Chapter 1781: Investigation of the Medic Association

It was obvious that this idiot had been used by Viper. Therefore, Viper would not care if he was caught or about anything that happened to him after.

“Then, let me ask you this. Many of the people you were giving orders to mentioned the Medic Association at the hospital. Why did you tell them to mention this?”

“They told us to mention the name of the most famous drug research center in the country. They said that as long as Nangong Nuannuan would be pressured into handing over the drug, any drug research center or base would do. So, I looked up the name of the most famous one in Camino on the Internet and found the Medic Association’s name. Following the instructions from Viper’s people, I told the people to mention them.”

Nangong Nuannuan could not get anything else out of Walker.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, based on my understanding of him, this idiot probably only knows that much.”

Chi Yang frowned and nodded.

“How are you going to deal with him?” Nuannuan asked.

“What do you think?”

“Why don’t you just kill him? After all, he’s useless.”

Hearing that Queen wanted to kill him, Walker shouted in fear, “Don’t kill me! Lock me up or find a drug to control me. I’m still useful! I know KE’s communication signals. Although I can’t tell you exactly what this signal is right now, if I see it, I’ll know it’s them. Then, you can use that signal to locate their base.”

Nuannuan was very easygoing. She nodded. “Okay then. I’ll administer you a drug, and you’ll be responsible for watching out for that signal from now on.”

Seeing that Queen no longer intended to kill him, Walker was relieved. After surviving this entire ordeal, all he could do in response was nod repeatedly. “Don’t worry. I’ll definitely make up for it by helping you locate their base.”

After exiting the interrogation room, Nuannuan could not help but ask, “Big Brother Chi Yang, I asked you to investigate before this. Have you done it yet?”

Chi Yang nodded. “According to the people who were investigating the patients’ families at the time, the Medic Association was their main target. To limit any more trouble, I personally brought people there almost immediately. However, Shi Yalin is no longer in the Medic Association. I thought about what you told me about not alerting the enemy, so I didn’t specifically look for her whereabouts at the time. I only asked Shi Maicheng to cooperate with our investigation. My people took half a month to rally the medical researchers from the Medical University, but they didn’t find anything.”

Chi Yang sat down in front of the computer and reached out to pull Nuannuan into his arms. He let her sit on his lap and showed her the things he had found at the Medic Association during his investigation.

“These drugs are currently being studied there. We compared samples of the virus with the ingredients of this drug and found no relation between it and any research projects or chemical stocks of the association. Although they have separated from the Medical University thanks to the Shi family’s selfishness, and the Medic Association now had a certain reputation, it still looked just like a medical research center with a military background. Without any hard evidence to prove that this incident was related to the Medic Association, our investigation had to be terminated.”

Nuannuan looked carefully at the research projects being conducted by the Medic Association that Big Brother Chi Yang had investigated. Then, she analyzed the possibility of producing the virus from the variety of the drugs and chemical stocks they had in their possession.

Chapter 1782: Well Done

Nuannuan memorized the dozens of pages full of chemical agents and various types of drugs, then pieced them together in her mind. After ten minutes of thinking, she confirmed that these drugs could not have been used to create the virus.

Since the Medic Association had dared to be so open with their use of these drugs, it was clear that they were not afraid of being investigated.

Nuannuan praised them. “Well done!”

She turned around and looked at Big Brother Chi Yang, only to see that he had been frowning since the very beginning. He was deep in thought. Nuannuan could not help but ask, “Big Brother Chi Yang, what are you thinking about? Tell me.”

Initially, it would have been inconvenient to tell Nangong Nuannuan about what he was thinking. However, given that she too was involved in the situation now, Chi Yang decided to voice out the doubts he had.

“Viper is already dead.”

Nuannuan was startled. “What?”

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan and said very seriously, “That poisonous snake is already dead. She was beaten to death by King.”

“What?”

Despite how shrewd Nangong Nuannuan usually was, at this moment, she was utterly dumbfounded by Big Brother Chi Yang’s words.

“What’s happened? How long has it been? Why did King kill Viper? If Viper is really dead, then who has been causing all this trouble this whole time?”

Chi Yang’s brows were still furrowed. “If I could answer your question, I wouldn’t be frowning right now. It’s been said that King killed Viper because she acted on her own accord without proper authorization, ruining King’s plans. King is someone with a strong desire for control, and Viper dared to go behind his back to cause trouble. So, he killed her without hesitation.”

“Where did you hear this rumor?”

Chi Yang looked at the little lady in front of him, speechless. He could not help but reach out to touch her perky little nose and respond, "What rumor? Do you think I would bring this up if it was just a rumor?"

"So it's true?" Nuannuan's face was full of shock, which slowly morphed into a threatening smile. Her eyes narrowed slightly, and she said to Chi Yang, "Big Brother Chi Yang, I didn't know you were so powerful. Even KE doesn't have someone like you. This person must still be by King's side as his trusted aide. So... you actually knew me from the very beginning? You actually knew me, but you still pretended not to? You were very worried about me and spoiled me like a little rabbit. In fact, you, a big bad wolf, decided to raise me as a rabbit among wolves so you could manipulate me, didn't you?"

The corner of Chi Yang's mouth twitched at her words. He could not help but poke at her open mind with his finger. "What rabbit among wolves? Don't you think you're better than that?"

Nuannuan snorted at Chi Yang and then began to make a scene in his arms.

"Ah, I don't care! I don't care. You actually knew my identity from the very beginning. You even lied to me when I asked you back then! Big Brother Chi Yang, you're a horrible person! I'll never trust you again! My brother and the others said that you're a bully. I defended you, but it turns out they were right! You're the biggest bully I've ever known!"

Although Big Brother Chi Yang did know her background, there was a big difference between knowing it a long time ago and knowing it from the beginning.

He looked helplessly at the little girl who was throwing a tantrum in his arms. She was obviously the one who had been keeping secrets from him from the very start, but now, she was the one calling him a big bully.

Chapter 1783: Chi Yang Knew

Chi Yang sighed. He explained very honestly, "A man is indeed by King's side. However, in actuality, he is not my man—he's my grandfather's. His name is Ying, and he was planted by my grandfather when my father was fighting against KE. This man does not belong to the Eagle Special Forces, and he only listens to my grandfather. Usually, he only reports things regarding KE to my grandfather. Although he's one of my grandfather's men, my grandfather would never summon him lightly. Two months ago, my grandfather received a report from him saying that Viper had died. He only sent the news more than a month after her death. Doing the maths, Viper has been dead for more than three months now. As for you... Ying never reported anything about you to my grandfather, so when I first met you, I had no idea that my wife was actually the famous Queen."

"Could he have been wrong in his report? Could King be suspicious of him?"

"No."

"You're sure?" Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang with bright eyes, unable to hide her curiosity.

Chi Yang knew that she wanted to know who this person was. He flicked her forehead and said, "No need to make random guesses. You won't be able to figure out who this man is. For the sake of his safety, I can't tell you."

“So... you actually know who King is! You know where he is, too! Maybe you even know where his base is, but you haven’t gone to kill him yet!”

Chi Yang shook his head. “I don’t know where his base is, or else I would have destroyed it long ago. Why would I have let him keep up this arrogant behavior until now?”

“You want to destroy King’s base, and you want to kill Viper—but you don’t want to kill King. Why?”

Chi Yang rubbed Nuannuan’s head. “Some things are confidential. Forgive me for not being able to tell you. I can only say that King is just a puppet, and whom we Eagles want to eliminate was never the King himself, but the people behind him.”

Nuannuan, “...”

This was the first time she was hearing of King just being a puppet.

Then, what had she been doing when she was previously in KE?

“So, you’re saying that Viper was actually being controlled by the person behind King? And there are many things that Viper did that King doesn’t know about, and the person behind her and King is the real person controlling KE?”

“You could say that.” Chi Yang nodded.

Nuannuan, “...”

At this moment, she felt very unsettled.

She felt like being Queen was a stain upon her name.

“That’s why when you asked me to focus on investigating the Shi family and Shi Yalin, I already had an inkling that they couldn’t be Viper. I already knew that the real Viper was dead.

“I investigated the Shi family because their ambitions have always been grandiose. It’s not unreasonable to think that they would resort to such despicable methods to develop a drug. After all, developing the drug is Shi Gen’s and Shi Maowen’s dream. You always said that you felt there was something off about Shi Yalin, but I disagree. The Shi family also lived in the courtyard, but because they did not have a good relationship with the Nangong family and they often did questionable things, they moved. I watched Shi Yalin grow up. She is just a weak young miss. I know very well what she is capable of. You’ve met her before too. She is clearly too incompetent to carry out such a plan.”

Chi Yang’s words reminded Nangong Nuannuan of another matter.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, when did you say Viper died?”

Chapter 1784: Around the Sprint Festival

“Three and a half months ago.”

“That’s around the time of the Spring Festival, right?”

Chi Yang nodded.

“Do you know her exact time of death?”

“I don’t, but it should have been before the first day of the New Year.”

Seeing that his wife had stopped talking, Chi Yang glanced at her with a smile. He could not help but ask, “Is your little head still trying to figure out who the person beside King is?”

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang and smiled back. “You won’t tell me anything, so you must want to keep it a secret. Even if I guessed, you wouldn’t tell me if I was right or wrong for the sake of that person’s safety.”

“Are you angry?”

“How could I be?” Nuannuan smiled. “Not only am I not angry with you, but I think Big Brother Chi Yang is an honorable person who I can entrust my entire life with.”

Chi Yang raised his eyebrows.

“Therefore, that shadow of a person can trust you with his life and not have to worry. He is willing to lay low for you because he knows you are trustworthy.”

Chi Yang’s eyes deepened, and he reached out to caress his understanding wife’s soft hair.

“But...”

“But what?”

“But I think I know who the person behind King is!”

Nuannuan’s voice was very soft, but her words were striking.

“What?” Chi Yang was shocked by her words.

She retrieved her phone and seemed to search for something on it. She pulled up a picture that she had protected and showed it to Chi Yang.

It was a profile picture that was not very clear.

“Based on their side profile, this is the frontal view Dan Qi constructed. We didn’t find any information about this person within the country, so we suspected that he was probably foreign. I asked Dan Qi to search for information regarding his entry into the country, and I learned that he was a citizen of Sab. There was information about him getting on international flights, but it seems to have been faked. Upon entering Sab, he disappeared like a dragon diving into water. No matter how hard Dan Qi searched, he could not find anything—he was only one man, after all. This person would definitely be able to enter Camino undetected. He would probably change his identity and alter his appearance, too. However, bone structure cannot be changed. This gives us a little bit of an advantage. Therefore, Big Brother Chi Yang...”

“Leave it to me.” Without uttering another word, Chi Yang turned on his computer and pulled up the photo that Nuannuan had shown him.

“Now, can you tell me why you think he’s the person behind King? Also, why do you suspect Shi Yalin?”

Nuannuan had nothing to hide, nor did she have any reason to not tell the truth. She had sent her men after Shi Yalin. After killing Shi Yalin's men, Nuannuan's men also killed five members of the Shi family. Then, she put Shi Yalin into a vegetative state, but she happened to be saved by a mysterious person. After little more than an hour, Shi Yalin woke up. However, upon waking, she was no longer the same Shi Yalin that Chi Yang knew.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, if what you say about Viper dying three and a half months ago is true, then this man must be the person behind King, the man who is actually controlling KE. He must have used a secret method to allow Viper to take hold of Shi Yalin's body. Thus, even though Shi Yalin appears the same on the outside, her core has changed. This would explain why her eyes seemed so unfamiliar when she woke up."

Chapter 1785: Help Me

"Secondly, it would explain how Walker was still able to receive orders from Viper even though she was supposedly already dead. Thirdly, it would also explain why Shi Yalin, who did not attend university and has no previous experience in medicine, went straight to the Medic Association Hospital upon waking up. Finally, it would explain why they instructed Walker to casually mention some famous drug research bases in Camino—because the biggest one is the Medic Association. There is no research base more powerful than them. So, if Viper is dead and her soul is in Shi Yalin's body, then the man who took Shi Yalin away must be the person behind King who is really controlling KE."

While explaining her reasoning to Chi Yang with utmost conviction, Nuannuan kept replaying the scene of her putting Shi Yalin in a vegetative state and how Shi Yalin had been saved from the accident.

Chi Yang was stunned by Nuannuan's reasoning. He maintained an unchanging stern face.

His wife's imagination was wild. It was so wild that he felt like he would never be able to match it in his lifetime.

However, he had to admit that many of the things he had struggled to make sense of over the past few months were well explained by Nuannuan's reasoning.

More importantly, the things that seemed impossible before now suddenly seemed plausible when ran alongside her bizarre reasoning.

Noticing Chi Yang standing there in a daze, looking at her with a shocked expression, Nuannuan pouted her lips. "Big Brother Chi Yang, do you not believe what I said? Do you think that it's impossible? But don't you see that I make sense? I don't have the manpower to determine the man's identity, nor do I have the equipment. My things are on a ship sailing in international waters. If I ask Dan Qi to go retrieve them, I'm afraid that he won't be able to return quickly enough to help if I run into any problems. So, please help me, okay?"

To convince Big Brother Chi Yang to help her find the whereabouts of that man, Nuannuan went all out. She rubbed Chi Yang's leg and behaved coquettishly. However, after just two rubs, she accidentally rubbed against the apex of Big Brother Chi pants. She froze. Only then did she obediently stop what she was doing. She blinked pityingly and looked at him with a cute and obedient gaze.

Chi Yang's gaze had already become very deep when Nuannuan started rubbing against him.

After all, he had not done anything for more than a month.

This kind of torment would be nothing to him if it had been done by any other woman. However, ever since Nuannuan poisoned him, Chi Yang felt like a teenager in puppy love. He often could not control himself, wanting to have her again and again.

He knew that she was still young, not even 18 years old yet. It was best not to indulge in such things too frequently. However, every time he endured it, he felt the emotions in his body slowly build up, getting ready to explode.

Therefore, even under normal circumstances, he would want her almost every night. What they usually did was a compromise for both of them.

He had been out on a mission for more than a month. During this time, he had been tormented by his longing for her.

Thus, the moment she sat on his lap, he was already restraining himself with great difficulty. After all, they were discussing important matters at the special forces base.

Nuannuan licked her lips. Seeing that Big Brother Chi Yang's gaze was filled with longing as he looked at her, she jumped right off his lap out of instinct. After all, this was still base.

Even if it was already time for dinner, they were still in the room right next to the interrogation room. It was not good to be here.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, since there's nothing else, why don't we head back?"

However, Chi Yang continued to look at her with a very deep gaze.

Nuannuan almost did not dare to look Big Brother Chi Yang in the eyes. She felt that the whirlpool in his gaze would suck her in if she dared look.

Nuannuan turned around, about to leave. However, in an instant, Chi Yang wrapped his arms around her waist. With just a light pull, Nuannuan, who had already lost a lot of weight, was gently forced back.

"Chi... Uh... Big Brother Yang... uh..."

Although it was now spring, the days were cold. Nuannuan was wearing two layers of clothing—a shirt on the inside, paired with a relatively fashionable windproof jacket on the outside.

Her shirt was half-tucked into her pants, but at this moment, it was swiftly untucked.

More than a month's yearning turned into a storm of love, raining on every inch of the girl's skin.

Every inch of her skin made him feel crazily infatuated.

Chi Yang, who had abstained for more than a month, was only satisfied once Nuannuan was reduced to gasping like a fish out of water.

Today was Nuannuan and Chi Yang's first time truly feeling tired. afterward

It was the kind of tiredness that made him not even want to lift his arms or move his feet.

Chapter 1786: Whirlpool of Repressed Emotions

Chi Yang was already on the verge of breaking down, and this little woman was rubbing her perky and bouncy self against him.

The flames that had died down for a while in his heart after he had been holding them back seemed immediately reignited like a pile of firewood had been thrown upon it. With a boom, it began to burn fiercely.

Nuannuan licked her lips. Seeing that Big Brother Chi Yang's gaze was filled with longing as he looked at her, she jumped right off his lap out of instinct. After all, this was still base.

Even if it was already time for dinner, they were still in the room right next to the interrogation room. It was not good to be here.

"Big Brother Chi Yang, since there's nothing else, why don't we head back?"

However, Chi Yang continued to look at her with a very deep gaze.

Nuannuan almost did not dare to look Big Brother Chi Yang in the eyes. She felt that the whirlpool in his gaze would suck her in if she dared look.

Nuannuan turned around, about to leave. However, in an instant, Chi Yang wrapped his arms around her waist. With just a light pull, Nuannuan, who had already lost a lot of weight, was gently forced back.

"Chi... Uh... Big Brother Yang... uh..."

Before she could finish her sentence, Nuannuan felt her tongue get sucked in.

A large hand slowly moved from her waist to the areas above it.

Although it was now spring, the days were cold. Nuannuan was wearing two layers of clothing—a shirt on the inside, paired with a relatively fashionable windproof jacket on the outside.

Her shirt was half-tucked into her pants, but at this moment, it was swiftly untucked.

Then, Nuannuan felt a pair of large hands with thin calluses on it brushing under her clothes.

The moment Chi Yang touched her skin, her warm skin and his slightly cold hands made electrifying contact. Nuannuan shrank back as if she had been electrocuted. However, this movement of hers... was like the last straw that crushed the camel's back for Chi Yang.

When he touched the girl's delicate skin, Chi Yang's hand was scalded. The surging emotions in his heart almost flipped him over.

Chi Yang tried his best to stabilize himself, but the moment his hand touched her skin, the girl's slight trembling was like a huge wave of fire accompanied by lava, burning through his wall of rationality.

He had to take her!

Chi Yang tightened his other hand. The girl's body was pressed against his own by this strong force.

Seeing that the man's neck was gradually turning red from his repressed emotions, Nuannuan's heart softened. She did not care where they were anymore. She slowly wrapped her arms around him shyly.

Chi Yang was encouraged, and he deepened his kiss with this girl.

He kissed her lips, her forehead, her face, her chin, her neck, and then slowly moved to her ears.

The ears were a very sensitive part of this girl's body.

As soon as Chi Yang's lips touched the skin there, it was like the room became a sauna. The girl's trembling became much more obvious. As he touched her with his mouth, the girl's trembling and moaning grew to a crescendo.

The girl continued to tremble as he kissed her earlobe.

Finally, her little temper flared, and the hand around his waist slipped off.

Chapter 1787: Increase in Strength

Chi Yang let out a muffled groan. This little fairy had tempted him so much that he did not have the willpower to drag her somewhere else first. He picked her up and placed her on the table, swept everything else on the table off of it, and laid his entire body on top of hers. He had bullied her into getting under him.

More than a month's yearning turned into a storm of love, raining on every inch of the girl's skin.

Every inch of her skin made him feel crazily infatuated.

Chi Yang, who had abstained for more than a month, was only satisfied once Nuannuan was reduced to gasping like a fish out of water.

Today was Nuannuan and Chi Yang's first time truly feeling tired. afterward

It was the kind of tiredness that made him not even want to lift his arms or move his feet.

Chi Yang found some tissue. However, he did not care about his own body at all. He merely carefully helped his little girl clean up. He only helped her put on her clothes after he had finished wiping her clean.

When he pulled the little girl up from the table, Nangong Nuannuan grunted.

She really was too tired. She did not even want to sit up.

"What's wrong, little girl? Don't you usually have an endless amount of energy? Why are you like this after we only did it twice? I'm not even full yet! I still want to eat at night... But with you like this, I can't bear to go again."

Nuannuan narrowed her eyes slightly as she looked at Chi Yang. She couldn't help but say, "Liar!"

Chi Yang's eyes were smiling as he realized that his scent had rubbed off onto this girl's body. He was in a very good mood as he helped her put on her clothes and pull up her pants. He asked, "What's wrong? Why did you call me a liar? What did I lie to you about?"

"Hmm, I wonder what. I wonder who told me that since I was still young, once a day was enough. At first, it was once a day, and gently. I wouldn't get too tired then. But then it became twice. Then soon, thrice! But you were still always gentle... until just now! Tell me, what did you do just now?"

Chi Yang was startled. "What did I do?"

Nuannuan waved her hand and hit Chi Yang's chest, "Why were you so rough just now? You drained all my strength! That felt more tiring than fighting an enemy for three days straight! My brother and the others were right, you are a big bully!"

Chi Yang was amused by Nuannuan's outburst.

This time, he did not laugh only with his eyes, but with his mouth too.

The sound resonated through the vibrations of his chest, and the laughter sounded extremely pleasant.

Just this sound alone could get one's ears pregnant, Nuannuan had a sour expression on her face, and she was silent.

This man had clearly been starved for a month too long and had lost control of himself.

After tidying himself up, Chi Yang tidied up the table and the floor. Only after that did he carry the girl who was sitting on the table down to the ground.

He gently planted a kiss on her forehead and coaxed her. "Perhaps my superpowers have grown stronger. Recently, I discovered that if I don't control my powers, I'll hurt someone. Next time, I'll be more careful, okay? Don't be too mad if you're still angry with me. I'll give you a real good massage when we get back, okay?"

Looking at Big Brother Chi Yang prostrate himself so humbly in front of her, Nuannuan's little protests instantly disappeared.

"Let's go." Chi Yang held Nuannuan's hand, ready to happily leave the room.

However, Nuannuan stopped after just two steps.

"What's wrong?" Chi Yang turned around to look at Nuannuan, only to see her open her mouth and touch her thigh.

Big Brother Chi Yang's strength had really increased a lot!

Chapter 1788: Big Bully

That day, Nuannuan had not been able to stop herself from crying out loud several times as she was pushed to her limits. At this moment... she suddenly felt her legs ache.

Her legs ached!

Her legs never ached. Today was a rare occasion.

Seeing her touch the base of her thigh, Chi Yang knew that he had really bullied this girl too much today, so he squatted down and did not say anything.

“What?” Nuannuan asked.

“Climb on. I’ll carry you.”

“You will?!” Nuannuan cried out, her face blushing.

“I don’t think you should. Many of the special forces soldiers haven’t gone home yet, and are still resting now. It would be bad if they saw us.”

“They’re off-duty now. Even if I carried you and kissed you outside, what can those wolves do about it?”

Although Nuannuan felt a little embarrassed to be carried by Big Brother Chi Yang like this, her legs really were extremely sore.

Chi Yang carried her out of the prison area.

There were guards stationed around the prison. When they saw Chi Yang, they all gave him a standard military salute. However, when they saw the listless little woman on the man’s back... Everyone could only stare. However, they pretended not to see anything.

Only when the man walked past could they begin looking in earnest out of the corner of their eyes.

Nuannuan leaned against Chi Yang’s body. She laced her arms around his neck and laid her face on his shoulder. Looking at their almost overlapping shadows on the ground, the corners of her lips curled up very high.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, will you be able to come home today?”

“Yes.”

Nuannuan looked up. They were still quite a distance away from where Chi Yang had parked his car. Nuannuan was going to be on his back for quite a while longer.

She liked being on his back as he walked. As she admired the moon in the sky and the long shadows on the ground, she felt a sense of peace and beauty overcome her, a sense that only Chi Yang’s presence granted her.

“So, do you promise to do something about what I told you about earlier?”

She had already been sucked dry several times, and her entire body was close to falling apart. However, she had yet to get Big Brother Chi Yang to agree to what she had suggested to him previously.

This big bully!

“Okay. I’ll get someone to test that guy.”

Chi Yang had not forgotten about what Nuannuan told him earlier. Such a situation seemed extremely absurd to him, and it was certainly impossible for such a thing to happen. However, since his wife was begging him like this, and he was thinking about the mastermind behind KE whom he had been trying to crack down on for so many years... He nodded and agreed.

When Nuannuan heard that Big Brother Chi Yang would look into it, she was delighted.

"You must look into it properly. I'm telling you, this person is very cunning. Moreover, he must have an expert hacker by his side. Otherwise, he wouldn't have disappeared the moment he entered Sab. Even Dan Qi couldn't find him. So, you must have your agents investigate him very carefully, while remaining vigilant. You must tell your subordinates that if they come up against a dead end, they should not push too hard. This is to avoid alerting the enemy."

"Okay, got it," Chi Yang replied amicably.

Since he had made a promise to his wife, he naturally had to do his best.

Chi Yang walked on the road. He walked neither fast nor slow, and he also talked neither fast nor slow.

Chapter 1789: Finally Went Soft

"Although I don't really believe what you said about the strange powers and soul transferring, the Shi family is not a family that should be carelessly provoked. Shi Maowen is no simpleton. If you encounter any problems, please tell me. Don't go after the Shi family alone. Do you understand?"

"Yes."

"As for Shi Yalin, don't worry about her for the time being. I will think of a way to probe her."

"If Shi Yalin is Viper, I'm afraid it won't be easy for you to draw her out. But let's take things one step at a time. Viper just caused such a big incident. She definitely wouldn't dare to cause any more trouble in the near future. Right now, the best thing to do would be to pretend like we know nothing. If she really is Viper, she'll reveal her tail one day."

"Okay."

The two of them walked down the wide road of the Eagle Special Forces' base for a long time, chatting all the while.

The spring breeze blew past their faces as these two kindred spirits talked. Nothing in life could feel better than this.

Nuannuan was really exhausted.

After getting out of the car, she could see that the old master and Second Uncle, who had not seen their grandson for more than a month, were waiting at home for Chi Yang's return.

Looking at the bright lights coming from inside the house, Nuannuan knew that they had not slept yet.

Initially, Chi Yang wanted to carry Nuannuan out after getting out of the car himself. However, she vehemently rejected him.

Although her legs were trembling, even if they were broken, she would not let Big Brother Chi Yang carry her inside.

Hearing her refuse to let him carry her inside, Chi Yang did not insist. He just smiled and helped her out.

Nuannuan pouted her cheeks and snorted. She looked at Chi Yang, who looked calm and satisfied, and asked, "Big Brother Chi Yang, do you feel very proud now?"

"Yes."

She did not expect Chi Yang to give her a very definite answer without even needing to think. She was so angry she did not want to speak.

"Little Girl, do you know that ever since the first time we met, you have always been the boss in every situation? I've always let you take the lead. I've also discovered that with your high level of physical strength and fitness, even if I'm the dominant one at any given time, I still can't do anything to you. Every time, no matter how intense things get, you always get used to it very quickly. This is the first time you've ever gone soft!"

As a man, how could he not be happy?

This felt the same as earning a military medal.

Proud!

Proud!

Secretly pleased!

After all, how would an ordinary girl be able to withstand the demands of a man like Chi Yang for such a long time? It would have been strange if she was not so tired that she could not even lift her own fingers.

His Nuannuan was very powerful. Whether it was physical strength or flexibility, her body had great capabilities.

He was very satisfied after every time they did it. When he asked Nuannuan how she felt... Her answers were always along the lines of "No problem", "I'm fine", "Don't worry, I'm okay", "I'm all good", and other similar sentiments.

Chi Yang had previously consulted the special forces soldiers that he knew had wives. They had told him that their physical strength was too overwhelming, making their wives beg for mercy every time.

Compared to this wife he had at home...

Chi Yang had felt an inexplicable feeling of suffocation at the time.

However, this feeling was healed today.

Finally, one day, today... He had successfully made his wife's legs go soft.

Chi Yang's eyes were smiling as he held Nuannuan's hand and walked into the house. At home, the old master and Second Uncle were sitting and waiting for him. Even Feng Shengxuan had returned.

Chapter 1790: Hopeless

Seeing Nuannuan being led in by the Chi Yang with trembling legs, Feng Shengxuan's eyes narrowed slightly.

"Big Bro? Why did you come back?" A wicked smile appeared on Nuannuan's face as she asked, "Didn't you move to Selina's place? Wasn't Big Sis Yue there too? Why did you come back? Could it be that you came back because Big Sis Yue was mad at you?"

Seeing Nuannuan like this... Feng Shengxuan snorted coldly. "That heartless woman didn't listen to my advice and insisted on being with that wild man. There's nothing I can do about it. I've decided to let her learn this lesson herself. What's there to be angry about?"

Nuannuan, "..."

She felt that this man was completely hopeless.

Seeing how Feng Shengxuan was so angry his face turned black and his hair turned green, yet he still remained so calm and collected as if Big Sis Yue's marriage was her loss, Nuannuan shook her head and called out very cautiously, "Big Bro."

"What?"

"I feel like people like you are destined to be alone for the rest of their lives."

Feng Shengxuan suddenly stood up from the sofa and looked at Chi Yang. He scolded him angrily. "Chi Yang, don't think that just because Nuannuan has admitted that you're her fiance, you're really her fiance. I haven't admitted it yet, so you're nobody for now!"

Chi Yang, who had been sitting in the living room after coming in, was speechless.

The old master and Second Uncle were disappointed and speechless too.

"Big Bro, what's wrong with you?"

"What's wrong with me?! Look at your legs! Nangong Nuannuan, you're a mere girl. You're not even 18 years old. Even if I'm not qualified to be your guardian, and even if you don't recognize my identity, I'm still your Big Bro. You haven't even gotten married yet, and you're already in this state because of a man. You even live in a man's house every day. Do you have any self-respect?!"

Thinking that if he had not come today, Xiao Shenbin would have kissed that stupid woman Bai Liyue on the mouth, Feng Shengxuan had already lost all hope, so he did not hesitate to say this to Nuannuan.

When Nuannuan was scolded, not only did she not have any so-called self respect or any sense of shame, but after blinking a few times, she pulled on Chi Yang's arm and said, "Why do you care so much about my self-respect? I only care about Big Brother Chi Yang."

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

The old master said, "...Good job! Well done, my granddaughter-in-law!"

Second Uncle, "... He looked at Feng Shengxuan, and then at Chi Yang, but he did not say anything.

Chi Yang looked at the ivory hand holding his arm. His icy facade seemed to melt in an instant. Gentle sunlight shone through a thick layers of clouds, casting a layer of soft light on his cold and stern handsome face.

"Let's go upstairs to wash up and sleep."

"Okay."

Nuannuan nodded and stood up with Chi Yang. She said to Feng Shengxuan, "So, Big Bro, are you planning to stay here?"

Feng Shengxuan was so angry his heart felt like it had stopped working. He did not say anything.

Nuannuan then looked at Grandpa Chi and Second Uncle and said, "Grandpa, Second Uncle, you should sleep early too."

The old master and Second Uncle had both wanted to wait for Chi Yang to come back so they could see this grandson and nephew, respectively, of theirs, whom they had not seen for over a month.

Now that Chi Yang was standing in front of them in perfect condition, the old master was completely relieved.

"Okay, okay, okay. We'll go up to bed. You guys go to bed early too. Lil Xuan, you go to bed early too."

Looking at Nuannuan's arm holding onto Chi Yang's and thinking about Xiao Shenbin's figure bending down toward Bai Liyue under the moonlight, Feng Shengxuan suddenly felt a little lost.
