

Physician Wife 141

Chapter 141: Collapsed Chest

However, Zhong Qianqian's mouth could not help but twitch when she saw Xue Miqi asking for trouble during their first meeting.

When she wanted to pounce on Chi Yang in the past, she had worn a fully transparent nude dress. However, she had almost been thrown to her death from the second floor, despite the fact that she was Zhong Nuannuan's sister!

Meanwhile, this woman had no relation to Zhong Nuannuan... Zhong Qianqian was almost certain that once that red wine spilled onto Chi Yang, the issue definitely would not be settled with just a simple apology.

However, Zhong Qianqian was happy to watch an incident like this happen.

This was because the worse the consequences of this were, the more Xue Miqi would suffer in school in the future.

About 0.01 seconds before the wine hit Chi Yang's military uniform, Chi Yang's body turned slightly, and the wine poured straight ahead.

As for Xue Miqi, in order to make it realistic, she completely freed herself at the moment before she came into contact with Chi Yang's body. She planned to crash her whole body into his in a free fall, and she even adjusted her posture midair so that she would land chest-first.

She saw that she was almost about to fall into her ascetic male god's arms, but the man moved away at the last moment, and Xue Miqi ended up stupidly falling toward the ground like a wild dog.

There was a stereo on the lawn which had been fashioned from stone. Xue Miqi was unlucky, and her expected landing point, combined with her momentum, meant that she fell directly onto the stone stereo.

"Ahhh—"

With a scream that pierced through the sky, Zhong Qianqian hurriedly rushed forward.

"Chi Yang, quickly give me a hand and help her get up, she..."

"Shove off!"

Zhong Qianqian was shocked!

Confronted with Chi Yang's cold gaze, Zhong Qianqian was so frightened that she shuddered and thought back to the time when this man had almost killed her.

Xue Miqi's breasts were specially made, and one could only imagine the pain from an impact like this. Under the torrent of tremendous pain, she could no longer keep up her appearance and immediately screamed in pain while clutching her almost-torn breast lining.

Leng Jinpeng, who was standing to one side, cast a cold glance toward Xue Miqi. He then faced Ye Boyan, whom he had been waiting for an opportunity to speak to and whom he was currently stood next to, and asked, "Mr Ye, are you the director of Jia Yong?"

"Yes, yes! Commander-in-chief, you have such a good memory, you've only spoken to me once before, but you still remember me." Ye Boyan was so happy that his face beamed.

"Jia Yong is also considered a good school in Jiang District, as its faculty is even better than the top middle school in the state. Although I also know that Jia Yong is a school for aristocrats, and focuses not on the students' achievements but on their family background, the students' moral education should not be overlooked as well."

When Ye Boyan heard this, he blushed, and then nodded quickly. "Yes, yes, you're right, commander-in-chief. When I go to the school tomorrow, I will definitely convey your thoughts to the President. I also think that moral education is really important; look at these girls, ending up in this state just to hook up with men. How ridiculous does this look?"

Ye Boyan cleared himself of any misunderstandings, but not forgetting to slander Zhong Qianqian's name in the process. After all, Zhong Qianqian already had Aiden, so who told her to be reluctant to introduce Gu Mingzhe to his family's Lil Xi earlier?

"Director Ye, apart from this student, is there anyone else like that? My family's Qianqian is just supporting her classmate, and the words you've just said while looking at her might end up causing unnecessary misunderstandings."

Zhong Kuijun's words hurt Ye Boyan's pride, but when he recalled that they had even reeled in someone like Aiden, he could only swallow his pride.

"Qianqian, I'm sorry, I don't think we're fit to be together."

Chapter 142: All Is Lost

Zhong Qianqian was in the process of lifting Xue Miqi up when she suddenly heard Aiden's voice. She was shocked, and her mind went blank, causing her hands to let go——

COMMENT

"Ah!!!"

Xue Miqi's breasts landed on the stone-made stereo once again.

"Aiden... What did you say?" Zhong Qianqian asked in disbelief.

Aiden unleashed his Oscar-worthy acting skills and looked at Zhong Qianqian with a disappointed expression, seemingly hesitant to speak.

However, Zhong Qianqian was anxious. She had just abandoned Gu Mingzhe, but a split second later, Aiden had turned around and said that he did not want her anymore. How could this happen?

"Aiden, what's wrong?"

Looking at Aiden's disappointed gaze, Zhong Qianqian was extremely flustered.

She had just given Gu Mingzhe a smack in the face earlier, and in the next moment, she had lost her opportunity with Aiden.

If this became a reality, then her reputation as the top socialite in Jiang District would soon become the top joke in Jiang District.

"Aiden, you were still pursuing Qianqian earlier, so why are you suddenly saying that Qianqian is not suitable for you?" Zhong Kuijun also grew anxious.

After all, if not for their good luck, it would be almost impossible to come across a rich husband like him.

"Uncle..." Aiden struggled for a while, and only spoke after he had fully taken in the anxious expressions on Zhong Qianqian and Zhong Kuijun's faces. "You should ask Auntie about the details. Goodbye."

As they saw Aiden leave without any hesitation, Zhong Kuijun and Zhong Qianqian's faces instantly dropped.

Zhong Qianqian absolutely could not believe that the person who had ruined her relationship with Aiden this time had turned out to be her own mother!

Shortly after, Zhong Nuannuan came out, with Jiang Shuwan also hurriedly rushing out after her with a dazed look.

"Where's Aiden? Where's Aiden? Qianqian, have you seen Aiden?"

Jiang Shuwan's words immediately made Zhong Qianqian burst into angry tears. "Mom, what exactly did you tell Aiden just now? Why was Aiden still fine when he went to use the washroom, only to return to tell me that I wasn't suitable for him before leaving?"

"What?" Jiang Shuwan's legs gave out. She quickly grabbed Zhong Qianqian's hands to stabilize her body, and her eyes became vacant.

"Nuannuan, what exactly happened earlier? Aiden and Qianqian were still fine a while ago."

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at the onlooking crowd, and asked, "Dad, do you really want me to tell you in front of so many guests?"

Only then did Zhong Kuijun notice that almost everyone was looking toward them at that moment.

Steadying his heart that was burning with anger, Zhong Kuijun could only greet the guests with a smile, and act like nothing was wrong.

Meanwhile, Xue Miqi had crashed into the chest and was still crying, but nobody dared to go forward and help her. After all, Chi Yang was not far away from her, and the cold aura that he emanated ensured that nobody dared to get too close to him.

"Uncle, I have to leave now with the commander-in-chief and chief of staff."

"What? You're all leaving so early?" Zhong Kuijun was startled.

He thought that for Chi Yang's sake, the commander-in-chief and chief of staff could stay a little longer. After all, he had not had the time to get close to the commander-in-chief yet. This banquet was his hard-fought opportunity, but Gu Mingzhe and Aiden had ruined it.

Upon hearing of the leader's departure, Zhong Kuijun felt a little unwell.

"I have a meeting with the commander-in-chief and chief of staff in the afternoon."

"Oh, that... Sure, then all of you go slowly."

After saying that, Zhong Kuijun quickly hurried to Leng Jinpeng and apologized profusely. "Commander-in-chief, chief of staff, I'm really embarrassed. I've been too busy today, and I haven't had the time to greet you..."

"Commander Zhong, you don't have to be like this. Hasn't Nuannuan been greeting us on your behalf all this while?"

Qu Mingyi also chimed in. "Kuijun, you really have a good daughter. Commander-in-chief really likes this junior a lot!"

Chapter 143: You Can Rest Assured That I Will Keep It!

Upon hearing this, Zhong Kuijun, who deeply regretted not being able to catch up with them, was slightly relieved.

"Nuannuan is a good girl, I hope that you will continue raising her well."

"Yes, I will follow your command, commander-in-chief!"

After Chi Yang led Zhong Kuijun to Leng Jinpeng, he immediately turned and walked toward Zhong Nuannuan.

As she watched the tall and upright man in front of her, Zhong Nuannuan felt a reluctance to part with him.

"I'm leaving." Chi Yang was even more reluctant.

Zhong Nuannuan nodded. "You must remember to eat well and sleep early no matter how busy the military base is."

"I'll do as you say."

Zhong Nuannuan was just about to take off the windbreaker that she had been covering herself with all this while when Chi Yang stopped her.

"I have more of these in the military base. You wear this one, don't catch a cold."

"Okay."

"Then... I'll see you next week."

"Sure."

“What day will you be coming next week?”

“Around Tuesday or Wednesday, we’ll keep in contact through the phone until then.”

“Okay.”

Chi Yang nodded, then took out a card and placed it into Zhong Nuannuan’s hands.

“If there’s anything you feel like buying, use this to purchase it. The password is your birthday.”

When he saw that Zhong Nuannuan was stunned, Chi Yang was afraid that she would not accept it, and he quickly explained, “This is my salary card. You’re already my fiancée and we’re going to get married soon. This card would have been handed to your management sooner or later.”

Under Chi Yang’s hopeful gaze, Zhong Nuannuan gently smiled and took the card in his hands graciously. “You can rest assured that I will keep it!”

Chi Yang’s eyes dimmed. “This is not for safekeeping, it’s for you to use. If there’s anything you want to buy, just use this card to pay for it. If it’s not enough, just let me know and I’ll transfer more to you immediately.”

“Alright, I got it, I won’t go easy on you.”

After confirming that his future wife understood what he meant, and confirmed that she would be using his card, Chi Yang was finally satisfied. He liked the feeling of sharing everything with her and letting her use his possessions at her convenience. This feeling was impossible to describe through pen and ink—he just knew that at that moment, his heart felt calm and satisfied.

“The commander-in-chief and chief of staff are still waiting for you. You have to leave quickly.”

“Well, you have to be careful too.”

Knowing that he was reminding her of her own family members, Zhong Nuannuan nodded. “I know, don’t worry, I won’t lose.”

“There’s also school, if those people gossip, you can lash back at them. If they still trouble you, let me know and I’ll deal with it.”

“Okay.”

She never knew that the aloof man was such a gabber.

However, facing his sincere concern, Zhong Nuannuan felt very comforted.

Finally, it was time to leave for real.

Although he knew that they would meet again tomorrow, the separation at this moment still made him reluctant to go. As he looked at the girl’s white, rosy and delicate cheeks filled with collagen, Chi Yang could not help but lean down to plant a kiss on her forehead.

At the moment when his fresh breath reached her, Zhong Nuannuan’s heart immediately jumped into her throat before beating wildly like a war drum, and she could only stand blankly at him.

When his cool lips touched her forehead, she felt as if thousands of tiny electric currents had instantly rushed through her limbs and bones, before finally converging in her heart.

Zhong Nuannuan felt as if she was about to suffer a brain hemorrhage.

Zhong Nuannuan remained dumbfounded until his lips left her forehead.

This was the first time he had kissed her after that incident. On the other hand, Chi Yang was slightly nervous, afraid that her reaction might be one of rejection.

Chapter 144: Money-Loser

As Chi Yang's heart pounded like thunder, his palms almost sweating from nervousness, suddenly, Zhong Nuannuan tiptoed and planted a light kiss on his cheek.

"Goodbye."

"Okay, goodbye."

Chi Yang left with the commander-in-chief and chief of staff. He remained light-headed up to the moment when he sat down in the car, as if he were floating on clouds. It felt unreal.

When Leng Jinpeng saw this, he could not help but smile, and felt very gratified.

Zhong Kuijun watched this entire scene from beginning to end, and he sighed when he thought about what the commander-in-chief had told him. At least he still had one useful daughter.

After the important figures left one after another, the other guests gradually dispersed as well. Although the two men that admired Zhong Qianqian both made everyone feel shocked and envious, in the end it was all a wild goose chase.

However, nobody dared to underestimate the Zhong Family. After all, the Zhong Family had two daughters, and although Zhong Qianqian was defeated, Zhong Nuannuan was like a flower in full bloom.

Nobody could imagine what kind of prestige the Zhong Family would achieve if Zhong Nuannuan really completed her marriage with Chi Yang half a year later.

After all, he was already a captain at the age of 26. In 20 years, or maybe even less than that, the entire military base of Jiang District might already be under the rule of that outstanding military officer!

With the Zhong Family like this, how could anyone take them lightly?

Thus, everyone comforted Zhong Kuijun as sincerely as they could, and advised him to look on the bright side. At least he still had Chi Yang, a prospective son-in-law with limitless prospects.

After sending off the guests outside, Zhong Kuijun quickly asked Zhong Nuannuan about Aiden. Zhong Nuannuan therefore proceeded to relay the whole incident without missing a word, and Zhong Kuijun flew into a rage as his insides burst with fury.

Zhong Nuannuan followed Zhong Kuijun into the house, and the moment she stepped in, Zhong Qianqian rushed over and swung her arm as she prepared to slap her.

Zhong Nuannuan had quick reflexes, and she quickly grabbed Zhong Qianqian's hand. However, she used excessive force to do so, and Zhong Qianqian screamed out in pain.

"Zhong Nuannuan, you money-loser, it's all because of you that your sister's marriage fell apart, how dare you fight back. I'll beat you to death, you wretch!"

Jiang Shuwan had already been aggravated to the point of insanity, and she pinned the blame of Gu Mingzhe and Aiden leaving Zhong Qianqian onto Zhong Nuannuan. When she saw her own daughter defeated, she totally forgot that she was supposed to still be playing the role of a kind mother, and she rushed forward to hit her.

"Slap!"

Jiang Shuwan staggered backward a few steps from the sheer force of the loud slap, then fell to the ground. Before she managed to recover, Zhong Kuijun started to point at her nose as he gave her a vicious scolding.

"Jiang Shuwan, you madwoman! You're the wretch, the money-loser! If it wasn't for you scolding Nuannuan in front of Aiden, then Aiden would not have felt disappointed with our family! You cheap woman, you only care about petty profits. You're the one who ruined Qianqian's marriage yourself, but not only did you refuse to repent, you were arrogant enough to hit others. Try touching Nuannuan again if you have the guts! If you dare to harm a single hair on her head, you'd better pack up and go back to the old Jiang Family house!"

"Dad, how can you do this? Even if Zhong Nuannuan has Chi Yang's support, you can't be so biased! It's clearly Zhong Nuannuan's fault! She clearly saw Aiden but didn't remind Mom, which caused Mom to embarrass herself in front of him. It's because of this that the Zhong Family had lost such a strong supporter in him, and ended up turning me into the biggest joke in Jiang District! It's all because of her, all because of this tramp!"

Chapter 145: Troublemaker

"Zhong Nuannuan, you had a chain of beads worth over 100 million, and instead of seeking benefits for the Zhong Family to let the Zhong Family develop better, you threatened to donate the chain of beads. You're already such a backstabbing woman even before getting married, so what qualifies you to be a daughter of the Zhong Family? Why don't you just die outside? Why did you come back? Why did you destroy my marriage? You wretch!"

Zhong Qianqian, who had lost both Aiden and Gu Mingzhe, was completely hysterical. Even though one of her hands was still being held by Zhong Nuannuan, hurting almost to the point of shattering, she still stretched out her other hand to try to slap Zhong Nuannuan in the face.

Unexpectedly, Zhong Nuannuan suddenly exerted a bit pressure, and the former staggered out with wide steps. Her ankle suddenly twisted, causing her body to collapse onto the mounted mahogany handrail behind her. Her face turned pale with pain.

"Zhong Qianqian, don't forget our dad's profession! Whether or not you believe it, if I were to accept that chain of beads today, negative news surrounding Dad would break out tomorrow. The military base strictly prohibits officials from collecting money through banquets, weddings, funerals and other events. If such a precious chain of beads is accepted, much less in the face of the military base's commander-in-chief and chief of staff, do you think Dad would be able to pass this test?

"I'm also not a fool. Even if I'm not taking the Zhong Family into consideration, I can still cash out the money from the chain of beads for my own spending, so why did I decide to donate it? What more, donate it to the military base as an act of charity? Zhong Qianqian, both you and Mom are short-sighted, and our minds do not operate on the same wavelength. I don't want to comment, but if you want to quarrel with me on this matter again, don't blame me if I turn against you!"

"Did you hear that? You have no brains, and you still dare to have the impudence to blame Nuannuan. How did she end up with a mother like you?"

Zhong Qianqian almost went mad with anger when she saw that Zhong Kuijun did not get angry, but even looked touched. She sat on the ground and cried while kicking up a fuss. "Zhong Nuannuan, shut your silver tongue! When it comes to quarrelling, nobody in this house can go against you since you understand our thoughts best! Even if you were trying to gain credit by donating the chain of beads, why didn't you tell Mom that Aiden was outside the window? If you told Mom, she wouldn't have embarrassed herself like this unless she was crazy!"

Zhong Nuannuan was indifferent, after all, this family was dispensable to her. Especially Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Qianqian, as she had not taken revenge on them yet!

She shrugged. "Well, you'll have to ask Mom why she was so impatient. When she pulled me inside, I hadn't even managed to recover my composure when she started to scold me fiercely. Mom, you don't usually speak quickly, so why did your speech pattern speed up so much when you scold people for causing trouble?"

Jiang Shuwan was taken aback!

"Zhong Qianqian, she's still your mother's daughter. Just tolerate her this time."

Zhong Qianqian was shocked!

"Dad, I'm a little tired, I'm going upstairs first."

"Sure, go ahead."

Jiang Shuwan and Zhong Qianqian screamed for a very long time, but even so, Zhong Kuijun did not have the slightest intention to blame Zhong Nuannuan. Instead, he felt that of all the women in his house, only Zhong Nuannuan was presentable to the public.

As she watched Zhong Nuannuan's figure disappear, Zhong Qianqian fumed. She wanted to rush forward to hit her, but because her waist had hit the mahogany chair, she could not move, and she could only let out her voice and shout sharply at the figure disappearing around the corner upstairs. "Zhong Nuannuan, you wretch! I curse you to death!"

"Shut up! What kind of person curses their sister like this? With your character, even if Aiden didn't kick you away now, you'd never have been able to get to the point of marriage with a noble person like him!"

“Ah——”

In the huge living room, only Zhong Qianqian’s uncontrolled howling was heard.

Chapter 146: Boss, You Are So Cunning And Brilliant!

After going up the stairs, Zhong Nuannuan called Aiden. Soon, Aiden’s stupid voice came over the phone.

“Oh, boss, did I perform well just now? Does the b*tch Jiang Shuwan regret it so much that she’s kicking herself? Has the little heartbroken b*tch Zhong Qianqian jumped off a building?”

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrow. “The b*tch doesn’t know what hit her. Is the report out?”

“Boss, you are so cunning and brilliant!”

“You already knew that, right?”

“Uh huh. The report says that the DNA similarity between you and Zhong Kuijun is 99.99%, pointing toward a father-daughter relationship. But you and Jiang Shuwan are not related by blood.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s expression changed.

As expected, it was not biological.

“What about Zhong Qianqian? Is she and Jiang Shuwan mother and daughter? ”

“Hey, boss, I’m about to report two particularly interesting things to you.”

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrow. “What is it?”

“The first thing is, from the DNA testing, it turns out that Zhong Qianqian and Zhong Kuijun only have a father-daughter relationship, but she shares no blood relation to Jiang Shuwan.”

“How can that be?!”

Jiang Shuwan’s protectiveness over Zhong Qianqian, especially after experiencing Anna’s wrath countless times, was akin to a mother hen standing up to protect Zhong Qianqian. How could she not be Zhong Qianqian’s mother?

“Yeah, I can’t figure this out either. I took a look at the two reports and found something very interesting. The genetic similarity between you and Zhong Qianqian and Zhong Kuijun is 99.99%, but the similarity with Jiang Shuwan is only 0.01%.”

After hearing Aiden’s words, Zhong Nuannuan narrowed her eyes slightly.

“For both the reports?”

“Yeah. Both of them! Boss, isn’t it mysterious? Zhong Qianqian and you are like twin sisters! Although I got the results on the second day, in order to double check everything, I divided the remaining hair into two parts and ran tests at two other hospitals. It’s only been a few days before I reported back to you.”

“Stop talking nonsense, tell me the results.”

"The result is that the DNA similarity between you and Zhong Qianqian is 100%. Hahaha... This is hilarious. The two reports came out the same."

Zhong Nuannuan remained silent for a while before she spoke quietly. "We both have the same blood."

"Correct."

Zhong Nuannuan fell silent again.

She had certain research and knowledge on pharmacology and pathology. The possibility of them having the same blood was miniscule, even if they were twins.

Not to mention, judging from Jiang Shuwan's attitude toward her and Zhong Qianqian, Zhong Qianqian was definitely her own child.

Therefore, it was no wonder that in Zhong Qianqian's last life, she so easily mixed into the Nangong family and became the daughter of the Nangong family.

It turned out that the two of them shared the same blood.

"Aiden."

"Yes! Boss, do you have any orders?" Since returning to a normal life, Aiden felt bored to death.

Hearing the boss's call, Aiden straightened his back as every cell in his body begged: Get involved! Get involved! I want to get involved!

"What happened to the people you sent to investigate Nangong Yu?"

"Since the distance is quite far away, it will take time. At the moment, I have too little news, just some interesting bits and pieces. Even if I don't say those things, you will surely be able to guess them boss, since you're so smart."

"Then, continue your investigation. By the way, help me look into my trafficker back when I was 3. See if I had a bone marrow transplant operation with Zhong Qianqian. In addition to that, come to my school tomorrow and I will give you another sample."

"Yes!"

Chapter 147: Commander, Sit Tight!

A black car drove surreptitiously on the road when the red light came on. The car stopped and waited at the intersection.

Following from behind was a truck, big and fast, as it came down another road. It was about to reach the red-light junction, but instead of slowing down, it picked up speed.

"Go! Drive!"

Chi Yang, who was seated in the back seat of the car suddenly shouted. Although the reaction of the guards in the front was half a beat slow, they were still able to step on it.

While the black car looked low-key, the engine had been modified. An ordinary car could accelerate to 100 kilometers in 12 seconds, but this modified version could hit 100 kilometers in 4 seconds, which was equivalent to the speed of an advanced supercar.

The big truck rushed over very quickly. It looked as if it was about to hit the back of the car when it was spotted, causing its target to flee.

However, the big truck was still on them as it charged toward the black car as fast as possible.

The black car dashed across the red-light junction, having just narrowly avoided impact with the big truck. However, at that moment, three more trucks rushed over from both sides of the road. In addition to the chasing truck behind them, a total of four trucks surrounded the black car that Chi Yang was in and crashed into the black car with suicidal impact.

“Yes, sir!” The driver, Chen Wei, took the lead immediately after receiving Chi Yang’s order. Even if there was a truck on the left rushing toward them, Chen Wei did not hesitate to accelerate in that direction.

At the same time, there was a loud bang. A bullet flew out of the gun barrel in Chi Yang’s hand and broke through the window of the car like a thunderbolt. It rushed out of the window, passed through the thick iron sheet and accurately hit the left ankle of the truck driver, who then stepped on the accelerator.

“Argh!”

There was a sudden, severe pain in his foot. Even though he wanted to be brave and unyielding, his muscular instincts made it such that moment his foot was penetrated, he unconsciously let go of the gas.

At the same time as this was happening, his whole body leaned back subconsciously, and the hand holding the steering wheel involuntarily hit a plate and slammed into the truck that was coming from the back.

There was a gap in front of the black car that was originally going to be smashed like a sandwich, but the driver quickly shouted, “Commander, sit tight!”

Chen Wei’s voice dropped and the car suddenly swerved to the left, causing the whole car to swerve to the left. It turned so hard that it ended up leaning on its front and rear left-side tires to skim through the gap.

Bang!

The four trucks in the rear collided the moment the black car passed through the gap.

Chen Wei did not dare make the slightest mistake and quickly floored it.

Bang!

A violent explosion came from the trucks and flames soon erupted like a volcano into the sky.

In an instant, the huge mushroom cloud, resembling a giant beast from ancient times, swallowed the four trucks in its mouth.

The shapeless gas cloud expanded in all directions. Even though Chen Wei was pushing the car to its limits, they still could not avoid it.

The moment the gas cloud reached them, Chi Yang braced himself by using both his hands to press against the sides of the car. Right after this, an invisible gold-black current-like force wrapped the entire car tightly.

The car flew more than 20 meters into the air, somersaulting one and a half times before it fell upside down to the ground.

Chapter 148: Escaping Alive

It was hit with such force that even a bulletproof vehicle would be crushed. As its body was violently deformed, the people inside also took a hard hit.

“Hold onto the body tightly!”

At the sound of Chi Yang’s order, Leng Jinpeng and Qu Mingyi both fastened their seat belts and hugged the back of the chair firmly.

Bang!

The moment the roof of the car hit the ground, Chi Yang braced himself against the vehicle with his hands. A dark golden light poured out from his palm as the whole vehicle was catapulted into the air. However, after a 180-degree flip, it landed on its tires.

Chen Wei was still caught in the adrenaline of having almost lost his life, but upon hearing Chi Yang’s order, he instantly recovered and stepped on the accelerator, causing the car to go rushing out like an arrow.

Chi Yang only free to worry about Leng Jinpeng once the car had sped away like a hurricane and the personnel from the Department of Special Forces Team had received a call from the commander-in-chief asking them for support.

“Commander, are you okay?”

Leng Jinpeng’s expression was extremely ugly at that moment as he waved his hand over his chest, feeling a little weak.

“I’m fine, don’t worry about me. The fact that we survived today is thanks to you. They are still waiting for your instructions, so you should go quickly.”

Chi Yang looked at Qu Mingyi again and the other person immediately waved his hand, “I’m fine. Chi Yang, thank you very much for ensuring that I could escape death today.”

At this moment, it was as if frost had formed around Chi Yang's body as he pushed open the door and left.

Outside the door stood hundreds of Special Forces soldiers. They were equipped with guns and stood over 185cm tall as they looked solemn and waited for Chi Yang's order.

"Commander, is there something wrong?"

Quanyi's panicked cry came from the car...

Very quickly, Leng Jinpeng was secretly taken to Shu (TN: short name for Sichuan province) Hospital.

By the time Chi Yang was done dealing with the suicide attacks, it was already night.

In Leng Jinpeng's ward was both Qu Mingyi and Ye Hai, Leng Jinpeng's son.

After spotting Chi Yang, Qu Mingyi immediately stood up and greeted him. Ye Hai also got up, their eyes full of idol worship. "Brother Chiyang."

Chi Yang nodded in response to his greeting.

"Has everything been taken care of?"

"Well," Chi Yang looked at Leng Jinpeng, "how is the commander?"

"It's an old issue, so it's fine. Two days of fluid infusion and he'll be alright. His biggest problem is not with the heart, but the liver and stomach."

Qu Mingyi was frowning as he thought of the commander's condition.

"Did you find out who it was?"

"Viper's men."

Qu Mingyi sneered. "We haven't done anything to them. yet they're exerting dominance by making the first move! Those exiles are too savage!"

"They... have the means to be savage."

"Oh? Why do you say that?"

Chi Yang did not continue.

Realizing that there were still people around, Qu Mingyi turned to Ye Haidao and said, "Ye Hai, go out first and come back in later."

Ye Hai immediately got up. "Yes."

Only after Ye Hai left did Chi Yang continue, "There are traitors in the Department of War, and they hold high-ranking positions."

"What?" Qu Mingyi's eyes burst up as a sharp bright light immediately shot into his eyes.

"How do I say this..."

“The last movement failed. I have been reviewing it myself, but no matter how I look at it, the distributed control was the best plan at the time. Even if the enemy was better, it was impossible for them to wipe out the minefield and escape successfully. Therefore, I suspect that there was a traitor at the time.

“This time around, Chen Wei drove a new car. The car had just been modified to appear low-key, and we also used an ordinary license plate. Even so, the other party was able to find us.”

Chapter 149: The Apparent Price

Qu Mingyi then analyzed Chi Yang’s statement. “We didn’t know many people in that banquet we attended. We knew even less in the state meeting in the afternoon. The other party could have ambushed us while we went to the meeting since they know of our whereabouts like the back of their hand. Thus, going off those two facts, the traitor must be amongst the attendees.”

“Why not?”

“Zhong Kuijun is a person who likes to show off a lot. So, people are bound to know that the commander was going to make an appearance at his house for the banquet, what more the head of departments.”

Qu Mingyi frowned.

“The department leader knows that we cannot rule out the possibility of the lower-ranks knowing about this. This is what makes the matter so difficult to investigate.”

Qu Mingyi took a deep breath. He was very quickly getting pissed off at Zhong Kuijun.

“I don’t know how such a person could give birth to such an excellent daughter like Nuannuan. He always felt that it was because of your influence that he was considered underqualified as he chased a promotion. However, as everyone knows, the main reason for him not being promoted to captain is his own poor character.”

Qu Mingyi looked at Chiyang. “How do you plan to deal with this matter?”

“Let’s observe for now. Wait until their next move and then we will speak again.”

“That’s the only thing we can do.” Qu Mingyi sighed. “The frequent and savage activities of foreign gangs led by Viper in Jiang District have attracted the attention of those above. If they cannot be dealt with quickly, those above us will start to look down on us. However, ever since you came to Jiang District, especially after the arrest operation that lost him his soldiers, their activities have become much more infrequent. Now I just want to catch them, but I am afraid it will not be that easy.”

“They will pretend to be good citizens who are normal and law-abiding. As long as they don’t do anything that breaks the law, I will not arrest them.”

Qu Mingyi’s mouth twitched.

He wants to let the extremely vicious and evil mafia play off being good, law-abiding citizens? There is nothing wrong with this statement!

“So, you mean to... fight a battle of attrition with them?”

“Whether it ends up being battle of attrition depends on how long they are willing to continue being good citizens.”

“If you can blame it on those at the top...”

“I’m at the top.”

Come on! This is what we want to hear from your Highness!

Suddenly, there was a knock at the door.

“Come in.”

Ye Hai walked in and said, “Reporting, Chief of Staff Xiaorui is here.”

The lines on Qu Mingyi’s face softened. “Xiao Rui is here? Quickly, let him in.”

“Xiao Rui, come in. Dad wants to see you most.”

Hearing Leng Qirui’s name, the previously drowsy Leng Jinpeng opened his eyes slowly, but what he saw was Ye Hai warmly welcoming a Leng Qirui with a dark and sullen face, as if he held a hatred for the whole world. He did not greet anyone after entering the ward.

Leng Jinpeng’s face also darkened instantly.

Seeing that Leng Jinpeng had opened his eyes, Ye Hai was very excited. “Dad, you finally woke up. How are you feeling? Better? Xiaorui came to see you!”

After saying this, he said to Leng Qirui, “Xiao Rui, quick, look, Dad is awake. You didn’t know, but Dad had been in a coma for six hours. He only woke up when you came in, and you can see that Dad is happy just from hearing your name!”

“Are you dumb? Don’t you know how to greet people when you enter?”

Leng Jinpeng’s face was black and sullen.

Leng Qirui took a deep breath, as if suppressing the anger in his heart, and then said, “Uncle Qu, Brother Chi Yang.”

Chapter 150: The Ward Fell Silent

Chi Yang just nodded his head, but Qu Mingyi had a huge smile on his face and said reassuringly, “Xiao Rui, your father is usually busy with work, but he really misses you. If you are free, please come to the Department of War to see your dad. Recently, your dad has not been in good health. Although I can help take care of him, he is still an outsider.”

Leng Qirui was about to speak, but was interrupted by Ye Hai.

“Xiao Rui, your dad really needs your care. Besides, you don’t want to go to school either, so why not simply move to the Department of War and live there so your dad can feel at ease while watching you, and where you can also help take care of him?”

When he had first heard that Leng Jinpeng was not in good health, Leng Qirui had planned to move and live in the Department of War but was interrupted by Ye Hai. The anger in Leng Qirui’s heart instantly rose and he swept over Ye Hai in a wave of rage.

“He is my dad, not your dad. It’s my business whether to stay or not. Why do you speak nonsense and act like a dick every day? Ye Hai, I told you not to hang around in front of Lao Tzu. Do you understand the human language?”

“F*ck!”

Leng Jinpeng was dissatisfied with Leng Qirui’s attitude as he listened to him talking to his brother like this despite the fact that Ye Hai had always been tolerant to him. Thus, he could not contain his anger and grabbed the glass on the bedside table before throwing it toward Leng Qirui.

“Commander!”

Qu Mingyi shouted with horror, but Leng Jinpeng’s cup still smashed right against Leng Qirui’s forehead. The other party had a dark expression and did not hide it.

It was not until blood had trickled down from his forehead that Leng Jinpeng recovered from his rage and realized what he had just done. If he wanted to apologize, he would need to face Leng Qirui’s expressionless mug as well as accept his harsh criticism of Ye Hai. Therefore, he swallowed his words.

“Xiao Rui, are you okay?”

Ye Hai took the tissue box from the bedside table and walked to Leng Qirui. He quickly pulled out a few sheets of tissue, preparing to personally treat the wound.

However, as he reached out, Leng Qirui instantly became like a beast, slapping away Ye Hai’s hand and roaring extremely angrily, “I told you to leave, don’t you understand?!”

“Bastard, he is your brother!”

Leng Qirui sneered and asked, “Was he born from my mother’s womb?”

Leng Jinpeng was speechless.

“He’s just lodged under another person’s roof.<sup>1</sup> We gave him some face and now he thinks he can be the master? Stupid bumpkin!”

“Leng Qirui, enough! Uh...”

“Commander!, what’s wrong with you?” Qu Mingyi saw Leng Jinpeng covering his heart. Knowing he was sick, he quickly rang the bell to call the doctor.

The doctor immediately inspected Leng Jinpeng and eased his worries. Then he said, “The commander’s heart disease is flaring up and should not be stimulated. If there is anything that makes him emotional, please make sure to keep it away. It's not a major issue but it's no laughing matter either—it's still very dangerous.

"Even after being discharged from the hospital, his emotions cannot fluctuate. I also hope that all the officers and their families will take note of this."

After the doctor left, the ward fell silent.

After Leng Jinpeng steadied his breathing, he asked his son, "Did you go to school this time?"

Leng Qirui did not answer. Qu Mingyi and Ye Hai also just looked at each other as they could imagine what the answer was.

Leng Jinpeng closed his eyes and sighed heavily.

"Since you don't want to study, go to the Department of War after graduation. When you do decide to study, then you can always go to the university at the Department of War."

The moment Ye Hai heard Leng Jinpeng let Leng Qirui enter the Department of War, his downward-cast eyes lit up slightly.
