Chapter 1381: Trick

It was as if someone reached into his chest and gripped his heart tightly. At this moment, the hand that suffocated him suddenly disappeared.

Chi Yang looked at the girl in front of him with a profound gaze. His eyes which were as cold as a lake that froze over a hundred thousand years ago melted.

"Sure."

After receiving Big Brother Chi Yang's affirmation, Nuannuan finally had a clear idea of the kind of attitude Grandpa Chi and Big Brother Chi Yang had toward Zhou Ruxue. With that, she knew how to deal with this situation.

"Big Brother Chi Yang is the best!"

When Grandpa Chi saw the couple's heartwarming interaction, his gloomy mood was instantly lifted. He took out the check with seven million bucks from his wallet and handed it to Nuannuan. "Little Girl, this is for you too. Consider it New Year's money from me."

Nuannuan's eyes lit up, and she accepted the check without hesitation. After all, both Grandpa and Big Brother Chi Yang hated this woman so much. Even if they were short of money, they would never accept her money, not to mention the Chi family was very well-off.

"Thank you, Grandpa. Happy New Year, Grandpa. I hope that you're blessed with health, a long life, and happiness every day!" As Nuannuan retrieved the check from him, she uttered many well-wishes without thinking. The old master laughed out loud in spite of himself, even though he had been greatly dismayed a moment ago.

He lamented that everyone in his family was too austere. They would be at a disadvantage against a woman like Zhou Ruxue. Little Girl Nuan with her childlike temper was perfect to deal with Zhou Ruxue.

He recalled how Zhou Ruxue still acted as if she had done nothing wrong after doing the worst to the Chi family; pretending that the Chi family was indebted to her. Looking at her twisted expression now, Grandpa Chi felt a sense of satisfaction.

"Nan. Gong. Nuan. Nuan!"

"Ms. Zhou, what's the matter? If there's nothing else, I'll be taking my leave now. After all, it's Chinese New Year's Eve, and we still have a reunion dinner to return to."

"Since you've accepted these checks, you must break up with Chi Yang!"

"Why should I?"

Zhou Ruxue was so angry that she nearly choked.

"I just told you that this is payment for your breakup. Since you accepted the breakup fee, you should break up with Chi Yang!"

Nuannuan blinked her beautiful big eyes.

"Ms. Zhou, we might be able to eat whatever we want, but we can't say whatever we want. What breakup fee? Isn't this your New Year's money as a sign of respect to the Chi family? When have I ever agreed to break up with Big Brother Chi Yang? I'm telling you; our feelings for each other is more long-lasting than gold. Even if a time came where you would divorce your husband, I would never break up with Big Brother Chi Yang."

"How dare you trick me?" Zhou Ruxue went through so much difficulty to lobby this sum of money from her husband. She had only taken fifty million, and she had given a fifth to this little b*tch. However, this little b*tch had cheated her of the money without even spitting out a single air bubble.

"Ms. Zhou, how can you say that? You willingly gave me the money; I didn't ask you for it. How can you accuse me of tricking you? I'm the eldest daughter of the Nangong family, a socialite from a prestigious family. Do I need to trick you for ten million bucks? Don't slander me! If you slander me, the Nangong family will sue you."

"You..."

"Thank you, Ms. Zhou, for treating me to this afternoon tea. The food here is rather wonderful, so I'll visit this place more frequently. So... Ms. Zhou, I wish you a Happy New Year. I hope that you're blessed with a lot of children and prosperity!"

With that, she held Chi Yang with one hand and Old Master Chi with the other. "Grandpa, Big Brother Chi Yang, let's go!"

At that moment, Chi Yang's ruffled fur had been smoothed out, and the old master's anger had already been replaced by smiles.

Chapter 1382: Compensation

"Grandpa, are Second Uncle Chi and Second Uncle Nangong done preparing dinner? When can we have dinner tonight?"

"Little Girl, aren't you full from eating so many desserts? Can you still eat dinner?"

"Those desserts are insignificant! The portions were so small all of them got stuck between my teeth!"

Chi Yang finally blurted, "Grandpa, there's a pharmacy down there. Wait for me, I'll buy some digestive pills for later, just in case."

"Hehehe, sure, sure, sure."

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you underestimate me."

"I'm doing this so that you can eat more tonight. Can the dessert here be as good as the reunion dinner that Second Uncle pours his blood, sweat, and tears into?"

"Hehe, that's true. Second Uncle is making lots of my favorite food tonight."

"Your second uncle dotes on you the most," the old master chimed in.

Zhou Ruxue was furious as she watched the three of them disappear.

She had never expected her son, who would be overtaken by urticaria whenever he got close to a woman—his mother included—to withstand getting close to a woman.

It seemed like she had really underestimated this once down-and-out rich daughter of the Nangong family.

Zhou Ruxue had not just failed to help Shi Yalin settle this matter by sending this woman away from Chi Yang, but she also lost ten million bucks.

Zhou Ruxue wanted to go to court to sue Nangong Nuannuan, but she realized that she did not bring any recording or video equipment with her. Even if she brought this to court, she had no evidence.

She thought of countless ways to get the money back, but none of them was plausible. Zhou Ruxue was so angry that she swept the glass on the table onto the floor.

Hearing the noise in the private room, the waiters immediately rushed over. As they helped clean the room, they inquired if Zhou Ruxue was hurt. Zhou Ruxue strode out and yelled at the front desk for the bill.

The waiter replied politely, "Ma'am, you've spent a total of 85046 yuan. Would you like to pay in cash or card?"

Zhou Ruxue thought that she misheard what the waiter said. "How much was the bill again?"

"Ma'am, the total is 85046 yuan. This is your receipt. The glass that you broke earlier was a royal crystal glass that our boss specially ordered from F Country. It costs 27800 yuan."

"Do you know who I am? How dare you extort me?" Zhou Ruxue glared at the waiter and took out her phone. She threatened, "I'm telling you, I'm the Pei family's young lady. If you dare bring up the word 'compensation', I'll make your boss suffer!"

The waiter looked helpless. "Young Lady Pei, please calm down. We're just employees here. We're not trying to extort you with the glass. The glass is expensive, to begin with. If you don't believe me... um, you may call the police?"

Zhou Ruxue was already overflowing with anger, and now, she insisted on going against this ridiculous store. She immediately called the police, and she even called the Pei family's relevant personnel, threatening to close down the place.

Later, the police came. After some investigation, they also agreed that Zhou Ruxue should compensate them for the broken glass. Zhou Ruxue scolded the police too. After dragging the police down to wait with her for more than an hour later, someone from the Pei family finally answered her call.

Seeing the caller ID, Zhou Ruxue's glare softened. "Ji Tong, why did you call me? Is it because you've heard about how I got extorted?"

On the other end of the phone, a gentle and elegant voice sounded. "Lil Ru, I know you've been wronged, but this club belongs to Shengyang Group. We can't afford to mess with them at the moment. It's just 80000 bucks."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1383: Bustling

"I'm sure Shengyang Group won't go out of their way to set us up for 80000 bucks. Calm down and hurry back, okay?"

What? Shengyang Group? The same Shengyang Group that joined the ranks of the first-tier wealthy families just by their financial resources alone?

The mysterious Shengyang Group that even the Shi family would be at a disadvantage against?

Zhou Ruxue's expression turned as sour as a lemon once again. She snorted and threw her card at the front desk. "Take my card!"

The waiter acted as if nothing had happened. He received the card with both hands and swiped the card on the machine. Then, the group of waiters smiled at Zhou Ruxue before giving her a right-angle bow. They said in unison, "Please visit us again! Please visit us again!"

Zhou Ruxue, "..."

***

As night fell and the lights were newly lit, the Chi and Nangong family gathered together for their reunion.

Also present at the reunion with Nangong Nuannuan were Aiden, Selina, Dan Qi, and Bai Liyue.

Bai Liyue was one of the best mercenaries, and she had built a wonderful foundation for her body. After recuperating for two days and using the ointment that Nuannuan had specially prepared for her, many of Bai Liyue's wounds healed with scabs forming in many areas. Therefore, during dinner, Bai Liyue went downstairs to eat.

There were three members in the Chi family, seventeen members in the Nangong family, and four of Nuannuan's companions. Along with the old housekeeper who had no family members, there were a total of 25 people. The huge living room that was usually empty now buzzed with liveliness.

Even Da Bai, who could only move about in its little space, was allowed into the house by Chi Zeyao.

Da Bai, who had been extremely picky with its food, was now sitting in front of a basin filled with top-grade steak, top-grade mutton chops, chicken breast, and all sorts of colorful snacks made from vitamins. The truth was that Da Bai disliked snacks, but under Chi Zeyao's pressure, it had been eating snacks for a long time. In the beginning, it was not used to it. After Da Bai started to get used to the snacks, it found itself anticipating the snacks. After eating these, Chi Zeyao mixed up some goat's milk and bone soup before scooping it up into a bowl for Da Bai.

Nuannuan looked at Da Bai before turning to Chi Zeyao. Then, she said, "Second Uncle, I feel like Da Bai will become a fatty under your care."

After finishing a large basin of meat, Da Bai, who was enjoying its snack again, looked at its little princess and let out a howl.

"Hahahaha..."

Everyone laughed at Da Bai's dissatisfied expression.

Suddenly, the doorbell rang and the butler went over to open the door. Old Master Chi was very happy to see the man who returned to the house. "Lil Xuan, you're back! Quickly wash your hands and join us for the reunion dinner."

"Big Bro, I thought you wouldn't be able to make it back for the New Year."

"Big Bro, quickly wash your hands. Second Uncle Nangong and Second Uncle Chi made a lot of delicious food!"

He scanned the surroundings—his companions were beaming among the crowd that still looked squashed despite seat at two large round tables. It was only seven o'clock. Seeing the smiles on everyone's faces, the bleakness and loneliness from the already empty streets were instantly replaced by the liveliness from this house.

No wonder nearly all the shops and shopping malls outside were closed. No wonder there were no pedestrians on the road that stretched so widely outside. The world had exchanged its coldness for the liveliness in this house.

"Big Bro, is everything settled?"

When Nuannuan stood up, Second Uncle Chi left his seat too. Uncle Fu immediately took Feng Shengxuan's jacket and hung it up for him.

"It's done.." Feng Shengxuan paused for a moment as he recollected his thoughts, stunned, from the lively atmosphere.

Chapter 1384: Wishes

Feng Shengxuan was used to a life of never needing to wash his hands before eating. He would have gotten someone to clean his hands with a few disinfected hot towels. However, at this moment, he followed the customs of the household and washed his hands in the kitchen before drying his hands with tissue.

When he walked into the living room again, Feng Shengxuan looked at Bai Liyue and the empty seat beside her. Then, he glanced at the space next to Nuannuan that was already occupied by Chi Yang and the two little buns. He hesitated for a moment. For the first time, he did not throw a temper tantrum or force the two little buns to make way for him.

After sitting down, he peered at Bai Liyue. He wanted to show her some concern, but nothing came out of his mouth.

"Do you know how badly injured you are? You decided to fool around downstairs anyway."

After watching Nuannuan and Chi Yang's interaction for the past two days, Bai Liyue had already sorted out her emotions.

Even though she still loved Feng Shengxuan, she knew that this was just unrequited love, and it was time for her to stop. One day, that special someone would appear and return her feelings.

Therefore, when she heard Feng Shengxuan's question, Bai Liyue no longer shied away from bashfulness. Instead, she finally showed her most authentic self and smiled gently at Feng Shengxuan. "I'm already much better. Nuannuan said that I can come down now."

Nuannuan nodded as she chewed on the sweet-and-sour spare ribs that were glistening with brown sugar. "Yes, yes. Big Sis Yue has been diligently applying the ointment that I prepared especially for her. She's recovering very quickly. At this point, going out of her room and stretching her muscles will help her recover."

Feng Shengxuan was mesmerized by the smile that Bai Liyue flashed him. She had never shown him a smile like this before. He was so much in a daze that he failed to register what Nuannuan said.

Bai Liyue turned around to speak to Aiden after the two of them exchanged those very few words. Both Aiden and Bai Liyue agreed that after the new year, Bai Liyue would head to Imperial Phoenix Group to assist Aiden. She would try her best to ease this sudden influx of excessive workload while smoothening out the issues they had from Sab.

"You haven't even recovered from your injury? Why are you heading to the office? Do you want to die?"

"Nuannuan said that I would've recovered by the time the Lunar New Year is over. I should be able to walk around then, as long as I don't overextend myself. Is that right, Nuannuan?"

"Yep."

Even Nuannuan nodded. Although Feng Shengxuan was fuming for no reason, there was nothing he could say.

Nuannuan stood up. "Grandpa Chi, Grandpa, I wish the two of you a happy new year! May you live a healthy life until you're 120!"

"Happy New Year to both our great-grandpas!" The two little buns said in unison.

After the little buns, everyone stood up.

Among the six Nangong brothers, some were mature and steady like Nangong Jin and Nangong Yun. Some of them were elegant, like Nangong Li and Nangong Zheng. There were also those who were cheerful and lively like Nangong Yi and Nangong Ze.

With the addition of Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi, the entire Chi residence was instantly in an uproar.

Everyone gave their blessings to the two elders.

Seeing that everyone had given their blessings, Feng Shengxuan wondered if he should also give them his blessings.

However, at the thought of how his father died in the hands of these two instigators, the hatred in Feng Shengxuan's heart would not allow him to bow down to his enemies.

Hence, from the beginning to the end, Feng Shengxuan did not give any blessings to the two old masters or the elders.

After everyone gave their blessings, the two old masters smiled happily as they asked the butler to bring their things over.

The old masters held one bag each.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1385: You Are Nuannuan's Friends

After opening up his bag, Grandpa Chi was the first one to take out a red packet. "Nuannuan, this is your red packet for the new year."

Nuannuan was stunned. She had never received a red packet for the new year before.

Nuannuan was a little stunned and excited to see Grandpa Chi's red packet. She reached out to receive the thick red packet as moisture started to accumulate around her eyes. "Thank you, Grandpa Chi!"

"Nuannuan, this is Grandpa's red packet. Happy New Year, Little Girl!"

Old Master Nangong gave Old Master Chi a slightly angry glare. It was the first time he gave his granddaughter a red packet, yet Old Master Chi had snatched the chance to be the first.

However, his red packet was definitely bigger than Old Man Chi's red packet.

"Thank you, Grandpa."

"Nuannuan, this is a red packet from me and your aunt. Happy New Year!"

"Thank you, Eldest Uncle. Thank you, Eldest Aunt!"

"Happy New Year, Nuannuan!"

"Thank you..."

Nuannuan thanked everyone as her hand started to turn into jelly from receiving all those red packets.

Other than the two old masters, her uncles from the Nangong family and Second Uncle Chi gave her red packets too. Even her six elder brothers finally found a reason to be useful—giving her red packets. Each of their red packets was bigger than the other, and Nuannuan's face nearly cramped up from smiling the whole time.

This was the first time Nuannuan spent the new year with her family, so everyone's focus was on her. It was only after everyone had given Nuannuan her red packets that they started to give out red packets to the rest of the family.

Per tradition, the elders in the family would start giving out red packets from the younger generation. The youngest ones in the family were Lil Ling'er and Lil Sun. The two children happily received the red packets and thanked the elders one by one. Then, it was the six young masters of the Nangong family and their wives' turn.

Feng Shengxuan looked disdainfully at everyone happily accepting the elders' red packets and thanking them. He could not help thinking how stupid they were.

No matter how big the red packet was, it was just an envelope. How much money could it contain? All of them looked like they were in desperate need of money, and they were smiling like idiots. Just looking at them was a challenge to his patience.

"Lil Xuan, here's your red packet. I wish you a Happy New Year! Hope you regain your health in the coming year."

Just as he was disdainfully thinking that everyone in the room was an idiot, Old Master Chi's red packet got pushed toward him.

Feng Shengxuan was stunned. Before he could react, Grandpa Chi had already stuffed the red packet somewhere into his embrace.

"Lil Xuan, Happy New Year! I wish you good luck in your next year's surgery!" Old Master Nangong stuffed the red packet into Feng Shengxuan's hands.

"Lil Xuan, Happy New Year! Wish you a smooth surgery and a lifetime of bliss." Second Uncle Chi also stuffed the red packet into Feng Shengxuan's arms.

Elders Uncle Nangong, Second Uncle Nangong, and Third Uncle Nangong followed suit.

Feng Shengxuan did not have time to react at all. The richest man on earth like him never expected there would come a day when he would receive red packets from others.

After Third Uncle gave Feng Shengxuan's hands, the Nangong brothers started to stuff their red packets into his hands too.

Only then did Feng Shengxuan react. He felt a little awkward and displeased.

"You're not my elders. Why are you giving me red packets?"

"That's because you're Nuannuan's friend and we're her brothers. Of course, we must give you red packets too!"

After that, the Nangong brothers continued to force the red packets into Feng Shengxuan's hands.

Looking at the huge pile of red packets in his hands, Feng Shengxuan felt weird.

However, this feeling...

It did not feel too bad.

At least it did not feel as stupid as he had imagined it to be.

It was not just Feng Shengxuan. Bai Liyue, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi also received red packets for the first time in their lives.

Even though the few of them were extremely wealthy, everyone was super happy to receive the red packets that were brimming with blessings.. The youngsters thanked each of them happily.

Chapter 1386: Vengeance

After dinner, the two families sat together to watch the Spring Festival Gala. Those who could not sit still had already gone outside to build snowmen.

Lil Ling'er and Lil Sun were the ones who could not stay put, so they dragged their aunt outside to build snowmen.

Seeing that his wife went out, Chi Yang followed suit.

Seeing that their youngest sister had gone out, the older brothers naturally wanted to follow her as well.

Since Bai Liyue was injured, she had to go upstairs to rest. As Bai Liyue was fine to hang around by herself, Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi went out to build snowmen with Nuannuan too.

"Big Bro, do you want to build a snowman?" Dan Qi asked Feng Shengxuan.

"Go away," Feng Shengxuan said and turned to go upstairs.

That was uncalled for, but Dan Qi shrugged off the dissing. He was so excited that he would rather stop binging his dramas and follow his elder sisters out to build snowmen.

When Feng Shengxuan went upstairs, Bai Liyue was already in bed. Seeing him push the door open, she was slightly surprised. "Why are you here?"

"Am I not allowed to see you?"

Bai Liyue, "..."

"Do you really feel better now?"

Bai Liyue nodded. "I'm much better now. Don't worry."

"Do you think I'm worried about you? Now that Imperial Phoenix Group has moved to Camino, it won't be an exaggeration to say that we have to start over in many things. I'm going for surgery after the New Year, and Imperial Phoenix Group only has Aiden..."

"Relax, haven't I already said that I'll go to Imperial Phoenix's office after the New Year?"

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

After successfully ending the conversation, without the help of an advisor to teach him how to continue the conversation, there was only silence in the room. However, Feng Shengxuan sat in front of Bai Liyue's bed without any intention to leave.

In the end, Bai Liyue broke the silence and spoke.

"Your father founded KE, and because of your father, you've been living in hatred. It has become your mission, and at the same time, it's the only thing you've ever pursued in your life. It's as though revenge is the only element in your life, and revenge has become the only joy in your life."

"However, when you told me one day that Nuannuan wanted to destroy KE, and you were prepared to help her, I was really happy. That was because I thought that you'd finally leave your vengeance behind, look further into the farther horizons, and attempt to live a different life.

"Even so, I failed to foresee that you were merely using Nuannuan—you eliminated anyone who opposed you even though you claimed to be on Nuannuan's side as she destroyed your KE. Back then, the people who remained in KE looked like they obeyed you on the surface, but in reality, your uncle was the real master they serve. Therefore, KE wasn't destroyed. The only thing that got destroyed was your uncle's source of power."

Feng Shengxuan did not say anything, affirming Bai Liyue's words with his silence.

"Since you like Nuannuan so much, do you think Nuannuan will forgive you if she finds out that you merely used her? Will she forgive you after knowing that you're the real culprit behind her mother's death and her getting separated from her family?"

Feng Shengxuan was silent for a long time before finally saying, "As long as you don't tell, she'll never know."

"Oh? Is that so?" A mocking smile appeared on Bai Liyue's lips. "Are you sure that the jealous woman that should have a collar around her neck won't escalate this matter out of your control just because she has a huge crush on you?"

"She won't."

Feng Shengxuan's answer was so firm and so confident; more than the trust he had in Bai Liyue.. This puff of anger got stuck in Bai Liyue's throat and she could not make herself swallow this.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1387: Dead People

After a moment of silence, Bai Liyue finally spoke in spite of herself, "Sometimes, you shouldn't be too confident with your words. You might be able to plan ahead, but you could never predict what would happen exactly in the future. The reason lies in the human heart. In this world, the only thing that always surprises you is the human heart. And I don't think that you can be absolutely sure of what that woman is thinking."

"What if I say I can?"

"Then, I hope you'll never regret making that choice."

Bai Liyue closed her eyes in anger.

She had given up on him anyway, so Feng Shengxuan deserved it if he suffered from this decision.

"There's no way I'd regret it because dead people tell no tales."

Shocked, Bai Liyue's eyes snapped open to look at Feng Shengxuan. At this moment, Feng Shengxuan held out his phone to Bai Liyue. On the screen, a woman's attractively curved eyes were wide open. Even though she was already dead, the terror and disbelief on her face were unmistakable.

There was a patch of bright red where her heart was supposed to be, and Bai Liyue did not need any explanation to know that she died from a single gunshot.

"She..."

"She's Viper, and she is my uncle's adopted daughter."

"Does she have anything to do with the test subjects?"

Feng Shengxuan was silent for half a minute before he finally answered Bai Liyue.

"She was the one who first created the test subjects.."

Bai Liyue, "...!!!"

"You said that you had something to do in the past two days because you were ending her?"

"Yes."

"She's an important right-hand woman to you. Are you fine with killing her off just like that?"

Feng Shengxuan smiled. His charming eyes were now tinged with a seductive smirk.

"To me, dogs should be obedient. When it comes to a disobedient dog, no matter how good it is at guarding the house, I won't let it stay."

Bai Liyue glared at Feng Shengxuan. "So to you, I'm just a another dog too."

Bai Liyue's words caused Feng Shengxuan's sleazy and devilish expression to suddenly turn serious; his eyebrows furrowing tightly against each other.

Bai Liyue was his subordinate, so what she said was not completely wrong. Even so, no matter how often he scolded her, he had never treated her like a dog.

"You're the daughter of the Bai family. The Bai family and KE are partners."

Bai Liyue smiled. "It's not like you don't know that I'm just an imposter. I'm here to be your subordinate on behalf of the Bai Liyue's real lady of the Bai family."

"Enough, Bai Liyue! Don't push your luck! I already said no, so what else do you want? You'll only be satisfied if I confess, right?"

The room lapsed into another wave of silence.

At that moment, Lil Ling'er's screams were audible from the outside, along with the laughter of many people. Feng Shengxuan walked to the window and looked outside.

A group of people was standing on a flat and wide area outside the Chi residence, building an entire house's worth of twenty to thirty snowmen. Right now, there should be around twenty or thirty snowmen.

These snowmen were tall, short, fat, and thin. There were adults and children, as well as dogs and lions. There were houses and cars among them.

Someone brought strings of small light bulbs. Lights of various colors intersected the pile of white objects, and the place instantly transformed into a dreamy winter wonderland.

The laughter outside alerted the seniors inside, so the family retrieved more scarves, hats, gloves, and even clothes for the snowmen.

Chi Yang lit up close to ten boxes of fireworks outside.

Dazzling fireworks bloomed in the sky, turning into specks of gold that sprinkled downward like a golden galaxy, illuminating the entire world.

Even Bai Liyue could not help but get off the bed and walk to the window.. Looking at the lively scene below, she felt a surge of envy.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1388: Healthy Body, Healthy Mind

"Have you ever thought about how much she'd hate you if you destroy this happiness and warmth one day?"

Feng Shengxuan was leaning against the window. He glanced at Bai Liyue and said casually, "Have I ever mentioned that I'd destroy this happiness?"

"When you said that you'd cooperate with Nuannuan to destroy KE, I had my suspicions. When I found out about Viper, I became even more certain of my suspicion. Now, even though Viper's dead, it doesn't mean that everyone who's working for you is dead too. If Viper exists, it means that there is another power behind you."

Then, Bai Liyue added, "I haven't seen Stephen for a long time."

Feng Shengxuan did not comment on Bai Liyue's words.

He was King after all; it was normal for him to retain his personal power. He did not think that he owed Bai Liyue any explanation.

"When are you going for your surgery?"

"The third day of the new year."

The two of them stood by the window and chatted one line after another.

The outside world was very lively, but this liveliness could not reach the room that was merely separated by a window...

This was the first Lunar New Year Nuannuan spent with her family. Hence, everyone stayed up late and partied before hitting the sack.

The next morning, Nuannuan woke up early as usual all thanks to her biological clock.

As soon as she opened her eyes, a pair of obsidian-like eyes came into her view.

"Happy New Year!"

The man's refreshing breath felt wispy on her face, tickling and numbing her.

In the past, she wanted nothing but to escape from this presence, but now, it had the most important presence in her life; like air.

"Happy New Year!"

Nuannuan, who just woke up, nestled in Chi Yang's embrace. Her hands hung on Chi Yang's shoulders like a koala bear. Even though she was lying down, her whole body was hanging onto Chi Yang.

Today was the first day of the Lunar New Year, and Nuannuan was in a very good mood. She gave Chi Yang a big smile, and her eyes curved into happy crescents. Her long eyelashes fluttered, and the flecks of light in her eyes expanded into a dazzling brightness as the curtains slowly opened.

The sunlight from outside shone in, casting a beautiful shadow on her face through her eyelashes.

Her unbelievably beautiful face was like a single ray of sunlight in winter, even more dazzling than the warm sun outside.

Chi Yang lowered his gaze. He could not help but bend down and kiss her smiling lips.

Still drowsy from her sleep, Nuannuan was still happily lounging away with her soft body. After receiving such a gentle treatment from Chi Yang, she was instantly stunned and her consciousness fell into deeper chaos.

After a dizzying wave of surprise, Nuannuan slowly moved her hands on Chi Yang's shoulders downward, feeling every inch of his skin.

The softness of her fingers mixed with the sharpness of her nails felt made Chi Yang feel like Heaven was made of ice and fire. They lightly brushed across Chi Yang's sensitive nerves, bringing about tingling ripples, followed by a volcanic eruption of surging passion...

It was already late by the time they got to bed yesterday, and Chi Yang could not bear to let his wife tire herself out. Therefore, as the saying went, "A whole year's work depends on a good spring; a day's work depends on a good morning." Morning exercises were the most beneficial to their physical and mental health.

Nuannuan had just woken up, but Chi Yang had already "punished" her. There was no sign of the domineering attitude that she usually carried herself in.. Eventually, she turned into a mushy puddle of mud and was stuck in bed, unable to get up.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1389: Blow

Chi Yang's heart softened as he looked at his wife, who lay sprawled in bed with a flushed face.

After wiping away the tadpoles that got beached on his wife's body with a piece of tissue, Chi Yang got off the bed to turn on the water in the bathroom. When the water was finally warm, he turned back to his wife. Nuannuan watched him with a pair of huge, watery eyes, obviously telling him that she did not want to move anymore. After darting back to his wife like a busy bee, Chi Yang lifted Nuannuan to the bathroom.

In the beginning, Chi Yang was very clumsy, but he was an expert in this now.

Chi Yang placed his wife into the spa bath. Just as he was about to stand up and walk into the bath, his wife's arms snaked around his neck and locked him in a tight grip.

Before he realized what was happening, Chi Yang found his waist wrapped up in her legs too.

At this moment, Nuannuan was completely naked. Her beautiful body swayed in the shimmering water. Chi Yang was too mesmerized by the view that he lost his balance and collapsed onto this breathtakingly beautiful body.

"Be careful!"

The moment he fell into the water, Chi Yang used his superpower. A water column rose from the bottom of the water and caught Chi Yang's body, preventing him from hurting his little succubus.

However, the little succubus was not afraid of getting squashed. Seeing that the beauty was about to enter her embrace, how could she let the water pillar ruin her moment?

She raised a leg and kicked the weakest point that supported the water column.

With a splash, the water column disappeared. Chi Yang, who was about to use the water column to slowly descend into the bath and consequently, sticking onto his wife, fell directly onto the little incubus.

"Does it hurt?"

Chi Yang frowned; his face filled with worry and heartache. He hurriedly tried to shift his body away.

On the other hand, Nuannuan put on a bitter face as she nodded pitifully. "Yes, it hurts."

When Chi Yang heard that, his face turned pale from fright. After all, he was so tall and he weighed so much. Furthermore, looking at how small his little wife's body was, he had always been afraid that he would hurt her even if he caressed her normally. Now that he was squashing her...

"Where does it hurt?"

"My collarbone hurts. Can you blow at it?" Nuannuan's voice was hoarse, but it revealed an irresistible charm.

Chi Yang's Adam's apple moved as he swallowed. Then, he rasped softly, "Okay."

After saying that, his lips inched close to Nuannuan's collarbone and started blowing on it for her.

"Are you feeling better? Where else hurts?"

Nuannuan subtly bent her legs that were initially laying flat in the water until her knees touched the forbidden spot.

At this moment, Chi Yang's eyes were emanating a profundity that was not there a second ago, but he was still suppressing himself and not acting up.

However, the girl in front of him pouted her rosy lips and straightened her body. She hinted in a sweet voice. "My chest hurts too."

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan, the depth of his eyes deepening.

"Blow it for me."

Looking at the two jade rabbits on the verge of hopping out of the water, Chi Yang lowered his head, blowing gently and carefully at her two rabbits. However, he could not help but want to punish this evil little succubus on the spot.

Watching Big Brother Chi Yang actually blowing on her chest, Nuannuan was not sure she felt hot from the water or embarrassed. Her cheeks were suddenly flushed, although it merely added an indescribable charm to her already seductive beauty.

Nuannuan, who was engrossed in her play, reached out her fingers and hooked Chi Yang's firm chin...

Chapter 1390: Gift

Chi Yang removed his lips from the patch of jade-like fairness and met Nuannuan's mesmerizing face and dazzling eyes.

"O'honest man, where are you from and where are you going?"

Nuannuan transformed herself into Lil Qian from A Chinese Ghost Story. She leaned forward slightly with a seductive expression.

She had thought that Big Brother Chi Yang would turn into a wolf instantly.

However, when she finished reciting the famous line from the classic tale, Chi Yang paused. He looked at her with uncertainty in his eyes.

"Nuannuan, what's wrong? Is everything alright? I'm Chi Yang!"

Chi Yang's words corked up all of the lines Nuannuan was ready to proceed with.

She blinked and blinked again.

At that moment, Chi Yang patted her head and waved his hand in front of her. "Little Girl, don't scare me!"

If her dismay had a physical form, it would be the three black lines that Nuannuan imagined to be trailing down from her forehead right now. Nuannuan was so stunned that her mouth twitched.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, have you watched A Chinese Ghost Story before?"

Seeing that his wife's expression had returned to normal, Chi Yang finally felt relieved.

"What's that?"

Fine, her precious Mr. Soldier was not someone who would watch this kind of thing.

After playing the lute to a cow for a long time, Nuannuan lost her interest in continuing this roleplay. She pouted and said, "Big Brother Chi Yang, I'm thirsty."

Chi Yang, who had been blowing for a long time, looked at his wife. Without giving her any time for a reaction, he leaned forward and put his lips over her, moistening her lips.

"Are you still thirsty?"

Nuannuan, "..."

While she was lost for words, a red packet suddenly appeared in front of Nuannuan's eyes.

"Wifey, Happy New Year! It's just a small gift. I hope you don't mind."

Chi Yang still felt some sort of stress when it came to Nuannuan.

After all, other women relied on their men to survive, but his woman already owned one of the world's richest entities—she could barely be any richer.

Chi Yang nearly could not bring himself to give her this red packet.

In the past, Xiao Shenbin and the others had suggested expanding their business, but Chi Yang had rejected them. However, not long ago, he called Xiao Shenbin and told him that in the new year, they needed to expand their corporation.

Although Nuannuan was not short of money, when she saw the red packet in Big Brother Chi Yang's hands, a wide smile instantly bloomed on her face.

"Is this a new year red packet for me?"

"Yep." Chi Yang nodded. "Open it and see if you like it."

Nuannuan immediately opened up the red packet and took out the contents.

Inside was an RS Bankcard and a piece of paper.

Nuannuan blinked and looked at the card in her hand. "Didn't you already give me your salary card?"

"That's a salary card. Other than my job, I own another business called Eagle Eye Group. This is the salary card of the Eagle Eye Group. I own 75% of Eagle Eye Group's shares. Every time, Xiao Shenbin will send the dividends into this salary card."

Eagle Eye Group?

Was that not a corporation that relied on itself to join the ranks of the first-tier wealthy families?

In her past life, Nuannuan already found out that Chi Yang was the chairman behind this company, but... it felt a little inappropriate to give her the company's salary card just like that, was it not?

Even though it was looked like an insignificant card, the numbers contained inside were unimaginably huge. It was probably comparable to Imperial Phoenix Group.

Actually, Nuannuan was thinking to herself; if she took Big Brother Chi Yang's salary card and the dividends card from Eagle Eye Group, what would Big Brother Chi Yang spend when he was outside in the future?
