

Physician Wife 1601

Chapter 1601: Nuannuan Admitted Defeat

“Little Girl, what did you just say? Did you just say that I can’t?”

Nuannuan almost bit off her tongue as she looked at him pitifully.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you’re amazing! You’re wonderful! But I’m worried about your health, you..

“I’m suffering from internal injuries, not down there. What’s there to worry about? Don’t worry, even if I’m laden with internal injuries, I’ll definitely satisfy you and feed you until you’re full.”

Nangong Nuannuan, “.”Was she worried about this?

“But.”

Nuannuan wanted to say something, but Chi Yang put a finger to Nuannuan’s petite mouth, stopping her from talking.

“Have I ever mentioned that you’ve gotten naggy recently?”

Nuannuan’s eyes widened. Did he just call her naggy?

Was she not worried over his body and health too?

“Don’t worry, Little Girl. Im fine. Relax”

After that, Chi Yang devoured Nuannuan until nothing was left untouched.

It had been more than 50 days since Chi Yang last saw his wife. He had not been able to eat his fill even once, so when he finally met his wife who could not stand their distance apart, he had to use his actions to tell his wife how much he missed her no matter what.

By the time Chi Yang stopped, Nuannuan had already turned into a puddle of water.

It was not that her movements were restricted, but she sweated too much.

Since she was afraid of hurting Big Brother Chi Yang, Nuannuan remained meek and did not initiate. She was a total kitten this time. However, Chi Yang, who knew all of her sensitive areas, attacked her mercilessly. At this moment, the bedsheets under Nuannuan were soaked in her sweat, and even the hair was stuck to her forehead.

Chi Yang finally let out a sigh with a face full of satisfaction.

Just as he was about to lie down and rest, he realized that the area where Nuannuan lay was already wet. Hence, he diligently got up, lifted his baby horizontally, and brought her to the bathroom to clean up.

After washing up, Chi Yang cleaned the wound on Nuannuan's foot, reapplied the medicine, and bandaged her foot up. By the time he was done, it was almost noon.

Nuannuan was gently led out of the room by Chi Yang. She felt like her body no longer belonged to her. She was like a weak little white flower, leaning on Chi Yang and putting all her weight on him.

"Are you tired?" Chi Yang looked at his wife's weak and frail appearance, and his eyes flashed with satisfaction.

Nuannuan felt like her head was too heavy while her feet were too light. She shook her head. "Tired.. not really, but I'm really hungry"

Chi Yang, "."

His wife was indeed one of a kind.

If it was any ordinary girl, she would have broken apart long ago after going through such a high-intensity exercise. Yet, his wife was..

Just hungry.

She thought that Big Brother Chi Yang would tell her that he would bring to eat good food. Yet, Nuannuan realized that Chi Yang was no longer walking next to her.

She raised her head to look at Big Brother Chi Yang, only to look into a pair of unreadable eyes.

"What's wrong?" Nuannuan asked in a daze.

Chi Yang glanced at the manager who was rushing over and inched closer to Nuannuan's ear. He whispered in a volume that was audible only to both of them, "My Nuannuan is one of a kind. It seems like she's not satisfied yet. I'll work hard tonight.”

Nuannuan,”

When she thought about the embarrassing things they did in bed and how perfect Big Brother Chi Yang’s body was, her face burned like a tomato.

Seeing his chairman blush like a little girl who was freshly in love, the Phoenix Pavilion’s manager’s eyes nearly fell out of their sockets.

Chapter 1602: Eyes Wide Open

After all, the manager was also a Rank-3S mercenary. He could be considered the chairman’s trusted aide. He would never forget the cool and flashy image of the chairman.

Initially, he thought that if the chairman ever found a man in this life, she would end up with Vice President Feng Shengxuan. Otherwise, she would rear a bunch of male puppies or wolfhounds at home. Even if she ended up with Feng Shengxuan, he probably would not be able to handle the chairman.

Who knew...

The chairman actually revealed such a shy look in front of an ordinary man wearing the Camino soldier’s uniform in camouflage.

Seeing this... destroyed all of his previously established knowledge!

“Chairman! Mr. Chi! Good afternoon.”

Although he knew that the person in front of him was an officer in Camino and was also the Death God commander of Eagle Special Forces, Nangong Nuannuan’s image in the mind of the chief was too strong and flashy. Therefore, he was still unable to get used to this future master of Imperial Phoenix

“What is it?”

“President Wei Du visited an hour ago. He said that he was here to apologize to you and discuss a collaboration. Miss Selina is with him outside. She said that you’re still resting and that she’d only inform you of this matter after you wake up.”

Before Nuannuan could speak, Chi Yang said, “Then, let him continue waiting. We haven’t had breakfast.”

“Yes. Breakfast is ready. May I ask if the chairman and Mr. Chi are planning to eat in the room or the restaurant?”

“Sure.”

The manager glanced at the cute and helpless woman beside Chi Yang. His eyes were burning from the sight.

Chi Yang and Nuannuan ate brunch together. After Nuannuan finished eating, they went to see Wei Du.

Wei Du acted amicably today. Even though he had already waited for Nangong Nuannuan for two and a half hours at Phoenix Pavilion accompanied by his military counselor, there was no hint of anger in him at all.

“President Wei Du.”

Nuannuan and Chi Yang held hands as they entered the guest hall.

When he saw Nangong Nuannuan, Wei Du was already mentally prepared and greeted her with a smile.

However, the second he saw Chi Yang, his expression changed. “Lieutenant... Lieutenant General Chi?!”

Hu Li, who was standing at the side, also stood up in shock. He looked at the two people, who seemingly had nothing similar to each other, walking in hand in hand.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Wei Du’s changing expression and said teasingly, “Oh, so President Wei Du knows my fiancée. If I had known earlier, I would’ve told you directly who my fiancée was at the banquet yesterday. That way, President Wei Du wouldn’t have said so many things that I didn’t like to hear.”

Although Wei Du had already tried his best to adjust his facial expression, when he thought about how Nangong Nuannuan had told him yesterday that her fiancé was more handsome, had a better figure, and had a better temperament than him, Wei Du felt a wave of embarrassment.

This detestable woman!

If she had told him from the start that her fiancé was Chi Yang, how could he have thought of killing her?

“I heard that President Wei Du is here to apologize to my fiancée?” Chi Yang held Nangong Nuannuan’s hand and sat down.

Wei Du’s smile was a little unnatural as he said to Nangong Nuannuan, “Chairman Nangong, what happened yesterday was my fault. I’m sorry. I hope you can forgive my rashness and forget that this happened.”

“Whether she minds or otherwise, I definitely do,” Chi Yang interrupted.

Chapter 1603: Apologize

Wei Du looked at Nangong Nuannuan’s cute and helpless appearance, as if she would do anything Chi Yang said. He was so angry that he gritted his teeth.

“Lieutenant General Chi, regarding this matter.. I had no choice!

Oh?

“You’ve been in Naboo for some time now, but no matter how I tried to express my goodwill to you, you never accepted my invitation. Yesterday, the Shi family from Camino came. They made me promise them eight mines so that Camino would support me. At the same time, they also asked me.. to kill Chairman Nangong. Sigh. Chairman Nangong, I didn't want to do this either, but do you know how important Camino's support is to me? I know it's not right, but I have no choice."

"You tried to kill my fiancée to gain support. After realizing that you can't kill her, you came to apologize. Could it be that President Wei Du doesn't have the support of the people?"

Chi Yang's critically honest evaluation embarrassed Wei Du a lot.

After all, Wei Du had been a vice president before, and now he was the president. He still could not accept being pointed at and scolded by a general, even if the general was from Camino.

Seeing this, Hu Li stopped Wei Du from losing his temper and said, "Chairman Nangong, it's true that we've done you wrong for doing such a thing. Since we're all straightforward people, let's not beat around the bush. It's true that we have no way to deal with you and need your help, thus this is why we made this trip today. Chairman Nangong, how can we make you forgive us and cooperate with us? As long as you tell us, we'll do our best."

Hu Li was in his best attitude, but..

What difference could that make?

You don't have the ability to kill my fiancée, yet you covet her property. Then, you shamelessly come here to seek peace? President Wei Du, do you think we're easy to please?

Chi Yang was clad in an outfit with camouflage print-he looked like a man with steely righteousness, enshrouded with a strong murderous aura. This made the usually cunning Wei Du feel inferior to him.

Especially when he recalled what Nangong Nuannuan had said yesterday, Wei Du felt as if he was really much weaker than Chi Yang.

Before going into their looks, figure, or temperament, just look at Chi Yang's achievements—he had become a lieutenant general at the age of 26. Who could say that he would not be able to reach the highest position in the future?

Rumors had it that the president of Camino admired Chi Yang very much.

Naboo was just a small country. There was no way it could be compared to the grand Camino. At this moment, Wei Du felt a little powerless.

However, he could not afford to offend either Nangong Nuannuan's Imperial Phoenix Group or Chi Yang, the lieutenant general of Camino's Eagle Special Forces.

Wei Du felt extremely regretful for what had happened yesterday.

If he had known that Nangong Nuannuan had such a powerful backer and that her fiancé was actually Chi Yang, he would not have dared to make a move on this woman even if he had to lose from being the president!

Wei Du's expression was so stiff that he was about to turn into a statue, but he still squeezed out an ugly smile. Then, he showed Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang the video from before.

In the video, Shi Zhongcheng from the Shi family approached Dan De and discussed going into a state where they would be both mutually beneficial. In the end, he got Dan De to kill Nangong Nuannuan and rescue Shi Weide.

After watching the video, Nuannuan could not help but sneer.

Although she could tell at a glance that Dan De was photoshopped into the video, Shi Zhongcheng's arrival in Naboo to ruin Big Brother Chi Yang and his attempt to kill Nangong Nuannuan were not fake.

Chapter 1604: A Gift of Mines

Previously, Nangong Nuannuan had given Shi Yalin so much leeway for sending assassins after her. After receiving so many warnings, the Shi family still dared to provoke her.

She could not put the person called Shi Weide into the books. After all, Shi Weide joined Phoenix Pavilion to work and did not know that she was the chairman of Imperial Phoenix- However, after Shi Weide found out that she, Nangong Nuannuan, was the chairman of Imperial Phoenix, the Shi family actually dared to send people to collude with Wei Du in secret. They attempted to kill her for a second time. Nangong Nuannuan would no longer be such an amicable character after this.

Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan's eyes had turned grave, Wei Du could tell that she was already in conflict with the Shi family, so he quickly explained himself, "Chairman Nangong, Lieutenant General Chi, what happened yesterday was really my fault. However, as a president who doesn't have a firm foothold in Naboo, I always hope to be recognized by your country. Therefore, to achieve this goal, I've done something bad. For this, I express my deepest apologies. I hope you can forgive me."

With that, Wei Du stood up and gave Nangong Nuannuan a 90 degree bow.

Chi Yang looked at the man who tried to do unspeakable things to his wife yesterday with a cold expression. After failing that, he turned to kill his wife instead. Wei Du even got missiles to do that. If his supernatural cells did not level up yesterday and he failed to resist the two missiles and the explosion, his wife would have died yesterday.

"This person actually had the nerve to beg for mercy after such an irreconcilable grudge?"

"President Wei Du, do you know that you almost killed my fiancée yesterday?"

"Yes, I know, but I had no choice. I also apologized to Chairman Nangong and am willing to show my utmost sincerity..."

"If I apologize to you after killing you, bowing 90 degrees to your remains, I wonder if your spirit in heaven will forgive me?"

Wei Du,

"Lieutenant General Chi, I know that as her fiancé, you'll definitely stand on Chairman Nangong's side and stand up for her. How about... we listen to Chairman Nangong's opinion?"

For Nangong Nuannuan to be able to create a super conglomerate like Imperial Phoenix, she must be someone who made her own decisions.

From the moment they entered until now, Chi Yang had been the one speaking and taking matters into his own hands. It was very annoying. Wei Du felt that Nangong Nuannuan would definitely not be so unreasonable.

Therefore, he looked at Nangong Nuannuan and said, "Chairman Nangong, you've been in trouble ever since you arrived in Naboo. I asked Minister Da Wei to help you solve it. Last night at the presidential residence, we had a good time too. Can you forgive me for these two things? As long as Chairman Nangong can cooperate with me and help me through this crisis, promise to give Chairman Nangong eight more mineral veins. Chairman Nangong has always been a discerning person. The mines that you personally went to Naboo to choose from in the past have all produced jade, high-quality diamonds, and gems. As long as you and Lieutenant General Chi can help me, I can draft a contract with Chairman Nangong now. "

Initially, Wei Du had come to borrow money and weapons from Nangong Nuannuan. However, now that they met Chi Yang, if he could acknowledge Wei Du's position as president, it would definitely be more useful than borrowing weapons.

Therefore, Wei Du immediately broke the agreement with Shi Zhongcheng and proposed to Chi Yang to give him eight mineral veins.

Seeing that Chi Yang did not say anything, Wei Du continued, These eight mineral veins are just a token of appreciation to Camino. I'll also give Lieutenant General Chi and Chairman Nangong four other mineral veins as a token of my appreciation. How about that?"

Chapter 1605: Unless I Die

Seeing this, Hu Li immediately handed the contract to Wei Du. Wei Du personally filled in the content and validated it with his thumbprint. Hu Li immediately brought the contract in front of Nangong Nuannuan and offered it to her with both hands, asking her to take a look.

Unexpectedly, before Nangong Nuannuan could even look at Hu Li, Chi Yang snatched the contract away.

Slap!

Chi Yang threw the contract in front of Wei Du.

“Wei Du, I’ll never work with someone who has tried to harm my fiancée. Even if you offer me all the mines in Naboo, I won’t accept it! What more 12 mineral veins.

Wei Du was so angry at Chi Yang he could die.

What in the world. Could Chi Yang stop being so stubborn?

He was a general, even!

Could he behave in the manner a politician should?

From the depths of his heart, Wei Du despised rigid people like Chi Yang the most.

“Lieutenant General Chi, I know that I did something wrong. It’s normal for you to be angry at me for doing such a thing to your fiancée. However, you’re also a lieutenant general of a great nation. As the president, I’ve already apologized to you and expressed my sincerity. What else is there for you to be dissatisfied with? I know that your president thinks highly of you, so helping me put in a good word in front of your president is as easy as lifting a finger. We’re all politicians, so there’s no need for us to form a deep grudge over such a small matter, right? Today, I’m really here with 10000% of my sincerity. I hope that Lieutenant General Chi and Chairman Nangong can give me this chance to reconcile with you. In the future, I’ll never mistreat Phoenix Pavilion too.”

Wei Du was acting more sincere today than when he had tried to woo Nangong Nuannuan yesterday. Furthermore, there could never be eternal friends or eternal enemies in such contexts.

If it was anyone else, they would have agreed to Wei Du's offers or increased their prices.

Yet, for Chi Yang, Wei Du had already made an unforgivable mistake. If someone tried to kill his dearest Nuannuan, even if the whole world were to beg for forgiveness in front of him, he would never let the matter rest.

Chi Yang placed his hand under the table and held Nuannuan's hand tightly. He looked at Wei Du and said, "Perhaps our understanding on the word politicians' is different. To me, a man isn't a man when he can't protect his wife properly. If his wife were to be taken advantage of outside the house, not only will he not stand up for his wife, but he will also use his wife's grievances to exchange for financial bargaining chips. To me, such a person doesn't deserve to be called a man. What's the point of talking about being a politician, then? Therefore, President Wei Du, you've probably wasted a trip here today. Unless I die, I'll never let go of the grudge between us"

"You

Wei Du could not suppress his anger anymore and wanted to get angry, but he was held back by Hu Li.

Hu Li smiled and said to Chi Yang, "Lieutenant General Chi, I can understand your anger at this moment, but understand that our president didn't know everything that had led to this. As the saying goes, 'those who don't know aren't guilty. Please forgive us for our actions. To be honest, yesterday's incident had nothing to do with our President. I know that both you and Chairman Nangong won't believe us if we say this, but as you have seen just now, the person who colluded with Shi Zhongcheng was the cabinet minister, Dan De, and not the president. The president had been dealing with the explosion last night, and Dan De had directly transferred troops to try to do things behind the president's back. Dan De is the president's brother-in-law, and they had always been close. However, because of the incident with Chairman Nangong, the president had already shot Minister Dan De to death.”

Chapter 1606: Will We Be Enemies?

With that, Hu Li took the photos out of his bag. Afraid they would not believe him, he played another video of Dan De being executed in secret and shot to death.

“The president didn’t say anything just now because he felt that although this was Dan De’s fault, it was also caused by the lack of strict governance on our side. So, I hope that Lieutenant General Chi and Chairman Nangong will take our president’s sincerity into consideration and let this matter go.”

Then, he turned to Nangong Nuannuan and said, “Chairman Nangong, you’re a very opinionated woman. Please put in a good word for our president in front of Lieutenant General Chi. This is a win-win situation. It would be a pity if we missed out on this opportunity because of a misunderstanding last night.”

Chi Yang inserted the video that Wei Du had just shown him into his laptop and sent his fingers flying across the laptop keyboard. Just as Wei Du was about to ask Chi Yang what he was doing, a video of Shi Zhongcheng arriving in Naboo to discuss their mutually beneficial agreement suddenly appeared on the screen. However, this time, Shi Zhongcheng was not talking to Dan De, but Wei Du.

Having facesmacked by Chi Yang on the spot, Wei Du could no longer sit still. He got to his feet immediately.

After all, Chi Yang was not cooperating with them at all. If Chi Yang continued to undermine them this way, they would not be able to continue this cooperation.

“Chairman Nangong, I’m here today to apologize to you. I hope you can give me a word on whether you accept my apology or otherwise. Although Lieutenant General Chi has the right to speak, he’s just your fiancé. I want to hear your opinion.”

Nangong Nuannuan had been acting like an outsider from the beginning to the end. She only looked at Wei Du when she heard her name being called. Then, she raised the hand that was holding Chi Yang’s hand from under the table and waved it in front of Wei Du. She said something that would anger him to death—

“[ listen to my man.”

Wei Du,”...”

“Nangong Nuannuan, you’re the chairman of Imperial Phoenix after all. Don’t forget that your Phoenix Pavilion is still in Naboo’s territory. Are you really going to disregard it?” Wei Du tried to persuade Nangong Nuannuan.

“President Wei Du, Phoenix Pavilion in Naboo might be very rich to you. However, to me, I have Phoenix Pavilion in Naboo, Mustapha, N Country... My Phoenix Pavilion’s biggest business is actually with F Continent. Besides Phoenix Pavilion, I have many other businesses. So if you think that a mere Phoenix Pavilion in Naboo can threaten me, then you’re underestimating me and Imperial Phoenix. Also, my life is definitely worth more than all of Imperial Phoenix’s businesses combined.”

After saying that, Nangong Nuannuan waved her hand at Wei Du. “Take care, President Wei Du. Won’t be seeing you out!”

Wei Du’s eyes were bulging with anger.

Indeed, in terms of wealth, the wealth of Imperial Phoenix Group under Nangong Nuannuan’s name was several times more than that of the entire Naboo. She deserved all the right to look down on these assets under Naboo’s name.

However.

This also meant between him and Nangong Nuannuan, it was either one of them died or they could die together.

“Chairman Nangong, is there really no room for negotiation?” Wei Du stood in the meeting room and felt a cold wind blowing on his back.

“President Wei Du, take care.” Chi Yang answered his question on Nangong Nuannuan’s behalf.

“Although we can’t be friends, I don’t wish for us to become enemies one day.. Chairman Nangong, will we... be enemies?”

Chapter 1607: Come Back To Accompany You

Nangong Nuannuan could not help but laugh at Wei Du’s shamelessness.

“President Wei Du, don’t worry. If we can’t work together this time, there’s still next time. I’m a businessman!”

‘With Nangong Nuannuan’s words, both Wei Du and Hu Li were slightly relieved.

However, Wei Du knew that if their collaboration failed today, Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang would have to die here. Otherwise, his career as the president would end here.

“In that case, I’ll take my leave first. I look forward to the next meeting with Chairman Nangong.”

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. “I look forward to it.”

After Wei Du and Hu Li left, Nangong Nuannuan summoned Selina, Dan Qi, and the manager of Phoenix Pavilion in.

“Boss, did you call us here to kill Wei Du?”

Selina knew Nangong Nuannuan the best. Nuannuan was a woman who would take anything except be on the short end of a stick. After what Wei Du did to them last night, it was impossible to let Wei Du live.

‘Therefore, when Wei Du came to look for Nangong Nuannuan, Selina and Dan Qi did not accompany her.

‘They did not feel that there was anything wrong with etiquette if they were to mistreat a dead person.

Nangong Nuannuan was about to give the order when Chi Yang stopped her.

“Everyone knows that Wei Du offended you and came looking for you today. If Wei Du suddenly dies, this matter will definitely be related to you. So, it’s best if you don’t make a move.”

“Even if I don’t kill him, Pang Long will.”

“Then, let Pang Long do it. After all, Pang Long is a citizen of Naboo.”

Although Nuannuan was a little unhappy about letting Wei Du go like this, she was willing to listen to Big Brother Chi Yang. Hence, she nodded obediently. “Alright then.”

What?

‘The manager’s eyes almost popped out.

‘That was it?

Damn!

Was this girl standing in front of him an imposter?

‘The manager glanced at the calm Selina and Dan Qi. Seeing that neither of them said anything, he had no choice but to agree.

“Stay in Phoenix Pavilion. I’ll go back first.”

Chi Yang stood up, wanting to leave. All of a sudden, Nuannuan could not bear to see him leave.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, are you going back to the special forces?”

“Yes.” Chi Yang nodded.

“Other than those who are adamant on staying, there’s the last of the citizens who need to be evacuated. I’ll be returning in a week. Do you want to wait for me here?”

“Yes, yes, yes!” Upon hearing that she could wait for Big Brother Chi Yang to return with her, Nuannuan nodded frantically.

After all, she had not seen Big Brother Chi Yang for a long time. She really missed him. As long as he did not chase her away, she would be very happy.

Chi Yang’s heart softened when he saw how obedient his wife was. He could not help but scratch her nose and pat her head. Then, he said to Selina, “She kicked a screw cap last night. I’ve changed the medicine on her wound today. Remember to change her dressing tonight.”

“Okay, okay. Bro-in-law, don’t worry. I’ll take good care of Boss.”

Chi Yang nodded and looked at Nuannuan. “I’ll come over to accompany you once I’m done.”

“Mmhmm.” Nuannuan nodded.

“Good girl.”

Chi Yang gave Nuannuan a deep gaze before turning to leave.

“Big Brother Chi Yang.”

At this moment, Nangong Nuannuan could not care less about the affairs of Phoenix Pavilion. She immediately chased after Chi Yang and wrapped her arms around his thin waist, reluctant to let him leave.

The mercenaries who passed by automatically halted in their tracks. Looking at the girl who spoke in such a delicate manner, their worldview was once again shattered by their boss’s ability to alternate between her big sister image and a little bunny image so casually..

Chapter 1608: Wei Du’s Death

Chi Yang stopped in his tracks and reached out to touch the pair of small hands on his waist. He slowly turned around and asked, “What’s wrong?”

Nuannuan rubbed her head against Chi Yang’s chest and said gloomily, “Nothing. It’s just that I’ll miss you.”

Chi Yang felt his heart fill up with warmth at her words.

He reached out and touched his wife’s tender cheeks with his fingers. “I miss you too.”

“You’re still recovering from your internal injuries. Don’t push yourself too hard.”

“Yes, I know.”

“Don’t use your supernatural ability casually again.”

“Okay.”

“Don’t tire yourself out.”

“Okay.”

Chi Yang was in a pleasant mood. He agreed to everything Nuannuan said.

The two of them stood under the sunlight, looking exceptionally dazzling as a couple.

The mercenaries looked at Chi Yang enviously.

They would be willing to die for their boss to do the same to them.

Amidst the jealousy and envy of the mercenaries, Chi Yang walked away, disappearing from everyone's sight.

Nangong Nuannuan looked dejectedly at Chi Yang's shrinking figure for a very long time, unwilling to look away.

The situation in Naboo had gotten even worse. Thanks to some new medicine from Benevolent Angel Hospital, Pang Long's men had received the best treatment possible. In addition to that, Pang Long's report the day before Wei Du tried to take down Imperial Phoenix Group and annex their property had caused a lot of public anger.

After all, the explosion that night had really been too terrifying. People figured that Wei Du and Pang Long had gotten into a fight, and the war was escalating. Who knew that it was actually just Wei Du looking to take down Imperial Phoenix's chairman so he could take over their assets.

If he had only wanted to take down the chairman of Imperial Phoenix, no one would have criticized him. However, to exterminate her, he had disregarded the lives of his citizens and even employed missiles. That was too much.

President Wei Du had never been really well-respected. Ever since he became president, the public had ridiculed him. Furthermore, since the state did not own all the television stations in the country, there was a lot of negative news about him on them.

This time, thanks to Nangong Nuannuan, Wei Du's presidency was in shambles.

Ever since he met Nangong Nuannuan the day before, there was a huge wave of opposition, asking Wei Du to just stop.

Pang Long arranged for Wei Du to go up in front of a crowd at the Century Plaza in City A.

It was probably going to end badly, but he had no choice but to go.

In the afternoon, the Century Plaza was filled with people. Everyone wanted to hear what explanation Wei Du would give them.

In the end.

'When it was Wei Du's turn to go on stage and give a speech, the steel banner frame behind the podium suddenly collapsed without warning, flying into Wei Du and Pang Long.

Wei Du's luck was not as good as Pang Long's.

Pang Long was only hit by the foam cardboard stuck to the frame. Although it got torn into pieces, he was fine. After all, the steel bars had not hit him.

However, Wei Du did not fare quite as well. As the banner fell, the steel bars just happened to hit Wei Du. A screw holding together the steel frame just so happened to loosen at the same time, and the entire thing fell apart. A thick and sharp steel pipe stabbed Wei Du's head. Even though there were paramedics on standby in Century Plaza in case of any trouble, there was no way to save someone from an injury like this one.

No one could believe that Wei Du had died just like that..

Chapter 1609: Chi Yang Was Injured

This seemingly divine act made everyone believe that since Wei Du had done so many bad things, this was simply the heavens punishing him.

Why else would the frame have collapsed and killed him?

Naboo had been in chaos for a long time. Wei Du's death allowed Pang Long to win their battle without even fighting him.

In the crowd, Chi Yang was wearing a cap to hide himself. He swallowed a mouthful of blood.

His internal injuries were really quite severe, and the frame had been welded very well. It had not been easy to make it collapse so suddenly. Doing this drained all the power in his body.

Who could have guessed that as he channeled his powers, he would nearly fall to his knees in pain?

His internal organs felt as if they were burning and the searing pain suffocated him.

Although it felt better than when his supernatural cells had been upgrading—as though he was constantly just a second away from death—this was unbearably painful too.

Chi Yang calmed himself down and prepared to leave.

However, the crowd was dense and chaotic. He did not know who knocked into him, but the impact combined with the pain made him stumble and almost fall as he struggled to stay on his feet.

There were many people around. If he fell, he might be trampled to death without his supernatural powers to protect him.

Fortunately, someone wrapped their arms around his waist then, holding up his sagging body.

Chi Yang turned his head and looked at the person supporting him. Although it was an unfamiliar face, he could tell from her scent that it was the person he trusted most, someone he saw as even more important than his own life.

Making use of her support, Chi Yang put most of his weight on her.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, don't exert too much strength. You won't fall with me holding you up. You can lean your weight on me.”

Nuannuan's voice rang in Chi Yang's ears. Chi Yang knew his wife was not as weak as she looked and that she was someone he could rely on. That day, she had even carried him bridal-style, like a princess.

However.

He could not bear to obey her instructions.

Firstly, he was afraid of weighing her down too much. Secondly, the injury on her leg had not healed yet.

“I's okay. I handle myself.”

There were many people around, so it was not appropriate for Nuannuan to draw attention to Chi Yang. She also did not want people to see his weakened appearance. She was afraid they would develop a bad impression of him, so she let him be.

The car had already been prepared. After Nuannuan helped Chi Yang to the outskirts of the square, she got them both into the car that she had arranged beforehand.

The car drove slowly, disappearing into the traffic.

No one knew that Wei Du's death had actually been a murder.

In the car, she helped Chi Yang lie down. However, when Chi Yang saw that there was someone else in the car, he sat up straight.

When they returned to the headquarters of Phoenix Pavilion, Nuannuan brought Chi Yang back to her villa. As they entered, he spat out a mouthful of blood.

"Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Nuannuan cried out in shock, but she was helpless against Chi Yang's severe internal injuries.

His injuries did not come from his organs or blood vessels, but his meridians.

His meridians, which had become very strong thanks to his supernatural cells, were no longer intact after stopping two missiles and a violent explosion.

They had initially been like steel bars, but they seemed to have taken a hit and become severely injured. It looked like they could easily be broken..

Chapter 1610: The Jade Aura

Nangong Nuannuan's silver needles could target cells, blood, and even repair some internal organs to a certain extent, or slow down deterioration. Yet, they could not repair meridians.

Hence, when she saw Big Brother Chi Yang in pain, she could do nothing but feel sorry for him.

Large mouthfuls of blood gushed from his mouth. Her heart ached so much she cried.

Right now, Chi Yang was in so much pain that his whole body was curled up in the fetal position. Nuannuan could only wait for him to finish vomiting the blood in his body before helping him to the nearest sofa to lie down so he could feel a little bit more comfortable.

Chi Yang's eyes were tightly shut, and there was not much pain showing on his face. However, Nuannuan knew that he had to be in a lot of pain right now. Just think about it-how much pain would he had to go through to tear all the meridians in his body?

She held Chi Yang's hand tightly, not wanting to let him go.

Although Nuannuan really wanted to teach this man a lesson, he was already in such a bad state. She could not bear to teach him a lesson, so she could only stay by his side. If he needed anything, he could immediately call her.

After a while, someone knocked on the door.

"Who's that?"

"Boss, it's me."

Selina's voice came from outside.

Nuannuan had to let go of Chi Yang's hand to open the door.

Behind the door, Selina was holding a huge green imperial jade. "Boss, this is the present you said you wanted."

As soon as Selina finished speaking, she smelled the blood in the room. Her pupils constricted when she saw it on the floor. "Boss, what happened to Bro-in-law?"

Nangong Nuannuan's heart ached. "He's injured."

"What? Bro-in-law is injured? Who injured him? Tell me, and I'll kill him immediately!"

"No need, he's already dead. Leave, take this, and remember to bring it with you when you leave Naboo."

"Yes."

Selina handed the 22-pound piece of green imperial jade that weighed to Nuannuan, who pushed it back at Selina. After all, she was not currently in the right mood to appreciate the stone.

Just as Selina was about to leave, Chi Yang suddenly spoke up.

"Nuannuan."

"Big Brother Chi Yang, what's wrong? Are you feeling uncomfortable?"

Nuannuan quickly ran to Chi Yang's side and held his hand nervously.

Selina came to Chi Yang with the green imperial jade in her arms, looking worried.

"Let me see that piece of jade." Chi Yang stretched out his hand, wanting to touch the top-grade imperial jade. However, he was lying down, while Selina was standing.

Nuannuan quickly grabbed the jade from Selina and placed it in front of Chi Yang.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, do you like it? Ill give it to you"

She had so many mines that a top-grade imperial jade coming from one of them was no shocker. Even though this one would be gone, as long as Big Brother Chi Yang liked it, she would give it to him.

As long as she could lessen some of his pain.

Chi Yang looked at the jade in front of him in disbelief.

Top-grade jade was precious. He had seen it before, but this one was different.

This piece of jade was actually emitting a dense aura, and he craved this aura, though he had no idea why.

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan and asked, "Little Girl, did you see that?"

Nuannuan paused. "See what"

"The gas flowing in this jade."

Nuannuan had initially placed the jade in front of Chi Yang. Upon hearing his words, she used her X-ray vision to take a look. However, all she saw was a jade green head as transparent as glass. She could not see anything else..
