

Physician Wife 2071

Chapter 2071: She Should Be a Professor!

Sze Lingyun said, "Dad, you need to sleep."

"But I'm not sleepy. Are you?"

Sze Lingyun, "... She was not sleepy either! She was so full of excitement that she probably would not be able to sleep tonight.

"Uncle Wu, I can help perform acupuncture treatment on you," Nangong Nuannuan said.

"I know you're very excited, but you can't continue staying up. Not sleeping is worse than not eating."

"Can you really? Thank you so much, Nuannuan," Sze Lingyun was the first to respond.

She was really worried about her father's health. After all, he had only been released tonight, and he still had to go to the administrative department tomorrow.

She was worried about facing the Se family tomorrow without her father by her side.

It was new to her to finally have a real family and a father. She did not want to lose them anytime soon. She wanted everyone in her family to live a long life.

Wu Jingzhong did not want to agree to it, but he knew how Sze Lingyun was feeling.

They still had plenty of time together.

"Then... Okay. Thank you, Nuannuan."

"You're welcome." Nuannuan smiled.

"I'll come with you two!"

Even though he knew that Wu Jingzhong was a gentleman, Chi Yang did not want his wife to be alone with a man, even for a while.

"Okay." Nuannuan did not refuse. She allowed Chi Yang to accompany her to Wu Jingzhong's bedroom.

Nuannuan offered Wu Jingzhong acupuncture treatment because she could see that after three days of interrogations, his body had suffered some serious injuries. In addition to that, his brain was clearly overactive, so she could guarantee that even if he laid down, he would definitely be too excited to sleep tonight.

Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting also accompanied Nangong Nuannuan.

It was only when she saw her father, who had been extremely excited just a moment ago, suddenly fall into a deep sleep right in front of her did Sze Lingyun finally relax.

She had heard from Wu Pingting that Nangong Nuannuan's medical skills were excellent and that her acupuncture skills were remarkable. Now, seeing her work, Sze Lingyun realized that it was not just remarkable—it was simply magical!

"Nuannuan, are you planning to apply for the Chinese medicine major at the Military Medical University?"

Nangong Nuannuan smiled and, without any modesty, asked in response, "Do I still need to learn acupuncture skills?"

Wu Pingting burst out laughing. She held onto Nangong Nuannuan's arm and said, "Big Sis, you haven't heard how Nuannuan saved me yet. My grandfather told me that I wasn't even conscious for a few days. Every expert he brought in said that it would take at least several years for me to recover even just a little bit. However, Nuannuan treated me for less than an hour and completely healed me. I felt even better than before after her! Anyway, I don't remember the awful things that happened, nor do I want to think about it. In the future, if anyone despises me, I will despise them in return, and if they like me and treat me well, I will return the courteous treatment. It's not my fault that I was kidnapped and raped. If anyone dares to do such a thing to disgust me in the future, I will beat them to a pulp! Look at how optimistic I am. That's enough to prove that Nuannuan is more skillful than all those other experts combined. I think Nuannuan shouldn't attend the Military Medical University as a student but instead, as a professor!"

After walking out of the room, Chi Yang, who was about to put his arm around his wife's shoulders, saw two girls in his wife's arms—one on her left and the other on her right. His eyes dimmed slightly.

He felt like he had made the wrong decision.

He should have just taken Nuannuan to the beach.

The next day, Wu Jingzhong woke up in high spirits and went to the administrative department's office.

When his driver parked their car at the entrance of the administrative office, the 13th official of the executive hall personally came to open the door for him.

Chapter 2072: Too Serious

In the car, Wu Jingzhong had imagined many scenes of how he would confront Shi Maowen, but never in any of these scenarios did he think that Shi Maowen would lower himself so much as to open his door for him.

"Officer Shi." Wu Jingzhong stepped out of the car and nodded slightly at Shi Maowen.

Shi Maowen reached out and shook hands with Wu Jingzhong. "I'm really sorry, Officer Wu. I've let you suffer. I was entrusted by the executive hall to come here with my comrades from the Ministry of Justice to clear your name. I won't let the person who framed you get away!"

After listening to Shi Maowen's words, Wu Jingzhong knew that Officer Shi had come here personally to slit his own wrists.

Lan Weisong was a lieutenant governor, after all, but he was about to be abandoned by this officer.

Looking at Shi Maowen's apologetic and regretful face, Wu Jingzhong also gestured.

"Thank you, Officer Shi, for upholding justice for me. I can't thank you enough."

"What does Governor Wumean? As the governor of Sea District, you've worked tirelessly and made countless contributions to the district's development. It's amazing Sea District's tax revenue is now nearing to Emperor District's. Before your release, the executive hall's network was hacked into, and a video showing how you donated 2 billion to build 20 schools played for all of us. If even a good official like you can't be given justice after being wronged, wouldn't other officials be disheartened?"

Shi Maowen had an excellent tone, but he had specifically emphasized the matter of the executive hall's network being hacked.

Wu Jingzhong knew that the Shi family would definitely be angry after suffering such a huge loss.

Then again, so what if they were angry?

He already knew that Nangong Nuannuan was the chairman of the Imperial Phoenix Group and Tianheng Holdings. He also knew that Nangong Nuannuan was a hacker and most importantly, that the Shi family was wary of her.

Nangong Nuannuan was backing up the Wu family.

Wu Jingzhong was a governor, after all. He would always be courageous and bold.

Facing Shi Maowen, Wu Jingzhong smiled slightly. "Officer Shi, you're too serious. It's my honor to have you personally take charge and have the comrades from the Ministry of Justice clear my name. I believe that our comrades watching from the sidelines will be able to see that although justice may arrive late, it will never be absent. As long as you do things properly, justice will always prevail over evil."

Seeing that Wu Jingzhong was not afraid of him at all and even underhandedly ridiculed the Shi family and called them evil, Shi Maowen was infuriated. However, at this moment, he could not do anything to Wu Jingzhong.

However, his mind was made up. Even though the Shi family had lost this battle, they would win the war.

Not only had Wu Jingzhong blocked the Shi family's path, but he had also tarnished Shi Maowen's reputation. He definitely had to get revenge for this.

Nangong Nuannuan could protect the Wu family for a while, but she could not protect them forever.

Even though the Wu family was the richest family in Sea District, they were nothing compared to the Shi family.

"Governor Wu is right. Today morning, the meeting involving all the big names will be held. All the heads of Sea District's various departments will be present. After all, Governor Wu has suffered at the hands of the Ministry of Justice for the past few days. I must be responsible for restoring Governor Wu's reputation."

“Thank you, Officer Shi. Thank you.”

“No, thank you.”

Shi Maowen and Wu Jingzhong had both been involved in politics for many years. They knew very well that no matter how much hatred and anger they had in their hearts, they could not show it. Thus, the two of them behaved like old friends. They walked into the administrative department side by side with great enthusiasm.

Chapter 2073: Another Satellite

Wu Jingzhong went to work. Old Madam Zhou and Sze Lingyun had called yesterday, but she did not dare to return home. She even went to a city next to Sea District that night and booked the earliest train the next day to a city next to Emperor District.

The Wu family's life returned to peace.

Wu Pingting wanted to take Nuannuan out for a big meal to thank her. However, Sze Lingyun suggested that she should take Nangong Nuannuan to eat all kinds of delicious street snacks since it had not been easy for her to come to Sea District.

However, Wu Pingting, as the senior daughter of a rich family, usually ate the most exquisite meals. She had never eaten snacks before.

In the end, Nangong Nuannuan and Wu Pingting let Sze Lingyun be their guide. She brought them around to eat all the snacks Sea District had to offer.

As a foodie, even though Sze Lingyun did not have much money, she would work so that she had enough to browse delicious snack alleys.

She brought Nangong Nuannuan and Wu Pingting to three places in the morning and finally fulfilled Nangong Nuannuan's wish to become a veteran foodie.

As for Chi Yang, what he ate was not important to him. What mattered most was whether his wife ate well—that was what fulfilled him.

Nangong Nuannuan usually ate more than what everyone with her ate, combined. Only then would she be satisfied.

“By the way, Pingting, have you arrested Xu Yunyun yet?”

Wu Pingting, who was happily munching on a bunch of candied fruits, was rendered speechless by this question.

With her uncle being released and finding out that she had a biological sister, she had been so happy that she actually forgot about this matter!

It was not just her. Even her entire family seemed to have forgotten about this matter.

“My uncle was arrested previously, and the policemen in the east of the city are from the Xu family. So even if we know that Xu Yunyun is definitely hiding at her cousin’s place in the east of the city, we can’t arrest her.”

Sze Lingyun said, “Those policemen are really too much. However, now that my father has been restored to his post, the ones who are under arrest are Xu Binren and Lan Weisong. They wouldn’t dare to not arrest her now, right?”

“That’s for sure!” Wu Pingting said proudly, “Your father, my uncle, is really amazing! As long as you give the order, I don’t think Xu Yunyun will be able to escape!”

“Xu Binren was arrested two days ago—Xu Binyi is the only one in the Xu family holding on. Especially yesterday, with Uncle Wu being released, do you think Xu Yunyun is still around?”

Wu Pingting and Sze Lingyun’s eyes immediately turned red with anxiety.

Wu Pingting yelled gloomily, “If she runs away abroad, how am I going to bring her to justice?”

“Don’t worry, with me around, I can help you bring her back even if she runs to the ends of the Earth.” Nangong Nuannuan comforted.

“I’ll help you find out where she is.”

Nangong Nuannuan took out her phone and quickly turned it on. Soon, Xu Yunyun’s image appeared on screen. The scene’s background seemed to be the Xu family’s house. It seemed to be where Nangong Nuannuan had packed up and was about to leave after she caught Yunyun and Wu Zongxu on the phone that night.

The scene followed her movements. Even though she was constantly moving, the camera remained fixated on her. Wu Pingting asked in surprise, “Nuannuan, why is the camera always at the same distance and from a bird’s eye view? Did you hack the satellite again?”

“Yes.”

Nangong Nuannuan kept her head down and looked at her phone. She did not notice Wu Pingting and Sze Lingyun’s twitching lips.

Chapter 2074: Shameless

This kind of thing was normal for Nuannuan. After all, in the past, she would hack into satellites several times a day. However, for Wu Pingting and Sze Lingyun, having a friend who could hack a satellite at any time was very shocking.

Some time passed. Eventually, Xu Yunyun entered a very beautiful courtyard. When she saw the person who opened the door for Xu Yunyun, she slowed down the video.

After zooming in on the woman who opened the door, Nangong Nuannuan looked at Wu Pingting in surprise and asked, “Do you know who this woman is to Xu Yunyun?”

Wu Pingting nodded. “I do. That’s Xu Yunyun’s aunt, Fang Lanzhi. What’s wrong? Do you know her?”

Chi Yang was initially not very interested in this kind of low-level tracking. After all, it was nothing considering his wife's skills. Moreover, after tracking Xu Yunyun down, the worst that could happen was that he would have to go overseas to capture her. Hence, he stood to the side and allowed the three girls to get closer and whisper among themselves.

It was not until he heard Wu Pingting's question that he looked at the person on the phone screen that was zoomed in on.

Chi Yang knew this person. When he saw her, he looked at his wife immediately.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled with a hint of sarcasm.

"Back when Naboo was experiencing a rebellion, my Big Brother Chi Yang saved this woman's family. Later, when we returned, I saw that Big Brother Chi Yang and his comrades were all very tired, so I chartered a plane and prepared to bring everyone back. This woman's entire family knew that Big Brother Chi Yang wanted to return to the country, so they insisted on hopping on our plane. Brother Chi Yang agreed and let them board. Who could have known that this woman would call her entire family to follow and fully occupy the first-class cabin? She also didn't allow me to sit with Big Brother Chi Yang and insisted that her daughter sit with him instead."

Even retelling this story, Nangong Nuannuan was full of resentment. Hearing this, Chi Yang broke out into a cold sweat.

No matter how good a wife she was, she could still have been killed by Xiao Bailian.

If he could turn back time, even if he could save Su Fei instead of watching her get tricked and killed, he would never have agreed to them boarding the plane and created so much trouble for himself.

He never wanted to see this family again for the rest of his life.

Wu Pingting and Sze Lingyun's eyes widened when they heard that.

"Damn! That's ridiculous, isn't it? Big Brother Chi saved their family and kindly allowed them onto the plane, yet they still wanted to take over first-class?! You must have been there at the time, right? Didn't you tell them that Big Brother Chi was your boyfriend?"

"Big Brother Chi Yang did say that, but they said that they had never sat in economy class before, so they asked my friends and me to fly economy class instead. Their family 'had' to fly first class."

Wu Pingting was shocked by Fang Lanzhi's shamelessness.

"How can someone be so shameless? So did you let them do that? You didn't, right? Nuannuan, you had to have some self-respect and refuse, right? Big Brother Chi is a soldier and can't refuse for him." Wu Pingting's face was filled with righteous indignation, and her face was red with anger.

Sze Lingyun could not help but rub Wu Pingting's head, "Why are you so agitated? Is Nuannuan the kind of person who would let herself be bullied? Fang Lanzhi's attempt to take over the first-class cabin was probably really annoying, but I'm sure she got her punishment in the end."

"Nuannuan, how did you end up dealing with her?"

“We chased them off the plane.”

“It was that easy?” Wu Pingting asked in disbelief.

Chapter 2075: Looking For Trouble

“It was that easy. Otherwise, with so many soldiers present, how could I have killed them? I’m not that kind of person! After all, I’m still a military wife. I know what’s expected of me!”

Wu Pingting, “...”

Sze Lingyun, “...”

Chi Yang, “...”

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Chi Yang and slightly narrowed her eyes. She chuckled and asked, “Big Brother Chi Yang, why are you looking at me like that? Don’t you think that I’m a military wife who knows the responsibilities of her role?”

“You’re the most responsible, outstanding, and dutiful military wife I’ve ever seen!”

Wu Pingting inched closer to Sze Lingyun’s ear and whispered, “Big Brother Chi Yang really wants to stay alive!”

Chi Yang, “...”

Why did it feel like his illustrious reputation would one day crumble away in the eyes of Wu Pingting?

Nangong Nuannuan continued fiddling with her phone. The video showed that it was almost evening. Almost exactly 24 hours after Wu Jingzhong was released, Xu Yunyun packed up her bag and said goodbye to Mother Xu and Fang Lanzhi with tears in her eyes.

Five cars were parked at the entrance of the villa. Each car could sit five people. Su Fei, who had tried to sit next to Chi Yang before, also followed Xu Yunyun out.

She got into the car with an arrogant, cold, and calm look on her face. Xu Yunyun, who was crying, got into the car alongside her. The two of them had two bodyguards accompanying them, so including the driver, a total of five people got into the car.

Then, the five off-road cars drove to the airport. After they entered the airport, the satellite cameras could no longer track them. Nangong Nuannuan hacked the surveillance cameras in the airport and saw Xu Yunyun and Su Fei heading to the international entrance. There were 18 bodyguards following the two of them.

“S-she’s actually going abroad!?” Wu Pingting was very upset.

She looked at the time—this had happened at 9 PM. It was 10:30 AM now, so she could be anywhere by now.

Wu Pingting, "..."

"Nuannuan, are you telling me the truth?"

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Do you think I'd lie to you?"

"Do you really want to accompany me to bring her back?"

"If I don't, who will? I have nothing to do, anyway."

"But... If we go abroad to arrest someone, we need to extradite her first, right?" Sze Lingyun said, "If we go there and arrest her, whatever country we're in probably won't let us just take her and go."

Wu Pingting nodded. "That's right. And she knows she's committed a crime. The first thing she would've done is apply for international protection. If we forcefully try to bring her back, the police will certainly get in our way. The only way is to extradite her."

While Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting were talking, Nangong Nuannuan found out where Xu Yunyun was.

Seeing that Nangong Nuannuan's expression was somewhat unsettled, Sze Lingyun asked, "What happened? Where did she go?"

"Luntan," Nangong Nuannuan replied.

"Does Luntan have troublesome laws? Is extradition there very difficult?" Sze Lingyun asked, puzzled.

Wu Pingting grabbed Sze Lingyun's arm and said smugly, "There's no such thing as a troublesome law. I think Nuannuan is wondering how the Xu family could be so stupid. Which country did they send Xu Yunyun to? Luntan?! Are they looking to die?"

"What's wrong with Luntan? The government of Luntan has a good relationship with Big Brother Chi, right?"

"Big Sis, you don't know? Nuannuan isn't just the eldest daughter of the Nangong family, but also the daughter of Duke Eton of Luntan. Nuannuan's name is on the Luntan royal family tree."

Chapter 2076: All Go Together

"Huh???" Sze Lingyun looked at Nangong Nuannuan in astonishment and surprise.

"R-really?"

She already thought that the Wu family was amazing. Then there were the four top families of Emperor District.

She did not expect Nangong Nuannuan to not only be part of the highest ranking top-class wealthy families but also the princess of the Luntan royal family. Her status was simply extraordinary.

"Nuannuan, in that case, do you still want to accompany me to Luntan to arrest them?" Wu Pingting smiled at Nangong Nuannuan with a rather obsequious expression. The anticipation in her eyes was obvious.

Nangong Nuannuan could not help but smile.

Some people were annoying when they asked for help. It was clear that they wanted to take advantage of people. However, Wu Pingting asked with sincerity.

“Of course. If I didn’t, how could you extradite Xu Yunyun?”

“Yes! Yes! Of course! I need my Nuannuan to help me out! As long as you’re by my side, everything will work out! Nuannuan, not only are you my idol, but you’re also the most perfect goddess in the world!”

“You suck-up!”

Nangong Nuannuan could not help but poke Wu Pingting’s head. However, Wu Pingting still behaved like a teacher’s pet. “I didn’t know I could be a suck-up. I thought I’d never be one, but being able to be your flatterer is my honor! Other people may want to be able to do what I do, but they can’t! They can only envy me! Right?”

Nangong Nuannuan was speechless.

“I want to go to Luntan too!” Sze Lingyun said meekly.

She had never been abroad nor had she ever dreamed of it. Not that would she be of much help there—in fact, she might even be a hindrance—but thinking about how Xu Yunyun had hurt Wu Pingting and all the horrific things that had happened, she wanted to accompany Wu Pingting to seek justice.

“Nuannuan, can my sister come with us?”

Nangong Nuannuan was very confused as to why Wu Pingting would ask such a question. She replied, “Of course! This is something that the three of us have talked about together. Of course we’ll all go together!”

“That’s great! When are we leaving? I’ll go see my father and ask for dozens of bodyguards. Let’s see who has more people!”

Nangong Nuannuan could not help but poke Wu Pingting’s head again.

“You’re visiting my territory. Why would you need to bring people? I’m a member of the royal family, after all. How incompetent do you think the Luntan royal family is?”

“Oh, I’m so sorry! Let’s go eat something delicious. Today, we’ll let my Big Sis take us around Sea District to eat all the snacks we can. We’ll leave tomorrow.”

“Okay.”

In the administrative department, after Shi Maowen announced in front of everyone that Wu Jingzhong was innocent, Wu Jingzhong threw himself into his work. Shi Maowen was personally in charge of the cases of Lan Weisong and Xu Binren.

The administrative department had suddenly lost two governors, heightening the pressure on Wu Jingzhong. To find some successors, he had to promote two staff members of the administrative department to become deputy governors.

Wu Jingzhong had always wanted to promote Yin Li. Initially, with Yin Li's background and qualifications, his chances of rising through the ranks were very slim. However, there were now two vacant positions.

There were eight deputy governors. Now that two were gone, many more people had a good shot at the positions.

Chapter 2077: Cat and Mouse Game

As a result, the director of the Education Ministry, Yin Li, and the head of the Ministry of Development and Reform, who had always had a good reputation, were written into Wu Jingzhong's promotion report.

Sea District belonged to the city directly under the executive hall, so the governor and deputy governor of Sea District were directly appointed by them. However, the executive hall was far away in Emperor District and did not have an in-depth understanding of the deputy positions in each city they were responsible for. Therefore, the executive hall was usually only responsible for approving people to be put into certain positions, while the people were nominated by those in main positions. As long as it was not an obviously bad choice, the executive hall would usually approve these people.

The Shi family had finally gained a basic grasp of the situation in Sea District after much difficulty. Now that Lan Weisong had fallen, they temporarily had no grasp on a slice of the pie as big as Sea District.

Originally, when Shi Maowen joined the executive hall, it was just the two of them. He had already secretly made an appointment with Wu Jingzhong to treat him to dinner in the evening to make amends for his treatment. Wu Jingzhong very happily agreed to it, so Shi Maowen felt like he was on the right track.

Shi Maowen deliberately did not eat lunch in the afternoon. He wanted to act as if he had forgotten to eat and sleep because of work. He wanted to use his own hard work to show everyone that the Shi family was still doing fine, or at least, that he was.

Who knew that when he left the interrogation room in the afternoon and ran over to show concern for Wu Jingzhong, wanting to get close to him so that he could speak to him at night, he realized that Wu Jingzhong had already typed up his recommendation report for the job vacancies that very morning.

Wu Jingzhong was not in the executive hall, but if he typed up a report, as long as the 12th official agreed and made a recommendation to the president, the matter would be settled.

The president's treatment of the 12th official was obviously more favorable than to the 13th. Usually, even if Shi Maowen was around and many of the vice presidents were on his side, the president would more often adopt the 12th official's opinions and recommendations... not to mention when Shi Maowen was not around.

Shi Maowen's expression was very ugly.

He had wanted to parachute in another lieutenant governor from the executive hall. Even if he was ranked at the bottom and had the lowest rank, there would at least be someone to read his votes for him during the presidential election in the future.

Who could have guessed that Wu Jingzhong could be so ruthless? In just one morning, he had already typed up the report.

After Shi Maowen found out, he immediately called a vice president who had a very good relationship with the Shi family. However, there was no signal on his cell phone, so the call did not go through.

Thinking that today was Wednesday, which was when the executive hall's biggest weekly meeting would be held, and that the issue of the job vacancies would be resolved at this meeting, Shi Maowen was as anxious as an ant in a hot pot. He immediately called the vice president's secretary.

He was told the meeting had already started a long time ago, and that the issue of transferring someone to the positions had been the first thing on the agenda. Even if he went to look for the vice president now, it would be useless.

Shi Maowen slumped in his seat. The anger and hatred in his heart threatened to overflow.

Suddenly, someone knocked on the door. Shi Maowen filed away the malicious look in his eyes and called out for them to come in. A secretary pushed the door open and came in.

The secretary was holding a very beautiful fruit plate. After seeing Shi Maowen, he said very respectfully, "Officer Shi, our governor asked me to deliver this fruit to you. He asked me to inform you that if you need anything, you can just tell him."

Tell him?

What could Shi Maowen possibly tell him? The governor had already done the most important thing in the world in advance, so what else could he tell him?

How detestable!

Shi Maowen said with a smile, "Governor Wu is too polite. He even specially asked someone to prepare me fruit."

Chapter 2078: Yelled at the Air

"The Shi family hurt him, so I should be the one sending him favors. Why did he specially bring me fruits?"

"Our governor said that you were going to treat him to dinner tonight, and he felt bad, so he brought you a fruit plate."

Shi Maowen, "..."

Had Wu Jingzhong seen through his offer of a meal?

They had a fraught past. Even if they used to be friends, it would be difficult for them to be civil now.

Even though Wu Jingzhong had agreed to have dinner with him tonight, he had made it clear through his actions that he was not willing to make amends with the Shi family.

Shi Maowen's eyes were filled with annoyance, but he said with a smile on his face, "Okay, okay, okay. Thank you, thank you! Tell Governor Wu that I've received his lovely gift. Oh, right. I'll have to trouble you to inform Governor Wu of something else. I still have to follow up on the trial here, so I might not be free for dinner tonight like I originally promised. I'll ask him out another day."

"Oh, okay. I'll pass your message to the governor when I get back."

After the secretary left, he immediately relayed Shi Maowen's words to Wu Jingzhong. The secretary wanted to ask whether this meant that a huge war was coming, but he could not bring himself to.

If he was thinking about it, the governor had definitely already thought of it and made several plans A, B, and C.

The governor knew his limits. Since he was doing this so ruthlessly, he probably had a plan in mind.

When Wu Jingzhong returned to the administrative department, the first thing he did was to confirm the lieutenant governor's name list before Shi Maowen came looking for him. Then, it came time to deal with the matter of Wu Pingting.

Wu Pingting had been raped according to orders from the Xu family. After he was taken away for investigation, the police in the Eastern Area saw that the Wu family was no longer in power, so in order to not offend the Wu family, they actually covered up this matter.

Now that Xu Binren had been arrested and he was released, Wu Jingzhong called the police chief of Dongcheng District.

The police chief, Wu Yi, had been in a terrible mood since last night.

Lan Weisong was doomed. Whether it was the Wu family or the Xu family opposing him, once this matter was confirmed, there was no chance for them to turn the tables for him. When Wu Jingzhong was under arrest and Xu Binren was walking free, the Wu family had asked him to arrest him, but he had not done so.

Moreover, Xu Yunyun had just left at that time. If he chased her with his car, he would have been able to catch her. However, he had not chased her.

Yesterday, when Wu Jingzhong was released, the police chief was scared out of his wits. He immediately asked his subordinates to investigate Xu Yunyun's situation. He was troubled to learn that Xu Yunyun had already fled to Luntan.

He was scared to death and did not know what to do. Suddenly, Wu Jingzhong called.

He was calling from his office phone. The governor's phone number was in his internal phone book, so that was how he knew. Even though Wu Yi had never had the courage to call this number, he knew it by heart.

Wu Yi felt like his heart was about to jump out of his chest. When he picked up the phone, he yelled at the air with a sense of righteousness, "No matter what, we must find Xu Yunyun! No matter what!!!"

After he finished shouting, he said, "Hello?" and asked, "Who is it?"

...Wu Jingzhong had thought these people could not sink any lower.

Chapter 2079: Green Intestines

Wu Jingzhong did not want to listen to all these empty words. He straightforwardly asked, "When Xu Yunyun was right in front of you, you didn't arrest her. Now that I'm out, you want to dig a hole three feet deeper for yourself. Chief Wu, what have you been doing?"

Hearing Wu Jingzhong's voice go so cold that it could freeze water over, Wu Yi's legs turned to jelly. He pretended to ask carefully, "A-are You Governor Wu?"

"So Chief Wu doesn't even know my office's phone number. I thought that all the department heads in the city knew my office number."

Wu Yi looked regretful as he scratched his head dejectedly. He knew that if he continued to pretend, he would only be slapped in the face later on. "Governor Wu, this is my fault. Back then, when you were taken away for investigation, the Wu family accused the Xu family of hiring assassins to kidnap Miss Wu. I thought... I thought it was just a civil war between two big families, so I didn't dare to get involved."

"Oh, so before this, when I was arrested and Xu Binren was not, you were on his side and let Xu Yunyun go. Now that Xu Binren has been arrested and I've been released, you're trying to get into my good books now and dig yourself three feet into the ground promising me that you'll find Xu Yunyun. Is that the case?"

"Governor, o-of course not."

"Really? Then tell me why when my family had solid evidence and we called the police, you guys didn't believe us and let Xu Yunyun go free. That was all an accident?"

"I-I... Governor, I didn't arrest Xu Yunyun at the time because of her identity, I wanted to wait until there was more evidence before arresting her. I didn't let her go on account of Governor Xu."

"Enough. There's no need to say any more. This is some serious inaction."

Upon hearing the word 'inaction', Wu Yi was so scared that he peed his pants. He still wanted to explain, but Wu Jingzhong said, "Director Wu, I need to solve this matter immediately. You've already let Xu Yunyun run free for far too long. I demand that you arrest her immediately!"

Wu Yi wanted to cry, he trembled and said, "Governor, I- I want to arrest her too! But you also know that the Xu family has people in the underworld. They've covered Xu Yunyun's tracks. By the time our people started chasing her, she had already boarded a plane to Luntan. Governor Wu, why don't... you apply for extradition. Why don't we..."

Wu Yi wanted to say something else, but Wu Jingzhong had already hung up.

Wu Yi stared blankly at the phone call that had just ended. He knew that he was definitely done for.

Governor Wu had never used his identity to get at people. but he had always abhorred evil. Furthermore, the person who had been wronged was his niece, and he was not the kind of fool who would let others go just to prove his benevolence.

Quite on the contrary, Governor Wu was going to use this *sshole as an example of why no one should ever wrong his family.

In less than an hour, Wu Yi received a call from a comrade from the Ministry of Justice.

He was so regretful that his intestines had turned green.

If he had known this would happen, he would have already brought people to storm the Xu family. He would have detained Xu Yunyun directly.

At most, he could have detained her and not tried her yet. He could have delayed this case.

Why had he let Xu Yunyun go just to make the Xu family happy?

Chapter 2080: Too Busy Celebrating

The Xu family did not even thank Wu Yi at the time for his help!

He had used his own future to pave the way for others' continued power.

Even though Wu Yi had received the punishment he deserved, Xu Yunyun had already fled abroad. The Ministry of Justice would have to approve any extradition application, and the Public Security Bureau would have to contact Luntan. The embassy would then have to step in and get the consent of the other party before extradition could be granted.

The Xu family was not foolish. Xu Yunyun had fled to Luntan, which meant that they had to have some power in Luntan.

Xu Yunyun had not committed any major crime, nor was she on an international blacklist. Once she found a backer and sought asylum, the Wu family could run to the judicial court to apply for an extradition order and go to Luntan with great effort and money, but in the end, they might not be able to bring Xu Yunyun back. The Wu family would suffer a great loss.

Therefore, before he applied for an extradition order, he had to find out what trump cards the Xu family had in Luntan.

Thinking of this, Wu Jingzhong immediately sent some people to investigate thoroughly.

After Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting accompanied Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang to eat outside the entire day, the four of them finally returned to the Wu family residence before dinner.

When the group of people returned, they happened to see Wu Jingzhong coming back from work. When Sze Lingyun saw Wu Jingzhong's car, her eyes lit up instantly and she immediately ran over.

Seeing his daughter so happy, Wu Jingzhong immediately got out of the car.

"Dad, you're back! Are you tired?"

“Uncle, you’re back! Are you tired?”

Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting were like two caring little fur-padded jackets wrapping around him, leaving Wu Jingzhong’s heart extremely soft.

He was so happy to be reunited with them. However, thinking about how his Pingting might not be able to get revenge for the rest of her life, or even just for a short period of time, Wu Jingzhong’s heart was tormented.

“Dad, what happened to you? Did something bad happen to you?”

Sze Lingyun was a girl who had lacked love ever since she was young, so when it came to relationships, she was quite sensitive. The moment Wu Jingzhong’s aura quieted down, she sensed that something was wrong.

Elder Wu heard the voices of a few girls and knew that Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang had returned. He immediately came out to welcome them.

Who could have guessed that he would hear Sze Lingyun’s question as soon as he came out?

“Jingzhong, what’s wrong? What happened?”

After all, Lan Weisong had just been handled, and now Shi Maowen was trying to gain power. Elder Wu was afraid that something bad would happen again.

Wu Jingzhong looked at Wu Pingting. His voice was filled with guilt.

“Something not too great.”

“What’s wrong?” the members of the Wu family asked in unison.

“Previously, when I was taken away for investigation, Wu Yi from the Eastern Area thought that I would never get out. He thought that Xu Binren would take over my position, so when you guys called the police and asked them to arrest Xu Yunyun, they didn’t. They even almost sued us for gathering people to cause trouble.”

Elder Wu’s face darkened as he said this.

“That Wu Yi from Eastern District is indeed a villain who just goes with whoever is the most powerful at the time.”

“At the time, they let Xu Yunyun walk freely. After I was released yesterday, we were busy celebrating that Lil Yun had returned to our family that we forgot to arrest Xu Yunyun. In the end, when I got some people to try to arrest Xu Yunyun today, I discovered that the black-hearted girl had already fled to Luntan. If we want to bring her back, we have to extradite her.”

“Then extradite her. No matter what, we cannot let the crime that happened to Pingting go unpunished! If their family dares to condone their daughter’s actions, they should have the courage to bear the consequences. Our family is in the right here. If we don’t dare to go anywhere, we can make sense of it.”
