Chapter 201: The Commanding Officer Is Scared

Leng Jinpeng broke into a cold sweat after hearing what Zhong Nuannuan said. He felt like he was going to collapse.

“Nuannuan, what made you suspect that it was Lil Hai?”

“My intuition.”

Leng Jinpeng was speechless.

“Nuannuan, this is not a joke. You can’t joke about this.”

“I’m not joking. I’m naturally sensitive toward the scent of someone who behaves innocent but is secretly venomous.”

Leng Jinpeng did not dare to say anything more.

He had to get to the bottom of this.

After all, one of them was his biological son and the other was the son of his savior that he treated as his own.

He was worried about Lil Rui, but at the same time, he was worried that the person behind this was really Lil Hai.

“I got it. Thank you for telling me. I’ll pay more attention to this.”

“Knock knock.” Someone was knocking at the door. The sound of the knocking interrupted Leng Jinpeng’s thoughts.

“Come in.”

The door was pushed open and Chi Yang walked in. After he walked in, he turned around and locked the door.

Leng Jinpeng could not control his laughter and asked, “You’ve finally made Lil Rui obedient?”

“Yeah. He’ll come to apologize to you after you’re done with your treatment.”

Zhong Nuannuan could not help but laugh out loud when she thought about Young Master Leng, the tyrant of the school, being made docile. She had completely forgotten who the troublemaker in this scenario was in the first place.

When he saw Leng Jinpeng fully clothed with an IV in his arm, Chi Yang asked, “Is the treatment done?”

“Not yet. It will take longer the first few times.”

As Chi Yang talked to Leng Jinpeng, Zhong Nuannuan secretly watched the medicine Leng Jinpeng consumed. She was observing the effects on his blood vessels after he consumed them.

After watching him for a long time, she realized that those medicines did not work on Leng Jinpeng at all.

This was why Leng Jinpeng's condition was still not under control.

It was just a cirrhosis, but now it had become liver cancer.

"Earlier, Lil Nuan looked at the medicine for me, and now she's starting the acupuncture.

"The medicines were all prescribed by the doctors in the military base's hospital. Is there a problem?"

Zhong Nuannuan shook her head. "There's not really a problem, but when someone takes the same kind of pill all the time, its function is just constantly repeated. Uncle Leng's liver was already not in good condition to begin with. When he ate so many of the pills, it put pressure on his liver. For example, look at this, this is the pharmacodynamics of it. Now look at this one, its pharmacodynamics is the same even after consumption. Hence, there's no need to take this repeatedly.

"Uncle Leng, can you go to the hospital tomorrow and get some medicine for the liver? I'll match them for you. With a combination of western and eastern medicine, the effect will definitely be better."

"No problem. I'll get someone to take a box of all the liver medicine for me from the hospital tomorrow."

"Alright. Uncle Leng, I'll start the acupuncture now."

"Okay."

Zhong Nuannuan took a few tightly sealed bags from her backpack and said,

"I've asked someone to make a set of silver needles for me. I'll get them in two days. We'll use the disposable ones for our first two sessions."

Only

"Okay."

Leng Jinpeng's scalp started to feel numb when he saw the densely packed disposable needles in the bag Zhong Nuannuan was holding.

The reason he did not like to go to the hospital was because he did not like to be pricked by needles. It was not about pain, it was because of his childhood trauma.

The moment Leng Jinpeng saw Zhong Nuannuan holding a few needles in her hand, his palms started sweating uncontrollably.

"The commander-in-chief is afraid of needles. Go easy on him later." Chi Yang delivered the last hit while standing to the side.

Leng Jinpeng glared at Chi Yang. He was extremely embarrassed that this kid would embarrass him like this.

“Uncle Leng, don’t worry. After this, you’ll fall in love with acupuncture.”

Chapter 202: Magical Skills

Impossible!

Despite Leng Jinpeng thinking this, he still had to maintain the appearance of a strict senior on the surface. He said comfortingly, “Don’t listen to Chi Yang. Just do whatever you need to do, don’t worry about me.”

Zhong Nuannuan smiled and did not say anything when he saw the shirtless Leng Jinpeng drenched in sweat from anxiety.

When she rubbed the cotton ball soaked with rubbing alcohol on his acupoints, she could feel his entire body tense up.

She did not expect the commander-in-chief of Jiang District’s military base to be afraid of needles.

When the first needle was about to touch his skin, Zhong Nuannuan saw the nervousness in Leng Jinpeng’s eyes. He was not afraid of bullets, and yet, he was afraid of needles.

All of a sudden, Zhong Nuannuan took action.

When Leng Jinpeng was about to say something to soothe his nerves, the first needle had already gone into his body.

Eh?

It did not hurt at all!

Not that it did not hurt, but when the needle went into him, he did not feel anything.

Zhong Nuannuan was fast. In less than 8 seconds, 20 needles had already accurately pierced all the acupoints on Leng Jinpeng’s body.

Leng Jinpeng did not even have time to come to his senses when Zhong Nuannuan ripped open the second bag of needles. After that, once again, she only took 8 seconds to insert all the needles into their respective acupoints. Leng Jinpeng and Chi Yang’s mouths dropped open from the sight of this.

When the third bag of needles went into his body, Leng Jinpeng and Chi Yang were already numb. They had seen many shocking things before this, such that their faces would remain expressionless even if a mountain were to fall on them. However, at this moment, they were dazed.

“Done.” Zhong Nuannuan looked at the time. “I’ll remove the needles in half an hour.”

After she said that, she took out two stands from her bag and put them on either side of the sofa.

The sofa was wide, so it was still spacious even after putting two stands on it.

After that, Zhong Nuannuan took a blanket from the chair and placed it on top of Leng Jinpeng. Because of the two stands, his body felt warm whilst the blanket did not touch the needles.

Zhong Nuannuan did all of this skillfully and with ease. It was obvious she had done a lot of this before.

Leng Jinpeng laughed and said, "You're like a master hiding amongst commoners."

In less than 30 minutes, the 60 silver needles were used. Even an experienced doctor could not achieve this skill.

"Uncle Leng, how do you feel?" Chi Yang asked.

Zhong Nuannuan was too fast, and he was overwhelmed.

Leng Jinpeng was so focused on Zhong Nuannuan's god-like speed that he even forgot the thing he was most afraid of.

Now that he had come back to his senses, he saw all 60 long silver needles in his body. He started sweating immediately.

However, when he thought about his senses, he frowned. "Eh? It doesn't hurt at all. I don't feel anything!"

Chi Yang finally felt relieved.

Only

"Well I actually feel something, but this sensation is actually quite nice."

Leng Jinpeng was shocked to feel a wave of warmth slowly surging throughout his body. It was as though it was charting a path, and soon enough, his numb and sore arm no longer felt numb anymore because of the warmth.

He could even feel the blood in his fingers flowing smoothly.

Chi Yang did not expect Leng Jinpeng, who was deathly afraid of needles, to say that. He was shocked.

"Little girl, why do I feel like the blood in my body is flowing smoothly? Am I delusional?"

"No." Zhong Nuannuan shook her head.

"Uncle Leng, if you can feel it flow, it means you'll not feel pain. If you feel pain, that means your blood is not flowing smoothly. It's the same concept with your internal organs."

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 203: Henpecked Male

"There's something wrong with your liver. One of the reasons was that you were shot and it did not recover nicely after the surgery, so the blood in your liver coagulated. Moreover, after you became the commander-in-chief, you did not exercise as often as before whilst still maintaining your diet from before. Hence, the blood in your liver did not flow smoothly and it was hard for you to detox. In the end, it got inflamed. However, you did not pay much attention to this before, which is why it turned into such a severe case of cirrhosis.

“Now, we have to use acupuncture to lighten the load on the liver. After the session today, I’ll give you a list of things you should and should not eat. Starting from tomorrow, you have to follow the list strictly. I will ask Uncle Qu to watch you.”

Leng Jinpeng chuckled. “Alright, I’ll do whatever you say.”

“Aside from that, they were treating you like a patient and asked you to rest properly. However, you have to know that no matter how good the medicine is, it’s still poisonous. Even the best medicine in the world is no match for your immune system. Uncle Leng, your body is like a sword full of rust. You have a good foundation, but because of corrosion after so many years, your entire body is now full of issues. That’s why we have to get rid of your illnesses by attacking the root. From tomorrow onward, you have to start training harder.”

Leng Jinpeng looked at Chi Yang. “You want to throw me to Chi Yang?”

“Uncle Leng, they are special forces. It’s not that I’m looking down on you, but your body is almost the same as a three or four-year-old’s now. So, it’s best to take things slow. You should start by doing 6 laps around the 800-meter track. After half a month, I’ll give you a new task.”

The corner of Leng Jinpeng’s lips twitched slightly. “Nuannuan, are you looking down on me? Didn’t Chi Yang tell you that I used to be his instructor?”

Zhong Nuannuan was shocked. She did not think that they would have this kind of relationship. Even so...”Uncle Leng, that was one situation, and this is another. A hero is silent about his past glories Your body is not ready for high-intensity training. You’re not even allowed to jog. I’ll tell Uncle Qu about this and get him to supervise you strictly.”

Zhong Nuannuan was acting according to the official procedure, so she did not give any chances to Leng Jinpeng to protest.

“Alright, roger that, Dr. Zhong.”

After he said that, he looked at Chi Yang. He was gleeful with schadenfreude. “You will definitely be a henpecked male in the future.”

Chi Yang’s face was stern as usual. However, his gaze on Zhong Nuannuan was so soft that one could extract honey from it.

“I’ll gladly be one.”

Zhong Nuannuan smiled sweetly when she heard this.

Leng Jinpeng was lying on the sofa feeling like a single dog that was about to be slaughtered. He felt extremely bitter.

Looking at the two of them being sweet and loving, he thought about his wife.

At that moment, he was willing to be a henpecked male.

While Zhong Nuannuan chatted with Chi Yang and Leng Jinpeng, she used her X-ray vision to watch Leng Jinpeng's organs after the effect of the acupuncture.

Only

After half an hour, she removed all of the needles.

After the treatment, Ye Hai barged in after Chi Yang opened the door.

"Dad, are you alright? Do you feel unwell?"

When he saw that Leng Jinpeg was putting his clothes on, Ye Hai rushed forward and took Leng Jinpeng's coat from the chair to put it on for him.

However, Leng Jinpeng looked annoyed. Leng Qirui noticed there was something odd about Leng Jinpeng's gaze so he stopped Ye Hai in his tracks.

"Come here, help me put on my clothes."

Leng Qirui knew he had made a huge mistake today, so he was not as rebellious as usual. He grabbed the coat from Ye Hai and put it on Leng Jinpeng.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 204: Pay More Attention

Leng Jinpeng tidied his sleeves as Leng Qirui carefully helped him with his collar.

Even though it was a small gesture, Leng Jinpeng's heart skipped a beat.

In truth, Lil Rui used to be extremely considerate when he was young. When Leng Jinpeng's wife died, Leng Qirui always followed him obediently. Wherever he went, the kid would follow. Even if the conditions of the military base could not compare to Emperor District, Lil Rui still obediently followed him the entire time.

When did their relationship start to deteriorate? When did Lil Rui start to become rebellious?

After thinking about it hard, it was probably half a year after Ye Hai joined the family.

"Lil Rui, come and apologize to dad. It's fine if you said you've misunderstood me, but don't you know what Dad's like?"

After he said that, Ye Hai said to Leng Jinpeng, "Dad, don't take what Lil Rui did to heart. He's just impulsive. He didn't mean it."

In the past, Leng Jinpeng would simply think that Ye Hai was being a responsible brother who could point out his brother's faults. Having said that, when they were in front of the parents, he seemed to be able to do no wrong. Moreover, this boy was the son of his savior, so Ye Hai would always look good in his eyes.

However, after hearing what Zhong Nuannuan said, Leng Jinpeng felt like he was looking at this from a whole new perspective.

With his understanding of Lil Rui, he knew that he was about to apologize for what had happened as he tidied his collar for him. However, Ye Hai interrupted them at that exact moment. Lil Rui hated him a lot, hence rage and disgust instantly appeared on his face.

Leng Jinpeng thought that his son would go off, but he did not expect his son take two deep breaths and say, "Dad, I'm sorry. I misunderstood just now."

Lil Rui was on the brink of an emotional breakdown when Ye Hai interrupted again.

"Dad, look, Lil Rui has apologized to you. Please forgive him."

Leng Jinpeng was not an idiot. After all, he had climbed to the position that he was occupying today.

He had seen through Ye Hai's tricks.

He could not see this before because Ye Hai was his savior's son as well as his own adoptive son. That was why he treated the boys equally.

Only

However, if you change your perspective on something slightly, the new image of that something might appear totally different.

In the past, whenever Ye Hai said this, Leng Jinpeng would just think that Lil Rui was insensible. It was his fault, so he should admit to his faults. However, when Ye Hai said these words, it was like he was labeling Lil Rui as someone who was reluctant to admit to their mistakes, as if he apologized, he would be admitting to this label.

That was why before this, whenever he heard these kinds of statements, Leng Jinpeng would scold Lil Rui without bothering to find out the truth.

At that moment, Lil Rui would also definitely fly into a rage, and then the father and son would part on bad terms.

Leng Jinpeng sighed. He neglected Lil Rui too much before this and kept thinking that he had turned into a bad person. He could not see him as often since he was always in the military base, but when he did have time, he would just lecture and scold him. When Lil Rui fought back, he would even hit him. Lil Rui was like a thorn under his skin whereas Ye Hai was the apple of his eye. Thus, whenever the latter tried to sow disharmony, Lil Rui would be on the losing end.

Leng Jinpeng reached out. When Leng Qirui and Ye Hai thought he was about to hit Leng Qirui, his hand stopped on top of Leng Qirui's head, before he started caressing his head.

"Pay more attention before you say or do anything next time. Don't be so rude and impetuous. The person I love the most in this lifetime is your mother. I won't fall in love with anyone else besides her."

Chapter 205: Take Advantage of the Weak And Fear the Strong

Leng Qirui looked at Leng Jinpeng in shock.

His father never said these kinds of things when his mother died.

When his mother died, his father did not even cry. He merely locked himself in his study to work the entire day.

When that happened, he thought his father was cold-hearted. Aside from work, he did not show any feelings nor emotions at all. However, his father had said something so touching to him today, so Leng Qirui was a little bit puzzled.

Suddenly, he felt that his father was not so infuriating after all.

Nevertheless, the next second, Leng Jinpeng delivered a plot twist. "Nuannuan is your Big Brother Chi's fiancée. If you're not afraid of your Big Brother Chi's wrath, I approve of you going after her. After all, Nuannuan is a good girl."

Zhong Nuannuan was speechless. Everything was going so well, why did he drag her into this?

Chi Yang glared at Leng Jinpeng and asked silently, 'Are you trying to cause trouble?'

Leng Qirui's face went pale.

Looking at this powerful love rival, his entire body was in so much pain that he forgot the sour love that had died before it even truly started. When he met Chi Yang's eyes, Leng Qirui suddenly broke into a cold sweat.

He was taken outside and then beaten viciously the entire time. This inhumane creature did not say anything before giving him a 30-minute long beating. During this time, he was in so much pain that he almost died.

He wanted to go complain about this man after the beating. However, when he lifted his shirt...

Damn it, there were no bruises!

After beating him, the devil had walked past him and said, "If I see you flirting with my wife again, the next one is going to be even worse."

At that moment, Leng Qirui wanted to join the army so that he could become stronger.

However...

His ambitions were elsewhere.

Leng Jinpeng saw that his son was not talking and he could not help but chuckle. He was truly hitting where it hurt. "You screamed at me because you thought Nuannuan's my girlfriend, but you stopped talking right after finding out that you know she's your Big Brother Chi's girlfriend. You're the typical scumbag who takes advantage of the weak but fears the strong."

"Dad, am I your biological son?"

Leng Qirui could not control himself anymore. He yelled at Leng Jinpeng.

Qu Mingyi who was watching them from the side started laughing uncontrollably.

The room became lively again after the tension was broken.

“Commander-in-chief, how do you feel? How’s Little Girl Nuan’s skills?”

Leng Jinpeng laughed in a carefree manner. “Chi Yang has got himself a treasure! I feel so relaxed now.”

Only

“That’s great!”

Everyone in the room felt happy that the commander-in-chief was feeling better.

“Uncle Qu, I’ll be leaving tomorrow. I’ll only come three days later. Uncle Leng won’t have to eat the medicine from the hospital during these few days. In addition to that, I have a prescription which I need Uncle Qu’s cooperation for. You have to make sure Uncle Leng does everything I list out.”

“Alright, just tell me what to do. I promise I’ll make sure the commander-in-chief completes his tasks!”

Qu Mingyi was someone who could hype up the entire room. With Zhong Nuannuan’s presence, the group was getting along harmoniously. Even Leng Jinpeng and Leng Qirui who used to treat each other as enemies and would start fighting whenever they laid eyes on each other were getting along today.

“Zhong Nuannuan, are you going or not? It’s already 9 pm.” It was already late, so Leng Qirui quickly asked.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 206: Your Face Is Bigger

Dang it, why were they treating her as if she were a delicate flower? moreover, with Zhong Nuannuan’s combat abilities, if something bad were to happen, it would be the other party that was going to be in danger, right?

“Lil Rui, your dad is feeling unwell these past few days, so why don’t you stay with him? Talk to your dad. The commander-in-chief will be happy,” Qu Mingyi suggested.

Leng Jinpeng noticed that just as Leng Qirui was about to say ‘okay’, Ye Hai’s voice cut in.

“Right, Lil Rui. Just stay here. We haven’t talked in such a long time. Let’s have a nice chat tonight.”

Leng Qirui glared at Ye Hai. “Ye Hai, I told you to stay the hell away from me. Who the hell wants to chat with you? I feel disgusted looking at your face.”

After being yelled at, Ye Hai was embarrassed and did not say anything anymore. However, he looked hurt.

“Lil Rui!” Even Qu Mingyi, who always pampered him, could not stand it anymore. He yelled at Leng Qirui.

However, Leng Jinpeng, who had always stood by Ye Hai, did not yell at his son for the first time ever.

"It's already late and it's not safe for you to go home alone. If you don't want to sleep in the same room with your brother, you can sleep with me. I have three rooms at my place."

Ye Hai was feeling wronged, but when he heard what Leng Jinpeng said, his face was full of shock.

He did not understand why his father was not screaming at Leng Qirui today. Normally, he would definitely raise his voice at him by now.

Leng Qirui considered for a while before nodding. This meant that he agreed with Leng Jinpeng's suggestion.

Ye Hai suppressed the jealousy and reluctance in his heart and beamed. He said, "That's great, Lil Rui. You've finally come to your senses after so many years. You have no idea how much dad wants you to come to accompany him in the military base. I have some alcohol. Why don't we celebrate a little tonight? Big Brother Chi, this is sister-in-law's first time in the military base. We should celebrate this together."

Zhong Nuannuan looked at Ye Hai's facade and smiled lightly. "Uncle Leng is forbidden from drinking all forms of alcohol."

Ye Hai nodded awkwardly. "Of course, Dad can't drink. However, he can drink some juice and celebrate with us."

Chi Yang grabbed Zhong Nuannuan's hand and stood up. "Lil Rui is Uncle Leng's son, so what's there to celebrate when a son comes to visit his own father? As from Nuannuan, whether or not we want to celebrate is our business."

Only

Ye Hai was oblivious to Chi Yang's call out. Thus, he simply smiled politely. "Right. This is sister-in-law's first time in the military base, so I'm sure she's curious about a lot of things. In that case, we shall not disturb Big Brother Chi and sister-in-law anymore."

"Nuannuan is so much younger than you but you're so quick to call her your sister-in-law."

Qu Mingyi wanted to mention this for a long time. Even though Ye Hai was better than the stubborn and quick-tempered Leng Qirui, everyone here was still relatively close to each other. Moreover, Nuannuan was so much younger than him, and yet, he could refer to her as sister-in-law without hesitation. It was quite unnerving.

Leng Qirui chuckled coldly. "Some people are born to kiss ass. They would not care whether people think that they are disgusting or not."

Ye Hai's face fell, but he still smiled and said to Qu Mingyi, "I called her Nuannuan before, but Big Brother Chi forbade it."

"Pah! Who are you to call her Nuannuan? Is she close to you? Are you her family, boyfriend, or classmate? Even I address her by her last name. How can you talk to her so intimately? Is it because your face is bigger?"

Anyone would be angry after being called out by Leng Qirui like this. However, Ye Hai simply smiled politely with a hint of awkwardness on his face.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 207: Chi Yang's Girlfriend

“So, I can only call her sister-in-law now. Big Brother Chi is my big brother and Zhong Nuannuan is engaged to Big Brother Chi. Their marriage has passed the political investigation, so it’s as good as done now. Therefore, I didn’t want to be too distant and so decided to address her as sister-in-law beforehand.”

As Ye Hai was saying this, he was looking at Leng Jinpeng’s face out of the corner of his eye.

Leng Jinpeng was acting strange today. Normally, he would have cursed and berated Leng Qirui by now, and the two would then part on bad terms. However, he had not even said anything until now.

There were a lot of emotions swirling about in Ye Hai’s heart.

Did Leng Qirui tell Leng Jinpeng about his suspicions? Did Leng Jinpeng believe him?

No way!

When Leng Qirui got here, the two of them were like fire and ice. How was it possible that they were getting along after just one treatment?

“Uncle Leng, Uncle Qu, if there’s nothing else, Nuannuan and I will be leaving.”

Leng Jinpeng stood up and said, “Alright, take your time. Nuannuan, thank you for today.”

“Uncle Qu, you’re being too courteous.”

After walking out of the door, Zhong Nuannuan got in Chi Yang’s car. When she was about to put on the seatbelt, Chi Yang leaned over and helped her with it.

His refreshing scent immediately increased Zhong Nuannuan’s heartbeat.

Moods can affect a person’s behavior, so it was a possibility that Chi Yang could sense her furiously beating heart. After thinking about his wife going to his house, he hurriedly searched for a topic to discuss, “Is Uncle Leng’s condition serious?”

Zhong Nuannuan answered flatly while her heart drummed against her chest, “Yeah, but it’s not at a critical stage. So, don’t worry. Now that I’ve taken over, I won’t allow Uncle Leng’s body to worsen too much.”

While driving, Chi Yang reached out his hand and grabbed Zhong Nuannuan’s. “I trust you.”

Ten minutes later, the car drove into the courtyard of the military base and stopped in front of a building for family members.

The building for family members was built during the early 21st century. There were no stairs but it was not too tall, standing at only seven stories. However, the environment and the scenery surrounding the compound was nice.

After Chi Yang got out of the car, he walked over to Zhong Nuannuan and opened the door for her. He then grabbed her hand and lead her out of the car.

"I feel that the environment here is much better than at the compound where we entered from just now."

Seeing Zhong Nuannuan looking around curiously, Chi Yang replied, "The people who live here are the family members of the first lieutenants or higher. This is where I live. Come on."

"Alright." Zhong Nuannuan smiled. She was curious and excited to step into the place where Chi Yang stayed every day.

As they were about to step into the unit, a woman in pajamas and slippers began walking down the stairs with a bag full of trash.

When she saw Chi Yang, and then Zhong Nuannuan, who was holding hands with him, the woman stopped dead in her tracks.

Only

"Director-general Chi, is this your..."

"This is my partner, Zhong Nuannuan."

The woman was shocked as her voice raised an octave. "What? You have a partner? When did this happen? How long have you two been together?"

Zhong Nuannuan was annoyed at the woman making a fuss about this. She was also eyeing Zhong Nuannuan from head to toe. Zhong Nuannuan's gaze darkened.

Chi Yang was equally uncomfortable with the woman's behavior. Thus, he ignored her questions and said coldly, "Excuse me."

After saying this, he did not care if the woman moved or not as he simply grabbed Zhong Nuannuan's hand and led her up the staircase.

There were a few bicycles near the staircase so there was not much space to navigate. When Chi Yang's tall body stepped forward, the invisible pressure caused the middle-aged woman to back away subconsciously.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 208: House

Her entire body was pressed against the bicycle.

When she came back to her senses, Chi Yang had already brought Zhong Nuannuan upstairs.

The middle-aged woman watched the duo holding hands as they disappeared up the stairs. She rolled her eyes and quickly left her trash at the staircase before running with her short legs up the stairs.

Chi Yang lived on the top floor. After the woman closed the door on the third floor, Zhong Nuannuan asked, 'Who was that?'

"The wife of Commander Chen Jianjun from Theater of Operations C. Everyone calls her Sister-in-law Chen. You don't have to pay any attention to her. You will come here often in the future. If you want to acknowledge the people here, then be my guest, but you don't have to if you don't want to. You don't have to do something you don't like for my sake."

"Is that okay? Won't people say that your partner is arrogant?"

Zhong Nuannuan did not like entertaining a rude person like Sister-in-law Chen and did not really want to interact with her. However, this was Chi Yang's territory, and he was the one living here. It was not a good idea to cause trouble for him.

"Nothing's wrong with that. In their eyes, I'm even more arrogant than you. So, if you're able to bear chatting with them, you're welcome to do so. If you don't want to, you can just ignore them. They won't do anything to you."

As they talked, they soon arrived on the seventh floor. After the door was opened, the first thing Chi Yang did was turn on the lights. Zhong Nuannuan looked inside curiously and immediately noticed something: His place was minimalistic, clean, and organized.

Knowing Chi Yang's personality, Zhong Nuannuan was shocked by how minimalist this room was.

Zhong Nuannuan scanned the room quickly. Aside from some basic necessities, there were not many things in this room.

It was a simple two-bedroom unit and was not even 70 square feet.

"There are not a lot of people with higher ranks than you in the military base. Why did they only give you a two-bedroom unit?"

She remembered that even her father had a three-bedroom unit in the courtyard of the military base. However, they had never stayed over before. This is because her father would only stay there when he was working overtime and could not go back to their home in the city.

"They wanted to give me a three-bedroom unit, but I rejected it. I live alone, so it would be troublesome to clean a house that big."

He was afraid that his wife would complain about the size of this place, so Chi Yang immediately continued, "If you think this place is small, I have a mansion nearby. The next time you're here, we can stay there."

Only

He thought it was troublesome to have a three-bedroom unit in the military base but he bought a mansion not far away from the base? Even though Jiang District was one of the first-tier districts in Camino, but amongst the 13 first-tier districts, Jiang District was the smallest.

If she did not know Chi Yang's true character, she would believe him since he had been willing to spend 7.5 million on a nightgown.

However, this was not the case. After all, they had been married for six years in their past life. Aside from being a 'prince' in the military base, he also invested in a lot of assets with his friends.

He would not even want to invest in the properties in Emperor District, so Zhong Nuannuan could not believe that he had bought the mansion in the countryside of Jiang District solely for the purpose of appreciation.

It would be impossible that he wanted to stay there.

She also recalled him once saying that he had a house near her school. Eventually, Zhong Nuannuan realized that this man was lying to her.

Or rather, he might have been lying to her when he first said that. After which, he might have immediately gone to buy the house. In that case, it was possible that he really did have a house near her school by now.

My Sweet Physician Wife Calls The Shots

Chapter 209: I Like It

Zhong Nuannuan knew the reason he did this was to spend more time with her.

Of course, she felt the same.

Zhong Nuannuan's eyes narrowed as she smiled. She looked at Chi Yang and grabbed his arm lovingly. "I don't want to go there. I like staying here."

"Really?"

Looking at Chi Yang's surprised expression, Zhong Nuannuan nodded her head firmly. "Of course. This is where you live. I like the smell of this place."

Chi Yang was puzzled after glancing at the house. He looked at the walls that were painted without adornment and the floor that was covered with the most basic tiles. There were no decorations in the room, let alone any smell.

"What does it smell like?"

To him, this was a place that he just rested in.

"It smells like you."

Chi Yang: ...

"What?" He was being flirted with without any warning, so he was a little confused.

"This whole place smells like you. I like the smell of you. It makes me feel warm. It also feels like home to me."

When Chi Yang heard that, his heart melted into a puddle of water. He looked at the glimmer in Zhong Nuannuan's eyes and felt that her eyes were as dazzling as the sea. On the surface, they looked calm, but in reality, there was a whirlpool of emotions beneath.

When Chi Yang saw Zhong Nuannuan sitting on the sofa, he followed her. He stared at her and asked softly, "What do I smell like?" Since his Nuannuan was fond of it, he decided to intensify the smell so his wife would enjoy it even more.

Zhong Nuannuan felt Chi Yang's breath on her when he spoke. The refreshing smell was mixed with his powerful hormones, which caused Zhong Nuannuan to start feeling restless.

"I..." She only said one word, and yet, she felt her voice become flirtatious. She was shocked by herself, so she immediately cleared her throat. "I can't put a finger on it. I can't use words to describe this smell."

"But you like it, right?" There was a hint of tenderness and joy in Chi Yang's eyes when he looked at his wife's nervous expression.

Despite being embarrassed, Zhong Nuannuan still nodded. "Yeah. I like it."

The sentence "I like it" delighted Chi Yang to no end.

The girl's bright face was filled with collagen. Her delicate face was as innocent as a blooming flower and her red lips were slightly pouted as if she was waiting for him to get closer to her.

Chi Yang put aside his cold and hard exterior and changed it into inseparable love. He got closer to the girl while his hand slowly made its way next to her waist before resting on top of her hand which she had put on the armrest.

Under the warm light, his eyes were filled with devotion. It was as if the person in front of him was his entire world.

His hot breath landed on Zhong Nuannuan's face and neck as she looked at Chi Yang. At that moment, the ice in his body melted and it was as though there was a pale light surrounding him. He looked like the sunset, so tranquil and tolerant. He was also warm and gentle.

Only

When Zhong Nuannuan was about to close her eyes, the handsome face that would make even the gods jealous got closer to her...

"Nuannuan..."

Chi Yang murmured. His hoarse voice was dripping with desire.

"Can I kiss you?"

Even though he was overwhelmed by desire, Chi Yang pulled the brakes at the last second.

He felt remorseful about the hurt he caused her. Hence, he still asked her for her consent despite being unable to control his emotions.

If she refused, he would suppress his desires no matter how difficult it was.

Chapter 210: Someone's Knocking

Zhong Nuannuan's brain turned into mush when she looked at the gaze of the man that had by now melted into puddles of water. With a bewitching voice, she muttered a 'yes'.

The moment she uttered the word, his lips landed on hers.

His cold lips were quite dry as they rubbed against her skin. Even though it was very gentle, but it still elicited a slight tremble from her body.

Having said that, his kiss was not rough. It was gentle and loving, just like the warmth of a spring breeze.

Zhong Nuannuan felt as if she was surrounded by happiness when in his presence, his familiar smell and the way he talked made her heart flutter.

The two beating hearts grew more intimate with each other at this moment.

The girl's eyes were closed, her eyelashes trembling slightly like butterflies in the wind.

Chi Yang's handsome and tough features relaxed completely as his gaze once again softened. It was like it was going to melt all of the ice in this world.

The girl tasted exquisite. Her sex appeal was like a brightly colored strawberry cake waving at a child.

Despite this, just inhaling her scent and tasting her sweetness was not enough to quench his desire.

When he was about to deepen this extremely sweet first kiss, someone knocked on the door.

"Knock knock!"

The duo on the sofa froze.

Zhong Nuannuan was befuddled by the kiss, so there was moisture in her eyes. There was a hint of redness to her silky smooth skin as well, which made her look like a ripe and juicy peach. Chi Yang wanted so bad to bite her on her cheek.

The moment their eyes met, their gazes became dazed again.

Chi Yang's Adam's apple moved slightly and he could not help but lower his head...

"Knock knock knock! Knock knock!"

Someone was knocking on the door again. They even knocked harder the second time around. Chi Yang did not want to pay attention to it. However, Zhong Nuannuan pushed him slightly away from her.

"Someone's at the door. Go and take a look."

"No need." After he said that, Chi Yang lowered his body again to try and taste the girl.

This time, he wanted to use his lips to touch her face. He wanted to feel the adorable hairs on her face on his lips.

Chi Yang thought that this would be interesting.

However, Zhong Nuannuan pushed him away.

“What if something happened in the unit?”

“They’ll call me.”

After he replied, Chi Yang moved forward and kissed the soft hair of Zhong Nuannuan’s face.

The furious knocks sounded from outside the door once again. Just as Chi Yang’s lips were about to land on the adorable soft hair, Zhong Nuannuan’s hands stopped him.

“You should go take a look.”

“Knock knock knock...”

There was a flash of anger in Chi Yang’s eyes when he heard the repeated knocking at the door.

Only

He caressed the cute bun on the top of the girl’s head before calming down his excited heart and standing up.

When he stood up, Zhong Nuannuan felt the temperature of the room drop a few degrees.

Zhong Nuannuan laughed out loud at Chi Yang’s dark face.

She understood the kind of sullen annoyance.

Thus, she silently prayed for whoever was at the door. ‘Serves you right!’

When Chi Yang went to open the door, Zhong Nuannuan stood up. She tidied her clothes and walked into another room.

She could feel the redness on her face even without looking into a mirror. Hence, she did not want to let the other party see her in this state before she could properly recompose herself.
