

Physician Wife 1591

Chapter 1591: I Am Dirty

Chi Yang quickly retracted his hand and frowned. He looked at his little wife's blackened face and knew that she had to think that he was smelly.

He was extremely embarrassed, but he forced himself to ask, "What... is this?"

"These are the impurities from your body. These impurities have always been in your blood vessels and meridians. When the supernatural cells cleared your blood vessels and meridians, these impurities were all expelled from your body. Big Brother Chi Yang, this is the best thing that could have happened to you. I saw the injuries you suffered in the past. Those damaged blood vessels and meridians have become very healthy now after being washed out by the supernatural cells."

Seeing how happy his wife was as if she could not smell his stench at all, Chi Yang felt as if his heart was being held by a gentle hand. It felt very safe and warm.

Hence, when Nuannuan spoke with a radiant smile, he listened with a smile too.

Upon hearing that, he nodded. "Then, from now on, I can protect you."

Upon hearing his words, Nuannuan was extremely happy. "Mmm, Big Brother Chi Yang, you must protect me well in the future. Or I'll summon a rice worm to come and feed me and take care of me."

"Yes, and that rice worm will grow out of me," Chi Yang added.

After being teased by her husband, Nuannuan giggled happily.

Chi Yang loved having such an obedient and heartwarming wife. He said with some heartache, "Get out first. It's too smelly here, I'll take a shower. You can wash your face over there."

Nuannuan did not mind at all. She reached out and caressed the skin on Chi Yang's shoulder while she turned on the hot water with her other hand.

"I'll help you wash."

After all, he had just gone through so much pain. Nuannuan's heart ached, and she did not want Chi Yang to have to do things himself.

Chi Yang turned off the water and stood up. "Be good. My body is dirty, so I'll do it myself."

"I'll help you. You sit here and I'll help you flush it all away. Otherwise, it won't be easy to wash away the dirt on your back." Nuannuan found a very good excuse to stick around.

Chi Yang's gaze was extremely gentle as he looked at Nuannuan. "It doesn't hurt anymore."

Afraid she would not believe him, he added, "It doesn't hurt at all. It's all in the past now."

Nuannuan could clearly see the condition of Chi Yang's body, so she knew that he must have recovered by now. However, her heart ached for him because he had been in pain for so long. Hence, she insisted, "Even if it doesn't hurt anymore, I will still help you shower."

Seeing how persistent the little girl was, Chi Yang's heart melted into a puddle of water. He stopped arguing with her and handed over the hose.

Nuannuan was very happy to see Big Brother Chi Yang giving in to her and not refusing.

She turned on the hot water and cleaned his hair, face, neck, and body bit by bit.

Once he was completely clean, Chi Yang reached out and carried Nuannuan into the bathtub.

Looking at her drenched clothes, Nuannuan felt depressed. "Big Brother Chi Yang, I didn't bring any spare clothes."

Chi Yang, "..."

He paused for a moment before continuing to help Nuannuan remove her shoes. "It's okay, I have a bathrobe."

Nuannuan, "..."

Was he going to let her walk out in a bathrobe?

Nuannuan was still thinking about how her comrades were fighting for their lives down there. If they saw her like this when she went down, it would be bad.. She even forgot that her feet were injured.

Chapter 1592: Does It Still Hurt?

Before she could react, Chi Yang had already taken off Nuannuan's shoes.

Looking at the shocking blood stains in her shoes, Chi Yang felt as if his heart, which had been gently held just a moment ago, was now being squeezed fiercely without warning. It was so painful that he could not breathe.

Chi Yang quickly got up and carried Nuannuan. He decided against a bath and immediately carried her to the bed.

After wrapping her up with a towel, he quickly found some disinfectant from the cabinet.

Luckily, with this country being in constant chaos, all five-star hotels were equipped with this kind of basic medicine. Otherwise, Chi Yang would be left with intense heartache.

"How? Who let you get hurt?"

Nuannuan was embarrassed. "I wanted to remove the ceramic sink just now and forgot to put on my shoes. I kicked it and got scratched. It's okay, it doesn't hurt at all."

She did it for him.

Chi Yang held onto her feet as he applied the medicine onto them. "But you've hurt me."

Nuannuan, “...” What could she do? She did not do it on purpose.

Seeing Big Brother Chi Yang sulking, Nuannuan pouted and lowered her head like a little wife who had done something wrong. She did not dare to make a sound.

Chi Yang carefully treated her wound. As he applied the medicine onto her wound, he blew at her feet with his lips. His expression was serious, meticulous, and carried a hint of anger.

Nuannuan knew that Big Brother Chi Yang was angry with her because she should have worn her shoes before kicking at the wall.

However, at the time, she had been so anxious that she forgot about it...

She did not dare to explain that.

She rolled her eyes. As Chi Yang carefully applied the medicine onto her feet, Nuannuan hissed.

He felt as if his heart was about to explode.

He immediately stopped what he was doing and blew at her fair feet. Then, he looked at Nuannuan nervously. “Does it still hurt?”

Nuannuan scratched her head. Actually, she did not feel any pain. She just wanted to pretend to be pitiful so Big Brother Chi Yang would pity her and stop being angry at her.

However, after hissing, she realized that Big Brother Chi Yang’s aura had grown even colder.

Therefore, she could only shake her head like a quail and pretend to stutter.

Chi Yang gulped and suppressed the discomfort in his heart before continuing to treat her wounds.

This time, Nuannuan did not dare to squeal again. However, this made Chi Yang feel even worse.

She had screamed earlier, but now as he dabbed the cotton bud onto the deepest part of her wound, she was silent. This part should have hurt the most, but she had stopped screaming.

Chi Yang knew she was holding it in on purpose. Hence, he cleansed it lightly and carefully, periodically blowing on it.

However, even so, he could not mask the pain and heartache in his heart. He would rather suffer a very serious injury than let his Nuannuan suffer, even with an injury as small as this one.

In his heart, Nuannuan was the most beautiful, precious treasure in the world. She was a girl who should be protected by the sun and moon.

When she was finally done, Chi Yang carefully bandaged her wound before carrying her back into the bathroom. He positioned her injured foot outside the bathtub to prevent it from getting wet. Then, he took off her clothes and bathed her.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you bathing me?”

“Because I dirtied you.”

“I’m not dirty, not dirty at all,” Nuannuan said obsequiously.

Chi Yang glanced at Nuannuan, and she immediately nodded obsequiously.. “Alright, alright. I’m dirty! Dirty!”

Chapter 1593: Chi Yang’s Strength

Chi Yang lowered his head and continued washing her up.

The sounds of battle that broke out were getting louder and louder from the outside. The entire city center was surrounded by explosions, but the hotel was not affected.

Chi Yang carefully washed all the stains on Nuannuan’s body and her hair. After that, he even blowdried her hair. Only then did the two put on their bathrobes.

“Yeah.”

However, Nangong Nuannuan’s pupils narrowed the moment Chi Yang answered her.

That was because she saw a fighter jet flying toward her at high speed.

Chi Yang, who was about to princess-carry Nuannuan, staggered clumsily after Nuannuan pushed him violently. By the time he came back to his senses, Nuannuan had already rushed to the window. Without a word, she shattered the glass window of the hotel with her barefoot once more.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, jump!”

Nuannuan turned around and tried to pull Chi Yang, only to see the two missiles that had already reached her.

Although it was dangerous to jump down from here and her bag could not bear the weight of two people, Nuannuan believed that with Big Brother Chi Yang around, they would not die even if they jumped down from the 27th floor.

Unexpectedly, not only did Chi Yang refuse to jump, but he gripped Nuannuan’s hand tightly.

Nuannuan was stunned. She could only watch as the two missiles flew towards them.

Chi Yang let go of Nuannuan’s hands and pushed his hands outward. His body was suddenly flung backward from the innermost part of the room closest to the floor-to-ceiling window. He slammed into the thick door with a bang, making cracks that formed a spiderweb shape before stopping in his tracks.

Although this incident looked scary, there was something else that threatened to gouge Nuannuan’s eyes out.

That was because...

As though pulled by an invisible force, the two missiles stopped dead in their tracks! They stopped right in front of her too.

Nangong Nuannuan could not help but reach out to touch the missile that was ready to explode.

Big Brother Chi Yang actually used his supernatural power to force the two missiles to a stop!

This was simply too much for her heart to bear!

There were AIM-120E missiles. Each of their weight exceeded 120kg with a speed of 900 meters per second. However, her Big Brother Chi Yang used his supernatural power to... catch them!!!

“Argh—”

Suddenly, Chi Yang let out a loud roar, scaring Nuannuan so much that she quickly turned around. She watched bleakly as Chi Yang pushed his hands outward, and the two missiles suddenly returned back the way they came.

At this moment, the fighter jet had just flown over. When the pilot saw the two missiles that suddenly flew in reverse, the pilot did not even have time to curse before the missiles collided with the jet.

The intense explosion created a huge mushroom cloud in the air. Even though Nuannuan’s room was very far away from the explosion, they still felt the violent shockwave.

Nuannuan was about to find a place to hide when a tall and imposing figure suddenly appeared in front of her.

Chi Yang once again used his hands to shield Nuannuan from the violent shockwave that originated from the explosion, and his entire body was forced to retreat once again.

Nuannuan stood behind Chi Yang and supported his body as she quickly retreated. While she kept examining him to see if he had suffered any serious injuries, she also made a backward kick at the door behind her.

The spiderweb-like door shattered, and Nuannuan dragged Chi Yang backward immediately.

Originally, Nuannuan wanted to retreat to a corner of the corridor and immediately hide inside. However, just as they left the door, they heard Chi Yang shout again.

The shockwave was instantly cast out from the room.

Chapter 1594: Chi Yang’s Heart Ached

Boom! Sparks erupted outside.

“Pfft!”

A large mouthful of blood spurted out of Chi Yang’s mouth, scaring Nuannuan so much that she rushed forward to support him.

“Big Brother Chi Yang!”

Nuannuan called out and quickly checked Big Brother Chi Yang for injuries.

He caught two missiles first, then blocked the blast.

This would definitely cause serious damage to the body.

Yet, what she saw shocked her.

This was because, in spite of the two powerful impacts, there were merely cracks on most of Big Brother Chi Yang's meridians. Not a single one had been broken.

Although there were some ruptures in his blood vessels, compared to the number of ruptures caused by the supernatural cells, it did not seem like a lot all of a sudden.

Generally speaking, although he was injured... his injuries were not serious!!!

Looking at how everything in the room somehow shifted in position, they appeared to be intact. Nuannuan's little mouth instantly grew a lot bigger, and she cursed internally!

She knew that Big Brother Chi Yang had a powerful supernatural ability. However, now that his supernatural ability had leveled up, he must be even more powerful now. What she never expected was that he could be this powerful.

It was no wonder that she still could not escape getting eaten alive by Big Brother Chi Yang in her previous life when she returned to the Zhong family in such a cool manner. Her Big Brother Chi Yang... was really amazing!

At the very least, she could never do the same as he did. When she encountered such a thing, she would either be blasted to death or jump off a building to escape.

"I'm fine!" Chi Yang pulled Nuannuan into his embrace.

Chi Yang was also scared out of his wits. When he saw the two missiles rushing toward him, he thought that he would lose Nuannuan.

Nuannuan wrapped her arms around Chi Yang's waist and hugged him tightly.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I nearly died from the terror. Are you in pain now?"

"Nope."

"You lied to me. I saw the internal injuries you've suffered internal injuries. Are you hurt?"

Chi Yang gave Nuannuan a gentle kiss. "It really doesn't hurt. Compared to what just happened, this kind of injury isn't a big deal to me. I'll recover after some time. You don't have to worry about me."

After saying that, Chi Yang bent down and lifted Nangong Nuannuan horizontally.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, what are you doing? Put me down, you're still hurt!"

Chi Yang looked at his worried wife with a doting gaze. "As long as I don't use my supernatural ability, I'll be fine."

"That won't do either. Put me down."

"Who asked you to injure yourself?" Chi Yang's breathing became heavy again. He was still brooding over the wound on his wife's foot.

“The wound on my leg can’t even compare to 1% of the injuries on your body, okay? Put me down quickly.” Nuannuan hugged Chi Yang’s neck. She did not dare to struggle because she was afraid that if she used too much strength, she would hurt him again.

“No.” Chi Yang was determined.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you clearly know that this kind of injury is nothing to me. Put me down quickly, or else I’ll get angry.” Nangong Nuannuan stared at Chi Yang with a flushed face. Her watery eyes were filled with heartache and worry for him, as well as... dismay.

Chi Yang pursed his thin lips, stubbornly and silently resisting his wife.

Although his heart was beating like a drum, as a man, Chi Yang had no intention of backing down because this involved his principles.

Hence, Chi Yang looked straight ahead, not daring to look into his wife’s eyes.

Downstairs, Selina and Dan Qi were dumbfounded.

When the missiles flew over, the two of them thought everyone was going to die.

Chapter 1595: Hug Me

Who would have thought that their bro-in-law could be powerful enough to change the trajectory of the missiles with his supernatural ability?

That explosion, too. That terrifying blast ended up all pushed out by their bro-in-law.

The crisis was temporarily resolved. Afraid that Wei Du would launch his attacks again, Imperial Phoenix’s helicopter was already on standby in the air. Dan Qi had also hacked all of Wei Du’s command center’s network phones that they were all disconnected from any reception.

Nuannuan’s cell phone rang. She took it out of her bathrobe pocket and answered the call.

“Boss, Bro-in-law is so awesome!”

Selina’s excited voice traversed from the other side of the call.

The corners of Nuannuan’s lips lifted slightly. “Is the helicopter ready?”

“Yeah.”

“Then, I’ll get the helicopter to pick you guys up immediately.”

“Okay.”

After hanging up, Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. “The helicopter is here. I can finally get off you now, right?”

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan's bare feet and finally placed her on the bed. He then took her boots and carefully put them on for her.

He had just put on her boots when Nuannuan found herself carried in his arms like a horizontal log again.

"Big Brother Chi Yang!" Nuannuan was in utter dismay.

"Don't you know how serious your injuries are? My heart will ache if you continue to be like this."

However, Chi Yang did not give in at all. "Even if I let you get down, my injuries will still hurt. My body is already in pain. If even my heart is aching, I don't think I'll be able to take it. So, I must hug you."

Chi Yang's words were very domineering. Nuannuan was about to huff out, "Do you think you're the only one who can't take heartaches?"

However, Chi Yang immediately looked at Nuannuan after saying that. Then, he asked, "Wifey, I've been in pain for so long, but it's still very painful now. Can you bear to see me in more pain?"

Nuannuan, "...". She was now convinced that the deepest traps Nuannuan had ever fallen into in this lifetime had been set up by Big Brother Chi Yang.

Looking at Chi Yang's serious face as he spouted such nonsense, Nuannuan could not refute him.

Who asked her husband to be so handsome and lovable? Every time she met his gaze, she could not resist him at all!

Imperial Phoenix's helicopter arrived. Someone unrolled the soft ladder from the top of the helicopter. Just as they threw it down, they expected the soft ladder to sway back and forth to the hotel room so that the people inside could catch it.

As soon as the ladder was lowered, a man in a bathrobe carried a woman, and... "flew" onto the ladder.

Nangong Nuannuan, "..."

To tell the truth, Nuannuan had all the means necessary to climb to Chi Yang's back. It was so dangerous to fly over while carrying her like a princess!

Beneath the helicopter, Selina and Dan Qi were equally speechless.

They thought that the two of them had already fed everyone enough dog food in the car. Who knew that they could continue torturing others with their public display of affection just by climbing a rescue ladder?

Could they stop?

Chi Yang was originally carrying Nangong Nuannuan in his arms, but after "flying" up the soft ladder, he was carrying her with one hand.

"Put your arm around me."

Nangong Nuannuan, "...". Could she afford not to put her arms around him? Although she was powerful, she would definitely die if she fell from such great heights.

Nangong Nuannuan wrapped her arms tightly around her Big Brother Chi Yang's neck and wrapped her legs around his waist. She was afraid of falling from this height—they were a few dozen meters in the air!

Chi Yang, on the other hand, was supporting his wife's bottom with one hand and climbing up with the other.

To ensure that the two of them would not fall, he still activated his supernatural ability to wrap their bodies tightly against the soft ladder.

Although he had suffered severe internal injuries after using his supernatural ability to stop the missiles and block the explosions, he felt much better as long as his wife did not use her feet.

Chapter 1596: Scapegoat

Otherwise, Chi Yang would have to watch Nuannuan walk even though he knew that his wife's leg was injured. Basically, every time she stepped on the ground, there would be a surge of pain in his heart so bad that his abdomen would hurt.

Seeing that their boss and bro-in-law had safely retreated, Selina and Dan Qi also left with the mercenaries under Imperial Phoenix.

The network and communications signal on Wei Du's side only returned to normal half an hour later after countless engineers had rushed to repair it. However, Nangong Nuannuan had already left. Wei Du was so angry that he nearly destroyed the command room.

"Kill! Kill them! If I don't kill Nangong Nuannuan, I won't be called Wei Du!" Wei Du's eyes were burning with malice. Furthermore, if he did not kill Nangong Nuannuan now, things would only go downhill from there.

"Mr. President, please calm down! Nangong Nuannuan has already returned to Phoenix Pavilion's headquarters. The most advanced weapon in the world is there. Don't forget that Nangong Nuannuan isn't just a rich lady who owns mineral veins in our Naboo, but she's also the chairman of the entire Imperial Phoenix Group. The world's largest private armament enterprise is under Imperial Phoenix. If we really have to fight Phoenix Pavilion, we... can't win," Hu Li said honestly.

Even Dan De, who had always been more radical, kept to himself this time. Although he had always been radical in his actions and was willing to maximize his leverage, Dan De was no fool.

Against Phoenix Pavilion, their chances of winning were thin.

"Then, what should we do? We've already burned the bridge with Nangong Nuannuan. In the future, only one of us can live. What should we do?!" Wei Du roared angrily.

Shan De looked at Hu Li. "Military Counselor, say something!"

Hu Li was absolutely infuriated. Naturally, he would not be polite toward Dan De.

“Say something? Me? What do you want me to say? Back then, I warned everyone that Nangong Nuannuan isn’t just the boss of Phoenix Pavilion, but she’s also the boss of the entire Imperial Phoenix Group. To be able to manage Imperial Phoenix since she was 12 years old and turn it into what it is today, is this something an ordinary person can do? We can only befriend someone like Nangong Nuannuan with good intentions and show her our greatest sincerity. We mustn’t be on her bad side, ever. However, all of you refused to listen and kept urging the president to kill Nangong Nuannuan. Now that the situation has turned out like this, what does Minister Dan De want me to say? Befriend her? That’s impossible now. In terms of martial strength, even if we use the best weapons, we can’t compare to hers. Other than having both sides suffer utter destruction, I can’t find a better solution.”

“Damn it!” Wei Du slammed the table, his heart filled with regret.

Hu Li continued, “Tonight, we deployed 5000 people, 20 mortars, two air-to-air missiles, two fighter jets, and countless common weapons just to kill three people in a hotel. In the end, our people suffered a large number of casualties, but not a single person on their side died. Minister Dan De, are you satisfied with what you’ve done to the president?”

Hu Li and Dan De had always been at odds with each other. Shan De relied on the fact that he was one of Wei Du’s trusted aides and always went against Hu Li. Therefore, when there was an opportunity, Hu Li would also try his best to damage Dan De’s reputation.

“Yes, sir!”

“Mr. President! Mr. President, don’t listen to Hu Li’s nonsense. He’s trying to drive a wedge between us! He’s been unhappy with me for a long time. He’s deliberately trying to suppress my power!”

Wei Du looked at Dan De and shouted angrily, “I regret listening to your slanderous words the most! If Hu Li could successfully sow discord between us from the start, I wouldn’t have started such a conflict with Nangong Nuannuan. It’s all your fault!”

Chapter 1597: A Demure Wife

At this moment, Wei Du hated Dan De who had given him such a rotten idea. He waved his hand and said, “Drag him away!”

After Dan De was taken away, Hu Li was the closest one to Wei Du left.

Only then did he say, “The Shi family asked us to kill Nangong Nuannuan. We can push this matter to the Shi family. Nangong Nuannuan and the people around her aren’t kind people. If we offend her like this tonight, she won’t let us go easy for sure. So, early tomorrow morning, we’ll head to Phoenix Pavilion’s headquarters to visit her. At the same time, we’ll throw Dan De under the bus and tell her that the attack last night was a one-sided agreement between the Shi family and Dan De. They attacked Nangong Nuannuan behind your back. Last night, because the presidential residence was bombed, you were busy with the matters there. Therefore, when you found out about this, you were very angry and arrested Dan De. Then, you’d execute Dan De in front of her. You’re the president of a country after all. If you express your goodwill to Nangong Nuannuan in public like this, she'll be at fault if she still intends to kill you."

Wei Du's eyes lit up. He knew that Hu Li had it in him to come up with a solution.

"That's a good idea!"

"Once Nangong Nuannuan forgives us, we can take the opportunity to talk to her about collaborating with her. If she's unwilling to pay tribute to you, you can say that you're borrowing those resources from her. Once this period is over and you've completely defeated Pang Long, who can dictate whether you return the resources to her or not?"

"Let's do that!"

Instantly, Wei Du no longer felt stifled.

In the headquarters of Phoenix Pavilion, all the weapons had been laid out. Apart from fully armed mercenaries, there were also fighter planes, military-grade helicopters, and missiles. They showed off their strength without bothering to keep a low profile. This attracted the attention of everyone who passed by but intimidate them just enough to stop them from approaching.

The mercenaries were all incomparably excited. Each of them was equipped with a machine gun as they welcomed the arrival of the boss of Imperial Phoenix in their most upright posture.

The two helicopters landed one after the other. Imperial Phoenix's vice presidents, Selina and Dan Qi, jumped off the helicopter first. Everyone's eyes widened as they gathered around to witness their boss' grand entrance.

Soon, a man in a bathrobe appeared with a long-haired woman in his arms.

The woman was also wearing a bathrobe. She nestled herself in the man's embrace like a demure wife and hugged his neck intimately.

When the higher-ups saw the woman's extremely beautiful and enchanting face, they instantly gasped.

The words "Chairman" were stuck in their throats.

After all, no matter what face the chairman used every time she appeared in front of them, she always put on the flashiest appearance.

This cute and lovable little woman was hugging a man like a kitten, and she had gauze wrapped around her feet... Was she really their chairman?

Seeing that the mercenaries did not greet Nuannuan, Selina snapped unhappily, "Are you all mute? Aren't you supposed to greet your boss when you see her?"

Only then did the mercenaries collectively stand at attention and call out grandly, "Welcome, Chairman!"

However, Nangong Nuannuan had no intention of responding to these rough brutes. She hugged Chi Yang with both hands and stared at him without blinking. She was still thinking about how handsome Chi Yang was when he single-handedly intercepted two missiles and how the missiles exploded at the same time.

"Is her room ready?" Chi Yang asked the first person to approach him.

"It's ready.. Please follow me."

Chapter 1598: Eating An Apple

The manager of Phoenix Pavilion was very perceptive. Although he did not know who this man was, he knew that this man was definitely not an ordinary person just by the fact that he had the guts to hug their flashy boss.

The manager quickly led the way and brought Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan to their resting area.

It was an independent villa. The manager said, "Chairman, because the accommodation here is limited, I'll have to ask you to bear with us and stay here tonight. Vice President Selina and Vice President Dan Qi will stay in the villa next door. If anything happens, there's a service bell here. There are mercenaries guarding you outside, and the safety of Phoenix Pavilion is guaranteed."

"Sure." Nangong Nuannuan was like an incapable ruler who briefly recovered some semblance of consciousness from the beauty in her arms and gave the manager some acknowledgment.

"Chairman, are you... injured? Do you need me to do something for you?"

"Her foot hit the screw cap. Go get some disinfectant and gauze," Chi Yang replied.

The manager of Phoenix Pavilion lost his composure for a moment and his mouth twitched.

So, the reason why their chairman was cooing in a man's arms was that she kicked a screw cap?

Seriously...

What a severe injury that was!

When he returned to his senses, the manager immediately said in shock, "What? She actually injured her leg? I'll immediately get the antiseptics. Should I get her a doctor?"

Chi Yang thought about it seriously. "No need."

With that, he carried Nangong Nuannuan into the house.

"Boss, rest early!"

With that, he thoughtfully closed the door behind Nangong Nuannuan.

"Miss Selina, that man and Boss..."

"That's my brother-in-law, Imperial Phoenix's master in the future!"

The manager was shocked. "What?"

“Hurry up and complete the tasks my brother-in-law asks you to handle. Then, warn those wolf cubs. Boss loves Brother-in-law very much. Whoever offends him will suffer.”

With that, Selina turned around and left.

The manager stood there in a daze for a while before recollecting himself. Then, he quickly followed up on the orders that the chairman’s fiancé entrusted him with.

However, he could not digest this matter.

After all, the manager knew the chairman’s identity. Was this powerful woman really going to marry a man just like that?

The manager believed that no man in the world was worthy of their chairman!

Inside the room, Nangong Nuannuan remained barefooted. One of her feet was under Chi Yang’s tender care, while the other was swinging from side to side. Her round and cute fingernails were glistening with a faint luster. As her petite foot covered in a layer of delicately fair skin swayed in front of Chi Yang, Chi Yang felt as if his mind was wandering.

With a crunch, Nuannuan took a bite of a crispy apple. Her plump and red lips were soaked with the juice from the apple. The moment she chomped down on the apple, a little bit of wetness splashed onto Chi Yang’s face.

Chi Yang, who was rubbing medicine onto Nuannuan’s wound, paused and looked up at the perpetrator.

The perpetrator did not seem to realize that she had seriously seduced someone. When her eyes met Big Brother Chi Yang’s profound eyes, someone increased the volume of her eating the apple, making myum myum myum sounds at him.

Chi Yang’s Adam’s apple moved slightly when he saw the fruit being sucked into her pink mouth that was dripping with juice.

“Do you want some?” Nangong Nuannuan waved the apple in his hand and offered it to him.

Chi Yang looked at the small bite mark on the apple and leaned over.. Just when Nangong Nuannuan thought that he was going to take a bite out of the apple, he pinned her down on the bed and bent down to kiss her.

Chapter 1599: Snatching Food From Her Mouth

As sweet juice trailed along the curves of Nuannuan’s lips and threatened to drip, Chi Yang sucked the juice into his mouth and swallowed it.

The sweet juice fermented in his throat, so sweet that his heart trembled.

Seeing that there was no juice left on her full lips, leaving only slight redness, Chi Yang stuck out his tongue and pried apart the pearl-like teeth of a certain little girl who seduced him, sweeping into her oral cavity.

At this moment, Nuannuan was still holding onto the apple in her hand and chewing on it. All of a sudden, like the autumn wind that swept away fallen leaves, half of the fruit in her mouth disappeared.

Eating the fruit that had turned into slush from the chewing, Chi Yang bent down again and cleaned out all the leftover fruit in the mouth of the little girl. Then, he chewed on the fruit while tasting the sweetness in her mouth.

This was probably the best apple he had ever eaten in his life.

After eating the apple, Chi Yang squatted down again and continued to treat the wounds of a certain little girl.

Nangong Nuannuan, whose mouth was now empty and clean, was speechless.

Sitting up on the bed, Nangong Nuannuan wrinkled her nose at Chi Yang and took another bite of the apple with a loud crunch.

She did not want to argue with a man who was entertained by snatching food from her mouth.

Yet, just as she chewed the apple enough to swallow, someone bent down again without warning and pinned her down in bed once more. This time, he went overboard. He stuck his mouth into hers and extended his lips into her mouth.

Nangong Nuannuan, "..."

Urgh~ Urgh~

Her mouth had been completely pried open by the man, extended so widely that the apple juice was about to flow out from her open mouth. Nangong Nuannuan whimpered twice, intending to drive out the mouth that was in hers. In the next moment, a tongue that was engulfed in fresh breath curled ever so gently and sucked all the juice into his mouth.

Once again, he snatched the apple that had just entered her mouth away.

Nangong Nuannuan, "..."

Seeing a certain someone returning to his seat and continuing to treat her wounds as if nothing had happened, Nangong Nuannuan felt dismayed. She stuffed the entire apple in front of Chi Yang.

"You eat!"

"I don't like apples."

"I also realized that you never eat apples. Then, why did you snatch the apple from my mouth?"

Chi Yang stopped what he was doing and looked at Nuannuan. "That's because it tastes better in your mouth."

Nangong Nuannuan, "..."

Having teased out of the blue, Nuannuan was very happy too. Therefore, she stopped minding the fact that the apple had gotten snatched.

So, she took another bite of the apple.

Unexpectedly, the apple in her mouth was snatched away again.

After so many times, Nuannuan fed Chi Yang the entire apple this time.

After Chi Yang finished his least favorite fruit, his wife praised him. "Eating more apples is good for your health!"

Chi Yang, "..."

So, the reason behind his wife's silly acts and allowing him to steal her apples was that she wanted him to eat apples?

Chi Yang was silent for a moment before he happily accepted eating apples in this manner.

This way, he could eat a lot of apples, perhaps even make eating apples his life's purpose.

The next day, Nuannuan woke up in Chi Yang's arms.

Listening to the strong heartbeat in his chest and looking at his upright and tense body even when he was asleep, a smile formed on Nuannuan's lips involuntarily.

Big Brother Chi Yang slept differently from her.

She slept like a crab, but Big Brother Chi Yang barely moved when he slept.. So, when she woke up, she occupied almost half of the bed, while Big Brother CHI Yang only occupied a small portion.

Chapter 1600: Her Heart Ached For Her Husband

However, no matter how much bed space Nuannuan occupied, Chi Yang's hand remained under her neck, acting as a pillow for her head. This would never change.

Nuannuan wondered if Chi Yang's hand ever went num...

It was rare that Big Brother Chi Yang slept later than her. Nuannuan recalled that he suffered a lot of internal injuries. Now that he could finally find a chance to rest, she could not bear to wake him up. So, she lay still and used her X-ray vision to check if his injuries had improved.

Many people who knew her thought that she was omnipotent. As long as she was around, there was nothing that she could not cure. However, only she knew that there were many illnesses that she was helpless against.

For example, Second Uncle's organs were failing. For example, Brother Chi

Yang's internal organs and meridians were severely injured. She was unable to use acupuncture to heal them.

After Chi Yang's supernatural ability leveled up, he realized that he had become more sensitive to his surroundings.

For example, although he was fast asleep, he detected the changes in his wife's breathing ever so slightly. Hence, Chi Yang opened his eyes.

For a period that felt like an eternity, Chi Yang was greeted by the sight of an empty military room every morning.

At this moment, however, when he opened his eyes and saw his wife's big and watery eyes, his heart was filled with love and adoration. Chi Yang felt as if his chest was now stuffed.

Nuannuan did not expect Big Brother Chi Yang to wake up so suddenly. She quickly put away her worries and gave him a beautiful smile.

To Chi Yang, this smile was even more radiant and beautiful than the first ray of sunlight in winter.

When Chi Yang's naturally austere face saw this smile, it was as if the sun was shining on the white snow that melted instantly. Happiness was spilling from his eyes.

Knowing that his wife was worried for him, he reached out to stroke her hair and said, "Don't worry, I'll be fine. Did you forget that I have a wonderful self-healing ability?"

For her not to be worried for him...

How was that possible?

Nuannuan curled up under the blanket and reached out to caress Chi Yang's chest, trailing her hand over his skin, which had become smoother ever since expelling the impurities from his body.

Even the scars from his previous injuries had faded after his supernatural ability was upgraded.

However, compared to last night, Big Brother Chi Yang's injuries had not improved much.

Both of them were tucked underneath blankets, but one of them was rubbing her hand over his sensitive areas. Chi Yang thought this was a crime.

Nuannuan's heart ached for her husband, who was seriously injured, but she could not do anything about it. Her heart ached for him, which was why she was so gentle.

Soon enough, she sensed that Big Brother Chi Yang's body was no longer as soft as before.

Big Brother Chi Yang's body was especially masculine. His chest was hard, and if someone were to bump into his chest, their head would swell immediately. However, when he was with her, especially when he was most relaxed, his body was softer.

Now that it had slowly hardened, her entire body tensed up. Nuannuan, who had been on the receiving end of Big Brother Chi Yang's body countless times, immediately stopped.

She looked up and met Big Brother Chi Yang's unreadable eyes as they turned red.

She was finished!

Sure enough, the next moment, Chi Yang quickly turned around and pinned her down under his body.

Feeling the hardness against her body, Nangong Nuannuan frantically pushed against Big Brother Chi Yang's chest. "Big Brother Chi Yang, you can't! You can't do it!

Chi Yang's eyes narrowed slightly, and his face was filled with a dangerous look. A faintly refreshing breath engulfed Nuannuan's face, sending her into a daze.
