

Physician Wife 1881

Chapter 1881: Too Arrogant

“You fool, I’m your husband! If I don’t treat you well, who will?”

In the front hall, Grandma Pei was at a loss for words. She had completely lost all her dignity.

Old Master Chi, who had been unhappy and silent before, was now grinning widely as he ate all the fruits and pastries that Nangong Nuannuan served him. He then reached out to take some more pastries, but she stopped him, telling him not to eat too many sweets.

His granddaughter-in-law was so strict, but Old Master Chi and Chi Yang looked happy. Everyone knew that Nangong Nuannuan was not only a successful businessman, but her status in the Chi family was also commendable.

Old Master Ning had initially wanted to complain to Old Master Chi. He wanted to tell him that Nangong Nuannuan had ordered him to ban the Hengliang Group, which was under the Ning group, over a small matter.

However, seeing how Nangong Nuannuan was so favored, Old Master Ning tactfully swallowed his words. After going over the conversation in his head, he spoke directly said to Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan. “Chairman Nangong, I already know about Yuan Anmin’s incident. His son, Yuan Mingbo, got too big for his britches at school and bullied your nephew, Nangong Xu. In the end, his parents hit Nangong Xu for no reason—meaning the family has angered you twice.

“I’m deeply sorry about this matter. Even though I’m not familiar with this person, he’s the vice-chairman of the Hengliang Group and a member of the Ning Group. Therefore, I agree with Lieutenant General Chi’s and Chairman Nangong’s punishment of depriving Yuan Anmin of his shares. Such a person can’t discipline his son or even himself well! What right does he have to manage a listed group? Such a person is a worm of society and the scum of humanity!”

Ning Zhennan looked at her and laughed bitterly. “But, Chairman Nangong, the Hengliang Group is the only listed company under my daughter-in-law. It is a large-scale real estate company with a good reputation. My daughter-in-law spent 20 years growing the company and getting it into the public eye. You too own a company, so you know that it is not easy to manage one.

“In the past two months, your Imperial Phoenix Group has been pulling down the Hengliang Group, resulting in five large-scale losses. The net profit from these deals would have amounted to 200 million yuan. Initially, I wanted to come to you to ask for mercy, but I also know that if you don’t punish them, you won’t be satisfied.

“Now, Yuan Anmin has been completely removed from the Hengliang Group. The group has forcefully repossessed all properties that were under his name. I wonder if the losses faced by the Hengliang Group over the past two months have satisfied Chairman Nangong?”

The harmless little rabbit, who had been acting cute in front of Old Master Chi just a moment ago, now had a slight smile on her lips. Even if she did not say anything in response to Old Master Ning's somewhat humble words, her arrogance was clear from her expression. She did not have the humility and magnanimity a junior should have toward a senior.

"I remember that I said that I wanted the Hengliang Group to go bankrupt."

Faced with Nangong Nuannuan's blade-like cold smile, the group of elders present could not help but shiver.

What kind of granddaughter-in-law had the Chi family taken in?

As these people were all either friends or relatives of the Shi family, they did not know Nangong Nuannuan very well. Therefore, they were appalled when they saw how arrogant she was. They knew that she was the chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group, but even then, she was currently facing the old master of the Ning family!

Chapter 1882: Nuannuan's Punishment

How could she not give him any leeway at all?

However, only Old Master Ning knew that in the past two months, he had used all kinds of methods to help Xiao Yushan keep the Hengliang Group running. Still, even with the Ning family's help, it was not easy to keep the Hengliang Group afloat.

The Imperial Phoenix Group was too strong and too arrogant.

For example, in the case of the land, he had bribed the relevant personnel and even called in a group of people to help him bid for it. That piece of land was almost guaranteed to be Hengliang's. Eventually, Hengliang did indeed win the bid. However, the next day, news leaked that Hengliang had colluded with the staff to find people to bid for the land at a low price.

In the end, not only had they lost the land, but the staff that helped them even went to prison. The group's reputation was greatly tarnished.

In the future, if Hengliang Group encountered any more problems, the staff would probably not dare to lend them a hand again.

The key point was that the Hengliang group was ruined.

Old Master Ning was mentally exhausted.

He initially wanted to get close to the Imperial Phoenix Group, but before he could, Imperial Phoenix set him up. He was implicated by someone from his extended family who could not be any further unrelated to him.

He was so angry that he felt like vomiting blood.

Old Master Ning knew that this seemingly harmless and arrogant woman in front of him was a real monster. Her methods were vicious. Even after he exposed her vicious methods to so many big shots,

“Yes, yes, yes. Chairman Nangong indeed said that she wanted the Hengliang Group to go bankrupt, but didn’t she also say that she would do it within a week? In actuality, Chairman Nangong has a kind heart and doesn’t really want Hengliang Group to go bankrupt, right?”

“If she really wanted Hengliang Group to go bankrupt within a week, her Imperial Phoenix Group and Tianheng Holdings, not to mention the Nangong family’s Imperial Palace Group, has more than enough ways to end them. Therefore, I know that Chairman Nangong actually did everything on account of my Ning family. Or rather, on account of my grandson Hao, who had some reservations about my Hengliang group.

“Therefore, I am very grateful for Chairman Nangong’s leniency. My Ning family will remember your magnanimity. In the future, if there is anything that you need the Ning family to do, we are duty-bound to you. As long as we are capable and don’t have to break the law, we will do it.”

Old Master Ning’s words made the mouths of everyone present twitch.

F*ck! A listed group under the Ning Group was at risk of going bankrupt just because a child from a side branch of the Ning family provoked Nangong Nuannuan’s nephew.

They had lost a total of 200 million yuan so far, and a few people had even been arrested. However, not only could they not get revenge, but they had to thank Nuannuan and say that they were duty-bound to her.

When Old Master Ning said these words, he must have felt awful, just like he had swallowed several pots of dung.

However, from Nangong Nuannuan’s point of view, this was the attitude that the Ning family should have.

She was not some angel. There was no reason for her family’s Lil Sun to be wronged and for her to have to swallow her grievances.

After 14 years as a mercenary, she understood one thing as truth.

Chapter 1883: Never Again

In this world, small fish ate shrimps, and big fish ate small fish. If you wanted to avoid being bullied or stepped on by others, you would have to rise to the top of the food chain. Only from the top would you be able to protect yourself and your loved ones.

Even in the face of Old Master Ning’s extremely humble attitude, Nangong Nuannuan did not feel flattered at all. She nodded and admitted, “Yes. This time, it was indeed my intention to let the Hengliang Group go. Just as Old Master Ning said, making the Hengliang Group go bankrupt would be just a matter of lifting a finger for the Imperial Phoenix Group. Moreover, I did not think that it was an overreaction for me to ask for them to go bankrupt. I have always adhered to the principle that if people do not hurt me, I will not hurt them. But if people hurt me, I’ll repay twofold. Yuan Anmin and his wife were going to beat up my nephew before even trying to talk things out. To put it bluntly, they felt that because they had Xiao Yushan as a backer, who was not only Old Master Xiao's daughter, but also Old Master Ning's daughter-in-law, they were invincible. That was why they dared to be so unscrupulous.

"What's the point of beating a dog to death if it's wild enough to snap at people? Isn't the dog's aggressive behavior due to its owner failing to train it? My big brother, Chi Yang, and Ning Wenhao are brothers. Although Ning Wenhao doesn't associate with the Ning family, the blood of the family still flows through his veins. So as long as Ning Wenhao doesn't start a fight to the death with the Ning family, I should at least give him some face for his own sake as his sister-in-law, right? So, after I went back and thought about it, I withdrew my revenge on the Hengliang Group and decided on just a mild punishment instead."

Nangong Nuannuan's words caused the corners of everyone's mouths to twitch again.

Arrogance could no longer be used to describe this Miss Nangong.

Those who felt that the Shi family wanted to throw the Nangong family under the bus were now corrected.

The Nangong family was lucky to have such a young lady with an extremely luxurious dowry. It was predicted that the Nangong family's position would not be shaken anytime in the next few decades.

Looking at Chi Yang and Old Master Chi's carefree expressions and the fact that they had no intention of disciplining the future young madam of the Chi family, everyone felt that although Nangong Nuannuan was arrogant, she had the right to be.

Not only was she powerful, but she managed to make her husband and grandfather-in-law obedient to her.

Although Old Master Ning was furious, he could only shamelessly nod to avoid continuing to lose money. He replied, "Yes, yes, that Yuan Anmin is a vicious dog. It was my daughter-in-law's family that did not raise him well, making him to come out and randomly attack people. Our Ning family would never tolerate such a vicious dog."

After witnessing Old Master Ning's good attitude, Nangong Nuannuan nodded and sighed. "I can understand Old Master Ning's frustration. Your family is big and has all kinds of people. Yuan Anmin is a bad apple in your barrel of many. Since Old Master Ning personally interceded on behalf of the Hengliang Group, I'll let them off this time. However, I also hope that Old Master Ning will handle Yuan Anmin's matter well. Don't let him go to school again to cause trouble for my nephew, even if he's desperate. If my nephew gets hurt, then..."

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "That's good."

Chapter 1884: The Actions of Grandma Pei

The conversation came to an end. Nangong Nuannuan had no intention of saying anything else.

Old Master Ning apologized to everyone and left for a short while. He quickly went out to call the Ning family's bodyguards. First, he settled Yuan Anmin. He would not allow him to exert revenge on people in times of desperation. Next, he had especially paid bodyguards protect Nuannuan's little young master.

He absolutely could not be injured by anyone. If that young master was injured, Nangong Nuannuan would probably go after the Ning family no matter who injured him.

The Ning family could not afford to offend the Nangong family, nor could they afford to offend the Imperial Phoenix Group. If they did, they would become enemies with two giants at the same time. If they could not afford to offend them, he could hide. It was better to spend a small amount of money to hire bodyguards to protect that kid than end up having their listed company, or even the entire Ning family, bankrupt over such a small matter.

At this moment, the people in the front hall had already moved on with their conversations, but Grandma Pei was still sizing up Nangong Nuannuan up out of the corner of her gaze.

This Nangong Nuannuan was too arrogant!

When she and Zhou Ruxue stopped Nangong Nuannuan and spoke to her, she also felt that this girl was too arrogant. She was extremely dissatisfied with Nuannuan's attitude and felt that she deserved to be taught a lesson.

However, it was clear that although her big brother was very straightforward and had not disciplined her in the past. He was extremely protective of his granddaughter-in-law, Nangong Nuannuan.

After witnessing the entire scene of Old Master Ning getting humiliated, Madam Pei completely gave up on the idea of finding an opportunity to teach Nangong Nuannuan a lesson.

She had to admit that Nangong Nuannuan had the right to be arrogant. Ning Zhennan had no other choice other than to admit defeat.

However, there was still one question.

Why would a woman like Nangong Nuannuan become Chi Yang's fiancée?

What right did Chi Yang have to be with such an outstanding woman?

Besides his muscular body, what else did he have? He was just a pauper who lived by his grandfather's breath.

Her two outstanding grandsons, Pei Jiadong and Pei Jialiang, were both excellent seedlings. Whether it was their business talent or EQ, they were no inferior to their father, Pei Jitong.

Thinking about how her son, Pei Jitong, had charmed Chi Yang's mother so much that she wished she could devote her entire life to him, Grandma Pei's eyes could not help but light up.

Back then, she was the one who asked her son, Pei Jitong, to seduce Zhou Ruxue. That was because Chi Zehao often stayed at the military base and did not return for long periods. Even when he did return, he did not know how to treat women. Zhou Ruxue was the type of woman who needed love. She would often cry because of Chi Zehao's indifference. Marrying Chi Zehao was no different from being a widow.

At the time, her eldest brother, Chi Yuansheng, had already warned her for the third time. He had told her not to use the Chi family's name as an excuse to underhandedly seek benefits for the Pei family. If she were to do it a fourth time, he would no longer cherish their long-standing relationship and would immediately cut ties.

However, she wanted to live and the Pei family wanted to grow. How could she not allow such a thing to happen?

Therefore, she could only aim to find another way to get her son to seduce Zhou Ruxue. As long as the daughter-in-law of the Chi family got together with her son, even if the Chi family broke off their relationship with the Pei family, Zhou Ruxue would definitely help the Pei family.

Who could have guessed that Chi Zehao would suddenly die without leaving any remains? On the night of Chi Zehao's funeral, the nine-year-old Chi Yang witnessed Zhou Ruxue and Pei Jitong's sexual encounter.

Chapter 1885: Target: Nangong Nuannuan

From then on, Chi Yang became extremely introverted and even became extremely averse to women.

This made her big brother furious. Not only did he split up his family, but he also announced to the public that he had broken off his relationship with her.

She did regret it. She regretted that Zhou Ruxue could not control herself so much that she could not help but ask her son for sex whilst attending her late husband's funeral. She even blamed Zhou Ruxue for cutting off the relationship between the Chi family and the Pei family. It made her feel guilty for the past 17 years, especially towards the Pei family.

Initially, she thought that Chi Yang was the commander-in-chief of the Flying Eagle Special Forces and had inherited his father's mantle. His future was limitless. After Old Master Chi passed away, Zhou Ruxue, Chi Yang's mother, would be able to inherit everything from the Chi family.

However, she was also afraid that Chi Yang would grow stronger. With a blockhead like Zhou Ruxue's, she would not be able to control Chi Yang.

If Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang continued to love each other, the Pei family would lose more than they gained. They would lose Chi Yang forever.

Nangong Nuan was just like Zhou Ruxue, a woman. What women needed was not to be powerful, but for men to nourish their love.

Chi Yang had been in the special forces for a long time and had only been home for short periods. As long as their Jiadong could seize the opportunity at the right moment, he would definitely be able to take advantage of Nangong Nuan's loneliness to pursue her.

When she thought that Nangong Nuannuan might become her granddaughter-in-law in the future, her heart could not help but jump with joy.

She looked at Chi Yang and then thought about Jiadong.

Moreover, due to his father's genetics, Jiadong looked as gentle as jade. He was practically a carbon copy of his father.

Although Pei Jiadong was not as good-looking as Chi Yang, Pei Jitong was not as good-looking as Chi Zehao either. Still, Chi Zehao's wife, Zhou Ruxue, had been loyal to him and the Pei family for the past 17 years.

Sometimes, appearances were not the most important thing. As long as he could control a woman's heart, she believed that Chi Yang would definitely be no match for her Jiadong.

With this thought, Old Lady Pei's heart suddenly felt lighter.

As long as Jiadong could be like his father, who had stolen Zhou Ruxue's heart, and successfully steal Nuannuan's heart from Chi Yang, then even if the Chi family refused to acknowledge her for the rest of her life, she would still feel fine.

At the very most, she would not be able to continue living in Camino country.

The Imperial Phoenix Corporation had made a fortune in Saber country. The most profitable military corporation of the Imperial Phoenix Corporation was still in Sab!

If Nuannuan knew what Old Lady Pei was thinking, she would have slapped her in the face and told her off on the spot. She was thinking too far ahead.

Putting everything else aside, even Feng Shengxuan and Aiden were ten thousand times better than Pei Jiadong. Even if she was going to be sentenced, she could not be so blind as to be with a man like Pei Jiadong, whom she could not even look at in the eye!

The reason why Old Master Chi came to the Shi family's banquet was for his granddaughter-in-law. Now, it was obvious that his granddaughter-in-law had already done what she had wanted to do. Old Master Chi patted his got up and prepared to leave.

Shi Yalin was in Deputy Hall just now and did not know that Old Master Chi was in attendance. Now, Old Master Chi was about to leave before she even had the chance to touch up her makeup and go back downstairs.

Shi Gen could not say anything. After all, the fact that Old Master Chi came was already a big deal for the Shi family.

Chapter 1886: Grandma Pei Is Ignored

Therefore, when she saw that Old Master Chi was about to leave, she had no choice but to stand up and send him off.

Grandma Pei hurriedly stood up. Even though she was still angry about what Nangong Nuannuan had said, she thought about how Nuannuan was about to become her granddaughter-in-law. If she really became her granddaughter-in-law, with her powerful mouth and arrogant personality, she would be helping the Pei family deal with others. The more Grandma Pei looked at her, the more she liked her.

Zhou Ruxue was too stupid. Other than being Chi Yang's mother, she was useless.

It was her future granddaughter-in-law who was more pleasing to the eye.

"Big Brother, why are you leaving so soon? Aren't you going to stay for dinner?"

Old Master Chi was being held up by one arm each by Chi Yang and Nuannuan. He was chatting and laughing with Nuannuan, completely ignoring Grandma Pei.

Grandma Pei did not want to miss meeting her future granddaughter-in-law, so she said to Nuannuan, "Nuannuan, when you have time in the future, come visit the Pei family with Chi Yang more often!"

Shi Gen looked at Grandma Pei's expression. She was clearly desperate and doing anything she could to curry favor. He still could not even get a response out of her. He said unhappily, "In-law, stop talking so much. Otherwise, Old Master Chi will avoid associating with the Shi family because of you."

Grandma Pei, "...!!!"

"Sister-in-law, are you leaving with the Chief?"

Sze Lingyun had just finished her acupuncture treatment and having her needles removed when Li Jingyan brought her down. He happened to see Nangong Nuan and Chi Yang leaving.

Nangong Nuanuann turned around, and Li Jingyan saw Old Master Chi, who was being supported by Nuannuan. He immediately stood up and saluted Old Master Chi.

"Hello, Old Master Chi!"

Grandpa Chi was usually kind to people, especially the soldiers under Chi Yang. He chuckled and nodded at him.

"You are the son of the Li family, right?"

"Yes, Old Master Chi." Li Jingyan straightened up. Sze Lingyun, who was beside him, could not help but straighten up as well.

"Hehehe, not bad, not bad!" Grandpa Chi glanced at Sze Lingyun and said, "Your girlfriend is also from the base?"

"Yes, Old Master Chi. My girlfriend's name is Sze Lingyun. She's a third-year medical student."

When Grandfather Chi heard this, he saw how this couple was similar to his own grandson and granddaughter-in-law. Thus, he was even happier.

"This group is good! In the future, our Nuannuan will also go to the medical university. When that time comes, I'll have to trouble Senior Shi to take care of her."

Sze Lingyun's face instantly turned red.

She gave a military salute to Old Master Chi and said, "Old chief, please rest assured. I'll definitely try my best to take care of Miss Nangong. However, Miss Nangong is very powerful on her own. She was the one who helped me just now."

Li Jingyan immediately said, "That's right, Old Master Chi. My girlfriend was injured just now, and it was my sister-in-law who stood up for her! Sister-in-law is very powerful. Old Master Chi, you can rest assured!"

Upon saying that, he returned the long silver needle to Nangong Nuannuan and said, "Sister-in-law, the needle has already been washed and disinfected. Thank you."

"You're welcome." This needle was not only thin but it was also made in a vacuum. There were a limited number of needles, so Nangong Nuannuan put the needle back into the bracelet on her wrist. There was automatic disinfectant in the bracelet, so she could use the needle straight away again next time.

Nangong Nuannuan glanced at Sze Lingyun and said, "Senior Shi, we'll meet again in the future. See you soon."

Sze Lingyun was so happy that she wanted to pounce on her idol and hug her. Her beautiful eyes sparkled as she nodded vigorously.

Chapter 1887: A Supernatural Issue

Since the Nangong family protected Nangong Nuannuan very well, after Nangong Nuannuan returned to them, she had not officially attended any grand social gatherings. Everyone's knowledge of her was limited to rumors.

Today, because the Shi family had invited almost all the wealthy families in Emperor District that did not hold any grudges with them, Nangong Nuannuan could be considered to have officially appeared in front of everyone for the first time.

News of her arrogant and interesting persona quickly spread throughout the entire Emperor District.

Although everyone was dissatisfied with this persona of hers, it had to be said that Nangong Nuannuan's intimidating appearance had stopped anyone who ever thought of hurting the Nangong family dead in their tracks.

Nangong Nuannuan was only 17 years old, but she had already become the third most powerful tycoon in the world. She had backing, background, and connections. Furthermore, her backing and background were international. This was a person that an ordinary domestic corporation could not easily take down.

Since they could not touch the Nangong family, they had to maintain good terms with them.

In the car, as the driver drove away, Chi Yang sat in the passenger seat while Nuannuan and Grandpa Chi were in the back. Seeing Grandpa Chi suddenly laugh, Nuannuan asked with wide eyes, "Grandpa, what are you laughing at?"

Grandpa Chi chuckled and said, "I'm laughing at everyone's faces today. They see you acting so cutely with me while being so ruthless with everyone else. They can barely believe their eyes."

Nuannuan burst out laughing.

"Grandpa, you're so funny! If they knew that you were describing them like this, they would be so upset."

"Hmph! They're all not good people. So be it. How about it, girl? Have you gotten results from your investigation on that matter you mentioned before?"

"Yes." Nuannuan nodded.

"Is it what you thought?"

The driver was a security guard who had followed the old man around for many years and was deeply trusted. However, although the old man could not help but ask about it, he still did not give any specifics.

"Yes." Nuannuan nodded.

Seeing that Nuannuan was so sure, the old man instantly fell silent and into deep thought.

Ordinary people would never consider things like soul exchange or rebirth. If she had not experienced a rebirth herself, she would never have thought that Shi Yalin's core might have been replaced.

However, even after guessing and investigating for so long, she was still extremely shocked when she confirmed that Shi Yalin was indeed now Wen Wan. However, her grandfather was not that shocked. Instead, he just gave it some deep thought.

"Grandpa, don't you find this strange?"

The old man smiled at Nuannuan and said, "There are all kinds of strange things in this world. It can only be said that her fortuitous encounter is quite uncanny."

Was this about luck?

This was clearly an issue of supernatural intervention!

However, seeing that her grandfather did not want to say it, Nuannuan did not ask.

Viper was KE's woman. Even when she was Queen, she had not been able to get in touch with anyone else's core—but Viper had.

Grandpa Chi was the first person to receive the news about Viper's death. This meant that after fighting KE for decades, despite being so old, Grandfather Chi had never let up on KE.

If the person who rescued the Viper and allowed her to be reborn into Shi Yalin's body was the real King, and Grandpa Chi had fought KE for so many years, it would mean that Grandpa Chi knew KE better than she did.

In other words...

Chapter 1888: You Have To Do More For Your Wife

Grandpa Chi should know King, and King should know him. That was why he had had such a reaction.

King was stronger than Nuannuan imagined.

This realization made Nuannuan very upset.

After all, her goal in life was to personally kill King and Viper!

"Little girl, what are you doing tomorrow?" Chi Yang suddenly turned around and asked.

"I'm going to the military hospital to observe a surgery." That was something she did every day.

"Do I have to go too?"

"Not necessarily. I have nothing to do, and I don't want to go to the company, so I'm going to the military hospital. What's wrong?"

"I've already settled the Eagle Special Forces' matters and handed everything over to Ning Wenhao. If there's nothing important happening there, I can take a half-month off."

"Really?" Nuannuan's eyes lit up.

"So, can we go on a vacation?"

Chi Yang's heart ached as he looked into Nuannuan's bright eyes.

Due to his work, he spent most of his time with the special forces. They had been together for almost a year, but he had never taken Nuannuan away for a vacation.

To ensure Chi Yang's happiness, Nuannuan never returned to the Nangong family. Instead, she lived with the Chi family. Usually, she would accompany him or his grandfather and second uncle. In order to personally perform the surgery on her second uncle, Nuannuan had to go to the military hospital to study every day.

Despite this, he had never taken Nuannuan out even once.

Chi Yang's heart ached as he reached out to stroke Nuannuan's hair. He said, "Um, as long as nothing major happens in the next two weeks, I can take you on a vacation."

"That's great!" Nuannuan was so happy that she jumped with joy.

"However, because of my identity, I can only stay in the country. We can't go abroad," Chi Yang said apologetically.

"It's fine, it's fine. I want to go on vacation within the country, anyway. After all, I've been everywhere abroad, but nowhere in this country. Ever since I left the Zhong family, I haven't ever stuck around."

Nuannuan was telling the truth.

After being sold to KE, her footsteps over the last 14 years could probably cover the entire earth. Since returning to her own country, she had only ever been to Jiang District and Emperor District.

"Okay." As long as she could be with Big Brother Chi Yang, Nuannuan felt she could go anywhere.

The old man who was sitting beside Nuannuan could not hold his annoyance in anymore. "You brat, how can you just take her on a few walks? Nuannuan finally gets to go out with you! How could you be so perfunctory with your own wife? No matter what, you have to make a travel guide and take your wife on a good trip!"

"Pfft." Nuannuan could not hold it in and burst out into laughter.

Big Brother Chi Yang was disliked by his own grandfather. There was no one else with such emotional intelligence in the world.

Chi Yang said, "Am I really your blood grandson? You don't seem to ever give me the benefit of the doubt."

Stephen was in charge of all of KE's forces. The forces under him were completely his and were beyond Feng Tan's control.

KE and the countries it had relationships with had been on good terms recently. Furthermore, because he had just recovered from a serious illness, Stephen never called him.

Therefore, when he saw Stephen's secret message, Feng Shengxuan knew it must be an urgent matter.

Feng Shengxuan went into his private bedroom and study in the Chi family residence. He immediately returned to his study and called Stephen.

Chapter 1889: The Stronghold Is Destroyed

The call went through. Feng Shengxuan asked unhappily, "What happened?"

"King, something's happened. Our stronghold in the north of Camino was destroyed by the Eagle Special Forces."

Feng Shengxuan frowned slightly. "Destroyed? How?"

There was a moment of silence at the other end of the line before Stephen answered honestly. "Well... the Eagle Special Forces' soldiers suddenly appeared. Without even scouting out the land first, they suddenly attacked from the sky and land. Our people were unable to fight them off. They have all either been killed or captured."

"Then let's find the mole!"

Those who had been assigned to Emperor District's KE force were all important members of KE. Every one of them was an elite. Putting aside everything else, their anti-reconnaissance abilities were definitely top-notch.

Therefore, whether or not the soldiers of the Eagle Special Forces had scouted out the place before, his people would definitely have known.

Since the Forces took down one of his strongholds without any scouting, there had to be a mole in KE.

"Yes." Stephen also felt that there was a mole among their people. He immediately agreed.

"Has Feng Tan made any movements recently?"

"Yes, he left the castle recently, but we didn't track his whereabouts. We don't know where he went."

"How long has he been gone?" Feng Shengxuan asked.

"Three days."

"He left alone? Did anyone else leave?"

"No. None of his four confidants left. They have been staying at KE headquarters every day."

Feng Shengxuan narrowed his eyes and asked, "What has he been doing in the castle all this time?"

"Nothing, nothing at all. He just reads the newspaper, watches TV, goes online, and plants flowers. He's done nothing else significant besides disappearing for three days."

"During the three days he's been gone, has anything happened in Camino?"

"No." After answering, Stephen added, "At least, nothing seems to have happened so far."

"Put Winnie in charge of checking all flights from Sab to Camino during the three days he's been gone. Whether the fliers are men or women or old or young, everyone's destination and place of residence has to be identified. You must know what they came to Camino for. If they don't have a specific place to stay, they'll disappear the moment they arrive in Camino. Just obtain pictures of these people and post them anonymously

"King, are you going to..."

"Do you believe that he would disappear for three days for no reason?"

"I don't believe it."

Feng Shengxuan sneered. "I don't believe it either. So he must have done something behind my back to cause trouble again—we just don't know what it is yet. He's gone out to cause trouble for either Chi Yang or Nuannuan. I want to know exactly what he did and who he's been in contact with. If Winnie can't figure it out, Dan Qi and Huang Zichu can also investigate. As long as they carefully look into that old man's actions, I'll be able to find out what he came to Camino for."

"Yes."

Stephen waited for a second. Hearing that Feng Shengxuan no longer had anything to say, he could not help but ask, "Then, regarding the matter of the Emperor District stronghold..."

"I'll come back to take care of it."

"Okay. I'll wait for you."

Upon hanging up, Feng Shengxuan heard the sound of a car pulling up from outside the window.

At first, after living with the Chi family for so long, he had begun to somewhat like the lively atmosphere the family provided.

He had been avoiding his original reason for living with the Chi family—to observe their daily routines and take the opportunity to kill people.

Chapter 1890: I Want To Go Too!

However, before he could make any move against Chi Yang, Chi Yang had already made a move against him!

Feng Shengxuan's eyes filled with gloom when he noticed Chi Yang and Nuannuan exchanging glances,

He turned around and went downstairs. When he reached the bottom of the stairs, Nuannuan flew toward him like a butterfly.

"Big Bro, Big Brother Chi Yang and I are going out tomorrow, so I'll have to ask you to stay home. You know that Grandpa and Second Uncle need protecting, so I'm really relieved I can depend on you for this."

Feng Shengxuan, who had been just about to say goodbye to Nuannuan and lay his hands on Chi Yuancheng, was silent. "..."

"Where are you going? I want to go too!"

"Big Brother Chi Yang is taking me on a trip. It'll be just the two of us. I didn't even call Selina along. Why do you want to come?"

Feng Shengxuan, "..."

He was clearly here to recuperate, kill, and fight for Nuannuan. In the six months he had spent recuperating, how had he ended up becoming the Chi family's bodyguard?

Just as he was about to say that he did not want to do it, Nuannuan took out a box of his favorite snacks from her bag.

"I got you your favorite snack. Here!"

Eating the pastries that Nuannuan had given him with satisfaction, Feng Shengxuan asked, "How long will you be gone for?"

"About half a month. Why?"

"I have something to do, so I'll have to go out for a while, but it's no rush. I'll go when you're back."

“Where are you going?”

“I’m going back to Sab.”

“You need to have your acupuncture done once every two weeks. How long do you plan to go back for?”

Feng Shengxuan was silent.

After all, he had not found the pleasure of revenge at all here, nor had he been able to bring Nuannuan back to his side. Not only that, but even Bai Liyue seemed to be spending all day with Xiao Shenbin.

Although his people had observed that nothing had happened between Bai Liyue and Xiao Shenbin, not even a kiss, he was still annoyed.

He was annoyed because he did not understand why he had paid more attention to Bai Liyue than Nuannuan.

He needed to calm down for a while to clear his mind.

After finishing one pastry, he moved to take another one before Chi Zeyao, who had come over in a wheelchair, stopped him.

“You can only eat one.”

Feng Shengxuan, “...!!!”

Suddenly, her phone rang. She retrieved her phone and saw that it was Elder Wu calling.

Elder Wu was the head of the Wu family in Sea District. He was named Wu Maosong, and he was the chairman of the Sea District Jade Association.

When she was in Jiang District, she had brought her grandfather to the Ling family’s raw stone shop. Initially, she wanted to purchase any jade to gift to her grandfather, but she was provoked by Ling Pinyuan. At that time, Elder Wu did not know her or her grandfather’s real identity, but he still stood up for them. This left Nuannuan very touched.

Later, Elder Wu brought his grandson and granddaughter to attend an auction in Jiang District. They were caught up in an explosion that had been planned by Qu Mingyi and his wife, as well as Luo Shangyi and his daughter. Fortunately, Elder Wu, his grandson, and his granddaughter had escaped safely.

Later on, Elder Wu had called her twice and invited her to Sea District. However, since she had many commitments at the time, Nuannuan had to decline.

Now, Elder Wu was calling again. Could it be that he wanted to invite her to Sea District again?

If that was really the case, Nuannuan believed she would be able to accept the invitation this time.

“Hello, Elder Wu... Yes, I can talk. Elder Wu is inviting me to Haizhou as a guest? ...I see. I know. I happen to be available, so I’ll come over tomorrow.”
