, they let a pregnant woman stand outside for a long time. When they finally opened the door, they poured hot water on her. That person who used to call Zhong Qianqian her sister... Oh, Huang Yuhuan. She hit Zhong Qianqian with a basin and yelled at her. Zhong Qianqian fell to the ground, clutching her stomach, and begged Gu Mingzhe to help her. At the same time, she accused Huang Yuhan of hurting his child, but Gu Mingzhe lifted a leg and kicked her stomach instead..."

"Argh! I don't want to hear it! I don't want to hear it— You're lying! Zhong Nuannuan, you b*tch, you're lying to me!"

"Why would I lie to you?" Nangong Nuannuan smiled and said, "After all, we're half-sisters from the same father. My blood flows in her body too. It's a pity that the father kicked his child to death before the child could even take form. The Gu family even issued a statement to end their marriage unilaterally. You must know that it was something that the Gu family would do."

"Zhong. Nuan. Nuan!" Jiang Shuwan gritted her teeth. How she wished she could skin Nangong Nuannuan alive right now. This woman! Everything that happened to Qianqian was because of her!

However, her fierceness could not trigger the slightest fear in Nangong Nuannuan.

"Zhong Qianqian never had enough brain cells to go around anyway but she loved to think that she was the smartest person in the world, even though reality had proven that she was as dumb as a pig. Therefore, without the Gu family's protection, she could only become a prostitute and latch herself onto a rich man. She had such bad luck that the rich man she found was a pervert, and he tortured her until she was riddled with holes."

Jiang Shuwan bit her lips until they were bleeding, and she clenched her fingernails into her palms. Even though anger nearly seeped out of her face, she still had to listen to everything Nangong Nuannuan said.

"At this time, I thought that as her younger sister, I should at least help her, so I gave her the option to livestream herself eating poop. As long as she ate three catties of shit, I'd let Gu Group go, thus leading to Gu Mingzhe letting her go. Guess what happened? She cried and ate all the shit. What a talent!"

"Zhong Nuannuan, you demon! Demon! You demon! I'm going to kill you!"

Forget about the handcuffs on her hands, even if Jiang Shuwan was not cuffed, a hundred Jiang Shuwan would fail to defeat Nangong Nuannuan when it came to a fight.

Nangong Nuannuan raised her leg and leaned the table forward, blocking Jiang Shuwan. With that, Jiang Shuwan could not even get close to Nangong Nuannuan.

Chapter 1365: Zhong Qianqian's End

Seeing that, the prison guard ran in to stop Jiang Shuwan, while Nangong Nuannuan stood up, bored, and threw a piece of paper to Jiang Shuwan. She printed the news on the piece of paper.

"Jiang Shuwan, the heavens are always watching and karma's a b*tch. It's ridiculous that you would say something like you'd kill my mother with Zhong Kuijun all over again if you could. Do you know that everything you've done has been repaid by your beloved daughter? Now, let your daughter apologize to my mother in your place. Meanwhile, you can enjoy prison to the maximum! Happy New Year, Stepmom!"

Jiang Shuwan picked it up hastily and read the headline.

[This is the reason why a rich girl turned into a murderer!!!]

Her eyes moved frantically downward to see the image of a corpse lying on the ground. Her eyes were open and her body was covered in blood. The person lying alone on the ground was her daughter!

Jiang Shuwan felt like she had been struck by lightning. Her ears rang instantly as her eyes fled over to the content.

The news wrote that two girls who were once famous socialites from Jiang District fought on the streets, and one of them killed the other.

The person who was killed was her daughter, Zhong Qianqian.

Meanwhile, the murderer was...

Ye Mengxi!

Jiang Shuwan never expected that her daughter would die in Ye Mengxi's hands. After reading the news in detail that Jiang Shuwan found out it was related to the incident when Zhong Qianqian posted a Weibo post about her engagement when they were still in school. However, Ye Mengxi registered a smurf Weibo account with the name, YouAreAB*tch to defame Zhong Nuannuan.

At that time, they thought that Zhong Nuannuan was the culprit and scolded her through the phone.

In the end, the police dug up the information on the ID and found Ye Mengxi on the spot.

Zhong Qianqian and Ye Mengxi got into a fight at school. Zhong Qianqian then posted a video of Ye Mengxi's father and aunt having sex together.

Ye Mengxi's happy family fell apart instantly, and Zhong Qianqian added fuel to the fire, making Gu Mingzhe destroy the Ye family.

It was all Zhong Qianqian's fault that she ended up like this.

Therefore, when she saw Zhong Qianqian wandering around Jiang District and picking up clients who were supposed to be Ye Mengxi's, Ye Mengxi lost her temper and got into a fight with Zhong Qianqian.

However, due to her hatred, Ye Mengxi took out the dagger hidden in her clothes and stabbed Zhong Qianqian more than 30 times. That destroyed Zhong Qianqian's entire body into mush.

Although Ye Mengxi was ultimately sentenced to death, Zhong Qianqian had also died miserably.

Jiang Shuwan stared at the news in shock. Dazed, she stared at the girl with horrified eyes above a body so skinny she looked disfigured.

This...

This was her precious baby!

Jiang Shuwan's love for Zhong Qianqian was undeniably real. Otherwise, she would not have forced Zhong Kuijun to sign the consent form to transfer Zhong Nuannuan's bone marrow when Zhong Qianqian got leukemia. After all, she already knew that Zhong Nuannuan was their golden goose at that time.

What they were not aware of, back then, was that once the bone marrow transplant was successful, Qianqian would have Nangong Nuannuan's DNA.

Jiang Shuwan was a greedy woman. Yet, she would rather give everything up—including every single cent—just to exchange Nangong Nuannuan's life for Zhong Qianqian's. That just went on to show how great her love for Zhong Qianqian was.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1366: A Terrible Death

Now, not only was Nangong Nuannuan safe and sound, but she had also become a top socialite in Camino. Meanwhile, Jiang Shuwan's beloved Qianqian suffered so much inhumane abuse and was even killed after losing so much weight.

How could Jiang Shuwan accept that?

Jiang Shuwan was furious that blood nearly flowed out of her eyes. She screamed at the top of her lungs that she wanted to kill Nangong Nuannuan and made sure that Nangong Nuannuan would never live a peaceful life ever again.

However, her hands were cuffed, and she no longer had the right to freedom. How could she give Nangong Nuannuan a horrible death?

However...

Initially, Nangong Nuannuan had long forgotten a minor character like Jiang Shuwan, but she never expected to see news of Zhong Qianqian's murder. Only then did she recall that someone like Jiang Shuwan deserved more than just rotting in prison peacefully.

Up until Jiang Shuwan was arrested and sentenced to death, Nangong Nuannuan had never wondered about her. After her brief visit today, Nangong Nuannuan confirmed that the woman did not show any remorse at all. Moreover, she still thought that her precious Zhong Qianqian had already become the young lady of the Gu family.

Although Nangong Nuannuan did not know how sad Jiang Shuwan would be when she read the news, recalling how persistent Jiang Shuwan was in sacrificing Nuannuan's inheritance just to save Zhong Qianqian, Nuannuan assumed that it would give Jiang Shuwan a huge blow.

Walking out of the prison, the sun shone brightly. The streets and trees were covered in a sheen of beautiful silver.

"Boss, is it done?"

"Mhmm."

"Boss, what should we do now?"

"Let's go and see where the Imperial Phoenix Group is located before going to Tianheng Holdings for gift shopping."

"Alrighty."

Imperial Phoenix Group was located on the most luxurious commercial street in the entire Emperor District. This street was the main road that stretched across the entire Emperor District. On both sides of the road were well-known enterprises.

Meanwhile, Imperial Phoenix chose the centermost skyscraper, which was referred to as the main building.

All of the 77 floors in the entire building were occupied by Imperial Phoenix Group—the only company operating in this building.

The industries that Imperial Phoenix was involved in included quarries, mines, riverbeds, and other explosive industries. Military, technology, pharmaceuticals, and other technical industries were also included. Other than that, Imperial Phoenix also owned department stores, film, hotels, and other service industries.

It had expanded into nearly all industries that could make money.

Therefore, even though this building with 77 floors looked spectacular, it could not house all the employees of Imperial Phoenix Group.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the tall building and asked with a frown, "Why is there only one building?"

My dear sister!

Aiden looked at his troublesome sister with a bitter expression and explained, "Boss, this building is already the best in this area. There's only one. I had to expend a great deal of effort to make all the companies here move away within two days. Look at the surrounding commercial buildings. Which one of them is more stylish than this building?"

"But one building isn't enough! How can the employees of Imperial Phoenix Group compromise and work in small cubicles?"

"Boss, this place is one of the most important areas in Emperor District, and this building is the most iconic in this area. That's the reason I moved the headquarters for Imperial Phoenix Group here so that we can settle here. However, this is the reception storefront. The real executive departments, as well as the offices and factories with various industrial chains, are all located at the industrial zone thirty minutes away from here."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1367: What Is Money For?

"Since many international superstars are connected to Imperial Phoenix Film Industry, they will often come here too. Thus, I've chosen another location so that they can be separated from the headquarters."

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at the buildings on both sides of the main building. They looked completely different from the main building. The more she looked at them, the more she disliked them. Finally, she said, "This building, this building, that building, and that building. Think of a way to persuade the owners of these four buildings into demolition. We'll purchase the land and build four secondary buildings. Then, we'll rebuild the surrounding area. Wouldn't that be awesome?"

After saying that, Nuannuan even gave the main building a glance of disdain. "This building looks fine, but to say that it's a landmark in Emperor District is a little far-fetched. Since we're going to make it a landmark, we must make sure it looks the part."

Aiden, "... Yes!!!"

He had always known that Boss was a domineering person. Other department stores would only occupy one building, but her department store must be the size of a small town. The land space it occupied would terrify anyone.

Therefore, whenever she dictated such an extra request, as the vice-president, Aiden could only agree because this was indeed something his boss liked to do.

"Then, I'll go talk to someone about the demolition tomorrow. These two buildings and the main building were recently built, so it might be more expensive to demolish them."

"To be spent!" Selina, who had not said anything, butted in immediately.

Nangong Nuannuan gave her an appreciative look.

"Hear that? We must use the money that we've earned. Otherwise, what's the point of keeping them?"

Selina continued to speak as though she knew what she was talking about, "That's right. It's just a few buildings to be demolished and rebuilt. That amount of expenditure won't even be a dent in our Boss' wallet!"

Aiden, "..."

Fortunately, Imperial Phoenix Group had always been under the management of Big Bro, Big Sis Yue, and Aiden. If it had been managed by Boss and Selina, they would have lost everything sooner or later no matter how much money they earned.

Boss only knew ways to earn money. In terms of management, she was a complete amateur.

Since the internal relocation to the main building had just been completed, there were still some changes to be made to the outer walls and internal planning to be carried out. Nangong Nuannuan was a complete layman when it came to this aspect. As such, she did not participate. She had complete trust in Aiden's ability when it came to management.

"By the way, how's Leng Qirui doing with his online operation?"

"We already have a preliminary structure, but there are still many voices of dissent within the company. After all, this is something hard to achieve, and they've been operating at a loss since this plan started."

"Selina, ask your Young Brother Leng if he needs our money. If he does, we'll invest immediately."

"Boss, you're the best! You even want to help my Young Brother Leng!" Selina giggled and agreed.

Aiden never expect his Boss, who never had any talent in business management, to interfere in this matter. "Boss, do you have high hopes for Lil Rui's idea?"

"It's more than that! I'm telling you now—whatever amount he lacks, we'll invest." After all, online sales and logistics would become a huge chunk of meat that everyone wanted a bite of in the future. The losses they faced right now would pave the way for the massive profit they would gain.

Aiden nodded. "Fine, I'll talk to him about this matter. The Leng Group isn't short of money, but the higher admins rely on the company's performance for a living. If the company makes less profit, it'll affect their income for sure."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1368: Uncontested

"So, even if Lil Rui has already made the necessary arrangements for this and obtained the agreement from his subordinates, they're still finding all sorts of excuses in private to try and delay this project."

Nangong Nuannuan nodded. "Right on time, then. Tell Leng Qirui about this and see if he'll welcome our participation."

"If Lil Rui knows that you're willing to join, he'll definitely agree," Aiden said as Leng Qirui's elder brother would.

After checking out Imperial Phoenix's headquarters, the group went to Tianheng Holdings.

In the early days, when stricter rules on mineral management had yet to be implemented in various countries, Nuannuan used her supernatural ability to buy mines, riverbeds, and rare resources from all over the world, hence accumulating a large amount of wealth. As they were all mercenaries, the first thing they did together was research and sell weapons.

Aiden was a top-notch mechanic. Before KE's destruction, many mercenaries wanted to make money too. Hence, Aiden joined hands with a group of mechanics, who were extremely talented in weapons, to research and develop many weapons.

Their weapon sales could be said to be a huge profit in every country and organization around the world. However, high profits also came with high risks. Although it was legal to sell weapons in Sab, many countries had explicitly prohibited private purchases. Anyone who were found breaching this law would be punished.

Then again, what kind of people were Feng Shengxuan and his companions? Why would they only sell through the legal channels? After all, in terms of weapon sales, they could sell the weapons to private entities at three times the price sold to the public.

Coincidentally, at that time, Nuannuan also asked Aiden to take the money and establish several dozens of Tianheng Holdings units across the world.

Nuannuan never had a proper childhood but she yearned for her missing childhood so much that she turned what was supposed to be a department store into a kingdom of fairytales brought to life in dreamy colors. Therefore, after Tianheng Holdings made its entrance, they made huge profits instantly.

As a result, Tianheng Holdings now became a place that could turn darkness into daylight.

After that, no matter how many businesses were under Imperial Phoenix's control, Tianheng Holdings was never placed under Imperial Phoenix. It was the only independent existence among the countless businesses under Nuannuan.

Just by relying on Tianheng Holdings, Nuannuan managed to reach the top 50 of the global richest people's list.

Tianheng Holdings' business was especially good in Emperor District and Sea District, so they expanded into two branches in both cities.

It was Lunar New Year's Eve today. Even the famous Tianheng Holdings would close at three o'clock in the afternoon, so many wealthy people came out to buy gifts in the morning.

"Aiden, when Leng Qirui's online platform is ready, we'll start developing mediums that center on children's experiences and food and beverages in Camino."

Aiden was startled. He brooded for a moment and finally understood Nangong Nuannuan's words with his superior business sense.

"Boss, you're wise."

Selina did not understand. "Why would such a high-end department store like Tianheng Holdings do catering? Isn't that a downgrade?"

Aiden explained, "Once Lil Rui's online shopping platform takes off, there will definitely be a major industrial adjustment. Think about it, if everyone goes shopping online, will Tianheng Holdings' business be as good as before?"

Selina's eyes lit up. "Our Young Brother Leng is so awesome and he can successfully snatch Tianheng Holdings' customers over?"

After all, Tianheng Holdings was the world's uncontested number one department store.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1369: Business

"Lil Rui came up with a great idea; his probability of success is greater than 95%. So, to avoid Tianheng Holdings from being impacted, we won't just be allowing wealthy consumers in by gradually lowering the standards of purchase in Camino's Tianheng, but there will be more ordinary people coming in to enjoy the environment we provide. Being able to enjoy themselves in our experience zone the entire day will give us an extremely considerable source of income."

"Focus on children's experiences," Nangong Nuannuan reminded Aiden.

"Yes." Aiden nodded before narrowing his eyes slightly.

Nangong Nuannuan noticed that Aiden was scrutinizing her and asked, "Why are you looking at me like that?"

"Boss, I realized something."

"What?"

"In the past, I thought you had no talent in business management. Yet now, I realize that your talent in business management is extraordinary. How about... why don't you come to the company and learn management from me?"

"Get lost!"

She was the one earning money, yet they still wanted her in management. Hurk hurk hurk, Nangong Nuannuan would ignore them!

Nuannuan dragged Aiden and Selina along as they visited various shops in Tianheng to buy gifts for her family. When the employees in those shops met their boss, they all received her with the greatest enthusiasm.

They visited the last shop and were about to leave when a group of people walked into the store with workers' passes dangling on their necks.

The staff did not understand what was going on and went forward to receive them politely. However, the leader of the group was not being polite at all.

"Get your chairman here."

They asked for the chairman the second they opened their mouths. The manager who was waiting on the boss—as she purchased some clothing from the shop—frowned slightly before heading out first.

"Sir, may I know who you are? What business do you have with our chairman?"

"What business do we have?" The leader sneered. "Who are you?"

"I am the manager of this store, Vivi's Children's Clothing."

"You're just a manager. Do you even have the right to deal with the matters I'm about to tell you for your company?"

The manager smiled. "Sir, although I can't handle it immediately, I'll submit your suggestions and ideas to our executive officer immediately."

"Don't give me trash. Summon your Nangong Nuannuan now. Don't you ever think that all of you can be high and mighty just because you have the Nangong family backing you up. Our Camino is a country governed by laws."

Nangong Nuannuan, who became a lawless citizen out of nowhere, "..."

"Sir, Nangong Nuannuan is our chairman. She doesn't usually handle trivial matters, so if you may voice your concerns to me and I will pass it on to our vice-president."

"I already said I want to see Nangong Nuannuan. Hurry up and call her. Don't dawdle."

The manager's robotic smile continued to sit on his face. "I'm sorry, sir. I'm afraid we can't do that."

"Can't do it?" The person did not get angry; he smirked. "If you can't do it, then don't blame us for causing trouble."

After saying that, he instructed his subordinates, "Ask the city building inspectors to seal up Tianheng Holdings."

Nangong Nuannuan, Aiden, and Selina all blinked in a daze.

Ask the city's building inspectors... to investigate and seal up Tianheng Holdings?

What was wrong with them?

However, it was obvious that this party had come with the intention to cause trouble. After the person behind him heard the order, he immediately made a call and said, "Get three truckloads of people to come and seal up the place."

The manager was also dumbfounded.

Tianheng Holdings was one of the major taxpayers in Camino, a well-known pioneer company. Even those government officials were friendly toward their branch's general manager. Yet, a group of city building inspectors wanted to come over and seal them up for further investigation?

Chapter 1370: Fire Protection

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and walked up to the man. "May I ask why are you sealing up my Tianheng Holdings?"

The man had already spotted Nangong Nuannuan and Selina when he entered. After all, the two women had such eye-catching beauty.

However, what did this woman say?

Her Tianheng Holdings?

The man was stunned for a moment. In the face of such a beautiful woman exuding such a strong aura, he could not help but soften his tone and discard his previous arrogance.

"You... are the chairman of Tianheng Holdings?"

Nangong Nuannuan cracked a small smile. "That's right, I'm Nangong Nuannuan. May I know why you're shutting down my shop over a verbal disagreement?"

Under Nangong Nuannuan's forceful gaze, that person could not help but gulp down a mouthful of saliva. Then, he said, "Your fire protection doesn't fulfill the current standards."

"Oh? Could I know which part of my fire protection fails to reach the current standards? Also, which department are you from?"

"I'm from the subdistrict's administrative agency in the district. It's the end of the year, and we need to conduct a security check on the fire protection system for every building. Come and take a look for yourself. What kind of fire protection is this?"

"Look at this building. It's obviously made of wood, and there are so many clothes inside. It's obviously a flammable area, but where is your fire-fighting equipment?"

"We only saw one fire-fighting equipment located at a remote corner five hundred meters away. After checking it out earlier, we found out that the fire hydrant isn't connected to a water source. You're such a big mall, but you don't even have basic fire protection. If I don't seal your store, who will?"

After the proprietor finished his sentence, he realized that everyone was looking at him like he was an idiot.

At this moment, Aiden's phone rang.

Aiden sneered after hearing the words from the other line. "Let them smash."

With that, Aiden turned his gaze to the proprietor.

"Bros, you're really fast! You just made a phone call, and you're already in the process of sealing my two stores in the south and north of the city. How can you be so ruthless just because you're from the subdistrict's administrative agency? And did I hear you saying that we broke the law? You're embarrassing us in front of so many customers. Are you trying to ruin our business prospects?"

The man from the subdistrict's administrative agency glanced at Aiden with displeasure. "Who are you? Your chairman hasn't even spoken yet. What right do you have to speak to me?"

"I'm the executive chairman of Tianheng Holdings, Aiden. Get that through your head."

The man froze momentarily.

"You claim to be an internationally-renowned company, but you don't even have the most basic fire protection. Isn't that a bit unreasonable? It's not that I wish to go against you and embarrass you. When you're done making the changes, that's when you reopen."

Aiden said, "So, fire protection is under subdistrict's administration agency's jurisdiction, I see. I've learned something new today."

The subdistrict inspector, "..."

"You might not know this, but our fire protection has once been listed as an exemplary model and praised by the district's fire department."

The subdistrict inspector, "..."

"I can tell you very clearly that the fire hydrant that you mentioned earlier was an obsolete one, therefore, it has no water. Meanwhile, there's a fire hydrant outside each of our specialty stores, just like the one in front of you."

The subdistrict inspector was stunned.

He was currently standing on a piece of lawn with a large mushroom in front of him. Aiden bent down and opened up the mushroom. Inside was a fire hydrant.
