

Physician Wife 1951

Chapter 1951: They All Want Answers

"When the president found out about this, he was very angry. He immediately ordered a strict investigation. That's how he eventually found out that the person who subcontracted the construction of the road was actually your uncle."

"Was Uncle not aware of this?" Wu Pingting asked, her face flushed. She was so angry it seemed like she was about to erupt.

"How could he have known? As governor, he had too many things to worry about. This road wasn't even a main road, but a mere village road. If the people below him did not mention the road, he definitely would not know about this. But if the subordinates received orders from their higher-ups to subcontract this road, they definitely would not dare to talk about it. Thus, it's likely that they understood the hints from their higher-ups to help subcontract this road. Your uncle did not know anything about this.

"After this incident, your uncle was very angry and ordered a strict investigation along with severe punishment. In the end, the investigation led us back to him. Before he could react, he was taken away by the Ministry of Justice. It was all so sudden. We didn't even get a chance to respond. From the looks of it now, it seems like he was betrayed by the people closest to him a long time ago."

Nangong Nuannuan finally understood. She said, "Uncle Wu should carry his personal seal on him at all times. So, the only possibility is that Wu Zongxu somehow stole Uncle Wu's personal seal and forged the contract. That's why Uncle Wu ended up dealing with the brunt of the problem."

Wu Jingcheng sighed and nodded.

"Why would Wu Zongxu do that? Isn't he Uncle Wu's son? Things will be way better for him if Uncle Wu is let off. What motive does he have for doing this?" Sze Lingyun's heart bled as she added to the conversation.

Nuannuan had just told her about the Wu family's family makeup. She knew that Uncle Wu had never been married and did not have any biological children. He had adopted Wu Zongxu at a young age and raised him as his own son. She did not understand why Wu Zongxu would want to harm Uncle Wu when he had been such a good father figure, saving him from the pain of being an orphan and giving him such a good family.

To her, describing him as a pig or a dog was an understatement for the anger she currently felt.

"I also want to know why he would do this. Dad, didn't you send him to the police station? I want to ask him why he was so cruel and how he benefits from all this!" Wu Pingting chimed in angrily.

"Okay!" Wu Jingcheng also wanted to get answers, so he stood up without another word.

"I want to go too!" Wu Jingmin, her third aunt, also stood up.

"Then let's go together!" Elder Wu was also furious. They all wanted answers.

"Then we'll go together. I want to go too." Since she had been involved with this from the very beginning, Nuannuan stood up and wanted to follow as well.

If Nuannuan wanted to go, Chi Yang definitely had to go. Sze Lingyun abhorred evil, so she also wanted to go. Therefore, when Yin Ge's people arrived, the group followed the police to the police station.

After Chi Yang greeted Yin Ge, the police called Wu Zongxu into a separate interrogation room.

The moment he saw Wu Pingting and her family, Wu Zongxu's tears started to fall like rain.

"Grandpa, Grandpa, save me! It's so dark here at night. I don't want to live here! Grandpa, I know I did wrong. I won't ever do something so awful again. Please spare me! I'll be good to you when I return. I'll be good to dad. I'll be good to Pingting!"

Chapter 1952: In Your Dreams!

"If Pingting really doesn't want to be with me, I'll just watch her spread her wings and soar to live her beautiful life! I'll never marry, unless it's to her. If... If Pingting grows old with no man willing to take her, my arms will always be open if she wants to come back."

"Bullsh*t! Get lost!" Wu Jingcheng usually never swore, but hearing Wu Zongxu's confession, made blood rush to his head as he was overcome with anger. Without warning, he pushed Wu Zongxu and made him stagger before falling to the ground.

"Second Uncle!" Wu Zongxu cried out in pain.

"You did something worse than a beast, and you still dare to call my father 'Second Uncle'? Wu Zongxu, hear this from me: you've been disowned by our Wu Family! From now on, you're no longer a descendant of the Wu family. Our Wu family wants no part of unfilial and disloyal people like you!"

At this moment, Wu Zongyang really wanted to stab Wu Zongxu with a thousand swords.

"Big Bro! I really love Pingting! You have no idea how much I love her!" Wu Zongxu sat on the ground and held his head, his eyes affectionately fixed on Wu Pingting.

However, when he noticed Wu Pingting's disgusted expression, his heart hurt so much that it felt like it was about to explode.

"Pingting, don't look at me like that! I can't stand it when you look at me like that! Have you forgotten how good we were together when we were young? Have you forgotten how you were willing to tell me things that you didn't even want to tell your big brother? Have you forgotten how good I was to you? Just because I'm your Big Bro, you were disgusting when you found out that I loved you. Why you can't accept me? Pingting, how can you be so cold-blooded?"

The Wu family had come to Wu Zongxu in indignation. However, before they could even open their mouths, he fired a barrage of accusations at them.

It was not just the Wu family. Even Nangong Nuannuan and Sze Lingyun, who had been watching from the side, were speechless. Only Chi Yang remained as serious as an owl.

"I'm cold-blooded? You sent people to kidnap me and hurt me also badly. Now that you've been caught, you have to take responsibility for the crimes you've committed. But instead, you're accusing me of being cold-blooded? Wu Zongxu, is there a part of your brain that hasn't matured yet? Is that why you feel like everything you do is right? Like no matter what others do, if they don't abide by you, it's wrong? Like even if you've broken the law, the law should revolve around you?"

"No! It's not like that! Pingting, I know that I've done something wrong; I know that I've broken the law—but I was forced to do this! I was afraid you'd leave me. I was afraid you'd leave Sea District and fly away. And that even if you came back, you'd already have a boyfriend. I was afraid of facing such a cruel outcome, so I came up with this plan. I had to do it! If you like me, and if your family agrees, you can become my fiancée—and later, my wife. I love you so much. How could I bear to purposely hurt you? I admit I acted extremely. I did the wrong thing. I hurt you! So, I'm willing to spend the rest of my life trying to make this up to you! Even if I have to be your slave, as long as I can stay by your side, I'm willing!"

"In your dreams! Wu Zongxu, you are an absolute villain! A cold-blooded devil!"

Chapter 1953: Selfish and Sinister

"I'm your sister, yet you can get people to kidnap me without mercy. Tell me, why did you hurt my uncle? Huh? Why? Did he treat you badly? He adopted you and raised you as his own son, but you framed him! Wu Zongxu, why did you do this to your father? If you're asking me to stay by your side, what about your father? What about my uncle? He treated you so well. Why did you frame him?"

Wu Zongxu's eyes narrowed. He shook his head and said, "No, I didn't. I didn't hurt him!"

"You're still trying to argue! There was a time when you often ran to the grocery store at night and caused a lot of commotion. Back then, I had specifically asked you what you had been doing—and you told me that you were looking for something. You were already committing crimes then, weren't you? Wu Zongxu, why are you so awful? Why are you so heartless? Our Wu family treated you so well. Whatever my brother and I had, you had too. Why did you hurt me? Why did you hurt uncle? Why did you hurt our family?"

Wu Pingting almost broke down. After all, she had been closer to Wu Zongxu than her own brother ever since she was young. As a younger sister, she was very attached and treated him like a real brother.

However, it was this person who not only caused her to suffer but had also harmed her uncle—putting her uncle and the entire Wu family in a life-and-death situation.

"Pingting, please believe me! I didn't do it!"

With that, Wu Zongxu looked at Elder Wu again. He cried, "Grandfather, it wasn't me. Please believe me, I really didn't do this! I don't know anything about what happened to my father. How can you blame me for what happened to my father? Grandpa, please let me out! I promise to treat Pingting well and be filial to you. You're getting old. Zongyang is going to inherit second uncle's company and can't stay by your side often. Won't it be good to have me by your side?"

Elder Wu walked up to Wu Zongxu and swung his walking stick at him. He cursed angrily. "B*stard!"

"You harmed my eldest son and my granddaughter, and you still want Grandpa to bail you out? Wu Zongxu, the Wu family treated you well because you're Eldest Uncle's adopted son! In return, you harmed all of us—even your father. Yet you still want to avoid consequences? Are you thinking straight?”

“I didn’t! Grandpa, I didn’t harm father! Do you think since I’m the one who allowed Xu Yunyun to harm Pingting, I also harmed my father? My father is the person I respect the most in life. I would die before I ever harmed him!”

Nangong Nuannuan could not take it anymore. She stood up and said, “Elder Wu, based on why he harmed Pingting, we can see that he is an extremely selfish and sinister person. You won’t be able to get anything out of him by just asking him like this. If you trust me, let me ask him.”

Elder Wu was startled but then immediately nodded. “Alright.”

Seeing Nangong Nuannuan walking toward him, Wu Zongxu subconsciously sat back down on the ground and shifted back.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled slightly. “Whether you’re lying or not, and whether you had a reason to harm Governor Wu... All I need to do is to put a needle in you to find out. Don’t worry, it won’t hurt.”

Seeing Nangong Nuannuan pull out a needle from her bracelet, Wu Zongxu reached out his hand and tried to snatch it away. However, how could his strength ever match that of Nangong Nuannuan’s?

Moreover, Nangong Nuannuan still had Chi Yang by her side.

Before his hand could even touch Nangong Nuannuan, Chi Yang forcefully broke it.

Chapter 1954: My Fault

Everyone heard the sound of Wu Zongxu’s bones breaking, followed by his screaming. Chi Yang quietly yet firmly said, “Don’t lay your dirty hands on my fiancée!”

When he finished speaking, Nangong Nuannuan already had her hand raised. She stabbed a 10-inch-long thin silver needle into an acupuncture point in the middle of Wu Zongxu’s head. It went right to his brain.

The Wu family saw the 10-inch needle shrink to less than 3 inches long, with more than 4 inches of its length inside Wu Zongxu’s head.

Just like what happened with Wu Pingting the other day, the needle directly pierced through his skull and entered the nerves in his brain.

As soon as the needle was inserted, Wu Zongxu’s entire body went limp.

Nangong Nuannuan said to Wu Pingting, “You can take your phone out and record this. Anything he says can be used as a confession.”

“Oh, oh, oh! Okay!”

Wu Pingting quickly retrieved her phone and turned on the camera, taking a video of Wu Zongxu.

“Wu Zongxu, do you know who I am?”

Even though Wu Zongxu's expression was blank, upon hearing Nangong Nuannuan's words, he looked up and answered, "You are the eldest daughter of the Nangong family, Nangong Nuannuan."

"What about them?"

Wu Zongxu said the names of the people standing in front of him one by one. Then, he looked at Sze Lingyun and said, "I don't know her."

"Yes, because she's my friend. You've never met her before. Alright. Now, tell me about your crime. Let's first talk about the attack on Wu Pingting. What did you and Xu Yunyun each do? Who was the mastermind?"

Wu Zongxu put on a pained expression. He shook his head and cried, "I didn't want to hurt Pingting! I love her so much! I really didn't want to hurt her! God knows that when I saw Pingting being taken to the hospital with all those injuries, I felt like my heart was about to explode.

"I had no choice. I was afraid that Pingting would fall in love with Xu Feiyang because he was special to her. He doesn't like to talk, but he got so chatty around her. Pingting is so beautiful, and Xu Feiyang is so outstanding. I was afraid that they'd end up together. So when I saw that Xu Yunyun despised Pingting, I asked her to find someone to kidnap Pingting and rape her. This way, Pingting's perfect image would be stained. She would no longer be perfect. Then, I'd have my chance.

"But I didn't expect Xu Yunyun to take it so far. She found multiple people to viciously rape Pingting. I didn't know that Xu Feiyang was saying so much to Pingting because he wanted to get to know Miss Nangong through her. When I saw the way Xu Feiyang looked at Miss Nangong that day, I knew that I had been mistaken. Sob, sob, sob! I've let Pingting down! It's all my fault! My fault! I don't care about Pingting's image. I love her. No matter what happens, I'll always love her!"

Seeing that Wu Zongxu was on the verge of breaking down, Nangong Nuannuan ordered, "Alright, let's close this topic. Now, let's talk about Wu Jingzhong. Wu Jingzhong is your father. He raised you and shaped you into someone people idolized. Why did you harm him?"

Wu Zongxu's blank eyes gradually began to shine with hatred. This hatred soon grew increasingly deep and mean-spirited. The members of the Wu family who were watching from the sidelines were extremely shocked.

Chapter 1955: An Ant's Nest

Wu Zongxu had always been obedient and sensible. Although he did not share Wu Zongyang's outstanding reputation and ability to handle matters, he was at least considered a trustworthy family man. No one expected him to display so much hatred at Nangong Nuannuan's mention of his father.

"Because I hate Wu Jingzhong! And I hate Wu Zongyang! And I hate Wu Maosong! And I hate Wu Jingcheng! I hate everyone in the Wu family besides Pingting!"

"Why do you hate them?"

"I think they're terrible people! Damn it! They think that because they adopted me, I should be grateful to them forever. My name is Wu Zongxu, while Wu Jingcheng's son is Wu Zongyang—we even share similar names. People see me as the high and mighty young master of the Wu family... But in reality, what's the difference between me and the family's servants?

"After graduating from university, Wu Zongyang joined the Wu group and became vice president at a young age. On the other hand, I, also a descendant of the Wu family, was also allowed to join the group. But I was only appointed as the deputy general manager. They said that since I didn't have a business management background, I'd have to first work as the deputy general manager, and if I did well, I'd be promoted. How can Wu Zongyang become the vice president of the group upon graduation, while I'm only appointed as the deputy general manager of the branch company?"

"So this is why you hurt your father?"

"Shouldn't I hate him? He's the governor of Sea District, so everything that happens here is his responsibility. If the Wu family didn't have him, could they have become the number one noble family in Sea District? Whenever he treated me like his own son, he wouldn't let me be bullied or looked down on. The Wu group relied on his protection to develop and grow. He'd pretend like me and Wu Zongyang were equally favored, or at least, I wasn't too disfavored. Even though I'm his adopted son, we've gone through a formal adoption procedure. I should also have some Wu group shares! But as my father, he didn't do anything for me.

"He didn't give me a chance to prove myself. I don't have hundreds of millions in assets. If I marry Pingting, I won't be able to hold my head up high when I walk with her. I can't give her the life she wants or deserves, which makes me very sad."

"So you set a trap for your father? Did you think about the fact that if you successfully set him up but still didn't get appointed as the governor, you'd be even worse off?"

"No! I won't be worse off," Wu Zongxu responded firmly.

"Why?"

"Because I'll get into politics. I'll work up to becoming the governor. They say that my father's old-fashioned and inflexible, but many people put their hopes on him. If I can bring him down, I'll be a huge deal. There'll be people in the executive hall who can help me with my goals."

When the Wu family heard this, they did not know what to think of Wu Zongxu.

He was selfish, greedy, narrow-minded, and sinister. Above all, he was stupid!

He had been fooled by outsiders, and he had in turned fooled the Wu family, even as an outsider.

Thinking about how family's hundred-year-old foundation had almost been destroyed by this cold-blooded poisonous snake, Elder Wu could not help but break out in a cold sweat.

It was said that everyone carried the weight of life on their shoulders until the day they died. The Wu family had gotten used to having a smooth life over the years. They felt like there was no force in Sea District strong enough to shake their powerful foundation. Elder Wu never thought that a thousand-mile-wide dam could be destroyed by a mere ant's nest. Many heroes and powerful organizations in history were not destroyed by the enemy but instead by someone from the inside.

Chapter 1956: Beast

The Wu family had suffered a series of disasters at the hands of this beast.

Nangong Nuannuan was amused by Wu Zongxu's words. She had not been expecting to meet such a simple-minded villain today.

"Oh, then who is prepared to help you out? What did they promise you?"

"Secretary Xu."

"Which Secretary Xu?"

"Secretary Xu, Xu Binren's secretary."

"What did he tell you? What did he promise you?"

"At the time, I wanted to start my own company, but I was short of money. I asked Wu Jingzhong for money, but not only did he not support me, he even lectured me! He said that my second uncle was so good to me and had already made me the deputy general manager of a listed company. He said that I didn't want to study hard and asked why I wanted to run before even learning how to walk. In short, my so-called father would rather donate money to child victims in disaster areas to supplement his good reputation than give me money to start a company. How could I not hate him?"

"Over the years, I've formed many connections in Sea District. When I went to the bank to get a loan, the bank president unexpectedly told my father about my loan. When I returned home, he scolded me harshly and told me to give up. He even said that if I started a company, it would only end up a failure.

"He not only scolded me but spoke to all my friends' families! He made sure that if I ever wanted to borrow money, they would never lend it to me. I really despise him! I want him to die!"

"After that, Secretary Xu found out that I needed money, so he came to me. He said that I was only the adopted son of the Wu family, and adopted sons were usually no different from subordinates like him. If I wanted to truly be my own master, I had to learn to be flexible. He said that he would give me an upfront payment of 100 million to get Wu Jingzhong kicked out of his current position. Once the deed was done, he would give me another 400 million as start-up capital for my company. He also said that I was not the best person to start and manage a company, so he suggested that after Wu Jingzhong was taken down, I should go to the administrative office and hire a professional manager to manage the company. This way, I could start my company and have someone keep it running.

"At that time, the three Wu family relatives wanted to take on the project, so they came to our house every day to make trouble. Eventually, the Wu family cut off relations with them. They also hated Wu Jingzhong, so I spoke to them and gave them the project, making sure that it would not be done well."

Seeing how Wu Zongxu was so immersed in the joy and madness of harming his father, the members of the Wu family's blood boiled.

Wu Zongyang was so furious that he wanted to rush forward and kick Wu Zongxu, but Nangong Nuannuan stopped him.

"Zongyang!" Elder Wu and Wu Jingcheng yelled. Only then did Wu Zongyang contain his anger and continue to listen to the rest of the story.

Basically, Wu Zongxu's agreement with the three relatives was for them to build a good-looking road—but one without a solid foundation.

Wu Zongxu stole Wu Jingzhong's private seal while he was taking a shower and stamped each of the two contracts. He had already learned Wu Jingzhong's signature long ago, so he forged Wu Jingzhong's signature to sign off on the two contracts.

One of the two contracts was to divide a four-mile-long road into 31 sections that were each less than 65 feet long. Without having to go through a bidding process, the construction of the road was directly subcontracted to the three Wu relatives.

Chapter 1957: Where Is the Evidence?

The other was signed privately by Wu Zongxu in Wu Jingzhong's name, requesting 100 million from the three relatives when they got the contract.

The total investment into this road was 334 million. Wu Zongxu took 200 million, and the remaining 134 million went to the three relatives.

The three relatives were desperate. With this 134 million, they immediately began organizing for workers to start construction. However, there was no clear road design, sketches to review, specific measurements, or even a basic step-by-step construction plan. All they did was have the workers level the road and lay the tar.

They spent 300 million building a road that should not have cost even 20 million. The workers were promised half a year's pay, but before they could receive it, the boss left. The workers began making trouble but let off when they were told that the contractor was a relative of the governor. Even if the boss ran away, how could the governor do the same? The workers continued working obediently until an earthquake suddenly hit the area, affecting many parts of Sea District. Even though it was only a low magnitude earthquake, due to the fact that the road had been built without a foundation and the soil erosion had occurred due to the continuous rain, the road gave way. The road had been empty besides the workers. When the earthquake struck, a large hole formed. Several workers actually fell in and got injured.

Coincidentally, someone passed by and saw this. They decided to post about this matter on Weibo. The news spread like wildfire. When it reached the ears of a few important people, Wu Jingzhong was promptly taken away by the Ministry of Justice.

"Beast! He's simply a beast!"

If he had heard Wu Zongxu's words before, Elder Wu would have been furious—which would have triggered his heart condition. However, with Nangong Nuannuan already having treated him twice, Elder Wu's cardiovascular system was stronger than it had been before his last heart attack. Thus, even though he was still livid, his heart condition did not flare up.

"You made such a grand deal with Secretary Xu. You must have a video or audio recording of your negotiation with him as evidence, right?"

Wu Zongxu chuckled. "Every time I met with him, he'd have someone search me and use some special equipment to check if I had a recording device on me. However, after the first time, I invested heavily into a pinhole camera that could be hidden in the buttons of my shirt and wouldn't be detected by their equipment. So I do indeed have evidence of every time I met him."

"Where's the evidence?"

"Under my bed. It's near the back wall, under the second row of the solid wood floor."

"Since you were wary of Secretary Xu from the very start, you probably know that his words aren't at all reliable. He's just using you. When the time comes, things will unfold as he's planned. If you're no longer of use to his plan, you'll be abandoned. You've helped them so much, yet you've only received 200 million in benefits. Moreover, once they gain power, I'm afraid they'll probably not be in the mood to entertain you. Didn't you prepare a backup plan for yourself?"

Wu Zongxu smiled smugly. "Of course I have a backup plan. The person I'm planning to work with isn't Secretary Xu, but Governor Lan. Governor Lan is a member of the Shi family. I started discussing things with him from the very beginning. He thinks highly of me and helped me set up my own company. He wants to control the entire Sea District and build a reputation for the Shi family so the 13th Officer can successfully run for president. The Wu family supports the 12th, while the Xu family supports the 14th. With these two big families around, controlling Governor Lan is a challenge."

Chapter 1958: No Descendents

"Since I'm an orphan, I have no real power. He promised that if I worked hard for the Shi family, in the future, I could get a taste of his power for myself."

Seeing that he was smiling so happily, Nangong Nuannuan said, "Congratulations. But you should have some evidence regarding Lan Weisong too, right?"

"Of course. An orphan like me can't even trust his 'family', so how could I trust outsiders? I used the expensive camera I bought from overseas to record every meeting I had with Lan Weisong."

"So, Lan Weisong and Xu Binren all knew all about Wu Jingzhong's subcontract and even participated in the planning?"

"Yes," Wu Zongxu answered happily.

The Wu family members, "..."

"And the recordings of all your meetings are kept in that secret compartment?"

"Yep!"

"Did you do anything else to harm the Wu family? It can't be just these two things, right?"

Hearing Nangong Nuannuan's question, the Wu family members grew nervous.

After all, this snake had been by their side for many years. It was very likely that he had done more than just those two things to harm them.

Seeing Wu Zongxu's sinister smile again, the Wu family's hearts fell to their stomachs.

"Does making them infertile count?"

The members of the Wu Family, “...”

Nangong Nuannuan, “...”

“It counts. How did you make them infertile? Who did you make infertile?”

“Anyone who’s ever eaten at the Wu family residence.”

The Wu family, “...”

“I’ve been a chemistry genius ever since I was young. I liked chemistry, but to mold to what the Wu family wanted, I had no choice but to study business management. But I’ve had an affinity for chemistry from a young age. The first time I used it against them was when I was eight years old. At the time, Elder Wu and the Wu family frequently introduced potential girlfriends to Wu Jingzhong. I was afraid that Wu Jingzhong would get married and conceive a b*stard child to compete with me. So, I added some chlorinated glycerol into their cooking oil.

“The family likes to use peanut oil for cooking, but I’ve been allergic to peanuts ever since I was young, so I chose to add chlorinated glycerol to the peanut oil. Hehehe... chlorinated glycerol is a drug that affects the maturation of ovarian follicles. If one ingests chlorinated glycerol all year round, their ovarian follicles can’t mature, so they can’t conceive offspring. Even though the chemical doesn’t kill the follicles, they’ll still never mature. It’s a pity that Wu Jingcheng got married and had children so early, allowing the rest of the Wu family to have children. However, when Elder Wu asked Wu Jingcheng and the others to give him two more grandchildren, they couldn’t conceive despite their best efforts. They blamed it on the fact that giving birth to two children negatively affected a woman’s health. Wu Jingmin also couldn’t conceive—she went to the doctor and complained about her issue. While the whole family was depressed, I was ecstatic. It didn’t matter that the b*stard Wu Zongyang had been born. Since he and this generation have been eating my chlorinated glycerol peanut oil for so long, the Wu family’s roots have now been sliced off.”

The Wu family widened their eyes and looked at Wu Zongxu in disbelief. Elder Wu staggered backward and collapsed onto a chair.

“I’ll kill you!”

Wu Zongyang never thought that the horrid Wu Zongxu would actually plot against his entire family, leaving his family with no descendants. He was so exasperated that he could not help but rush forward to kick Wu Zongxu.

Nuannuan also felt that this scumbag deserved to die.

Chapter 1959: Die a Horrible, Painful Death

Nuannuan did not understand how a person could be so evil that they would do such a thing to their own family. However, Wu Zongxu should not be punished at their hands. Other people were responsible for him.

Therefore, she stretched out an arm and blocked Wu Zongyang’s furious attack.

“Don’t worry. I’m here, and I am also a genius in chemistry. I won’t let any harm come to your Wu family.”

This one line instantly calmed the furious Wu family members down.

“Zongyang, come here. Don’t ruin it.”

Even though Wu Zongyang and Wu Zongmin wished that they could cut Wu Zongxu into a thousand pieces, they were sensible people. No matter how much hatred and anger they had in their hearts, they had to allow Wu Zongxu to live... For now, at least.

“Did you do anything else?”

Wu Zongxu shook his head. “No.”

He thought about something and chuckled. He smiled proudly and said, “It was like slowly boiling a frog. I liked watching their high and mighty family slowly wither in front of me. When I become the governor and when I have a listed company, while they have nothing, I’ll make them kneel in front of me and repent.”

“Repent for what?” Nangong Nuannuan was confused.

“Repent for the fact that they always loved Wu Zongyang more than me! Repent for the fact that they made Wu Zongyang the heir of the Wu family! Repent for the fact that they made Wu Zongyang the vice president of the group headquarters after he graduated, while I was only appointed as the deputy general manager of a small branch company! Repent for the fact that they didn’t give me money to start a company when I needed their support! Confess that they trampled on my reputation! Confess that they insulted my dignity! I want everyone in the Wu family to die a horrible, painful death!”

Everyone, “...!!!”

Nangong Nuannuan looked at the members of the Wu family sympathetically and asked, “Is there anything else you want to ask?”

.....

“Nuannuan, can you really cure me? Can I carry on my family’s lineage?”

“Yes, it’s a small matter. Don’t worry about it!”

“Nuannuan says yes, so it must be true. She’s a godly doctor!” Wu Pingting’s blind trust in Nangong Nuannuan had reached a whole new level.

With Nuannuan’s assurance, the Wu family said that they had no more questions. Wu Pingting stopped filming.

“Once I remove the needle, he’ll forget everything he’s just told us. So, when we leave, we must act like we didn’t ask him anything.”

“Okay.” The Wu family members answered in unison.

“Nuannuan, it’s all thanks to you! You’re our Wu family’s savior!” Elder Wu said with deep gratitude.

Nuannuan nodded and showed her appreciation for his gratitude.

After all, she had indeed helped the Wu family greatly.

Then, Nangong Nuannuan reached out and removed the silver needles from Wu Zongxu's head. For a moment, Wu Zongxu was disorientated. Once he returned to his senses, his expression was momentarily dull. After the dullness, when he saw the needles in Nangong Nuannuan's hands, he covered his face with his hands and shouted loudly for help.

The policeman who in charge of guarding him was Yin Ge's confidant. With Chi Yang's approving gaze, he immediately walked in.

Seeing the policeman, Wu Zongxu reacted as if he was seeing his birth parents. He crawled up to him and said, "Police, save me! They want to murder me right here in the police station! They want to do something to me while you all aren't around to see!"

"Shut up!" The policeman kicked Wu Zongxu and berated him. "A traitor like you deserves to die. And not privately, but publicly! How dare you treat your own sister like this!"

Wu Zongxu shook his head in sorrow and looked at Wu Pingting with a sincere expression.

Chapter 1960: Scum

"Pingting, I really didn't mean to do it. I was blinded by jealousy! Please forgive me this once! You're my sister. If you forgive me and withdraw your charges, the police won't pursue me. I swear I'll treat you well for the rest of my life if you do it! Pingting!"

Wu Pingting glared at Wu Zongxu and enunciated each word clearly as she said, "I'll hire the best lawyer I can find and have the judge give you the heaviest sentence he can. I'll make sure that you and Xu Yunyun will never be able to get out of prison. I'll let you see how happy and blissful I'll be in the future! But if you tell me how you hurt uncle, I'll consider forgiving you."

Wu Zongxu shook his head in pain. With a sad face, he said, "Pingting, I did hire a murderer to kidnap you, but I already told you that the original intention was not to hurt you but to show you how much I loved you! I didn't do anything to you! Xu Yunyun made that decision on her own. We've been brother and sister for so long. Don't you know what kind of person I am? You can't blame everything on me just because I made a mistake! Dad is so good to me. How could I ever harm him? I'm an orphan. If not for him, I wouldn't be where I am right now. Even if you think with your toes, you shouldn't suspect me any more than any servant from the Wu family! If something happens to Dad, what would I do?"

With that, Wu Zongxu looked at Elder Wu again. Kneeling on the ground, he pleaded, "Grandpa, please spare me this time on account of my pure heart for Pingting! I'll definitely treat Pingting well in the future! I'll be filial to you and to Dad! Even though I don't know what happened to dad, no matter what happened, I'll be filial to him. Grandpa, I'm Dad's only son. Do you have the heart to see that you'll be taking his only child away from him? When he grows old, he won't have anyone to take care of him!"

"Wu Zongxu, don't worry. There are many people who'll take care of Uncle, like Pingting and I! Even if we grow old and have kids in the future, Uncle will definitely not be alone."

Wu Zongyang deliberately mentioned children to see the expression on Wu Zongxu's face at his words.

The Wu family members, as well as Chi Yang, Nuannuan, and Sze Lingyun, were just as curious as Wu Zongyang.

However, everyone was surprised to learn that Wu Zongxu was someone who could control his expressions very well. No matter how much the Wu family tried to trick or threaten him, he did not reveal a single hint of the fact that he had framed Wu Jingzhong. When Wu Zongyang mentioned children, he acted as if he had not heard it at all. He did not have a sneer, ridicule, or slight expression of contempt on his face.

The Wu family members could not help but break out into a cold sweat.

Not only did Wu Zongxu have a twisted personality and was a pervert, but he was also a criminal with a high IQ. Both police officers and soldiers equally hated encountering men like him.

“Since he doesn’t want to say anything, let’s go. There’s no need to waste time on scum.” Wu Jingmin hated Wu Zongxu to the core. She was afraid that if she continued to stay here, she would not be able to resist hurting me.

The Wu family members did not look at him again as they walked out one after another.

Wu Zongxu was a little dumbfounded when he saw that they were going to leave after arriving. His whole body felt terrible. He shouted at Elder Wu...
