

Physician Wife 1911

Chapter 1911: Sixth Sense

"You're slandering me, but you don't even have any evidence. I'm telling you, I'm going to have the police arrest you!"

"Fine! Go ahead, sue me! I doubt that you'd even be able to overcome the guilt to do so. If you really have the guts, I'll lend you my phone!"

"Go away!"

Xu Yunyun angrily swatted Nangong Nuannuan's hand away. She cried out, "Pingting, you've gone too far! Even if you idolize Nangong Nuannuan, you can't let her bully me like this! Everyone knows who Nangong Nuannuan is and that her fiancée is a general! The military base and the police are friends. Nangong Nuannuan claimed that I harmed you. Isn't it possible that her fiancé is involved in all of this? If he says that I've harmed you, would the lower-ranking police dare to go against his words? I came to see you out of concern. How could you be so unreasonable?"

Upon saying that, Xu Yunyun ran away crying.

The Wu family members went to stop her, but Chi Yang reached out and stopped them instead.

Xu Yunyun was afraid that someone would catch her, so she ran away quickly.

However, upon exiting the building, she remembered that she came in Xu Feiyang's car.

She turned around and looked back inside, but Xu Feiyang had gone after her.

Xu Yunyun's eyes betrayed her intense feelings of hatred and frustration. She could not do anything to Nangong Nuannuan.

Xu Feiyang saw that Nangong Nuannuan was not moving. Xu Yunyun did not expect him to chase after her or take her away anymore. She ran out of the villa alone in a panic and hailed a taxi home. She asked her parents to help her find a way out of this situation.

After all, she was not the one who did that. She did not believe that Nangong Nuannuan would be able to find any concrete evidence against her.

"Miss Nangong, how did you know that Xu Yunyun was the person who harmed Pingting?" Wu Jingcheng could not help but ask.

"I don't."

Everyone, "..."

"I just mentioned it casually to see her reaction. Seeing her try to pretend like she had nothing to hide made me certain of it, though."

"How did you even guess it was her?"

“My sixth sense.”

Everyone, “...!!!”

Wu Pingting, who was standing on the sidelines, had been in a bad mood ever since she heard Nangong Nuannuan accuse Xu Yunyun of being the one who harmed her.

Xu Yunyun had always been her best friend. She never thought Xu Yunyun would ever harm her.

Let alone that Xu Yunyun would harm her in such a cruel and vicious way.

Although Nangong Nuannuan had said that it was her sixth sense that made her figure that it was Xu Yunyun, this could not prove Yunyun’s guilt. Regardless, just like how Wu Zongyang trusted Nangong Nuannuan, Wu Pingting also trusted Nangong Nuannuan very much.

If Nuannuan said that it was Xu Yunyun, Pingting believed that definitely was her.

“I didn’t know she liked me. If I knew, I definitely would have very clearly rejected her.” Xu Feiyang frowned as he spoke. He felt like the fact that Xu Yunyun had a crush on him was unbelievably disgusting.

Nangong Nuannuan sneered. “I know that you don’t like her. If you did, she probably wouldn’t be so jealous of Pingting.”

Xu Feiyang frowned. “How do you know that she’s jealous of Pingting? I only met Pingting briefly when I was a child before falling out of contact with her for more than a decade. I’ve been dealing with family matters this past month, hence my visit to Sea District. I’ve only met her a total of two times.”

“Was Xu Yunyun present during these two meetings?”

“Yes.”

“How many times have you met Xu Yunyun in total?”

After taking a few moments to think, Xu Feiyang indicated he understood what she meant when he answered, “Including today, three times.”

The Wu family members immediately frowned.

Chapter 1912: Paranoid, Selfish, Vicious, and Jealous

“Look, since you’ve returned, you’ve met Xu Yunyun three times in total—and each time, Pingting was there. So, it makes sense that she misunderstood and thought you liked Pingting.”

“But every time I talked to Pingting, she was present. She heard everything I said to Pingting. We’ve only casually chatted, and I’ve never shown any signs of liking Pingting.”

Nangong Nuannuan shook her head. “Your Xu Yunyun is obviously a paranoid, selfish, vicious, and jealous person. A person like her would be upset that you hadn’t made an enemy of another woman, let alone you being friendly to one. We can only imagine how much she hated Pingting when she thought that you liked her or even simply had a good impression of her.”

Xu Feiyang could not accept Nangong Nuannuan's words. After all, Wu Pingting was Xu Yunyun's best friend. They had been friends for more than a decade. They had been playing together since they were young due to the business relationship their families have. How could she have reacted so violently when I only said a few words to Wu Pingting? How could she arrange for someone to not only kidnap her best friend, but also hurt her?"

He had seen the video of Wu Pingting being discovered. Her body had been in a terrible state.

Even as the leader of a gang, he could not help but sigh at how perverted the attack on Wu Pingting had been.

At first, he thought that the Wu family must have deeply offended someone. However, he was now being told that Wu Pingting had been viciously attacked just because he had spoken to her a few more times than he had to Yunyun.

Just as Xu Feiyang was about to refute what she had said, Nangong Nuannuan asked again, "Let me ask you this. If you and Xu Yunyun rarely interact, why did you come with her when she said she wanted to visit her best friend?"

Xu Feiyang glanced at Nangong Nuannuan. He did not want to say that he had come here because he wanted to visit Nuannuan. Instead, he answered, "I have some financial ties to the Wu family. Also, Pingting was like a younger sister who stuck by my side when we were young. When I heard that something had happened to her, and when Xu Yunyun begged me to come with her, I did not hesitate to agree."

"Did she badmouth Pingting in any way during your journey here? For example, did she say anything along the lines of 'Since Pingting has lost her virginity, no good men will want her in the future,'?"

Xu Feiyang thought for a moment before realizing that Nuannuan's words were indeed the case.

They figured that what happened to Pingting was a result of the Wu family or Pingting herself offending somebody. However, after a week of investigating all the enemies of the Wu family and seeing that none of them had made a move, their search for leads came to a halt.

They never expected that the person who hurt Pingting could be Xu Yunyun, the girl who had been playing with the children of the Wu family and had been best friends with Pingting ever since they were little.

"Actually, her palm was not yet bleeding when she saw you looking at me at first. It was only after we talked for a bit that I noticed she had started to dig her nails into her palm.

"The reason why I guessed that Xu Yunyun was the one who harmed Pingting was because when I first entered the room, the way that she looked at Pingting was like the way she looked at me just now. Hence, I figured that she thought you liked Pingting. To ruin your feelings for her, Yunyun wanted to make Pingting inferior to her. She found someone to kidnap Pingting and ruin her body. That way, you wouldn't like her anymore."

Chapter 1913: You Should Be Glad

“However, when I arrived, she shifted to thinking that I was the one you liked. I don’t know if she intended to kill me or ruin my reputation, but her apology to Pingting was real. She quickly transferred her hatred to me as she felt like I was guilty for seducing you.”

“Lunatic! She’s a lunatic!” Wu Zongyang shouted angrily.

Wu Pingting had experienced a life-and-death catastrophe. Even though she had lost her memory, she still knew that she had been kidnapped and drugged with strong alkaloids. Even if she could not remember the fear and despair that she had felt whilst in pain, hence why she was able to think clearly, this did not mean that she did not feel sad.

She was extremely sad. After all, her ‘first time’, which she had been preserving so preciously for so long, had been ruined just like that.

To make her family happy and not let down her idol, the generous and intelligent Wu Pingting had decided that she could not live in sorrow. She refused to feel sorry for herself. She wanted to avoid doing anything that would make her loved ones suffer and allow her enemies to prosper.

However, after finding out that the person who hurt her might be her best friend of many years, Wu Pingting felt as if her heart had been shattered into a million pieces.

She felt that she had failed as a person.

Due to her family’s situation, she did not have many friends to begin with. Xu Yunyun was the same age as her, had a similar family background to her, and had played with her since they were children. Therefore, she truly regarded Xu Yunyun as her best friend.

Even though she could not remember the specifics of her tragedy, the feeling of knowing that she had been betrayed by her own friend made her very sad.

Nangong Nuannuan walked over to Wu Pingting’s side, patted her on the shoulder, and said, “Don’t be sad. You should be happy. At least now you’re seeing her for who she really is. You saw that someone you trusted wholeheartedly was able to betray you so brutally. People like that aren’t mentally sound—they’re sociopathic, and their hearts aren’t in balance. Even if they didn’t harm you this time because of Big Bro Xu, they would have found a reason to harm you the next time. This time, she took your virginity but didn’t ruin your entire life. Fortunately, you were able to see her true colors before she could do that. Now, all you can do is distance yourself and keep your guard up when it comes to her so that next time, you won’t end up losing your life.”

This was just like Nuannuan’s past life. Was it because Nuannuan had not kept her guard up? On the one hand, she felt that regardless of how terrible Jiang Shuwan was, she was still her mother. On the other hand, many mothers in this world did not like their children—but they did not harm them.

This made Viper develop a colorless, odorless anesthetic to give to Jiang Shuwan. Nuannuan did not believe that Jiang Shuwan would ever take her life. She was confident that Jiang Shuwan would not be able to kill her, so Nuannuan had not kept her defenses up against her.

“Remember, no matter what happens, as long as a person is still alive, there is a way for things to get better.”

“Nuannuan is right!” Elder Wu nodded. “Pingting, don’t be sad. A person like her was never truly your friend. You should be grateful that all she did this time was trick you and harm you but not kill you. If she had been more ruthless, Grandpa would have died of a heart attack a long time ago mourning you.”

Although Wu Pingting was sad, she knew that her grandfather and Nangong Nuannuan were right. She sobbed for a while before calming down.

Xu Feiyang was distraught for quite a while before he collected himself and bowed to Wu Pingting.

Chapter 1914: Finding The Evidence

“I’m sorry, Pingting. I didn’t know that you would suffer such an undeserved disaster because of me. Even though saying sorry isn’t enough to make up for the harm you’ve suffered, since I played a part in causing it, I have to apologize. I will definitely investigate to find evidence that can help us find the person who hurt you. Even if she destroys the evidence, I’ll try to find a way to help you.”

“Feiyang,” Elder Wu said, “we will help Pingting find the evidence. Even if it’s not you, Pingting will meet a good man in the future. Xu Yunyun is so vicious. Once she sees that Pingting is happier than she is, she’ll hate herself. So, this no longer has anything to do with you. We are Pingting’s family, so we will be responsible for finding the evidence. After all, you’re a member of the Xu family. It’s not appropriate for you to investigate this.”

Xu Feiyang nodded. “Alright. But Xu Yunyun is scared out of her wits right now. When she returns, she will definitely try to get rid of the evidence. Considering the methods that my second uncle and the others usually employ, they will definitely help Xu Yunyun destroy all the evidence. So, if you have trouble finding evidence, just tell me.”

Xu Feiyang was the leader of War Leopard, an organization that Camino had tacitly acknowledged was under his rule. This organization was still stained with the blood of many people.

“Alright.” Elder Wu did not argue any longer and nodded in agreement.

Although Xu Feiyang was a member of the Xu family, he was not close to them. Elder Wu knew this. Therefore, being able to get Xu Feiyang’s help, as long as he did not interfere too much, would not be a problem for Elder Wu. It would definitely help him deal with Xu Yunyun.

“Elder Wu, don’t worry. There will definitely be evidence.”

The Wu family members’ eyes lit up. Elder Wu asked, “Nuannuan, don’t tell me that you already have the evidence?”

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. “I alerted the enemy and tricked Xu Yunyun into exposing herself. When I grabbed her wrist, I placed a miniature hidden camera on her. It’s small enough that she won’t notice. All she has to do is go back home and say something about the incident—whether she asks the Xu family to destroy the evidence or kills the person who participated in the kidnapping. I’ll have evidence when I get the hidden camera back tomorrow.”

“Does your camera have a transmission function? Can we watch the video live?”

Nuannuan shook her head. “I encountered a problem when I arrived just now, and since we were short on time, I didn’t have the time to prepare a better pinhole camera. So, we can only watch the video when I get it back tomorrow. Don’t worry, the camera is a microchip camera stuck to her skin. Even if she changes her clothes, the camera will remain on her. Since it’s flesh-colored, she won’t notice it.”

The Wu family was stunned by Nuannuan’s words. Wu Zongyang’s eyes lit up. “There’s such a thing so advanced in this world?”

“I gave it to her. It’s the most miniature camera that the military base has ever developed. It’s the size of a grain of rice, 0.01 inches thick. However, its battery life only allows for a maximum of 24 hours of video recording. Its advantage is that it blends in with the color of the wearer’s skin, and can even alter its color to match one’s skin tone. If you don’t know to carefully look for it and pull it hard to remove it, it can remain attached to you for a lifetime,” Chi Yang answered.

The Wu family was stunned by what he said, but they believed Chi Yang’s words without a doubt. After all, he was the chief commander of the Eagle Special Forces.

Xu Feiyang had initially been very happy to see Nangong Nuannuan. However, when he found out that he had played a role in the harm that Wu Pingting suffered, his mood darkened. This was exacerbated by the fact that Chi Yang was eyeing him up like a hungry tiger. Thus, he did not have the face to stay any longer. He bid farewell to the Wu family, Chi Yang, and Nuannuan before leaving.

At night, everyone went to sleep.

“Who is it?”

“Hehe, why are you calling me? You were the one who carried out the deed against Wu Pingting. You were the mastermind, so why are you calling me now? I’m telling you, you’d better pray that they can’t pin anything on me. If I end up in trouble, you’ll be the first person I drag down with me.” Xu Yunyun threatened through the phone call.

“You won’t get into trouble, and neither will I. But if you don’t do what I tell you to today, we’ll be caught together tomorrow.”

“What do you mean?”

“Nangong Nuannuan grabbed your arm today. Do you remember?”

“I do. Why?”

“When that woman grabbed your arm, she stuck a miniature hidden camera to your skin. It’s a new type of camera developed by the military department which has an extremely strong adhesive. Once it’s on your body, if you don’t purposely look for it, it can remain on your body for a lifetime without you even noticing.”

“What?” Xu Yunyun was so shocked that she jumped up. “Then don’t you think they already know about our phone call and what happened since I came back?”

“If they knew, I wouldn’t have called you. Listen carefully. That camera doesn’t have a transmission function. Right now, they cannot see what’s happened on your end. They will only be able to see the evidence when they retrieve the camera tomorrow. So, what you need to do tonight is immediately start looking for this miniature camera with a needle hole that’s the same color as your skin. It’s the size of a grain of rice, 0.01 inches thick. Then, think of a way to make it look like you accidentally hurt yourself and the injury destroyed the camera. Otherwise, with Nangong Nuannuan’s insight, I’m afraid she’ll immediately figure out that the Wu family has a mole.”

“Got it,” Xu Yunyun replied. Then, she sneered and said, “Nangong Nuannuan definitely didn’t guess that I wasn’t the only one who harmed Wu Pingting. Someone else who treated her so well was also involved.”

“Shut up! I only asked you to find someone to harm her, but what did you do? You actually took the initiative to find someone to rape her. Xu Yunyun, once this is over, I’ll definitely settle the score with you.”

“Hehe, come on! You think I’m afraid of you? An ungrateful wretch like you... I have much more on you than you could ever find on me. If you dare to try to settle this score with me, I will not hesitate to retaliate. Anyway, she didn’t die, right? So, let’s not talk anymore. I have to go and look for the camera on my body.”

Suddenly, the voice of a third person came over the phone. The third voice was like a thunderous nightmare to the two original parties.

Xu Yunyun was so scared that she let out a yelp before promptly hanging up.

The lights in Wu Zongxu’s room switched on.

The first thing that came into view was Nangong Nuannuan’s half-smiling gaze and Wu Pingting, who was standing by her side. Behind them were her grandfather, second uncle, third aunt, and third uncle.

Chapter 1916: I Love You

Wu Zongxu’s face turned deathly pale.

“Ping... Pingting...”

“Beast! You beast! Our Wu family treated you so well. We raised you since you were a child. My big brother treated you like his own son. Pingting had been by your side since you were both children. And what do you do in return? You hurt Pingting like this. Why? What did she do to provoke you, huh? Tell me!”

Wu Jingcheng was so angry that he gave Wu Zongxu another round of kicks and punches.

Wu Zongxu’s eyes were red as tears streamed down his face. His terrified gaze was fixed on Wu Pingting.

Wu Pingting’s eyes were also red and filled with tears that continually rolled down her cheeks. She stared back at him with a gaze that reflected confusion, anger, and hatred. The previous attachment that she had felt when she looked at him was now gone.

“Pingting, let me explain! Let me explain... Okay?”

Wu Pingting nodded, tears still streaming down her face. “Okay, tell me. What have I done to you that made you want to collude with outsiders to harm me so viciously!?”

“No... it’s not like that! Pingting, I love you! I love you too much, and I was afraid that you would leave me in the future, so... So I just... I just asked her to find someone to kidnap you and mildly harm you—but I didn’t ask her to find someone to rape you! I didn’t! She did that on her own accord!”

Wu Pingting and the Wu family looked at Wu Zongxu in disbelief. They felt like this boy who had been living with them for years was actually a monster in disguise.

“What did you just say?” Wu Pingting thought she had heard him wrongly, so she could not help but ask him to repeat himself.

“Pingting, Brother loves you! From the moment you were born, when you were still a soft little ball—I fell in love with you!”

Wu Pingting shook her head in disbelief. She looked as if she had just eaten a fly.

“You... Do you know what love is?”

“I know! I know! I know!!!” Wu Zongxu was was afraid that Wu Pingting would misunderstand or underestimate his love, so he continued, “From the day that second aunt gave birth to you, I formed a special connection with you. I loved hugging you, playing with you, and being by your side. No matter what you wanted to do, I just wanted to be there with you. When I saw those naughty children bullying you, I felt like my chest was about to explode with anger. At that time, I thought that was what brotherly love felt like.

“However, we’ve since grown up. As you slowly developed, I realized that whenever I saw you in a short skirt, my body would immediately respond. Then, I understood that in fact, my love for you has always been that of a man for a woman. Pingting, you know that our Wu family is the wealthiest family in Sea District. If I really am a man who craves women, it would not be difficult for me to find someone. However, I don’t feel anything for all those women out there—I only feel for you. I only like you. I only love you! I only have feelings for you!!!”

“Don’t say it! Don’t say it!” Wu Pingting cried out and covered her ears. She did not want to hear this at all.

“No! I want to say it! I’ve suppressed it for so many years. I must tell you! Pingting, I love you! You know how well I’ve treated you all these years. I’d lose everything for you, even my life!

“I only reacted this way when Xu Feiyang suddenly returned that day. He’s the leader of War Leopard. He doesn’t like talking to anyone except you, and you kept calling him Big Bro Xu. Can you imagine how much that made my heart hurt?”

Chapter 1917: I’ll Take Care Of You!

“I always wanted you to go to a school in Sea District, but you insisted on going to a school in Emperor District. You said you wanted to go to the same school as Miss Nangong because you wanted to meet your idol—but in actuality, you wanted to go to Emperor District to see Xu Feiyang, right?

“I’ve loved you and accompanied you in everything for so many years. Why should a girl that I’ve worked so hard to raise fall into the arms of another man?”

Wu Zongxu’s expression was almost psychotic. He looked at Wu Pingting with an expression that conveyed fanatical love and paranoid possessiveness.

“After we separated, I kept telling you how bad Xu Feiyang was and how he wasn’t suitable for a girl like you, but you completely ignored me. You just accused me of being paranoid. Pingting, do you know how sad I was when I heard that?”

“So, you got someone to rape me over such a small matter? You thought that you couldn’t have me just because I didn’t listen to you. You figured that I might have already fallen in love with someone else. What you can’t have, no one can have, eh? Because I didn’t like you, you were going to destroy me, right?”

“No, Pingting! It’s not like that! I found someone to rape you because I was afraid that someone else would fall in love with you. I was even more afraid that you’d fall in love with someone else. That’s why I found someone to do that to you. At first, I thought that being kidnapped and would cause you enough trauma to drive you away from that school in Emperor District. After your incident, no man will want to marry you, so you’ll be mine and mine alone.

“Pingting, I don’t mind that you’ve been raped! I don’t mind! I could never despise you, even if you went back to that psychotic state you were in before. I’ll stay with you and care for you for the rest of your life! Pingting, I love you!”

“Shut up! Shut up! Shut up!!! Wu Zongxu, you’re a lunatic! A lunatic!!! You’re crazy!!! I’m your sister! I’m your damn cousin! How could you do such a thing? How could you be so perverted and so cruel?”

“You’re not my cousin! I was adopted into this family, so we’re not related by blood at all! Pingting, I love you! Do you know you were raped by seven men? No good man will ever want you. Are you willing to be with your brother? I swear that I’ll do my very best to treat you well and make you the happiest woman in the world!”

With that, Wu Zongxu reached out to grab Wu Pingting’s hand.

She took a step back in fear. Seeing that Wu Zongxu still continued to approach her, Nuannuan stepped forward and hit his forehead with her hand, making him faint.

Wu Pingting felt like she could not breathe. She had not thought her tragedy could get any worse. She could not accept that she had been raped by seven men! Her cousin had been willing to completely destroy her and leave her in a psychotic state for the rest of her life just for a chance for her to stay by his side forever.

Not only Wu Pingting was shocked. Even the wise Elder Wu was clutching his heart tightly. He could not believe that his grandson was such a monster.

The worst thing was that they did not manage to find out about this side of his before he did this.

Chapter 1918: You're Welcome

Taking this brat in had led to the little jewel of the Wu family suffering such a tragic fate.

"Dad!"

Noticing that something was wrong, Wu Jingmin cried out in surprise and ran to Elder Wu to check his pulse. With a horrified expression, she picked up her phone and dialed a number to make a call.

"Third Aunt, I'll do it."

Nuannuan interrupted Wu Jingmin before she could make the call. She placed her hand over Elder Wu's chest and massaged the area, her fingers quickly dispersing the blood that had accumulated in his heart. Then, she promptly performed her acupuncture treatment.

Wu Pingting had been crying her heart out. However, when she saw that her woe had led to her grandfather suffering from a heart attack, she no longer dared to cry. She obediently sat on the edge of the bed and watched as Nangong Nuannuan performed acupuncture on him.

The entire family had solemn expressions on their faces. It was only when Elder Wu's face gradually regained its color did any of them feel relief.

Three minutes later, he regained consciousness. He took a sharp breath and opened his eyes.

"Dad, you're awake? How do you feel? Do you need me to call an ambulance?"

Looking at the few silver needles sticking out of his chest, Elder Wu shook his head. He answered, "I feel much better already. Nuannuan, thank you."

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Elder Wu, Pingting is my friend, and any grandpa of my friend is also my grandfather. There's no need to be so formal with me."

Elder Wu glanced at the man lying on the ground. He could not help but say, "When Zongxu was two years old, he was brought home by my eldest son and adopted into the family. Although he knew that he was adopted, our family has always been very good to him. We've never looked down on him or treated him poorly just because he isn't blood-related. He had everything that Zongyang had. I really can't believe that after taking such good care of him, we ended up raising a monster! Pingting, it's Grandpa who's let you down!"

Wu Pingting quickly responded, "Grandpa, you haven't let me down! None of us could have guessed that he would turn out like this. Nuannuan was right about one thing—it's better that we see his true colors now rather than later. We treated him like family, but he never saw us as family. To keep me by his side, he found people to take turns harming me. He would rather have me completely destroyed than watch me be happy with someone else. He's clearly committed many sins, yet he still pretends to be a saint. He's just like Xu Yunyun, a cruel pervert! In fact, he's even more horrid than Xu Yunyun! My best friend and my own brother were both were willing to plot against me for no good reason. Fortunately, they weren't plotting my demise this time. If one day they felt like my death would be the best thing for them, I might have fallen victim to their dark minds. So, Grandpa, we should be glad that they were partners in this plot. I now know that I have to watch out for them in the future."

Looking at Wu Pingting, Elder Wu could not help but nod in agreement. Even though he was angry, he said to Wu Pingting and Wu Zongyang, who were standing by his sister's side, "You two are good children! The sons and grandsons of our Wu family are good children. As long as all of you stay pure and don't grow crooked, Grandpa will have not disappointed our Wu ancestors!"

"Grandpa, don't worry. Although the Wu family only has me and my brother, we will definitely do our family's lineage proud."

"Good, good, good!!!"

Chapter 1919: How Did She Know?

Looking at his granddaughter, who had suffered such a huge setback yet was still able to face life positively, Elder Wu regained his strength.

"Nuannuan, thank you! I feel much better now. I'll be fine once I head back and take some medicine."

"This acupuncture treatment will take 20 minutes, after which your heart will feel even better than it did even before the heart attack."

"Really?" Wu Pingting exclaimed happily. "Thank you so much, Nuannuan!"

"It's nothing, really, it's nothing."

"Nuannuan, how did you know that Xu Yunyun and... and Wu Zongxu were the ones who harmed me?"

Wu Pingting had been about to call him Second Brother, but then she remembered what he had done to her. She felt that even though she would be able to accept this tragedy and continue to live a good life, she would probably never forgive Wu Zongxu in this lifetime.

Thus, from that moment onward, Wu Zongxu was no longer her second brother.

"I only guessed about Xu Yunyun. It was my Big Brother Chi Yang who told me that Wu Zongxu could have been involved. He said that Wu Zongxu's face gave it away. When he faced you, his cousin, he looked at you more lovingly than your own brother did. Also, when we first came through the Wu family's front door and saw Wu Zongxu holding a Barbie doll and teasing you with tears in his eyes, Chi Yang felt that there was something off about him. After he told me about Wu Zongxu this afternoon, I at first planned to return and suss him out. However, when I came back, I saw Xu Yunyun first. Her hatred toward you and me was blatantly obvious. So, I guessed that Wu Zongxu might not have been the only one involved. Xu Yunyun must have been in on it too. So, after she left, I lied to Wu Zongxu and told him that I had put a hidden camera on Xu Yunyun.”

“So Xu Yunyun doesn’t actually have a camera?”

Then, Nuannuan walked over to the opposite side of the bed and retrieved a camera from under the bedside table. “This contains a recording of a conversation between Wu Zongxu and Xu Yunyun. His phone also has a record of the call. These two pieces of evidence are enough to convict Xu Yunyun. As for determining whether Xu Yunyun or Wu Zongxu was the mastermind responsible for planning and financing the attack, we can let the police investigate that. However, the Xu family is not an ordinary family. If the Wu family and the Xu family go against each other...”

“Since the Xu family dared to attack my daughter, they clearly already have no respect for the Wu family. If they still dare to interfere in Xu Yunyun’s conviction even when the evidence is conclusive, the worst that can happen is a fallout between our two families. If my family can’t even protect our own children and grandchildren, how can we talk about being the number one family in Sea District?” Wu Jingcheng said angrily.

Nuannuan thought for a moment and nodded. “If there’s anything you need help with, you can ask me.”

“Okay. Thank you, Nuannuan.”

Previously, Wu Jingcheng had been too embarrassed to befriend Nangong Nuannuan due to who she was. Now, he sincerely treated her as a junior whom he loved and cared for. He was happy that his daughter had made such a powerful and kind friend.

A call came in from Wu Jingcheng’s phone. He answered and asked, “Have you caught the person? Hmph! No matter what the Xu family wants, get the police to arrest her immediately. I’ll come over right away to handle this matter!”

Chapter 1920: Wu Zongxu Must Be The Mastermind

“It’s linked to your phone’s loudspeaker, so when you play the recording, their voices will be very clear.”

“Okay, I got it. Thank you.”

Wu Pingting and Wu Zongyang knew where he was going, so they did not stop him.

Soon, someone came in to bring out the unconscious Wu Zongxu.

After the acupuncture treatment, Elder Wu put his hand to his heart. His eyes were wide open.

Sure enough, his heart felt more at ease than it had even before the heart attack!

“Dad, what’s wrong? Are you still not feeling well?” Wu Jingmin asked nervously.

“No, no, no!” Elder Wu hurriedly waved his hand and looked at Nangong Nuannuan. “Girl, you are really a living Buddha! Your acupuncture technique is simply marvelous! My heart feels even better than it did before the heart attack. I feel much more energetic now!”

Looking at Elder Wu’s surprised and happy expression, Nuannuan smiled. “That’s good. It’s getting late, so you should go and rest. Given that you’ve already caught him, besides encountering any future troubles, your life will continue to improve.”

“Okay, okay, okay!” Elder Wu nodded.

When Nuannuan returned to the bedroom, Chi Yang had already finished showering. He was half-naked and leaning against the bed’s headboard, a notebook in his lap.

She was used to seeing her Big Brother Chi Yang like this, but looking at him now... Even though she was already very familiar with every part of this man’s body, Nuannuan could not control herself.

At this moment, Big Brother Chi Yang’s body was emanating male hormones, urging her to rush up and pounce on him.

However, knowing that Big Brother Chi Yang was stronger than she was, she swallowed her feelings and made herself docile.

Seeing the little girl obediently walk up to him and take his arm, a smile flashed across Chi Yang’s face.

The two of them had been together for a long time, so he knew exactly what the little girl was thinking.

This gave him a strong sense of satisfaction as a man.

He looked at how the little girl looked now and thought about how the neighbors always complained about them doing renovations every night. The little girl still looked like she wanted more and could fight for another night. Chi Yang felt that he liked her most the way she was now.

He reached out his other hand and stroked her head, asking, “How was it? Did you catch him red-handed?”

“Yes!” Nuannuan nodded.

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you’re amazing. I didn’t even notice that there was something off about Wu Zongxu. How were you so sure he was the mastermind?”

“Because Xu Yunyun is too petty. She proved that she doesn’t have even basic patience when it comes to a simple love rivalry. She pinched her palms so hard, and her eyes betrayed how she felt. How could such a person plan anything complicated? You know for a fact that after Wu Pingting’s accident, the Wu family must have searched for the perpetrator everywhere. However, even under such a thorough investigation, the perpetrator didn’t slip up once. It was clear that they were a meticulous person—which Xu Yunyun isn’t. You were sure that she was behind this, but I thought that even though she was involved, the mastermind had to be Wu Zongxu.”
