Chapter 1531: The Man In The Bentley

Chi Zeyao could not help but chuckle.

“Going to the battlefield to relax is indeed a good way to pass the time. However... As one of the members of the Chi family, my whereabouts are rather restricted. So, I’m very sorry. If you told me earlier, I could still apply to leave the country, but now... I’m afraid I can’t.”

“I was just asking. If you can’t go, then forget it.” A hint of awkwardness appeared on Feng Shengxuan’s face.

Chi Zeyao smiled and used the communal chopsticks to pick up a piece of slightly spicy steamed pepper tofu for Feng Shengxuan. He placed it into Feng Shengxuan’s bowl. “Try it.”

“I don’t like tofu. It’s tasteless.”

“This is steamed roasted pepper tofu. It’s slightly spicy, but it won’t affect your stomach. Try it.”

Feng Shengxuan despised that piece of pale tofu very much. However, when he heard that there were roasted peppers and he finally had some chili to eat, he endured it.

Unexpectedly, the tofu was so tender that it melted in his mouth.

The chili peppers were extremely fragrant after being toasted, leaving behind a hint of roasted flavor with a hint of spiciness. When the tofu entered his mouth and brushed past his taste buds, the slightly spicy fragrance was accompanied by an extremely tender texture that melted onto his mouth immediately...

Before he could savor it, the tofu chunk had already slid down his esophagus.

Feng Shengxuan’s eyes widened.

Surprise!

He never expected the tofu that he had always disliked could be done so deliciously! It was even more fragrant than the top-grade truffles stewed in low heat!

However, he had already claimed so blatantly that he disliked eating tofu. So, after taking a bite, Feng Shengxuan’s bloated ego would not allow him to take another bite. He felt that in the past month or two that he had been staying in the Chi residence, all he did was embarrass himself every day, thus...

Seeing Feng Shengxuan’s pride, Chi Zeyao picked up another piece of tofu for Feng Shengxuan. Then, Chi Zeyao shifted the whole plate of tofu and placed the plate directly in front of Feng Shengxuan.

Peering at Old Master Chi who was still reading the newspaper, Feng Shengxuan picked up the plate of tofu and poured the entire pile of tofu into his bowl.

Through this period of recuperation, Feng Shengxuan felt that his body had recovered. Unable to stay idle, he decided to follow Bai Liyue to the company to take a look.

Just as he was about to go upstairs to look for her, he saw Bai Liyue wearing a pastel green gauze long dress that draped elegantly over her body. On top of the dress was a vintage-looking black coat with woven white edges. She wore a pair of black high heels, and she was holding a similarly pastel green handbag from H. Her hair wound high on her head, leaving a bit of hair hanging down the side of her ears.

The beginning of spring had arrived, and the sun was shining brightly. This outfit did not lose the grandeur of winter, but it also had the exuberance of spring. It did not lose the aloofness and solemnity that was in Bai Liyue's nature, but it also complimented her beauty, vibrance, and elegance. Even the edge of the dress that swayed back and forth along with her ankles and the loose hair at her ears looked magnificent, with a rare hint of playfulness...

Feng Shengxuan's lips parted slightly, thinking he was mistaken.

After all, when Bai Liyue was with him, she usually wore a professional-looking work outfit and had a pair of extremely tall stilettos.

With the height that nearly came up to his, Bai Liyue had always given Feng Shengxuan the feeling as though... she was a strong independent woman who needed nobody.

However, he had never seen Bai Liyue in her current outfit.

The pastel green muslin dress gave her a cold and aloof appearance a layer of mischievous intelligence. This was the first time Feng Shengxuan discovered how beautiful Bai Liyue could actually be. She was so beautiful he was stunned into speechlessness.

Just as Feng Shengxuan was about to chase after her, he suddenly noticed a Bentley in the latest model parked outside the Chi residence..

Chapter 1532: Giving Flowers

At this moment, the door of the Bentley opened, and out came a man wearing a windbreaker over his suit. Underneath the suit was a light green shirt that matched the color of Bai Liyue's pastel green muslin dress.

The man's slender body leaned slightly against the front of the car with his arms crossed over his chest. The man's looks were slightly less handsome than Feng Shengxuan's. However, using brands as an analogy to their looks, if Feng Shengxuan was considered Hermes, then the man was Louis Vuitton, at the very least.

The gate opened. When the man saw Bai Liyue, unconcealable fondness and amazement flashed across his face. Feng Shengxuan's eyebrows mashed together into a deep frown.

"Miss Bai, we meet again." Xiao Shenbin's eyes never left Bai Liyue as he greeted her with a smile.

Since he hung around Chi Yang since he was young, Xiao Shenbin and Ning Wenhao were alike in a sense—even though they were the sons of first-tier wealthy families, they had never dated anyone before.

At the same time, after seeing too many pretentious women, Xiao Shenbin was quite repulsed by women despite never being in a relationship before.

At this rate, even Xiao Shenbin himself started to wonder if he was of a different sexual orientation.

However, when he saw Bai Liyue for the first time, he knew that he was as straight as a straight man could be, and a man with a high standard of beauty to boot.

Xiao Shenbin straightened up immediately. He walked to Bai Liyue in surprise and said sincerely, “Miss Bai, has anyone ever told you that you’re like the moon in the sky? In your reserved elegance, you emanate the tinge of warmth how like a lunar corona. You’re so beautiful my heart trembles for you.”

Bai Liyue was immediately amused by his words that bordered on licking her boots.

“Not really. That’s an interesting metaphor there, Young Master Xiao.”

Xiao Shenbin looked at Bai Liyue and announced in all seriousness, “This isn’t a metaphor. From the moment I saw you, Miss Bai, I knew you’re more beautiful than the gentle moon.”

Bai Liyue would only ever be awkward in front of Feng Shengxuan. That was something that would not happen in front of someone else.

Bai Liyue smiled at Xiao Shenbin’s compliment. “Thank you for your compliment, Young Master Xiao. I’m honored.”

Xiao Shenbin also turned around with a smile and took out a bouquet of exquisitely wrapped red roses from the backseat.

“Fresh flowers paired with a beautiful lady. Although it’s a little old-fashioned... Miss Bai, you’re the first girl I’ve ever had the urge to give flowers to. I couldn’t help myself, so I bought you a bouquet.”

As Bai Liyue had made up her mind on giving up on Feng Shengxuan, she was now more open-minded to others’ romantic pursuits. Moreover, this person was Chi Yang’s brother-in-arms. She gave him a chance—it was also a chance for herself.

She received the flowers and smelled the rich fragrance of the roses. Her smile widened as she said, “I’ll accept Young Master Xiao’s compliments and flowers.”

Xiao Shenbin had thought that it would be difficult to woo a girl as aloof and elegant as Bai Liyue, but he did not expect her to be so... approachable.

Therefore, he immediately opened the door of the front passenger seat happily, escorted Bai Liyue to the car, and shielded her head with his hand as she got into the car. Then, he squeezed in closer in the car.

Although Xiao Shenbin was only helping Bai Liyue put on her seatbelt, it looked like he was taking advantage of Bai Liyue in the car from Feng Shengxuan’s point of view.

Feng Shengxuan's pupils constricted violently. His hands subconsciously clenched into fists as he stared fixedly at the leaving Bentley.

It was as if a barrier of some sort fell apart in his heart and a wave of indescribable anger surged violently from his heart to his head.. Feng Shengxuan turned around and swiftly descended the stairs.

Chapter 1533: Anti-tracking

Nuannuan was about to go upstairs to pack her clothes when she saw Feng Shengxuan rushing downstairs. She was a little stunned.

"Big Bro, where are you going?"

"Just heading out for a while." With that, Feng Shengxuan had already "flown" downstairs from the second floor.

He did fly because he skipped six steps on the stairs. He leaped just like that.

By the time Nuannuan regained her senses, Feng Shengxuan had already reached the entryway in the living room and was changing into another pair of shoes.

"Hey, we're also leaving in an hour..."

Feng Shengxuan was gone before Nuannuan could finish her sentence.

Chi Zeyao also came out of the kitchen and saw Feng Shengxuan's fleeting figure.

"What's with him? Where is he going?"

Nuannuan scratched her head. "I don't know either."

"Will he be back for lunch?"

"I don't think so. In the afternoon, Big Bro, Selina, Dan Qi, and I are heading to Naboo."

"Naboo?" Chi Zeyao raised an eyebrow.

"Yep. Imperial Phoenix Group owns many mines and riverbeds in Naboo. Wei Du might have gotten jealous, and so, we're heading there to extinguish any forms of greedy thoughts he has." Nuannuan told her Second Uncle the truth because there was nothing to hide.

Chi Zeyao frowned. "Do you need help?"

"We're alright. I've only been invited for a meal. Big Brother Chi Yang is there too. He'll take good care of me."

Since Second Uncle Chi had connections in Naboo, she believed that when Big Brother Chi Yang went over, his connections would definitely provide Big Brother Chi Yang assistance. Therefore, if she needed help, she could just approach Big Brother Chi Yang.

Chi Zeyao smiled. "Okay, be careful. Oh, right. Does the old master know?"

"I don't want Grandpa to worry. I just told him I'm going on a business trip."

Chi Zeyao nodded. "Got it. Take care now."

"Yes, Second Uncle. After I leave, you should take care of your body as well. The current condition you're in is worse than my big bro's, but as long as you don't overexert yourself, you can still hold on for a while. Therefore, when I'm not around, you have to take good care of yourself."

Chi Zeyao gave Nuannuan a gentle smile. "Okay, I understand. Don't worry."

By the time Feng Shengxuan rushed out, Xiao Shenbin's car had long disappeared.

Feng Shengxuan's handsome face was incomparably dark, and the sinister aura around him was about to condense into a puddle.

He took out his phone and dialed a number with an additional number in the front and a weird number in the back. It only rang once before someone picked up.

"King, what might be your instruction today?"

"Lock onto Bai Liyue's location immediately."

"Yes, sir."

Two minutes later, Feng Shengxuan called again because they never returned his call.

"King."

"What am I paying you guys for? Two minutes have passed and you haven't sent me a location!"

"King, you know that Miss Luna's phone has an anti-tracking system, and Dan Qi encrypted it further too. So, if you want to crack this system without letting her know, Winnie will need at least two hours.'

Feng Shengxuan let out a scornful laugh.

"She would've finished her meal in two hours. What's the point of asking you then? Cut the crap and force your way into locating her."

"Yes, sir!"

Feng Shengxuan regretted that he had nurtured such a freak like Dan Qi. Now, it was not convenient for him to do anything.

After the man received Feng Shengxuan's order, he was ready to hang up, but the sound of the call ending never came from the other end of the line. He was shocked to realize that King was adamant about waiting for the result.

Thus, everyone scrambled to locate Bai Liyue.

Chapter 1534: Hung Up On

In less than a minute, they tracked down Bai Liyue's location. However, at the same time, Bai Liyue's anti-tracking system kicked in and indicated her tracker's current location.

Almost at the same time, an image of a location in a certain part of the Pacific Ocean popped up on Bai Liyue's phone. Just as she was wondering where this was, Feng Shengxuan called.

Bai Liyue narrowed her eyes. She picked up the phone and asked, "Are you the one who tracked down my location?"

"Bai Liyue, where are you going?" Feng Shengxuan answered her question with another question, sounding extremely nasty.

"I'm going out to eat with a friend."

"Eat?" Feng Shengxuan raised his voice and rebuked angrily, "We just had breakfast and you want to eat again? Are you a rice bucket? I'm ordering you to come back!"

Bai Liyue, "..."

This person!

Honestly, did Feng Shengxuan think that Bai Liyue followed him because she was scared of him?

Apart from the fact that Bai Liyue was presented to KE by the Bai family in exchange for benefits through KE, what made him think she could not reap her own benefits?

She had gotten much more from Imperial Phoenix Group than from KE.

Therefore, as long as she completed her mission, it did not matter where she stayed.

If it were not for the fact that she loved him and felt sorry for him in the past, she could have been living a carefree life alongside Nuannuan, like Aiden, Selina, and Dan Qi.

As for now...

She got over it.

Even though it was not easy to let go of her feelings for Feng Shengxuan, at least she had decided to give up on him. Even if she still loved him, she would not let herself go for the sake of this unrequited love.

To her, he was her past.

To her, he was just her boss.

If he could not even fulfill his responsibility as the boss, she did not mind changing bosses for once.

In truth, she had always thought that even though she would not earn as much staying with Nuannuan as compared to staying by Feng Shengxuan's side, the Bai family was not lacking in wealth in the first place. They only lacked jade, diamonds, and ores. Therefore, if she were to explain everything to the Bai family, they would definitely be more willing to let her stay with Nuannuan.

Therefore, after hearing Feng Shengxuan's commanding tone, Bai Liyue hung up.

After Feng Shengxuan barked those orders at Bai Liyue, he expected that she would at least listen to his orders immediately, or at least explain to him.

However...

She did not explain nor listen to him. This woman actually hung up on him!

Feng Shengxuan was stunned for a moment. When he recollected his senses, he exploded in a fit of anger!

Bang! He smashed the phone in his hand and drove to Bai Liyue using the location that he tracked down.

Since he did not summon his driver, no one would help him pick up his phone after it fell under the passenger seat. Since Bai Liyue did not ask to get off the car and hung up on him instead, she would definitely not wait for him at the spot he tracked her down at.

Thus, Feng Shengxuan glanced at the traffic that was still rather clear in front of him and did not bother to stop. He bent down to pick up his phone.

Yet...

With a bang, Feng Shengxuan's car crashed into the car that drove out from another road.

The car stopped from the impact. Finally, Feng Shengxuan picked up his phone.

When the driver saw that he had gotten into a car accident, he got out of the car angrily to argue with the driver of the other car.

Even though it looked like he was fully responsible for the accident, he knew that the other driver suddenly swerved in a different direction.

However, after getting out of the car, he was stunned to realize he had crashed into a low-profile Maybach that was as luxurious as cars got to be.

Chapter 1535: The Man in the Wheelchair

It was at this time that Feng Shengxuan wound down his window.

When the man saw who was sitting inside the Maybach, he realized he messed up.

What did he just do?

Did he just crash into Best Actor Feng's car?

"Best... Best Actor Feng, I..."

"Move the car!"

Feng Shengxuan was in a hurry to see Bai Liyue; he did not have time to bother about such a small matter.

Looking at the Maybach that he crashed into until a huge patch of scratches appeared, the driver blinked. When he realized what had happened, he immediately bowed in gratitude and moved his car away.

Feng Shengxuan immediately drove off to look for a certain troublesome woman.

When he drove away, the driver quickly took a picture of his license plate and posted it on his Weibo.

[I accidentally crashed into a Maybach when I was driving. I thought I was going to pay so much that I nearly kneeled. Who knew that when I wound down the car window, I would see Best Actor Feng Shengxuan! Everyone says that Best Actor Feng is arrogant and unforgiving, but when I crashed into his car, he didn't even talk to me about compensation and just drove away. I want to say this—those who accused Best Actor Feng of being arrogant and domineering, don't you feel bad saying that about our precious Best Actor Feng?]

Soon, this person's Weibo received tens of thousands of reposts.

This was especially the case in Emperor District, where everyone reposted it like rapid fire.

Previously, when Feng Shengxuan asked Bai Liyue to get off the car, he was loud enough for Xiao Shenbin to hear the content of the conversation.

Although he was very unhappy that the man spoke like that, Xiao Shenbin was serious about Bai Liyue. Therefore, after Bai Liyue answered the call, Xiao Shenbin looked at her and asked, "Do you need me to stop the car or send you back?"

Bai Liyue was used to interacting with Feng Shengxuan and his bossy, authoritative tone. Meeting this gentleman suddenly and hearing his gentle and polite inquiries, Bai Liyue was hit with an epiphany at how nice this felt like.

Initially, she could only say that she did not hate Xiao Shenbin. Yet, since he was Chi Yang's good friend, if she wanted to forget her feelings for another, it did not seem like a bad idea to start a new one. That was why she accepted Xiao Shenbin's invitation.

However, Xiao Shenbin's actions left quite an impression on Bai Liyue.

"No need."

Xiao Shenbin's lips curved into a smile. "Okay."

The car drove to a very deserted-looking alleyway before rolling to a halt.

"Even though I know you've already had breakfast, the breakfast here is to die for."

This alley ran adjacent to a small river. There were not many people passing by, and it was very quiet.

Xiao Shenbin brought Bai Liyue to a teahouse. The door of the teahouse was covered by a curtain that was less than 1.5 meters long. Prying the curtain apart, a pleasant sound of wind chimes could be heard.

"Welcome!"

A young and beautiful girl walked out of the control room. Her eyes lit up when she saw Xiao Shenbin.

“Brother Shenbin.”

When Xiao Shenbin nodded with a smile, the girl was already shouting, “Brother! Brother Shenbin’s here.”

Soon, there was a sound coming from the backyard, and a man in a wheelchair came to them. Although this man was in a wheelchair, he was tall, and his posture was upright. It was obvious that he had received professional training. When he saw Xiao Shenbin, he seemed very happy and excited.

“Vice-captain, you’re here. Come in.”

Xiao Shenbin nodded and introduced Bai Liyue to everyone, “This is Miss Bai. Miss Bai, this is Huang Zichu, he was once a member of the Eagle Special Forces. Later on, after injuring his leg, he opened up a teahouse here.. This is his younger sister, Huang Ziyu.”

Chapter 1536: Things A Love Rival Do

“Miss Bai, hello.” Huang Zichu and Huang Ziyu greeted Baili Yue politely.

Although Huang Zichu was sitting in a wheelchair, he did not look dispirited at all. He still looked perky.

Bai Liyue smiled and nodded. “Hello, nice to meet you.”

“Miss Bai, please come in and have a seat.” Huang Ziyu did not want to neglect her distinguished guest at all and quickly led Xiao Shenbin and Bai Liyue inside.

Xiao Shenbin looked at Bai Liyue. “Let’s go.”

Bai Liyue nodded with a smile and followed Xiao Shenbin.

Behind the small teahouse facade, Bai Liyue realized that it was a completely different world after crossing over to the backyard.

This teahouse was next to the river. Walking along the stairs and crept alongside the edges of the courtyard, there were plenty of seats for them to have tea.

Huang Ziyu found them a seat with the best view and asked them to sit down. Xiao Shenbin said, “You can serve us everything good in your shop.”

“Okay.”

Bai Liyue sat down and glanced downward.

“I really didn’t expect Emperor District to have such clear river water.”

Xiao Shenbin smiled. “Back then, they chose this place because they liked the environment here. However, the atmosphere here isn’t the only good thing ehre. Besides being able to sit by the river and drink tea, Huang Ziyu's dimsum-making skills are also top-notch. You must be used to eating all kinds of delicacies, so I thought of bringing you here to try Ziyu's cooking."

On the other side, Feng Shengxuan trailed after Bai Liyue through the GPS-tracking system. However, after a while, he lost... the signal.

"What happened?" Feng Shengxuan was in utter dismay.

The person on the other end of the phone was dumbstruck too.

"King, I don't know what this area is used for, but it has anti-satellite tracking. Even though the people within this area won't have their phone signal disrupted, we have to break through their firewall if we want to track anyone in this area."

"Then, break it!"

"Yes... but... but this firewall is above Rank-3S. It might take one or two hours to break it."

"...!!!"

Feng Shengxuan was so angry that he stopped breathing. His already gloomy face turned even darker.

"You're telling me that this stupid place is protected by a firewall above Grade-3S?"

"I'm sorry, King. That's the truth." This time, the person who spoke was Winnie, KE's senior member in the network department.

Winnie and Dan Qi were top hackers in the world who were at par with each other. Only the firewall that he and Dan Qi created could reach Grade-3S and above. That was why they were able to conquer the firewall system of various countries. That was why their existence had always been on the blacklists of those bigshots from various countries.

However, they did not expect that such a firewall would appear in this seemingly ordinary place.

Even if he forced his way through this high-grade firewall and was discovered by the enemy, triggering them to rebuild this firewall, it would still take Winnie at least an hour.

Since Winnie had said so, Feng Shengxuan had no other choice.

"Then, break it down now!"

"Yes. We'll inform you immediately after we break down the firewall."

To tell the truth, Winnie was even more dismayed by this discovery.

This was clearly a provocation to his professionalism.

Feng Shengxuan hung up the phone and looked gloomily at the houses that sat rows upon rows in the narrow streets.

Chapter 1537: Advanced Interception

The streets in Emperor District were not as wide as the main street in Sab, to begin with. In addition, he had been led toward rows of tiny streets in the chase after Bai Liyue. Small shops squashed against each other on both sides of the streets.

If Feng Shengxuan could not get his hands on an exact location, it was not easy to find anyone here at all.

However, whenever he recalled that he needed two hours to find her, Feng Shengxuan fidgeted as though a cat was scratching his heart.

If he needed to wait two hours...

That idiot of a woman, Bai Liyue, could probably have sold herself ten rounds, right?

Luckily, Xiao Shenbin did not know what Feng Shengxuan was thinking. Otherwise, Xiao Shenbin would have gone all out against Feng Shengxuan. just for thinking this.

In the teahouse, Bai Liyue ate the dimsum that Huang Ziyu made with a face full of satisfaction.

Xiao Shenbin was not lying. Huang Ziyu was an amazing cook. Compared to those top-notch chefs in five-star hotels, Huang Ziyu's dimsum tasted better.

Just as Winnie started to attack the firewall, Huang Zichu had already detected this anomaly.

[Deputy Commander, someone is attacking our firewall. Do we stop them?]

Xiao Shenbin and Bai Liyue were happily talking. From the northern skies to the southern grounds, they had a lot in common.

After receiving Huang Zichu's message, Xiao Shenbin replied: [No need. Just tell me five minutes before the firewall gets broken through.]

[Yes, sir.]

After half an hour, the firewall still stood. However, as the saying went, "God helps those who help themselves." Feng Shengxuan walked into this teahouse based on his instinct.

After seeing Feng Shengxuan, Huang Zichu narrowed his eyes ever so slightly as he wheeled himself in his wheelchair over toward Feng Shengxuan.

"Hello, mister. How can I help you?"

Initially, after entering this place, Feng Shengxuan gave it a simple scan and decided that he could leave this place. However, when he saw Huang Zichu, his gloomy face brightened up immediately.

"Where's Bai Liyue?"

Huang Zichu's eyes faltered slightly. He realized that his sitting posture or body size gave him away to Feng Shengxuan, and he felt a little vexed by that.

However, since he was already here, there was no reason for Huang Zichu to hide the person.

Therefore, he had no choice but to call, "Ziyu"

“Brother.” Huang Ziyu glanced at Feng Shengxuan before lowering her gaze.

“This mister is here to see Miss Bai. Bring him there.”

“Please follow me, Mr. Feng.”

“You know me?”

Feng Shengxuan was convinced that there was more to this pair of siblings than met the eye. He could not help but guess that they were the reason why there was such a strong anti-tracking firewall in this area.

Huang Ziyu smiled sweetly, and two cute dimples appeared on the corners of her lips. “Mr. Feng, you’re our national Best Actor, and you’re even more handsome in person than on camera. It’s hard not to recognize you.”

“What relationship do you have with Xiao Shenbin?”

Huang Ziyu’s sweet smile remained on her face. “My elder brother used to be a soldier. After the injury to his leg, he couldn’t be a soldier anymore, so he started this teahouse with me. Once, Brother Shenbin came over to drink tea. When he saw my brother, Xiao Shenbin managed to guess that he was once a soldier. After a while, Brother Shenbin and my brother became friends and often comes to our place to drink tea and eat dimsum. Mr. Feng, let me bring you up first. Later on, you can try our dimsum later too.”

Huang Ziyu was not particularly pretty, but she looked sweet and adorable. That made her words easier to digest and more believable.

Watching Feng Shengxuan following after Huang Ziyu to head to the courtyard, Huang Zichu quickly sent a message to Xiao Shenbin..

Chapter 1538: Jealousy

Xiao Shenbin, who had planned to leave a few minutes earlier, did not expect Feng Shengxuan to come knocking on his door before his people could break the firewall down. When he saw the message, he was dismayed.

Did they not say that Feng Shengxuan had a crush on their sister-in-law? Xiao Shenbin was pursuing Bai Liyue; he really could not understand why this Feng Shengxuan was overextending his control over here too.

“Miss Bai, we’re considered friends, at least, right?”

Xiao Shenbin, who was originally discussing matters related to business, suddenly asked this question.

Bai Liyue did not suspect anything and nodded straightforwardly. “Yeah.”

After all, Young Master Xiao was Chi Yang’s sworn brother while Bai Liyue was Nuannuan’s sworn sister. There was nothing wrong in calling each other friends, right?

Xiao Shenbin's gaze softened. "Then... can I call you Yue'er or Lil Yue?"

"You can call me Luna."

Luna meant "the moon" in the first place—it was almost the equivalent of calling her Yue'er.

"But I'm from Camino..."

Bai Liyue was never a person to instigate conflict. Noticing that Xiao Shenbin was unwilling to call her by her nickname, she did not insist further and said, "Up to you."

Hearing footsteps coming up the stairs, Xiao Shenbin utilized his newly obtained permission.

"Yue'er, where do you want to eat lunch later?"

Following Huang Ziyu up the stairs, Feng Shengxuan stopped dead in his tracks instantly.

Yue'er?!

He could feel something crashing against his mind. As though there was a layer of barrier, he sensed another crash happening.

Feng Shengxuan's face turned even bleaker.

Even Feng Shengxuan himself never called Bai Liyue by this name before. Xiao Shenbin, this cunning old wolf! How shameless could he be?

Also, that stupid woman, Bai Liyue! Had she not realized that the man was taking advantage of her?!

"Looks like you're pretty good at picking up girls, Young Master Xiao! I'm surprised to hear how quickly you've gotten close to Miss Bai."

Feng Shengxuan's words reached the balcony before he reached the balcony physically himself. When he finally reached the top of the balcony, he saw that they were only drinking tea, eating dimsum, and enjoying the view of the river below. That strange surge of annoyance instantly disappeared.

However, he recalled how he went through each door here and even utilized the satellites to search for her. Yet, this woman did not bother picking up his calls and came here to flirt with this man. This thought gave rise to Feng Shengxuan's newly dissipated anger.

Xiao Shenbin was a little displeased when he heard what Feng Shengxuan said. He solemnly said in front of Bai Liyue, "Chairman Feng, it's fine to use the word 'pick up girls' on others, but it's not right to use it on me. Anyone who knows me personally will never accuse me of being promiscuous—I'm serious with my feelings."

Then, he turned to Bai Liyue and said, "And I've never been in a relationship before, so to me, there's no such thing as picking up girls to me. When it comes to my feelings, I think I'm one to stay loyal to the end."

Bai Liyue started to feel slightly awkward.

After all, this was the first time she had come out to drink tea and chat. Although she had the intention to give Xiao Shenbin a chance, she would much rather progress to be slow and develop feelings over time.

Therefore, having to deal with Xiao Shenbin's raw expression of his feelings, Bai Liyue could not help feeling awkward.

Even so, Xiao Shenbin did not mention Bai Liyue's name in this statement, so there was nothing she could say either.

Feng Shengxuan glared at the man who dared to pursue Bai Liyue so blatantly in front of himself, as if he was dead. While Xiao Shenbin spoke with such confidence, Bai Liyue seemed to be unaffected—she did not refute Xiao Shenbin even when he gave such an unfiltered statement.. Feng Shengxuan nearly failed to suppress that indescribable frustration in his heart.

Chapter 1539: As Though Possessed

Feng Shengxuan wanted to fly into a rage, but a voice in his mind kept reminding him—the person he loved was Nuannuan.

Like some sort of mind-calming mantra, this reminder managed to suppressed Feng Shengxuan's rising frustration.

Xiao Shenbin watched as Feng Shengxuan inched dangerously close toward himself. Just when he thought that he would eat Feng Shengxuan's fist in the next moment and was ready to brace himself, Feng Shengxuan huffed arrogantly. "You speak as if anyone else on this table has been in a relationship before!"

Feng Shengxuan was still a virgin too!

Not to mention the fact that he was King of KE and one of the vice presidents in Imperial Phoenix too!

Huang Ziyu and Xiao Shengbin's lips twitched violently. After rushing up the stairs so aggressively, Feng Shengxuan dropped them this bomb piece of gossip instead.

Huh?

Was he for real?

"Oh, so both you and I are in the same boat, I see. Forgive me for being rude, Chairman Feng."

Feng Shengxuan peered at Bai Liyue in obvious displeasure, "Are you staying?"

Bai Liyue could not help lamenting about how strange this man was. Had he not always hated it when Bai Liyue followed him around? Why did he start watching over her so closely recently?

Glancing at the displeased Feng Shengxuan, Bai Liyue could not help feeling sorry for herself either. If it was not because she liked him and loved him, why else would she treat him so kindly and so thoroughly? Why did she keep acting like she was his lowly servant? After receiving such treatment all these years, Feng Shengxuan had taken a liking to order her around and was long used to her meek obedience.

Noticing the confident look in Feng Shengxuan as he spoke to her, Bai Liyue recalled how indulgent he was toward Nuannuan no matter how angry he felt; how he would keep finding ways to assassinate Chi Yang. However, when he was finally staying with Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan cowered and did not even dare to be the third person in this relationship. She criticized him in spite of herself.

“Of course. I’ve already agreed to have a meal with Young Master Xiao.”

Feng Shengxuan had long noticed that there was something wrong with Bai Liyue’s recent attitude. From the moment she threw the cancer report at him, he had already sensed the abnormality. However, discovering it did not mean that he could accept it emotionally.

After getting blatantly rejected by Bai Liyue, his eyes narrowed dangerously as his expression turned darker than before.

“Are you sure?”

Bai Liyue lifted her resolute eyes to meet Feng Shengxuan’s. “Very sure.”

The air around Feng Shengxuan’s body plunged rapidly to a temperature below zero. With him as the center point, the air around him started to get distorted.

As Chi Yang’s sworn brother, Xiao Shenbin was aware of Feng Shengxuan’s power. However, even though he had heard of it, he still felt the world spinning around him in this whirlpool made of Feng Shengxuan’s anger. It was as if the sky and earth were spinning and his bottom no longer belonged to him. He had to fight the urge to sit on the floor.

He could only use his fingers to hold on tightly to the stool to prevent himself from collapsing.

Feng Shengxuan... was really strong!

Bai Liyue was at the mercy of Feng Shengxuan’s anger too. At this moment, Feng Shengxuan was sitting beside her and he was only 20 centimeters away from her. Even though she was tough, she did not have any supernatural abilities. Or rather, she was just lighter than ordinary people and had mastered contortion skills. However, she was still not strong enough to defend herself against Feng Shengxuan.

Just as Bai Liyue was about to crash to the ground, Feng Shengxuan’s mobile phone rang.

When he heard the ringtone that he especially allocated for Nuannuan, Feng Shengxuan’s rationality instantly returned.. He looked at the pale Bai Liyue and realized that he was acting like a man who got possessed.

Chapter 1540: A Stand Off

Feng Shengxuan clearly loved Nuannuan and cared about her. What did it have to do with him what this woman wanted to do?

Xiao Shenbin was the young master of the Xiao family. Although he was merely a young master who was not even favored, he still had a very good reputation. If Bai Liyue could get along with Xiao Shenbin, she would not look at Feng Shengxuan as if he was a scumbag with that pair of resentful eyes every single day.

God knew how much he valued his relationships. Whether it was kinship or love, his deceased father or the Nuannuan whom he had fallen in love with, he wore his heart on his sleeve when it came to them.

Therefore, even though his father had died many years ago, he still wanted to avenge him.

As for Nuannuan... Even though she had Chi Yang and he could not say anything that would make things difficult for her, Chi Yang would eventually die, so Nuannuan would be his.

Then, about Bai Liyue...

He glanced at Bai Liyue, then at Xiao Shenbin. Feng Shengxuan's emotions were soothed.

Just as Feng Shengxuan calmed his aura, Huang Ziyu came over with some delicious dimsum. She could not help but glance at Feng Shengxuan before setting the food down on the table.

Feng Shengxuan picked up the phone and his voice became unusually gentle.

"Little Girl, what is it?"

At the other end of the line, Nuannuan's voice sounded confused.

"Big Bro, didn't you say you were coming to Naboo with me? The plane is here, so where are you?"

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

He had actually forgotten something so important.

This was why people said surgeries should not be performed and anesthesia should not be used. Anesthesia could make a person lose their wits for three years, and he had used a concentration ten times stronger than the recommended dosage.

Feng Shengxuan gloomily took a deep breath and said, "Nuannuan, I have some urgent matters to attend to, so I might be delayed. How about this... You go first, and I'll rush over later."

"Big Bro, don't! When you said you wanted to go, I already felt like there was no need for you to do that. It's just a meal with Wei Du. If he understands, everything is settled. If he wants to touch our mines, I'll immediately stop providing them weapons and see what he will do. If you go, then the two most important people in the Imperial Phoenix will both be away. He'll misunderstand how greatly we think of him."

He felt that what Nuannuan had said made sense. When Feng Shengxuan glanced over, he happened to see Xiao Shenbin giving Bai Liyue an annoying smile. The anger he had previously suppressed rose again.

"Alright, but you have to be careful. If he has any ulterior motives, you don't have to give him any face. Not only will our Imperial Phoenix stop supplying weapons, but I'll also get Sab to destroy him."

“Okay.” With Feng Shengxuan no longer third wheeling, Nuannuan was very happy and immediately agreed. “Then I’ll leave with Selina and Dan Qi.”

“Okay, be careful.”

“Mm.”

Bai Liyue listened to Feng Shengxuan’s conversation and was filled with disbelief.

“You actually... aren’t going with Nuannuan?”

“Do you think Nuannuan is like you? She’s not the person who will get hurt all over and have her life nearly snatched away after leaving my protection.”

Bai Liyue, “...”

She felt like she could no longer speak to Feng Shengxuan.

This vile man! Could he not treat her a little more gently after she had loved and taken care of him for so many years?

Even though she had decided to let go, Bai Liyue could feel her heart breaking when she saw Feng Shengxuan’s attitude.
