Chapter 1431: The Real Video

Everyone gathered around, including Old Master Nangong and Old Master Chi. When everyone saw that Nuannuan was operating an instrument and moving about on top of Feng Shengxuan's body, Chi Yang explained, "This is acupuncture. The instrument in Nuannuan's hand is a modified Y-ray device. This kind of ray has extremely strong penetrative power and is extremely thin. If you're not careful, it's easy to injure the patient's internal organs. That's why Nuannuan's head is lowered. However, no matter what, as long as you're not blind, you can see what Nuannuan is doing.

"Even Feng Shengxuan believes in our Nuannuan's medical skills. This indirectly proves how good Nuannuan's acupuncture skills are. It confirms what I've said about Nuannuan being an acupuncture expert, and how she'll be exchanging her expertise in acupuncture for clinical surgery knowledge at the hospital.

"Also, as for you saying that Nuannuan has cheated on Feng Shengxuan behind my back, that's even more ridiculous. Nuannuan knew Feng Shengxuan when she was three years old. To Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan is akin to her biological elder brother. If Nuannuan had feelings for Feng Shengxuan and wanted to be with him, they would have done so in the 14 years they know each other. Therefore, there isn't a need for Nuannuan to use her identity as an excuse to transfer to the VIP ward area just so she can take care of Feng Shengxuan.

"Madam Hong, I have a question for you. Since you can get a screenshot of this, you can definitely obtain a screenshot of the inside of the ward too. You clearly know what Nuannuan is doing, yet you insist on creating such ambiguous and questionable photos. Then, you even scolded my fiancée for two-timing, shameless, and a used shoe in front of so many people. What are your motives? I've already said that even if Nuannuan were not here, I wouldn't have feelings for Hong Feixu. Since that's the case, what exactly do you mean to achieve by defaming my Nuannuan?"

"I... I..."

Looking at Chi Yang with his grave face, along with Old Master Chi and Old Master Nangong, Madam Hong knew that she was in deep trouble. When Chi Yang introduced Nangong Nuannuan, she knew things were taking a turn for the worse. After all, she had offended the young miss of the Nangong family.

Previously, she had also seen the video circulating on the internet of the Nangong family acknowledging their lost miss. However, since the Nangong family's daughter had such a precious reputation, the Nangong family protected her image well. Therefore, Madam Hong did not know what Nangong Nuannuan looked like, but she knew how much the Nangong family loved and adored this young miss.

Now, look at what she had done. She had offended the daughter of the Nangong family so blatantly. She even said in front of her grandfather that she was a used shoe and a shameless two-timer. The Nangong family would probably not let the Hong family off easy.

Now, Madam Hong could not afford to think about getting Chi Yang anymore. All she could think about now was how not to let the Hong family suffer from her stupidity this time.

Madam Hong looked flustered as she scanned the people's faces, hoping that someone would put in a good word for her. However, at this moment, anyone who was even the slightest bit familiar with her had already retreated to the back, afraid that they would be affiliated to her.

Suddenly, Madam Hong saw Bian Yin. Without thinking, she immediately said, "Bian Yin screenshotted that for me. I... I really don't know anything! I only saw Miss Nangong with the Nangong family's Sixth Young Master. It was Bian Yin who told me that Miss Nangong was wooing Best Actor Feng and even showed me the photo. That's why I believed her!"

Bian Yin was already scared out of her wits. She knew that not only had she offended the precious young miss of the Nangong family today, she had also offended the entire Nangong and Chi family. If the Bian family were to find out about what had happened today, she did not even dare to imagine the outcome..

Chapter 1432: Unbearably Disgusting

At that moment, Madam Hong was also frightened to death. Bian Yin did not dare take the blame either. She immediately rebutted. "Nonsense! It's obvious that Hong Feixu has been coveting Lieutenant General Chi. All these years, she has avoided getting into relationships because she wanted a rich husband. Meanwhile, both you and your husband have long treated Lieutenant General Chi as your future son-in-law. Therefore, when you found out that Lieutenant General Chi has a fiancée, you couldn't accept the truth. To make Lieutenant General Chi break up with his fiancée, you guys resorted to every means possible to ruin Miss Nangong's reputation. To mess with her, you guys told me that I must get you a picture of her being intimate with Feng Shengxuan. Now, you guys are trying to pin the blame on me. Everyone knows who'd benefit from this once the blame is set on me, right?"

"Tsk tsk, this Hong Family is really shameless to the extreme. How dare they covet Commander Chi with their lousy family background? Aren't they overestimating themselves?"

"Overestimating oneself isn't scary. What's horrifying is underestimating others."

"It's not horrifying to underestimate others, but it is when they thought they could use the strength of an ant to topple an elephant."

"What a clown!"

Hong Feixu had long been scared out of her wits. To avoid the Hong family from suffering the Nangong and Chi families' revenge, she immediately lashed out at her accomplished and exclaimed, "Bian Yin, why are you like this? You're slandering us! You clearly knew that after Feng Shengxuan was hospitalized, you wanted to use your position to get close to Feng Shengxuan. You're Feng Shengxuan's big fan, so you wanted to use this opportunity to take care of him and make him fall in love with you. However, Feng Shengxuan wouldn't allow you to enter his ward and instead, let Miss Nangong stay in his ward. Therefore, you were jealous and went against Miss Nangong. You tried to use your identity as a doctor to suppress Miss Nangong, who had just joined the military hospital for an internship, but you ended up suffering because of Miss Nangong instead.

“To get you into the VIP ward of the hospital, your Bian family spent quite a bit of effort, didn’t they? They did all that so that you can get a rich husband from working in this ward. Eventually, you were transferred out of the hospital because you violated the rules. You blamed all of this on Miss Nangong and wanted to ruin her reputation. Now, you’re actually saying that we were the ones who instructed you to do this. Do you have any shame?”

“Hong Feixu, I always knew you were a shameless person, but I didn’t expect you to be so shameless!”

“Hehe, who’s the shameless one now? The moment you found out about Miss Nangong’s family background, you instantly started to shirk your responsibility in this. You were the one who passed us the photo to mess with Miss Nangong!”

Bian Yin sneered. “Hong Feixu, when you approached me and asked me to take a screenshot from Feng Shengxuan’s surveillance recording, I was afraid that Feng Shengxuan would vent his anger on me when he found out. Just in case you weren’t able to withstand the brunt of Feng Shengxuan’s anger and put the blame on me, I recorded our conversation. I didn’t want to be so ruthless on account of our many years of friendship, but since you’re pinning the blame on me now, this fallout is necessary.”

With that, Bian Yin played the recording of Hong Feixu when she approached Bian Yin.

It was obvious that Bian Yin had found an excuse to leave, turn on the recording function, and returned. She was trying to get information out of Hong Feixu as they spoke.

“Feixu, although your suggestion for me to take a screenshot is good, you know that Feng Shengxuan isn’t only the Best Actor, but he’s also the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group. He’s someone that even those Hollywood Best Actors and Best Actresses dare not offend..”

Chapter 1433: : Overboard

“If he were to find out about me taking the screenshot, I wouldn’t just be transferred out of the VIP ward area. After all, I’m only temporarily transferred out of the VIP ward area. There’s still a chance for me to return. If I really offended Feng Shengxuan, our Bian Family would be the one to suffer.”

“Heh, don’t worry. Feng Shengxuan will never know. You know, it will be Elder Xu’s family banquet on the day. He’s one of the top figures in the military base. All those who attend his family banquet are people who made a name for themselves. As long as you can get me a few photos of Zhong Nuannuan and Feng Shengxuan being intimate, people will definitely misunderstand them. I’ll take my phone back after I show everyone the screenshot. No one will have the chance to leak the photo you gave me.”

“Won’t you be offending Chi Yang and Zhong Nuannuan, though? They won’t take revenge on me, will they?”

“Don’t worry. Zhong Nuannuan might have been the daughter of a wealthy family in Jiang District in the past, but even if the Zhong family was still around, she wouldn’t be able to play any tricks in the Hong family's hands. Furthermore, the Zhong family is now completely bankrupt. Her father is an arrested traitor, while their Cloud Group has also been sealed up. If Grandpa Chi finds out that this woman is actually the daughter of a spy, do you think he'll agree to let Chi Yang be together with this girl? Furthermore, after this woman was abducted at the age of three, the Zhong family did very well. However, the moment she returned, the Zhong family was completely wiped out. One look and you can tell that she's a disaster that brings ruin to families. There are already so few people in the Chi family, so why would Grandpa Chi allow such a witch to join the family? If I don't kill her this time, I won't be called Hong Feixu!"

Hearing their conversation, everyone was speechless.

Previously, Madam Hong had praised Hong Feixu to the skies, convincing everyone that Hong Feixu was a loyal subject that was alienated by the demoness. However, after hearing Hong Feixu's arrogant, shameless, and disgusting words, everyone felt that Chi Yang could not have made a better decision to transfer such a person out of the Eagle Special Forces.

A person like that was not even fit to be a normal soldier, let alone a soldier in the special forces.

"You... you're slandering me! You've gone overboard!"

Hong Feixu was about to run after cursing. Madam Hong saw this and quickly prepared to leave as well.

After all, all kinds of truths had been laid out before them. If they did not leave now, they would not be able to leave, ever.

They had calculated everything, but boy, were they bad at math. They did not expect Zhong Nuannuan to have come from such a wealthy and powerful family. She was actually the long-lost little princess of the Nangong family.

Zhong Nuannuan had the support of the Nangong family, so it was impossible for her daughter, Hong Feixu.

Now, not only was her Feixu's reputation ruined, but Madam Hong was also afraid that the Nangong family would not let them off easy. Therefore, she had to hurry back and put all the money she could into her pocket, then quickly find another place to live.

However, they had only taken a few steps when Chi Yang said coldly, "Stop right there."

Both of them halted in their movements, but after looking like they thought of something, they started to speed up.

However, since Chi Yang had spoken, would the guards dare to let them go? Of course not. This was the military compound!

Therefore, when the two ran to the door, the guard stopped them immediately.

Chi Yang's face had already turned so grave it could not have gotten darker. Cold air seeped out of his body like it was free of charge. His iron-blooded, abstinent, and murderous image of a warlord instantly gave the ladies a full body of goosebumps..

Chapter 1434: Mistake

What a terrifying aura!

When they had first seen Chi Yang, they had been impressed by his handsome face and penalty-worthy body. They had been envious and jealous of Nangong Nuannuan. Yet, they were not envious at all now.

Perhaps only the young miss of the Nangong family would have the courage to withstand this man's aura. Living with such a person every day... anyone else might have died!

"Have I allowed you to leave?" Chi Yang's voice sounded like it came from hell.

Hong Feixu was still fine. After all, she was a soldier from the special forces and was somewhat immune to that. However, Madam Hong was so scared that she started to tremble.

The two of them turned around, and Hong Feixu's face was already streaked with tears. She cried with resentment and grievance, "Big Brother Chi, don't go too far!"

"Holy sh*t, who's the one who went overboard?"

"She humiliated and cursed Miss Nangong in public, and took so many screenshots to tarnish her reputation. He merely exposed her, and she accused Lieutenant General Chi of going overboard?"

"Is there something wrong with this woman's brain?"

"How did such a person get into Eagle?"

Chi Yang was not moved by her tears at all. "Just like everyone said, you've done enough to my fiancée. I've only exposed your lies, and you already think that I've gone too far. When you hurt my fiancée, why didn't it occur to you that you've gone too far too?"

"But she's fine, isn't she?"

Nangong Ze could not stand it any longer. He laughed coldly and said, "So, you mean you're only guilty if you've done significant damage right? Based on that logic, criminals who attempted murder should be acquitted? After all, not only did they fail to kill, they even got themselves arrested. That made them the victims, right?"

Hong Feixu, "..."

Madam Hong wanted to defend Hong Feixu, but she knew that they had offended someone they should not have. Therefore, whatever they said would be wrong.

Under Madam Hong's influence, Hong Feixu had completely deviated from the way she should have handled the matter regarding Chi Yang. Until now, they were still convinced that they were not in the wrong. The only fault was that the Hong family had not figured out Nangong Nuannuan's identity before. If they had figured it out earlier, they would not have casually provoked an heiress like Nangong Nuannuan. If Nangong Nuannuan was not the Nangong Family's daughter, then there would be nothing wrong with their actions today. After all, what happened in Jiang District was the truth.

“Hong Feixu, please announce the reason I transferred you to Jiang District in front of everyone. Let everyone know why you were transferred to Jiang District. Was it because of Nuannuan, this evil witch, who whispered into my ears or something that you did?”

Hong Feixu looked at Chi Yang, who had a grave expression on his face, and felt extremely regretful.

She was thoroughly embarrassed when she threw an egg at a rock. Yet, as her superior, Chi Yang still gave her that final kick when she was already at her lowest. Hong Feixu could not accept this.

“Speak!”

Chi Yang suddenly shouted. Even Madam Hong was shocked, what more Hong Feixu who was the perpetrator in this incident.

Hong Feixu bit her lips in shame until her mouth was full of the smell of blood. Then, she muttered, “Because I was hasty for quick success in my last mission. I disobeyed Instructor Ning and brought a lot of trouble to the team.”

“Were you just being hasty and disobedient?” Chi Yang asked again.

Hong Feixu looked at Chi Yang pleadingly.

After all, she was still a soldier. She had her own sense of honor and shame. Furthermore, she was a young lady from a wealthy family.. Even if she did not date Chi Yang, she could still find a good man with her status.

Chapter 1435: You Are Not Worthy

If news of this got out, Hong Feixu would really have nothing left.

However, she provoked Nangong Nuannuan. As a wife-protecting maniac, why would Chi Yang let Hong Feixu off so easily?

He would never.

After receiving a piercing glare from Chi Yang, Hong Feixu gave in.

“At that time, I didn’t know that Zhong Nuannuan was the daughter of the Nangong family, so I wanted to compete against her. To prove my excellence, I was originally only responsible for covering for Captain Ning Wenhao. However, to seize credit, I wanted to prove that I could contribute more so that you would notice me. When Captain Ning was rescuing the hostage, I thought I could make the first move and try to defeat our enemy’s boss first. However, he was much stronger than me, so I was captured instead. Not only did I almost fail to save the hostage, but I also injured Instructor Ning.”

“Then, what is the reason behind my decision to punish you and transfer you out from Eagle?”

Hong Feixu took a deep breath and said, “Disobedience. Insubordination.”

“In Eagle, how do we deal with those who commit those two violations?”

“Transferred out.”

Hearing Hong Feixu’s words, everyone was speechless.

Even Madam Hong stared at Hong Feixu with her mouth agape.

After all, Hong Feixu had come back crying that day to tell her that Zhong Nuannuan, that witch, had whispered something into Chi Yang’s ear and subsequently made Chi Yang chase Hong Feixu out of Eagle and transferred her to Jiang District.

The chaos in Jiang District had just been cleared, and there was basically nothing happening there. There would not be any chances for her to contribute, which was why she was so angry.

Who knew that things would turn out like this...

“Since you’re aware that you were transferred out because you made a huge mistake, why did you attempt to frame my fiancée?”

Hong Feixu bit her lips. Today, her face had been completely smashed to the ground and trampled on mercilessly.

Hong Feixu did not know how to answer Chi Yang’s question.

It was the cold, hard truth that she attempted to frame Nangong Nuannuan.

“Answer the question!”

Chi Yang suddenly issued an order loudly, scaring Hong Feixu.

“Because... because I want her to leave you.”

“Do you think I’ll leave her after making everyone hate my fiancé? Or do you think that if you slander my fiancé in front of my grandfather, my grandfather will make me break up with her? Is that why you spared no effort into slandering her?”

Hong Feixu did not answer.

“Hong Feixu, you’re not worthy to be a soldier.”

Chi Yang spoke his last line very calmly, but it destroyed Hong Feixu’s last bit of spirit. She started sobbing in front of everyone.

However, no one present sympathized with her.

On the contrary, when everyone saw her tear-stained face, they felt disgusted.

“Everyone present here is Elder Xu’s friends and juniors. I, Chi Yang, hereby announce on behalf of the Chi family that we’re boycotting the Hong family. In the future, whoever helps the Hong family and does business with them is equivalent to slapping the Chi family’s face.”

Hong Feixu, who sobbed and gasped frantically from the grievance she felt, suddenly came to a halt and looked at Chi Yang in shock.

Madam Hong was dumbstruck as well. She was filled with disbelief—she refused to accept this outcome.

Being blacklisted by the Chi family was equivalent to being blacklisted by the entire Camino. What would the Hong family do in the future?

After all, the Hong family was not limited to being Hong Feixu's family. The Hong family was a big family. If the entire Hong family was destroyed because of them, they would be labeled as sinners of the Hong family. The Hong family would never forgive them.

Hong Feixu's elder brother, who was also Madam Hong's eldest son, panicked when he heard that Chi Yang wanted to boycott the Hong Family.. He quickly stood up and said—

Chapter 1436: Sweet Oath

“Commander Chi, my sister is still young and immature. Please be magnanimous and forgive her this time. In the future, we'll discipline her thoroughly and prevent her from doing anything similar.”

Chi Yang looked at him coldly and replied in all seriousness, “Eagle has never accepted minors into their ranks.”

When everyone heard that, they were amused.

In other words, Chi Yang implied that it was better to keep the excuse of how she was immature out of the discussion. After all, she was someone who had been with Eagle for a while and was about to retire from the military. How could he claim that she had not grown up?

“If she hasn't grown up, she should be drinking milk at home and receive education befitting a minor. Why did you come out and fight battles with others?”

“Exactly!”

Hong Feiheng felt a surge of anger stuck in his chest when he heard everyone's words, but he did not dare express his dissatisfaction.

He could only disregard everyone's mockery and continued to beg for mercy. “Commander Chi, after this incident, my mother and my sister must have learned their lesson. Please give them another chance.”

“Why should I?”

Chi Yang's words choked Hong Feiheng once more. It was Hong Feixu who spoke from the side. No, that was an understatement—she was basically shouting. She shouted so loudly as if she had a mental breakdown.

“Can't you spare us because we were once comrades and you were my officer? Why do you have to send us to our end?”

Looking at Hong Feixu who was on the verge of breaking down, Chi Yang's expression remained cold and austere. He replied stoically, “Then, why did you insist on slandering my fiancée to the point of death too? Hong Feixu, last time at the entrance of Eagle Special Forces, when you and your mother called my fiancée a used shoe, claimed that she was two-timing me, and insulted her as a witch, I said that bullying her was equivalent to bullying me; insulting her was humiliating me. Moreover, it might be more unacceptable than bullying me. At that time, I warned you that it would be the last time I allowed you to do that. If I found out that there was a next time, I would never forgive you. Yet, what did you do? Are you sure you know how to repent? My forgiveness and tolerance not only failed to remind you to restrain yourself and reflect on yourself, but it sent you over the edge and hurt my fiancée deeply again.”

“In the name of the Nangong family, I hereby inform everyone that the Hong family has now been blacklisted by the Nangong family. In the future, whoever helps the Hong family will be going against the Nangong family.”

The General, Nangong Shu, who had been silent all this while, suddenly spoke.

Mdam Hong, Hong Feixu, and Hong Feiheng were completely dumbfounded.

Especially Madam Hong and Hong Feixu. They just wanted to separate Chi Yang from his girlfriend. How did they end up sacrificing the entire Hong family?

“Chi Yang, you’re more than a soldier; you’re also a senior officer. How can you force someone to their death like this?”

Madam Hong was heartbroken. She felt that she had misjudged Chi Yang.

“As a soldier, is it only right that I let you bully my fiancée time and time again? I’m an officer, so I should let you insult my fiancée time and time again? If I can’t even fulfill my duties as her man, why should I be a soldier? Isn’t a soldier supposed to protect the people?”

After saying that, Chi Yang pulled Nuannuan into his embrace again and made an oath, “Nuannuan is my family! My home is where she is.”

All the officers who were still single stared dumbfoundedly at the usually laconic Chi Yang. At moments like this, they were all surprised at how Chi Yang could say something so sweet without having to overcome any psychological barriers..

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 1437: Convinced

In the past, all the single men in the military base used Chi Yang as their shield whenever they were forced to get married. Yet now, when they heard Chi Yang’s declaration of love, everyone wanted to kneel on the ground paved with gravel and carve a big “kowtow” with their fingernails.

Nuannuan was also touched by Chi Yang’s actions and words.

Nuannuan could have easily resolved this issue herself. However, from the beginning until now, she did not even have the chance to speak before Big Brother Chi Yang put his protection plan to use.

However Hong Feixu and her mother attempted to embarrass Nuannuan, Big Brother Chi Yang reciprocated. From her personality to the way she dealt with problems, from her character to her corrupted military spirit, Hong Feixu had been thoroughly ruined among the upper-class circle of the military.

Madam Hong realized this as well and she must do all she could to refute Chi Yang.

"It is indeed wrong for Feixu to maliciously harm Miss Nangong! I'm involved too, and I'm also in the wrong! However, you've already made Feixu sound as worthless as possible in front of so many people, making it impossible for her to survive in the military. Isn't this enough? The Hong family doesn't have any deep enmity with you, so why must you attack the Hong family as well? We're the ones in the wrong, why did you involve the Hong family in this? Don't you feel that this is unfair?"

Chi Yang looked at Madam Hong and asked coldly, "Do I look like a fool?"

Madam Hong, "..."

"I didn't insult Hong Feixu. What I said in front of everyone just now was to clear my fiancée's name. I was just speaking the truth. Why, do you take that as a blow to you just because I used the truth to prove you wrong? That you were slandering her? That's enough for you? Even a person made of mud is allowed three flares. Do you think I'm worse than a pile of mud? After you bullied my fiancée like that, I only took out the evidence to prove that what you said was wrong. Do you think it will just end there?"

Madam Hong replied, "Alright, even if we're wrong and you want to punish us, just come at us. Why do you want to destroy the entire Hong family? What kind of grudge do you have against the Hong family? You're dragging everyone else in like this! You're taking advantage of your position and abusing your power for personal gains!"

"Madam Hong, I hope you can be clear about one thing. I'm informing you that I want to punish the Hong family, not bargain with you. This isn't the court, and I want to punish you for what you've done. If you think I've broken any law, you can sue me at the military court. Now, please take your daughter and leave this place. I hope that you'll never appear before my fiancée again in this lifetime, to avoid disgusting her with your presence. Otherwise, I'll show you worse forms of revenge other than bankruptcy."

That was it!

Madam Hong knew that the Hong family was done for because of Hong Feixu's radical act.

What awaited them was regret written in the latter half of their lives.

Madam Hong, Hong Feixu, and Hong Feiheng were chased out of the residence. The atmosphere instantly improved.

Elder Xu chuckled as he walked up to Nuannuan and announced, "Everyone already knows that this is Old General Nangong's granddaughter, Nangong Nuan. And Nuannuan is the grand-niece I want to introduce to everyone.

"Everyone, don't look at how young Nuannuan is, but her acupuncture skills are superb. It was Nuannuan who treated Old Marshal Chi, Old General Nangong, and the other Old General Xu's chronic leg conditions. Previously, Old General Nangong suffered from coronary heart disease and myocardial infarction. It was all thanks to Nuannuan's acupuncture at such impeccable timing that Old General Nangong recovered completely..

"You could say that Nuannuan is the most talented junior I've ever seen in acupuncture.

"I'm fortunate that this junior will be taking the entrance exam to the Military Medical University in half a year's time. From now on, she'll be contributing to the medical field of our nation's military base. Therefore, I'd like to introduce her to everyone. Nuannuan, everyone who's here in this banquet today is my juniors who have all established some sort of reputation in the military base. I hope that you can take good care of Nuannuan in the future."

The crowd went into an uproar.

While Old Master Xu spoke, everyone recalled how Madam Hong and Hong Feixu pretended that this was their territory when Nangong Nuannuan entered. They even had the audacity to ask Nangong Nuannuan why she was there.

After all that fuss, Nuannuan emerged as the main character of this banquet!

"Hello, Miss Nangong!"

"Miss Nangong is already proficient in acupuncture at such a young age. It's truly amazing!"

"Miss Nangong, I heard that you aren't even 18 years old yet. Can I know when exactly did you pick up acupuncture?"

"Miss Nangong, you're the one participating in the high school student competition this year, right? I wanted to greet you when you came in just now. It was one heck of a competition! You gave our country so much prestige!"

Almost as soon as Elder Xu finished speaking, Nuannuan found herself surrounded by a group of people.

She was not only Elder Xu's future favorite student, but also the future star of the Military Medical University. She was also the daughter of the Nangong family and the future daughter-in-law of the Chi family.

If they did not take advantage of this social setting and get to befriend Nuannuan now, it would be difficult to even get to interact with her in the future.

Although Nuannuan disliked occasions like this, she did not have the heart to reject Old Master Xu's good intentions. Hence, she resorted to chatting with the people present.

After befriendng them, there were indeed a few people who were more to Nuannuan's liking. After asking more questions, they turned out to be soldiers from Eagle Special Forces.

Bian Yin came in with Hong Feixu without an invitation. She could only enter in the first place because she was the young miss from a third-tier wealthy family and a doctor in the military hospital.

Bian Yin watched helplessly as her long-time best friend sold her out, while Bian Yin herself was the accomplice who took screenshots to slander the Nangong family's precious daughter.

If she had known that Zhong Nuannuan's surname was Nangong, she would have tried to suck up to her the first second she got. Why would she do those things to her in the first place?

Therefore, seeing Hong Feixu and her mother being chased out—while Bian Yin seemed to have been forgotten by everyone with no one noticing her existence anymore—Bian Yin felt extremely indignant.

She was, after all, the daughter of a third-tier wealthy family, and her status was even higher than many of the officers who attended the banquet today. What right did these people have to get close to Nangong Nuannuan just because of their good performance in the military?

Bian Yin's gaze was glued to Nangong Nuannuan and Nangong Ze, who stood beside Nangong Nuannuan.

That was the young master of the Nangong family!

If she could counterattack and turn hostility into friendship, she might even be able to get closer to Nangong Ze. In the future, if she could have a few more exchanges like this...

Bian Yin did not even dare to think about it.

Bian Yin was much prettier than Hong Feixu, so she had always been confident when it came to men. Otherwise, she would not have had the confidence to enter the ward when she was forbidden from it in the first place.

Since Bian Yin's mother had relied on her stunning beauty to climb up the social ladder, and because her father was also a handsome man born of a wealthy family, Bian Yin had inherited their outstanding genes..

Chapter 1438: Liking Young Master Nangong

"You could say that Nuannuan is the most talented junior I've ever seen in acupuncture.

Although Nuannuan disliked occasions like this, she did not have the heart to reject Old Master Xu’s good intentions. Hence, she resorted to chatting with the people present.

After befriending them, there were indeed a few people who were more to Nuannuan’s liking. After asking more questions, they turned out to be soldiers from Eagle Special Forces.

Bian Yin came in with Hong Feixu without an invitation. She could only enter in the first place because she was the young miss from a third-tier wealthy family and a doctor in the military hospital.

Bian Yin watched helplessly as her long-time best friend sold her out, while Bian Yin herself was the accomplice who took screenshots to slander the Nangong family’s precious daughter.

If she had known that Zhong Nuannuan’s surname was Nangong, she would have tried to suck up to her the first second she got. Why would she do those things to her in the first place?

Therefore, seeing Hong Feixu and her mother being chased out—while Bian Yin seemed to have been forgotten by everyone with no one noticing her existence anymore—Bian Yin felt extremely indignant.

She was, after all, the daughter of a third-tier wealthy family, and her status was even higher than many of the officers who attended the banquet today. What right did these people have to get close to Nangong Nuannuan just because of their good performance in the military?

Bian Yin’s gaze was glued to Nangong Nuannuan and Nangong Ze, who stood beside Nangong Nuannuan.

That was the young master of the Nangong family!

If she could counterattack and turn hostility into friendship, she might even be able to get closer to Nangong Ze. In the future, if she could have a few more exchanges like this...

Bian Yin did not even dare to think about it.

Bian Yin was much prettier than Hong Feixu, so she had always been confident when it came to men. Otherwise, she would not have had the confidence to enter the ward when she was forbidden from it in the first place.

Since Bian Yin's mother had relied on her stunning beauty to climb up the social ladder, and because her father was also a handsome man born of a wealthy family, Bian Yin had inherited their outstanding genes..

Chapter 1439: Hooking Up

Bian Yin's biggest goal in life was to find an outstanding man.

Even though she was not a legitimate child, she was still from a third-tier wealthy family. That convinced her that she had to marry someone who was from at least a second-tier wealthy family.

Now that she had seen the young master of the Nangong family, Bian Yin started to have thoughts for him.

Nangong Jin was more manly than Nangong Ze. After all, he was a soldier. However, Nangong Jin's wedding of the century with Best Actress Mu Chenxiang took the entire world by storm. She did not dare harbor any intentions for him.

Hence, Bian Yin targeted Nangong Ze.

Seeing that more people wanted to surround Nangong Nuannuan to talk, Bian Yin walked over.

"Miss Nangong, I'm really sorry. I didn't know your identity before, and Hong Feixu is my friend. I've done rude things to you because of that. I hope you can forgive me."

Afraid that Nangong Nuan would not be willing to forgive her, Bian Yin immediately said, "As the saying goes, 'one does not get to know a person without a fight.' Now that we've gotten to know each other, I hope that Miss Nangong can give me the honor to sincerely apologize to you. I wonder when Miss Nangong is free next? Can I treat you to a meal?"

Although most people thought that Bian Yin had a loose screw in her head and that she was shameless, one would not slap a smiling face. Although she went overboard, she looked genuinely regretful at this moment...

Although they would definitely not agree to such a thing if they were in Miss Nangong's shoes, what if Miss Nangong was magnanimous?

At this moment, everyone's eyes were on Nangong Nuannuan, wanting to see her reaction.

Bian Yin's attitude was extremely sincere. She looked apologetic and hopeful.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Apologizing isn't something that can be done casually. If my surname weren't Nangong, I don't think Miss Bian would have come to apologize to me. Therefore, if you really want to apologize, just tell your lawyer that you'll admit to everything and compensate me accordingly when you receive my lawyer's letter."

“What?” A lawyer’s letter?

Bian Yin’s expression darkened. Did she hear that wrongly?

“Miss Nangong, I’ve already apologized to you. I have nothing but utmost regret in this matter. Also, Hong Feixu and her mother were the ones who instructed me to take the screenshot...”

“Miss Bian!” Nangong Nuannuan interrupted Bian Yin’s incessant chatter. “Don’t you know that there’s something called joint and several liability? Hong Feixu and her mother are the masterminds behind the defamation attempt. You’re the accomplice, and Miss Bian isn’t under 18 years old, so you still have to bear the responsibility too.”

“Also, before getting admitted to the hospital, I signed a non-disclosure agreement with the hospital on behalf of Feng Shengxuan. The doctors and nurses in the VIP ward aren’t allowed to expose the fact that Feng Shengxuan is hospitalized. However, Dr. Bian doesn’t seem to have professional ethics at all. You didn’t just reveal the fact that Feng Shengxuan is hospitalized, but you even took a screenshot from the surveillance footage. Dr. Bian, since you have the guts to do this, you must have the guts to bear the consequences. I hope that you can afford the compensation that my brother has proposed. After all, you’re born of a third-tier wealthy family. At most, maybe you’ll just have to pinch off your mosquito legs.”

Bian Yin’s face instantly turned pale. She had already forgotten about the non-disclosure agreement that she signed at the hospital.

After all, signing a non-disclosure agreement was usually just a formality. Which celebrity did not sign a non-disclosure agreement when they were hospitalized? Yet, how many celebrities actually ended up never being discovered by the paparazzi when they were hospitalized?

Most of the information was leaked by the doctors and nurses..

Chapter 1440: Fired

However, even if they did, who would be able to find out which doctors and nurses were actually responsible?

Therefore, she had never taken those non-disclosure agreements to heart. Who would have thought that Nangong Nuannuan would have such a tight grip on this matter?

“But... but I didn’t tell anyone about this. I only told Hong Feixu about it. So, none of that will be leaked to the public.”

“Did you say you haven’t told anyone? Is everyone here at Elder Xu’s house inhuman?”

Bian Yin, “...”

“Therefore, Miss Bian, instead of apologizing to me for your wrongdoings, why don’t you go back and start raising funds to afford the compensation. After all, we’re only suing you for breaching the contract now. As for what kind of waves the fans will cause in the future, it’s not something that you can control,

Miss Bian. Therefore, we'll still have to wait for your lawyer and my brother's lawyer to discuss the second part of the compensation."

Bian Yin was stunned at the thought of asking for a huge sum of compensation, not to mention that she had even offended the famous devil, Feng Shengxuan.

At this moment, the dean of the Military Medical University, Qin Muiyang, walked over. As though seeing a life-saving straw, Bian Yin hurriedly begged, "Dean Qin, please help me. Miss Nangong is unwilling to forgive me, she..."

"Bian Yin, our hospital isn't an ordinary hospital. It's a military hospital; a large general hospital with the best reputation in the country. Although you're not a soldier, all the rules of the military hospital are held based on the rules in the military. You broke your promise and violated the rules, the hospital can't let you stay. After the new year, please deal with your resignation."

Bian Yin, "..."

It was over.

It was all over!

No one knew how Bian Yin got out of Elder Xu's residence, nor were they interested to know. All they knew was that many officers found Nangong Nuannuan's character amicable.

Seeing how the young officers blushed whenever they spoke to Nuannuan and how their eyes were glued to her, Chi Yang could not help but want to kick these big-tailed wolves away.

Seeing that those people were still pestering her, Chi Yang brought Nuannuan to a secluded corner in the backyard after Nuannuan spoke to them for a while more.

There were a few officers who wanted to talk to Nuannuan but they never had the chance to do so. Therefore, they followed suit when they saw Chi Yang leading Nuannuan away. However, they were surprised to see this military officer from Camino, who was known to either be gay or had no human emotions, bending down to kiss Miss Nangong in front of them.

The few officers who had never been in a relationship before quickly retreated.

After all, they were single. Seeing such an impactful and beautiful public display of affection could really blind them!

Nuannuan did not expect Big Brother Chi Yang to be so direct to kiss her right in front of strangers. Stunned, she felt her head getting light in a blur and emptied of all thoughts.

After a very long kiss, Chi Yang reached out to loosen the bun on Nuannuan's head.

Nuannuan held her hair and looked at Chi Yang in confusion. "Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you putting my hair down?"

Chi Yang's eyes were unreadable as he stated, "Someone messed it up. I'll help you tie it up again."

Nuannuan did not suspect him. After all, Big Brother Chi Yang did not need to lie to her over such matters. Hence, she nodded and agreed.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you know how to tie up hair?”

“Yeah, I saw you tie it up a few times.. I think I’ve got it mostly figured out.”
