

Physician Wife 2041

Chapter 2041: The World's Best Fathers

"With this money, a house, and some shops as dowry, your status will be different. You'll be outstanding and rich. How could your in-laws pick on you then? If they still want to pick on you, your father will support you for the rest of your life! You won't have to marry! Or in the future, you can find a man you like to marry into our family, and Daddy will help you look after him."

Sze Lingyun, "..."

"Listen to me. Daddy is sure that in the future, a brand-new city district will be established here. Owning a shop here will be very valuable in the future..."

Everyone was dumbfounded as they watched the usually-quiet Wu Jingzhong proudly ranting at Sze Lingyun.

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. Upon seeing the look in his wife's eyes, Chi Yang, who had been quiet this whole time, smiled.

"What's wrong?"

"Big Brother Chi Yang, I was thinking... If you become a father in the future, will you be as naggy as Uncle Wu?"

Chi Yang did not expect Nuannuan to ask that question.

He thought of a pretty and gentle-looking little girl with her hair in a bun. She was wearing the same clothes as his Nuannuan and looked like a replica of her. As Chi Yang imagined this girl standing in front of him her extremely cute face, he did not have the brainpower to think about whether he would be such a chatterbox in the future. His eyes revealed an indescribable doting expression.

"My daughter will definitely be a hundred times cuter than Sze Lingyun. I'd probably want to spend all my time with her when I wasn't sleeping or working."

"What if it's not a daughter? What if it's a son? And you think he's trying to take me from you?"

Chi Yang bent down and kissed Nuannuan's forehead. "As long as they're our child, whether they're a boy or a girl, I'll love them."

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang doubtfully and asked, "But I've read a lot of novels. Don't men who love their wives become enemies with their sons when their sons steal their wife's attention from them? They play all kinds of little tricks to stop their sons from stealing them."

"You know those are novels. A man who truly loves his wife not only loves his wife, but the fruit they bear together too. If our son wants to steal your attention away from me and take it in the future, I will let him do so. As long as he's happy. If I really miss you, but our son wants to monopolize you, I'll think of ways to divert his attention and make him willingly give you up. In short, you and our child are more important than my own life. As long as you're happy, I'll be happy."

Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang. She was very touched.

It was just a joke. She just wanted to see if Chi Yang would show his childish side and talk about snatching her back from their son. In the end, Chi Yang's words moved her so much that she could not help herself.

Even though they were with the Wu family and were in public, Nuannuan could not help but raise her neck.

Seeing this, Chi Yang was very considerate as he slightly leaned over and put his lips on with Nuannuan's.

A sweet feeling flowed into his chest.

His words came from the bottom of his heart.

Nuannuan was more important than his life to him. The fruit of their love would also be more important than his life when it arrived into the world.

His life was perfect because of her warmth, and it would be made more perfect in the future thanks to their children.

That was something he would give anything for.

Chapter 2042: Adopted or Biological

Wu Pingting watched Nuannuan and Chi Yang kiss and could not help but feel envious. Men disgusted her, but after witnessing this scene, she felt a glimmer of hope for the future.

Putting aside the unhappy things in her mind, she went to her uncle's place to keep joking around with him and the others.

"Uncle, Wu Zongxu was complaining about how you treated him badly. I thought he was a heartless dog for saying that, but now that I see you treating Sister Yunyun like this, I can say with certainty that he was definitely mistreated! If he saw you right now, he'd probably die again from anger."

Wu Jingzhong knew about how Wu Zongxu had harmed him, Wu Pingting, and the entire Wu family. His face immediately went cold.

"I adopted him because your grandfather had always wanted me to get married and have children. But I knew that the only woman for me was Lil Yun's mother. I couldn't marry anyone else. Since I couldn't find her, I didn't want to marry anyone else, so I chose to adopt a child. That way, the Wu family could have more children. Even if I didn't get married and have kids, I was told that doing that would help your father get married and have children of his own. As for me, my plan was to find Lil Yun's mother and marry her.

“Well, he wasn’t my biological child. I have to admit that I didn’t pay him much attention. I adopted him, but I didn’t really put in much effort to nurture him as my son. This led to his heart getting all twisted up. I didn’t realize at the time that the future would soon be my fault.

“Wu Zongxu learned that he was adopted at a young age, so he was very sensitive. I thought that the sensitivity would make him grateful to the Wu family and realize that he wasn’t my biological son. He should have been satisfied by such a good life compared to the one he would’ve otherwise had... Who would’ve thought I’d raise such a useless boy?

“A year ago, after he graduated from university, he was meant to start work at one of my branch companies. At the time, he came to me and said that he hoped to be able to work in the headquarters of the group company. He asked me to tell your father about it. Because I knew what he was thinking about, I sternly refused.

“I told him that the Wu group belonged to your father. Your father was the chairman of the group, and the group would one day be handed over to Zongyang. I told him that even my biological son would not be qualified to covet the Wu Group, let alone him, an adopted son of the Wu family.

“When I adopted him, I was only obligated to raise him until he was 18 years old. Once he reached adulthood, even if I was his adoptive father, I could sever our relationship any time I wanted. I hoped that he would be a good person and not be greedy. I told him that if I found out that he had ill intentions toward the Wu family, I would deal with him immediately.

“He kowtowed and promised me that he would never have anything against the Wu family. He said that he wanted to work at the headquarters because he wanted more opportunities to learn and get ahead in life. He also said that since I adopted him, I probably wanted to look after him well. So, he asked to borrow 500 million from me and said that he would open his own company.

“I had already seen a hint of his ill intentions. How could I give him the money to open a company? Not only did I not give him money, but I also sent some people to keep an eye on him. If he messed with the branch office, I would immediately disown him and kick him out of the Wu family. After all, your father had arranged for him to be the deputy general manager of a listed branch, so it would have been easy for him to misappropriate some of the branch’s funds.

“But to my surprise, he didn’t.”

Chapter 2043: The Results Are Released

“Not a single cent was misappropriated. So even though I knew he had some overly-ambitious ideas, I thought he at least wasn’t too crooked. I even thought that if he seriously studied management at that branch company, in three years, I might actually give him some money to start his own company.

“Who knew that he had much greater ‘ambitions’? Even though he didn’t touch any of the branch company’s money, he colluded with outsiders to harm me.”

“His ambitions were insane! When he was eight years old, he drugged everyone in our family. Thank God for Nuannuan, or my brother and aunt would’ve been infertile for the rest of their lives.”

Wu Jingmin was a doctor. She usually spoke in short, effective sentences at the hospital and did not talk much at home.

She did not expect her niece to suddenly bring this matter up again. Her face instantly turned red.

She was the youngest in the family. There was a 12-year age gap between her and her elder brother. Therefore, even though she had been infertile all these years, she was only 33 years old now.

Nuannuan had already prescribed medication for everyone in the family. As long as they took it continuously for a month, they would be able to recover.

Once they finished their course, she could wait for a few more months and still be able to conceive a child before 35. That would not even be considered an advanced-age pregnancy.

Her husband had always been good to her. Even though her husband was also from a famous family within Sea District, he was fine with the fact that she had not been able to get pregnant after so many years of marriage. He had never complained about her infertility.

However, now that she had the chance to get pregnant, her husband was of course happier.

Suddenly, Elder Wu’s phone rang. he looked at it and blurted out, “It’s the hospital.”

“Grandpa, put it on speaker! Put it on speaker! I want to listen to too!”

Wu Pingting immediately hopped over.

The whole family also rushed over. They all looked very nervous.

Nangong Nuannuan was the only one who was very calm.

Although she could not see everyone’s DNA fully, she could see a little bit, and she could clearly see that the blood flowing in Shi Lingyun’s body was exactly the same as Wu Jingzhong’s.

Ordinary people needed to rely on lab tests to identify blood types. Otherwise, blood just looked red to them. However, she could see everyone’s blood type at a glance.

Even though Wu Pingting and Sze Lingyun’s blood types were different, Elder Wu, Wu Jingzhong, and Sze Lingyun’s blood types were the same.

Although this was not enough to prove that Sze Lingyun was a member of the Wu family, that, coupled with their previous speculations, proved that Sze Lingyun was definitely a child of the Wu family.

“Are the DNA results out yet?” Elder Wu picked up the phone and asked immediately.

The person calling was a bodyguard of the Wu family, but the person who spoke was the director of the private hospital that the Wu family owned.

“Elder Wu, I’m Yuan Liren.”

Upon hearing that it was the director, Elder Wu hurriedly asked, "What're the results?"

"Elder Wu, congratulations. Miss Sze, who did the DNA test with your family, shares 92% similarity to your DNA, 78% similarity to the chairman, 76% similarity to Young Master Sun, and 77% similarity to Miss Sun."

"Tell me the results!"

Although Wu Jingzhong had long since confirmed that Sze Lingyun was his biological daughter, he still could not help but tremble with nervousness at this moment.

Those numbers sounded very, very high. He was certain that Sze Lingyun was a member of the Wu family, but he was still nervous. He had to hear a definite answer.

Hearing Wu Jingzhong's voice, the director immediately said 'yes' before continuing.

Chapter 2044: Very Low

"This is a very good DNA test. If the test confirms that there is over 65% similarity, it can be confirmed that Miss Sze is a relative of the Wu family. Miss Sze is so similar to all of you that the hospital is 100% sure that she's your biological granddaughter and the chairman's biological niece. There was no need for the governor's DNA test. Elder Wu, congratulations!"

"No, no, no! I still want to make sure. I want to make sure that we have 99% similarity. Wait. We'll be right there."

It was rare for Wu Jingzhong to act this childishly. The Wu family burst out into laughter. Elder Wu was really happy. His granddaughter was fine, his son had been saved from danger, and the family had suddenly gained a biological granddaughter. This was simply the best thing that could have ever happened.

The director was amused by Governor Wu's words and laughed out loud to congratulate the members of the Wu family again.

Everyone was happy... before the director continued, "The test results of the hairs that Elder Wu brought over are also out. Miss Sze and Zhou Menglu have 0.1% similarity, her and Sze Dafa have 0.03%, and her and Zhou Mengjing have 0.12%."

When everyone heard these results, they looked at each other in dismay.

Even though they knew that Sze Lingyun was definitely not Zhou Menglu and Sze Dafa's child, Zhou Menglu was Zhou Hua's elder sister. If Sze Lingyun was Zhou Hua's biological daughter... then Zhou Menglu's DNA similarity percentage should have been similar to Wu Jingcheng's.

That was how bloodlines worked.

As long as two people were related, their DNA similarities would definitely be high.

However, the similarity between Sze Lingyun, Zhou Menglu, and Zhou Mengjing was so low. They were like strangers!

“Director Yuan, what does this mean?”

Everyone realized the problem. As a medical student, Sze Lingyun especially understood the issue.

When she heard that the DNA similarity between her and her grandfather was 92%, she knew that she had to be a child of the Wu family.

However, she was also Zhou Hua’s daughter, right?

However, the similarity between her, Zhou Menglu, and Zhou Mengjing was around 0.1%. That was nothing.

“Elder Wu, I said that the DNA similarity between two people must be at least 65% to be 100% sure that the two of them are related. Miss Sze’s blood similarity with Zhou Menglu and Zhou Mengjing is only 0.1%. This means that she’s not related to them by blood.”

This time, the faces of the Wu family all darkened.

Wu Jingzhong asked with a dark expression, “Director Yuan, my wife is the sister of Zhou Menglu and Zhou Mengjing. If my daughter isn’t related to Zhou Menglu and Zhou Mengjing, then my wife...”

Director Yuan digested the relationship between these people at the other end of the phone. “If you’re sure that your wife is your daughter’s biological mother, then your wife has no blood relationship with Zhou Menglu and Zhou Mengjing,” said Director Yuan.

Wu Jingzhong fell silent.

Elder Wu hung up the phone and said to Wu Jingzhong, “Even though Lil Yun’s mother only met you once, she saved you and left the Wu family with a beautiful, cute, and well-behaved child... our Lil Yun. She’s our daughter-in-law acknowledged by the Wu family. Please take care of this matter.”

Wu Jingzhong nodded with a solemn face, “Dad, don’t worry. I will definitely give her an explanation.”

After saying that, Wu Jingzhong looked at Sze Lingyun and asked, “Lil Yun, do you want to come to the detention center with Daddy to meet the Zhou family?”

Chapter 2045: Everybody Is Furious

Sze Lingyun was furious. Hearing her father’s question, she snapped out of her daze, immediately stood up, and nodded. “I want to go!”

“I want to go too!” Wu Pingting and Wu Zongyang were also furious.

“I want to go too.” Wu Jingcheng and Wu Jingmin also stood up.

Elder Wu said, “Let’s all go.”

Elder Wu turned around and looked at Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang, who were whispering to each other. Chi Yang’s stern and cold frown lines were always gentle when he looked at Nuannuan.

Just as he was about to speak, Nangong Nuannuan raised her hand. "I want to go too. Senior Sister's fiancé is Big Brother Chi Yang's brother. We have to help Senior figure out her background. Only then can we rest easy."

Chi Yang nodded.

His wife was right.

Thus, the Wu family arrived at the detention center driving three cars.

On the way, Sze Lingyun looked out of the window and recalled the past 21 years of her life. There was anger and unwillingness in her heart. She really hoped that her mother's death had nothing to do with her two heartless sisters.

Even if her mother had been killed by Zhou Menglu and Zhou Mengjing, she had been Zhou Menglu's daughter for 21 years. Every day of those 21 years, she had taken care of everyone in her family like a maid. Even though she was only a university student, she still had to send 1000 yuan back to her family every month.

Thinking about how she had spent all these years, Sze Lingyun could not help but clench her fists.

A warm hand suddenly wrapped around hers, and warmth spread across her shoulders. The other party's other hand patted her back gently.

Sze Lingyun turned her head and met her father's concerned gaze.

"Lil Yun, don't worry. You're not alone now. You have a father. No matter who hurt you and Mom, Daddy will definitely avenge you."

The seating arrangements were the same as the last trip, so Wu Pingting was also in the car.

She nodded and said, "Yeah, Big Sis Sze! You're the biological granddaughter of the Wu family. Our family is nothing if we can't defend our own. If they dare to bully you, we'll definitely make them regret it every day for the rest of their lives."

Sze Lingyun's eyes reddened as she nodded.

In the past, no matter what kind of grievances she had suffered, she had to bear them on her own. She did not like to cry because she knew that crying was useless. She could only work hard to leave that damned home and live the life she wanted.

That was why she was very strong. No matter what happened, as long as no one died, she would think of a way to get through it.

However, things were different now. She had not even faced the Zhou family yet, and so many people were already concerned about her.

Feeling the warmth of her new family, Sze Lingyun felt her heart fill up with joy.

“Dad, how did you meet my mother back then? Was it my mother who saved you when you fell off that cliff?”

Wu Jingzhong felt sad at the mention of Zhou Hua.

This was a girl that he had kept in his heart for 20 years. Because of her, he had never married. Because he was still holding out hope for her.

Unfortunately...

“Back then, I made a name for myself as soon as I entered the public eye. Many people took a fancy to my background as the Wu family’s young master, especially some women. It could be said that they were all eager to climb into my bed.

“That day, I went to a manor in the mountains to attend a banquet. The daughter of that family drugged me and threatened me to get together with her. When I sensed that something was wrong, I immediately drove away. I was already feeling very uncomfortable, and on the way back, I was chased by some enemies.”

Chapter 2046: How I Met Your Mother

“They drove my car straight off a cliff. I jumped out, but even though I managed to grab onto a few trees to slow down the fall, there was nothing to grab onto for the last 65 feet. I was badly bruised when I fell, and the fall knocked me out.

“I remember clearly that I was burning up all over when I woke up. Your mother was taking care of me and wiping my sweat. She had applied medicine to my wounds, but the aphrodisiac that had already fermented in my body could not be controlled. She saw that I was suffering too much and was afraid that I would die, so she...

“Later, after the drug in my body subsided, before I fainted, I told her that I would definitely marry her. I asked her to stay with me, and I told her that my family would come looking for me soon.

“However, when I woke up, it had already been three days. Your grandfather said that he only saw that I had been drugged, but there was no girl by my side. At that time, I was seriously injured and couldn’t get out of bed, so I drew a portrait of your mother and asked your grandfather to make a copy of it and take it out to look for her.

“When I was discharged from the hospital, I personally went to look for her. I searched Sea District, J District, and Z District, but I still couldn’t find your mother.

“At the time, the family’s salary was not that high, but I still offered a very high reward for her. I promised that useful clues would receive a reward of 100,000 yuan, and if someone actually found her, I would give them a reward of 1,000,000 yuan. I thought that the money would definitely motivate people to find her.

“However, your mother had suddenly appeared by my side like a fairy then mysteriously disappeared from this world.”

When he thought of that woman whose eyes were pure, her temperament like an orchid, and her looks like a painting, Wu Jingzhong's heart ached.

He did not want to owe anyone anything, but he owed the woman he loved the most in the world his life.

Well, was it was love? After all, he had never interacted with that woman much, so it could not be called love.

He had liked that woman's appearance and body very much. He never believed that he would fall in love at first sight, but the moment he saw that woman, he knew that he was in love with her. It had not been the drugs talking.

If it had just been appreciation, he would have told the girl that he would reward her with money once he recovered, not offered to marry her. However, that girl was the most pleasant and kind girl he had ever seen, so he had been moved. He had told her that he would marry her. Even before he fainted, he kept muttering to himself, telling the girl not to leave.

Now, 22 years had passed, and she had given birth to such an outstanding daughter for him, yet he could never see her again.

After more than 20 years in his career as an official, he had long become a man who did not show his emotions. However, when he thought of that beautiful portrait-esque girl and how it was very likely that she had been persecuted to death by the Zhou family... he could not suppress the vicious anger in his heart no matter how hard he tried.

Especially when he held his daughter's hand, thinking about how his daughter, who was supposed to lead a pampered life, had actually been abused her whole childhood, that vicious anger was nearly enough to burn the entire Zhou family to ashes.

After Zhou Menglu and her family were thrown into the detention center, they received orders from Chi Yang that they were to be separated and imprisoned.

Chapter 2047: Why Did You Abuse My Daughter?

Zhou Menglu knew what was going to happen. Even though she was afraid, she was confident. She had already thought of what to say.

Thus, when the prison guard took her out of the cell to meet some visitors, she looked unafraid. When she saw Sze Lingyun, she shouted angrily, "Sze Lingyun, you wretched girl! Are you trying to kill me? Look at what you've done! If you hadn't brought your friends to our house, would our family have been locked up? If you still want me as your mother, immediately ask your friends to let me go!"

"Shut up, you old witch! Don't ask me to let you go, I think you should get ready to spend the rest of your life in prison!" Wu Pingting could not take it anymore and scolded Zhou Menglu.

“Zhou Menglu, let me ask you this. Why did you abuse my daughter? My daughter is such a good girl. If she was your child, why did you abuse her?”

Sze Lingyun, Wu Pingting, Nangong Nuannuan had gone in first. Zhou Menglu was brought out before the prison guards received the news, so Zhou Menglu only saw Sze Lingyun, as well as Wu Pingting, Nangong Nuannuan, and Chi Yang at first. She knew them as the troublemakers who had barged into her family home.

Unexpectedly, as she finished shouting, Wu Jingzhong and the others walked in.

Wu Jingzhong was the governor of Sea District, and he was often on the television news. Therefore, Zhou Menglu was very familiar with Wu Jingzhong and knew who he was.

When Wu Pingting said back then that she was the eldest daughter of the Wu family in Sea District, Zhou Menglu had not believed it. She simply did not believe that a little slut like Sze Lingyun could be so lucky as to have become friends with the richest daughter in Sea District.

However, seeing Wu Jingzhong and another man who looked very much like him walking in now with an old man, all Zhou Menglu could think about was the question Wu Jingzhong just asked her.

What had he just said?

That she had abused his daughter?

“Zhou Menglu, answer my question. Why did you abuse my daughter?!”

Wu Jingzhong could barely suppress the anger in his heart. The hostility running through his veins turned into a powerful aura and crushed every nerve in Zhou Menglu’s body.

She was completely dumbfounded.

“I-I didn’t abuse your daughter. Y-your daughter came to my house today and showed off to all my guests. Then, she threw me into jail!”

Zhou Menglu became angrier the more she spoke, raising her voice and pointing at Sze Lingyun. She said, “If you want to blame someone, blame this wretched girl. She tricked your daughter into coming to our house and having us offend her. This has nothing to do with us. Governor, we’re good citizens. Please help us and let us out!”

In Zhou Menglu’s eyes, a high official like Wu Jingzhong was even more powerful than an ancient emperor. After all, he was in charge of the entire Sea District. Therefore, she put on a smile for him and blamed all her mistakes on Sze Lingyun.

Her actions made Wu Pingting laugh.

She walked up to Wu Jingcheng and took his arm. She then said, “Zhou Menglu, you’re talking crap! This is my father. He’s the second son of the Wu family and the chairman of the Wu group.” Then, she pointed at Wu Jingcheng and said, “This is my eldest uncle, my father’s blood brother. And the daughter that my uncle means is Sze Lingyun, that ‘wretched girl’, as you keep calling her!”

Zhou Menglu's eyes widened slowly. Her face was full of shock and disbelief.

Chapter 2048: You Are Not the Mother

Wu Jingzhong walked up to Sze Lingyun, who was glaring at Zhou Menglu like she was her worst enemy, and reached out and pulled her into his embrace. Zhou Menglu saw their many facial similarities and could not help but scream. Her face was covered in disbelief and shock.

"Zhou Menglu, I've already brought my daughter, Lil Yun, to do a paternity test. The results have proven that she is indeed my biological daughter and the granddaughter of the Wu family. But you and her only have 0.1% DNA similarity, and she and your husband's, Shi Dafa's, similarity doesn't even reach 0.1%. Do you know what that means? It means that Lil Yun isn't related to you or your husband at all. She's not your daughter!

"If you don't explain this matter clearly by today, you'll be facing kidnapping and child abuse charges. I also heard that you were planning to sell my daughter to a man in his 40s today and that you had already accepted the money. So, I could also convict you of trafficking women and children. If you're punished for these crimes, you'd be lucky to get a life sentence. The death penalty is on the line."

Faced with Wu Jingzhong's immense pressure, Zhou Menglu's legs went weak with fear. She fell onto the chair and looked at him with a terrified expression. She hoped that analyzing his expression would tell her that he was lying.

However, his eyes were filled with viciousness. He looked like he wanted to kill her. She knew that the Wu family would not find it a challenge to deal with a small fry like her.

She shook her head in fear. "No, no! You can't do this to me!"

"Why can't I? Lil Yun is my only daughter and the eldest daughter of the Wu family, yet you abused her terribly and tried to marry her off to an old man in his forties. Zhou Menglu, I can tell you with certainty that if you don't tell me everything you know by today... If you hide anything, not only you, but your entire family, will never be able to step out of prison for the rest of your lives."

Nangong Nuannuan chimed in. "You've experienced what prison is like today. Think about the future. You might have to spend every day like this. Isn't that a great feeling?"

When Zhou Menglu and her family were locked up in the detention center today, Chi Yang specifically instructed the prison guards to teach them a lesson. Some of the prisoners in the prison were very powerful. They specialized in finding places to hurt people where the guards could not see them

Zhou Menglu had been given a 'warm welcome' twice by her cellmates this afternoon.

When she thought about how she might have to live like that every day for the rest of her life, Zhou Menglu grew afraid.

She then ignored Wu Jingzhong and instead looked at Sze Lingyun. She began to play the victim card.

"Yunyun, help Mommy! Even though I'm not your biological mother, you called me Mommy for 21 years. I raised you from a baby to the woman you are now, a student studying at a famous university. I worked so hard raising you! How can you repay my kindness with enmity after merely finding your biological father?

“Yunyun, even though I treated your brother better than you, don’t hold a grudge against me. Yes, you’re not our biological child. We adopted you. We didn’t leave you to die out there in the cruel world! We raised you and nurtured you!

“Now you’ve found your biological father, who is a very powerful man.”

Chapter 2049: I Raised Her!

“You... Could your father let us out on account that we raised you for so many years? You’re the daughter of the richest man in Sea District, so your family has a lot of money. You know that your brother has reached marriageable age. Despite everything that’s happened, Mommy still raised you. You owe us, the Sze family, a favor! Just give your brother a few thousand yuan and provide us with a villa, and we’ll be even, okay?”

This was the compromise Zhou Menglu had come up with a while ago.

She knew that once the paternity test results were released, they would expose her. Therefore, she was not going to lie about the fact that Sze Lingyun was adopted by the Sze family as a child.

Even if they were to be interrogated separately, both Sze Dafa and her sister would have said the same thing.

As they talked, Zhou Menglu began to believe her own lies. Yes, she had adopted Sze Lingyun out of kindness and worked hard to raise her! Not only would she be able to avoid jail time, but she could also obtain some great benefits from Sze Lingyun’s family.

Zhou Menglu’s words made Nangong Nuannuan laugh.

She had seen shameless people before, but this was a whole new level of shamelessness.

It was comparable to Zhong Qianqian and her daughter.

Sze Lingyun was stunned by her adoptive mother’s shamelessness. Just as she was about to get mad, Wu Jingzhong grabbed her shoulder.

Her daughter had been bullied and abused by Zhou Menglu’s family for 21 years. As a father, all these sins were his fault. Now that his daughter had finally returned home to him, it was only natural that he as a father handled all the loose ends.

Zhou Menglu was still looking at Sze Lingyun with hopeful and greedy eyes when Wu Jingzhong slapped her with the DNA test report in hand.

Zhou Menglu screamed in utter fear.

Even though it was just a few sheets of paper, the paper was of very good quality. When it hit her, they scratched Zhou Menglu's face and left a few bloody marks behind.

.....

Zhou Menglu was a typical bully. She could bully those weaker than her, but when faced by anyone stronger, she would cower.

After seeing Wu Jingzhong's expression of murderous intent, Zhou Menglu shrank back, not daring to continue begging.

"Zhou Menglu, I hope that this opportunity to save face can be taken and appreciated. Otherwise, if I choose to be cruel, I'll make things so bad that you won't even be able to cry."

"I... I'll take it and be grateful. You... What do you want me to do? I've already told you that Yunyun's adopted. We couldn't bear to see her starve to death by the roadside, so we took her in out of kindness. I didn't abduct her or sell her. Why would I abduct and sell her by inviting her back home for a free meal?"

"Free meal? My daughter worked hard as a slave for your family for 21 years. She did all the housework for you—preparing food, maintaining the residence's cleanliness, and preparing your clothes. She took care of everything! And despite all that she's done for you, you never allowed her to eat at the table. She was never allowed to eat her fill. How dare you say that your family was going to give her 'free food'? Zhou Menglu, just that fact alone could send you to prison for many years to come!"

Zhou Menglu was shocked. She shrank back further and did not dare to speak.

Seeing that Zhou Menglu did not seem like she was going to talk about Zhou Hua, Wu Jingzhong retrieved the photo that Nangong Nuannuan had given him and put it in front of Zhou Menglu.

Chapter 2050: Gambler

"You keep saying that you adopted Lil Yun. So, tell me, who is this?"

Zhou Menglu looked at Wu Jingzhong suspiciously and leaned over.

When she saw the woman in the photo clearly, her eyes suddenly narrowed. Panic flashed across them.

She thought she had covered up her surprise well, but everyone around her was very perceptive. Her facial expressions were instantly captured in everyone's mind.

Even though she was surprised to see that this photo had been taken somewhere outside the Zhou residence and was curious about who had taken this photo of Zhou Hua, that girl's name was taboo in her family, so she definitely could not say anything.

"T-this is Yunyun's mother, is it?"

Wu Jingzhong had a plethora of ways he could deal with Zhou Menglu's cunning nature.

As the saying went, everyone had an Achilles' heel.

“Zhou Menglu, you love your son very much, don’t you?”

Wu Jingzhong’s words made Zhou Menglu’s eyes immediately light up with alertness, “You... What are you going to do? You must know that my son is a good citizen. He hasn’t done anything wrong! If you dare to do anything to him, I swear that I won’t let it slide. Even if I die and become a ghost, I’ll stay haunting you! I’ll seek revenge on Sze Lingyun every day and make her die a horrible death!”

“Hehe.” Wu Jingzhong sneered. “Do you think a family like ours is afraid of someone like you? If you really dare to do anything to my daughter, I’ll immediately find someone to bury you and make sure that you’ll never reincarnate again.”

Zhou Menglu, “...”

“Uncle Wu has a very sharp tongue! He doesn’t take sh*t from anyone!”

.....

Chi Yang glanced at Nangong Nuannuan and said, “If anyone dares to hurt you, I’ll also make sure that they never reincarnate.”

Nangong Nuannuan smiled as she held onto his arm. She hugged him tightly as she continued to watch the drama unfold.

Seeing that he had scared Zhou Menglu into speechlessness, Wu Jingzhong retrieved his phone and began playing a video that Li Jingyan had sent him.

In the video, Sze Junyan was driving a car and Sze Lingyun was walking over. When he saw her, he immediately sped up to try to collide with her.

Even though Sze Lingyun had tried her best to dodge, she still ended up with a few injuries.

Zhou Menglu watched the video intently, her wide eyes unblinking.

This video was from a year ago. At that time, Sze Junyan had been gambling and owed 20,000 yuan to a loan shark. He hid away, thinking that no one would be able to find him if he never stepped out of the house. The people from the casino were after him. Soon, that 20,000 yuan debt turned into a 200,000 yuan one.

At that time, the Sze family refused to demolish their house to pay the 200,000 yuan debt. They asked Sze Lingyun to settle her brother’s debt—but she was unwilling.

They tried to trick Sze Lingyun into being sold to the casino to pay off their debt, but she had Li Jingyan by her side to stop them.

Li Jingyan had a formidable background, so the people from the casino dared not provoke him. However, they did not completely back on. Even though they dared not lay a finger on Sze Lingyun, they said they could make Sze Junyan a cripple.

If the casino people were scared out of their minds, Sze Junyan was completely losing it. Therefore, when Sze Lingyun was out shopping alone, he hit her with his car.

Sze Junyan was almost sent to jail. If not for Zhou Menglu begging Sze Lingyun for mercy and threatening to commit suicide, Li Jingyan would not have let her son off.

Although Li Jingyan helped their family pay off the 20,000 yuan debt, in return, Li Jingyan made them sign a contract agreeing to never use their roles as parents to cause trouble for Sze Lingyun!
