

Physician Wife 1621

Chapter 1621: Opposite

Pang Long was slightly startled when he saw Chi Yang appear with Nangong Nuannuan in his arms. Then, he smiled and stood up.

"Lieutenant General Chi, Chairman Nangong, hello."

Chi Yang nodded slightly at Pang Long, then carried Nuannuan to a chair and sat down. He then stood up and shook Pang Long's hand.

Pang Long looked at Nangong Nuannuan and asked with concern, "Is Chairman Nangong injured?"

After all, he knew that Wei Du had attacked Nangong Nuannuan. After that, Chi Yang had come to look for him and said that he wanted to help him regain his position as president. At that time, he had thought that Nangong Nuannuan was fine, but now it seemed like she had been injured that night.

comment

Chi Yang nodded with a serious expression. There was an unconcealable heartache on his serious face. "She accidentally kicked a screw. The wound is a little deep."

Pang Long, "..."

Pang Long's military counselor and boyfriend, Ang Ji,

Even Nangong Nuannuan felt like she was going a little crazy when she heard Big Brother Chi Yang say such words in such a serious tone. Her lips twitched uncontrollably.

'When Ang Ji came back to his senses, he smiled and said, "I didn't expect the iron-blooded Lieutenant General Chi to be so whipped by his wife."

"Isn't it good to dote on your wife? Take President Pang Long, for example. Even when he was in danger, he never thought about leaving from Mr. Ang Ji, right?"

Pang Long was very calm when he heard Chi Yang's words. An imperceptible smile flashed across his eyes.

"sit

Under Chi Yang's instructions, Pang Long and Ang Ji both sat down.

Pang Long took a glance at Chi Yang, and then at Nangong Nuannuan. He smiled and said, 'I didn't expect the impressive Chairman Nangong to be Lieutenant General Chi's fiancée."

Nangong Nuannuan asked provocatively, "Why? You're jealous that you're not worthy?"

Pang Long smiled. "You two seem very compatible!"

She did not know if Pang Long's answer had come from the bottom of his heart or if he simply did not want to die. In any case, she was pleased by his answer.

“When I previously met Chairman Nangong, you weren’t like this. You’re also known as the Queen, after all. At that time, I was wondering what kind of man in this world could be compatible with a woman like Chairman Nangong. Now that I’ve seen you two today, I feel like the Creator really is benevolent.

Everyone will eventually find their perfect complement in life.”

“Counter?”

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at Ang Ji, who rubbed his nose awkwardly.

Pang Long laughed. “That’s right. If you care about someone, you’ll fight for them. However, surprisingly, the more you care about someone, the more of a hindrance they become too. In the end, they will become your weakness.”

Was this not how he had gotten scammed?

Actually, Nuannuan had always had a good impression of Pang Long. After all, the Phoenix Luan Pavilion had experienced quite a smooth development in Naboo for so many years. After Pang Long became president, he never thought about taking advantage of the Phoenix Pavilion. Although the Phoenix Pavilion had a reputation, it was still a law-abiding and respectable enterprise that always paid its taxes on time.

Nangong Nuannuan and Pang Long could be said to be getting along rather well.

Now that she had heard Pang Long’s opinion, she had a better opinion of this new president.

“President Pang Long, did you bring Ang Ji here today to talk about love with my wife?”

Pang Long was very good-looking. He was tall and handsome. Although it was obvious that he was the aggressive type, Chi Yang was unhappy to see him chatting so easily with his wife.

Pang Long immediately returned to the topic at hand. “Of course not. I came today to thank Lieutenant General Chi.”

Chapter 1622: Befriend

“There’s no need to thank me. I hope you can keep your promise.”

“Of course.”

After saying that, Ang Ji retrieved a letter of agreement from his bag and handed it to Chi Yang with both hands.

Chi Yang looked at the stamp that had already been stuck on its bottom. He retrieved his personal seal and used his thumb to stamp it on, leaving his thumbprint behind.

“This is to thank your country for acknowledging me. Also, I have a personal gift for Lieutenant General Chi and Chairman Nangong.”

Upon saying that, Pang Long handed the other contract to Chi Yang. "This is a recently discovered riverbed. The circles mark areas where we plan to mine. Lieutenant General Chi can personally inspect it and confirm the mining rights I have given. Treat it as a gift from me. Thank you for your help,

Lieutenant General Chi."

Chi Yang looked at the contract before returning it.

Pang Long was stunned. "What do you mean, Lieutenant General Chi? Is it not enough?"

Four was the best he could offer.

"You don't have to thank me, so you don't have to give me anything."

Pang Long was taken aback. "But if it weren't for you, Wei Du would also.."

"I did that because Wei Du hurt my fiancée, not because I wanted to help you."

Pang Long, "..."

"In other words, I was doing it for my wife—so you don't need to feel like you owe me anything."

Hearing Chi Yang's words, Nangong Nuannuan felt extremely smug.

Pang Long had benefited from her situation. Big Brother Chi Yang had killed Wei Du because of her, not because of him.

Pang Long was stunned. He then looked at Nangong Nuannuan good-naturedly and pushed the contract toward her.

"Chairman Nangong, since Lieutenant General Chi won't accept this gift, please accept it."

"If he won't accept it, why should I? He already said that he's actively not helping you. You're just taking advantage of my situation."

Pang Long looked at the proud couple who did not lack money and was truly envious.

However, he had to give this token of friendship away regardless of what they replied—or he would be left feeling uneasy.

"Then... these four mines can be considered as a thank you to the Benevolent Angel Hospital under Chairman Nangong's command for the timely research of the medicine to heal my soldiers. The lives of so many soldiers and the scattered morale of the army were saved by Chairman Nangong."

Nangong Nuannuan shook her head. "You don't have to thank me. I didn't develop the antidote to save your soldiers at the time, nor was it to restore your lost morale. It was for the soldiers and brothers under my Big Brother Chi Yang. Therefore, you just happened to benefit from Big Brother Chi Yang's situation again."

Pang Long,

Ang Ji was amused by the high-profile couple and could not help but giggle.

“President, since Lieutenant General Chi and Chairman Nangong have both declined, let’s forget about this matter.’

After all, it was four mineral veins. They were under a lot of pressure to give them away.

It would be best to not have to give them away.

Pang Long looked at the ore vein that the couple was refusing and felt so happy he fell into a daze.

“Chairman Nangong is rich and overbearing, so she won’t bother with such a small amount of money. However, the President will remember the friendship between Chairman Nangong and Lieutenant General Chi. In the future, if the two of you need anything, just ask us directly. We will definitely help to our best capacity.”

“Yes.” Nangong Nuannuan nodded. Her answer was simple and clear..

Chapter 1623: Long Live Big Brother Chi Yang

After that, Pang Long discussed the evacuation of the residents of Camino with Chi Yang, With Naboo suddenly stabilizing, there was no longer any need for the residents of Camino to evacuate. Therefore, Chi Yang’s mission in Naboo had been successfully completed.

Once he thanked Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan for their generosity, Pang Long and Ang Ji happily left. Chi Yang turned to his wife and asked, “Are you going to blame me for squandering this opportunity by not accepting the four mineral veins?”

Nangong Nuannuan reached out and wrapped her arms around Chi Yang’s neck. Like a koala bear, she hung onto Chi Yang’s body. Only when Chi Yang lifted her did she respond, How could I do that?! We have plenty of money. I don’t even care about those four mines!”

After saying that, she whispered into Chi Yang’s ear, ‘Actually, when I chose the mineral veins, I specifically selected the best mineral veins in the country.”

Nuannuan still felt somewhat guilty about this.

After all, she had only been 12 years old at that time. She was still too young and had a big heart. Hence, she had not hold back.

Now that she had grown up, if she had to choose again, she would give up at least a third of the dozens of mineral veins.

Therefore, this was the reason why she refused to accept the four mineral veins Pang Long attempted to give her.

It was enough for her to take advantage of the situation once—there was no need to keep doing it.

Chi Yang scratched the tip of his nose again.

“At that time, to develop the economy, the Naboo was encouraging foreign citizens to buy land and resources in their country. Picking out good resources depended on your knowledge and talent.

Furthermore, you didn't just take these resources and give nothing in return. I know that every time Phoenix

Pavilion sells a piece of jade, they donate 3% of their earnings to children in poverty."

"How did you know? Nuannuan looked surprised.

Half a year ago, when she returned to the Zhong Family, she had asked Aiden to help her register an International Child Rescue center. This rescue center had organizations all over the world and had already rescued more than 7,000 poor children in just 6 months.

While her supernatural power brought her benefits, she never forgot to share them. Anyway, money could always be earned. With the abilities she had, Nangong Nuannuan was very willing to use them to help others. It could also be considered as her accumulating merit for herself. However, she had been doing this in secret, not saying a word to anyone.

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan lovingly and replied, 'When you love someone, you always want to understand them more.'

Although he had not directly answered Nuannuan's question, his response certainly pleased her. She happily planted a kiss on Chi Yang's lips.

"How soon are we going back? I miss my family."

"We'll go back when you're done."

Nuannuan immediately shook her head. 'I don't have much to do.' After all, ever since the establishment of the Imperial Phoenix Group, she had always delegated tasks to others. This time, she had only come to Nabu Nation because she really could not resist the urge to see her Big Brother Chi Yang.

Now that she knew Chi Yang was fine, she could not be bothered regardless of how chaotic Phoenix Pavilion was.

After all... every profession had its perks.

Managing business was Feng Shengxuan, Bai Liyue, and Aiden's department.

Nuannuan easily stored the matter of Phoenix Pavilion at the back of her mind. She blinked and looked at Chi Yang expectantly.

Chi Yang smiled and said, 'Alright, let's pack up and go back tomorrow.'

"Long live Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Chapter 1624: Seat Taken

Seeing how happy Nuannuan was, Chi Yang knew that she could not wait any longer.

Although she had never said it directly, he knew that this girl valued kinship more than anything else.

Zhong Kuijun from the Zhong family must have been out of his mind to give up on a daughter who valued kinship as much as she did.

Thinking about what Nuannuan had experienced with the Zhong family, Chi Yang only felt his heart ache. All he could do was love and pamper her more.

"I could go back today, but I still have a group of brothers from the Eagle Special Forces to think of. I have to make arrangements for them, so I have to hold off on it. I'll come back to accompany you once I'm done."

"Okay, go ahead! Don't mind me."

Thinking about the fact that she could go back tomorrow, Nuannuan was very happy.

'When Chi Yang went to meet up with his comrades, she went into the warehouse of Phoenix Pavilion and looted it for the best jade that Big Brother Chi Yang had yet to nab.

In the past, she had given him many individual pieces. Now, she would give him the entire set.

There were so many people from the Chi family and Nangong family combined... Thus, the mercenaries guarding the warehouse of Phoenix Pavilion could only watch as their chairman took all the best jade in their warehouse like a rat stealing bits of food.

Initially, Nuannuan had wanted Chi Yang to fly back with her in the Imperial Phoenix Group's private jet. Naboo had allowed them to use a private route.

However, Chi Yang had a total of 150 comrades from the Eagle Special Forces, as well as 10 citizens from Camino who had to retreat to Emperor District. Eventually, Nuannuan decided to pay for herself and booked a civilian aircraft.

As they were rushing to organize the transport of the precious jade stones, Nuannuan and the others arrived late.

Chi Yang accompanied her and watched as the airport staff moved all the goods into the warehouse before following Nuannuan onto the plane.

Everyone knew that Nuannuan was the one who booked the plane, but there were always some ignorant people who did not understand.

Hence, as Nuannuan and her group boarded the plane, they realized that the first-class seats had already been occupied by several women from Camino.

Upon noticing Chi Yang, one of the women's eyes instantly lit up. She rushed to Chi Yang and said, "Lieutenant General Chi, I've saved you a first-class seat. Sit here!"

Chi Yang glanced at the first empty seat on the left of the first row of the first-class seats, then looked at the second seat on its left. There was a new Hermes bag on it, and even a Hermes scarf tied around it. It was obvious that these were this woman's belongings.

Chi Yang frowned and ignored the woman's invitation. He asked, "Who allowed any of you to sit here?"

He had clearly instructed Song Qing to arrange the seating positions of these ten or more Camino citizens.

Song Qing was already exasperated by this woman. When he heard Chi Yang's question, he immediately complained, "Captain, I've already tried to inform Miss Su that this seat has been specially reserved, but she didn't listen and insisted on taking first-class."

"So, you just let her sit here?" Chi Yang asked unhappily.

Song Qing knew that he was in the wrong and could not defend himself.

It was not that he had not stopped her, but that this Miss Su was really very annoying. Not only was she shamelessly freeloading on their plane, but she had also insisted on sitting first-class. If they did not let her sit, her mother and aunt shouted at them before sinking their bottoms on those first-class seats themselves, refusing to leave.

He was a soldier, so he could not be physical with them in situations like this.. Hence, he could not do anything if they would not listen to him!

Chapter 1625: What Attitude?

Seeing that Song Qing was not planning to speak up, Chi Yang looked at the woman and said, "Miss Su, please return to your seat at the back of the plane with your family. This is my fiancée's seat."

"Fiance? You have a fiancée?"

'The woman's face turned pale. She looked at Nangong Nuannuan, who was standing beside Chi Yang, and instantly grew jealous of her stunning appearance. Her entire face could not help but twist sourly.

Nangong Nuannuan had the urge to roll her eyes.

Damn it, why did Big Brother Chiyang have such bad luck? Why did he always bump into idiots everywhere he went?

How exhausting that had to be!

Miss Su failed to understand Chi Yang's point, which made Chi Yang a little frustrated. He said again, "Miss Su, we didn't book first-class seats for you, so please return to your seat in the normal seats at the back with your family."

However, Miss Su still could not understand what Chi Yang was saying at all. Tears were streaming down her face. "Is she really your fiancée? You have a fiancée? I don't believe it! If she's your fiancée, why would you bring her to Naboo for a mission?"

The middle-aged woman beside them grew furious. Her voice had been loud, to begin with, so when she shouted, it felt like everyone on the plane could hear her.

“Lieutenant General Chi, what kind of attitude is this? Our Su Fei kindly invited you to sit in first class with her, so how can you be so rude? This plane was originally intended to evacuate the citizens of Camino, so what difference does it make who sits where? Although you are a lieutenant general, as a general, isn’t it your job to serve the people? How can your fiancée sit in first-class while the rest of us are stuck in economy class? That doesn’t make sense!”

Although the woman who spoke was loud, she looked to be in her early thirties because she had maintained herself well during her forties. As for the woman named Su Fei, she had obviously inherited her mother’s beauty—her looks could be considered top-notch.

Another woman who was not as pretty as Miss Su but looked mildly similar quickly chimed in. “That’s right. Although you’re a general, you’re also a soldier. Are soldiers better than ordinary people? We always book private planes or first-class cabins when we go out. We’re not used to sitting in economy class. We won’t change our seats, just deal with it.”

Then, she pulled Mrs. Su to sit down beside her.

Mrs. Su glanced at Nangong Nuannuan angrily and sat down with a cold snort.

The two men behind them did not stop their women from speaking.

Chi Yang patiently said for the last time, “This plane was never meant to evacuate the citizens of Camino. A ship was meant to do that. Furthermore, the crisis in Naboo has already been resolved. We’ll no longer be carrying out evacuation missions. I hope you know this.

“This plane was specially booked by my fiancée to allow my comrades a comfortable journey home. It’s a personal matter. The reason I brought all of you here is that the situation in Naboo has stabilized. There aren’t many people who want to leave, but your group wants to leave with us, so I allowed you to come along. Please don’t take advantage of other people’s kindness. I may be a soldier, but my fiancée isn’t. She doesn’t owe any of you anything.”

“I couldn’t tell that Lieutenant General Chi’s fiancée is that rich. She actually booked the entire plane? Could she be using Lieutenant General Chi’s money to do all this?”

The woman beside Mrs. Su glanced at Nangong Nuannuan, whose hair was tied up in a bun

Chapter 1626: Do Not Want to Interfere

Nangong Nuannuan wore clothes with no visible brand logos on them, too. One look and they assumed that she only managed to hook up with a young and promising man like Chi Yang because she was young and pretty.

‘When it came to a woman like that, Su Fei and her family despised them.

Mrs. Su chirped, “What’s so great about chartering a plane? Our family also charters a whole plane when we travel, like when we came here from Camino to see the mine we bought in Naboo. If you must be so calculative... it’s certainly impossible for us to change our seats now. So... Miss, just tell me how much chartering this plane cost you—I'll transfer the money to you. Take it as our Su family inviting Lieutenant General Chi and the special forces of the Eagle Special Forces to travel with us."

"Big Brother Chi Yang, are you done explaining yet?" Nuannuan smiled at Chi Yang.

Chi Yang nodded. "I'm done."

Although he did not want to start a fight here, this family was too much. Chi Yang had saved Su Fei's life, yet they were purposefully making things difficult for his Nuannuan.

As a soldier, there was not much Chi Yang could do. All he could do was give his wife support.

Upon obtaining Big Brother Chi Yang's approval, Nangong Nuannuan did not even need to gesture before the manager of Phoenix Pavilion, who was accompanying the boss and his comrades onto the plane, took action.

Seeing the head of the Phoenix Pavilion act, the mercenaries standing outside the cabin immediately sprang into action too.

'As the manager pulled open the luggage rack and took out their belongings, they followed suit and removed everything on the first-class luggage rack.

"Hey, what do you think you're doing?!"

"Are you trying to remove us forcefully? Where's the law?"

"Lieutenant General Chi, what's the meaning of this? Are you just going to watch these people attack the citizens of Camino?"

The two middle-aged women looked at the group of foreigners. Although they were all wearing suits, they were clearly not ordinary people.

'The two of them tried to grab the men's hands and stop them from touching their luggage. However, they were just ordinary women. How could they compete in strength with international mercenaries?

They could not stop the mercenaries. Instead, the women were knocked down by the luggage the mercenaries were removing.

Mrs. Su was knocked to the ground. Upon seeing this, Mr. Su stood up to intervene.

"Lieutenant General Chi's fiancée, aren't you a little too ruthless!?"

"Old fool, what are you saying? Keep your dog mouth shut. You can yap about who's the ruthless one, but I just want to remind you that there's a security camera on this plane."

From the very beginning, Nangong Nuannuan had not said a word. After all, these people were not worthy of her anger.

Selina was the one who spoke up. She could not bear to watch them pretending to be something worthwhile anymore, so she decided to stand up against them.

'Mr. Su glared at Selina coldly as a warning. Then, he turned to Chi Yang and asked, "Lieutenant General Chi, your fiancée's men injured my wife. Aren't you going to intervene?"

Chi Yang looked at Mr. Su with a serious face.

"I'm sorry, but our mission is over. Now we're just a bunch of commoners in our soldier attires. Also, as I had mentioned, my fiancée booked this plane. It is hers to do with as she wishes. I have no right to interfere, nor do I want to."

Mr. Su's expression darkened. "Oh, so you're just ordinary people in soldier attires. I understand now."

Upon saying that, he gave a signal to the youths in economy class behind him. Two of them immediately drew their guns from their waistbands..

Chapter 1627: Anyone Else Wants To Cause Trouble?

"Don't move. If you move again, don't blame us for what happens next!"

The two of them were confidently holding a pistol each, aiming it at the Phoenix Pavilion's manager and his group of mercenaries. The guns' designs were ten years old.

The mercenaries who were dragging their luggage out of the cabin were stunned for a moment. No one knew who laughed first. However, it was not long before everyone chimed in on the laugh.

Were these people out of their minds? They actually dared to take out their guns in front of Queen, Selina, and Dan Qi?

The mercenaries would be willing to bet one buck that even if these people put a gun to their chairman's head and open fire, they would not be able to kill her.

They would not even get a strand of their chairman's hair out of place.

However, how could they leave their chairman to handle this rugged bunch herself?

Therefore, the manager who was standing closest to the two people walked up to them. Without saying a word, he flung his long legs—moving faster than his opponents could even comprehend.

The two men holding guns who had been blocking the threshold between first class and economy class were sent flying. They eventually smashed into seats in the second row. Their heads slumped down as they fainted.

"Argh—"

Mrs. Su, another middle-aged woman, and the woman named Su Fei, who had all previously been trying to seduce Chi Yang, could not help but scream. Their faces were filled with shock and fear.

When the people behind them saw this, they rushed forward to defend their boss despite being frightened. At this moment, the manager had already turned around and signaled everyone to drag this group of people out. However, it was as if he had eyes at the back of his head. When they rushed up behind him, he jumped up, and with a 360-degree sweeping kick, he sent them flying.

There were a total of seven people who had rushed forward. However, his kick had such huge force that all seven of them were knocked unconscious.

Mr. Su and the man sitting beside him watched this scene in shock and disbelief.

His men, two of them with guns, had been wiped out with just two moves!

This was simply.

It was more than just a slap to the face!

‘Once the mercenaries removed all the luggage, they came to get Mr. and Mrs. Su.

‘The woman beside Mrs. Su immediately howled like a pig being slaughtered.

“argh! What are you doing? Don’t pull me around! Believe it or not, I’ll call the police!”

“Do you people know anything about law and order? I want to return to our country on our country’s plane. Why are you pulling us? Let go!”

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at the two women who were clinging onto the armrest of the plane seat and refusing to let go. She then looked at Su Fei, who kept calling out to Chi Yang, “Lieutenant General Chi, save me!” She was exasperated.

“This is so noisy!”

Nangong Nuannuan finally spoke.

Her words further angered Phoenix Pavilion’s manager.

Initially, he had been trying to treat these people politely. However, after being shunned by the chairman, he whistled.

In the next moment, a group of mercenaries with machine guns and submachine guns rushed in and pressed their guns against Mrs. Su and the others’ heads, scaring them into silence.

“Anyone else wants to cause more trouble?”

With so many guns pointed at them, who would dare to make a scene?

“Big Brother Chi Yang, let’s sit here.” Nuannuan held Chi Yang’s hand and led him to the seat that Su Fei had left behind for her.

Nuannuan sat further inside while Chi Yang sat in the aisle seat..

Chapter 1628: With Our Stinky Money

However, there was still the Hermes bag on the seat. Nuannuan picked up the bag and threw it away as if she was throwing out rubbish.

Since the bag was opened, many things fell out when she threw it.

Seeing this, the air stewardess immediately retrieved a broom and swept away the ‘rubbish’ on the ground.

As for Mr. Su, Mrs. Su, and Su Fei, they were ‘invited’ off the plane by the people from Phoenix Pavilion.

They watched helplessly as their luggage was thrown down to them like trash. However, when they saw a group of people holding machine guns in front of them and looking fierce, they did not dare to speak. They were terrified that the mercenaries would shoot their faces off if they made them upset.

After all, this was Naboo—not Camino. If they died in Naboo, no one would help them.

Mrs. Su held back her anger and could only watch as the plane took off and flew out of their sight.

The group of people who were obviously not to be trifled with ignored them after the plane departed, retreating from them.

It was only then that Mrs. Su started scolding them all. “What the hell!”

“shut up!”

‘Mr. Su was no idiot. After seeing Nangong Nuannuan summon a group of people with machine guns so quickly, he realized that he was definitely not dealing with ordinary people.

“They’ve already left, so why do you still want me to shut up? She stole our Su Fei’s man and even chased us off the plane. That’s just great, isn’t she?! I dare her to get her neck ready for the noose and wait for me in Camino! Whatever great humiliation our family has suffered today, she’ll have to pay us back!”

Mr. Su was furious too.

Initially, he had thought highly of his daughter and the lieutenant general. After all, the Su family was wealthy in Camino. Su Fei would be a good match for the young and promising lieutenant general.

However, this lieutenant general had actually found a woman who looked young and, although she did not seem very notable at first, could pull the strings of a foreign mercenary force at will.

“This woman has a foreign mercenary force at her beck and call; we shouldn’t underestimate her. The two of you better shut up. Well just suffer this in silence.”

“How can that be?” Mrs. Su immediately exploded.

“What foreign mercenary force? Dad, she just spent some money and hired some foreign mercenaries. Can’t we also hire such people? You’ve taken in many sworn brothers who now work for you. We didn’t hire those people. If we had, what could this woman do to us? She stole my man and even threw my things away like trash. She’s truly something, huh?! After returning to Camino, I want to find out who she is. If we aren’t able to make her give up on Chi Yang, I’ll call her mom!”

Su Fei cursed through her gritted teeth. She could not get over the humiliation she had just suffered.

The nine people who had been knocked unconscious were lying haphazardly on the ground.

Mr. Su did not have anyone around him whom he could give orders, so he could only tell the man beside him, “Go and ask about how we can book a plane. We’ll return to Emperor District immediately.” The man looked like he was nearly the same age as Mr. Su.

The man clearly did not want to do such trivial things. However, when he saw the people lying on the ground, he had no choice but to go.

After a while, the man returned. There were still people lying on the ground, with no sign of them waking up anytime soon.

"Brother-in-law, I just asked. The airport staff said that since the situation in Naboo has just stabilized, the airport is not yet open to the public.."

Chapter 1629: Wife Control

"Nonsense! Then, how did the plane leave just now?" Mr. Su asked unhappily.

"Yeah, I know! I asked that too, but the person said that this plane was special. So what Lieutenant General Chi said about the plane being booked by that woman is definitely a lie! If they hadn't booked the plane in the name of the Camino's special forces, would the airport really have let them through?"

"They're so despicable!" Su Fei was mad too.

"So, that Chi Yang is letting that woman do whatever she wants just so his fiancée can sit in first class?" Mrs. Su was furious.

"Dad, you have to complain about this woman when we get back!"

Mr. Su immediately made a domestic call. The moment the call connected, he gave his instructions.

"There's a plane coming from Naboo to Camino. It's a private plane, and it's filled with Camino's special forces. Contact the pilot of this plane immediately and ask him to retain the surveillance tapes. I want it. Yes, do everything in your power to keep it from being wiped."

After hanging up the phone, Mr. Su said to Su Fei, "Don't you like that Chi Yang? He's no dummy, to have become a lieutenant at such a young age. We can use this to blackmail him. If he gives up on his fiancée and gets together with you instead, we can forget about this matter. If he refuses to realize his mistakes, Dad will make him suffer."

Su Fei smiled smugly. "When he finds out what kind of person Dad is and what kind of connections he has to the Shi family, he'll definitely abandon the dark side and come to the light."

After hearing this conversation between her husband and her daughter, Mrs. Su finally felt better.

"So, what do we do now? How long before the next flight takes off?"

"Eldest Sister, we might not be able to leave for now," said the brother-in-law.

"Why?" Mrs. Su was dumbfounded.

"Because some of the Wei Du's people are trying to escape, Pang Long had ordered all the shipping routes to be shut down, and land transportation, river transportation, and sea transport all halted. They want to carry out a large-scale investigation. If we want to leave, we'll need to submit an application.

Only once the application is approved will we be able to leave by ship in seven days.”

“What? You want us to squeeze into the same boat with a bunch of dirty and stinky people?” When Mrs. Su heard the news, she was upset.

“Yes, that’s the only way out. There’s no other option.”

Mrs. Su looked at her subordinates all lying on the ground. Thinking about how she still had seven days more in this lousy place made her grit her teeth in rage.

On the plane, Nangong Nuannuan stared out the window, ignoring Chi Yang.

Guessing that the little girl was jealous, Chi Yang was strangely pleased.

Although he was happy, he still had to coax his wife back to his side.

“Little Girl, are you unhappy?”

Nuannuan did not even look at him. Her cheeks were all puffed up.

A faint smile appeared on Chi Yang’s lips as he explained in all seriousness, “I don’t know her, really. I swear to you, I only saved her once. At the time, I was evacuating the people with my team members. This Su Fei had been spotted by Wei Du’s soldiers, and they had immobilized her limbs, preparing to take her away. I saw the terrified look on her face and knew she needed help, so I saved her and sent her back to her place.”

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang and said, “Eagle Special Forces has so many soldiers. As a lieutenant general, why must you send her back personally?”

“It’s hard to be particular about the roles you get when you’re outside. All my subordinates had their own duties to carry out.”

Chapter 1630: Long Live Sis-In-Law

“Everyone else is a three-man team, while I’ve been working alone. If anything happens, they’ll just summon me. Just me. But if you don’t believe me, why don’t I get a few people here and ask them.”

With that, Chi Yang stood up. However, Nuannuan dragged him back down.

“What are you doing?”

“I’ll get a few of my comrades to testify for me. What if you misunderstand me and get angry?”

Dumbo!

“You’re the commander of Eagle Special Forces. Aren’t you ashamed about acting this way?”

“So, why are you calling for help when it’s embarrassing then?”

“I’m more afraid of your anger than being embarrassed.”

Nuannuan, “...”

All her sadness was instantly swept away by this flirty sentence.

Seeing that he was about to get up, Nuannuan stopped him again.

“Forget it, forget it. I’m not angry with you anymore.”

Chi Yang smiled, as if he had finally gotten his way. He had known that if he did this, his wife would not be angry with him.

“My little wife, you’re the best.”

Nuannuan glanced at Chi Yang and replied with a big smile, “I could say the same for you.”

Suddenly, Song Qing walked over.

“Captain.”

“What is it?”

“Our brothers would like to know how did they do this time?”

Chi Yang was satisfied with this evacuation operation. He was always strict and harsh when it came to training his subordinates.

After thinking for a while, he replied, “It’s barely satisfactory.”

Those three words made Song Qing very happy.

“Thank you for your compliment, Captain!”

Seeing that Chi Yang had no intention of reprimanding them, Song Qing mustered up his courage and said, “All of us think that Sister-in-law is very pretty. We want to ask if she has any single friends.”

Chi Yang was stunned. He didn’t expect these rough men to have set their eyes on his Nuannuan.

Chi Yang looked at her. If possible, he did want his soldiers to have partners.

After all, the soldiers of the Eagle Special Forces were all very hardworking, Not only did they train hard, they also undertook many missions. They didn’t have the time to find a girlfriend. If Nuannuan could help his brothers find someone to spend the rest of their lives with, it would indeed be a very meritorious deed on her end.

Hearing Song Qing’s words, Nuannuan’s interest was piqued.

“Sure, let’s have a little gathering! I have many companies under my name, with many single women working in them!”

Song Qing’s eyes lit up. The men in economy class also perked up their ears at her words. When they heard that she was planning to arrange a matchmaking gathering for them, they instantly cheered up. They stood up and shouted at Nuannuan, “Thank you, sister-in-law!”

Usually, everyone addressed her as the lieutenant general's wife, but she was so warm and approachable that they changed their tones now.

Nuannuan was spurred on by their enthusiasm. In a good mood, she shouted into the economy class cabin, "I'll take care of all the single people here! If you guys want to call me sister-in-law, then I'll help take care of your own marriages!"

Even if she could not help them, she had no choice but to double down now.

"Long live sister-in-law!"

More than a hundred members of the Eagle Special Forces roared at the same time, scaring the pilot in front of them so much he accidentally dropped the plane 20 meters, making the interior shake.

Nuannuan said, "Tomorrow night, I'll hold a party for everyone. We won't go home till we're all drunk!"

"We won't go home till we're all drunk!" Everyone behind her echoed in a shout.

Chi Yang sat beside Nuannuan, a smile on his face. He completely ignored the look on Selina and Dan Qi's faces when they heard Nuannuan say she would not get home until she was drunk..
