Chapter 1421: How Could She Not Like Me

Cancer was a major problem in the medical field. Most cancer patients died, and the most important reason was that after chemotherapy, the body's immune system would be damaged. How could they recover so easily?

Another thing was that no one could predict whether the place where cancer cells used to grow would no longer house cancer cells when new cells regenerated.

Once the cancer cells grew again and reached a certain number, they would multiply rapidly in the human body.

This was also why it was not easy to get a tumor, but once you got one, it could quickly cause death in a very short period of time, especially in the later stages of cancer.

As Nuannuan performed acupuncture on Feng Shengxuan to kill the cancer cells in his body, she finally understood all that.

"Big Bro, can I draw some of your blood back later?" Nuannuan looked up at Feng Shengxuan.

She had a rough understanding of the battle between cancer cells and normal cells. What she wanted to find out next was the relationship between cancer cells and supernatural cells. She wanted to see if the same type of cancer cells could destroy supernatural cells or vice versa.

If she could, would she be able to extract the substance from cancer cells and combine it with pharmacology to create something that even the supernatural cells would be afraid of?

If she could develop a drug that was effective against supernatural cells, did that not mean that they longer had to worry the next time they had to deal with those test subjects? After all, those people relied on worms to transform normal cells into superpower cells.

At this thought, Nuannuan became excited.

She expected Feng Shengxuan to ask her why she needed his blood sample, but he gave her nothing but a glance and a grunt in reply. He trusted Nuannuan completely.

Therefore, even though she knew that Feng Shengxuan had feelings for her and hated Big Brother Chi Yang, Nuannuan could never hate Feng Shengxuan.

"Nuannuan, will you do acupuncture on him every day?" Bai Liyue asked.

"Not necessarily, I'm not sure yet. I'll see how things go tomorrow."

"Aren't you going to a banquet tomorrow?"

"It's fine. The banquet is in the afternoon. I'll definitely make time to come in the morning or afternoon to check on his conditions after acupuncture."

Feng Shengxuan opened his eyes and said in satisfaction, "At least you have a conscience."

The corner of Nuannuan's mouth twitched. Why was he making her sound heartless?

After Feng Shengxuan finished speaking, his gaze seemed to drift toward Bai Liyue. Bai Liyue merely smiled at Nuannuan and did not show any signs of being jealous.

This time, Feng Shengxuan felt even more stifled.

Yet, he did not understand why he felt that way.

Could he really be one of those legendary scums? While he loved Nuannuan to the point of entrusting his life in her hands, he also enjoyed being Bai Liyue's target of adoration.

So, now that he realized that she no longer liked him, he was unhappy?

Even so...

Why did Bai Liyue not like him?

Could there be a better man than him in this world?

Or could it be that... Bai Liyue had also fallen for Chi Yang?

Due to the surgery, Nuannuan did not allow him to do anything. Other than being forced to watch dramas by Dan Qi, he only had room for his imagination to run wild.

*****

The next day, Old Master Chi, Old Master Nangong, Nangong Shu, and Nangong Jin went to visit Old Master Xu early in the morning for the Lunar New Year.

Elder Xu's name was Xu Xun, and he was a general. He had once been the general of the military base in the south.. Back then, he and Old Master Nangong were known as the Two Tigers, one of them in the north while another in the south.

Chapter 1422: An Invitation? What The Heck?

Old Master Xu only had one son, Xu Ming. He was the dean of the Medical Affairs University and was a lieutenant general.

Today was Old Master Xu's family banquet, and the guests invited were all old friends and acquaintances from the military base.

Therefore, the people who came today were not necessarily from wealthy families. There were also some from the younger generations that Old Master Xu liked even though they did not have a good family background. This was equivalent to providing them a platform to get to know the generals.

Nuannuan was supposed to go with Old Master Chi, her grandfather, uncles, and brothers, but she was worried about Feng Shengxuan, so she rushed over to the hospital first. She only left when Nangong Ze came to pick her up at half-past ten.

Nangong Ze was also a graduate of the Military Medical University, so he was also invited today.

Initially, Nangong Ze had plans to go with his grandfather, Eldest Uncle, and Eldest Brother, but when he heard that Elder Xu was going to introduce Nuannuan to everyone today, he realized that Nuannuan was going as well. Thus, the youngest brother of the Nangong family insisted on going with his younger sister.

The Xu residence was located in a single villa in the courtyard of the military base. Although the Xu family had a butler and guards, most of the people that Old Master Xu invited today were from the military base. Regardless of their identities, none of them had to act pretentious and so, everyone parked their own cars.

Since Elder Xu was treating, most of the guests arrived very early. They were thinking that if Elder Xu's invited Elder Chi and Elder Chi arrived earlier, they would be able to pay their respects to Elder Chi.

Therefore, when Nangong Ze brought Nangong Nuannuan to the Xu residence, they noticed many cars parked outside.

"Nuannuan, why don't you get off first? I might have to park the car at the quad."

The villa area was already filled to the brim with parked cars. Nangong Ze could not possibly park his car in front of someone else's house, so he could only park his car in the parking lot in the residential compound and walk for several minutes.

Nuannuan scanned the area. She did not want to walk either, so she nodded and got off.

"Then, come in as soon as you're done. I'll go look for Grandpa first."

"Okay."

Nuannuan got out of the car and walked in, but was stopped by the guard at the door.

"Do you have an invitation?"

Nuannuan paused.

An invitation? What the heck? Why did she not have one?

Just as Nangong Ze was about to drive off, he heard the guard's words and immediately said, "Yes, we do."

Then, he waved the invitation and said to the guard, "We came together."

The guard immediately saluted Nangong Ze and Nangong Nuannuan before letting her in.

Previously, in Jiang District's military base, Chi Yang lived in a two-bedroom house. Nuannuan never knew that it was possible to live in such a luxurious environment in the military base's residential compound.

The Xu residence was a three-story villa. Large courtyards surrounded the house, and the perimeter of the villa was covered by trees. From here, it looked like there was only one family living here.

It was obvious that both Old Master Xu and Nuannuan's grandfather liked stones.

The courtyard was filled with all kinds of stones. The flowers and plants were planted according to the designs created with the stones as the main, while each cluster of plants became decoration that complemented the stones.

Elder Xu held this banquet especially for Nuannuan. On account of this, Nuannuan decided to bring Elder Xu and her two grandfathers to the stone-gambling market for a battle someday. That would make the three elders happy.

As she still had to wait for Nangong Ze, Nuannuan did not zoom into the place to look for her two grandfathers.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1423: Nuannuan Was Fooled

Nuannuan looked at the stones in the courtyard with interest. The more she looked at them, the more she found them interesting.

Although Nangong Nuannuan had kept a low profile when she came in, everyone who came to attend the Xu family's banquet was dressed very formally. The men were all wearing military uniforms. As for anyone who was not in the military, they were clad in formal suits, while women wore gowns.

The courtyard was surrounded by fire pits. Even though they were outdoors, the fire pits' presence raised the temperature from zero to about ten degrees. Therefore, the socialites and ladies would not feel cold in their long-sleeved outfits.

As for Nuannuan, for the convenience of carrying out acupuncture on Feng Shengxuan, she tied her hair in a high bun. She wore a loose baby blue turtleneck sweater, a white down jacket, a pair of knee-length jeans, and a pair of black and white boots from Dr. Martens. Even though she was covered in an outfit with garments from the top-tier international brands, she looked very casual and ordinary—a stark contrast to everyone else.

Moreover, Nangong Nuannuan was stunningly beautiful. The second everyone entered through the gates, she attracted the attention of many guests in the courtyard.

Everyone turned to look at Nangong Nuannuan. Some of the young officers even started to ask her who she was and whether she had a boyfriend.

Nuannuan felt everyone's gaze on her immediately. Some were stunned, some were friendly, some were filled with despise, while some were hostile.

Nuannuan could not help but lament how wronged she felt.

Yesterday, she had made it a point to ask Grandpa Chi if she needed to wear formal clothes to attend this banquet. If it was, she would wear a formal gown.

Who knew that Grandpa Chi and Big Brother Chi Yang would tell her that it was just a normal family banquet, and it was fine as long as she did not wear pajamas?

What she did not know was that it was supposed to be a formal banquet today. However, in the auction that they previously attended, even though Nuannuan had only worn her most conservative-looking gown, Chi Yang had gotten a nosebleed. It had taken her a long time to leave the house, and the Chi family's grandfather and grandson had tacitly crossed out the possibility of letting Nuannuan wear a gown.

Therefore, when Nuannuan asked if she should wear a gown, the grandfather and grandson both lied without any prior agreement.

Especially Chi Yang.

He needed to show up at the special forces first, and he did not know if he could make it in time. Moreover, there would definitely be many young officers at the Xu family's banquet, so Chi Yang did not want his wife to wear a gown that could please those idiots' eyes.

She secretly glanced at the suave-looking officers and well-dressed ladies in the courtyard. She felt like she had been fooled.

However, since it was Big Brother Chi Yang and Grandpa Chi who had tricked her, she could do nothing but give in.

A few of the second lieutenants were stunned when they saw Nuannuan. She was so beautiful that she was even more dazzling than the rainbow. It would be great if she could fall for one of them, but if she did not, it would still be nice to befriend her!

Several young and promising officers stepped forward toward Nuannuan.

Just as they were about to strike up a conversation, a woman's shrill voice rang from behind them.

"Zhong Nuannuan, you shameless woman. Why are you here at Elder Xu's banquet? Chi Yang won't be coming today because he has something to attend to. Don't tell me that you've cheated on Chi Yang with another man again and that's why you have the chance to attend Elder Xu's banquet?"

The woman's shrill voice attracted the attention of all the guests.

When everyone turned to look at her, they saw her striding towards the door.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1424: Seducing Chi Yang

Amidst the shrill noise, there was only one person standing alone at the door—it was the girl who looked as dazzling as the first ray of sunlight in early spring.

Shameless woman?

Cheating on someone?

Could this girl be affiliated with these words?

When Nangong Nuannuan heard the insult, she looked up to stare into the angry eyes of Hong Feixu's mother.

Sharing in the same anger, standing next to Hong Feixu's mother were Hong Feixu herself and Bian Yin, who just got transferred from the VIP ward area to the normal ward area.

Coldness flickered across Nangong Nuannuan's eyes.

She held herself back so many times against Hong Feixu, but this woman just did not understand what was good for her.

As the saying goes, the same incident could not happen more than thrice.

This woman had already provoked Nuannuan twice. This time, even if she was Big Brother Chi Yang's subordinate, that could not save Hong Feixu from what was about to happen next.

Hong Feixu's mother strode toward Nangong Nuannuan aggressively with Hong Feixu and Bian Yin in tow. She could not hide the twisted smile that seeped with a cruel determination to destroy Nuannuan.

After they arrived, they wanted to talk to Elder Chi. Who knew that the Nangong family would also come today? Not only the Nangong family, but even the Xiao family and the Ning family had come as well.

The few big shots hung out inside, and outsiders could not interrupt them.

Although Madam Hong was domineering, she was only the wife of a third-tier wealthy family. It was all thanks to her eldest son and youngest daughter who possessed great potential in the military base that provided the Hong family the chance to attend this banquet. In particular, Madam Hong's eldest son gained Elder Xu's favor.

Even though she really wanted to find Elder Chi and tell him about Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan, seeing that there were so many big shots around Elder Chi, she cowered.

With more and more guests showing up, the chances of her having a conversation with Elder Chi were getting lower and lower. Madam Hong and Hong Feixu were struggling with what to do when Zhong Nuannuan—the one person they had never expected to see at this banquet—appeared in Elder Xu's banquet!

It was like passing a sleepy person a pillow!

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the aggressive Madam Hong who seemed to be condemning her and sneered, "Madam Hong, I've already mentioned this before—you can eat whatever you want, but you can't say whatever you want. Last time, you accused me of two-timing. This time, you accused me of cheating on Chi Yang. Your daughter made a scene at the entrance of the military hospital and called me a b*tch. Don't you know that slandering is also a crime? I've already forgiven you time and time again, but this is the third time you've provoked me like rabid dogs. I won't forgive you again!"

"Huh, slander? Me? Slandering you? Zhong Nuannuan, let's disregard the fact that you have no family background since the Chi family doesn't judge people based on their background. But you, the daughter of a spy, actually went to seduce Chi Yang, a man who stands at the top of the pyramid. Does Old Marshal Chi know about this?"

“What? This woman seduced Chi Yang?”

“How can anyone seduce Chi Yang?”

“But this woman is so pretty. Who knows, maybe she’s hooked up with him?”

“Is Chi Yang someone who can be seduced just because she’s pretty? If that’s the case, wouldn’t he have gotten seduced by so many before her already?”

“This woman isn’t just any pretty girl. She’s even prettier than those international A-list celebrities! Perhaps Chi Yang really has high standards and he finally found someone he’s taken a liking to.”

“Am I the only one who’s focusing on the part about spies? What spy? Does it mean what I think it means? If she’s really a spy’s daughter, she won’t be able to pass the initial inspection in the future!”

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1425: Mind Your Words

“Is inspection the main point here? The main point is that if Old Marshal Chi were to find out, would he suffer in anger, I wonder?”

In the front yard, most of the officers did not express any opinion on Madam Hong’s words. However, a few socialites and wealthy ladies who had benefited from the limelight quickly chattered away.

They would never get tired of this kind of gossip involving the wealthy.

“Are you done?” Nangong Nuannuan glanced at Madam Hong, Hong Feixu, and Bian Yin’s gleeful faces, ready to facesmack them when they were done.

“Done? I’m afraid I won’t be able to finish talking about those horrible things even if I have three days and three nights!”

After saying that, Madam Hong scanned the faces of the people from the front yard, the side yards, and the backyard that had been attracted over. Seeing that Elder Chi and Elder Xu were staying inside the house, she was afraid that her voice would not be able to disturb the big shots inside, so she raised her voice.

With the anger of a woman whose son was fooled by a wild woman, Madam Hong spoke in a voice so loud it was nearly a shout, “Everyone, you have no idea how despicable this woman is. Our Feixu is a soldier in Eagle Special Forces. She joined Eagle with her own ability. In Eagle, our Feixu obtained a second-class meritorious service medal and two third-class meritorious service medals. She may be young, but she has already achieved many meritorious deeds!”

Since Hong Feixu wore a gown, everyone thought that she was a mere socialite. They did not expect her to be a soldier from the special forces who was not inferior to any man.

Just based on this identity alone, someone who only knew how to seduce men with her looks like Zhong Nuannuan could not compare to her. Almost all the socialites and noble ladies present immediately stood on Hong Feixu's side. Even those officers who were mesmerized by Nuannuan when they first saw her now frowned at Nuannuan.

"Our Hong Feixu enrolled in the military school when she was 18 years old. After graduating as one of the top five in school with the highest score among the female soldiers, she joined the special forces in the North military base. Later, due to her outstanding results, she was chosen by Eagle and became a member of Eagle Special Forces. I'm not exaggerating when I say my daughter has a good character and wonderful morals. Even though we are healthy, she has always persevered with her own efforts!"

Before Madam Hong stepped on Nangong Nuannuan, she praised her daughter first. This way, when she condemned Nangong Nuannuan to the bottomless pit, she could take advantage of Nuannuan's fall to show the contrast between her and her excellent daughter in front of the old generals.

Even though the old generals had not been alerted, almost everyone started to despise Nangong Nuannuan.

"Yet, my outstanding daughter. Just because this woman said a few words to Chi Yang, Chi Yang transferred her away. Not only did he remove her from Eagle, but he also transferred her from Emperor District to a place like Jiang Prefecture."

Everyone looked at the people standing in the middle in disbelief.

A few officers who admired Chi Yang immediately expressed their confusion.

"Madam Hong, please mind your words. Lieutenant General Chi is definitely not someone who doesn't know what's right and wrong, and definitely not someone who would send his comrades out after a woman whispered something into his ear."

"That's right. Even if Lieutenant General Chi likes this woman, he'd never do something like that."

Seeing that her statements were being questioned, Madam Hong said bitterly, "Chi Yang is indeed a very good child. Not only is he young and promising, but he's also humble and polite. He even saved our Feixu's life.. When Feixu was injured, he often came to visit her, so our family likes him very much."

Chapter 1426: Disdain

"However, after this woman's provocation, Chi Yang now hates our Feixu very much. He doesn't even want to maintain the basic camaraderie between comrades and transferred Feixu directly to Jiang District. Our Feixu cried for an entire night when she received the transfer order."

Madam Hong kept an eye on everyone's responses as she spoke. When she saw Old Master Chi, Old Master Xu, and even Old Master Nangong walk out of the building, her voice became louder and her expression became more animated in her pained anger.

"You have no idea how disgusting this woman is! Not only did she instigate Chi Yang to transfer our Feixu away, she even used her status as Chi Yang's girlfriend to intern at the military hospital. Besides, shouldn't an intern act like one?!"

“In the end, under the guise of an internship, she airdropped herself in a VIP ward and hooked up with Best Actor Feng Shengxuan. Many nurses saw that she often leans on Feng Shengxuan’s and does despicable things.

“Not only that, she even used Chi Yang’s connections to get the dean of the military hospital to inform all the specialists in the department that she would be observing all the doctors’ surgeries. Think about it, she’s a student who hasn’t attended any university and hasn’t even finished her Year 3 Senior. What right do you think you have to sit in the specialists’ surgeries? Not to mention that it’s the only thing you have to do. Do you think that you can be shameless just because you’re pretty?

“What’s even worse is that the doctor in the VIP ward, Bian Yin, who is also the daughter of the Bian family in Emperor District, asked you to help deliver something to the HR Department. In the end, you complained about it and made use of your status as Chi Yang’s girlfriend to get the dean to transfer Bian Yin out from the VIP ward to the normal ward area. Doctors aren’t divided by their social status and they should treat everyone the same, be it leaders, or ordinary people. Even so, everyone knows that working in the VIP ward area is easier than working in the normal ward area. Dr. Bian hasn’t done anything wrong, so what right do you have to get the dean to order Dr. Bian to leave?”

After hearing Madam Hong’s words, everyone was convinced that Nangong Nuannuan had gone overboard.

“Furthermore, with how so much Chi Yang indulged you, you should at least treat Chi Yang well, right? Who knew that you covet what’s in the pot while eating from the bowl? Did you think that Chi Yang is a mere soldier, that he’s poor for you? So, you go hook up with another rich guy?

“Do you all know? The reason why Chi Yang transferred our Feixu away was because I exposed this woman in front of Chi Yang. I told him that she’s having an affair outside and is in an ambiguous relationship with another man. Chi Yang didn’t believe me at all and was convinced that I was merely gossiping, so he transferred Feixu away. However, I swear by the reputation of our Hong family’s eighteen generations of ancestors as a guarantee—this is a promiscuous woman, a b*tch who will get close to any man she sees!”

All the guests were dumbstruck as they looked at Nangong Nuannuan with disdain.

Old Master Chi and Old Master Nangong nearly died of anger because of Madam Hong. They pushed the crowd aside and walked in.

Of course, Madam Hong had seen them too. Just as she was thinking about how to step on that b*tch Zhong Nuannuan, she saw the gate open again.

Two people walked in from the entrance. One was Chi Yang, and the other was Nangong Ze.

When the two entered the room, they noticed that everyone was looking at them. Based on their hesitant intent to say something to them, Chi Yang knew what had happened.

To be honest, he had already given Hong Feixu and his mother a lot of face. However, the mother and daughter did not take his words seriously at all.. If they were destined to lose Chi Yang, they wanted to destroy his Nuannuan too.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1427: Photos And Truth

Therefore, the mother and daughter could not blame Chi Yang for what happened next!

“Chi Yang, you came at the right time! Do you know this man?”

Madam Hong rushed to Chi Yang’s side and pointed at Nangong Ze.

“Not only do I know him, but I’m also close to him.” Chi Yang’s reply was so cold that water could freeze.

Hong Feixu had a bad feeling when she heard that.

“Close to him?”

After saying that, Madam Hong scoffed and looked at Nangong Ze with a cold smile, saying to Chi Yang, “Do you know that there are always a few scumbags in this world who would deliberately trick the people who are closest to them?”

At this moment, some of the people who recognized the Nangong family’s Sixth Young Master looked at Madam Hong as if they were looking at a lunatic.

Who the hell did she think she was? Who gave her the guts to speak so terribly to the Nangong family’s Sixth Young Master?

Nangong Ze was scolded as a scumbag for no reason, but he did not get angry. Instead, he calmly looked at this old witch to see what she was up to.

As Madam Hong stood at the front, she did not notice the gazes coming out from the people behind her. She acted as the heavenly judge and said, “Let me ask you, do you know Zhong Nuannuan?”

Nangong Ze nodded cooperatively. “Yes. Why? Can’t I?”

“Okay, then answer me again. Did you go to Eagle Special Forces on the 27th of December? Do you own a limited edition Lamborghini? And was the person you picked up at the gate Zhong Nuannuan? When Zhong Nuannuan got into your car, did you put on the seatbelt for her? Did you smile at her? Did you touch her head? Did you flirt with her? Don’t tell me that Zhong Nuannuan is your sister-in-law, and don’t tell me that you and Zhong Nuannuan are just ordinary friends. If you’re just friends, why did you touch her head? If you’re just friends, why were you smiling at her so lovingly for?”

Nangong Ze had an epiphany. “So, you’re the one who kept staring at us at the entrance of Eagle Special Forces.”

Initially, Madam Hong was worried that the man would deny everything. Yet, much to her surprise, this man admitted that he was there like an idiot.

“Hehe, it’s great that you admitted it.”

After saying that, Madam Hong looked at Chi Yang and asked, “Chi Yang, did you hear that? He admitted that he was with Zhong Nuannuan that day himself. When I told you that Zhong Nuannuan is a tattered shoe, you didn't believe me. Now you believe me, right? This woman, when she's dating you, she's also with this friend of yours. Not only that, did you know that after you introduced her to the job at the military hospital, she took advantage of the fact that the chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group, Feng Shengxuan, was hospitalized and went to seduce him? Come, come, let me show you how she seduced Feng Shengxuan."

After saying that, Madam Hong displayed a screenshot of the hospital corridor that she had prepared beforehand.

Not only did she show the picture to Chi Yang, but she also showed it to everyone.

"Everyone, take a look. There are several photos here. To prevent people from saying that I'm slandering her, these photos were taken from the surveillance cameras. The time, images, and the truth are all there. Zhong Nuannuan wore the same outfit today. Everyone, take a look at the look, color, and color of her pants. Then, take a look at this shameless photo of her lying on Feng Shengxuan's body."

After saying that, Madam Hong looked at Nangong Nuannuan and shoved the phone in front of her, leaving only 20cm distance between Nuannuan and the phone. "Zhong Nuannuan, what else do you have to say?"

The next moment, Madam Hong found her hand and phone were held by two people.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1428: Introductions

The hands that grabbed Madam Hong's hand and phone respectively were none other than Chi Yang and Nangong Ze.

Chi Yang did not want to touch Madam Hong's hand, so he only held her phone to stop her dirty phone from touching his wife.

Nangong Ze grabbed Madam Hong's arm without hesitation and pushed her, causing her to stagger.

Chi Yang let go of her phone when he saw Madam Hong stumble, sending Madam Hong's phone fell to the ground.

Madam Hong looked at Chi Yang angrily. "You still want to protect her after all that? Other than her good looks, what else does she have that's better than my Feixu?"

Everyone came to a realization when they heard Madam Hong's words. The reason why Madam Hong was so angry that she tried so desperately to squash Zhong Nuannuan under her feet was to help her daughter!

Her daughter, Hong Feixu, had taken a fancy to her superior.

"Looks like you're done talking. Since you're done, I'll finish the rest for you. I hope you won't interrupt before I'm done."

"First, let me introduce my fiancée, Nangong Nuannuan."

As he spoke, Chi Yang reached out and pulled Nuannuan into his embrace.

The two leaned against each other. Be it their height or looks, one was tough in his austerity while the other was sunny; one was serious while one was gentle; one was like the snow in winter while the other was like the first ray of sunlight in spring.

As the couple stood next to each other, everyone could not help but sigh. "They look so good with each other."

Only one officer said, "Am I the only one who realized that Commander Chi introduced his fiancée as Nangong Nuannuan and not Zhong Nuannuan?"

This person's voice was not deafening but it was loud enough for everyone to hear him.

Everyone was busy getting impressed by Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan's beauty, lamenting about how it was no wonder that Chi Yang liked Zhong Nuannuan so much. This woman was so beautiful that she surpassed Hong Feixu by 180 streets. However, after hearing this, the crowd exploded.

Everyone looked at Chi Yang in shock. Some glanced at Old General Nangong, Great General Nangong Shu, and Major General Nangong Jin.

Everyone scoured their faces for any indication that the Nangong Nuannuan mentioned by Chi Yang had anything to do with the Nangong family name.

As expected, everyone noticed how Old Master Nangong, Great General Nangong, and Major General Nangong had such grave expressions on their faces. As for what they were gloomy about, those who knew Nangong Ze and heard Chi Yang's introduction basically understood what was going on.

However, those who did not know Nangong Ze were still completely clueless.

Naturally, that included Madam Hong, Hong Feixu, and Bian Yin.

When they heard Chi Yang introduce Nuannuan as Nangong Nuannuan, the three of them were stunned and could not recollect their thoughts.

Hence, Chi Yang looked at Madam Hong and continued, "If you still can't react in time when I introduce my fiancée, Nangong Nuannuan, then I can introduce you to the person you claimed that Nuannuan had been cheating on me with."

After saying that, Chi Yang looked at Nangong Ze and said, "This is my brother-in-law, Nuannuan's sixth brother."

Madam Hong, "..."

Hong Feixu, "..."

Bian Yin, "..."

Nangong Ze, who had become a scumbag for no reason, could not understand how things turned out to be this way for no reason.

He had only touched his sister's head once, and this was the first time he had done so. Setting aside the fact that someone saw his action, they even stained such a pure sibling relationship with such disgusting assumptions. This was intolerable!

This made him furious..

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1429: No Touchie?

“Madam Hong, can’t I touch my sister’s head?”

After saying that, Nangong Ze reached out to pat Nuannuan’s head affectionately.

Hmm, there was also a bun on it. She had a cute hairstyle and an adorable head shape.

Nangong Jin, who was standing next to her, walked over and stood behind her. He took the opportunity to pat Nuannuan’s head too.

After all, those few at home had already patted Nuannuan’s head before, and they kept showing off in front of him, talking about how great patting her head made them feel. They also would not stop talking about how it felt like to pat Nuannuan’s head.

Nangong Jin’s personality was somewhat similar to Chi Yang’s. They both were the cool, laconic type. Although he was extremely envious that his younger brothers could touch Nuannuan’s head, he could not just touch Nuannuan for no reason even though he wanted to do that too, right? He could not make himself do such a thing either, so he could only scratch the itch in his heart in envy.

At this moment, Nangong Jin finally seized the opportunity. Without hesitation, he touched Nuannuan’s cute head. It felt really good.

After putting his hand down, Nangong Jin did not think it through before reaching out to touch Nuannuan’s head again.

After he was done, he finally replied coldly, “Madam Hong, just because we pat our little sister’s head, does that make her a used shoe or a two-timer?”

Looking at the two pig trotters on his wife’s head, Chi Yang, “...”

Looking at the three men standing beside Nangong Nuannuan, Madam Hong, “...!!!”

“How... How can you be from the Nangong family? No... that’s impossible!”

When Madam Hong returned to her senses, she knew she effed up.

“Isn’t your surname Zhong? Isn’t your father a spy? Aren’t you from Jiang District?”

“Nuannuan is the long-lost child from my Nangong family. She’s my granddaughter.”

At this moment, Old Master Nangong walked out with a bleak expression on his face.

At this moment, an officer from Eagle Special Forces took this opportunity to inform Chi Yang about how Madam Hong was humiliating Nangong Nuannuan in front of everyone.

Chi Yang’s expression, which was already so austere that anyone would suspect his face was permanently paralyzed, finally turned coal-black.

After Old Master Nangong stepped forward, Old Master Chi also stepped forward. He looked coldly at Madam Hong, whose face was flushed red, and said coldly, “Nuannuan is the future daughter-in-law of the Chi family. She’s a member of the Chi family. Whoever slanders, insults, and destroys her reputation is equivalent to committing all those heinous crimes to the Chi family!”

“No... no... Elder Chi, please listen to my explanation. I...”

“I think you’re the one who needs to listen to reason, Madam Hong. Otherwise, you might go out and slander my fiancée’s reputation on another day.

“Regarding the insults and slander that you just blathered in front of everyone, I’ll now explain it to everyone solemnly.

Firstly, my fiancée’s former name was indeed Zhong Nuannuan...”

Chi Yang explained the treatment Zhong Kuijun and Jiang Shuwan had for Nuannuan, and how Nuannuan had seen through their scheme and figured out her real identity.

“Therefore, in the military hospital, Nuannuan was unwilling to mention her surname. It wasn’t because she was embarrassed to say that her surname was Zhong, but because she did not want everyone to know that she was the granddaughter of the Nangong family.

“Think about it. If she had told everyone in advance that her name was Nangong Nuannuan, would those nurses have been dissatisfied with her because she received special treatment? ”

Although Chi Yang’s words were stern and domineering, it was undeniable that if the principal of the Military Medical Hospital and the dean had revealed Nuannuan’s identity to the public right from the start...

Chapter 1430: Finished

When everyone found out that this intern was actually Nangong Nuannuan, not only would they refrain from gossiping, they would even try their best to gain her favors or express their goodwill.

“Moreover, Nuannuan didn’t join the hospital as an interning nurse, but as an acupuncture specialist. She joined the hospital to learn from the specialists in the military hospital. During all that, Nuannuan will be teaching them acupuncture techniques in exchange. At the same time, Nuannuan promised to help those specialists contact the mysterious and miraculous pharmacist in Sab, and purchase a batch of medicine that the specialists needed urgently. Therefore, those specialists were willing to let Nuannuan observe their surgeries. The principal of the Military Medical University and the dean of the military hospital, as well as the two senior officers of the military hospital, made it very clear in front of all the specialists and doctors in various departments. Let me ask you, why should an acupuncture specialist who’s only going to the military hospital to observe clinical surgeries be sent on errands by a mere VIP ward doctor? Also, are you sure that you were fired by the dean because Nuannuan was angry at you for sending her on errands?”

When she found out Nangong Nuannuan’s true identity, Bian Yin’s face had already turned pale.

She knew that she was finished. Everything was over for her.

In the face of Chi Yang's oppressive questioning, Bian Yin found it difficult to remain on her feet. Her entire body felt limp, and she wished she could dig a hole and bury herself in it forever.

At this moment, Qin MUYANG, who was the dean of the military hospital and Xu Ming's right-hand man, stood up and declared solemnly, "I was the one who gave the order to transfer Bian Yin to the normal ward area. The reason wasn't that Bian Yin had ordered Nuannuan around, but because Bian Yin had disregarded the military hospital's rules and barged into the VIP ward without permission, triggering the patient to lodge a complaint against her."

This time, the way everyone looked at Madam Hong and Hong Feixu had completely changed.

Everything was different from what these two had said.

Was that a soldier in the special forces? Did she still deserve the title of being a tyrannical rose in their hearts?

What was the difference between this and those shameless white lotuses outside?

She made herself sound so holy, yet she trampled on others as though they were completely useless.

If the people from the Chi and Nangong families did not come today and Dean Qin MUYANG did not come out to explain, everyone would mistake a good lady as a wild card and a worn shoe that loved two-timing people, right?

The main point was that she was the polar opposite of that biased narrative.

She was the precious young miss of the Nangong family and she had avoided using her surname in the hospital just to keep a low profile. She was nothing the three women accused her of!

This Madam Hong and Hong Feixu were really too shameless!

While the heated discussion kept going, Chi Yang had already squatted down to pick up the phone that Madam Hong had dropped on the ground. He glanced at the screen time and used his phone to hack into the VIP ward area of the military hospital.

"Just now, she showed everyone a picture of Nuannuan lying on Feng Shengxuan's body, and she claimed that our Nuannuan is used to two-timing. Previously, she cheated on me with her brother, but she shifted her target to Feng Shengxuan after finding out about him. This is the picture she showed everyone. The time in the picture is a quarter to eleven on February 4th. From this angle, our Nuannuan looked like she was lying on Feng Shengxuan."

Then, Chi Yang turned his phone around and faced the screen at everyone.

"This is a video taken on February 4th at 10:43 am. This video was taken from Feng Shengxuan's room. Seeing this from a different angle will prove that my fiancée isn't cheating on me.."
