Chapter 1811: Starting A Business

Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang were not speaking, the principal continued tactfully. "Although our school encourages students to capitalize on their own capabilities to earn money, the students still have to adhere to certain rules. It's just like managing a business. We can't be using illegal methods to earn money, can we?"

Nangong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows slightly. "Principal, are you saying that Nan Xu is carrying out illegal business in school?"

"No, no, no, of course not!" The principal immediately shook his head. He then continued. "However, even though it's not illegal, it's still bending the rules. What I mean is that the school does not have a specific rule against this, but Nan Xu's actions are pushing the limits."

"Oh? What did he do?" Nangong Nuannuan's interest was piqued. She was not angry at him like any other parent might be. Instead, she was excited to hear more about it—and her face clearly showed it.

The principal, "..."

Although he did not want to continue upon seeing Nangong Nuannuan's excited expression, he had the duty to inform her of what was going on.

"It's like this, Miss Nan. Nan Xu is the only publicly acknowledged prodigy in our school. Although he is only five years old and only in the second grade, with his intelligence, he could be easily in the fourth grade. However, Nan Xu's parents were afraid he wouldn't be able to get along with his classmates considering their age difference, so they held him back by two grades and enrolled him in the second grade. However, we've come to learn that Nan Xu had been studying on his own, and now can do schoolwork the level of a sixth-grader."

"That's a good thing," Nuannuan said.

"It is indeed a good thing. It's just..." The principal was not sure how to phrase what he had to say.

"It's just that Nan Xu has started a business in the school."

"A business? He was able to start a business in school?"

"Of course, the school doesn't allow businesses to be set up, but Nan Xu did everything on his own. He set up a business completing other students' homework and even recruited some students who were in need of money to work for him. Most of these students agreed to help as they were not receiving enough pocket money from their parents.

"Miss Nan, you are aware that our school is well-known as an elite school. Thus, we have certain expectations of our students, so we tend to assign more homework and more difficult homework. Many students don't like this and don't want to do their work.

"However, completing their assigned work by building self-discipline is necessary for the students to learn. Nan Xu noted the homework that was assigned by each teacher in every class every day. Then, he recruited students from each of these classes and referred to their completed homework. He would use this to provide the answers to the other students who did not want to complete their homework—at a price. As for the students he recruited, he would give them a cut of the earnings.

“Miss Nan, look at all these students standing here. They were all recruited by your Nan Xu’s business.”

When Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang heard this, they could not help but smirk.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Nan Xu and saw that he was still as calm as ever. This made things difficult for her.

She did not think of this situation as a big deal, but she knew that she had long lost her moral integrity back at KE.

However, Nan Xu was still so young. He should have a normal outlook on life.

Should she say something now?

For the first time, Nuannuan, who always had an infinite number of things to say, was stumped—by her own nephew!

Chapter 1812: Nan Xu Shows His Domineering Side

“Principal, my aunt is still a minor who is not yet of age. She has never had to handle such an issue before. She only came to school today to accompany me for the Open Day activities in place of my parents. So, if there is an issue, I hope Principal can resolve it with me directly. After all, I am the main person involved.”

As Nuannuan was still trying to find the words to express her stance, Nan Xu spoke in a rather responsible tone.

His words were extremely domineering.

He was indeed worthy of being a child of the Nangong family.

The principal choked on Nangong Xu’s words. He felt a headache coming on in the face of this devilish child with a high IQ and noble background.

“Alright, since you don’t want to resolve it through your guardians, I’ll discuss this matter with you.”

The principal asked, “Nan Xu, you heard what I said just now. Do you have anything to say in defense of your actions violating the school rules?”

“Yes, I want to defend myself.” Nan Xu answered very seriously.

“Okay. Then tell me, why did you want to set up your homework contracting business on campus?”

Nan Xu asked seriously instead of answering, “Principal, is there a clear rule of the school specifying that setting up a homework contracting business on campus is not permitted?”

“Although there is no clear rule, it is each student’s duty to do their homework. If you help someone else with their homework, they won’t be learning anything.”

“This so-called duty is just to complete the tasks they have been assigned. Just like an adult at work, as long as they complete their designated tasks, it will be sufficient. Just like in school, as long as the students don’t encounter any harm, it will be enough. As for my actions, I was merely helping everyone carry out their own individual duties. I do not feel that I violated any rules.”

“Since it was someone else’s duty, shouldn’t you helping them be considered as interference?”

“But they still handed in the work themselves! It’s just like how it isn’t a teacher’s duty to stop bullying beyond school grounds. If there is a conflict in school, the teachers must try to resolve it. However, many students may choose to hold back while in school to avoid being punished—but may end up murdering each other outside school grounds. If something as such were to happen, the school cannot be expected to have stopped it. Similarly, although the students are expected to have done the homework they hand in themselves, as long as they hand in the completed work, they should be considered as having completed their duties. Why am I in the wrong?”

“School and society have different divisions of responsibilities. The school gate is the dividing line... Within the school, the students are the responsibility of the management, while outside the school, the children are the responsibility of society. If students fight on school grounds, it is the responsibility of teachers to handle it. If they fight beyond school grounds, it is the responsibility of the police. Fighting and helping people do homework are two very different things. You cannot compare them.”

“Then, my homework business only operates outside school grounds. My people accept and complete orders beyond school grounds, after all. My customers weren’t given a choice at first about whether they wanted to use the service or not, but now they do have that choice. If the customer is willing to pay, then the worker is responsible for providing them good service. I operate in good faith and maintain a pristine reputation. May I ask, Principal, what exactly did I do wrong? If I don’t help them with their homework, does Principal really think they wouldn’t find someone else to help them instead? If it’s going to be done regardless of moral responsibility, why does it matter who does it?”

Nangong Nuannuan felt that Nan Xu had certainly inherited her talent for sophistry. He had made the principal very upset, but he had no way to refute Nan Xu.

After thinking for a long time, the principal finally found a loophole in what Nan Xu said and responded—

Chapter 1813: Integrity

“You said that your business didn’t give students a choice at first, but now they can choose to use your services or not. That means that some students were willing to work hard and learn well in the beginning, but you have deprived them of that opportunity. Isn’t that wrong?”

“Principal, I think you may have misunderstood something. The reason why I compared fighting outside school with the business was that initially, I didn’t know that what I was doing was setting up a business. Yuan Mingbo from my class didn’t want to do his homework, so he always asked me to do it for him. I wasn’t willing, so he waited for me to leave the school grounds and tried to get someone to beat me up to force me to help him out. I thought that if I didn’t help him, I would surely get beaten up, but even if I helped him, I wouldn’t get anything out of it. Thus, I decided to tell him that if he wanted me to help him, I would, but for 500 yuan a time. If he needed me to help him with his homework every day, I could give him a discount—3,000 yuan a semester. I didn't want to get beaten up, but I also didn't want to help him with his homework for no personal gain, so I took the money. Principal, I think my charges are still very low, and my homework business operates beyond school grounds. So, I don't think I violated the school rules."

The principal's mouth twitched when he heard that. He could not help but ask, "Even if you took Yuan Mingbo's money and helped him with his homework to prevent violence outside the school, why did you go on to establish a business to help other students with their homework?"

"Yuan Mingbo is very popular. He looks down on classmates who are poorer than him—especially me, the poorest 'prodigy' in the school. So, he spread the rumor that I would help people with their homework in exchange for some money. Hearing that, rich kids from all around the school came to me. They all threatened me, saying that if I didn't help them with their homework, I would be beaten up. So, I thought that if I were to help them, I would be doing labor. With labor comes income, right? Thus, I set up this 'business' and gathered a few seniors who were willing to help in exchange for some extra money. Not only would they help me complete the homework, but they could protect me if anyone dared to bully me. Soon, other students found out about the arrangement and approached me. Hence, my business gradually grew."

Besides the principal's mouth twitching, Nangong Nuannuan, who had founded a business empire at the age of 12, could not help but laugh.

Nan Xu was simply incredible.

"Principal, my family is not actually short of money. Although I would like more pocket money, I could find other ways to make it or open other businesses. Of course, if you would like me to shut down my current business, you would have to control your students and ensure that they don't harass me within or outside of school. If you can give your word on doing this well, I can immediately alter my line of business. However, if you can't, I will have to continue my current business to avoid being beaten up. Moreover, I have already collected some advance pay from my customers. The teachers always tell us to be honest. Thus, since I've already taken my classmates' money and given it to my subordinates, I must continue my business at least until the end of the semester. If I am forced to terminate it early, I hope that my customers can bring this issue up with you yourselves."

The principal, "..."

The teachers, "..."

The parents of Nan Xu's subordinates who were listening in, "..."

...

Chi Yang imprisoning Walker in the prison of the Eagle Special Forces had not been disclosed to anyone other than the president. Since the Eagle Special Forces only had to answer to the president, nothing was reported to the National Military Department.

Chapter 1814: Hibernation

Not long after, the military base spread the news that the RU leader of Yiman, Walker, the man who created the virus, had been captured by the Eagle Special Forces. However, he had resisted with all his might upon arrest and was killed on the spot.

Shi Yalin already knew that Walker had died the day Nangong Nuannuan stabbed the bug in his head to death.

Although Walker did not know anything about KE, Shi Yalin was afraid Feng Shengxuan would find out about this matter.

When she saw the news that the National Military Department was telling people that the people from RU had been extradited back to Camino, she knew that Chi Yang had personally gone after Walker when he escaped.

Fortunately, Walker had resisted with all his might and was killed on the spot. If not, she was afraid that this matter would bring her trouble.

However, after this incident, some people in the know, such as the president, had probably cast their eyes on the Medic Association with a trace of suspicion.

Not to mention Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan, who were hard to fool.

Those two people were too perceptive. If she did something again, she might really be discovered.

Since there was still time, Shi Yalin was not in a hurry.

After all, after shifting into this new body, she found herself much freer. Taking advantage of this period of leisure, she could properly improve her martial strength again.

She no longer had the protection of her invisibility special ability. This time, this life of hers would also be her last. Therefore, she had to make herself extremely powerful, so powerful that she could get rid of Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan once and for all.

However, she had no way to put bugs into her brain to increase her strength. This was because Nangong Nuannuan discovered the bugs, which meant that not only was she super fast, but she also had a clairvoyance special ability now. If not for that, her bug experiment would not have suffered such a devastating attack.

Therefore, her only way out now was to get the antidote for the virus, which was currently in Nangong Nuannuan's hands.

The virus had actually been extracted from the body of the bugs. Humans could accept live bugs, but not their blood. After researching for a few days, she discovered that the known medicines and antidotes that she could make would all compete with the human body's functions. It would be impossible for her to recover as quickly as Ning Wenhao.

As for a body that possessed the bug's blood serum, once it recovered, it would immediately gain a special ability.

She was unable to develop the antidote quickly, so she could only hand this responsibility over to that slut, Nangong Nuannuan.

Although she was very unwilling to admit it, it could not be denied that Nangong Nuannuan was indeed very accomplished in the field of pharmaceuticals.

That girl did not let Shi Yalin down.

In order to save Ning Wenhao, she had really managed to produce an antidote very quickly.

The only pity was that that b*tch was born cunning, so she did not dare to make another move for a long time.

Thus, Shi Yalin could only wait for the right time, develop some medicine on her own, and at the same time, keep up with her training.

Her combat strength would soon be on par with Chi Yang's and Nangong Nuannuan's.

When her strength was almost recovered, it would be time for her to officially start a war with the enemy.

Time passed by in a flash. During this period of time in the Emperor District, Nuannuan read all kinds of medical books and went to the military hospital to observe all kinds of surgeries.

From the time of winter vacation to the college entrance examination, less than half a year, Nuannuan had already observed all possible kinds of surgeries no fewer than five times each.

Chapter 1815: The Whole Family Mobilized

Nuannuan used to not know where to start when it came to surgeries. After half a year, she felt that she could almost operate on her own.

The only thing that she was not confident in was the fact that some internal organs were connected to each other. As the saying went, 'A single action can affect the whole body'.

Although most doctors could not do anything about that and failures were bound to happen, even in the military hospital, especially for cancer patients whose conditions were deeply connected to their internal organs, Nuannuan hoped she would be able to rise above that.

The college entrance examinations were in June. As a high schooler who was not yet 18, no matter how good she was or how popular she was at the military hospital, Nuannuan still had to take the examination before she could apply to the Military Medical University.

After over half a year of Leng Qirui's management, the Leng Group's business had soared. In less than half a year, its e-commerce sales had increased exponentially from their initial numbers.

The Imperial Phoenix Group, which provided financial support to the Leng Group, had stopped making losses after half a year. In the May before the college entrance examination, it began to make a profit.

Leng Qirui relied on his unique business skills to keep a firm grip on the position of the chairman of the Leng Group. Although his two weird aunts, who were not even the biological children of Old Master Leng, came to make trouble every now and then, they had never been given any face by Leng Qirui.

Although one was the chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group and the other was the chairman of the Leng Group, there were still a lot of exams that needed to be taken.

Therefore, Nuannuan made an advance appointment with Leng Qirui to return to Jiang District two days before the college entrance exam to prepare for it.

The tickets had been booked in advance too. However, three days before the college entrance exam, a dinner party was held at home. Chi Yang, her grandfather, her second uncle, her grandfather, her three uncles, and her six older brothers... All of them had asked for leave to accompany her to Jiang District to participate in the college entrance examination.

It would be a lie to say that she was not moved.

In the past, she had longed so badly for family connection. In order to return home, she had destroyed KE. She only wanted to clear her name and return home to be an ordinary girl and be a lovely and well-behaved daughter for her parents.

Later on, the Zhong family delivered her a merciless blow. After she died once and completely disregarded all family ties from then on, the Nangong family and the Chi family had welcomed her with open arms. They had given her a home.

Thus, Nuannuan canceled her original flight and arranged for a private plane to return to Jiang District two nights before the examination.

Although the Zhong and Jiang family's villas in Jiang District had long been shut down, the Leng family's villa and the villa that Aiden bought were in the same neighborhood.

These two villas were big enough for many people to stay in.

Selina had already ordered people to clean up the two villas, and she even called back the chefs from before. Although she had only stayed here for a few days, and the layout and deco of the rooms were unfamiliar to Nuannuan, as long as family was around, it was home. Looking at the laughter and cheer of everyone in the villa, Nuannuan no longer felt the discomfort and hostility she usually did when she returned to Jiang District after her rebirth.

Her roommates, Mu Qingxuan, Gu Xiaoli, and Yan Fangfang, had contacted her early in the morning and asked if she would be back in time for the exam. Knowing that she was coming back, and not having seen her for a long time, they decided to have dinner with her despite the scary examination being only two days away.

Chapter 1816: Shyer and Shyer

Because the four roommates had not seen each other for a long time, the four girls chatted and decide to go out to karaoke together.

Nuannuan initially did not want to go, but after looking into the expectant eyes of her three roommates, she agreed to it.

Although Chi Yang did not sing, his wife wanted to go to karaoke with her roommates, so how could he not go too?

Selina also wanted to go.

Thus, she followed too. Although Leng Qirui looked unwilling and reluctant, he tagged along with Selina while no one was paying attention to him.

The six brothers of the Nangong family had nothing to do, except the eldest and third brother, who were occupied. What else could they do but follow their younger sister?

This large group of people went to the best KTV in Jiang District, Royal No. 1 KTV.

Mu Qingxuan was their host for the night. She ordered a lot of fruit plates, drinks, and refreshments over.

Looking at the people in the room, she wondered what her father would think if he saw her with such a group of people.

"Was the virus you spoke about online really cured by the antidote you created?" Gu Xiaoli asked, her big gossip eyes wide as she ate some fruit.

The two girls beside her also looked excited and curious.

"Yes."

It was not until Nuannuan nodded that the three girls started shouting.

"Nuannuan, you're really amazing! How can you be so amazing?"

"And Nuannuan, I heard that you're not only the daughter of the Nangong family but also the chairman of Tianheng Holdings. Is that true?" Yan Fangfang asked.

"Yes," Nuannuan nodded and said with a smile. "I'll give you a 20% discount card later. In the future, when you enter Tianheng Holdings, I'll give you a 20% discount on everything as long as you show me that card."

The three girls were shocked for a long time before Gu Xiaoli curled her lips. "Forget it. The things there are extremely expensive. I can't afford them. I'll just buy them online. A lady like you definitely doesn't know about Haitao.com. Many of the items there are directly purchased from manufacturers. Even though the prices are cheap, the items aren't necessarily of low quality. If I buy clothes that cost a few hundred yuan, the quality can still be very good."

Seeing Gu Xiaoli's eagerness to talk about Haitao.com, Nuannuan could not help but laugh.

"What are you laughing at?"

"You have such a good impression of Haitao?"

"Of course! It saves us a lot of trouble."

Nuannuan pushed Leng Qirui, who was looking at them coldly out of the corner of his eyes, and said, "We're all classmates. It's not easy for us to find time to meet up, so don't put on a cold face all the time. Why do I feel that ever since you fell in love with Selina, you've become shyer and shyer?"

Leng Qirui looked at the group of girls and Selina, who had been flirting with him with her eyes all night. When he thought about how this woman always wanted to pounce on him whenever she had free time, his nerves could not help but explode.

After all, he was only 18 years old, and he was still...

Although he had accepted Selina as his fiancée, he still wanted to wait another two years. After all, a man had to wait until he was 20 years old to marry.

Leng Qirui said in a somewhat unnatural voice, "How am I cold? Am I not listening to you guys?"

"Gu Xiaoli mentioned Haitao. Don't you have anything to say as the big boss of Haitao?"

"What? Young Master Leng is the boss of Haitao?"

The girls were shocked.

Gu Xiaoli, who had praised Haitao so much, turned to Yan Fangfang.

Chapter 1817: Shine

From the moment she found out that Young Master Leng was the boss of Haitao, she began to pester him for more information about Haitao.

After learning that Haitao was an online marketing department under Leng Group and that Nuannuan owned half of Haitao's shares, she was beyond excited.

"Young Master Leng, can I join your e-commerce team?"

"You?"

"Yes. You don't know this, but my family owns a small clothing factory in Haicheng. Over the past few years, the trend has been to buy clothes from big brands, so the clothes designed by our factory have been severely undersold. Shops would rather buy inferior first-tier brand imitations than buy from our factory. I didn't take it to heart when Gu Xiaoli told me that I could buy things online. I started buying things online a month ago, and I think your Haitao has a very bright future. What kind of requirements must our small factory fulfill to join your team?"

"I'll pass you a website URL. You can apply through it, and I'll get someone to approve it. As long as you strictly control the quality of your items, I'll get someone to place your factory's storefront on the front page of our clothing store. It just so happens that we're expanding our market now. We do need a clothing factory that produces quality brands but is still cheap."

Yan Fangfang was overjoyed when she heard that. She did not expect the bosses of Haitao to be her two classmates. She also did not expect that going out for a meal would bring her such a big business opportunity.

When Yan Fangfang's family's clothing factory later went on to be a viral sensation, she still remembered the turning point in her life that was catalyzed by a few casual words one night at a KTV.

“Okay! I’ll register immediately once I get home. As for the quality, don’t worry, Young Master Leng. Our factory has always been conscientious. The quality is excellent, while the price is cheap. Moreover, we always create our own styles. We definitely don’t just follow trends.”

Listening to Yan Fangfang toot her own trumpet, Nuannuan could not help but ask, “What major are the three of you planning to apply to?”

“I’ve already gone for an interview at the Emperor District Film Academy. I want to be an actress in the future,” Mu Qingxuan said.

Nuannuan was a little surprised.

In her previous life, Mu Qingxuan had studied auditing, and after graduating, she had worked at a political department.

In this life, she was going to apply to a film academy.

It felt like her whole life trajectory was different.

However, Nuannuan could understand where she was coming from.

In her previous life, Mu Qingxuan had been chased from Jiayong University by that jerk Ling Xuyao. Ling Xuyao knew about Mu Qingxuan’s family background, so he had strongly pursued Mu Qingxuan to become the son-in-law of the Mufamily. In order to squeeze Mu Qingxuan for all she was worth, he had made her enter politics.

In this life, the college entrance examinations were the day after tomorrow. Mu Qingxuan was not with Ling Xuyao now, so she could choose a major she truly liked.

“You want to be an actress?”

“Yes.” Mu Qingxuan smiled. “If I can prove myself, can I apply for a contract with the Imperial Phoenix Group after I graduate?”

Nuannuan smiled. “Of course! You’re so beautiful, you’ll definitely shine one day on the screen in the future. I’ll wait for the day you come to Imperial Phoenix to look for me to sign a contract with you.”

“Okay.”

Nuannuan stared at Mu Qingxuan, looking at the starry radiance in her eyes. Only then did Nuannuan realize that Mu Qingxuan had always loved the big screen.

In her previous life, what kind of talent and interest did Ling Xuyao, that scumbag, stifle in Mu Qingxuan to stop her from becoming an actress, and become an ordinary administrative staff member instead?

Chapter 1818: Public Display of Affection

“Fangfang, what about you?” Nuannuan looked at Yan Fangfang.

Yan Fangfang’s face was full of pride.

"I have to help my dad with our family business in the future. Although our clothing factory is only a small one, I still have to carry on the legacy of this hard-earned business. So, I plan to learn fashion design and develop our small factory."

Nuannuan looked at Gu Xiaoli again and asked, "What about you?"

Gu Xiaoli was a student of Jia Yong. Her parents were both farmers who had moved to the city to work. Her family was a lot poorer than Mu Qingxuan's and Yan Fangfang's families. However, Gu Xiaoli's results had always been very good. "I plan to enter medical university, but there are too many people taking the exam. I don't know if I can get in."

"You can do it!" Nuannuan gave her some encouragement.

After all, Gu Xiaoli had been a doctor in a military hospital in her previous life, so Nuannuan knew very well that she would succeed.

"Nuannuan, don't make fun of me. Do you think I'm as good as you, with a photographic memory?! My results have been fluctuating recently. If the Military Medical University's score line for the other provinces is raised this year, I might not be able to get in."

"You will get in, it's 100% certain. Trust me! Come, let's have a toast! I hope everyone's wish can be fulfilled."

"You haven't even said which university you want to get into." Mu Qingxuan pointed out with a smile.

"Nuannuan is already the boss of Tianheng Holdings, and she and Young Master Leng are partners in international business. Do you still need to ask? It must be the Emperor District Business Academy," Gu Xiaoli guessed.

"I want to apply to the same university as you, so in another two months, we will be able to meet at Emperor District Military Medical University. Come on! I wish us all a bright future."

"What? You want to apply to the Military Medical University?" The few girls exclaimed in unison, surprised by Nangong Nuannuan's choice.

After all, as the daughter of the Nangong family and the chairman of Tianheng Holdings, Nangong Nuannuan already had almost everything a businesswoman could ever want.

The Business Academy would be the best path for her.

However, this heiress actually wanted to be a doctor?!

After Nangong Nuannuan nodded, everyone asked in unison, "Why?"

"Don't you guys think that I've already done all I could ever do in the business world? Is there any real use for me to get a degree for it?"

Everyone was stunned and instantly understood.

It really made sense!

Although not everyone knew that Nangong Nuannuan was not only the chairman of Tianheng Holdings, but also the chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group, to them, Tianheng Holdings was impressive enough—it was one of the Top 50 Mega Corporations in the world. Nuannuan was chairman of one of the top 50 corporations in the world, and she was not even 18 years old yet. Forget going to business school. If she went to business school as a visiting professor and then became the Honorary Vice Dean, no one would bat an eyelid.

“Besides, now that I have Big Brother Chi Yang, if I go to medical university, I can be a military doctor in the future. I’ll be able to stay closer to him.”

This public display of affection for her man... It hit the others as suddenly and as hard as a brick. They were caught off guard!

Her three roommates, who were all single, looked at the unconcealable pride and smile on Nangong Nuannuan’s face, then at the military general who was sitting next to him and not saying anything or singing. He was only looking at his wife with a gentle expression. Envy was written all over their faces.

After a while, the door was opened by the KTV attendant, and a familiar face walked in.

“Guo Junhao, why are you here?” Yan Fangfang asked. After all, Guo Junhao usually did not interact with Nuannuan much.

Chapter 1819: School Bully

“I asked him to come.” Leng Qirui stood up and welcomed Guo Junhao in.

After they sat down together, Leng Qirui said, “Guo Junhao is a gaming god. His family has developed a game that is very popular.”

“Yes... Did Young Master Leng suddenly call me here today to invite me to join your team?”

Guo Junhao had actually wanted to join Leng Qirui’s team for a long time, but he knew how big the gap between his family and the Leng family was. Although they were both wealthy families, a small wealthy family in Jiang District could not be compared to a second-rate wealthy family in Emperor District.

When he received a sudden call from Leng Qirui today, he had rushed over immediately without even asking him what he wanted first.

Leng Qirui smiled. “Yes, I want to invite you to join my team. I want you to work with the Leng Group to develop a game. What do you think?”

“It’d be my honor!”

Guo Junhao agreed to Leng Qirui’s invitation without a second thought.

Previously, Guo Junhao had helped Nuannuan out in class before. Although she did not need the help, she was still very grateful to him.

Seeing these two men come into the KTV room and reach a business agreement in just a few words, Nuannuan, who was famous for her business acumen, asked curiously, “How are you two going to cooperate? What are you going to do?”

Leng Qirui sized up Nangong Nuannuan and asked, “Why? Are you going to buy shares again?”

“Yes!” Nangong Nuannuan nodded without hesitation.

“Boss, do you really trust our Young Brother Leng so much? What if he cheats you? Our Imperial Phoenix Group has already supported him a lot with our money. He has lost money for half a year! Every month, there is a large amount of expenditure, but no profit at all! How can you still support him?”

Nuannuan glanced at Selina, who was making sarcastic remarks, and smiled. “This is your Young Brother Leng you’re talking about. He’s your fiance.”

Selina giggled. “Although he’s my fiance, you know, Boss, you’re basically his first wife... Or should I say, his first husband! But if my Young Brother Leng’s business goes bankrupt, I will of course take care of him. But Boss, don’t engage in cronyism!”

Nuannuan looked at Leng Qirui with a smile. “Your wife talks about you like that, and you don’t care?”

Leng Qirui’s ears turned red when he heard the word ‘wife’.

“Didn’t she say that she’d care for me when I’m broke?”

Due to Selina’s she-devil T-rex attitude, he did not dare to provoke her, okay?! She was a wife who could not be controlled. He did not dare to say anything.

Nuannuan looked at Leng Qirui and clicked her tongue.

“What?” Leng Qirui asked unhappily.

“I didn’t expect Young Master Leng, the school bully, to be so whipped by his wife.”

“When was I ever the school bully? Was it not just a misunderstanding on you guys’ parts?”

“You still want to claim you weren’t the school bully? Do you not understand what ‘school bully’ means?” Chi Yang, who had been silent all this while, suddenly joined the conversation for the first time.

The group of girls recalled the time when the arrogant school bully Leng had followed Nuannuan to Big Brother Chi Yang’s house for a meal. In the end, all he got was a boatload of PDA. They had all laughed at him.

Leng Qirui was not in a good mood after being rebuked by Big Brother Chi Yang. “Big Brother Chi, I’m the campus prince! So many of my classmates are here. How could I be lying to you? Even if you’re handsome, you can’t deny others’ handsomeness! We all have our own unique qualities!”

Chapter 1820: Dissolved Laughter

Although only Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan could tease Leng Qirui like this, and even though he feared Chi Yang the most, he was still the chairman of the Leng Group, and... Selina was still sitting right beside him, so he did not want to lose face.

His point was that Selina was so outstanding and beautiful, and he still could not figure out why this goddess liked him. He had not had sex with her yet because he felt inferior in her presence. He was afraid that he did not deserve her.

Chi Yang looked at Leng Qirui, who was trying his best to speak up for himself in front of everyone. How could Chi Yang not see through his little thoughts?

“So what if a man is handsome? You’re so shallow! If you were really a great man, would your fiancée have said that Nuannuan was your husband? At least my Nuannuan would never say that another woman was my wife, let alone my husband!”

Leng Qirui, “...”

“If you really are the legendary campus prince and an overbearing president in the eyes of thousands, you should look after your wife and not allow her to continue telling people that Nuannuan is your husband.”

Leng Qirui, “...”

Okay, so you are a jealous man! Still, why do you have to stab me in the back like this?

Leng Qirui’s face looked as if he had been trampled on by ten thousand horses. It was a look difficult to decipher.

However, he was facing Chi Yang, the only man in his life that he did not dare to confront.

Selina immediately complained.

“Brother-in-law, are you jealous of me too? My revolutionary friendship with Boss is so deep. How can you be jealous of me and Boss? I’m a girl!”

Chi Yang glanced at Selina, who did not seem to care about Leng Qirui at all. He reached out and hugged Nuannuan in his arms, refusing to give in. “She is mine, and mine alone. Even if you’re a woman, you can’t get too close to her!”

Selina looked hurt. Then, she pouted and held Leng Qirui’s hand. “Stingy! What’s so great about that? Anyway, I still have my Young Brother Leng.”

However, Leng Qirui was still not happy. His eyes dimmed.

In Selina’s heart, was he always second place, or perhaps even farther back?

In Nangong Nuannuan’s heart, Big Brother Chi was ranked first.

Then...

Did Selina like him or not?

Did she just want to fall in love with him and test his limits?

Just as Chi Yang crushed Leng Qirui with his wit, Nangong Li walked over with a group of the Nangong family’s older brothers. Nangong Li even placed his arm on Chi Yang’s shoulder.

“Did you just say that Nuannuan is yours? Is she yours alone?”

Chi Yang, “...”

Fourth brother, Nangong Zheng, said, “Nuannuan is the little princess of our Nangong family. Before she could even find her family, she was snatched away by a wolf like you. Now, you’re telling all your friends that she is yours alone in front of us?”

Chi Yang, “...”

The fifth brother, Nangong Yi, said, “You’re a soldier and the head of the military base. How can you be so shameless?”

Chi Yang, “...”

The sixth brother, Nangong Ze, said, “Repeat what you said just now. Do you believe that we won’t compete with you for her attention every day in the future?”

“Pfft, hahahahaha!”

After listening to the four Nangong brothers’ words and seeing that her brother-in-law did not dare to say anything in front of the four domineering men, Selina could not help but burst into laughter.

Leng Qirui was just about to laugh too. He opened his mouth, but he then received a cold glare from Big Brother Chi. All his laughter dissolved in his throat.
