Chapter 1411: Move Over

Receiving the brunt of Bian Yin's anger, Shao Xiaoke was as lost as a little white flower.

"What? She... she was sent over by the principal? Not by Director Yu? I... I don't know!"

Bian Yin threw the pen onto Shao Xiaoke's head that flicked off with a loud flack.

"It's all your fault! Now, the HR department won't even let me stay in the VIP section. They want me to either resign or work in the gastroenterology wards. Also, you're coming with me too!"

"What?!" Shao Ke was stunned; her face filled with disbelief.

She pulled too many strings to get herself to this VIP area. There were many important people here, and the domineering CEOs with plenty of connections often stayed here too.

The facilities and atmosphere here were better, and everything was of a higher standard. Perhaps one of the leaders of those corporations or domineering CEOs would find her pleasing to the eye and let her retain some sort of connections with them. Although she would not think about being in romantic relationships, any form of relationship or friendship that she could build with them would benefit her greatly!

Therefore, even the daughter of a third-tier wealthy family like Bian Yin found this job extremely favorable.

However, all of that was gone because of Nuannuan!

Bian Yin scolded Shao Xiaoke to her heart's content for a full fifteen minutes, but Shao Xiaoke did not dare to retort. The only thought she had was her extreme hatred for Nuannuan and Bian Yin.

It was only when two people suddenly appeared that Bian Yin stopped yelling at Shao Xiaoke.

When she noticed who both of them were, feeling terrible had become an understatement.

One of them was from the HR department while the other was a male doctor from the gastroenterology department.

Previously, he could not compete against her, so she obtained the chance to come to the VIP area; not this male doctor. Now, just because of a Nuannuan who had gained Feng Shengxuan's trust, they thought they could send her to a normal ward?

"Dr. Bian, I'm from the Human Resources Department. I was the one on the phone with you earlier. From now on, you'll go to the normal wards. Dr. Li will take your place in the VIP wards."

Bian Yin's face turned pale.

Ever since she found out that the military hospital had a VIP ward area, it had become her station of choice. At the same time, it was something her family took pride in. Yet, now...

“Just because I asked an intern to run errands for me, I have to be sent away? Who exactly is that Nuannuan? What if... I apologize to her and ask her to forgive me? Can you cancel this decision once she forgives me?”

“Dr. Bian, I’m just the Deputy Director of the Human Resources Department. Your matter has been decided by the higher-ups, and it’s not something a mere Deputy Director like me can refuse. Now, where do you think that puts you?”

Bian Yin, “...”

“No matter what you want to do, you have to head to your station first.”

Bian Yin was nearly driven mad from anger, but the order had been issued by the dean, who was a major general and not someone she could easily offend. Therefore, she still had to work it out through Nuannuan first.

Even though she was the daughter of a third-tier wealthy family, she was just a child born out of wedlock. That was why she had to rely on herself in the outside world to earn her place. She could not let the children born of the primary wife in her family look down on her.

Therefore, she could not lose her position in the VIP area!

Nuannuan did not know whatever happened at the hospital after that. In the afternoon, when Chi Yang returned home, he called her.

After staying here for a day, Nuannuan prepared to leave.

“Big Sis Yue, you’re still injured. You need to rest. Aiden is here, and so is everyone else. We should go first.” Then, she summoned Selina and Dan Qi too.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1412: The Intent To Hate

Nuannuan and Bai Liyue agreed that they would take turns to accompany Feng Shengxuan on alternating days. Originally, it would have been best for Nuannuan to take care of Feng Shengxuan on the first night, but she needed to apply acupuncture on Second Uncle for the next two days. That was why Nuannuan had to go back.

Feng Shengxuan, who had been resting with his eyes closed, immediately snapped his eyes open when he heard Nuannuan say she was leaving. He glanced at her and then, at Bai Liyue.

Bai Liyue’s eyes narrowed. After a moment of silence, she said, “Nuannuan, why don’t you go back with them first? I should stay here.”

After hearing Bai Liyue’s words, the dissatisfaction in Feng Shengxuan’s eyes instantly disappeared.

He had never had any control over Nuannuan, this heartless girl. However, Bai Liyue should at least stay and take care of him, right?

When Bai Liyue was injured, he was the one who took care of her the entire time.

Nuannuan looked at Feng Shengxuan, then at Bai Liyue, and nodded. "Alright, be careful of your own wounds."

"Okay, don't worry."

Not only were there many resident doctors in the normal ward area, but the place was also dirty.

Bian Yin could not accept the fact that patients would fill even the aisles and the area surrounding the toilets.

Even though she graduated from the Emperor District Military Medical University, she had never suffered many hardships. After she graduated, she went to the military hospital for an internship and became Director Yu's subordinate. Other than observing Director Yu operating on patients as the chief surgeon, she usually took care of the distinguished patients in the VIP ward area.

Therefore, Bian Yin was on the verge of snapping when she saw patients everywhere on the walkways. Some of them even had smelly feet.

"Bian Yin, you're here. These are the patients you're in charge of. Take a look at their medical records and consult them one by one. I'll leave them to you."

A doctor walked over and placed a large stack of medical cases in Bian Yin's hands before leaving in a hurry.

Bian Yin's expression was as dark as ink as she was brought to her new desk by the admin working for the Human Resources Department.

This was a common desk—utterly different from the single room she was delegated in the VIP area.

There was not even a cubicle around the office desk, meaning there would be no secrets between doctors.

Not only that, many patients crowded around the doctors in the office, and the air was extremely unfresh.

Bian Yin hurriedly took out her facemask from her bag.

The moment she put it on, a patient ran over and showered Bian Yin with questions.

"Doctor, how's my husband doing? Will he suffer from another relapse? Before the surgery, I was told that the recovery rate would be high, so why has his illness relapsed after less than half a year?"

Bian Yin looked irritated and disdainful as she retorted, "How would I know? Go ask his attending doctor!"

"Aren't you Dr. Bian?" The patient pointed at Bian Yin's tag and asked.

Bian Yin, "..."

"I've already asked for his attending doctor earlier, and the nurse said that you're my husband's attending doctor. Who else am I supposed to ask? Is this the attitude a medical worker should have? Do you believe me when I say that I'll lodge a complaint against you?"

Bian Yin, "..."

This was the first time she had been scolded since she started working, and it was by the family members of the patients from a powerless family.

Bian Yin wanted to throw a tantrum, but seeing how the patient's family member was willing to drag her to the depths of hell, she had no choice but to suppress her anger and sift through the medical records she just received.

"Who is Dr. Bian?"

Bian Yin looked up at the person who had just arrived and the person immediately walked in. "Dr. Bian? Hello, I'm here to ask about my mother's condition. My mother..."

In just one afternoon, Bian Yin felt that she had worked an entire year's worth of work in the VIP ward. She hated Nangong Nuannuan, the reason she was here, to the core.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1413: Slaps

When it was almost time to get off work, Bian Yin's phone rang. She glanced at the caller ID and answered weakly, "Feixu."

"Bian Yin, I'm here at the hospital today to get my father his medicine, and I thought I should also ask you out for a meal. I'm not in a good mood recently, so come and help me out of this misery."

Bian Yin was dismayed.

"Me? Help you out of your misery? Do you know? I almost got fired by the director today, and now I've been transferred from the VIP ward area to the normal ward area. I've been fatigued for the whole afternoon, and I haven't even had lunch. I'm dying here."

"What happened?"

"Well, I met a b*tch. Let's talk about it when we meet up. After this, I'll have to be on the night shift every two days."

"Okay, then I'll wait for you downstairs at the VIP ward area. There are too many patients at the normal ward area."

"Okay."

Bian Yin took a look and saw that there was only half an hour before work ended. Since the next doctor on duty had already arrived, she left.

When she reached the ground floor of the VIP ward, her good friend, Hong Feixu, was already waiting at the door. When Hong Feixu saw Bian Yin, she waved.

Bian Yin was about to wave back at Hong Feixu when she suddenly saw Nuannuan walk out.

Nuannuan walked downstairs with Selina and Dan Qi. Just as she was about to get into the car, Bian Yin stopped her.

“Nuannuan!”

Nuannuan halted and turned around to Bian Yin with a smile. “What can I do for you, Dr. Bian?”

Bian Yin questioned her angrily, “Do you know what happened to me because you went complaining to Director Yu?”

Nuannuan found her hilarious. “I don’t care. What has it got to do with me?”

“What do you mean ‘what has it got to do’ with you? If you hadn’t complained to Director Yu, why would I get transferred out of my position? Do you know how many strings my family has pulled to get me to work in the VIP ward area? In the end, everything I have is ruined because of a single sentence from you. Do you think you bear no responsibility for this?”

Nangong Nuannuan answered patiently, “People like you are not qualified to work in the VIP ward area.”

She was about to leave when Bian Yin and Hong Feixu blocked her path.

“Hurhur, Zhong Nuannuan, you’re truly a disgusting and annoying character no matter where you go! Bian Yin is so outstanding, and her family spent a lot of effort to get her into the VIP area. Just a word from you, and you’ve wasted the collective efforts from the entire family. Do you think that just because you’re Chi Yang’s girlfriend, you can do whatever you want? Will you believe me when I say I’ll sue you at Chi Yang’s house?”

Hong Feixu looked at Nangong Nuannuan with hatred, as if she was looking at her father’s murderer.

“What? She’s Chi Yang’s girlfriend?” Bian Yin was shocked and blinked rapidly at Nuannuan.

Bian Yin knew all about Chi Yang because of Hong Feixu. He was Eagle’s commander at the young age of 26 years old; had a grandfather who was the only grand marshal in Camino. Even the president had to address his grandfather respectfully as Uncle Chi. In Camino, the Chi family was an existence that surpassed the Four Dominant Families.

Did Bian Yin offend Chi Yang’s real girlfriend, for real?

Hong Feixu sneered. “What girlfriend? She’s just a shameless slut!”

Smack!

Nangong Nuannuan gave her a tight slap.

Hong Feixu did not expect Nuannuan to slap her that her eyes almost popped out from glaring at Nuannuan.

“You shameless b*tch, how dare you hit me?!”

Smack smack!

Another two slaps.

Hong Feixu was stunned.

Hong Feixu thought that Nangong Nuannuan must have been able to hit her because she was angry and distracted.

“Zhong Nuannuan, since you were the one who hit me first, don’t blame me for being rude.”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1414: Violence

As a soldier in the special forces, Hong Feixu should not be the one to start a fight. However, if someone dared to hit her, she would definitely not let it go.

Selina laughed. “If you want to fight, then fight. If not, then scram. You talk too much.”

Almost as soon as she finished speaking, Hong Feixu aimed a punch at the area above Nangong Nuannuan’s navel.

There were no internal organs or bones there, but Nangong Nuannuan could feel lasting pain there for half a month.

Much to her dismay, Hong Feixu missed even though she was convinced that she attacked quite fast.

Hong Feixu’s eyes flashed with surprise when she saw Nangong Nuannuan, who was clearly standing right in front of her a moment ago, now standing next to her.

This woman... When did she move?

Or perhaps... Nuannuan did not move at all. Maybe she was so angry that she started seeing things.

Therefore, Hong Feixu sent another kick at Nuannuan.

Unexpectedly, Hong Feixu missed the person who was supposed to be somewhere beside her.

There was no one in front of her or to her left and right. In shock, Hong Feixu turned around and saw Nangong Nuannuan behind her.

Hong Feixu, “...”

Hong Feixu was completely agitated.

“So you have some skills.”

After saying this, Hong Feixu sent a flying kick at Nuannuan. However, Nuannuan seemed to have foreseen her movements and dodged her attack once more.

While Hong Feixu’s fist hurled toward Nuannuan, she swept her leg at a 360-degree angle simultaneously in an attempt to trip Nuannuan before her next attack.

Unexpectedly, after sweeping her legs 360 degrees, she did not do so much as brush against the corner of Nuannuan’s clothes.

Hong Feixu was completely taken aback. She finally realized that this woman was not as demure and easy to bully as she looked. This woman not only knew martial arts, but she was also very skilled.

After realizing this, Hong Feixu unleashed her full potential. She no longer attacked with the intention to teach Nuannuan a lesson to remember—now, she attacked with the intention to kill.

Head, temples, neck arteries, heart, lungs, ribs, kidneys, joints in her limbs...

As long as there was a place she could attack, Hong Feixu aimed at them. Every time she attacked, she would land several blows all at once.

However, three minutes had passed. Hong Feixu had already used all her strength, but she still could not touch Nuannuan's clothes.

Nangong Nuannuan was like the most cunning fish in the water. No matter how Hong Feixu tried to catch, shoot, step, or stab her, Nuannuan had ways to prevent her from coming into contact.

Seeing that Hong Feixu stopped and panted, Nangong Nuannuan scoffed. "I've been wondering how good you'd be, but you've turned out to be quite average. You think you're better than me just because you come from a better family than me, just like your mother who has no better insults than calling others a slut.

"Seeing that you're a soldier and my fiancé's subordinate, I'll let you off today. However, please don't take my magnanimity for granted. If you dare act so insolently before me again, I'll have you know that there are some people in this world that you can't afford to offend."

With that, Nangong Nuannuan ignored Hong Feixu and turned to leave.

However, Hong Feixu's eyes were already burning. Even though they were outside the VIP ward area, many people had been passing by. At that moment, everyone was looking at Hong Feixu with disdain and mockery. How could the proud Hong Feixu endure that?

Just like how Ling Pinyuan attacked Nangong Nuannuan from behind, Hong Feixu also attempted to kick Nangong Nuannuan from behind.

However, it was as if Nangong Nuannuan had eyes behind her, and Hong Feixu watched as the view in front of her cleared. In the coming second, Hong Feixu felt a strong force coming at her hips.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1415: Run Amok

Hong Feixu lost control over her whole body. She took to the air and before she realized what was happening, her face hit the ground.

The weight of her body and the force of her fall caused Hong Feixu's face to become the brake for her flying body.

By the time her body skidded to the halt, her face had already been scratched up by the road.

Hong Feixu was furious. It took her a long time to get up from the ground because of the pain. However, by the time she got up, Nangong Nuannuan had already gotten into the car with Selina and Dan Qi.

When she raised her head, she happened to stare straight at the exhaust fumes from the car.

Hong Feixu, "..."

“Fe... Feixu, how are you? Are you hurt?”

Bian Yin hurriedly ran forward to help Hong Feixu up.

“Damn you, Zhong Nuannuan!”

Although Hong Feixu came from a noble background, after years of training in the special forces, she had learned to endure pain.

Although she could endure the pain, she could not suppress the anger in her heart.

“Your face is bleeding, and your skin is severely scratched up. Come with me; I’ll put some medicine on you.”

Hong Feixu’s eyes turned bleak as she followed Bian Yin to get fixed.

“So, she is the vixen that seduced your commander.”

Seeing Hong Feixu’s grave face, Bian Yin said, “Feixu, it’s really not that I’m boosting others’ morale and lowering my own. You’ve told me so much about Chi Yang, and I’m convinced that he’s determined to walk down the path he’s chosen once he’s set his mind on something. Since he’s already set his mind on this vixen, Chi Yang will be unhappy if you continue to fight her for him.”

Hong Feixu sneered. “Unhappy? Unhappy is an understatement! He’s no different from a useless emperor now. Last time, my mother clearly saw Zhong Nuannuan flirting with a man in a Lamborghini at the entrance of the special forces and she told Chi Yang immediately. Not only did Chi Yang not dump this detestable woman, he even transferred me away.”

“What? Transfer you.... away?”

Hong Feixu looked at Bian Yin and laughed self-deprecatingly. “Now you know why I’m meeting up with you to talk about my bad mood, right? Chi Yang is like a useless emperor—he’d listen to everything this woman says. That day, when my mother saw this woman messing around with a man at the door, she went complaining about Zhong Nuannuan. I don’t know what sort of threats she’s holding against Chi Yang, but my transfer order came today. He’s actually sending me to Jiang District! The same place where the moles have just been eradicated; the place with no missions for a long time to come.”

Bian Yin looked at Hong Feixu with a bitter smile. “We’re really sisters in adversity. We all fell into the hands of a woman. Who exactly is this woman?”

“Who is she?” Hong Feixu sneered. “She has a powerful background alright! Do you know that after the whole spies incident in Jiang District came to an end, her father, Zhong Kuijun, turned out to be one of the moles? All these years, Cloud Group has been helping KE launder money.”

Bian Yin sneered with a look of sudden realization. “No wonder when the nurse under me asked her for her surname, she refused to tell no matter what. So, she’s the daughter of a spy! Then, why is she still dating Chi Yang? The military base should’ve stopped them from dating each other and investigated her identity, right?”

“Investigate her? Who is Chi Yang? What does his family do? Who can interrogate him?”

“So, you’re saying this woman can continue to run amok?” Bian Yin said indignantly. “You don’t even know how disgusting she is. She must have pulled some strings with Chi Yang’s help. The principal of the Military Medical University personally brought her to the hospital today.”

Chapter 1416: What Is In It For Me

“As soon as she arrived, not only was she sent to take care of Feng Shengxuan, she even announced so blatantly that she’ll only observe all the specialists’ surgeries. Since she’s an interning nurse, I didn’t know anything and asked her to deliver something. She actually called Director Yu over and complained to him that I ordered her around. In the end, Director Yu directly told the dean about this, and the dean had me transferred to a normal ward.”

“What? Feng Shengxuan? It can’t be my Best Actor Feng, right?”

“What’s wrong with Best Actor Feng? Is he sick?”

Seeing that there was no one else around, Bian Yin whispered, “You mustn’t tell anyone after I tell you this. We signed a non-disclosure agreement on this.”

“I know. Tell me, tell me.”

“Best Actor Feng came to Camino this time because he has stomach cancer.”

“What?” Hong Feixu clutched her chest, looking hurt.

“How did he get stomach cancer?”

“Not only is he suffering from gastric cancer, but his cancer has already reached middle-stage and undergone metastasis. Under such circumstances, even if we were to remove more than half of his stomach, he might not be able to keep his life. I have no idea what kind of bewitching potion Zhong Nuannuan fed Best Actor Feng and convinced Best Actor Feng to insist on removing only a small part of his tumor. Even Director Yu was speechless. He even asked Best Actor Feng to sign a notice, telling him that if he were to remove the tumor this way, the tumor would definitely regenerate.”

“Why is this Zhong Nuannuan so disgusting? What did she say to Best Actor Feng that even Best Actor Feng would believe her words?”

“I don’t know either. All the nurses in the VIP area know this. They all hate Zhong Nuannuan.”

Hong Feixu and Bian Yin were like sisters from different mothers. When two bosom friends met up and made a common enemy, they complained and criticized Nangong Nuannuan for a few hours, not forgetting to add unnecessary details to their tales.

In the end, the more they talked, the angrier they got. Bian Yin was so angry that she burst out crying because she did not know how to answer to her family.

All thanks to her getting stationed in the VIP ward, Bian Yin had gotten to know many people of the upper echelon, which brought a lot of benefits to the Bian family. It was also because of this that her mother, who was a mistress kept outside of wedlock, was tacitly acknowledged by her family.

Yet now, she lost this position.

She did not even need to think to know that once her family knew that she had lost her job, they would definitely look at her with disdain.

“Feixu, what should I do...”

Bian Yin and Hong Feixu were high school classmates and had been best friends ever since they graduated. Seeing Bian Yin in such a miserable state, Hong Feixu pondered for a moment before her eyes suddenly lit up.

“I have a good idea, but if I help you, you have to help me too. After all, Zhong Nuannuan isn’t just my enemy, she has ruined you too.”

Bian Yin’s eyes lit up. “How do we do it?”

“On the seventh day of the Lunar New Year, Old Master Xu will be having a banquet at home. He mentioned that he wanted to celebrate his grandniece, who’s a top student with high attainments in medical skills. She’s going to study at the Military Medical University soon. To put it bluntly, he wanted to introduce her, his grandniece, to the upper society. From the insider information I’ve gathered, Chi Yang’s grandfather will be going as well. When we meet the old marshal, we’ll call this woman out in front of him. The old master only has one grandson, Chi Yang. He definitely won’t allow such a woman to bring his grandson harm. How about that?”

“Who is Old Master Xu?”

“He’s the father of the Dean of your Military Medical University!”

“But... if I go and cause trouble, even if Old General Chi doesn’t like Zhong Nuannuan anymore, what good will that do me? That will only make people despise me more, right?”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1417: You Can Have My Life

“Who asked you to cause trouble? My mom will be there too. My mom will be in charge of causing trouble and badmouthing Zhong Nuannuan in front of Old Master Chi and Old Master Xu. Then, the two of us will just pretend to be a pair of beautifully pitiful sisters. How about it? Maybe when the two old masters get angry, not only will Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan break up, Old Master Xu will also get Dean Xu to transfer you back to the VIP ward area.”

Bian Yin’s eyes lit up. “Alright, it’s decided then! Feixu, thank you!”

“What are you thanking me for? We’re best friends. We’ll both suffer and share in our pains and sorrows!”

The intern, Nuannuan, would not accept orders from anyone. If anyone dared to order her around, they would end up like Bian Yin and Shao Xiaoke—they would be yeeted straight to the normal ward area. This matter was quickly publicized in the VIP ward area.

Everyone looked at Nuannuan differently now.

Most of the nurses thought that it was their honor to be sent by the doctor because that was proof that the doctor acknowledged your capabilities. To them, what Nuannuan did was nothing but bully others.

However, everyone was indeed shocked by her influences.

Bian Yin was the heiress of a third-tier wealthy family. Usually, she would dare to speak up to the specialists or directors in the hospital. However, she had lost her job with just a word from this intern.

While everyone hated Nuannuan, many people could not help but want to suck up to her too.

However, Nuannuan would either stay in Feng Shengxuan's ward to read technical books on surgeries or observe other specialists perform surgeries after he fell asleep. She did not have the time to pay attention to those who were jealous of her or wanted to build a relationship with her.

A few days later, the Y-ray pen Nangong Nuannuan needed was ready. Aiden brought the machine over.

"Boss, I modified this according to your request. Try it."

The Y-rays in military hospitals were all very powerful. There would usually be a huge machine behind them, and the so-called ray pens were also rather large machines used to cut or burn human tissues during surgeries.

Meanwhile, Nangong Nuannuan needed to do acupuncture. She was used to using extremely thin needles, and even holding a pen felt inconvenient.

Not to mention that the Y ray was so long and had such high power, she had no use for it.

So, after the Y-ray machine was brought over from Benevolent Angel Hospital yesterday, Aiden immediately modified the machine and adjusted the length of the beam according to the length of the needle that Nuannuan requested.

"Boss, here are some adjustment options. According to your request, there are several length adjustments here. For your convenience, I made a pen out of each slot to prevent you from feeling inconvenienced because you had to adjust the length of the needle every time you insert a needle."

Aiden made a total of ten options for her. They were set according to different lengths and were exactly the same length as her silver needles.

This way, Nuannuan would have retained a similar feel to the needles.

She took the pen and tested it on the prepared items. Then, she took off Feng Shengxuan's clothes and prepared to jab him.

Bai Liyue was a little nervous.

Feng Shengxuan, on the other hand, looked completely unconcerned.

Nuannuan glanced at him and asked, "Aren't you nervous? Aren't you afraid that I might accidentally pierce through your body?"

Feng Shengxuan smiled. "You can have my life if you want to, let alone poking the wrong needle."

Seeing that Nuannuan was about to refute him again, Feng Shengxuan immediately added, “Besides, didn’t Aiden say that the length of the Y-ray is limited? How vicious can you be to pierce through my body?”

Nuannuan glared at Feng Shengxuan, not wanting to talk to him.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1418: Holding His Breath

After Feng Shengxuan finished speaking, he glanced at Bai Liyue.

He realized that although Bai Liyue was still very concerned about him, something that Feng Shengxuan could not put his words on was missing from her eyes.

In the past, if he attempted to bring up the topic of being in a relationship with Nuannuan in front of Bai Liyue, Bai Liyue would not have said anything and would pretend to stay calm. Even so, he could always tell that she was unhappy or even sad.

However, ever since he saved her last time, he realized that she had changed.

Initially, he did not realize how much she had changed. After all, she still cared so much about him. For example, after this surgery, even if she was injured, she would still stay by his side.

However, he realized that Bai Liyue would never put too much focus on him anymore.

In the past, whenever he was not paying attention, Bai Liyue’s gaze would subconsciously linger on him. However, now, even if he was lying here and allowed her to look at him, she would not look at him more than necessary.

Just like now, he purposely teased Nuannuan to provoke Bai Liyue, but there was no change in Bai Liyue’s eyes. Instead, she turned her attention to Nuannuan and asked concernedly, “Nuannuan, will this thing burn his cells if it enters his body?”

Nuannuan nodded. “Yes, this thing will burn his cancer cells and stop them from spreading.”

Bai Liyue nodded, then looked at Nuannuan with admiration and curiosity without giving Feng Shengxuan another glance.

Feng Shengxuan shifted his gaze away from Bai Liyue. He felt a strange sense of frustration and unhappiness.

Therefore, he could only turn his attention to his little girl and say in an indulgent tone, “I knew that my little girl is the most useful at crucial moments.”

“I’m not little anymore. Stop calling me a little girl all the time.”

“If Chi Yang can call you little girl, why can’t I?”

“Nowadays, little girls are just endearments. Big Brother Chi Yang is my boyfriend. Of course, he can call me that.”

Being angered by Nangong Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan said without thinking, “Then, I’m still your Big Bro!”

A sly look flashed across Nuannuan’s eyes as she said with a smile, “Oh, that will do.”

Feng Shengxuan, “...!!!”

Feng Shengxuan was so angry that he did not want to speak anymore. He closed his eyes and rested.

Nuannuan often made him angry, and he was already used to it. Yet, when it came to Bai Liyue’s anger, Feng Shengxuan could not get rid of the stuffiness that he felt in his chest.

He wanted to lose his temper with Bai Liyue, but he did not know where this temper came from or how to get rid of it.

Therefore, he decided it was too much effort to speak.

Nuannuan looked at Feng Shengxuan, who had his eyes closed, and said, “Big Bro, I’ve never used this thing before. I don’t know what the exact situation will be like. In the past, I often used acupuncture on you. If the pain you feel is worse than acupuncture, you must tell me.”

“Mm.”

Feng Shengxuan grunted and stopped talking.

Using the pen, Nuannuan hovered somewhere below Feng Shengxuan’s skin and press the ray button in the same manner a silver needle would pierce through it.

Since it was her first attempt, her aim was off. The ray did not burn the cancer cells, but a large normal cell instead.

Nuannuan glanced at Feng Shengxuan and asked, “If you feel any discomfort or pain, please tell me.”

“Didn’t you already say that? I’ll only know when you actually carry out the acupuncture.”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1419: : Treatment

Nuannuan raised an eyebrow. So Feng Shengxuan did not feel anything when a perfectly fine cell just got burned off?

However, it made sense. A cell was only so big in a human body, so it was normal that he did not feel anything.

Therefore, Nuannuan perked up and started burning the large cancer cell that she detected earlier.

This time, she hit her target.

A 0.0003mm Y-ray shot into the black cancer cell. Although it only hit a corner of the cancer cell, the cancer cell acted as though it was extremely adverse to getting burned—it popped like a soap bubble the moment it came into contact with the ray.

After one of the cancer cells was burned away, the other cancer cells in the human body seemed to sense something amiss. It was as though they sensed threat in their territory, and eight or nine huge cancer cells popped out to take the place of the cancer cell that disappeared.

Nuannuan was stunned. She had no idea where these cancer cells came from.

However, now that she had something so useful, no matter how many of these things appeared, she would be able to destroy them.

To Nuannuan, they materialized in a chunk, so there was no need for her to aim. Nuannuan shot a beam and swept across the cells. The cancer cells disappeared straight away.

Then, as if their authority was threatened, these cancer cells started to pop up one by one. However, Nuannuan realized that whenever cancer cells appeared, normal cells would pop up at the same time without fear. On the contrary, those usually arrogant supernatural cells were far away from the cancer cells, as if they were avoiding a flood or ferocious beast.

It felt like an entire world maintained by these cells was stowed away in the human body.

Supernatural cells were like treacherous officials. They were very active in other parts of the body where cancer cells were absent. No matter where they went, normal cells would tend to avoid them.

However, once these supernatural cells floated close to the cancer cells, they were immediately scared away. They quickly pushed the normal cells toward the cancer cells while they tried to stay as far away from them as possible.

Nuannuan was even more surprised to observe a supernatural cell that was moving too fast in the body and failed to brake in time. As a result, when it approached the cancer cell, this supernatural cell started to expand rapidly. When it touched the cancer cell, this superpower cell directly became an ordinary cell.

Nuannuan raised her eyebrows and continued to observe the reaction of other supernatural cells when they approached the cancer cells. The result was the same.

Either they would escape in advance, or they could only wait for their destruction.

Only normal cells would fight against cancer cells.

However, the resistance between normal cells and cancer cells depended entirely on immunity.

Take the supernatural cell, for example. After it turned into a normal cell, it would become very small and weak. Even though it was fighting against the group of cancer cells beside it, when the two types of cells fought to consume each other through phagocytosis, the supernatural cell would look much weaker than normal cells. It nearly got swallowed by the cancer cells immediately.

Since Nuannuan paused for a long time, Feng Shengxuan who was resting his eyes, Bai Liyue, and Aiden, started to wonder.

Bai Liyue asked concernedly, "What's wrong, Nuannuan? Is there a problem?"

Nuannuan shook her head, a smile of realization forming on her lips. “Nothing’s wrong. This thing Aiden made is very useful.”

Aiden was relieved.

“That’s good. Boss, I’ll head over to the company first then.”

“Okay.”

Bai Liyue glanced at Aiden. “It must have been hard on you. I’ll come and help you once he’s discharged.”

“It’s fine, I can handle it. Big Sis Luna, you should just focus on taking care of Big Bro.”

After Imperial Phoenix Group was transferred to the country, the only constant variable was the employees working in various departments although they moved everything as it was. Their biggest headache involved the employees working in the headquarters and tax issues.

Bai Liyue needed to recuperate, and so did Feng Shengxuan. All of the burdens of Imperial Phoenix Group were now shouldered by Aiden.

He was so busy that he could only play games for two hours a day.

Feng Shengxuan looked at Nuannuan and blurted in spite of himself, “Are you doing acupuncture? Why can’t I feel anything?”

As Nuannuan performed the acupuncture, she replied, “Right now, each point will only make a 0.0003mm opening, and it enters your body through your pores. Of course, you won’t be able to feel anything. However, you’ll probably feel it when it lands on your nerves. Don’t worry, I’ll make sure not to pierce your nerves.”

“So, you’re already performing acupuncture?” Feng Shengxuan asked in disbelief.

“Of course.”

After that, she continued her acupuncture.

After burning up the cancer cells for more than half an hour, Nuannuan realized that the frantically attacking cancer cells seemed to be timider now, and they did not dare move toward the healthy parts of the body.

They had a change of course and started moving toward the incision where Feng Shengxuan was operated on.

After the surgery, even though the surface of the wound did not get better, all the cancerous cells near the opening had disappeared and were replaced by normal cells.

These cells were like newborn babies. The small ones were invisible to Nuannuan, and the big ones were much smaller than the typical normal cells and cancer cells around them.

A dark cancer cell swam over and swallowed an intact normal cell. After swallowing the cell, the cancer cell needed some time to phagocytose the cell. Yet, in that duration, normal cells swarmed toward the cancer cell and surrounded it, slowly breaking it down.

However, after the cancer cell was swallowed up, another seven or eight cancer cells appeared.

Even though the infant normal cells were trying their best to break the cancer cells apart, there were too many cancer cells this time. Nearly a hundred normal cells were needed to destroy one cancer cell while a cancer cell could devour a few normal cells at one go.

Therefore, all of a sudden, the number of normal cells decreased greatly. While the cancer cells on this side swarmed over, it might look like their numbers could not exceed the normal cells. Yet, at this rate, normal cells would all be devoured in less than half a month.

When that happened, this area would be covered by cancer cells again. Then, it would rot from the outside until it formed another tumor.

This was also the reason why if one removed only the tumor and excluded the surrounding areas infected by cancer cells, the tumor would 100% appear once more.

This was also the reason why chemotherapy was necessary after surgery.

Radiation therapy was made possible by X-ray technology too. However, since doctors did not have X-ray vision, and the machines were not that advanced to differentiate cancer cells from normal cells, they could only resort to killing the cancer cells alongside the normal cells.. They forced the human body to reestablish its immunity, hoping that the newly grown cells would be normal cells, not cancer cells.
