Chapter 1921

: The Amazing Big Brother Chi Yang

The hair on his chest stuck to his warm and soft skin. His body tensed up, and turmoil was brewing in his mind.

"I feel that although Wu Zongyang is a very good actor, his feelings for Wu Pingting are real and not an act at all. That's why I don't suspect him. As much as someone can perform well, the way he cares about Pingting—the look in his eyes when he sees her, his sadness, his happiness when she recovered... That can't have been faked. When Wu Pingting spat out the blocked sputum, everyone in the room frowned as they had not been mentally prepared. He was the person closest to her, yet he was the only one who did not show any disgust. So, unless he outright admits it, I really don't think he's the mastermind behind the incident."

Chi Yang bent down and kissed Nuannuan's warm forehead. He conveniently closed the notebook that he had on his lap and put it aside.

"There was once a sociopath who attended a funeral. At the funeral, he fell in love with a girl. To see that girl again, he was willing to kill her sister. A sociopath's mind works very differently to that of a normal person's, so you can't view him through the lens of a normal person's thought process.

"Wu Zongxu also hid his gaze well when he faced Wu Pingting. If I didn't have Wu Zongyang as a comparison, I might not have been able to see what he was doing. Wu Zongyang's intense love for Wu Pingting reflected poorly on Wu Zongxu's attitude.

"If one day you vomited, regardless of how others would react, I wouldn't even frown. Even if the smell made people retch. I know that at that moment, my mind would be completely focused on you. I might also be like Wu Zongxu. I might be too concerned to notice the smell.

"So, if my guess is correct, Wu Zongxu must have loved Wu Pingting very much. If he was the mastermind behind the incident, he would have the same reason for harming Wu Pingting that Xu Yunyun had. They both thought that Xu Feiyang was interested in Wu Pingting and were afraid that she liked him back. They couldn't do anything to Xu Feiyang to stop the two of them from getting together, so instead, they went after Wu Pingting. Considering Wu Zongxu's paranoia and perverse thinking, it makes sense that he would think that if Wu Pingting was raped and lost her virginity, she would no longer be perfect for other men. Then, he would have the opportunity to take care of her for the rest of his life. In fact, when Wu Pingting lost her sanity, while he may have felt sad, he likely did not feel that the outcome was unacceptable."

Upon saying that, Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan's wide-eyed look of admiration. He smiled and said, "Why? Am I right?"

“Big Brother Chi Yang, you said that abnormal thought patterns cannot be viewed through the lens of a normal person’s thinking. Then how did you determine what Wu Zongxu was thinking? Regardless of whether he’s a mild or serious case, it’s definite that he’s a sociopath, right? No matter how you look at it, he’s a pervert, right?”

Chi Yang chuckled. “Have you forgotten what your husband does?”

Nuannuan was stunned. “Is the commander of the Eagle Special Forces responsible for catching sociopaths?”

“Not only is the Eagle Special Forces responsible for sending special forces soldiers to the various military bases, but the top special forces also receive training for this at the Eagle Special Forces Academy. Some of the unsolved cases in this world are thanks to the actions of a very smart sociopath.”

Chapter 1922: The Eagle Special Forces

“In the Eagle Special Forces, soldiers must not only learn how to subdue the enemy with force, but also understand their subtle movements and psychology. The Eagle Academy is a place that improves many skills of the special forces’ soldiers—not only in strength, but also in other fields, such as insight, judgment, reaction, and decision-making. Analyzing a person in detail is part of basic training for every special forces soldier. They need to know how the enemy thinks to predict when they may make a move, so they can prevent any attack.”

Nuannuan was stunned when she heard what Chi Yang said.

In the world where she used to kill people over just a small disagreement, fists were the only truth. If she did not have X-ray vision or clairvoyance, she would certainly not be smart enough to discern when someone was lying or see how their blood flow changed under stress.

She really did not know what to do with the new information that Big Brother Chi Yang had just given her.

She was not aware that special forces soldiers needed to learn how to understand people’s thinking.

Nuannuan still could not figure one thing out, though.

Since Big Brother Chi Yang was so good at reading microexpressions, why did he have such a relationship with her in her previous life?

Chi Yang reached out with his hand to scratch Nuannuan’s nose and asked, “What’s with your expression? After everything I said, shouldn’t you be admiring your husband? Why do your little eyes seem to shine with contempt?”

Nuannuan snorted and crawled into the bed. She mumbled, “You’re so smart, but why couldn’t you see that I liked you back then? If you could tell that I liked you too, you wouldn’t have been so worried about yourself. You wouldn’t have made my heart ache all the time. You didn’t show off this skill when it came to our love. Do you think I’m not as important?”

Nuannuan clearly used a playful tone.

She was just joking!

She did mean to criticize Big Brother Chi Yang for not taking their love seriously.

However, after she finished speaking, Big Brother Chi Yang suddenly got down on one knee next to the bed. With a serious expression, he grabbed her hand and laid it on his chest.

Nuannuan felt the loud beating of his heart through her hand. Facing Chi Yang's sudden solemnity and seriousness made her feel dizzy. She got up from lying down on the bed. She stared at Big Brother Chi Yang with her doe eyes, not knowing what he was going to do.

"Nuannuan, I'm sorry. I didn't know that you felt this way. You're right. If I had paid more attention to you back then—if I had treated you as seriously as I treated my work, observed you, and paid more attention to your subtle actions, I would have known that you actually liked me too. At first, I was too caught up in my career. But I loved the feeling of having you care about me, value me, and show me compassion. Nuannuan, I swear to you, even though our first meeting was not so pleasant and our first time happened in an even less harmonious atmosphere, I was serious about you from the very beginning. From the moment I met you, I told myself that in this life, you would be mine, and I would be yours. In this life, I, Chi Yang, only think of you. So, I wasn't ignoring you. Please believe me!"

His long confession made Nuannuan furious.

Chapter 1923: Follow Me To My Next Life

She was sure that Big Brother Chi Yang's IQ was undoubtedly very high, but his EQ was questionable. He could not tell the difference between a joke and a sarcastic remark.

Facing brother Chi Yang's especially serious gaze, Nuannuan could not hold herself back for even a second. She immediately surrendered.

"Alright, Alright, I believe you. Why are you acting so serious? I was just joking."

In the next moment, Nuannuan felt her world spin. She had already been rolled around by Big Brother Chi Yang in bed earlier, and now, he was pinning her entire body down—she could not move at all.

Feeling his warm and refreshing breath on her face, Nuannuan felt her neck and face start to itch. Her entire body was enshrouded in his breath, and she felt her strength gradually slip away.

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan, and a smile suddenly appeared in his eyes. "I've finished talking about my abilities. Now, let's talk about what you can do."

"What I can do?"

"You're a lot of things. For example, you're too beautiful! Your figure is amazing! Your eyes are too alluring! When you practice medicine, there's this white light enveloping your body, making you look very holy! Have I ever said that men don't even dare to look you in the eye?"

This was the first time Nuannuan had been praised like this, and for some reason, she felt a little embarrassed.

"You're exaggerating!"

“Real life is even more exaggerated than what I’m saying. Ordinary men feel inferior when they look you in the eye, and outstanding men are unable to resist wanting you when they do the same. You have a natural charm that can bring people into your world. After meeting your eyes, people can’t help but sink into your aura, you know?”

Nuannuan burst into laughter. “Am I really that good?”

“You’re the best girl in the world, so all outstanding men will naturally always want to have you.”

Nuannuan was about to speak, but Chi Yang had already sealed her lips with his. After a passionate kiss, he said, “But you’re mine. You’re mine for the rest of our lives.”

Nuannuan could not resist the hormones raging in her body. She could not help but reach out and wrap her arms around his neck.

“Then I’ll do my best in this life, so you can follow me to my next life too!”

“Okay!”

She felt Big Brother Chi Yang’s large hand caressing her body. After so long together, he knew exactly where she was most sensitive. His large hands with its many calluses gently caressed her, and Nuannuan could not help but let out a soft sigh.

This sigh was a sincere invitation to Chi Yang, proving how he was bringing Nuannuan to one high point after another.

After a while, her breathing grew rapid and her sighs became increasingly enticing. Then, Chi Yang suddenly stopped moving.

It was like a director had suddenly shouted, “Cut!”.

Nuannuan did not have the strength to open her eyes, so she could only call out to him. “Big Brother Chi Yang”.

Actually, Chi Yang had already gotten more energetic and was ready to take it to the next level. When Nuannuan called out his name so flirtatiously, he almost lost all ability to contain himself.

He used all his strength to hold himself back. He panted heavily and kissed Nuannuan’s sensitive earlobe with his soft lips.

Chapter 1924: Sleep Well

“Xu Feiyang likes you. Do you like him?”

“No.” Nuannuan’s heart was filled with resentment toward that black-bellied man! “Big Brother Chi Yang, hurry up! Hurry up!”

“Will you be tempted if he pursues you?”

“No! Hurry up!”

“You’re sure you won’t be tempted no matter how much he pursues you?”

Eventually, Nuannuan could not help but open her eyes and push Chi Yang off her body. She sat up and stared at Chi Yang with her deep and dark eyes. She said, emphasizing each word, “I. Don’t. Like. Him!”

After she said that, before Nuannuan could do anything, Chi Yang lost all self-control. He stood up and turned around, still holding her. The two of them let out a sound at the same time.

After a fierce battle, Nuannuan was tired out and felt physically weak. All she wanted to do was sink into the soft blanket.

“Come on, little girl, let’s go take a bath,” Chi Yang said gently after wiping the sweat off Nuannuan’s body with a warm cloth.

However, Nuannuan was really exhausted. It had already been late at night when they caught Wu Zongxu. Now, after their workout, it was almost 2AM. Nuannuan really did not want to take a bath. She hugged the blanket in a daze. She was already ready to sleep.

Chi Yang noticed the little woman behaving coyly, not wanting to talk to him. He knew that she was tired, so he went to the bathroom alone to wash himself up first. Then, he filled the bathtub with warm water. He returned to the bedroom and carried Nuannuan into the bathroom, putting her down in the bathtub.

Once she was submerged in the warm water of the bathtub, Nuannuan finally felt like she wanted to take a bath. The warmth of the water was comforting. She kept her eyes closed until Chi Yang’s big hands reached into the water, wanting to help her clean up. This made her open her eyes in embarrassment.

Chi Yang continued without waiting for a response and gently washed Nuannuan’s body.

Seeing that the little girl was asleep, Chi Yang could not help but smile.

Only with him could she be relaxed and trusting enough to sleep, especially so deeply. If she were with anyone else, she would always remain on guard.

After washing up, Chi Yang returned to the bedroom and retrieved a large towel which he then laid out on the bed. He carried Nuannuan out of the water and placed her on it— using the towel to gently wipe her down.

Nuannuan vaguely knew what Chi Yang was doing. However, she was too exhausted to help. She simply allowed him to roll her over and remove the towel before she ended up falling back asleep.

Chi Yang tidied up and walked over to cover her with the thin blanket. Then, he got into bed and covered himself with the blanket as well.

He reached out to caress her flat stomach, the light in his eyes deepening.

Today and a few times before, Nuannuan had told him that she would not get pregnant since she was on birth control.

However, logically speaking, it would be very easy for them to conceive a child considering his and Nuannuan's physical conditions.

Chapter 1925: Highway Terror

However, they had done it when she was not on birth control at least three times, and of these three times, only one of them had been during the safe period of her menstrual cycle.

That is to say, the seeds he sowed the last time had not taken root and germinated, even though they could have!!!

What about this time?

Chi Yang thought about how they were going to have a baby together in the future. The baby might look like him, or it might look like Nuannuan. Either way, they would be a one-in-a-million beautiful child. This made Chi Yang feel a warmth in his chest.

Thinking about how there was still a month before Nuannuan turned 18, Chi Yang could barely wait.

He had been waiting for this day for a long time.

Xu Yunyun and Wu Zongxu had conspired to find someone to kidnap Wu Pingting. The Wu and Xu families still had a lot to talk about, but that no longer concerned Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang.

They had come to Sea District to treat Wu Pingting. Not only had they cured her, but they also helped her family find the perpetrators of her tragedy. They would enjoy themselves for the rest of their free time in Sea District.

Chi Yang had found a scenic spot in the suburbs. The place had a beautiful view of the mountains and rivers, and there were houses situated on both sides of the water bank. Since there were many food sellers around there, Chi Yang decided to take his wife out to have a look around.

Wu Pingting initially wanted to be their guide. After all, Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang were important guests. However, now that Nuannuan finally had the chance to spend some time alone with Chi Yang, she was adamant that she did not want a third wheel. Thus, Wu Pingting was asked not to come.

For Chi Yang's convenience, the Wu family offered to send him a car and a driver. However, the two of them did not ask for a driver—they only asked for a car.

During this time when there were not many accessible navigation applications, it was good that both Chi Yang and Nuannuan were technologically adept. They accessed satellite blueprints to analyze the roads and choose the quickest route to their destinations. This was relatively easy for them to do.

The two of them walked around the water village in the suburbs, trying various snacks during their stroll. They ate from noon to the afternoon until Nuannuan was full. Only then did they prepare to go back.

The tourist attractions were all crowded. The manmade monuments were also crowded, and the food around them was only average. It was incomparable to the delicacies in C District. However, since Nuannuan was not picky with food, she still found them delicious.

This vacation was just for eating. A tourist attraction with delicious food made traveling fun. However, this tourist spot might be given a bad review if someone cared about more than that.

On the way back to the Wu family's residence, as they reached the highway, a taxi quickly overtook them from behind and continued driving very fast.

Taxi drivers were in a hurry most of the time. They always relied on their good driving skills and constantly changed lanes and overtook other drivers. This was common. Seeing that car overtake him, Chi Yang merely continued to drive at his normal speed.

After the taxi passed their car, it continued to drive ahead. However, just a few hundred meters ahead, it encountered two large trucks on two separate lanes.

The trucks were in the overtaking lane and moving fast. In between them was a 130-foot-long empty stretch of road.

After the taxi overtook Chi Yang and some other vehicles, it continued pressing forward. Chi Yang and Nuannuan watched as the car sped up again, overtaking the trucks.

Chapter 1926: Save Her

The truck was driving in a straight line and had no intention of changing lanes.

However, just when the taxi was a little more than a head away from the truck behind it and was about to change lanes, the truck in front suddenly stepped on the emergency brake.

The taxi, which had been about to change lanes a few feet further up, saw this and immediately stepped on his own emergency brake.

Although the taxi driver reacted quickly, he had still been going too fast. He was less than 110 feet away from the truck in front.

If one was driving at 70 miles per hour, the driver should get at least three seconds to react and judge if there was an emergency ahead. Therefore, the safe distance between the car and the truck on the highway should have 650 feet. This was to ensure that the driver could step on the brakes in time when going at 70 miles per hour.

However, in his rush, the taxi driver had obviously not taken this matter into account. Because this road was a clear stretch and had a normal amount of traffic, he did not expect the truck in front to suddenly step on the brakes.

Therefore, even if the taxi driver had stepped on the brakes at the same time as the truck driver, he could still only crash head-first into the back of the truck.

Realizing this, as his car was about to hit the truck in front of him, the taxi driver made good use of his years of experience. The moment the car was about to hit the back of the truck in front, he made a graceful move and attempted to cut through the lane with the truck behind him and rush to the next lane.

However, the taxi driver did not expect the truck behind him, which had initially been slower than him, to suddenly not step on the brakes but on the accelerator.

Although the taxi was faster than the truck behind it, the driver had stepped on his old brake, and the truck behind it was now going faster. Within the 0.01 seconds that the taxi driver was given to react to this situation... he suddenly became the filling to a truck sandwich.

What was worse was that the two trucks had actually planned this beforehand. The moment the taxi tried to drift away, the truck behind it not only accelerated, but also crashed into the taxi from behind.

Further back on the road, before the incident happened, Nangong Nuannuan could not help but want to complain about the fast-driving taxi. She wanted to say that the driver was driving so fast for no reason. He was in a hurry to get reincarnated.

Because of her complaints, she could not help but use her X-ray vision to see what the taxi driver looked like.

At this moment, the car accident happened.

“Save her!”

Seeing the truck in front suddenly brake, and the truck next to it rammed into the taxi from behind, Chi Yang immediately used his superpowers without thinking.

When the taxi and the truck crashed into each other, a force pushed the taxi back a little.

With a violent crash, the two trucks crashed into each other, and the luxury car driven by Chi Yang and Nuannuan also crashed into the two trucks. The collision between the two trucks and the luxury car damaged over 100 feet of the road’s high-speed barrier. It was evident how fast the two trucks were.

Chi Yang looked at Nuannuan, and Nuannuan looked back at him. After making sure that each other was both safe, the two of them rushed out of the car almost at the same time.

The cars behind them were quite far away, so when they saw that there was a serious car accident with four cars involved in the collision front, they immediately stopped their cars and called the traffic police. Some people also helped to call the ambulance.

Chapter 1927: The People in the Cars

Soon, the highway in this area was completely cut off, and all the vehicles nearby could not pass through.

After Chi Yang got out of the car, he went straight to the two truck drivers.

The two truck drivers realized what was happening and got ready to jump out to escape. As a result, one of them was beaten to the ground by Chi Yang, while the other one was hit in the knee by a swiftly-tossed stone from the side of the road. His whole body curled up and fell into the grass in the middle of the road. When he tried to stand up, he found that his knee was completely shattered. He knew that he would definitely not be able to escape.

Chi Yang went to hold down the two truck drivers who had caused the accident, while Nangong Nuannuan rushed to the front of the taxi as quickly as she could. She opened the door of the taxi and helped the people in the car out of it.

Sze Lingyun was completely dumbfounded.

She had just been in an emergency situation where she was certain she was going to die just now, and she had yet to react to it. Why did the car that should have crashed into the back of the truck suddenly stop?

It was only when she saw Nangong Nuannuan that her shocked and frightened eyes slowly returned to normal. As she looked at her face, her eyes gradually lit up.

“M-Miss Nangong!” Sze Lingyun initially wanted to call her idol, but she was afraid that she would be rude, so she suppressed the excitement in her heart as she called out to Nuannuan.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled slightly. “Senior Sister Sze, I’m going to study at the Military Medical Hospital soon. You’re in your third year, and I’ll be in my first year. You can just call me Nuannuan.”

Sze Lingyun blushed. “O-okay!”

The fear she had felt a moment ago was replaced by the joy of meeting someone she didn’t expect.

“Those two trucks...”

Sze Lingyun wanted to say that she felt something was up with those two trucks, but Nangong Nuannuan spoke up for her.

"The drivers of these two trucks are probably hired killers. They wanted to kill you. But Big Brother Chi Yang's already caught them. Don't worry, we'll know who's behind this very soon."

"Wow, thank you! If it weren't for you, I'd definitely be dead right now." As Sze Lingyun spoke, a fit of thick anger flashed across her eyes. She did not need to guess who would be so ruthless as to want to kill her.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "You don't have to thank us. We've met before. Your fiancé is a brother of my Big Brother Chi Yang, so we'll help you two no matter what. You should be glad you ran into us at such a good time. They say that surviving a great disaster will bring you good fortune, right?"

Sze Lingyun was amused by Nangong Nuannuan's words, and the haze in her heart was instantly dispelled.

She was right. If Xiao Yaxin found out that her meticulously arranged murder scheme had allowed Sze Lingyun to get lucky enough to meet the Eagles' boss and Nangong Nuannuan, she would probably be angered to death.

Suddenly, the taxi driver woke up from his fainting, opened the door, and got out. When he saw Nangong Nuannuan and Sze Lingyun standing together, he was stunned for a moment. Then, he asked Sze Lingyun, "We... How did we survive?"

Although he had tried his best to avoid them, he had not been hopeful about surviving. Before he realized what was happening, the car had been pushed back by some mysterious force and they were saved.

Nangong Nuannuan walked up to the driver's side. He was caught off guard, so he raised his leg to kick him away.

Before the driver could even start to put up a fight, he fainted again.

"Nuannuan, he's..."

"He's with them."

Chapter 1928: Explanation

With Nangong Nuannuan's explanation, what else could Sze Lingyun not know?

She had previously asked why the driver was driving so fast.

Earlier in the car, she had already advised him to slow down. Who could have guessed that the driver would say that it was not easy for them to earn money? He had to finish her trip as soon as possible, so he could get another order.

She reasoned with him and told him that even on the next job, he could not exceed the speed limit. Even more than that, he could not give up his life for money.

However, the driver had rebuked her and told her not to think that her life was so valuable. His life was also valuable! He had a wife and sick child to support. He was his family's only breadwinner, so if he died, his family would be hopeless. Therefore, money was more important to him than her comfort.

After saying that, not only did he not slow down... He sped up! Then, the near-crash happened.

Watching the driver vomit blood and faint, Sze Lingyun cursed in her heart. He deserved it.

Because it was a major traffic accident with a four-car collision, the traffic police and the ambulance arrived very quickly.

The traffic police were angry when they heard that the taxi driver and the truck driver had been knocked unconscious by Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan. However, after Chi Yang showed his officer's badge to the traffic police, all the traffic police saluted him and greeted him as 'sir'. Even the nearby bystanders knew that this man was not an ordinary person.

All three of the perpetrators were injured. For humanitarian reasons, the three of them should have gone to the hospital first. However, Chi Yang told the police that he had been careful, so the three of them were not too hurt. Therefore, at Chi Yang's request, the three of them went straight to the police station.

At the beginning, the two truck drivers and the taxi driver were still stubborn, especially the taxi driver who jumped eight feet high to avoid accusations.

"I said, what's wrong with you?! If she's a victim, am I not one too? I still have a sick daughter at home who needs me to raise her. I'm busy taking care of my family. Why would I want to kill someone? Why would I give up my own life for that? What right do you have to accuse me of such a thing? After you kicked me and injured me, not only did you not send me to the hospital and pay my medical fees, but you even allowed the police to arrest me. Are you so great just because you have power and influence? Do you believe that I'll sue you?"

The two truck drivers had a very good attitude at the moment. They kept apologizing to the taxi driver and Sze Lingyun.

"I'm really sorry. My brother and I stayed up all night last night. This morning, we had breakfast and slept in the car for an hour. It was really too difficult on the road just now, and I almost fell asleep. In the end, I was in a trance, and the car almost hit the guardrail on the side. I was shocked and stepped on the brakes. I really didn't see a car behind me. You were driving too fast and were in my rearview mirror's blind spot. If I knew that there was a car behind me. I wouldn't have suddenly stepped on the brakes!"

"What about you? How do you plan to explain your sudden acceleration?"

Under Chi Yang's gaze, the driver of the truck behind them looked embarrassed. "Brother Chang is right. We both stayed up all night last night. We were too tired. Actually... Actually, I was already asleep on the road just now. I didn't see the taxi beside me at all. I was just subconsciously following Brother Chang. I was too sleepy. When it happened, I noticed Chang put his foot on the brake. I wanted to put my foot on the brake too, but I didn't react correctly and instead stepped on the accelerator. Because I was anxious, the steering wheel jerked around. I'm really sorry!"

Chapter 1929: The Taxi Driver

"Officer, look, no one's injured. The car's just a little banged up. Can we just go directly to the insurance company and pay for the damages?"

The taxi driver immediately refused and started to make a scene. "The taxi is from the taxi company. If an insurance report for this accident that you caused is made, I might be fired. How can I just let this go? If you want me to forgive you, along with getting the insurance company to repair the car, you must give me an additional 100,000 yuan as compensation!"

"Huh?! You're really asking for too much! I just heard this lady say that you were speeding. You were speeding and tailgating us! Even though it was my bad suddenly stepping on the brakes, you should not have been so close to us. The rear collision was entirely your fault. Yet you have the nerve to ask me to pay 100,000 yuan?"

The taxi driver's face was flushed. He was about to retort when Chi Yang coldly berated him.

"Shut up!"

Even though Chi Yang's voice was not loud, it was extremely threatening.

The three people who were arguing instantly fell silent.

At this time, information regarding the three people involved had already been passed to the captain of the police. At first, the captain was more inclined to believe that the three of them were conspiring to kill. However, after reviewing their backgrounds, he turned to Chi Yang and Nuannuan and asked, "Sir, Madam, why don't we talk outside?"

"Let's just talk here." Chi Yang adjusted his posture. Out of all the policemen in the room, he was the person with the best posture.

He had just received a call from Li Jingyan. Knowing that Sze Lingyun had almost died in a car accident, Li Jingyan was both angry and terrified. However, since he was currently training at the Eagle Special Forces academy, he could not leave the combat squad to meet his girlfriend. All he could do was ask Chi Yang to help his fiancée make the right decision regarding this.

Chi Yang, who had already made a promise to his brother, would definitely not let this matter go so easily.

For his brother's sake, he would ensure that the investigation of this accident was as thorough as it could be.

"Okay," responded the captain of the police. He adjusted his glasses, which had slid down his nose from his sweat. He continued, "Initially, I thought that these three people might have been bribed to murder someone by causing a road accident, like what you suggested. However, our team has just obtained all relevant information about them based on their descriptions. The taxi driver's name is Wang Yanqing. He has been in the taxi industry for 16 years. His daughter is 13 years old and has just entered the first year of junior high school. She was diagnosed with uremia a month ago. He and his wife did their very best to organize a kidney transplant for their daughter. Although his daughter has been discharged from the hospital now, there's a long period where the risk of rejection of the new organ is high—so his daughter is currently on many medications. He's his family's only breadwinner, and his wife isn't in good health either. We looked into his, his wife's, and even both their parents' accounts, and there've been no big transactions made recently to any of them. It is unlikely that he was hired to kill."

"It's unlikely?" Chi Yang honed in on that phrase and repeated it as he fixed his gaze on the captain of the police.

"It's impossible! Definitely impossible!"

"Have you had someone investigate how Wang Yanqing paid for his daughter's kidney transplant?" said a voice from behind them. The captain of the criminal police turned around to see who it was. He then immediately stood up and called out, "Chief!"

The chief quickly walked over and gave Chi Yang a standard military salute. He said loudly, "Reporting to my chief, I am the 138th student of the Eagle Special Combat Team, Yin Ge, currently the chief of the Public Security Bureau of Wangcheng Are, Sea District!"

Chapter 1930: Who Was The Instigator?

Yin Ge looked to be in his early 30s, much younger than the captain of the security bureau. However, the captain of the criminal police squad still respectfully addressed him as his chief.

It was commonly known that anyone who graduated from the Eagle Special Forces academy, even if they had only been a low-ranking soldier or an ordinary student, could become an outstanding police officer straight upon graduation. His words did not make Chi Yang so angry.

Yin Ge stared at Chi Yang with a gaze so intense that it could not be ignored. When Yin Ge had been about to leave the Eagle Special Forces, he just happened to bump into Chi Yang and Leng Jinpeng making the exchange. At the time, he thought it odd that such a young man had actually become a lieutenant general. He figured Chi Yang had relied on his family's influence to gain such prestige. However, less than a week after Chi Yang joined the Eagles, he won over all the members of the Special Forces, including Yin Ge.

Yin Ge was extremely happy to be able to meet the commander that he used to worship once again. He was also very disappointed that his subordinates had so easily believed the confessions from the three of them.

"Chief, please leave this matter to me. Please give me an hour... No, half an hour."

It would have been easy for Chi Yang and Nangong Nuannuan to investigate these three people. It would have only taken a minute or two. However, Chi Yang was willing to give his students the opportunity to prove themselves.

"Okay."

Upon getting Chi Yang's approval, Yin Ge glanced at the three drivers in front of him. Their gazes were now no longer as indifferent as they were before. Especially the taxi driver, who seemed to be suspiciously avoiding Yin Ge's gaze. This made Yin Ge even more certain that his investigation was going in the right direction.

He took the investigation report from the police captain's hands. Upon reviewing it, he found that it was the crudest investigation that could have possibly been carried out. He asked, "Is this all you can do?"

The criminal police captain's face reddened. He wanted to defend himself, but all he could do was remain silent and bury his head in shame.

Half an hour later, the three people who were sitting at the conference table wanting to settle this matter with insurance were picked up by the police. They were brought to the interrogation room.

"Who was the instigator?" Chi Yang asked when he saw Yin Ge walking over.

"Chief, these three people really don't seem to have a possible motive. So far, our comrades in the criminal investigation department have found that Wang Yanqing's child had uremia but they had no money to treat it. One they, they were hopeless and his wife cried her eyes out. The next day, they paid the full hospital and surgery fees."

"Who gave them the money?" Chi Yang asked.

"The person who gave them the money doesn't have a clear-cut relationship with Wang Yanqing. His surname is Liu, and he's the business manager of Rongxing Construction Company. As for the other two truck drivers, the one in front who suddenly hit the brakes is Qiu Chang, and the one behind them who crashed into the taxi is Zhang Sheng. They owed more than a million dollars to loan sharks. They couldn't pay back the money and were often chased around and beaten by the creditors. However, the loan sharks were not fools. Seeing that they were really unable to return the funds, they made them run this transportation service without pay. Only their food and accommodation were covered. They were paid no wages. They would be let go after they earned enough money to pay back the loan sharks."
