Chapter 1541: Losing Control

Bai Liyue was silent for a moment. She looked at Xiao Shenbin, who was a little embarrassed, and asked, "Young Master Xiao, you asked me what I wanted to eat for lunch?"

Even though he was under a lot of pressure from Feng Shengxuan's obstruction, Xiao Shenbin decided to go all out to pursue the girl he had fallen in love with at first sight.

He smiled. "Yes, Yue'er. What do you want to eat?"

His 'Yue'er' triggered Feng Shengxuan's strong dissatisfaction again.

Xiao Shenbin... had never called her Yue'er before!!!

He thought he was the only one allowed to call her that!

Just as he was about to stop Xiao Shenbin from calling her that, Bai Liyue smiled and responded.

"I want to have congee for lunch. Do you know of any authentic congee shops around?"

Xiao Shenbin did not reject this first date even though she wanted to drink cheap porridge and was asking him where to get it. Instead, he replied in a very gentlemanly manner, "Of course, I know the capital city very well. Do you like porridge?"

"Yes." Bai Liyue nodded. "Also, the food for Chinese New Year was a little greasy. I want to remove all the grease I've been eating recently."

"Sure, I know a congee shop. Although the interior doesn't look too luxurious, their congee is very authentic. I have to get someone to book a seat quickly, as business is great there. If we don't reserve a place earlier, we won't be able to eat."

Bai Liyue was very interested. "Really? You're making me hungry!"

"Then... shall we go now?"

"Alright!"

Xiao Shenbin stood up, and so did Bai Liyue. However, Feng Shengxuan stood outside. She could not leave.

Feng Shengxuan lazily glanced at Xiao Shenbin, then at Bai Liyue, before standing up and following them.

Arriving at the tea room downstairs, Xiao Shenbin greeted the Huang siblings before leaving with Bai Liyue and Feng Shengxuan.

The car was at the back door of the tearoom, so Feng Shengxuan had not been able to find it.

Bai Liyue was about to get into Xiao Shenbin's car when Feng Shengxuan tightly grabbed her arm.

"What are you doing?"

"I should be asking you that."

"I'm going to have porridge with Young Master Xiao. Didn't you hear me?"

"You sure like Xiao Shenbin a lot. What's your relationship with him? Any male outsider can tempt you away with just a few words. Bai Liyue, how did you manage to live to this age?"

Bai Liyue could not take it anymore. Strength surged through her as she pulled her arm out of Feng Shengxuan's grasp. For the first time, she spoke to Feng Shengxuan in a very domineering manner—

"Young Master Xiao and I are friends, so why can't I ask my friend to treat me to a meal? Why can't I sit in my friend's car? Feng Shengxuan, get this straight. Even though I'm your subordinate, we're only in a symbiotic relationship. I have my own life, and I don't want to spend all my time hanging around you. If you need me to do something, I'll try my best to complete it, but other than work, I haven't sold myself to you. You have no right to be part of my life!"

Feng Shengxuan was stunned by Bai Liyue's words.

She took advantage of his dazed state to get into the car.

Seeing this, Xiao Shenbin also got into the car and hurriedly drove away.

It was not until the exhaust of the car brushed against Feng Shengxuan's face that he recovered from his shock.

What did she mean?

Was she trying to escape his control?

Feng Shengxuan quickly drove his car, but Xiao Shenbin had already left.

Chapter 1542: Feast

Feng Shengxuan could only immediately call the KE headquarters and get Winnie to track down Bai Liyue's phone to locate her before rushing over.

When Bai Liyue realized that she was being tracked, she did not feel good.

Though she knew she was being tracked, there was nothing she could do about Winnie, whom she had never met.

After all, her hacking skills were worse than subpar. Thus, even when she was aware that Winnie was hacking into her phone system, Bai Liyue did not know how she could stop him.

"I'm sorry, but I'm afraid someone's going to be on my tail for the rest of the day. If that makes you uncomfortable, we can go out for dinner another time."

Xiao Shenbin smiled indifferently. "Will he not come to make trouble again the next time we go out to eat?"

Bai Liyue, “...” She did not think so. After all, Feng Shengxuan did not care about her. He was just being crazy today.

“So, since he’s just going to cause trouble again next time, and it wasn’t easy for me to ask you out, I’ll definitely cherish this opportunity you’ve given me. Just follow me. The congee is really good. I heard that Chairman Feng just had an operation, so having some congee will be good for his stomach.”

Xiao Shenbin and Feng Shengxuan were polar opposites in Bai Liyue’s eyes. One was polite, while the other was irritable and heartless.

Feng Shengxuan had gotten people to simultaneously hack satellites and Bai Liyue’s phone. He had double-locked her phone and Xiao Shenbin’s car.

With little effort, Feng Shengxuan located the two.

Seeing that he had come across a tattered door which held a packed crowd of people behind it, one word was clearly etched in Feng Shengxuan’s eyes...

Detest!

To prevent others from recognizing him, he had purposely worn a mask and sunglasses to cover himself up. However, in this crowded place, he still became the center of attention when he entered.

Xiao Shenbin knew that Feng Shengxuan was going to follow him, so he chose a seat against the wall and sat down. It was a square table, so he and Bai Liyue sat facing each other. Feng Shengxuan’s stool faced the wall, and on his left was the camp counter. On his right... He could not completely put down his mask to cover his handsome and resentful face. There was still some confusion on it, too.

Even though Xiao Shenbin had been very thoughtful, Feng Shengxuan still rejected his invitation.

“Xiao Shenbin, is this the first big meal you’ve brought a girl to to woo her? Isn’t this a little shabby, even for you? Even if you wanted congee, you surely shouldn’t be getting it from here, should you?”

Just then, the congee was served.

The bowl of hot clay pot congee emanated a rich fragrance, tempting Feng Shengxuan’s taste buds.

“Who ordered pork liver congee?”

Xiao Shenbin and Bai Liyue pointed at Feng Shengxuan.

Feng Shengxuan, “...”

While he was still in shock, the pork liver congee was placed in front of him.

Feng Shengxuan really wanted to say that he did not eat pork liver congee. He did not like eating pig liver at all, but when he smelled the congee, the words he had been planned to say were swallowed down along with the saliva that had suddenly filled his mouth.

Although he still had a look of disdain, Feng Shengxuan could not help but scoop the congee into his own bowl.

Afterward, they were served seafood congee and a bowl of vegetable congee.

"I heard you like seafood.. We can eat together."

Chapter 1543: Drool Bib

Feng Shengxuan was depressed. "Who wants to eat with you? I never eat from other people's bowls."

Hearing those harsh words, Xiao Shenbin shrugged, indicating that he did not care. He simply started to eat the congee.

Honestly, he did not want Feng Shengxuan to eat what was in his bowl either.

The congee tasted even better than how it smelled. Seeing that Feng Shengxuan was enjoying it, Bai Liyue could not help but say, "Your stomach is not well. Eat slowly, it's hot."

Hearing Bai Liyue's concern, Feng Shengxuan's gloomy mood finally brightened.

After that, the waitress came to their table and roughly set down several bags.

"Two chicken breasts and three starch jelly buns."

Feng Shengxuan frowned so deeply his mouth looked like the curving bend of a river. Although he had admitted that the congee here was delicious, was this 'service with a smile' not a little too crude?

Seeing the red oil dripping onto the table, Feng Shengxuan felt his appetite disappear.

Bai Liyue took out a handkerchief and carefully wiped the grease off the table.

She did it subconsciously, but it made the two men beside her feel different.

Xiao Shenbin's eyes darkened slightly before he continued to eat his congee silently.

As for Feng Shengxuan, he instantly felt smug.

At least Bai Liyue was being tactful. It was her honor for a big boss like him to accompany her to dinner!

Fortunately, Feng Shengxuan did not say that out loud, all thanks to his EQ that was so low he had no friends. Otherwise, Bai Liyue would really not mind shoving the blame back onto his handsome face.

"Eat. I ordered you a chicken and a starch jelly."

Feng Shengxuan frowned as he looked at the chicken salad and starch jelly in the white steamed bun, as well as the starch jelly in the other white steamed bun. It looked like it had been fried in oil and was inedible. He frowned and cooly asked, "Is this food for humans?"

Luckily, it was noisy around them and they were sitting in a corner. Otherwise, Feng Shengxuan's mouth would definitely incur public anger.

Bai Liyue looked at him. If this was the past, she would definitely tell Feng Shengxuan that this was a trendy food right now. However, now... he could go ahead and do whatever he wanted.

Picking up one of the buns filled with starch jelly, she pursed her lips, opened her mouth as wide as she could, and bit down.

Feng Shengxuan's hearing was very good. He only heard a 'crack' before a part of the fried white bun shattered as Bai Liyue bit into it. It looked like one of those crispy pancakes made by Chi Zeyao.

The white and tender starch jelly mixed with a smearing of gravy that had burst from Bai Liyue's lips. Xiao Shenbin had already taken out a tissue and brought it to her chin.

This was also Bai Liyue's first time eating such a fried bun. She had thought it would not taste be too good, but who knew that her pupils would be contracting after taking a single bite?

Due to the large amount of starch jelly that had entered her mouth, some immediately leaked out. She did not even have the time to praise how good the bun was and how it was worthy of being the most favored trendy food by influencers on the internet. It was simply so delicious it was bursting with flavor. The soup that escaped drowned out her words.

Fortunately, Xiao Shenbin handed her a tissue, or she would have made a fool of herself today.

Feng Shengxuan looked at the tissue Xiao Shenbin had handed over and felt uncomfortable. He took out many handkerchiefs from the paper bag and waited for Bai Liyue to press the piece of tissue to her mouth before leaning over the table.. Then, he placed the tissues around her collar, forming a bib around her.

Chapter 1544: Impulsiveness

Bai Liyue, "..."

Was he treating her like a one-year-old?

Feng Shengxuan looked at his masterpiece with satisfaction and said contentedly, "Eat."

Bai Liyue wanted to take off the embarrassing bib, but after thinking about how the soup might leak out again later, she decided to live with it.

In the end, Feng Shengxuan could not help but pick up the fried bun with starch jelly. He wanted to see if the crispy skin was as good as Chi Zeyao's pancakes.

With one bite, the starch jelly was swallowed down.

The starchy jelly was surprisingly smooth and refreshing. As soon as it entered his mouth, it slipped down his throat. Coupled with the slightly spicy but extremely fragrant soup and the crispy skin of the helmet, it made Feng Shengxuan's pupils shrink.

'I really didn't expect to be able to eat such delicious food here in the Emperor District.'

In a short while, the two crispy buns were finished by Feng Shengxuan, along with the pig liver congee.

"I'm done. Can we go now?"

Wiping his mouth, Feng Shengxuan ignored everyone else and stared straight at Bai Liyue.

Bai Liyue was embarrassed and looked at Xiao Shenbin guiltily. She had something to do in the afternoon.

Xiao Shenbin smiled. "I'll drive you."

Bai Liyue was about to nod in agreement when Feng Shengxuan refused.

"There's no need to worry about that, Young Master Xiao. Miss Bai and I live under the same roof. How can I let you send her home, Young Master Xiao?"

Xiao Shenbin smiled. "I hear that you're my sister-in-law's big brother. You brought my sister-in-law up like your own sister and took good care of her. It seems that not only my sister-in-law, but Yue'er, is also well taken care of by you. Those people who slandered Chairman Feng don't know you well."

Those seemingly flattering words pushed Feng Shengxuan into an awkward corner.

He was now being forced to either admit that Bai Liyue was not his sister, or that he treated her as his own blood sibling.

If he said he did not treat her as his sister, then he would seem like he did not like Bai Liyue, so he would not have the right to control her in the future. However, to acknowledge her as his sister...

This woman was clearly not that!

At that moment, Feng Shengxuan himself was a little confused. He did not understand why he kept shouting at her and controlling her.

"You don't have to worry about what kind of person I am. Just stay away from Bai Liyue."

"It seems that Chairman Feng really treats Yue'er as his sister. Big Brother, I, Xiao Shenbin, want to pursue Yue'er. I hope you'll give us your blessing."

Feng Shengxuan narrowed his eyes in anger and asked dangerously, "What right do you think an unfavored young master from a wealthy family like you has to woo her?"

Xiao Shenbin took a deep breath and said, "Although I'm merely an unfavored young master, I still have my own career. Anyway, I believe that a man needs several things to like and pursue a woman. Though having enough money to guarantee her basic needs is important, a sincere heart is even more important."

"Let's not talk about money. After all, Bai Liyue has me, so there's no need to worry about that. However, when it comes to sincerity of the heart, are you sure you're qualified to say that in front of me when you've only met her a few times? What is your sincerity? Is it just puppy love after meeting her a few times?"

Xiao Shenbin, "..."

"Best... Best Actor Feng!"

Suddenly, someone recognized Feng Shengxuan.. In an instant, the entire congee shop was in an uproar as everyone shouted Best Actor Feng's name.

Chapter 1545: Could Not Understand Anything

With his face being recognized once again, Feng Shengxuan was rather irritated. He looked at Bai Liyue and ordered, "Go."

Bai Liyue did not want to obediently trot behind him, but seeing that everyone was starting to take pictures of him with their cameras, she could only follow him.

The fanatical fans forgot to eat as they chased the fleeing pair.

Fortunately, this was a relatively remote place, so Feng Shengxuan quickly pulled Bai Liyue into the car.

The car had already driven for some distance before Feng Shengxuan said with a dark face, "Bai Liyue, I'm warning you, you're not allowed to interact with this Xiao Shenbin again, do you hear me?"

Back then, Bai Liyue would listen to everything he said, almost like a robot without her own thoughts. Therefore, when Feng Shengxuan finished speaking, Bai Liyue did not even need to respond to him.

However, this time, Bai Liyue replied to him indifferently. "Why? You're not my father."

Feng Shengxuan suddenly slammed on the emergency brakes and came to a violent halt.

Thankfully, this was a small alley and there were no cars behind them.

"Bai Liyue, are you trying to rebel? I've noticed that you've been acting weird recently, constantly mocking me or ignoring me. You seem to have forgotten your place!"

Bai Liyue did not get angry after being shouted at. She just looked at him calmly and said, "Big Bro, actually, I made a mistake when it came to finding my place. The Bai family and KE have reached a consensus. I am only a tool to help the Bai family make money. Following you as your subordinate, and your partner, we developed KE together. I admit that in the process, I fell in love with you, so for a long time, I forgot my place.

"I know the person you like is Nuannuan, not me, so every time you treated Nuannuan well, I felt especially sad. I trailed behind you every step of the way. Besides helping you with work, I overstepped my boundaries and got involved in your personal life. In the end, I offended you, yelled at you, lost my temper, and even left after that.

"After a period of reflection, I knew I was wrong. Liking someone is not about how long you cling to their side, but how much of yourself you give to them. It was because of my deep reflection that I made the decision I made.

"From today onwards, I will be just like Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi. I will only be your little sister. If you don't even want me as that, I'll only be your partner, your business partner. As for your personal life, I will no longer get involved in it.

"That's why I didn't ignore you. I just wanted to give up on you and stop liking you, so I gave you some space outside of work. I didn't want to bother you or try to butt into your life. So, I hope you can be like me. Since you don't like me, don't bother with my private life. I'm already 28 years old, no longer a young girl. Young Master Xiao is a good man. Even though I'm your subordinate, I still have the right to fight for my own happiness, right?"

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

He stared blankly at Bai Liyue, who had not paused at any time during her long speech.

Feng Shengxuan realized that something was wrong with the way he had been thinking about things.

He understood the words she had said when they stood alone.

However, when they were all connected in a single outburst, he was left confused.

Chapter 1546: Room of Distinguished Guests

Feng Shengxuan looked at Bai Liyue in a daze. Suddenly, he felt as if there was a hole in his heart. Even though they were both sitting in the car, Feng Shengxuan could feel air blowing straight into his chest.

It did not hurt, but... it was impossible to describe what it felt like.

It was as though his entire world entered greyscale mode.

Bai Liyue thought Feng Shengxuan would throw a temper at her, or scold her. After all, he was the type of person who would micromanage everything about you after labeling you as his, even if he did not like you.

Therefore, this time, Bai Liyue decided to fight Feng Shengxuan until she got what she wanted.

Yet, Feng Shengxuan stared blankly at her until Bai Liyue was at a loss as to what to do. It was only when the cars behind them honked continuously that Feng Shengxuan recollected his senses and drove away.

There was only silence on their way back.

After returning to the Chi residence, Feng Shengxuan went into his room and never showed up, not even for dinner.

The chaos of war had shut down all international flights in Naboo. After arriving at Naboo's frontier, Nuannuan, Selina, and Dan Qi realized they would need their citizenship certificate to pass through the border.

They did not inform Wei Du when they departed for Naboo, and thus, decided to hand over Wei Du's invitation to the border guards.

Since they flew in on a private jet in the first place and owned an invitation letter, the border guards treated them well.

After making a call to confirm the authenticity of the invitation, the border guards invited them to the first-class cabin on the third floor of the passenger ship.

Inside, there were five tables in this cabin class that resembled a guest area. The chairs were all around the table, and there were snacks like peanuts, melon seeds, nuts, and biscuits on the table. Being able to have such treatment was considered a luxury during times of war like this.

"How long more do we have to wait?" a woman accompanied by a child asked unhappily in Luntanese.

“Our distinguished guests, please calm down. We still have five minutes before our scheduled departure.”

“Unbelievable. I thought we agreed that our family is your only distinguished guest here, but you’ve been bringing all sorts of stray cats and dogs to the third floor. Look at how many people there are on this table now?” The woman glared at Nangong Nuannuan resentfully. Seeing how beautiful she and Selina were as they sat next to the young and handsome Dan Qi, she assumed they were Dan Qi’s mistresses due to how chivalrous he was acting. She felt that it was degrading to be with such people.

“I’m really sorry. We’re not aware that we’d have so many guests up here too.”

“Don’t think that I won’t know,” said the man next to the woman unhappily too. “That when you realized there were so many here, you brought everyone who could afford it here.” He did not target Nangong Nuannuan, but the other businessmen who had important businesses in Naboo.

If it were not for the fact that they were forced to do so, the businessmen would not have chosen to come to the country to do business. Therefore, they would not dare to argue with these unreasonable people.

The crew member laughed and tried to overlook this matter. The couple stopped talking too.

Selina and Nangong Nuannuan wanted to say a few words to criticize the woman, but since they were away from home and they had no grudge against the woman, they decided to ignore her.

There was a total of six people waiting for the ship to dock and bring them into Naboo.

The inside of the cabin was quiet because of the war. However, everyone could hear the woman nagging at her son often..

Chapter 1547: Chi Yang Was Her Prescription

“My gosh! The food they serve on this ship is horrible! Why do you keep eating them? If you hurt your stomach after eating them, do you think they can afford to compensate you?”

“Stop eating! How much did you have to drink? This drink is so cold! What will happen if you freeze your stomach?”

...

The woman’s son was between the ages of two and eight. At that age, he was unbelievably chubby and his second chin seemed to jut out at least 4 centimeters outward.

Yet, the child continued eating.

The man sitting next to the boy, on the other hand, was sizing up Nangong Nuannuan and Selina. He thought he was being obscure with his eyes, but his chubby wife saw everything.

Since Nangong Nuannuan and Selina never returned the man's gaze, the woman had no reason to throw a tantrum at them.

There was peace between the two tables until the chubby boy finished eating everything on his table. After running out of food, the chubby boy ran over to Nangong Nuannuan's table and attempted to snatch the food from there. That was when the conflict started.

While everyone on Nangong Nuannuan's table was reading on their laptops, the boy suddenly ran over to them and gave Selina a push. Then, he reached out to snatch the plate of melon seeds and candies from their table.

Selina was well aware that the boy walked over. However, she did not expect this boy to push her so rudely even though she did not provoke him. She was not ready for his unexpectedly strong force and wobbled from his impact.

When Selina recollected her senses, Nangong Nuannuan had already grabbed the boy's hand and asked coldly, "What are you doing?"

"What are you doing?! Let go of my son!"

Seeing this, the chubby woman stood up and shouted at Nangong Nuannuan.

By the time she plodded over to the boy's side, she pulled him into his embrace protectively. Glaring at Nangong Nuannuan, she roared, "Why did you hit my son?"

Nangong Nuannuan had long been dissatisfied with this fat woman and her family. Now that they started this fight, there was no way Nangong Nuannuan would soften the blow for her.

"Are your eyes covered in poop? When did I hit him? On the other hand, what kind of education do you give your kid? He ran to someone else's table to get more food and even pushed people! What kind of horrible upbringing is that?"

Seemingly never gotten scolded by anyone else before, the woman's eyes widened in surprise when Nangong Nuannuan scolded her, followed by anger.

"What did you say?! Who the heck do you think you are?! How dare you speak to me and my son like this? You're asking for it!"

After saying that, she slapped Nangong Nangong.

In the next second, Nangong Nuannuan raised her hand. With a loud piak, Nangong Nuannuan's palm came into contact with the chubby woman's stubby palm.

How could the chubby woman compete against Nangong Nuannuan when it came to strength? Even though Nangong Nuannuan did not bother exerting any strength, the fat woman still let out a scream. Then, she staggered and fell toward the wall beside her. After losing her balance, she fell to the ground.

"How impudent! Do you know who I am?!"

At this moment, the man who kept sizing Nangong Nuannuan up stepped forward with his eyes seeping with unconcealable greed.

"I don't care who you are. You'd better restraint your wife and son, otherwise don't blame others for punishing them."

A single glance at the disgusting man was enough to disgust Nangong Nuannuan, who had a thing for people with good looks. She could only quickly dig out her memories of Chi Yang and immerse her mind in memories of him. Only then did her nausea subside..

Chapter 1548: Shut Up

"Youngster, don't be too arrogant. There are plenty of people who are more powerful than you in this world. Don't ruin your future because of your ego. I don't care what you do in Camino, but in Naboo, you still have to bow down to me even if you're a dragon. Do you understand? Apologize to my son now!"

Dan Qi, who never spoke a word, stepped forward to teach this man a lesson, only to be stopped by Nangong Nuannuan.

Nangong Nuannuan knew that Dan Qi and Selina both had horrible tempers. Nangong Nuannuan was the future wife of a military officer, not forgetting the fact that she had decided to leave her past behind. Therefore, under normal circumstances, she would resolve this kind of small dispute through verbal arguments. Therefore, she did not intend to do anything to this peculiar family.

"Apologize? Well, I'm afraid I apologize to no one other than my fiancé."

There was obviously dissatisfaction in this man's eyes after hearing that this girl already had a fiancé.

It meant that this curvaceous young girl was no longer a virgin.

"Step aside! Let me teach her a lesson!"

The madam failed to understand her place. She climbed up from the ground and raised her left hand, trying to land another slap on Nangong Nuannuan again.

With another loud slap, Nangong Nuannuan reciprocated with a slap on the fat madam's palm. This time, she used a little more force than before, sending the madam into the air. She let out a scream and landed on the wall before bouncing onto the ground.

This time, she was rolling around on the ground from the pain in her palm. She groaned loudly in pain.

This time, after watching his mother getting beaten up, the chubby boy picked up a metal teacup from the table and threw it at Nangong Nuannuan's head. There was a fierce look in his eyes.

If Nangong Nangong was a normal girl without martial arts skills, she would have ended with a bleeding head if she got hit by such a heavy cup.

Nangong Nuannuan was furious now. With a wave of her hand, the teacup that flew at her spun back the way it came and landed on the boy's forehead with a loud smack.

Before he could even let out a scream, the boy was hit so hard that his head spun. He spun around twice before falling to the ground on his bottom, dumbstruck.

“Zhong’er!”

The man quickly ran over to help his son up, but the boy was too fat. In addition to the fact that he was dizzy from the impact, the man failed to help his son up. As soon as the boy got to his feet, he fell again, nearly pulling his father down with him.

“You rascal, how dare you hit my son! Just... just you wait! You might be able to enter Naboo, but I’ll make sure you’ll never be able to return to Camino!”

There was fury in the chubby madam’s eyes that threatened to pierce through Nangong Nuannuan.

Nangong Nuannuan snorted and gestured to Dan Qi and Selina to sit down. However, she enunciated her warning slowly, “You’d better not have any ill intentions toward us. Otherwise, you’ll regret everything when a tiny issue escalates to the point of no return.”

The fat woman was about to say something but decided against it because she realized that Nangong Nuannuan did have some martial arts skills.

Finally, the fat boy came back to his senses and touched his forehead. When he touched a big bump, he burst into tears.

The trembles from his wails were so loud that he could probably raise the waves in the sea by five inches.

Selina could not stand the horrible noise, and she glared at the boy. “Shut up!”

With her deathly glare condensing on the boy—so compact that the iciness in her eyes started to take form—the aura that belonged to the top-notch mercenary was not something a mere boy could withstand.

Chapter 1549: 1 VS 30

With just one yell, the boy was as frightened as a quail and immediately fell silent.

Selina could not understand how Lil Sun and Lil Ling’er could act like angels but some children could be as annoying as this one.

Scanning the items on the table, Selina picked up the plate of snacks and got out of her seat.

The fat woman sneered and raised her head proudly, thinking that Selina gave in to them by bringing the things over. Much to her surprise, Selina walked to the trash can and threw everything into the trash can, including the plate.

All they thought was eating! Now, he could go ahead and eat as much as he wanted!

Glancing at the woman whose face was red with anger but did not dare to say anything, Selina made the choice of cutting down the tree to prevent crows from crowing.

More than 20 minutes later, the ship docked.

The man rushed off the boat with the woman and the child.

Before leaving, the woman glared at them fiercely. Selina glared back, scaring the woman so much that she quickly took three steps faster and ran away with the man and child.

Meanwhile, Nuannuan and the others waited until everyone got off the ship before getting off the ship themselves. They did not want to squeeze in with the others.

As a result, just as they got off the ship, the trio found themselves surrounded by a large group of people.

Those who had already gotten off the ship and those who were not too far away from Nangong Nuannuan and her friends were mostly people on the distinguished guests' list who boarded the ship on the third floor. Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan and the others were surrounded, no one dared to stay any longer. Even if some of them could not hold back their curiosity, they hurriedly ran to a place far away before turning around to watch.

Nangong Nuannuan and the others stared at the people who surrounded them with their beautiful brows slightly raised—there were more than 30 people.

"Little Girl, I told you just now that I have a special status in Naboo. Even if you're a dragon, you still have to sit still when you come to Naboo, but you didn't listen. Not only did you hit my wife, but you also hit my son. This makes it impossible for me to treat you properly. However, if you..."

"How dare you give her options?! She hit Zhong'er and me! Do you want to spare her because she's beautiful?"

The fat woman saw the thugs coming and immediately jumped eighty feet high, she said to Nangong Nuannuan, "Let me tell you, Naboo isn't like Camino. Naboo is at war right now. Even if we kill someone, we don't have to go to jail! All of you, attack! Beat these two b*tches to death!"

"Yes, sir!"

The 30-something thugs instantly surrounded them.

Nangong Nuannuan pulled Selina backward. Selina was too excited that she was ready to launch her attack.

It was at moments like this that they should let the gentleman go first.

Dan Qi was extremely fast. He happened to have a tablet in his hand, and he threw it at the group of lackeys who were trying to charge at Dan Qi's Big Boss.

The tablet had a certain weight, and Dan Qi exerted some strength into throwing it. Therefore, when the tablet flew toward the group of people one by one, the first few took on the impact from the weight and strength of the tablet at full force. They were struck in their carotid artery. Before they could scream or struggle, they collapsed to the ground and never opened their eyes again.

At the same time that the tablet flew out, Dan Qi had already attacked the rest of them on the other side. With a 360-degree roundhouse kick, Dan Qi sent five of them flying. When he landed on the ground, Dan Qi happened to catch the flying tablet on time.

With that half of the thirty thugs on the fat woman's side were gone in an instant.

The thugs who had previously been prepared to attack Nangong Nuannuan's group with their bare fists were frightened and took a few steps back.

The man's expression also changed.. He was so scared he quickly pulled the fat woman and his son back, afraid Dan Qi would hurt them too.

Chapter 1550: Complaints

"Take out some weapons! Hurry up and get your weapons!"

Dan Qi raised his eyebrows and looked at the group of people with interest. What kind of weapon were they going to get? After all, Dan Qi had given them some new toys before they left.

However, when Dan Qi, Nangong Nuannuan, and Selina were ready to attack, the people drew knives and daggers from their backs.

Damnit...

They were idiots, were they not?

These were weapons?

They did not even deserve to be called real weapons!

"Argh—"

The remaining dozen or so thugs looked at each other before shouting and charging toward Dan Qi.

In the end, Dan Qi swept his leg and sent the few people at the front of the group flying. The rest were just behind those people, so Dan Qi snatched one of the fallen's knives and flew towards the remaining people, slitting their throats one by one.

The surrounding crowd dispersed even more than before.

If at the beginning many people were looking at Nangong Nuannuan and the other two pitifully, now they were looking at them in horror.

This was especially true for the fat woman's family of three.

When the fat boy saw his parents' subordinates being killed, he was so scared he could not stop screaming.

Dan Qi had killed 30 people in less than two minutes.

Blood pooled on the ground, yet Dan Qi's suit was uncreased. There was not a single wrinkle on it nor a drop of blood on his hands. He adjusted the glasses on the bridge of his nose, their golden rimmed frames giving off a faint golden light. He looked like a dashing gentleman.

Seeing Nangong Nuannuan's gaze on them, the fat woman was so scared she wanted to pull her son and her husband away.

However, the fat boy was so scared he screamed a few times and fainted. Unwilling to leave her precious son behind, the fat woman could only loudly shout, "How... How dare you kill people! Do you know that you've killed Naboo citizens? You people from Camino actually dared to enter Naboo's territories and behave like beasts! Is there any law and order left in the world?"

Back then, besides the people at the fat woman's and Nangong Nuannuan's table, there had only been three other tables in the VIP room. However, because Dan Qi had killed thirty people in a single breath, at least 500 people were surrounding them now.

Even if the people at the three tables knew the cause of the incident, they did not dare to have a loose tongue. This was something the fat woman was well-aware of.

She was very lucky. Almost as soon as she finished speaking, a group of soldiers rushed over.

Because it was a chaotic period of war, all the soldiers were holding guns in their hands. When the fat woman saw this, her eyes lit up.

"Soldiers, come quickly! There's been a murder! Quickly arrest them all! These three people have killed thirty citizens of Naboo!"

When the man beside the fat woman saw a man leading the soldiers over, his eyes lit up as well. He quickly ran toward the people behind the soldiers.

"Minister Dai Wei! This is great, just great! I didn't expect it to be you!"

A soldier saw that the man was about to collide with their minister and immediately stopped him. However, the other party seemed to recognize him and said, "Let him come over."

The man hurriedly bent over and sprinted to him. When he got in front of Minister Dai Wei, he said, "Minister Dai Wei, I'm glad you still remember me. You came at the right time! If you had come half a minute later, my family and I would be dead right now!"

"Oh? What happened?"

"They're responsible for it all!"
