

Physician Wife 1981

Chapter 1981: Nourishment

The feeling was very strange. She supposed that this was how a woman usually felt after receiving nourishment.

Uh...

Did that mean that she had never received nourishment before this?

Nuannuan quickly dismissed this thought, not daring to reveal anything to Big Brother Chi Yang. If he found out, he would definitely be depressed. After all, this feeling was probably due to Big Brother Chi Yang leveling up after absorbing extra spiritual energy from all the jade. If he found out that she had not felt this way in the past, he would definitely be sad.

She and Big Brother Chi Yang had always been very compatible in that aspect. Many people said a couple's first time would always be messy, but besides some slight pain, her first time with Chi Yang had been extremely pleasurable. In fact, every time afterward with him had been extremely pleasurable.

In the end, Nuannuan attributed the feeling to Big Brother Chi Yang being too amazing, leaving her physically exhausted. That was why she was feeling the satisfaction of being reborn the next day.

Yes, that was right! That had to be it!

As she was walking over to the dining table, Nuannuan noticed that the atmosphere over breakfast was a little heavy. She asked, "What's wrong? Did something happen?"

Elder Wu looked at Nuannuan and said, "Wu Zongxu is dead."

"Oh," Nuannuan replied as she sat down in her seat. The maid immediately came over to serve breakfast for her and Chi Yang.

Elder Wu looked at Nuannuan. "You knew about it?"

Nuannuan spread jam on the toast as she said, "I didn't, but I had guessed."

Wu Jingmin sighed. "Even though Wu Zongxu was despicable, he was the key to saving Big Bro, and now he's dead. We might have video evidence right now, but we don't have any witnesses."

"Xu Binren was taken away by the Ministry of Justice last night, too. Lan Weisong is indeed planning to kill two birds with one stone." Wu Jingcheng was a little angry as he said this.

"Nuannuan, about this..." Elder Wu looked at Nangong Nuannuan. Even though the girl in front of him was not even 18 years old yet, Elder Wu trusted her very much. It could even be said that he relied on her.

“Elder Wu, I have my own plans for this matter. I guarantee that Uncle Wu will be released safe and sound.”

When the Wu family members heard this, their eyes lit up.

“Alright, alright! Then we’ll leave it to you!”

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and said, “Elder Wu, I’m going to accompany Senior Sister back to her house today. No matter what happens with Lan Weisong, don’t pay him any mind.”

“Alright, alright, alright. Don’t worry. We definitely won’t mess with your methods.”

Nangong Nuannuan nodded. “I’ll deal with this when I get back. After all, I told Lan Weisong yesterday that I would stay here for three days. Today is my last day. If he stops, then forget it. If he doesn’t, I’ll contact him again tonight. All that to say that I’ll definitely get Uncle Wu out by tomorrow afternoon.”

“Okay!” The Wu family members nodded and thanked Nangong Nuannuan.

After dinner, Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang were about to accompany Sze Lingyun back when Wu Pingting suddenly appeared and stopped their car. She smiled sweetly at Sze Lingyun, “Big Sis, I want to come too. Can you take me with you? We’re family now! I want to see where you live.”

Nangong Nuannuan smiled, speechless. “You don’t want to see where Senior Sister lives. You want to see Senior Sister’s mother, don’t you?”

Nangong Nuannuan had hit the nail on the head. Wu Pingting pouted and said, “Szesze is my sister now. She’s been bullied by her family. As her sister, I can’t let that slide, can I?”

Chapter 1982: Demolish?

“My grandfather, father, and aunt are relying on me to do this! The three of them can’t really go to Senior’s house to back her up, but I’m still young. I can do it!”

Nangong Nuannuan could not help but feel amused as she watched Wu Pingting roll up her sleeves and prepare to fight.

If an ordinary person was going through what Wu Pingting was currently experiencing, which was her family’s potential destruction only weeks after her brutal rape, which had been orchestrated by her best friend and brother, they might not have been able to keep it together. The trauma of those experiences would be a hurdle that could not be overcome for years.

Initially, Nuannuan thought that even if Wu Pingting were to wake up, her personality would definitely undergo a drastic change. Therefore, she discussed it with the Wu family and gave them some advice. If things went south, she should temporarily take a break from school to stay at home for a year or two to recover. Who could have guessed that the girl would be so strong? She knew what had happened to her, but because she could not remember the exact details, she just pretended like it had never happened. She was naturally optimistic and cheerful.

Nuannuan really liked her straightforward personality.

Sze Lingyun was also moved by Wu Pingting. She smiled and said to Nuannuan, “Nuannuan, let Pingting come. There’s a very beautiful river next to my house. We can fish there! Even though my family isn’t that nice, the scenery around my house is still very beautiful. You can fish and barbecue by the river.”

Wu Pingting was extremely happy when she heard that they could fish and barbecue. One of her arms locked around Sze Lingyun’s arm, and the other was about to grab onto Nangong Nuannuan’s arm. However, a large hand beside Nuannuan gently scooped her up before Pingting could do anything. Nangong Nuannuan was dragged into a large and warm embrace.

Wu Pingting looked at Chi Yang, who was a little taller than her, and swallowed down a mouthful of saliva. She smiled and said to Sze Lingyun, “Szesze, the two of us will sit in the back.”

Sze Lingyun was amused by Wu Pingting. She said, “Okay,” and the four of them drove away with the elders of the Wu family watching.

Sze Lingyun’s home was more than an hour’s drive away from the Wu family’s residence. Even though it was still within the bounds of Sea District, it was near the edge. It could be considered as being in the adjacent area between Sea District and J Province. The development of the city had not stretched out that far yet, so her home was by the junction between the suburbs and the city. Sze Lingyun’s house was really on the outskirts of the outskirts of the city.

The road, or rather, the alley, here could only accommodate one car, and on both sides of the road were vegetables planted by the villagers themselves. There was not much farmland in front of each house, and the alley sunken in a little. There were not many residents around. Many houses were empty, and the land was covered in piled-up waste. A huge circle had been drawn around one of the houses with red paint. The word ‘demolish’ was written within the circle.

“Senior Sister, is this area going to be demolished?”

Sze Lingyun looked at the words ‘demolish’ written everywhere in a daze. She nodded. “I heard that this place was going to be demolished, but nothing’s happened yet. I didn’t expect this place to still be standing after I left for half a year.”

Wu Pingting smiled and said, “Big Sis Sze, congratulations.”

“Congratulations on what?” Sze Lingyun did not understand.

“Congratulations on becoming a second generationer of a demolition! We have second-generation officials, second-generation heirs, second-generation stars, and now, even second-generation demolitioners. No matter what someone is the second generation of, we have to congratulate them for their longevity.”

Nuannuan was amused by Wu Pingting’s words. She turned to Wu Pingting and asked, “Are you talking about your Big Sis Sze?”

Sze Lingyun smiled and said, “I’m not too sure myself what she’s talking about.”

Wu Pingting could not take it anymore. She began to act coquettishly toward the two other girls.

Chapter 1983: Are Girls Not Human?

“Hey, you two know that’s not what I meant!”

After saying that, she looked at Sze Lingyun with a gossipy expression. “Big Sis Sze, if your house is demolished, how much will you be able to exchange for it? How many houses can you buy back?”

“I don’t know.”

“C’mon, tell me! I’m just curious. Many people say that getting one’s house demolished can earn one a fortune. I just want to know how much you’ll be worth in the future.”

Sze Lingyun could not help but laugh. “It’s impossible to earn a fortune overnight. But I really don’t know how we’ll be compensated. My mother and the others say that since I’ll be married off in the future, I don’t have to worry about the demolition. They won’t tell me anything about it.”

Wu Pingting’s mouth opened slightly. She was shocked for a long time before she said, “Your parents are too much, aren’t they? Especially your mother! Are girls not human too? She’s a woman herself. What right does she have to look down on girls?”

Sze Lingyun looked at Wu Pingting, who was angrily venting. She did not say anything and just looked out the window.

“Ah, ah, ah, Big Sis Sze, aren’t you angry about this too? How can you be so calm? Just listening to you tell me about it makes me so angry that I feel like I’m going to die!”

Sze Lingyun looked out of the window and said, “I’m not angry anymore. I used to get angry, yes. When I was young, I was angry about how my parents and my brother could sit at the table and eat while I was like a servant. Ever since I was young, I’ve done all the cleaning and cooking in the house, yet they never let me sit at the table. I used to argue with my parents about it. But after being beaten up countless times, I knew that nothing I said would be able to change their minds. If I wanted to give myself a better life, I could only rely on myself.”

Sze Lingyun looked at Wu Pingting and smiled. “And I’ve succeeded now. I’ve been admitted to the Military Medical Hospital on my own merits. In the future, I’ll be a respected military doctor, treating the illnesses and injuries of soldiers fighting on the front lines. I’ll see my family less and less. In the future, I’ll start a family of my own and have my own children. And I’ll make sure my children won’t have a childhood that’s tragic like mine. That’s enough for me.”

Wu Pingting was moved by Sze Lingyun’s words. She nodded, “Big Sis Sze, you’re right. No matter how much misfortune we’ve encountered in the past, we always have a chance at a better future. As long as we work hard, we’ll definitely be able to live a good and exciting life.”

“Yes!” Sze Lingyun nodded with a smile.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and glanced at the two girls in the backseat. She felt that they were right.

One could only rely on oneself in life. As long as one had the heart and was willing to work hard, no matter how hard some days were, there was always light at the end of the tunnel.

Suddenly, Nuannuan's hand was grasped by a large, warm hand.

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang, and he looked back at her, his eyes filled with heartache and love.

Nuannuan knew that he was worried about her having been kidnapped and sold to the base to become a mercenary when she was young.

She squeezed Chi Yang's hand softly.

She never complained about her previous life. After all, it was because of her past life that she was so confident and powerful now. If she had been born into the Nangong family from the very beginning, even though she would have had a very happy and comfortable life for the first 14 years of her life, she would definitely not be the person she was today. If she were to encounter an enemy like Viper in that scenario, she would have been helpless.

Therefore, her past experiences were pretty useful to her.

Sze Lingyun's family home was in the innermost area of the suburbs...

Chapter 1984: Baby, Your Boyfriend Is a Little Cold

As Chi Yang began to park his car in front of Sze Lingyun's house, a young man spotted the group and immediately walked up to the car. Chi Yang was about to stop the car when the man banged against the car window twice.

Chi Yang rolled the window down. When the man saw Chi Yang's serious and imposing face, his expression visibly froze. When he saw Nangong Nuannuan sitting next to Chi Yang, the man freaked out even more. He froze to the spot, unable to shift his gaze away from Nangong Nuannuan.

Oh my God! He had never seen such a beautiful woman before in his entire life.

This woman was even more beautiful than those celebrities on television!

Chi Yang frowned. His cold aura activated, and an enormous pressure suddenly condensed. The man outside the car felt it. The last thing he felt was his heart palpitating before his knees went soft and he collapsed to the ground.

Chi Yang parked the car. Only then did the man get up from the ground. He was frightened on the inside, but he still stood up like an unkillable cockroach and looked through the window. He then said to Nangong Nuannuan, who was sitting next to Chi Yang, "This is our family's territory. We don't usually allow foreign cars to come around here. Which family are you from? And how long are you planning to park here?"

"Brother," Sze Lingyun called out.

The man was startled when he first heard Sze Lingyun's voice, but he was soon overjoyed. He quickly opened the back door for her.

“Yunyun, you’re back?”

As Sze Junyan spoke, he looked at Nangong Nuannuan, who was sitting in the passenger seat, with a face full of shock and surprise.

Because she had not seen Sze Junyan’s utter disbelief when he was sizing up Nangong Nuannuan, Sze Lingyun had been wondering why her brother had suddenly changed his nature and was treating her so well. Now that she saw his lecherous gaze, she realized that this idiot just wanted to use her to get to Nangong Nuan.

Hehe!

“Yunyun, are these your friends? Wow, they’re all beautiful women! Can you introduce them to me?”

Nangong Nuannuan, “...”

Wu Pingting, “...”

What an introduction from an uncultured loser!

Sze Lingyun then introduced everyone to her brother. “This is my big brother, Sze Junyan.”

“Hi beauties, how are you guys?”

Sze Junyan completely ignored the powerful Chi Yang and only greeted Nangong Nuannuan and Wu Pingting. His gaze was still glued to Nangong Nuannuan.

After he greeted them, the atmosphere in the car immediately went cold.

Most people had basic animal instincts. These instincts told them to look out for themselves and avoid harm. Therefore, most people would know not to cross men powerful auras like Chi Yang, and would do their best to avoid him. They would never be stupid enough to go out of their way to attack him.

However, there were also brainless people around. Because they were seriously stupid, they made dumb decisions. Sze Junyun thought he was the number one boss in the world, but he was in truth a mere ant that most people could squash with a pinch of their fingers.

It was very obvious that Sze Junyan was an arrogant and idiotic loser.

Chi Yang realized that it was useless to try to intimidate this man, so he stopped putting on his cold aura. Watching Sze Junyan stare at his wife like Sze Junyan was a fly and she was a light, Chi Yang leaned over and pressed himself against her. He helped her unbuckle her seatbelt and grab her handbag before pushing the door open for her to get out of the car.

“Baby, your boyfriend is a little cold! Is this his family’s car? It seems like his family is quite rich.”

Wu Pingting, “...”

Chapter 1985: You Can Get Lost

"Brother, don't blabber too much. My friends are all important guests." Sze Lingyun warned Sze Junyan.

Chi Yang had already walked to the passenger seat and was helping Nuannuan open the car door. Since this idiot was Sze Lingyun's biological brother, the worst thing Chi Yang and Nuannuan could do to him was ignore him.

Seeing that Chi Yang was ignoring him and acting aloof, the other party sneered.

"Important guests? I think it's quite ridiculous that he couldn't even be bothered to greet me. He might be from a rich family, but they can't be that rich! You honored guests should get down from the car. Once this guy sees who I am, I'll see if he still dares to not greet me."

After saying that, Sze Junyan tried to gesture at Nangong Nuannuan, but she ignored him and just got out of the car.

Sze Junyan glanced at the man and woman whispering outside the car, pretending to be intimate. His eyes were filled with jealousy and mockery. He would remember Nangong Nuannuan's indifference towards him for a long time.

He wanted to see this woman's expression when she found out that his house was about to be demolished and that he would be given five houses in return. Sze Lingyun quickly got out of the car and went to join Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang. Wu Pingting had already gotten out of the car herself and was standing with them.

"Big Brother Chi, Nuannuan, I'm sorry. My brother is just like this. He always thinks he's the best person in the world. You probably don't want to meet my parents, since they raised someone like him. Why don't you guys and Pingting relax by the river? I won't take too long."

Nangong Nuannuan patted Sze Lingyun's shoulder and said, "We came here to support you. If we don't back you up, who will?"

Sze Lingyun smiled and said, "Don't worry. They can't do anything to me. I'm afraid it'll just ruin your day if you go in."

"Not many people can ruin my day. Let's go."

"Let's go, let's go!" Wu Pingting could not wait any longer. She held on to Sze Lingyun and Nangong Nuannuan's arms and led them inside.

Sze Lingyun's house was quite big. It was a typical-looking homestead home. The house was made of bricks and tile, and it had two floors and six windows on each floor, making for a total of 12 windows. Each room had one of these windows.

Nangong Nuannuan looked inside through one of these windows and saw that many of the individual rooms were occupied. Judging by the looks of the people inside, they were probably not Sze Lingyun's relatives. She asked, "Do you rent your house out?"

"Yes." Sze Lingyun nodded. "My house initially only had four rooms. Later, when everyone around here started renovating, my mother borrowed money to add another eight rooms beside and above the original four rooms. There's twelve now. She rents out seven of them and keeps the remaining five for herself."

Nuannuan nodded and prepared to enter the house with Sze Lingyun.

However, before she could step inside, a middle-aged woman rushed out of the house. When she saw Sze Lingyun, she shouted angrily as if she was looking at her worst enemy, "Who told you that you could bring your friends here? Did you ask me for permission? Sze Lingyun, you call yourself a model student. Did you sh*t out all your manners?"

Without waiting for Sze Lingyun to speak, the woman chided Nangong Nuannuan and the others. "I don't care who you are. Our family doesn't receive guests. Even if you're important people, you can get lost!"

Chi Yang, "..."

Nangong Nuan, "..."

Wu Pingting, "..."

Chapter 1986: You Have Taken A Fancy To Nuannuan

"They're my friends. They're the ones who saved my life yesterday. They're my benefactors! Aren't you going a little overboard, telling them to scram before I can even introduce them?"

"Benefactors?" Mrs. Sze sneered. "I think they're just here to help you argue with me, right? You're in university and have a bright future ahead of you. You're surrounded by educated people, so you think you can drag some of them here to lecture me about the law and threaten me with jail? Sze Lingyun, I think you're too far up your own *ss. Do you think I'm afraid of your friends? You're all b*stards! Get lost! All of you, get lost!"

It would have been fine if she had not mentioned her life being saved. When she did, Mrs. Sze immediately thought back to Nangong Nuannuan's threat the previous night. She instantly grew furious. Not only did she not thank Nangong Nuannuan for saving her daughter's life, but she even scolded Sze Lingyun.

Nangong Nuannuan initially thought that they should just wait in the car. After all, she had X-ray vision, so she would be able to keep an eye on Sze Lingyun even from the house behind the car. She did not want to aggravate her mother. However, when she saw that Sze Lingyun was still as calm as placid water despite being harshly scolded by her mother, she dispelled this thought.

If Nuannuan did not leave, Chi Yang would definitely not leave either. Wu Pingting, who wanted to support Sze Lingyun the most, would definitely not leave too.

Sze Lingyun glanced at her mother, turned around, and said to Nuannuan and the other two, "Big Brother Chi, Nuannuan, Pingting, let's go."

"Okay." Wu Pingting shot a disdainful glance at Mrs. Sze and turned around. She was about to leave.

“Sze Lingyun, are you rebelling against me? If you dare take another step forward, you’re no longer my daughter!”

However, after she finished speaking... One step, two steps, three steps... Sze Lingyun started walking. Indeed, she took many steps. Seeing that the group was about to reach the car, Mrs. Sze angrily yelled, “Sze Lingyun, stop right there!”

Mr. Sze heard the argument outside and rushed out. Seeing that Sze Lingyun was about to leave, he quickly rushed over to stop the group.

“Yunyun, your mother has been in a bad mood since yesterday. Please be considerate. You know that she’s recently gone through menopause. She can lose her temper anytime, so don’t be difficult with her. After all, she’s your mother. You can’t leave us! We’re still counting on you to take care of us til the day we die.”

After Mr. Shi spoke to Sze Lingyun, he turned to look at Chi Yang and the other two. He greeted them with a smile and said, “You guys are Yunyun’s friends, right? Come, come! Please come in.”

While Mr. Sze spoke to Sze Lingyun, Sze Junyan quietly spoke to Mrs. Shi.

“Mom, stop scolding me! I like that Nuannuan girl. You have to help me out later.”

“Which one is Nuannuan?”

“She’s the girl that man is hugging. What do you think? Pretty, right?”

“That girl... Doesn’t she have a boyfriend?”

“So what if she does? Our family will have five houses soon. Will he be richer than I’ll soon be? Women always look for men with money and power. Look at the women that I used to chase but failed to catch. A few of them did nothing but ignore me, and now... They see that I’m rich, so they all come crawling back to me. Anyway, Mom, I’ve already fallen in love with Nuannuan. She’s your daughter-in-law now. Don’t scold her later.”

“I know, I know.”

The two of them were standing quite far away from the crowd and were speaking quietly, but Chi Yang, who had improved superpowers now, could hear them. His body instantly went cold.

Chapter 1987: You Have To Listen To Me

Mr. Shi made an agreement with Sze Lingyun. Only then did Sze Lingyun bring her friends into the house.

“Big Brother Chi, Nuannuan, Pingting, have a seat!”

There was a room full of people inside the house. As Mrs. Shi had said last night, she had indeed invited many guests over.

When Sze Lingyun brought Nangong Nuannuan and the others into the house, everyone in the house's eyes lit up.

"Yunyun, you're finally back! You're now a top student in a famous university. Ever since she started university, she's been a whole different girl. In the past, I could find her cooking and cleaning at home whenever I wanted. Now, I can hardly ever see her. Yunyun, if you get famous in the future, you won't forget about me, your second aunt, right?"

When Sze Lingyun entered the house, a woman who shared about 70% of her features with Sze Lingyun's mother began talking to her. Her body language was intimate, but her words were intrusive.

"Second Aunt, my university is in Emperor District. It's impossible for me to be at home every day like I was before."

Sze Lingyun did not answer the question her second aunt has asked her. It was obvious that she did not have a good impression of her second aunt.

"Sister Yunyun, are they your friends? Aren't you going to introduce them to us?"

A young girl who looked very similar to Sze Lingyun's second aunt was sitting on a chair. After Chi Yang entered the room, she pulled the collar of her V-neck shirt down a little and leaned forward as she spoke. The lacy black bra she was wearing could clearly be seen.

Nangong Nuannuan had seen too many of these coquettish b*tches in her life and was thus already immune to them. However, Wu Pingting's eyes almost popped out of their sockets.

This was simply... too much!

Sze Lingyun saw that her family members were either targeting Chi Yang or Nangong Nuannuan. Even though she knew that everyone was trying to curry favor with her, she could not skip introducing them. "This is my boyfriend Li Jingyan's officer, Big Brother Chi. This is Big Brother Chi's fiancée Nuannuan, and this is my sister Wu Pingting."

She did not say who Wu Pingting was because she knew that if she told these people about her background, they would stick to her like vampires.

"Your boyfriend?" Mrs. Sze's shrill voice rang out again. "Who gave you permission to date? Didn't I already tell you to break up with that Li Jingyan? You're still dating him now, huh? Are you trying to drive me mad?"

Sze Lingyun said with a cold face, "Mom, it's my right to date whomever I want. Jingyan and I are in love. Why won't you let me date him?"

"I said no, so you can't. I'm your mom! I'm the one who gave birth to you after ten months of pregnancy and raised you. Even if you've grown up now and have grown wings of your own, you still have to listen to me!"

"No way! Now that I'm of legal age to date, I don't have to listen to my parents' orders on this. In the future, I'll make my own choice about my own marriage!"

"Listen to me! Listen to this girl's words! Ever since she got with that Li Jingyan, she's gained a lot of confidence. She thinks she's got backing now. She thinks that she can survive without us. This goddamn girl! She's an ingrate! Let me tell you, girl, I'm your mother. If you dare to disobey me and my instructions, I'll make sure you live to regret it!"

Sze Lingyun was so angry that she shot up and said angrily, "I really wonder if you're my real mother or not."

Chapter 1988: Looks Seven or Eight Months Pregnant

"Even if the villagers value sons over daughters, Aunt only has two daughters. Why haven't I ever seen Hu Han and Hu Yin suffering? Why haven't I ever seen you speak harshly to them? Every time the two of them come to our house, you treat them like royalty and bring them good food. But what about me? Ever since I was young, I was only allowed to live in the storeroom. Since I was young, I've had to do housework for the entire house. All I did with my life was do chores because you told me to. You treat Hu Han and Hu Yin so well. Do you even think of me as your biological daughter? Mom, when I was almost killed in that car accident, I thought about asking you... Am I really your biological daughter?"

Sze Lingyun's words made everyone in the room frown.

Sze Lingyun's aunt immediately asked, "Yunyun, how could you not be your mother's biological daughter? I personally carried you out of your mother's stomach when you were born. Because of the blood loss she experienced when you were born, your mother is still in poor health today. Your words must be like a knife to her heart right now. My family wasn't lucky enough to give birth to a boy to carry on the family line. We only gave birth to two girls. There are boys in your family. It's expected that your mother would dote on your brother. Think about your mother's perspective. I don't think you're thinking clearly.

"Yunyun, we're rural people. We don't like city things and city concepts. Your mother raised you, and you're a girl. Of course she has the right to decide whom she wants you to marry."

Sze Lingyun's father also said, "That's right, Yunyun. The man we found for you is definitely the most suitable man in the world for you. That Li Jingyan is a soldier, and you even said that he's a special forces soldier. His occupation is too dangerous. Your mother and I can't let you marry someone who could die at any time. You'd quickly become a widow."

"That's right, Yunyun. Your boyfriend is definitely well-off, but his job is too dangerous. Your mother called you back this time because your uncle found a more suitable man for you. Come, come, come! Let Aunt introduce you to."

After she said that, a man who had been silent since he first entered the room and had been leering at Sze Lingyun the whole time stood up from his chair. His hair was sparse... Basically, he was bald. He also had a big belly.

"This Mr. Li, the boss of your uncle's company. Do you know about your Uncle's company? Mr. Li built many of our village roads here. He's the general manager of Rongxing Company!"

After hearing Aunt Sze Lingyun's introduction, Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang looked at each other.

Sze Lingyun also immediately recognized the name 'Rongxing Company'.

Yesterday, she was almost killed by two trucks and a taxi driver. It was an accident that had been orchestrated by the Rongxing Company.

Now, she was being told that her future husband was the boss of Rongxing. Things could not possibly get any worse, right?

Sze Lingyun sneered. "Dad, you keep saying that Jingyan's job is dangerous, so you have to find me a better man. But you found me a man who looks to be in his forties or fifties, is bald, and looks seven or eight months pregnant. Do you think marrying a man like him will make me happy?"

Seeing her unhappy expression, Mrs. Sze was furious.

"You wretched girl, don't you know how lucky you are? This is the boss of our company! The big boss!"

.....

Chapter 1989: But Just Think About It!

"He's the sole man in charge of the entire company. Do you know how many women want to marry Mr. Li? I asked your uncle to introduce his boss to you, and you're actually rejecting him. Sze Lingyun, you're just a girl. What right do you have to turn your nose up at such a big boss?"

Mr. Li, who was a big shot, was very unhappy when he noticed Sze Lingyun looking down on him. He said unhappily, "Lots of women want to marry me and have children with me. If it wasn't for Old Hu's good reputation in our company and him telling me about you, do you think I would've come here to see you? I only came to your house because of your uncle."

Sze Lingyun was so angry that she felt like she was about to die. Wu Pingting was even angrier than her.

She could not bear it any longer and stood up to scold this big boss. "Who asked you to give her face? An old man like you with a greasy face thinks he's so great just because he has some lousy money, does he? Stand up straight! Can you even see your toes when you stand up? Your belly is even bigger than a woman in labor's. Do you want to marry me instead, Sister Sze? Why don't you choose me over him?"

The man flushed at Wu Pingting's scolding. He pointed at her and did not speak for a long time.

When Mrs. Sze saw the big boss she invited over being humiliated, she was furious. She shouted at Wu Pingting, "Who are you? What right do you have to bark like a mad dog in our house? Sze Lingyun, is this your 'cultured' friend? Get her out of here right now! Our family won't entertain such hooligans!"

Sze Lingyun had had enough of her parents by now. She sneered. "Mom, do you think you're very cultured? You scolded my friends before they even stepped foot into our house. Any normal person would call that an overreaction. I might be a girl, but do girls not deserve to have control over their own lives? Do girls deserve to be ordered around every day? Even though you're my mother, that only means you gave birth to me. It doesn't mean that you can control my entire life. You told me that Dad was sick to trick me into coming back home. But all you wanted to do was introduce me to an old man. Don't think that I don't know what you're thinking. You think that because he has a lot of money, if I marry him, you'll get some of it too. What do you mean when you say you're doing what's best for me? You're just selling your daughter off!"

"So what if I'm selling my daughter off? I'm your mother! You have to listen to what I say! I'm the one who birthed you into this world. If I tell you to go to Hell, you should die without hesitation!"

"Mom, stop spewing so much nonsense. You're not doing anything except making Yunyun hate this man even more." After staying silent for a long time, Sze Junyan, who had been listening to the women quarreling for a while, could not help but interrupt Mrs. Shi and Sze Lingyun's argument.

Sze Junyan said to Sze Lingyun, "Yunyun, even though Mr. Li is indeed a little old, he wasn't lying. Many women want to climb into his bed, but he took a particular fancy to you! This'll help you and the family, too.

"You're overreacting. You've probably never heard of Rongxing Company before, so let me tell you about them. Rongxing Company specializes in building roads. They've built many of the roads in our neighborhood. As the sole boss of the company, Mr. Li's annual income can surpass even 10 million.

"Yunyun, you always say that Mom doesn't love you and is biased toward me. But just think about it! As her son, I have to be with her forever, but you're getting the chance to marry into wealth!"

Chapter 1990: Only Die to Become His Ghost

"If Mom really was biased toward me and didn't love you, she'd be like a stepmother. But a stepmother would've thrown you out of the house when you were young and wouldn't have arranged for you to marry a rich man. A stepmother wouldn't have asked your uncle to find you someone so successful."

"So successful? If he's such a great man, why isn't he being introduced to Hu Han and Hu Yin instead?"

Sze Lingyun's aunt's face turned red when she heard her bring up her two daughters. She jumped up and pointed at Sze Lingyun. "You..."

She only got one word out before her husband, Sze Lingyun's uncle, stopped her.

"I also wanted to introduce Mr. Li to Hu Han and Hu Yin, but aren't they still pretty young? And anyway, Mr. Li likes you. The most important thing is that your family is going to lose this house soon. Even though you guys have many rooms in this house, the eight rooms you guys added on won't be compensated for. If you want more compensation, you'll have to find it yourself."

Mr. Sze immediately said, "Yunyun, if you marry Mr. Li, he's promised not to take this house. And not only will he not demolish it, but he'll even give us 200,000 yuan as a betrothal gift. Do the math! When the house is demolished, your mother will have a place to herself, I'll have one, your brother will have one, and you'll have one too! And, if Mr. Li marries you, he can have one too. If you can have a child immediately after getting marrying, then your fetus can have one too! Even if you can't conceive a child so quickly, our family will still have five houses between us. This is Sea District. Even though we're in the suburbs, houses are worth at least a million nowadays. With five houses, your brother will definitely be able to find a wife in the future. When girls hear that your brother has five houses in Sea District, they'll drop everything to join this family. Yunyun, even if you don't want this for yourself, think about your brother!"

"Enough!" Sze Lingyun could not take it anymore.

“Brother, Brother, Brother!!! Everything is about Brother! To you guys, I was only born to be Brother’s slave, and later, I’ll only die to become his ghost. Everything is always about him? Why, why, why?!”

“Because you’re my daughter, and daughters are born to serve the men in their family!”

Sze Lingyun sneered. She was disappointed in her family and said coldly, “I won’t do it any longer! I have a boyfriend, and I love him! You can’t tear me apart from him! If you want your children to marry off and get you houses, make my brother marry someone. If he gets married, won’t he get a house? Why do you have to force me to sacrifice my happiness?”

“Sze Lingyun, do you want to lose face?” Sze Junyan was angry now too. He asked sternly, “What do you mean, sacrifice your happiness? I found you such a good man, and you’re saying that marrying him will be a sacrifice? Is that a sacrifice to you? Why don’t you just die?”

“Sister Yunyun, you really don’t know how blessed you are. If you’re so filthy rich, why are you still studying?” Hu Han asked angrily.

Hu Han’s younger sister, Hu Yin, was also full of disdain. “Anyone with a brain would choose an easy way to improve their lives by leaps and bounds. Camino has no shortage of fish in the sea, and there’s especially no shortage of good-looking women. Even if you go to university and find a job afterward, how much money will you be able to earn in a month? If you marry Mr. Li, you’ll be able to live a life that university can never get you. What’s there to complain about?”
