

Physician Wife 1841

Chapter 1841: A Gorgeous Family

As the seventh handsome man walked out of the luxury car, he turned back to look inside. The girls at the scene all covered their mouths, waiting for an eighth man, who would surely be more handsome than the previous seven, to appear.

Unexpectedly, the eighth man was instead a girl.

A very beautiful girl, whose beauty beat those of A-list celebrities, walked out of the car. She was so beautiful that it almost angered the people that saw her.

Three handsome middle-aged men walked out of the car behind the girl. After that, the trunk of the car behind the three handsome middle-aged men was opened. The driver took out an electric wheelchair, and immediately after, a man who looked ordinary walked out. Despite his average looks, he still triggered a sense of amazement within the people that saw him. After he walked out, the driver helped him into the wheelchair. Normally, someone in a wheelchair would be dispirited, with a sad aura. However, this man gave off a feeling of unbothered confidence. He had a gentle and jade-like temperament.

Two old men, in their 70s and 80s respectively, followed him from behind.

Although the two men were already old, their waists were still narrow and upright. At a glance, one could already tell that these two old men were definitely not ordinary.

A total of 13 men surrounded the girl who had just come out of the car.

Some rubbed her head, some straightened her collar, and some helped her check the items in the small pencil bag in her hand. The rest were all looking at her with caring and doting eyes. It was as if they were stars surrounding the moon, protecting it with all their might.

Although the crowd did not know who this group of people was, from the Rolls-Royces and the number of men standing around the car, one could tell that they were the girl's bodyguards. The extremely tight and straight suits on the men's bodies, also warned that if provoked, any of these men would be able to tear up Jiang District with just a stomp of their foot.

"Oh my God, was that girl a goddess in her past life? Not only is she so beautiful, but she also has so many outstanding men surrounding her."

"Who are these handsome men to the girl? Are they her older brothers?"

"They should be! After all, they all look a bit like the girl."

"Those four middle-aged handsome uncles should be her father and uncle. Even her middle-aged male family members are so handsome! There's no other family with such good looks."

"That's right. Even the most ordinary-looking guy in the group, the one sitting in a wheelchair, is super attractive. Don't you guys think so too?"

"We do!" A few girls responded in unison.

“That old man should be the girl’s grandfather! Oh, how nice! With so many relatives accompanying her to the test, being called ‘a born winner’ isn’t enough to describe how lucky she is.”

“Wait, wait, wait. Don’t you think that the most handsome man looks familiar?”

“I wanted to say the same thing. Not only does the most handsome man look familiar, but that middle-aged man also looks familiar.”

“Do you think that that middle-aged guy looks a little like the person in charge of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs who gives speeches all the time on the national news?”

“F*ck! You’re right!”

“Don’t tell me you’re only looking at the minister of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs? Haven’t you noticed that the most handsome man of the group is the chief commander of the Eagle Special Forces, the combat team which broke the internet recently?”

Chapter 1842: Saved the Entire World From Sure Extinction

“Oh!”

“Oh!”

“Oh!!!”

...

The moment that girl revealed Chi Yang’s identity, the crowd erupted into countless howls.

It really was him!

Previously, because of the scary virus epidemic that had taken place in Emperor District, Chi Yang had taken to national media to explain the situation. At that time, he had been dressed in camouflage. However, his tall and straight figure and his god-like appearance had left a deep impression on the people watching, especially on the female citizens who especially liked handsome men.

Although Chi Yang usually dressed casually when he was with Nuannuan, and his aura was no longer that of a domineering chief, girls still fawned over him. They liked watching videos of him over and over again.

Chi Yang did not have a Weibo account, so that limited how much stalking could be done. They could only watch the few videos they had over and over again. He had also spawned many rumors and fanfictions about the military base. Therefore, it was understandable that he had been recognized.

“What relationship do Chi Yang and that girl have?”

“Chi Yang should be with his family, so that should be his sister, right?”

“Can you guys use your brains? Chi Yang only has one grandfather, okay? His grandfather, Chi Yuancheng, is the only grand marshal in our country. How could he have any other family?”

“But didn’t you notice that there are two old men over there? Also, look at their straight backs. One look and you can tell that they’re ex-soldiers with a strict military background. That old man looks very similar to Chi Yang. He can’t be Grand Marshal Chi Yuansheng, right?”

Everyone, “...?!”

“Then this girl could be Nangong Nuannuan, right?”

“It should be her.” Chi Yang had said that he was Nangong Nuannuan’s fiancé before. Moreover, it was said that almost all the men in the Nangong family were outstanding, and there was not a single girl in the family. Nangong Nuannuan had been so doted on back then by the Nangong family at first because she was the first girl in the family. Look, there’s three generations’ worth of a dozen or so men standing around her. This girl must be Nangong Nuannuan.”

“Then the one standing beside Old Master Chi must be General Nangong.”

Everyone, “...!!!”

After a long silence, someone finally could not help but say, “Nangong Nuannuan must have really done some great things in her past life to have been blessed with all this! Not only does she have such a noble fiancé, but she also has six handsome brothers.”

“Great things? Even if she saved the entire world from sure extinction, this seems like a prize too generous!”

The students were chatting very enthusiastically amongst themselves. Even the students’ parents were enjoying the gossip. Many people could not help but take out their phones and secretly snap some photos.

“But... why did Nangong Nuannuan come to Jiang District? And why is she standing by the side of the road?”

“That’s enough! He has a fiancée. If you take a photo with him, Miss Nangong will definitely be unhappy. And if Miss Nangong is unhappy, you’re offending the entire Nangong family at once. How dare you suggest such a thing!

“Nangong Nuannuan used to be called Zhong Nuannuan. When she was three years old, she was sold by her stepmother to a human trafficker. Later, when she was 17 years old and in her third year of high school, she returned to Jiang District and found her parents. But the home that she found was not the one she expected to find.”

Chapter 1843: The Enigmatic Mu Qingxuan

“At that time, Chi Yang happened to be on a secret mission in the Jiang District military base headquarters. His father was a spy at the headquarters, so in order to get more useful information, he gave Zhong Nuannuan to Chi Yang. In the end, Chi Yang captured Zhong Nuannuan’s father, who was a complete scumbag. It was said that back then, he had forced Zhong Nuannuan to be separated from her family and lose her memory. He wanted to seize her mother’s money, so he married her mother. Later, she got the money from the family, but she sold her daughter. However, she did not expect her daughter to be linked to a rich family. She had given up a watermelon because she thought all she had was a sesame seed. It's been said that the Zhong family was sentenced later. The Nangong family recognized Zhong Nuannuan and changed her name to Nangong Nuannuan, and Chi Yang remained her fiancé."

A girl with an unfathomable expression told everyone what she knew about the pair.

"How do you know that?" a girl from another school asked.

The girl glanced at the girls and parents who were looking at her with great admiration and said, "Nangong Nuannuan was my classmate. She sat behind me back then."

Her words made even more girls envious.

Li Shanshan, who was standing in the crowd, enjoyed the admiring gazes of the girls from other schools. She smiled and looked at the girl she was talking about. However, she was too scared to go up and greet her.

To be able to stand here and participate in the college entrance examination, she was already considered very lucky as someone from Zhong Qianqian's group.

She, Xue Miqi, and Wu Wenqian had been chummy with Zhong Qianqian back then, and they used to be in a group of four. Zhong Qianqian was later hurt by Ye Mengxi, Xue Miqi was silenced by Zhong Qianqian in prison, and Wu Wenqian did not admit to her mistakes until after Nuannuan punished her, worsening her pre-existing injuries and leaving her permanently disabled. In order to heal her own feet, Wu Wenqian had gone to a nightclub to sell herself. Her classmates found out and reported her to the school, and in the end, she was expelled by Jia Yong.

Among the four of them, only she, who had apologized to Nangong Nuannuan in advance, had been given the chance to stand at the school gates and wait to take her college entrance examination.

She never thought that Zhong Nuannuan, who used to be called a country bumpkin, actually had such a powerful family background.

If she had known that, she would never have joined Zhong Qianqian's side!

Not long after, another luxury car drove up and parked behind Nangong Nuannuan's motorcade.

The door of the luxury car opened, and a handsome man stepped out. After the man got out of the car, he immediately went to the front passenger seat and opened the door. Only then did he look in the direction of Nangong Nuannuan and the rest. He smiled brightly at everyone.

Li Shanshan saw that the person getting out of the front passenger seat was Mu Qingxuan.

Mu Qingxuan's identity had always been a mystery to the class. Everybody only knew that she was a rich student with a powerful family. However, she had never told anyone what exactly her family did. When the students saw how lowkey she acted, they figured that she was definitely not the daughter of anyone that important, so no one paid much attention to her.

Mu Qingxuan was very beautiful. She was at least much prettier than Zhong Qianqian. However, because Zhong Qianqian was well-off, she was always competing with the daughter of one of the members of the school board, Ye Mengxi, for the place of campus belle.

At this moment, Mu Qingxuan got out of the limited edition luxury car. The handsome man who opened the car door for her put his arm around her shoulder and walked straight to Nangong Nuannuan and the others to greet them.

Chapter 1844: Too Many Fairy Tales

After joining the others, the man beside Mu Qingling greeted Chi Yang and everyone in the Nangong family as if he was very familiar with them. As for the men of the Nangong family, even the elderly ones seemed to be very familiar with this man and smiled as they exchanged a few words with him.

Mu Qingxuan followed the man and also greeted each of the Nangong brothers one by one. Then, after Nangong Nuannuan's introductions, she greeted her grandfather and three uncles.

After that, Mu Qingxuan and Nangong Nuannuan chatted and laughed while the man beside Mu Qingxuan stood next to Chi Yang, looking at ease. Although it was obvious that the man was an amicable guy, a man like Chi Yang responding to him proved that this man was definitely from the aristocratic circle of Emperor District.

Li Shanshan stared blankly at Mu Qingxuan, who was chatting and laughing with Nangong Nuannuan. Her heart was filled with envy and jealousy.

Mu Qingxuan was the biggest mystery in their class besides Nangong Nuannuan. It turned out that she had such a rich boyfriend! Mu Qingxuan's family background must be very impressive for her to be able to date such a man, right?

"I'm so envious of those friends with Nangong Nuannuan. If I become her good friend, wouldn't I be able to get to know her outstanding brothers?"

"That's right! Look at that girl. She must have her sights set on them."

Hearing the envious voices that could not be drowned out, Li Shanshan sneered and said, "Her sights set on them? Stop dreaming. Rich families care more about strong alliances than love. All the wives of men from rich and powerful families are beautiful. It would be a rarity for an ugly child to be produced. There is an 80% likelihood that everyone in a rich family will also be good-looking. How could such rich and powerful young masters give up beautiful girls with a good background for poor ones? Have you all read too many Cinderella-like fairy tales? Nangong Nuannuan is from one of the richest and most powerful families in our country. How could she be friends with people like you?"

After all, Li Shanshan had been in Jia Yong for three years. She was no longer naive enough to think that as long as she met a suitable guy, she would be able to marry him and have all her dreams come true.

After all, she had been by Zhong Qianqian's side for so long, and she and her two other friends had never gotten any kickbacks from it.

Even people from third-rate families like Gu Mingzhe would not spare them even a second glance, let alone a first-rate family like the Nangong family.

Li Shanshan's attitude toward the girls she was thinking about became even more unkind when she thought about what had happened to her previously.

She deeply believed that Nangong Nuannuan would be willing to introduce her brothers to Mu Qingxuan and that Mu Qingxuan was able to date a man who knew Chi Yang because she was from a top noble family that her classmates did not know about. Otherwise, Jia Yong's principal would not be so polite to Mu Qingxuan every time he saw her.

"What's wrong with you? We're just fantasizing. Even if we've read too many fairy tales, why do you care?"

"That's right. It's like you're claiming you don't want to date some guy when you're just afraid you'll be rejected by him if you try."

"After all, you didn't even dare to greet her after standing here for so long. You have such a bad temper. Are you jealous of her?"

"That's right. If I were Nangong Nuannuan's friend, I would definitely go up to her and greet her. Nangong Nuannuan is so kind she allows the medicine she concocted to be used for free. She must be a very nice person."

Chapter 1845: Your Words Are Coming Back to Bite You

"I don't believe that Nangong Nuannuan would stop her good friends from getting to know her family."

"Yeah!"

Li Shanshan was annoyed by the crowd. Just as she was about to re-explain the understanding of wealthy families that she had gained over the years, a bus stopped opposite the venue. Gu Xiaoli got off. Before the bus left, she saw Nangong Nuannuan's eye-catching appearance.

"Nuannuan! Qingxuan!" Gu Xiaoli happily waved at the two of them.

"Xiaoli!" Nangong Nuannuan and Mu Qingxuan smiled and waved at Gu Xiaoli. They did not mind that she had just gotten off the bus.

Gu Xiaoli smiled and ran to Nangong Nuannuan's side. Then, she happily greeted Chi Yang and the Nangong brothers. Nangong Nuannuan introduced Gu Xiaoli to her family members.

Everyone, from Old Master Nangong to the Nangong brothers, greeted Gu Xiaoli politely with a smile on their faces. They did not look down on Gu Xiaoli just because they were from a wealthy family.

"Tsk tsk, didn't someone just say that because Nangong Nuannuan is from a wealthy family, she doesn't know how to be friends with ordinary people? Your words are coming back to bite you!"

"I saw that girl get off the bus just now. Now, she's happily chatting to Nangong Nuannuan's family."

"What a slap in the face!"

"Hey, hey, get away from her! Don't stand beside this girl. Can't you see that she has a really twisted worldview? She tries to manipulate everything to fit her narrative because she has issues admitting her own shortcomings. Because of that, even though goddess Nuannuan was her classmate, they never had much of a relationship.”

With that, the group of girls who had been standing around Li Shanshan distanced themselves from her, leaving her by herself.

Li Shanshan was so angry that she was trembling. However, when she saw Gu Xiaoli joking with the Nangong family’s handsome brothers, she grew extremely envious.

She hated Zhong Qianqian to death. She cursed her to reincarnate as a pig in her next life.

After all, if not for Zhong Qianqian, she and Wu Wenqian would not have targeted Nangong Nuannuan as much as they did. If she had not done that, even if she did not have a good relationship with Nangong Nuannuan in the past, she could still rely on her good social butterfly skills to become friends with her in the present.

As she saw Gu Xiaoli, a student just like her, actually getting to the Nangong family through Nangong Nuannuan, she was especially angry.

Li Shanshan’s heart was like a shaken bottle of mixed emotions ready to erupt at any minute. The taste of something sour, bitter, astringent, and smelly rushed into her mouth, and her expression grew sour.

Not long after, Yan Fangfang, Leng Qirui, and Guo Junhao arrived at the venue one after another. They all stood around Nangong Nuannuan.

Because of Nangong Nuannuan’s big group of family and friends, she was beginning to form a crowd of her own.

Li Shanshan argued with herself for a long time. Finally, because she could not withstand the shock and yearning that the Nangong family brought her any longer, she walked up to Nangong Nuannuan.

“Hi, Nuannuan. Are you also taking the exam today?”

Nangong Nuannuan, who had been happily chatting to her friends, looked at Li Shanshan, who had just greeted her in a friendly manner, and her smile faded.

The young masters of the Nangong family, who initially smiled as gently as a spring breeze when they saw Gu Xiaoli, a girl whose family was poorer than Li Shanshan’s, also lost their smiles when they saw their sister’s one fade.

When these people smiled, it was like a gentle wind was caressing you. It felt like their smile was a magnetic field that made everyone want to get closer to them.

However, they were all still upper-class people. Once they stopped smiling and put away their spring-like temperament, all that was left was the imposing aura of ticked-off upper-class people.

Chapter 1846: Spasming

Li Shanshan was as petty as a mouse and would not have been able to withstand the aura of even one of these men. Now, she was being faced with about a dozen of them at the same time, in addition to Ning Wenhao and Leng Qirui. Her legs were shaking... No, they were spasming.

She had walked over with a smile on her face, but right now, her face was pale and beads of sweat dotted her forehead.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Li Shanshan coldly, making her feel as if Nuannuan was seeing right through her.

It made her feel very ashamed.

It had only been a greeting, but Li Shanshan deeply regretted it.

Nangong Nuannuan was no longer the kind of girl that someone like her could get close to.

She had come here to join in on the fun, but she had actually just been asking to be humiliated.

Seeing that Li Shanshan realized how shameless she was after saying that, Nangong Nuannuan did not embarrass her anymore.

She said to her family around her, "Let's head in. You guys find a place to sit for the time being. I'll come out after I finish the exam."

"Okay. Take your time. There's no rush." Chi Yang smiled and rubbed Nuannuan's head.

Nuannuan's brothers saw Chi Yang rubbing her head. Their hands itched, so they went forward to do the same themselves.

Nuannuan, "...". Fortunately, she had tied her hair up today. Otherwise, she would have walked into the exam hall with a bird's nest on her head.

Li Shanshan was completely ignored by Nangong Nuannuan and her family and friends. Her entire body, from her hair to her toes, reddened in embarrassment.

The students who had been insulted by her earlier looked at her with disdain.

Even though Li Shanshan could not hear what they were saying at this moment, she could guess what they were talking about. She was so embarrassed that she could only quickly run away.

As expected, consequences were always sure to come.

Ever since she joined Zhong Qianqian's side and bullied Nangong Nuannuan, she had no chance to change her mind. The other wealthy families also gave up on her then.

After leaving the men, Nangong Nuannuan could not help but ask Mu Qingxuan beside her, "I saw you walk over hand in hand with Ning Wenhao today. What happened? Did your father agree to it?"

Mu Qingxuan smiled and nodded. "Yes."

"When I left that day, I saw your father looking as if a rare treasure had been snatched away from him. I thought he would make things difficult for Ning Wenhao, but he actually accepted him so easily. He really is all bark and no bite!"

Mu Qingxuan could not help but laugh out loud when she thought back to that night.

"My father is feeling gloomy. He was tricked by Brother Ye."

“What happened?”

Mu Qingxuan saw her roommates’ gossiping eyes twinkling. She said, “After you guys left that day, the doctor said I was fine and that I could already be discharged from the hospital, so brother Ye sent me home. After my dad dealt with Qi Huiyin and Mu Qingling, he asked Brother Ye out for dinner that night.”

“Your dad is pretty nice! He even treated that boy to dinner. Then, Ning Wenhao, that big-tailed wolf, took you away and even tricked your dad. How could he do that?”

Nuannuan could not help but ask what was on her mind. After all, Big Brother Chi Yang was still not well-liked within the Nangong family. If she was not around, he would not be able to sit down with them for a meal.

Therefore, Nangong Nuannuan felt that compared to Big Brother Chi Yang’s misery, Ning Wenhao was in heaven.

Mu Qingxuan chuckled. “Do you know why my father asked Brother Ye to have a meal?”

Chapter 1847: I Want to Hand in My Papers

“Why?”

“Because my father is an official, as you know, and he can hold his liquor very well. He wanted to get Brother Ye drunk and then interrogate him with some tricky questions over video. That way, the moment Brother Ye said something he shouldn’t have, Dad would have his words on tape to use against him in the future.”

Nangong Nuannuan, “...” Perhaps her grandfather and brothers were actually pretty nice people.

“What happened in the end? How did Ning Wenhao turn the tables on your father?”

“He didn’t get drunk at all. And not only was he not drunk, but he even got my father drunk in the end! Then, he tried to trick my father. Not only did he get my father to agree to me dating him, but he even talked to him about engagement and marriage. He recorded my father’s agreement. Dad was so drunk he happily agreed. He even said that if he didn’t agree, he would be a dog. But Brother Ye didn’t let him off even then. In the end, my father swore everything on my mother’s reputation. That night, Brother Ye stayed over at my house. This morning, when my father woke up, he was so angry that he wanted to kick him out. In the end, Brother Ye brought out the recording. My father was so angry that he hit him. But even as he kicked him out, he still swore on my mother’s reputation. Dad was so angry that he didn’t want to send me to the college entrance exam. Did you see that Brother Ye sent me here today?”

“Huh...?” Nuannuan gasped at the story.

She did not expect that Ning Wenhao, who was usually so honest and straightforward, could be such a trickster!

What a prankmaster!

When she went back, she would have to tell Big Brother Chi Yang to learn from him.

15 minutes after an examination began, no new students would be allowed in. Half an hour after the start of the examination, examinees could hand their papers in.

However, no one would be stupid enough to hand their exam papers in after only 30 minutes.

However, there was an exception this year.

The first subject was Chinese. Because there were many reading questions and it was very difficult, many were afraid that they would not be able to finish all the questions. However, Nangong Nuannuan finished everything in 20 minutes. After waiting for 10 minutes, her paper could finally be handed in. She did not wait a minute longer before raising her hand.

“Student, what’s the matter?”

“Teacher, I want to hand in my papers.”

Nangong Nuannuan’s words made all the examinees in the classroom raise their heads.

None of Nuannuan’s classmates were in this exam room, but many of the students had seen her outside the school gate just now. After all, the motorcade had been too eye-catching. Therefore, everyone recognized the girl who was trying to hand in her paper.

Well, if they had a family background like Nangong Nuannuan’s, they would not have bothered trying at the college entrance exam in the first place either.

“Student, are you sure you want to hand in your papers?”

“Yes.” Nangong Nuannuan nodded.

“Student, the college entrance exam is one of the most important exams in your life. Even if you don’t know how to do the questions, you should at least try your best. This is not only responsible for the rest of your own life, but also your parents’. Was it easy for your parents to send you to school?”

Nangong Nuannuan smiled slightly. “Teacher, I’ve already finished all the questions. I must have really let myself and my family down.”

After saying that, she stood up. “Am I allowed to leave and just leave my papers here?”

The teacher’s face darkened. “If you want to leave, then leave. You are indeed allowed to hand in papers 30 minutes after an exam begins. Just keep your voice down and don’t distract the other examinees.”

The invigilator mistook Nangong Nuannuan for a woman who planned to rely on her beauty and marry a rich man to support herself. His attitude towards her was very cold.

Chapter 1848: Who Is She?

Nuannuan did not care about what others thought of her. She walked to the back of the classroom, picked up her bag, and left.

The invigilator picked up Nangong Nuannuan’s paper and casually glanced at it before his eyes froze.

His glance just so happened to land on her neatly-written composition.

He happened to be a Chinese teacher, so he took a few more glances. He was really shocked by what he was seeing.

20 minutes. Even if she had known the answers in advance, and even if she had memorized them, she should not have been able to finish all the questions in that time!

However, this female student named Nangong Nuannuan had not only finished all the questions, but her answers were all correct. Even the composition... was written perfectly.

How... Did she do it?

Seeing the first invigilator's shocked expression, the other invigilator could not help but walk up to her. She was also a language teacher, so when she saw the neat handwriting and extremely well-written paper, she was also shocked.

Suddenly, a scene flashed through her mind. The invigilator could not help but say, "I know who she is."

Although her voice was quiet, the other invigilator could still hear her. He could not help but ask, "Who is she?"

"Zhong Nuannuan, the girl who represented Camino to Yamato to participate in a high-school-level competition and defeated a member of the royal family, Kitano Zawa. She led Camino's team to winning the championship!"

The invigilator, "...!!!"

As Nuannuan left the room, she planned to call Big Brother Chi Yang and ask where everyone was waiting for her. However, she saw that her whole family was still at the gates, and they did not look like they were going anywhere.

Nuannuan felt her heart warm, and she quickly ran out.

Chi Yang was the first to see her, and he immediately went up to greet her. He touched her forehead, but there was no sweat on it. He admonished her lovingly. "I told you not to be anxious. Look at you running all over the place."

"Nuannuan, why did you come out so quickly?" Nangong Ze asked.

"I finished. After I finished, I waited for half an hour to pass from the start of the exam so I could hand in my papers. After that, I came out."

Nangong Ze smiled so much that his peach blossom eyes curved up. "That's good. Let's go and have breakfast."

"Okay."

Nuannuan walked to her grandpa and Grandfather Chi's side. The two old men were already so old that in order to accompany her to her exams, they actually had to have someone bring two chairs over so they could sit outside under the shade of some trees. Her eyes were hot with tears.

In her previous life, she had been betrayed by her family. In this life, she no longer cared about family. However, the Nangong family and the Chi family had given her a kinship that was so loving and strong that she had gladly sunken into it.

“Girl, why did you come out so quickly?”

The two old men had not heard the conversation between Nangong Nuan and Nangong Ze earlier. When they saw Nuannuan come out, they asked her this with an extremely amiable smile.

“I’ve already finished the exam. Once something is finished, I don’t hang around. Grandpa, didn’t I tell you to go back or find a place to sit and wait for me? It’s so hot outside. What if you get sunstroke?”

The two old men laughed. Grandpa Nangong said, “Your Grandfather Chi and I used to fight in trenches. No matter how difficult things were back then, we always found a way through. Why be afraid of a little sunlight?”

“That’s right! Your Grandpa and I used to run into hails of bullets. Aren’t we just waiting outside right now?”

Nuannuan felt helpless. “Grandpa, Grandfather Chi, I know that you two were very legendary in the past!”

Chapter 1849: A Real 180-Degree Turn

“But as one gets older, one’s blood vessels and internal organs age. If one is exposed to the sun for too long, one’s circulation will accelerate. If the blood vessels are not perfectly healthy, this acceleration can cause a blockage.”

Seeing that this Nuannuan girl was planning to teach them a lesson again, the two grandfathers immediately surrendered. They laughed and said, “What are you so afraid of? Don’t we have you to treat us? Ah, let’s go, let’s go! Let’s go have some morning tea and find a place with a good view to rest. Only then can you properly use your brain to take your afternoon test.”

Nuannuan had no choice but to help the old men up with one hand. “Let’s go. Let’s go have some morning tea.”

Everyone was still taking the test. There were even one or two examinees who had been late for various reasons. As they cried outside the hall door, Nangong Nuannuan prepared to leave with her family.

It was only after the Nangong family left that Governor Mu Xigui, Governor Li Yunshen, and the public security and special forces police arrived. However, the family was long gone at this point.

The parents outside the school gate were shocked. The girl who had just come out was really the granddaughter of two senior officials.

It turned out that no matter how much power and influence they might have, they were still like most ordinary grandfathers, accompanying their granddaughter to take her exams. They even sat in the sun like ordinary parents did as they waited for their children to finish the exam.

Not long after Governor Mu Xigui and Governor Li Yunshen arrived, the new chief commander of the Jiang District military base also arrived. When they heard that the two old chiefs had already left, disappointment in their eyes could not be hidden.

However, after hearing that the two chiefs had been waiting for their granddaughter to finish her examination in the morning, knowing that there were still examinations in the afternoon and tomorrow, the leaders decided to come back when the time was right.

However, to the disappointment of the Jiang District leaders, under Nuannuan's forceful orders, her two grandfathers, three uncles, and her second uncle were left at home. They were not allowed to come out and bask in the sun anymore.

Initially, the three uncles had insisted on letting the two grandfathers and the second uncle, who was not in good health, rest at home while they accompanied Nuannuan for her exams. However, to ensure that the rebellious three did not escape, Nuannuan insisted on not letting her uncles go out either. There was nothing they could do about it.

In the afternoon, when the leaders of the state, Union District, and the military base arrived outside the examination venue, they only saw Chi Yang, Ning Wenhao, and the Nangong brothers.

Even so, everyone was very happy.

Although Chi Yang and the battle department's commander-in-chief were on the same level of superiority, he owed his abilities as an outstanding commander-in-chief to Chi Yang, in a sense. He had also come from the Eagle Special Forces, but he had studied under Chi Yang's father, Chi Zehao.

Now that Chi Zehao was dead, being able to meet his son and the new Eagle Special Forces commander-in-chief was a very joyous occasion for the new commander-in-chief.

After the exam, Nangong Nuannuan went back with her family.

Less than a month later, the examination results were released.

On the day of release, Nangong Nuannuan's name became like a tornado, instantly engulfing the entirety of Camino.

A full score was 750 points. For a liberal arts student, 600 points was already considered high. The Military Medical University score line was 638 points. Nangong Nuannuan had scored a whopping 749 points.

The one deducted point had been for the Chinese essay. Although it was written very well, the point had been taken away to prove that no essay could be perfect.

No one else in the current batch had gotten 749 points, nor had anyone from the previous batches. This was a very unique score.

Nangong Nuannuan, a girl who was kidnapped by human traffickers at the age of three and returned home at 17, was not only the daughter of the Nangong family, but also the top scorer in the college entrance examinations. Her life had taken a real 180-degree turn!

Chapter 1850: Reunited

The crowd could not help but sigh. The heavens bestowed some with great blessings, while others had to first strain their muscles and bones, starve their bodies, empty their guts, and build discipline to be able to do anything worthwhile.

Along with Nangong Nuannuan, Shi Yalin also caused a sensation.

Nangong Nuannuan was the top scorer in this year's college entrance examination. The second-highest scorer was Shi Yalin.

Shi Yalin had ranked second with a score of 741 points, leaving the third place behind in her dust, as that person had only received 712 points.

When people found out that Shi Yalin was actually the daughter of a first-rate aristocratic family in Emperor District, they were speechless.

People often talked about how they had already lost at life from the moment of their very conception. They talked about how sons and daughters of aristocratic families did not need to work hard to get things that ordinary people could work toward for their entire lives and still not get.

Nangong Nuannuan and Shi Yalin, the daughters of the two first-rate wealthy families, slapped these people across the face.

Not only were these two girls born winners, but they were hardworking too. Not only did they rely on their families' reputation to have a high social standing, but they also relied on their personal talent to be the best among their peers.

The people who believed that wealthy people were just parasites began to reflect on their beliefs after seeing what Nangong Nuannuan and Shi Yalin had done.

There was a reason why these families had gotten so rich in the first place.

Old Master Nangong and Old Master Shi were extremely happy that Nangong Nuannuan and Shi Yalin were the top scorers of the college entrance examination. They decided to hold a grand banquet for some guests to come by and celebrate with them.

Old Master Nangong invited many old friends, including Old Master Chi, other retired elders, and leaders of the administrative department. Of course, Old Master Chi, who was his in-law, was also one of the banquet's organizers. The organizers made the decision to not invite Old Master Ning, Old Master Xiao, and Old Master Shi.

After the Nangong family's banquet came to a close, Old Master Shi actually invited Old Master Chi to attend Shi Yalin's celebratory banquet.

The Shi family not only invited Old Master Chi, but even Chi Yang.

Because the Shi family was being monitored, Old Master Chi and Chi Yang, who initially did not plan to attend, decided to go.

When the housekeeper told Old Master Shi that Grand Marshal Chi Yuancheng had arrived, he was stunned for a while.

“Where is Grand Marshal Chi?” Old Master Shi happily asked.

“Outside the door. He just got out of the car.”

Old Master Shi immediately stood up and walked out.

“Brother-in-law, I’ll go with you to greet him. I haven’t seen my brother for a very long time.”

Old Master Shi stood up at the same time an old lady sitting in the living room stood up too.

He glanced at the old lady and felt a little awkward.

“Sister-in-law, the grand marshal has already severed his relationship with you. It’s a little inappropriate for you to go out with me, isn’t it?”

The other party did not seem to hear Old Master Shi’s disdain. She chuckled and said, “Listen to what you’re saying. My brother and I have been brother and sister for close to 70 years. Even if my brother feels a little uncomfortable around me because of my son, blood is still thicker than water. Brother-in-law, don’t you want to see me and my brother reunited?”

Old Master Shi really wanted to see Grandma Pei and Old Master Chi get back together. Back then, he had agreed to let the Pei family’s daughter-in-law be their eldest daughter-in-law and control the Shi family’s economics with Shi Maude because Grandma Pei was Old Master Chi’s sister. Grandma Pei’s mother raised Old Master Chi when he was young.
