

Physician Wife 1661

Chapter 1661: The Shi Family's Humility

Nangong Nuannuan did not believe that the Shi family would be afraid of a corporation that had just entered Camino. Even if this corporation was currently ranked third in the world and was about to jump to first, Nangong Nuannuan did not think that this was the reason why the Shi family had bowed down to her.

After all, it was impossible for the most powerful military personnel of the Imperial Phoenix Group to enter Camino. The reason why the Imperial Phoenix Group was so powerful globally was mostly because of Feng Shengxuan's mother's strategic planning in Sab. However, in Camino, other than the Nangong family's support, the Imperial Phoenix Group did not have much power.

Regardless of whether it was the Tianheng Holdings or the Imperial Phoenix Group, they were indeed a significant competitor to the Shi Family. However, they had never reached the stage where they had had to take a detour when facing them.

"Why? Are you afraid I'll take it to heart? Do you think your Shi Family is afraid of trouble?" Nangong Nuannuan asked with a smile.

The person on the other end of the phone chuckled.

"It's better to squash enmity than keeping it alive. Chairman Nangong has been able to become the chairman of two of the top 50 corporations in the world at such a young age. Naturally, you must have some tricks up your sleeve. Our Shi Clan and the Nangong Clan have had some unpleasant grudges previously, and the Shi Clan was overwhelmed by them. Now that the Nangong Clan has found Chairman Nangong's granddaughter, they're like tigers with wings. We've already experienced Chairman Nangong's methods, so we've unanimously decided not to become enemies with Chairman Nangong. We also hope that Chairman Nangong can let go of the unpleasant past. It's been said that times are different now. In the business world, there are no eternal enemies or eternal friends. We hope that we can use this matter as an opportunity for collaboration. Even if we can't become friends with Chairman Nangong in the future, at least we won't be enemies."

Ever since they discovered Nangong Nuannuan's frightening identity, the Shi family had decided to lay low after Shi Yalin's persuasion. Before they became strong enough to control the situation, they were determined not to make an enemy out of a crazy and terrifying woman like Nangong Nuannuan.

Nangong Nuannuan could feel the sincerity of the Shi family's concession. If it was an ordinary person, they might have just let it go.

However, Nangong Nuannuan was extremely sensitive to dangerous things.

The Shi family's humble retreat was not a good thing for her.

She was willing to see Shi Maode ridiculing her or getting angry at her. She was willing to see Shi Yalin, who wanted to kill her at every turn. She was willing to see Shi Zhongyu, the eldest son of the Shi family, who would call her name at every turn and order her around. Of course, the Shi family would have the normal reaction of a top-notch family when facing an enemy.

Nuannuan let out a hearty laugh along with Shi Maode's words. "I wonder what methods Chairman Shi has learned from me? It's just a piece of land. Although it's indeed a bit bigger and a bit more profitable, in the end, it's just 30 billion. Although 30 billion is a huge sum, it shouldn't be a loss that the Shi family can't bear, right?"

"Chairman Nangong, let's not beat around the bush. Apart from this piece of land that is guaranteed to earn 30 billion, have you done anything else our Shi family is afraid of? Previously, my daughter Yalin sent people to assassinate you, and that was indeed her fault. However, you have already attacked the five members of our Shi family, and your moves were quick and swift. We have no hope of absolving them of their crimes.."

Chapter 1662: First Time Meeting Eldest Uncle

"After that, Yalin, my only daughter, met with an accident. If it weren't for the fact that our Shi family has a wide network and happened to know a person who was very good at acupuncture and able to help Yalin get through this ordeal, my daughter would probably be bedridden for the rest of her life."

"So, Miss Shi has recovered. Congratulations."

Upon hearing Nangong Nuannuan's congratulations, Shi Maode was very angry. However, he had no choice but to suppress the anger in his heart and say, "What's there to congratulate? Because of the shock and agitation she suffered previously, Yalin was very traumatized after waking up. She was afraid of people whenever she saw them. To get her to resume living like a normal person as soon as possible, I sent her to the Medic Association Hospital. Until now, she's still very afraid of meeting people."

Realizing that Nangong Nuannuan did not respond, Shi Maode continued, "Chairman Nangong, although you and Yalin are the same age, whether it's because of your career or your circumstances, Yalin is no one to you. Although it was wrong for Yalin to find someone to assassinate you, you nearly ruined her life, harmed five members of our Shi family, and even stole a piece of land from our Shi family. Truly... Yalin is my only daughter. I only hope that I'll never make an enemy of Chairman Nangong again. I wonder if Chairman Nangong will be able to use this incident as an opportunity to turn hostility into friendship?"

"Forget about friendship. After all, this world doesn't only consist of enemies and friends. I don't think I can be friends with the Shi family, so from now on, we'll go our separate ways. As long as the Shi family doesn't provoke me or the Nangong family, I won't continue my enmity with you guys even if we can't be friends."

'When Shi Maode heard this, he knew that Nangong Nuannuan believed him. He hurriedly agreed, "Alright! There's no one as straightforward as Chairman Nangong!"

Yalin had repeatedly reminded him that Nangong Nuannuan was a very cunning person and that he should not deliberately conceal anything. It seemed that she had been right.

Instead of hiding the fact that Yalin had woken up, it was better to let Nangong Nuannuan know that firsthand.

In any case, Shi Yalin would be staying in the Medic Association Hospital for a long time to come. It had the world's most advanced satellite shielding system, and no one knew what kind of earth-shattering things Yalin would be able to do there.

No matter how powerful Nangong Nuannuan was, it was impossible for her to do the same.

"Alright, that's it then. I hope Chairman Shi can quickly settle my brother's matter. At the same time, I hope that Miss Shi will be able to recover soon."

After hanging up on Shi Maode's call, Nangong Nuannuan actually believed him a little.

However, she still asked Dan Qi to send her the video from the camera he had just repaired.

She had never seen the man on the tapes before, but he gave her a very bad feeling. Unlike King's coldness, pervertedness, and bloodthirst, this man emanated a sinister aura.

It was like an evil spirit had walked out from hell and was lurking in the mortal world. It could pounce on your neck at any moment and rip it apart.

Nuannuan kept the camera focused on the man's face, figure, and appearance, committing them to memory.

After that, she took a closer look at Shi Yalin, who had still been in a vegetative state before the man took her away. However, more than an hour later, when Shi Yalin passed by this road again, she was rejoicing.

Looking at Shi Yalin's expression, Nuannuan cursed in her heart..

Chapter 1663: Investigate Her Properly

Was that the look of someone who was severely traumatized?

Was Shi Maode making fun of Nuannuan, thinking that she did not study psychology?

Although Shi Yalin had only shown up in the footage for a few seconds and could only be briefly seen in the taxi, Nuannuan could clearly tell that there was no fear in Shi Yalin at all.

This was a delicate and spoiled girl, who hired someone to kill Nangong Nuannuan out of her menial anger; who nearly lost her mind after knowing how terrifying Nangong Nuannuan was. How could she be so calm after going through such torture?

If not for the fact that Dan Qi had compared her retina and bone structure to confirm that this was indeed Shi Yalin, Nuannuan would have suspected that this woman was an imposter—someone else who only had the shell in Shi Yalin's appearance.

Otherwise, how could Shi Yalin explain this change?

Nuannuan had interacted with Shi Yalin before. This was definitely not the reaction an ordinary person would have after experiencing such a huge shock.

suddenly, Nuannuan had a moment of epiphany.

Could it be that Shi Yalin had really been swapped with someone else? Was the person in Shi Yalin's body someone else?

Looking at the screen, Nuannuan blinked her eyes for a long time. She was quite impressed with her own imagination.

If this had been in the past, Nuannuan would not have believed it either. However, ever since she was reborn, she had started believing in such things.

All kinds of strange things were always happening in the world. If she could be revived after dying once, why could others not transmigrate into Shi Yalin's body after she died?

However.

It was obvious that the man who had carried Shi Yalin away had come prepared. The fact that Shi Yalin woke up later was definitely related to him.

So.

If she could figure out who that man was and check if any dead people were connected to him, would she be able to find out who Shi Yalin was?

Nuannuan snapped her fingers and praised herself for her wild imagination.

Thinking about what to do, she immediately called Dan Qi.

"Lil Dan Qi, apart from the Shi family and Shi Yalin, you need to help me look into another person."

"Who?"

"The man who carried Shi Yalin away in the video."

"I've already checked. I didn't find any information about him."

"If you can't find info on him in Camino, expand your search to foreign countries. Focus on Sab, Mustapha, Yamato, and Naboo."

"Okay, I'll check right away."

"If you still can't find him, then match him to anyone that possesses facial features or body sizes that resemble his. This person is very important."

"Alright, Big Sis, don't worry. I'll definitely investigate this person."

Dan Qi also had a bad feeling that this person might be related to KE. Therefore, even if Nangong Nuannuan did not bring this up with him, he had already decided to investigate in private.

Now that Nangong Nuannuan had mentioned it, Dan Qi definitely felt that there was something wrong with this person.

At the moment, Shi Yalin had knuckled down in the Medic Association Hospital and was boldly developing the experimental bugs. Never in her dreams that she would expect Nangong Nuannuan to hit the nail on the head about her soul possession—something most people would never imagine happened even if they were beaten to death. She did it so discreetly, yet Nangong Nuannuan had guessed it as easily as one would pick cabbage.

Two days later, the 13th Officer of the executive hall, Shi Maowen, approached the president and explained the details of the five cases that the president had handed over to him..

Chapter 1664: The Truth Revealed

The actions of the five people named by the anonymous email were all true. None of them were slanderous. Shi Maowen told the president that the five people from the Shi family had severely affected the Shi family's reputation and had been expelled from the Shi family. He also advised the president to punish them severely.

In addition, after reviewing the actions of these five people, the Shi family also conducted a thorough investigation of the other members of the family, making them reflect on their own actions thoroughly.

In the process of investigation, they discovered an injustice committed half a year ago.

At that time, Nangong Ze had just been transferred from the Medical Administrative Department to the Medic Association Hospital to be in charge of the development of a special antihypertensive drug alongside Shi Zhonglei.

In the end, in order to please Shi Zhonglei, the drug researchers in their group increased the dosage of the drugs in an attempt to get the drug developed faster.

It was Nangong Ze who discovered that the measurements for the drug were wrong and informed the project team's leader of the matter. Unexpectedly, the leader was a relative of the same researcher.

Later on, after Nangong Ze finished researching the drug, the person in charge of the project team blatantly stole the results of Nangong Ze's medicine in order to get revenge on Nangong Ze and also to suck up to the Shi family. He claimed that Shi Zhonglei was the one who developed the drug, and that the bad drug his relative had previously produced through overdosing was actually Nangong Ze's.

This had directly led to Nangong Ze's failed promotion. His future potential was severely impeded by this event.

This time, after they investigated thoroughly, they discovered other things about this person. Hence, they followed the clues and found out the truth about what happened previously. Shi Maowen righteously asked the president to clear Nangong Ze's name.

Since this involved the Nangong family, the president naturally placed great importance on it and immediately got his secretary to follow up on it.

Nangong Ze had initially been very angry at the damage caused by the previous incident. Not only was there no hope of promotion, but he was also constantly criticized behind his back.

At long last, someone from the justice department suddenly came by with the president's secretary. While everyone thought that Young Master Nangong had committed another crime, the comrades from the justice department made a public inquiry on the research of the antihypertensive drug from half a year ago.

Nangong Ze wanted to talk about how Shi Zhonglei had shamelessly stolen his achievements at first, but when he heard that the people from the justice department had intentionally or unintentionally targeted the person in charge of the project, Nangong Ze pieced together what was happening.

Initially, there had been no room for negotiation even if the Nangong family investigated and threatened him. There had been no chance for him to clear his name. Now that the opportunity had come, even if Shi Zhonglei was still given preferential treatment by the project team's person-in-charge, he would at least be able to clear his name.

Thus, Nangong Ze explained the situation to the justice department. The next day, all the major newspapers and magazines exposed this incident.

It turned out that the antihypertensive drug had been developed by Nangong Ze, and the previous drug measurements had also been discovered by him. In the end, both were claimed by someone with ulterior motives.

Nangong Ze's reputation was instantly cleared, and the person in charge of the project team and the person who had stolen the drug measurements were arrested. Although Shi Zhonglei was the beneficiary of the whole incident, he had not participated directly. Since this matter had been exposed by the Shi family themselves, Shi Zhonglei got the benefit of the doubt.

The onlookers believed that the Shi family had not known about this, and even if Shi Zhonglei knew, he probably thought that the antihypertensive drug had been developed by the team and they wanted to give him the credit.

After all, if it was really Shi Zhonglei who had done it and the Shi family knew, then the Shi family would definitely not be so foolish as to expose this matter...

Chapter 1665 Ning Wenhao's Critical Illness

Translator: EndlessFantasy Translation Editor: EndlessFantasy Translation

However, these were merely the thoughts of bystanders. Those who truly understood the business industry knew that this was a sign of the Shi family submitting to the Nangong family.

Awhile ago, the Shi family had always targeted the Nangong family. Now, the Nangong family seemed to have gotten ahold of something, because they wanted to clear Nangong Ze's name.

Nangong Ze called his family, but neither his uncle, second uncle, or third uncle, or anyone else knew about this matter. When they heard that the justice department was looking for him, they were all very surprised, so Nangong Ze called Nangong Nuannuan.

As expected, the Nangong family's super cute little princess had done it.

Although he was her elder brother, not only had he not protected his younger sister, he had been protected by her. Just like every single time before. However, Nangong Ze was still very happy.

After all, his sister cared about him a lot. She knew that he had been wronged before, so she wanted to help him turn the tables as soon as she had the chance.

This kind of sister made the Nangong brothers feel very grateful for her.

On this day, Chi Yang returned home with a heavy expression.

Nuannuan asked with concern, "Big Brother Chi Yang, what's wrong?"

"Nothing. By the way, Nuannuan, you've been learning from those specialists. Do you know anything about lung infections?"

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. "What's wrong?"

"It's Ning Wenhao's injury. Because of the bullet in his lungs, his lungs are infected. After being hospitalized for such a long time, he was recuperating. Unexpectedly, the temperature suddenly dropped in late spring some time ago, and he caught a cold and a fever. After that, he kept coughing, and there was phlegm in his lungs. One day, he suddenly couldn't cough out phlegm. After inhaling and blocking his pipes, he fainted. Now that he's on the inhaler, the doctor has sent out a notice of critical illness."

Nuannuan was stunned.

She knew that Ning Wenhao had been injured previously. The reason for his injury was because Hong Feixu, who liked Chi Yang, had been eager to make a contribution. When he had been carrying out a mission with Ning Wenhao, Ning Wenhao had asked her to cover for him. However, she had made a move to capture the leader of the bandits first and was caught by the enemy's boss. In the end, Ning Wenhao had suffered serious injuries in order to save her.

Because he was Chi Yang's right-hand man, Nuannuan had once been very worried about him and had even wanted to visit him.

However, Big Brother Chi Yang had said that he was almost done recovering. Besides, his family, the Ning family, was a little annoying and it was not convenient for them to visit him, so Nuannuan had given up on that thought.

Unexpectedly, Ning Wenhao, who she had heard was about to be discharged, was now on the inhaler.

"The surgery takes time. I've only observed a few surgeries, and only one lung surgery. But I can go and take a look."

Chi Yang nodded. "Alright, accompany me tomorrow, then."

"Why tomorrow? It's only 8 PM now. We can go there later."

Chi Yang thought about it and shook his head. "Forget it. Anyway, there's no rush for tonight. Let's go tomorrow."

Nuannuan thought that made sense, so she agreed to go tomorrow.

The next morning, Chi Yang and Nuannuan woke up early in the morning. Nuannuan thought Chi Yang would bring her to the hospital quickly. Who could have guessed that he would bring her out for a run and then go home to have breakfast? After that, he went back to the bedroom to kiss her. He only left at nine o'clock.

Nuannuan could tell that the Ning family was having some drama, so Big Brother Chi Yang was purposely stalling them.

When she saw the familiar name of the hospital, Nuannuan could not help but say, "After all this time, I find out that Ning Wenhao is actually hospitalized in the military hospital? I used to come here every day. Why didn't you tell me?"

Chapter 1666 Ning Wenhao's Crisis

Chi Yang gently stroked his head and said helplessly, "He's my sworn brother, and I haven't been here many times, so how could I have brought you? Let's go."

uannuan followed Chi Yang to the ICU monitoring room.

n the ward, a middle-aged woman wearing a protective suit sat inside the room, staring unblinkingly at the person lying on the bed. Her face was pale, and she was so thin that she was almost flat if one looked at her from the side.

n Nangong Nuannuan's heart, Ning Wenhao was a very cheerful and funny person, but he was also quite protective of people he thought were his own. In the beginning, he had maintained an amicable attitude toward her. However, once he realized how Chi Yang was always thwarted by her presence and Chi Yang's mental state grew worse, he had never shown Nangong Nuannuan a friendly face—not even after Ning Wenhao inadvertently found out that she was the chairman of Imperial Phoenix Group.

However, that left quite a good impression on Nuannuan.

That had proven nothing but the fact that Ning Wenhao was utterly loyal to Chi Yang.

ow that she saw him lying lifelessly on this hospital bed, looking so thin, her heart ached for him too.

uannuan followed Chi Yang to the entrance of the ward. She changed into a sterile protective suit and walked in.

“Auntie.”

Chi Yang greeted the woman beside the bed politely. The woman's distraught gaze finally peeled itself off of Ning Wenhao.

Upon seeing Chi Yang, the woman's eyes started to redden instantly.

“Chi Yang, you're here!”

Chi Yang nodded and asked, “How is he?”

“He's still the same...” The woman choked. “The doctor said that there's still a large-scale infection in the lungs. If the respirator stops, I'm afraid he wouldn't be able to maintain his own heartbeat.”

Chi Yang nodded and introduced Nuannuan to her, “This is my fiancée, Nangong Nuannuan.

“Nuannuan, this is Ning Wenhao's mother, Auntie Mao.”

“Hello, Auntie Mao.”

“Hello, hello, Miss Nangong!” Mrs. Ning knew about Nangong Nuannuan and had heard some things about her.

By some miraculous accident, Chi Yang and the Nangong family had created a marriage of equal status.

Unlike her...

“Nuannuan's acupuncture skills are amazing. I brought her here today to have a look at Ning Wenhao.”

Mrs. Ning was stunned for a moment before a look of joy appeared on her face.

“That’s great! Thank you, Miss Nangong. Thank you so much!”

Although Nangong Nuannuan was young, Mrs. Ning knew that Chi Yang was not someone who would end his sworn brother’s life just to give his wife a cheap thrill.

The hospital that Ning Wenhao was staying in and the chief surgeon treating him had all been arranged by Chi Yang. He would never randomly introduce doctors to Ning Wenhao. Now that he had introduced Nangong Nuannuan to Ning Wenhao, it definitely meant that Nangong Nuannuan had great achievements in this field.

Nuannuan smiled. “Auntie Mao, you’re being too polite. Ning Wenhao is Big Brother Chi Yang’s sworn brother; that makes him mine too. I’ll do my best.”

Then, she activated her X-ray vision and scanned Ning Wenhao’s body.

As she looked, she was startled.

His lungs had turned black, and most of the area was infected. If not for the inhaler, he would not have been able to breathe on his own.

“Auntie Mao, what medicine did Ning Wenhao use?”

“It’s the world’s most advanced anti-inflammatory medicine. It’s called YRH...”

“YRHBO-3,” finished Nuannuan.

Mrs. Ning’s eyes lit up. She had not expected Nangong Nuannuan to know that. She immediately nodded. “Yes, yes.”

Nuannuan frowned. She was the one who had developed the YRHBO medicine. After her most recent revision, it was already in its third generation. It was indeed the best anti-inflammatory drug on the market.

Ordinary people could not buy it without having access to special channels..

Chapter 1667 Useless

It was not great news that even though Ning Wenhao had access to this anti-inflammatory drug, he had not shown any signs of improvement.

“How long has he been taking this medicine for?”

“It’s already the third day.” Mrs. Ning’s eyes turned red again.

“The doctor said that if this drug can’t suppress the continuing infection in the lungs, then it’ll be hopeless for Hao. From the looks of it, the infection in his lungs stopped progressing after he took this drug, but after three days, the infected parts still show no signs of improving.”

Nangong Nuannuan frowned as she continued scanning Ning Wenhao’s internals. He had had the medicine injected into him for three days, yet Ning Wenhao’s lungs showed no signs of improvement. This meant that this medicine had no effect on the infection.

She could see that Ning Wenhao’s lungs had been being devoured by necrotic cells. However, after he took the new generation of anti-inflammatory drugs she had developed, the necrotic cells were currently in shock and their attacks were temporarily suppressed.

However, after getting used to the intensity of the shock and his necrotic cells gradually adapted, they would continue to devour his good cells.

Once the last bit of his lungs were destroyed, Ning Wenhao would be no different from a living zombie apart from the fact he was using a breathing machine to maintain his vital signs.

Even now, if his condition did not improve, he was no different from a living corpse. The severe infection had put him in a deep coma, and he could only rely on the respiratory machine to sustain his life.

After pretending to take his pulse, Nangong Nuannuan retracted her hand.

Chi Yang saw that Nuannuan looked like she wanted to say something but was hesitating. He said, “If you have something to say, you can say it. We’re all on the same side here.”

Nuannuan glanced at Mrs. Ning with reddened eyes and said, “Auntie Mao, I don’t want to lie to you. This medicine is useless to Ning Wenhao.”

“What?!”

Mrs. Ning was so disappointed her legs went weak and she sat back down.

When Chi Yang heard this, he frowned deeply.

“That’s impossible. The doctor said that this medicine is the best anti-inflammatory medicine in the world. Moreover, Hao has obviously improved after using this medicine. How can it be useless?”

“Auntie Mao, I won’t hide this from you. This anti-inflammatory drug was produced by Angel Pharmaceuticals under Imperial Phoenix Group. I’m the one who developed the drug, so I’m very clear on what it does.”

Mrs. Ning, “...”

Besides being shocked that Nangong Nuannuan was not only the daughter of the Nangong family but she also developed medicinal drugs on the side, Mrs. Ning was very disappointed to hear this.

“This drug has a very strong effect. Once used, it might cause the human body to develop some kind of immunity. If the body gets infected from then on, normal antibiotics might lose the ability to suppress illnesses in the body. This is also the reason why the circulation of this medicine is so minimal. However, this medicine has one of the greatest effects on the market—rapid reduction of inflammation. It's different from ordinary antibiotics. Ordinary antibiotics such as cephalosporins can be administered for three days, five days, and seven days. For some illnesses, it can only be completely effective after seven days. However, this medicine can quickly suppress inflammation after entering the bloodstream. So, if it's really useful to Ning Wenhao, after the first infusion, the infection in his lungs would've recovered a lot. This medicine can be administered twice a day according to the measurements. Under normal circumstances, he would be able to recover quite a bit in one day, and in three days... he would at least be able to walk around freely. But Ning Wenhao's condition is stagnant and there are no signs of improvement with this medicine.”.

Chapter 1668 Who Dares?

After Nuannuan finished speaking, Mrs. Ning sank to her knees in front of Nangong Nuannuan.

“Auntie Mao, what are you doing?”

“Miss Nangong, please save Hao! I only have this one son. If he dies, I really won't be able to live...” Mrs. Ning started wailing.

“Auntie, don't be like this. Ning Wenhao is my sworn brother. I brought Nuannuan here to let her treat Ning Wenhao. If Nuannuan can save him, she definitely will.”

“Then... then, is there still hope for Hao?” Mrs. Ning asked while clutching her heart.

“I don't know about that yet. Auntie Mao, I developed YRHBO-3. Some time ago, I also developed another new type of anti-inflammatory medicine. As long as I have the time, I should be able to tailor this medicine to treat Ning Wenhao's condition. However, I'll need your cooperation, Auntie.”

“Alright, go ahead! I'll agree to whatever you want!”

Originally, the doctor had said that if the latest anti-inflammatory medicine—a.k.a. YRHBO-3—did not work, Ning Wenhao would really die. Thus, after Nuannuan said that this medicine was useless, Mrs. Ning really wanted to kill herself.

Now that Nangong Nuannuan was saying that there was still hope, she was naturally willing to fully cooperate.

"I need to cut out some of Ning Wenhao's lung alveoli. Just a little will do. I need to take his dead alveoli back to perform hypersensitivity tests."

"Alveoli... How do we get it?"

"It's a surgical extraction. We'll have to open a wound on his chest and cut some out with a scalpel. But don't worry, the wound won't exceed 2cm, and there won't be many alveoli removed. It's a minimally invasive surgery."

When she heard that her son would have to undergo surgery, Mrs. Ning was a little hesitant. However, when she looked at Chi Yang and saw him nod at her, Mrs. Ning immediately made up her mind and said, "Alright then, let's do it! He couldn't do any worse than this anyway."

Because her son trusted Chi Yang completely, Mrs. Ning also trusted Chi Yang completely. Although Ning Wenhao had already gotten this bad and his vital signs were extremely weak, Mrs. Ning believed that Chi Yang would never harm Ning Wenhao.

"There's no time to lose! Big Brother Chi Yang, go and contact the chief surgeon of the military hospital."

"Okay."

Very quickly, Chi Yang settled the matter of the surgery. An hour later, he was ready.

Who knew that just as Ning Wenhao was about to be pushed into the operating theater, everything would come to a halt.

"Who dares to push my grandson into the operating theater?!"

Nuannuan had changed into a sterile gown and had been about to follow the chief surgeon in, but she was stopped.

The person who arrived was an old man in his seventies. On his left and right stood a man and a woman. The man was dressed in a military uniform and had the rank of a general. From the looks of it, he was probably the current head of the Ning family, the commander-in-chief of the northeastern military base—Ning Haoran.

The old man he was supporting was probably the head of the Ning family, Ning Wenhao's grandfather, Ning Zhennan.

When Mrs. Ning saw Old Master Ning, her face turned pale.

"Dad!"

"Don't call me Dad! I'm not your Dad! The Ning family has never acknowledged you as their daughter-in-law!"

Nangong Nuannuan, "...” What did he mean?

"I'm asking you right now. What in the world are you trying to do now? Why are you sending Hao into the operating theater?"

"To"

"Grandfather Ning, I'm the one who asked Auntie to send Ning Wenhao into the operating room."

Chi Yang stepped forward and stood right in front of Ning Wenhao's mother, facing off against Ning Zhennan.

Ning Zhennan looked at Chi Yang with a dark expression on his face..

Chapter 1669 I Will Do My Best

"Chi Yang, I respect your grandfather, Old Marshall Chi. I also acknowledge you as a young junior, but that isn't enough for me to allow you to do whatever you want to my grandson. He can follow you through life and death, but look at the terrible state he's in. I won't allow anyone to do anything bad to him!"

Chi Yang nodded slightly at Grandfather Ning. "Grandfather Ning, we're not doing anything harmful to Ning Wenhao. We want to save him."

"Save him? How? I used my connections to get him the best anti-inflammatory medicine in Sab. It has already suppressed his condition. This is the best outcome possible. The doctor has claimed that if even this kind of anti-inflammatory medicine is useless to him, then there really is no other solution. Furthermore, his body is already weak. You guys actually want to operate on him?"

"Grandfather Ning, this medicine is useless for Ning Wenhao."

"How do you know it's not working? The doctors say it's working. It's already suppressed the infection in Hao's body."

"Grandfather Ning, this medicine really is useless for Ning Wenhao." Nuannuan stepped forward to speak.

Ning Zhennan glanced at Nangong Nuannuan and said, "Miss Nangong, I've heard about your situation and know that your acupuncture skills are amazing. However, Hao's infection can't be solved with acupuncture alone. There are specialists in this field, so I trust the doctor's words more."

"Grandfather Ning, if I told you that I was the developer of YRHBO-3, would you still say that?"

Ning Zhennan's pupils narrowed. Ning Haoran was also surprised.

Ning Haoran could not help but say, “This is a drug produced by Angel Pharmaceuticals under Imperial Phoenix Group. It’s said to have been developed by some genius pharmacist.”

“And as I told you, I’m that pharmacist.” Although Nangong Nuannuan was polite, she was also domineering.

After all, her gentleness was only reserved for her Big Brother Chi Yang.

Ning Zhennan and Ning Haoran were shocked.

“Grandfather Ning, I have absolute say over this medicine, and I’m telling you that it has no effect on Ning Wenhao’s condition at all.”

“But Hao’s condition is under control now.”

“That’s just because the bacteria is still in shock. It hasn’t had any anti-inflammatory effect. Now that he’s used the drug for three days, if he continues for another four days, the bacteria will get used to the drug, and his condition will deteriorate rapidly. That’s why I convinced Auntie Mao to let me take some of Ning Wenhao’s necrotic lung alveoli. I hope that in these few days, I can help develop a drug suitable for him.”

Noticing Ning Zhennan and Ning Haoran’s silence, the woman at the side spoke up. “Then, may I ask Miss Nangong, can you guarantee that you’ll be able to develop a new type of medicine within these four days?”

Nangong Nuannuan frowned slightly. She criticized Ning Haoran’s judgment in choosing a woman like that as a wife—this was a woman who did not know how to conduct herself and was extremely tactless.

“Madam, no matter if it’s a doctor that practices traditional or western-style medicine; whether it’s a surgeon or a doctor who specializes in consultation; it’s impossible for them to promise the patient’s family anything. I can only say that I’ll try my best.”

The woman’s expression looked terrible when she heard the assertiveness that seeped out from Nuannuan’s words, but she put on a smile when she turned to Ning Zhennan and Ning Haoran.

“Dad, Big Brother, you heard her. Even though Miss Nangong developed YRHBO-3, she can’t guarantee that she’ll be able to develop a new drug within four days. But Hao’s body has already weakened to this extent. If he undergoes surgery, it’ll definitely be a big blow to his body.”.

Chapter 1670 No Buts

“Although Miss Nangong developed YRHBO, it’s not like she can tell if the drug is actually effective on Hao. The usefulness of the drug is determined through specialized machinery, so I won’t allow them to remove any alveoli samples from Hao's lungs!"

Seeing that Old Master Ning and Ning Haoran were about to agree to the procedure, Mrs. Ning stood up.

"Xiao Yushan, Hao is my son. What right do you have to forbid him to undergo surgery?"

Xiao Yushan smiled graciously and replied, "The right I have as Ning Haoyu's lawfully wedded wife and the Ning family's acknowledged daughter-in-law, of course. Mao Yating, Ning Wenhao isn't just your son, but also the eldest grandson of the Ning family. Now that Haoyu is no longer around, no one can go against your decisions. However, I hope you know that Father has the final say in the Ning family. As Ning Haoyu's lawfully wedded wife and Hao's mother, I have the right to decide Hao's matters."

Nangong Nuannuan understood the relationship between Xiao Yushan and Auntie Mao through their conversation.

It turned out that Ning Wenhao was the illegitimate son of Auntie Mao and the second son of the Ning family, Ning Haoyu. Ning Haoyu's legal wife was Xiao Yushan, who was now smiling like a matriarch.

Xiao Yushan was using her status as the matriarch of the household to pressure Auntie Mao. It was obvious that Old Master Ning and Ning Haoran greatly upheld traditional values. They were on Xiao Yushan's side and treated Auntie Mao badly.

Mrs. Ning was furious.

"Xiao Yushan, Hao is my son! No matter what his identity is, he's the son that I gave birth to after ten months of pregnancy. What right do you have to decide his fate for me? I've never thought about joining the Ning family, but you have no right to stop me from saving my son!"

"Don't tell me your son isn't my grandson too!" Old Master Ning barked angrily. He had the attitude of someone high and mighty.

"If it wasn't for me and the Ning family, Hao would've died a long time ago. And now you want to use your identity as Hao's mother to threaten me?"

"But..."

"No buts. Just like Yushan said, although Miss Nangong developed this drug, she can't see if this drug is effective on Hao. The doctor has already told us that the medicine is effective after monitoring his condition with some equipment, so you should listen to the doctor. Although Yushan isn't Hao's biological mother, she's doing this for his sake."

Old Master Ning then ordered the doctor, "Push Hao back to the intensive care unit. From now on, no one is allowed to visit him, not even his own mother."

"Yes."

Nuannuan had hung around Grandpa Chi and Grandpa Nangong too much—they were kind and amiable old men. This was the first time she had seen an old elderly like Old Master Ning being so overbearing, arrogant, and self-centered.

Seeing that the doctor and nurses were about to push Ning Wenhao back into the ward, Nangong Nuannuan went against the Ning family. She took two steps forward and blocked their way to the bed.

"Miss Nangong, what's the meaning of this?" Xiao Yushan asked unhappily.

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at the Ning family before turning over to Mrs. Ning, "Auntie Mao, this is a new era. Things like official marriages and matriarchs are all titles from the old era. Our society is about the rule of law now. You are Ning Wenhao's biological mother and his immediate family. To put it bluntly, if anything happens to Ning Wenhao, the only people who will inherit his fortune will be his biological parents, spouse, and children."