

Physician Wife 1731

Chapter 1731: Huge Conspiracy

“My fiancée’s medicine has not been approved by the National Drug Administration, so she is not willing to break the law and save people with unapproved medicine. Saving a life is more important than building a seven-tiered pagoda—but between saving a life and breaking the law, her priority as a quasi-military wife is to abide by the law. As for that patient, his case will be handled by the military hospital. If the medicine in the military hospital can help save his life, then that would be the best-case scenario. If it cannot, then it can only be said that the patient was unlucky.

“So, please don’t make things unnecessarily difficult for my fiancée. Also, don’t say that the military hospital took your money and didn’t try to help. If you really believe that this military hospital is an institution of medicine that doesn’t care about human life, then please choose to take your sick loved ones to a different hospital. As for the patient’s family, they should be locked up and interrogated to find the real person behind this.”

Nuannuan was in the car. Looking at the handsome man standing on the sentry post, her eyes sparkled.

The director of the military hospital and her uncle did not even have the chance to go on stage and speak as the matter was quickly dismissed.

The spectators knew that though this situation seemed like a simple medical dispute, there was certainly a huge conspiracy behind it.

The online audience discussed among themselves. In the end, they concluded that a pharmaceutical company must have taken a liking to the drug that Miss Nangong had developed, but they were not willing to pay a large price for it, so they had used underhanded methods to try to get a hold of the drug. After obtaining it, they would try to register it and get it approved for themselves, making this new drug theirs.

Some bystanders who were avid fans of palace dramas even linked the drama to Commander Chi Yang and the eldest daughter of the Nangong family’s personal lives.

It was just a drug. They could not believe that a pharmaceutical company would be foolish enough to attempt to steal Miss Nangong’s drug for such a small profit. Anyone who dared to go against Miss Nangong by setting up such an elaborate plot was definitely not a good person. Perhaps they were jealous that Miss Nangong had such an outstanding fiancée, so they deliberately wanted to slander her.

In the end, an increasing number of rumors regarding the second possibility spread online.

Everyone felt that given Nangong Nuannuan’s good grades and ability to develop a drug at such a young age, as well as having Commander Chi Yang as a fiancée, she must have stolen a nice life from some rich young ladies from wealthy families, so they were slandering her now.

Was it wrong for Miss Nangong to save Ning Wenhao?

Miss Nangong was only a third-year high school student. Why should she be held responsible for saving someone she did not know?

Moreover, that patient and his family were clearly being used by someone. Regardless of whether he had the same illness as Ning Wenhao, he was definitely going to end up dying. When this person died, would they call Miss Nangong a murderer if she did not even have a license for medical practice?

Updates by vip novel. com

He was simply making a fool out of himself!

Just like that, the storm died down.

After the crowd dispersed and the patient's family members were arrested, Chi Yang got into Nuannuan's car.

Her uncle, Nangong Shu, also came with Chi Yang.

"Hello, Uncle!"

Nuannuan politely greeted Nangong Shu. After Nangong Shu responded with a smile, Nuannuan threw herself into Chi Yang's arms and hugged him tightly, completely ignoring the middle-aged man in the backseat. She kissed Chi Yang fiercely, saying, "Big Brother Chi Yang, you were really, really, really... really amazing just now!"

Chapter 1732: Admitting Her Mistake

Chi Yang had a gloomy face, but he still enjoyed Nuannuan's appreciation. When she tried to leave his embrace, he said, "I'm not going to let you go." He continued, "Little girl, didn't I tell you to go back to the Chi family residence and wait for me there? Why did you come here? If I wasn't able to control the situation today, were you going to stand up and face all those people with their bad intentions? Face those netizens who were being bribed online by yourself?"

Seeing Chi Yang's dark expression, Nuannuan realized her mistake of not listening to his instructions. She stuck out her tongue and chuckled, preparing to make up some excuse.

However, after realizing that he had asked for Nuannuan's help quite a few times over the past few days, Chi Yang realized that his girl was really amazing. She was so amazing that she did not need him to have a good life. He felt like he was just a decorative vase to her.

At this moment, even his wife did not believe that he was able to handle even simple tasks. This made Chi Yang feel extremely uncomfortable.

Chi Yang did not say anything. He drove back to the Nangong family residence with Nangong Shu in the car, and then he shared a meal with Nuannuan.

The atmosphere in the Nangong family house was very pleasant. The presence of the Nangong kids, Lil' Sun and Lil' Ling 'er, added a lot of joy.

Regardless of whether he was with family or friends, Chi Yang always kept a modest and gentlemanly attitude. He upheld his polite attitude, but Nuannuan knew that Big Brother Chi Yang was actually angry.

After eating, she played with the children for a while before returning to her and Chi Yang's bedroom.

Their bedroom was actually a suite. It contained a living room, bedroom, and study—with one bathroom in the living room and another in the bedroom.

Seeing that there was no one in the bedroom, Nuannuan hurriedly poured a glass of milk and brought it to the study.

In the study, Chi Yang was busy with company matters, dealing with one thorny problem after another online.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, drink the milk!”

Chi Yang grunted and did not even raise his head. He continued to hurriedly type on his keyboard and deal with company matters, occasionally recording voice messages.

Updates by vip novel. com

After Nuannuan put down her things, she saw that Big Brother Chi Yang was indeed more busy than usual. At any other time, no matter how busy he was, he would always pause his work to hug her and give her a kiss or some gentle words. He would only continue with his work once he had acknowledged her appropriately.

Who knew that she would only receive a ‘hmm’ this time?

“Big Brother Chi Yang, are you angry with me?”

Chi Yang’s hands, which had been furiously typing at his keyboard, paused. He looked at Nuannuan, and his entire heart melted at her soft, pitiful question.

He reached out and touched the hair of the girl standing in front of his desk. He softly said, “No, don’t overthink.”

He could be angry with anyone else, but never with her.

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. It was obvious that she was not fooled. She pouted slightly as she sincerely admitted her mistake, saying, “Big Brother Chi Yang, I haven’t told you this yet. When you took away my stuff that day, I had already made the medicine. However, the medicine was suitable for people in the early stages of the infection, not those in the later stages. I was afraid that the military hospital would not be able to hold off, so I thought that if they insisted on me treating the patients, then I would have them sign an agreement beforehand agreeing to not hold me responsible for medical deaths. That way, you would have had time to follow the clues and find the person behind this. I came prepared today.”

Chapter 1733: Two Kinds?

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan in surprise. “So you actually developed two kinds of the drug that day?”

“Yes, there is one kind that requires time to slowly eliminate the infection, but the kind that is injected into your blood doesn’t require time. It almost instantly cures the disease.”

Chi Yang looked at the bright Nuannuan. Her life was filled with confidence, fullness, and one could even say... omnipotence.

Even for such a difficult antidote, she could make two different versions in such a short time.

This shocked Chi Yang. At the same time, he also felt that there was a gap between him and his wife.

Nuannuan realized that brother Chi Yang had asked her a question, so she immediately said, "So when I said 'okay', I didn't mean to promise you that I would go back to the Chi family obediently. I wanted to say, 'Okay, since they dare to court death, then I shall anger them to death.' But before I could say anything, you praised me for being obedient and hung up. I called you, but your phone kept reminding me that you were busy, so I simply went to the base to get the medicine myself."

When Nuannuan saw that Chi Yang was not speaking, she acted even more coquettishly. She sat on his lap and reached out to wrap her arms around his neck. Her entire body was extremely intimately snuggled against his as she rubbed against his chest like a cat.

Then, she used her unique soft and sweet voice to say, "Big Brother Chi Yang, don't be angry with me. If I see you angry, I'll have nightmares tonight! I definitely won't be able to sleep well."

Hearing his little girl's soft voice, Chi Yang completely raised the white flag and hugged her in his arms. He gently kissed her first to let her know that he was really not angry with her. It was not until he kissed the little girl that her face turned red. Then, he moved his lips half an inch away from hers. " ". At this point, Nuannuan was so close to him that they were almost eye-to-eye. He gently said, "I'm really not angry with you. I'm angry with myself."

Nuannuan was stunned. "Why? Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you angry with yourself? I think you did a great job today! You did a great job! Even Uncle didn't have the chance to speak. You controlled the entire scene alone and pulled the situation back in just a few minutes. Especially when you not only found out about these people's bank records in such a short time, but even sent your subordinates to their hometown to find the stash of money they were keeping at home. Not only that, but you also thoroughly investigated the internet trolls and anonymous users. It shouldn't have been more than two hours from the time it happened to the time you solved it, but you've already thoroughly investigated everyone."

Looking at Nuannuan's especially admiring gaze, Chi Yang's gaze darkened.

After a moment of silence, he finally managed to open up about his somewhat despicable thoughts to Nuannuan, though not without some difficulty.

"You see, when you say this, your eyes are filled with admiration, admiration for me. But if you were asked to do the same thing today, you would also have been able to do everything I did. I've seen how efficient you and your friends can be. If you were to ask Dan Qi to perform a background check and find the bank accounts, you might not have praised him at all for his work."

Chapter 1734: Nuannuan's Words Are Irrefutable

"That's because you think such a trivial matter like that would be easy for him to investigate. So, Nuannuan, why are you happy and admiring when I'm the one to do it?"

Nuannuan was stunned.

“That’s because you never needed to rely on me from the very beginning. You never considered using my power to protect you. You may love me emotionally, but when facing difficulties, you only turn to yourself.

“Every time I go on a mission, you worry that something will happen to me. You even wanted to study medicine because you didn’t trust me to handle myself on missions alone. Every time I went on one, you’d rack your brain trying to think of ways to get to me because you didn’t believe I could return unharmed.”

Nuannuan, “...”

“Before I got together with you, I always believed that my martial prowess was unmatched in this world. I was a man standing at the top of the world. I believed that in the future, my woman, whomever she may be, would certainly be proud of me.

“Who knew that my woman would end up being a woman standing at the top of the world on the opposite side of the world? Your strength and power had shattered the confidence that I once had, in a way.

“What should I do, Nuannuan? In front of you, I don’t feel confident anymore. I want to give you more, I want you to rely on me—but you have always exceeded my expectations.”

Nuannuan blinked her eyes a few times, not speaking. She looked seriously at Big Brother Chi Yang’s conflicted expression—this was the first time she had seen him with this particular expression. Finally, she asked, “Are you done?”

“Yes. I don’t know if you will understand.”

Nuannuan reached out her hand, using her index finger to gently caress the tip of Chi Yang’s nose.

She treated his nose like a work of art that had been meticulously carved and polished by God. The edges and corners of it were clearly defined.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you seem to have forgotten something.”

Nuannuan’s voice was very sweet, slow, and gentle—like a melodious piece of music. Just like a tune from a piano, pearls seemed to fall from the sky as she spoke, gently bouncing off the floor with every syllable.

Chi Yang was attracted by the sound of her voice, but it brought up a situation in his mind that he did not want to recall at the moment.

“What?” he asked in a hoarse voice.

“If it weren’t for you, Wei Du’s missiles would have killed me. I may be strong, but no one can ever be strong enough to withstand a missile attack, right?”

Chi Yang, “...”

“That doesn’t count. If it weren’t for my ability unexpectedly upgrading, you wouldn’t even have been trapped in that hotel, and Wei Du wouldn’t have been able to do anything to you.”

“Why wouldn’t he? Wei Du was deranged. He was trying to kill me, at any cost. But because I was too impulsive, I didn’t have any intention of staying at the Phoenix Pavilion. Instead, I wanted to mess with him. I thought that at most, he would only use weapons from his helicopter. Who could have guessed that he would bring a fighter jet with missiles? Even if I had left the hotel sooner, he would have been able to obliterate me as long as he knew my approximate location.”

Nuannuan’s words were irrefutable.

If it had not been for Chi Yang, her stubborn character would have landed her in a fight with Wei Du.

If it had not been for Chi Yang’s power upgrade, she would have surely died.

Chapter 1735: A Man and A Woman Protect Each Other

“No matter how powerful I am, I would still have been no match for the missile that exploded just in front of me. Big Brother Chi Yang, you are different. Your martial prowess undoubtedly trumps mine. To be honest, ever since I got with you, I haven’t had to be afraid of anything—not even of the sky falling.”

Chi Yang, “...” Was this a joke? One could even reference the sky falling to coax a man to one’s side?

However, her words somehow got through to him.

Was he not a little too easily convinced?

“Big Brother Chi Yang, why must it always be the man protecting the woman in a relationship?”

Nuannuan tilted her head and looked at Chi Yang curiously. She asked, “Aren’t you happy when I protect you? Aren’t you touched? Aren’t you excited?”

Chi Yang, “...”

“I remember that time back in Mustapha. You were still so at ease even though your comrades were surrounded by so many of the opposition’s troops. Many of them were already injured. If you had continued to fight the same way, it would definitely have ended in death for all of you. The moment you realized that someone was helping you, and you raised your head to see that it was me, weren’t you excited? Weren’t you shocked and happy? Didn’t you feel a thrill?”

Even now, as Chi Yang recalled that moment, it still made him smile in disbelief. That scene had long been imprinted in his mind—he would remember it for the rest of his life.

Seeing that Chi Yang was not answering, Nuannuan stretched out her leg and lightly poked his calf twice. She asked in a delicate voice, “Did you?”

“Yes!”

Chi Yang was so caught up in the moment that he could not think straight. He answered instinctively.

“That’s right. Actually, when I protected you, when I became an angel and walked across rainbow clouds to save you, you were also very happy. If it makes you happy, why are you so bothered about who protected who? Since you’re happy, why does it matter?”

Chi Yang, “...”

“Also, it’s not that I don’t trust you. Your martial arts skills are better than mine and can rival Feng Shengxuan’s. You also have top-tier special combat soldiers in your Eagle Special Forces who are comparable to Selina, Aiden, and Dan Qi. Especially that Huang Zichu—I know that he’s a super hacker. Therefore, you can do everything that I can do. In fact, given that you have a combat team, you can do everything better than me! How come you always feel like I don’t believe in your capabilities?”

Updates by . com

“I just feel sorry for you. I want to be with you when things happen to help reduce the pressure you face. If I can help you, I’ll be very happy. This is why I always want to be able to help you.

“But... if the things I do make you unhappy, I could also become the kind of woman who follows your lead. You are the most important person in my life, Big Brother Chi Yang. If you’re happy, I’m happy.”

Almost as soon as Nuannuan finished speaking, Chi Yang kissed her again.

He was narrow-minded.

He always believed that women should be pampered and protected by men, and his woman even more so.

He could not see things from a different perspective.

He wanted to protect her, and she too wanted to protect him.

Her love for him was no less than his love for her.

Therefore, when something happened, as someone equally capable, the first thing he would think to do is to make sure she was safe.

Nuannuan had received a western-style education since she was young. To her more open mindset, there was no such idea that a man should always care for and protect his woman.

Chapter 1736: A Deep, Sincere Conversation With Their Bodies

She thought about it in a very straightforward manner. The two of them had gotten together because of love. They shared happiness because of love. Hence, they also shared their difficulties because of love.

It was not just one person who should protect the other, as both parties loved each other equally.

When Chi Yang let go after the kiss, Nuannuan had already melted. Her big watery eyes were filled with tears, making anyone who saw her want to swallow her whole.

“Nuannuan, let’s fight tomorrow.”

At first, Nuannuan was stunned. Then, she nodded. “Okay.”

After all, only Big Brother Chi Yang would know her strength, while also not holding back in showing her his own strength. In the future, when they encountered difficulties, they would have a better understanding of each other

Once Nuannuan agreed, Chi Yang, who had just suggested fighting her a moment ago, picked up his wife princess-style and carried her to the bedroom.

The Eagle Eye Group was holding an internal high-level conference call. Ning Wenhao and Xiao Shenbin, who had just recovered from serious illnesses, were listening to their boss' instructions.

Unexpectedly, after hearing their sister-in-law say, "Big Brother Chi Yang, you're angry with me," the conference call was muted.

There was no longer any sound coming from boss Chi Yang's side.

Was he going to unmute himself or not?

On the other side of the call, after waiting for more than half an hour, the few of them finally ended the meeting.

When Chi Yang brought Nuannuan into the bedroom, the two of them had a deep, sincere conversation with their bodies.

Tonight, Nuannuan did not try any new positions. She obediently laid in bed, enjoying the feeling Big Brother Chi Yang brought to her.

Led by Chi Yang, Nuannuan sailed in his small boat all the way up and down the sea. When she was empty, it was as if she could never reach the end of the world. It made Nuannuan almost go crazy, but when she was satisfied, it was as if their small boat was all that belonged to this world.

Nuannuan had only ever felt close to death a few times. Consumed with her love for him, she could only grab Chi Yang's back and let out a helpless whimper like one of a small prey.

This sound stimulated Chi Yang even more, making him want to take things a step further. He slowed down slightly, but when she pitifully let out another whimper, he suddenly went deeper.

In the end, both of them were left laying on the bed panting. As Chi Yang looked at the woman lying motionlessly on his chest, sweating profusely with hair sticking to her face, his eyes filled with happiness.

Early the next morning, before the other members of the Nangong family woke up, Nuannuan and Chi Yang were already in their sportswear running to the open space behind the mountain.

The two of them stood facing each other, both eager to fight.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you can't just let me win. I'm very powerful! If you purposely let me win, I might end up seriously injuring you."

"Don't worry, I'm not arrogant enough to assume that you're weaker than me."

Once, Chi Yang thought that he would have to go up against KE's King and Queen. These two people were the strongest enemies he had ever known.

Now, he was finally going up against Queen, but he did not expect it to happen like this.

"Nuannuan, don't be complacent. I too am very strong. If you don't try to avoid my attacks, I'm afraid I won't be able to hold back and might end up breaking your bones."

Nuannuan chuckled, “Big Brother Chi Yang, no one has ever been able to break my bones. Not even you.”

Chapter 1737: Nuannuan and Chi Yang’s Fight

“Is that so? Then let’s see if that changes today. Let’s see if I can crush you so hard that you beg for mercy.”

Nuannuan pouted. “Big Brother Chi Yang, you think too lowly of me!”

“Come, attack!”

“You first!” Nuannuan beckoned him with her finger, urging Chi Yang to attack.

He smiled faintly and suddenly rushed towards her extremely quickly.

He had already trained his speed to be the fastest it can possibly be. However, once Nuannuan activated her special ability, his speed could only be said to be barely satisfactory.

It was fast—but against Nuannuan, he was still far from fast enough.

Who knew that when Nuannuan’s attention was so focused on Chi Yang, she would not notice what was happening around them? Suddenly, six pebbles over 20 inches in size were hurled mercilessly at her.

The speed at which the pebbles were hurtling toward her was faster than the speed at which Chi Yang attacked her.

Now, she was surrounded on all 4 sides in an instant. Nuannuan did not have time to think, and she could only increase her speed. Her fists and Chi Yang’s rose at the same time. However, just when their fists were about to meet, she shrank back.

Chi Yang was still wondering if he should use 70% of his strength in this punch, but suddenly, the opponent who was right in front of him disappeared.

The pebbles he had thrown at Nuannuan had now reversed directions and were aimed directly at his face. Chi Yang readily dodged to the side, but just as he dodged, he felt a sudden danger coming up behind him.

The danger was silent, but it seemed to break through the sound barrier and come at him at the speed of light.

Chi Yang completely ignored the six pebbles that were thrown at him before. He turned around and threw another punch.

Like he would have with Feng Shengxuan, Chi Yang used eighty percent of his strength in this punch. Of course, he still did not use his full power.

The little woman’s fist was much smaller than his, but Chi Yang still had to use all his strength to counter her punch.

Nuannuan did not expect Big Brother Chi Yang’s reaction to be so quick. This time, he put all his strength into his punch.

Bang.

A wave of air was created as the two fists met.

The six pebbles that had been thrown at Chi Yang before were about to hit him from behind. They were enveloped in a cloud of invisible black gas. When they neared, they exploded in a 'bang' and rained down like a meteor shower. However, after exploding, the fragments fell towards Nuannuan like a rain of swords.

This happened just when their two fists met.

Chi Yang only felt a sharp pain in his fist, but his punch sent Nuannuan flying.

Just as he had said he would, Chi Yang really did not go easy on her.

As she was sent flying backward, countless fragments of rock fell toward her.

Although the pebbles had been fragmented, the fragments were still under the control of Chi Yang's superpower. It would have left a bloody hole if she had been hit by one of them, even if it did not penetrate deep into her body.

Originally, she had planned to fake being thrown backward to use it as an opportunity to launch another sneak attack on Chi Yang. However, that now seemed like it was not going to work.

Whoosh whoosh whoosh whoosh...

As if a magic trick was being performed, more than a dozen shards of rock flew into the air like sharp blades.

She believed that she had good control over the pebbles and would be able to see each of them flying toward her.

Chapter 1738: Nuannuan Admits Defeat

Therefore, when these shards were sent flying toward her, Nuannuan's strategy changed.

She flipped 720° towards the direction the shards were being thrown from and turned sideways, moving in a spiral.

The overwhelming amount of gravel fell toward Nuannuan, but her body turned into a bolt of lightning. As the shards burrowed into the ground, forming a hole, dirt spun out of it like a small whirlwind.

At this moment, Chi Yang just stood still, watching.

Looking at Big Brother Chi Yang's expressionless face, Nuannuan said with a smile, "Big Brother Chi Yang, you can cry out if your hand hurts!"

Chi Yang, "..."

After staring at the little woman for a long time, Chi Yang released his fist and shook his somewhat swollen hand.

"Forget it, you win. I can't beat you!" Nuannuan admitted defeat.

Once she admitted defeat, Nuannuan quickly ran to Chi Yang and took his hands. She examined his mildly swollen finger bones and blew on them. Then she said, "Big Brother Chi Yang, this... may be swollen for a while, but there are no fractures. It should recover in two days."

Chi Yang's eyes were filled with happiness. He could not help but rub her head and praise her, "You're really amazing!"

Nuannuan pursed her lips, "I may be amazing, but I'm still no match for you. You didn't use your full strength, just a moderate level of strength. When I saw that even though you had your back turned towards those pebbles, you were still able to crush them into rubble in an instant, I knew that I was definitely not up to your level.

"Your speed may not be as quick as mine, but your telekinesis ability is amazing. Just now, you only used six pebbles against me. If you had used more than ten pebbles and had not given me any room to maneuver, or if you had used six stones in one row and six in another, I would definitely have been stunned."

With the strength of those six pebbles, even if she could clearly identify the weak points of the stones to smash them with a punch, she would not be able to smash several at once.

Injuries were inevitable.

Updates by . com

Nuannuan knew how much strength would be needed to smash those stones into cinder all at once.

Big Brother Chi Yang could have easily crushed those rocks, even with his back faced toward them. However, that was not the force that he used when fighting her.

In other words, if Big Brother Chi Yang really had not gone easy on her as he said he would, she would definitely have ended up suffering severe injuries.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, you're so strong. You're much stronger than you were the last time I saw you fight Feng Shengxuan."

Chi Yang smiled. "You can tell?"

"Did you forget that I have X-ray vision? I can see the internal structure of all objects, so I can easily crush hard objects. But when you used your power to crush the six pebbles at the same time, you didn't even need to consider their internal structure. You just used your full strength, which in itself was many times stronger than the combined strength of those six pebbles. If you really used this force when punching me, I would have been sent flying a great distance."

Looking at the little stars in his wife's eyes, the hidden chauvinism in Chi Yang's heart was unprecedentedly satisfied.

There was nothing more exciting than being admired by such a powerful wife.

"You are also very strong. Stronger than I imagined," Chi Yang said sincerely. "I thought you would be hurt by my punch. After all, I used 80% of my strength."

Chapter 1739: Chi Yang's Injured Fist

"You also know that my strength is far above that of ordinary people. When training my soldiers, I only use 30% of my strength. When I encounter Ning Wenhao and the others, I will at most use 50% of my strength. But when facing you, I use 80% of my strength. I always thought that if I punched you like that, you would be injured—I didn't expect that not only would that punch fail to hurt you, but that you'd injure me instead."

Looking at his completely swollen fist, Chi Yang was still extremely shocked.

He knew that his wife was strong, but he did not expect her to be this strong.

Although they had said they would not give in to each other, they still tolerated each other's attacks. After all, for a fight of their level, if they were even slightly careless, it was very likely that the other party would be seriously injured or even die.

From the moment he attacked, Chi Yang realized that not only Nuannuan, but even he should not use his fancy tricks as that would make his attacks fatal.

Facing someone whom he loved so deeply... How could he hurt her?

Seeing Nuannuan's hands holding his fists as she continuously blew at his fingers, Chi Yang felt glad that he had not used his full strength. If he had, and his wife was the one who had ended up with a swollen hand, would his heart not ache much more?

However, throughout this battle, even though the two of them had only used one move and did not want to continue fighting, Nuannuan could still feel Chi Yang's strength, and Chi Yang could also feel hers.

After all, not everyone had superpowers—and not everyone with superpowers could move things through space. Therefore, with Nuannuan's skills, she really deserved to be the Queen of the world's top mercenaries.

"Let's go, Big Brother Chi Yang. I'll apply some medicine to your fist."

"Okay." Chi Yang and Nuannuan turned around and saw Nangong Shu and Nangong Jin, who were not far away. They seemed confused.

Since the father and son were also soldiers, after years of living in a military camp, they were used to waking up early every morning to exercise.

Today, the father and son had agreed to wake up a little earlier and exercise for an extra 15 minutes. However, as soon as they arrived at the spot behind the mountain, they had witnessed the soul-stirring fight between Chi Yang and Nuannuan.

This was especially true on Chi Yang's part. Previously, when he was fighting with Feng Shengxuan, he had not even used his special ability. However, when he was fighting his wife, he had actually had to use it.

Updates by . com

Only God knew how much they wanted to take out their guns and shoot that son of a b*tch when they saw Chi Yang use his special ability to surround Nuannuan with the pebbles!

This bastard had not only used six pebbles to hit Nuannuan, but when Nuannuan escaped and trapped him in the middle, he had used his special ability to crush them. Then, as his fists met Nuannuan's, he also attacked her with an overwhelming amount of rubble at the same time.

Fortunately, Nuannuan was very powerful. Not only did she escape, but she also managed to injure his hand. Only then did the Nangong father and son pair let out a sigh of relief.

When they saw that the two of them still looked as though they were in love after their fight, Nangong Shu and Nangong Jin felt the anger rise in their hearts! However, they simply held it in their chests and repressed it.

"Eldest Uncle, Eldest Brother!"

Nuannuan and Chi Yang had actually noticed the Nangong father and son long ago. Since they were a family, Nuannuan and Chi Yang did not feel that there was anything to hide. Therefore, they were not afraid to use their powers in their presence.

"Nuannuan, how are you? Are you hurt?"

Nangong Jin could not hold it in any longer. He rushed to Nuannuan and pulled her hand away from Chi Yang's fist.

Chapter 1740: The Nangong Family's Concern

Chi Yang was pushed aside by his brother-in-law. Nangong Jin looked at Nuannuan in a way that indicated he was concerned she was being bullied.

Nuannuan smiled with her big sparkly eyes. "I'm fine. It's Big Brother Chi Yang who's injured."

Upon hearing that Chi Yang was injured, Nangong Jin did not seem to care at all. He felt that Chi Yang deserved it. He completely forgot about the time he had used the only available helicopter to send him back and save his life back in Naboo.

On the other hand, Nangong Shu, who had been standing at the entrance of the military hospital with Chi Yang yesterday looking like they had a common enemy, now had a different expression on his face. He said in a strange tone, "Chi Yang, we all know that Nuannuan is powerful and has a special ability. But you're still a man, so you should still be gentle with women. If it wasn't for our Nuannuan being powerful today, wouldn't you have hurt our Nuannuan by not leaving her any room to escape? She is your wife, the one woman you need to love in your life. How can you treat her like an enemy, wishing that you could fight her to the death?"

Nangong Jin also looked at Chi Yang coldly, waiting for his explanation. If he could not explain himself, the entire Nangong family would probably not spare him.

Chi Yang, "..."

Nuannuan, "..."

“Eldest Uncle, Eldest Brother, you have misunderstood. Actually, Big Brother Chi Yang is...”

“Nuannuan, you are too sincere!” Nangong Shu interrupted Nuannuan.

At this point, Nangong Shu hated Zhong Kuijun the most. If Zhong Kuijun had been able to fulfill his duties as a father, treat Nuannuan well, and teach Nuannuan more, Nuannuan would not be so stupid now.

“Chi Yang’s 360° attack had no blind spots. It simply aims to crippling people. If it were me and your Big Brother today, he would have killed me! He didn’t care about the strength of his attacks. He didn’t consider you at all! Say, if you had been even just a little slower today, wouldn’t you have been seriously injured, hmm?”

Chi Yang, “...”

He had a terrible feeling.

Nuannuan was displeased when she heard her uncle and brother criticizing Big Brother Chi Yang.

“Big Brother Chi Yang did so because he was up against me. If he were fighting you guys, he would definitely reduce his strength to one-tenth of what he used just now. Eldest Uncle, Eldest Brother, perhaps when you guys saw me fighting with Big Brother Chi Yang, you felt that he was too harsh on me. You thought that he had a black heart and was not giving me any chances. But in my opinion, when Big Brother Chi Yang attacked, he was letting me off with every move.

“You guys saw it just now. Big Brother Chi Yang can move those pebbles effortlessly across the area. Look over there; there are still many pebbles on the ground—many of them are bigger than the ones he used. If Big Brother Chi Yang really was not showing mercy, he’d have definitely used more pebbles and larger pebbles to hurt me.”

Nangong Shu knew about Chi Yang’s special ability. However, at this moment, he snorted coldly and said, “Then he shouldn’t have used pebbles at all.”

Nuannuan was speechless.

Facing such a protective family member, Nuannuan felt her heart warm. However, she also felt helplessly frustrated.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, come. Give my uncle and brother a show.”

Chi Yang, “...”