

Physician Wife 2081

Chapter 2081: I Am Royalty

Wu Pingting was touched by Elder Wu's words.

As long as her family was together, she would be happy. As for everything else... Well, it would never be too late for a gentlelady to get her revenge—after meeting Nuannuan, of course.

Wu Pingting was about to say that Nuannuan had already promised to take her to Luntan and that they had even bought the plane tickets for tomorrow morning already, but Wu Jingzhong said, "I'm going to apply for extradition. I checked the Xu family's background in Luntan and found out that Xu Yunyun's aunt, Fang Lanzhi, has a biological sister named Fang Lanxin. Fang Lanzhi married into Luntan more than 20 years ago. Her husband's name is Kerlow Shiply. Even though he's only the chairman of some corporation and isn't half as good as the Xu family, he has a powerful background."

Just as Wu Jingzhong was about to continue, Nangong Nuannuan spoke up.

"Kerlow Shipley is a daddy's boy. All his achievements to this day are all thanks to his father Adrian and brother Adolf. The Shipley family is a hereditary aristocratic family in Luntan. But there are too many aristocrats in Luntan now, so to maintain the noble lineage of the aristocrats, every family chooses their two most outstanding children to inherit their fortune. Adrian only had two sons. Even though the youngest son, Kerlow, could not take on this role, the eldest son, Adolf, was not bad. Therefore, Adolf was selected as the heir of the Shipley family many years ago. Adrian was a marquis. Now his eldest son, Adolf, is a viscount. If Adolf can do well, he'll easily inherit Adrian's title and become a marquis after Adrian passes away. But if he can't make any contribution to the royal family of Lenten, he can only become an earl at most. Therefore, in Luntan, even if the title of nobility was hereditary, if you can't contribute to the royal family, your title of nobility will become more and more abject with each change of power. But the current Shipley family can indeed be considered as the top nobles of Luntan."

In Luntan, the ranks of nobles ranged from very high to very low. There was Duke, Marquis, Count, Viscount, and Baron. For example, Nuannuan was the daughter of Duke Eton. There were only four dukes and 31 marquises in Luntan. It could be seen just how high the Shipley family prestige was.

After hearing about Xu Yunyun's backer, Wu Pingting's entire being instantly soured.

However, Wu Jingzhong's expression was the exact opposite of Wu Pingting's.

It was only after hearing Nangong Nuannuan's words that he remembered that she was Duke Eton's daughter.

It was just that... He did not know if Nuannuan would be going there for Pingting's sake to have Luntan extradite Xu Yunyun.

Wu Pingting pouted and complained. "What? Why is Xu Yunyun's life so good? Her aunt's biological sister is actually the daughter-in-law of the Shipley family, and she's even a top noble... Nuannuan, is the Shipley family considered a top family? Then what's your family?"

Nuannuan looked at her resentful eyes and chuckled. "I'm a member of the royal family."

Wu Pingting, "..."

Sze Lingyun, "..."

What an awesome story!

Wu Pingting's eyes lit up again. "T-then we can stick to our original plan, right?"

Nuannuan nodded. "Of course. We've already bought the tickets. Even though we're not short of money, it's still a first-class ticket and can not be refunded."

Chapter 2082: Getting More and More Jealous

"We can be extravagant, but we shouldn't waste money. Even if it's just for the sake of the already-bought tickets, we should still make a trip to Luntan, shouldn't we?"

"Long live Nuannuan!"

Wu Pingting was overjoyed. She jumped into Nuannuan's arms and wrapped her arms around her neck.

Chi Yang's gaze immediately froze over. Even though there was no expression on his face, the disdain in the depths of his eyes was noticed by Elder Wu and Wu Jingzhong.

The two of them wanted to tell Wu Pingting not to hug Nuannuan like that and quickly let go of her. They did not know that Nuannuan's boyfriend had the strength to support his girlfriend's waist with just one hand and pull her away, while his other hand could still rub the top of her head.

His every move was that of a man who doted on his wife. Sze Lingyun almost wanted to hug Nuannuan to get closer to his aura.

Chi Yang could not stand it anymore.

He felt like he had to be wary of not only men but of women too.

He walked to Nuannuan's side and reached out to hug her shoulders. Nuannuan fell into his arms.

Wu Pingting saw that Nuannuan was about to fall, and into an icy pit, no less! She was so scared that she quickly jumped out of Nuannuan's arms. She looked at Nuannuan, who was already in Chi Yang's arms, with a blank look on her face.

"We're leaving tomorrow. Shall we go back and pack our luggage?"

As they spoke, Chi Yang's hand, which was holding Nuannuan's shoulder, moved to her waist. Nuannuan was wearing a sleeveless, ultra-thin, close-fitting knitted sweater today. The sweater was loosely tucked into her pants. It was a casual yet charming outfit.

Chi Yang's hand happened to slip under her sweater at the back, where it was not tucked into her pants. He caressed Nuannuan's slender and smooth waist.

As he faced the Wu family, his hand caressed Nuannuan's waist behind her back. No one could see it. Only Nuannuan could not help but tremble slightly from the provocation of Chi Yang's slightly calloused hand.

She knew that these two parties were at odds.

She had spent all day with Wu Pingting and Sze Lingyun. Big Brother Chi Yang thought that the two of them had taken up a lot of his time today. If she did not go back to their villa to spend some time with him now, Big Brother Chi Yang would definitely cause some trouble in Luntan.

To ensure that Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting would have a good time in Luntan, Nuannuan nodded. "Mhm, okay. Big Brother Chi Yang and I will head back and pack."

The Wu family, "..."

"Nuannuan, when you came here, you only brought a box. You haven't bought anything here, so what's there to prepare? You can prepare later tonight. It's almost time for dinner."

"No, no dinner for us. We've spent all day stuffing ourselves." Nuannuan stood beside Chi Yang as she fought for her life.

Wu Pingting wanted to say something, but Wu Jingzhong already said, "Then go back, pack your things, and rest for a while. I'll get them to send some food over when the kitchen is done with our dishes."

Chi Yang was very satisfied with Wu Jingzhong's reaction. He nodded and said, "Okay."

After returning to the side villa where they lived, Chi Yang picked up his little wife and walked to the third floor.

Nuannuan hugged his neck and nestled into his arms like a kitten.

Looking at Big Brother Chi Yang's dark expression, Nuannuan smiled and bit his sensitive earlobe. "Big Brother Chi Yang, do you realize that you're becoming more and more jealous now? In the past, you weren't even jealous of Feng Shengxuan. Now, you're jealous of the mere Wu Pingting."

Chapter 2083: Not a Chatterbox

"Even though Feng Shengxuan is annoying, he raised you for so many years and never took a bite out of you. He won't try it now. And once you get to know him, you find out that he actually like Bai Liyue. Since he likes someone else, there's no need for me to be jealous of him."

"But Wu Pingting, Sze Lingyun, and Selina are all people who want to take up your time. The two of us don't have much time together to begin with. It's not easy for us to find time to be together, and when we do find it, there's always some pests looking for you."

Nangong Nuannuan snickered and said, "If Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting ever found out that their Big Brother Chi, the stone-cold murderer, could be so whiny in private, your reputation would be completely done for."

"How would that be possible? I only talk this much in front of you."

"Yeah, it's not that you don't talk much. You just don't talk much in front of others, so you give off a cold and serious aura. Big Brother Chi Yang, you should talk more to other people."

"Well, of course. I only like talking to you. Whether others think I'm serious or cold doesn't affect me at all. I don't care what others think. I only care about what you think."

Nuannuan was very happy that Chi Yang could say that, but...

After such a talk, was it really appropriate for him to rush right ahead?

Was there no need for foreplay now that he had bared his soul?

Nuannuan, who was suddenly being ravished, threw her clothes to the floor. She did not even know that they were starting yet.

At six o'clock the next morning, they naturally woke up.

If one were to ask Nuannuan what the three things she was most satisfied with in her life, she would probably say that the three things were that she and Big Brother Chi Yang were very in love, that she and Big Brother Chi Yang had a great relationship, and that she and Big Brother Chi Yang woke up at the same time every day.

After washing up, Chi Yang brought Nuannuan downstairs to the main building for dinner.

Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting were both very excited. They had woken up early, or rather, the two of them had not slept at all last night. Today, they were up before dawn. They ate breakfast earlier so they could talk more.

Wu Jingzhong and Wu Jingcheng were old, so they woke up at six o'clock in the morning too. Even though the both of them usually only woke up at eight o'clock, their daughters were leaving on a long trip today with no family to accompany them, so the hearts of these two men were flustered.

Wu Pingting's mother, Zhu Tangya, was the director of Sea District's Ministry of Commerce. After Wu Jingzhong's accident, she immediately went to the executive hall to ask the 12th official for help. Now that Wu Jingzhong had been released in a high-profile manner, Sea District's personnel transfer problem had been resolved. She returned to Sea District last night.

She had heard that Xu Yunyun and Wu Zongxu had joined hands to hurt her daughter. She also heard that Xu Yunyun had already fled to Luntan. Nangong Nuannuan wanted to bring her daughter to seek justice. Initially, Wu Jingcheng was very hesitant. He was afraid that his daughter would suffer if she traveled, but Zhu Tangya thought it was an amazing idea.

Wu Jingcheng was a slave to his wife. He would do whatever his wife said and never refute her, so the matter of Wu Pingting wanting to go to Luntan was approved by both her parents in no time.

As for Wu Jingzhong, he knew that his daughter wanted to go, and he had never been there before. He agreed without any hesitation. He then quietly transferred 20 of the Wu family's top bodyguards to protect his daughter.

Chapter 2084: Can I Take Photos?

Sze Lingyun never had the chance to travel or go abroad in her life to broaden her horizons. She was going to Luntan soon, and she was going with the Duke of Luntan's daughter. She was extremely happy.

Wu Pingting thought that she would be able to kill Xu Yunyun soon... No, she would arrest Xu Yunyun soon herself! She thought about that black-hearted wolf in sheep's clothing that she had seen her as her best friend for years. She had done something so evil to Wu Pingting that she wished that she could just kick Xu Yunyun to the ground and stomp on her face.

The two girls were extremely excited. Seeing them so excited, the Wu family members got excited too.

Only Wu Zongyang had an expression full of resentment.

Ever since he found out yesterday evening that the two girls were going to Luntan to settle the score with Xu Yunyun, he felt like he was unfavored in this family. When they bought the plane tickets, they had not thought about including him.

He also wanted to see Xu Yunyun get slapped in the face.

Most importantly, knowing that Nangong Nuannuan was a member of the royal family of Luntan, he really wanted to go to the royal palace of Luntan and take a few photos so he could brag to his buddies when he came back.

Therefore, when Nangong Nuannuan and Chi Yang went to the main building for breakfast, they saw two excited girls, a group of worried elders, and a resentful Wu Zongyang.

Nangong Nuannuan asked Wu Zongyang what was wrong, but he was too embarrassed to tell her. Wu Pingting thought she had let her brother down, so she started scolding Wu Zongyang for not speaking up. She told Nuannuan on his behalf.

Nuannuan immediately called and booked another plane ticket.

Wu Zongyang was overjoyed when he heard that the plane ticket was successfully booked.

"Nuannuan, you're part of the royal family of Luntan. Will you go to the royal palace when we arrive?"

"Yep."

"Then... can the three of us follow you?"

"You're my friends, so of course!"

Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting did not think too much of it. They were so excited when they heard the conversation between Wu Zongyang and Nangong Nuannuan.

The royal family of Luntan had always been very attractive to the girls. They were mysterious, noble, and beautiful. They were like pages out of a fairytale. They imagined the family to act like the family out of a fairytale as well.

The royal family of Luntan once allowed their prince to meet and get to know commoner girls, before deciding on one to marry.

The wedding was celebrated throughout the country. The prince rode in with a white horse to welcome his beautiful princess. The princess was a nobody and even a bullying victim, but with the prince's love, she became the most beautiful woman in the world.

Under the envious gazes of women all over the world, she got into a beautiful carriage. The white horse that had undergone strict training followed the hard and handsome knights, and under their protection, entered the ancient religious palace. Only was the grand and elegant wedding completed.

The story of Cinderella originated from Luntan. There, all the girls dreamed about living Cinderella's life.

Even though Sze Lingyun and Wu Pingting were not Cinderella but the daughters of the richest family in Sea District, this kind of fairytale was engraved into every living girl's bones. It made them yearn to enter the royal palace of Luntan.

"W-when we get to the royal palace, can I take a photo?"

Wu Zongyang had wanted to ask that, but Wu Pingting got to it first.

Nangong Nuannuan smiled. "Of course. If you like it so much, when we get to Luntan, we won't stay in my manor outside. I'll let us stay in the royal palace."

Chapter 2085: Her Return

The stars in Wu Pingting's eyes solidified and fell out of her eyes. "We can stay in the palace?"

Nuannuan nodded. "Of course. My godfather is Duke Eton, the younger brother of the Empress. He has a palace of his own in the palace. If Selina and I go to Luntan's royal palace, we usually stay there. But Selina and I don't like the palace. We both like living in the manor outside. It's more comfortable."

"Wow! Great! I want to apply to stay in the palace for one night! I want to experience what it feels like to be a princess in the palace."

Wu Pingting, who was originally going to Luntan to capture people, immediately put her main task of capturing people at the back when she heard that she could enter the palace.

Under the constant exhortations of the Wu family, the group went to the airport. When they were already there, Wu Zongyang slapped his thigh and shouted in annoyance, "Oh no!"

"What's wrong?" Wu Pingting asked nervously.

Wu Zongyang was in a bad mood. He said in a daze, "I forgot to apply for a visa."

He usually asked his subordinates to help him get a visa before he left the country. The Wu family had their own way of getting a visa. Usually, they could get one in a very short time, but they still required one.

He had just mentioned that he was going to Luntan in the morning. Then, he took his passport and bank card and left. He didn't even have time to pack his things. He wanted to buy them again after he went to Luntan.

In the end, he only remembered that he didn't get a visa when he arrived at the airport.

She stared blankly at Wu Zongyang. Wu Pingting was also in a bad mood.

"It's over. Nuannuan said yesterday that she wanted to go to Luntan, so we booked the plane tickets. In the end, we forgot to apply for a visa."

Wu Zongyang, "..."

Sze Lingyun, "..."

Wu Pingting, "..."

Chi Yang looked at the appearance of this family and said, "Follow me. I have a special pass. You can sign on the ground after you go there."

Three pairs of eyes lit up.

Just as they were about to say something, Nuannuan said, "Do you need a visa to follow me to Luntan?"

Wu Zongyang, "..."

Sze Lingyun, "..."

Wu Pingting, "..."

Chi Yang, "..."

"As expected, my great Nuannuan is the best!" Wu Pingting was so excited that she threw herself at Nuannuan. However, Chi Yang gently pulled Nuannuan into his arms, and Wu Pingting missed her.

Knowing that Big Brother Chi was very stingy, Wu Pingting pursed her lips and did not snatch her away from him. She was a little girl and could not snatch a woman away from this man.

* * *

The plane flew at 8:30 AM. It was already past 9 PM when they arrived in Luntan's City L. After the plane landed, the first-class passengers got off first.

After getting off the plane, the first-class cars were already waiting below. Every car was a small car with 10 seats. Because it was a double-decker plane, there were more than 50 first-class passengers. Therefore, the airport had sent six cars over so that everyone could sit comfortably.

Wu Pingting thought that they would also sit in this car. She pulled her suitcase and prepared to go over.

"Pingting, where are you going?"

"I'm taking a car!"

"Our car isn't here."

Following Nangong Nuannuan's words, many of the first-class passengers turned to look at Nangong Nuannuan. As Nangong Nuannuan gave Wu Pingting a look, Wu Pingting saw the extended Phantom Rolls-Royce.

The car door had already been opened. Beside the car stood six slim and tall men in black suits and Bluetooth earphones.

In addition to the extended Rolls-Royce, there were five Land Rovers around, and it was impossible to see how many people were in the car.

Chapter 2086: Love Comes Fast

When they saw Nangong Nuannuan and her entourage, a man in his forties, who was wearing a custom-made Luntanese suit and a pocket watch on his chest and looked like a high-class private butler, walked up to them.

When the butler walked to the first Land Rover, five men in suits came down from the Land Rover and followed behind the butler.

The butler walked in front of Nangong Nuannuan and bowed respectfully to her. "Young miss, Young Master-in-law, Welcome home."

Even though the butler had a thick accent, Wu Zongyang, Shi Lingyun, and Wu Pingting could understand it. Even many of the first-class passengers who were looking at them could understand it. Everyone was instantly stunned.

On one hand, they were surprised at the identity of this group of people. They could leave the international airport without even passing the security check. On the other hand, they thought that this group of people, whether they were butlers or bodyguards, were all authentic Luntan people. Each of them was wearing a high-priced suit. They must be from a wealthy or noble family in Luntan. Why did the young lady and young master he greeted have such oriental faces?

Wu Pingting looked at the 190cm tall bodyguards, and her mouth fell into the shape of an O.

No wonder Uncle had not sent the 20 bodyguards Nuannuan prepared for them. He said it was unnecessary. It turned out that Nuannuan's bodyguards were this powerful!

They were definitely the royal bodyguards. They were simply too awesome!

Wu Pingting looked at the 190-year-old foreign brothers, her eyes shining.

"Charles, these three are my friends, Wu Zongyang, Sze Lingyun, and Wu Pingting."

"Hello, Young Master Wu. Hello, Miss Sze. Hello, Miss Wu."

Nuannuan introduced to the three of them, "This is the Duke's head butler, Charles."

"Hello, Mr. Charles!"

No wonder he looked so powerful. It turned out that he was the head butler of the duke's residence.

“Young Miss, Young Master-in-law, distinguished guests, please get in the car.”

A few bodyguards received everyone’s luggage. After they got in the car, they did not need to go through customs and security checks before they left in the car.

“Charles, how has my father been doing recently?” Nangong Nuannuan asked.

“The Duke has been doing very well recently. He’s very happy to know that the young miss and young master-in-law are coming back. Originally, the Duke wanted to personally come and fetch the young miss home tonight, but Miss Emily’s stomach wasn’t feeling well, so he couldn’t come. But he has ordered me to clean out some bedrooms for you all.”

Nangong Nuannuan was startled. “Emily? Who’s that?”

Charais was startled. Only then did he remember that the Duke had yet to formally introduce Miss Emily to Nangong Nuannuan. He said, “The Duke hasn’t had the chance to tell you, but I can tell you now. This miss Emily looked very similar to the Duke’s late wife, so the Duke liked her. But this Miss Emily isn’t a noble. She’s an unfavored daughter from an ordinary family. She’s 22 years old and just graduated from college. She was very nervous when she heard that you were coming back.”

Nangong Nuannuan raised her eyebrows and smiled. “She doesn’t want to live with me, nor does she want to go on blind dates with me. What’s there to be nervous about?”

“It’s because Duke Eton treats you and the eldest miss very well. He even said that if she wants to marry him, she has to pass the test here. He’s afraid that you won’t like her, so she won’t be able to continue her relationship with Duke Eton. Knowing that you were coming back, she was so nervous that she did not sleep last night. Today, her stomach hurt.”

Chapter 2087: A Mother’s Worth

“Is she on her period?”

“It’s not her period! Cough cough...” The old butler felt that he was being a little unprofessional in front of the young lady’s friends. He coughed twice and glanced at Wu Pingting and the rest. After getting a signal from Nangong nuannuan, he said, “She’s pregnant.”

“The last time my father went to Jiang District to participate in the auction, he didn’t even have a girlfriend. It’s only been half a year. Not only did he fall in love, but he’s also gotten that woman pregnant?”

“Yeah. Sometimes love comes too fast, like a tornado.”

Nuannuan said, “Charles, you must have heard too many songs from a certain singer in Camino, right?”

Chalais chuckled. “But his songs are really good!”

“Alright. It’s good that you like his stuff.”

Wu Pingting listened to the elegant butler and Nangong Nuannuan’s conversation and laughed so hard that she couldn’t straighten her back.

“Uncle Butler, you said that Emily has to pass Nuannuan’s test, but she’s already pregnant now, so there’s no need to be afraid of passing it! Why would she still be so worried that her stomach hurts?”

Charles said, “Because the opinions of our young miss and young miss are very important. But the duke also said that, after all, she’s already pregnant, so he gave Emily a deal. Originally, he needed both young miss and young miss to agree before he would marry her, but now he’s giving a 50% discount, as long as one of them agrees.”

Wu Pingting, Sze Lingyun, and Wu Zongyang widened their eyes.

“This... how can there be a discount for such a thing? It’s still a 50% discount...” Wu Pingting looked at Nangong Nuannuan and said, “It seems to be a good deal.”

Wu Zongyang could help but gently pinch his sister’s waist.

After all, this was Luntan, and she was talking about the royal family.

However, Nuannuan gave Wu Pingting face, she nodded and said, “It sounds like a good deal, but Selina listens to me, so this is actually the same as no discount. How did he come up with this idea? I think he doesn’t like this Emily very much and wants to break up with her, so he’s so bad that he asked me to do it, right?”

Uh...

Wu Pingting, Sze Lingyun, and Wu Zongyang all touched their noses a little awkwardly.

Duke Eton was a duke, after all! The Empress’s younger brother! Duke Eton loved her so much. Did she not feel pain in your conscience criticizing him as a scumbag father?

Charles seemed to have already gotten used to the way this father and daughter got along. He did not say anything in surprise. “Originally, the Duke had a good impression of Miss Emily. If she wasn’t pregnant, he would still like Miss Emily very much. But...”

The Butler glanced at Nangong Nuannuan again. Nangong Nuannuan said, “Say it. We’re all on the same side.”

“But the Duke clearly took precautions. Miss Emily is still pregnant. That’s a little hard for the Duke to accept.”

“So now she wants to marry my father because of her son?”

The butler shook his head. “That’s not true. The Duke told her that he was not ready to remarry, but Miss Emily said that it did not matter. She knew that the royal bloodline was very important, so she intended to raise the child outside. She said that she loved the duke, not his reputation, status, and money.”

“Hehe.”

Charles asked in confusion, “Miss, why are you laughing at me? When I praised Miss Emily, the duke also laughed at me.”

Chapter 2088: Silly and Sweet Man

Nangong Nuannuan looked at Charles, who was looking for advice, and said earnestly, "Charles, I think it's actually quite good that you're staying in our house as a butler. After all, you're very considerate and meticulous in your work. Because of you, the Duke's mansion is able to be maintained."

Hearing Nangong Nuannuan's praise, Charles revealed a handsome and warm smile. However, in the next moment, Nangong Nuannuan broke his heart and said, "If you didn't have this job, being the silly and sweet person you are, you'd obviously be cheated to death by a woman. There'd be one less outstanding butler in the world."

"Pfft, hahahaha..." Wu Pingting could not hold it in anymore. She could not care less about the fact that she wanted to leave a good impression on the royal family and present herself as the daughter of an elegant and wealthy family. She immediately burst out laughing.

Charles, "..."

Looking at the people who were all laughing at him except for the young master-in-law, Charles was dumbfounded.

!!

"Miss Wu, I really think that Miss Emily is quite good. If it were any other woman, once she fell pregnant with the Duke's child, wouldn't she immediately tell Her Majesty the Empress about this matter and beg Her Majesty the Empress to stand up for her? It's known that Her Majesty the Empress loves our Duke the most. She's been urging the duke to remarry and add another child to the royal family, but the Duke hasn't found anyone he liked.

"If Miss Emily went directly to Her Majesty the Queen, she would definitely treat Miss Emily well. Moreover, the deceased Duchess was also born a commoner, and Her Majesty the Queen had agreed to their marriage, so there was no way she would not allow Miss Emily to marry the Duke. Miss Emily looked like the Duchess, and the Duke liked her. They're in a happy relationship, and it's a good thing that they're pregnant. I don't understand why the Duke was so cold to Miss Emily after he found out that she was pregnant. Moreover, the Duke said that his inheritance would be shared between the young miss and Selina in the future, and Miss Emily wouldn't get any money. Why are you all laughing at me?"

Wu Pingting said, "Uncle Butler, if Emily got pregnant while they were being reckless, that would be a good thing. But you said that Duke Eton was careful. In other words, he still hasn't completely settled his heart with her. When he's with her, no matter how good their relationship is, he still doesn't have any plans to have a child for the time being. But she got pregnant. Women... Even though the miracle of pregnancy is amazing, it's not easy for a woman to get pregnant. To get pregnant, two conditions have to be met. First, the woman has to be ovulating, and second, the condom has to be damaged. Her boyfriend is a duke, after all. Even if the condom he used wasn't from a top brand, it at least couldn't be so bad that it would tear, right? And a woman's ovulation period only lasts for a few days. Duke Eton is a grand duke. He attends events everywhere, and he doesn't have the time to be with her every day. What a wonderful coincidence it is that she's gotten pregnant."

"Ah?"

Charles was shocked. He glared at her with an expression that looked like he had been deceived by the whole world. It was completely different from his normally handsome appearance. He usually looked like an extremely noble butler, but right now, he looked like a meme of a shocked dog.

Wu Pingting had never understood why people thought those dog memes were cute. She wondered why people liked using such ugly emoticons.

Chapter 2089: Intersection Crash

However, now Wu Pingting understood. Some people and some dogs were born with good features, and they just could not help the expressions that appeared on their faces.

She was amused by Charles' expression and laughed out loud.

As everyone giggled, the car drove into an intersection. Because it had to turn right, it had to make a big turn first. The five Land Rovers protecting the Rolls-Royce could not surround the car. They could only protect the front and behind. Suddenly, two modified off-road vehicles rushed out from both sides of the street.

Luntan drove on the left, so turning right required a large turn to be made. When the car reached the middle of the road and was about to turn, two large off-road vehicles suddenly rushed toward the middle of the Rolls-Royce.

Just as they were about to crash into the Rolls-Royce, something shot out from the front of the two cars. The protective frame that looked like an iron fence turned into a sharp spike in an instant and pierced the Rolls-Royce's middle.

Right where Nangong Nuannuan and the others were sitting.

"Ah..."

Wu Pingting was so scared that she screamed. Wu Zongyang's face was also pale. He subconsciously reached out to protect his sister by holding her in his arms.

After grabbing Wu Pingting with one hand, he used the other to hold Sze Lingyun.

However, Sze Lingyun broke free from his grip and threw a teacup at the car rushing toward them.

The teacup had been brought by Charles, who thought that Nangong Nuannuan's friends would like to enjoy a drink. His friend was from Camino and liked to drink tea, so he had specially poured black tea for them in the car. Sze Lingyun's teacup was still steaming with boiling water, but even so, her teacup could not be able to hit the driver! After all, the car windows were all closed.

Even if it hit him, would it be of any use?

At this critical moment of the collision, Wu Zongyang could not get Shi Lingyun, so he could only hold Wu Pingting in his arms. He was dumbfounded to see that, apart from him and his sister, the other people in the car, namely the butler, Chi Yang, and Nangong Nuannuan, were all unusually calm.

What he did not see when he turned his back to Sze Lingyun, was the teacup filled with boiling water that she threw flying into the off-road vehicle. The teacup smashed against his face, and the boiling water got into his eyes.

“Ahh!”

The driver could not even open his eyes because he had not expected to be attacked so suddenly. Besides, there was still a distance between the two cars, and the driver whose eyes were burned was in pain, so he swerved to the side.

The Rolls-Royce took advantage of this and quickly accelerated.

The engine sounded like it was about to explode. The entire car was speeding when the car from the other side that was about to hit them started giving chase.

The protective iron railings of the off-road vehicle slammed into a car, which suddenly veered to the side.

With a muffled bang, the second off-road vehicle crashed into the off-road vehicle in front of it. The impact of the crash and the speed the cars had been going at led to a 600-degree flip in the air, accompanied by a loud bang. The off-road vehicles crashed to the ground.

The bodyguards from Duke’s manor had already reacted in their five land rovers. Half of them jumped down from the vehicles and faced the group of people who had jumped out of the windows of the enemy vehicles, ready to shoot at the Rolls-Royce.

Chapter 2090: Special Website

A bullet was fired from the barrel of a gun, but it hit some bulletproof glass.

The bulletproof glass was not the most frustrating part. That was when the bodyguards got out of the car, armed to the teeth with high-performance machine guns. One of them was even carrying an anti-aircraft gun.

The enemy were stunned. They obviously had not expected their opponents to not only have so many thugs in Luntan, but bulletproof cars and tough bodyguards with high-performance weapons. Knowing that they had underestimated them and had been given a whacking, they retreated back into their off-road vehicle and turned around, wanting to drive away.

However, they had already provoked the Duke’s mansion, so how could his people let them escape?

The bodyguard carrying the anti-aircraft gun fired the moment their vehicles started back up, hitting the road not far from the car.

The big explosion blew up the engine of the car that was trying to rush away. The amazing front half of the car was blown up. It could no longer drive away, so the driver could only raise his hands and surrender.

They were not suicide bombers. They were just hired low-level mercenaries. There was no need for them to risk their lives for the sake of their employer.

The people in the vehicle shouted, "Surrender! We surrender!" as they threw their guns out of the car.

The other vehicle, which had died before the gunfire, had fallen to the ground after doing a somersault in the air. The people in the car were already panicking. They wanted to pick up their guns and fight, but then they heard a violent explosion. They were horrified to see that the other party had an anti-aircraft gun.

They knew that they must have angered someone powerful. Seeing that their teammates had surrendered, they also threw their guns out of the somersaulted car.

The people from the Duke's mansion split into two groups and quickly went forward to surround the two off-road vehicles with machine guns.

Seeing that each and every bodyguard had machine guns, the people in the cars were so scared that they did not say anything and just got out of the cars with their heads low. One after another, they knelt on the ground under the glares of the bodyguards of the Duke's mansion.

It was not until all these people were taken care of and interrogated that someone respectfully walked up to the Rolls-Royce and knocked on the car door.

The butler opened the window and asked, "How did it go? Did you interrogate them? Who are they?"

"They told us that they accepted the mission on a mercenary website, so they don't know each other. That website won't give us any information about the person who issued the mission, so we can only rely on ourselves to investigate."

Charles glanced at the group of people kneeling with disgust and said, "Disgusting sh*t flies, pulling this again! Don't let me find out who your boss is. If I find out, I'll skin him alive."

After scolding them, Charles turned his head to look at Nangong Nuannuan. He was already acting like her little lackey.

He first smiled at Nangong Nuannuan, but his handsome expression soon disappeared.

"Little Miss, this matter... is probably connected to you. Can you... can you help me find out who issued the mercenary order?"

Nangong Nuannuan smiled slightly. "Of course."

"Thank you, Young Miss!"

Nangong Nuannuan stretched out her hand. The butler immediately understood and took out a laptop from the car's glove compartment.

Opening the laptop, Nangong Nuannuan quickly looked through its files.

Sze Lingyun, Wu Pingting, and Wu Zongyang widened their eyes and watched as her fingers rapidly hacked into the mercenary website's network.
