Chapter 1771: Speeding Over

After receiving a call from Chi Yang, Nuannuan immediately drove to the Eagle Special Forces, too rushed to even eat.

She had not seen her Big Brother Chi yang since the last time she met him at the hospital.

She found every time he went on a mission and they were to be separated very difficult to endure.

At this moment, knowing that they were about to meet again, Nuannuan's car practically flew down the roads.

When Nuannuan pulled up to the entrance of the Eagle Special Forces, Chi Yang was already there to welcome her.

Nuannuan's car drove quickly. From afar, she could already see a man dressed in a jungle combat uniform. He was obviously worn out, but his figure was still tall and straight like a pine tree's. His temperament was still noble and elegant, and his aura was still powerful and cold. The moment he saw her car driving over, this man's ice mountain aura immediately melted. Nuannuan's lips could not help but curl into a beautiful smile. Her eyes curved up too as she leaned back in her car seat with a beautiful swing of her hair. The car had left a skid mark on the road from how fast—one hundred and ten miles an hour—she had driven up to the entrance of the Eagle Special Forces. Just as the car was about to collide with Chi Yang's body, it came to a stop.

Chi Yang looked at the car that had been speeding at 110mph and had come to a sudden stop less than half a foot away from him. His brows twitched slightly, and he could not help but rub his forehead helplessly.

This girl was quite the reckless driver. Did she know that he had already helped her deal with a few hundred points worth of violations?

However, in the next moment, he was completely distracted by the person who got out of the car.

"Big Brother Chi Yang!"

Nuannuan almost fell out of the car. Her pitiful voice was still shouting when she could not help but rush into Chi Yang's arms and jump onto him.

Chi Yang's eyes were smiling. He reached out and grabbed his little girl firmly.

Nuannuan had missed him too much. She forgot about the fact that she was at the entrance of the Eagle Special Forces and her man was the highest commander of the forces. She kissed Chi Yang full on his smiling mouth.

Chi Yang was stunned by her kiss. Then, he looked at his wife with a deeper gaze.

The guards standing at the door had watched as their chief walked out alone and stood at the door in wait. They had wondered if the chief was going out to pick up some big shots from the administrative department. However, if that was the case, why was the chief alone? Where were his adjutants?

Then, they had seen a car speeding toward their chief at a breakneck pace.

The guards had raised their guns and had been ready to shoot at the car. However, because the car was too fast, just as they were about to shoot, it stopped. Not only did it stop... an unbelievably beautiful girl came out of it and jumped into the arms of their chief.

The guards then realized that this was their chief's target!

Everyone in the Eagle Special Forces knew that the chief had a fiancée and that she was a little snow bunny.

As for why they knew that...

That was because one day, the special forces had suddenly been gifted a bunch of gold statues worth thousands. The news of the chief's little bunny had spread quickly across the Eagle Special Forces.

In that case...

This was the snow bunny?

She looked so beautiful and felt so cute!

The soldiers standing guard at the gate of the Eagle Special Forces were enjoying their duties today...

Chapter 1772: Sudden Realization

The soldiers who had seen Nuannuan before were not on guard that day, so all the men had raised their guns when they saw the speeding car. Then, when they saw the girl from the car pounce onto their chief, they quickly lowered them.

These well-trained soldiers were bursting with the desire to gossip at the moment, but they all looked straight ahead with a serious expression. However, they were all laughing inside.

No one would have thought that the usually stern and cold chief, who was sometimes called 'Grim Reaper', could be so helpless in the face of such a cute opponent.

It was no wonder that they were all single.

The chief was their idol. Because they worshipped him too much, they would subconsciously imitate his actions.

This led to many members of the Eagle Special Forces constantly putting on very serious expressions. Even when they were facing their friends and family, they all loved to put on a cool posture.

Although this indeed attracted the attention and screams of some young ladies... It could not get them a partner!

It seemed like they would have to change.

Chi Yang hugged his wife in his arms. He felt like the hole in his chest was being filled to the brim by this hug.

However...

“Didn’t you promise to eat properly after you left the hospital? Why are you still so light?”

Nuannuan looked herself up and down and pouted. “I ate properly. I just haven’t grown into it yet.”

She was always like this. Even if she ate a lot, she would not gain much weight. However, if she was a little ill or if she could not eat properly for some time, she would lose weight. This made her very depressed.

Chi Yang looked at her and could not help but gently wave his hand, which was on her hip. Nuannuan realized that Chi Yang had just gently spanked her. She instantly pouted, and she looked at him with a wronged expression. The next moment, because he could not bear to see her look so wronged, he kissed her pouted red lips again. The wronged expression on his girl’s face was immediately replaced by a smile. She smiled so much that her eyes were curved like the moon. It seemed to him as if the brightest stars in the entire universe were gathered in those curved eyes.

“Big Bother Chi Yang, your dark circles are heavier than before. Have you not been resting well?”

The last time at the hospital, she had seen that his eyes were a little dark. Nuannuan had wanted to touch them, but because her hands had been dirty, she could not.

Now that she was seeing the obvious shadow under Chi Yang’s eyes, she could not help but reach out. After touching them, she felt her heart ache, so she planted a kiss on the shadows.

Chi Yang smiled and said, “After your kiss, they will probably be happier and heal up faster.”

Nuannuan, “...”

Only after looking at the guards on duty, who looked like they wanted to laugh but did not dare to, did Nuannuan finally realize that they were outside Big Brother Chi Yang’s Special Forces training ground. She should still leave him with some face. She quickly slipped down his body.

Chi Yang looked at the girl who had come to a sudden realization. His eyes were filled with an inextinguishable smile.

After Nuannuan landed on the ground, she reached out and laced her five fingers with Big Brother Chi Yang’s own five. Just like that, the two of them looked like an ethereal, immortal couple. Their fingers were interlocked as they walked through the door.

The desperate guards at the door could not help but swallow their saliva at this sight. Each of them now had their own plans for their future love lives.

Chapter 1773: I’m Not Leaving

“Big Brother Chi Yang, are you leaving?” Nuannuan’s eyes were filled with a strong reluctance to be parted from her man.

“I’m not leaving.” Chi Yang gave Nuannuan the reassurance she needed and even squeezed the hand of hers he was holding.

“That’s great!” Once she heard that Big Brother Chi Yang would not be leaving, Nuannuan felt her world grow bright again in a way it had not lit up in a long time. She felt like it was springtime again in her life.

“Then why did you call me over in such a hurry?”

“Little girl, I’ll bring you to meet someone later. Help me see if he’ll be a good experimental subject.”

“Okay.”

“Sister-in-law!”

“Hello, Sister-in-law!”

Some officers of the Eagle Special Forces who had followed Chi Yang to Mustapha to maintain peace and order there by evacuating the Caminoans in the area came over.

When they saw Nangong Nuannuan, everyone greeted her politely.

“Hi, how are you guys?”

Big Brother Chi Yang’s brothers were all good people. They were cheerful boys, and Nuannuan liked them very much. Therefore, when she saw their familiar faces, she greeted them and prepared to walk toward them to speak to them.

However, some of them were so intimidated by her walking toward them that their hair stood on end as she got closer. Then, they heard someone from the training grounds yell, “Okay, come over immediately!”

One of the soldiers said to Nuannuan. “Sister-in-law, I know you and the chief are busy right now. The people on the training grounds are looking for us now.”

After he said that, he and his brothers did not hesitate to turn around and sprint away.

Nuannuan nodded, stunned. No one had called them just now. After all, her hearing was much better than these special combat soldiers’. She watched them run away, never looking back even once. Before she could even say, “Okay, see you later”, they had disappeared like smoke.

Nuannuan, “...”

“They’re so busy!” Nuannuan did not think too much of it, so she said that to Chi Yang.

“The Eagle Special Forces are pretty busy nowadays. There are a lot more training sessions being held.”

Chi Yang switched off his cold glare and looked at his wife with a warm and doting gaze.

Not long after they began to walk around the area, Nuannuan ran into a few familiar faces again.

This time, she saw them first and called out to them.

This group of soldiers, who had been chatting and laughing a moment ago, were stunned when they saw her. Then, they got so scared that they instantly arranged themselves into a defensive position.

“Hello, Sister-in-law!”

The few of them greeted her in unison.

"You guys..." Nuannuan was about to ask them if any of them had found a girlfriend yet, but before she could finish her sentence, someone suddenly shouted an affirmative in the direction of the training ground. After this, everyone said goodbye to Nuannuan, "Sister-in-law, we have to go over there to train. Goodbye, Sister-in-law!"

Watching them run away, Nuannuan now knew that something was up. It would be obvious to someone stupid, let alone someone like her.

She looked at Chi Yang with an aggrieved expression and asked, "Big Brother Chi Yang, weren't your brothers very warm to me before? Did I do something that made them unhappy? Why did they all run away when they saw me?"

Chi Yang's cold gaze retracted from the few figures now in the distance. When he met Nuannuan's eyes, his gaze was filled with indulgence and gentleness.

She rubbed her head...

Chapter 1774: Walking Through the Prison

"They're not running away from you. Don't overthink! You're their sister-in-law. Why would they not like you? It's just that I've been giving them too many missions recently. When they see me, they're afraid I'll dole out more. Don't look at them like they're upstanding citizens. They're just as playful and lazy as little wolf cubs."

"Is that so?"

"Yep."

Nuannuan thought about it and figured that Chi Yang was probably right. She did not drop by base often, so how could she have offended them? With that being the case, why would they be running away from her, rather than their chief? Thinking about this... Nuannuan could not help but criticize her husband. "Big Brother Chi Yang, can't you treat your subordinates better? They are already very outstanding, yet you always push them to their limits. No wonder they always give you nicknames like 'The God of Death' and 'Grim Reaper'."

The corner of Chi Yang's lips could not help but twitch.

Whose benefit was he doing that all for?

The tables had been turned on him. He had been afraid that his little wife would overthink, so he had tried to comfort her. Now, this heartless girl actually dared to criticize him.

"Yes, yes, yes. In the future, I will treat them better."

Although he thought that this stinky girl had no conscience, Chi Yang still spoiled this heartless little girl to the bone.

Nuannuan looked at the special forces soldiers who had run away as soon as they saw her. She glared at Chi Yang, feeling like Big Brother Chi Yang was simply a big bully.

After arriving at the Eagle Special Forces' own prison, Chi Yang brought Nuannuan to a door.

The prison walls here were welded securely with thick steel bars. Although Nangong Nuannuan had been locked up in such a place before, as long as her special ability had not been destroyed, she would still be able to get out. However, it was impossible for others to do so.

The prisoners who were kept here were all extremely evil and extremely harmful to society. Therefore, when they were finally caught, they no longer deserved human rights.

The prison and its prisoners could be looked over with just a glance. When the prisoners saw Chi Yang walking over, they began to hurl insults at him.

“Chi Yang, I advise you to let me go. Otherwise, if one day your family suffers some kind of revenge that you can’t handle, don’t blame me!”

Chi Yang was not bothered by this person’s threat at all. He even gave him a cold smile. His face was solemn and indifferent. He did not give a damn about the other party.

Nuannuan looked at the person who had threatened Chi Yang and reached out to hold Chi Yang’s arm. She raised her chin at the person inside the cell. Her eyes had an angry glint in them.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, who is this idiot? How dare he threaten you like this!”

Nuannuan asked in Y language, so Chi Yang would understand but the prisoner would not.

This woman was holding Chi Yang’s arm. From the degree of intimacy between the two, it could be determined that this woman and Chi Yang were indeed together.

Chi Yang did not hide it from Nuannuan. He said, “RU’s boss, Walker.”

Nuannuan was shocked. “I saw the news that Walker escaped.”

“He did.” Chi Yang looked at the resentful Walker and said, “But I knew he would try to escape, so I had people wait for him at the exit.”

Nuannuan was overjoyed when she heard that. She leaned into Chi Yang and said in admiration, “Big Brother Chi Yang is really amazing! No wonder he was so angry. It turns out he was just a rabbit you easily knocked unconscious!”

Walker was very angry to hear himself be called a bunny by this tiny girl.

He looked at Nangong Nuannuan with a gloomy expression. He looked like a poisonous snake ready to jump out of its cage at any time and gnash at someone’s throat.

Chapter 1775: Gouge Your Eyes Out

After all, he was the boss of the mafia in Yiman. Walker had used his appearance to intimidate countless enemies. Meanwhile, Nangong Nuannuan, who was a girl who had yet to experience the outside world to a great extent and was obviously the daughter of a wealthy family, could also scare people into crying with her fierce appearance.

Walker had already stared at Nangong Nuannuan for a long time. The girl opposite him did not have any intention of being scared to tears.

As Walker stared at her, Nangong Nuannuan also sized him up.

Big Brother Chi Yang was right. There were indeed bugs in Walker's head. Walker had been one of the test subjects. However, the bugs in his head were much bigger than the average test subject's.

Other than Scorpion's bugs, Walker's were the biggest that Nuannuan had ever seen.

What was interesting was that thanks to the bugs, not only had Walker's muscle strength increased, he could now use his murderous appearance to scare others. The bugs had definitely physically affected him.

When ordinary people saw his fierce appearance, they would definitely be scared out of their wits, right?

Nuannuan could see that when Walker stared at her, waves of power were rapidly surging out of his eyes. The cold light emitted from them was almost strong enough to physically hurt someone.

Unlike hypnotic attacks, this kind of attack was more insidious. If a person was scared enough, Walker's attack would be able to harm them mentally. It was very likely that Walker's eyes could trigger this person to start having nightmares or start fearing someone in their lives.

This was the first time Nuannuan was seeing someone go crazy from the bugs, so she was extremely curious and immediately wanted to dissect him.

Just as Walker felt like he was about to scare this little girl out of her wits, Nuannuan suddenly slapped his face through the iron bars.

"Idiot, what are you looking at? If you keep looking, I'll gouge out your eyeballs!"

Walker had been about to 'finish his attack' when he was suddenly slapped and scolded like he was a dummy.

Instantly, he was in a bad mood. He looked at Nuannuan in disbelief.

"How is it? Are the bugs controlling him?" Chi Yang asked.

"Yes." Nuannuan nodded.

"As expected!" Chi Yang frowned.

Walker was also frowning.

F*ck!

"How did you know that there were bugs in my head?"

Since the other party was so sure of it, Walker knew he could not play dumb. He looked at Nuannuan in surprise and asked.

However, who the hell did he think he was? When he was at KE, he had tried to talk to her more than once to seduce her, but she had not even bothered to say a word. Now, it was even more impossible.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, do you still need him?"

“No, I just want to know if he’s the mastermind.”

“Then leave him to me. I’ll help you ask.”

Chi Yang had called Nuannuan over here. Not only had he wanted her to help him check if there were any bugs in Walker’s brain, but he also wanted to know if he was the mastermind. However, if the bugs inside his brain were not removed, even if he was tortured to death, he would definitely not be able to tell the truth.

So now that Nuannuan was offering to help him, Chi Yang immediately nodded.

“This is an electronic lock. I’ll anesthetize him before opening it.”

“Okay.”

Chapter 1776: Walker Tries To Escape

Nuannuan agreed and waited for Chi Yang to begin operating the console.

Suddenly, two extended from the prison cell which held the prisoners. Hearing them, Walker quickly reacted. The moment they were extended, he promptly bolted in the opposite direction towards the other cell wall and tried to hide.

All of a sudden, two iron fists burst through the wall behind him—one hitting his waist and the other, his head. Just like that, he was sent flying towards the pincers.

The pincers held Walker tightly as he let out a string of expletives. However, as a mechanically operated syringe was pierced into his neck to administer the anesthetic drug, his cursing trailed off as he closed his eyes.

“He’s anesthetized now. I’ll help you transport him to the interrogation room. It’ll be easier to do your work there.”

“Okay.” Nuannuan nodded.

Chi Yang opened the cell door and walked in to pull Walker out.

Although Walker was a burly man, it was not a challenge for Chi Yang to move him as he was someone who could block two missiles with his bare hands.

Chi Yang merely grabbed him by the collar and pulled him out with ease like he was the weight of a plastic bag.

Nuannuan saw that Chi Yang was pulling Walker away, so she followed behind him.

Walker had been waiting for this moment.

He knew that even with his unique skills, he was still no match for Chi Yang. Therefore, if he wanted to escape this prison, his only hope would be to get a hold of this girl who seemed to be very important to Chi Yang.

Therefore, as Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang exited the prison block, Walker suddenly unleashed every last ounce of his strength and grabbed her.

Nangong Nuannuan was 5 feet and 7 inches tall, but she was also slender and soft. Thus, when she was next to this burly man who stood at 6 feet and 6 inches, she looked no different from a little chick.

Walker grabbed at the chick that he had been targeting.

Who would have guessed that this little chick would simply tilt her head as he made to grab at her as quickly as he could? Walker was giving it his all, but as Nuannuan tilted her head, it was clear that his all was not going to be nearly enough.

Walker's pupils suddenly constricted in focus. Just as Chi Yang was just about to react, he launched his second strike. His other hand went for Nangong Nuannuan's neck.

She was very disappointed in Walker's actions.

This old f*cker wanted to touch her?

Let her see you try!

She reacted swiftly. Just as Chi Yang was about to strike Walker, she had already firmly blocked his double-handed attack with just one hand. Then, she extended her leg to kick his face.

The enormous strength of her kick made Walker feel like he had lost all his five senses in an instant.

He did not even feel pain. All he heard was the sound of his skull cracking before he fainted.

At that moment, Chi Yang was just about to hit Walker's face when Nangong Nuannuan stopped him.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, don't hit him. If we hit him even once more, he will die."

Chi Yang coldly glanced at the man who had fainted. Without a word, he dragged the unconscious man to the interrogation room.

In the interrogation room, once Walker's limbs, waist, chest, and head had been locked into iron restraints, Nuannuan began her work.

Her silver needle was fast and accurate, piercing right through his skull!

Chapter 1777: Walker Recognizes Nuannuan

The needle penetrated deep into his skull, skilfully avoiding his central nervous system. It pierced right into the head of a bug.

Being stabbed by the silver needle, the bug could no longer move and was killed.

With the protection of the bugs, even if Walker was injured, he would not feel any pain. However, his power was now dying alongside this bug. Thus, he instantly felt an intense pain from the needle in his head and from the injury Chi Yang had given him just two days ago.

He woke up, screaming.

Before he even opened his eyes, he cursed. "Fuck!"

"You're awake?" Nangong Nuannuan asked Walker from above.

When he opened his eyes, he was staring straight into Nangong Nuannuan's clear ones. As he looked into them from below, he sensed the cold gaze behind them—striking dread in his heart.

She was an extremely beautiful woman.

He had never been lucky enough to see her true face before.

She had always been either wearing a mask that only exposed her eyes or had been completely in disguise. Walker was perceptive enough to be able to recognize people at just a glance.

Could it be?

How could it be?!

“W—who are you?”

There was a deep fear in his voice.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled indifferently. “Who do you think? Don't you recognize me?”

Walker's eyes were about to pop out of their sockets. Only when he stood up and walked towards her to see her in full light did he freeze.

Walker looked intently at the woman in front of him. His eyes were filled with disbelief and fear. He muttered, “How is this possible? How is this possible...”

“Nothing is impossible. It's just like how King is said to have been killed by me, but he's not dead yet, is he? Tell me, where is Viper? Where is King? Did that woman, Viper, plan out this entire incident?”

“Are you really Queen?” The man looked at Nangong Nuannuan in shock and disbelief.

“You dare send your people to the Emperor District to murder me, but you don't even know who I am? Let me tell you who I am, then. I am Nangong Nuannuan.”

Walker's pupils constricted when he heard the name ‘Nangong Nuannuan’.

Nangong Nuannuan, the daughter of the Nangong family, a first-rate noble family in Camino, was Queen? The woman whose name made mercenaries shake in their boots?

The person whom he had been fighting all this time was actually Queen?

At this moment, Walker felt deceived.

Deceived by a poisonous snake!

Looking at the shocked Walker, Nangong Nuannuan said, “I have already removed the bugs from your brain. If you have any information, you can say it now with ease. If you don't, you'll go from being the Viper's guinea pig to being mine.”

Walker was left in disbelief. “Impossible! The bugs in my brain will live and die with me. If I say something I shouldn't say, they will kill me—so why should I say it?”

“You don’t believe me? Even your Viper looked for me to develop an antidote when she couldn’t. You don’t think I can kill the bugs in your brain? Even if you don’t believe me, your body should be telling you the truth! Don’t you realize that every part of you is in pain right now?”

Seeing that Walker could only stare back at her with dead eyes, Nangong Nuannuan said, “Big Brother Chi Yang, he doesn’t believe me. Go and fetch some of the medicines I gave you before this. Once he tries my medicine, he will know that I’m telling the truth.”

Chapter 1778: Shameless

In actuality, the moment Walker saw Nangong Nuannuan’s eyes in the full light, he already knew that she was Queen, the woman who could make anyone tremble in fear.

When Walker saw Queen speak to Chi Yang in such a crisp tone, goosebumps erupted all over him, and his eyeballs were close to popping out of their sockets.

It was because watching Queen and Chi Yang conversing felt like watching a Tyrannosaurus rex drop a meaty meal to embroider flowers onto a white cloth with a quaint needle. The scene felt very strange.

“Okay.” Chi Yang abided by his wife’s orders and immediately stood up to retrieve the medicine.

The medicine was very powerful, so Chi Yang did not dare to use it recklessly. That was because when he had once needed to force a death row criminal to speak even though he was resisting hard, Chi Yang had decided to use this medicine. It had not ended well. He had dipped the tip of a needle into it and stabbed it into the criminal’s chest.

He had made sure to stab his chest in a spot far away from his heart. However, upon the dosing, the criminal seemed to go insane. He had roared hysterically before his eyes exploded and he bled to death.

Since that incident, even when Chi Yang was facing death row criminals, he no longer dared to use that medicine.

It seemed like only a small amount of medicine, but it was a lethal poison.

“Nuannuan, what kind of medicine is this? How is it so potent?”

Nuannuan looked at Big Brother Chi Yang, who was staring at the medicine fearfully, and responded with a smile. “This is something I especially developed to force a confession. These medicines must be administered precisely on the acupoints I intended them for to successfully cause extreme pain without killing the person or causing them to faint. If it is administered into any other part of the body, the person will surely die.”

Chi Yang said, “...How strong!”

Walker said, “...F*ck! That’s insane!

“Chi Yang, do you know who the woman in front of you is? You might know that Nangong Nuannuan is the eldest daughter of the first-rate noble Nangong family—but do you know her true identity?”

Walker widened his eyes and watched in horror as this terrifying woman inched closer to him, holding a needle dipped into the medicine.

Before the torture even began, Walker's whole body was already shaking like a leaf. He could not help but shout at Chi Yang.

"Of course I know who she is! She is my fiancée, the love of my life. What do you have to say?"

At this moment, Walker's face showed a seriousness that it had never before displayed. He responded in horror. "No, no! She's not! She's actually Queen from KE, the organization that your Eagle Special Forces is set on destroying! She is a heinous she-devil! Instead of capturing me, you should capture her. She definitely knows more than me."

"If I capture her, who will be my wife? Who will help me interrogate criminals? Walker, if you don't want to suffer any more pain, just tell me what you know."

Walker broke down upon hearing Chi Yang's words. He cried and shouted, "What do you mean, pain? How can you call it 'pain' when it's from Queen's hands? You're simply speaking from the sidelines! Chi Yang, I didn't expect you to be so despicable and shameless. Just to get information out of me, you invited this woman over! You actually colluded with her! Shameless!"

Chi Yang frowned.

He had always felt that he was quite honorable—this was the first time he had been called shameless by an enemy in tears.

Chi Yang glanced at his wife.

She was such a cute wife. Why were these people so afraid of her?

Chapter 1779: Why Are You Crying?

Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan had already dipped the needle into the liquid, Walker was so frightened he started crying. His lower body suddenly emitted a disgusting stench.

"Tell you what? I'll tell you anything you want! I'll tell you, alright? Don't touch me! You bunch of sadists! Don't touch me!"

Chi Yang, who had just been called a sadist, looked at his wife again.

This time, Nuannuan was not happy.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you always looking at me?"

After she said that, Chi Yang walked toward Walker and fiercely pressed a finger to his chest, making him scream in agony. In just an instant, the pain turned his face pale, and large beads of sweat appeared on his forehead.

"Try calling me a sadist again."

Walker, "..."

Chi Yang looked at Walker, whose eyes were now filled with tears. Walker turned to Nangong Nuannuan with an aggrieved, terrified expression on his face. He bit his lips hard, not daring to speak. At this moment, he looked like a wife who was about to be abused—and Nuannuan looked like the abuser.

Looking at the two of them staring at each other, Chi Yang wanted to laugh. He reached out and touched Walker's nose.

"Would you prefer trying this medicinal liquid, or coming clean about everything?" Nuannuan asked.

"I'll tell you what happened honestly! I'll follow your instructions!"

In the face of Nuannuan's power, Walker was as docile as a rabbit. He chose the second option and proceeded to obediently explain everything to her.

Nangong Nuannuan had actually interacted with this man a few times before, so she was familiar with who he was. She knew that he was a good-for-nothing man that only looked strong on the outside. As she scared him, she saw that he was terrified to the bone—so she showed some mercy and put the medicinal liquid aside.

Seeing that Walker was still sobbing so hard he was convulsing, Nangong Nuannuan slapped his arm—which was thicker than her thigh.

"Why are you crying? I'm not the one who asked you to do those things. What are you crying for?"

Walker answered with utmost indignity. "When KE was destroyed, I applied to join your force. I asked someone to find Selina, but Selina didn't like me. She said that I was holding you back by following you, so I had to leave. Eventually, not long after I left, Viper found me. She said she would give me bugs, so I would be very powerful and you wouldn't look down on me. That's why I followed her. Sob... Sob... Sob..."

Looking at this six-foot-six strong man crying like a baby in front of his wife—his little wife who had been abandoned by her old family—and feeling powerless, Chi Yang felt like Walker's entire worldview was about to be shattered by Nuannuan in the next moment.

Nangong Nuannuan was amused by his behavior.

"You're really useless. Even if you were useful, a fence-sitter like you who would betray your boss with just a little intimidation deserves to follow Viper. She used you as a lab rat, wrapping you around her little finger."

Walker had said those words just now in an effort to evoke Nangong Nuannuan's compassion. However, upon hearing her response, there was certainly no hope at all for him.

Queen was Queen. She would never change her decision just because of what someone said.

He had indeed broken the most golden rule mercenaries preached.

From the day he decided to follow Viper, it was already impossible for him to ever get close to Queen. Now that he had betrayed Viper, Queen definitely looked down on him even more.

"Tell me. What happened after I destroyed KE?"

Chapter 1780: Walker Confesses

“How did Viper find you? Who is she? Where is she located right now? What is she planning to use this antidote for?”

Walker had a bitter expression on his face. “Queen...”

“Call me Miss Nangong.”

“Yes, yes, Miss Nangong. I may be the boss of RU, but a boss like me is mere dust in comparison to a true boss like you or Viper. We are all dependent on you people. So, I do whatever she tells me to do.

“Regarding this incident, it doesn’t matter if you torture me to death. Whether or not you believe it, I really don’t know anything. After you destroyed KE and Selina and the others left... Viper found me less than a month later. The only thing I know is that KE wasn’t truly dead. One time, I overheard Viper’s subordinate, Scorpion, say that the person you killed was merely one of King’s assistants. You killed this assistant, and you severely hurt KE—even blowing up their entire island. However, you didn’t kill it all. King has never shown his true face to anyone, so we don’t know who he is. We only know that he didn’t die and that KE still exists.

“Viper was King’s subordinate. She has the same skills as you, and I hear that she’s a medical genius. She was interested in modifying people, so she was always conducting genetic experiments. Eventually, she succeeded with an experiment that aimed to change the human body’s genes and make people stronger by putting bugs in our brains.

“I didn’t want to be one of her test subjects. Even if it meant that I would have a stronger, more muscular body that could not feel pain, I didn’t want to be under her control. However, I had no choice—she had already found me. I had to either accept being experimented on or accept death. So, I could only accept the experiment, and accept that from then on, I would be under her control.

“She found me again a month ago. She said that she had run an experiment using a certain drug and that if she could acquire an antidote for it, it would be very useful to her. To avoid making herself a target, she asked me to get the antidote. She told me that the person who created the antidote was Chi Yang’s fiancée. Her name was Nangong Nuannuan, and she was the young miss of the Nangong family. I knew about Chi Yang and the Nangong family, so I used the least invasive methods I could to carry out my mission. Originally, I thought that regardless of whether it was Chi Yang or the Nangong family, they were both well-known figures that would definitely be afraid of rumors. So, at first, I used rumors to get to you. When I saw that these small rumors were not enough, I moved onto worse rumors that threatened the lives of innocent people. When even this wasn’t good enough, I tried to find an opportunity to kidnap the daughter of this wealthy family. However, Viper told me that not only did Nangong Nuannuan have very good martial arts skills, but she also had someone protecting her 24 hours a day. I could not think of any good way to use violence to outsmart that. Viper told me that I could do anything—anything but face you directly.

“However, as to who Viper is, where her base is, where KE’s base is, and what the effect of this drug is, I really don’t know. If I had known that you were Queen, I wouldn’t have dared to attack you regardless of what courage I may have had. Please, believe me. I’m not lying to you.”

Nangong Nuannuan believed what Walker was saying.

After all, if he had known who she was, he wouldn't have been so eager to attack and restrain her whilst Big Brother Chi Yang was dragging him out of his cell.
