

Physician Wife 1571

Chapter 1571: Dying Of Anxiety

"I thought you would be happy, but you're saying that I stabbed your heart? Usually, I can't bear to see you suffer—so why would I be so cruel as to stab your heart with a knife?!"

Chi Yang looked at his muttering wife, and his heart gushed with love. He bent down and gently kissed her pitiful little face.

Nangong Nuannuan scratched her head, still looking pitiful. Chi Yang bent down once more and kissed her again.

Seeing that she was still pouting, he continued to kiss her.

He did it another time.

Another time.

Another time!!!

He only stopped when the little girl smiled happily at him.

Usually, this little girl would use such a trick to deal with him. If he was not explaining himself, she would kiss him. She would kiss him until he finally vented his anger.

Now, he knew that he had misunderstood this girl. Yet, he was too embarrassed to explain that he could not understand her just now, so he kissed her instead.

This method was very effective. The little girl was easy to coax, and she immediately smiled, creasing her eyes.

"You're not angry anymore?"

Nangong Nuannuan hugged Chi Yang and leaned into his arms.

"It's been so long, and I've really missed you. Why would I be angry with you?"

How sweet.

Chi Yang held her slender and fragile waist with one hand. His heart was extremely warm, but his face did not show a hint of it. The only difference was that the bulging veins on his temples had now mildly faded.

"Wei Du will come here later. Do you have any backup plans?"

Just as Nuannuan was about to answer, the two of them noticed that Wei Du had just arrived.

Chi Yang's expression instantly froze, and his entire body immediately filled with a murderous rage.

If Wei Du dared to try anything with his wife, he clearly did not want to be the president anymore.

When he arrived, Chi Yang was prepared. Even then, he had already thought about how he would deal with Wei Du. Therefore, at this moment, he was not afraid that Wei Du would suddenly open the door.

Big Brother Chi Yang’s rage-filled aura clued Nuannuan into the fact that he was planning to kill Wei Du. Hence, she wrapped her arms around him and tightly hugged him.

“What are you doing? Are you going to kill him now? Big Brother Chi Yang, he’s the president of Naboo. If you want to kill him, you’ll have to do it secretly. It’s best if Pang Long kills him!”

“So, you want me to watch him enter the room and talk dirty to you?”

“Oh, dear. Don’t worry. How could I let him bully me? Go, go. I’ll go find you right away once this is over.”

Nangong Nuannuan tried to push him away, but Chi Yang’s body was as immovable as a mountain, and he did not budge.

“I’m not leaving.”

His wife was in another man’s house. How could he leave?

He would never leave, even if it killed him.

Nangong Nuannuan, “...”

She had a headache.

Knock, knock, knock—

Knocks berated from the door. Wei Du had already arrived and was outside her door, but Chi Yang still looked like he would rather die than give in.

“Miss Nuannuan, may I come in?”

“Miss Nuannuan? Who allowed him to call you that? When he called you Nuannuan, did you not ask him to be more respectful? You’re the Chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group after all!”

Nangong Nuannuan’s headache grew more intense!

Could this man wait until they were back before engaging in a fit of jealousy?

Was this the appropriate response of a commander in the face of danger?

Could he not be more considerate of the overall situation?

Why was he still bothered by how others addressed her?

“Okay, okay, okay! I’m sorry, I’m sorry! I’ll tell him to call me Miss Nangong, okay? Hurry up and leave!”

“I won’t go. I’m worried for you!”

“Then, you have to hide at least!”

With that, Nangong Nuannuan brought Chi Yang to the bed.

Chapter 1572: First Lady

“You want me to get into bed? These red sheets won’t be able to hide me!”

What the heck...

Nangong Nuannuan felt like digging a hole in the ground and hiding in it.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, I’m not asking you to get into bed. I want you to get under the bed! Hide for a while! I’ll let you out soon.”

He glared at her. “You actually want your husband to get under the bed so a wild man can come in here and court you?”

Chi Yang, who was furious, wanted to open the door and grab a gunnysack to beat Wei Du to death.

Nangong Nuannuan, “...”

“Miss Nuannuan, are you here? May I come in?”

Nangong Nuannuan heard Wei Du taking out some keys from his pocket. Obviously, locking the door was a useless defense against him.

“Mr. President, please wait a moment.”

Hearing Nangong Nuannuan’s voice, Wei Du’s key, which had already been inserted into the lock, stopped turning.

“Okay, I’ll wait for you.”

Nangong Nuannuan let out a sigh of relief. She took a glance around the room and pulled Chi Yang to the cabinet. She opened the cabinet and prepared to stuff him inside.

“What are you doing?” Chi Yang looked at her with a displeased expression.

“If you don’t get under the bed, you go into the cabinet. There are only two places to hide here.”

“Hide? I will never hide! I will not hide from a wild man!” He and this man were nothing alike! He was the main character. How could he let a wild man bully him?

Nuannuan was upset.

After not seeing him for more than a month, Big Brother Chi Yang’s temper had become much more irritable. He was extremely stubborn, especially when it came to matters regarding her.

What a troublesome and petty man.

Unable to bear being angry at Chi Yang any longer, Nuannuan could only drag him to the bathroom. She said, "Big Brother Chi Yang, then wait for me here for a while. You've been here for so long, but you haven't gone to the bathroom yet, right? Just go to inside and wait for me."

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan quickly leaped out to open her bedroom door.

Wei Du, who was waiting outside, felt as if something was wrong. He turned the key. Coincidentally, at that same moment, Nangong Nuannuan opened the door.

Looking at the key inside the lock, her eyes went cold.

"Mr. President, what is the meaning of this? You invited me to stay in your presidential residence. I locked the door, and now you're using your key to open it."

"Isn't this for the sake of Miss Nuannuan's safety? Pang Long's traitors have been running rampant recently. Even in the presidential residence, they could not guarantee Miss Nuannuan's safety. When I saw that Miss Nuannuan did not immediately open the door, I was afraid something might have happened to you, so I got someone to bring the key to the room. I wanted to open the door to check on you."

"President, please call me Miss Nangong. After all, we are close enough to refer to each other by name. Moreover, I have a fiancé. If he finds out that other men call me Nuannuan, he won't be happy. I love my fiancé very much, so please call me Miss Nangong, President."

Wei Du suddenly burst into laughter.

Nangong Nuannuan's eyes turned cold again.

"Mr. President, what are you laughing about?"

Wei Du stopped laughing, he said, "Miss Nangong, you're a big shot in the business world, and I'm the president of Naboo. Who could be more compatible than the two of us together? As long as you marry me and transfer Imperial Phoenix to me, I'll definitely be able to gain a firm foothold in Naboo. Then, you'll be the most glorious first lady of Naboo."

This time, Nangong Nuannuan's gaze was so cold it could freeze water.. She was not prepared to entertain Wei Du any longer.

Chapter 1573: The Best in the World

She sneered and said, "But I... don't think we are compatible. After all... the world is unpredictable."

Wei Du's smile instantly turned cold, and a dangerous aura lingered around him.

"Miss Nuannuan, what do you mean?"

"I meant what I said."

"Miss Nangong, do you know that if someone else said this to me, I would immediately shoot them in the head?"

“Mr. President, do you know that if someone else were to ask me to transfer ownership of Imperial Phoenix to them, I would immediately shoot them in the head too?”

Seeing that Wei Du was no longer calling her Miss Nuannuan, Nangong Nuannuan let out a sigh of relief. She had finally managed to soothe her sour king’s fur. However, Wei Du’s words were so shameless that they left Nuannuan speechless.

Wei Du saw that Nangong Nuannuan was angry. Seeing a chance, he softened his tone. “Miss Nangong, you might think that my request is a bit too much. You don’t have to transfer Imperial Phoenix Group to me. You can just give me all the mineral veins you bought in Naboo, and I’ll give you the position of the first lady.”

Nangong Nuannuan was so angry that she laughed.

“Mr. President, it’s not that I look down on you. Things are always changing. Let’s not talk about how you have a wolf in front of you and a tiger behind you. Even if you’re president now, that’ll only last for a few years. However, my business empire will always live on. Do you really plan to exchange the few years in your presidency for a lifetime of control over Imperial Phoenix? Mr. President, I’m a businesswoman! A businesswoman who only cares about making a profit. I’ve never bothered with deals that’d bring me losses.”

In one breath, she had scolded Wei Du for not being worthy of her. She had also said that he might not be able to hold on to his position as president and hinted that he was a useless president.

The only person in the world who could do this was Nangong Nuannuan.

Wei Du dangerously narrowed his eyes as he looked at Nangong Nuannuan. Meanwhile, her big and glossy eyes blinked at him. She did not feel intimidated by his imposing manner at all. Even though he had made a big show of his authority, Nangong Nuannuan gave him no face.

He narrowed her eyes and stared at Nangong Nuannuan for a long time. Her eyes were void of emotion, and she did not show even the slightest bit of fear.

Wei Du did not understand where this woman’s confidence had come from.

After all, that Dan Qi, who was very skilled, was already being monitored by his men. Meanwhile, she had been quietly staying in her room. She was a woman who could barely hold a chicken down, so what was she trying to pull?

How had she managed to grow the company so much?

“Your fiancé can’t be Feng Shengxuan, right? I heard that he’s into men.”

The corner of Nangong Nuannuan’s mouth couldn’t help but twitch.

“Of course it’s not Feng Shengxuan. My fiancé is someone else.”

Wei Du smiled and said, “If it’s not Feng Shengxuan, then I really can’t think of anyone better and more outstanding than me. I’m the president of a country.”

Nangong Nuannuan was a little dumbfounded, “President Wei Du, you’re probably a little too conceited! Are you the second-ranked man in the world behind the Phoenix Pavilion? It seems like you’re not even in the top 100 most wanted bachelors in the world!”

“Is your fiancé on that list, then?”

“My fiancé disdains participating in that list. Otherwise, he could kill everyone on the ranking in an instant. And although he’s not on the ranking, he’s still the best in my heart..”

Chapter 1574: You Did This?

“He’s more handsome than you, younger than you, and has a better figure than you! He is the best, most handsome, and most charming man in the world,” Nangong Nuannuan bragged.

At this moment, when a certain someone hiding in the bathroom heard his wife’s words to the wild man, his fur was successfully soothed.

However, on the other hand, Wei Du’s face was smacked by Nangong Nuannuan’s words.

“So, Miss Nangong looks at a man’s face when she chooses her man?”

“I’m no different from the richest man in the world. If I choose a man and don’t look at his face, should I have to look at his family background? President, are you joking with me?”

Wei Du was so angry that his breath was stuck in his chest.

“But just now, you were still insinuating that I don’t qualify—that I’m just a good-for-nothing who tricks people out of their fortunes if I get together with you. Since you only like handsome men, isn’t your fiancé a good-for-nothing too?”

“How is my fiancé just a good-for-nothing? Didn’t I already tell you that he’s the most handsome, built, and charming man I’ve ever met? My heart is all his. Why are you saying that he’s good for nothing? He holds my heart in his hands.”

Wei Du said, “...I don’t think we can continue this conversation.”

Not only had the fur of a certain someone standing in the bathroom been soothed, but at this moment, his fur was as shiny as waxed golden fur!

“Since Miss Nangong doesn’t have any interest in me, why did you agree to stay in my presidential residence?”

“Didn’t your people say that I accidentally broke your sole? Shouldn’t I agree to your request as an apology? Mr. President, this isn’t actually my fault. I already said that I wasn’t going to jump, yet you insisted on pulling me to the edge.”

“Even so, don’t you know what it means to stay in a man’s home?”

“So, according to what Mr. President means... all the female VIPS who have stayed at the presidential residence in the past have had “business” with Mr. President?”

Wei Du, "..."

"Mr. President, you forced me to stay in your presidential residence. As for me, I stayed for safety's sake. If your presidential residence weren't safe, I would have immediately left."

Boom!

It was unknown whether the timing was pre-planned or not, but suddenly, a deafening explosion was heard from the presidential residence.

In this huge explosion, the entire presidential residence was on the verge of collapse. Wei Du was so shaken that one of his legs lost its balance, and he crumpled to the ground.

Nangong Nuannuan did not even stumble as she steadily held herself up.

"Mr. President, it seems like your presidential residence isn't even that safe after all."

"The president is in trouble. I wonder who blew up our secondary building?" A guard rushed up with a pale face as if he was facing a great enemy.

"Have you caught the perpetrator? Is there a bomb in the main building?" Wei Du got up from the ground with a flustered expression.

"There's no bomb in the main building, and we haven't caught the perpetrator yet. Our guards have been patrolling the area the entire time and haven't seen anyone coming in or out. It must have been a time bomb."

As soon as he finished speaking, Selina and Dan Qi had already rushed up.

"Chairman, the presidential residence has been attacked. Let's hurry up and leave."

Wei Du suddenly looked at Nangong Nuannuan. "Nangong Nuannuan, did you do this?"

Nangong Nuannuan's face darkened. She said in a very serious tone, "Mr. President, I haven't gone out since I went upstairs.. As for what the other two vice presidents of Imperial Phoenix Group have been doing, you probably know better than me. You're saying that I blew up your presidential residence? Do you have any evidence?"

Chapter 1575: Could Not Stop

"If you don't want to stay in my presidential residence, just say that. Why blow it up?" Wei Du said angrily.

"Wei Du, don't go too far!" Nangong Nuannuan, who had been smiling all this time, suddenly turned cold. Her fierce aura shocked Wei Du.

"Your people have been following us ever since we got off the plane. You said that we bombed your presidential residence. Do you really think that you can throw us under the bus just with that? Let me tell you, that I, the Chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group, can do things most people cannot even imagine. So, you'd better keep your thoughts to yourself. That way, when I have the chance to see you again, I'll still be able to call you Mr. President."

After saying that, she angrily said to Selina and Dan Qi, "Let's go!"

"Yes."

Selina and Dan Qi immediately followed Nangong Nuannuan and strutted away.

"Nangong Nuannuan!"

Seeing her threaten him and swagger to the hall on the first floor past his men, Wei Du suddenly roared.

Nangong Nuannuan stopped and looked at the corridor upstairs.

"What else does President Wei Du want to do?"

"If you walk out of this presidential residence today and something happens... I won't be responsible."

Nangong Nuannuan gave him a meaningful smile.

"Mr. President, there are many people who want my life. But until now, no one has been able to get it, so you don't have to worry about my safety."

After saying that, she turned around and left in a domineering manner.

After a long while, the military counselor, Hu Li, walked in with a heavy heart.

"President, Nangong Nuannuan and the others have already left."

"How did they leave?" Wei Du asked with a dark expression.

"More than ten armored off-road vehicles came to pick up the three of them."

Wei Du could not hide his cold smile. "So, the woman had already made up her mind to leave and called the cars here?"

Hu Li's face also darkened. "That's likely the case."

"Why didn't you keep her here?" Thinking about how he had let the Goddess of Wealth go, Wei Du still felt a little regretful and pained.

Hu Li sighed, "President, it's not that I want to criticize you, but do you think she'd love you like your ex-wife? Did you honestly think Nangong Nuannuan would obey everything you say and couldn't wait to give you her entire world? She's Nangong Nuannuan, the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group and Tianheng Holdings. She's the richest woman in the world. How can you be so impatient?"

Wei Du felt a little miffed by those words.

After all, he was a politician. In his previous marriages, he would merely decide if he wanted to be with a woman only if she was useful to him. In addition, his ex-wife had not only had a noble status, but she had also loved him very much. He was the one who had been reluctant to be with her.

Now, he had met someone he liked, but she did not like him back. He could not stand this anymore.

If he had known earlier... he would not have been so impatient just now.

However, when he thought about it again, he got angry again.

"I'm the president! Don't tell me you want me to lower myself to a woman's level?"

Hu Li facepalmed. "You're indeed the president, but she's also the Chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group! She's not just the Chairman of Phoenix Pavilion in Naboo, but the entire Phoenix Pavilion... The chairman of the entire Imperial Phoenix Group!"

"What's the use of all this hindsight now? The woman has already left. You didn't stop her just now!"

"I..." Hu Li had a bitter expression on his face. "I wanted to stop her, but someone carrying a 25-caliber rocket launcher came down from the car. I didn't dare to stop them!"

Chapter 1576: It Hurt

After a moment of silence, Wei Du finally made up his mind to go back to his own plan.

"Keep an eye on them and take action when there's an opportunity."

"President, after meeting Nangong Nuannuan, I feel like she's not an ordinary woman. She's so young and looks so naive and beautiful, yet she owns Imperial Phoenix Group and Tianheng Holdings. Don't you think it's very strange? Why don't we... Forget it! We'll think of another way. Didn't you hear her say that she hopes to call you Mr. President the next time she sees you?"

"She said that to tell you that as long as you don't do anything to her, she'll maintain a good relationship with you. But if you do anything, you'll definitely be the one to suffer."

"Hu Li, you're getting more and more impudent!" Dan De, who had been silent all this while, said, "Are you trying to destroy our prestige? President, leave this matter to me. I'll make sure this arrogant woman never gets to return home."

The car was already on the road for some distance before Nangong Nuannuan called for the motorcade to stop.

Not long after, someone pulled the car door open, and a tall man dressed in army combat uniform with camouflage print quickly stepped into the car.

The car door closed quickly. When Selina and Dan Qi saw who it was, they could not help but smile in surprise.

"Bro-in-law!" the two of them said in unison.

Nangong Nuannuan quickly linked her arm with Chi Yang's and let him sit next to her. Then, she smiled at him with a fawning expression, which made Selina and Dan Qi's mouths twitch.

They had never seen their boss fawn over someone before.

In front of them, their big boss was arrogant and cool. Even if fawning was involved, she was the receiving party. When had they ever seen her look at someone like that? Only Bro-in-law was lucky enough to experience this.

However, this couple had just met up, so why was Bro-in-law so restless?

Chi Yang's fur had long been smoothed and shined by Nangong Nuannuan's words. At this moment, when he saw his woman giggling, he could not help but lovingly scratch her nose.

This time, he scratched her nose very gently, but Nangong Nuannuan immediately covered it and put on a wronged look. "It hurts!"

The sound of her painful exclamation was pleasant to the ears, and it tickled Chi Yang's heart. On the other hand, Selina and Dan Qi watched everything unfold with goosebumps all over their bodies. It was as if a demonic sound was ringing in their ears.

Chi Yang hurriedly pulled Nangong Nuannuan's hand away and used his rough fingertips to rub her delicate little nose bridge. He said very seriously, "How did it hurt? I was so gentle!"

"But you scratched it very hard before, so it was already injured! If you touch it again, of course..."

Before he could finish his words, Chi Yang had already cupped Nangong Nuannuan's aggrieved little face with both hands. He bent down and kissed her.

The warmth, along with a refreshing breath, soothed the pain on the bridge of her nose bit by bit. It was a very nice feeling. With a sigh, Nangong Nuannuan felt her body relax.

After a few more kisses, she could no longer find her bearings. Her entire body turned into a puddle of spring mud, soaking into Chi Yang's embrace.

Chi Yang hugged his wife in satisfaction, unwilling to let go. When he regained some strength from the little girl, he bent down and kissed her some more. In the end, he simply hugged his wife who had melted into his embrace, letting her sit on his lap and snuggle in his embrace.

Selina and Dan Qi were being tortured, forced to watch the two lovesick fools.

Chapter 1577: What Was Wrong With Big Brother Chi Yang?

From the moment Chi Yang walked in, Selina and Dan Qi maintained their smiles and kept calling him Bro-in-law. Meanwhile, he and his fiancée were acting two out of an X-rated love story, ignoring them. Even now, the two of them were still hugging each other, kissing every few seconds.

The key point was that their mighty and majestic boss was now like a newborn kitten. She meowed at Chi Yang in a childish voice, and he immediately bent down and kissed her.

The two of them did not do anything else from the moment they got into the car to the moment they got out. They kept on kissing throughout.

At Nangong Nuannuan's request, the convoy escorted them to the most luxurious five-star hotel in City A. After dropping five people off, the rest of them left.

The first thing Selina and Dan Qi did after they got out of the car was go have a hot bath to wash off the sour stench of the lovesick fools.

Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang did not bother with the two of them and went straight to their rooms.

It was said that a day without seeing one's lover felt like three years. They had not seen each other for 52 days and had missed each other very much in the time. However, when they saw each other, they realized that they missed each other even more than they thought.

Therefore, after Chi Yang opened the door, the two of them could not wait any longer. Chi Yang scooped her up off her feet and walked straight into the room. Then, he kicked the door close.

The moment Chi Yang closed the door, Nuannuan was already holding the handsome face covered with stubble in both her hands and kissing it without hesitation.

Chi Yang held Nuannuan and allowed her to kiss his face and neck until he placed her on the bed and spread out his arms and legs. Only then did he directly perch over her.

His kiss was very deep and extremely lingering.

Although the kiss was deep and left a lasting effect, it did not last long. Very soon, Chi Yang moved his lips to Nuannuan's ear.

The round earlobe of her small and delicate ear had a huge pearl embedded in it. Even though the pearl was very big, it was still unable to cover the round earlobe which was almost white with how pale it was.

Chi Yang opened his mouth and took a small bite, causing the woman to shrink back slightly.

Afraid she would feel pain, he immediately softened his bite and began to nibble on the round and plump ear lobe instead.

Nangong Nuannuan was not afraid of pain, but she was afraid of itchiness.

She felt as if there was a little mouse on her ear, and that small bite was so itchy it pierced straight to the bottom of her heart.

Just as she was about to reach her limit, Chi Yang's lips changed direction again and slowly moved to her neck. He gently licked the most sensitive part of her neck.

In the past, she did not think that Big Brother Chi Yang could be so flirtatious. All Nuannuan felt was a small boat floating in the vast sea of her heart. It would be sporadically hit by some waves time and time again, but she could never find a direction to steer in. She was in a daze.

Nuannuan gently closed her eyes and let out a faint moan. She could not see Chi Yang, whose face was red and whose veins were straining at his temples.

Chi Yang kissed Nuannuan's body. There seemed to be a ball of fire burning in his body.

"Nuannuan, I'm uncomfortable. Help me take off my clothes."

Nuannuan opened her eyes slightly. She had also wanted to say that she was uncomfortable and wanted Chi Yang to help her take off her clothes.

However, when she opened her eyes, she saw that there were veins all over his forehead and that his eyes were bloodshot with dissatisfaction. Even his pupils had turned a dark red.

She was shocked and immediately sat up from the bed.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, what’s wrong? Where do you feel uncomfortable?”

Nuannuan’s heart ached as she held Chi Yang’s face and immediately activated her X-ray vision.

Chapter 1578: I Am Not Afraid

Chi Yang’s voice was hoarse. “I’m fine, just uncomfortable. Nuannuan, I’m hot. Help me take off my clothes.”

As he spoke, he started to take off his clothes himself.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, wait!”

Nuannuan called out to Chi Yang as she stared at the cells on Chi Yang’s head with her eyes wide open.

The polygonal cells from before had originally been transparent and colorless. However, Nuannuan discovered that in just two months, the number of cells in Big Brother Chi Yang’s brain had not only increased, but they had also... changed color.

The color was the same as the color of his eyes, a dark red.

More and more transparent cells began to change color as the dark red cells spread, gradually turning the area from a faint pink to dark red.

Once the color change was completed, the dark red cells that had completely changed color would affect their neighboring cells too.

Soon, all the cells in his brain slowly changed color. More and more veins bulged on Chi Yang’s head.

“Nuannuan...” Chi Yang cried out in pain, trying to take off the camouflage print uniform on his body.

Nuannuan nervously held Chi Yang’s hand, stopping him from trying to take off his clothes. She asked, “Big Brother Chi Yang, what’s wrong with you? Tell me what’s wrong with you!”

“I’m hot. Nuannuan, hurry up.”

Having said that, Chi Yang stopped taking off his shirt and stretched his hand toward Nuannuan.

Nuannuan did not stop him. Instead, she continued to observe the condition of his body.

After the cells in his head turned dark red, the color moved down through the pituitary gland, affecting the power cells in the lymph nodes of his neck before going even further below.

This time, Chi Yang did not say anything. Nuannuan had already reached out and untied the clothes on Chi Yang’s chest.

Wherever the cells went, the meridians in Chi Yang’s body bulged one by one, and his skin began to turn red.

At first, Chi Yang thought that this was all happening because he had not seen his wife for a long time. Thus, when he saw her, he could not help but feel hot. His body could not stand it anymore.

However, now, as Nuannuan took off the clothes on his chest, Chi Yang realized that the skin on his chest had turned red too, and the veins on his chest were bulging as well.

Chi Yang looked at his body in surprise.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, don’t be afraid. I’ll stay with you.”

Nuannuan immediately got up from the bed and pressed her body against Chi Yang’s to prevent his thoughts from running wild.

“Nuannuan, get out of the way.”

Chi Yang tried his best to push Nuannuan away, but her hands around his waist were like iron pincers, impossible to break apart.

Chi Yang’s stiff body immediately softened, and the shock in his eyes was instantly replaced by gentleness.

Instead of pushing Nuannuan away, he slowly stretched out his hand and placed it on Nuannuan’s back.

“Good girl. I’m not afraid, because you’re with me.”

After listening to Chi Yang’s words, Nuannuan slowly released her hand.

“Can you tell me about my current state?”

At this moment, the dark red power cells had already quickly dyed the power cells in Chi Yang’s abdomen. Meanwhile, the skin above Chi Yang’s abdomen had already turned red. Almost every blood vessel and meridian could be clearly seen. His entire body had become a spider web.

Nuannuan immediately pulled Chi Yang’s pants down.

Chi Yang’s gaze deepened, but he did not stop her.

Very soon, Chi Yang’s entire body was completely exposed in front of Nuannuan.

However, at this moment, his entire body had turned into a greenish-black netted mess due to his bulging blood vessels and meridians. His appearance was extremely terrifying..

Chapter 1579: A Problem With His Supernatural Ability

Chi Yang was watching Nuannuan with a gentle look in his eyes. Only the love in his eyes told her that he was still the same handsome Chi Yang.

At this moment, Nangong Nuannuan felt terrible.

She glanced at Chi Yang, who had been watching her, and finally told him about the color change of the supernatural cells in his body.

“How do you know that those are cells that give me my supernatural ability?” Chi Yang rasped.

As the cells changed color and the blood vessels and meridians in his body bulged, Chi Yang felt as if his entire body was on fire.

However, he had been suppressing the pain so Nuannuan would not worry. Although his voice was a little hoarse, it was unusually calm.

“Because ordinary cells are round and oval in shape, but supernatural cells are very beautiful polygons. Big Brother Chi Yang, are you feeling unwell now?”

Chi Yang shook his head. “I’m fine.”

“Big Brother Chi Yang, don’t lie to me.”

Chi Yang reached out his hand and touched his wife’s pink and delicate cheeks. His eyes were filled with affection.

“I’m really fine. If I’m not feeling well, I’ll definitely tell you. I promise.”

“Okay.”

Nuannuan nodded and nervously watched the movement of those supernatural cells in Chi Yang’s body. Her hand could not help but tightly hold Chi Yang’s hand. The joints of her fingers were starting to turn white.

Looking into Nuannuan’s eyes, he could only see worry and heartache. There was no fear or disgust toward his current appearance. Warmth blossomed as it slowly flowed into his heart.

He glanced at Nuannuan’s hand that was holding his, and her other hand tightly held hers as well.

“Nuannuan, don’t be afraid. There shouldn’t be any major problems with my body.”

“Mm.” Nuannuan nodded.

She also felt that there should not be any problems with Chi Yang’s body. It must be the supernatural cells that were causing the problem.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, have you rested well during this period of time?”

The cells that had completely changed color began to flow into the blood along the meridians. The moment the red blood in the blood vessels surged into the cells, Chi Yang seemed to suffer a great pain as his body instantly stiffened. However, he did not even blink his eyes. He did not want her to worry, so he immediately replied to Nuannuan to divert his attention.

“When I first came here, I was too busy and could not rest well. However, after I took the medicine according to your prescription, I could sleep for at least two hours a day,” Chi Yang told her the truth.

Chi Yang had been in Country D for 52 days. It had been nearly two months, and he had only recently been able to sleep for two hours a day. If he was an ordinary person, that would be fatal!

Sleep could repair the body's immune system. If a person could not sleep well for a long time, his immune system would naturally be weakened. Once his immune system was weakened, many diseases would come knocking on his door.

Originally, Nangong Nuannuan also thought that this might be a disease caused by Big Brother Chi Yang's poor sleep and low immune system.

However, after observing him for a while, she found that the normal cells in Big Brother Chi Yang's body were still very healthy. They were completely different from the normal cells in Feng Shengxuan's body that were being devoured by cancer cells.

Therefore, this was definitely not an immune disease. It should be a condition caused by a problem with his supernatural cells.

However, whether it was surgery or acupuncture, she was helpless against the supernatural cells in Big Brother Chi Yang's body.

Therefore, she could only watch helplessly as the supernatural cells in his body entered Big Brother Chi Yang's blood vessels and quickly passed through them.

Chapter 1580: Vomiting Blood

Before those supernatural cells could pass through his body, another group of mutated supernatural cells swam in. Chi Yang's body, which had relaxed a little in the time since, tensed up again.

However, he made no sound. His expression remained the same, except for the network of blood vessels and meridians making his skin grow darker.

Less than half a minute later, the supernatural cells in his body seemed to suddenly receive some signal. They all started moving at the same time, surging into every blood vessel.

Nuannuan nervously looked at Chi Yang. She saw his gentle and doting gaze suddenly turn sluggish. In an instant, he fell into a fierce madness and huffed out a forceful groan from his nose that sounded like he was stifling incredible pain.

"Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Nuannuan had never encountered a situation like this one before. She could only watch anxiously as Chi Yang hung on the verge of insanity from the pain.

He tried his best to control himself, but the speed at which the supernatural cells were rushing into his blood was too fast. Some of the cells were too strong, so when they came into contact with the viscous blood in his blood vessels, they were immediately stuck on the spot. However, as the supernatural cells were still in the middle of a rampage, they soon bumped into the cells that were stuck in the viscous blood.

His thick blood and blood vessels were completely destroyed by the violent impact and immediately ruptured.

After the blood vessels ruptured, some normal cells slowly moved to the blood vessel wall and began to repair the area. However, the contents of his ruptured vessels, like the viscous blood, slowly seeped out through the pores of his skin.

Because the supernatural cells in all parts of his body impacted the blood vessels at the same time, there was more than one broken blood vessel.

In just a few seconds, Chi Yang's body was soaked in sweat due to the pain, and blood was slowly seeping out of his skin. His bulging blood vessels and meridians seemed to want to burst through his body, and all the supernatural cells were racing around, as if they wanted to fly from the blood vessels and meridians after they burst out of Chi Yang's body.

"Big Brother Chi Yang... Big Brother Chi Yang..."

Nangong Nuannuan was scared out of her wits. She had a silver needle in her hand, but this was the first time she was too clueless to start.

More and more blood seeped out from his skin, and countless blood vessels in his body ruptured.

Less than two minutes later, Chi Yang was covered in blood.

Nuannuan was so frightened that tears were flowing out of her eyes. She held Chi Yang tightly with the hand without the needle. She could feel the pain of his hand holding hers tightly back.

One drop... two drops... Three teardrops landed on Chi Yang's forehead and brow bone. Although they merely provided him with a slight cooling sensation, it was enough to exchange for Chi Yang's consciousness that was plunging toward madness.

"I'm fine... Nuannuan... I'm fine... Don't... Urgh..."

He had wanted to tell Nuannuan not to be afraid, but at this moment, a group of supernatural cells rushed into his cardiovascular system. Under the violent impact, his cardiovascular system almost ruptured. The clotted blood that had accumulated in his cardiovascular system surged into his mouth.

Chi Yang felt a sharp pain in his chest. After spitting out a mouthful of maroon blood clot, he flopped onto the bed.

Nuannuan was so frightened she did not know what to say. She hastily scrambled to save Chi Yang's blood vessels and meridians from absolute destruction.

However, when she pierced the needle into Chi Yang's heaving chest, she realized that her hands were trembling—her hands were trembling like a leaf.
