Chapter 171: The Serial Slap

“Okay, sure, that will be no problem, absolutely no problem!” Chairman Li quickly nodded in reply.

Although he was not able to attend the banquet during the weekend, he had managed to gain some basic information on Chi Yang from Ye Boyan. A man like this, who already held such a high position at only 26 years old, and could casually pay for a Venia haute couture gown worth 7.5 million dollars, was definitely not someone that the chairman of an aristocratic school like him could provoke.

“I’m leaving then, study well in school.”

The man was acting like the King of Hell a moment ago, but when he turned to face Zhong Nuannuan, he instantly turned into a warm winter sun. Although he only spoke a simple sentence, he managed to steal the hearts of all the girls in the classroom.

“Okay.” Zhong Nuannuan nodded.

He had previously advised her to pay no heed to the problems in school, and to retaliate if she really could not ignore them. After he had twisted her ear over the issue, he still came in person to check on her. As she looked at the serious expression on the man’s handsome face, Zhong Nuannuan felt a strong urge to rush in and kiss him.

“I’m Nuannuan’s father. Students, please take care of our Nuannuan.”

Zhong Kuijun together with Chi Yang. Although he did not have a part to play, as a father, he still had to show himself and put up a front before he left.

Most of the students nodded in succession. Apparently, this person was Zhong Nuannuan and Zhong Qianqian’s father. Earlier, Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan just said that ever since Zhong Nuannuan became a murderer, she was a disgrace to the Zhong Family, and that the Zhong Family did not want to see her now.

However, the genuine outcome was another slap in the face for the two of them.

Exactly which part of Father Zhong’s behavior made it seem as though he did not want to see Zhong Nuannuan?

Father Zhong obviously loved his daughter very much, right?

“Teacher Liu, please take good care of Nuannuan.”

Teacher Liu immediately expressed her determination. “Commander Zhong, please rest assured that I’ll definitely take good care of Nuannuan, and I won’t let today’s events happen again.”

Under the earnest escort of the principal and school directors, Chi Yang and Zhong Kuijun left.

Teacher Liu looked at Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan, then said with a sneer, “You’ve just heard the chairman’s words, if you’re still unsatisfied with the school, you can look for the principal, or simply apply to transfer schools. If there are no objections, please write a comprehensive self-reflection essay and read it aloud during the school assembly next Monday.”

Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan’s expressions were extremely ugly.

At that moment, they felt deeply regretful. If they knew that they would suffer such treatment in Jia Yong, they would have just gone to some other ordinary high school that offered high scholarships back then.

However, because they were unable to withstand their own desires, they came to the aristocratic school they dreamed of, seeking to become a part of the upper class.

Today’s events taught them that no matter how old-fashioned Zhong Nuannuan was, she was still the daughter of a famous aristocrat in Jiang District, and could not be compared to or shaken by poor students from a nothing background like them.

Today, they clearly did nothing wrong. The only thing that was wrong was their family background.

Even after so much punishment, the two of them did not feel a single shred of remorse. On the contrary, a strong feeling of resentment and unwillingness rose from the bottom of their hearts. The idea of hooking up with a good family to move forward in life, and trample all those who had ever bullied them under their feet rose up like never before.

“Nuannuan, quickly go to your seat, don’t worry about them.”

Originally, the students felt very disgruntled at Zhong Nuannuan for landing a third-row seat upon her arrival, but after witnessing the power of Zhong Nuannuan’s fiancé, many students started entertaining the idea of becoming friends with her.

Chapter 172: Gambling Contract

Gu Xiaoli, the student who was seated next to the vacant seat, was particularly enthusiastic about being Zhong Nuannuan’s deskmate.

“Zhong Nuannuan, I’ve already wiped down the table and chairs for you, come over and sit down.”

As she faced the enthusiasm of her classmates, Zhong Nuannuan raised her lips slightly.

This was the first time that the students had ever seen the icy goddess, Zhong Nuannuan’s, smile. At this moment, even the term ‘sublime’ was insufficient to describe this sudden blooming beauty.

She was really too beautiful!

Zhong Qianqian spread rumors all day long that Zhong Nuannuan had stolen her boyfriend behind her back, but in actuality, men would not blindly give up Zhong Nuannuan to fall in love with Zhong Qianqian.

What?

The students looked at Zhong Nuannuan with puzzled looks on their faces.

“Thank you, Teacher Liu and my fellow classmates, for your kindness. After all, the arrangement of our seats according to grades is in accordance to the rules of our school, and I don’t want to be a rule-breaker. Besides, my favorite seat is not in the third row, but Wu Wenqian’s seat in the first row. Therefore, when our school starts next semester, I hope that Wu Wenqian can wipe her table and seat clean before leaving.”

All the students were speechless.

Although Wu Wenqian’s academic performance had deteriorated significantly, she still sat firmly on the throne as the top-ranked student, and the only people who might surpass her were deputy class monitor, Guo Junhao, and Gu Xiaoli. As for Zhong Nuannuan, the gap was just too far!

Wu Wenqian suppressed the deep hatred in her heart. “Sure, I’m also looking forward to seeing how you can leap from the last place to the first place in class.”

Zhong Nuannuan’s lips curled up. “Then you should keep your eyes wide open and watch me.”

After saying that, Zhong Nuannuan ignored the two mad dogs, Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan, and went straight to the last seat in the last row.

“Zhong Nuannuan, why don’t we make a bet?”

Zhong Nuannuan stood still and turned to look at Wu Wenqian, whose eyes glowed with deep hatred. “What shall we bet on?”

“We’ll gamble with our dignity.”

Zhong Nuannuan raised her eyebrow. She felt that this bet was quite interesting.

“Apparently, you also feel that the things you did were shameless! Sure, go ahead, how should we gamble?”

Wu Wenqian nearly choked after hearing Zhong Nuannuan’s comeback, but she quickly suppressed her raging heart. “Regardless of whether we were wrong about your fiancé, as a student that is placed last in class, you certainly do not qualify to sit in the third row. We still weren’t wrong about this point earlier. However, you’ve colluded with your fiancé to step on Li Shanshan and my dignity.

“If you manage to get to the first place in class at the end of this semester, or surpass either Li Shanshan or myself, in the next semester, not only will I wipe my table clean to offer my seat to you, I’ll also kneel on the ground to give you three kowtows. I’ll also write a self-reflection essay and apologize to you at the morning assembly. However, if you lose, you’ll also have to kneel on the ground and give Li Shanshan and I three kowtows, and then write a self-reflection essay and apologize to us at the morning assembly. How about that?”

“Wu Wenqian, this is too much!” Teacher Liu quickly scolded. At first glance, Zhong Nuannuan was clearly at a disadvantage.

“Okay. However, I’m not interested in both of your kowtows at all. If I win, how about you and Li Shanshan take care of all the sanitary issues in our class next semester?”

“Sure!” Wu Wenqian agreed without thinking twice.

It was not impossible for someone to leap from the last place in the whole form to the first place in class. However, doing so in two months was borderline insanity.

“Let’s make a contract then! Otherwise, we wouldn’t be able to justify ourselves if you suddenly decide to break the deal and bring out your fiancé to bully us.”

Chapter 173: Young Master Has Arrived

“Sure.” Zhong Nuannuan readily agreed.

Very soon, Wu Wenqian drafted two contracts, and after Zhong Nuannuan checked them, both parties signed the contracts and held onto one copy each.

Even so, Li Shanshan secretly frowned at Wu Wenqian’s cockiness. She felt slightly peeved at Wu Wenqian for dragging her into the matter.

Her sixth sense had always been very strong, and she felt that Zhong Nuannuan was acting a bit strange...

Zhong Qianqian also returned to the classroom at this time.

When she stepped into the classroom, Zhong Qianqian felt the eyes of all her classmates transfixed on her. Although she did not apologize on the spot, her classmates were not fools, and they were looking at her with a hint of disgust.

Zhong Qianqian’s heart was filled with hatred, but there was nothing she could do to Zhong Nuannuan.

When she heard about the gambling contract between Zhong Nuannuan and Wu Wenqian, the churning anger in her heart slightly subsided. She already could not wait to see Zhong Nuannuan defeated.

After all this was done, Zhong Nuannuan could not be bothered to attend to these scums and turned to walk coolly toward the last seat in the last row.

“That...”

Teacher Liu wanted to say that that seat was occupied, but when she thought back to how the person had never attended school for a long time, she decided against it.

It was no big deal as she could just ask someone to drag another set of tables and chairs to the back row after the morning self-study session

When Zhong Qianqian saw Zhong Nuannuan go straight to the last seat, her lips could not help but raise into a vicious smile.

That person came to school yesterday, and she had overheard that person tell Guo Junhao yesterday that he would come during the morning self-study session. If he arrived and saw his own seat occupied, it would be fun.

“Okay, everyone should start their morning self-study, time is running out. All of you should cherish every day spent in school, study hard and take your exams seriously. This is despite the fact that some students are from well-off families, and can study abroad just for show despite having bad exam results, then come back to take over the family business. However, as our society develops, even if you become a CEO in the future, you should still have enough knowledge to support the kingdom under your command.

“This is because this is no longer an era where you can become a pillar of society by just possessing a primary school diploma and having the will to work hard. Knowledge doesn’t only determine the fate of every poor student; it also decides the fate of every noble one.”

The students were immersed in their revision as Teacher Liu kept walking around while nagging, instilling in students the notion that money could not make them powerful forever, which made the students scratch their ears continuously. Speeches like this were repeated in every class by every teacher.

Everyone was revising properly except for Zhong Qianqian, who kept looking out the door.

Finally, in her earnest anticipation, she spotted a slender figure appear at the entrance. His butler followed behind him as always.

“Teacher, my young master has come for class! My young master says that he will study properly during this time, so I hope that you can take good care of my young master.”

The butler walked behind the man and spoke enthusiastically to the teacher.

However, when Teacher Liu saw this young master, her expression turned fearful.

She only knew that this young master came from Emperor District, and had a very impressive family background. More than a year after he had transferred to Jia Yong, all the students who clashed with this young master had already gone bankrupt. The school’s chairman had specially informed the teachers not to interfere too much in this person’s business as well.

Not to mention, this young master had always been bad-tempered.

Chapter 174: Scram!

He requested the school to arrange for him to be in the last row alone, and did not allow anyone to sit at the same table with him, nor sit in his seat. This was because he had serious germaphobia.

Previously, a girl in class deliberately took the last place in class because she liked him, and then ran to sit next to him. As a result, the girl was instantly kicked away by this young master, and one of her ribs was broken.

After she was discharged from the hospital, the girl still did not give up and continued to pursue him after she returned to school. She even used her family connections to track him down and eavesdrop on his phone calls, hoping to get close to him by invading his privacy.

The girl's father was originally a commissioner in Jiang District, and her mother's family also had a very well-known family business in the area. However, after being discovered by this young master, the girl's father was exposed for accepting bribes, and her mother's family business also collapsed overnight.

That girl was extremely regretful and ran to the young master's house to kneel and beg for forgiveness, but she ended up getting beaten by the young master's staff. Eventually, this girl could only drop out and study at another school as she lived the life of a poor person from then on.

Since then, nobody dared to even touch a hair on this young master's head.

Teacher Liu did not dare to imagine what kind of fight would ensue between this young master and Zhong Nuannuan if he kicked her.

This young master's name was Leng Qirui, but the only thing people knew was that his mother was from a second-rate aristocratic family in Emperor District. Nobody had a clue about what industry his father's family was involved in.

After she saw Leng Qirui walk toward Zhong Nuannuan with a dark expression after he entered the classroom, Teacher Liu was so scared that her heart almost leapt into her throat. She did not stop Zhong Nuannuan when she had taken that seat earlier, so if the two of them tore each other to pieces over this issue, a small class teacher like her would be destroyed in the backlash!

Teacher Liu hastily chased after Leng Qirui while explaining, "Young Master Leng, I'm sorry, your classmate Zhong Nuannuan just came to school today and she doesn't know your rules. I'll ask someone to arrange another seat for Zhong Nuannuan immediately, so please don't be angry!"

She was about to stop Leng Qirui, but when the latter walked past Zhong Qianqian, her book fell off her desk, and she suddenly bent her head down.

Leng Qirui leaned sideways and continued to walk to the back of the class, but Teacher Liu was stopped by Zhong Qianqian's outstretched head.

As Leng Qirui walked toward herself with murderous intent, Zhong Nuannuan, after sensing death in the air, finally looked up.

Oh!

'Wasn't this the innocent little boy that I saved last night? It turns out that we're classmates!

'He was still blushing when I talked to him last night. Why is it that after just one night, this innocent little boy has turned into a devil?'

While Zhong Nuannuan was still dumbfounded, Leng Qirui approached her and landed his bag heavily onto her study desk with a loud bang. The impact of the force caused the new books from Year 1 to 3, that Zhong Nuannuan had only just received, to fall to the ground.

"Scram!"

As she looked at the books all over the floor, Zhong Nuannuan was shocked!

“This classmate... You’re currently sitting on our young master’s seat, please get up and pack your belongings. After that, wipe the table and chairs clean and give a 90-degree bow to our young master as an apology. After all, our young master is not an unreasonable person.”

The butler wore an orange British-style suit and orange glasses. His expression was extremely arrogant and filled with disdain for Zhong Nuannuan.

Chapter 175: Oh My Goodness, So Handsome!

Teacher Liu had arrived at Zhong Nuannuan’s side, but at this moment, she did not dare to say a word.

Most of the students looked at Zhong Nuannuan worriedly, except for a few people, who had a gloating expression on their faces.

Zhong Nuannuan looked at the arrogant and snobbish butler, and frowned slightly. She could not understand why Uncle Leng would hire such an unreliable butler for his own son.

“What are you looking at? Are you deaf? Didn’t you hear what I just said? Right now, immediately, at this moment, please scram, pack your belongings, wipe the tables and chairs clean and apologize to my young master.”

Zhong Nuannuan completely ignored the idiotic butler. She looked at Leng Qirui and said coldly, “Are you looking to cause trouble?”

Leng Qirui was shocked!

Why did this feel so familiar?

However, Zhong Nuannuan’s current voice was completely different from the one last night, so Leng Qirui was unable to determine what exactly was so familiar, even after thinking about it for a long time.

“Haha.” The butler was angered by Zhong Nuannuan’s attitude, and he sneered twice. “It looks like this new student prefers the stick rather than the carrot, so don’t blame me for doing this.”

After that, the butler reached out to grab Zhong Nuannuan’s hair.

“Mr Butler, no!”

As she saw the butler about to pull Zhong Nuannuan’s hair and yank her out of the seat, Teacher Liu quickly reached out and tried to stop him.

However, at the next moment, a slender hand had already grasped the butler’s hand, and then pulled gently.

“Ah——”

The butler uttered a cry that sounded like a pig being slaughtered.

The hand that he had extended earlier to grab Zhong Nuannuan’s hair had been dislocated at that moment.

His whole arm hung limply and strangely at the side of his body, and he was completely unable to exert any strength. All his arrogance had been swallowed by this sudden severe pain.

He yelled whilst quickly retreating backward as if Zhong Nuannuan was a venomous beast, and he looked at Zhong Nuannuan in horror.

Zhong Nuannuan ignored the butler and looked at Leng Qirui. "Be reasonable! I got the last place in school last semester, so according to the seating arrangement, this seat should be mine. Why should I leave as soon as you arrive? If you have such a temper, you can try to get the last place in class with your own ability, then I'll vacate you this seat immediately! If you can't get the last place, then don't let your dog bark in front of me!"

Leng Qirui and Teacher Liu were at a loss for words.

The students thought, '...Oh my goodness, she's so attractive!'

The butler, who was likened to a dog, was furious. Ever since he became the young master's butler, he could act like a tyrant even in Emperor District. When had he ever been bullied since he started this job?

"You... You have some guts! Since you treated me like this today, my young master won't forgive you!"

Zhong Nuannuan smirked. "Leng Qirui, please take good care of your dog in front of me in the future. For your sake, I've only broken one of your dog's legs today, but if he has another rabies episode tomorrow, I might beat him to death."

"Ha! ...Haha!!!" The butler was so angry that he could only laugh, wishing that he could stab this woman to death with a knife. However, in lieu of her fighting skills, he did not dare to get close to her.

"Go back for now."

After listening to Leng Qirui's command, the butler was reluctant, but he had no choice except to leave. After all, he still had to go to the hospital to pop his arm back into its socket.

As he walked to the corner of the door, the butler turned back and gave Zhong Nuannuan a venomous gaze.

After the butler left, to the amazement of the classmates, Leng Qirui walked to a corner, dragged out a set of unused tables and chairs from the side, and moved it next to Zhong Nuannuan.

Chapter 176: Mighty Sister Nuan

He took out a big bag of wet tissues, wiped down the table and chairs completely, and made sure that there was not even a speck of dust before sitting down.

Was that it?

As they glanced at the two people, who were separated by the aisle but still considered to be sitting together, the students could not help but shout in their hearts—

'Mighty Sister Nuan!'

It had to be considered that this was Young Master Leng, who was feared by everyone in school from the chairman to the students!

Zhong Nuannuan did not pay attention to the events that happened afterward.

In order to become stronger to help her Chi Yang and completely eliminate the person who was threatening to expose her identity, she had to constantly improve her mental fortitude.

Only after her mental strength had improved would she be able to launch mental attacks at her enemies better. At the same time, her X-ray vision would become stronger.

On that note, the best way to increase mental strength was to memorize books.

To learn everything by repetition.

In this way, she could memorize the most books in the shortest amount of time.

As her mental strength slowly built up, her memory would also improve accordingly as she memorized the books, thus ensuring that the two skills complemented each other.

This was her special ability.

She also depended on these two special abilities of supernatural mental strength and X-ray vision to become the world's most outstanding person at the age of 17.

She originally thought that she was already powerful enough, but after experiencing death in her previous life, she realized that what she had was far from enough.

Therefore, she could not slack off.

When she returned home in her previous life, she was initially very fond of Zhong Qianqian. Zhong Qianqian did not want her to get good grades, so she spoiled her by getting the last place in the whole form every semester. After all, she was already in a wealthy family, so there was no point even if she became the top-ranked student in the National College Entrance Examination.

Hence, she really did not know anything about the senior high syllabus.

Coincidentally, she had made a bet with Wu Wenqian, and in two months' time, she had to fully memorize all the content from Year 1 Senior to the upper semester of Year 1 Senior. In addition to this, she might have to supplement her knowledge from junior high too.

In truth, two months were more than enough for her. After all, in this life, she did not intend to enter the entertainment industry anymore and planned to enter the medical industry instead. Thus, she had to work hard in order to enter Shu Medical University in Emperor District.

Zhong Nuannuan completely ignored Leng Qirui's stark gaze on her and started focusing on her book very seriously. In just a few minutes, she finished memorizing the first 15 pages of Year 1 Senior history.

"Hey." Leng Qirui suddenly called out to Zhong Nuannuan.

The two students sitting in front thought that Leng Qirui was calling for them and they turned around quickly. "Young Master Leng, do you have any instructions for us?"

Leng Qirui glanced at both the students but did not acknowledge them. He called out at Zhong Nuannuan again. "Hey."

Zhong Nuannuan snapped out of her study session and looked at Leng Qirui. "I have a name."

"What's your name?"

"Zhong Nuannuan."

"Zhong Nuannuan, stand up for a moment."

Zhong Nuannuan glanced at Leng Qirui and thought to herself, 'He's crazy', then focused her attention onto the textbook again.

Leng Qirui was speechless.

"Ding..."

The 40-minute morning self-study session passed by quickly due to Zhong Nuannuan and Leng Qirui's appearance.

The moment the bell rang, Zhong Qianqian and Xue Miqi left the classroom.

Before long, Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan went out as well.

When she saw Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan, Zhong Qianqian was the first to speak. "Qianqian, Shanshan, you were wronged today because of me. I'm sorry."

After all, she was the one who had incited Xue Miqi, which was why Xue Miqi had allowed Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan to mock Zhong Nuannuan. However, nobody expected things to turn out like this.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 177: You're Too Naive

Wu Wenqian's eyes were filled with hatred. "Qianqian, you're not the one who caused harm to us, so why do you have to apologize? You don't just not owe us anything, you even helped us. If it wasn't for you, we'd have definitely been expelled by the school chairman by now. You even exposed yourself to threats by that cheating couple for our sake. Zhong Nuannuan is too detestable, if I don't dishonor her and ruin her reputation, then my name is not Wu Wenqian!"

"Well, she's still my sister after all. She snatched Chi Yang away from me, but..."

"Why are you still saying 'but'?" Xue Miqi's nose was almost crooked from anger. "Qianqian, you're too kind, and that's why that wretch, Zhong Nuannuan could harm you! Think about it, there was so much attention on you yesterday! Both Gu Mingzhe and Aiden liked you, and if Zhong Nuannuan wasn't around to disrupt the situation, you'd definitely be on the headline of all major newspapers today. You might have already become the top celebrity in Jiang District!"

Wu Wenqian and Li Shanshan also listened to Xue Miqi indignantly relay the events that happened at the banquet yesterday. They too shared a bitter hatred for a common enemy. "Exactly, you're just too simple-minded and kind. If Zhong Nuannuan wasn't guarding herself against you and your family, then why else would she have preferred to auction the jadeite worth 100 million instead of accepting it and giving it to her own family?"

"She's just a selfish wretch, she probably knows that she's unable to honor such a precious item, so she'd rather confiscate it than give it to her family. You have to know that the item belongs to Aiden, and that you were also Aiden's girlfriend. In the end, because of her, you didn't just lose Aiden, but also the chain of beads. Even if you're not compatible with Aide, and might have separated in the future, if you had this 100 million in cash, you would no longer have to worry about food and clothing for the rest of your life! This wretch, she just doesn't want to see you do well in life. What a scheming b*tch!"

Wu Wenqian got increasingly angry as she spoke, and her entire face became twisted. This was especially so after she recalled the embarrassment she had suffered today.

Xue Miqi smirked. "Don't worry, she who bites will soon be bitten back. Didn't you see that the wretch offended Leng Qirui and his butler earlier?"

Li Shanshan replied weakly, "I don't think Young Master Leng is angry though."

"Haha, that's because Young Master Leng was so angry that he didn't want to talk any longer, okay? She sat on Young Master Leng's seat and hit his confidante; do you think that Young Master Leng will forgive her? You saw how Young Master Leng treated Lao Yuqing in the past, he did not do much to her apart from giving her a kick? However, in the blink of an eye, he wiped out Lai Yuqing's entire family... Oh, no!"

Xue Miqi suddenly thought of a very serious matter. "Qianqian, Zhong Nuannuan is your biological sister, so will Young Master Leng vent his anger on the Zhong Family?"

Only

Zhong Qianqian sneered in her heart, this was the exact outcome that she wanted.

However, on the surface, Zhong Qianqian was very unhappy. "What if... I go in now and apologize to Young Master Leng on her behalf. Then Young Master Leng might forgive her and not lay a hand on the Zhong Family."

After saying that, Zhong Qianqian was about to stand up and leave, but she was stopped by Xue Miqi and Wu Wenqian.

"Qianqian, she already treated you like this, and you're still apologizing for her? Are you crazy?"

Xue Miqi's hate for Zhong Nuannuan seeped deep into her bones.

After all, if Zhong Nuannuan did not exist, Zhong Qianqian would be together with either Aiden or Gu Mingzhe, and she herself would have been introduced to Chi Yang.

Nevertheless, as things stood, not only did she fail to hook up with Chi Yang, her breasts, which she had spent so much money on, had a small dent in them after she had fallen onto that stone on the lawn. She had to spend tens of thousands of dollars to restore them, which caused her parents to rain curses on her.

Chapter 178: Is That Her?

“Qianqian, don’t worry about this. Let me handle it.”

“You? Miqi, what are you going to do? Don’t mess it up!”

“What am I going to do?” Xue Miqi sneered. “I want your family to know that she provoked Young Master Leng, and if your family doesn’t sever their relationship with her, they will suffer the same fate as Lai Yuqing’s family. As for Chi Yang, he can fight with Young Master Leng to death. Even if Young Master Leng is defeated, Chi Yang’s family definitely won’t tolerate him marrying a woman like this.”

Xue Miqi’s thoughts resonated deeply within Zhong Qianqian’s heart. Although she no longer had Aiden and Young Master Gu, since she had the ability to attract two such outstanding men, she still had a good chance if Chi Yang loses Zhong Nuannuan.

At this moment, she could not wait to see Zhong Nuannuan being chased out of the Zhong Family by her parents.

After reaching their desired conclusion, Zhong Qianqian, Xue Miqi and the others happily returned to class.

After the morning self-study session, Zhong Nuannuan still did not stand up, and Leng Qirui looked anxious as he sat next to her.

Previously, he had felt that Zhong Nuannuan seemed familiar. After observing her for a long time, he was finally reminded of where this sense of familiarity came from.

Leng Qirui was ecstatic and called Zhong Nuannuan several times, but she did not pay any heed to him. This made Leng Qirui’s heart feel as if it had been scratched by a cat, but he did not dare to tread on her toes. After all, if she was really that woman, then once she started to flip out, even ten of him would not be able to handle her.

The first lesson was Luntanese language class.

The class bell rang and Li Hongbing, the Luntanese language teacher, walked in. The moment he saw Leng Qirui, his eyes seemed to light up.

“First, I want to check the homework that was assigned yesterday. Li Shanshan, you recite the first paragraph.”

Li Shanshan stood up and began to recite the text. Wu Wenqian, who was sitting to the side, quietly exhaled. She had completely forgotten about their work.

Who knew——

Before Li Shanshan sat down, Li Hongbing spoke again, “Wu Wenqian, you recite the second paragraph.”

Wu Wenqian was speechless.

“Why? Can’t you recite it?”

“Teacher Li, I had a stomach ache last night...”

“Don’t give me so many excuses! You had a stomach ache last night, so what did you do during the weekend? Wu Wenqian, you only scored 130 marks in last month’s monthly exam—results like yours sit at the very bottom of the elite classes in top senior high schools! You’re different from the noble students in class. Their futures are already guaranteed, but what about you?”

Wu Wenqian lowered her head as she clenched her fists underneath the table.

She hated this school, and every teacher in it.

The only difference was that she did not pay tuition fees, right? Was it necessary for every teacher to scold the scholarship students in every lesson?

If they did not nag her repeatedly, then why would she neglect her studies and devote more energy to looking for men?

She had become like this now all because of those teachers!

“You used to be a model student for our class. Now, stand by the wall and continue being a negative example! Everyone must pay close attention in my class. Although the school does not allow any homework, you must memorize the study material that I assigned to you! Do you hear me?”

“We—hear—you!” The students’ responses were sluggish and sparse.

“Student Guo Junhao, would you like to try?” Li Hongbing’s attitude toward the noble students, especially those with a more solid background, was still quite pleasant.

Guo Junhao stood up and skillfully recited the contents of the second paragraph.

Li Hongbing immediately looked toward Wu Wenqian. “Your classmate, Guo Junhao, is a noble student, but he works even harder than you. Don’t you feel guilty?”

‘Guilty? In your dreams!’

Only

Wu Wenqian’s gaze dropped as her eyes filled with resentment and injustice.

After Li Hongbing scolded Wu Wenqian, he praised the other student, “I hope that all the students can study like Guo Junhao. Even outstanding firms need to be supported by a deep, underlying cultural heritage.”

Li Hongbing nagged incessantly in front of the class, boring the students to death.

“The next part consists of a few dialogues between men and women. I need a boy and a girl. Is anyone willing to try this out?”

Basically, as long as Li Hongbing spoke politely, it meant that the two people he wanted to invite next were noble students.

Everyone lowered their heads, unwilling to raise their hands. After all, most of the students did not complete their revision.

“I’ll try it.”

Chapter 179: Could Young Master Leng Be A.....

Upon hearing the voice, the students turned around and looked at the last row of people in disbelief.

Young Master Leng???

Did they hear that right?

Young Master Leng almost never spoke a word since the start of school until now!

“Welcome welcome! Leng Qirui, trying is always the first step toward victory. You haven’t been to class before this, but as long as you can read out the male’s dialogue accordingly, you would have already done your best.”

“Are you underestimating me?”

Seeing Li Hongbin’s cruel and unruly expression, Leng Qirui shot him daggers.

Even so, Li Hongbing did not take the other party’s bad temper to heart as his tone was full of incredulity. “Leng Qirui, could it be that you are still able to recite it from memory?”

Leng Qirui did not speak, but his proud figure tacitly agreed that he could indeed recite it.

“Who would like to partner up with Leng Qirui?”

Zhong Qianqin raised her hand weakly. “Teacher, I would like to try but I may not be able to recite it completely. Can I read it?”

If she could pair up with Young Master Leng, then she could make up for her loss of Aiden and Gu Mingzhe. Thus, when faced with this opportunity, Zhong Qianqian was not going to give up.

“You can.” Li Hongbing did not care who it was as long as someone partnered up with Young Master Leng.

Zhong Qianqian looked at Leng Qirui tenderly and asked in a sweet and slightly shy voice, “Young Master Leng, I know that your Luntanese is exceptional, so I would like to ask you to take care of me later.”

“Why should I take care of you? Who said I will partner up with you?”

Leng Qirui’s sharp words made Zhong Qianqian’s face turn pale for a while. She stood there, having been completely put on the spot as tears instantly filled her eyes.

Leng Qirui did not know that she was Zhong Nuannuan’s sister, and this was why he was venting his anger on her.

Even though Zhong Qianqian was angry, she quickly apologized.

“Young Master Leng, I’m sorry. I apologize to you on behalf of my sister. She grew up in a farming district and only returned home six months ago. She offended you because she didn’t learn proper etiquette. We’ll take care of the treatment of your butler’s arm. We just hope you, sir, will not be too bothered by Nuannuan!”

Zhong Nuannuan, who had been studying on her own, raised her head when she heard Zhong Qianqian's words.

What was her f*cking problem?

The two of them reciting was nothing to do with her! Who asked her to apologize on her behalf?

Leng Qirui looked at Zhong Qianqian in surprise, then he turned to look at the more attractive Zhong Nuannuan.

"You are her sister?"

Zhong Qianqian swallowed. "Y-yeah."

"Blood related?" Leng Qirui still could not believe it.

Zhong Qianqian hesitated for a moment, but eventually nodded.

Leng Qirui said nothing more, but his attitude had clearly improved from before.

Only

Zhong Qianqian was very happy and looked at Leng Qirui in anticipation!

"Teacher, can Zhong Nuannuan partner up with me?"

Leng Qirui's request stunned all the students. Zhong Qianqian also looked at him in absolute disbelief, her eyes brimming with twisted jealousy.

Why? Why Zhong Nuannuan again? Did Zhong Nuannuan not beat up his butler? Why would Leng Qirui rather partner up Zhong Nuannuan than her?

Xue Miqi who was on the side, quickly tugged Zhong Qianqian's sleeves and whispered at her to sit down, "Can't you see that Young Master Leng is preparing to abuse her? He obviously has something up his sleeve!"

Zhong Qianqian exhaled a breath. "Really?"

"She had just hit Young Master Leng's face and hurt his people. Do you think that Young Master Leng would fall in love with her after all that? Does Young Master Leng really look like a masochist?"

Chapter 180: The Little Princess Who Likes Pink

"Student Zhong Nuannuan, Leng Qirui has asked you to partner up with him to recite the following Luntanese dialogues. I know that you have not learned the content up to this point, but it does not matter. The most important thing about learning Luntanese is daring to speak it. You can skip any words that you don't know."

Zhong Nuannuan, "...?" Could they not just let her learn in peace?

She knew what Leng Qirui intended. She knew that once she stood up, he might be able to connect her with the person from last night...

Despite this, she really did not mind as it would not cause her any problems even if Leng Qirui did discover her identity.

It was just that this kid really was too persistent.

Under Leng Qirui's burning gaze, Zhong Nuannuan slowly stood up.

When she was seated, he had already felt a sense of familiarity because she had the same scent as the girl from yesterday.

As she stood up, the present silhouette completely matched that of the person from yesterday.

Although the girl from yesterday was wearing a biker's outfit and the one today was wearing a pink dress, Leng Qirui had inspected countless women and this point. Thus, with just a glance, he could tell that the graceful posture framed in this pink dress was exactly the same as the drop-dead gorgeous woman who saved him yesterday.

The key point was, they all liked pink!

If Zhong Nuannuan had known that even this could be the damning piece of evidence that Leng Qirui would use to connect them, she would definitely sneer.

The pink battery car and pink helmet last night were given to her by Selena while the childish pink color series in her wardrobe had been picked out by Jiang Shuwan.

The color she hated the most was pink!!!

After seeing Zhong Nuannuan's figure clearly, a moment of joy flashed across Leng Qirui's eyes.

He could now be sure that she was the same drop-dead gorgeous woman from last night!

Zhong Nuannuan had originally been looking at the history textbook during Luntanese class. However, after suddenly being called out by Leng Qirui, she glanced at the page that Leng Qirui had turned to. While holding open the book, he stood up and took advantage of that small window to carefully look through the dialogue between the man and woman.

"Student Zhong Nuannuan, you can just read accordingly. I will teach you any words that you do not know. Can we start now?"

"Is Teacher looking down on me?"

Li Hongbing was surprised but quickly laughed. "Of course, if you could recite it on your own, then it would be best."

What happened next would surpass Teacher Li's wildest dreams. A string of fluent Luntanese flowed from Zhong Nuannuan's mouth as the pure English accent had even the teacher of Luntanese, Li Hongbing, wide eyed. On his face was an expression of absolute awe, much less the students who were present.

Zhong Nuannuan's section was soon finished, and it was Leng Qirui's turn.

Only

As soon as Leng Qirui opened his mouth, his classmates exclaimed again.

Listening to the two people recite the contents of the textbook together was like listening to the script of a blockbuster movie.

Having said that, there was not much dialogue in the textbook, and the dialogue between the man and the woman added up to about three or four paragraphs and would end soon.

After they finished reciting the section, the whole class was strangely quiet. It was not until after Teacher Li took the lead to applaud that their classmates recovered from their shock. They promptly followed up with a warm round of applause. Clap! Clap! Clap!

This was simply wonderful.

Zhong Nuannuan and Leng Qirui's Luntanese was even more authentic than Teacher Li's!

"Young Master Leng is so impressive! I did say Young Master Leng had the ability to be someone with good grades, but he was simply being modest before this and deliberately failed every exam to grant us some face."
